sors' Note.—Formerly, in prescribing the notice to be given to a tenancy from year to year, this section drew a distinction land situated in a city or town and land situated outside of a wn. If the land was situated in the country, six months' notice ired; if in a city or town, three months' notice was necessary. case it was incumbent upon the party to give such notice prior d of any year (of the tenancy). The revised section abolishes action and prescribes a uniform notice of three months.

eement that tenant is to get a house at price therein stated for , and have preference each succeeding year, is not a tenancy r to year, and does not entitle tenant to legal notice to quit. v. Morris, 5 Grat. 90.

greement by tenant that he will surrender possession whenever ser of the land requires it makes him tenant at will, and not r to year. Harrison v. Middleton, 11 Grat. 527.

Kaufman v. Mastin, 66 S. E. 92 (W. Va.), it was held that a olding over and paying monthly rent beyond the term of a lease r, in which lease rent is reserved by the month and is payable ly periods, does not alone imply a renewal by the year. A of the tenancy by the month is thereby implied, 15 Va. Law

o tenant in default after five days' notice, see section 5448.

n of notice to quit by landlord to tenant from year to year,

Digitized by Google

4 Min. (3d Ed.) p. 1763; of notice by tenant from year to year of his in tention to quit, Id.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations chapter 93, section 5.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 373, 374.

Sec. 5517. Effect of failure of tenant to vacate premises at ex piration of term.—A tenant from year to year, month to month o other definite term, shall not, by his mere failure to vacate th premises upon the expiration of the lease, be held as tenant for an other term when such failure is not due to his wilfullness, negli gence or other avoidable cause, but such tenant shall be liable t the lessor for use and occupation of the premises and also fo any loss or damage sustained by the lessor because of such failur to surrender possession at the time stipulated.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new. See Grice v. Todd, 120 Va 481, 91 S. E. 609.

Sec. 5518. When tenant deserts premises, how landlord may ente etc.—If any tenant from whom rent is in arrear and unpaid sha desert the demised premises and leave the same uncultivated o unoccupied, without goods thereon subject to distress sufficient t satisfy the said rent, the lessor or his agent may post a notice, i writing, upon a conspicuous part of the premises, requiring the ten ant to pay the said rent, in the case of a monthly tenant within te days, and in the case of a yearly tenant within one month from th date of such notice. If the same be not paid within the time spec fied in the notice, the lessor shall be entitled to possession of th premises and may enter thereon, and the right of such tenant theret shall thenceforth be at an end; but the landlord may recover th rent up to that time. (Code 1887, § 2786; 1902-3-4, p. 588.)

Sec. 5519. Remedy for rent and for use and occupation.—Rent o every kind may be recovered by distress or action. A landlor may also, by action, recover (where the agreement is not by deed a reasonable satisfaction for the use and occupation of lands; o the trial of which action, if any parol demise, or any agreement (no being by deed) whereon a certain rent was reserved, shall appea in evidence, the plaintiff shall not therefor be non-suited, but ma use the same as evidence of the amount of his debt or damages. I any action for rent, or for such use and occupation, interest sha be allowed as on other contracts. (Code 1887, § 2787.)

Where landlord entered upon part of premises leased against tenant' will, and, without his consent, cut and removed hay therefrom, but te ant continued to occupy premises for residue of year, held landlord l such disturbance of tenant lost benefit of entire contract, and is n entitled to recover any part of rent. Briggs v. Hall, 4 Leigh 484.

A person cultivating land under an agreement for a division crops is an employee, and not a tenant. Parrish's Case, 81 Va. 1.

A court of equity will not enjoin insolvent landlord from issuin distress warrant merely because tenant has large set-offs against plai tiff's demands. Hancock v. Whitehall Tobacco Warehouse Co., 100 V 443, 41 S. E. 860.

This statute settles question raised in Eppes' Ex'rs v. Cole, 4 He

Digitized by Google

31, 4 Am. Dec. 512; Brooks v. Wilcox, 11 Grat. 411; Mickle v. ee, 5 Rand. 571; Com. v. Ricks, 1 Grat. 416; Dow v. Adams' 5 Munf. 21; Cooke v. Wise, 3 Hen. & M. 463. The statute pro- ecifically for interest, and these cases, therefore, do not apply. it of every kind may be recovered by distress, but there can be ess unless the relation of landlord and tenant exists. Church v. Iron Co., 112 Va. 694, 72 S. E. 685. For difference between a and a lease, see this case.

a case in bankruptcy before the Circuit Court of Appeals of ted States for the Fourth Circuit involving a construction of 5519, 5522, 5523 and 5524, see Bird v. City of Richmond, 240 5.

Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 4, 6.

Sprinkel v. Rosenheim, 103 Va. 187, 47 S. E. 883.

W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 93, section 7.

5520. Who may recover rent, etc.—He to whom rent or com- on is due, whether he have the reversion or not, his personal ntative or assignee may recover it as provided in the pre- section, whatever be the estate of the person owning it, or his estate or interest in the land be ended. And when the of real estate in fee, or holder of a term, yielding him rent, e rent thereafter due shall be recoverable by such owner's devisee, or such termholder's personal representative. And owner or holder alien or assign his estate or term, or the ereafter to fall due thereon, his alienee or assignee may re- ich rent. (Code 1887, § 2788.)

ent charge or ground rent on death of owner descends to heir. Ex'r v. Com., 97 Va. 670, 34 S. E. 460.

Sprinkel v. Rosenheim, 103 Va. 187, 48 S. E. 883.

5521. Who liable for it.—Rent may be recovered from the r other person owing it, or his assignee, or the personal rep- tive of either; but no assignee is to be liable for rent which due before his interest began. Nothing herein shall impair ge the liability of heirs or devisees for rent, as for other f their ancestor or devisor. (Code 1887, § 2789.)

Sprinkle v. Rosenheim, 103 Va. 187, 48 S. E. 883.

5522. When and by whom distress made.—Rent may be dis- for within five years from the time it becomes due, and not rds, whether the lease be ended or not. The distress shall e by a constable, sheriff, or sergeant of the county or city the premises yielding the rent, or some part thereof, may he goods liable to distress may be found, under warrant from e, founded upon an affidavit of the person claiming the his agent, that the amount of money or other thing to be ed for (to be specified in the affidavit), as he verily believes, y due to the claimant for rent reserved upon contract from son of whom it is claimed. (Code 1887, § 2790; 1902-3-4, p.

visors' Note.—As this section stood before the revision, it con- upon clerks of circuit and corporation courts the right to issue warrants. This provision was inserted by the amendment of

Digitized by Google

1902-3-4, p. 664, and no longer appears in the section. As the cler could not try the warrants and justices are always convenient, the seemed to be no reason for giving clerks power to issue distress warran

When agent to collect rent not authorized to sue out distress warra Fishburne v. Engledove, 91 Va. 548, 22 S. E. 354.

Form of affidavit for warrant for distress for rent reserved in mone 4 Min. (3d Ed.) p. 1619; of warrant for distress for rent reserved money, Id.

As to forthcoming bonds by tenants, and defense thereon, see se tions 6518, 6519, 6522.

As to distress for advances to tenants, see section 6454.

See Sprinkel v. Rosenheim, 103 Va. 187, 48 S. E. 883.

For a case in bankruptcy before the Circuit Court of Appeals the United States for the Fourth Circuit involving a construction sections 5519, 5522, 5523 and 5524, see Bird v. City of Richmond, 2 Fed. 545.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotatio chapter 93, section 10.

See Gregory's Forms No. 26.

Sec. 5523. On what goods levied.—The distress may be levied any goods of the lessee, or his assignee, or under-tenant, found the premises, or which may have been removed therefrom not mo than thirty days. A levy within such thirty days shall have li effect as if the goods levied on had not been removed from t leased premises. If the goods of such lessee, assignee, or und tenant, when carried on the premises, are subject to a lien, which valid against his creditors, his interest only in such goods shall liable to such distress. If any lien be created thereon while th are upon the leased premises, or within thirty days thereafter, th shall be liable to distress, but for not more than one year's re whether it shall have accrued before or after the creation of t lien. No other goods shall be liable to distress than such as a declared to be so liable in this section, nor shall the goods of t under-tenant be liable to a greater amount than such under-tena owed the tenant at the time the distress was levied. (Code 18 § 2791.)

Revisors' Note.—The second sentence of this section is new, as also the words "or within thirty days thereafter" appearing in the fou sentence. It was held in Geiger v. Harmon, 3 Gratt. 130, under t former language of the section, that the landlord's lien for a year's re did not extend to protect the tenant's property from execution except cases where the goods were on the premises leased. Under that holdi in order for the distress warrant to take priority over an execution, was necessary for the distress warrant to be levied within the thirty da and before the execution was levied. See discussion in Burks' Pl. & section 13. The new language overturns the holding in Geiger v. Ha mon, and now if a distress be levied on the goods within thirty days af their removal, the effect is declared to be the same as if the goods levi on had not been removed from the leased premises, and the lien fo year's rent applies to the goods within thirty days after their remo as well as while they are on the leased premises, hence a distress warra levied within the thirty days takes priority over an execution levi during the same period, whether levied before or after the levying

Digitized by Google

s warrant. It will be observed, however, that the language is ed to the lien of an execution.
atter part of the revised section prevents an injustice to the nt which he suffered under the old law. Formerly, the goods der-tenant were liable for the whole amount of the rent due ant, regardless of the state of accounts between the tenant and tenant (Bernard v. McClanahan, 115 Va. 453, 79 S. E. 1059); are not liable to a greater amount than the under-tenant owed at the time the distress was levied.
t of section.—At common law, goods of tenant taken in execu-gh remaining on the premises, were not the subject of distress ndlord lost his lien upon tenant's effects after the sheriff had them. The object of this section therefore was to protect the gainst liens created upon the property subject to distress upon emises, after the tenancy began, by providing that liens so ould be ineffectual to defeat landlord's right to recover for rent, whether such rent accrued before or after the creation ns, provided goods are distrained within five years from the ent becomes due. Sprinkel v. Rosenheim, 103 Va. 185, 188, 83.
of trust.—Tenant under lease for term containing no agree-renewal executed trust deed on personalty on premises. Afterdlord and tenant agreed on renewal different in terms from ase. Held, effect of renewal was a new tenancy commencing ution and record of trust deed which had priority over rent.
omattox v. Hamilton, 83 Va. 319, 2 S. E. 195.
e assignee of tenant holds over after year's lease, and lessor nt, such acceptance of rent constituted a new tenancy, and, f tenant having executed to creditor deed of trust on furniture iration of first year, such deed had priority over rent for term tenancy. City of Richmond v. Duesberry, 27 Grat. 210.
ant for a year executes deed of trust on part of his personal o secure one creditor, and then executes another deed to ther creditor, conveying all the property on leased premises.
on sale of property under distress rent is to be paid first out y not embraced in first deed, which is to be exonerated if other s sufficient. Jones v. Phelan, 20 Grat. 229.
nder-tenant.—See revisors' note above.
iability of an under-tenant does not arise out of contractual etween him and the lessor, but by virtue of the statute.
. McClanahan, 115 Va. 453, 79 S. E. 1059.
iability of the under-tenant's property continues while on the emises, and for thirty days after it is removed therefrom.
. McClanahan, 115 Va. 453, 79 S. E. 1059.
rally.—As to the case of Geiger v. Harmon, 3 Gratt. 130, see ote above.
is no authority for levying either a distress warrant or an t for rent upon property which has been removed from the emises for more than thirty days. Dime Deposit Bank v.
13 Va. 567, 75 S. E. 179.
ccupant of a room or rooms in a tenement is a lodger and not where the owner retains his character as master of the house, same time retains the general control over the whole house.
nchburg Y. M. C. A., 115 Va. 745, 20 Va. L. Reg. 24 and note, 589.
but not construed in Wickham v. Richmond Spike Co., 107
7 S. E. 647.
general discussion of sections 5523 and 5524 as they stood at see Wades v. Figgatt, 75 Va. 575; 11 Va. Law J. 445. As to op reserved as rent, see sections 6454, 6455.
a case in bankruptcy before the Circuit Court of Appeals of the

Digitized by Google

United States for the Fourth Circuit involving a construction of sec 5519, 5522, 5523 and 5524, see Bird v. City of Richmond, 240 Fed.

Under this and the following section, construed in connection the National Bankruptcy Act, the claim (lien) of the landlord fo rent of the premises in which the bankrupt was conducting his bus is superior to and entitled to priority over the claims of clerks for s for three months immediately preceding bankruptcy. Lott v. Sals 237 Fed. 191 (C. C. A., Fourth Circuit); In re Hyman, Id.

See Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 6, 11, 12, 13, 14.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotat chapter 93, section 11.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 26, 420, 421, 422, 423, 468, 469, 470,

Sec. 5524. When goods not to be removed without paying a y rent; lien for taxes, levies, and militia fines not affected.—If, the commencement of any tenancy, a lien be obtained or create deed of trust, mortgage, or otherwise, upon the interest or pro in goods on premises leased or rented, of any person liable fo rent, or the said goods be sold, the party having such lien, o purchaser of such goods, may remove them from the premise the following terms, and not otherwise, that is to say: on the t of paying to the person entitled to the rent so much as is in ar and securing to him so much as is to become due, what is so or secured not being more altogether than a year's rent in any If the goods be taken under legal process, the officer executi shall out of the proceeds of the goods, make such payment of is in arrear; and as to what is to become due, he shall sell a ficient portion of the goods on a credit till then, taking fro purchasers bonds, with good security, payable to the person s titled, and delivering such bonds to him. If the goods be not t under legal process, such payment and security shall be mad given before their removal. Neither this nor the preceding se shall affect any lien for taxes, levies, or militia fines. (Code § 2792.)

Revisors' Note.—The first sentence of this section now exp includes purchasers. They were probably provided for by the latte of the section, but it was thought best to make the language more ex

The trustee in a deed of trust given by the lessor on property it had been carried on leased premises cannot remove property leased premises without securing to lessor one year's rent. And tion of trustee to remove or sell said property is sufficient to wa swearing out of attachment. Offerdinger v. Ford, 92 Va. 63 S. E. 246.

The goods of the under-tenant cannot be subjected to the satisf of more than one year's rent. Bernard v. McClanahan, 115 Va. 79 S. E. 1059. But as to this see sections 5523, 5525 and revisors'

For a case in bankruptcy before the Circuit Court of Appeals United States for the Fourth Circuit involving a construction of se 5519, 5522, 5523 and 5524, see Bird v. City of Richmond, 240 Fed.

See notes to section 5523; Harvie v. Wickham, 6 Leigh 236.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 12, 13, 14.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annota chapter 93, section 12.

See Gregory's Forms No. 26.

Digitized by Google

5. When goods of an under-tenant may be removed from mises.—The preceding section is subject to the following s: An under-tenant, or a purchaser from him, or a cred- ng a deed of trust, mortgage, or other encumbrance cre- is goods after they were carried on the leased premises, ve the same upon payment of so much of the rent con- be paid by him as is in arrear, and securing the residue, ling one year's rent; and if his goods be taken under legal gainst him, the officer executing the same shall, out of the of his goods, make payment of so much of the rent as to is in arrear, and as to what is to become due from him, sufficient of the goods upon credit until then, taking from asers bonds with good security, payable to the party receive the same, and deliver them to him. (Code 1887, ors' Note.—This section is new. The under-tenant is put on footing as the tenant, except that the claim against him is the amount he contracted to pay. See revisors' note to section ng on the latter part of that section.

eference at the end of this section should be stricken out. otes to preceding section.

6. When officer may enter by force to levy distress or at- —The officer having such distress warrant, or an attach- rent, if there be need for it, may, in the day time, break enter into any house or close in which there may be goods he distress or attachment, and may, either in the day or ak open and enter into any house or close wherein there ny goods so liable which have been fraudulently or clan- removed from the demised premises. He may also levy ess warrant or attachment on property liable for the rent he personal possession of the party liable therefor. (Code 93.)

ors' Note.—The last sentence of this section is new. It changes n law, and probably the law of Virginia, but the levy at common y a private individual. Distress for rent has now become a oceeding, the levy is by an officer in the execution of process, is no reason why an officer may not levy a distress warrant on the personal possession of the tenant as well as an execution perty in the personal possession of the execution debtor.

7. When distress not unlawful because of irregularity, re distress shall be made for rent justly due, and any ir- or unlawful act shall be afterwards done by the party g, or his agent, the distress itself shall not be deemed to ful, nor the party making it be therefore deemed a tres- initio; but the party aggrieved by such irregularity or act may, by action, recover full satisfaction for the special e shall have sustained thereby. (Code 1887, § 2794.) damages for wrongful distress, see section 5783.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5528. Return of distress warrants; process of sale thereun—It shall be the duty of each officer, who under the present law r execute warrants of distress, except where it is otherwise provi by law, to make return of his action and proceedings upon s warrants as may be placed in his hands for collection, and file same with the clerk of the circuit or corporation court of his cou or city, as the case may be, within sixty days after the same r have come to his hands. Upon the return of such warrant it s be the duty of such clerk to enter the same upon the execution b of his office after the manner as now provided by law as to ex tions issued by justices and returned unsatisfied, and the said c shall preserve such warrant in his office as is now provided a such unsatisfied executions. If such return shall show that a l has been made and that property levied on remains unsold it s be lawful for the said clerk of the circuit or corporation court, as case may be, in whose office such return is filed to issue a wri venditioni exponas thereon just as if the said return were upo writ of fieri facias. (1897-8, p. 755.)

Sec. 5529. Remedy, when rent is to be paid in other thing t money.—Where goods are distrained or attached for rent reser in a share of the crop, or in any thing other than money, the cl ant of the rent, having given the tenant ten days' notice, or, i be out of the county, having set up the notice in some conspicu place on the premises, may apply to the court to which the att ment is returnable, or the circuit court of the county or the poration court of the corporation in which the distress is made ascertain the value in money of the rent reserved, and to ord sale of the goods distrained or attached. The tenant may make same defenses that he could to a motion on a forfeited forthcom bond given for rent, and may also contest the value of what reserved for the rent. The court shall ascertain, either by its judgment, or, if either party require it, by the verdict of a j impaneled without the formality of pleading, the extent of the bility of the tenant for rent, and the value in money of such r and if the tenant has been served with notice shall enter judgm against him for the amount so ascertained. It shall also order goods distrained or attached, or so much thereof as may be necess to be sold to pay the amount so ascertained. The officer char with the execution of such warrant or attachment shall make ret thereof to the clerk's office of the court, showing how he has ecuted the same. If the goods so directed to be sold prove in ficient to pay the amount of the rent so ascertained, an execut may be issued on said judgment as in case of other judgments, wh may be levied on such property as would be leviable under execution issued on a judgment in an action brought to rec the rent. (Code 1887, § 2795.)

Digitized by Google

ors' Note.—Under this section as it stood before the revision t clear what defenses the tenant could make, at what stage, the defenses should be made. It appeared that the court had to go further than to ascertain the value in money of the rent r a sale of the property. Presumably, if defenses were not t the time of the application to ascertain the value, when the ne to sell the tenant could give a forthcoming bond and make e to a motion on that bond. This involved two proceedings in o necessity being seen for this, the revised section makes provi- aving the entire litigation at one time and in one proceeding. wed in Brooks v. Wilcox, 11 Grat. 411.
ote of Parrish's Case, 81 Va. 1, under section 5519.
of affidavit for warrant of distress for rent reserved in kind, d Ed.) p. 1619; of distress for rent reserved in kind, Id. p. 1620; to tenant to ascertain the value of chattels distrained or at- l.
Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 10, 47.
W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 3, section 15.
Gregory's Forms Nos. 264, 364.

30. Proceedings to establish right of re-entry, and judg- refor.—Any person who shall have a right of re-entry into reason of any rent issuing thereout being in arrear, or by f the breach of any covenant or condition, may serve a on in ejectment on the tenant in possession, where there such tenant, or, if the possession be vacant, by affixing the on upon the chief door of any messuage, or at any other place on the premises, which service shall be in lieu of a and re-entry; and upon proof to the court, by affidavit in udgment by default, or upon proof on the trial, that the ned was due, and no sufficient distress was upon the prem- at the covenant or condition was broken before the service claration, and that the plaintiff had power thereupon to re- shall recover judgment and have execution for such lands. 87, § 2796.)

re lessor can exercise right of re-entry for failure to pay rent, demand payment, unless such demand is waived by terms of hnston v. Hargrove, 81 Va. 118.
provisions of section 5487 do not apply to action brought to ased premises under this section. Leonard v. Henderson, 23

W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 3, section 16.

31. When defendant barred of relief.—Should the defend her person for him, not pay the rent in arrear, with interest , nor file a bill in equity for relief against such forfeiture, velve calendar months after execution executed, he shall be f all right, in law or equity, to be restored to such lands or s. (Code 1887, § 2797.)

owner of ground rent in fee secured on land of another brings st tenant in possession and obtains judgment by default. At owner of land was an infant. On arriving at full age, but after from date of judgment, owner brings ejectment against former plaintiff. Held, that under this section he is barred. Leonard v. Hen son, 23 Grat. 331.

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, c ter 93, section 17.

Sec. 5532. How trustee or mortgagee relieved from the forfeit —Any mortgagee or trusteee of such lands not in possession the may, within twelve calendar months after execution executed the rent and all arrears, with interest and costs, or file a bill in e ty, for relief against such forfeiture; and thereupon may be relie against it, on the same terms and conditions as the owner of s lands or tenements would be entitled to. (Code 1887, § 2798.)

Sec. 5533. How owner, etc., relieved in equity.—If the owne such lands, or any person having right or claim thereto, shall, w in the time aforesaid, file his bill for relief in any court of equ he shall not have or continue any injunction against the proceedi at law on the ejectment, unless he shall, within thirty days n after a full and perfect answer filed by the plaintiff in ejectm bring into court, or deposit in some bank within the State to credit of the cause, such money as the plaintiff in ejectment shall his answers, swear to be due and in arrear, over and above all allowances and also the costs taxed in the suit, there to remain the hearing of the cause, or to be paid out to the plaintiff on g security, subject to the decree of the court. And in case the shall be filed within the time aforesaid, and after execution execu the plaintiff shall be accountable for no more than he shall, re and bona fide, without fraud, deceit, or wilful neglect, make of premises from the time of his entering into the actual possess thereof, and if it should be less than the rent payable, then the session shall not be restored until the plaintiff be paid the which the money so made shall fall short of the rent for the tim so held the lands. (Code 1887, § 2799.)

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, c ter 93, section 19.

Sec. 5534. How judgment of forfeiture prevented.—If any p having right or claim to such lands shall, at any time before trial in such ejectment, pay or tender to the party entitled to s rent, or to his attorney in the cause or pay into court, all the rent arrears, with interest and costs, all further proceedings in the ej ment shall cease. If the person claiming the land shall, upon filed as aforesaid, be relieved in equity, he shall hold the lan before the proceedings began, without a new lease or conveya (Code 1887, § 2800.)

Tender of rent to agent of owner before action of unlawful deta will defeat right of re-entry under terms of lease. Johnston v. Harg 81 Va. 118.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, c ter 93, section 20.

Sec. 5535. When suit for re-entry brought.—In case the time re-entering be specified in the instrument creating the rent, c ondition, the proceedings in ejectment shall not be begun time shall have elapsed. (Code 1887, § 2801.)

Digitized by Google

36. In case of actual re-entry, written act of re-entry to be and recorded, and certificate thereof published.—Where entry is made, the party by or for whom the same is made rn a written act of re-entry, sworn to by the sheriff or cer acting therein, to the clerk of the circuit court of y or corporation court of the city wherein the lands nts are, who shall record the same in the deed book, deliver to the party making the re-entry a certificate orth the substance of such written act, and that had been left in his office to be recorded, which certificate ublished at least once a week for two months successively, ewspaper published in or nearest to such county or cor- which publication shall be proved by affidavit to the sat- of the said clerk, who shall note the fact in the margin of d book against the record of the act of re-entry, in the Publication made and proved according to law. A. B., and shall return the original act of re-entry to the party hereto. Said written act of re-entry, when recorded, and d thereof, or a duly certified copy from such record, shall ce, in all cases, of the facts therein set forth. (Code 1887,

37. Fee of clerk.—The clerk shall be paid for recording, certificate, and noting publication, as aforesaid, one dollar cents, and shall collect and account for the same tax upon h act of re-entry offered for record as shall then be levied on deeds of conveyance. (Code 1887, § 2803.)

38. Within what time, and how, owner may be restored to ssion.—Should the person entitled to such lands at the time y made, or having claim thereto, not pay or tender the rent rrears thereof, with interest and all reasonable expenses in- bout such re-entry, within one year from the first day of on as aforesaid, he shall be forever barred from all right in uity to the said lands. In case any party having right shall nder the said rent and arrears, with interest and expenses aid, to the party making re-entry, within the time afore- d therefor, he shall be reinstated in his possession to hold as entry had not been made. (Code 1887, § 2804.)

39. Limitation of suit, etc., against person in possession by —No person who, or those under whom he claims, shall have sessed of lands by virtue of a re-entry for the term of two er the first day of July, eighteen hundred and fifty, shall be l therein by suit or otherwise for any defect of proceedings ntry. (Code 1887, § 2805.)

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 228.

Emblements.

Sec.
5540. Law of emblements.
5541. What rent tenant entitled to emblements to pay.
5542. Compensation to outgoing tenant for preparation of land for crop.
5543. How lessee from tenant life or other uncertain terest to hold; how paid and apportioned.

Sec. 5540. Law of emblements.—In all cases the right to em ments shall be as at common law. (Code 1887, § 2806.)

As to doctrine of emblements at common law, see 2 Min. (4th 102-106.

Where there is an order for foreclosure of mortgaged premises, marshal sells under such order, the growing crops thereon cultivate the mortgagor passes to the purchaser. The doctrine of emblements not apply to such case. Crews v. Pendleton, 1 Leigh 297, 19 Am. Dec.

Quaere, whether crops grown upon land which is embraced in of trust conveying same, and all crops now or hereafter grown ther pass under deed or are subject to lien of executions. Brockenbrou Ex'x v. Brockenbrough's Adm'r, 31 Grat. 580.

As to right of dowress to emblements, see section 5730.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, c ter 94, section 1.

Sec. 5541. What rent tenant entitled to emblements to pay.— tenant who is entitled to emblements, or his personal represe tive, shall pay a reasonable rent for so much land as the emblem shall occupy, in the same proportion as it shall bear in quan and value to the entire premises; and such rent shall be apportio among the owners of the reversion, if there be more than one, cording to their respective interests. (Code 1887, § 2807.)

Sec. 5542. Compensation to outgoing tenant for preparatio land for crop.—If any land has been prepared by the tenant pr ous to the expiration of the lease, for the purpose of putting a c into the ground, under such circumstances as would have entitled tenant, or his personal representative, to emblements, if the crop been put in, those who succeed to the land shall pay a reasona compensation for such preparation. (Code 1887, § 2808.)

Are "bulbs" crops? See 20 Va. L. R. 387.

Sec. 5543. How lessee from tenant for life or other uncertain terest to hold; how rent paid and apportioned.—If there be ten for life or other uncertain interest in land which is let to anot upon the determination of such life or other uncertain interest, lessee may hold the land to the end of the current year of the t ancy, paying rent therefor; the rent, if it be reserved in money, sh be apportioned between the tenant for life or other uncertain terest, or his personal representative, and those who succeed the land. If rent be reserved in kind, it shall be paid to the ten for life or other uncertain interest, or his personal representati and the said tenant or his personal representative, as the case m all pay to those who succeed to the land a reasonable rent, ney, from the expiration of the life estate or other uncertain st to the end of the current year of the tenancy; the rent to id to those who succeed to the land shall be a charge in prefer- o other claims on the rent received in kind by such tenant or ersonal representative. (Code 1887, § 2809.)

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 229.

Apportionment of Money Coming Due at Fixed Periods.

Sec.
Apportionment of rent, money, etc., in case of death of one interested. 5544.
Remedy of personal representative, etc. 5545.
5546. When chapter not to apply.
5547. Apportionment on purchase of part of land by holder of rent, or of part of rent by holder of land.

. 5544. Apportionment of rent, money, etc., in case of death e interested.—On the determination, by death or otherwise. e estate, or other thing, from or in respect of which any rent, or money coming due at fixed periods, issues or is derived, or e death of any person interested in such rent, hire, or money. erson, or the personal representative or assignee of the per- who would have been entitled, but for such death or deter- ion, to the rent, hire, or money coming due at any such period, have a proportion thereof, according to the time which shall elapsed of the time for which the said rent, hire, or other y was growing due, including the day of such death or de- nation, deducting a proportional part of the charges. (Code § 2810.)

. 5545. Remedy of personal representative, etc.—For recov- such proportion, the said person, representative, or assignee, after such fixed period, have such remedies as he would have or recovering the whole of such rent, hire, or other money, if ed thereto. (Code 1887, § 2811.)

. 5546. When chapter not to apply.—This chapter shall not to any case in which it is expressly provided that no appor- ent shall take place. (Code 1887, § 2812.)

. 5547. Apportionment on purchase of part of land by holder nt, or of part of rent by holder of land.—Where the holder of t shall purchase part of the land out of which the same issues, ent shall be apportioned in like manner as if the land had to him by descent; and where the holder of land, being part nd out of which a rent shall be issuing, shall purchase such or part thereof, the rent so purchased shall be apportioned oresaid. (Code 1887, § 2813.)

Digitized by Google

TITLE 54.

Money and Interest.

CHAPTER 230.

Money and Interest.*

Sec.
5548. The money of account.
5549. No writing invalid because not so expressed.
5550. In suits for foreign money, its value in the money of account to be fixed.
5551. Legal rate of interest.
5552. Contracts, etc., for more, illegal.
5553. Rate allowed to bankers, brokers and corporations.
5554. Plea of usury; evidence issue thereon; if contr usurious on its face, w judgment to be given.
5555. Excess over legal inter may be recovered back.
5556. Corporations not allowed plead usury.
5557. Nor, unless expressly auth ized, charge more than le interest.

Sec. 5548. The money of account.—The money of account of t State shall be the dollar, cent, and mill. All accounts by pub officers shall be so kept. (Code 1887, § 2814.)

Money and interest.—The following cases bear upon the general s ject of money and interest, though they do not construe any of the s tions of this chapter. Fox v. Taliaferro, 4 Munf. 243; McPerrin v. Ki 1 Rand. 172; Ross v. Norvell, 3 Munf. 170; Martin v. Hall, 9 Grat. Bell v. Alexander, 21 Grat. 1; Moffett v. Bickle, Id. 280; Counselman Holston Nat. Building & Loan Ass'n, 97 Va. 261, 33 S. E. 603; Junction R. Co. v. Bank of Ashland, 12 Wall, 226, 20 L. Ed. 385; Strayer v. Lo 83 Va. 715, 3 S. E. 372; Thorntons v. Fitzhugh, 4 Leigh 209. See 3 Law Reg. 62.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, ch ter 96, section 1.

Sec. 5549. No writing invalid because not so expressed.—No wr ing shall be invalid, nor the force of any account or entry be i paired, because a sum of money is expressed therein otherwise th in the said money of account. (Code 1887, § 2815.)

Sec. 5550. In suits for foreign money, its value in the money account to be fixed.—In any suit for a sum of money expressed any foreign currency or otherwise than in the money of account this State, the jury, if there be one impaneled for any other pu pose, and if not, the court, shall ascertain the value in the sa money of account of the sum so expressed, making such allowan

*For monographic note on Usury, see Coffman v. Miller, 26 Gr 698, Va. Rep. Anno.

Digitized by Google

difference of exchange as shall be just; and the judgment e may either be for what may be so ascertained, or for the noney expressed as aforesaid to be discharged by the sum ained. (Code 1887, § 2816.)

nfession of judgment for £1,800 Pennsylvania currency of the £1,440 Virginia currency, fixed the value. Strode v. Head, 2 9.

udgments for sterling money, the court should fix the rate of into current money if jury does not. Taylor v. McClean, 3 Call gh declaration alleges indebtedness in money of account of the d bill of particulars sets forth the items of account in sterling its value is calculated and expressed in Federal money in the rticulars this is sufficient to admit the introduction of evidence ctions between the parties in sterling money. The better prac- ever, is to declare in sterling money, and let jury ascertain its domestic money, or to state indebtedness in foreign money of of so much domestic currency. George Campbell Co. v. George Co., 91 Va. 438, 22 S. E. 167.

W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, chap- ction 3.

551. Legal rate of interest.—Legal interest shall continue to rate of six dollars upon one hundred dollars for a year, and onately for a greater or less sum, or for a longer or shorter d no person upon any contract shall take for the loan or nce of money or other thing above the value of such rate.
887, § 2817; 1916, p. 323.)

isors' Note.—This section is identical with section 2817 of the 887. That section was amended by Acts 1916, p. 323, but being n that the amendment was unnecessary, the revisors omitted it.

t constitutes usury.—In order to constitute usury, both parties consenting to the unlawful interest—that is to say, the lender to the borrower to give—and there must be proof of a loaning and g. Price v. Campbell, 2 Call 111, 1 Am. Dec. 535. Or a for- to collect existing debt. Myers v. Williams, 85 Va. 621, 8 S. E. West v. Belches, 5 Munf. 187; Childers v. Deane, 4 Rand. 406.

pound interest.—Not usurious upon settlement of accounts to for balance due, including interest, and to receive interest on e. Brown v. Brent, 1 Hen. & M. 4. See Kraker v. Shields, 20 8; Bird's Committee v. Bird, 21 Grat. 712; Young v. Hill, 27 2; Childers v. Deane, 4 Rand. 406; Pindall's Ex'x v. Bank of 10 Leigh 481; Fultz v. Davis, 26 Grat. 903.

chases and sales.—A fair purchase of a bond at any discount is ious. Kenner v. Hord, 2 Hen. & M. 14: Hansbrough v. Baylor, 36. Nor of bank stock at any price unless the object be to borrow t more than lawful interest. Greenhow's Adm'x and Heirs v. Munf. 472, 8 Am. Dec. 751; Selby v. Morgan, 3 Leigh 577; rough's Ex'rs v. Spindle's Adm'rs, 17 Grat. 21. Nor to sell bank very high price. Skipwith v. Gibson, 4 Hen. & M. 490. Nor to ed States 8 per cent. stock at par. Bull v. Douglas, 4 Munf. 303, ec. 518. See Moffett v. Bickle, 21 Grat. 280; Belton v. Apperson, 207. See note to Nichols v. Fearson, 7 Pet. 103, 8 L. Ed. 623.

not usurious to purchase bona fide without notice of purpose for was executed (though at large discount), a bond given to obligee ose of raising money for obligor. Hansbrough v. Baylor, 2 Munf. so to purchase negotiable notes endorsed by payee for benefit of nd sold by broker. Taylor v. Bruce, Gilmer 42. Though when agent the notes are blank as to payees. Brummel v. Enders, 18 3. Or though made for benefit of payee. Whitworth & Whitworth , 5 Rand. 333; Law's Ex'rs v. Sutherland, 5 Grat. 357. Or though broker advances money to maker before sale. Gimmi v. Cullen, 20 G 439. Or though note is payable to maker's own order. Mosely v. Bro 76 Va. 419; Bailey v. Hill, 77 Va. 492. But purchaser may be affec with knowledge by circumstances. Bailey v. Hill, 77 Va. 492.

Digitized by Google

Where property is sold bona fide, and not as a shift to cover a lo the deferred payments, by agreement at the time of sale, may be m to bear any rate of interest that the parties may agree upon without fringing the statute against usury. What is called interest is as muc part of the purchase price as the principal sum, and though it exceed legal rate the transaction is not usurious. Graeme v. Adams, 23 Grat. 2 14 Am. Rep. 130; Reger v. O'Neal, 10 S. E. 375; Kraker v. Shields, Grat. 398; Evans v. Rice, 96 Va. 50, 30 S. E. 463.

Penalties.—A penalty inserted in a contract, from which the pa may deliver himself, does not make such contract usurious, and the is the same where it is in the power of the party, by a compliance w his contract, to convert the penalty into a compensation for services r dered him by the other party. Pollard v. Baylors, 6 Munf. 433 (ov ruling Pollard v. Baylors, 4 Hen. & M. 223); Stratton v. Mutual Ass ance Society, 6 Rand. 22; Campbell v. Shields, 6 Leigh 517; Ward's Ad v. Cornett, 91 Va. 676, 22 S. E. 494, 49 L. R. A. 550; Graves v. Gra 1 Wash. 1; Winslow v. Dawson, 1 Wash. 118; Call v. Scott, 4 Call 402.

Bond without interest till maturity, but with interest at 8 per ce per annum after maturity, is not usurious on its face. The excess is garded as penalty, and not as usury. Ward's Adm'r v. Cornett, 91 676, 22 S. E. 494, 49 L. R. A. 550.

Deed of trust to secure such bond, given after its maturity, and tending the time of payment thereof, is not usurious, but furnishes secu for the principal and only legal interest thereon until paid. Id.

Bona fide holders.—Creditor induced debtor to allow him 15 per ce per annum upon debt, and to give bond as principal obligor, in wh the creditor joined as surety. The bond was passed to a third per to whom the amount was bona fide due, and who knew nothing of s usurious agreement. The debtor was entitled to no relief in equity aga such third person. Stone v. Ware, 6 Munf. 541.

Time from which interest runs.—Where a note provides for inte at a valid stated rate the debt bears interest at that rate until payme notwithstanding a judgment be obtained upon the note. Boswell v. Vein Pocahontas Coal Co., 217 Fed. 822. See section 6259, and notes.

Under the facts of this case it was held that interest was recovera on a debt for goods sold on a thirty-day credit at the legal rate of inte from the expiration of the credit until payment, including the period t the assets of the debtor were in the hands of a receiver in a suit to fo close a mortgage. American Iron Co. v. Seaboard Air Line, 233 U. 261.

The greater rate continues, in the absence of an agreement to contrary, after maturity of debt and until it is paid. Evans v. Rice, 96 50, 30 S. E. 463. See Cecil v. Hicks, 29 Grat. 1, 26 Am. Rep. 391.

Contracts of hazard.—Not usurious to contract to take, for the lo of 142 shares of bank stock for a year, 30 additional shares, as it i contract in which the principal is at hazard. Steptoe's Adm'rs v. Harve Ex'rs, 7 Leigh 501. See Smith v. Nicholas, 8 Leigh 330, next section.

State Bank of North Carolina discounted note, paying out there at face value, its own notes, which were below par, stipulating that ma should pay note in Virginia or other Northern bank notes. Virginia United States bank notes were at that time at par. The transaction is usurious. State Bank v. Cowan, 8 Leigh 238.

Bond given in 1863, for which borrower receives Confederate no at three for one of gold, payable on demand in current funds, is a contr in which the principal is at hazard, and not usurious. Boulware Newton, 18 Grat. 708; Hilb v. Peyton, 21 Grat. 386. But see Town Danville v. Sutherlin, 20 Grat. 555; Lynchburg v. Norvell, Id. 601.

Discount by individual.—Not usury for private individual to ded interest at time of discount of commercial paper, nor to reckon month year at 360 days, and to take interest at one-half of 1 per cent. . Parker v. Cousins, 2 Grat. 372, 44 Am. Dec. 388.

Digitized by Google

was conveyed to pay interest for three years in advance upon on plea of usury, creditor may show that the land was con- value estimated in reference to the annual interest for three he same should accrue upon the debt. Porterfield v. Coiner, ransaction on old debt.—Usury in transaction is purged by the f new bond with new parties, and last bond executed is valid. 'r v. Chandler, 18 Grat. 909, 98 Am. Dec. 762; Keckley v. Union Va. 458. But not where there is in fact the same principal l the transactions. Mathews' Adm'r v. Traders' Bank, 2 Va. 27 S. E. 609.

h usurious security be given for pre-existing valid debt, such l a valid obligation, and may be recovered. Parker v. Cousins, 2, 44 Am. Dec. 388.
r and creditor made a full settlement, the debtor transferring to dgments and debts to the amount of his debt, agreeing to make editor any deficit which might remain if any of them proved Debtor gave note to cover deficit, with third party as endorser. was founded on a new contract—on a new consideration—and in the previous notes given by debtor to creditor before their does not affect it. Coffman v. Miller, 26 Grat. 698.
rage and attorney's fees.—It is not usury for one to contract to r a certain sum, called "brokerage," to negotiate and guarantee him, and also to pay attorney's fees for making abstract of title perty whereon loan is secured, though said sums exceed lawful Keagy v. Trout, 85 Va. 390, 7 S. E. 329. See 7 Va. Law Reg.

earance" is the giving a further day for the return of a loan ime originally agreed on is passed. Graeme v. Adams, 23 Grat. m. Rep. 130.
ent in products.—Bond for the payment of £1,000, "or such m as shall be equal to the said £1,000, in 1774, that is to say, e as much land and as many negroes as it might have done at " was not usurious. Faulcon v. Harriss, 2 Hen. & M. 550.
ally.—Dating renewal note on day of payment of first note, he bank receives, under each note, interest for the same day, ry. Crump v. Nicholas, 5 Leigh 251; Parker v. Cousins, 2 Grat. m. Dec. 388.
isury to take one note bearing interest from date for several of which was undue. Keckley v. Union, 79 Va. 458.
ntract legal at time it is entered into cannot be made usurious ient events. Pollard v. Baylors, 6 Munf. 433; Southall v. Farish, 3-409, 7 S. E. 534, 1 L. R. A. 641; Ward's Adm'r v. Cornett, 91 2 S. E. 494, 49 L. R. A. 550.
agreed that A. will buy a piece of land as cheap as he can, and ll pay him $900 for it. A. pays $750 for the land, and conveys ho gives him his note for $900. Held not usury. Long's Ex'r 9 Leigh 556; Myers v. Williams, 85 Va. 621, 8 S. E. 483; Jones d, 6 Call 211.
sury in this case, though advanced shares receive less on final t than unadvanced shares. White v. Mechanics' Bldg. Fund Grat. 233.
of money to debtor to pay usurious debt is not usurious, not- ing the lender was aware of the purpose for which it was bor- Vaught v. Rider, 83 Va. 659, 3 S. E. 293, 5 Am. St. Rep. 305.
W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, chap- ction 4.

552. Contracts, etc., for more, illegal.—All contracts and es made, directly or indirectly, for the loan or forbearance y or other thing, at a greater rate of interest than is al- the preceding section, shall be deemed to be for an illegal consideration as to the excess beyond the principal amou loaned or forborne. (Code 1887, § 2818.)

Digitized by Google

Amendment of statute.—Though a contract at the time it was was void under the statute of usury, if at the time of the decre statute had been amended, and only avoids the contract for the int the decree should be for the principal with interest from the date decree. Mosby v. St. Louis, &c., Co., 31 Grat. 629; Bain v. Savage, 7 904; White's Adm'x v. Freeman, 79 Va. 597. Legislature may r valid contracts which were previously usurious. Smoot v. People's petual Loan Ass'n, 95 Va. 686, 29 S. E. 746, 41 L. R. A. 589; Boss Iron Belt Building & Loan Ass'n, 96 Va. 119, 30 S. E. 440.

Shifts to evade usury.—A tacit understanding between borrowe lender, founded on a known practice of the latter to lend money at interest if the borrower purchased of him a horse at an unreasonable is a shift to evade the statute against usury. Douglass v. McChesn Rand. 109.

When a proposition is made for a loan of money, and the l will only consent to lend a part of the money wanted on condition the borrower shall receive stock at a price much above the market to make up the deficiency, and the bargain is made on these terms, contract is usurious. Stribling v. Bank of Valley, 5 Rand. 132; Ba Valley v. Stribling's Ex'r, 7 Leigh 26.

Where a loan is made upon condition that the borrower shal to the lender an option to purchase his land at a price far below its the acceptance of the option is a usurious contract. Carter v. Hool Va. 812, 83 S. E. 386.

Contract usurious by which, nominally, C. sells J. 16 slave $2,335, J. agreeing to resell the slaves or such of them as survive at end of year for $2,935. Clarkson's Adm'r v. Garland, 1 Leigh 14

Excessive discount.—A note valid in its inception is afterwar dorsed by a party to whom it has regularly come to a third perso greater discount than legal interest; such transaction is usurious. worth v. Adams, 5 Rand. 333. See Hogshead v. Baylor, 16 Grat. 105.

It is usurious to take assignment of bond at greater discount legal interest, and take deed of trust from assignor to secure pa of bond. Bell v. Calhoun, 8 Grat. 22; Bank of Radford v. Kirby, 1 498, 42 S. E. 303. See note to Bank v. Kirby in 8 Va. Law Reg. 5

Fees, costs and commissions.—In consideration of forbearance, ment debtor agrees to give real security for debt and to pay costs a commission which bank had agreed to pay its attorney for colle Held usurious. Toole v. Stephen, 4 Leigh 581.

A sum allowed a creditor "for services rendered and settled," an ing to 9 per cent. per annum, was usurious; it appearing that th tended services were to secure debt for creditor's own benefit. St Ware, 6 Munf. 541.

If a lender, as the price of the extension of the time of paym a loan, requires the borrower to pay his attorney's fees for suits a lender in addition to legal interest, the transaction is usurious. of Pocahontas v. Browning, 111 Va. 237, 68 S. E. 1000.

See section 5564 and notes.

New transactions on old debts.—It is usury to take from debt renewal of bond, his own bond for part, and an assignment of third p bond, the two aggregating more than the debt. Gibson v. Fristoe, 62, 1 Am. Dec. 502.

A bond given to close a series of transactions between the oblige the obligor, though containing no usurious interest in it, yet, having given for money loaned on usury, is within the statute. Campbell v terson, 11 Leigh 117.

Nevertheless, under the circumstances of this case, the bond sho received as evidence of the amount advanced. Id.

A surety in a bond who had given a deed of trust to secure the executes another deed of trust to secure another debt of his principa to the same parties, in consideration of the forbearance of the cre

Digitized by Google

ler the first deed. Held, the second deed is given upon a nsideration, and is void. Hopkins v. Koonce, 6 Grat. 387.
nd contract is entered into, if first contract was usurious, all ncluded in it must have been excluded from the second or it is Graeme v. Adams, 23 Grat. 225, 14 Am. Rep. 130.

ases and sales.—A bond given by A. to S., the consideration as in part a debt due from A. to S., in part debts of A. which S. to pay, and for the balance bank and railroad stocks at prices
e their market value, is usurious. Bank of Washington v.
Grat. 173.

usury, in 1863, to purchase a $5,000 bond of the town of public auction for $11,050 Confederate currency, such cur-at the time ten for one of gold. Town of Danville v. Sutherlin, 55; City of Lynchburg v. Norvell, 20 Grat. 601. But see Boulwton, 18 Grat. 708; Hilb v. Peyton, 21 Grat. 386.

on bond or property.—It is usurious on a loan of money on y 6 per cent. per annum interest, and indemnify lender for any might impose on his bond. Meem v. Dulaney, 88 Va. 674, 63.

a building contract provided for six per cent. interest on loan r provided for payment of taxes and insurance premiums on onveyed to secure the loan, the contract was not tainted with ddle States Loan, &c., Co. v. Miller's Adm'r, 104 Va. 464, 51 fide holder.—Since the passage of the act embodied in this plea of usury cannot be sustained in an action on negotiable ght by a bona fide holder for value who acquired the same urity in due course of trade. Effect of such plea is to cast the proof on the plaintiff to show that he is such holder. When wn this he is entitled to recover. Lynchburg Nat. Bank v. Scott,

, 22 S. E. 487, 29 L. R. A. 827, 50 Am. St. Rep. 860. See note
e, 1 Va. Law Reg. 363.

act of hazard.—Where, upon a loan of money, the lender coneceive, in lieu of interest, something which may be worth more cent. per annum, though it may be worthless, as the dividends ock, the contract is usurious. Smith v. Nicholas, 8 Leigh 330.

ed to be for illegal consideration.—No part of usurious contract t by this section is only "deemed to be for an illegal consideraexcess," etc. Fischer v. Lee, 98 Va. 166, 35 S. E. 441. See
v. Adams, 5 Rand. 333.

ing and loan associations.—A member of a building association
ay, on loan of $1,000, $17 per month, of which $5 was set apart ks of the association for monthly interest, $2 for expenses, and e loan fund. The transaction is usurious. Crabtree v. Old Doilding & Loan Ass'n, 95 Va. 670, 29 S. E. 741, 64 Am. St. Rep.

how far building and loan association loans are usurious, see
. R. A. 129; 35 L. R. A. 244; 46 Am. St. Rep. 200. See, also,
Reg. 372, 585.

ct governing loans by building and loan associations, see chap-ct of laws as to interest rates, see McGuire v. Parker, 1 Wash.

in v. Povall, 8 Leigh 93; Fant v. Miller, 17 Grat. 47; Bowman v.
Grat. 331, 18 Am. Rep. 686; Backhouse Ex'x v. Selden, 29 Grat.
nal Mut. Building & Loan Ass'n v. Ashworth, 91 Va. 706, 22
Nickels v. People's Building & Loan Ass'n, 93 Va. 380, 25 S. E.
Bankers' Loan & Inv. Co., 95 Va. 680, 29 S. E. 744, 64 Am. St.
Building & Loan Ass'n v. Tinsley, 96 Va. 322, 31 S. E. 508;
Eastern Building & Loan Ass'n, 181 U. S. 227, 21 Sup. Ct. 597, 834; note to Slacum v. Pomery, 6 Cranch 221, 3 L. Ed. 204.

rally.—A debt to be usurious must be so in the beginning. It made so in subsequent accounts if by punctual payment the n avoid the payment of excessive interest. Ward's Adm'r v.

Digitized by Google

Cornett, 91 Va. 676, 22 S. E. 676. Ruffin v. Commercial Bank, 708, 19 S. E. 790.

An agreement to set the profits of mortgaged property against terest on loan is usurious when in any view of the case profits excee rate of interest. Robertson v. Campbell, 2 Call 421-430; Reyn Carter, 12 Leigh 166, 37 Am. Dec. 642.

W., in consideration of £300 cash, agrees to discharge T. of £1,200 due H. Held agreement is usurious. Watkins v. Taylor, 2 424, 5 Am. Dec. 486.

Contract usurious where debtor, owing shares of bank stock, with his creditor to pay him, at a future day, the market price stock at that day, or $150 per share, at the creditor's option, wi dividends. Smith v. Nicholas, 8 Leigh 330.

As to whether or not premiums paid life insurance company to debt to insurer are usurious, see note to 53 L. R. A. 462.

For discussion of the Doctrine of Usury, see 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 30

Cited in a review of the case of Munford v. McVeigh, 1 Va. L. S. 647.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, ter 96, section 5.

Sec. 5553. Rate allowed to bankers, brokers, and corporati Any licensed banker or broker, and any corporation authoriz law to make loans or to purchase or discount bonds, bills, or other paper, may loan money or discount bonds, bills, no other paper at a rate not exceeding one-half of one per cen thirty days, and may charge a minimum loan or discount fifty cents on loans or discounts for thirty days or more, and receive such interest in advance. (Code 1887, § 2819, 2820; p. 138.)

The law of usury applies to the banks, subject to the modifi prescribed by their charters. Stribling v. Bank of Valley, 5 Rand. 1

Taking interest in advance upon the whole amount of a no counted at bank is lawful. Id.

It is not usurious for bank to reckon 360 days as a year inst 365, the effect of which is to make the interest for a year a fractio than 6 per cent. per annum. State Bank v. Cowan, 8 Leigh 233.

On usury by National Banks, see note to Farmers & Mechanic Bank v. Dearing, 91 U. S. 29, 23 L. Ed. 196; First Nat. Bank v. Wa U. S. 151, 22 Sup. Ct. 457, 46 L. Ed. 475; Brown v. Marion Nat. 169 U. S. 416; Haseltine v. Central Nat. Bank, 183 U. S. 132, 22 S 50, 46 L. Ed. 118; National Exch. Bank v. Boylen, 26 W. Va. 554, 5 Rep. 113.

For a case relating to usury which was dependent upon the co tion of section 5198 of the Revised Statutes of the United Stat Baker v. Lynchburg Nat. Bank, 120 Va. 208, 91 S. E. 157.

Individuals have the right given to banks in this section as to interest in advance at the rate of one-half of one per cent. for thirt Parke v. Cousins, 2 Grat. 372. See, also, note "Discount by indivi under section 5551.

Cited in review of the case of Munford v. McVeigh, 1 Va. L. R 647.

Sec. 5554. Plea of usury; evidence on issue thereon; if co usurious on its face, what judgment to be given.—Any defe may plead in general terms that the contract or assurance on the action is brought was for the payment of interest at a g rate than is allowed by law, to which plea the plaintiff shall generally, but may give in evidence, upon the issue made up on, any matter which could be given in evidence under a s

Digitized by Google

n. Under the plea aforesaid, the defendant may give in any fact showing or tending to show that the contract or , or other writing upon which the action was brought, n usurious consideration. When the issue on such plea is the defendant, or if no such plea is made, and the con- assurance be in writing and shows that usurious interest therein contracted for, judgment shall be rendered for the sum only. (Code 1887, § 2821.)

ors' Note.—The last sentence of this section is intended to ex- t was believed to be the meaning of the former language.

a personal defence.—The plea of usury is a defence personal and so purchaser of land subject to a previous lien cannot object en is usurious, but is bound to discharge the lien as part of the e land. Spengler v. Snapp, 5 Leigh 478; Michie v. Jeffries, 21 ; Christian v. Worsham, 78 Va. 100; Dickenson v. Bankers' v. Co., 93 Va. 498, 25 S. E. 548; Saunders v. Baltimore Building ss'n, 99 Va. 140, 37 S. E. 775. For circumstances under which y enjoin sale, see Saunders v. Baltimore Building & Loan Ass'n, 0, 37 S. E. 775; Lee v. Feamster, 21 W. Va. 108, 45 Am. Rep.

quasi penal offense.—Facts constituting usury must be dis- eged and clearly proved. Smith v. Nicholas, 8 Leigh 330. The pleads usury must prove it; cannot make out prima facia case burden of proof. Harnsbarger's Adm'r v. Kinney, 6 Grat. 287. quasi penal offense, and to avail as defense must be established easonable doubt. Ward's Adm'r v. Cornett, 91 Va. 676, 22 S. E. . R. A. 550. Must be proved beyond a rational doubt to the Brockenbrough's Ex'rs v. Spindle's Adm'r, 17 Grat. 21. Must by clear and satisfactory preponderance of evidence. Evans v. a. 50, 30 S. E. 463. See Gilliam v. Clay, 3 Leigh 590.

nent for principal sum only.—In an action on usurious contract, ent is to be for the principal sum ascertained to be due after the usury and interest on that principal from date of the judg- ng v. Buck, 30 Grat. 828.

strument which on its face reserves more than the legal rate t is usurious in its inception, and judgment shall be rendered incipal sum only, though defendant files no plea of usury. Tur- ner, 80 Va. 379.

an action at law or suit in equity, the defense of usury be estab- lender can only recover the principal sum loaned or forborne. v. McVeigh's Adm'r, 92 Va. 446, 23 S. E. 857.

very may be had for the amount due him by a plaintiff suing on a contract, where usury is pleaded. Mathews' Adm'r v. Traders' a. Dec. 539, 27 S. E. 609.

fide holder.—Plea of usury cannot be sustained in an action able paper brought by a bona fide holder for value, who ac- same before maturity in due course of trade. Only effect of is to cast the burden of proof on the plaintiff to show that he lder; when he has shown this he is entitled to recover. Lynch- Bank v. Scott, 91 Va. 652, 22 S. E. 487, 29 L. R. A. 827, 50 Am. 60.

rally.—Land was conveyed to pay interest for three years in pon bond; upon plea of usury creditor may show that the land yed at a value estimated in reference to the annual interest for rs as the same should accrue upon the debt. Porterfield v. Grat. 55.

section, though in terms applicable only to a plea, is properly to a replication to a plea of setoff. Hope v. Smith, 10 Grat.

ff, upon bond surrendered by insolvent, brought action against ho pleaded as offsets two judgments against insolvent which he had recovered. Held, usury in the bonds upon which the judgments recovered cannot be set up to the judgments, and they are valid of Id.

Digitized by Google

Cannot compel defendant to discover usury by interrogatories, u section 6236. Hogshead v. Baylor, 16 Grat. 99.

A plea of usury of a foreign State must state what the law of usu in that State. Fant v. Miller, 17 Grat. 47.

Where the facts are agreed or found by a jury, it is the provin the court to say whether they amount to usury or not. Stribling v. V Bank, 5 Rand. 132; Brockenbrough's Ex'rs v. Spindle's Adm'rs, 17 21.

The defense of usury, where it is probably correct, ought at all to be received in a court of equity (so long as the case is within the p of that court) without annexing any unreasonable condition the Ellzey v. Lane's Ex'x, 4 Munf. 66.

Defendant may plead to scire facias, brought to revive a decree was obtained against him by default, that the original contract usurious. Lane v. Ellzey, 4 Hen. & M. 504.

Form of plea of usury to debt on bond, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) p. 1749.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, ter 96, section 6.

See Gregory's Forms No. 180.

Sec. 5555. Excess over legal interest may be recovered bac If an excess beyond the lawful interest be paid in any case for loan or forbearance of money or other thing, the person paying same may in a suit or action brought within one year there recover the full amount of such payment from the person whom the contract was made or to whom the assurance was gi and it may be so recovered from such person notwithstanding payment of the excess be made to his indorsee or assignee. If p erty has been conveyed to secure the payment of the debt a sale thereof is about to be made, or is apprehended, an injun may be awarded to prevent such sale pending the suit or ac (Code 1887, § 2823; 1895-6, p. 154; 1897-8, p. 372.)

Revisors' Note.—The changes made in this section consist in the tion of the words "or action" in line three of the text, the substitut line four of the words "the full amount of such payment" for the "it" contained in section 2823 of the Code of 1887, and the addition last sentence, which is taken from section 2822 of the Code of There is also omitted from section 2823 the latter part of that se which barred relief upon the plea of usury after one year from renew certain paper with banks or bankers. The omission just referred to made because in some instances it would work great hardship on the rowers, and also no good reason was perceived why banks and ba should stand on any different footing from other creditors. The st!tution above mentioned of the words "the full amount of such payn for the word "it" is not intended to make any material change in th sult.

Section 2822 of the Code of 1887, with the exception of the last tence thereof (which is now the last sentence of section 5555, above) been omitted. Said section 2822 appears in the Code of 1887 in the language of the Code of 1849. At the last mentioned date usury ren the contract absolutely void, and interest disqualified a witness to te The remedy afforded by that section, however, was given to enabl borrower to appeal to the conscience of the lender, and make him di the usurious transaction, but as the price of his appeal, the borrowe required to pay the principal sum. The disqualification of interest h been removed, there is no longer any necessity for a suit appealing t

Digitized by Google

of the lender, for in any action to recover the amount, he can ed as a witness, and if it appears that the contract is usurious, led by section 5552 that the contract shall be deemed to be for consideration as to the excess beyond the principal amount so forborne, so that the creditor cannot recover anything except al. If, however, the lender has made payments on the usurious hat case is provided for by section 5555 of this Code.
cation of payments on usurious contracts.—Where payments made on a usurious debt, and the debtor has failed to apply the specifically, the court should first eliminate the usury, if any, rincipal of the debt, and apply the payments to the sum actually forborne. Munford v. McVeigh's Adm'r, 92 Va. 446, 23 S. E.

e payments have been made upon a debt upon which a greater terest than that allowed by law is reserved in the contract, or n order to secure the forbearance of the lender, and the bor-self applies the payment to the interest, or the lender so applies assent of the borrower, the appropriation so made will not be unless within one year thereafter a suit be instituted by the
for its recovery, or a suit be brought by the lender within that which case the borrower may set it off against the demand for s sued. Munford v. McVeigh's Adm'r, 92 Va. 446, 23 S. E. 857;
& Deposit Bank v. Fugate, 93 Va. 821, 23 S. E. 884; overruling Scott, 4 Rand. 415; Turner v. Turner, 80 Va. 379; Meem v.
8 Va. 674, 14 S. E. 363.
e there is usury in the contract as distinguished from the reser-a greater rate of interest than is allowed by law, as where the expressed to be for a greater sum than that actually loaned or in a suit either by the lender or borrower, at law or in equity, duty of the court, usury being established, to eliminate the principal, and then apply the rule as to payments as hereinlared, applying all unappropriated payments in satisfaction of pal sum justly due, and leaving undisturbed such payments as have themselves applied, and upon the principal so ascertained ould be allowed at the legal rate from the date of the judgecree. Munford v. McVeigh's Adm'r, 92 Va. 446, 23 S. E. 857.
o this case 1 Va. Law Reg. 750.
e payments have been made upon a usurious contract, and the himself applies the payment to the interest, or the lender so ap-h the assent of the borrower, the appropriation so made will not ed unless within one year thereafter a suit be instituted by the
for its recovery, or a suit be brought by the lender within that which case the borrower may set it off against the demand for is sued. Munford v. McVeigh's Adm'r, 92 Va. 446, 23 S. E. oved. Crabtree v. Old Dominion Building & Loan Ass'n, 95 Va.
E. 741, 64 Am. St. Rep. 818; Bank of Radford v. Kirby, 100
2 S. E. 303. See Exchange & Deposit Bank v. Fugate, 93 Va.
E. 884. Also Spengler v. Snapp, 5 Leigh 478; Moseley v. Brown, 9; Clarkson's Adm'r v. Garland, 1 Leigh 147.
ing fund associations.—In ascertaining the amount to be de-inst a borrowing member of a building fund association whose f borrowing has been declared usurious, but who has made no within twelve months before suit, a balance should be struck at f his last payment, and no charge thereafter made for interest, ines. He should be credited by his interest payments and the l value of his stock, and a decree should be pronounced for the ie, with interest from date of the decree. Crabtree v. Old Doilding & Loan Ass'n, 95 Va. 670, 29 S. E. 741, 64 Am. St. Rep.
chapter 166 and notes.
rally.—A charge of usury being explicitly denied by the defen-wer, the plaintiff has not a right to an order requiring him to is books and papers for the purpose of establishing such charge.
's Adm'x and Heirs v. Harris, 6 Munf. 472, 8 Am. Dec. 751.
ancery court doubts whether sale of property was intended as a

Digitized by Google

shift to evade the statute against usury, it should direct an Douglass v. McChesney, 2 Rand. 109.

In all cases where a party applies to a court of equity for against a usurious contract, he can only be relieved upon payment of cipal without interest. Young v. Scott, 4 Rand. 415.

Court should consider rate of usury 2½ per cent. per month plaintiff charges usury of about 2½ or 3 per cent. per month, and is no proof to ascertain rate. Fulcher v. Baker, 1 Leigh 453.

Having sought full relief in equity, borrower only relieved upo terms of paying the principal money due. Turpin v. Povall, 8 Leigh Campbell v. Patterson, 11 Leigh 117. See Rankin's Ex'r v. Ran Adm'rs, 1 Grat. 153; Bank of Washington v. Arthur, 3 Grat. 173; M
v. Hall, 9 Grat. 8.

Court of equity will not compel the obligee to establish his cla law before proceeding to enforce his security. Bank of Washingt Arthur, 3 Grat. 173.

On bill to enjoin sale under deed of trust, proper relief is not t petuate the injunction for the whole amount of the bond and its in due but only for amount of usurious premium. Bell v. Calhoun, 8 22.

If usury be expunged, the usurious assurances remain as securit the valid debt. Martin v. Hall, 9 Grat. 8.

Decree should be for principal loaned, with interest from date cree, where statute has been amended, and only avoided contract as terest, and not principal, as formerly. Mosby v. St. Louis Mut. Ins 31 Grat. 629; Bain v. Savage, 76 Va. 904.

Though notes be usurious and null, yet if part of their consider was a valid debt, which continues to be a valid debt, the decree shou for the principal of the new notes, with interest on the pre-existing from the time it was entitled to bear interest. White's Adm'x v. Free 79 Va. 597. See Bank of Washington v. Arthur, 3 Grat. 173.

Where a borrower who has paid no part of the principal or usu interest, comes into chancery, he must be required to pay only the cipal sum loaned or forborne. Turner v. Turner, 80 Va. 379; Edm Ex'r v. Bruce, 88 Va. 1007, 14 S. E. 840.

Error to dismiss bill filed under section 2822 of the Code of 18 the ground that plaintiff has ample remedy at law. Ruffin v. Comm Bank, 90 Va. 708, 19 S. E. 790.

The answer of the creditor under oath, when responsive to the must be accepted as true, in the absence of other evidence sufficie overcome such answer. Ward's Adm'r v. Cornett, 91 Va. 676, 22 494, 49 L. R. A. 550. See Sneed v. Smith, 1 Pat. & H. 46; Wise v. I 9 Grat. 294; Terry v. Dickinson, 5 Va. Law J. 393.

Judgment debtor, who has defended action against him on g of usury, cannot have relief in equity on same grounds. Harnsba Adm'r v. Kinney, 13 Grat. 511. But court of equity will relieve aga judgment by default on a usurious contract. Greer v. Hale, 95 Va.
28 S. E. 873, 64 Am. St. Rep. 814. See Brown v. Toell's Adm'r, 5
543, 16 Am. Dec. 759.

The measure of relief is the same in all cases involving the c of usury, whether at law or in equity, no matter in what way the qu is presented, if the usury be established. Id.

Several bills filed to set up usury, the first filed entitled to prio usury established. Ryan v. Krise, 89 Va. 730, 17 S. E. 128.

See article 17 Va. Law Journal 295.

Sec. 5556. Corporations not allowed to plead usury.—No cor tion shall, by way of defense or otherwise, avail itself of an the provisions of the preceding sections of this chapter, to avo defeat the payment of any interest which it has contracted to nor shall anything contained in any of said sections be constru prevent the recovery of such interest, though it be more than

Digitized by Google

st, and though that fact appear on the face of the contract. 1887, § 2825.)

his section was retroactive in its operation, and applied to contracts before its passage, though suit had been brought upon such contracts its passage. The section was held to be not in violation of the tution of the United States or that of Virginia. Town of Danville v. 25 Grat. 1, 18 Am. Rep. 663.

ureties of corporation cannot defend on ground of usury. Rosa v. field, 33 N. Y. 665. Nor can endorser for accommodation of cor- on. Stewart v. Bramhall, 74 N. Y. 85.

. 5557. Nor, unless expressly authorized, charge more than interest.—Nothing in the act of incorporation of any insur- banking, or other corporation, shall be construed as giving rity (unless expressly given), to charge, take, or receive, for oan or forbearance of money or other thing, more than the rate of interest. (Code 1887, § 2826.)

Though court cannot, by charter, create a corporation with power ke contracts contrary to usury laws, the Legislature may. Smoot v. le's Perpetual Loan Ass'n, 95 Va. 686, 29 S. E. 746, 41 L. R. A. 589; ree v. Old Dominion Building & Loan Ass'n, 95 Va. 670. Section 154 e Constitution of Va.

Digitized by Google

TITLE 55.

Contracts.

Ch. 231. Gaming contracts.
232. When written evidence is required to maintain acti and of scroll by way of seal, and impression on pa
233. Negotiable instruments.
234. Public holidays; contracts in writing; actions the and assignments.
235. For the relief of sureties.

CHAPTER 231.

Gaming Contracts.

Sec.
5558. Gaming contracts void.
5559. Recovery of money or property lost in gaming.
5560. Bill by loser against wi upon repayment, winne charged from other fo ures.

Sec. 5558. Gaming contracts void.—All wagers, conveyances surances, and all contracts and securities whereof the whole or part of the consideration be money or other valuable thing, laid, or bet, at any game, horse-race, sport or pastime, and all tracts to repay any money knowingly lent at the time and pla such game, race, sport or pastime, to any person for the purpo so gaming, betting, or wagering, or to repay any money so len any person who shall, at such time and place, so pay, bet or wa shall be utterly void. (Code 1887, § 2836.)

Generally.—M. having won money of W. at cards, and J. wo same sum of M., the bond of W., given at the request of M. to J that sum, is void. Woodson v. Barrett, 2 Hen. & M. 80, 3 Am. Dec.

Promissory note given for money lent at the time and place of ing a bet upon a presidential election, for the purpose of making th is void. Machir v. Moore, 2 Grat. 257.

Where any instrument is absolutely void in its creation, it cann made valid by any subsequent transaction arising out of it. Woods Barrett, 2 Hen. & M. 88, 3 Am. Dec. 612.

Lender of money is not bound to inquire of his borrower wh wanted the money for, nor is he to be affected by any use which bor chooses to make of the money. Krake v. Alexander, 86 Va. 206 9 S. E. 991.

A testator directing all his just debts to be paid does not auth the payment of a gaming debt of his, and devisee can hold devise of gaming debt charged upon it. Carter's Ex'rs v. Cutting, 5 Munf.

An executor ought not to be allowed a credit for paying a de his testator, appearing, on the face of the written instrument int e it, to have been for money won at unlawful gaming. Carter's Cutting, 5 Munf. 223.

Digitized by Google

nbling machine not recoverable in an action of replevin. Board e Com'rs v. Wagner, 93 Md. 182, 48 Atl. 455, 52 L. R. A. 775, St. Rep. 423.

50 L. R. A. 762, note, as to acts prohibiting options for sale of commodities.

15 L. R. A. 836, note, as to recovery for goods sold to aid busi- gaming.

m of plea to debt on bond that it was used for money won by 4 Min. (3d Ed.) p. 1749.

Gregory's Forms No. 177.

tnership.—One of two partners qualifies as administrator of the nd there is personal property belonging to the partnership. The trator cannot question the title of his intestate to his moiety of perty, on the ground that it was bought and used for gambling . Watson v. Fletcher, 7 Grat. 1.

ler.—M. being indebted to D. for money won at gaming accepts favor of T. drawn by D. for the same, T. having no knowledge gaming. T. obtains judgment on acceptance, and M. files bill ef. The chancellor dissolves the injunction, and allows T. to his judgment at law against M., but decrees that, upon M.'s he amount of the debt to T., D. shall pay the same amount to d, decree is right in all respects. Dade's Adm'r v. Madison, 5 01. See Pettit v. Jennings, 2 Rob. 676.

ignee or endorsee.—The assignee of a bond for money won at cannot recover though the assignment was for a valuable con- on, and though he had no notice of the origin of the bond, he obligor, before the assignment, induces him to take the bond ising to pay him the money. Buckner v. Smith, 1 Wash. 296 Dec. 463; Hoomes v. Smock, 1 Wash. 389; Woodson v. Barrett, & M. 80, 3 Am. Dec. 612; Pettit v. Jennings, 2 Rob. 676. See dm'r v. Thomas, 5 Leigh 1. But indorsee may recover of in- upon implied contract of indorsement. Moffett v. Bickle, 21 0.

count by bank.—A discount by a bank of a note, in ignorance of that the proceeds were to be used in gambling in stocks, is not he purview of this section, notwithstanding the endorser knew proceeds were to be so used. Citizens Nat. Bank v. McDannald, 834, 83 S. E. 389.

endorser of a note who has notice that the proceeds thereof were sed in a gambling transaction, may acquire a good title from a ich discounted the note without such notice. Citizens Nat. Bank nnald, 116 Va. 834, 83 S. E. 389.

Lynchburg Nat. Bank v. Scott, 1 Va. Law Reg. 363, note, for dis- between a note tainted with mere illegality and one evidencing act declared by statute to be void, when either is in the hands a fide holder for value.

uitable relief.—Equity will relieve the obligor of a bond given for considerations against a judgment obtained against him by de- nd will also relieve sheriff against a judgment obtained against an error committed in executing writ of elegit issued upon the ned judgment (Woodson v. Barrett, 2 Hen. & M. 80, 3 Am. Dec. nough party gives no good reason for failure to defend (Skip- Strother, 3 Rand. 214); and though he elects to defend at law, surprised on the trial he will be relieved (White v. Washington's Grat. 645).

court of equity will relieve against that part of bond which is and sustain that which is good when obligor is plaintiff. Skip- Strother, 3 Rand. 214.

to issue out of chancery, see Nelson's Adm'r v. Armstrong, 5 54.

Digitized by Google

A court of equity will not lend its aid for the settlement and adj ment of the transactions of a partnership for gambling, nor give r to either partner against the other. Watson v. Fletcher, 7 Grat. 1.

The fact of a bond being on a gaming consideration cannot be es lished against a defendant who is the assignee by the answer of his defendant, the obligee and assignor. Hoomes v. Smock, 1 Wash. Dade's Adm'r v. Madison, 5 Leigh 401; Pettit v. Jennings, 2 Rob.

W. Va. decisions.—For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, Justis' Annotations, chapter 97, section 1.

Sec. 5559. Recovery of money or property lost in gaming.— person who shall, by playing at any game or betting on the side hands of such as play at any game, lose within twenty-four ho the sum or value of five dollars, or more, and pay or deliver same, or any part thereof, may, within three months next follow recover from the winner, the money or the value of the goods lost and paid or delivered, with costs of suit in civil action, ei by suit or warrant, according to the amount or value thereof. (C 1887, § 2837.)

Revisors' Note.—The amount has been reduced from seven dol to five dollars. Section 2839 of the Code of 1887 which provi when any other person than the loser might recover treble the valu the money or property lost in gaming has been omitted and the repealed.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotati chapter 97, section 2.

Cited but not construed in McIntyre v. Smith, 108 Va. 736, 62 S 930.

Sec. 5560. Bill by loser against winner; upon repayment, wi discharged from other forfeitures.—Such loser may file a bill equity against such winner, who shall answer the same, and u discovery and repayment of the money or property so won, or value, such winner shall be discharged from any forfeiture punishment which he may have incurred for winning the sa (Code 1887, § 2838.)

This section should be so construed as to embrace all forms gambling that its language is broad enough to cover. McIntyre Smith, 108 Va. 736, 62 S. E. 930.

See Gregory's Forms No. 137.

CHAPTER 232.

When Written Evidence is Required to Maintain Actions; and of Sc by Way of Seal, and Impression on Paper.

Sec.		Sec.
5561.	When written evidence is required.		of seal; impression on pa as valid as on wax.
5562.	When scroll good by way

Sec. 5561. When written evidence is required.—No action sh be brought in any of the following cases:

First, To charge any person upon or by reason of a represen tion or assurance concerning the character, conduct, credit, abil

Digitized by Google

dealings of another, to the intent or purpose that such obtain thereby, credit, money, or goods; or,
To charge any person upon a promise made, after full y a debt contracted during infancy, or upon a ratification age, of a promise or simple contract made during infancy;

To charge a personal representative upon a promise to ny debt or damages out of his own estate; or,
To charge any person upon a promise to answer for the ault, or misdoings of another; or,
Upon any agreement made upon consideration of mar-

Upon any contract for the sale of real estate, or for the reof for more than a year; or,
, Upon any agreement that is not to be performed within the promise, contract, agreement, representation, assur-ratification, or some memorandum or note thereof, be in nd signed by the party to be charged thereby, or his t the consideration need not be set forth or expressed in g, and it may be proved (where a consideration is necesother evidence. (Code 1887, § 2840.)

ction 1.—For discussion of this subdivision, see 3 Va. Law ase before the statute, see Lang v. Lee, 3 Rand. 410.

ction 2.—No particular form of words is necessary, but the st import an unequivocal and unconditional recognition and on of previous engagement, though they need not amount to romise to pay. The memorandum or writing must recognize as binding on the person who signs it, and must, in express by fair construction, refer to the contract to be ratified, and still subsisting. If, however, it be such writing as would bind l, who was an adult, as a ratification of the act of a party his agent, it will be sufficient. Ward v. Scherer, 96 Va. 318, 18.
the undertaking is to do a collateral thing under seal, or transaction is an executed contract, the statute appears in-
, and, if so, the confirmation of such transaction may be as at aw. 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 526.
stricted to actions against the infant, and does not cover case is plaintiff. Hilton v. Shepherd, 92 Me. 160, 42 Atl. 387.
Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 307, note; 5 Va. Law Reg. 265.

ction 3.—If an executor promises, in writing, to pay a debt of or, and at the time of his promise he has in his hands assets for that purpose, such assets constitute a sufficient considera-the executor is personally liable to pay the debt. Taliaferro 2 Call 258. See 2 Lom. Ex. & Ad. 274, 275, and cases cited.
rol agreement by an executor to pay a legacy out of his own not void under this subsection, if a decree was previously for the legacy, to be satisfied out of certain property appointed tator, for a part of which property the executor was accountable decree, and responsible de bonis propriis, and such agreement in consideration of forbearance to enforce the decree. Patton ns, 3 Munf. 59.
ssumpsit against an executor, in his individual character, for the price of goods sold and delivered to him for the use of his testa widow and legatees, upon evidence being given of such sale and deliv of a promise by the defendant to pay for the goods out of his testat estate, and of assets sufficient for that purpose, the plaintiff may reco although the promise was not in writing. Collins' Adm'x v. Row Leigh 114.

Digitized by Google

Subsection 4—Generally.—As to the four requisites which must cur to make a promise under this subdivision binding, see 2 Va. Reg. 464.

It is not necessary that promise should be made at the reques the person whose debt the promisor assumes, or at the request of creditor. Colgin v. Henley, 6 Leigh 85.

This subsection does not require that a writing evidencing a pro to pay for the debt of another shall show on its face the agreement tween the parties in order to be valid. It only requires that the pro shall be in writing. Saunders v. Bank, 112 Va. 443, 71 S. E. 714.

A negotiable note made by third parties upon valuable considera and given to the creditor as collateral security for, or in part paymen a debt due by another is a sufficient compliance with this clause. Saun v. Bank, 112 Va. 443, 71 S. E. 714.

A guarantor may specify, in the letter of credit which he gives, terms on which he will be bound, and if these terms are complied he is bound. Wadsworth v. Allen, 8 Grat. 174, 56 Am. Dec. 137.

A guarantor undertaking to pay upon receiving reasonable no of the failure of the principal debtor to pay the debt when due dispe with notice of acceptance of the guaranty by the parties to whom addressed, even if the law would have required such notice. Id.

Consideration.—Promise, though in writing, must be founded consideration to make it binding. Parker v. Carter, 4 Munf. 273, 6 Dec. 513; Colgin v. Henley, 6 Leigh 85; Beers v. Spooner, 9 Leigh Saunders v. Bank, 112 Va. 443, 71 S. E. 714.

This section does not apply to promise to pay another's debt, w is founded on a new consideration, and there are newly contrac parties. Skinker v. Armstrong, 86 Va. 1011, 11 S. E. 977; Wrigl Smith, 81 Va. 777; Hopkins v. Richardson, 9 Grat. 485.

Original undertakings not within the statute.—A promise b surety that he will indemnify another if he becomes co-surety with on the debt of a third person is an original undertaking and not w the statute. Wolverton v. Davis, 85 Va. 64, 6 S. E. 619, 17 Am Rep. 56, disapproved; Alphin v. Lowman, 115 Va. 441, 79 S. E. 1 See editorial on this case, 19 Va. L. Reg. 785.

For an extended discussion of this paragraph, see opinion of K P., in Alphin v. Lowman, 115 Va. 441, 79 S. E. 1029.

This section does not apply where R. assigns bond of G. to K enable K. to purchase goods on the credit of his assignment, and g antees the payment of the bond by indorsement on the back thereof. K. purchases goods of H. on the credit of that assignment and guara Hopkins v. Richardson, 9 Grat. 485.

An agreement by a bank to discount notes with certain colla and to carry the loans until a third party can sell the collateral stated price and pay the notes from the proceeds, is an original un taking on the part of the bank and need not be in writing, although discount is a part of a scheme on the part of such third party to def the makers. Baker v. Berry Hill Co., 109 Va. 776, 65 S. E. 656.

Two joint debtors, A. and B., secured the debt on land. A. more than his share. B.'s land was sold, purchaser agreeing to stated sum, plus the excess paid by A. The promise is not within statute. Skinker v. Armstrong, 86 Va. 1011, 11 S. E. 977.

Ross intending to build a mill on a stream, Chapman verbally ag for a consideration to indemnify him against all injury which he sh sustain by the erection of a dam on the stream by third person; agreement is not within the statute. Chapman v. Ross, 12 Leigh

A verbal promise upon valuable consideration to pay the del

Digitized by Google

already contracted is not within this section. Goode v. Bryant, 314, 87 S. E. 588, 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 150.

positive personal undertaking of one person to pay for goods ivered to another is not within the statute of frauds. Kanter v. er, 118 Va. 625, 88 S. E. 60.

en promise is collateral.—If C. authorize H. to say to a merchant , C., would pay for any goods sold to his son-in-law, L.," or to chant of whom L. "might purchase" or "might wish to purchase hat he would pay for L." a certain sum—this is a collateral and, being verbal, is void under the statute of frauds. Cutler v. 6 Rand. 509. See Ware v. Stephenson, 10 Leigh 155. In case ods be charged to L. it is strong evidence that promise was col· Id.

mise is collateral within statute unless original debtor is re- Waggoner v. Gray's Adm'rs, 2 Hen. & M. 603; Noyes' Ex'x v. eys, 11 Grat. 636.

section 5.—Embraces antenuptial contracts. Hannon v. Houni- Va. 429, 12 S. E. 157.

s not appear to apply to promise of marriage, but to marriage nts. 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 275.

husband and wife may agree by parol that he shall hold for her use property acquired by him by virtue of the marriage, and, ghts of creditors will not be thereby affected, a court of equity orce the agreement. Statute is not applicable to this case, as it hown that the agreement was upon consideration of marriage. s Adm'r v. Riggan, 93 Va. 78, 24 S. E. 920.

parol promise by a father to his daughter's husband before the e is a sufficient consideration to sustain a written agreement made ne marriage. So, also, if the marriage be had on the father's Argenbright v. Campbell, 3 Hen. & M. 144. See Payne v. Munf. 373.

section 6—Generally.—For exceptions in equity to application te, see 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 851; statute generally, 2 Min. (4th Ed.) seq.

is section renders a parol contract for sale of real estate voidable d not void. Dupuy v. Delaware Ins. Co. (C. C.) 63 Fed. 680; v. Hurley, 110 Va. 31, 65 S. E. 472.

plies to contract to dispose of real estate by will in certain way. Hale, 90 Va. 728, 19 S. E. 739.

plies to parol extension of written agreement which obliges pur- to pay an augmented price. Heth's Ex'r v. Wooldridge's Ex'r, . 605, 18 Am. Dec. 751.

plies to an agreement between a purchaser of land and a third that such third person should be admitted as a partner in the e. Henderson v. Hudson, 1 Munf. 510; Walker v. Herring, 21 78, 8 Am. Rep. 616.

plies to contract whereby defendant employs plaintiff to furnish nd materials to build a house, and agrees to pay him money, mer- e, and land. McCrowell v. Burson, 79 Va. 290.

judicial sale made under a decree of a court of chancery is not the statute. Robertson v. Smith, 94 Va. 250, 26 S. E. 579, 64 Rep. 723.

es not apply to agreement by railroad company to maintain a at a particular place on its line for plaintiff's benefit so long as he ed it. Warner v. Texas, etc., Co., 164 U. S. 418, 17 Sup. Ct. 147, Ed. 495, 2 Va. Law Reg. 727. See note to this case, 2 Va. Law 1.

here a contract for the sale of real estate has been executed by a f conveyance to the purchaser and all that remains to be done is yment of the purchase money, the case is not within the statute. er v. Ashwell, 116 Va. 992, 83 S. E. 930.

o writing is necessary to create a good equitable title to real estate. v. Peters' Ex'r, 79 Va. 60.

Digitized by Google

Purchaser under nonenforceable contract may recover back anything he may have paid to vendor on account of purchase. Brown v. Pollard, 89 Va. 696, 17 S. E. 6.

A parol contract by which a vendee of land agrees to sell a portion of it to a subvendee, though assented to by the vendor, is within the statute. Hoover v. Baugh, 108 Va. 695, 62 S. E. 968.

Discussed, 7 Va. Law J. 195.

License to do certain acts on land is no interest in the land and need not be in writing. 2 Min. 22.

See, infra, notes on Specific Performance and Trusts in Real Estate.

Leases.—If an agent, verbally authorized to lease land, execute a lease thereon, such lease, if not good as the deed of the principal, is a sufficient memorandum or contract for a lease, binding the principal. The statute of frauds is no defense to the rights of the lessee thereunder. Mustard v. Big Creek, etc., Co. (W. Va.), 72 S. E. 1021.

Leases for more than five years should be recorded. Sections 5192, 5193. See, also, section 5141.

Real estate partnerships.—An agreement to become interested in and to share the profits from lands already owned by one or more of the partners at the time the partnership is formed is an agreement for the purchase and sale of an interest in real estate and falls within the statute. Burgwyn v. Jones, 113 Va. 511, 75 S. E. 188.

For a case wherein it was held that the contract in litigation with reference to certain lands created an agency and not a partnership, see Atlantic Coast Realty Co. v. Robertson (C. C. A., Fourth Circuit), 240 Fed. 372.

A partnership for the purchase and sale of real estate for speculation, the profits to be divided among the partners, is valid when verbally made. Burgwyn v. Jones, 113 Va. 511, 75 S. E. 188.

A partnership for the sale and purchase of land for speculation, the profits to be divided among the partners, is valid when verbally made, and the existence of the partnership and the extent of the interests of the partners may be shown by parol. Miller v. Fergusson, 107 Va. 249, 57 S. E. 649.

Standing timber.—Independently of section 1906c, Pollard's Code (see sections 1448-1454 of this Code), a contract for the sale of growing trees, which are to remain upon the land for a time for the purpose of further growth and profit, is a contract for the sale of an interest in land, and must be proved by a writing. But if the trees are to be severed immediately, or within a reasonable or convenient time, with a mere license to enter and take them away, without any stipulation for the beneficial use meanwhile of the soil, it is a sale of goods and need not be in writing. Hurley v. Hurley, 110 Va. 31, 65 S. E. 472; Hurricane Lumber Co. v. Lowe, 110 Va. 380, 66 S. E. 66.

Subsection 7— Generally.—Contemplates such contracts as on their face have performance postponed beyond one year, and not such as may or may not be performed within that period. Seddon v. Rosenbaum, 85 Va. 928, 9 S. E. 326, 3 L. R. A. 337.

For distinction between "an agreement that is not to be performed within a year" and "an agreement which is not to be defeated within a year," see Id.

A contract for personal services not to be performed within a year is within the statute. Rahm v. Klerner, 99 Va. 10, 37 S. E. 292.

A contract for one year's service, to begin and be performed within the year, is not within the statute. Conrad v. Ellison-Harvey Co., 120 Va. 458, 91 S. E. 763.

Plaintiff was employed under a written contract for one year from January 1, 1910, and continued in the employment from year to year without any other contract in writing until he was discharged in June, 1914. In an action for wrongful discharge, the defendant contended that the contract was within the statute of frauds. Held, that while the contract was based upon implication and presumption drawn in part from previous dealings between the parties, it was nevertheless a new

Digitized by Google

, not made until the year 1914 began, and to be performed with-year, hence not within the statute. Conrad v. Ellison-Harvey
Va. 458, 91 S. E. 763.
ontract to erect and maintain a gate at a railroad crossing, and de a keeper thereof, is not within the statute, although no time within which it is to be performed. Richmond, etc., Co. v.
id, etc., Co., 96 Va. 670, 32 S. E. 787. See Warner v. Texas,
, 164 U. S. 418, 17 Sup. Ct. 147, 41 L. Ed. 495, 2 Va. Law Reg.
e 741.
full discussion of this subdivision, see 1 Va. Law Reg. 553.
e also for effect of part performance of contract invalid under division (page 568); also as to recovery on a quantum meruit thing done under such contract (page 577).
mise of a support at death of promisor in consideration of ser-ndered during the balance of her life to be performed by promisee in provision prohibiting an action upon a promise not to be ed within a year unless in writing. Thomas v. Armstrong, 86
, 10 S. E. 6.
article discussing the validity of a verbal lease for one year or mmencing in the future, see 17 Va. Law Reg. 97.
nership.—A parol contract of partnership, without any fixed its continuance, and the business which may be completed with-ar, is not void as coming within the statute. Jordan v. Miller, 442.
ons.—An agreement to sell stock at the end of three years, option to the purchaser to call it at any time, may be performed year, and is not within the statute. Seddon v. Rosenbaum, 85 9 S. E. 326, 3 L. R. A. 337.
e effect at death.—Promise to leave a support at death of r in consideration of services during balance of her life to be ed by promisee is not within the statute. Thomas v. Armstrong, 323, 10 S. E. 6, 5 L. R. A. 529. erally.—The statute of frauds is a wise and salutary law, and e fully and fairly carried into execution by the courts. Cutler v.
6 Rand. 509.
ere a verbal contract is entire, and relates in part to a matter enders it necessary under the statute that the promise should be ng, the whole promise is void. Engleby v. Harvey, 93 Va. 440, 225; Noyes' Ex'x v. Humphreys, 11 Grat. 636.
s section does not make void contracts herein mentioned, but rovides that no action shall be brought on them. Therefore may d in collateral action. Burruss v. Hines, 94 Va. 413, 26 S. E. 875.
e to subsection 6.
provisions of this statute may be pleaded by way of defense, but t cannot be invoked as a statute to sustain a right of action, its being to prohibit actions in certain cases designated. McIlvaine tone L. Co., 105 Va. 613, 54 S. E. 473. ere a debtor sells and conveys property to a purchaser, who as sideration covenants that he will pay certain debts of his grantor, rchaser conveys the property to a second purchaser who makes enants, a motion for judgment in favor of the creditor against inal debtor and each purchaser cannot be maintained. McIlvaine tone Lumber Co., 105 Va. 613, 54 S. E. 473. udicial sale made under a decree of a court of chancery is not he statute. Robertson v. Smith, 94 Va. 250, 26 S. E. 579, 64
Rep. 723.
to whether the words, "no action shall be brought," apply to nts set up by way of defense, see 1 Va. Law Reg. 553.
to five exceptions in equity to application of statute, see 2 Min.
.) 851.
cussed, 7 Va. Law J. 635; 10 Va. Law J. 577, 59.
monographic note on this statute, see Beale v. Digges, 6 Grat.
. Rep. Anno.

Digitized by Google

Form of declaration in trespass on the case for false representati of character, etc., 4 Min. (3d Ed.) p. 1731; of plea of statute of pa agreements in an action on a guaranty, Id., p. 1751.

Cited but not construed, Virginian R. Co. v. Jeffries, 110 Va. 4 66 S. E. 731.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, ch ter 98, section 1.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 48, 82, 176, 195.

Memorandum.—Memorandum of ratification of infant's contract m contain unequivocal and unconditional confirmation. Ward v. Scherer, Va. 318, 31 S. E. 518.

The memorandum must contain all the essential elements of the c tract (except the consideration), without recourse to parol proof. H v. Hale, 90 Va. 728, 19 S. E. 739; Rahm v. Klerner, 99 Va. 10, 37 S. 292, note 6 Va. Law Reg. 689.

The territory in which plaintiff, a traveling salesman, had the right sell is one of the essential terms of the contract sued on, which cannot shown by parol. Rahm v. Klerner, 99 Va. 10, 37 S. E. 292.

Auctioneers' Memorandum.—In sales at auction, the auctioneer is agent both of vendor and vendee; and his note or entry on his account sales of the sale, the price, and the purchaser's name is a sufficient mem randum. Smith v. Jones, 7 Leigh 165, 30 Am. Dec. 498; Brent v. Gre 6 Leigh 16; Walker v. Herring, 21 Grat. 678, 8 Am. Rep. 616; Aver v. Lipscombe, 76 Va. 404. So is memorandum made by auctioneer's cle Smith v. Jones, supra. Or by deputy sheriff conducting sale for she Brent v. Green, supra. But memorandum made after sale by auctione partner is not binding. Walker v. Herring, supra.

It is (in this case) immaterial whether the clerk who made the m or entry was appointed by the crier who acted as auctioneer or by the agent of the vendor for making the sale. Smith v. Jones, 7 Le 165, 30 Am. Dec. 498.

Memorandum may be sufficient though mention of credit on wh land sold be omitted. Smith v. Jones, 7 Leigh 165, 30 Am. Dec. 498.

As to auctioneer's memorandum not necessary to be recorded, sufficient to meet requirement of statute of frauds in case of sale of la see Brown v. Butler, 87 Va. 621, 13 S. E. 71.

Quaere, will memorandum made by auctioneer after sale bind p chaser? Walker v. Herring, 21 Grat. 678, 8 Am. Rep. 616.

By corporation.—A resolution of a board of directors of a corporat duly signed by its president and secretary, which sufficiently sets fo the terms of the contract, is a compliance with the statute. Central L Co. v. Johnston, 95 Va. 223, 28 S. E. 175; Newport News, etc., Co Newport News, etc., Co., 97 Va. 19, 32 S. E. 789.

Will.—Statute is not satisfied where the only memorandum is one two mutual wills, neither referring to the other or to any other writ Hale v. Hale, 90 Va. 728, 19 S. E. 739.

From separate papers.—Complete contract may be gathered by arate papers, but parol evidence is not admissible to connect the papers supply deficiencies. Rahm v. Klerner, 99 Va. 10, 37 S. E. 292; Fitzh v. Jones, 6 Munf. 83. See 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 848; Darling v. Cummi Ex'r, 92 Va. 521, 23 S. E. 880.

Letters.—A letter addressed to a real estate broker who has a lot sale, authorizing him to purchase the lot at a price stated and whic exhibited by the broker to the owner of the lot who accedes to the p mentioned, and writes and signs at the foot of the letter, "I accept above," is not a sufficient memorandum of a sale of real estate within meaning of this section. In order to give the letter any effect, the bro would have to act on the authority given him in the letter by making purchase and executing, as agent, a memorandum in writing. Unless until this was done there was no memorandum in writing signed by person to be charged or his agent. Jordan & Davis v. Mahoney, 109 133, 63 S. E. 467.

A letter written by the owner of land, in reply to a written prop to purchase, saying, "I accept the offer you made me for $1,500 ca

Digitized by Google

ied by such owner, is a sufficient compliance with the statute. v. Worthington Hardware Co., 115 Va. 497, 79 S. E. 1039.

d.—It seems that a deed of lease to a partnership signed by one in the name of the partnership is a sufficient memorandum. Kyle ts' Ex'r, 6 Leigh 495.

lelivered deed containing the bargain concluded between the s sufficient memorandum. Brent v. Green, 6 Leigh 16; Bowles son, 6 Grat. 78; Parrill v. McKinley, 9 Grat. 1, 58 Am. Dec. 212. in. (4th Ed.) 848.

nature.—Although an agreement to devise and bequeath land and property, in consideration of personal services to be rendered, d only by the intended testator, yet, if such services have been dered, the agreement is binding on the party who has signed the nt, and will be enforced against him. Burdine v. Burdine's Ex'r, 515, 36 S. E. 992, 81 Am. St. Rep. 741.

signing may be by a mark. Addy v. Grix, 8 Ves. Jr. 504; Wright ford, 17 Ves. Jr. 459; Argenbright v. Campbell, 3 Hen. & M. 144, s held that a signing the name at the beginning, as "A. B. agrees etc., is sufficient. Roane, J., in Argenbright v. Campbell, 3 Hen. 7. See, also, 2 Lom. Dig. 33, 34.

ere seems to be no question that the name may be signed by writ- nywhere in the contract, but wherever placed it must appear to en done with the intention of authenticating the instrument and some other purpose, for a signing consists of both the act of writ- erson's name and the intention, in doing this, to execute and au- te the instrument signed, hence the mere writing by a proposed er of an agreement for the sale and purchase of real estate, con- the names of the parties at the beginning, but not otherwise signed urchaser, is not a signing by such purchaser within the meaning tatute of frauds. The writing of the name in that connection is for the purpose of identification, and not for authentication. nd v. Munsey, 119 Va. 791, 89 S. E. 882.

note, 2 Va. L. Reg. N. S. 948.

agent.—Agent may be authorized by parol, and signature of his ne is sufficient. Yerby v. Grigsby, 9 Leigh 387. See 2 Min. (4th 0. See Chapman v. Jewett, 24 S. E. 261, 2 Va. Dec. 336.

ading and evidence.—Whether or not promise is in writing is mat- vidence, and need not be stated in declaration. Skinker v. Arm- 86 Va. 1011, 11 S. E. 977. At law a defendant may insist upon efit of the statute by the general issue, or in equity by general Rowton v. Rowton, 1 Hen. & M. 92; Jackson's Assignees v. Cut- Munf. 313; Eaves v. Vial, 98 Va. 135, 34 S. E. 978. See this case hen statute must be specifically pleaded. See, also, Robertson v. 94 Va. 250, 26 S. E. 579, 64 Am. St. Rep. 723.

intiff must produce writing at trial unless defendant waives his require it by allowing agreement to be proved by oral testimony, h case he cannot rely upon statute in appellate court. Eaves v. Va. 135, 34 S. E. 978.

nsideration may be proved by evidence aliunde. Colgin v. Henley, 85.

rol evidence is admissible to prove that an auctioneer's memoran- sale does not contain a stipulation relied on as a condition. v. Lipscombe, 76 Va. 405.

er verdict, an objection will not lie that the contract sued on was by parol testimony when the statute of frauds required it to be ng. Failure to object at the proper time was waiver of the benefits tatute. Moore Lumber Corp. v. Walker, 110 Va. 775, 67 S. E. 374, Cas. 314.

cussion of parol evidence to supplement description of real estate en contract of sale, etc. 16 Va. Law Reg. 807.

to variance between allegata and probata as to consideration, see . Henley, 6 Leigh 85.

, generally, Buck v. Copland, 2 Call 218; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 849; 5192, 5193, 5141.

Digitized by Google

Specific performance.—Notwithstanding the statute, courts of equ in order to defeat a fraud, will compel the specific execution of a parol c tract for the sale of lands if the contract is established by clear and c vincing proof. Boyd v. Cleghorn, 94 Va. 780, 27 S. E. 574.

If a specific execution of a parol contract for land in part perform is refused for any cause, the court will decree compensation to a pa who may have expended his money on the property of another on faith of such contract. Anthony v. Leftwich's Representatives, 3 Ra 238. See this case for the principles on which such compensation will made.

As to principles governing courts of equity in decreeing specific p formance of parol contracts for sale of land in part performed, especially, Wright v. Pucket, 22 Grat. 370; Pierce's Heirs v. Catro Heirs, 23 Grat. 588; Central Land Co. v. Johnston, 95 Va. 223, 28 S. 175; Hudson v. Max Meadows, etc., Co., 99 Va. 537, 39 S. E. 215; Darl v. Cumming's Ex'r, 92 Va. 521, 23 S. E. 880.

See, also, as to specific performance, Reynolds v. Necessary, 88 125, 13 S. E. 348; Walker's Adm'r v. Tyler, 94 Va. 533, 27 S. E. 4 Edichal, etc., Co. v. Columbia, etc., Co., 87 Va. 641, 13 S. E. 100; Du more v. Lyle, 87 Va. 391, 12 S. E. 610; Barrett v. Forney, 82 Va. 2 Hale v. Hale, 90 Va. 728, 19 S. E. 739; Bowman v. Wolford, 80 Va. 2 Payne v. Graves, 5 Leigh 561; McComas v. Easley, 21 Grat. 23; Anth v. Leftwich's Representatives, 3 Rand. 238; Rhea v. Jordan, 28 Grat. 6 Lester v. Lester, Id. 737; Brown v. Brown, 77 Va. 619; Williamson Paxton, 18 Grat. 475; Pigg v. Corder, 12 Leigh 69; Hale v. Wilkins 21 Grat. 75; Bowles v. Woodson, 6 Grat. 78; Parrill v. McKinley, 9 G 1, 58 Am. Dec. 212, Allen v. Smith, 1 Leigh 231; Jackson's Assignees Cutright, 5 Munf. 308.

For the requirements necessary to be fulfilled before parol contr to sell real estate is enforceable in equity, see Martin v. Martin, 112 731, 72 S. E. 680.

As to when equity will decree specific performance of a parol contr for the purchase of land, see East v. Atkinson, 117 Va. 490, 85 S. E. 4

Meritorious consideration.—As to specific performance of contra resting upon meritorious consideration, see Halsey v. Peters' Ex'r, 79 60; Griggsby v. Osborn, 82 Va. 371; Burkholder v. Ludlam, 30 Grat. 2 32 Am. Rep. 668. But see section 5141.

Of married woman's contracts.—As to specific performance of c tracts made by married woman, see Gentry v. Gentry, 87 Va. 478, 12 S. 966.

Suit for damages precludes suit for specific performance. Long Colston, 1 Hen. & M. 110.

Resulting, implied, and constructive trusts may be enforced—Expr trusts in real estate created by parol.—Where land is purchased and p for by one person, and conveyance is taken to another, the law will impl trust for the benefit of the former, and such purchase and payment m be proved by parol agreement. Bank v. Carrington, 7 Leigh 566; Ka v. O'Connors, 78 Va. 76, 77; Sinclair v. Sinclair, 79 Va. 42; Beecher Wilson, 84 Va. 817, 6 S. E. 209, 10 Am. St. Rep. 883; 2 Min. (4 Ed.) 639.

For numerous cases holding this doctrine, and for the general d trine that resulting, implied, and constructive trusts can be created enforced in Virginia, see note to Bank v. Carrington, 7 Leigh 566, Rep. Anno.; also footnote 7 Va. Law Reg. 21. See, also, 2 Min. (4th E 218 et seq.

A valid trust can be created by parol in personalty or the proceeds real estate, and when once created it cannot be subsequently altered revoked by the party creating it, but is governed by the same rule trusts created in writing. Riggan v. Riggan, 93 Va. 78, 24 S. E. 920.

An express trust in real estate may be created and established parol in this State, but the declaration must be unequivocal and explic and the evidence clear and convincing. Young v. Holland, 117 Va. 433, S. E. 637. Comment, 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 83, 149. See, also, 7 Va. L. R 15.

Digitized by Google

express trust in real estate can be created in this State by a parol nt and will be enforced by a court of equity, under certain cir-ces. Shield v. Adkins, 117 Va. 616, 85 S. E. 492. Editorial , 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 299. This case reviewed, 1 Va. L. R. N. S.

express trust in either real or personal property may be created , but the evidence to establish it must be clear and convincing. Berry's Ex'or, 119 Va. 9, 89 S. E. 242.
express trust in land may be created by parol. An infant may be , and if he holds property as trustee, a court of equity will enforce . Clary v. Spain, 119 Va. 58, 89 S. E. 130.
a case in which an express trust in real estate was claimed to t which was held to be a contract of sale within this section, see Adkins, 117 Va. 616, 85 S. E. 492. Editorial, 1 Va. L. R. N. S.

ere land is purchased and paid for by one person, and the con-is taken by another, the law will imply a trust for the benefit of er, and such purchase and payment may be proved by parol evi-Bank v. Carrington, 7 Leigh 566.
article, "Parol Trusts in Real Estate," see 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 83.

5562. When scroll good by way of seal; impression on paper as on wax.—Any writing, to which a natural person mak-hall affix a scroll by way of seal, shall be of the same force were actually sealed. The impression or stamping of a te or an official seal on paper or parchment alone shall be as if made on wax or other adhesive substance. (Code 1887, isors' Note.—The words "or stamping" are new.

ognition of seal or scroll in body of instrument.—At common cognition of the seal in the body of the writing was not necessary it a specialty. Cromwell v. Tate, 7 Leigh 301. But in Virginia g for the payment of money or other purpose, which is not re-o be by deed, having a scroll at the foot thereof, with word written therein, but which is not recognized in the body of the nt as a seal, is not a sealed instrument. Austin's Adm'x v. Whit-x'rs, 1 Munf. 487, 4 Am. Dec. 550; Anderson v. Bullock, 4 Munf. nkins v. Hurt's Com'rs, 2 Rand. 446; Peasley v. Boatwright, 2 5; Cromwell v. Tate's Ex'r, 7 Leigh 301, 30 Am. Dec. 506; Turber-Bernard, 7 Leigh 302, note; Clegg v. Lemessurier, 15 Grat. 108. er v. Chamberlain, 83 Va. 286, 5 S. E. 174; Baird v. Blaigrove, 1 70. And the same rule applies to an actual or corporate seal. Salt Co. v. Norfolk, etc., Co., 95 Va. 461, 28 S. E. 567, note to Va. Law Reg. 728; Dinwiddie Co. v. Stuart, 28 Grat. 530, 531; v. National, etc., Co., 94 Va. 589, 27 S. E. 464.
e presence of corporate seal, without other evidence, to a contract valid without the seal, is not sufficient to change the apparent r of the instrument. Grubbs v. National, etc., Co., 94 Va. 589, 464, see note 3 Va. Law Reg. 282.
eems, however, that an instrument required by law to be under ch has a scroll attached to the name of the party will be held sealed instrument, though the scroll be not acknowledged in the the instrument, if the instrument is acknowledged as a deed v. Hewlett, 9 Leigh 511; Ashwell v. Ayres, 4 Grat. 283); or is in n of a power required to be by deed (Pollock v. Glassell, 2 Grat. See, also, Bradley Salt Co. v. Norfolk, etc., Co., 95 Va. 468, 28 .
distinction between writings required to be under seal and those ired to be under seal as to necessity for acknowledgment of seal of instrument, see Clegg v. Lemessurier, 15 Grat. 108.
ty having acknowledged a deed as his indenture has made it so y legal purpose. Currie v. Donald, 2 Wash. 58.
omission to recognize a scroll in the body of a deed is cured by

Digitized by Google

its solemn recognition by the grantor at the time of acknowledgm Lacks v. Latham, 116 Va. 424, 82 S. E. 75.

Pleading.—One action of debt may be brought against all partie an instrument sealed by some of them and not by others. Rankin v. Ro
8 Grat. 63.

Whether paper declared on as a simple contract is a sealed contrac not cannot be raised by demurrer, but is a matter of fact to be presen at the hearing by proper plea or motion. Grubbs v. National, etc., Co.,
Va. 589, 27 S. E. 464.

As to when question whether ancient instrument was sealed or may be submitted to jury, see Reusens v. Lawson, 91 Va. 226, 21 S.
347.

Evidence.—Evidence aliunde is not admissible to prove that a sc at the foot of a writing was intended as a seal. Clegg v. Lemessurier, Grat. 108. But compare Grubbs v. National, etc., Co., supra, where court speaks of the intention of the parties that a contract should be instrument under seal being a matter of proof.

Generally.—In absence of evidence, scroll will be deemed corpo seal. Jacksonville, etc., Nav. Co. v. Hooper, 160 U. S. 514, 16 Sup.
379, 40 L. Ed. 515. See note, 5 Va. Law Reg. 331; Lile's Notes on C
porations, p. 178 et seq., 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1274.

For discussion of whether a scroll may serve as a corporate s see article 10 Va. Law Reg. 464.

Word "Seal" affixed to signature sufficient as scroll. Lewis' Ex'r Overby's Adm'r, 28 Grat. 627.

See section 5, subsection 12; section 4485; 1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d E
94, 142, 145, note; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 23 et seq., 882; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 6
727, et seq., 835; 1 Va. Law Reg. 622, 3 Va. Law Reg. 282; Lile's No on Corporations 178, and note to 15 Grat. 108, Va. Rep. Anno.; Pil
v. Roberts, 13 How. 472, 14 L. Ed. 228; Pierce v. Indseth, 106 U. S. 5
1 Sup. Ct. 418, 27 L. Ed. 254.

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 233.

Negotiable Instruments.*

IABLE INSTRUMENTS IN GENERAL.
m and Interpretation.
orm of negotiable instrument.
ertainty as to sum; what constitutes.
When promise is unconditional.
eterminable future time; what constitutes.
dditional provisions not affecting negotiability.
missions; seal; particular money.
When payable on demand.
When payable to order.
When payable to bearer.
erms; when sufficient.
ate of; presumption as to.

Sec.
5574. Ante-dated and post-dated.
5575. When date may be inserted.
5576. Blanks; when may be filled.
5577. Incomplete instrument not delivered.
5578. Delivery; when effectual; when presumed.
5579. Construction where instrument is ambiguous.
5580. Liability of person signing in trade or assumed name.
5581. Signature by agent; authority; how shown.
5582. Liability of person signing as agent, etc.
5583. Signature by procuration; effect of.
5584. Effect of indorsement by infant or corporation.
5585. Forged signature; effect of.

evisors' Note.—The uniform negotiable instruments act has been in Virginia for about twenty years, and has worked well. For t reasons the revisors were exceedingly reluctant to make any ons whatever in this act which, with slight variations, has been in a majority of the States; but after having read and considered ble discussions of the act by distinguished lawyers, notably several by the late Dean Ames, of the Harvard Law School, in which he out some of the defects in the law, it seemed to the revisors that hanges were clearly necessary. These were made. (See sections 626, 5632, 5647, 5675, 5681.) For the discussions referred to, Harvard Law Review, 241, 442; 15 Harvard Law Review, 26; 16 l Law Review, 255; 10 Yale Law Journal, 84; American Law r (N. S.), Vol. 41, pp. 437, 499, 561. All of these articles are ed in Brannan's Negotiable Instruments Law.

erences.—Reference is made at the bottom of each section to the as numbered in the Virginia Acts of Assembly adopting the negotistruments law. (Acts 1897-98, pp. 896-918.)

notations.—In addition to the Virginia cases through 120 Va. con- the Negotiable Instruments Law, the annotations of this chapter many of the decisions of other States. The notes of these de- are taken by permission from addresses delivered by Hon. A. M. of Rhode Island, President of the Commissioners on Uniform State before the Commissioners in 1904-5-6-7. By the kindness of Mr. he notes of the earlier decisions of other States are also taken from lection of cases. A collection of the decisions of all States is in Brannan's Negotiable Instruments Law (2d Ed.). See, also, rd's Negotiable Instruments Law (3d Ed.).

es before adoption of uniform act.—The Virginia cases on the of negotiable instruments which were decided prior to the adoption uniform negotiable instruments law are not given in the notes to apter, except in a few instances.

Digitized by Google

Consideration.

Sec.
5586. Presumption of consideration.
5587. What constitutes consideration.
5588. What constitutes holder for value.
5589. When lien on instrument constitutes holder for value.
5590. Effect of want of consideration.
5591. Liability of accommodation party.

Negotiation.

5592. What constitutes negotiation.
5593. Indorsement; how made.
5594. Indorsement must be of entire instrument.
5595. Kinds of indorsement.
5596. Special indorsement; indorsement in blank.
5597. Blank indorsement; how changed to special indorsement.
5598. When indorsement restrictive.
5599. Effect of restrictive indorsements; rights of indorsee.
5600. Qualified indorsement.
5601. Conditional indorsement.
5602. Indorsement of instrument payable to bearer.
5603. Indorsement where payable to two or more persons.
5604. Effect of instrument drawn or indorsed to a person as cashier.
5605. Indorsement where name is misspelled, etc.
5606. Indorsement in representative capacity.
5607. Time of indorsement; presumption.
5608. Place of indorsement; presumption.
5609. Continuation of negotiable character.
5610. Striking out indorsement.
5611. Transfer without indorsement; effect of.
5612. When prior party may negotiate instrument.

Rights of the Holder.

Sec.
5613. Right of holder to sue; ment.
5614. What constitutes a holde due course.
5615. When person not deer holder in due course.
5616. Notice before full amo paid.
5617. When title defective.
5618. What constitutes notice defect.
5619. Rights of holder in course.
5620. When subject to original fenses.
5621. Who deemed holder in course.

Liabilities of Parties.

5622. Liability of maker.
5623. Liability of drawer.
5624. Liability of acceptor.
5625. When person deemed dorser.
5626. Liability of irregular dorser.
5627. Warranty; where nego tion by delivery, etc.
5628. Liability of general dorsers.
5629. Liability of indorser wh paper negotiable by de ery.
5630. Order in which indors are liable.
5631. Liability of agent or brol

Presentment for Payment.

5632. Effect of want of dem on principal debtor.
5633. Presentment where inst ment is not payable on mand.
5634. What constitutes a suffici presentment.
5635. Place of presentment.
5636. Instrument must be exhi ed.
5637. Presentment where inst ment payable at bank.
5638. Presentment where princi debtor is dead.
5639. Presentment to persons ble as partners.

Digitized by Google

Presentment to joint debtors.
When presentment not required to charge the drawer.
When presentment not required to charge the indorser.
When delay in making presentment is excused.
When presentment may be dispensed with.
When instrument dishonored by non-payment.
Liability of person secondarily liable when instrument dishonored.
Time of maturity.
Time; how computed.
Rule where instrument payable at bank.
What constitutes payment in due course.

Notice of Dishonor.

To whom notice of dishonor must be given.
By whom given.
Notice given by agent.
Effect of notice given on behalf of holder.
Effect where notice is given by party entitled thereto.
When agent may give notice.
When notice sufficient.
Form of notice.
To whom notice may be given.
Notice where party is dead.
Notice to partners.
Notice to persons jointly liable.
Notice to bankrupt.
Time within which notice must be given.
Where parties reside in same place.
Where parties reside in different places.
When sender deemed to have given due notice.
Deposit in post-office; what constitutes.
Notice to subsequent parties; time of.

Sec.
5670. Where notice must be sent.
5671. Waiver of notice.
5672. Whom affected by waiver.
5673. Waiver of protest.
5674. When notice dispensed with.
5675. Delay in giving notice; how excused.
5676. When notice need not be given to drawer.
5677. When notice need not be given to indorser.
5678. Notice of non-payment where acceptance refused.
5679. Effect of omission to give notice of non-acceptance.
5680. When protest need not be made; when must be made; of what certificate of protest is evidence.

Discharge of Negotiable Instruments.

5681. How instrument discharged.
5682. When person secondarily liable on discharged.
5683. Right of party who discharged instrument.
5684. Renunciation by holder.
5685. Cancellation; unintentional; burden of proof.
5686. Alteration of instrument; effect of.
5687. What constitutes a material alteration.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

Form and Interpretation.

5688. Bill of exchange defined.
5689. Bill not an assignment of funds in hands of drawee.
5690. Bill addressed to more than one drawee.
5691. Inland and foreign bills of exchange.
5692. When bill may be treated as promissory note.
5693. Drawee in case of need.

Acceptance.

5694. Acceptance; how made, etc.
5695. Holder entitled to acceptance on face of bill.
5696. Acceptance by separate instrument.
5697. Promise to accept; when equivalent to acceptance.

Digitized by Google

Sec.
5698. Time allowed drawee to accept.
5699. Liability of drawee retaining or destroying bill.
5700. Acceptance of incomplete bill.
5701. Kinds of acceptances.
5702. What constitutes a general acceptance.
5703. Qualified acceptance.
5704. Rights of parties as to qualified acceptance.

Presentment for Acceptance.

5705. When presentment for acceptance must be made.
5706. When failure to present releases drawer and indorser.
5707. Presentment; how made.
5708. On what days presentment may be made.
5709. Presentment; where time is insufficient.
5710. When presentment is excused.
5711. When dishonored by non-acceptance.
5712. Duty of holder where bill not accepted.
5713. Rights of holder where bill not accepted.

Protest.

5714. In what cases protest necessary.
5715. Protest; how made.
5716. Protest; by whom made.
5717. Protest; when to be made.
5718. Protest; where made.
5719. Protest both for non-acceptance and non-payment.
5720. Protest before maturity where acceptor insolvent.
5721. When protest dispensed with.
5722. Protest where bill is lost, etc.

Acceptance for Honor.

5723. When bill may be accepted for honor.
5724. Acceptance for honor; how made.
5725. When deemed to be an acceptance for honor of the drawer.
5726. Liability of acceptor for honor.

Sec.
5727. Agreement of acceptor honor.
5728. Maturity of bill payable ter sight; accepted
honor.
5729. Protest of bill accepted honor, etc.
5730. Presentment for paymen acceptor for honor;
made.
5731. When delay in making sentment is excused.
5732. Dishonor of bill by acce for honor.

Payment for Honor.

5733. Who may make payment honor.
5734. Payment for honor;
made.
5735. Declaration before payn
for honor.
5736. Preference of parties o
ing to pay for honor.
5737. Effect on subsequent pa where bill is paid for ho 5738. Where holder refuses to ceive payment supra test.
5739. Rights of payer for hon

Bills in Sets.

5740. Bills in sets constitute bill.
5741. Rights of holders where ferent parts are negotia 5742. Liability of holder who dorses two or more part a set to different person 5743. Acceptance of bills draw sets.
5744. Payment by acceptor of drawn in sets.
5745. Effect of discharging on a set.

PROMISSORY NOTES A CHECKS.

5746. Promissory note defined 5747. Check defined.
5748. Within what time a c must be presented.
5749. Certification of check; e of.
5750. Effect where holder check procures it to be tified.

Digitized by Google

When check operates as an assignment.

NERAL PROVISIONS.

efinitions and meaning of erms.

erson primarily liable on nstrument.

Sec.
5754. Reasonable time; what constitutes.
5755. Time, how computed; when last day falls on holiday.
5756. Application of chapter.
5757. Rule of law merchant; when governs.

EGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS IN GENERAL.

Form and Interpretation.

5563. Form of negotiable instrument.—An instrument to be ble must conform to the following requirements:

must be in writing and signed by the maker or drawer.

ust contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum in money.

ust be payable on demand or at a fixed or determinable fume.

ust be payable to order or to bearer; and here the instrument is addressed to a drawee he must be or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty. , p. 896, § 1.)

cisions of other States.—A direction to charge payment to a cerd does not render a bill non-negotiable, when the order states when ment is to be made. It is not conditional upon the coming due particular payment. The statute is not cited, however, although in Massachusetts in 1898. Though the order was made payable before November 1, 1899, it may have been given before the ble Instruments Law was adopted. Shepard v. Abbott (1901), ss. 300, 60 N. E. 782.

order payable to A. or order out of a fund of $300, "or what may on my deposit book," is conditional, and therefore is not a ble instrument and does not import a consideration, confirming merchant. National Sav. Bank v. Cable (1901), 73 Conn. 569 428.

r note of cases holding that a note containing no name of the nor space to insert it, is not negotiable, see 11 Va. Law Reg. 689.

certificate of deposit signed by a trust company, payable to a named therein or his assigns, "which is assignable only on the of the company" is not a negotiable instrument under the Negotistruments Law. Zander v. N. Y. Sec. & Tr. Co., 70 N. E. 449 , Ct. of Appeals; affirming s. c. 81 N. Y. Supp. 1151.

instrument containing an unconditional order to pay a sum cer- money at a fixed future time to payee or order is a bill of ge.

the acceptor, unable to pay at maturity, asks for time, which is him by acceptance of his promissory note for the amount of the exchange, payable at a day future, the note is founded on a good ration, whether or not the maker was bound previously as ac- of the draft. Torpey v. Tebo, 184 Mass. 307 (1903), 68 N. E.

nder this section and section 132 as amended, Laws 1898, chapter order drawn by his creditor on his debtor, directing the debtor a certain amount to the order of a third person, is not binding upon the debtor as a bill of exchange unless he accepts it in writing. Izzo v. Luddington, 79 App. Div. N. Y. 272 (1903).

Digitized by Google

An instrument issued by a bank certifying that I. has a deposit of $300 in the bank bearing interest at 7 per cent. per annum payable annually, due in two years from date "and will be cashed only upon being returned to the bank by the International Money Box Company of New York or their order," is a negotiable instrument. (Clearly this instrument fulfills all the requirements of a negotiable instrument laid down in this section, but strangely enough the act is not referred to.) Young v. American Bk., 89 N. Y. Supp. 915 (1904).

Under this section a mortgage note for a specified sum and payable at a certain future date was negotiable, though it provided that on default in interest or failure to comply with any of the conditions of the mortgage, the whole amount of the principal should become due and payable at the option of the mortgagee. Under section 5600 the addition of the words "without recourse" to an indorsement of a note does not impair its negotiable character. See, also, Loizeaux v. Fremder, 101 N. W. 423, Wisconsin (1904). Thorpe v Mindeman, 101 N. W. 417, Wisconsin (1904).

Under this section and section 5564, a note providing that, if not paid when due, both principal and interest shall bear an increased rate of interest is not negotiable. Under Civ. Code, section 2207, which provides that "several contracts relating to the same matters between the same parties, and made as parts of substantially one transaction, are to be taken together," a note stating that it is secured by a mortgage of the same date, and the mortgage providing that the mortgagor should pay the taxes and insurance, keep the property in repair, commit no waste, etc., and that in default of performance the principal and interest should become due and the mortgage should become subject to foreclosure, it was held that, under said section 2207, the note and the mortgage were parts of the same contract and must be read together, so that the entire contract contained conditions not certain of fulfilment, rendering the note non-negotiable. Where a note payable to order is assigned without indorsement, its negotiable character is destroyed. Cornish v. Wolverton, 81 Pac. 4, Montana (1905).

See Mass. Nat. Bk. v. Snow, cited under section 5570.

The plaintiff sued to recover on a draft for $1,500, "400 c. A. R. L. No. 3362, via A. R. L. B. L. direct." These words, under the usual custom of business, charged the payee with knowledge that a certain number of cases had been shipped by a certain line, and that the bill of lading went direct to the payee. Held, as the draft contained an unconditional order to pay a sum certain in money, it was negotiable, under this section and section 5565, and it does not indicate that the amount of the draft is to be paid only from the proceeds of the consignment.

Where the drawee of a negotiable draft had paid it to a holder in due course, the drawer claiming to have made a shipment to the drawee, the drawee cannot recover back the amount paid on discovering that the goods were never shipped to him. Waddell v. Hanover Nat. Bk., 97 N. Y. Supp. 305, 48 Misc. 578 (Supreme Court, 1905).

Bonds issued by a joint-stock association, secured by a trust deed and payable to bearer, are negotiable under this section and section 5565, although by their express terms the stockholders of the association are free from individual liability for payment of the bonds and the interest thereon, liability being confined to the security and to the assets of the association, such limitations not restricting the liability to a particular fund.

Where defendants negotiated through brokers a sale of a bond paying the party presenting the bond the proceeds of the sale, and thereafter on return of the bond to them by the purchaser (because payment of the interest coupons was refused, on the ground that the bond and coupons had been stolen), transmitted to the purchaser another bond of the same issue and tenor in lieu of the one returned, they were in due course, under section 5620, having, in legal effect, re-ed the bond and coupons by trading therefor a bond the title to as not disputed. Hibbs v. Brown, 98 N. Y. Supp. 353 (Supreme 906).

Digitized by Google

instrument providing for the payment of money out of the on a specified job is not a negotiable instrument under this sec-l section 5565.

instrument not payable to order or to bearer is not a negotiable ent, under this section. Fulton v. Varney, 102 N. Y. Supp. 608 der this section and sections 5578, 5614 and 5618, municipal re negotiable instruments, and a bank is a holder in due course bonds, complete and regular on their face, deposited as collateral for a loan to the depositor, the bank having no knowledge ng after it thus had possession that the depositor was not in ssession and authorized to dispose of them. Borough of Mont-People's Bk., 67 Atl. 67, New Jersey (1907).

der this section and sections 5570 and 5571, a promissory note able to either "order" or "bearer" is non-negotiable.

tion 5686, avoiding a negotiable instrument if materially altered assent of the parties, contains no matter not contained in the the act and therefore it is not in contravention of the provision Constitution, article 2, section 17, providing that no law shall more than one subject, which shall be expressed in the title. . Harrell, 101 S. W. 424, Tennessee (1907).

st office money orders are not negotiable instruments. Bolognesi (C. C. A.), 189 Fed. 335, nor is a certificate of stock indorsed in Baker v. Davis, 97 N. E. 1094.

e following instruments have been held negotiable: Drafts drawn graph company on its Transfer Department. Postal Telegraph Co. (C. C. A.), 228 Fed. 601; a note containing reservation of the article sold. Exchange National Bank v. Steele (Ark.), 158 S. ; a post-dated check. Triponoff v. Sweeney (Ore.), 130 Pac 979, on Banks and Banking, section 389c; a certificate of deposit not to check and payable to depositor's order. Pomeroy National . Bank (W. Va.), 79 S. E. 665.

e negotiable quality of an instrument is not destroyed by the fact e instrument contains a provision that sureties consent that the f payment may be extended without notice. Farmer v. Bank 107 N. W. 170.

5564. Certainty as to sum; what constitutes.—The sum pay-a sum certain within the meaning of this chapter, although be paid—

Vith interest; or

y stated installments; or

y stated installments with a provision that upon default in nt of any installment or of interest the whole shall become r

Vith exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate;

Vith costs of collection or an attorney's fee in case payment ot be made at maturity. (Id., § 2.)

irginia decisions.—The stipulation in a negotiable note for the pay-f a fee of ten per cent. for the collection by an attorney is valid the laws of New York, and not contrary to the public policy in ate, and will be enforced in this State in an action on a New York ct containing such stipulation. Oglesby v. Bank, 114 Va. 663, E. 468.

Digitized by Google

A stipulation in a negotiable note for the payment of a reason attorney's fee if suit be brought thereon is valid and may be enfo Colley v. Summers Parrott Co., 119 Va. 439, 89 S. E. 906; overru Rixey v. Parre Bros., 89 Va. 113, 15 S. E. 498; and Fields v. Fi 105 Va. 714, 54 S. E. 888.

See 2 Va. L. Reg. N. S. 321, 531.

If, on a note promising to pay a debt and also counsel fees expenses, judgment is taken for the dobt only, saying nothing a counsel fees and expenses, the whole cause of action is merged in judgment. Sands v. Roller, 118 Va. 191, 86 S. E. 857.

See Gregory's Forms No. 553.

Decisions of other States.—Civil Code, section 3996, Mont. amended by Session Laws 1899, declares that a negotiable instru may provide for reasonable attorney's fees; and section 2, Ses Laws, 1903 (same as this section) provides that the sum payable is tain within the meaning of the act though it is to be paid with cost collection or an attorney's fee, in case payment shall not be made at turity. Held, that a note made payable with reasonable attorney's entitled the holder to collect such fees where the note is not pai maturity and it is placed in the hands of attorneys for collection, th it is not sued upon. Morrison v. Ornbaun, 75 Pac. 953. Sup. Montana (1904).

A provision in a promissory note, for attorney's fees in case of on note, is invalid under Laws 1890-1, chapter 267. (The note in was dated June 15, 1899, and the Negotiable Instruments Law went effect in North Carolina March 28, 1899 (see this section). This provides that the sum payable is a sum certain within the meanin this act, although it is to be paid—"with costs of collection or an torney's fee in case payment shall not be made at maturity." But Negotiable Instruments Law is not mentioned either by counsel o the court.) Exchange Bk. v. Ap. L. & L. Co., 128 N. Car. 193 (19

See Cornish v. Wolverton, cited under section 5563.

Sec. 5565. When promise is unconditional.—An unqualified o or promise to pay is unconditional within the meaning of this c ter though coupled with—

1. An indication of a particular fund out of which reimbu ment is to be made or a particular account to be debited with amount; or

2. A statement of the transaction which gives rise to the ins ment.

But an order or promise to pay out of a particular fund is unconditional. (Id., § 3.)

Decisions of other States.—See Waddell v. Hanover Nat. Bk., under section 5563.

See Fulton v. Varney, cited under section 5563.

See Hibbs v. Brown, cited under section 5563.

Sec. 5566. Determinable future time; what constitutes.—An strument is payable at a determinable future time within the m ing of this chapter which is expressed to be payable—

1. At a fixed period after date or sight; or

2. On or before a fixed or determinable future time speci therein; or

3. On or at a fixed period after the occurrence of a specified e which is certain to happen, though the time of happening be certain.

Digitized by Google

nstrument payable upon a contingency is not negotiable, and ppening of the event does not cure the defect. (Id., § 4.)

cisions of other States.—See Schlessinger v. Schultz, cited under 5633.

der this section and section 5569, a note payable to the order of ker "on demand after date" is a note payable on demand.

der section 5633, a note payable on demand must be collected a reasonable time. When a note was indorsed by a third party s not negotiated within ten days after its date, presentation for t within ten months was held to be sufficient to hold the indorser. section 5635, a note payable at a bank is properly presented for t at the bank, although the bank is in the hands of a receiver. l not be presented to the receiver personally. Schlessinger v. , 96 N. Y. Supp. 383 (1905).

5567. Additional provisions not affecting negotiability.—An ment which contains an order or promise to do any act in on to the payment of money is not negotiable. But the ne- le character of an instrument otherwise negotiable is not d by a provision which—uthorizes the sale of collateral securities in case the instru- e not paid at maturity; or uthorizes a confession of judgment if the instrument be not t maturity; or Vaives the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or tion of the obligor; or ives the holder an election to require something to be done in payment of money.

nothing in this section shall validate any provision or stipu- otherwise illegal. (Id., § 5.)

irginia decisions.—Judgments by confession, in general, are not ry to the policy of this State, nor to the terms of the negotiable nents law. The warrant of attorney, as used in this case, was a ıd lawful exercise of the power conferred by the instrument, al- it did not designate the person in whose favor the judgment was confessed. Colona v. Parksley Nat. Bank, 120 Va. 812, 92 S. E.

ee Gregory's Forms No. 552.

ecisions of other States.—A note containing a power of attorney to judgment upon it at any time after its date, "whether due or not," a negotiable instrument, following antecedent cases. Wisc. Meet- Baptists v. Babler (1902), 115 Wis. 289, 91 N. W. 678.

nder this section the negotiable character of an instrument is not d by a provision that "authorizes a confession of judgment if strument be not paid at maturity." The effect of a provision au- ng confession of judgment before maturity of the instrument is to y its negotiability. Milton Nat. Bank v. Beaver, 25 Pa. Super. 4 (1904).

5568. Omissions; seal,; particular money.—The validity and iable character of an instrument are not affected by the fact

t is not dated; or

Does not specify the value given or that any value has been therefor; or

Digitized by Google

3. Does not specify the place where it is drawn or the place wh it is payable; or

4. Bears a seal; or

5. Designates a particular kind of current money in which p ment is to be made.

But nothing in this section shall alter or repeal any statute quiring in certain cases the nature of the consideration to be sta in the instrument. (Id., § 6.)

Decisions of other States.—In an action on two undated promis notes, a demurrer on the ground that the instruments were not n was overruled, and it was held that the notes were payable on dem no time for payment being designated. The decision is in accord with the Negotiable Instruments Law, although not cited. See section and section 5569. Didato v. Coniglio, 100 N. Y. Supp.
(1906).

Sec. 5569. When payable on demand.—An instrument is paya on demand—

1. Where it is expressed to be payable on demand or at sigh on presentation; or

2. In which no time for payment is expressed.

Where an instrument is issued, accepted, or indorsed when o due it is as regards the person so issuing, accepting, or indorsin payable on demand. (Id., § 7.)

Decisions of other States.—"I promise to pay to the order o $2,000 at his office, New York City," is a note payable on demand, firming the law merchant. In this respect it cannot be varied by evidence. The omission of the words "for value received" does not pair the note, affect its legal import, or weaken the presumption tha was given for value.. McLeod v. Hunter (1899), 29 Misc. Rep.
61 N. Y. Supp. 73.

See Schlessinger v. Schultz, cited under section 5566.
See Schlessinger v. Schultz, cited under section 5633.
See Didato v. Coniglio, cited under section 5568.

Sec. 5570. When payable to order.—The instrument is payabl order where it is drawn payable to the order of a specified pe or to him or his order. It may be drawn payable to the order

1. A payee who is not maker, drawer, or drawee; or
2. The drawer or maker; or
3. The drawee; or
4. Two or more payees jointly; or
5. One or some of several payees; or
6. The holder of an office for the time being.

Where the instrument is payable to order the payee must named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.
§ 8.)

See notes under section 5576.

Decisions of other States.—Under this section a negotiable pro sory note, indorsed in blank by the payee, is payable to bearer. U section 5571, if the maker of a negotiable promissory note wrongf obtains possession of it after it has been indorsed in blank by the pa he is the bearer. Under section 5578, where the instrument is in hands of a holder in due course, a valid delivery thereof by all pa prior to him, so as to make them liable to him, is conclusively presu

Digitized by Google

tions 5618 and 5619, if the maker of a negotiable promissory ns possession of it after it has been indorsed in blank by the presents it at a bank for discount, the fact that the bearer ker does not put the bank upon inquiry nor prevent it from a holder in due course if it discounts the note in good faith ctual knowledge of any infirmity. Under section 5563 and 57, a holder in due course of a promissory note, payable to n acquire a good title to the note from one who has stolen it.
rt of this case, 72 N. E. 959, states that the notes in question d December 9, 1897. The date is important, as the Negotiable ts Law was not in effect in Massachusetts until 1898.) Mass.
v. Snow, 187 Mass. 159 (1905).
Gilley v. Harrell, cited under section 5563.

71. When payable to bearer.—The instrument is payable n it is expressed to be so payable; or n it is payable to a person named therein or bearer; or n it is payable to the order of a fictitious or non-existing nd such fact was known to the person making it so payn the name of the payee does not purport to be the name erson; or n the only or last indorsement is an indorsement in blank.

—

)

ions of other States.—See Mass. Nat. Bk. v. Snow, cited under 70. eaboard Nat. Bk. v. Bk. of America, cited under section 5592.
Gilley v. Harrell, cited under section 5563.

72. Terms; when sufficient.—The instrument need not fol-nguage of this chapter, but any terms are sufficient which dicate an intention to conform to the requirements hereof.
.)

73. Date of; presumption as to.—Where the instrument or tance or any indorsement thereon is dated such date is rima facie to be the true date of the making, drawing, e, or indorsement as the case may be. (Id., § 11.)

74. Ante-dated and post-dated.—The instrument is not r the reason only that it is ante-dated or post-dated, pros is not done for an illegal or fraudulent purpose. The whom an instrument so dated is delivered acquires the eto as of the date of delivery. (Id., § 12.)

75. When date may be inserted.—Where an instrument ex-be payable at a fixed period after date is issued undated, the acceptance of an instrument payable at a fixed period
t is undated any holder may insert therein the true date r acceptance and the instrument shall be payable accord-he insertion of a wrong date does not avoid the instruhe hands of a subsequent holder in due course; but as to late so inserted is to be regarded as the true date. (Id.,

76. Blanks; when may be filled.—Where the instrument

Digitized by Google

is wanting in any material particular the person in possession of has a prima facie authority to complete it by filling up the b therein. And a signature on a blank paper delivered by the p making the signature in order that the paper may be converte a negotiable instrument operates as a prima facie authority it up as such for any amount. In order, however, that any instrument when completed may be enforced against any p who became a party thereto prior to its completion it must be up strictly in accordance with the authority given and wit reasonable time. But if any such instrument after complet negotiated to a holder in due course, it is valid and effectu all purposes in his hands, and he may enforce it as if it had filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and a reasonable time. (Id., § 14.)

Virginia decisions.—The rule of law merchant that where a able instrument with an unfilled blank is intrusted to another the in possession has authority, so far as a holder in due course is conc to complete it consistently with the written or printed terms th although he may thereby violate his actual authority (Frank v. feld, 33 Grat. 377), is altered by this section in the case where the takes the instrument before the blank is filled. In such case he on notice, and must ascertain the real authority of the person int with the incomplete instrument, and takes it at his peril. Guerr Guerrant (Corporation Court of Danville), 7 Va. Law Reg. 63 note thereto.

This section of the negotiable instruments act materially chang law as it existed in this State prior to the enactment of that act.
v. Thomas, 120 Va. 763, 92 S. E. 977.

Defendant endorsed his name on the back of a printed form negotiable note sued on, leaving blank the provisions as to the amount, and to whom and when payable. Defendant then deliver incomplete instrument to his brother, who signed the note as and delivered it to the plaintiff to be held by the latter as col security to indemnify him against loss by reason of his endorsing p and future notes for the said brother upon which the said brother borrow money in bank. In consideration of such delivery to h such note, the plaintiff endorsed notes for the brother, upon which was borrowed. The brother died insolvent. Thereupon the pl filled up the incomplete instrument with the amount of the notes he had endorsed for the said brother, naming himself as payee fixing "on demand" as the time of payment. The date had be serted by the plaintiff when the note was delivered to him. The pl knew nothing of a limitation upon the authority to complete the ment. In an action against the endorser on the note as com held, the plaintiff had authority to fill in the blanks as he did, t fendant having introduced no evidence to rebut the prima facie aut of the plaintiff given by this section to complete the instrument.
v. Thomas, 120 Va. 763, 92 S. E. 977.

Under the facts of this case, the blanks were filled in "wi reasonable time." Brown v. Thomas, 120 Va. 763, 92 S. E. 977.

Decisions of other States.—A check payable to the plainti handed by the defendant drawer to her husband to be delivered plaintiff in payment of her debt to him, the amount being left and being filled in by the plaintiff's manager with the husband's co and was applied towards payment of his indebtedness to the pl Held, evidence was admissible to show the authority given to th band and the purpose for which it was given. Boston, S. & I.
Steuer (1903), 183 Mass. 140, 66 N. E. 646.

Digitized by Google

e one of the payees of a note, made payable to the payees jointly, it and mailed it to the maker, who then altered the note by s own name in the place of one of the payees and by erasing "jointly:" Held, that under this section, the maker had not to complete the note by filling the blanks, that under section ndorsement of all the payees was necessary to give good title nsferee, and that under sections 5685 and 5686 there was no arranty, on the part of the payee indorser, extending to the ondition of the note after it parted from her possession. necessary in commercial transactions that the rules of liability to negotiable paper should be fixed and certain. It is better rules be arbitrary than that they lack precision and certainty." defendant, who was one of the payees and accommodation in- a note, indorsed another note "for renewal" and mailed it to before maturity of the first note. The maker inserted his own he place of the name of one of the payees, and after maturity st note, took it up by discounting the second note. The dis- bank had no notice, until the time of the discount, that the de- ad indorsed the second note. Held, that the indorsement by dant before the maturity of the first note did not amount to of notice of dishonor of the first note under section 5671. Bk. of City of Brooklyn v. Gridley, 98 N. Y. Supp. 445 (1906).

577. Incomplete instrument not delivered.—Where an in- instrument has not been delivered it will not, if completed tiated without authority, be a valid contract in the hands older as against any person whose signature was placed before delivery. (Id., § 15.)

578. Delivery; when effectual; when presumed.—Every on a negotiable instrument is incompleted and revocable ivery of the instrument for the purpose of giving effect As between immediate parties and as regards a remote ier than a holder in due course the delivery in order to be must be made either by or under the authority of the party drawing, accepting, or indorsing as the case may be, and ase the delivery may be shown to have been conditional or ecial purpose only and not for the purpose of transferring erty in the instrument. But where the instrument is in the a holder in due course a valid delivery thereof by all rior to him so as to make them liable to him is conclusively d. And where the instrument is no longer in the possession y whose signature appears thereon a valid and intentional by him is presumed until the contrary is proved. (Id.,

notes to section 5614.

sions of other States.—In an action by the assignee of a note he maker the complaint alleged that the defendant made the t before maturity the payee indorsed and delivered it for value after maturity the indorsee assigned and delivered it for value aintiff; and the answer denied the indorsement and delivery for d the assignment and delivery for value, but the plaintiff's estified that the note bore the signatures of the maker and and that the assignment under seal was executed by the indorsee vered to the plaintiff. This evidence, under this section and 5586, 5607, 5621 and 5746, entitled the plaintiff to a recovery, in the absence of evidence to the contrary. Colborn v. Arbecan N. Y. Supp. 986 (1907).

Digitized by Google

Under this section a person may manually deliver a negotia strument to another, on its face containing a binding obligat praesenti, of such person to such other, with a contemporaneous agreement that it shall not take effect until the happening of specified event (as, that others shall indorse it). This does not the rule that a written instrument cannot be varied by contempor parol agreement, but is only evidence to show that the instrument had vitality as a contract. Under sections 5614, 5616 and 561 title of the original holders was defective, and under section 562 burden is on the subsequent holder to prove acquisition of titl holder in due course. Hodge v. Smith, 110 N. W. 192 Wisconsin (

Evidence held insufficient to overcome the presumption of a delivery of a check presented for payment after death of the ma the existence of a sufficient consideration or to show that the mak subject to the control of the payee of the check, the plaintiff action. See this section and section 5586. Moak v. Stevens, 91 Supp. 903 (1904).

See Mass. Nat. Bk. v. Snow, cited under section 5570.

See Montvale v. People's Bk., cited under section 5563.

Sec. 5579. Construction where instrument is ambiguous.—W the language of the instrument is ambiguous or there are omi therein the following rules of construction apply:

1. Where the sum payable is expressed in words and also ures and there is a discrepancy between the two the sum de by the words is the sum payable; but if the words are ambi or uncertain, reference may be had to the figures to fix the an

2. Where the instrument provides for the payment of in without specifying the date from which interest is to run t terest runs from the date of the instrument, and if the instrum undated from the issue thereof.

3. Where the instrument is not dated it will be consider be dated as of the time it was issued.

4. Where there is a conflict between the written and printe visions of the instrument the written provisions prevail.

5. Where the instrument is so ambiguous that there is whether it is a bill or note the holder may treat it as either election.

6. Where a signature is so placed upon the instrument t is not clear in what capacity the person making the same intend sign he is to be deemed an indorser.

7. Where an instrument containing the words "I promise to is signed by two or more persons they are deemed to be jointl severally liable thereon. (Id., § 17.)

Virginia decisions.—The names of endorsers of negotiable usually appear on the back, but they may appear elsewhere w offending against the regularity required by the negotiable instru law. (Section 5614.) Under the facts of this case, held, the who took a negotiable note for value was warranted in treatin defendants as endorsers, although their names appeared on the of the note and not on its back. Colona v. Parksley Nat. Bank Va. 812, 92 S. E. 979.

Decisions of other States.—Where a note reciting "I promise t

Digitized by Google

ned by two persons, each one is a maker, and the note is a joint eral one of each maker. (Although the Negotiable Instruments s in force in Colorado before the date of this note, no reference e to the act. See this section and section 5622.) Ullery v. 79 Pac. 180, Colorado (1904).
e Germania Nat. Bk. v. Mariner, cited under section 5582.

5580. Liability of person signing in trade or assumed name. erson is liable on the instrument whose signature does not thereon except as herein otherwise expressly provided. But no signs in a trade or assumed name will be liable to the xtent as if he had signed in his own name. (Id., § 18.)

cisions of other States.—See Swenson v. Stoltz, cited under section

e drawees of a bill of exchange, discounted by plaintiff for the s benefit, were not liable thereon prior to acceptance, under this Under section 5694, the acceptance of a bill must be in writ- l signed by the drawee. Seattle Shoe Co. v. Packard, 86 Pac. alifornia (1906).

5581. Signature by agent; authority; how shown.—The sig- of any party may be made by a duly authorized agent. No ular form of appointment is necessary for this purpose, and thority of the agent may be established as in other cases of . (Id., § 19.)

5582. Liability of person signing as agent, etc.—Where the nent contains or a person adds to his signature words indi- that he signs for or on behalf of a principal or in a repre- ve capacity without disclosing his principal he is not liable on strument if he was duly authorized, but the mere addition of describing him as an agent or as filling a representative char- vithout disclosing his principal does not exempt him from per- liability. (Id., § 20.)

ecisions of other States.—Where, in an action against defendant ally upon a negotiable promissory note signed by him as "trustee," dence is conflicting as to whether the property bought for which te was given was for the assigned estate or otherwise, and whether yee agreed to accept the note in the maker's representative capa- he jury must pass upon the question in dispute. Megowan v. on (1902), 173 N. Y. 1, 65 N. E. 738.
note purporting to be of the defendant corporation, signed by sident and treasurer, known by the plaintiff to be accommodation without proof of execution by the president and treasurer, under ity from their corporation, does not bind the corporation. The able Instruments Law is not mentioned. See this section. Nat. Newport v. Snyder Mfg. Co., 107 App. Div. 95, New York (1905).
nder this section the makers of a negotiable promissory note sign- "trustees," without further disclosing their principal, the payee ng who it was, are held not to be individually liable. Kerby v. mer, 107 App. Div. 491, New York (1905).
negotiable note made by the Northwestern Straw Works was , "The Northwestern Straw Works, E. R. Stillman, Treas., John W. er," by Mariner, the secretary of the corporation, who neglected to e word "Secretary." Held, under this section and sections 5579 625, Mariner was not personally liable. Germania Nat. Bk. v. er, 109 N. W. 574, Wisconsin (1906).
purchaser of an interest-bearing certificate of deposit, payable to dorsed by one as trustee, is prima facie and presumptively charged with actual knowledge of the trustee's want of authority to dispose the paper for his own benefit. Ford v. Brown, 1 L. R. A. (N. 188 (Tenn.).

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5583. Signature by procuration; effect of.—A signature "procuration" operates as notice that the agent has but a limi authority to sign, and the principal is bound only in case the ag in so signing acted within the actual limits of his authorty. (§ 21.)

Sec. 5584. Effect of indorsement by infant or corporation.— indorsement or assignment of the instrument by a corporation or an infant passes the property therein notwithstanding that fr want of capacity the corporation or infant may incur no liabi thereon. (Id., § 22.)

Decisions of other States.—A manufacturing corporation, wh otherwise has no power to make an accommodation indorsement, is given such power or made liable on such an indorsement under section and section 5591. Oppenheim v. Reigal Cigar Co., 90 N. Supp. 355 (1904).

Sec. 5585. Forged signature; effect of.—Where a signature forged or made without the authority of the person whose signat it purports to be it is wholly inoperative, and no right to retain instrument or to give a discharge therefor or to enforce paym thereof against any party thereto can be acquired through or un such signature unless the party against whom it is sought to force such right is precluded from setting up the forgery or w of authority. (Id., § 23.)

Virginia decisions.—Action will not lie against a member of a whose name has been fraudulently written as indorser on a negoti promissory note of the firm of which he was a member, but which was dissolved at the time the note was delivered, of which fact the t was ignorant, affirming antecedent cases. Pettyjohn v. Nat. Bk. (19 101 Va. 111, 43 S. E. 203.

Decisions of other States.—Where one procures a check by fal pretending he is another person (the maker knowing there is suc person), and indorses it in the name of such payee, the indorsee conveys no title. Tolman v. American Nat. Bank (1901), 22 R. I. 48 Atl. 480, 52 L. R. A. 877, 84 Am. St. Rep. 850.

A subsequent transferee, receiving the proceeds of negotiable sec ties obtained under a forged assignment thereof, is liable to the ov thereof. Casey, Adm'r v. Pilkington, 83 App. Div. N. Y. 91 (19 This section not cited in the opinion.

Where the drawer of a check was induced through fraud to del it to an impostor, believing him to be the person named in the ch and the impostor negotiated the instrument, receiving payment the from an innocent third party, the drawer must stand the loss as betw the bona fide holder and the drawer. (See this section. Although Negotiable Instruments Law went into effect in Utah in 1899, and transaction took place in 1902, no mention is made of the law.) He v. Commercial Nat. Bk., 75 Pac. 727, Utah (1904).

See Seaboard Nat. Bk. v. Bk. of America, cited under section 5

The plaintiff bank was the drawee of a forged check which it without detecting the forgery. Upon suit against the defendant b to recover the money so paid to the defendant, a holder in good f of the check, it was held, in the absence of evidence that the defen had been misled or prejudiced by the plaintiff's mistake, the plai can recover.

Digitized by Google

hough the Negotiable Instruments Law has been in force in this nce 1899, it is not referred to in this opinion. (See this section.) at. Bk. of Lisbon v. Bk. of Wyndmere, 108 N. W. 546, North (1906).

agent was authorized to indorse checks received from customers to the principal, and to deposit them in a designated bank for on for the principal's account. He indorsed some such checks rincipal's name and deposited them with a broker as margins on nal speculative stock account. The broker deposited the checks nk, which received them, and paid the proceeds thereof to him, faith. Held, the indorsements made by the agent were not s under this section, and therefore the bank receiving these in- checks and paying the proceeds to the broker in good faith is le to the principal as for a conversion of the checks. Salen v. the State of New York, 97 N. Y. Supp. 361 (1906).

draft was made payable to A. B., which came into the possession her man of the same name as the defendant. He procured an ction to a bank which then cashed the draft for him. He de- part of it in this bank and a draft or check upon it came to the in due course. It was held that the purchaser took it free of , under this section. Jamieson v. Heim, 86 Pac. 165 (1906).

holder of a check under a forged indorsement indorsed it to a nd received the amount thereof, which amount was paid to the the drawee, the plaintiff, which, on discovering the forgery, sued er the amount paid. Held, that by his indorsement of the check, orser warranted the genuiness of the prior forged indorsement, discovery of the forgery is liable to make good the amount he eived on the check.

he Negotiable Instruments Law was not cited. See this section, lman v. Am. Nat. Bk., 48 Atl. 480 or 22 R. I. 462.) Oriental Bk , 98 N. Y. Supp. 561, Supreme Court (1906).

e Moak v. Stevens, cited under section 5578.

Consideration.

5586. Presumption of consideration.—Every negotiable in- nt is deemed prima facie to have been issued for a valuable eration and every person whose signature appears thereon to ecome a party thereto for value. (Id., § 24.)

rginia decisions.—Notes secured by a deed of trust are prima facie e of a valuable consideration under this section. Murphy's Hotel Herndon's Adm'r, 120 Va. 505, 91 S. E. 634.

ted and applied in Reid v. Windsor, 111 Va. 825, 69 S. E. 1101.

ted but not construed in Lynchburg Milling Co. v. Bank, 109 Va. S. E. 980.

ecisions of other States.—See note to section 5752.

action was brought upon the defendant's negotiable note. The as want of consideration. At the trial the plaintiff read the note ence, and rested. In the absence of want of consideration, the f is entitled to recover. Bringman v. Von Glahn (1902), 71 App. 7, 75 N. Y. Supp. 845.

on examination of its assets, the directors of plaintiff bank found tiable promissory note signed by its cashier as a joint maker, who, eing interrogated, said that the defendant was to indorse the note, nt out and brought the defendant in, who thereupon indorsed the Held, that the fact that the defendant received no consideration indorsement would not relieve him from liability on the note Monticello v. Dooly (1902), 113 Wis. 590, 89 N. W. 490.

vidence is admissible in an action against a corporation as indorser egotiable promissory note, to show that the note was indorsed by cretary of the corporation with authority to indorse on behalf of the corporation and that the corporation paid value therefor. Kar Respondent v. Pottier & Stymus Mfg. & Impt. Co., Appellant, 82 A Div. Sup. Ct. N. Y. 230 (1903).

Digitized by Google

A note executed by a married woman for her husband's accomm tion, unenforceable in New Jersey because of Gen. St., p. 2017, sectio prohibiting liability of a married woman as surety, or upon the def or liability of another, is not made valid by this section. People's Bk. v. Schepflin, 62 Atl. 333, New Jersey (1905).

See Colborn v. Arbecam, cited under section 5578.

Sec. 5587. What constitutes consideration.—Value is any con eration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent pre-existing debt constitutes value, and is deemed such whether instrument is payable on demand or at a future time. (Id., § 2

See notes to sections 5589, 5614.

Virginia decisions.—One who takes a negotiable promissory not good faith for value, without notice of any defect, for a pre-existing d is a holder for value, and can recover thereon. Payne v. Zell (19 98 Va. 294, 36 S. E. 379.

Decisions of other States.—A non-negotiable promissory note not import a consideration, under the statute or the law merchant. D
v. Thompson (1900), 53 App. Div. 9, 65 N. Y. Supp. 459.

The breach of an executory agreement forming the consideration a negotiable instrument is not a defense as against an indorsee took the note for value before maturity with knowledge of the ag ment, but without knowledge of any breach before his purchase, ci many former decisions. Deyo v. Thompson (1900), 53 App. Div 65 N. Y. Supp. 459.

The holder of a negotiable promissory note, given as collat security for an antecedent debt, is entitled to recover against an indo in fraud of whose rights this note has been diverted from the purp for which it was given; affirming the rule in Railroad Co. v. Bank, U. S. 14, 26 L. Ed. 61. The plaintiff is a holder for value whose titl the note is unaffected by any existing equities between antecedent part Brewster v. Shrader (1899), 26 Misc. Rep. 480, 57 N. Y. Supp. 606.

The acceptance of a negotiable promissory note payable at a fut date, for goods sold and delivered to the maker of the note, operates forbearance of the right to sue the purchaser until the maturity of note, and constitutes a consideration for an indorsement of the note m for the purpose of procuring its acceptance, affirming cases anteced to that law as to such indorsement. Mohlman Co. v. McKane (19 60 App. Div. 546, 69 N. Y. Supp. 1046.

Although under the statute "an antecedent or pre-existing debt stitutes value," in an action against an accommodation indorser th must be evidence that the holder of the instrument gave up an anteced debt, either wholly or qualifiedly, to constitute consideration. In absence of such evidence, a just result cannot be permitted to be turbed by predicating error upon a refusal to charge on issue not embra within the evidence. Roseman v. Mahoney (1903), 86 App. Div. 3 83 N. Y. Supp. 749.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court (N. Y.) has sho a tendency to construe section 51 (same as this section) of the N. I strictly and upon the theory that it was not intended thereby to cha the law of New York, but only to declare the law as it existed.
note 11 Va. Law Reg. 773.

This section should be construed to mean that in order that an a cedent debt shall constitute value that will support an action aga accommodation makers or indorsers of a negotiable promissory n fraudulently diverted, the antecedent debt must have been cance on the face of the note. Sutherland v. Mead, 80 App. Div. Sup.
N. Y. 103 (1903). Affirming Roseman v. Mahoney, 83 N. Y. Supp.
(1903). See contra Brewster v. Schrader, 26 Misc. Rep. N. Y.

Digitized by Google

Payne v. Zell, 98 Va. 294 (1900), and note 17 Harvard Law 563. This decision is much to be regretted, and it is to be nat the case will be taken to the Court of Appeals and be reversed. e fault is not with the draughtsman, as intimated in the note in ard Law Review 563, is apparent, since other jurisdictions have ulty in holding otherwise. It is further to be noted that the tion placed by the court upon section 51 was not necessary to the of the case. In Payne v. Zell, 98 Va. 294, section 51 was held to cable to the transfer of a negotiable instrument as security only. rland v. Mead is followed by other courts, we shall fail to have ity as to the meaning of the word "value" in the case of an ante- debt. However clear the statutes, there is an unfortunate ten- f the courts to fall back to the old law. Must it be stated in so ords that antecedent or pre-existing debt shall constitute value, an instrument be transferred in payment or as security? hough under this section, "an antecedent or pre-existing debt con- value," a note given as security for a pre-existing debt is not le in the hands of the creditor against an accommodation indorser In order to be enforcible against an accommodation indorser, appear that the note was taken in payment of the pre-existing r that the creditor extended the time for the payment hereof. n v. Mahoney, 86 App. Div. N. Y. 377 (1903). (But see section indorsee of a negotiable note, taken as collateral security for a ting debt, is a holder for value. Briket v. Edward (Kansas), 74 p. 1100 (1904). Although this case arose upon a note given the Negotiable Instruments Law was framed, and although this not yet adopted in Kansas, the opinion expresses and cites the cases on both sides of this controversy, including Sutherland v.

der this section (an antecedent debt constitutes value), an in- ess existing in favor of a bank against a forwarder of a draft for on, does not constitute the bank a holder of the draft for value, sense as to entitle the bank to retain the draft as against the ner, where the bank does not discharge or deal with the indebted- any way on the faith of the draft, the draft being not yet due not being possible to credit it to the forwarder or to apply it to btedness. Bk. of America v. Waydell, 92 N. Y. Supp. 666 (1905). an action on a note of a married woman and her husband, an stating that the note was without consideration as to the wife, iven for a pre-existing debt of the husband, was held to be a good , following Sutherland v. Mead, 80 N. Y. Supp. 507, and Roseman ney, 83 N. Y. Supp. 749, notwithstanding this section and sections id 5591.

e contra Brewster v. Schrader, 26 Misc. Rep. 480 (1899). This n will have to be carried to the Court of Appeals in New York the uniformity which is the object of the Negotiable Instruments n be secured, by reversal of this case. See the case of Sutherland 1; Hover v. Magley, 96 N. Y. Supp. 925 (1905).

e Wilkins v. Usher, cited under section 5621.

e Singer Mfg. Co. v. Summers, cited under section 5748 person taking commercial paper in extinguishment of a debt, lering the note of his debtor and the collateral, whether before r the maturity of the debt, is a holder for value. See this section, erred to in this case, however. Under section 5618, the notice ant of power in an officer of a corporation to transfer commercial held by it, in order to render the transfer ineffectual, must be dge on the part of the transferee of such facts as will make his taking the paper amount to bad faith. Ward v. City Trust Co., Y. Supp. 50 (1907).

5588. What constitutes holder for value.—Where value has time been given for the instrument the holder is deemed a

Digitized by Google

holder for value in respect to all parties who became such p to that time. (Id., § 26.)

Decisions of other States.—A subsequent holder for value, fide, can recover, notwithstanding the one he takes from may knowledge of the infirmities of the instrument. Deyo v. Thom (1900), 53 App. Div. 9, 65 N. Y. Supp. 459.

See Hover. v. Magley, cited under 5587.

A holder of a negotiable promissory note who derives his through a holder in due course, and who is not himself a party to fraud or illegality affecting the instrument, has all the rights of former holder in respect to all parties prior to the latter, and every h is deemed prima facie to be a holder in due course until the con is shown. Bryan v. Barr, 21 D. C. App. 190 (1903).

See Sutherland v. Mead, cited under section 5587.

In an action by the indorsee of a negotiable promissory against the maker, who was also the payee and indorser, a plea, demu to, alleged that the note was never duly negotiated or discounted value. Held, that this is the statement of an ultimate fact, and n a conclusion of law, and was therefore admitted to be true by the murrer.

An allegation in another plea that the plaintiff is not a bona holder in due course, also demurred to, was held to be a conclusio law, and therefore not admitted to be true by the demurrer. See section and sections 5590, 5592, 5613 and 5614. Rogers v. Morton N. Y. Supp. 49 (1905).

Where a check indorsed to plaintiff was valid at its inception, the plaintiff took it, without knowledge of any equitable defense the makers might have as against the payee, plaintiff was entitle enforce it as a bona fide purchaser for value, regardless of the am paid therefor. The Negotiable Instruments Law is not cited. Sec 5588 and 5614. Rosenthal v. Freedman, 103 N. Y. Supp. 714 (19

Sec. 5589. When lien on instrument constitutes holder for va —Where the holder has a lien on the instrument arising either f contract or by implication of law he is deemed a holder for valu the extent of his lien. (Id., § 27.)

Decisions of other States.—Where a negotiable promissory no transferred before maturity as collateral security for a pre-existing the transferee is not such a holder for value that he takes free equities of which he had no notice. Semble, this rule is change this statute. Brooks v. Sullivan (1901), 129 N. C. 190, 39 S. E. Cited in Payne v. Zell, 98 Va. 294, 36 S. E. 379.

Sec. 5590. Effect of want of consideration.—Absence or fa of consideration is matter of defense as against any person n holder in due course, and partial failure of consideration is a fense pro tanto, whether the failure is an ascertained and liqu ed amount or otherwise. (Id., § 28.)

Decisions of other States.—In an action on a note between original parties the defense of want of consideration is open to parties. The Negotiable Instruments Law (in force in New York not referred to. See this section and section 5591. Batterma Butcher, 88 N. Y. Supp. 685 (1904).

See Rogers v. Morton, cited under 5588.

Sec. 5591. Liability of accommodation party.—An accomm tion party is one who has signed the instrument as maker, dra acceptor, or indorser without receiving value therefor and for purpose of lending his name to some other person. Such a pe is liable on the instrument to a holder for value notwithstan

Digitized by Google

older at the time of taking the instrument knew him to be accommodation party. (Id., § 29.)

cisions of other States.—The maker of an accommodation note relieved from liability by an extension of time of payment given her consent. Section 5591 provides that the maker of an accom-on note is primarily liable, and section 5753 provides that the primarily liable on a negotiable instrument is absolutely re-to pay the same. National Citizens' Bank v. Toplitz (1903), 81
iv. 593, 81 N. Y. Supp. 422.

negotiable promissory note made for the accommodation of the and transferred by him before maturity to a third person at 40
nt. discount for interest, is not enforceable by the transferee the accommodation maker. That transferee's want of knowlat it was an accommodation paper and had no inception until it into his hands is immaterial. The Negotiable Instruments Law altered the rule. Strickland v. Henry (1901), 66 App. Div. 23, Y. Supp. 12.

purchaser for value in due course of a promissory note can re-against an accommodation maker, whether or not he knew him nly an accommodation maker when he took the instrument, under gotiable Instruments Act, confirming antecedent law. Rhinehart ll, 69 Md. 356, 16 Atl. 126; Schwartz v. Wilmer (1899), 90 6, 44 Atl. 1059.

ant of consideration is not a defense to an action on a negotiable sory note against an accommodation indorser, even though the f acquired the note with knowledge that the defendant was only mmodation indorser. Bankers' Iowa State Bank v. Mason Hand Co. (Iowa, 1902), 90 N. W. 612. The Negotiable Instruments lopted in Iowa in 1902 is not referred to.

holder for value of the payee, with the knowledge that the payee as an accommodation note, may recover of the maker. Deyo v.
son (1900), 53 App. Div. 9, 65 N. Y. Supp. 459.

e Oppenheim v. Reigal Cigar Co., cited under section 5584.

e Batterman v. Butcher, cited under section 5590.

nder this section the drawer of an accommodation check cannot vant of consideration against a bona fide holder. Met. Pr. Co. v. er, 90 N. Y. Supp. 376 (1904).

e Hover v. Magley, cited under section 5587.

nder this section when the defendants, who were accommodation rs on a negotiable promissory note for $300 on which $100 was ed, returned it to the maker to procure a more satisfactory inand it was then destroyed by the indorsers and the maker, the ants are still liable as accommodation indorsers for the $100 ad-Westheimer v. Helmbold, 109 App. Div. 854, New York (1905).

here one of two defendants, makers of a note, voluntarily paid erest thereon before maturity, although by its terms the interest t due until maturity and the payee voluntarily consented to ex-of the time of payment of the note, without regard to the time he interest was paid, which payment of interest in advance and ent for renewal was made without the knowledge or consent of r maker, the other defendant who signed the note without con-ion, for the accommodation of the first defendant, this accommodaaker was not released from liability by reason of such extension.
egotiable Instruments Law is not cited in the opinion, although e in Wisconsin. Welch v. Kukuk, 107 N. W. 301, Wisconsin

.

he plaintiff was told by the paying teller of the defendant bank, ch a raised check was drawn, that the check was good. He then ed the check at the request of the teller, and was paid the amount raised check. Under this section he became an accommodation er, and became liable to the bank for the difference between the amount of the check as originally drawn and the amount to which was raised. Smith v. State Bk., 104 N. Y. Supp. 750 (1907).

Digitized by Google

Under this section a negotiable instrument made without receivi value therefor, for the purpose of lending the maker's name to the pay is accommodation paper, and in an action by the indorsee he mu show, not only that he paid value before maturity of the note, but th he did not know or have reason to suspect the instrument was acco modation paper when he took it. National Bank of Newport v. Snyd Mfg. Co., 102 N. Y. Supp. 478 (1907).

An accommodation indorser of a raised check was here held liab to the defendant bank for the difference between the amount of the che as originally drawn and the amount to which it was raised, under t section. But inasmuch as the check was indorsed by the plaintiff the defendant's request in reliance upon the defendant bank's payi teller's statement that the check was good (for the amount to whi it had been raised), it would seem that the defendant bank had no rig to charge any part of the check to the plaintiff. Smith v. State Ban 104 N. Y. Supp. 750 (1907).

Under this section and sections 5681, 5682 and 5684, an accommo tion maker of a note who places the word "surety" after his signatu is not relieved from liability by an extension of time of payment witho his consent.

This decision is based chiefly upon section 5753. But see the follo ing authorities as to the liability of a surety, and quaere, whether bei a surety he was primarily liable: Hubbard v. Gurney, 64 N. Y. 45 Eaton & Gilbert on Comm. Paper, p. 401, section 80, c; Bigelow Bills, Notes & Cheques, p. 43. See also the vigorous dissenting critici on this case in Law Notes, September, 1907, p. 105, by T. A. S. (Thom A. Street), with which I agree. Cellers v. Meachem, 89 Pac. 4 Oregon (1907).

Negotiation.

Sec. 5592. What constitutes negotiation.—An instrument is gotiated when it is transferred from one person to another in su manner as to constitute the transferee the holder thereof. If p able to bearer it is negotiated by delivery; if payable to order it negotiated by the indorsement of the holder completed by livery. (Id., § 30.)

Decisions of other States.—A negotiable promissory note, void the hands of the payee because it is a foreign corporation doing busin in North Dakota without having complied with the laws of the State, n be enforced by a bona fide purchaser and indorsee for value, with notice of the facts rendering it void in the hands of the payee, notwi standing section 3265, Rev. Codes, 1899, the word "assigns" there not including the holder in due course of a negotiable instrument un sub-sections 30-52 and 57. Nat. Bank of Commerce v. Pick, 99 N. W. (1904), Sup. Ct. N. Dakota.

Under this section and sections 5593 and 5611 the transfer o negotiable instrument for value, by delivery without indorsement, ve in the transferee the transferrer's title thereto with the right to h the indorsement of the transferrer, notwithstanding section 5580 wh liability is predicated upon the instrument itself. Swenson v. Stoltz, Pac. 999, Washington (1904).

See Rogers v. Morton, cited under section 5588.

A negotiable promissory note has no validity between the par unless delivered. The Negotiable Instruments Law is not cited, althou in force in this State. See this section. Viets v. Silver, 106 N. W. Supreme Court, North Dakota (1905).

Digitized by Google

r this section and sections 5613, 5624, 5747, 5749 and 5751, drawer of a check procured it to be certified before delivery vees, and the bank failed before it was presented for payment, was not liable thereon to the drawer, but only to the holder urse at the time of the failure, and hence the drawer, on ree check from the payees, after the failure of the bank, was not o set off the amount thereof against an indebtedness to the hlessinger v. Kurzrok, 94 N. Y. Supp. 442 (1905).
ndorsee of a draft indorsed it, presented it to the drawee and payment. The indorsement of the payee was a forgery. Held, indorsee was liable, his indorsement being a guaranty of the ss of the signature of the antecedent indorsers. (This section on 5596.) A draft to the order of an existing firm without edge is not a draft to the order of a fictitious or non-existing ler section 5571, subdivision 3, unless the drawer had no knowlhe existence of such a firm, and his intent was to make it payearer. See p. 743. "The fictitiousness of the payee and the e of the maker must concur." (But see section 5585. Sea
t. Bk. v. Bk. of America, 100 N. Y. Supp. 740, 51 Misc. 103

593. Indorsement; how made.—The indorsement must be on the instrument itself or upon a paper attached thereto.
nature of the indorser without additional words is a suffidorsement. (Id., § 31.)

inia decisions.—Where the name of the maker of a negotiable e payable to the order of itself (a corporation) appeared only he note, but its signature was affixed to an assignment thereof to the note, it was held to be a sufficient endorsement. Colona ey Nat. Bank, 120 Va. 812, 92 S. E. 979.

sions of other States.—See Swenson v. Stoltz, cited under sec-

594. Indorsement must be of entire instrument.—The in-nt must be an indorsement of the entire instrument. An nent which purports to transfer to the indorsee a part only mount payable, or which purports to transfer the instru-two or more indorsees severally does not operate as a ion of the instrument. But where the instrument has d in part it may be indorsed as to the residue. (Id., § 32.)

595. Kinds of indorsement.—An indorsement may be eith-al or in blank, and it may also be either restrictive or l or conditional. (Id., § 33.)

5596. Special indorsement; indorsement in blank.—A spe-orsement specifies the person to whom or to whose order rument is to be payable, and the indorsement of such inis necessary to the further negotiation of the instrument.
orsement in blank specifies no indorsee, and an instrument sed is payable to bearer and may be negotiated by delivery.
34.)

isions of other States.—See Seaboard Nat. Bk. v. Bk. of America, der section 5592.

5597. Blank indorsement; how changed to special indorse-
The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special nent by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank

Digitized by Google

any contract consistent with the character of the indorsement. § 35.)

Sec. 5598. When indorsement restrictive.—An indorsement is strictive which either—

1. Prohibits the further negotiation of the instrument; or
2. Constitutes the indorsee the agent of the indorser; or
3. Vests the title in the indorsee in trust for or to the us some other person.

But the mere absence of words implying power to negotiate not make an indorsement restrictive. (Id., § 36.)

Sec. 5599. Effect of restrictive indorsement; rights of indo —A restrictive indorsement confers upon the indorsee the rig

1. To receive payment of the instrument.
2. To bring any action thereon that the indorser could bring
3. To transfer his rights as such indorsee where the form of indorsement authorizes him to do so.

But all subsequent indorsees acquire only the title of the indorsee under the restrictive indorsement. (Id., § 37.)

Cited but not construed in Fleshman v. Bibb, 118 Va. 582, 88 64.

Sec. 5600. Qualified indorsement.—A qualified indorsement stitutes the indorser a mere assignor of the title to the instrum It may be made by adding to the indorser's signature the w "without recourse" or any words of similar import. Such an dorsement does not impair the negotiable character of the ins ment. (Id., § 38.)

Decisions of other States.—Under this section an indorsee of a or bond, under an indorsement reciting that the indorser transfers al right, title and interest to the indorsee is a holder in due course. (It not appear, however, that the bond in question was negotiable, and transfer, copied within quotation marks, shows that it ceased to be n tiable when indorsed to the plaintiff.) Evans v. Freeman, 54 S. E. North Carolina (1906).

See Thorpe v. Mindeman, cited under section 5563.

Sec. 5601. Conditional indorsement.—Where an indorsemen conditional a party required to pay the instrument may disreg the condition and make payment to the indorsee or his transf whether the condition has been fulfilled or not. But any pe to whom an instrument so indorsed is negotiated will hold the s or the proceeds thereof subject to the rights of the person ind ing conditionally. (Id., § 39.)

Sec. 5602.' Indorsement of instrument payable to bearer.—W an instrument payable to bearer is indorsed specially it may ne theless be further negotiated by delivery; but the person indor specially is liable as indorser to only such holders as make through his indorsement. (Id., § 40.)

Sec. 5603. Indorsement where payable to two or more pers —Where an instrument is payable to the order of two or m payees or indorsees who are not partners all must indorse un

Digitized by Google

indorsing has authority to indorse for the others (Id., §

sions of other States.—See First Nat. Bk. of City of Brooklyn v. cited under section 5576.

604. Effect of instrument drawn or indorsed to a person as —Where an instrument is drawn or indorsed to a person as '' or other fiscal officer of a bank or corporation it is prima facie to be payable to the bank or corporation of e is such officer, and may be negotiated by either the in- nt of the bank or corporation or the indorsement of the (Id., § 42.)

sions of other States.—For several years, the president of a bank ved all the bank's mail, had indorsed all its drafts, and much of 's business had been done in the name of its officers as such. In of a draft upon this bank, made payable to the person who is , his name being followed by the abbreviation "Pt" it was held is section prima facie to be payable to the bank of which such president. Griffin v. Erskine, 109 N. W. 13, Iowa (1906).

er this section in an action on a certificate of deposit made pay- S., as cashier of the defendant bank, and indorsed by him as t was competent for the plaintiff to show that S. was the cashier fendant bank and was acting in that capacity in transferring the e sued on. The plaintiff was an innocent holder for value, and harged with knowledge of the dealings between "Secor, cashier," defendant bank which he represented. Johnson v. Buffalo Center ., 112 N. W. 164 Iowa (1907).

605. Indorsement where name is misspelled, etc.—Where e of a payee or indorsee is wrongly designated or misspelled indorse the instrument as therein described, adding, if he , his proper signature. (Id., § 43.)

606. Indorsement in representative capacity.—Where any is under obligation to indorse in a representative capacity indorse in such terms as to negative personal liability. (Id.,

607. Time of indorsement; presumption.—Except where rsement bears date after the maturity of the instrument egotiation is deemed prima facie to have been effected be- e instrument was overdue. (Id., § 45.)

isions of other States.—See Colborn v. Arbecam, cited under sec- 3.

608. Place of indorsement; presumption.—Except where trary appears every indorsement is presumed prima facie been made at the place where the instrument is dated. (Id.,

isions of other States.—Where a note is dated and made payable tate of New York, an indorsement in blank thereon is presumed, e common law and under this section, to have been made in New id one discounting the note in good faith can rely on such in- nt. Chemical Nat. Bk. v. Kellogg, 75 N. E. 1103, New York

609. Continuation of negotiable character.—An instrument ble in its origin continues to be negotiable until it has been restrictively indorsed or discharged by payment or other (Id., § 47.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5610. Striking out indorsement.—The holder may at time strike out any indorsement which is not necessary to his
The indorser whose indorsement is struck out and all indo subsequent to him are thereby relieved from liability on the strument. (Id., § 48.)

See notes to section 5752.

Sec. 5611. Transfer without indorsement; effect of.—Where holder of an instrument payable to his order transfers it for v without indorsing it the transfer vests in the transferee such as the transferrer had therein, and the transferee acquires in dition the right to have the indorsement of the transferrer.
for the purpose of determining whether the transferee is a ho in due course the negotiation takes effect as of the time when indorsement is actually made. (Id., § 49.)

Decisions of other States.—See Swenson v. Stoltz, cited under se 5592.

Under this section and sections 5624, 5749, 5750 and 5751, the to a check payable to a specified person passes by delivery withou dorsement. The transfer of a check by the payee, by delivery withou dorsement, destroys its negotiability, and the transferee takes merel transferrer's title, subject to any equity between him and the drawe

The payee of a check, given to discharge an indebtedness due to transferred it without indorsement for consideration, and the transf presented it at the bank upon which it was drawn, which certified it.
the bank was liable, although it did not know who was the owner o check when the certification was made. See also 86 N. Y. Supp.
(1904). Meuer v. Phenix Nat. Bk., 88 N. Y. Supp. 83 (1904).

The holder of a draft, in the absence of proof of indorsement by payee, is not a bona fide purchaser for value, under this section. See tion 5621. Mayers v. McRimmon, 53 S. E. 447, North Carolina (19

Sec. 5612. When prior party may negotiate instrument.—W an instrument is negotiated back to a prior party such party m subject to the provisions of this chapter, reissue and further n tiate the same. But he is not entitled to enforce payment the against any intervening party to whom he was personally lia
(Id., § 50.)

Decisions of other States.—The omission of the words "for v received" does not impair the note, affect its legal import, or weaken presumption that it was given for value. McLeod v. Hunter (1899) Misc. Rep. 558, 61 N. Y. Supp. 73.

See Quimby v. Varnum, cited under section 5625.

Rights of the Holder.

Sec. 5613. Right of holder to sue; payment.—The holder of a gotiable instrument may sue thereon in his own name and paym to him in due course discharges the instrument. (Id., § 51.)

See notes to section 5618.

Virginia decisions.—The endorsee may maintain an action in his name, though a third person may have paid one-half of the considera and, in absence of any evidence that the third person occupied any w or different position from the endorsee, with reference to the purc

Digitized by Google

note, no defense can be set up against the interest of such third in the note which could not be set up against the endorsee. an v. Bibb, 118 Va. 582, 88 S. E. 64.

r discussion upon what duress invalidates delivery, see 11 Va. Law 945.

e note, 10 Va. Law Reg. 1115.

cisions of other States.—A check becomes discharged on its pay- due course, and one who received payment of a certified check, but the money received thereon when threatened with suit, could not in an action against the bank on its acceptance or certification. . Twelfth Ward Bk., 86 N. Y. Supp. 867 (1904).

e Schlessinger v. Kurzrok, cited under section 5592.

e Rogers v. Morton, cited under section 5588.

5614. What constitutes a holder in due course.—A holder course is a holder who has taken the instrument under fol- conditions:

hat it is complete and regular upon its face.

hat he became the holder of it before it was overdue and t notice that it had been previously dishonored, if such was t.

hat he took it in good faith and for value.

hat at the time it was negotiated to him he had no notice of firmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person ating it. (Id., § 52.)

rginia decisions.—The addition of the words "payable with in- to a negotiable note, in the same handwriting as that of the body instrument, written on a blank space after the words "value re- " nothing on the face of the note awakening suspicion, does not it incomplete or irregular on its face within the meaning of section Trustees of Am. Bk., etc., v. McComb, 105 Va. 473 (1906), 54 4.

bona fide holder for value may give good title to a negotiable in- nt, even though he sells to a person with notice, but a payee who a bona fide purchaser for value and afterwards reacquires the ent, does not acquire any better right against the maker than he the first instance. Aragon Coffee Co. v. Rogers, 105 Va. 51, 52 43.

a holder, in due course, of a negotiable instrument transfers the vith a guaranty of its payment and subsequently reacquires it in o protect his guaranty, but under circumstances which would have d to him knowledge of infirmities in the instrument, that knowl- oes not relate back so as to impair his original position as pur- for value and without notice. Ratcliffe v. Costello, 117 Va. 563, E. 469.

e taking negotiable paper before maturity as a collateral security lder in due course within the meaning of this section. Anderson n Bank, 117 Va. 1, 83 S. E. 1080; Colona v. Parksley Nat. Bank, . 812, 92 S. E. 979.

ough a negotiable note may be endorsed to one person, while a erson paid one-half of the consideration and was to receive one- the proceeds thereof, the endorsee is the holder in due course his section. Fleshman v. Bibb, 118 Va. 582, 88 S. E. 64.

bsequent to the assignment of a negotiable note to a bank as col- security for overdrafts (which assignment was treated as an en- ent) the maker gave the bank written instructions to place the its credit, which was done. Held, that this in no way invalidated dorsement previously made, as the original endorsement completed e of the bank as a bona fide holder, and it was competent for the and the bank thereafter to agree to change the original purpose for which the transfer was made. Colona v. Parksley Nat. Bank, 120 812, 92 S. E. 979.

Digitized by Google

The names of endorsers of negotiable paper usually appear on back, but they may appear elsewhere without offending against the r larity required by the negotiable instruments law. Colona v. Park Nat. Bank, 120 Va. 812, 92 S. E. 979.

Cited but not construed. Holdsworth v. Anderson Drug Co., 118 359, 87 S. E. 565.

See editorial, 20 Va. L. Reg. 624.

Decisions of other States.—A check payable to the plaintiff handed by defendant drawer to her husband, to be delivered to the pl tiff, to pay a debt to become due from her to the plaintiff, was frau lently given by the husband to the plaintiff in payment of a debt he o the plaintiff, and was accepted by the plaintiff in settlement thereo good faith. Held, the plaintiff is a bona fide purchaser for value w out notice, affirming antecedent cases. Boston Steel & Iron Co. v. St (1903), 183 Mass. 140, 66 N. E. 646.

One is a holder in due course who takes a note, even from a t in good faith, for value, before maturity, without notice of any de affirming the law merchant. Greeser v. Sugarman (1902), 37 Misc. 799, 76 N. Y. Supp. 922.

Where the plaintiff purchased the defendant's check in due co for value before it was overdue, with a plausible explanation of the c for erasure of the indorsement of an intermediate indorser, purchasi from one to whom it was made payable, known to the plaintiff to be person whose name was indorsed on the check, the plaintiff is entitle recover the amount of the check. Goetting v. Day, 87 N. Y. Supp. (1904).

See Nat. Bank of Commerce v. Pick, cited under section 5592.

Where a note was made payable to the maker's order and was dorsed by him, by a firm for whose accommodation it was made, an the defendant, and was discounted by the firm for the plaintiff at more than six per cent., the note was void, as the note had no inception it was discounted and the discount was at a usurious rate in contraven of law.

In an action on such a note the burden is on the plaintiff of sh ing he took the note in good faith and without notice of any infirm Simpson v. Hefter, 87 N. Y. Supp. 243 (1904).

See Sutherland v. Mead, cited under section 5587.

The court declined to say whether the defense of usury has swept away by the Negotiable Instruments Law, and followed Strick v. Henry, 66 App. Div. 23 (1901).

Under this section and sections 5619 and 5621, where a holder check has no knowledge of defenses that would be good against p holders, and is an innocent purchaser for value, he is a holder in course. Benedict v. Kress et al., 89 N. Y. Supp, 607 (1904).

Under this section a person who takes a note from a person be maturity, as an agreement to forbear suing on the debt for a few at least, is a holder for value. Milius v. Kauffmann, 93 N. Y. Supp. (1905).

See Thorpe v. White, cited under section 5626.

See Rogers v. Morton, cited under section 5588.

Under this section, defining a holder in due course, and section 5 defining what is a defective title, held, where, after the execution of a and mortgage, the proposed mortgagee refused to make the loan, and agent for the mortgagor, who had endeavored to negotiate the loan, ca an assignment of the note and mortgage to be made to him by the posed mortgagee without the knowledge or consent of the mortgagor, agent is not a holder in due course, having acquired title not only w out consideration, but by a fraud on the makers of the note. Under sec 5621, when it is shown that the title of any person who has negotiated instrument is defective, the burden is on the holder to prove that he some person under whom he claims acquired the title as a holder in course. This case affirms what was the law in Iowa before the adop Negotiable Instruments Law. Keegan v. Rock, 102 N. W. 805, 905).

Digitized by Google

here the holder of a check drawn on another bank deposited it to unt, and the bank where it was so deposited credited the amount depositor's account and the depositor's account remained sufficient the check in case of dishonor, the bank was not a holder of the n due course of business within this section so as to exclude de- which the drawer of the check might have against the payee. State Bk. v. Cowles, 73 N. E. 33, New York (1905).

der this section and section 5621, the provisions of which were perly in issue under the pleadings, the defense of failure of con- on, upon suit against the maker of a negotiable instrument by a ee for value, is unavailing. Brown v. Feldwert, 80 Pac. 414, (1905).

e Wilkins v. Usher, cited under section 5621.

an action by an indorsee of several promissory notes which pro- hat any delinquency in payment of interest should cause the whole mediately to become due, it appeared that the plaintiff became der of the notes six days after annual interest upon one of them due and was unpaid. It was held that he was not a holder in due within this section, defining a holder in due course as one who other things takes the instrument before it is overdue. Hodge v. , 108 N. W. 212, Wisconsin (1906).

der this section a bank discounting a note, with knowledge that rious, is not a holder in due course. Schlesinger v. Lehmaier, 99 pp. 389 (1906).

here a mere inspection of a check showed that it had been altered, a er thereof took with notice of the infirmity, and was not a holder course, under this section. Elias v. Whitney, 98 N. Y. Supp. 667. e Court (1906).

pre-existing debt is of itself a valuable consideration for a deed of ade to secure its payment, and if such a deed transfers unmatured ble notes to secure creditors of the grantor, the trustee is a holder course within the terms of this section, if within the other terms section.

e Hodge v. Smith, cited under section 5578.

e Rosenthal v. Freedman, cited under section 5588.

e Montvale v. People's Bk., cited under section 5563.

e taker of a negotiable instrument, complete and regular upon its fore it is overdue, in good faith and for value, and having no notice infirmity in the instrument, or defect in the title of the person ing it, has good title, even though the person from whom he takes have acquired it by fraud, theft or robbery. The Negotiable In- ts Law is not cited. Arons v. Ziegfeld, 52 Misc. Rep. 571, New 907).

der this section and sections 5618 and 5619 an answer, in an n a note given in part payment of a horse, alleging that the pur- f the horse and the giving of the note were induced by fraudulent tations as to the soundness of the horse, whereby the makers were d in a sum specified, and that when the plaintiff purchased the e knew that misrepresentations had been made—sufficiently that the plaintiff had notice of the infirmity of the note and took ct to such defense. Quiggle v. Herman, 111 N. W. 479, Wiscon- 07).

5615. When person not deemed holder in due course.—an instrument payable on demand, other than bank notes rtificates of deposit, is negotiated an unreasonable length e after its issue, the holder is not deemed a holder in due (Id., § 53.)

visors' Note.—The words "other than bank notes and certificates sit" are new. This change is made in consequence of the change section 5632. See revisors' note to that section.

Digitized by Google

Virginia decisions.—What is a reasonable time for any purpose pends always upon the facts of the particular case, and this familiar p osition is directly recognized by section 5754. Under the facts of case, the negotiable note was not negotiated an unreasonable time its issue. Colona v. Parksley Nat. Bank, 120 Va. 812, 92 S. E. 979.

Sec. 5616. Notice before full amount paid.—Where the tr feree receives notice of any infirmity in the instrument or de in the title of the person negotiating the same before he has p the full amount agreed to be paid therefor he will be deeme holder in due course only to the extent of the amount thereto paid by him. (Id., § 54.)

Decisions of other States.—Where a bank discounted a note placed the proceeds thereof to the indorser's credit, dishonor of the by the maker at maturity and before the indorser had drawn the amount of the credit, entitles the maker to set up the defense of a fai of consideration as against the bank. The plaintiff bank had notic an infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the indorser be paying to his order the proceeds of discount placed to his credit. Alb Co. Bk. v. People's Co-op. Ice Co., 86 N. Y. Supp. 773 (1904).

See Hodge v. Smith, cited under section 5578.

Sec. 5617. When title defective.—The title of a person who gotiates an instrument is defective within the meaning of chapter when he obtained the instrument or any signature ther by fraud, duress, or force and fear or other unlawful means, for an illegal consideration or when he negotiates it in breach faith or under such circumstances as amount to a fraud. (Id 55.)

See notes to following section.

Decisions of other States.—See Sutherland v. Mead, cited under tion 5587.

In an action against the makers of two negotiable promissory no when the defendants proved they were given to one S. as mere memora and on an agreement that they would not be transferred, so that procuring their discount by S. was a fraudulent diversion of the no the burden is on the plaintiff of proving that they were bona fide chasers. Mitchell v. Baldwin, 84 N. Y. Supp. 1043 (1903).

Both at common law and under this section and section 5621, w defendant bank issued its cashier's check to the plaintiff's order, and plaintiff indorsed it and delivered it to a gambler in payment for c used in gambling, and was present when the defendant paid the amo of the check to the gambler, the plaintiff protesting against such paym the defendant bank is liable to plaintiff for the amount of the ch Drinkall v. Movius State Bk., 88 N. W. 724, North Dakota (1901).

Where the maker of a note payable to himself is induced by a frau lent trick to indorse it without knowledge on his part of having, in f indorsed it and without having had any intention to indorse it at the t the indorsement was obtained, he is not liable thereon, even to a bona holder. (Although the Negotiable Instruments Law was in force in W ington before the date of this note, no reference is made to the act. this section and section 5618.) Yakima Valley Bk. v. McAllister, 79 1119, Washington (1905).

See Keegan v. Rock, cited under section 5614.

Under this section the title of a payee of a negotiable instrumen defective where the only consideration for the note is accrued interest a loan previously made at a rate of interest forbidden by Session L 1899, p. 128, chapter 80, section 2. Keene v. Behan, 82 Pac. 884, W ington (1905).

Under this section, where a note was executed by several persons the signature of one of them was procured by fraudulent representati

Digitized by Google

character of the instrument, and he could not have obtained e of its true character by ordinary care, the note was void as to akers. (The concluding words of the Wisconsin statute, "and of such person is absolutely void when such instrument or signaso procured from a person who did not know the nature of the it and could not have obtained such knowledge by the use of care," were not in the original Negotiable Instruments Law.)
v. Arnold, 111 N. W. 212, Wisconsin (1907).
Hodge v. Smith, cited under section 5578.
editorial, 20 Va. L. Reg. 624.

618. What constitutes notice of defect.—To constitute no-an infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the negotiating the same the person to whom it is negotiated ve had actual knowledge of the infirmity or defect or ge of such facts that his action in taking the instrument d to bad faith. (Id., § 56.)

inia decisions.—The fact that the holder in due course of a e note acted negligently or was affected with suspicious circum-n taking the note, is not sufficient to defeat his right of action in the absence of proof of facts amounting to fraud on his part.
v. Bibb, 118 Va. 582, 88 S. E. 64.
, that under the evidence in this case, the plaintiff is a holder urse of the negotiable note sued on. The same is in all respects and no sufficient evidence of knowledge of the existence of any in the note has been brought home to the plaintiff under this Hawks v. Bowles, 119 Va. 108, 89 S. E. 93.
a case presenting the question of fact whether a purchaser of k same with notice, see City Natl. Bank v. Hundley, 112 Va. 51, 494.
ussed in editorial in 20 Va. L. Reg. 624.
notes to section 5614.

sions of other States.—Mere suspicion of defect of title or knowlircumstances that would excite suspicion in the mind of a prudent ross negligence on the part of the taker at the time of transfer it his title, following earlier Maryland cases. Valley Sav. Bank v.
1903), 97 Md. 458, 55 Atl. 435.
re plaintiff bought in Washington a negotiable promissory note 0, three months before maturity, payable at Cape Nome, knowing rs to be solvent, for $500, making inquiry only of the payee as to deration, and without knowledge of any infirmity, he may rereon, although the consideration from the payee to the maker
d. McNamara v. Jose (1902), 28 Wash. 461, 68 Pac. 903.
older for value of a negotiable promissory note, without notice or breach of faith of intermediate parties, can recover of the ffirming Banks v. McCosker (1896), 82 Md. 518, 34 Atl. 539, 51 Rep. 478; Black v. First Nat. Bank (1903), 96 Md. 399, 54 Atl.

re the evidence given upon the trial of an action upon a check show that the holder had knowledge the check was originally de-pon a condition that had not been fulfilled and that its payment stopped, and the holder accepts it in payment of a past indebted-he immediate assignor, the question whether the holder was a due course is for the jury. M. Groh's Sons v. Schneider, 34
. 195, 68 N. Y. Supp. 862.
Goetting v. Day, cited under section 5614.
Sutherland v. Mead, cited under section 5587.
Karsch, Respt. v. Pottier & Stymus Mfg. & Impt. Co., cited under 586.
er this section, where a check was drawn November 24th and was in blank and lost, a merchant, who took it before December 1st from an unknown customer, whom he supposed to be the payee, urther indorsement or inquiry of identity, was a bona fide holder

Digitized by Google

and entitled to payment, although the bank on which the check was d had received notice of the loss of the check and had been directed n pay the check. Unaka Nat. Bk. v. Butler, 83 S. W. 655, Tennessee (1

See Mass. Nat. Bk. v. Snow, cited under section 5570.

A third person taking a negotiable instrument given by a cor tion to an officer or director of the corporation, knowing he is su officer or director, is put upon inquiry as to the lawfulness of the of the note, and if it is subject to any legal infirmity, he cannot such infirmity by claiming to be a bona fide holder without notice. section is cited only in the dissenting opinion of McLean, J.) C Aubrey Terra Cotta Co., 94 N. Y. Supp. 524 (1905).

Under this section it is provided that to constitute notice of i firmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiati same, the person to whom it is negotiated must have had actual k edge of the infirmity or defect, or knowledge of such facts that his in taking the instrument amounted to bad faith.

Where certificates of deposit payable to C., "trustee" and "tr of B. F.," were wrongfully indorsed before maturity, by C., it was that the certificates themselves gave actual notice to the indorsee the paper represented a trust fund, and obligated such indorsee to in into the right of the trustee to dispose of it under the above section. v. Brown, 88 S. W. 1036, Tennessee (1905).

See Yakima Valley Bk. v. McAlister, cited under section 5617.

This section protects only a purchaser for value without notice fect of a negotiable instrument and does not repeal section 4223, St. requiring the indorsement of certain notes with the words "Ped Notes." Lawson v. First Nat. Bk. of Fulton, 102 S. W. 324, Ken (1907).

See Montvale v. People's Bk., cited under section 5563.

See Ward v. City Trust Co., cited under section 5587.

See Quiggle v. Hermon, cited under section 5614.

See Trustees of Am. Bk., etc., v. McComb, cited under section 5

Sec. 5619. Rights of holder in due course.—A holder in course holds the instrument free from any defect of title of parties and free from defenses available to prior parties a themselves, and may enforce payment of the instrument fo full amount thereof against all parties liable thereon. (1 57.)

Virginia decisions.—A pledgee of negotiable paper before matu not affected by a payment made by the maker to the payee, though in good faith, without knowledge of the assignment by the payee lateral security, unless the maker can prove that such payment was with the knowledge and consent of the pledgee, or was subsequentl fied by him. Anderson v. Union Bank, 117 Va. 1, 83 S. E. 1080.

See notes to section 5614.

Discussed in editorial in 20 Va. L. Reg. 624.

Decisions of other States.—Where the plaintiff in good faith chased a negotiable promissory note before maturity for one-half face value, he may collect the full amount from the maker, althou maker has a good defense against the payee, affirming antecedent McNamara v. Jose (1902), 28 Wash. 461, 68 Pac. 903.

See Albany Co. Bk. v. People's Co-op. Ice Co., cited under s 5616.

See Sutherland v. Mead, cited under section 5587.

See Nat. Bk. of Commerce v. Pick, cited under section 5592.

See Benedict v. Kress, cited under section 5614.

See Mass. Nat. Bk. v. Snow, cited under section 5570.

A holder of a negotiable instrument in due course takes it free any defenses available to prior parties among themselves, under th tion. Broadway Trust Co. v. Manheim, 95 N. Y. Supp. 93 (1905).

Under this section one who bought a second mortgage note for $ paying therefor $1,000, can recover, although the note and mortgag by fraud, the purchaser having had no actual knowledge of the or defect, nor any knowledge of such facts that his action in e instrument amounted to bad faith. Lassas v. McCarty, 84 Pac. on (1906).

Digitized by Google

Alexander v. Hazelrigg, cited under section 5746.

re the defendant issued a certificate of deposit to one who in- in blank, and it passed into a bank, that, while indebted to the sent the certificate to the plaintiff for collection, and the plain- ted the bank indebted to it with the amount, and such debtor t into a receiver's hands before paying the certificate of deposit, tiff was not a purchaser in due course of business under this he credit given being nothing more than a conditional credit. ial Nat. Bk. v. Citizens State Bk., 109 N. W. 198, Iowa (1906).

plaintiff bank was a bona fide holder in due course of the nego- omissory notes sued on, which were complete and regular upon e, the bank becoming such a holder before maturity and without any infirmity in them or of any defect in the title of the person ng them. But the notes were usurious in their inception. Held, s section, the defense of usury is inapplicable to that extent, the w of the State being superseded by the Negotiable Instruments owing Wirt v. Stubblefield, 17 App. Cas. D. C. 283. Schlesinger , 114 App. Div. 546, New York (1906).

Quiggle v. Hermon, cited under section 5614.

er this section a holder for value without notice may enforce pay- the full amount of a negotiable instrument free from defenses between the original parties.

e Wisconsin law has the following words added which are not in nal act: "except as provided in sections 1944 and 1945 of these relating to insurance premiums, and also in cases where the he person negotiating such instrument is void under the pro- f sections 1676-25 of this act.") Arnd v. Sjoblom, 111 N. W. consin (1907).

Benedict v. Kress, cited under section 5614.

620. When subject to original defenses.—In the hands of der other than a holder in due course a negotiable instru- subject to the same defenses as if it were non-negotiable. older who derives his title through a holder in due course o is not himself a party to any fraud or illegality affecting rument has all the rights of such former holder in respect rties prior to the latter. (Id., § 58.)

inia decisions.—The rule of this section is sanctioned in Aragon . v. Rogers, 105 Va. 51, 52 S. E. 843, but no reference is made ction.

sions of other States.—A negotiable promissory note, although on a gambling consideration is valid in this district, in the hands a fide purchaser for value without notice, before maturity. The Statutes, 16 Car. II, chapter 8, and 9 Anne, chapter 14, against etc., in this respect are repealed, and a different rule established e Negotiable Instruments Law. Wirt v. Stubblefield (1900), 17 C. 283.

payee of a negotiable promissory note, with knowledge of defect strument, selling it to an innocent purchaser for value, cannot hereon. He is not an innocent purchaser for value without notice. v. Robertson (1901), 111 Wis. 334, 87 N. W. 190, 54 L. R. A. Am. St. Rep. 870.

ere a note was indorsed by the payee to another and by three suc- olders before it was acquired by the plaintiff, and the indorser aintiff was a bona fide holder of the note and transferred it for er maturity to the plaintiff, defenses available as between the parties were not available against the plaintiff. Jennings v. Car- N. Y. Supp. 475 (1904).

t why was not the plaintiff put upon inquiry upon taking the note

Digitized by Google

after maturity, and, therefore, under section 5618, he had "know of such facts that this action in taking the instrument amounted t faith"?)

Under this section a payee of a negotiable promissory note, w also the owner of the indebtedness which the note was indorsed to s is a lien holder and a holder in due course for value to the extent lien, and is entitled to recover to the amount of the debt due and se by the note, whether that debt was incurred before or after the ma of the note. Mersick v. Alderman, 60 Atl. 109, Connecticut (1905).

See Hibbs v. Brown, cited under section 5563.

Sec. 5621. Who deemed holder in due course.—Every hold deemed prima facie to be a holder in due course, but when shown that the title of any person who has negotiated the in ment was defective the burden is on the holder to prove tha or some person under whom he claims acquired the title as a h in due course. But the last mentioned rule does not apply in of a party who became bound on the instrument prior to th quisition of such defective title. (Id., § 59.)

Virginia decisions.—The fact that the defendant swears to a denying that the plaintiff is the holder in due course of the nego note sued on does not throw upon the plaintiff the burden of showing he is such a holder. Holdsworth v. Anderson Drug Co., 118 Va. 35 S. E. 565.

In an action on negotiable paper, the production of the paper dence makes out a prima facie case for recovery, and the plaintiff titled to rest his case until rebuttal evidence is offered by the defen Holdsworth v. Anderson Drug Co., 118 Va. 359, 87 S. E. 565.

Cited but not construed in Fleshman v. Bibb, 118 Va. 582, 88 64.

Decisions of other States.—The holder of a negotiable promi note given to him by a member of a firm in payment of such mem own debt, ostensibly signed by the firm, but not by the name autho in the articles of partnership, cannot recover of the firm. He is holder in due course under the Negotiable Instruments Law, affi antecedent cases. Lucker v. Iba (1900), 54 App. Div. 566, 66 N. Y. 1019.

The title of an indorsee of a negotiable note is defective whe consideration for the indorsement is unlawful, or where the indorse is procured by unlawful means. Drinkall v. Movius Bank, 11 N. D 88 N. W. 724, 57 L. R. A. 341, 95 Am. St. Rep. 693.

See Mitchell v. Baldwin, cited under section 5617.

See Karsch, Respt. v. Pottier & Stymus Mfg. & Impt. Co., cited 5586.

See Sutherland v. Mead, cited under section 5587.

Under this section, where the maker of a negotiable promissory sued on by an indorsee testified that it had been negotiated in viol of an agreement under which it was given, such negotiation constitu breach of faith against the maker, and required proof, on the part o holder, before a recovery could be had, that the note was received i ordinary course of trade, for a valuable consideration and without k edge of such agreement. German Am. Bk. v. Cunningham, 89 N. Y. 836 (1904).

Under this section the burden is on the transferee of a negot promissory note from the payee, to show, before it can recover ag the maker, that it was a bona fide holder for value, where the no shown to have been fraudulent in its inception. Consolidation Nat v. Kirkland, 91 N. Y. Supp. 353 (1904).

See Donikall v. Movius State Bk., cited under section 5617.

See Benedict v. Kress, cited under section 5614.

See Keegan v. Rock, cited under section 5614.

See Brown v. Feldwert, cited under section 5614.

Digitized by Google

Mayers v. McRimmon, cited under section 5611.
n action by an indorsee against the maker, it was held that when the inception of a negotiable instrument was alleged and proved, en was upon the indorsee to prove that he was a purchaser for fore maturity without notice and in good faith.
Negotiable Instruments Law is in force in this State and the con- eached is in accordance therewith (this section). But the court have overlooked that fact. It followed previous decisions in akota and neither the court nor the counsel on either side, so far eport shows, cited the Negotiable Instruments Law. Tamlyn v. , 107 N. W. 1081, North Dakota (1906).
Singer Mfg. Co. v. Summers, cited under section 5748.
ler this section a third person taking a note for value without ge that the maker was deceived as to the purpose for which he , taking it before maturity from the payee who indorsed it to a holder in due course.
ler section 5587, a person taking a note as collateral security for edent debt is a holder for value.
ler section 5614, a purchaser of a note on the day after its date, being payable one day after date, is a holder for value. Wilkins 97 S. W. 37, Kentucky (1906).
ler this section the prima facie validity of the holder's title to le paper ceases, when the fraudulent character of the paper is and the burden then shifts to the holder, to exonerate himself nplicity in the fraud. Cook v. Am. Tubing & Webbing Co., 65 , Rhode Island (1906).
Colborn v. Arbecam, cited under section 5578.
Benedict v. Kress, cited under section 5614.
n suit on a negotiable instrument, the defendant indorser can put nce that the note was given under duress and without considera- d it then becomes the duty of the plaintiff to show that he ac- itle as a holder in due course, under this section. This is in ac- with the New York cases prior to the Negotiable Instruments ngle v. Hyman, 104 N. Y. Supp. 390 (1907).
ler this section, where the payee of a note sued on negotiated ach of faith, the burden is on the plaintiff to show that it or the er whom it claims acquired title as a holder in due course. Nat. arre v. Foley, 103 N. Y. Supp. 553 (1907).
Hodge v. Smith, cited under section 5578.

Liabilities of Parties.

5622. Liability of maker.—The maker of a negotiable in- it by making it engages that he will pay it according to its nd admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity rse. (Id., § 60.)

isions of other States.—A negotiable promissory note to the order eign corporation that had not complied with the Colorado law aws 1897, chapter 51), without doing which it could not do busi- the State, is nevertheless valid in the hands of an innocent pur- or value, without notice, before maturity. McMann v. Walker 903), 72 Pac. 1055.
Ullery v. Brohm, cited under section 5579.

5623. Liability of drawer.—The drawer by drawing the in- it admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to and engages that on due presentment the instrument will pted or paid or both, according to its tenor, and that if it onored and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly e will pay the amount thereof to the holder or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it. But the may insert in the instrument an express stipulation negativ limiting his own liability to the holder. (Id., § 61.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5624. Liability of acceptor.—The acceptor by accepti instrument engages that he will pay it according to the tenor acceptance, and admits—

1. The existence of the drawer, the genuineness of his ture, and his capacity and authority to draw the instrumen

2. The existence of the payee and his then capacity to i
(Id., § 62.)

Decisions of other States.—See Meuer v. Phenix Nat. Bk., cite section 5611.

See Schlessinger v. Kurzrok, cited under section 5592.

Sec. 5625. When person deemed indorser.—A person plac signature upon an instrument otherwise than as maker, dra acceptor is deemed to be an indorser unless he clearly indica appropriate words his intention to be bound in some other ca
(Id., § 63.)

Virginia decisions.—Under this section a person who endo blank a negotiable note without indicating "by appropriate words tention to be bound in some other capacity," although the paper in the hands of an agent of the payee, is deemed to be an endorser.
v. Summers-Parrott Co., 119 Va. 439, 89 S. E. 906.

Decisions of other States.—Where a negotiable promissory transferred for value to the plaintiff sixteen months after its issu the defendant signed her name on the back before delivery of the the payee (who transferred the note to the plaintiff), she beco indorser. McLean v. Bryer (1903), 24 R. I. 599, 54 Atl. 373.

See Rouse v. Wooten, cited under section 5651.

See Germania Nat. Bk. v. Mariner, cited under section 5582.

A director of a corporation, who signed his name on the back executed by the corporation before their delivery, without havi interest in the loan negotiated by the notes, and who was promised president of the corporation protection from liability on the notes, cidentally held merely a surety (this section). The Negotiable ments Law has been in force in this State since April 20, 1897, bu not referred to in the court's opinion, nor was the date of the ex of the notes given. Crosby v. Woodbury, 89 Pac. 34, Colorado

Upon failure of the maker, the defendant, to pay his note at m an irregular or anomalous indorser paid it to the indorsee, who out his own indorsement and delivered the note to the irregular in Five years afterwards he sold the paper to the plaintiff. Held, that, paid the note, the irregular indorser had a cause of action agai maker, but not upon the note. See this section and sections 562 and 5683. Quimby v. Varnum, 76 N. E. 671 (Mass., 1906).

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section and sections 562 and 5651, one who puts his name on the back of a negotiable instr not otherwise a party to it, is a maker or surety, and not an indorse

It is impossible to follow with approval the reasoning by wh plain provisions of the Negotiable Instruments Law are ignored, i to follow what the law was in Ohio before the adoption of the Neg Instruments Law, to the sacrifice of the uniformity the law is inte bring about. It is to be hoped the case will be appealed and re Rockfield v. First Nat. Bk. of Springfield, 4 Ohio L. Rep. 290 (19

Under this section and section 5626 (abrogating the rule in Ch
v. Vanness, 35 N. J. Law 517), one not otherwise a party, who pla name in blank before delivery upon the back of a negotiable note, i dorser. Gibbs v. Guaraglia, 67 Atl. 81, New Jersey (1907).

Digitized by Google

r this section one placing his signature upon an instrument other-as maker, drawer or acceptor is deemed to be an indorser (unless indicates a different intention by his words), abrogating the rule ock v. Vanness, 35 N. J. Law, 517, that such an indorsement r se no implied or commercial contract whatever.
r section 5630, parol evidence is admissible, as between several to show that they agreed to become liable otherwise than in in which they indorsed. Wilson v. Hendee, 66 Atl. 413, New 907).
r this section and section 5626, when a person not otherwise a negotiable instrument places thereon his signature in blank ivery, his status is fixed as that of an indorser, thereby changing prior to the enactment of the Negotiable Instruments Law.
er v. Kuntz, 42 So. 886, Florida (1907).
r this section, those who put their names on the back of a negotrument before delivery, for the accommodation of the maker, tiff knowing this fact, were held to be indorsers and not joint f the note, and under sections 5651 and 5665 notice of dishonor given them.
action brought against the makers and indorsers, the plaintiff maker agreed, on certain terms, not to press the suit. Under 382, subd. 6, the indorsers were discharged. Deahy v. Choquet, 38 (1907).

626. Liability of irregular indorser.—Where a person, not e a party to an instrument, places thereon his signature in fore delivery, he is liable as indorser in accordance with the g rules:

he instrument is a bill or note payable to the order of a rson, or is an accepted bill payable to the order of the or to bearer, he is liable to the payee and to all subsequent he instrument is a note or unaccepted bill payable to the the maker or drawer or payable to the bearer, he is liable rties subsequent to the maker or drawer.

e signs for the accommodation of the payee, he is liable to es subsequent to the payee. (Id., § 64.)

sors' Note.—In one of the discussions referred to in the reote found at the beginning of this chapter (see Brannan's Ne-Instruments Law, 2d Ed., pp. 198, 262), Dean Ames criticizes on; and his criticism is probably best shown by the following on:

s willing to sell goods to A on credit provided B becomes surety o A makes his note payable to X, gets B to endorse it, and deto X in exchange for the goods. Under paragraph 1 the surety to X. This is the correct result and the one intended by the Suppose, however, that they attempt to accomplish it in a dif-
ay. Suppose X draws on A, payable to his own order. A ac-s B to endorse, and hands the bill back to X. X sells it to Y. onored at maturity, and X is compelled to take it up. X now ght over against B. All intended that B should become liable the bill being payable to the order of the drawer, section 2 the anomalous endorser, liable not to the drawer-payee, but parties subsequent to the drawer-payee."
Ames' point is that this section should be amended so as to liable to X in the latter case. In this point of view the revisers' l, and were of opinion that the section should be so amended.
wing words are new: In paragraph 1, "a bill or note" and "or

Digitized by Google

is an accepted bill payable to the order of the drawer or to bearer in paragraph 2, "a note or unaccepted bill."

Decisions of other States.—The provisions of the Negotia struments Law as to the liability of irregular indorsers apply persons who indorse before delivery to the payee. Since the stat legal presumption is changed where the complaint alleges that regular indorsers indorsed before delivery to the payee. The t tention of indorsers as between themselves can always be shown evidence. Kohn v. Consolidated E. & E. Co. (1900), 30 Misc. Re 63 N. Y. Supp. 265.

This was an action brought upon a negotiable promissory note the executors of the first accommodation indorser by the second modation indorser who had been compelled to pay a judgment ered against her upon the note by the payee named therein. Phelps v. Vischer, 50 N. Y. 69, in order to establish the liability a first accommodation indorser, it had to be shown that he indor note for the purpose of giving the maker credit with the payee now held that this is abrogated by Laws 1897, 612 amended law Ch. 396, Sec. 114 (same as Sec. 5626), providing that where a not otherwise a party to an instrument, places his signature the blank before delivery, he is liable as indorser to the payee and subsequent parties, if the instrument is payable to the order of person. Coon, Respt, v. Levy et als., Appts., App. Div. N. Y. from the New York Law Journal, Aug. 19, 1904.

See note, 10 Va. Law Reg. 458, as to change in common la by this section.

Under this section it is not necessary for the complainant in tion on a negotiable promissory note, in order to charge a third as an indorser before delivery, to allege that the indorsement wa in order to give the maker credit with the payee, or that the p dorsed the note as surety for the maker. Corn v. Levy, 89 N. Y 658 (1904).

Under this section a person who writes his name on the ba negotiable instrument before delivery, not being the payee the liable as an indorser. Where, after a note was indorsed and d by the indorser to the maker, the latter altered it and delivere the payee, who took it without notice of the alteration, the indor liable to the payee under sections 5614 and 5686, defining a h due course and the effect of alteration. Thorpe v. White, 74 N. Massachusetts (1905).

Under this section, providing that where a person not othe party to an instrument places thereon his signature in blank bef livery, he is liable as an indorser to the payee and to all sub parties if the instrument is payable to the order of a third perso ble, that when the defendant indorsed a note payable to the ord third person, before such payee's indorsement, he became liable first holder of the note after it took effect and to all subsequent If the defendants indorsed before the payee did, defenses as to gality or consideration are open under said section. See Dunso Bunker, 2 Metc. 8. Under section 5628, declaring that every i indorsing without qualification warrants to all subsequent hol due course, the genuineness of the instrument, his own good ti the capacity of all prior parties to the contract, etc., an indorse the payee on a note executed by a corporation by its treasurer, defend on the ground that the treasurer had no authority to exec note, affirming prior law in Massachusetts. (Kenworthy v. Sawy Mass. 28.) Leonard v. Draper, 73 N. E. 644, Massachusetts (19

See Quimby v. Varnum, cited under section 5625.

See Rockfield v. First Natl. Bk., cited under section 5625.

Under this section, providing that where a person not othe party to an instrument payable to the order of a third person thereon his signature in blank before delivery, he is liable to the and to all subsequent parties, it was held that such a person plac (2478).

Digitized by Google

n the back of a note was liable only as an indorser. Far Rock-k. v. Norton, 79 N. E. 709, 186 N. Y. 484 (1906).
ider this section, subd. 2, and section 5630, an irregular indorser dorses negotiable paper to give credit to the acceptors and under eement that he would become liable for the goods furnished to ceptors, for which the negotiable paper was executed, is liable ne acceptor's failure to pay. Haddock, Blanchard & Co. v. Had-103 N. Y. Supp. 584 (1907).
e Gibbs v. Guaraglia, cited under section 5625.
e Baumeister v. Kuntz, cited under section 5625.

5627. Warranty; where negotiation by delivery, etc.—Every negotiating an instrument by delivery or by a qualified in-ient warrants—hat the instrument is genuine and in all respects what it pur-to be.
hat he has a good title to it.
hat all prior parties had capacity to contract.
hat he has no knowledge of any fact which would impair lidity of the instrument or render it valueless.
when the negotiation is by delivery only the warranty ex-in favor of no holder other than the immediate transferee.
provisions of sub-division three of this section do not apply rsons negotiating public or corporate securities other than nd notes. (Id., § 65.)

rginia decisions.—Under this section the indorser of a check hich there is a prior forged endorsement is obliged to make it o a subsequent innocent holder for value. Main Street Bank v. rs' Bank, 116 Va. 137, 81 S. E. 24.

5628. Liability of general indorsers.—Every indorser who es without qualification warrants to all subsequent holders in urse—he matters and things mentioned in sub-divisions one, two, ree of the next preceding section; and hat the instrument is at the time of his indorsement valid ubsisting.
in addition he engages that on due presentment it shall be ed or paid, or both, as the case may be, according to its and that if it be dishonored and the necessary proceedings honor be duly taken he will pay the amount thereof to the or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to (Id., § 66.)

rginia decisions.—Evidence that the endorsers of a negotiable ere not to be bound by their endorsements until the note was t back to them for a final decision on the question whether or ey should become endorsers is inadmissible in an action against y a holder in due course. Colona v. Parksley Nat. Bank, 120 Va. 2 S. E. 979. See Woodward v. Foster, 18 Gratt. 200. ecisions of other States.—See Leonard v. Draper, cited under sec-326.
n indorser is jointly and severally liable with the maker, and a need not exhaust his remedy against the maker before suing the r. (See this section, although the act is not cited.) Gardner v. , 109 App. Div. 106, New York (1905).

Digitized by Google

See Rockfield v. First Nat. Bk. cited under section 5625.

The indorser of a note made payable to several payees was h not liable to a transferee thereof when the maker without autho from or knowledge of the indorser altered the note before negotiat by striking out the name of one payee and substituting his own name payee thereon. Held, also, that this section did not apply; and e though the transferee of such altered note be considered to be a hol in due course, he is not entitled by virtue of section 5686 to enfo the note against the indorser according to its "original tenor" beca the note as altered never had an inception. First Nat. Bk. of Bro lyn v. Gridley, 112 App. Div. 398, New York (1906).

Sec. 5629. Liability of indorser where paper negotiable by de ery.—Where a person places his indorsement on an instrument gotiable by delivery he incurs all the liabilities of an indors (Id., § 67.)

Sec. 5630. Order in which indorsers are liable.—As respects another, indorsers are liable prima facie in the order in which t indorse; but evidence is admissible to show that as between among themselves they have agreed otherwise. Joint payees joint indorsees who indorse are deemed to indorse jointly and s erally. (Id., § 68.)

Virginia decisions.—The last clause of this sub-section does deprive the indorsers of the right to prove by evidence aliunde t they have made an agreement among themselves which varied the bility imposed by law. Alphin v. Lowman, 115 Va. 441, 79 S. E. 10

The object and effect of this sub-section is but to give statut force to a principle already established. Alphin v. Lowman, 115 441, 79 S. E. 1029.

See editorial on this case, 19 Va. L. Reg. 785.

See notes to section 5760.

Decisions of other States.—Since the passage of the Negotiable struments Law, evidence is admissible, even between indorsers, to sh that as between themselves they have agreed, as to the liability, oth wise than appears upon the note Morgan v. Thompson, 62 Atl. 4 New Jersey (1905).

Under this section, as respects one another, indorsers are liab prima facie, in the order in which they indorse, and under section 56 subd. 4, a valid tender of payment made by a prior party discharges secondarily liable on the instrument.

Where the defendant, who was an accommodation indorser and last indorser on the note sued on, and he was not a judgment deb when judgment was rendered against the other parties to the note, wh judgment was satisfied by a surety on the appeal bond of such judgm debtors, such payment operated to discharge the defendant's liabi on the note. State Bk. v. Kahn, 98 N. Y. Supp. 858, Supreme Co (1906).

See Haddock, B. & Co. v. Haddock, cited under section 5626.

See Wilson v. Hendee, cited under section 5625.

Sec. 5631. Liability of agent or broker.—Where a broker other agent negotiates an instrument without indorsement he curs all the liabilities prescribed by section fifty-six hundred a twenty-seven unless he discloses the name of his principal a the fact that he is acting only as agent. (Id., § 69.)

Digitized by Google

Presentment for Payment.

5632. Effect of want of demand on principal debtor.—Pre-nt for payment is not necessary, except in the case of bank nd certificates of deposit, in order to charge the person pri- liable on the instrument; but if the instrument is, by its payable at a special place, and he is able and willing to pay e at maturity, such ability and willingness are equivalent to er of payment upon his part. But except as herein otherwise ed, presentment for payment is necessary in order to charge awer and indorsers. (Id., § 70.) visors' Note.—The words "except in the case of bank notes and tes of deposit" are new.

is section as it reads in the uniform negotiable instruments law n justly criticized, because it provides that presentment for pay- not necessary in order to charge the person primarily liable on, trument, saying nothing as to bank notes and certificates of de- The omission of an exception as to bank notes and certificates of was no doubt an oversight. It is true that certificates of deposit ly require the surrender of the certificate when making a demand money, but if a certificate of deposit is to be treated as demand payable without demand, then the statute of limitations would run it from the date of the certificate, which, of course, ought not to law. Dean Ames suggests that this section be amended so as to 'Presentment for payment is not necessary, except in case of bank nd certificates of deposit, in order to charge the person primarily n the instrument." (See Brannan's Negotiable Instruments Law, p. 174.) The revisors fully concurred in this suggestion. This also necessitated a corresponding change in section 5615, and ter section has been so changed as to read: "When an instrument e on demand, other than bank notes and certificates of deposit," ee section 5615 and revisors' note.

ecisions of other States.—See notes to section 5687.

e Welsh v. Kukuk, cited under section 5591.

nder this section and section 5651, a holder of a note exercising tion therein stated, to declare it due, upon non-payment of in- must make presentment and demand for payment, and give notice ndorser. Galbraith v. Shepard, 86 Pac. 1113, Washington (1906).

an action on a note payable on demand at a specified place no d on the maker need be proved, to fix his liability.

his decision is in accordance with the Negotiable Instruments Law, gh it is not cited. See this section. Hyman v. Doyle, 103 N. Y. 778 (1907).

an action against the maker of a negotiable note, payable at a lar time and place, a demand need not be averred or proved. If aker was ready and offered at the time and place specified to pay should plead it and prove it. This section does not change this. ce Oil & R. Co. v. First Nat. Bk., 88 Pac. 182, Colorado (1906).

5633. Presentment where instrument is not payable on de-—Where the instrument is not payable on demand present- must be made on the day it falls due. Where it is payable on id presentment must be made within a reasonable time after sue, except that in the case of a bill of exchange present- for payment will be sufficient if made within a reasonable fter the last negotiation thereof. (Id., § 71.)

Digitized by Google

Decisions of other States.—In an action against the indorser negotiable promissory note payable on demand, demand made t months after date of the note is not made within a reasonable t Merritt v. Jackson (1902), 181 Mass. 69, 62 N. E. 987.

What is a reasonable time for presentment, so as to bind an indo of a negotiable promissory note payable on demand, under this sect is a question to be determined by the circumstances of the partic case. German Am. Bk. v. Mills, 91 N. Y. Supp. 142 (1904).

See Schlessinger v. Schultz, cited under section 5566.

Under this section a note payable on demand must be colle within a reasonable time, and where a note was indorsed by a t party and was not negotiated within ten days after its date, presenta for payment within ten months was held to be within sufficient tim hold the indorser.

A note payable to the order of the maker, "on demand after d at a bank designated, is a note payable on demand within section 5 and is not a note payable at a determinate future time within sec 5566.

Under sections 5635 and 5637, a note payable at a bank is prop presented for payment at the bank though the bank is in the hands receiver. Schlessinger v. Schultz, 96 N. Y. Supp. 383 (1905).

See Commercial Nat. Bk. v. Zimmerman, cited under section 5
See Plover Svgs. Bk. v. Moodie, cited under section 5747.

Sec. 5634. What constitutes a sufficient presentment.—Pres ment for payment to be sufficient must be made—

1. By the holder or by some person authorized to receive p ment on his behalf.

2. At a reasonable hour on a business day.

3. At a proper place as herein defined.

4. To the person primarily liable on the instrument, or if h absent or inaccessible to any person found at the place where presentment is made. (Id., § 72.)

Decisions of other States.—Where a note specifies on its face place where it is payable and is presented there for payment, no pers demand on the maker is necessary under this section and section 5 Nelson v. Grondahl, 100 N. W. 1093, North Dakota (1904).

Sec. 5635. Place of presentment.—Presentment for paymen made at the proper place—

1. Where a place of payment is specified in the instrument an is there presented.

2. Where no place of payment is specified but the address of person to make payment is given in the instrument and it is th presented.

3. Where no place of payment is specified and no address is gi and the instrument is presented at the usual place of business residence of the person to make payment.

4. In any other case if presented to the person to make paym wherever he can be found, or if presented at his last known pl of business or residence. (Id., § 73.)

Decisions of other States.—See Nelson v. Grondahl, cited un section 5634.

See Schlessinger v. Schultz, cited under sections 5566 and 563

Sec. 5636. Instrument must be exhibited.—The instrument m be exhibited to the person from whom payment is demanded

Digitized by Google

is paid must be delivered up to the party paying it. (Id.,

637. Presentment where instrument payable at bank.—he instrument is payable at a bank presentment for pay-st be made during banking hours unless the person to make has no funds there to meet it at any time during the day, case presentment at any hour before the bank is closed day is sufficient. (Id., § 75.)

sions of other States.—The maker of a negotiable promissory until the close of the banking hours of the bank where the note payable in which to pay it, affirming the prior rule in such cases. Am. Bank v. Milliman (1900), 31 Misc. Rep. 87, 65 N. Y. 2.

Schlessinger v. Schultz, cited under section 5633.

638. Presentment where principal debtor is dead.—Where on primarily liable on the instrument is dead and no place ent is specified presentment for payment must be made ersonal representative if such there be and if with the ex-f reasonable diligence he can be found. (Id., § 76.)

sions of other States.—See Reed v. Spear, cited under section

639. Presentment to persons liable as partners.—Where the primarily liable on the instrument are liable as partners place of payment is specified presentment for payment may to any one of them even though there has been a dissolu-he firm. (Id., § 77.)

640. Presentment to joint debtors.—Where there are sev-sons not partners primarily liable on the instrument and no payment is specified presentment must be made to them ., § 78.)

641. When presentment not required to charge the drawer. ntment for payment is not required in order to charge the where he has no right to expect or require that the drawee tor will pay the instrument. (Id., § 79.)

642. When presentment not required to charge the indorser. ntment for payment is not required in order to charge an where the instrument was made or accepted for his ac-ation and he has no reason to expect that the instrument paid if presented. (Id., § 80.)

643. When delay in making presentment is excused.—De-naking presentment for payment is excused when the de-aused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder imputable to his default, misconduct, or negligence. When se of delay ceases to operate presentment must be made asonable diligence. (Id., § 81.)

isions of other States.—Under this section and section 5748, the of a bank check must present it for payment within a reasonable order to render the indorser liable thereon. Where the payee ck on another bank indorsed and deposited the check in his own bank, received credit for the amount of the check as cash in his account to be checked against with nothing to qualify the effe bank where the check is so deposited becomes its owner, and not agent to collect it for the payee. Where the drawee of a che been discharged from liability on his indorsement by delay of the in in presentment until the check is lost, the drawee does not wa indorsee's delay and renew his obligation as indorser by procuri indorsing a duplicate check at the request of such other bank. Bk. of Evansville, 102 N. W. 329, Wisconsin (1905).

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5644. When presentment may be dispensed with.—Pr ment for payment is dispensed with—

1. Where after the exercise of reasonable diligence presen as required by this chapter cannot be made.

2. Where the drawee is a fictitious person.

3. By waiver of presentment, express or implied. (Id.,

Decisions of other States.—Under the Negotiable Instrument as well as under prior decisions in Massachusetts, and under t merchant, words or acts of a maker and indorser of a negotiable p sory note which misled and put the holder off his guard, and reas induced him to omit due presentment and notice of non-payment stitute an implied waiver thereof. In re Swift (D. C.; 1901) 106 F

It is for the jury to determine, upon the evidence submitted, w there has been a waiver of presentment for payment and of no dishonor, under this section and section 5671. Torbert v. Montag Pac. 1145, Colorado (1906).

See 14 Va. Law Reg. p. 75 for review of a decision of the Ho Lords in which it was held that "fictitious" as used in the "Bill change Act" means fictitious by pretense of some person who is a to the instrument.

Sec. 5645. When instrument dishonored by non-payment. instrument is dishonored by non-payment when—

1. It is duly presented for payment and payment is refus cannot be obtained; or

2. Presentment is excused and the instrument is overdu unpaid. (Id., § 83.)

Decisions of other States.—See Reed v. Spear, cited under s 5651.

Sec. 5646. Liability of person secondarily liable when instr dishonored.—Subject to the provisions of this chapter, when t strument is dishonored by non-payment an immediate right course to all parties secondarily liable thereon accrues to the er. (Id., § 84.)

Sec. 5647. Time of maturity.—Every negotiable instrum payable at the time fixed therein without grace. When th of maturity falls upon Saturday, Sunday or a holiday, the i ment is payable on the next succeeding business day which a Saturday. Instruments payable on demand may, at the of the holder, be presented for payment before twelve o'clock on Saturday when that entire day is not a holiday. (Id., 1906, p. 366.)

Revisors' Note.—In the second sentence, the words "Saturday "which is not a Saturday" are new, and the words "instruments due or becoming payable on Saturday are to be presented for paym (2484) succeeding business day, except that" contained in Acts 1906, ave been omitted. See comments on this section in Brannan's le Instruments Law (2nd Ed.), p. 99.

Digitized by Google

648. Time; how computed.—Where the instrument is pay- a fixed period after date, after sight, or after the happening cified event, the time of payment is determined by exclud- day from which the time is to begin to run and by includ- date of payment. (1897-8, p. 896, § 86.)

649. Rule where instrument payable at bank.—Where the ent is made payable at a bank it is equivalent to an order ank to pay the same for the account of the principal debtor (Id., § 87.)

5650. What constitutes payment in due course.—Payment in due course when it is made at or after the maturity of rument to the holder thereof in good faith and without hat his title is defective. (Id., § 88.)

Notice of Dishonor.

5651. To whom notice of dishonor must be given.—Except in otherwise provided, when a negotiable instrument has shonored by non-acceptance or non-payment notice of dis- nust be given to the drawer and to each indorser, and any or indorser to whom such notice is not given is discharged. 89.)

isions of other States.—A notice of protest addressed only to N. Y.," is insufficient where there is no evidence that the indorser, empted to be served with notice, ever lived or was sojourning York, and no inquiry was made to ascertain whether such was Fonseca v. Hartman, 84 N. Y. Supp. 131 (1903).

ler this section the drawer of an ordinary check may, before it is , revoke it and forbid its payment, in which case any subsequent made by the bank, after receipt of such notice not to pay it, is its peril. Pease & Dwyer Co. v. State Nat. Bk., 88 S. W. 172, ee (1905).

ler this section notice of dishonor must be given to charge an , although presentment to the one primarily liable was excused, ection 5645 through his death, and no personal representative n appointed (see 5638). Under sections 5638 and 5658, "rea- diligence" was exercised by the holder, who went two or three the office of the administrator of the deceased maker, to make nent, but was unable to find him there, or at a nearby railroad the seat of his other place of business interests at a time when t be expected to be there, and hence an indorser became liable, ving sufficient notice of dishonor. Held further, that notice of , served at indorser's store, by delivery thereof to his wife, who s his assistant, is sufficient notice. Reed v. Spear, 94 N. Y. 007 (1905).

, also, sections 5632 and 5676.

Rockfield v. First Nat. Bk., cited under 5625.

surety on a note is not entitled to notice of dishonor under this nor is such a surety an indorser under section 5625, but he is y liable, within section 5753. Rouse v. Wooten, 53 S. E. 430, Carolina (1906).

Digitized by Google

See Galbraith v. Shepard, cited under section 5632.
See Deahy v. Choquet, cited under section 5625.
When the drawer of a check stopped its payment, the notice o honor required under this section need not be given to the drawer, section 5676. Scanlon v. Wallach, 102 N. Y. Supp. 1090 (1907).

Sec. 5652. By whom given.—The notice may be given by behalf of the holder or by or on behalf of any party to the in ment who might be compelled to pay it to the holder and upon taking it up would have a right to reimbursement fro party to whom the notice is given. (Id., § 90.)

Decisions of other States.—Under this section and section where a notary gave due notice of protest of a firm note. to the who were makers and, at least in form, subsequent indorsers, inc a notice to defendant who was a member of the firm and accom tion indorser of the note, which notice was mailed to the defenda mediately, although the makers were not authorized, under this s to give a valid notice of protest to the defendant, they were auth to forward it to him as agents of the holder of the note, under s 5653. Traders' Nat. Bk. v. Jones, 93 N. Y. Supp. 768 (1905).

Sec. 5653. Notice given by agent.—Notice of dishonor m given by an agent either in his own name or in the name o party entitled to give notice, whether that party be his pri or not. (Id., § 91.)

Decisions of other States.—See Traders' Nat. Bk. v. Jones, under section 5652.

Sec. 5654. Effect of notice given on behalf of holder.—W notice is given by or on behalf of the holder it enures for the b of all subsequent holders and all prior parties who have a ri recourse against the party to whom it is given. (Id., § 92.)

Sec. 5655. Effect where notice is given by party entitled th —Where notice is given by or on behalf of a party entitled t notice it enures for the benefit of the holder and all parties quent to the party to whom notice is given. (Id., § 93.)

Sec. 5656. When agent may give notice.—Where the instr has been dishonored in the hands of an agent he may either h give notice to the parties liable thereon or he may give not his principal. If he give notice to his principal he must within the same time as if he were the holder, and the pri upon the receipt of such notice has himself the same time for notice as if the agent had been an independent holder. (94.)

Sec. 5657. When notice sufficient.—A written notice nee be signed and an insufficient written notice may be supplem and validated by verbal communication. A misdescription instrument does not vitiate the notice unless the party to the notice is given is in fact misled thereby. (Id., § 95.)

Sec. 5658. Form of notice.—The notice may be in writi merely oral and may be given in any terms which sufficiently tify the instrument and indicate that it has been dishonor

Digitized by Google

ptance or non-payment. It may in all cases be given by g it personally or through the mails. (Id., § 96.)

isors' Note.—Acts 1906, p. 26, which provides for sending notice nor through the mails in cities and towns, has been omitted this provision is fully covered by sections 5658, 5665 and 5667.

isions of other States.—Notice of dishonor to an indorser who d no address to his signature, mailed to him directed to the ere he resides, is sufficient. Ebling Brewing Co. v. Reinheimer 32 Misc. Rep. 594, 66 N. Y. Supp. 458.

n action against the indorser of a negotiable promissory note Wisconsin, but actually executed, negotiated, and made pay- ndiana, in the absence of evidence to the contrary the note must dered an Indiana contract. The laws of Indiana control upon ions relating to the construction and legal effect of the contract grace and manner of notice to the indorser), while the law of n controls as to the form of the remedy, the conduct of the trial, rules of evidence (the kind and sufficiency of the evidence neces- rove dishonor).

he absence of evidence to the contrary, the presumption is that of Indiana as to what notice of dishonor is necessary to charge is the same as that of Wisconsin.

ertificate of the notary in Indiana, fully showing that the note s presented, that payment thereof was refused, and that it was l, that notice of the protest of "the aforementioned note" (a which was attached) was served on the indorsers by depositing the post office, is sufficient to charge the indorsers. Second k v. Smith (Wis.; 1903). 94 N. W. 664.

Reed v. Spear, cited under section 5651.

er this section and section 5659, service of notice of dishonor e an indorser, a corporation conducting a hotel, by leaving such t the cashier's window, is not enough; it not appearing that service was made upon any officer, of the defendant corpora- hat notice was left with such an officer, or even where it might nably inferred that an officer or agent of the corporation would t. Am. Ex. Bk. v. Am. Hotel Victoria Co., 92 N. Y. Supp. 1006

5659. To whom notice may be given.—Notice of dishonor given either to the party himself or to his agent in that (Id., § 97.)

isions of other States.—See Am. Ex. Bk. v. Am. Hotel Victoria d under section 5658.

660. Notice where party is dead.—When any party is dead death is known to the party giving notice the notice must n to a personal representative if there be one and if with ble diligence he can be found. If there be no personal rep- ive notice may be sent to the last residence or last place of s of the deceased. (Id., § 98.)

isions of other States.—A promissory note made and payable in is a contract governed by the laws of Canada. Under the Cana- ls of Exchange Act, 53 Vict., chapter 33, section 49 (Va. Act, 5660), the mailing of notice of dishonor to an indorser known ead, directed to a post office known to be one at which he had ived his mail while living, is not a good notice of dishonor. ts' Bk. v. Brown, 86 App. Div. N. Y. 599 (1903).

5661. Notice to partners.—Where the parties to be notified tners notice to any one partner is notice to the firm even there has been a dissolution. (Id., § 99.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5662. Notice to persons jointly liable.—Notice to join ties who are not partners must be given to each of them unle of them has authority to receive such notice for the others. § 100.)

Sec. 5663. Notice to bankrupt.—Where a party has bee judged a bankrupt or an insolvent, or has made an assignme the benefit of creditors, notice may be given either to the himself or to his trustee or assignee. (Id., § 101.)

Sec. 5664. Time within which notice must be given.—Notic be given as soon as the instrument is dishonored, and unless is excused as hereinafter provided must be given within the fixed by this chapter. (Id., § 102.)

See 11 Va. Law Reg. 689.

Sec. 5665. Where parties reside in same place.—Where th son giving and the person to receive notice reside in the same notice must be given within the following times:

1. If given at the place of business of the person to receive it must be given before the close of business hours on the da lowing.

2. If given at his residence it must be given before the hours of rest on the day following.

3. If sent by mail it must be deposited in the post-office in to reach him in usual course on the day following. (Id., §

Decisions of other States.—Under this section notice to an in that the note had not been paid, given two or three days after due, was too late. Solomon v. Cohen, 94 N. Y. Supp. 502 (1905)

See Deahy v. Choquet, cited under section 5625.

Sec. 5666. Where parties reside in different places.—Whe person giving and the person to receive notice reside in dif places the notice must be given within the following times:

1. If sent by mail it must be deposited in the post-office in to go by mail the day following the day of dishonor, or if be no mail at a convenient hour on that day by the next mail after.

2. If given otherwise than through the post-office then with time that notice would have been received in due course of n it had been deposited in the post-office within the time specif the last subdivision. (Id., § 104.)

See notes to section 5670.

Sec. 5667. When sender deemed to have given due not Where notice of dishonor is duly addressed and deposited post-office the sender is deemed to have given due notice no standing any miscarriage in the mails. (Id., § 105.)

Decisions of other States.—Where notice of dishonor of a n duly addressed and deposited in the post office, the sender is d to have given due notice notwithstanding any miscarriage in the State Bank v. Solomon, 84 N. Y. Supp. 976 (1903).

Sec. 5668. Deposit in post-office; what constitutes.—Not deemed to have been deposited in the post-office when deposi

Digitized by Google

ıch post-office or in any letter-box under the control of office department. (Id., § 106.)

669. Notice to subsequent parties; time of.—Where a party notice of dishonor he has after the receipt of such notice time for giving notice to antecedent parties that the holder r the dishonor. (Id., § 107.)

670. Where notice must be sent.—Where a party has added ess to his signature notice of dishonor must be sent to that but if he has not given such address then the notice must as follows:

her to the post-office nearest to his place of residence or to -office where he is accustomed to receive his letters; or ıe live in one place and have his place of business in an- otice may be sent to either place; or ıe is sojourning in another place notice may be sent to the ıere he is sojourning.

vhere the notice is actually received by the party within specified in this chapter it will be sufficient though not sent dance with the requirements of this section. (Id., § 108.)

isions of other States.—When notice of dishonor is sent by mail efendant indorser, directed to the place where the maker dated the indorser not having added her address to the indorsement, fficient notice of dishonor. Mohlman Co. v. McKane (1901), Div. 546, 69 N. Y. Supp. 1046.

Fonseca v. Hartman, cited under section 5651.

payee of a protested note cannot recover of an indorser who did ive notice of protest until three months thereafter, the notice st having been sent to him by mail addressed to a place at which ot live and which was not his last known address.

e this section; not cited in the opinion.) Albany Trust Co. v. ham, 99 N. Y. Supp. 343 (1906).

5671. Waiver of notice.—Notice of dishonor may be waived before the time of giving notice has arrived or after the n to give due notice, and the waiver may be express or im- (Id., § 109.)

isions of other States.—Waiver of notice of dishonor may be or after dishonor, and may be express or implied. Schwartz v. (1899), 90 Md. 136, 44 Atl. 1059. See Turnbull v. Maddux, 587, 13 Atl. 334, confirming antecedent law in Md.

First Nat. Bk., etc., v. Gridley, cited under section 5576.

Torbert v. Montague, cited under section 5644.

5672. Whom affected by waiver.—Where the waiver is em- in the instrument itself it is binding upon all parties, but it is written above the signature of an indorser it binds him (Id., § 110.)

5673. Waiver of protest.—A waiver of protest, whether in se of a foreign bill of exchange or other negotiable instru- s deemed to be a waiver not only of a formal protest but also sentment and notice of dishonor. (Id., § 111.)

5674. When notice dispensed with.—Notice of dishonor is sed with when after the exercise of reasonable diligence it cannot be given to or does not reach the parties sought charged. (Id., § 112.)

Digitized by Google

Decisions of other States.—What is "reasonable diligence" question of fact for the jury. Brewster v. Schrader (1899), 26 Rep. 480, 57 N. Y. Supp. 606.

See Fonseca v. Hartman, cited under section 5651.

Sec. 5675. Delay in giving notice; how excused.—Delay in ing notice of dishonor is excused when the delay is caused b cumstances beyond control of the holder or other person se to give notice under section fifty-six hundred and fifty-two not imputable to his default, misconduct, or negligence. Whe cause of delay ceases to operate notice must be given with re able diligence. (Id., § 113.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "or other person seeking to give under section fifty-six hundred and fifty-two," inserted after "h are new. The reason for this insertion is manifest.

Sec. 5676. When notice need not be given to drawer.—Not dishonor is not required to be given to the drawer in either following cases:

1. Where the drawer and drawee are the same person.

2. Where the drawee is a fictitious person or a person not h capacity to contract.

3. Where the drawer is the person to whom the instrument i sented for payment.

4. Where the drawer has no right to expect or require tha drawee or acceptor will honor the instrument.

5. Where the drawer has countermanded payment. (Id., §

Decisions of other States.—See Scanlon v. Wallach, cited unde tion 5651. As to whom notice of dishonor must be given, see s 5651.

Sec. 5677. When notice need not be given to indorser.—N of dishonor is not required to be given to an indorser in eith
the following cases:

1. Where the drawee is a fictitious person or a person not h capacity to contract and the indorser was aware of the fact time he indorsed the instrument.

2. Where the indorser is the person to whom the instrum presented for payment.

3. Where the instrument was made or accepted for his acc dation. (Id., § 115.)

Sec. 5678. Notice of non-payment where acceptance refu Where due notice of dishonor by non-acceptance has been notice of a subsequent dishonor by non-payment is not nec unless in the meantime the instrument has been accepted § 116.)

Sec. 5679. Effect of omission to give notice of non-accepta
An omission to give notice of dishonor by non-acceptance do

Digitized by Google

ce the rights of a holder in due course subsequent to the
n. (Id., § 117.)

5680. When protest need not be made; when must be made; t certificate of protest is evidence.—Where any negotiable ient has been dishonored it may be protested for non-accept- r non-payment, as the case may be; but protest is not re- except in the case of foreign bills of exchange. The cer- of protest of any negotiable instrument shall, in all cases, r such protest be made in this State or not, be prima facie ce of what is stated therein, or at the foot, or on the back , in relation to presentment, demand, dishonor, and notice , and the court shall take judicial notice of the seal of the annexed to such certificate in like manner and with like s if the protest had been of a foreign bill of exchange. (Id., . 395, § 118.)

visors' Note.—The second sentence of this section is taken from 08, p. 395, and is added to this section because considered the ppropriate place for it. It is regarded as a very necessary addi- the section in view of the decision in the case of Corbin v. Bank, 661, 13 S. E. 98.

ction 2850 of the Code of 1887 was amended by Acts 1893-4, p. consequence of the decision in Corbin v. Bank, 87 Va. 661, 13 S. 24 Am. St. Rep. 673, the purpose being to change the rule laid n that case. By Acts 1902-3-4, p. 899, the said section 2850 was d. In 1908, however (Acts 1908, p. 395), the provision was l, and it appears in the revised section above.

e 10 Va. L. Reg. 89; 11 Va. L. Reg. 66; Nelson v. Fotterall, 7 79; Stainback v. Bank, 11 Gratt. 260; Walker v. Turner, 2 Gratt. aughter v. Farland, 31 Gratt. 134.

Discharge of Negotiable Instruments.

5681. How instrument discharged.—A negotiable instrument harged:

y payment in due course by or on behalf of the principal ;

y payment in due course by the party accommodated, where strument is made or accepted for accommodation;

y the intentional cancellation thereof by the holder;

When the principal debtor becomes the holder of the instru- t or after maturity in his own right. (1897-8, p. 896, § 119.)

evisors' Note.—In one of the discussions referred to in the re- note found at the beginning of this chapter (see Brannan's Ne- Instruments Law, 2nd Ed., p. 174), Dean Ames criticizes para- 4 of this section of the original act. This paragraph reads as : "By any other act which will discharge a simple contract for yment of money." Of it Dean Ames says: "If a creditor ac- horse in satisfaction of his claim, not yet matured, the simple t claim is discharged. But if a holder accepts a horse from the before maturity, in satisfaction of the note, the note is not dis- d. The accord and satisfaction gives the maker merely a per- defense, which is cut off the moment the note is transferred to a holder in due course. This sub-section should be cancelled. It w be superfluous, even if it were accurate." The revisors were of opi that paragraph 4 should be omitted. This was done, so that wh now paragraph 4 of section 5681 was formerly paragraph 5 of se 119 of the original act.

Digitized by Google

Cited but not construed in Nottingham v. Ackiss, 107 Va. 63 S. E. 592.

Decisions of other States.—Under the Laws 1897, ch. 612, 200, sub. 5, providing that a negotiable instrument is discharged the principal debtor becomes the holder in his own right at or after turity; under sub-sec. 191, defining the holder as the payee or ind in possession, and under sub-sec. 192, defining the person prim liable as the person who, by the terms of the instrument, is absol required to pay the note—a demand note is discharged and the m is freed from liability thereon when an endorsee, upon payment of of the amount of the note, voluntarily surrenders it to the maker, though the maker promises at the time to pay the balance of the Schwartzman v. Post, 84 N. Y. Supp. 922 (1903).

Under this section, in case of dishonor of a foreign bill of change made payable in New York, the holder is entitled to recover amount of the draft with interest and protest fees, and is not entitl recover in addition, exchange and re-exchange. Pavenstedt v. N Life Ins. Co., 99 N. Y. Supp. 614 (1906).

See Vanderford v. Farmers' & M. Nat. Bk., etc., cited under tion 5753.

See Cellers v. Meachem, cited under section 5591.

Sec. 5682. When person secondarily liable discharged.—A pe secondarily liable on the instrument is discharged—

1. By any act which discharges the instrument.
2. By the intentional cancellation of his signature by the ho
3. By the discharge of a prior party.
4. By a valid tender of payment made by a prior party.
5. By a release of the principal debtor unless the holder's of recourse against the party secondarily liable is expressly served.
6. By any agreement binding upon the holder to extend the of payment or to postpone the holder's right to enforce the in ment unless made with the assent of the party secondarily li or unless the right of recourse against such party is expressly served. (Id., § 120.)

Virginia decisions.—Cl. 6 of this section is declaratory of the merchant. Cape Charles Bank v. Farmers' Mut. Exchange, 120 Va. 92 S. E. 918.

The question of the existence of such an agreement as is tioned in Cl. 6 of this section is a mixed question of law and fact; when the mutual agreement is to be gathered from the acts of the ties, their situation and the surrounding circumstances, it is for jury to determine what were the intention and understanding which the minds of the parties met, but if the facts and circumsta are all ascertained, whether they constitute such an agreement or is a question of law for the court. Cape Charles Bank v. Farmers' Exchange, 120 Va. 771, 92 S. E. 918.

Payment and acceptance of interest in advance is not in itself an agreement as is contemplated by Cl. 6 of this section, but it is dence tending to prove the existence of the agreement, and in the sence of any other evidence bearing upon the negative of the ques it affords prima facie evidence of the existence of the agreement. S evidence, however, will rebut the prima facie case thus made out, v se is not submitted on the bare facts of the payment and accept- f interest in advance. Cape Charles Bank v. Farmers' Mut. Ex- , 120 Va. 771, 92 S. E. 918.

Digitized by Google

ne agreement contemplated by Cl. 6 of this section need not be ed. It may be implied from acts, declarations, facts and cir- nces. Its form is immaterial. It may be by parol as well as in . It must, however, be a binding contract enforceable at law or ty. It must be supported by a valuable consideration. It must a definite period, however short. When implied in law it is still act in fact and not in law, and hence an actual meeting of the of the contracting parties is essential to such an agreement, to t within the operation of the statute and common law rule which rmer has enacted. Cape Charles Bank v. Farmers' Mut. Ex- . 120 Va. 771, 92 S. E. 918.

here such a release as is mentioned in Cl. 6 of this section is re- as a defense in an action on a negotiable instrument, the bur- proving the existence of the agreement rests upon the defendant. Charles Bank v. Farmers' Mut. Exchange, 120 Va. 771, 92 S. E or article upon what constitutes an agreement binding upon the as required by sub-sec. 6, see 11 Va. Law Reg. 102.

ecisions of other States.—See Vanderford v. Farmers' & M. Nat. c., cited under section 5753.

ee Cellers v. Meachem, cited under section 5591.

ee Deahy v. Choquet, cited under section 5625.

nder this section the intentional cancellation of the signature of no is secondarily liable on a negotiable promissory note with the t of the holder releases such person secondarily liable, although be no consideration for such cancellation. McCormick v. Shea. Y. Supp 467.

5683. Right of party who discharged instrument.—Where strument is paid by a party secondarily liable thereon it is scharged, but the party so paying it is remitted to his former as regards all prior parties, and he may strike out his own ll subsequent indorsements and again negotiate the instru- except—

Where it is payable to the order of a third person and has paid by the drawer; and

Where it was made or accepted for accommodation and has paid by the party accommodated. (Id., § 121.)

ecisions of other States.—In an action on a negotiable promissory y an indorsee against an indorser, allegation of payment thereof ubsequent indorser (who is only secondarily liable) is demurrable. h Bank v. Brooks (1901), 63 App. Div. 220, 71 N. Y. Supp. 388. ee Quimby v. Varnum, cited under section 5625.

5684. Renunciation by holder.—The holder may expressly nce his rights against any party to the instrument before, at, er its maturity. An absolute and unconditional renunciation s rights against the principal debtor made at or after the ity of the instrument discharges the instrument. But a re- ation does not affect the rights of a holder in due course with- otice. A renunciation must be in writing unless the instru- is delivered up to the person primarily liable thereon. (Id., .)

ecisions of other States.—Where the members of a firm endorse dually a note given by the firm, they are indorsers, with all the

Digitized by Google

liabilities of indorsers, and the holder of such note may covenant the firm not to sue it on the note, and yet he may reserve his ri against the indorsers. Faneuil Hall Nat. Bk. v. Meloon, 183 Mass.
(1903), 66 N. E. Rep. 410.

Under this section where the payee of a note retained it, and a his death it was found among his papers in an envelope with a wri signed by the payee addressed to his executors stating that he wis the inclosed note to be canceled in case of his death, "and if the does not allow it, I wish you to notify my heirs that it is my wish orders." The writing was not a valid renunciation and the note mained a subsisting obligation. Leask v. Dew, 92 N. Y. Supp.
(1905).

Under this section the release of a surety on a note cannot be sh by parol; the word "renunciation" being used in the sense of releas must be in writing. Baldwin v. Daly, 83 Pac. 724, Washington (1906

See Cellers v. Meachem, cited under section 5591.

Sec. 5685. Cancellation; unintentional; burden of proof.—A cellation made unintentionally or under a mistake or without authority of the holder is inoperative; but where an instrum or any signature thereon appears to have been cancelled the bur of proof lies on the party who alleges that the cancellation made unintentionally or under a mistake or without author
(Id., § 123.)

Decisions of other States.—See First Nat. Bk., etc., v. Gridley, under section 5576.

See Gilley v. Harrell, cited under section 5563.

Sec. 5686. Alteration of instrument; effect of.—Where a neg able instrument is materially altered without the assent of parties liable thereon it is avoided except as against a party has himself made, authorized, or assented to the alteration subsequent indorsers.

But when an instrument has been materially altered and i the hands of a holder in due course not a party to the altera he may enforce payment thereof according to its original te
(Id., § 124.)

Virginia decisions.—This section is but declaratory of pre-exis law. Hoffman v. Bank, 99 Va. 480, 39 S. E. 134.

Decisions of other States.—In two actions against the maker of negotiable promissory notes there was conflicting testimony as to whe the words "with interest" were on the notes when they were negoti or were added afterwards. Upon dismissal of the complaints and peal from judgments for the defendants, it appeared that at the the attention of the court had not been drawn to the Negotiable In ments Law in force in New York. See Laws 1897, ch. 612, sec.
(Va. Act, sec. 5686), upon the effect of the alteration of a negoti instrument and changing the old rule. Judgments reversed and trials ordered. Mut. Loan Assn., Appt. v. Lesser, Respt., 76 App.
N. Y. 614 (1902).

A holder in due course of a negotiable instrument who was n party to the alteration made therein without the assent of all the pa liable thereon may enforce payment thereof according to its orig tenor.

The fact that the payee's endorsement of a negotiable promis note was forged does not excuse one who subsequently endorsed the for the accommodation of the maker from liability to a subsequent dorsee and holder in due course who was compelled to take up the before maturity and who had it protested for non-payment. See 5614, 5618, 5621; Packard v. Windholz, 40 Misc. Rep. N. Y. 347 (19
(2494)

Digitized by Google

dgment affirmed. See 88 App. Div. 365. Nov. Term, 1903, citing secs. 5586-5591, and holding that one who indorsed a promis-ote for the maker's accommodation, knowing the note is to be r the maker's benefit, is not relieved from liability to one to whom ker negotiated the note for value, simply because the latter knew accommodation nature of the indorsement.

is not a material alteration of a draft to add a word of descrip-nen it is intended by the parties that the paper shall go to the e in the exact capacity or relationship indicated by the title af-The Negotiable Instruments Law (in force in New York) is not ned. See this section and section 5687. Birmingham Trust & . v. Whitney, 88 N. Y. Supp. 578 (1904).

nder this section where the payee of defendant's check, represent-vas lost, received and cashed one in place of it and then changed e of the first check so as to make it dated ten days later than nade, the plaintiff, who became its owner in due course, was held ntitled to recover on it. Moskowitz v. Deutsch, 92 N. Y. Supp. 905).

e Thorpe v. White, cited under section 5626.

e material alteration of a note after execution and delivery ren-wholly void, except in favor of a holder in due course not con-with the alteration, under this section. Hecht v. Shenners, 105 309, Wisconsin (1905).

hen an instrument has been materially altered and is in the hands lder in due course not a party to the alteration, he may enforce t thereof according to its original tenor.

note made in Ohio and indorsed in New York is decided under of New York as to the indorser. Colonial Nat. Bk. v. Duerr, 95 Supp. 810 (1905).

e First Nat. Bk., etc., v. Gridley, cited under section 5576.

e First Nat. Bk., etc., v. Gridley, cited under section 5628.

e American Bk. v. McComb, cited under section 5614.

though this section provides that if a negotiable instrument is lly altered without the consent of the parties liable thereon, it led, except as against one who has authorized or assented to the and subsequent indorsers, yet a holder for value can recover in gainst an indorser of a negotiable promissory note for $75, raised ne indorsement to $375, the court resting its decision upon the that the defendant indorser negligently left the note in such on that the fraudulent changes could be easily made, quoting pproval Young v. Grote, 4 Bing. 253, a case spoken of by English as a fountain of bad law. See Bigelow, The Law Bills, Notes & s (2d ed.), 220, and also Schofield v. The Earl of Londesbor-App. Cases, L. R. 1896, 514, to the contrary, and the better law. be hoped that this case will be carried to the court of last re-d reversed. The case of Young v. Grote is not applicable be-he clerk who raised the check was the agent of the drawer and r. Nat. Bk. of Albany v. Lester, 104 N. Y. Supp. 418 (1907).

ne maker of a negotiable note who negligently fills out a blank o that additional words and figures can be inserted without crowd-iable to a purchaser for value for the full amount of the note as d; and this is not changed by this section. Nat. Ex. Bk. of Al-Lester, 104 N. Y. Supp. 418 (1907).

e notes to section 5687.

5687. What constitutes a material alteration.—Any altera-hich changes—he date.

he sum payable, either for principal or interest.

he time or place of payment.

he number or the relations of the parties.

Digitized by Google

5. The medium or currency in which payment is to be made.

—Or which adds a place of payment where no place of payme is specified, or any other change or addition which alters the eff of the instrument in any respect is a material alteration. (Id. 125.)

Virginia decisions.—The bank, without the knowledge or cons of the payee of a negotiable promissory note, but not indorsed by h struck out his name as payee, and inserted another name. Held, t was a material alteration under this statute and under the law merch that avoided the note as to such payee upon suit by bank. Hoffman Bank (1901), 99 Va. 480, 39 S. E. 134.

Decisions of other States.—See Birmingham T. & S. Co. v. Whitn cited under section 5686.

A bill in equity seeking relief on the ground of alteration of a c tain negotiable instrument should describe the alteration, that the co may see whether it was a material alteration as a matter of law. Jeff v. Rosenfeld (1901), 179 Mass. 506, 61 N. E. 49.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

Form and Interpretation.

Sec. 5688. Bill of exchange defined.—A bill of exchange is unconditional order in writing addressed by one person to anoth signed by the person giving it, requiring the person to whom it addressed to pay on demand or at a fixed or determinable fut time a sum certain in money to order or to bearer. (Id., § 12

Decisions of other States.—A draft which has no time of paym expressed, and is not payable to order or bearer, is non-negotia Westberg v. Chicago Lumber Co. (1903), 117 Wis. 589, 94 N. W. 5

For note of case as to what law governs as to endorsement o foreign bill of exchange, see 11 Va. Law Reg. 145.

Under this section and sections 5714 and 5747, where a negoti instrument was drawn by the seller of iron on the buyer, who reside a foreign country, which, with the bill of lading attached, was indor for discount, it was a foreign bill of exchange and not a check. Whe foreign bill of exchange was presented for payment and payment formally demanded and refused, but the bill was not duly protested non-payment, the drawer was discharged from liability to the indor Amsinck v. Rogers, 93 N. Y. Supp. 37 (1905).

A drawee of a check is not liable to the holder until it accept promises to pay in writing, under this section and sections 5747, 5 and 5751.

This action was based upon a parol promise (by telephone) to the check. But as a check is a bill of exchange drawn on a bank payable on demand, it is a species of bill, and although it need not presented for acceptance to render the parties thereto liable, yet, a does not operate as an assignment of any part of the fund to the cr of the drawer, with the bank, and the drawee bank is not liable to holder unless and until it accepts or certifies the check, and as, ex as otherwise provided and there is no exception, the provisions of Negotiable Instruments Law, applicable to a bill of exchange pay on demand, apply to a check, the provision applicable to a bill of change, that acceptance or certification must be in writing, applies to a check. Van Buskirk v. State Bk. of Rocky Ford, 83 Pac. 778, orado (1905).

Sec. 5689. Bill not an assignment of funds in hands of drawe

—A bill of itself does not operate as an assignment of the fu

Digitized by Google

hands of the drawee available for the payment thereof, and rawee is not liable on the bill unless and until he accepts me. (Id., § 127.)

irginia decisions.—The acceptance of a check must be in writing, by the bank, to afford a cause of action against it; a check does erate as an assignment of the fund on deposit and the bank is not to the holder until it accepts or certifies the check. Balto. & O. v. First Nat. Bank, 102 Va. 753, 47 S. E. 837.

ee 10 Va. L. Reg. 190, 193 and note.

ee Jones v. Crumpler, 119 Va. 143, 89 S. E. 232, cited under sec- 696.

ecisions of other States.—Under this section and section 5694 a aint in an action on an order given by a railroad contractor on lant railroad company, alleging that defendant received and ac- the order, and promised and agreed to retain out of moneys due become due to the contractor, the amount of the order, etc., but to allege defendant's written acceptance thereof, did not state a of action against the defendant. Wadhams v. Portland V. & Y. . 79 Pac. 597, Washington (1905).

. 5690. Bill addressed to more than one drawee.—A bill may ldressed to two or more drawees jointly, whether they are ers or not, but not to two or more drawees in the alternative succession. (Id., § 128.)

. 5691. Inland and foreign bills of exchange.—An inland bill change is a bill which is or on its face purports to be both n and payable within this State. Any other bill is a foreign Unless the contrary appears on the face of the bill the holder treat it as an inland bill. (Id., § 129.)

. 5692. When bill may be treated as promissory note.—Where bill drawer and drawee are the same person, or where the ee is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to act, the holder may treat the instrument at his option either ill of exchange or a promissory note. (Id., § 130.)

. 5693. Drawee in case of need.—The drawer of a bill and ndorser may insert thereon the name of a person to whom older may resort in case of need—that is to say, in case the s dishonored by non-acceptance or non-payment. Such per- s called the referee in case of need. It is in the option of older to resort to the referee in case of need or not as he see fit. (Id., § 131.)

Acceptance.

. 5694. Acceptance; how made, etc.—The acceptance of a s the signification by the drawee of his assent to the order of drawer. The acceptance must be in writing and signed by rawee. It must not express that the drawee will perform his ise by any other means than the payment of money. (Id., §

Virginia decisions.—See Balto. & O. R. Co. v. First Nat. Bank, cited section 5689.

Digitized by Google

Decisions of other States.—See Izzo v. Luddington, cited under tion 5563.

See Wadhams v. Portland, cited under section 5689.

See Seattle Shoe Co. v. Packard, cited under section 5580.

Sec. 5695. Holder entitled to acceptance on face of bill.— holder of a bill presenting the same for acceptance may rec that the acceptance be written on the bill, and if such reque refused may treat the bill as dishonored. (Id., § 133.)

Sec. 5696. Acceptance by separate instrument.—Where ar ceptance is written on a paper other than the bill itself it does bind the acceptor except in favor of a person to whom it is sh and who on the faith thereof receives the bill for value. (I 134.)

Virginia decisions.—The drawee of a draft wrote the followi a letter to the drawer: "We phoned the bank to send over your yesterday. They will send it over today." Held, not an accepta but even if it could be considered as such that under this sectio letter would not bind the drawee in favor of a person to whom the ter was never shown, and who did not, on the faith thereof, receiv draft for value. Jones v. Crumpler, 119 Va. 143, 89 S. E. 232.

Decisions of other States.—Under Gen. St. Kansas 1901, secs. 548, the drawee of a bank check cannot be held liable upon a cla contract of acceptance external to the bill unless the language clearly and unequivocally imports an absolute promise to pay.

See this section, which is similar to the Kansas secs. 547, The Negotiable Instruments Law is not referred to in this opinion though in force in Kansas since June 8, 1905, probably because checks were dated October 15, 1903. First Nat. Bk. of Atchinso Commercial Svgs. Bk., 87 Pac. 746, Kansas (1906)

Sec. 5697. Promise to accept; when equivalent to acceptan An unconditional promise in writing to accept a bill before drawn is deemed an actual acceptance in favor of every person upon the faith thereof receives the bill for value. (Id., § 135

Sec. 5698. Time allowed drawee to accept.—The drawee i lowed twenty-four hours after presentment in which to d whether or not he will accept the bill, but the acceptance if g dates as of the day of presentation. (Id., § 136.)

Sec. 5699. Liability of drawee retaining or destroying b Where a drawee to whom a bill is delivered for acceptance des the same or refuses within twenty-four hours after such deliver within such other period as the holder may allow to return bill accepted or non-accepted to the holder he will be deeme have accepted the same. (Id., § 137.)

Decisions of other States.—Mere retention of a bill of exch by the drawee to whom it has been delivered for acceptance is equivalent to acceptance. It must be shown in addition that there either destruction or refusal to return to the holder, if within the st or some circumstances, contractual or tortious, to arouse estoppel, reason of non-negotiability, the instrument is governed only by common law, and where the facts are in dispute it is a question fo jury. Westberg v. Chicago Lumber Co. (1903), 117 Wis. 589, 94 N 572, confirming the antecedent cases.

Sec. 5700. Acceptance of incomplete bill.—A bill may be cepted before it has been signed by the drawer, or while ot incomplete, or when it is over-due, or after it has been dis-ed by a previous refusal to accept, or by non-payment. But a bill payable after sight is dishonored by non-acceptance he drawee subsequently accepts it the holder, in the absence y different agreement, is entitled to have the bill accepted as e date of the first presentment. (Id., § 138.)

Digitized by Google

. 5701. Kinds of acceptances.—An acceptance is either genor qualified. A general acceptance assents without qualifi-n to the order of the drawer. A qualified acceptance in ex-terms varies the effect of the bill as drawn. (Id., § 139.)

. 5702. What constitutes a general acceptance.—An accept-to pay at a particular place is a general acceptance unless it ssly states that the bill is to be paid there only and not else-
e. (Id., § 140.)

. 5703. Qualified acceptance.—An acceptance is qualified, is:

Conditional—that is to say, which makes payment by the tor dependent on the fulfillment of a condition therein stated.

Partial—that is to say, an acceptance to pay part only of the nt for which the bill is drawn.

Local—that is to say, an acceptance to pay only at a particular

Qualified as to time.

The acceptance of some one or more of the drawees but not
. (Id., § 141.)

. 5704. Rights of parties as to qualified acceptance.—The r may refuse to take a qualified acceptance, and if he does btain an unqualified acceptance he may treat the bill as dis-ed by non-acceptance. Where a qualified acceptance is taken rawer and indorsers are discharged from liability on the bill s they have expressly or impliedly authorized the holder to a qualified acceptance or subsequently assent thereto. When rawer or an indorser receives notice of a qualified acceptance ust within a reasonable time express his dissent to the holder will be deemed to have assented thereto. (Id., § 142.)

Presentment for Acceptance.

. 5705. When presentment for acceptance must be made.— ntment for acceptance must be made—

Where the bill is payable after sight or in any other case where ntment for acceptance is necessary in order to fix the ma-of the instrument; or

Where the bill expressly stipulates that it shall be presented ceptance; or

Where the bill is drawn payable elsewhere than at the resior place of business of the drawee.

Digitized by Google

In no other case is presentment for acceptance necessary i der to render any party to the bill liable. (Id., § 143.)

Decisions of other States.—See Van Buskirk v. State Bk., etc., under section 5688.

Sec. 5706. When failure to present releases drawer and indo—Except as herein otherwise provided the holder of a bill w is required by the next preceding section to be presented fo ceptance must either present it for acceptance or negotiate it in a reasonable time. If he fail to do so the drawer and a dorsers are discharged. (Id., § 144.)

Sec. 5707. Presentment; how made.—Presentment for accept must be made by or on behalf of the holder at a reasonable on a business day and before the bill is overdue to the draw some person authorized to accept or refuse acceptance on hi half; and

1. Where a bill is addressed to two or more drawees wh not partners presentment must be made to them all unless has authority to accept or refuse acceptance for all, in which presentment may be made to him only.

2. Where the drawee is dead presentment may be made t personal representative.

3. Where the drawee has been adjudged a bankrupt or a solvent or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors sentment may be made to him or to his trustee or assignee. § 145.)

Sec. 5708. On what days presentment may be made.—A bill be presented for acceptance on any day on which negotiable in ments may be presented for payment under the provisions of tions fifty-six hundred and thirty-four and fifty-six hundred forty-seven. When Saturday is not otherwise a holiday pre ment for acceptance may be made before twelve o'clock noo that day. (Id., § 146.)

Sec. 5709. Presentment; where time is insufficient.—Where holder of a bill drawn payable elsewhere than at the place of ness or the residence of the drawee has not time with the exerci reasonable diligence to present the bill for acceptance before senting it for payment on the day that it falls due the delay ca by presenting the bill for acceptance before presenting it for ment is excused and does not discharge the drawers and indo (Id., § 147.)

Sec. 5710. When presentment is excused.—Presentment fo ceptance is excused and a bill may be treated as dishonore non-acceptance in either of the following cases:

1. Where the drawee is dead or has absconded or is a ficti person or a person not having capacity to contract by bill.

2. Where after the exercise of reasonable diligence present cannot be made.

Digitized by Google

ere although presentment has been irregular acceptance refused on some other ground. (Id., § 148.)

5711. When dishonored by non-acceptance.—A bill is dis-by non-acceptance—

en it is duly presented for acceptance and such an accepts prescribed by this chapter is refused or cannot be obtained;

en presentment for acceptance is excused and the bill is pted. (Id., § 149.)

712. Duty of holder where bill not accepted.—Where a bill presented for acceptance and is not accepted within the ed time the person presenting it must treat the bill as dis-by non-acceptance or he loses the right of recourse against wer and indorsers. (Id., § 150.)

5713. Rights of holder where bill not accepted.—When a dishonored by non-acceptance an immediate right of re-against the drawers and indorsers accrues to the holder and entment for payment is necessary. (Id., § 151.)

Protest.

5714. In what cases protest necessary.—Where a foreign bill ng on its face to be such is dishonored by non-acceptance it e duly protested for non-acceptance, and where such a bill has not previously been dishonored by non-acceptance is red by non-payment it must be duly protested for non-
t. If it is not so protested the drawer and indorsers are ged. Where a bill does not appear on its face to be a forl protest thereof in case of dishonor is unnecessary. (Id.,

note of case as to protest of foreign bill of exchange, see 11
Reg. 145.
Gregory's Forms, Nos. 34, 35, 36.
Amsinck v. Rogers, cited under section 5688.

5715. Protest; how made.—The protest must be annexed to or must contain a copy thereof, and must be under the hand l of the notary making it and must specify—e time and place of presentment.
e fact that presentment was made and the manner thereof.
e cause or reason for protesting the bill.
e demand made and the answer given, if any, or the fact e drawee or acceptor could not be found. (Id., § 153.)

5716. Protest; by whom made.—Protest may be made by—notary public; or any respectable resident of the place where the bill is red in the presence of two or more credible witnesses. (Id.,

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5717. Protest; when to be made.—When a bill is prote such protest must be made on the day of its dishonor unless c is excused as herein provided. When a bill has been duly n the protest may be subsequently extended as of the date of noting. (Id., § 155.)

Sec. 5718. Protest; where made.—A bill must be protested the place where it is dishonored, except that when a bill dr payable at the place of business or residence of some person o than the drawee has been dishonored by non-acceptance it be protested for non-payment at the place where it is expre to be payable, and no further presentment for payment to or mand on the drawee is necessary. (Id., § 156.)

Sec. 5719. Protest both for non-acceptance and non-payme A bill which has been protested for non-acceptance may be su quently protested for non-payment. (Id., § 157.)

Sec. 5720. Protest before maturity where acceptor insolve Where the acceptor has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insol or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors before bill matures the holder may cause the bill to be protested for ter security against the drawer and indorsers. (Id., § 158.)

Sec. 5721. When protest dispensed with.—Protest is dispe with by any circumstances which would dispense with notice of honor. Delay in noting or protesting is excused when dela caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder and imputable to his default, misconduct, or negligence. When cause of delay ceases to operate the bill must be noted or prote with reasonable diligence. (Id., § 159.)

Sec. 5722. Protest where bill is lost, etc.—Where a bill is los destroyed or is wrongly detained from the person entitled to it protest may be made on a copy or written particulars the (Id., § 160.)

Acceptance for Honor.

Sec. 5723. When bill may be accepted for honor.—Where a of exchange has been protested for dishonor by non-acceptanc protested for better security and is not overdue any person being a party already liable thereon may, with the consent of holder, intervene and accept the bill supra protest for the hono any party liable thereon or for the honor of the person for w account the bill is drawn. The acceptance for honor may be part only of the sum for which the bill is drawn, and where t has been an acceptance for honor for one party there may further acceptance by a different person for the honor of anc party. (Id., § 161.)

Sec. 5724. Acceptance for honor; how made.—An acceptanc honor supra protest must be in writing and indicate that it i ce for honor and must be signed by the acceptor for honor.

Digitized by Google

62.)

725. When deemed to be an acceptance for honor of the —Where an acceptance for honor does not expressly state se honor it is made it is deemed to be an acceptance for r of the drawer. (Id., § 163.)

726. Liability of acceptor for honor.—The acceptor for hon- le to the holder and to all parties to the bill subsequent to y for whose honor he has accepted. (Id., § 164.)

727. Agreement of acceptor for honor.—The acceptor for such acceptance engages that he will on due presentment bill according to the terms of his acceptance: provided, it have been paid by the drawee: and provided also, that it e been duly presented for payment and protested for non- and notice of dishonor given to him. (Id., § 165.)

728. Maturity of bill payable after sight; accepted for hon- ere a bill payable after sight is accepted for honor its ma- calculated from the date of the noting for non-acceptance from the date of the acceptance for honor. (Id., § 166.)

729. Protest of bill accepted for honor, etc.—Where a dis- bill has been accepted for honor supra protest or contains nce in case of need it must be protested for non-payment t is presented for payment to the acceptor for honor or n case of need. (Id., § 167.)

730. Presentment for payment to acceptor for honor; how Presentment for payment to the acceptor for honor must be follows:

t is to be presented in the place where the protest for non- t was made it must be presented not later than the day g its maturity.

it is to be presented in some other place than the place was protested then it must be forwarded within the time in section fifty-six hundred and sixty-six. (Id., § 168.)

731. When delay in making presentment is excused.—The ns of section fifty-six hundred and forty-three apply where delay in making presentment to the acceptor for honor or in case of need. (Id., § 169.)

5732. Dishonor of bill by acceptor for honor.—When the ishonored by the acceptor for honor it must be protested for ment by him. (Id., § 170.)

Payment for Honor.

5733. Who may make payment for honor.—Where a bill n protested for non-payment any person may intervene and supra protest for the honor of any person liable thereon or for the honor of the person for whose account it was drawn. § 171.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5734. Payment for honor; how made.—The payment honor supra protest in order to operate as such and not as a voluntary payment must be attested by a notarial act of h which may be appended to the protest or form an extension (Id., § 172.)

Sec. 5735. Declaration before payment for honor.—The not act of honor must be founded on a declaration made by the for honor or by his agent in that behalf declaring his intenti pay the bill for honor and for whose honor he pays. (Id., § 17

Sec. 5736. Preference of parties offering to pay for hon Where two or more persons offer to pay a bill for the honor o ferent parties the person whose payment will discharge most ties to the bill is to be given the preference. (Id., § 174.)

Sec. 5737. Effect on subsequent parties where bill is paid for or.—Where a bill has been paid for honor all parties subseque the party for whose honor it is paid are discharged, but the for honor is subrogated for and succeeds to both the rights duties of the holder as regards the party for whose honor he and all parties liable to the latter. (Id., § 175.)

Sec. 5738. Where holder refuses to receive payment supra test.—Where the holder of a bill refuses to receive payment protest he loses his right of recourse against any party who have been discharged by such payment. (Id., § 176.)

Sec. 5739. Rights of payer for honor.—The payer for hon paying to the holder the amount of the bill and the notaria penses incidental to its dishonor is entitled to receive both th itself and the protest. (Id., § 177.)

Bills in Sets.

Sec. 5740. Bills in sets constitute one bill.—Where a bill is d in a set, each part of the set being numbered and containing a ence to the other parts, the whole of the parts constitute one (Id., § 178.)

Sec. 5741. Rights of holders where different parts are negot —Where two or more parts of a set are negotiated to different ers in due course the holder whose title first accrues is as bet such holders the true owner of the bill. But nothing in this se affects the rights of a person who in due course accepts or the part first presented to him. (Id., § 179.)

Sec. 5742. Liability of holder who indorses two or more pa a set to different persons.—Where the holder of a set indorse or more parts to different persons he is liable on every such and every indorser subsequent to him is liable on the part h

Digitized by Google

f indorsed as if such parts were separate bills. (Id., §

5743. Acceptance of bills drawn in sets.—The acceptance e written on any part, and it must be written on one part If the drawee accepts more than one part and such accepted are negotiated to different holders in due course he is liable ry such part as if it were a separate bill. (Id., § 181.)

5744. Payment by acceptor of bills drawn in sets.—When eptor of a bill drawn in a set pays it without requiring the earing his acceptance to be delivered up to him and that part urity is outstanding in the hands of a holder in due course he e to the holder thereon. (Id., § 182.)

5745. Effect of discharging one of a set.—Except as herein ise provided, where any one part of a bill drawn in a set is rged by payment or otherwise the whole bill is discharged. 183.)

PROMISSORY NOTES AND CHECKS.

5746. Promissory note defined.—A negotiable promissory ithin the meaning of this chapter is an unconditional prom- writing made by one person to another, signed by the maker, ng to pay on demand or at a fixed or determinable future sum certain in money to order or to bearer. Where a note wn to the maker's own order it is not complete till indorsed . (Id., § 184.)

rginia decisions.—This section is but declaratory of a principle ersal application. Hoffman v. Bank, 99 Va. 480, 39 S. E. 134.

cisions of other States.—A promissory note, stating, "Having use of a money loss to my friend ....., I have given her $3,000. this amount in trust for her one year after date, or thereafter, on l, I promise to pay to the order of ..... her heirs or assigns, housand dollars with interest,' as it did not conclusively appear face of the instrument that there was no consideration, imports deration sufficient to authorize recovery in the absence of any e to rebut it, following Carnwright v. Gray, 127 N. Y. 92; Hickok ting, 86 N. Y. Supp. 1059 (1904).

e Colborn v. Arbecam, cited under section 5578.

nder this section, providing that "where a note is drawn to the s own order, it is not complete until indorsed by him," a com- on such a note, failing to allege the maker's indorsement, is fatal- ctive. Simon v. Mintz, 101 N. Y. Supp. 86 (1906).

nder this section a note dated, signed by one person promising and severally to pay to D. L. or order a sum stated in sixty days, ble and payable at M. Bank with interest at 6 per cent. per annum, gotiable promissory note.

nder section 5619, one holding a negotiable promissory note in urse for a valuable consideration without notice of any defect recover thereon when such note was given for a gambling debt, ntucky Statute of 1903, sec. 1955, declaring all gambling debts void.

t see Wirt v. Stubblefield, 17 App. Cas. D. C. 283, contra, under the Negotiable Instruments Law. See also Bayley v. Taber, 5 Mass (1809); Alexander v. Hazelrigg, 97 S. W. 353, Kentucky (1906).

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5747. Check defined.—A check is a bill of exchange d on a bank payable on demand. Except as herein otherwise pr ed, the provisions of this chapter applicable to a bill of exch payable on demand apply to a check. (Id., § 185.)

Virginia decisions.—See Baltimore & Ohio R. R. Co. v. First Bk., cited under section 5685.

For note of case as to what law governs as to endorsement o eign bill of exchange, see 11 Va. Law Reg. 145.

The acceptance of a check must be in writing, and signed b bank, in order to afford a cause of action against it. B. & O. R. Bank, 102 Va. 753, 10 Va. Law Reg. 190, 193, and note, 47 S. E.

Decisions of other States.—See Gordon v. Levine, cited under tion 5754.

Under this section and sections 5633 and 5754, where a check indorsed to a bank and was forwarded to various banks for colle in accordance with the regular custom of business, sufficient dili was held to have been exercised to charge the indorser, althoug mand might have been more promptly made if other and extraord means had been resorted to. Plover Svgs. Bk. v. Moodie, 110 N. W Iowa (1906).

See Amsinck v. Rogers, cited under section 5688.

A post-dated check is a negotiable instrument, and is subject t laws relating to negotiable instruments (this section and section 5 Where post-dated checks were deposited in a bank, which took th good faith, paying full value with no notice of any equities betwee drawer and the one to whose credit they were deposited, such eq were no defense in an action by the bank against the drawer. T dorsee of a check after maturity, with notice of defenses, is prot where he received it from a party who received it before maturit without knowledge of any defect. Symonds v. Riley, 74 N. E. Massachusetts (1905).

See Schlesinger v. Kurzrok, cited under section 5592.

See Van Buskirk v. State Bk., etc., cited under section 5688

Checks drawn on plaintiff's bank were paid by allowance of at Clearing-House. Upon discovery that the drawer had no depos demand was made on the indorser of the checks until action was br against him six days later. Held, under this section and section plaintiff could not recover of the indorser. State Bk v. Weiss, 91 Supp. 276 (1904).

Sec. 5748. Within what time a check must be presente check must be presented for payment within a reasonable time its issue, or the drawer will be discharged from liability th to the extent of the loss caused by the delay. The death of the er, however, shall not operate as a revocation of the authority bank upon which it is drawn to pay the check if it be presente payment within two weeks from the date of the death of the dr Such bank shall retain for a period of two weeks after know of the death of the depositor any money standing upon its bo books to the credit of such depositor, and after paying thereou checks which may be presented within said period of two shall, upon demand, pay the residue to the persons entitled th in the manner prescribed by law. (Id., § 186; 1906, p. 212; 19 395; 1910, p. 563.)

Revisors' Note.—The first sentence of this section is section the act as found in Acts 1897-98, pp. 896-918. The residue of th (2506) taken from Acts 1908, p. 395, amending Acts 1906, p. 212. In the term "bank or banker" is used in several places. In the the words "or banker" are omitted in each instance, because sec. 52 defines the meaning of "bank," which includes "banker." The section of the act is also omitted as unnecessary, because the ction plainly applies only to checks. The act required the bank n the money for a period of two weeks after NOTICE of the death depositor. In the revised section NOTICE is changed to LEDGE.

Digitized by Google

cisions of other States.—See Gordon v. Levine, cited under sec- 54.

here a cashier's check was issued May 18, 1904, and indorsed May 6, the time was not unreasonable, under this section.

antecedent debt constitutes value under section 5587. Where e of one who negotiated an instrument was defective, the burden he holder to show that he, or the one under whom he claims, ac title as a holder in due course, under section 5621. Singer Mfg. Summers, 55 S. E. 522, North Carolina (1906).

e Symonds v. Riley, cited under section 5747.

e Aebi v. Bk of Evansville, cited under section 5643.

5749. Certification of check; effect of.—Where a check is d by the bank on which it is drawn the certificate is equiv- o an acceptance, and the check shall be charged to the draw- count. (1897-8, p. 896, § 187.)

visors' Note.—The words "and the check shall be charged to the 's account" are taken from Acts 1910, p. 563.

ted but not construed, White v. Bonney, 110 Va. 864, 68 S E.

cisions of other States.—Where a bank, at the request of a bona lder for value, certifies a check drawn to order, and there are no between the maker and the bank, the holder can recover of the hough the maker has not indorsed the check to him. Meuer v. Nat. Bk., 86 N. Y. Supp. 701 (1904). (Affirmed, 88 N. Y. Supp. y 13, 1904.)

e Schlesinger v. Kurzrok, cited under section 5592.

nder this section and section 5750, when a creditor received a rom his debtor and procured its certification by the bank on which drawn, it was held to be a payment to the amount of the check. is Paper Co. v. Tonowanda B. & P. Co., 94 N. Y. Supp. 946 (1905).

indorser of negotiable paper does not warrant to the drawee the eness of the maker's signature, but such warranty only extends to ient holders in due course of trade.

e drawee of a check, by accepting it, makes himself a guarantor . Farmers' & Merchants' Bk. v. Bk. of Rutherford, 88 S. W. ennessee (1905).

e Meuer v. Phenix Nat. Bk., cited under section 5611.

5750. Effect where holder of check procures it to be certified. re the holder of a check procures it to be accepted or certified awer and all indorsers are discharged from liability thereon. 3, p. 896, § 188.)

cisions of other States.—See Meuer v. Phenix Nat. Bk., cited un- tion 5749.

e certification, at the drawer's request, of a check on funds in nd the transfer by the bank at the time of the amount of such to the payee's account, with the apparent knowledge of either awer or payee, will not, in the event of non-payment of the check presented with due diligence (the bank having failed) discharge awer from liability to the payee, under the Negotiable Instruments Cullinan v. Un. Surety & Guar. Co., 79 App. Div. N. Y. 409 (1903).

Digitized by Google

See St. Regis Paper Co. v. Tonawanda, etc., cited under sectio 5749.

See Meuer v. Phenix Nat. Bk., cited under section 5711.

Sec. 5751. When check operates as an assignment.—A check itself does not operate as an assignment of any part of the funds the credit of the drawer with the bank, and the bank is not liable the holder unless and until it accepts or certifies the check. (Id § 189.)

Virginia decisions.—See Baltimore & Ohio R. R. Co. v. First Na Bk., cited under section 5689.

Under the direct provisions of this section a check does not opera as an assignment of the fund on deposit, and the bank is not liable the holder unless and until it accepts or certifies the check. B. & O. Co. v. Bank, 102 Va. 753, 10 Va. Law Reg. 190, and note, 47 S. E. 83

For note of case upon stoppage of payment and disregard by ba see 11 Va. Law Reg. 427.

Cited but not construed, White v. Bonney 110 Va. 864, 68 S. 273.

Decisions of other States.—See Meuer v. Phenix Nat. Bk., cite under section 5749.

The holder of a check has no contract with the bank on which it drawn, and no legal right to exact its payment until the bank accepts certifies the check. Nat. Bk. of N. J. v. Berrall, 58 Atl. Rep. 189 (1904

Under this section, as between the holder of a check for value due course and one asserting a junior lien on the drawer's bank deposi the check was not an appropriation of the deposit reversing the law Kentucky prior to the Negotiable Instruments Law. Boswell v. Citizen Svgs. Bk., 96 S. W. 797, Kentucky (1906).

See Schlesinger v. Kurzrok, cited under section 5592.

See Van Buskirk v. State Bk., etc., cited under section 5688.

See Meuer v. Phenix Nat. Bk., cited under section 5611.

See State Bk. v. Weiss, cited under section 5747.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Sec. 5752. Definitions and meaning of terms.—In this chapter, u less the context otherwise requires—

"Acceptance" means an acceptance completed by delivery or not fication.

"Action" includes counter-claim and set-off.

"Bank" includes any person or association of persons carryin on the business of banking, whether incorporated or not.

"Bearer" means the person in possession of a bill or note whi is payable to bearer.

"Bill" means bill of exchange, and "note" means negotiab promissory note.

"Delivery" means transfer of possession, actual or constructiv from one person to another.

"Holder" means the payee or indorsee of a bill or note who is possession of it or the bearer thereof.

"Indorsement" means an indorsement completed by delivery.

"Instrument" means negotiable instrument.

"Issue" means the first delivery of the instrument complete form to a person who takes it as a holder.

Digitized by Google

rson'' includes a body of persons, whether incorporated or ue'' means valuable consideration.

itten'' includes printed, and ''writing'' includes print. (Id.,

cisions of other States.—The plaintiff indorsed a negotiable pro- note to a bank, for collection, before maturity. It was protest- returned to the plaintiff, and was produced at the trial with the nent cancelled. Held, the plaintiff became an indorsee in pos- upon the return of the protested instrument and invested with ts of all holders of commercial paper. Such an indorser in pos may cancel the indorsement it had made. See section 5610. ssession of the note was sufficient to maintain suit. See section N. H. Mfg. Co. v. N. H., P. & B. Co. (1903), 76 Conn. 126, 55 4.

ndorsement'' means an indorsement completed by delivery. See, ction 5622. An allegation that the payee ''indorsed and trans- is enough, confirming antecedent cases. An allegation that payee the note to the plaintiff would have been enough. Louisville n. Co. v. Int. Tr. Co. (Colo. App. 1903), 71 Pac. 898.

5753. Person primarily liable on instrument.—The person rily'' liable on an instrument is the person who by the terms nstrument is absolutely required to pay the same. All other are ''secondarily'' liable. (Id., § 192.)

cisions of other States.—See Cellers v. Meachem, cited under sec- 91.

der this section and sections 5681 and 5682, a plea that the de- one of the makers of a negotiable note, signed it as surety only, act was known to the payee (but without saying also that it was to the other makers), and had been discharged by an extension by the payee to the principal debtor made without the knowl- the defendant—is fatally defective. Vanderford v. Farmers' & Nat. Bk. of Westminster, 66 Atl. 46 Maryland (1907).

e Rouse v. Wooten, cited under section 5651.

5754. Reasonable time; what constitutes.—In determining s a ''reasonable time'' or an ''unreasonable time'' regard is had to the nature of the instrument, the usage of trade or ss (if any) with respect to such instruments, and the facts of rticular case. (Id., § 193.)

rginia decisions.—What is a reasonable time for any purpose de- lways upon the facts of the particular case, and this familiar tion is directly recognized by this section. Under the facts of e, the negotiable note was not negotiated an unreasonable time s issue. (See section 5615.) Colona v. Parksley Nat. Bank 120 , 92 S. E. 979.

cisions of other States.—See note to section 5633.

der this section and sections 5747 and 5748, in an action on a by the payee against the drawer, the check being drawn on a bank and delivered in Boston on Saturday, and on the following passed to another person by the payee, being indorsed the next esday, to one who deposited it on the following Thursday in a or collection, which bank through its messenger presented it to wee the next day, Friday, on which day the drawee had failed, it ld that the check was not presented for payment within a rea- time. Gordon v. Levine, 80 N. E. 505, Massachusetts (1907).

e Plover Svgs. Bk. v. Moodie, cited under section 5747.

here a demand note was indorsed without consideration, for the nodation of the maker, and its payment was secured by the deposit of certain securities, and two years after the making of the the plaintiff complained to the indorser of its non-payment, and ward wrote twice a year that the maker was in default in payme interest, but no steps were taken to charge the indorser, by presen of the note for payment until more than three years had elapsed presentment was not within a reasonable time, under this section section 5633.

Digitized by Google

This case abrogates the distinction heretofore made in New between notes or bills payable on demand and bearing interest and payable on demand merely. See Merritt v. Todd, 23 N. Y. 28 Parker v. Stroud, 98 N. Y. 379. Commercial Nat. Bk. v. Zimme 77 N. E. 1020, 185 N. Y. 210 (Ct. App. N. Y., 1906).

Sec. 5755. Time, how computed; when last day falls on hol —Where the day or the last day for doing any act herein req or permitted to be done falls on Sunday or on a holiday the act be done on the next succeeding secular or business day. (I 194.)

Sec. 5756. Application of chapter.—The provisions of this ter do not apply to negotiable instruments made and delivered to March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight. (Id., §

See Mayers v. McRimmon, cited under section 5611.

Sec. 5757. Rule of law merchant; when governs.—In any not provided for in this chapter the rules of the law merchant govern. (Id., § 196.)

See Guerrant v. Guerrant, 7 Va. Law Reg. 639.

Decisions of other States.—See Mass. Nat. Bk. v. Snow, cited section 5570.

See Am. Bk. v. McComb, cited under section 5614.

CHAPTER 234.

Public Holidays; Contracts in Writing; Actions Thereon, and Assign

Sec.
5758. Public holidays; days designated.
5759. On what writings action of debt may be maintained; in assumpsit thereon rule as to proof of consideration.
5760. Upon what note or bill or other negotiable instrument, and when action of debt or assumpsit may be brought, and against whom.
5761. A writing, payable to a person who is dead, valid.
5762. Of writings binding persons jointly.
5763. Compromise by creditor with a co-obligor, etc.
5764. How contract to be cre how, in case of a sur 5765. When part performan an obligation, etc., to guish it.
5766. Right of contribution n fected.
5767. Assignment of life insu policies.
5768. Assignees, etc., may s their own names; wha counts allowed.
5769. How assignee may su signor.
5770. Jurisdiction in equity,

Sec. 5758. Public holidays; days designated.—In each yea first day of January, the nineteenth day of January (known a n day), the twenty-second day of February, the thirtieth May (Confederate Memorial day), the third day of June son Davis day), the fourth day of July, the first Monday in ber (known as Labor day), the Tuesday after the first Mon- November (Election day), and the twenty-fifth day of De-, or whenever any of said days shall fall on Sunday, the y next following such day—and any day appointed or recom- l by the Governor of this State or the President of the United as a day of thanksgiving, fasting or religious observance, e a legal holiday, and every Saturday after twelve o'clock hall be a half holiday. (Code 1887, § 2844; 1889-90, p. 117; p. 256; 1895-6, p. 412; 1899-00, p. 137; 1901-2, p. 581; 1902- 18; 1904, p. 251.)

Digitized by Google

visors' Note.—The revisors added June 3 (Jefferson Davis Day). 18, p. 121, omits this, but makes some additions to the section. e reference at the end of this section to Acts 1899-00 should be 1374, not 137

5759. On what writings action of debt may be maintained; mpsit thereon rule as to proof of consideration.—An action of ay be maintained upon any note or writing by which there is nise, undertaking, or obligation to pay money, if the same ned by the party who is to be charged thereby, or his agent. tion may also be maintained on any such note or writing for st due instalment of a debt payable in instalments, although nstalments thereof be not due. And in any action of assump- any such note or writing, the rule as to averment and proof sideration shall be the same as in an action of debt thereon. 1887, § 2852.)

evisors' Note.—The second sentence of the text is new, and s the rule announced in Peyton v. Harman, 22 Grat. 643.

onsideration.—In debt on promissory note plaintiff need not aver ve consideration. Peasley v. Boatwright, 2 Leigh 195; Crawford gh, 2 Va. Cas. 521. See, as to assumpsit before statute, Jackson kson, 10 Leigh 448; Averett's Adm'r v. Booker, 15 Grat. 163, . Dec. 203.

e section 5586.

hen upon promise to pay money assumpsit is brought, no aver- of consideration is necessary in the pleading. Penn. R. Co. v. 106 Va. 645, 56 S. E. 567.

hen debt lies.—Will lie for payee against acceptor of an order. gsworth v. Milton, 8 Leigh 50. See Smith v. Segar, 3 Hen. & M. Vilson v. Crowdhill, 2 Munf. 302; Raborg v. Peyton, 2 Wheat. 385; d. 268. Or for penalty by statute. Sims v. Alderson, 8 Leigh V. U. Tel. Co. v. Bright, 90 Va. 778, 20 S. E. 146.

ay be brought on judgment record whereof is destroyed. New- v. Drummond, 4 Leigh 57. Or upon judgment against executor inistrator. Braxton v. Wood's Adm'r, 4 Grat. 25, 35. Or upon knowledgment of indebtedness in a deed between the parties. v. Forsyth, 3 Grat. 308. Or upon written acknowledgment of t which has been assigned. Cunningham v. Herndon, 2 Call 530; ck v. Herndon's Ex'rs, 4 Hen. & M. 200. Or upon note which en destroyed. Moses v. Trice, 21 Grat. 556, 8 Am. Rep. 609.

ebt will lie upon bond for payment of money with option to dis- e "in notes or bonds due on good solvent men in the county of R.," and it is not necessary to notice the provision as to the mode of pay in the declaration. Butcher v. Carlile, 12 Grat. 520. Or to pay in g at regular prices. Minnick v. Williams, 77 Va. 758. Or to pay in or silver or its equivalent. Turpin v. Sledd's Ex'r, 23 Grat. 238.

Digitized by Google

On official bonds.—May be maintained by sheriff from forthco bond payable to him. Beale v. Downman, 1 Call 249.

May be brought upon defective forthcoming bond even after successful motion for judgment. Hewlett v. Chamberlayne, 1 Wash.

Could be maintained by executor upon three months' replevy payable to his testator (Booker's Ex'rs v. McRoberts, 1 Call 243); th it give back interest from the time when the rent became due, and from date of bond (Early v. Owen, 6 Munf. 319).

When debt will not lie.—Debt will not lie against a sheriff for ing an execution upon the property of plaintiff's tenant without pa a year's rent. Byrd v. Cocke, 1 Wash. 232. Nor for military ficates. Gibbon v. Jameson's Ex'rs, 5 Call 294. Nor to recover a tain amount in "notes of U. S. Bank, or either of the Virginia Ba they not being money. Beirne v. Dunlap, 8 Leigh 514; Dunga Henderlite, 21 Grat. 149. See opinion of Tucker, P., in Beirne v. Du as to distinction between cases in which debt will and will not lie.

Instalments.—Debt will not lie upon bond payable in instalm until whole amount is payable. Covenant proper action for instalm Peyton v. Harman, 22 Grat. 643. See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 495. But revisors' note above.

Generally.—In debt on bond, words obviously omitted by mis may be supplied. Peyton v. Harman, 22 Grat. 643.

One action of debt may be brought against all the parties to strument sealed by some of them and not by others. Rankin v. R 8 Grat. 63.

A bond is the bond of the party who executes it, though his n is neither in penal part nor condition. Beery v. Homan's Commi 8 Grat. 48; Luster v. Middlecoff, 8 Grat. 54, 56 Am. Dec. 129.

Parol evidence is admissible to ascertain who is principal in du signed by "R., President of R. R. Co.," without any addition. Richm etc., Co. v. Snead, 19 Grat. 354, 100 Am. Dec. 670.

An action of assumpsit will lie upon an agreement in writing wh by a husband has agreed to make certain monthly payments to his in lieu of alimony, pending a suit by her for divorce. Newman v. Comb, 112 Va. 408, 71 S. E. 624.

See 1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 120, 134, et seq. 309, 314; 3 (2d Ed.) 151, 389; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 31, 550, 697-702; Burks' Pl. & pp. 82, 94, 144.

For election between debt and assumpsit, see 4 Min. (3d Ed.)

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 154.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotati chapter 99, section 10.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 34, 35, 36.

Sec. 5760. Upon what note or bill or other negotiable instrum and when action of debt or assupmsit may be brought, and aga whom.—Upon any note, check, bill of exchange, or other instrum which under the laws of the State is negotiable, whether the s be payable in or out of this State, an action of debt or assum may be maintained and judgment given jointly against all liabl virtue thereof, whether drawer, endorsers, or acceptors, or aga any one or any intermediate number of them for the principal charges of protest if the same should be protested, with the inte thereon from the date of protest, and in case of such bills for d ages also. (Code 1887, § 2853; 1897-8, p. 716.)

Digitized by Google

ot will lie upon negotiable note payable out of this state at ar bank. Hays v. Northwestern Bank, 9 Grat. 127.
ot will lie for payee against acceptor of an order (Hollingsworth n, 8 Leigh 50); and before the statute not against acceptor of xchange (Smith v. Segar, 3 Hen. & M. 394; Wilson v. Crowdhill, 302).
writing in the form of a promissory note, under seal, is not a it a specialty; and therefore the drawer and indorsers of such an ent made negotiable and payable at a bank cannot be sued jointly, ence not being the same. Mann v. Sutton, 4 Rand. 253. But ion 5568.
an action upon a protested negotiable note against the makers lorsers, the accidental omission of the sum for which the note ren in the description of it in the declaration, when it appears her parts of the declaration, is not ground of demurrer. Archer l, 9 Grat. 622.
an action by the holder of a bill of exchange against the indorser, cessary to allege that notice of protest was given to the defendant. v. Pomery, 6 Cranch 225, 3 L. Ed. 204.
nount of protest charges must be stated. Wilson v. Lenox, 1 194, 2 L. Ed. 79.
a proceeding by motion for a judgment for money against a nt whose name, along with the names of others, appeared as r of a negotiable note, defendant sought to show by parol that bility, if any, was that of a surety or joint maker, and not that ndorser in the technical sense, his contention being that the other akers should have been joined as parties defendant. Held, the e was properly excluded as immaterial, the plaintiff having the o sue as he did regardless of whether the defendant was a joint or an indorser. Colley v. Summers Parrott Co., 119 Va. 439, . 906.
e Taylor v. Beck, 3 Rand. 316; Stott v. Alexander, 1 Wash. 331; v. Stratton, 9 Grat. 615; Corbin v. Planters' Nat. Bank, 87 Va. S. E. 98, 24 Am. St. Rep. 673; section 6125; 2 Va. Law Reg. 384; on, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 120, 128, 143; 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 701; (3d Ed.) 550, 640, 695, 911; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 452, 465; Burks' Pr., pp. 52, 53, 83, 120. or election between debt and assumpsit, see 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 448. orm of declaration in debt on foreign bill of exchange protested n-payment, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1669; of declaration in debt on bill of exchange protested for non-acceptance, Id. 1667; of de- on in debt on negotiable note protested by indorsee against and two indorsers, Id. 1666.
or W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 99, section 11.
e Gregory's Forms Nos. 35, 36.

5761. A writing, payable to a person who is dead, valid.—d, note, or other writing to a person or persons who, or some om, are dead at the time of its execution, shall be as valid as person or persons were then alive, and may be proceeded on name of the personal representative of such person, or the ors or survivor, or of the representative of the last survivor h persons. (Code 1887, § 2854.)

obertson, executor of Cole, recovers judgment against Claiborne, es out execution thereon, but before the execution is delivered to eriff Robertson dies. The execution being then delivered to the , he levies it on property of the defendant, and takes forthcoming payable to Robertson, executor of Cole. Held, the execution was ly levied, though Robertson was dead before it was delivered, and the forthcoming bond was rightly taken to Robertson, as executor was good. Turnbull v. Claiborne, 3 Leigh 392.

Digitized by Google

A motion for award of execution on the forthcoming bond was by Turnbull, executor of Robertson, who was executor of Cole. the forthcoming bond belonged to Cole's estate, and Turnbull was tled to the money, and to award of execution of the bond, as the r sentative of Cole. not as the representative of Robertson. Id.

On a parol contract between S. and R., whereby R., on a consi tion moving entirely from S., promises to pay S.'s daughter, M.. a of money after S.'s death, M. cannot maintain either debt or assu for the money; the representative of S. only can maintain an acti law. Ross v. Milne, 12 Leigh 204, 37 Am. Dec. 646.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annota chapter 99, section 12.

Sec. 5762. Of writings binding persons jointly.—If one b with another, either jointly or as a partner, by a judgment, b note, or otherwise, for the payment of a debt, or the perform or forbearance of an act, or for any other thing, die in the life of such other, the representative of the decedent may be charg the same manner as he might have been charged, if those b jointly or as partners, had been bound severally as well as joi otherwise than as partners. (Code 1887, § 2855.)

Revisors' Note.—This section as it appears in the Code of 1887 taken from the Code of 1849 without change (Code 1849, p. 582, ch 144, section 13). The present section contains some change in guage, the object being to express more clearly what the revisors of intended, as to which see Report of Revisors, p. 724.

Partners.—Surviving partner of mercantile house alone liabl law to the creditors of the house, but if he prove insolvent the esta the surviving partner is liable in equity. Sale v. Dishman's Ex' Leigh 548; Galt's Ex'rs v. Calland's Ex'r, 7 Leigh 594; Jackson v. 8 Leigh 689 (decided before amendment of statute).

One partner is not bound upon a bond executed by the other in the partnership name for a partnership debt, though he ma bound for the debt. Sale v. Dishman's Ex'rs, 3 Leigh 548.

As to contribution between partners, see Sands v. Durham, 98 397, 36 S. E. 472, 54 L. R. A. 614; overruled, 99 Va. 263, 38 S. E.

Marshaling of assets.—Does not change or affect the order in w the separate assets of the deceased partner are to be applied in payment of his debts as prescribed by section 5390. Robinson v. A 85 Va. 721, 8 S. E. 835.

The social assets are applicable first to the social debts, and i sufficient the social creditors come in as general creditors pari passu separate creditors of the same class upon the separate estate of deceased partner. Pettyjohn's Ex'rs v. Woodruff's Ex'r, 86 Va. 10 S. E. 715; Ashby's Adm'r v. Porter, 26 Grat. 455; Straus v. K good, 21 Grat. 585; Morris' Adm'r v. Morris' Adm'r, 4 Grat. 293.

Two suits.—Where two suits having same object are pending, de in one for account suspends the other. Suit to administer dece partner's separate property for his separate creditors, and suit to minister partnership property for the partnership creditors, not ha the same object, this rule does not apply. Robinson v. Allen, 85 721, 8 S. E. 835.

Pleading.—At law representative must be sued in separate ac Richardson's Ex'x v. Jones, 12 Grat. 58, per Lee, J.

The executors of two deceased obligors cannot be joined in same action. Watkins' Ex'rs v. Tate, 3 Call 521 (2d Ed.) 451.

Where a joint judgment is obtained against two defendants, one dies, an action of debt on the judgment will lie against represents ed defendant. Roane's Adm'r v. Drummond's Adm'rs, 6 Rand.

Digitized by Google

riting in the form of a promissory note under seal is not a a specialty, and therefore the drawer and indorsers of such an nt, made negotiable and payable at a bank, cannot be sued he defence not being the same. Mann v. Sutton, 4 Rand. 253. section 5568.

ival.—In an action of debt against two, one dies and the suit is against his administratrix, and then she and another defendant arate confessions of judgments, and a separate judgment is against each. This is not error. Richardson's Ex'x v. Jones, 53.

erally.—At common law estate of surety on joint bond who died rincipal obligor was not bound (Minge v. Field, 2 Wash. 136 175; Richardson v. Johnston, 2 Call 528 [2d Ed.] 445; Elliott's yell, 3 Call 268 [2d Ed.] 234; Watkins' Ex'rs v. Tate, 3 Call 521 451; Atwell's Adm'rs v. Milton, 4 Hen. & M. 253); unless there his part a moral obligation antecedently existing to pay the Chandler's Ex'x v. Neale's Ex'rs, 2 Hen. & M. 124).

ute is permissive, and creditor may still proceed in equity. ok's Ex'rs v. Harveys, 1 Va. Dec. 265. But see section 5770.

s not affect the principle that the defeat of the remedy against obligor upon a ground not personal to himself defeats it as obligors. Brown's Adm'r v. Johnson, 13 Grat. 644.

1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 139, 143, et seq.; 2 Barton, L. Pr. 785; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 829; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 52, 901.

W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 99, section 13.

763. Compromise by creditor with a co-obligor, etc.—A may compound or compromise with any joint contractor or or, and release him from all liability on his contract or obli- without impairing the contract or obligation as to the other ntractors or co-obligors. (Code 1887, § 2856.)

such compromise the right of contribution between the joint is not impaired. Penn v. Bahnson, 89 Va. 253, 15 S. E. 586.

s not impair the obligation of contracts existing at the date of ge (April 25, 1867), and is not unconstitutional as to such con- Yuille's Adm'r v. Wimbish's Adm'r, 77 Va. 308.

S., and others, of the firm of A, C. & Co., owed $2,000 to G., d to pay, and paid G. $400 on G.'s promise to release M. & S. date. Held, the agreement was binding on G., and M. and S. eased. Seymour v. Goodrich, 80 Va. 303.

litor who has compromised with one of several joint obligors, ived his full share of the obligation, may sue the other obligors making the released obligors a party. Penn v. Bahnson, 89 Va. S. E. 586.

1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 148; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 830; 3 Min. 214; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 19, 428.

764. How contract to be credited; how, in case of a surety. said compounding or compromise is made, the contract or on shall be credited with a full share of the party released, where the compounding or compromise is with a surety or y, and in that case, as between the creditor and principal, it shall be for the sum actually paid by the compounding (Code 1887, § 2857.)

n a compounding or compromise, the contract shall be credited full share of the party released, except in the case of a surety or co-surety, when the credit shall be the amount paid. Penn v. son, 89 Va. 253, 256, 15 S. E. 586. See 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 214.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5765. When part performance of an obligation, etc., tinguish it.—Part performance of an obligation, promise or u taking, either before or after a breach thereof, when express cepted by the creditor in satisfaction and rendered in pursua an agreement for that purpose, though without any new cons tion, shall extinguish such obligation, promise, or underta (Code 1887, § 2858.)

Payment of a less sum, at the time and place where a gre due, was held at common law never to be a satisfaction of the g sum, there being no consideration for giving up the rest of the nor was unsealed agreement to accept less sum binding. Lee v. H 75 Va. 22; Smith v. Phillips, 77 Va. 548; Seymour v. Goodrich, 303; Smith v. Chilton, 84 Va. 840, 6 S. E. 142; Fire Ins. As Wickham, 141 U. S. 564, 12 Sup. Ct. 84, 35 L. Ed. 860; 3 Va. Law 616; 9 Va. Law J. 264. This section changes the rule.

The burden of proof is on the debtor to bring himself with provisions of this section, providing that part performance of an tion expressly accepted by the creditor in satisfaction shall so op Standard Sewing M. Co. v. Gunter, 102 Va. 568, 10 Va. Law Reg 126, and note, 46 S. E. 690; Thomas v. Brown, 116 Va. 233, 81 S.

This section was never intended to enable a debtor to perp a wrong and injustice upon his creditor by taking advantage of his ing need of money. In this case there was no meeting of the mi the parties that the lesser amount was accepted in full satisf but it was accepted under protest and aggravated circumstances o straint, and the creditors were held entitled to recover the rem of the debt. Thomas v. Brown, 116 Va. 233, 81 S. E. 56.

See article upon Accord and Satisfaction, 9 Va. Law J. 264.

See 1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 149, 530; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 167, 168.

Cited in Chicago, M. & St. P. R. Co. v. Clark, 178 U. S. 3 Sup. Ct. 924, 44 L. Ed. 1099.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 154.

Sec. 5766. Right of contribution not affected.—Nothing con in the three preceding sections shall affect or impair the right o tribution between joint contractors and co-obligors. (Code § 2859.)

By compromise under preceding sections, the right of contri between the obligors is not, under said sections, impaired. P Bahnson, 89 Va. 253, 15 S. E. 586; Yuille's Adm'r v. Wimbish's 77 Va. 308.

See 1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 149.

Sec. 5767. Assignment of life insurance policies.—A policy surance on life, taken out by the insured himself, or by a p having an insurable interest in his life, in good faith, and n the mere purpose of assignment, may be lawfully assigned t one, for a valuable consideration, as any other chose in action, out regard to whether the assignee has an insurable interest life insured or not, and the assignee may recover upon it wh the insured might have recovered but for such assignment. 3-4, p. 256.)

For the rule prior to the passage of this act, see Crismond v. 117 Va. 34, 83 S. E. 1045.

See 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 587 and note.

Digitized by Google

768. Assignees, etc., may sue in their own names; what disallowed.—The assignee or beneficial owner of any bond, note, or other chose in action, not negotiable, may maintain there- s own name any action which the original obligee, payee, or ing party might have brought, but shall allow all just dis- not only against himself, but against such obligee, payee, acting party, before the defendant had notice of the assign- transfer by such obligee, payee, or contracting party, and o allow all such discounts against any intermediate assign- ansferrer, the right to which was acquired on the faith of gnment or transfer to him and before the defendant had the assignment or transfer by such assignor or transferrer er. (Code 1887, § 2860.)

ision of 1887.—This section was changed by revision of 1887 allow any beneficial owner, though not a formal assignee, of a action which is in its nature transferable, yet not negotiable, to action upon it in his own name, and a set-off is allowed, under circumstances, against an intermediate assignor or transferrer. ddress, 2 Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1390.

at may be assigned.—As to what may be equitably assigned, see Ricamore, 87 Va. 466, 12 S. E. 799; Bristol, etc., Co. v Thomas, 96, 25 S. E. 110; Iaege v. Bossieux, 15 Grat. 83, 76 Am. Dec. ooks v. Hatch, 6 Leigh 535; N. & W. R. Co. v. Read, 87 Va. 185, 395; Porter v. Young, 85 Va. 49, 6 S. E. 893; Anderson v. De Grat. 363; Same v. Gallego's Adm'r, Id.; Shields v. Mahoney,. 94 27 S. E. 23.

d with collateral condition was not assignable before the act of r, 1795, and therefore the assignee of such a bond could not an action upon it. Craig v. Craig, 1 Call 483.

at constitutes equitable assignment.—As to what will constitute assignment, see Switzer v. Noffsinger, 82 Va. 518; Brooks v. Leigh 534; S. V. R. Co. v. Miller, 80 Va. 821; Lambert v. Jones, H. 144; Hicks v. Roanoke, etc., Co., 94 Va. 741, 27 S. E. 596; ke, etc., Asso. v. Coleman, 94 Va. 433, 26 S. E. 843.

gnee does not acquire legal title.—The assignee does not acquire title to the debt, but an equitable right. Garland v. Richeson, 266.

gnee of a non-negotiable chose stands in shoes of assignor, and subject to all the debtor's equities against the assignor existing me or before notice of assignment, and based on honest trans- etween him and assignor. Etheridge's Adm'r v. Parker, 76 Va. bbins v. Bruce, 80 Va. 389. Yet such equities must be clearly ifestly established by proof before they shall affect an assignee notice, especially if the obligor after assignment promised pay- the full amount of the bond to the assignee. Mayo v. Giles' Munf. 533. Nor does assignee take assignment subject to any a third person not party to the bond of which he has no notice. Holcombe, 3 Leigh 597, 24 Am. Dec. 683. See Stockton v. Munf. 68, 5 Am. Dec. 504.

ice.—Effect of notice is not to make debtor disclose his defence, reclude him from setting up defence after-acquired against as- Gordon v. Rixey, 76 Va. 694; Stebbins v. Bruce, 80 Va. 389.

o may maintain action and how.—Assignee may institute such and such actions only, as his assignor could have maintained. Walker, 92 Va. 540, 24 S. E. 226. May sue at law in his own in that of original obligee for his benefit. Garland v. Richeson, 266.

ere debtor and creditor are firms in which there are one or more common partners, no action at law can be maintained in the name assignee of chose, as none could have been maintained by his as Aylett v. Walker, 92 Va. 540, 24 S. E. 226.

Digitized by Google

Under this section trustee and assignee of joint stock compa sue in his own name for unpaid subscriptions to capital stock pany. Glenn v. Scott (C. C.), 28 Fed. 804.

Assignee of a bond cannot sue as obligee, but the assignmer be set forth in his declaration. Gordon v. Brown's Ex'r, 3 M. 219.

An averment in declaration that the payee of a non-negotiab indorsed and delivered it to the plaintiff is sufficient averment of signment. Freeman's Bank v. Ruckman, 16 Grat. 126.

This section does not authorize an assignee of a judgment t tain an action against an officer and the sureties on his official b a breach occurring prior to assignment, by reason of the officer's to return a forthcoming bond taken on the judgment as prescri statute to give the bond the force of a judgment against the o Com. v. Wampler, 104 Va. 337, 11 Va. Law Reg. 664, and n S. E. 737.

For extended article upon the right of an assignee of a ju to sue sheriff on official bond for breach of duty before assignm 11 Va. Law Reg. 867. See, also, id., 667.

The assignee or a beneficial owner of a contract may, und section, maintain an action in his own name. Portsmouth R. Oliver R. Co., 109 Va. 513, 64 S. E. 56.

Under this section suit may be brought on an assigned c action either in the name of the original obligee or payee, in hi for the use of the assignee, or in the name of the assignee Carozza v. Boxley, 203 Fed. 673.

A debt due from another, though evidenced by an open acc a chose in action, and the assignees may maintain an action the their own name under this section. Phillips v. Portsmouth, 1 180, 78 S. E. 651.

If A. in a letter to B. acknowledges that he owes money to C. assigns this paper to D., probably no action can be maintained his own name against A., but he must bring suit in the nam Minnis v. Pollard, 1 Call 226.

The plaintiff's attorney may fill up a blank indorsement. an it payable to the plaintiff during the trial of the cause. Hooe v 5 Call 61.

It is not sufficient plea to an action in behalf of the assign bond against the obligor that before notice of the "assignm effects of the assignor were attached in the defendant's hands decree entered that he should pay the debt to the attaching credi and that accordingly he had made such payment," if it appears i pleadings that the bond was assigned before the attachment stituted, and suit brought upon it by the assignee before the paym made. Wilson v. Davisson, 5 Munf. 178. See Schofield v. Cox, 533, U. S. v. Vaughan, 3 Bin. 394, 5 Am. Dec. 375.

See section 5143 and revisors' note.

Proof of assignment.—Proof of assignment not necessary if Clason v. Parrish, 93 Va. 24, 24 S. E. 471. See section 6125.

In a bill by an assignee against the obligor and assignor, signment is not questioned by the assignor. There is no neces proving it as against the obligor. Mayo's Ex'r v. Carrington's Grat. 74.

Evidence.—If an action of debt be brought by the assign bond or note against the obligor or maker, and he pleads paymen plaintiff, evidence of the payment to the assignor will not supp issue. Phelps v. Frazer, 3 Rand. 103; Hatcher v. Cabell, 6 Ra

Statement of assignor.—Statements of the obligee of a tit made after assignment thereof, in the absence of the assignee a judicial to his interest, are not competent evidence against such a

Digitized by Google

nnot affect his rights. Coldiron v. Asheville Shoe Co., 93 Va. 5 S. E. 238; Brock's Adm'r v. Brock, 92 Va. 173, 23 S. E. 224; Ex'r v. Warren, 80 Va. 512; Wilcox v. Pearman, 9 Leigh 144. eceipt as evidence against assignee, see Wilcox v. Pearman, supra; v. Long, 3 Munf. 136.

rden of proof.—Where subsequent assignee claims that he took ignment for value without notice of the previous assignment, and e previous assignment was fraudulent, the burden is, of course, to prove the case. Daily's Ex'r v. Warren, 80 Va. 512.

t-off.—If a bill of exchange is drawn on one who accepts it on h of the funds of the drawer in his hands, he acquires an equitable t in those funds, and is entitled to set off his liability on the ac- es against his obligation to pay those funds and to retain them to for his indemnity. Lambert v. Jones, 2 Pat. & H. 144.

set-off, as between the maker and the payee, acquired after a r of an overdue negotiable note, though acquired without notice transfer of the note by the payee, cannot be set off against the Davis v. Miller, 14 Grat. 1. See this case for quaere as to what s such overdue note is subject. See, also, Stewart v. Anderson, 6 203, 3 L. Ed. 199; Feazle v. Dillard, 5 Leigh 30; Ritchie v. 5 Munf. 388, 7 Am. Dec. 688.

, obligor, and E., payee, of the bond, having become bankrupts. ssignee in bankruptcy sues H., surety on bond. Held, that H. set off an account due by E. to S. Edmunds' Assignee v. Harper, t. 637.

is indebted to D., by bond payable January, 1820, which, after it is assigned by D. to C.; but, before notice of assignment, F. becomes for D. in a bond to B., payable February, 1822. D. becomes in- . Held, F. is entitled in equity to set off the amount of the bond ch he is D.'s surety to B., though not yet due (unless he is in- ied against his suretyship), against his own bond to D., in the of C., the assignee. But he may waive this equity, as against the ee, by his own conduct, and in this case it was held he did so waive eazle v. Dillard, 5 Leigh 30. See Clopton's Adm'r v. Morris, 6 278.

must appear that the set-off offered was property of defendant he received notice of the assignment. Ritchie v. Moore, 5 Munf. Am. Dec. 688.

ee sections 6144-6150.

stoppel.—If assignee is induced to take assignment by defendant's e to pay, or if defendant after notice of assignment expressly or ily promises to pay the debt, he is estopped from setting up any e he had against assignor. Feazle v. Dillard, 5 Leigh 30; Steb- Bruce, 80 Va. 389; Davis' Adm'r v. Thomas, 5 Leigh 1. But mere will not operate such estoppel. Stebbins v. Bruce, supra.

purchaser of land warranted by the vendor to be free of all en- ances is not precluded from relief in equity against his bond for rchase money by the circumstance that before he made the pur- he was fully apprised of the encumbrance. Stockton v. Cook, f. 68, 5 Am. Dec. 504.

imitation.—A draft drawn on a trustee on account of the trust and therefore payable out of the fund, operated as an equitable ment pro tanto thereof. A direct trust was thus created in favor wee, the enforcement of which is not subject to any statutory ion. Bain v. Buff's Adm'r, 76 Va. 371.

enerally.—For the difference between a guarantee and an assign- and the rights and obligations resulting therefrom, see the opin- Staples, J., in Welsh v. Ebersole, 75 Va. 651.

ee note to section 5561, taken from McIlvane v. Big Stone Lumber 05 Va. 613, 54 S. E. 473.

Where a sub-contractor executed an order on his contractor to pay nount due or to become due on the sub-contract to certain others,

Digitized by Google

the contractor's acceptance of the order did not create a new debt b tween the original contractor and the assignees for the whole amou of the assignor's claim, nor bar all the assignor's rights therein. Caroz v. Boxley, 203 Fed. 673.

As to remedy in equity, see 2 Va. Law Reg. 384.

See 1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 216, 235; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 839; Min. (2d Ed.) 432, 434-5, 439; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 30, 785, 790; Burk Pl. & Pr., pp. 56, 109.

See generally upon assignments, Cox's Ex'r v. Crockett, 92 Va. 5 22 S. E. 840; Spooner's Adm'r v. Hilbish's Ex'r, 92 Va. 333, 23 S. E. 75 Williams v. Watkins, 92 Va. 680, 24 S. E. 223; Didier v. Patterson, Va. 534, 25 S. E. 661; Knisely v. Williams, 3 Grat. 265, 46 Am. Dec. 19 Lewis' Adm'r v. Glenn, 84 Va. 947, 6 S. E. 866; Braxton v. Bell, 92 V 229, 23 S. E. 289; Commercial Bank v. Cabell, 96 Va. 552, 32 S. E. 5 Evans v. Rice, 96 Va. 50, 30 S. E. 463; First Nat. Bank v. Holland, 99 V 495, 39 S. E. 126, 55 L. R. A. 155, 86 Am. St. Rep. 898.

As to assignment of debt carrying the security, and the righ duties, and liabilities of the parties thereupon, see McClintic v. Wis Adm'rs, 25 Grat. 448, 18 Am. Rep. 694; Schofield v. Cox. 8 Grat. 53 Castleman v. Berry, 86 Va. 604, 10 S. E. 884; Penn v. Hearon, 94 V 773, 27 S. E. 599; Hurt v. Miller, 95 Va. 32, 27 S. E. 831; Arents v. Co 18 Grat. 750; Mayo's Ex'r v. Carrington's Ex'r, 19 Grat. 74; Gordon Fitzhugh, 27 Grat. 835; Grubbs v. Wysors, 32 Grat. 127-131.

See generally as to rights of assignor and assignee inter se, Dail Ex'r v. Warren, 80 Va. 512; Tucker v. Daly, 7 Grat. 330; Braxton Harrison's Ex'rs, 11 Grat. 51, 52; Clayton v. Fawcett's Adm'rs, 2 Le 19; Green v. Ashby, 6 Leigh 135; Broadus v. Rosson, 3 Leigh 1 Coiner v. Hansbarger, 4 Leigh 452; Wilson's Adm'r v. Barclay's E 22 Grat. 534; Long v. Pence, 93 Va. 584, 25 S. E. 593; Fisher v. Basse 9 Leigh 119, 33 Am. Dec. 227; Schofield v. Cox, 8 Grat. 533; Laughlin v. Duffield, 5 Grat. 133; Bank v. Pindall, 2 Rand. 465; Good v. Stuart, 2 Hen. & M. 105; Welsh v. Ebersole, 75 Va. 651; Crawford McDonald, 2 Hen. & M. 189; Arents v. Com., 18 Grat. 750; Peay Morrison's Ex'rs, 10 Grat. 149; Mays v. Callison, 6 Leigh 230; Stu v. Burwell, 2 Hen. & M. 536; Etheridge's Adm'r v. Parker, 76 Va. 2 Bank v. Weisiger, 2 Pet. 331, 7 L. Ed. 441, 492; Same v. Tyler, 4 P 366, 7 L. Ed. 888; Mackie's Ex'r v. Davis, 2 Wash. 219, 1 Am. Dec. 4 Drake v. Lyons, 9 Grat. 54; Crawford v. McDaniel, 1 Rob. 448; 2 Law Reg. 559.

Due diligence to recover of maker or obligee must be shown assignee in order to recover of assignor. See Lee v. Love, 1 Call 4 Barksdale v. Fenwick, 4 Call 492; Mackie's Ex'r v. Davis, 2 Wash. 2 1 Am. Dec. 482; Minnis v. Pollard, 1 Call 226; Payne's Ex'rs v. Huffm 98 Va. 372, 36 S. E. 476; Harrison's Adm'r v. Raines' Adm'x, 5 Mu 456; Thompson v. Govan, 9 Grat. 695; Bronaugh v. Scott, 5 Call Carper v. Marshall, 98 Va. 438, 36 S. E. 526; Wilson's Adm'r v. Barcl Ex'r, 22 Grat. 534; Barksdale v. Fenwick, 4 Call 503; Peay v. Morris Ex'rs, 10 Grat. 149; Wood's Adm'r v. Duval, 9 Leigh 6; Drane v. Sch field, 6 Leigh 386; Hooe v. Wilson, 5 Call 61; Caton v. Lenox, 5 Rand. McWilliams v. Smith, 1 Call 123; Johnston v. Hackley, 6 Munf. 4 Scates v. Wilson, 9 Leigh 473; Smith v. Triplett, 4 Leigh 590; Arnol Hickman, 6 Munf. 15.

See section 5759; Picket v. Morris, 2 Wash. 255; Barksdale Fenwick, 4 Call 492; Smith v. Triplett. 4 Leigh 590; Goodall v. Stu 2 Hen. & M. 105; McClung v. Arbuckle, 6 Munf. 315; Campbell v. S man, 87 Va. 655, 13 S. E. 114; Hall v. Smith, 3 Munf. 550; Goodal Stuart, 2 Hen. & M. 111; Mackie's Ex'r v. Davis, 2 Wash. 219, 23 Am. Dec. 482; Arnold v. Hickman, 6 Munf. 15; Drane v. Schofiel Leigh 386; 3 Robinson, Pr. (Ed. 1858) 396; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 4 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 128; Hopkins v. Richardson, 9 Grat. 4 Long v. Pence, 93 Va. 584, 25 S. E. 593; Coiner v. Hansbarger, 4 L 452; Brown v. Ross, 6 Munf. 391; Peay v. Morrison's Ex'rs, 10 Grat. 1 Caton v. Lenox, 5 Rand. 31; Clark v. Young, 1 Cranch 181, 2 L. Ed.

Digitized by Google

v. Doremus, 3 How. 515, 11 L. Ed. 705; Lee v. Love, 1 Call 497; s v. Marshall, 4 Hen. & M. 455; Barley's Ex'r v. Layman's Adm'r, 18; Whitworth v. Adams, 5 Rand. 377; Stubbs v. Burwell. 2 Hen 6; Wood's Adm'r v. Duval, 9 Leigh 6.
ed but not construed in Selden v. Williams, 108 Va. 542, 62 S. E.

W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 99, section 19.
Gregory's Forms No. 32.

5769. How assignee may sue assignor.—Any such assignee ficial owner may recover from any assignor of such writing; y joint assignors shall be joined as defendants in one action, emote assignor shall have the benefit of the same defense as uit had been instituted by his immediate assignee. (Code 2861.)

risors' Note.—The words "or beneficial owner" are new. See g section.
common law assignee could not maintain action against remote . Dunlop v. Harris, 5 Call 16; Hooe v. Wilson, Id. 61; Caton , 5 Rand. 31.
intiff may recover under this section upon the general counts for aad and received, and for money paid, laid out, and expended. ker, J., Drane v. Scholfield, 6 Leigh 386. Or by motion under 3046. Long v. Pence, 93 Va. 584, 25 S. E. 593. See note to this Va. Law Reg. 612.
a proceeding by an assignee of a note against a remote assignor er on the contract implied by the assignment, the note is a y basis of evidence for the plaintiff in order to prove the assign- nd also to show the measure of the plaintiff's recovery. Long , 93 Va. 584, 25 S. E. 593.
3 Va. Law Reg. 745; 1 Barton, L. Pr. 235; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) Min. (3d Ed.) 32.
W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 99, section 15.

5770. Jurisdiction in equity, when.—A court of equity shall e jurisdiction of a suit upon a bond, note, or writing, by gnee or holder thereof, unless it appear that the plaintiff an adequate remedy thereon at law. (Code 1887, § 2862.)

or to this statute equity had jurisdiction of equitable assign- Winn v. Bowles, 6 Munf. 23.
seems that equity still has jurisdiction of suit by assignees of n action other than bonds, notes, or writings. 2 Va. Law Reg. Min. (2d Ed.) 435.
assignee of a chose in action has not a right in all cases to come ourt of equity upon the mere ground that he cannot sue in his ne at law, but it must appear that he is prevented from suing at the name of the assignor, or the assignor himself would have ght if he had not assigned to go into a court of equity. Moseley , 4 Rand. 392.
Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 235-6; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 435.
ed but not construed in Carozza v. Boxley, 203 Fed. 673; cited a. L. Reg. 547.
W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 99, section 16.

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 235.

For the Relief of Sureties.

Sec.
5771. How sureties on official bonds relieved.
5772. How, on bonds of State depositaries; what Treasurer to do as to deposits until new bond given.
5773. Officer failing to give new bond removed from office; depositary discontinued, if new bond not given.
5774. Surety may require creditor to sue.
5775. Effect of failure to sue.
5776. How surety, on bond under decree of cou payment of money, m tain indemnity, 5777. Surety's remedy agains cipal for money paid.
5778. Effect of confession of ment, or, etc., by without notice to pri or knowledge by princ suit and not defendin 5779. When contribution wrongdoers enforced.

Sec. 5771. How sureties on official bonds relieved.—When the s (or his committee or personal representative) of any officer, or missioner or receiver under decree of a court, required to give shall petition the court by which the bond is taken, or in whi in the clerk's office of which, it is recorded, or the circuit cou the county, or circuit or corporation court of the corporati which (where the bond of such officer is not taken by or filed i court or clerk's office) the officer resides, to be relieved fro suretyship, such court shall, on proof of reasonable notice intended motion, require such officer, commissioner, or receiv give a new bond in the same manner as if none had been giv him: Provided, that the surety, in any bond required to b proved by the Governor, shall file his petition in the Circuit of the city of Richmond; and the surety, in the bond of any of the Supreme Court of Appeals, shall file his petition in said at the place of session where his principal is such clerk. 1887, § 2887.)

A surety who has complied with the provisions of this sectio the arbitrary right to be relieved whether he became surety valuable consideration or not. He is not required to show cause condition precedent to relief, the court having no discretion. remedy is mandamus if trial court refuses relief. U. S., etc., Peebles, 100 Va. 585, 42 S. E. 310.

A guarantee company is entitled to be relieved as are indivi although the liability was assumed for a valuable consideration.

See section 280.

Sec. 5772. How, on bonds of State depositaries; what Treasu do as to deposits until new bond given.—The surety in any required of a depositary by section twenty-one hundred and eight, may petition the Finance Board to be relieved from th ligation, and the Finance Board, upon proof of reasonable not such depositary of the said petition, shall require the said d tary to give a new bond in the same manner as if none had

Digitized by Google

And the Treasurer of the State, upon notice of the said pe- shall make no further deposits with the said depositary until uch new bond shall have been given, approved, and accepted. n the meantime, if he deem it best for the interest of the shall withdraw such deposits as may be with such depositary, mmunicate in writing forthwith the fact of such withdrawal Finance Board, and thereafter keep or deposit the same as ance Board may direct. (Code 1887, § 2888.)

visors' Note.—Section 2156 creates a finance board, hence where- e word "Governor" formerly appeared in this section, the words ce Board" are now used.

5773. Officer failing to give new bond removed from office; ary discontinued, if new bond not given.—If any such officer, ssioner or receiver, being so required, fail to give such new within the time required by the court, he shall be deemed to ty of a breach of duty, and shall be forthwith removed from ce or trust; and if the new bond required of any depositary given within the time required, such depositary shall be dis- ued and the moneys of the State be forthwith withdrawn. 1887, § 2889.)

5774. Surety may require creditor to sue.—The surety, guar- or endorser (or his committee or personal representative), of rson bound by any contract, may, if a right of action has ac- thereon, require the creditor or his committee, or personal entative, by notice in writing, to institute suit thereon, and if bound in a bond with a condition, or for the performance of collateral undertaking, he shall also specify in such require- the breach of the condition or undertaking for which he re- suit to be brought. (Code 1887, § 2890.)

visors' Note.—Under the former language of this section it was Edmondson v. Potts, 111 Va. 79, 68 S. E. 254, 21 Ann. Cas. 1365, e notice must show a clear and distinct demand to the creditor vith to institute suit." The word "forthwith" no longer appears section. The omission of this word is due to the change made in lowing section.

notice to sue under this section must comply substantially with tute and must show a clear and distinct demand to the creditor vith to institute suit." A notice to "take such action as is neces- get an endorser's name off the note," or to sue one of the parties , is not a sufficient compliance with the statute. Edmondson v. 111 Va. 79, 68 S. E. 254, 21 Ann. Cas. 1365. Annotated 16 Va. eg. 357. But see revisors' note above.

or lengthy article on subrogation in Va., see 16 Va. Law Reg. 321. ted but not construed, Manson v. Rawlings, 112 Va. 384, 71 S. E.

e notes to next section.

r W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 101, section 1.

5775. Effect of failure to sue.—If such creditor, or his com- , or personal representative, shall not, within fifteen days after equirement, institute suit against every party to such contract, who is resident in this State and not insolvent, and pros the same with due diligence to judgment and by execution, he forfeit his right to demand of such surety, guarantor or end or his estate, and all his co-sureties and their estates, the m due by any such contract for the payment of money, or the ages sustained by any breach of the collateral condition or u taking specified as aforesaid; but the conditions, rights, and edies against the principal debtor shall remain unimpaired the (Code 1887, § 2891.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—Under this section the creditor has fifteen after notice given under the preceding section within which to ins suit. Formerly, he was given "a reasonable time." It was th better to fix a definite period. The words "guarantor or endorser" in line six of the text are new, and the purpose of their insertion make the language as comprehensive as that of the preceding secti

Indorser.—First indorser may require holder of note to sue, no standing agreement between holder and second indorser to extend ti payment, and such an extension does not release first indorser. W
v. Independence Nat. Bank, 96 Va. 728, 32 S. E. 459, 70 Am. St. Rep

Receiver.—A receiver appointed to collect purchase money o sold by him as commissioner, for which he had taken a bond with to himself, is not a creditor in the sense of the statute. Davis' Ad Snead, 33 Grat. 705.

Several sureties.—Where some of several sureties who hav quired creditor to sue are discharged by his failure so to do, the sureties are also discharged, though they may not have united in t quirement. Wright's Adm'r v. Stockton, 5 Leigh 153.

Equitable relief.—Surety, before payment of debt, may res equity to compel creditor to collect and principal debtor to pa debt. Kent v. Matthews, 12 Leigh 574; Hatcher's Adm'r v. Hat Ex'rs, 1 Rand. 53; Humphrey v. Hitt, 6 Grat. 524, 52 Am. Dec.
Randolph's Adm'x v. Kinney, 3 Rand. 397.

Surety may enforce for his exoneration any lien of creditor on of principal, and may bring any suit in equity which a creditor bring. Stephenson v. Taverners, 9 Grat. 398. See, also, Cabell's
v. Megginson's Adm'rs, 6 Munf. 292.

Surety is in equity discharged from the debt where creditor out an attachment and levies same on goods of principal debtor suf to satisfy the debt, but afterwards accepts a mortgage and releas attachment, and debtor eloigns the mortgaged effects. Ashby's Ad Smith's Ex'x, 9 Leigh 164.

Laches.—Laches is neglect to do something that a party shou surety can never charge creditor with laches until he has in vain n him to pursue principal. Alexander v. Byrd, 85 Va. 690, 8 S. E.
Coleman v. Stone, 85 Va. 386, 7 S. E. 241; Croughton v. Duval, 3 C

Due diligence.—Does not peremptorily require obligee, after o ing judgment, to sue out execution upon it; only requires due dili Harrison's Ex'r v. Price's Ex'r, 25 Grat. 553.

Negligence cannot be imputed to creditor where clerk has r to issue execution because of stay law. Id.

Creditor is not required to pursue the estate of the princi equity to impeach alleged frudulent conveyances or to subject an of the principal or to exhaust his remedies against the principal he can look to surety. Id. See Meade v. Grigsby's Adm'rs, 26 Gra

Countermand of execution.—Countermand of execution by cr after it goes into the hands of the sheriff, but before it is levied not release surety of execution debtor. Humphrey v. Hitt, 6 Grat 52 Am. Dec. 133.

Release of levy.—Nor will release of levy of execution upon

Digitized by Google

of surety release co-surety. Alexander v. Byrd, 85 Va. 690, 8 S. E. See Harrison's Ex'r v. Price's Ex'r, 25 Grat. 553.

Reasonable time.—Reasonable time here, when suit was commenced months after notice was given. Yuille's Adm'r v. Wimbish's Adm'r, . 308.

The statute now requires suit to be instituted within fifteen days notice. See revisors' note above.

Generally.—This section does not change the relation or the con- between creditor and surety. Harrison's Ex'r v. Price's Ex'r, 25 553.

Guaranty is distinguished from suretyship in being secondary while atter is a primary obligation. Piedmont Guano & Mfg. Co. v. s, 86 Va. 941, 11 S. E. 883.

For general liability of a guarantor, see 2 Va. Law Reg. 78. See rton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1079; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 830, 840; 3 Min. Ed.) 188, 214.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, p. 390.

Cited, Edmondson v. Potts, 111 Va. 79, 68 S. E. 254, 21 Ann Cas. Manson v. Rawlings, 112 Va. 384, 71 S. E. 564; Colona v. Parksley Bank, 120 Va. 812, 92 S. E. 979.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 101, section 2.

c. 5776. How surety, on bond given under decree of court for ient of money, may obtain indemnity.—A surety (or his com- ee, or personal representative) in a bond (other than the bond commissioner or receiver) given under a decree or order of a t for the payment of money, if no suit be pending for the very thereof, may file his petition in the court which rendered ade the decree or order, or to which the case has been removed, bond of indemnity. The petition shall state that the petition- s reason to believe that he, or the estate he represents, is likely ffer pecuniary loss in consequence of such suretyship, the nds of such belief, and be verified by affidavit. Upon the filing e petition and proof of reasonable notice to the principal in ond, and all the parties in interest, the court may require such nnifying bond, with satisfactory sureties, to be given within ne to be prescribed. If such bond be given, it shall be with ition and shall bind the obligors therein to indemnify the ties in the former bond against all loss or damage in conse- ce of such former bond. If such bond be not given, the court, e request of such surety, personal representative, or committee, e money be due and payable, or whenever the same becomes and payable, shall order suit to be brought for its recovery, and ecuted to judgment and by execution. (Code 1887, § 2892.)

c. 5777. Surety's remedy against principal for money paid.— y person liable as bail, surety, guarantor, or endorser, or any ff liable for not taking sufficient bail, or the committee, or or personal representative of any so liable, pay, in whole or art, any judgment, decree, or execution, rendered or awarded ccount of such liability, the person having right of action for amount so paid, may, by motion in the court in which the said ment, decree, or execution was rendered or awarded, obtain

Digitized by Google

judgment or decree against any person against whom such r of action exists for the amount so paid, with interest from the of payment, and five per cent. damages on said amount. (Code 1 § 2893.)

In general.—As to who are sureties, see Tompkins v. Mitche Rand. 428; Buchanan v. Clark, 10 Grat. 164; Harrison v. Fiel
Wash. 136; Harris v. Brooks, 21 Pick. 195, 32 Am. Dec. 254; Willi
Adm'r v. Macatee's Trustee, 86 Va. 681, 10 S. E. 1061; Cox v. Tho
Adm'x, 9 Grat. 312; Morrow's Adm'r v. Peyton's Adm'r, 8 Leigh

Remedy is cumulative, and does not deprive party of his actio law or suit in equity. Mills v. Central Bank, 16 Grat. 97; Tinsl Oliver's Adm'r, 5 Munf. 419; Eppes v. Randolph, 2 Call 125; Mou
v. Bank's Ex'r, 6 Munf. 387.

Before a surety is entitled to be subrogated to the rights of creditor, he must have paid or satisfied the debt of the principal.
execution of bond to creditor is not sufficient unless it be accepte satisfaction of debt of the principal. Combs v. Candler, 95 Va. 7
S. E. 815.

Undertaking by surety to pay the bond for consideration rec from principal does not convert the surety into the principal and principal into the surety in respect to the creditor. William & M College v. Powell, 12 Grat. 372.

See sections 6044-6046 and notes. See 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d 783, 1069, et seq., 1394; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1323.

As to the surety's right of contribution and substitution, see 2 (4th Ed.) 840; Enders v. Brune, 4 Rand. 438; Watts v. Kinney, 3 I 272, 23 Am. Dec. 266; Douglass v. Fagg, 8 Leigh 588; Hopewe Cumberland Bank, 10 Leigh 206 (2d Ed.) 214; Givens v. Nelson's 10 Leigh 382 (2d Ed.) 397; McClung v. Beirne, 10 Leigh 394 (2d 410, 34 Am. Dec. 739; Haffey's Heirs v. Birchetts, 11 Leigh 85; Pov
Ex'rs v. White, 11 Leigh 309 (2d Ed.) 322; Wheatley's Heirs v. Calh
12 Leigh 264, 37 Am. Dec. 654; Bank v. Boisseau, Id. 387; Ker Matthews, Id. 573; Brown v. Glascock's Adm'r, 1 Rob. 461 (2d 486; Robinson v. Sherman, 2 Grat. 178, 44 Am. Dec. 381; Bentl
Harris' Adm'r, 2 Grat. 357; Leake v. Ferguson, Id. 419; Rodge
McCluer's Adm'rs, 4 Grat. 81, 47 Am. Dec. 715; Preston v. Presto
Grat. 88, 47 Am. Dec. 717; Stephenson v. Taverners, 9 Grat. 398; H
Manser, 11 Grat. 522; Clevinger v. Miller, 27 Grat. 740; Crome
Cromer's Adm'rs, 29 Grat. 280; Chrisman's Adm'x v. Harman, 29 494, 26 Am. Rep. 387; Robertson v. Trigg's Adm'r, 32 Grat. 76; Gr
v. Wysors, Id. 127; Sherman's Adm'r v. Shaver, 75 Va. 1; Rhea v. Pre Id. 757; Bank of O. D. v. Allen, 76 Va. 200; Hauser v. King, Id.
Rosenbaum v. Goodman, 78 Va. 121; Penn v. Ingles, 82 Va. 65; drick v. Forney, 22 Grat. 748; Rixey v. Pearre, 89 Va. 113, 15
498; Exchange, etc., Co. v. Bayless, 91 Va. 134, 21 S. E. 279; Ror
Ferguson, 96 Va. 411, 31 S. E. 817; Sands' Adm'r v. Durham, 98
392, 36 S. E. 472, 54 L. R. A. 614; Repass v. Moore, 98 Va. 377, 36
474; Nalle v. Farish, 98 Va. 130, 34 S. E. 985; Sands' Adm'r v. Dur
99 Va. 263, 38 S. E. 145, 54 L. R. A 614, 86 Am. St. Rep. 884; Fu son v. Taylor, 100 Va. 426, 41 S. E. 863.

As to the effect, in respect to the surety, of creditors, mere i gence of principal, or extending, by contract, time of payment or formance, or releasing liens and securities without the surety's con see 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 186; Croughton v. Duval, 3 Call 70 (2d Ed.)
Hill v. Bull, Gilmer, 149; Norris v. Crummey, 2 Rand. 323; Loc
Summers, 3 Rand. 511; Hunter's Adm'r v. Jett, 4 Rand. 104; McKe
Ex'rs v. Waller, 1 Leigh 434; Alcock v. Hill, 4 Leigh 622; Harnsber Ex'r v. Geiger's Adm'r, 3 Grat. 144; Humphrey v. Hitt, 6 Grat.
52 Am. Dec. 133; Walker v. Com., 18 Grat. 13, 98 Am. Dec. 631; Sha
v. McMullin, 25 Grat. 211; Harrison's Ex'r v. Price's Ex'r, 25 Grat.
Com. v. Holmes, Id. 771; Smith v. Com., Id. 780; Adams v. Logan

Digitized by Google

1; Coffman v. Moore's Ex'rs, 29 Grat. 244; Richmond & P. R. asey, 30 Grat. 218; Callaway's Ex'rs v. Price's Adm'r, 32 Grat. v. Martin, 78 Va. 1; Christian v. Keen, 80 Va. 369; Kyger v. Va. 507, 16 S. E. 627; Stuart v. Lancaster, 84 Va. 772, 6 S. E. change, etc., Co. v. Bayless, 91 Va. 134, 21 S. E. 279; State Sav. Baker, 93 Va. 510, 25 S. E. 550; Bacon's Adm'r v. Bacon's 94 Va. 686, 27 S. E. 576; Wright v. Independence Bank, 96 32 S. E. 459, 70 Am. St. Rep. 889; Bridgewater Mills Co. v. 98 Va. 721, 37 S. E. 290.

cussed, 9 Va. Law J. 1.

m of notice of motion by surety against principal, 4 Min. (3d 39.

W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 101, section 3.

Gregory's Forms No. 354.

ading.—Surety having paid five several sums of money for prin- y maintain five several motions, and recover several judgments debts and costs of each motion. Ayres v. Lewellin, 3 Leigh 609.

otion by defendant to consolidate, see Id., 615.

he notice apprise defendant of the grounds of motion it is suf- Graves v. Webb, 1 Call 443. But if the notice descend to par- proof must correspond. Drew v. Anderson, Id. 51.

he defendant appear and judgment be rendered on a hearing, the f the motion is not part of the record unless it be made so by xceptions. Ayres v. Lewellin, 3 Leigh 609.

5778. Effect of confession of judgment, or, etc., by surety notice to principal, or knowledge by principal of suit and ending it.—If any such surety (other than bail), or his com- or heir, or personal representative, confess judgment, or udgment to go against him by default, without giving notice principal (if he be a resident of the State), or his committee, onal representative, to defend the suit, and after such prin- ffers to defend the suit, and tenders counter security, ap- by the court in which the suit is pending, the said principal, committee, or heirs, or representative, may have the benefit y defense against the motion or suit of such surety, or his ttee, or representative, or heirs, against him that he might ad against the creditor; and in all cases in which any prin- ebtor, or his committee, or representative, or heirs, knowing pendency of any suit against his surety, or the committee, or r personal representative of such surety, shall not offer to such suit, he shall be precluded from making any de- o the claim of the surety which he might have made against t of the creditor. (Code 1887, § 2894.)

e 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1074.

r W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 101, section 4.

5779. When contribution among wrongdoers enforced—Con- on among wrongdoers may be enforced where the wrong is act of negligence, and involves no moral turpitude.

visors' Note.—This section is new.

Digitized by Google

TITLE 56.

Actions for Injuries, and Action of Detinue.

Ch. 236. Actions for injuries.
237. Action of detinue.

CHAPTER 236.

Actions for Injuries.

Sec.
5780. Action for seduction.
5781. For insulting words.
5782. Unauthorized use of the name or picture of any person for the purpose of trade or for advertising purposes prohibited.
5783. For wrongful distress, etc.
5784. Replevin abolished.
5785. Damages from violation of a statute, and remedy therefor, and the penalty.
5786. When suit may be maintained on account of death of a person caused by wrongful act of another.
5787. How and when to be brought; how damages awarded; new trials.
5788. To whom amount recovered to be paid.
5789. How claims to damages under Sec. 5786 may be compromised, and amount received distributed.
5790. When right of action not to determine, nor action, brought, to abate.
5791. Liability of intrastate mon carriers by rail operated by steam fo jury to, or death of ployees.
5792. Contributory negligenc bar to recovery; violat safety appliance acts.
5793. Assumption of risk; tion of safety app acts.
5794. Contracts exempting liability void; set-off surance.
5795. The term common carr embrace receivers, etc not persons, etc., oper steam railroads primar incidental to the oper of coal mines, etc.; roads owned by count 5796. Action may embrace ity under both State Federal acts.

Sec. 5780. Action for seduction.—An action for seduction m maintained, without any allegation or proof of the loss of the se of the female, by reason of the defendant's wrongful act. (1887, § 2896.)

In general.—Does not give action in any case in which it di lie at common law; only dispenses with proof of loss of service. Hodges, 13 Grat. 726.

Where a daughter, over the age of twenty-one years, who lives from her father's house, under a contract for her service made by self, after she became of age, for her own benefit, is seduced, the (2528)

Digitized by Google

father will not lie either at common law or under this statute. Hodges, 13 Grat. 726.

es not alter rule as to commencement of action, and when daughd away from her father's house at the time of the seduction, but d and was confined there, and nursed, the statute of limitations y begin to run from that time. Clem v. Holmes, 33 Grat. 722, Rep. 793. See 1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 110. See, also, 1 Bar- Pr. 186; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 528, et seq.; 1 Min (4th Ed.) 223, 430; v. Campbell, 13 Grat. 573; Gregory's Forms No. 77.

r W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 103, section 1.

eading.—In action by father for the seduction of daughter de- n must allege relation of master and servant, as the action is d on that relation, and not that of parent and child. Lee v. , 13 Grat. 726. As to what is sufficient allegation of that rela- e Clem v. Holmes, 33 Grat. 722. 36 Am. Rep 793.

aintiff may elect to bring trespass or case for the seduction. v. Elliott, 6 Munf. 587; Same v. Elliotte, Gilmer 33. See sec- 86. Counts in trespass may be joined to count in case in action case Parsons v. Harper, 16 Grat. 64.

idence.—Defendant's letters to plaintiff's daughter relative to the are admissible; but the hearsay testimony of witness not acquaint- h plaintiff's general reputation for chastity, and her mere loose ge and immodest remarks to other young men, are inadmissible; here defendant fails on examination in chief to give details of s taken by her with him on night of seduction, such details are ly excluded when offered on re-examination. Fry v. Leslie, 87 9, 12 S. E. 671.

enhance damages plaintiff may prove that defendant promised to his daughter, and by means of said promise had succeeded in de- ng her. White v. Campbell, 13 Grat. 573.

ecuniary condition of the defendant may be shown. Clem v. s, 33 Grat. 722, 36 Am. Rep. 793.

efense.—Infancy no defense. Fry v. Leslie, 87 Va. 269, 12 S. E.

nstruction.—Not error to instruct the jury that if the conduct of aintiff shall appear to have been indiscreet, that is a circumstance should mitigate the damages, and to refuse to instruct that they to find for the defendant if it appeared to them that the father did t with the caution of a man of ordinary prudence Parker v. El- 3 Munf. 587.

. 5781. For insulting words.—All words which, from their construction and common acceptation, are construed as in- and tend to violence and breach of the peace, shall be action- No demurrer shall preclude a jury from passing thereon. e 1887, § 2897.)

n general.—All common-law defamations are insults. Moseley v. 6 Grat. 534; Payne v. Tancil, 98 Va. 266, 35 S. E. 725. Applies rds written as well as spoken. Chaffin v. Lynch, 83 Va. 106, 1 803. If publication be necessary, the writing and sending of such to the person libeled is sufficient. Rolland v. Batchelder. 84 Va. 5 S. E. 695.

Letter sent by servant to neighbor's wife, artfully asserting that she nvited writer to meet her, and proposing private interview, at a and place specified, is within the meaning of the statute, and ac- ble. Rolland v. Batchelder, 84 Va. 664, 5 S. E. 695.

To charge a white man with being a negro is calculated to inflict and damage upon him, for which he has a cause of action. Spen- Looney, 116 Va. 767, 82 S. E. 745; 20 Va. L. Reg. 540 and note.

A publication stating that fines collected by an officer did not appear on the records are not insulting, within the meaning of the Moss v. Harwood, 102 Va. 386, 46 S. E. 385.

Digitized by Google

It is not place where libelous article is printed, but the place it is published and circulated, that makes words actionable her making one who procured their publication liable therefor. Ha Bailey, 63 Fed. 873, 11 C. C. A. 476.

In the absence of an averment in the declaration that fro usual construction and common acceptation alleged defamatory are construed as insults and tend to violence and a breach of the or some equivalent, declaration is demurrable. Moss v. Harwo Va. 386, 9 Va. Law Reg. 1042, and note. 46 S. E. 385.

A publication containing insulting words may be declared on the statute, though it be libelous under the common law. Ch Lynch, 83 Va. 106, 1 S. E. 803; Payne v. Tancil, 98 Va. 262, 3 725.

An allegation that the words used are, "from their usual co tion and common acceptation construed as insults, and tend to v and breach of the peace," makes the declaration one under the s though words used are objectionable at common law. Haskell v.
63 Fed 873, 11 C. C. A. 476.

Declaration is demurrable unless it sufficiently sets out either of common-law slander or an insult under the statute. Hogan moth, 16 Grat. 80.

The common law and statutory causes of action cannot be h in one count. Moseley v. Moss, 6 Grat. 534; Hogan v. Wilmo Grat. 80; Chaffin v. Lynch, 83 Va. 106, 1 S. E. 803.

Declaration must aver that the words from the usual consti and common acceptation are construed as insults, and tend to v and breach of the peace, or else employ some other equivalent av to denote that the words are actionable under the statute. Ho Wilmoth, 16 Grat. 80; Chaffin v. Lynch, 83 Va. 106, 1 S. E. 803.

Where the words are not charged to have been spoken of cerning the plaintiff, and there is nothing which can by fair co tion, apply to the plaintiff, the declaration will be insufficient.
Shelor, 2 Munf. 193; Donaghe v. Rankin, 4 Munf. 261.

In an action for a statutory slander, the plaintiff must decla der the statute. If he does not, his declaration must set out a co law slander, and if the words charged do not amount to slande cannot be helped by the innuendo. Moseley v. Moss, 6 Grat. 53

A declaration laying the charge in the alternative, viz., th defendant spoke words or words of like import, is good after v Bell v. Bugg, 4 Munf. 260.

For monographic note on Libel and Slander, see Bourland v. E 8 Grat. 27, Va. Rep Ann.

Form of declaration in trespass on the case for slander, und statute of Virginia, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1711.

See 12 Va. L. Reg. 275 et seq.

See 1 Barton, L. Pr. 189; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 467; Burks' Pl.
pp. 249, 252, 348, 487, 949; section 6240; 3 Va. Law Reg. 469.
generally, Dillard v. Collins, 25 Grat. 343; Adams v. Lawson, 17
250, 94 Am. Dec. 455.

Cited but not construed, Meade v. Meade, 111 Va. 451, 69 S. E

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annot
chapter 103, section 2.

Abusive language is a misdemeanor under section 4536.

Justification and privileged communications.—Section 6240 a rule as to privileged communications apply as well to actions unde section as to common-law actions of libel and slander. Chaffin v. L 84 Va. 884, 6 S. E. 474; Id. 83 Va. 115, 116, [illegible] E. 803. See ley v. Moss, 6 Grat. 534; Brooks v. Calloway, 12 [illegible]gh 466. See erally, as to justification and privileged communications, Chaffin v L
83 Va. 106, 1 S. E. 803. Brown v. N. & W. R. Co., [illegible]0 Va. 61
S. E. 664, 60 L. R. A. 472; Reusch v. Roanoke, etc., Co. [illegible]1 Va. 53

Digitized by Google

58; Strode v. Clement, 90 Va. 553, 19 S. E. 177; Bourland v. 8 Grat. 27.

rson attacked may reply.—One insult cannot be set off against , yet if a man is attacked by another in a newspaper he may re- his reply is not unnecessarily defamatory of his assailant, and stly made in his defense, it will be privileged. Chaffin v. Lynch, 106, 1 S. E. 803. See Harman v. Cundiff, 82 Va. 239. As to offensive language as provocation, see Bourland v. Eidson, 8 7.

astruction of spoken words.—Words will be understood by the n the sense in which they were understood by the bystanders. . Young, 1 Wash. 150, 1 Am. Dec. 446; Roane, J., in Cave. v. 2 Munf. 194.

ner words.—When words laid in the declaration have been proved, before, proof of the speaking of like words as those laid, either r after they were spoken, is admissible to affect the measure of s. Hansbrough v. Stinnett, 25 Grat. 495.

finding that defendant caused the publication of libelous articles sustained where it appears from his testimony as a witness for that he uttered the words set out in declaration in a conversa- h editor of paper prior to their publication. Haskell v. Bailey, 873, 11 C. C. A. 476.

nages.—It is not necessary to prove actual pecuniary loss result- n the utterance of insulting words, as the law presumes that dam- sult therefrom. Boyd v. Boyd, 116 Va. 326, 82 S. E. 110; Ram- Harrison, 119 Va. 682, 89 S. E. 977.

ere is no rule of law fixing the measure of damages, nor can it ned by any process of computation. The jury is regarded as the l safest tribunal to determine not only the character of the al- sulting words, but also the measure of damages. Boyd v. Boyd, 326, 82 S. E. 110.

ere the speaking of the insulting words is admitted, the charac- he witnesses who testify only as to the language used, and the tances attending its utterance, and not as to the damages sus- is of no value in determining the damages sustained. Boyd v. 16 Va. 326, 82 S. E. 110.

Boyd v. Boyd, 116 Va. 326, 82 S. E. 110 (action under this sec- mmonly known as the anti-dueling act), the plaintiff was a and the defendant a man. A recovery of $3,000 damages was In Ramsay v. Harrison, 119 Va. 682, 89 S. E. 977 (also an nder this section), the plaintiff was a man and the defendant a in which case a recovery of $2,500 damages was sustained e object of this section is to prevent the use of insulting words, n action thereunder it is not necessary for the plaintiff to prove ecuniary loss resulting from the utterance of the insulting words that the jury might give punitive damages. Ramsay v. Harri- 9 Va. 682, 89 S. E. 977.

idence in mitigation of damages, see section 6240 and notes.

to inadequacy of damages, see Blackwell v. Landreth, 90 Va. S. E. 791.

murrer to evidence.—It is improper for trial court to compel to join in defendant's demurrer to the evidence. Rolland v. ler. 84 Va. 664, 5 S. E. 695. But the provision as to demurrer ie benefit of plaintiff, and may be waived by him. Brown v. N. Co., 100 Va. 619, 42 S. E. 664, 60 L. R. A. 472.

v trials—When verdict set aside.—Court has the power to cor- manifest departure from right and justice on the part of the action under this statute. Corr v. Lewis, 94 Va. 26, 26 S. E.

e verdict of the jury will not be set aside unless it is so grossly e (or inadequate) as to indicate that the jury, in rendering it, tuated by prejudice, passion or corruption, or that they were misled by some mistaken view of the case. Boyd v. Boyd, 116 Va. 32 S. E. 110.

Digitized by Google

Putting party on terms.—If the court has no right to set as verdict as excessive, it has no right to put a party upon terms to a a less sum. Boyd v. Boyd, 116 Va. 326, 82 S. E. 110.

Sec. 5782. Unauthorized use of the name or picture of any pe for the purpose of trade or for advertising purposes prohibited person, firm, or corporation that knowingly uses for advertising poses, or for the purposes of trade, the name, portrait, or pi of any person, resident in the State, without having first obta the written consent of such person, or if dead, of his survi consort, or if none, his next of kin, or, if a minor, of his or parent or guardian, as well as that of said minor, shall be de guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined not less than fifty nor than one thousand dollars. Any person whose name, portrai picture is used within this State for advertising purposes or the purposes of trade, without the written consent first obta as above provided, or if dead, the surviving consort, if any, none, his next of kin, as the case may be, may maintain a su equity against the person, firm, or corporation so using his n portrait, or picture, to prevent and restrain the use thereof; may also sue and recover damages for any injuries sustaine reason of such use, and if the defendant shall have knowingly such person's name, portrait, or picture in such manner as is fo den or declared to be unlawful by this chapter, the jury, in its cretion, may award exemplary damages. (1904, p. 111.)

Revisors' Note.—The act from which this section is taken prot living persons only. The revised section protects the dead as well a living.

For notes upon the right of privacy, see 11 Va. Law Reg. 63, 10 idem 824, 12 idem 91.

Decisions of other States.—Under similar statute in New Yo was decided that the provisions did not violate the due process of the equal protection of the laws or impairment of contract claus the State or Federal Constitutions. Nor is the statute invalidate the fact that it provides that the name, portrait or picture of an i cannot be used for advertisement purposes without the written co of his or her parent or guardian. Wyatt v. James Creery Co., 111 Supp. 86. See also Peck v. Tribune Co., 214 U. S. 185.

In Binns v. Vitagraph Co., 103 N. E. 1108, the N. Y. Court o peals decided that a similar statute applied in a case where a movin ture company used a picture representing it to be the likeness o plaintiff when, as a matter of fact, it was not.

In an action for damages on the ground that the defendants published a likeness of plaintiff in an advertisement without his au ity, the Supreme Court of Rhode Island held that there was no such as "the right of privacy" for the invasion of which an action for ages lies at common law. Henry v. Cherry & Webb, 73 Atl. Rep.

The Court of Appeals of Kentucky, however, sustained a judg for the plaintiff in the case where a picture was published, accomp by a personal sketch and a forged letter of recommendation of a p medicine. Foster, Milburn & Co. v. Chinn, 120 S. W. Rep. 364.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in Peck v. Tribune Co Sup. Ct. Rep. 454, 214 U. S. 185, reversed the U. S. Circuit Court i recting a verdict for the defendant where a woman's picture was under the name of another person with the statement that she nstantly used a certain brand of whiskey herself and as nurse had t to her patients.

Digitized by Google

e also Roberson v. Rochester F. Box Co., 50 L. R. A. 478, and h v. New England L. Ins. Co., 69 L. R. A. 101.

5783. For wrongful distress, etc.—If property be distrained y rent not due, or attached for any rent not accruing, or under any attachment sued out without good cause, the owner such property may, in an action against the party suing out arrant of distress or attachment, recover damages for the ful seizure, and also, if the property be sold, for the sale there- Code 1887, § 2898.)

his section was designed to meet both the case where no rent is accruing and the case where the distress or attachment is for han is due or accruing. Rep. Rev. 1849, 735, note.

landlord who employs an agent to lease his property and receive s not liable in damages for the act of the agent in unlawfully suing listress warrant against the tenant, unless he directed or approved oceedings had under the distress warrant, or failed to repudiate roceedings after full knowledge of them. Fishburne v. Engledove, 548, 22 S. E. 354.

he circumstance that the party distrained upon sued out a writ of n, which was never prosecuted, will not prevent him from main- a case for the wrongful distress. Olinger v. McChesney, 7 Leigh laintiff may elect to bring either trespass or case. Olinger v. Mc- y, 7 Leigh 660.

eclaration is bad on general demurrer if it does not set forth the n of landlord and tenant existing between plaintiff and defendant. v. Murdaugh, 2 Leigh 447.

this case a judgment in favor of tenant in action of unlawful de- brought against him is no evidence that no rent was due at the he distress warrant was sued out. Fishburne v. Engledove, 91 Va. 2 S. E. 354.

variance between the contract of lease as alleged and as proved fatal. Olinger v. McChesney, 7 Leigh 660.

the absence of any charge of fraud, malice, oppression or other aggravation, the measure of the plaintiff's damages is com- ion for the injury suffered. Fishburne v. Engledove, 91 Va. 548, E. 354.

e 1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 200; 4 Min. 131; Sams, Attachment, Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1010; Burks' Pleadings and Practice, p.

or W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations. r 103, section 3.

5784. Replevin abolished.—No action of replevin shall be ter brought. (Code 1887, § 2899.)

ee Vaiden v. Bell, 3 Rand. 448.

5785. Damages from violation of a statute, and remedy there- nd the penalty.—Any person injured by the violation of any e may recover from the offender such damages as he may sus- y reason of the violation, although a penalty or forfeiture ch violation be thereby imposed, unless the same be expressly oned to be in lieu of such damages. And the damages so sus- l, together with any penalty or forfeiture imposed for the ion of the statute, may be recovered in a single action of trespass on the case upon proper counts when the same person is ent to both damages and penalty: but nothing herein contained affect the existing statutes of limitation applicable to the foreg causes of action respectively. (Code 1887, § 2900; 1901-2, p.

Digitized by Google

Purpose and effect of section.—The purpose of this section merely to preserve to the person injured the right to maintain hi tion for the injury he may have sustained by reason of the wrongc of another, and to prevent the wrongdoer from setting up the de that he had paid the penalty of his wrongdoing under a penal sta It was not intended to create a new ground for bringing an actio damages. Connelly v. W. U. Tel. Co., 100 Va. 51, 40 S. E. 618, 56 A. 663, 93 Am. St. Rep. 919; Tyler v. Western Union Tel. Co. (C. 54 Fed. 634; Hortenstine v. Virginia-Carolina Ry. Co., 102 Va. 91 S. E. 996. See note 7 Va. Law Reg. 717.

This section confers no new or enlarged right upon a party in as a result of the violation of a statute. A party suing for an i arising from an act of a defendant, in violation of a statute, cla damages, and not merely the penalty prescribed in the act, would to allege and prove the same facts, which he would have to allege prove if the act of negligence complained of was not in violation statute, since the purpose of this section was merely to preserve t person injured the right to maintain his action for the injury he have sustained by reason of the wrongdoing of another, and to pr the wrongdoer from setting up the defense that he had paid the pe imposed under a penal statute. Hortenstein v. Va.-Carolina Ry. Co. Va. 914, 923, 47 S. E. 996.

Generally.—See W. U. Tel. Co. v. Reynolds, 77 Va. 173, 46 Am 715, for damages recovered for violation of section 4042; N. & W Co. v. Irvine, 84 Va. 553, 5 S. E. 532, where it was held that pla injured by railroad company's refusal to carry his baggage was not l ed to the penalty, but might recover the amount of actual damag & D. Co. v. Noell, 86 Va. 19, 9 S. E. 473, 13 Va. Law J. 320, where ages caused by the obstruction of streets by railroad company wer covered; Southside R. Co. v. Daniel, 20 Grat. 344, where damag land caused by faulty construction of railroad embankment were r ered; U. S. S. Co. v. Nottingham, 17 Grat. 115, 91 Am. Dec. 378, w damages were claimed for collision.

See, also, 7 Va. Law Reg. 659, 3 Va. Law Reg. 222; 1 Barton, L (2d Ed.) 200.

If separate actions be brought, can defendant require them consolidated? See Ayres v. Lewellin, 3 Leigh 609.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annota chapter 103, section 7.

Sec. 5786. When suit may be maintained on account of death person caused by wrongful act of another.—Whenever the deat a person shall be caused by the wrongful act, neglect, or defau any person or corporation, or of any ship or vessel, and the neglect, or default is such as would (if death had not ensued) entitled the party injured to maintain an action, or to proce rem against said ship or vessel, or in personam against the ow thereof or those having control of her, and to recover damag respect thereof, then, and in every such case, the person wh corporation or ship or vessel which, would have been liable, if d had not ensued, shall be liable to an action for damages, or, if a or vessel, to a libel in rem, and her owners or those responsible her acts or defaults or negligence to a libel in personan, notw

Digitized by Google

g the death of the person injured, and although the death ve been caused under such circumstances as amount in law ony. (Code 1887, § 2902.)

tute is remedial.—Statute is remedial, and is to be liberally d. B. & O. R. Co. v. Wightman's Adm'r. 29 Grat. 431, 26 Am. 4.

o may maintain action.—In an action to recover damages for h of his infant child, occasioned by the wrongful act of another, n be no recovery where it appears that the negligence of the or of the custodian of the infant to whom the father intrusted it, tely contributed to the result. The doctrine of imputed negli- s no application to such a case. R. F. & P. R. R. Co. v. Martin, 201, 9 Va. Law Reg. 891, and note, 45 S. E. 894.

provisions of this section authorize an action for the wrongful a resident alien, for the benefit of his resident alien widow and residing in another State. Pocahontas Collieries Co. v. Rukas, 278, 11 Va. Law Reg. 399, 406 and note, 51 S. E. 449.

administrator of a decedent who was a resident alien, and whose and infant child are non-resident aliens, may bring the action for in this section. Low Moor Iron Co. v. La Bianca's Admr., 83, 55 S. E. 532.

object of the statutes on this subject is to give the right of ac- ere none existed at common law and to prevent an action from which would otherwise have abated, but not to allow two actions the same defendant for the same injury. Brammer v. N. & W. 107 Va. 206, 57 S. E. 593. See opinion of trial judge in same Va. Law Reg. 244.

he wrongdoer dies before his victim does no action can be main- gainst his personal representative. Beavers v. Putnam, 110 Va. S. E. 353.

common law personal actions died with the person and could not ed either by or against the personal representative, and this rule been altered in respect to an injury done to the person. The action given by this section is an independent right of action and does not survive to the personal representative. Beavers am, 110 Va. 713, 67 S. E. 353.

person convicted of a felony and in confinement, against whom a right of action under this section may be sued through his ee under section 4998 et seq. Merchant v. Shry, 116 Va. 437, 106.

established common law rule that a father could not recover loss of the services of his minor son between the time of his nd the time when he would have attained his majority, has not rogated or even changed by this section, which only gives to the stributees and personal representatives of the deceased the right n in the name of the personal representative for a personal in- ongfully inflicted on the deceased and which resulted in his or does this section affect the common law right of a personal tative or parent to recover for losses between time of injury ulting death. Stevenson v. Ritter Lumber Co., 108 Va. 575, 62 51.

a parent recover for death of a baby? See 15 Va. Law Reg.

itation.—The limitation to the action given by this section is r. Anderson v. Hygeia Hotel Co., 92 Va. 687, 24 S. E. 269. See se and note, 2 Va. Law Reg. 27; Manuel v. N. & W. R. Co., 99 37 S. E. 957. See, also, section 5790 and notes; Birmingham O. Ry. Co., 98 Va. 648, 37 S. E. 17, 6 Va. Law Reg. 411. See g section.

erally.—For article on the history and construction of this sec- e 15 Va. Law Reg. 825.

Digitized by Google

See monographic note on Master and Servant, Hewes v dridge, 1 Rob. 143, Va. Rep. Anno.; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 68.

For monographic note on Death by Wrongful Act, see De K Wilkinson's Adm'r, 2 Pat. & H. 663, Va. Rep. Anno.

As to when the owner or employer is liable for the negligent the independent contractor, see 2 Va. Law Reg. 804; Emmerson 94 Va. 60, 26 S. E. 386, 2 Va. Law Reg. 834, note.

As to liability of corporations for punitive damages or smart see 1 Va. Law Reg. 471.

Referred to, but not construed, in R. & D. R. Co. v. Anderson's 31 Grat. 812, 31 Am. Rep. 750; B. & O. R. Co. v. Wightman's 29 Grat. 431, 26 Am. Rep. 384; Matthews v. Warner's Adm'r, 2 570, 26 Am. Rep. 396; B. & O. R. Co. v. Sherman's Adm'x, 30 Gra Roberts v. A. & F. R. Co., 83 Va. 313, 2 S. E. 518; Richmond v Adm'x, 103 Va. 322, 49 S. E. 482.

See, also, B. & O. R. Co. v. Whittington's Adm'r, 30 Grat. 8 & O. R. Co. v. Noell's Adm'r, 32 Grat. 394; R. & D. R. Co. v. Adm'r, 78 Va. 93; Moon's Adm'r v. R. & A. R. Co., 78 Va. 745, Rep. 401; Clark's Adm'r v. R. & D. R. Co., 78 Va. 709, 49 Am. Rep The Harrisburg, 119 U. S. 199, 7 Sup. Ct. 140, 30 L. Ed. 358; Sh Adm'r v. C. & O. R. Co., 81 Va. 188, 59 Am. Rep. 654; Farley's v. R. & D. R. Co., 81 Va. 783; Va. Mid. R. Co. v. White, 84 V 5 S. E. 573, 10 Am. St. Rep. 874.

It is well for each count to allege, in the language of the that the death was "caused by the wrongful act, neglect, or de etc. See 1 Barton, L. Pr. 201; 3 Min. 287, 288; 4 Min. 454.

As to libel in rem for death by wrongful act, see The Mar (D. C.) 18 Fed. 918; Evich v. The Glendale (D. C.) 77 Fed. 90 Glendale v. Evich, 81 Fed. 633, 26 C. C. A. 500; The Anglo-Pata 235 Fed. 92 (C. C. A., Fourth Circuit); Indra Line v. Palmetto phate Co., 239 Fed. 94 (C. C. A., Fourth Circuit). See notes to 5787 under "Federal Courts."

See Gregory's Forms No. 126.

See following sections of this chapter.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annot chapter 103, section 5.

Workmen's compensation act.—A workmen's compensation a passed at the session of 1918. See Acts 1918, p. 637.

Sec. 5787. How and when to be brought; how damages awa new trials.—Every such action shall be brought by and in the of the personal representative of such deceased person and one year after his or her death, but if any such action is br within said period of one year after said person's death, and f cause abates or is dismissed without determining the merits action, the time said action is pendng shall not be counted part of said period of one year, and another suit may be br within the remaining period of said one year as if such forme had not been instituted. No action, however, shall be main by the personal representative of one who, after injury, has promised for such injury and accepted satisfaction therefor ous to his death. The jury in any such action may award such ages as to it may seem fair and just, not exceeding ten tho dollars, and may direct in what proportion they shall be distri to the surviving widow or husband and children of the deceas if there be none such, then to the parents, brothers and sist the deceased. But nothing in this section shall be constru

Digitized by Google

ve the court of the power to grant new trials as in other cases. 1887, § 2903; 1904, p. 110.)

evisors' Note.—The second sentence of this section is new, and pose is to set at rest a doubt which has been expressed on the sub- See note in 70 Am. St. Rep. at p. 684; Brammer v. Norfolk & W. 107 Va. 206, 57 S. E. 593.

ie words "and grandchildren" should have been inserted in line om the bottom of this section. The omission was inadvertent, believed not to be material in view of the provisions of the next .

imary object of statute.—The primary object of this statute was pensate the family of the deceased and not in the interest of his l estate. R. F. & P. R. R. Co. v. Martin, 102 Va. 201, 9 Va. Law 91, and note, 45 S. E. 894.

ederal courts.—The right given in rem by preceding section (5786) a lien, and may be enforced by a libel in rem in the federal court he injury occurs in waters of the State navigable from the sea. endale (D. C.) 77 Fed. 906, affirmed 81 Fed. 633, 26 C. C. A. 500 ıling The Manhasset [D. C.] 18 Fed. 918); The Anglo-Patagonian, d. 92 (C. C. A., Fourth Circuit).

here administrator and defendant are citizens of different States, ion may be brought in the federal courts, though the deceased was en of the same State with defendant, where his widow and chil- ill reside. Harper v. N. & W. R. Co. (C. C.) 36 Fed. 102.

ie fact that a citizen of another State is selected for the purpose ferring on the federal court jurisdiction of an action hereunder. ot defeat the jurisdiction. Goff's Adm'r v. Norfolk & W. R. Co. 36 Fed. 299.

iat a ship was in charge of a compulsory pilot at the time of a col- or which she was in fault does not absolve her from liability for ıth of persons caused by the collision under section 5786. Indra Palmetto Phosphate Co., 239 Fed. 94 (C. C. A., Fourth Circuit).

r a case in which an action under sections 5786-5788 was allowed District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of ork, against a Delaware corporation, see Lauria v. E. I. Du Pont ıours & Co., 241 Fed. 687.

mitation—Statute of.—No action can be brought after twelve after death, though former action, which was nonsuited had been ıced within twelve months; but see section as above amended. v. N. & W. Ry. Co., 99 Va. 188, 37 S. E. 957. The limitation to affect the right. See, also, 1 Va. Law Reg. 694; 2 Va. Law 6.

henever the statute of limitations affects the right as well as the , and it appears of record that the period of limitation has ex- the defense can be made by demurrer. Dowell v. Cox, 108 Va. S. E. 272.

e action does not survive to the personal representative, within aning of section 5818, and must be brought within the year (ex- above provided). Anderson v. Hygeia Hotel Co., 92 Va. 687, 24 69. See same case and note, 2 Va. Law Reg. 27. See Birming- C. & O. Ry. Co., 98 Va. 548, 37 S. E. 17; 6 Va. Law Reg. 411, See notes to section 5790.

e provision of section 5809, excluding one year from death from ation of time within which suit must be brought, does not apply section. If declaration shows on its face that the death occurred han twelve months before action brought, advantage may be of the limitation by demurrer. Manuel v. N. & W. Ry. Co. 99 , 37 S. E. 957. See 3 Va. Law Reg. 63.

rties in interest need not be named.—It is not necessary to aver eclaration for whose benefit the suit is prosecuted. B. & O. R. Co. v. ıan's Adm'r, 29 Grat. 431, 26 Am. Rep. 384; Matthews v. Warner's

Digitized by Google

Adm'r, 29 Grat. 570, 26 Am. Rep. 396; Harper v. N. & W. R
(C. C.) 36 Fed. 102.

Evidence.—The plaintiff may, before the jury has rendered a ve introduce evidence to prove that the deceased left a widow and chil and the number and age of the children. B. & O. R. Co. v. Sher Adm'x, 30 Grat. 602.

In action for killing wife, evidence admissible tending to wife's influence towards financial and moral betterment of hus Simmons v. McConnell, 86 Va. 494, 10 S. E. 838, 14 Va. Law J. 106

Evidence is admissible to show the condition and circumstanc the family of the deceased, his business qualifications, the conditi his health, the amount he was realizing annually from his employ the value of his services to his family, and the damage suffered by in the loss of his care, nurture, and instruction. B. & O. R. Co. v. W man's Adm'r, 29 Grat. 431, 26 Am. Rep. 384.

In an action for death by wrongful act or neglect, evidence c pecuniary condition of the deceased at the time of his death is inadm ble. Such evidence tends to excite the sympathy of the jury, a received, is presumed to have wrongfully affected the verdict.
& O. R. Co. v. Ghee's Adm'x, 110 Va. 527, 66 S. E. 826.

It is not competent for the defendant to show that deceased policies of insurance on his life for the benefit of his wife and chi and that they have been paid. B. & O. R. Co. v. Wightman's Adm Grat. 431, 26 Am. Rep. 384.

Damages.—The jury is not confined to the mere pecuniary los injury, but may give such damages as "to them may seem fair and Matthews v. Warner's Adm'r, 29 Grat. 570, 26 Am. Rep. 396.

If deceased left a wife and children, the jury may properly the damages with reference to the pecuniary loss sustained by the and children: First, by fixing the same in such sum as would be eq the probable earnings of the deceased during the probable period life if he had not been killed, taking into consideration his age, ness capacity, etc.; and, second, by adding thereto the value of hi vices in the attention to and superintendence, education, and care family. B. & O. R. Co. v. Wightman's Adm'r, 29 Grat. 431, 26 Am.
384.

Excessive damages—New trial.—New trial on ground of exc damages will not be granted unless verdict be such as to shoc understanding, and impress no dubious conviction of the jury's prej and passion. Bertha Zinc Co. v. Black's Adm'r, 88 Va. 303, 13
452, 15 Va. Law J. 654.

Form of verdict.—For the form of a verdict assessing damage distributing them among parties in interest which was upheld b
Supreme Court, see Powhatan L. Co. v. Whetzel, 118 Va. 161, 86 898.

Neglect of deceased.—Neglect or misconduct of deceased, while sidered in mitigation of damages, constitutes no defense where the was caused by wrongful act. Matthew v. Warner's Adm'r, 29 Grat.
26 Am. Rep. 396. See, also, Farley v. Richmond, 81 Va. 783.

Case in which father cannot recover for death of child.—If a f through his agent, the custodian of the child, is guilty of negli proximately contributing to cause its death, the father cannot re damages in an action for his own benefit. The doctrine of imputed gence has no application to the case, but the rule that the negl father cannot recover is founded upon the fundamental principle no one can acquire a right of action by his own negligence. Richm
F. & P. R. Co. v. Martin's Adm'r, 102 Va. 201, 45 S. E. 894.

Generally.—Cited but not construed in Richmond v. Gay's A 103 Va. 322, 49 S. E. 482; Beavers v. Putnam, 110 Va. 713, 67 S. E.

See Brammer v. N. & W. R. Co., cited under section 5786.

For article on the history and construction of this section, see 1
Law Reg. 825.

Digitized by Google

s to venue of action for wrongul death, see 3 Va. Law Reg. 607:
or W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, r 103, section 6.
ee Gregory's Forms No. 126.

5788. To whom amount recovered to be paid.—The verdict, re be one, and the judgment of the court shall, in all cases, y the amount or the proportion to be received by each of the ciaries, if any such there be. No verdict, however, shall be ide for failure to make such specification, but if the jury een discharged their failure to make the specification at the at which the verdict is rendered shall be corrected by the trial at any time before judgment is entered, and for this pur- t may hear evidence if deemed necessary. The amount recov- n any such action shall be paid to the personal representative, fter the payment of costs and reasonable attorney's fees, shall tributed by such personal representative to the surviving wife, nd, child, and grandchild of the decedent; or if there be no vife, husband, child or grandchild, then to the parents, broth- id sisters of the decedent in such proportions as has been ained by the judgment of the court, and shall be free from all and liabilities of the deceased; but if there be no such wife, nd, child, grandchild, parent, brother or sister, the amount so ed shall be assets in the hands of the personal representative disposed of according to law. This and the preceding section bject to this proviso: Where the decedent has left a widowed r and also a widow, but no child or grandchild, the amount re- ed shall be divided between the mother and the widow in portions as the jury or court may direct. (Code 1887, § 2904; . 110.)

evisors' Note.—Before the revision this section provided that the t recovered should be distributed by the personal representative beneficiaries (naming them) "in such proportions as the jury may irected, OR, IF THEY HAVE NOT DIRECTED, ACCORDING TO TATUTE OF DISTRIBUTIONS." The meaning of this language nsidered doubtful. See Pinchum v. Southern Ry. Co., 10 Va. Law 32, criticized by Prof. Graves in his Notes on Torts, p. 27. It observed that under the revised section the surviving wife (or d), child, AND GRANDCHILD of the decedent constitute the pre- class of beneficiaries, and that the parents, brothers and sisters decedent constitute the deferred class. Under the former section, hildren were not put either in the preferred or deferred class, he revised section places them in the preferred class. tachment of grandparents for their grandchildren was considered than that for collateral kindred. The first two sentences of the section are new, and in consequence of their insertion, the former ge applicable to the statute of distributions (capitalized above) ger appears.

e judgment of the court must in all cases specify the beneficiaries e amount going to each. The verdict of the jury is required to , but if it fails to do so, the section points out how the specifica- all be made before judgment is entered. If there are none of the kindred mentioned in the section, then the judgment should spec the recovery is for the benefit of the estate of the decedent. It deemed necessary to make any other change in the language of tion as to the beneficiaries. The language used seems plain enough cate that there is a preferred class of beneficiaries composed of viving wife, husband, child and grandchild, and as long as any remain there can be no recovery for the benefit of the deferred cl can any of the deferred class be placed in the same class with ferred class, and if there be none of either class enumerated, t recovery must be for the benefit of the decedent's estate. It ca for the benefit of any other collateral kindred.

Digitized by Google

See notes to section 5786.

Action for wrongful death of resident alien, for the benefi resident alien widow and children, residing in another State, will Pocahontas Collieries Co. v. Rukas, 104 Va. 278, 11 Va. Law R 406 and note, 51 S. E. 449.

See Brammer v. N. & W. R. Co., cited under section 5786.

See Powell's Adm'x v. Powell, 84 Va. 415, 4 S. E. 744; 1
L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 202; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 288; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 455,
L. Reg. 69.

For article on the history and construction of this section,
Va. Law Reg. 825.

See Gregory's Forms No. 126.

Sec. 5789. How claim to damages under section fifty-seve dred and eighty-six may be compromised, and amount receiv tributed.—The personal representative of the deceased ma promise any claim to damages arising under section fifty-seve dred and eighty-six before or after action brought, with th sent of the persons who would be entitled to the damages rec in an action therefor brought by such representative under fifty-seven hundred and eighty-seven; or if any such perso incapable from any cause of giving consent, the personal re tative may compromise with the approval of the judge of th wherein any such action has been brought, or if none ha brought, with the consent of the judge of the court wherei action may be brought. Such approval may be applied for personal representative, on petition to the said judge, in t vacation, stating the compromise, the terms thereof, and therefor, and convening the parties in interest. If the jud prove the compromise, and the parties in interest do not agre the distribution to be made of what has been or may be recei the personal representative under the said compromise, or if them are incapable of making a valid agreement, the judg direct such distribution as a jury might direct under sectio seven hundred and eighty-seven as to damages awarded by th other respects, what is received by the personal representati der the compromise shall be treated as if recovered by him action under the section last mentioned. When the judge vacation, he shall return all the papers in the case, and order therein, to the clerk's office of his said co[redacted] The clerk sh the papers in his office as soon as received, and [redacted]thwith ent

Digitized by Google

n the order book on the law side of the court. Such orders, l the proceedings in vacation, shall have the same force and is if made or had in term. (Code 1887, § 2905.)

visors' Note.—The compromise may be made either before or ie action is brought. In case the compromise is made after the g of the action, and any of the parties are non sui juris, it must the approval of the judge of the court wherein the action is ; if no action has been brought, then the approval of the judge court wherein the action may be brought must be obtained.

wer of judge to sanction compromises in actions for injuries re- in death was added by the revisors of 1887, in order to facilitate proceedings. Burks' Address, 2 Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.), 1389.

e Powell's Adm'x v. Powell, 84 Va. 415, 4 S. E. 744. This case nd was decided before the Code of 1887 went into effect.

r article on the history and construction of this section, see 15 v Reg. 825.

ed but not construed in R., F. & P. R. R. Co. v. Martin, 102 v Reg. 893, 45 S. E. 894.

to compromise by fiduciaries generally, see section 5440; as to ion, section 6163.

e Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 203; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 288; 4 Min.) 456.

5790. When right of action not to determine, nor action, brought, to abate.—The right of action under sections fifty- hundred and eighty-six and fifty-seven hundred and eighty- shall not determine, nor the action, when brought, abate by ath of the defendant, or the dissolution of the corporation corporation is the defendant; and, where an action is brought erson injured for damage caused by the wrongful act, neglect, ault of any person or corporation, and the person injured dies g the action, the action shall not abate by reason of his but, his death being suggested, it may be revived in the f his personal representative, and the declaration and other ngs shall be amended so as to conform to an action under s fifty-seven hundred and eighty-six and fifty-seven hundred ghty-seven, and the case proceeded with as if the action had rought under the said sections. But in such cases there shall one recovery for the same injury. Nothing contained in ction shall be construed to extend the time within which an for any other tort shall be brought, nor to give the right to a claim for a tort not otherwise assignable. (Code 1887, § 1893-4, p. 83.)

visors' Note.—Section 2906 of the Code of 1887 was confined to here the decedent died from the effects of the injury. That sec- owever, was amended by Acts 1893-4, p. 83, and the right of re- xtended. Under this amendment it was held in Birmingham v. Ry. Co., 98 Va. 548, 37 S. E. 17, that the right of revival existed the plaintiffs in actions for personal injuries died pending the WITHOUT REGARD TO THE CAUSE OF DEATH, but that the d section did not make all actions for personal injuries revivable. o, note, 6 Va. Law Reg. 411. For discussions of the amendment, Va. Law Reg. 694, 2 Va. Law Reg. 27, and 4 Va. Law Reg. 772.

Digitized by Google

The revised section was not intended to change the holding in Bi ham v. C. & O. Ry. Co., supra, but the provision for the amendment declaration and other pleadings so as to conform to an action sections 5786 and 5787 was taken from the section as it appears Code of 1887. This provision was re-inserted so as to remove s the difficulties suggested in the discussions above mention has been discovered since the enactment of the Code that the re-in of the provision for amendments in connection with the langua in this section would extend the operation of the section beyon was intended. This difficulty can only be remedied by legislatio Legislature, therefore, will be asked to amend and re-enact this by putting a period after the word "representative" and striki the word "and" in line ten of the text, and inserting immediately after as the beginning of that sentence the following words:
death resulted from the injury."

If the death resulted from the injury, and the action is the section provides there shall be but one recovery for the same that is, the recovery is to cover the damages both for the injury death.

The last sentence is intended to meet difficulties that hav suggested with reference to the act of limitations in other act tort, and the right to assign such rights of action.

For a personal injury not resulting in death, for which no is brought by the injured party in his lifetime, no provision is has ever been made, and it simply dies as at common law.

This and the preceding sections do not affect the rule of the c law, and do not cause to survive, within the meaning of section the right of action for an injury to the person by the wrongf neglect, or default of another. Such right of action still, as at c law, dies with the person, and the limitation of one year applies case. Anderson v. Hygeia Hotel Co., 92 Va. 687, 24 S. E. 269
Law Reg. 27, note; Manuel v. N. & W. Ry. Co., 99 Va. 188, 37 S.
See, also, 1 Va. Law Reg. 694; 2 Va. Law Reg. 386; 3 Va. La
63, 442, 609, 837; Birmingham v. C. &. O. Ry. Co., 98 Va. 548, 3
17, 6 Va. Law Reg. 411, note; 4 Va. Law Reg. 772.

The object of this section is to give the right of revival i where the plaintiff in actions for personal injuries dies pendi action, without regard to the cause of death, and not to make all for personal injuries revivable. Birmingham v. C. & O. Ry.
Va. 548, 37 S. E. 17, note 6 Va. Law Reg. 411.

If the wrongdoer dies before his victim does no action can be tained for the death; the right of action is given only against the doer, and as he is dead there is no one in being who can b Beavers v. Putnam, 110 Va. 713, 67 S. E. 353.

In personal injury case if trial court erroneously sets aside a for plaintiff, and on second trial defendant gets judgment, and then dies, his personal representative may have writ of error to the action of the trial court on the first trial. Jackson v. Wi
112 Va. 128, 70 S. E. 539.

See Brammer v. N. & W. R. Co., cited under section 5786.

See notes to section 5786.

For article on the history and construction of this section,
Va. Law Reg. 825.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 114, 203; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 61
976.

Sec. 5791. Liability of intrastate common carriers by railroa erated by steam for injury to, or death of, employees.—Ever mon carrier by railroad engaged in intrastate commerce sh

Digitized by Google

in damages to any of its employees suffering injury while he ployed by such carrier in such commerce, and in case of his , to his personal representative, for such injury or death, re- g in whole or in part from the wrongful act or neglect of any e officers, agents, servants or employees of such carrier, or by n of any defect or insufficiency, due to its neglect, in its cars, es, appliances, machinery, track, roadbed, works, boats, ves, or other equipment. If the action be for the death of an oyee, sections fifty-seven hundred and eighty-seven, fifty-seven red and eighty-eight, fifty-seven hundred and eighty-nine and seven hundred and ninety, shall apply thereto as far as ap- ble. No action shall be maintained under this section, unless it mmenced within one year from the day the cause of action ed. (1916, p. 762, § 1.)

Revisors' Note.—This and the five following sections are based upon t of 1916 cited. The first part of section 5791 follows more closely nguage of the Federal Employers' Liability Act than did the Vir. act referred to, but of course the section applies only to railroads ed in intrastate commerce while the Federal act applies only to rail- engaged in interstate commerce. The last two sentences of section are new. The act failed to name the beneficiaries, to prescribe a tion within which the action may be brought, and to provide for important matters which are now covered by these two sentences. mitation of one year conforms to the limitation prescribed in sec- 787 on actions brought under section 5786. The limitation of ten and dollars on the amount of the recovery appearing in the act een omitted from section 5791 because covered by section 5787, is made a part of section 5791 as far as applicable. The act of above referred to, was restricted to negligence. Section 5791 fol- he language of section 5786 and also of Acts 1912, p. 583 (section of Pollard's Code, as amended), and extends the action to wrong- ts as well as neglects. The first part of section 5793 is substantially y of the constitutional provision. (Const., section 162.) In con- nce of sections 5791 to 5796, inclusive, Acts 1912, p. 583, amend- ction 1294k of Pollard's Code (1904), has been omitted and thereby ed.

Liability of intrastate steam railroads for injury to, or death of, yees.—Sections 5791 to 5796 of this Code constitute the present Virginia on the subject of the liability of intrastate common car- by railroads operated by steam for injury to, or death of, em- s. Section 1294k of Pollard's Code, as is stated in the revisors' above, has been repealed. The notes to section 162 of the Con- on should be read in connection with the sections of the Code mentioned. See, also, the following cases, which arose under the r law: N. & W. R. Co. v. Cheatwood, 103 Va. 356, 365, 49 S. E. Southern R. Co. v. Foster, 111 Va. 763, 69 S. E. 972; Potomac, P. Co. v. Chichester, 111 Va. 152, 68 S. E. 404; Ches. & O. R. Co. artz, 115 Va. 723, 80 S. E. 568. See 8 Va. Law Reg. 245; 12 Va. g. 447, 531, 535.

For digest of Federal Employers' Liability Act, see 19 Va. L. Reg. editorial upon the act, 20 Va. L. Reg. 788.

e. 5792. Contributory negligence no bar to recovery; violation fety appliance acts.—In all actions or motions hereafter brought st any such common carrier to recover damages for personal

Digitized by Google

injuries to any employee, or where such injuries have resulte his death, the fact that such employee may have been guilty of tributory negligence shall not bar a recovery, but the damages s be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of ne gence attributable to such employee; and no such employee, may be injured or killed, shall be held to have been guilty of tributory negligence in any case where the violation by such c mon carrier of any statute enacted for the safety of employees tributed to the injury or death of such employee. (Id., § 2.)

See article, 2 Va. L. Reg. N. S. 561.

Sec. 5793. Assumption of risk; violation of safety appliance a —In any action brought against any common carrier, under or virtue of section fifty-seven hundred and ninety-one, to recc damages for injuries to, or death of, any of its employees, knowledge of any employee injured or killed of the defective unsafe character or condition of any machinery, ways, applian or structures of such carrier, shall not of itself be a bar to recov for any injury or death caused thereby, nor shall such emplo be held to have assumed the risk of his employment in any where the violation by such common carrier of any statute enac for the safety of employees contributed to the injury, or death such employee. (Id., § 3.)

See article, 2 Va. L. Reg. N. S. 561.

Sec. 5794. Contracts exempting from liability void; set-off of surance.—Any contract, rule, regulation, or device whatsoever, purpose or intent of which shall be to enable any common car to exempt itself from any liability created by section fifty-se hundred and ninety-one, shall to that extent be void; but in action brought against any such common carrier under or by tue of said section, such common carrier may set off therein sum it has contributed or paid to any insurance, relief, benefit, indemnity companies that may have been paid to the injured ployee or the person entitled thereto on account of the injury death for which said action was brought. (Id., § 4.)

Sec. 5795. The term common carrier to embrace receivers, e but not persons, etc., operating steam railroads primarily as cidental to the operation of coal mines, etc.; railroads owned county.—The term "common carrier" as used in the four preced sections shall include the receivers or other persons or corporati charged with the duty of the management or operation of the bu ness of a common carrier, whose motive power is steam; but sh not include persons, firms or corporations owning or operating ste railroads when such railroads are primarily and chiefly used incidental to the operation of coal, gypsum, or iron mines, or s mills, nor shall it apply to any railroad owned or operated by a county. (Id., § 5.)

Digitized by Google

5796. Action may embrace liability under both State and l acts.—The declaration or other pleading in any such action nbrace a cause of action growing out of any act of Congress United States of America for said injury or death, without demurrable on this account, and without the plaintiff being ed to elect under which statute he claims. The five preceding s shall not apply to electric railways operated wholly within ate. (Id., § 6.)

CHAPTER 237.

Action of Detinue.

Sec.

When and how property sued for may be taken from possession of defendant; the bond to be given by plaintiff.

How defendant or other claimant may have property returned; the bond required therefor; what to be done with property, if bond not given.

Exceptions to sufficiency of bonds.

5800. How right of plaintiff to have property taken from possession of defendant contested, process abated, and property returned.

5801. Final judgment.

5802. What not error; if verdict omit value, how ascertained.

5803. Plaintiff to pay charges for keeping property; when same to be taxed in costs.

5804. Where bond filed with justice to be returned.

5797. When and how property sued for may be taken from ion of defendant; the bond to be given by plaintiff.—When- n any action of or warrant in detinue, it is made to appear affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, hat there is good reason to believe that the defendant is in- t, so that any recovery against him for the alternate value property and for damages and costs will probably prove un- g, r that the property, for the recovery of which such action rant is brought, will be sold, removed, secreted, or otherwise ed of by the defendant, so as not to be forthcoming to answer al judgment of the court or justice respecting the same;

r that such property will be destroyed or materially dam- or injured by neglect, abuse, or otherwise, if permitted to longer in possession of such defendant or other person claim- der him;

nd when such affidavit shall also state the kind, quantity, lue of the property claimed by the plaintiff in such action or nt, and that the affiant verily believes the plaintiff is en- to recover the same, the clerk of the court in which, or the before whom, such action or warrant is pending, shall issue ler or other process directed to the sheriff or other proper officer, as the case may be, commanding him to seize the pro mentioned in such affidavit and deliver the same to the plai and it shall be the duty of the officer to whom such order or pr is directed and delivered, to proceed forthwith to execute the No such order or process, however, shall be issued until the p iff, or some one for him, shall execute a bond, with sufficient su to be approved by and filed with the clerk or justice, in a pe at least double the estimated value of the property claimed, able to the defendant, with condition to redeliver the proper seized to the defendant, or to the person from whose possessi was taken, if the right to the possession shall be adjudged ag the plaintiff, and to pay all costs which may be awarded agains plaintiff in such action or warrant, and all damages which ma crue to the defendant or any other person by reason of the se of such property under such order or process. (Code 1887, § 1916, p. 716.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The following should be observed with refe to the paragraph numbered 4: Formerly, the order or other pr commanded the officer to seize and TAKE INTO HIS POSSESSIO property mentioned in the affidavit. In most states replevin is where in Virginia we use the action of detinue, but rep has been abolished in Virginia. (Section 5784.) The former ch on detinue was criticized and the preference claimed for replevin be under the Virginia statute the plaintiff could only recover possessi his property at the end of the litigation, whereas in replevin he rec possession at the beginning. Even under the former language of section, however, in practice the officer in many cases took the pro and instead of retaining it, turned it over to the plaintiff. The re section removes the criticism above referred to, and now the offi commanded to "seize the property mentioned in such affidavit an liver the same to the plaintiff," so that the plaintiff may, in all p cases, regardless of the practice heretofore, recover possession o property at the beginning of the litigation. The latter part of the tion pertaining to the condition of the plaintiff's bond conforms t change governing the action of the officer.

The amendment of 1916 (Acts 1916, p. 716) authorizing office break open doors in order to execute the process in certain cases been omitted because covered by section 6483.

This chapter does not affect the equitable jurisdiction to decre specific delivery of title papers to heirs at law, devisee, and other pe properly entitled to the custody and possession of same. Kelly v. Le etc., Co., 98 Va. 405, 36 S. E. 511, 81 Am. St. Rep. 736.

The insolvency of a defendant in detinue is no ground for an in tion to prevent the removal or disposition of the subject of litiga
An ample remedy is afforded the plaintiff by this section. Langfo
Taylor, 99 Va. 577, 39 S. E. 223, 7 Va. L. Reg. 575. See section

A bond with condition, "If the said Lacelle Jackson shall pa costs and damages which may be awarded against him or sustained by person by reason of his suing out the action of detinue," will not auth a recovery thereon, by a claimant of the property taken, for dam sustained for the sale of the property. Jackson v. Hopkins, 92 Va.
24 S. E. 234.

Such bond is not void, but may be sued on, so far as the condi are good, as a statutory bond. Id.

Digitized by Google

to be one of the anomalies of our system of pleading that inue may be joined in the same action, but it has never t a plaintiff can sue in detinue and recover in debt. The ion of detinue is the unlawful detainer of the specific prop-—not any other property, and not a money obligation due endant to the plaintiff. Va. Land Immigration Bureau v.
Va. 821, 99 S. E. 691.
rton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 214; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 429; Burks' Pl.

ographic note on Detinue, see Hunt's Adm'r. v. Martin's t. 5778, Va. Rep. Anno.
Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations,
section 2.
ory's Forms Nos. 392, 603.

How defendant, or other claimant may have property e bond required therefor; what to be done with proper- not given.—The defendant in any such action or war- other person claiming title to the property so seized and sion of by the officer, may have such property returned y time after such seizure, upon executing a bond, with rety, to be approved by the officer, payable to the a penalty at least double the estimated value of such ith condition to pay all costs and damages which may against the defendant in said action or warrant, and which may accrue to any person by reason of the re- l property to the defendant or such claimant, and also property forthcoming to answer any judgment or order t or justice respecting the same; which bond shall be such officer, and by him returned to the office of the the justice who issued such order or process. The offi- eiving such bond, shall forthwith return the property im to the defendant, or any other person claiming title from whose possession it was taken. But if no such livered to such officer, after such seizure, the property nds of the officer shall be kept by him, unless it be perish- ensive to keep, in which case it may be sold by order of or by the judge in vacation; or, if the case be before a he peace, by order of such justice; such sale to be made e manner as if it were a sale under execution. (Code 8.)

s' Note.—The words "if in the hands of the officer" found line from the bottom of the text are new. Their insertion is sary by the change made in the preceding section.
Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, , section 4.
egory's Forms No. 393.

9. Exceptions to sufficiency of bonds.—Either party may ions to the sufficiency of the bond of the other or of the f the property (if he has given bond), or such claimant xceptions to the sufficiency of the bond of either party; urt or justice before whom the action or warrant is pend-

Digitized by Google

ing, or the judge of said court in vacation, may, on the moti either party or of the claimant, after reasonable notice t others, pass upon said exceptions and make such order there as may be just and reasonable. (Code 1887, § 2909.)

Sec. 5800. How right of plaintiff to have property taken from session of defendant contested, process abated, and propert turned.—The right to any such order or process as is provide in section fifty-seven hundred and ninety-seven, may be cont by the defendant or claimant of the property, before the cou justice, or judge of such court in vacation, after reasonable n to the plaintiff or his attorney; and if the court, judge or ju be of opinion that the order or process was issued on false su tions or without sufficient cause, such order or process sha abated, and the property returned to the possession of the p from whom it was taken, to abide the final trial of the acti warrant. (Code 1887, § 2910.)

Sec. 5801. Final judgment.—When final judgment is render the trial of such action or warrant, the court or justice shal pose of the property or proceeds, according to the rights of entitled; and when in any such action or warrant the plaintiff prevail under a contract which, regardless of its form or ex terms, was in fact made to secure the payment of money t plaintiff or his assignor, judgment shall be for the recovery o amount due the plaintiff thereunder, or else the specific prop and costs, and the defendant shall have the election of payin amount of said judgment or surrendering the specific property the court or justice may grant the defendant a reasonable tim exceeding thirty days, within which to discharge such judg upon such security being given as the court or justice may sufficient. (Code 1887, § 2911; 1916, p. 508.)

As to damages for detention after judgment affirmed by app court, see section 6377.

Plaintiff may at his option have writ of possession for the itself or fi. fa. for alternate value. Section 6484.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annot chapter 102, section 6.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 296, 305.

Sec. 5802. What, not error; if verdict omit value, how ascert —In such action, if on an issue concerning several things, in o more counts, no verdict be found for part of them, it shall n error, but the plaintiff shall be barred of his title to the omitted; and if the verdict omit the price or value, the cour at any time have a jury impaneled to ascertain the same. 1887, § 2912.)

For case before the statute, see Butler v. Parks, 1 Wash. 76.

If, in a declaration for several slaves laying separate valu jury find a joint value, it is error, and as to that a venire facias d will be awarded under the act of assembly in order to ascertain th values. Higgenbotham v. Rucker, 2 Call 313 (2d Ed.) 265; Corn- v. Truss, 2 Munf. 195.

Digitized by Google

See 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 704; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 907.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 102, section 6.
See Gregory's Forms Nos. 296, 305.

c. 5803. Plaintiff to pay charges for keeping property; when e to be taxed in costs.—The legal charges, if any, for keeping such property, while in the possession of the officer, shall be by the plaintiff and certified by the officer to the clerk or jus- who, in case such order or process be not abated, and final gment be rendered for the plaintiff, shall tax the same along the other costs of the suit. (Code 1887, § 2913.)

c. 5804. Where bond filed with justice to be returned.—Any l filed with or returned to a justice shall be forthwith returned him to the clerk's office of the circuit court of the county or oration court of the city in which he resides. (Code 1887, § ; 1902-3-4, p. 587.)

Digitized by Google

TITLE 57.

Limitation of Suits.

CHAPTER 238.

Limitation of Suits.

Sec.
5805. Limitation of entry on or action for land.
5806. Right not saved by claim.
5807. Further time allowed persons under disability.
5808. Provisos as to the preceding section.
5809. Period to be excluded from computation of the time within which, by operation of any statute or rule of law, any civil proceeding must be commenced.
5810. Limitation of personal actions generally.
5811. When right of action upon bonds of fiduciaries deemed to have first accrued; limitation of suits against fiduciaries themselves.
5812. Limitation of action, when there is a new promise in writing; how plaintiff to sue in such case.
5813. Effect of promise of personal representative or joint contractor.
5814. Effect, on right of action, of devise for payment of debts.
5815. Limitation of action, etc., on a recognizance.
5816. Of motion against officer for failure to return execution.
5817. Ground rents.
5818. Of actions not befor fied.
5819. Actions on judgmen of another State.
5820. Limitation of suits voluntary deeds, et 5821. Promise not to pl statute.
5822. To repeal a grant.
5823. Saving as to person disability.
5824. As to persons dea right accrues.
5825. As to plaintiff when vented by defendan right of action on contract barred.
5826. Further time given suit abates or is on ground not affec right to recover.
5827. Limitation of enforce deeds of trust an gages.
5828. Repeal of limitation remove bar of statu 5829. State not within st limitations.
5830. As to rights and existing when thi takes effect.

Sec. 5805. Limitation of entry on or action for land.—No shall make an entry on, or bring an action to recover, a lying east of the Alleghany mountains, but within fifteen y any land lying west of the Alleghany mountains, but wit years, next after the time at which the right to make suc

Digitized by Google

bring such action shall have first accrued to himself or to some son through whom he claims. For the purposes of this section county of Carroll shall be held and considered as lying wholly t of the Alleghany mountains. (Code 1887, § 2915.)

Adverse possession—What constitutes.—The possession requisite to plaintiff's right of entry must be actual, exclusive, uninterrupted, ble, notorious, hostile, under a claim of right, and must continue dur- the whole period of statutory limitation. Hollingsworth v. Sherman, Va. 668; Stonestreet v. Doyle, 75 Va. 356, 40 Am. Rep. 731; Clarke McClure, 10 Grat. 305; Robinett v. Preston's Heirs, 4 Grat. 141; ley v. English, 5 Grat. 141; Taylor's Devisees v. Burnsides, 1 Grat. ; Overton's Heirs v. Davisson, 1 Grat. 211, 42 Am. Dec. 544; Koiner Rankin's Heirs, 11 Grat. 420; Cline's Heirs v. Catron, 22 Grat. 378; vlin v. Reynolds, 25 Grat. 137; Thomas v. Jones, 28 Grat. 383; Turpin Saunders, 32 Grat. 27; Virginia Min. & Imp. Co. v. Hoover, 82 Va. 449, . E. 689; Andrews v. Roseland Iron & Coal Co., 89 Va. 393, 16 S. 252; Chapman v. Chapman, 91 Va. 397, 21 S. E. 813, 50 Am. St. Rep. ; Reusens v. Lawson, 91 Va. 226, 21 S. E. 347.

Intention.—Adverse possession depends upon the intention with ich the possession is taken and held, and while the intention to claim title must be clear it need not be expressed. The intention may be erred, and is for the jury to determine. Haney v. Breeden, 100 Va. , 42 S. E. 916; Brock v. Bear, 100 Va. 562, 42 S. E. 307.

Possession under mistake.—On this important subject see Schau- ch v. Dillemuth, 108 Va. 86, 60 S. E. 745; Christian v. Bulbeck. 120 74, 90 S. E. 661, and cases cited in these opinions.

Claim sufficient to support, effect of paper title.—To constitute an verse possession of land entry and possession under claim of right or le is sufficient. The only effect of claiming under a deed or paper le is to enlarge and extend the possession beyond the portion actually cupied to the whole lot described in the deed. Sharp v. Shenandoah rnace Co., 100 Va. 27, 40 S. E. 103; Virginia Midland R. Co. v. rbour, 97 Va. 118, 33 S. E. 554.

Of uncleared lands.—While lands remain uncleared or in a state of ture they are not susceptible of adverse possession against an older tentee, except by acts of ownership effecting a change in their condi- tion, which from their nature indicate a notorious claim of title. arman v. Ratliff, 93 Va. 249, 24 S. E. 1023. See Sulphur Mines Co. v. ompson's Heirs, 93 Va. 293, 25 S. E. 232.

Color of title is that which has the semblance or appearance of title, gal or equitable, but which in fact is no title. It is not necessary that e title under which the party claims should be a valid one, or that his antor should have had title. Sharp v. Shenandoah Furnace Co., 100 a. 27, 40 S. E. 103; Shanks v. Lancaster, 5 Grat. 110, 50 Am. Dec. 108. ee, as to color or claim of title, 2 Va. Law Reg. 553; Creekmur v. reekmur, 75 Va. 430; Chapman v. Chapman, 91 Va. 397, 21 S. E. 813, Am. St. Rep. 846; Sulphur Mines Co. v. Thompson's Heirs, 93 Va. 3, 25 S. E. 232; Sharp v. Shenandoah Furnace Co., 100 Va. 27, 40 E. 103.

Enforcement of judgment liens.—This section has no application to suit of a judgment creditor to enforce his lien against the land. lanary v. Kane, 102 Va. 547, 46 S. E. 312, 681. But see and carefully mpare McClanahan's Adm'r v. N. & W. R. Co., 15 Va. App. 663.

When and against whom statute runs.—The running of the statute coincident with the beginning of adverse possession. 6 Va. Law Reg. 05, 713.

Against Commonwealth.—Statute does not run against the Com- monwealth as to waste and unappropriated land, and her grantee may ecover it. Gore v. Lawson, 8 Leigh 458; Overton's Heirs v. Davisson, Grat. 211, 42 Am. Dec. 544. See Reusens v. Lawson, 91 Va. 226, 1 S. E. 347; Shanks v. Lancaster, 5 Grat. 110, 50 Am. Dec. 108.

Digitized by Google

Statute runs against municipal corporations. See 1 Va. Law 547.

No person can acquire any right or title to any part of a highv adverse possession thereof for any length of time whatever. Ya Warrenton. 84 Va. 337, 4 S. E. 818, 10 Am. St. Rep. 860.

Against former privies.—Where the possession was origina privity with the adverse claimant, there must be a clear, positiv continuous disclaimer and disavowal of the title, and the assertion adverse right brought home to the claimant. Hulvey v. Hulvey, 182, 23 S. E. 233; Duggins v. Woodson, 117 Va. 299, 84 S. E. 652

Against vendor.—Statute will not commence to run in fa vendee against vendor who has retained title until vendee has diss the privity of title between them by the assertion of an adverse and an open and continuous disclaimer of the title of his vendor, disclaimer must be clearly brought home to the knowledge of the Chapman v. Chapman, 91 Va. 397, 21 S. E. 813, 50 Am. St. Rep Alleghany County v. Parrish, 93 Va. 615, 25 S. E. 882; Virginia M R. Co. v. Barbour, 97 Va. 118, 33 S. E. 554.

In 1823, A., a married woman, inherits real estate. In Ja 1868, she and her husband conveyed it to B., who shortly after b ejectment to recover it. The jury found a special verdict setting facts as above, and finding that the husband's right of entry ha barred before the conveyance to B., but found nothing with res wife's right of re-entry. Held, that under the provisions of these s (5805, 5806, 5807), as regulated by section 5442, B. was enti recover. Collins v. Riley, 104 U. S. 322, 26 L. Ed. 752.

Against a co-tenant or co-parcener.—No co-parcener or ten common in possession of the whole subject can avail himself c possession as a defence under the statute of limitation against t without an actual disseisin or ouster of their co-parceners or co-t Purcell v. Wilson, 4 Grat. 16; Stonestreet v. Doyle, 75 Va. 356, Rep. 731; Fry v. Payne, 82 Va. 759, 1 S. E. 197. Silent possessi sufficient. Lagorio v. Dozier, 91 Va. 492, 22 S. E. 239. But will run in favor of purchaser from one co-tenant claiming whole Johnston v. Virginia Coal & Iron Co., 96 Va. 158, 31 S. E. 85.

Against landlord.—Statute does not begin to run in favor of against landlord until full notice to the landlord of his disclai hold as tenant or his assertion of an adverse title. Reusens v. L 91 Va. 227, 21 S. E. 347. See Koiner v. Rankin's Heirs, 11 Gra Neff v. Ryman, 100 Va. 521, 42 S. E. 314; Creigh's Heirs v. Hen Grat. 231; Creekmur v. Creekmur, 75 Va. 430.

Claim under lost will.—If a son takes possession of land left deceased father claiming title to it under a lost will, the statute to run against the other heirs from the time of taking such poss and the pendency of a suit to set up the will will not prevent the r of the statute. Caperton v. Gregory, 11 Grat. 505.

In favor of widow.—A widow being entitled to her mansi curtilage until dower be assigned her, her possession not being a will not in law be so deemed, and the statute will not begin to ru such possession end, or she publishes her claim to be adverse and by actual and open disseisin. Hannon v. Hounihan, 85 Va. 4 S. E. 157.

Against purchaser at judicial sale.—Where sale of land under is made and confirmed, purchase money paid, but no deed, and owner's heirs remain in possession, the statute does not begin against the purchaser until the heirs make distinct disavowal title, and their assertion of their adverse claim is brought home Whitlock v. Johnson, 87 Va. 323, 12 S. E. 614.

Though land be sold and deed given by commissioners, statu not begin to run against purchaser in favor of those in possessio confirmation of the deed by the court. Evans v. Spurgin, 6 Gra 52 Am. Dec. 105.

Against purchaser under trust deed.—If deed of trust be g

Digitized by Google

tute begins to run against purchaser under such deed in favor antor or those claiming under him from the time of sale under l. Creigh's Heirs v. Henson, 10 Grat. 231.

urchases and pays for land from N., and takes deed or title ich was lost or mislaid. C. takes possession, enters, and makes ients. Soon after this sale N. conveyed same land to trustee to rtain debts, and the trustee sold under the trust deed. Held, egan to run in favor of C. against all the world from the time king possession. Nowlin v. Reynods, 25 Grat. 137.

ist claimant under equitable title.—An equitable title to land against the holder of the legal title is barred by an adversary n of more than twenty years held by the claimant of the legal claimant of the equity having full knowledge of such possession commencement, and being under no disability. Straughan v. 4 Rand. 493; Cresap v. McLean, 5 Leigh 381.

ere, will the statute begin to run against grantor in voidable deed s option of avoidance continues? Birch v. Linton, 78 Va. 584, Rep. 381.

ist senior patentee.—Statute begins to run in favor of junior from time of his adverse possession, but he cannot show possesner back than senior grant. Overton's Heirs v. Davisson, 1 Grat. m. Dec. 544; Shanks v. Lancaster, 5 Grat. 110, 50 Am. Dec. 108; Rankin's Heirs, 11 Grat. 420.

ist remainderman.—The possession of a life tenant, as such, e adverse to the remainderman or reversioner. Duggins v. , 117 Va. 299, 84 S. E. 652.

ession under a claim of title for a period of fifteen years ripens rfect title as well against a life tenant as against others, and ossessor also has title to the remainder in fee, the fee merges r estate, and the statute begins to run against one claiming an as a remainderman from the time of the merger, and not from n of the life tenant. McCauley v. Grim, 115 Va. 610, 79 S. E.

rlocks.—As to adversary possession of part of interlock by tle holder, see 3 Va. Law Reg. 763, 843; Overton's Heirs v. 1 Grat. 224, 42 Am. Dec. 544; Taylor's Devisees v. Burnsides, 196; Koiner v. Rankin's Heirs, 11 Grat. 420; Shanks v. Lan- Grat. 110, 50 Am. Dec. 108; Anderson v. Harvey's Heirs, 10 6; Cline's Heirs v. Catron, 22 Grat. 392; Turpin v. Saunders, 32 ; Andrews v. Roseland Iron & Coal Co., 89 Va. 393, 16 S. E. eeden v. Haney, 95 Va. 622, 29 S. E. 328; Fry v. Stowers, 98 36 S. E. 482.

as to constructive seisin, Dawson v. Watkins, 2 Rob. 259; Overirs v. Davisson, 1 Grat. 211, 42 Am. Dec. 544; Sulphur Mines hompson's Heirs, 93 Va. 293, 25 S. E. 232; Sharp v. Shenandoah Co., 100 Va. 27, 40 S. E. 103.

erally.—That limitation applies which was in force when plainht of action first accrued. Hollingsworth v. Sherman. 81 Va.

s section will be applied in a suit in equity for land and an of rents and profits. Drumright v. Hite, 2 Va. Dec. 465, 26 3.

he possession of the tenant in possession was sufficient to bar n of the ancestor of the demandants at the time of his death, it ent to bar the action of his heirs. Overton's Heirs v Davisson, 211, 42 Am. Dec. 544.

tute is a source of title, and may be used by the plaintiff himprove his title, even in ejectment. Middleton v. Johns, 4 Grat. kerson v. Colgrove, 100 U. S. 578, 583, 25 L. Ed. 618; Norfolk e, 27 Grat. 430; Thomas v. Jones, 28 Grat. 383. See 6 Va. g. 712.

tute of limitations is a personal plea, and as a general rule third person cannot take advantage of it, but where it forms a chain to property this may be done. Blair v. Carter's Adm'r, 78 Ayre's Adm'r v. Burke, 82 Va. 338, 4 S. E. 618; Tazewell's Whittle's Adm'r, 13 Grat. 329, 345; Smith v. Pattie, 81 Va. Cartney v. Tyrer, 94 Va. 198, 26 S. E. 419; 3 Va. Law Reg. 64,

Digitized by Google

Where one claims title by open, notorious. and adverse p for a period sufficient to give good title, it is competent for him not only that he had possession, but that the possession was unde of right, and that his claim and the character of his possess such that he was generally reputed in the neighborhood to owner. Lusk v. Pelter & Co., 101 Va. 790, 9 Va. Law Reg. note, 45 S. E. 333.

The finding of the commissioner establishing title by advers sion will not, as a rule, be disturbed where the evidence is co and it appears that the commissioner had the advantage of no demeanor of witnesses, and their intelligence and manner of t Id.

Cited but not construed in McMurray v. Dixon, 105 Va. 6 E. 481.

Quaere, does section 5455 affect this section? See 6 Reg. 705, 805.

See 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 520, 574; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Burks' Pl. & Pr. p. 194.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 104, section 1.

Sec. 5806. Right not saved by claim.—No continual claim upon or near any land shall preserve any right of ma entry or of bringing an action. (Code 1887, § 2916.)

A continual claim will not stop the running of the statute. poverty any excuse for failure to bring suit. Voight v. Raby 799, 20 S. E. 824.

See note of Collins v. Riley, 104 U. S. 322, 26 L. Ed. 75 section 5805; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 575, 519; Barton, L. Pr. (2d

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 104, section 2.

Sec. 5807. Further time allowed persons under disability the time at which the right of any person to make entr bring an action to recover any land shall have first accru person was an infant or insane, then such person, or the claiming through him, may, notwithstanding the said peri tioned in section fifty-eight hundred and five, shall have make an entry on or bring an action to recover such land ten years next after the time at which the person to wh right shall have first accrued as aforesaid shall have ceas under such disability as existed when the same so accrued have died, whichever shall first have happened. (Code 1887, 1902-3-4, p. 723.)

Disabilities cannot be tacked, and a person claiming adve this section can only avail himself of disability existing at time t of action accrued. Mercer v. Selden, 1 How. 37, 11 L. Ed. 38.

It seems, if the party claimed the benefit of the saving fo and femes covert in the statute, no other disability is available one which existed when the right of action accrued. Parsons v. Mc 9 Leigh 495. The saving in favor of married women does appear in the section. It was stricken out by Acts 1902-3-4,

This section bars action if not brought within ten years moval of disabilities. Mercer v. Selden, 1 How. 37, 11 L. Ed. 3

Instruction suggesting that this section curtails infant's

Digitized by Google

atry or of suing for land from fifteen to ten years is erroneous. on enlarges such time by giving fifteen years in any event, ars from disability removed. Birch v. Linton, 78 Va. 584, ep. 381.

cy of one joint tenant will not prevent the running of the to other joint tenants not under disability. Redford v. Clarke, 15, 40 S. E. 630.

r the provisions of this section, a party who is an infant at the right to have a partition of land accrues, has ten years ining his majority in which to institute his suit for partition. Jefferies, 118 Va. 81, 86 S. E. 844.

Beattie v. Wilkinson (C. C.), 36 Fed. 646, 648; Caperton v. 11 Grat. 505.

note of Collins v. Riley, 104 U. S. 322, 26 L. Ed. 752, under 305.

, but not construed, in Harman v. Ratliff, 93 Va. 249, 24 3.

Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 64; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 573; 4 Min. (3d Burks' Address, 2 Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1387.

W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 04, section 3.

308. Provisos as to the preceding section.—The preceding subject to these provisos: that no such entry or action shall or brought by any person who at the time at which his make or bring the same shall have first accrued, shall be y such disability, or by any person claiming through him, in twenty years next after the time at which such right ve first accrued, although the person under disability at e may have remained under the same during the whole of enty years, or although the term of ten years from the t which he shall have ceased to be under any such disabil- ave died, shall not have expired; and when any person shall any such disability at the time at which his right to make or bring an action shall have first accrued, and shall depart without having ceased to be under any such disability, no make an entry or to bring an action beyond the time pre- n section fifty-eight hundred and five, next after the right person shall have first accrued, or the ten years next after od of his death, shall be allowed by the reason of the dis- f any other person. (Code 1887, § 2918.)

re the proof is clear that a married woman purchased land in d there is no proof tending to show that it was her equitable estate, it is harmless error to tell the jury, in an instruction, e purchased the land prior to 1878 it was her common-law land, rst act creating statutory separate estates was not passed until 1877. McMurray v. Dixon, 105 Va. 605, 54 S. E. 481.

Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 64; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 573; 4 Min. (3d); notes to preceding sections.

W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 104, section 4.

809. Period to be excluded from computation of the time which, by operation of any statute or rule of law, any civil ing must be commenced.—The period of one year from the f any party shall be excluded from the computation of time

Digitized by Google

within which, by the operation of any statute or rule of l may be necessary to commence any proceeding to preserve o vent the loss of any right or remedy. (Code 1887, § 2919; 1
p. 345; 1895-6, p. 331.)

Revisors' Note.—The first part of this section as it formerl pertaining to the stay law period has been omitted.

The one year from the death of a party is not applicable to for death by wrongful act. Manuel v. N. & W. R. Co., 99 Va. 1
S. E. 957, note 6 Va. Law Reg. 776. See 6 Va. Law Reg. 583
2 Va. Law Reg. 386.

The following cases had to do with the stay law period, provision no longer appears in the section: Johnston v. Gill, 27 587-595; Danville Bank v. Waddill, 27 Grat. 448; Hill v. Rix
Grat. 72; Borst v. Nalle, 28 Grat. 423; Norvelle v. Little, 79 Va
Virginia Min. & Imp. Co. v. Hoover, 82 Va. 449, 4 S. E. 689; Ju
English, 30 Grat. 565; Updike's Adm'r v. Lane, 78 Va. 132; Fa
Adm'r v. Williams' Am'r, 96 Va. 399, 31 S. E. 515; Bashaw's Ad
Wallace's Adm'r, 101 Va. 733, 45 S. E. 290.

Sec. 5810. Limitation of personal actions generally.—Eve tion to recover money which is founded upon an award, or o contract, other than a judgment or recognizance, shall be br within the following number of years next after the right to the same shall have first accrued, that is to say: If the ca upon any contract by writing under seal, whether made by a officer, a fiduciary or private person within ten years; if it be an award or upon a contract in writing signed by the party charged thereby, or by his agent, but not under seal, withi years; and if it be upon any other contract express or implied in three years, unless it be an action by one partner again co-partner for a settlement of the partnership account, or up counts concerning the trade of merchandise between merchan merchant, their factors, or servants, in either of which case action may be brought until the expiration of five years fro cessation of the dealings in which they are interested togethe not after; provided that the right of action against the est any person hereafter dying, or upon any such award or con which shall have accrued at the time of his death, or the rig prove any such claim against his estate in any suit or proce shall not in any case continue longer than five years from the fication of his personal representative, or if the right of action not have accrued at the time of the decedent's death, it sha continue longer than five years after the same shall have so acc and provided further that the limitation to an action or othe ceeding for money on deposit with a bank or any person o poration doing a banking business shall not begin to run until quest in writing be made, therefor by check, order, or othe (Code 1887, § 2920; 1912, p. 38.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "express or implied" appearing i ten of the text are new. The second proviso is new.

Right to plead statute as vested right.—It seems that the ri plead the statute is not always a vested right. Save where t (2556)

Digitized by Google

rty is vested by reason of the statute, General Assembly may alter me either by shortening or lengthening, or by taking away alto-, provided, if shortened, the plaintiff is given a reasonable oppor- to enforce his claim. 13 Am. & Eng. Enc. of L. (1st Ed.) 696; v. Vance, 108 U. S. 514. 2 Sup. Ct. 854, 27 L. Ed. 808; Hill v. 26 Grat. 72; Johnston v. Gill, 27 Grat. 587, 595; Campbell v. 115 U. S. 620, 6 Sup. Ct. 209, 29 L. Ed. 483. Full discussion, s, Vested Rights, 106, 112, 328.

t is within the power of the legislature to prolong the period of tion when the right to plead has not accrued. To declare invalid se in a policy stating that suit thereon must be brought within six is after date is within the scope of legislative authority when the to plead the statute had not accrued. Smith v. Northern Neck 112 Va. 192, 70 S. E. 482. See section 4227; Acts 1918. chapter . 539.

Contract in writing signed by the party to be charged thereby."— xpression used in this statute "a contract in writing signed by the to be charged thereby," held to apply to a case where a husband personal property owned by himself and wife jointly and took a. herefor payable to himself, and then rendered to his wife a state- in writing over his signature showing the amount of her share in ale and stating that said amount would be due out of the note collected. Lurty v. Lurty, 107 Va. 466, 59 S. E. 405.

As to sureties.—Limitation of right of action of a surety who calls a co-surety for a contribution is three years. Tate v. Winfree, . 255, 37 S. E. 956.

Store accounts.—"Store accounts" has reference only to the accounts ail merchants. Tomlin v. Kelly, 1 Wash. 190; Beall v. Edmondson, 1 514 (2d Ed.) 446; Wortham v. Smith, 15 Grat. 487, 494; Moore uro, 4 Rand. 488.

Statute applies only when it is necessary for the plaintiff to produce ely on his accounts, and does not embrace the case of an express se to pay upon which a suit might be maintained without the ac- . Beall v. Edmondson, 3 Call 514 (2d Ed.) 446; Wortham v. , 15 Grat. 487, 494.

Merchant and merchant—Trade between, etc.—The clause "where ction of account would lie" applies only to cases where the accounts etween merchant and merchant, and relate actually to merchandise, ot merely to mercantile contracts connected with it, and are current mutual. Wortham v. Smith, 15 Grat. 487, 494. See Moore v. o, 4 Ran. 488. The words in quotation marks no longer appear in ection.

On a replication to plea that the accounts concern the trade of handise between merchant and merchant, evidence must be adduced ove that the parties were merchants during the time of the dealings een them, and of the character of those dealings. Watson v. Lyle's r, 4 Leigh 236.

An account stated which is not supported by a writing signed by debtor or his agent will not prevent the running of the statute of ation against previously existing items of indebtedness included in. Magarity v. Shipman, 93 Va. 64, 24 S. E. 466, overruling Rad- v. Fowlkes, 85 Va. 823, 8 S. E. 817, note 2 Va. Law Reg. 272.

Creditors' suits, decree in.—When a decree is entered to take an nt of debts against the estate of a decedent, the suit becomes a tors' suit, and the statute of limitations then ceases to run against reditors of the estate, who come in under the decree or otherwise ne parties to the suit. As to all others the statute continues to run. way v. Saunders, 99 Va. 350, 38 S. E. 182; Craufurd's Adm'r v. h's Ex'r, 93 Va. 623, 23 S. E. 235, 25 S. E. 657; Harvey's Adm'r v. oe's Adm'r, 17 Grat. 289; Bank v. Allen. 76 Va. 200; Norvell v. e, 79 Va. 141; Richmond v. Irons, 121 U. S. 27, 7 Sup. Ct. 788, . Ed. 864; Ewing's Adm'r v. Ferguson's Adm'r, 33 Grat. 548;

Digitized by Google

Houck's Adm'r v. Dunham, 92 Va. 211, 23 S. E. 238; Bell v. Wood Va. 677, 27 S. E. 504.

Partner against copartner.—The words, "cessation of the dea in which they are interested together," refer to the time when the a of the partnership are wound up, and not to the cessation of a operations, yet the parties may have a partial settlement of the par ship account before or may bring a suit for such settlement. Fos Curator v. Rison, 17 Grat. 321.

Upon a bill filed by a surviving partner against the administr of a deceased partner, the plea of the statute cannot be sustained w it appears that there were good debts due to the firm outstanding w five years before the suit was brought. Marsteller v. Weaver's Ad 1 Grat. 391; Jordan v. Miller, 75 Va. 442. See Coalter v. Coalte Rob. 79 (2d Ed.) 85.

Where one partner, for himself and another, settles the partner accounts with the acting partner, and receives payments of money himself and the other, the statute will run from the time he receiv as to the money so received. Foster's Curator v. Rison, 17 Grat.

When statute begins to run.—Statute only begins to run from time when the liability sought to be enforced arises. Cookus v. Peyt Ex'r, 1 Grat. 431. See McAlexander v. Montgomery, 4 Leigh Walker's Adm'r v. Tyler, 94 Va. 534, 27 S. E. 434.

Where defendant covenants to execute bonds at a stated t statute begins to run at that time. Davis' Adm'r v. McMullen's Ad 86 Va. 256, 9 S. E. 1095.

If a daughter has a valid claim to compensation for services dered the mother, it accrues during the mother's lifetime, and the sta then begins to run. Harshberger's Adm'r v. Alger, 31 Grat. 53.

Where estate of supposed intestate was distributed, and afterw his will was found, it was held that the limitation of the right to rec from distributee, who was not a legatee, the amount handed ove him, did not begin to run until the recovery of the will. Craufu Adm'r v. Smith's Ex'r, 93 Va. 623, 23 S. E. 235, 25 S. E. 657.

Where legacy is limited upon a future event, cause of action ca accrue, nor statute begin to run, nor laches be imputed, until such e occurs. Effinger v. Hall, 81 Va. 94.

Ignorance of rights—Fraud.—Limitation runs notwithstan plaintiff's ignorance of his rights, save in cases of fraud or concealn Bickle v. Chrisman's Adm'x, 76 Va. 678; Foster's Curator v. Rison Grat. 321; Craufurd's Adm'r v. Smith's Ex'r, 93 Va. 623, 23 S. E. 25 S. E. 657; Vashon v. Barrett, 99 Va. 344. 38 S. E. 200.

See following section and notes.

Upon a demand payable by a debtor at his death, the statut limitations only begins to run from the happening of that event. Du v. Duncan, 117 Va. 487, 85 S. E. 485.

Against stock assessment.—Upon a stock subscription, no wr contract having been established, the limitation is three years from date of the call on the stock. Liberty Sav. Bank v. Otter View Co., 96 Va. 352, 31 S. E. 511. See Lewis' Adm'r v. Glenn, 84 Va. 6 S. E. 866; Gold v. Paynter, 101 Va. 714, 44 S. E. 920.

The statute begins to run against assessments made by decre the suit wherein the corporation is a party from the date of the de laying the assessment. Vanderwerken v. Glenn, 85 Va. 9, 6 S. E.

In favor of trustee.—Trustee cannot take advantage of the ac limitations against the claim of the cestui que trust or persons clai under him until the trust is concluded. Redwood v. Riddick, 4 M 222; Rankin v. Bradford, 1 Leigh 163; Rowe v. Bentley, 29 Grat. Lomax v. Pendleton, 3 Call 538 (2d Ed.) 465; Redford v. Clarke, Va. 115, 40 S. E. 630; Bargamin v. Clarke, 20 Grat. 544.

Against bank deposits.—The statute of limitations on a claim ag a bank for the proceeds of a note discounted by it, and which it f to credit on the customer's check account, does not begin to run the date of the discount of the note, but from the close of the acc

Digitized by Google

the bank and the customer. Culpeper Nat. Bank v. Tidewater ment Co., 119 Va. 73, 89 S. E. 118. See revisors' note above.

e institutions.—See section 5829 and notes.

ether municipal corporations bound by statute, see 1 Va. Law .

ute suspended by agreement.—B. having become the surety of elivers to B. B.'s note, who was to hold it until the liability of ll was ended, and then he was to redeliver it to E. Statute did n to run against the note until the liability of B. as bail ceased. Ex'r v. Elmore's Adm'x, 7 Grat. 385. Compare Sutton v. Bur- Leigh 381, 33 Am. Dec. 246; Holladay v. Littlepage, 2 Munf. e section 5821.

lication of statute in equity.—Court of equity follows the law ing the statute. Spotswood v. Dandridge, 4 Hen. & M. 139; Ex'rs v. McClure, 1 Rand. 284; Rankin v. Bradford, 1 Leigh ppard v. Turpin, 3 Grat. 373; Livesay v. Helms, 14 Grat. 441; Bentley, 29 Grat. 756; Harshberger's Adm'r v. Alger, 31 Grat. 's Adm'r v. Ballard, 78 Va. 139; Harvey's Adm'r v. Steptoe's 7 Grat. 289; Bank v. Allen, 76 Va. 200; Norvel v. Little, 79 Va. hmond v. Irons, 121 U. S. 27, 7 Sup. Ct. 788, 30 L. Ed. 864; v. Noffsinger, 82 Va. 518; Redford v. Clarke, 100 Va. 115, 40).

statute applies as well to a suit in equity for an account of s to an action at law for its recovery. Foster's Curator v. 7 Grat. 345.

ity will aid in enforcing payment of stock subscriptions which n conveyed to secure debts which, though barred by limitation, xtinguished. Hamilton v. Glenn, 85 Va. 901, 9 S. E. 129.

to when the act of limitations will not bar a right in equity, ter's Ex'rs v. Spotswood, 1 Wash. 145.

ere suit is not barred by the statute, laches and lapse of time e no such bar. Foster's Curator v. Rison, 17 Grat. 335; Rowe y, 29 Grat. 759; Cole's Adm'r v. Ballard, 78 Va. 149; Cottrell ns, 89 Va. 801, 17 S. E. 328, 19 L. R. A. 754, 37 Am. St. Rep. 897.

statute of limitations has in terms no application to suits in ut as a general rule courts of equity act upon the statute by and refuse relief to cases in which, if it were an action at law, te would forbid it, for courts of equity always discountenance Bassett's Adm'r, &c., v. Cunningham, 7 Leigh 407.

to laches and stale demands, see Carr's Adm'r v. Chapman's , 5 Leigh 164; Hayes v. Goode, 7 Leigh 452; Caruthers' Adm'rs gton's Trustees, 12 Leigh 610; Smith v. Thompson's Adm'r, 112, 54 Am. Dec. 126; West's Adm'r v. Thornton, 7 Grat. 177, Dec. 134; Tazewell's Ex'r v. Whittle's Adm'r, 13 Grat. 329; 's Ex'r v. Saunders' Ex'r, 13 Grat. 354; Harrison v. Gibson, 23 2; Carter v. McArtor, 28 Grat. 356; Stamper's Adm'r v. Garnett. 550; Hatcher v. Hall, 77 Va. 573; Updike's Adm'r v. Lane, 32; Nelson's Adm'r v. Kownslar's Ex'r, 79 Va. 468; Morrison's Householder's Adm'r, Id. 627; Wissler v. Craig's Adm'r, 80 Va. gan v. Fisher's Adm'r, 82 Va. 417; Turner's Adm'r v. Dillard's Va. 536; Rowe v. Bentley, 29 Grat. 756; Cole's Adm'r v. Ballard's 39; Cottrell v. Watkins, 89 Va. 801, 17 S. E. 328, 19 L. R. A. Am. St. Rep. 897; Jeffries v. Southwest Va. Imp. Co., 88 Va. S. E. 661; Eubank v. Barnes, 93 Va. 153, 24 S. E. 908; Bell v. 4 Va. 677, 27 S. E. 504; Jackson's Adm'r v. King's Adm'r, 12 9.

ading- At law.—Statute cannot be taken advantage of by de- nless it affects the right as well as the remedy. In this case ration should show on its face that the action is brought within utory period. Lambert v. Ensign Mfg. Co., 42 W. Va. 813, 431; 3 Va. Law Reg. 63; Manuel v. Norfolk & W. R. Co., 99 Va.

Digitized by Google

188, 37 S. E. 957; Herrington v. Harkins' Adm'rs. 1 Rob. 591 (
624.

The defence of the statute is a personal privilege, and r pleaded by defendants. The court has no power to interpose a its own motion. Smith v. Hutchinson, 78 Va. 683; Taylor's A Richards, 3 Munf. 8; Hudson v. Hudson's Ex'r, 3 Rand. 117; G
Green's Adm'r, 89 Va. 524, 16 S. E. 661, 37 Am. St. Rep. 888.
Callaway's Adm'r v. Saunders, 99 Va. 350, 38 S. E. 182; Smith v.
81 Va. 654.

One creditor may plead statute against another in a suit minister the assets of a debtor or to enforce liens on his p Callaway's Adm'r v. Saunders, 99 Va. 350, 38 S. E. 182.

Where creditor brought suit against a corporation to sub lands to a debt, a party claiming same land adversely to the corp cannot plead the statute against the debt. Clayton v. Hen
Grat. 66.

Plea of the statute must refer to the time of the institution suit. Smith v. Walker, 1 Wash. 135; Backhouse's Adm'x v. Jone 5 Call 462. See, as to pleading statute to set-off which accru suit brought, Trimyer v. Pollard, 5 Grat. 460.

Where the defendant does not file the plea of set-off, but account, and gives notice of set-off, the plaintiff cannot reply the and he may therefore rely upon it in evidence. Trimyer v. Po Grat. 460. See Bell v. Crawford, 8 Grat. 110.

A plea of the statute should state on what act the defendan
Wortham v. Smith, 15 Grat. 487, 494.

The plea of the statute is an issuable plea, and sometimes an plea. Presumption of payment arises from staleness of the and will excuse delay in pleading the statute, especially in fav personal representative. Tomlin's Adm'r v. How's Adm'r, Gil

A plea of the statute which is not interposed in a chance until after the evidence is closed, may well be rejected as com late, where no excuse is offered for the delay. Herrell v. Supe
113 Va. 594, 75 S. E. 87.

It is too late to plead the statute eight years after a plea assumpsit. Clopton's Adm'r v. Clarke's Ex'r, 7 Leigh 325. As in pleading the statute, see Martin v. Anderson, 6 Rand. 19; Bac Adm'x v. Jones' Ex'r, 5 Call 462.

On motion for judgment, though plea in form applies to o out of three claims sued on, but it is clear that both parties court treated it as applicable to all the claims sued on, and all fact barred, its judgment will not be reversed. Liskey v. Paul,
764, 42 S. E. 875.

A personal representative is bound to plead the statute in a to which it applies to protect the decedent's estate. Tunstall v. P Adm'r, 11 Leigh 1.

If there be several partners, and one of them after dissolu sumes a partnership debt, but afterwards pleads the statute of tions jointly with the other partners, the assumpsit may be g evidence, for the plea of non-assumpsit admits that the defend once assume. Brockenbrough v. Hackley, 6 Call 51.

That defendant did not within twenty years next before th ing of this suit break his covenant is a good plea of the statute.
Adm'r v. McMullen's Adm'r, 86 Va. 256, 9 S. E. 1095.

The statute may be pleaded in bar to an action against a carrier for fraudulently embezzling goods entrusted to his care
v. Darby, 4 Munf. 444, 6 Am. Dec. 529.

In equity.—The statute of limitations cannot be taken adva in a court of equity by demurrer to the bill. Hubble v. Poff, 646, 37 S. E. 277; Hickman v. Stout, 2 Leigh 10; Tazewell's Whittle's Adm'r, 13 Grat. 344; Colvert v. Millstead's Adm'x, 5 Le Smith v. Pattie, 81 Va. 665; Gibson v. Green's Adm'r, 89 Va.
S. E. 661, 37 Am. St. Rep. 888. Must be pleaded or in son

Digitized by Google

on as a defence in the pleadings. Hickman v. Stout, 2 Leigh 6; rt v. Millstead's Adm'x, 5 Leigh 88.

Anything in an answer which will apprise the plaintiff that the de- nt relies on the statute is sufficient if necessary facts are stated. ell's Ex'r v. Whittle's Adm'r, 13 Grat. 329.

f the defendant in equity plead the statute, and the complainant within any of the exceptions within the act, he will not be entitled benefit thereof unless he sets it forth by replication. Lewis' Ex'r v. 's Legatee, 3 Hen. & M. 89.

Where the statute is pleaded, plaintiff, to bring himself within its g, must set forth the facts relied on either by replication or by ding his bill. Switzer v. Noffsinger, 82 Va. 518; Lewis' Ex'r v. 's Legatee, 3 Hen. & M. 89.

Defence of the statute to a claim asserted before a commissioner be made by an exception to his report. Cole's Ex'r v. Martin, 99 23, 37 S. E. 907; Smith v. Pattie, 81 Va. 654; Leith's Adm'r v. r's Adm'r, 83 Va. 889, 5 S. E. 584.

Burden of proof on plea of statute is on parties pleading the statute. on v. Barrett, 99 Va. 344, 38 S. E. 200; Goodell's Ex'rs v. Gibbons, a. 608, 22 S. E. 504; 1 Va. Law Reg. 340, and note. In England wise.

f a creditor relies upon a charge in a will to prevent the opera- of the statute, it is for him to show that the testator died before ebt was barred. Tazewell's Ex'r v. Whittle's Adm'r, 13 Grat. 329. The burden is on the pleader to make out a case to which the e clearly applies. Virginia Ry. & P. Co. v. Ferebee, 115 Va. 289, E. 556.

Part payment will not remove the bar of the statute. Gover v. berlain, 83 Va. 286, 5 S. E. 174.

Generally.—Where a contract by a common carrier to carry an tate shipment of freight was void because the rate given was less the published rate and hence in violation of an act of Congress, on as the goods were left with the carrier an implied contract arose part to transport them to their destination, and on the part of ipper to pay the published rate. In an action of assumpsit by the r to recover the difference between the undercharge and the pub- rate, it was held that, inasmuch as Congress had not prescribed ime within which the action should be brought, the limitation of years prescribed by this section would be applied. Atlantic C. L. . v. Va. Mfg. Co., 119 Va. 5, 89 S. E. 103.

A suit to enforce a judgment against a decedent, brought eleven after the qualification of his representative, was barred, where in eantime the judgment had not been revived. Spencer v. Flanary, Va. 395, 51 S. E. 849.

Where a right of action against a decedent's estate as surety on d accrued January 15, 1894, and a decree for this liability ren- on the 10th day of December, 1895, and on the 15th day of July, three and one-half years after the decree for this liability, and the cause was not only still pending and undetermined, but the against the estate not fully ascertained and the estate not dis- ed, obligee intervened in a suit to enforce her decree, held that nd of obligee is not barred by statute of limitations. The demand upon the original cause of action which became payable January 894, but the decree of December 10, 1895, into which the right of on the original demand was merged. Turk v. Ritchie, 104 Va. 52 S. E. 339, 342.

The limitation of this section held not to apply to the circumstances e case of Sipe v. Taylor, 106 Va. 231, 55 S. E. 542.

The three-year limitation of this section is inapplicable to a debt nced by writing under the signature and seal of the debtor. If the edent debt was mere assumpsit, it was merged into the specialty. v. Lurty, 107 Va. 466, 59 S. E. 405.

Digitized by Google

This section does not apply to an action against bank directo neglect of duty as such directors. Winston v. Gordon, 115 Va. 8 S. E. 756; see notes to section 5818. See section 3816.

Where plaintiff has two causes of action open to him, and one, and adapts his pleading and proofs thereto, the act of limi applicable will be the one appropriate to the cause of action se Noell v. Noell, 93 Va. 433, 25 S. E. 242.

As to whether a contract implied by law from a written instr is a contract by writing, within the meaning of the statute, see Law Reg. 458, 538.

The limitation of three years, "upon any other contract," do apply to a suit on a treasurer's bond in which case the limita ten years. Jennings v. Taylor, 102 Va. 191, 45 S. E. 913.

When money allowed to a county treasurer in a settlement wi board of supervisors regularly made as compensation for his servi received by him in good faith, he is not a trustee as to the san the statute of limitations applies. Supervisors v. Vaughan, 11 146, 83 S. E. 1056.

In a suit by a board of supervisors against a county treasur the settlement of his accounts, the treasurer's answer, uniting prayer for an account, and specifically praying for an inquiry in settlements made by him "from the time he became such treasure the present moment," is a waiver of the statute of limitations. H v. Supervisors, 113 Va. 594, 75 S. E. 87.

Demands arising three years before the institution of a suit supervisors against a county treasurer for a settlement and adjustm the county funds received by him, are not barred by the statute of tions. Herrell v. Supervisors, 113 Va. 594, 75 S. E. 87.

For article commenting upon this section, see 9 Va. Law Rev As to promise not to plead the statute, see section 5821.

As to new promise and promise to settle and pay the balan section 5812.

Certain claims against the state barred in ten years, see 2179.

See 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 580; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 79, 94-1 Min. (4th Ed.) 374, 839; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 155, 160, 575; 4 Min Ed.) 612; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 125; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 38 404, 405.

Form of plea of statute of limitations to a specialty, 4 Mi Ed.) 1748; of plea of statute of limitations to a simple contrac of plea of statute of limitations to a store account, Id.

Applied in Newport News, etc., Co. v. Newport News, etc., Co., 22, 32 S. E. 789; Kesterson v. Hill, 101 Va. 739, 45 S. E. 288. C Embrey v. Jemison, 131 U. S. 349, 9 Sup. Ct. 776, 33 L. Ed. 172

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annot chapter 104, section 6.

For monographic note on Limitations to Actions, see Herring Harkins' Adm'rs, 1 Rob. 591, Va. Rep. Anno.

Sec. 5811. When right of action upon bonds of fiduciaries d to have first accrued; limitation of suits against fiduciaries selves.—The right of action upon the bond of an executor, a istrator, guardian, curator, or committee, or of a sheriff, o geant acting as such, shall be deemed to have first accrued a lows: upon a bond of a guardian or curator of a ward, fro time of the ward's attaining the age of twenty-one years, or the termination of the guardian's or curator's office, whichever happen first; and upon the bond of any personal representat a decedent or committee of an insane person, the right of act a person obtaining execution against such representative or e, or to whom payment or delivery of estate in the hands of representative or committee, shall be ordered by a court acting his account, shall be deemed to have first accrued from the n day of such execution, or from the time of the right to re- payment or delivery upon such order, whichever shall happen and as to any suit against such fiduciary himself, or his rep- tative, which could have been maintained if he had given no there shall be no other limitation than would exist if the pre- g section was not passed; except, that where any such fiduciary ettled an account under the provisions of chapter two hundred wenty-one, a suit to surcharge or falsify the same, or to hold fiduciary or his sureties liable for any balance stated in such unt to be in his hands, shall be brought within ten years after ccount has been confirmed. The right to recover money paid r fraud or mistake shall be deemed to accrue, both at law and uity, at the time such fraud or mistake is discovered, or by xercise of due diligence ought to have been discovered. (Code § 2921; 1877-8, p. 221.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The second exception contained at the end of n 2921 of the Code of 1887 relating to Confederate currency has omitted as having served its purpose. The last sentence of the d section is new. See Grove v. Lemley, 114 Va. 202, 76 S. E. 305.

Running of statute in favor of sureties.—Statute begins to run when efault of the principal and its amount are ascertained. Howards v. n (C. C.), 5 Fed. 465, 470.

There is no other limitation applicable to the surety upon the of- bond of an executor or an administrator other than that prescribed is section. Leake's Ex'r v. Leake, 75 Va. 792.

D. having settled his administration accounts finally and given a for the balance, statute begins to run in favor of his surety from of its execution and delivery. Tilson v. Davis, 32 Grat. 92.

Action on fiduciary's bond is barred only after ten years from ac- g of cause of action; that is, from the return day of execution st fiduciary or from time of right to require payment or delivery fiduciary. Sharpe's Ex'r v. Rockwood, 78 Va. 24; Morrison v. ll, 81 Va. 519; Robertson v. Gillenwaters, 85 Va. 116, 7 S. E. 371.

In 1850 there was a decree against the executor in favor of the es interested in the estate for their respective shares; the statute n to run in favor of the surety of the executor upon the entry of decree. Franklin's Adm'r v. Depriest, 13 Grat. 257; White v. d, 90 Va. 336, 18 S. E. 436.

In 1865 E. sued out distress warrant against the estate of J. rant was never levied, but was returned to and remained effete in 's office until 1880, when E.'s administrator brought chancery suit st the administrator and his sureties. Held, the claim of E.'s ad- strator was barred as to the surety, though not against J.'s admin- tor himself. Ashby v. Bell's Adm'r, 80 Va. 811.

A plea of the statute by one surety which is not purely personal to enures to the benefit of all. Ashby v. Bell's Adm'r, 80 Va. 811.

Right to recover money paid under fraud or mistake.—In cases of al mistake and fraud, courts of law and courts of equity apply rent rules with respect to the defense of the statute of limitations. w the statute runs from the date of settlement and payment, but uity, if the plaintiff is without fault, the statute runs only from liscovery of the fraud or mistake. In the latter case, however, the laimant must have acted in good faith, and with reasonable caution

Digitized by Google

and diligence. Grove v. Lemley, 114 Va. 202, 76 S. E. 305. Cra Adm'r v. Smith's Ex'r, 93 Va. 623, 23 S. E. 235, 25 S. E. 657; Rag
Owen, 84 Va. 227, 5 S. E. 91. But see last sentence of present s

Generally.—As to laches in asserting claim against personal sentative, see Carr's Adm'r v. Chapman's Legatees, 5 Leigh 164;
v. Goode, 7 Leigh 452; Hudson v. Hudson's Ex'r, 3 Rand. 117.

Until the adoption of above statute as to fiduciaries them there was no limitation except what result from the staleness of d or presumption of payment; otherwise as to their sureties. McCo Ex'rs v. Wright's Ex'rs, 79 Va. 524; Peale's Adm'r v. Thurmond.
753; Leake's Ex'r v. Leake, 75 Va. 792.

The stay period was applicable to demands against fiduciarie other cases. Morrison's Ex'r v. Householder's Adm'r, 79 Va. 627.

Payment of a legacy by an executor cannot be presumed fr mere lapse of time during which there is no representative of the entitled to demand and receive it. Burwell's Ex'rs v. Anderson, 3 348.

Where a receiver has settled his account, as required by 221, no suit to surcharge and falsify the account, or to hold him sureties liable for any balance stated by his account to be in his can be brought, in the absence of fraud or mutual mistake, except ten years after the account has been confirmed. Senseny v. Boy
Va. 308, 76 S. E. 280.

See, generally, as to demands against fiduciaries, Nelson's Ad Cornwell, 11 Grat. 724; Cookus v. Peyton's Ex'r, 1 Grat. 431; I Ex'r v. Leake, 75 Va. 792.

See 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 494; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 610; Barton.
(2d Ed.) 82; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 393.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annot
chapter 104, section 7.

Sec. 5812. Limitation of action, when there is a new prom writing; how plaintiff to sue in such case.—If any person a whom the right shall have so accrued on an award, or any contract, shall, by writing signed by him or his agent, promis ment of money on such award or contract, the person to wh right shall have so accrued may maintain an action for the so promised, within such number of years after such promi it might be maintained under section fifty-eight hundred an if such promise were the original cause of action. The pl may sue on such promise or on the original cause of action, that where the promise is of such a nature as to merge the o cause of action, then the action shall be only on the promis the action be on the original cause of action, and the defe files a plea under section fifty-eight hundred and ten, the pl shall be allowed to reply specially such promise, or he may, w replying specially, show such promise in evidence to repel th of the plea, provided he shall have given the defendant reas notice before the trial of his intention to rely on such promis acknowledgment in writing, from which a promise of paymen be implied, shall be deemed to be such promise in the mean this section. (Code 1887, § 2922.)

Revisors' Note.—Where the original cause of action is sued o the defendant files a plea under section 5810, the third sentence revised section allows the plaintiff to reply specially the new pr

Digitized by Google

may, without replying specially, show the new promise in evidence. erly, he was restricted to the latter procedure.

New promise or acknowledgment—Essentials.—A new promise, to ve the bar of the statute, must be determinate and unequivocal; to imply a promise of payment from a subsequent acknowledgment, acknowledgment must be an unqualified admission of a subsisting which the party is liable for and willing to pay. Cole's Ex'r v. n, 99 Va. 223, 37 S. E. 907; Shepherd v. Thompson, 122 U. S. 231, p. Ct. 1229, 30 L. Ed. 1156; Bell v. Crawford, 8 Grat. 110. Must ade by one against whom the right to maintain an action has accrued. er v. Noffsinger, 82 Va. 518.

For discussion of an acknowledgment of a debt in a deed of trust new promise, see 8 Va. Law Reg. 401.

When account stated, is not a new promise. Magarity v. Ship- 93 Va. 64, 24 S. E. 466.

For note upon essentials of the "promise" mentioned herein, see a. Law Reg. 310.

cknowledgments held sufficient.—The deposition of the maker of te (in a case in which the payee was not a party), for the purpose otaining a credit for it as a debt to be paid by him, and for which as allowed such a credit, is a sufficient acknowledgment to remove ar of the statute. Diuguid v. Schoolfield, 32 Grat. 803.

M. held bonds of R., which were barred by the statute. R. obtained ssion of and destroyed them. He afterwards acknowledged in ng that he destroyed the bonds, and that they were unpaid. and d their amounts. The acknowledgment implied a promise to pay. e v. Marchant, 86 Va. 177, 9 S. E. 995.

cknowledgments held insufficient.—An instrument which contains romise of the defendant personally to pay the debt, and no acknowl- ient or mention of it as an existing liability, but merely provides for application of certain pledged property to its payment, does not int to a new promise, express or implied. Shepherd v. Thompson, U. S. 231, 7 Sup. Ct. 1229, 30 L. Ed. 1156.

A letter asking for an account, and promising to pay it, will not be to apply to old accounts which are barred, when the writer owes romisee an account then current and another of recent date. Coles v. Martin, 99 Va. 223, 37 S. E. 907.

That the creditor has furnished the executor at his request with a ment of his debt, which the executor does not object to, will not ve the bar of the statute. Tazewell's Ex'r v. Whittle's Adm'r, 13 329.

A promise to settle and pay the balance found due on a settlement not stop the running of the statute. Liskey v. Paul, 100 Va. 764, E. 875; Bell v. Crawford, 8 Grat. 110; Aylett's Ex'r v. Robinson, igh 45; Sutton v. Burruss, 9 Leigh 381, 33 Am. Dec. 246

A denial, in a deposition, that the debt stated in an inventory filed the bill in the case, is a correct statement of what the deponent , cannot be considered as containing an unqualified and direct ac- rledgment of a subsisting indebtedness, from which a promise to could be inferred. Walter v. Whitacre, 113 Va. 150, 73 S. E. 984.

A bill in chancery filed for the construction of a testator's will and administration of his estate, which is signed by counsel only, and an gned inventory filed therewith, which lists a debt due by the com- ant to the testator, are not such acknowledgments as will take the out of the bar of the statute, in the absence of any evidence that the sel was authorized to make an admission of indebtedness. Walter hitacre, 113 Va. 150, 73 S. E. 984.

Part payment will not take the case out of the statute. Cover v. nberlain, 83 Va. 286, 5 S. E. 174.

Insolvency.—New promise may be made though debtor be insolvent, other creditors cannot set up the statute against the debt so renewed. nson v. Bass' Adm'r, 100 Va. 190, 40 S. E. 660.

Digitized by Google

Pleading and evidence.—If new promise does not specify amount, extrinsic evidence is admissible to ascertain the amount Cole's Ex'r v. Martin, 99 Va. 223, 37 S. E. 907.

Where plaintiff relies upon new promise without pleading it, dence of new promise cannot be received in the absence of the n required. Noell v. Noell, 93 Va. 433, 25 S. E. 242; Kesterson v. 101 Va. 739, 45 S. E. 288. See revisors' note above.

In an action of detinue, where defendant pleaded the statu replication that within five years defendant acknowledged the articl tained to be plaintiff's property is insufficient in not averring a pro to deliver the possession. Morris v. Lyon, 1 Va. Dec. 615, 2 S. E.

Generally.—Limitation does not make claim invalid. It m cuts off legal remedy; hence a claim barred is a good consideratio a new promise. Robinson v. Bass' Adm'r, 100 Va. 190, 40 S. E. 66

But where a statute gives a right and limits the time within w action must be brought the limitation affects the right itself. 3 Law Reg. 63, 64.

As to whether new promise made to third person is sufficient 1 Va. Law Reg. 782; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 616.

Exceptions to the operation of the statute must be found in statute itself. Clark v. Nave, 116 Va. 838, 83 S. E. 547.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 85, 92, 96; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 167, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 801; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 406. For case before statute, see Butcher v. Hixon, 4 Leigh 519.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotat chapter 104, section 8.

Sec. 5813. Effect of promise of personal representative or contractor.—No acknowledgment or promise by any personal resentative of a decedent, or by one of two or more joint con tors, shall charge the estate of such decedent, or charge any oth such contractors, in any case in which but for such acknowledg or promise, the decedent's estate or another contractor could been protected under section fifty-eight hundred and ten. (1887, § 2923.)

Administrator cannot revive debts barred by statute by any pro In writing or otherwise, but is bound to plead the statute against debts. Smith v. Pattie, 81 Va. 654; Seig v. Acord's Ex'r, 21 Grat. 8 Am. Rep. 605.

Administrator is sole heir and distributee of intestate. There debts against the intestate which are barred by the statute. There judgments against the administrator. The administrator cannot r those debts against the intestate, but must plead the statute, and refuses or fails so to do the judgment creditors may do so. Smi Pattie, 81 Va. 654.

Cited in Switzer v. Noffsinger, 82 Va. 525. See Kayser v. Di 9 Leigh 357; Tazewell's Ex'r v. Saunders' Ex'r, 13 Grat. 354; 3 (2d Ed.) 205-6; Burks' Pleading and Practice, p. 416.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotat chapter 104, section 9.

Sec. 5814. Effect, on right of action, of devise for payme debts.—No provision in the will of any testator devising his estate, or any part thereof, subject to the payment of his debt charging the same therewith, shall prevent this chapter from ating against such debts, unless it plainly appear to be the testa intent that it shall not so operate. (Code 1887, § 2924.)

For cases before the statute, see Chandler's Ex'x v. Hill, 2 He M. 124; Lewis' Ex'r v. Bacon's Legatees, 3 Hen. & M. 89; Bro Adm'r v. Griffiths, 6 Munf. 450.

Digitized by Google

he devise is not of itself sufficient evidence of the intention; it appear from some provision or phrase independent of the devise, indicates the purpose of the testator. Johnston v. Wilson's , 29 Grat. 379.

devise of real estate for the payment of debts will not affect the ion of the statute upon such debts, whether they be barred at the r's death or not, unless the contrary intention on his part plainly s. Id.

ee Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 85.

or W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, r 104, section 10.

5815. Limitation of action, etc., on a recognizance.—Every or scire facias upon a recognizance shall be commenced, if cognizance be not of bail in a civil suit, within ten years next the right to bring the same shall have first accrued; and if the nizance be of such bail, within three years after the right to t execution upon the judgment in such suit shall have accrued, ng in the computation of time such part of said three years right to sue out such execution shall have been suspended by tion, supersedeas, or other legal process. (Code 1887, § ee Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 106; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 160; 4 Min. (3d 13.

or W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, r 104, section 11.

5816. Of motion against officer for failure to return execu-
-A motion against an officer or his sureties, or his or their rep- atives, for a failure to return an execution, shall be made ten years from the return day thereof, and not after. (Code § 2927.)

he reference to the Code of 1887 should be to section 2926, not ee notes to sections 2826, 2835-2837.

5817. Ground rents.—No action shall be brought for the re- of any ground rent heretofore or hereafter reserved upon state after the expiration of ten years from the time such d rent becomes due and payable. (1916, p. 724.)

5818. Of actions not before specified.—Every personal ac- for which no limitation is otherwise prescribed, shall be ht within five years next after the right to bring the same have accrued, if it be for a matter of such nature that in case y die it can be brought by or against his representative; and, e for a matter not of such nature, shall be brought within one ext after the right to bring the same shall have accrued. (Code § 2927.)

bstance of action and not its form determines what limitation is ble.—The object of the action, and not its form, determines what limitation is applicable. If the thing complained of is an injury person, the limitation in assumpsit is the same as if the action were n ex delicto. Birmingham v. C. & O. Ry. Co., 98 Va. 548, 37 7.

evivability.—Whether an action is revivable depends not so much s form as its substance. Where cause of action is tort in connection with contract, and affects the person only, and not the the action dies with the person; otherwise where the action, nominally ex delicto, is founded on contract. Lee's Adm'r v. H Va. 500, 12 S. E. 1052, 24 Am. St. Rep. 666.

Digitized by Google

An action against a defendant for maliciously and without p cause suing out an injunction against a plaintiff, whereby the op of his mill was suspended, is barred after one year from the diss of the injunction, as the cause of action did not survive. Mump Bristol, 94 Va. 737, 27 S. E. 581.

A claim for indirect and incidental damages to a plaintiff's arising from an injury to the person, does not cause the action t to recover for such injury to survive. Birmingham v. C. & O. R 98 Va. 548, 37 S. E. 17.

An action to recover damages for personal injury caused wrongful act, neglect, or default of another must be brought with year from the time of injury. Anderson v. Hygeia Hotel Co., 687, 24 S. E. 269, note 2 Va. Law Reg. 21.

An action for wrongful discharge, being founded on contr revivable. Lee's Adm'r v. Hill, 87 Va. 500, 12 S. E. 1052, 24 A Rep. 666.

Upon the revivability of actions for personal injuries and up period of limitation of such actions, see notes to sections 5790 4 Va. Law Reg. 772.

See section 5385.

When statute begins to run— Against remainderman.—Life of a slave sells her interest and dies; the statute begins to run the remainderman at her death in favor of the purchaser. La Norris' Adm'r, 16 Grat. 236; Duncan v. Wright, 11 Leigh 542 (2 567; Lynch v. Thomas, 3 Leigh 682; Ball v. Johnson's Ex'r, 8 Gra

Plaintiff's interest in an estate on partition thereof was assig purchaser of her husband's life interest therein, who had also bou interest. Held, that her right of action, arising out of nullity deed and of partition proceedings, did not arise until the death husband. Beattie v. Wilkinson (C. C.), 36 Fed. 646.

In case of deceit.—Where deceit is practiced in a sale of the cause of action accrues at the time of the deceit practiced. White, 4 Leigh 474.

Against vendee.—Where K. executed to R. a bill of sale for but retains them in his possession, the possession of K. was subo to the deed, and not adversary, and therefore the claim was not by the statute. Roberts v. King, 10 Grat. 184.

In case of seduction.—Where daughter lived away from her house at the time of the seduction, but returned and was confine and nursed, the statute will only begin to run from that time. Holmes, 33 Grat. 722, 36 Am. Rep. 793.

In case of fraud or violence.—If a chattel be taken from the sion of its owner by fraud or violence unaccompanied by any bo claim of property, no length of time will bar the action of true Kitty v. Fitzhugh, 4 Rand. 600.

In favor of widow.—Where widow, after husband's death, h slaves, claiming them as her own, the statute did not begin to her favor until the appointment of a personal representative. C Hardiman, 2 Leigh 347.

In favor of trustee.—Trustee cannot take advantage of the limitation against the claim of cestui que trust or persons claiming him. Redwood v. Riddick, 4 Munf. 222.

Injury to water rights.—Where a plaintiff is injured for t time by the increased quantity of water taken from a stream defendant, his right of action accrues from that date, although fendant long before erected a tank and pumping station on its ow and took smaller quantities of water from the stream. Norfolk & Co. v. Allen, 118 Va. 428, 87 S. E. 553.

Bank directors.—See section 3816.

Digitized by Google

The cause of action against the directors of a bank for neglect of y as such directors grows out of their breach of duty, and the limita- applicable thereto is five years. Winston v. Gordon, 115 Va. 899, S. E. 756.

Where fraud is not alleged against bank directors and no conceal- nt on their part is shown, the statute begins to run in an action against m for neglect of duty, from the time the alleged wrongs, if any, were mitted. Winston v. Gordon, 115 Va. 899, 80 S. E. 756.

Bank directors may plead the statute of limitations when sued for lect of duty as such directors. Winston v. Gordon, 115 Va. 899, S. E. 756.

Nuisances.—The limitation to an action for damages for injury to plaintiff's property by reason of cesspools maintained by the de- dant on his adjacent land is five years. Hawling v. Chapin, 115 792, 80 S. E. 587.

A cause of action for emptying sewage in a stream accrues when discharge of sewage is in sufficient quantities to pollute the stream constitute a nuisance. McKinney v. Trustees, 117 Va. 763, 86 E. 115.

Limitation applicable to a permanent nuisance is five years. Worley Mathieson Alkali Works, 119 Va. 862, 89 S. E. 880.

When statute is a bar—Adverse possession.—Where person has had re than five years' adverse possession of a chattel, such a possession is omplete bar to plaintiff's title. Spotswood v. Dandridge,, 4 Hen. & 139; Garland v. Enos, 4 Munf. 504. As to subsequent acknowledg- nt, see Morris v. Lyon, 84 Va. 331, 4 S. E. 734. Such possession is source of title, see infra, "Pleading."

Property conveyed in deed of trust is taken under execution and l, and the purchaser remained in peaceable possession thereof for five rs before suit is instituted by the trustee or cestui que trust to over it; the statute is a bar to the recovery. Sheppard v. Turpin, Grat. 373.

A widow qualified as administratrix of her husband, and takes session of and holds certain slaves in which she claims a life estate having been given to her by her father's will. She is afterwards re- ved from her office of administratrix. The statute will protect her inst any claim by the administrator d. b. n. and next of kin to her band. Livesay v. Helms, 14 Grat. 441. See note supra, "In Favor Widow."

If a widow, holding, by virtue of her husband's will, certain slaves life, with power to dispose of them afterwards among her children, ueath them to one child only, such child must be considered as hold- the slaves under her will adversely to the other children, and there- e may be protected by the statute. Hudson v. Hudson's Ex'r, 3 nd. 117.

A frauduent bill of sale is made of slaves absolute on its face, with ecret trust for the grantor's daughters after they become of age. 1829 they set up a claim to the property, which the grantee denies be just. In 1837 they file a bill to establish the secret trust. Held, statute is a bar to the bill. Owen v. Sharp, 12 Leigh 427.

A person having had five years' peaceable possession of a chattel uired without force or fraud, who loses possession, may regain it on mere ground of his previous possession, but such recovery will not ect the right of others not parties to the suit. Newby's Adm'rs v. key, 3 Hen. & M. 57.

Pleading.—Statute is a source of title, and may be shown under general issue. Layne v. Norris' Adm'r, 16 Grat. 236; Spotswood v. ndridge, 4 Hen. & M. 139; Elam v. Bass' Ex'rs, 4 Munf. 301; Shelby Guy, 11 Wheat. 371, 6 L. Ed. 495; 13 Am. & Eng. Enc. of L. (1st) 694.

Where the declaration in an action for death by wrongful act shows its face that the death occurred more than twelve months before

Digitized by Google

action brought, advantage may be taken of the limitation by demur Manuel v. N. & W. R. Co., 99 Va. 188, 37 S. E. 957. See section 5

Where an action for the destruction of a house by fire caused the negligence of the defendant is brought within the statutory per and a fire insurance company intervenes and requests that it be paid losses out of any damages the plaintiffs may recover. Held, it is material whether the intervening petition was filed before or after five-year limit, since the insurance company claims through the plaint whose action was instituted in time. Norfolk & W. R. R. Co. v. Thor
110 Va. 622, 66 S. E. 817.

Generally.—See Vaiden v. Bell, 3 Rand. 448; Lynch v. Thoma
Leigh 682; Merrit v. Smith, 6 Leigh 486; Colvin v. Menefee. 11 Grat.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 62; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 614; Burks'
& Pr., pp. 385, 395. Cited in Embrey v. Jemison, 131 U. S. 34
Sup. Ct. 776, 33 L. Ed. 172, sections 5384-5.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotati
chapter 104, section 12.

Sec. 5819. Actions on judgments, etc., of another State.—Ev action upon a judgment or decree rendered in any other State country shall be barred, if by the laws of such State or coun such action would there be barred, and the judgment or decree incapable of being otherwise enforced there; and whether so bar or not, no action against a person who shall have resided in State during the ten years next preceding such action, shall brought upon any such judgment or decree, rendered more t ten years before the commencement of such action. (Code 1 § 2928.)

As to limitation on domestic judgments, see section 6477.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 103; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 146, 160.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotati
chapter 104, section 13.

Sec. 5820. Limitation of suits to avoid voluntary deeds, etc.— gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer, or charge, which is not consideration deemed valuable in law, or which is upon consid tion of marriage, shall be avoided in whole or in part for that ca only, unless within five years from its recordation, if recorded un a law providing for its recordation, and if not so recorded wit five years from the time the same was or should have been covered, suit be brought for that purpose, or the subject thereof some part of it, be distrained or levied on by or at the suit o creditor, as to whom such gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer charge, is declared to be void by section fifty-one hundred eighty-five. (Code 1887, § 2929.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "or which is upon consideration marriage" appearing in lines three and four of the text are new.
their insertion would seem to be manifestly proper in view of sec 5185.

Under the former language of this section, the limitation upon right to avoid the transaction was stated to be "five years after the r to avoid the same has accrued." Under this language the question when did the right accrue? See in this connection Vashon v. Barr 99 Va. 347, 38 S. E. 200. It should be observed that the limitation is "five years from its recordation, if recorded under a law providing its recordation, and if not so recorded within five years from the t

Digitized by Google

ame was or should have been discovered." The object of this change nguage is to make more definite the time of the accrual of the right oid the transaction. The subject of the gift, conveyance, etc., may eal estate or either tangible or intangible personal property, and the uage is sufficiently comprehensive to cover all classes.

When right accrues.—See revisors' note above, and Vashon v. Bar- 99 Va. 344, 38 S. E. 200, note 7 Va. L. Reg. 36, 596; Matthews v. Progress Co., 108 Va. 777, 62 S. E. 924.

Husband and wife—Fraud.—In the absence of fraud, suits by credi- to annul conveyance to a husband in trust for his wife, on the nd that the consideration was paid by him, is barred by five years. h v. Solenberger, 85 Va. 441, 8 S. E. 91. See, as to marriage settle- t, McCue's Trustees v. Harris, 86 Va. 687, 10 S. E. 981.

There is no limitation in cases of actual fraud. Bumgardner v. is, 92 Va. 188, 23 S. E. 229, note 1 Va. Law Reg. 590; Snoddy v. kins, 12 Grat. 363; Flook v. Armentrout's Adm'r, 100 Va. 638, . E. 686.

Section has no application to fraudulent conveyances.—The limita- prescribed by this section, within which to bring suit to set aside a ntary conveyance, has no application to attack on a conveyance on ground of fraud. Kinney v. Craig, 103 Va. 158, 165, 48 S. E. 864.

This section has no application to a fraudulent conveyance, but only cribes limitation for attack on voluntary conveyance. Atkinson v. lberger, 112 Va. 667, 72 S. E. 727.

For the statute of fraudulent conveyances, see section 5185.

Burden of proof that transfer alleged to be voluntary was made than five years before the institution of the suit to have it set is on the party pleading the statute. Vashon v. Barrett, 99 Va. 38 S. E. 200, note 7 Va. Law Reg. 36.

Generally.—For history of the distinction between the legislation iding for the running of the statute against suits to avoid conveyances on considerations deemed valuable in law, and of that providing he running of the statute in other cases, see opinion of Staples, J., ickle v. Chrisman's Adm'x, 76 Va. 678, for a rule which is changed his section.

A suit to avoid a gift, conveyance, etc., which is not on consideration deemed valuable in law, if for that cause only, must be brought with- e years after the right to avoid the same has accrued. This changed provision of the Code of 1849, under which a case had arisen (Bickle hrisman, 76 Va. 678; McCue's Trustees v. Harris, 86 Va. 687.) s' Address, 2 Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1395.

This section refers to suits by creditors to annul voluntary con- nce by their debtors to third person in fraud of such creditors' s, and not to suits by commissioner to vacate a deed executed by upon the ground of fraud or the misrepresentation of the grantee. iams v. Blakey, 76 Va. 254.

This section applies only to gifts inter vivos, and not to devises or ies. Lewis v. Overby's Adm'r, 31 Grat. 616-618.

Does not protect from liability for decedent's debts his property, h has passed into distributees' hands. Cole's Adm'r v. Ballard, 78 139.

Limitation does not cease to run simply because no settlement has had between parties. Vashon v. Barrett, 99 Va. 344, 38 S. E. 200.

No inherent equity will create an exception to the statute. Bickle hrisman's Adm'x, 76 Va. 678; Matthews Co. v. Progress Co., 108 777, 62 S. E. 924.

For case before the statute, see Wilson v. Buchanan, 7 Grat. 334-344.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 615; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 586, 684; Barton, L. (2d Ed.) 862; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 82, 101, et seq.; Burks' Pl. r., pp. 386, 387.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 104, section 14.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5821. Promise not to plead the statute.—Whenever the ure to enforce a promise, written or unwritten, not to plead statute of limitations would operate a fraud on the promisee promisor shall be estopped to plead the statute. In all other an unwritten promise not to plead the statute shall be void, a written promise not to plead it shall have the effect of a promi pay the debt or discharge the liability.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new. For a general discussi the subject, see Burks' Pl. & Pr., section 225, p. 417.

See Sutton v. Burruss, 9 Leigh 381, 33 Am. Dec. 246; Bowles
v. Elmore's Adm'x, 7 Grat. 385.

Sec. 5822. To repeal a grant.—A bill in equity to repeal, in w or in part, any grant of land by the Commonwealth, shall be bro within ten years next after the date of such grant. (Code 18 2930.)

See Goodwin v. McCluer, 3 Grat. 298; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.

In Goodwin v. McCluer, 3 Grat. 298, it was decided that alth the patent may have been obtained on false suggestions, yet no p can be repealed after the lapse of ten years.

Sec. 5823. Saving as to persons under disability.—If any p to whom the right accrues to bring any such personal actio scire facias, or any such bill to repeal a grant, shall be at the the same accrues, an infant, or insane, the same may be bro within the like number of years after his becoming of full or sane, that is allowed to a person having no such impedime bring the same after the right accrues, or after such acknow ment as aforesaid, except that it shall in no case be brought twenty years from the time when the right accrued. (Code § 2931.)

Revisors' Note.—The portion of this section relating to ma women has been omitted as no longer necessary.

Tacking.—No other disability is available than the one whic isted when the right of action accrued, and no disability subsequ arising can be tacked on to the one so existing. Parsons v. McCra 9 Leigh 495; Blackwell's Adm'r v. Bragg, 78 Va. 529; Hudso Hudson's Adm'r, 6 Munf. 352.

Infancy.—Being infants at the time the right accrued, statut not begin to run until they became twenty-one years of age. Bai Bland, 3 Munf. 570; Hudson v. Hudson's Adm'r, 6 Munf. 352.

Coverture.—See revisors' note above, Blakey v. Newby's Ad
6 Munf. 64; Livesay v. Helms, 14 Grat. 441.

Generally.—Persons under disability may prosecute any re in equity they are entitled to by prochein ami, at any time whil disability continues. Hansford v. Elliott, 9 Leigh 79.

As to disabilities co-existing when the right of action accrues, is not obliged to act until the last is removed. Blackwell's Adm Bragg, 78 Va. 529.

Applied in Morrison's Ex'r v. Householder's Adm'r, 79 Va. 6

See Barton, L. Pr. 793; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 986; Burks' Pl. &
pp. 394, 395, 404.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annota
chapter 104, section 16.

See Gregory's Forms No. 196.

Sec. 5824. As to persons dead, when right accrues.—If a p

Digitized by Google

before the time at which any right mentioned in this chapter d have accrued to him, if he had continued alive, and there be terval of more than two years between the death of such person the qualification of his personal representative, such personal esentative shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be deemed to qualified on the last day of the said two years. (Code 1887, 32.)

Revisors' Note.—The interval stated in this section was formerly years; now it is two.

Though a widow obtains possession of personal property left by husband at his death, claiming the same as her own, and holds the for more than five years, during which time no administrator was inted, such possession will not give her title, as the statute did not to run in her favor until the appointment of the administrator. v. Hardiman, 2 Leigh 347. The interval is now two years.

Statute does not begin to run against a claim asserted for a de-nt's estate until a qualification of a personal representative of the dent. Hansford v. Elliott, 9 Leigh 79; Lyon's Adm'r v. Magagnos' r, 7 Grat. 377; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 986; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 93.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 104, section 17.

c. 5825. As to plaintiff when suit prevented by defendant; when t of action on foreign contract barred.—Where any such right mentioned in this chapter shall accrue against a person who before resided in this State, if such person shall, by departing out the same or by absconding or concealing himself, or by any r indirect ways or means obstruct the prosecution of such right, time that such obstruction may have continued shall not be puted as any part of the time within which the said right might ught to have been prosecuted. But this section shall not avail nst any other person than him so obstructing notwithstanding her might have been jointly sued with him if there had been uch obstruction. Nor shall it apply to such grantees for value those claiming under them as are mentioned in section sixty-hundred and seventy-four. Upon a contract which was made was to be performed in another State or country by a person then resided therein, no action shall be maintained after the t of action thereon is barred either by the laws of such State or ntry or of this State. (Code 1887, § 2933; 1897-8, p. 441.)

Revisors' Note.—Section 2933 of the Code of 1887 was amended cts 1897-8, p. 441. The revised section above is based on the Code 887 and not on the amendment. The third sentence is new. The tation prescribed by section 6474 is intended to be absolute. The sentence of the section has been so changed as to provide that in case mentioned "no action shall be maintained after the right of on thereon is barred EITHER by the laws of such State or country BY THIS STATE." The capitalized words remove a doubt which e under the former language.

Residence, within the meaning of the statute, is the permanent abid-or dwelling in a place for a length of time as contradistinguished a mere temporary locality of existence. Griffin v. Woolford, 100 473, 41 S. E. 949.

Digitized by Google

The continued non-residence of the maker of a note, who was a resident of this State, did not prevent the running of the stat it existed prior to the amendment 1897-8, p. 441. Griffin v. Wo 100 Va. 473, 41 S. E. 949; Dorr's Adm'r v. Rohr, 82 Va. 359, 3 A Rep. 106; Embrey v. Jemison, 131 U. S. 336, 9 Sup. Ct. 776, 33 172. Observe what is stated in the revisors' note above as to the a ment of 1897-8.

Obstruction— Promise as.—Promise to settle and pay a b found due on a settlement is not an obstruction of plaintiff's within the meaning of this section, nor does the mere failure to c with such promise amount to a fraud on the plaintiff. Liskey v. 100 Va. 764, 42 S. E. 875. See Bickle v. Chrisman's Adm'x, 76 Va Sutton v. Burruss, 9 Leigh 381, 33 Am. Dec. 246; Foster's Cura Rison, 17 Grat. 345.

Removal as.—The removal of slaves to a distant county, thus ing the owners in ignorance where they were, was an obstruction, the meaning of this section. Rankin v. Bradford, 1 Leigh 163.

The removal of judgment debtor from State is of itself an ob tion of a suit to enforce the judgment, and the statute of limitatio not run against the judgment while the debtor remains out of the Cheatham's Adm'r v. Aistrop's Adm'r, 97 Va. 457, 34 S. E. 57 Clanahan v. Norfolk & W. R. Co., 118 Va. 388, 87 S. E. 731.

Removal out of the State after contracting the debt is its obstruction to the prosecution of the suit. Ficklin's Ex'r v. Carri 31 Grat. 219. See Brown v. Butler, 87 Va. 621, 13 S. E. 71; L Adm'r v. Perry, 98 Va. 604, 37 S. E. 33.

This section does not apply where defendant, although once a dent of the State, removed therefrom before any right of action a against him, and before the transactions occurred out of which pla claim arose. Embrey v. Jemison, 131 U. S. 349, 9 Sup. Ct. 776, Ed. 172.

The removal must be with intention to change the domicil party's home is in this State, statute continues to run. Brown v. 87 Va. 621, 13 S. E. 71.

If this section has any application to the estates of deceased pe it cannot apply where the administrator never was a resident o State. Prior to amendment (1897-8) this section applied only t sons who were once residents of this State, and who obstructe remedy by departing. Kesterson v. Hill, 101 Va. 739, 45 S. E See Templeman's Adm'r v. Pugh, 102 Va. 441, 46 S. E. 474, wher expressly decided that statute has no application to estates of de persons. As to the amendment of 1897-8 see revisors' note above.

Suspension of statute by agreement.—Where parties agree th suit shall be brought during the absence of the debtor from the it seems that such agreement will stop the running of the stat equity. Holladay v. Littlepage, 2 Munf. 316.

B., having become the surety of E., E. delivers to B. B.'s note was to hold it until the liability of B. as bail was ended, and th was to redeliver it to E. Statute did not begin to run against th until the liability of B. as bail ceased. Bowles' Ex'r v. Elmore's A 7 Grat. 385. Compare Sutton v. Burruss, 9 Leigh 381, 33 Am. Dec See section 5821.

In case of fraud.—The concealment of a cause of action whic prevent the running of the statute of limitations under this section consist of some trick or artifice preventing inquiry, or calculat hinder a discovery of the cause of action by the use of ordinary dili Mere silence is not sufficient. The fraud which will relieve the the statute must be of that character which involves moral tur and must have the effect of debarring or deterring the plaintiff his action. Culpeper Nat. Bank v. Tidewater Improvement Co. Va. 73, 89 S. E. 118. See, in this connection, revisors' note to s 5811.

Generally.—This section applies to indirect ways and mea

Digitized by Google

uct the suit wherein the statute is pleaded, and is not applicable is case where the obstruction was by defendant to the suit against the conclusion whereof was a necessary preliminary to the suit to ach the assignment. Bickle v. Chrisman's Adm'x, 76 Va. 678.
A parol debt was contracted in 1819, when the debtor lived in Vir- . He shortly removed from the State, never returned, and died. In a proceeding by foreign attachment was instituted to recover the The statute of limitations is a good defence to the proceeding. le's Adm'r v. Burch's Adm'r, 11 Grat. 26.
The second clause of this section (beginning "But this section") intended to apply to a case where two or more were jointly liable, some one or more of them obstructed the plaintiff in the prosecu- of his suit in some of the methods mentioned in the statute while s did not. McClanahan v. Norfolk & W. R. Co., 118 Va. 388, 87 731.
Cited but not construed in Dowell v. Cox, 108 Va. 460, 62 S. E. 272.
See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 384, 399, 403, 405.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 104, section 18.

c. 5826. Further time given; when suit abates or is defeated on nd not affecting the right to recover.—If an action or suit com- ced within due time in the name of or against one or more ntiffs or defendants abate as to one of them by the return of nhabitant or by his or her death or marriage, or if in an action uit commenced within due time judgment or decree for the ntiff shall be arrested or reversed upon a ground which does not lude a new action or suit for the same cause, or if there be oc- on to bring a new action or suit by reason of the loss or destruc- of any of the papers or records in a former suit or action which in due time; in every such case, notwithstanding the expira- of the time within which a new action or suit must otherwise been brought, the same may be brought within one year after abatement, or such arrest, or reversal of judgment or decree, uch loss or destruction, but not after. (Code 1887, § 2934; -4, p. 789; 1897-8, p. 252.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is identical in language with section of the Code of 1887, except that it expressly includes suits in ty as well as actions at law. The amendments made by the acts at the end of the section have been omitted, because they were ied unwise. They authorized an extension of one year if any kind of on were brought against a wrong defendant, which would include defendant.

Nonsuit.—This section does not apply when plaintiff is nonsuited his own motion. Manuel v. N. & W. Ry. Co., 99 Va. 188, 37 S. E. note 6 Va. Law Reg. 776.

"Suit."—The "suit" which may be brought within one year in con- ence of the loss or destruction of papers or records in a former suit, h was in due time, includes both actions at law and suits in equity. es v. N. Y., etc., Co., 96 Va. 733, 735, 32 S. E. 778, 5 Va. Law Reg. The present section expressly includes suits and actions.

"Action."—As the statute formerly read, the word "action" did not y to suit in equity; therefore a party who first brought a suit in ty, which was dismissed, and then within one year institutes his on, was not entitled to the benefit of this section. The rule would to be otherwise, as the statute now reads. Dawes v. N. Y., etc., 96 Va. 733, 735, 32 S. E. 778, 5 Va. Law Reg. 23. See, also, 8 Va.

Digitized by Google

Law Reg. 761; Gray's Adm'x v. Berryman, 4 Munf. 181; Elan Bass' Ex'rs, Id. 301. The present revision makes the section expr apply to suits and actions.

Pleading.—If, in assumpsit, the defendant pleaded the act of li tion and the plaintiff would avoid the plea by former suit having brought in time, he must reply the former suit specially. He ca give it in evidence under a general replication of the plea. Bog Conway's Ex'rs, 3 Call 1.

It is no reply to a plea of the statute that the former suit wen the docket for want of formality. Callis v. Waddy, 2 Munf. 511.

Generally.—This section has no application unless there be than one year between the abatement or judgment or loss or destruc of paper and the bar of the statute. Brown's Ex'rs v. Putney, 1 W 302.

The year under this section does not run from judgment of appe court, but from that of lower court, excluding time that action was p ing in appellate court. Bradley Salt Co. v. Norfolk Importing & porting Co., 101 Fed. 681, 41 C. C. A. 600.

Where parties to probate proceedings under section 2639a Pollard's Code, instead of appealing under that section, bring a under section 2544 of Pollard's Code to impeach the will, and such is dismissed, an appeal in the probate proceedings, afterwards taken u section 2939a of Pollard's Code is not a "new suit" within the mea of this section. Tyson v. Scott, 116 Va. 243, 81 S. E. 57; 20 Va Reg. 70 and note. See section 5259 and revisors' note.

See Norfolk & A. T. Co. v. Rotolo (Circuit Court of Appeals, Circuit), 179 Fed. 639, and note thereto, 16 Va. Law Reg. 173. case was under the former reading.

4 Min. (3d Ed.) 987; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 76, 793; 3 Va. Reg. 532.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotati chapter 104, section 19.

Sec. 5827. Limitation of enforcement of deeds of trust and m gages.—No deed of trust or mortgage heretofore or hereafter gi to secure the payment of money, and no lien heretofore or herea reserved to secure the payment of unpaid purchase money, s be enforced after twenty years from the time when the right to force the same shall have first accrued; but the limitations scribed by this section may be extended by an endorsement to t effect, entered upon the margin of the page of deed book on wh the same is recorded, when such endorsement is duly executed the grantor or his duly authorized attorney in fact, and attested the clerk of the court in which such lien is recorded, which endo ment shall be held to extend the limitation of the right to enfo said lien for twenty years from the date of such endorsement. clerk of the said court shall index said extension in both names the index of the deed book and on the general index in his off and give reference to the book and page in which the original w ing is recorded. This section shall not be construed to embrace a deed of trust or mortgage executed by a corporation or any vestment or loan of funds arising fr. m the sale or other disposit of glebe lands in the several counties of the State. (Code 1887 2935; 1897-8, p. 516; 1904, p. 271.)

Revisors' Note.—The time limit fixed by this section as it st

Digitized by Google

e the revision having expired, the phraseology has been changed ut intention to change the law.

See remarks of Judge E. C. Burks, giving reasons for this section. s' Address, 2 Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1395.

Prior to the Code of 1887 there was no statute of limitation to the cement of the vendor's lien on the lien for owelty of partition. these liens continue to exist until waived, released, satisfied, or sufficient time elapsed to raise the presumption of payment. Jame-. Rixey, 94 Va. 342, 26 S. E. 861, 64 Am. St. Rep. 726.

Does not affect presumption of payment of a debt secured by deed ust arising from the lapse of twenty years. Turnbull v. Mann, 99 1, 37 S. E. 288.

Though action at law to recover purchase money be barred, yet er's lien or trust deed may be enforced, within the statute. Tun-s Adm'r v. Withers, 86 Va. 892, 11 S. E. 565; Gibson v. Green's r, 89 Va. 524, 16 S. E. 661, 37 Am. St. Rep. 888; Smith's Ex'x v. ington City, V. M. & G. S. R. Co., 33 Grat. 617; 1 Va. Law Reg. Hamilton v. Glenn, 85 Va. 901, 906, 9 S. E. 129; Bowie v. Poor ol Soc., 75 Va. 300.

The former section applied as to the limitation of May 1, 1903, in 's Adm'x v. Highland Development Co., 104 Va. 551, 52 S. E. 209. See editorial, 20 Va. L. Reg. 945.

As to mode of marking satisfied deeds of trust, etc., section 6456. See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 612, 615; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 81; Barton, . (2d Ed.) 117, 122; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 397.

c. 5828. Repeal of limitation not to remove bar of statute.—If, a right of action or remedy is barred by a statute of limitations, statute be repealed, the bar of the statute as to such right or dy shall not be deemed to be removed by such repeal. (Code , § 2936.)

By this section it was intended to prescribe a rule different from which had been declared by the Supreme Court of the United States ampbell v. Holt, 115 U. S. 620, 6 Sup. Ct. 209, 29 L. Ed. 483; s' Address, 2 Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1395. See Johnston v. Gill, rat. 587; Kesterson v. Hill, 101 Va. 739, 45 S. E. 288.

See Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 79; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 605; section 6569 notes.

c. 5829. State not within statute of limitations.—No statute of ations, which shall not in express terms apply to the Common-th, shall be deemed a bar to any proceeding by or on behalf ne same. This section shall not, however, apply to agencies of State incorporated for charitable or educational purposes. (Code , § 2937.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence is new. See Eastern State Hos- v. Graves, 105 Va. 151, 52 S. E. 837.

Time does not run against the Commonwealth. Levasser v Wash-, 11 Grat. 572; Shanks v. Lancaster, 5 Grat. 110, 50 Am. Dec. 108; s v. Board, 10 Grat. 400; Wild's Lessee v. Serpell, Id. 405.

Title to a public highway cannot be acquired by adverse possession. does not bar the right of the public. Bellenot v. Richmond City, Va. 314, 61 S. E. 785.

The statute of limitations runs against counties and other subdivi- of the State, in suits brought by them to recover debts, in the manner and to the same extent as against natural persons. John-v. Black, 103 Va. 478, 49 S. E. 633.

As to state institutions, see revisors' note above; McClanahan v. tern Asylum, 88 Va. 466, 13 S. E. 977; Phillips v. U. Va., 97 Va.

Digitized by Google

472, 34 S. E. 66; Eastern State Hospital v. Graves, 105 Va. 52 S. E. 837; notes 5 Va. L. Reg. 470, 543.

As to municipal corporations, see 1 Va. L. Reg. 547.

Section 174 of the Constitution provides that no limitation shal against the State for taxes.

Sec. 5830. As to rights and remedies existing when this takes effect.—No action, suit, scire facias, or other proceeding, may be pending on the day before this Code takes effect, o right to prosecute which, under the laws in force on that day, have accrued before that day, shall be barred by this chapter farther or otherwise than as follows: the same, if pending on day, shall be subject to such limitation as it would have been su to if this Code had not been enacted, and where not so pendi the right to prosecute the same shall exist on that day, for a ce number of years prescribed by any statute, the same, or such action as may be substituted therefor by this Code, may be p cuted within such time as the same might have been prosecut this chapter had not been enacted, and not after; and where n pending, if the right to prosecute the same shall exist on that in a case in which no certain number of years shall have been scribed therefor by statute, the same, or such other action as be substituted therefor by this Code, may be prosecuted w such time as the same would have to be prosecuted if the rig bring it had accrued on the next day after this Code takes e (Code 1887, § 2938.)

Under the provisions of this section of the Code of 1887, the li tion to an action on a bond dated and due prior to May 1, 1888, and which no action was then pending, is twenty years from its mat notwithstanding the death of the obligor in 1889. Davis Admx. v. 104 Va. 65, 51 S. E. 216.

A case in which there has been a final decree is not a pending in the sense of this section. Yarborough v. Deshazo. 7 Grat. 374.

Plaintiff who was formerly entitled to recovery in a writ of may recover in ejectment under this section. Mitchell v. Baratt Grat. 445.

Section 5827 was enacted long after the creation of the lien s to be enforced in this case (for owelty of partition), and it is very that the statute does not bar the plaintiff from enforcing his Jameson v. Rixey, 94 Va. 345, 346, 26 S. E. 861, 64 Am. St. Rep.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 77, 79, 793; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 625

Digitized by Google

TITLE 58

ndamus, Prohibition, Quo Warranto, and Habeas Corpus.

9. Writ of mandamus and writ of prohibition.
0. Writ of quo warranto and information in the nature of a writ of quo warranto.
1. Writ of habeas corpus.

CHAPTER 239.

Writ of Mandamus and Writ of Prohibition.

Sec.
Application for mandamus or prohibition.
What petition to state; where presented.
When writ awarded.
Defense, how made.
Adjournment.
Trial by jury; what judgment to be rendered.
5837. The proceedings, where application is to Court of Appeals.
5838. Suspension of proceedings, where prohibition applied for.
5839. How proceedings in vacation certified and entered.
5840. Service of writ; how obedience enforced.

5831. Application for mandamus or prohibition.—Applica- or a writ of mandamus or a writ of prohibition shall be on n verified by oath, after the party against whom the writ is l has been served with a copy of the petition and notice of ended application, a reasonable time before such application e. (Code 1887, § 3011.)

is chapter of the Code originated with the revision of 1887. oceedings at common law in mandamus and prohibition were very y and complicated. Former statutes concerning these writs, while some improvement, were very inadequate. They were omitted revision and an entirely new procedure substituted, which would o be clear, simple, and expeditious. Burks' Address, 2 Barton (2d Ed.) 1387.

andamus lies against the superintendent of a lunatic asylum in of a lunatic claiming to have been discharged as restored to Starham v. Blackford, 89 Va. 771, 17 S. E. 233.

efusal to allow person to be made party to a suit, or allowing him made party is ground for appeal, but not mandamus. Moon's v. Wellford, Judge, 84 Va 34, 4 S. E. 572.

andamus does not lie to compel the board of supervisors to levy for the payment of a claim which it has no authority to pay.

Digitized by Google

even though the claim has passed into a judgment. The writ that to be done which is the defendant's duty to do without it. of Supervisors v. Catlett's Ex'rs, 86 Va. 163, 9 S. E. 999.

Allegations in petition for mandamus are not admitted as failure to answer or traverse same. Supervisors of Cumberland v. Randolph, 89 Va. 614, 16 S. E. 722.

A writ of prohibition will be granted to restrain a justi giving a new trial after thirty days. Burroughs v. Taylor, 90 17 S. E. 745.

The writ of prohibition is only a proper proceeding to re judge from exceeding his jurisdiction, and does not lie to correc eous decision where he has jurisdiction. Ellyson's Case, 20 G

Court of appeals under this section has power, by manda compel judge of inferior court to sign bill of exceptions. C Christian, 92 Va. 731, 24 S. E. 472.

For monographic note on Mandamus, see Dawson v. Thu Hen. & M. 132, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Anno chapter 109, section 1.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 252, 253, 359, 360, 382, 383, 4 451, 512.

Sec. 5832. What petition to state; where presented.—T tion shall state plainly and concisely the grounds of the tion, concluding with a prayer for the writ, and shall be pr to the court having jurisdiction or to the judge thereof in v (unless the application be to the Supreme Court of Appeals) 1887, § 3012.)

Judge of circuit court under this section has in vacation tion to compel by mandamus one county to contribute to maintai or causeway connecting it with another county. Gloucester Co. dlesex Co., 88 Va. 843, 14 S. E. 660.

See section 88, Const. 1902.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 252, 253, 382, 383, 449, 450, 4

Sec. 5833. When writ awarded.—When the application i on proof of notice and service of the copy of the petition a said, if the defendant fail to appear, or appearing fail to m fense, and the petition states a case proper for the writ, emptory writ shall be awarded with costs. (Code 1887, § 3

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 252, 253, 449, 450.

Sec. 5834. Defense; how made.—If the defendant appe make defense, such defense may be by demurrer, or answer to the petition, or by both, such answer to be subject to a exceptions by the petitioner. The court may permit amen to said petition, as in other cases, should the demurrer be su (Code 1887, § 3014.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence is new.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 252, 253, 449, 450.

Sec. 5835. Adjournment.—When the case is before the j vacation, he may adjourn it from day to day, or from time until finally disposed of. (Code 1887, § 3015.)

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 252, 253, 449, 450.

Sec. 5836. Trial by jury; what judgment to be rendere writ peremptory shall be awarded or denied according to cts of the case, and with or without costs, as the court or may determine. (Code 1887, § 3016.)

Digitized by Google

visors' note.—This section formerly provided that, "Upon the and answer, if either party demand a jury, the court or judge rect such issues of fact as may be proper, to be tried in term." vision in some instances, if allowed to remain, would cause con- e delay, and it was deemed best to omit it altogether.

e words "trial by jury" should have been stricken out of the of this section.

e proceeding by writ of petition, whether in the inferior or su- ourt, is not a part or continuation of the prohibited proceeding, wholly collateral to it, and is intended to arrest it and prevent g further prosecuted in a court having no jurisdiction of the and is the means whereby the superior exercises due superin- e over the inferior, and keeps it within the bounds and limits urisdiction. Mayo v. James, 12 Grat. 25; Barton, L. Pr. (1st 2; Collins v. Christian, 93 Va. 1, 24 S. E. 472.

Gregory's Forms Nos. 252, 253, 449, 450.

5837. The proceedings, where application is to Court of Ap-

-If the application be to the Supreme Court of Ap- the case shall be heard and determined without a jury, tnesses shall not be allowed to testify viva voce before the out their testimony, if desired, may be used in the form of ions taken by either party on reasonable notice to the other, attorney, of the time and place of taking the same. (Code 3017.)

Gregory's Forms Nos. 252, 253, 449, 450.

5838. Suspension of proceedings, where prohibition applied

n petition for a writ of prohibition, the court, or judge in n, may, at any time before or after the application for the made, if deemed proper, make an order, a copy of which served on the defendant, suspending the proceedings sought rohibited until the final decision of the cause. (Code 1887,)

Gregory's Forms Nos. 252, 253, 449, 450.

5839. How proceedings in vacation certified and entered.—

the proceedings on the petition are had before the judge in n, he shall certify the same and any judgment, or order, made in the case, to the clerk of the court, and they shall be en- y the clerk in the order book on the law side of the court, ve the same force and effect as if had or made and entered in (Code 1887, § 3019.)

Gregory's Forms Nos. 252, 253, 449, 450.

5840. Service of writ; how obedience enforced.—Service of of the order awarding the writ shall be equivalent to service writ, and obedience to the writ or order may be enforced by of contempt in vacation in like manner as in term. (Code 3020.)

Gregory's Forms Nos. 252, 253, 449, 450.

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 240.

Writ of Quo Warranto and Information in the Nature of a Writ of Quo Warranto.

Sec.
5841. In what cases writ of quo warranto awarded.
5842. When, where, how, and by whom the writ to be applied for.
5843. When awarded; where returnable; how signed and attested; when bond required.
5844. When, where, how, and by whom leave may be asked to file information or writ of quo warranto; when leave granted and summons issued.
5845. How writ or summons directed and served.
5846. Trial of writ or information; how defense made; what to be taken as true; when reheard.
5847. Verdict; judgment; attorney's fee.

Sec. 5841. In what cases writ of quo warranto awarded.—A writ of quo warranto may be awarded and prosecuted in the name of the State of Virginia in any of the following cases, to-wit:

First. Against a domestic corporation (other than a municipal corporation) for a misuse or non-use of its corporate privileges or franchises, or for the exercise of a privilege or franchise not conferred upon it by law, or where a charter of incorporation has been obtained by it for a fraudulent purpose, or for a purpose not authorized by law.

Second. Against a person for the misuse or non-use of any privilege and franchise conferred upon him by or in pursuance of law.

Third. Against any person or persons acting as a corporation (other than a municipal corporation) without authority of law.

Fourth. Against any person who shall intrude into or usurp any public office. But no such writ shall be awarded or prosecuted against any person now in office for any cause which would have been available in support of a proceeding to contest the election of such person to such office. (Code 1887, § 3022; 1906, p. 16.)

History of chapter.—This chapter, which corresponds to chapter 145 of the Code of 1887, was new with the revision of 1887, and has been taken, with few important changes, from amended Code of Virginia (1884), chapter 109, and defines cases in which the writ of information may be sued, and regulates the procedure. Burks' Pl. & Pr. 2 Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.), 1387.

Information in nature of writ of quo warranto.—An information in the nature of quo warranto, though in form a criminal proceeding, is in substance a civil proceeding for trial of a civil right, and actions or prosecutions on informations under penal laws does not apply. Commonwealth v. Birchett, 2 Va. Cas. 51.

Against corporation for misuse of franchise.—An information in the nature of quo warranto is proper remedy to try and decide whether a canal company has forfeited its privilege of receiving tolls, and whether its charter ought to be vacated, and such information will lie eo nomine, to try whether the said company has forfeited its fra-

Digitized by Google

a corporation as well as its other franchises and liberties. Com. sident, etc., James River Co., 2 Va. Cas. 190.

Quo warranto to annul charter is proper remedy to restrain navigacompany from collecting tolls on rivers on which by their charter were entitled to collect tolls when they should have completed ation on them, but had not done so. Pixley v. Roanoke Nav. Co., a. 320; Banks v. Poitiaux, 3 Rand. 136; Crump v. United States Co., 7 Grat. 352, 56 Am. Dec. 116.

Title to office.—Object of chapter 145 of Code of 1887 (correspond- this chapter) was to simplify procedure, and not to narrow writ make it less comprehensive in trying title to office than at common where title thereto could be tested if incumbent were not de jure, h he might be full de facto, officer. Provisions of that chapter are estricted to cases in which incumbent is mere trespasser without or pretence of title. Watkins v. Venable, 99 Va. 444, 39 S. E. 147, Law Reg. 571.

Quo warranto is remedy to controversy where title to office is in- l. Kilpatrick v. Smith, 77 Va. 347.

Under Constitution and statute of Virginia, a party who has assisted duel fought with deadly weapons may be removed from office by a eding by quo waranto, or, if that be not in use, by information in e of quo warranto, though he has not been convicted of the of- in any criminal proceeding against him. Royall v. Thomas, 28 130, 26 Am. Rep. 335.

When not adequate remedy.—Quo warranto is not adequate remedy mpel one not entitled to public office to refrain from exercising its ons, and to deliver to rightful claimant property belonging to of- nor does chapter 145 of Code of 1887 (corresponding to this chapabolish by implication the established procedure of trying title to by mandamus. Sinclair v. Young, 100 Va. 289, 40 S. E. 907.

Waiver of writ.—Where, upon application for a writ of quo warranto title to judgeship, respondent waives issuance of writ, he cannot vard object that writ was not filed. Bland v. Giles, 33 Grat. 443.

Generally.—See Wylie v. Easley and note, 5 Va. Law J. 43. See, also, . L. Reg. 336; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 781.

The Supreme Court of Appeals is not given original jurisdiction to writs of quo warranto, but that court has original jurisdiction in of mandamus, prohibition and habeas corpus. See Const., section

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 109, section 6.

See Gregory's Forms, Nos. 384, 452.

c. 5842. When, where, how, and by whom the writ to be applied -Whenever the Attorney-General or attorney for the Commonh of any county or city, the circuit or corporation court where- s jurisdiction of the proceeding, is satisfied that a cause for the exists, he may, except where otherwise provided, at his own nce, or at the relation of any person interested, apply by peti- to the said circuit or corporation court or to the judge thereof cation, to have such writ issued, and shall state the reasons for in the petition. If the Attorney-General or the attorney for ommonwealth, upon being requested as aforesaid, refuse or fail ply for the writ, any person whose individual or public interest ected may present his petition to such court or judge asking he same. (Code 1887, § 3023.)

Revisors' note.—The words, "except where otherwise provided," ap- g in line four of the text, are new. Their insertion is necessary to avoid a conflict with section 3757. See South & W. R. Co. v. 104 Va., 314, 51 S. E. 824.

Digitized by Google

The words, "any person whose individual or public interest fected," found in the last sentence, are used in lieu of "the per interested."

See sections 5890, 5928, 6052.

Cited, but not construed in Stultz v. Pratt, 103 Va. 537, 49 S.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 384, 452.

Sec. 5843. When awarded; where returnable; how signed a tested; when bond required.—If, in the opinion of the court or the reasons so stated in the petition are sufficient in law, th writ shall be awarded by the court or judge, returnable to th term of the court, and the same shall be signed by the judg attested by the clerk of such court. But if the writ be awar the relation of any person, it shall not be issued until the r shall have given bond with sufficient surety (if such bond quired by the court or judge), to be approved by the clerk, i penalty as the court or judge shall prescribe with conditio the relator shall pay all such costs and expenses as may be in by the State in the prosecution of the writ, in case the same sh be recovered from and paid by the defendant therein. (Cod § 3024.)

Under our statute the first notice that defendant has of qu ranto proceedings is the writ itself, and he is not party until it is a Watkins v. Venable, 99 Va. 440, 39 S. E. 147.

Applicant is not entitled to writ as matter of right. It lies sound judicial discretion of court to grant or refuse it. Id.

The words "next term" are construed to mean next regula fixed by law, and do not include special terms. Stultz v. Pra Va. 538, 49 S. E. 654.

Cited but not construed in Southern and West Ry. Co. v. Co Va., 314, 51 S. E. 824.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Anno chapter 109, section 8.

See Gregory's Forms No. 452.

Sec. 5844. When, where, how, and by whom leave may be to file information in nature of writ of quo warranto; when granted and summons issued.—In any case in which a writ warranto would lie, unless otherwise provided, the Attorne eral or attorney for the Commonwealth of the county or ci circuit or corporation court whereof has jurisdiction of th ceeding, at his own instance, or at the relation of any person ested, or any person interested may, in the name of the S Virginia, apply to the said circuit or corporation court, or judge thereof in vacation, for leave to file an information nature of a writ of quo warranto for any of the causes and any corporation, officer, or person mentioned in section fift hundred and forty-one, and he shall, at the time of the appli present to the court or judge the information he proposes to f in the opinion of the court or judge, the matters stated in the mation are sufficient in law to authorize the same to be filed, a

Digitized by Google

be made directing it to be filed, and awarding a summons
t the defendant named therein to answer the same, returnable vided in the preceding section. But if the leave to file the ation be asked on the relation of any person, or by any per-his own instance, the summons thereon shall not be issued by erk until such relator or person shall have given bond with (if such bond be required by the court or judge), as provided said section. (Code 1887, § 3025.)

evisors' note.—The words, "unless otherwise provided," appear-line two of the text are new. See revisors' note to section 5842.
nsertion is for the same reason.

ee sections 5890, 5928, 6052.

or an information in the nature of quo warranto, see Com. v. Bush
Ry. Co., 116 Va. 48, 81 S. E. 66.

or W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations,
r 109, section 9.

. 5845. How writ or summons directed and served.—Every writ or summons may be directed to the sheriff of any county sergeant of any city, and shall be served as a notice is served sections six thousand and forty-one and six thousand and for-ee; unless it be against a corporation, in which case it shall ved as provided in sections six thousand and sixty-three and ousand and sixty-four. (Code 1887, § 3026.)

. 5846. Trial of writ or information; how defense made; what taken as true; when case reheard.—If the defendant named in writ or information fail to appear after the service of the or summons, the court may hear proof of the allegations of tition or information, and, if the allegations be sustained, shall udgment accordingly. But if the service be made by publica-the defendant against whom the judgment is rendered, may, at ext term of the court, on petition filed for the purpose and giving bond with good security, in a penalty to be prescribed e court, with condition to pay all such costs as shall be award-the cause against such defendant, have the said judgment set and make such defense to the petition or information as such dant might have made, and in the same manner, before the nent was rendered. If the defendant appear before the end term next after the service of the writ or summons, or there-before judgment is rendered against such defendant, such dent may demur or plead "not guilty," or both, to such writ, or r or answer in writing, or both, to such information; and every tion contained in the information which is not denied by the er shall be taken as true, and no proof thereof shall be required.
1887, § 3027.)

. 5847. Verdict; judgment; costs; attorney's fee.—If the dent appear, and on the trial of the writ or information, be guilty, or not guilty, of any of the charges therein, the ver-

Digitized by Google

dict shall be "guilty," or "not guilty," as the case may b the defendant be found guilty as to a part only of such the verdict shall be "guilty" as to such part, and shall par specify the same, and, as to the residue of said charges, the shall be "not guilty." Against the defendant so found g court shall give such judgment as is appropriate and autho law, and for the costs incurred in the prosecution of the information, including an attorney's fee, of not less than more than fifty dollars, to be fixed by the court. (Code 3028.)

Judgment on writ of quo warranto or on information i thereof is final as to all parties. Shumate v. Fauquier Count 84 Va. 574, 5 S. E. 570; Howison v. Weedon, 77 Va. 704.

CHAPTER 241.

Writ of Habeas Corpus.

Sec.
5848. When and by whom the writ granted.
5849. How directed and returnable.
5850. Bond may be required of petitioner.
5851. How writ served.
5852. Penalty for disobeying it.
5853. Judgment of court or judge trying it.
5854. When affidavits may be read.
5855. Facts proved may be made part of record.
5856. Judge to have same power as court, and his ... same effect.
5857. Judgment, conclusiv
5858. How and when Cou... peals summoned t... peal therefrom.
5859. When prisoner rema... ecution of judgme... be suspended; whe... er admitted to bail 5860. Writ de homine abo
5861. When and by whom ... habeas corpus ad t... dum granted.

Sec. 5848. When and by whom the writ granted.—The habeas corpus ad subjiciendum shall be granted forthwith circuit court or corporation court, or any judge of either tion, to any person who shall apply for the same by petition, by affidavits or other evidence probable cause to believe th detained without lawful authority. (Code 1887, § 3029; 190 576.)

Petition for writ of habeas corpus to obtain possession of may be in name of infant by next friend or in name of person possession. Where it is mother of child who is claiming po and she is married, it may be in name of herself and husband strong v. Stone, 9 Grat. 102.

Where the proceedings, either civil or criminal, under party is detained in custody, are void, as where the court has diction, or where statute under which proceedings are inaugu unconstitutional, habeas corpus will lie to discharge party. Marx, 86 Va. 40, 9 S. E. 475; Ex parte Rollins, 80 Va. 314; Meredith, 33 Grat. 129, 36 Am. Rep. 771.

When prisoner has been taken to penitentiary before re nt against him, habeas corpus lies to bring him before court of in order that he may be discharged. Leftwich's Case, 20 Grat. nes' Case, Id. 848.

Digitized by Google

ice of writ of habeas corpus is not to determine guilt or inno- f prisoner, but the legality of imprisonment. Lacey v. Palmer, 153, 24 S. E. 930, 31 L. R. A. 822, 57 Am. St. 795.

nen a person entitled to but not having custody of child is claim- recover it, the court will consult interest of child. Caffee v. 82 Va. 567; Myers v. Myers, 83 Va. 806, 6 S. E. 630.

scussed, 8 Va. Law J. 311.

r monographic note on Habeas Corpus, see Ex parte Pool, 2 Va. 6.

r article upon "Habeas Corpus Jurisdiction of State and Federal " see 20 Va. L. Reg. 241.

e, also, 14 Va. L. Reg. 596.

r W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 111, section 1.

e Gregory's Forms Nos. 254, 255, 256, 385, 386, 387, 388, 453.

5849. How directed and returnable.—The writ shall be di- to the person in whose custody the petitioner is detained, and eturnable as soon as may be before the court or judge order- e same, or any other of the said courts or judges. (Code 1887, .)

e Gregory's Forms Nos. 453, 513.

5850. Bond may be required of petitioner.—The court or granting the writ may previously require bond, with surety, in onable penalty, payable to the person to whom the writ is d, with condition that the petitioner will not escape by the nd for the payment of such costs and charges as may be award- ainst him. It shall be filed with the other proceedings on it, and may be sued on for the benefit of any person injured breach of its condition. (Code 1887, § 3031.)

5851. How writ served.—The writ shall be served on the to whom it is directed, or, in his absence from the place the petitioner is confined, on the person having the imme- custody of him. (Code 1887, § 3032.)

e Gregory's Forms No. 513.

5852. Penalty for disobeying it.—If any person on whom writ is served shall, in disobedience to such writ, fail to the body of the petitioner, with a return of the cause of tention, before a court or judge before whom the writ is re- le, for three days after such service, he shall forfeit to the ner three hundred dollars. (Code 1887, § 3033.)

evisors' Note.—The portion of this section as it stood before the n dealing with a distance of more than twenty miles has been l in view of modern facilities for travel.

5853. Judgment of court or judge trying it.—The court or before whom the petitioner is brought after hearing the mat- th upon the return and any other evidence, shall either dis- e or remand him, or admit him to bail, as may be proper, djudge the cost of the proceeding, including the charge for transporting the prisoner, to be paid as shall seem to be right 1887, § 3034; 1895-6, p. 350.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The words "or admit him to bail" appearing four of the text are new.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 111, section 6.

See Gregory's Forms No. 331.

Sec. 5854. When affidavits may be read.—In the discre the court or judge, the affidavits of witnesses taken by either on reasonable notice to the other, may be read as evidence 1887, § 3035.)

This section refers only to the illegality and not the irregu the prisoner's detention, and does not authorize a review of ficiency. Ex parte Marx, 86 Va. 40, 9 S. E. 475.

Sec. 5855. Facts proved may be made part of record.— material facts proved shall, when it is required by either pa made a part of the proceedings, which, when they are had i tion, shall be signed by the judge and certified to the clerk circuit court of the county, or the circuit or corporation c the corporation, in which the judgment is rendered, and be by him among the records of the court. (Code 1887, § 3036 3-4, p. 576.)

Sec. 5856. Judge to have same power as court, and his ju same effect.—The judge issuing any such writ in vacation, judge before whom it is tried, shall have the same power force obedience to the writ, to compel the attendance of wi or to punish contempts of his authority, as a court has; judgment on the trial of the writ, when entered of record a said, shall be considered and be enforced as if it were a ju of the court, among whose records it is entered. (Code 3037.)

Sec. 5857. Judgment, conclusive.—Any such judgment of record shall be conclusive, unless the same be reversed, that the petitioner shall not be precluded from bringing th matter in question in an action for false imprisonment. 1887, § 3038.)

Sec. 5858. How and when Court of Appeals summoned appeal therefrom.—If, during the recess of the Supreme C Appeals, the Governor or the president of the court shoul the immediate revision of any such judgment to be proper, summon the court for that purpose, to meet on any day to by him. (Code 1887, § 3039.)

Sec. 5859. When prisoner remanded, execution of judgm to be suspended; when prisoner admitted to bail.—When t oner is remanded, the execution of the judgment shall not pended by a writ of error, or for the purpose of applying f writ; but where he is ordered to be discharged, and the ex of the judgment is suspended for the purpose of applyin

Digitized by Google

of error, the court or judge making such suspending order, in its or his discretion, admit the prisoner to bail until the ration of the time allowed for applying for the writ of error, n case the writ of error be allowed, until the decision of the eme Court of Appeals thereon is duly certified. (Code 1887, 0.)

Where county court delivers persons convicted of murder to jailor chmond City for safe keeping until time for execution, fact that ircuit court of that city has granted prisoners a writ of habeas s will justify keeper in refusing to deliver them upon order of committing them. Cardozo v. Epps, 2 Va. Dec. 133, 23 S. E. 296.
For an article on "Supersedeas in Habeas Corpus Proceedings," see a. L. Reg. 81.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 111, section 12.

c. 5860. Writ de homine abolished.—The writ de homine giando is abolished. (Code 1887, § 3041.)

c. 5861. When and by whom writs of habeas corpus ad testificandum granted.—Writs of habeas corpus ad testificandum may ranted by any circuit or corporation court, or any judge thereof vacation, in the same manner and under the same conditions provisions as are prescribed by this chapter, as to granting writ of habeas corpus ad subjiciendum, so far as the same applicable. (Code 1887, § 3042.)
See Gregory's Forms Nos. 255, 256, 388, 454, 514.

Digitized by Google

TITLE 59.

Courts and Juries in Civil Cases, and Justices of the Peace and Jurisdiction.

Ch. 242. Supreme Court of Appeals and reports of its decis
243. Circuit courts.
244. Corporation courts.
245. Courts of the city of Richmond.
246. Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Norfol
247. Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Roano
248. General provisions relating to courts.
249. Juries in civil cases.
250. Justices of the peace and their jurisdiction, an rants for small claims.

CHAPTER 242.

Supreme Court of Appeals and Reports of Its Decisions.

Sec.
5862. How court constituted; president; quorum; one judge to reside at seat of government.
5863. When president absent, who presides.
5864. Jurisdiction of writs of mandamus and prohibition.
5865. Also, of cases of habeas corpus, appeals, writs of error, and supersedeas.
5866. Times and places of session.
5867. Business to be done at Richmond.
5868. At Wytheville.
5869. At Staunton.
5870. How appoint and take bonds of its clerks; where exercise its criminal jurisdiction.
5871. Transfer of cases from one place to another; orders and decrees, where made; how certified.
5872. Prohibition and mandamus; where issued and tried.
5873. Special Court of Appeals; when and how formed; where held; and how judges

Sec. appointed to fill va
under section eight of the Constitution.
5874. Its clerk.
5875. Its decisions, how c and executed.
5876. Pay of judges.
5877. Tipstaff and crier; the ties and pay.
5878. Law library; how cont
and used; librarian.
5879. Reporter of Court of peals; his appointment salary.
5880. His duti
5881. Correction
5882. Court may c
5883. Clerks to deli him.
5884. Special sessions o 5885. May be also held quested by Gove deemed proper by i dent.
5886. What may be tried cial session; effect cisions.

Digitized by Google

5862. How court constituted; president; quorum; one judge de at seat of government.—The Supreme Court of Appeals onsist of five judges, any three of whom may hold a court. id judges shall appoint one of their number president of the and also select by lot or otherwise one of their number, who eside at the seat of government. (Code 1887, § 3084.)

hen suit may be brought to correct an error of the Court of Ap- Byrne and wife v. Edmonds, 23 Grat. 200.

5863. When president absent, who presides.—In the absence president, the eldest judge in commission present shall be esiding judge; but if no one of the judges present be older mission than the rest, then the judges present shall appoint ne of their number to preside. (Code 1887, § 3085.)

5864. Jurisdiction of writs of mandamus and prohibition.— id Supreme Court of Appeals, besides having jurisdiction of h matters as are now pending therein, shall have jurisdic- issue writs of mandamus and prohibition to the circuit and ourts, and to the State Corporation Commission, and in all cases where such writs, respectively, would lie according to inciples of the common law: provided, that no writ of man- , prohibition, or any other summary process whatever, shall in any case of the collection of revenue, or attempt to col- ne same, or to compel the collecting officers to receive any- in payment of taxes except gold or silver coin, United States ry notes, or national bank notes, or in any case arising out of llection of revenue in which the applicant for the writ of s has any other remedy adequate for the protection and ement of his individual right, claim, and demand, if just. 1887, § 3086; 1902-3-4, p. 641.)

rovisions of article 6, section 2, Constitution 1869, were not self- ing, but gave General Assembly power to carry them into effect. of Appeals had no jurisdiction to award writ of prohibition to court. Gresham v. Ewell, 84 Va. 784, 6 S. E. 134; Board of isors of Culpeper Co. v. Gorrell, 20 Grat. 484. See Const. 1902, 1 88.

ourt of Appeals has jurisdiction of mandamus to compel clerk of n to allow party interested to inspect pollbooks and to make notes rom, under provision enabling it to issue mandamus in all cases ch it may be necessary to prevent a failure of justice. Keller v. 96 Va. 669, 32 S. E. 454.

his section was intended to define the remedy of mandamus as it at common law, and the fact that the section gives similar au- to circuit courts does not restrict the jurisdiction of Court of ls to award the writ in cases in which it may be necessary to pre- failure of justice. Clay v. Ballard, 87 Va. 787, 13 S. E. 262.

he jurisdiction conferred upon the Court of Appeals by section et seq. in mandamus cases is no more left to the discretion of the than is the exercise of its jurisdiction generally. Clay v. Ballard, . 787, 13 S. E. 262; Ex parte Meredith, 33 Grat. 119, 36 Am. 771.

nder sections 3454-5 of the Code of 1887, Court of Appeals had iction in mandamus cases, though less than $500 be involved. Price ith, 93 Va. 14, 24 S. E. 474, note 2 Va. Law Reg. 352.

Digitized by Google

See 1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 22, 1216, 1230; 4 Min. (383, 395; Const. section 88.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 113, section 4.

Sec. 5865. Also, of cases of habeas corpus, appeals, writ ror, and supersedeas.—The said court shall also have juri to award writs of habeas corpus, and of such appeals, writ ror, and supersedeas, as may be legally docketed in or tra to the said court. (Code 1887, § 3087.)

4 Min. (3d Ed.) 396; 1 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed). 39, 124

Sec. 5866. Times and places of session.—The said cou hold a session annually, at Wytheville, in the county of and at Staunton, in the county of Augusta, to commence time as the court may, from time to time, direct, and to c at least sixty days, if the business be not sooner dispatch another in the city of Richmond, to commence at such ti to be divided into such terms, as the court has directed, from time to time direct, and to continue at least one hund sixty days, unless the business be sooner dispatched. (Co § 3088.)

Sec. 5867. Business to be done at Richmond.—The said c its session in Richmond, shall hear and determine all appeal of error, or supersedeas pending therein, or which may be to the court from or to decrees, judgments, sentences, or o any courts held on the eastern side of the Blue Ridge, exc counties of Albemarle, Amherst, Nelson, and Bedford. (Co § 3089; 1899-00, p. 1239.)

Sec. 5868. At Wytheville.—The court, at its session at ville, in the county of Wythe, shall hear and determine all writs of error, or supersedeas which may be brought court, from or to decrees, judgments, sentences, or orders of from the following counties: Roanoke, Montgomery, Floy roll, Pulaski, Giles, Bland, Wythe, Grayson, Smyth, Tazewell ington, Russell, Buchanan, Wise, Dickinson, Scott, Lee, and B and the cities of Bristol, Radford and Roanoke. (Code 1887, 1887-8, p. 17; 1899-00, p. 1239; 1902-3-4, p. 233.)

Revisors' Note.—The last words "and the cities of Bristol, and Roanoke" are new. A portion of this section which had se purpose has been omitted.

Sec. 5869. At Staunton.—The court at its session at Staun the county of Augusta, shall hear and determine all appeal of error, or supersedeas which may be brought to the court to decrees, judgments, sentences, or orders of courts from the of the counties west of the Blue Ridge and from the cities of Vista, Charlottesville, Clifton Forge, Staunton and Winches also from the counties of Albemarle, Amherst, and Nelson. 1887, § 3091; 1887-8, p. 17.)

Digitized by Google

evisors' Note.—The words "Buena Vista, Charlottesville, Clifton " are new.

. 5870. How appoint and take bonds of its clerks; where ex- its criminal jurisdiction.—The court, at one place of session, if it see fit, appoint and take bond from the clerks of the court other places, and the appellate jurisdiction of said court in riminal case, may be exercised at any place of session, no r where the court may have been held which rendered the ient in such case. (Code 1887, § 3092.)

. 5871. Transfer of cases from one place to another; orders decrees, where made; how certified.—By consent of parties, eir counsel, or for reasons appearing to the court, any cause ng in said court at one place of session may be transferred other place of session, there to be heard and determined. court at any place of session may enter any order or decree in se docketed at any other place of session which it could enter session at that place. When any such order or decree is made ourt shall have the same certified by the clerk at the place it is then sitting to the clerk at the place where the cause keted, to be by him entered in the proper order book of the . All orders and decrees so made and entered shall have the force and effect as if made and entered in term. (Code 1887, 3; 1902-3-4, p. 641.)

Under this section Court of Appeals has right when sitting at one places of session to transfer to such place of session any case pend- one of its other places of session. Lillienfeld's Case, 92 Va. 818, E. 882. May also no doubt transfer application for mandamus is regularly on the docket. Hotchkiss v. Grattan, 90 Va 642, E. 165. See next section.

. 5872. Prohibition and mandamus; where issued and tried.— of prohibition or mandamus from the Supreme Court of Ap- shall issue and be tried at any place of session of the said . (Code 1887, § 3094; 1895-6, p. 143.)

Reversing Hotchkiss v. Grattan, 90 Va. 642, 19 S. E. 165.

. 5873. Special Court of Appeals; when and how formed; e held; and how judges appointed to fill vacancies under sec- eighty-eight of the Constitution.—If at any time there shall be e docket of the Supreme Court of Appeals a case in which a rity of the judges of the said court are so situated as to make proper for them to sit on the hearing thereof, or if the court d be so situated in the re-hearing of a case involving a con- tional question, according to the provisions of section eighty- of the Constitution, that a full court cannot be secured, on nt of any one or more of the judges being unable, unwilling, squalified to sit, the fact shall be entered of record. The said may thereupon have summoned from among the judges of ircuit courts, or judges of the city courts of record of cities of irst class, as many as, with the judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals not so situated, will make the number five, wh together form and hold a Special Court of Appeals to hear termine any case in which a majority of the judges of the S Court of Appeals shall be so situated as to make it impro them to sit, or to hear any case involving a constitutional q under section eighty-eight of the Constitution, in which more of the judges of the said court shall be so disqualifie upon which said question a majority of the court shall not

Digitized by Google

The said special court shall be held at Richmond, Wythev Staunton, as the case may be. (Code 1887, § 3095; 1902 641.)

This subject is dealt with in section 89, Const. 1902.

Sec. 5874. Its clerk.—The clerk of the Supreme Court peals, at the place at which a Special Court of Appeals i shall, in person or by deputy, attend such special court, w records and papers in the case which it is to hear and dete and act as its clerk. (Code 1887, § 3096.)

Sec. 5875. Its decisions, how certified and executed.—Th sions of such special court shall be certified and carried into tion as if made by the Supreme Court of Appeals. (Code § 3097.)

Sec. 5876. Pay of judges.—Each circuit judge, sitting o special court, shall have ten dollars a day for every day's ance on such court, and in addition thereto, his actual exp payable out of the treasury. (Code 1887, § 3098.)

Revisors' Note.—The provision allowing actual expenses i

Sec. 5877. Tipstaff and crier; their duties and pay.—Th preme Court of Appeals, at each place of session, and such court, may appoint a tipstaff and a crier, who shall perform duties as the court may require, and shall receive out of the ury such reasonable compensation as the court may allow, a removable at its pleasure. (Code 1887, § 3099.)

Sec. 5878. Law library; how controlled and used; librar
The law books belonging to the State Library, or such of th the Supreme Court of Appeals may at any time direct, shall up in the court room or conference room, and, together wit books already in such room, shall form a library for the the court, and under its control, and shall be subject to such ileges to other persons as may be allowed by law, or by the established by the court. The court shall appoint one of its o to perform the duties of librarian. (Code 1887, § 3100.)

See, also, section 368 et seq.

Sec. 5879. Reporter of Court of Appeals; his appointmen salary.—The Supreme Court of Appeals shall have authori contract with some suitable person to report such of the dec of said court as the judges thereof shall direct, at a rate of

Digitized by Google

ation not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars a year, payable in thly instalments. (Code 1887, § 3101.)

c. 5880. His duties.—The said reporter shall prepare and de- from time to time to such printer as the Superintendent of ic Printing may direct manuscript reports of such of the de- ns made by the Supreme Court of Appeals as the judges of court shall direct, with an abstract of the points decided in case and an index to the contents of the volume, a table of reported, a table of cases cited, and a table of Virginia statutes and construed in said volume. (Code 1887, § 3102; 1893-4, 0.)

c. 5881. Correction of proof-sheets.—He shall examine and ct the proof-sheets thereof as they shall be furnished him by printer. (Code 1887, § 3103.)

c. 5882. Court may change reporter.—The said court may at ime put an end to the said contract, and contract with another n for performing the service, upon the same terms. (Code § 3104.)

c. 5883. Clerks to deliver opinions to him.—In those cases the reporter is directed to report, copies of the reasons, stated riting, under section ninety of the Constitution, shall be de- d by the clerks of the court to the reporter. (Code 1887, 5.)

c. 5884. Special sessions of the court.—The Supreme Court of als, by an order entered of record, may direct a special ses- o be held at either of the places designated by law for holding ular session, and at such time as it may deem proper. (Code § 3106.)

. 5885. May be also held when requested by Governor, or ed proper by its president.—A special session may also be held, her of the places referred to in the preceding section, by order e president in vacation, on the written request of the Gov- to him, or whenever in the president's opinion it is proper. ime and place of holding the special session shall be desig- in the order, which shall be directed to the clerk at such who shall enter the same in his record book and give notice of to each judge of the court, except the president. (Code § 3107.)

. 5886. What may be tried at special session; effect of de- s.—At any such special session, the court, by consent of par- r their counsel, may hear and determine any cause then ready hearing, or, without such consent, upon twenty days' previ- otice in writing, given by a party desiring a hearing to the se party, of his intention to insist on the same. The court, h special session, shall, after notice to the parties or their coun- om the clerk of the court, hear any cause pending at either

Digitized by Google

place of session which, in its opinion, the public interests r to be heard and determined. Any judgment, decree, or ord tered or made at such special session shall have the same effe may be reviewed and reheard in like manner and subject same rules as a judgment, decree, or order entered or mad regular session. (Code 1887, § 3108.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "after notice to the parties o counsel from the clerk of the court," appearing in the second se are new.

CHAPTER 243.

Circuit Courts.

Sec.
5887. Circuit courts established for counties and cities.
5888. Judicial circuits.
5889. Vacancies in office of judge; new circuits; how judges elected; duration and commencement of term of office.
5890. Jurisdiction of circuit courts.
5891. Vesting in circuit courts and judges the jurisdiction formerly vested in the county courts or judges under the laws or under any will or other instrument.
5892. Civil and criminal cases; removal from county courts to circuit courts; proceedings to be had.
5893. The commencement and number of their terms.
5894. Special terms; when, how and by whom appointed.
5895. Adjournment thereof to a future day.
5896. What tried at a special term; who may hold it.
5897. Where judges to resi 5898. Power of judges t courts other than the and their pay.
5899. Judges pro tempore.
5900. Their appointmen powers.
5901. Compensation.
5902. When term of a cou to end on death of its 5903. Authorizing the coun cities of the first cla ing over forty thousa ulation and a separat for the circuit court t an annual allowan such clerk, payable the treasury of said 5904. Territorial jurisdictio Circuit Court for the Lynchburg; validati judgment, order, or heretofore made b court within the j tion.

Sec. 5887. Circuit courts established for counties and ci For the city of Williamsburg and the county of James City, fo part of the county of Henrico which is without the corporate of the city of Richmond, and for every other county, and fo of the cities of Alexandria, Danville, Lynchburg, Newport Norfolk, Petersburg, Portsmouth, Richmond, Roanoke, Sta Charlottesville, and Hopewell; and the cities of Clifton Forge risonburg, Hampton and Suffolk, there shall be a circuit

Digitized by Google

h shall be called the circuit court of such county or city, or city and county, as the case may be. (Code 1887, § 3056; -6, p. 499; 1902-3-4, p. 764.)

Revisors' Note.—The cities of Staunton, Charlottesville and Hope- and the cities of Clifton Forge, Harrisonburg, Hampton and Suffolk ar in this section for the first time. As to Hopewell, see Acts 1916, ; as to Clifton Forge and Suffolk, see Acts 1914, p. 544. To this t the section does not affect the law. But as to Staunton, Charlottes- Harrisonburg and Hampton, it creates new circuit courts for those .

For monographic note on Courts, see Cropper v. Com., 2 Rob. 842, Rep. Anno.

c. 5888. Judicial circuits.—The State shall be divided into y-one judicial circuits as follows:

The county of Norfolk shall constitute the first circuit.

The counties of Nansemond, Southampton, city of Suffolk and ity of Norfolk shall constitute the second circuit.

The counties of Prince George, Surry, Sussex, Greensville and swick and the city of Hopewell shall constitute the third cir-

The counties of Chesterfield, Dinwiddie, Nottoway, Amelia, hatan and the city of Petersburg shall constitute the fourth it.

The counties of Prince Edward, Cumberland, Appomattox, lotte and Buckingham shall constitute the fifth circuit.

The counties of Lunenburg, Mecklenburg, Halifax, Campbell, the city of Lynchburg shall constitute the sixth circuit.

The counties of Pittsylvania, Henry, Patrick, and the city of ville shall constitute the seventh circuit.

The counties of Madison, Greene and Albemarle, and the city harlottesville shall constitute the eighth circuit.

The counties of Culpeper, Orange, Louisa and Goochland shall itute the ninth circuit.

The county of Henrico and the city of Richmond shall con- te the tenth circuit.

The county of Elizabeth City and the cities of Newport News Hampton shall constitute the eleventh circuit.

The counties of Richmond, Northumberland, Westmoreland, aster and Essex shall constitute the twelfth circuit.

The counties of Gloucester, Mathews, King and Queen, King iam and Middlesex shall constitute the thirteenth circuit.

The counties of New Kent, Charles City, York, Warwick, es City, and the city of Williamsburg shall constitute the four- th circuit.

The counties of King George, Stafford, Spotsylvania, Caro- and Hanover shall constitute the fifteenth circuit.

The counties of Prince William, Fairfax and Alexandria, the city of Alexandria shall constitute the sixteenth circuit.

Digitized by Google

17. The counties of Frederick, Clarke, Warren and Shenan shall constitute the seventeenth circuit.

18. The counties of Augusta, Highland and Rockbridge, an city of Staunton shall constitute the eighteenth circuit.

19. The counties of Bath, Alleghany, Craig and Botetourt, the city of Clifton Forge shall constitute the nineteenth circu

20. The counties of Roanoke, Montgomery, Floyd, and the of Roanoke shall constitute the twentieth circuit.

21. The counties of Pulaski, Carroll, Wythe and Grayson constitute the twenty-first circuit.

22. The counties of Bland, Tazewell and Giles shall const the twenty-second circuit.

23. The counties of Washington, Smyth and Scott shall const the twenty-third circuit.

24. The counties of Lee and Wise shall constitute the tw fourth circuit.

25. The counties of Rockingham and Page, and the city of H sonburg shall constitute the twenty-fifth circuit.

26. The counties of Rappahannock, Fauquier and Loudoun constitute the twenty-sixth circuit.

27. The counties of Buchanan, Russell and Dickenson shall stitute the twenty-seventh circuit.

28. The counties of Isle of Wight and Princess Anne an city of Portsmouth shall constitute the twenty-eighth circuit.

29. The counties of Amherst, Nelson and Fluvanna shall stitute the twenty-ninth circuit.

30. The counties of Bedford and Franklin shall constitut thirtieth circuit.

31. The counties of Accomac and Northampton shall const the thirty-first circuit. (Code 1887, § 3057; 1891-2, pp. 578, 1895-6, p. 499; 1902-3-4, p. 764; 1906, p. 191; 1908, pp. 144. 1910, p. 152; 1912, p. 146; 1914, p. 544.)

Revisors' Note.—Hopewell has been inserted in the third ci However, Acts 1916, p. 89, provides for a Circuit Court of Hope hence the insertion of this city does not affect the existing law. present section enumerates the cities of Charlottesville, Hampton, S ton and Harrisonburg as parts of the Eighth, Eleventh, Eighteenth Twenty-fifth circuits, respectively. See revisors' note to the prec section.

Sec. 5889. Vacancies in office of judge; new circuits; how ju elected; duration and commencement of term of office.—Whe a vacancy occurs in the office of judge his successor shall be el for the unexpired term, and, upon qualification, shall enter at upon the discharge of the duties of his office. If a new or tional circuit be created, a judge shall be chosen therefor by joint vote of the two houses of the General Assembly for a of eight years, commencing on the first day of February next lowing his election, and the Governor may either appoint a j

Digitized by Google

uch circuit for the time elapsing from the date of its creation ne commencement of such term, or designate one or more cirudges or judges of city courts of the first class to act as judge several counties and cities composing such new circuit for the aforesaid. (1906, p. 189.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is based on the act cited. The act led that the judge should be elected by the General Assembly at ame session at which the new circuit was created. This being a r wholly in the discretion of the General Assembly may be changed l, and as it might not always be convenient, this provision has been ed. It will be observed that the revised section provides that the nor may either appoint a judge for the interval between the date of eation of the new circuit and the commencement of the term of the rly elected judge, or designate one or more circuit or city judges during this interval. Under the act the Governor was restricted appointment to fill the vacancy.

. 5890. Jurisdiction of circuit courts.—The circuit courts shall jurisdiction of proceedings by quo warranto, or information nature of quo warranto, and to issue writs of mandamus, pro- on and certiorari, to all inferior tribunals created or existing the laws of this State, and to issue writs of mandamus in atters or proceedings arising from or pertaining to the ac- of the board of supervisors of the several counties for which courts are respectively held, or other cases in which it may cessary to prevent the failure of justice, and in which man- s may issue according to the principles of common law. They have jurisdiction of all cases, both civil and criminal, which existing or pending in the respective county courts for the ies on the thirty-first day of January, nineteen hundred and and shall have appellate jurisdiction in all cases, civil and nal, where an appeal may, as provided by law, be taken from dgment or proceedings of any inferior tribunal.

y shall have original and general jurisdiction of all cases in ery and civil cases at law, except cases at law to recover per- property, or money, not of greater value than twenty dollars. sive of interest, and except such cases as are assigned to some tribunal; and also in all cases for the recovery of fees, in of twenty dollars, penalties, or any cases involving the right y and collect tolls or taxes, or involving the validity of an ance or by-law of any corporation; and also of all cases, civil minal, where an appeal may be had to the Supreme Court of ls. They shall also have original jurisdiction of all in- ents for felonies, and of presentments, informations, and in- ents for misdemeanors.

y shall have appellate jurisdiction of all cases, civil and crim- where an appeal, writ of error or supersedeas may, as pro- by law, be taken to or allowed by the said courts, or the s thereof, from or to the judgment or proceedings of any

Digitized by Google

inferior tribunal. They shall also have jurisdiction of al matters, civil and criminal, made cognizable therein by la where a motion to recover money is allowed in said tribunal than under section six thousand and forty-six, they ma and determine the same, although it be to recover less than dollars; but no circuit court shall have any original or ap jurisdiction in criminal cases arising within the territorial li any city wherein there is established by law a corporation c ings court. (Code 1887, § 3058; 1902-3-4, p. 765.)

Revisors' Note.—The act of 1912 (Acts 1912, p. 76,) fron this section is taken defined the jurisdiction of circuit and cor courts. The revised section omits corporation courts. See sectio

The second paragraph of the revised section restricts the juri in cases involving the recovery of fees to those in excess of twenty

The last sentence of the second paragraph of the revised confers original jurisdiction in all misdemeanor cases. See in t nection section 4987 and revisors' note.

The third and fourth paragraphs of the act of 1912 perta jurisdiction to remove clouds on title have been omitted from tion. This subject is provided for by section 6248.

See Gresham v. Ewell, 85 Va. 1, 6 S. E. 700; Barton, L. Pr. (1214; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 384.

For article upon "Certiorari as a Remedial Writ," see 13 Reg. 839.

Sec. 5891. Vesting in circuit courts and judges the juri formerly vested in the county courts or judges under the law der any will or other instrument.—The jurisdiction and which were vested in the county courts and the judges and thereof, respectively, on the thirty-first day of January, n hundred and four, by the laws of this State, or under any other instrument of writing, shall be vested in, exercised imposed upon the circuit courts and the judges and officers except when otherwise specially provided.

All such acts and proceedings of the circuit courts, judg officers thereof, respectively, whether de jure or de facto done or had since January thirty-first, nineteen hundred a as may hereafter be done under this section, are hereby rati made valid. (1902-3-4, p. 626; 1904, p. 13.)

Under the provisions of the schedule of the present Con and of this section the Circuit Courts succeeded to all the po County Courts had under section 95 of the act of December 1 Chadduck v. Burke, 103 Va. 700, 49 S. E. 976.

When motion was made in county court for judgment on forthcoming bonds taken on distress warrants issued for rent by the tenant could rely upon set-offs to the extent to which it wa sary to make complete defence, regardless of the amount of such Hancock v. Whitehall Tobacco Warehouse Co., 100 Va. 443, 860, 8 Va. Law Reg. 265.

A court may rightfully obtain jurisdiction, and yet its deci be void because in the progress of the cause it has exceeded its tion. Seamster v. Blackstock, 83 Va. 232, 2 S. E. 36, 5 Am. R

Sunday was not to be counted as one of the days of the ter court. Read v. Com., 22 Grat. 924.

Digitized by Google

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 262; Burks' Pl. & Pr. p. 47; Nicholas' Case, Va. 741, 21 S. E. 364.

ec. 5892. Civil and criminal cases; removal from county courts ircuit courts; proceedings to be had.—All actions at law, and presentments, informations and indictments heretofore removed the circuit courts from the former county courts of this Com- wealth and remaining undetermined, shall stand in all respects hey stood in such county courts and like proceedings shall be and process issued as if they had been originally commenced he circuit courts. (1902-3-4, p. 830.)

Revisors' Note.—Most of the act from which this section is taken served its purpose, hence omitted.

ec. 5893. The commencement and number of their terms.—Un- otherwise provided, there shall be held in each of the s of the Commonwealth two terms of the circuit court of such in each year, and in each of the counties there shall be held onthly terms of the circuit court of such county, four of which is in those counties in which more than four terms are provided, e designated by the judge thereof, shall be known as quarterly is, at which all civil cases for which juries may be required shall ried, unless the judge of any circuit shall enter of record that es shall be summoned to other than the quarterly terms for the l of civil cases. At any of the said terms all criminal and chan- causes shall be tried, but the judge of the court may, in any nty in which more than five terms are provided, by an order to ntered on the common law order book of said court, omit one of terms thereof during each year, unless the public business shall ire that all of the said terms be held for the proper transaction usiness. The number of terms of said courts and the days for commencement of the same shall be as fixed by law at the time Code takes effect, but the judge of every such court may, from to time, change the day for the commencement of the terms eof, or any of them. The clerks of such courts within thirty after such change, shall send a copy of the order making it to clerk of the House of Delegates, and, for failure so to do, shall eit fifty dollars.

ny term of a circuit court for any of the counties or cities of circuit may be continued by the judge thereof by adjournment l after the beginning of the term of the court for any other nty or city of such circuit. And when such adjournment is until r the beginning of a term of the court for another county, the ge of said court shall have the same power during said recess erform any duty and to transact any business which is author- by law to be done by judges of the circuit courts in vacation; no term of the court shall be so continued beyond the day fixed aw for the beginning of the next regular term of the court for county or city of the circuit whose term is so extended. (Code 2601) 1887, § 3059; 1902-3-4, p. 766; 1904, p. 335; 1908, p. 501; 1910, p. 152; 1912, p. 146; 1914, p. 544.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The commencement and number of the regular terms of circuit courts has been a subject of frequent legislation in order to meet the changing conditions in the various circuits. This legislation has been for the purpose of changing the time for the commencement of the terms as well as for the purpose of changing the number of the terms. The revised section provides (see third sentence) that the number of terms and the days for their commencement shall be as fixed by law at the time this Code take effect, but it gives the judges power, in their discretion, to change the DAYS FOR THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE TERMS—not the number. This power given to judges of circuit courts conforms to the like power given to judges of corporation courts. Section 5909. In order that the public may be informed of the days for the commencement of the terms, the revised section provides that whenever a judge changes the days for the commencement of the terms of any court, the clerk of the court shall, within thirty days thereafter, send a copy of the order making the change to the Clerk of the House of Delegates. Under section 806 the latter officer is required to publish with the acts of assembly of each session a table showing the time for the commencement of the regular terms of all courts of record. For a table showing the number of terms of the circuit courts and the days for their commencement as fixed by law at the time this Code takes effect, see Acts 1918, p. 791.

Three acts were passed at the session of 1918 relating to as many circuits: Eighth circuit, Acts 1918, p. 277; Twenty-second circuit, 1918, chapter 7, p. 6; Twenty-fifth circuit, 1918, chapter 242, p. 424.

While a judge may, under the provisions of this section, continue the term of a court by adjournment until after the beginning of the term of the court for any other county of his circuit, he is expressly prohibited from continuing the term for a county or city beyond the day fixed by law for the beginning of the next regular term for that county or city. Va. Beach D. Co. v. Murray, 113 Va. 692, 75 S. E. 81.

Where an order of court made in 1904 provided for omitting the September term of a certain circuit court, and thereafter an Act of Assembly fixed the months for the holding of said court, and made September one of them, with liberty to the judge to omit one of them, the act of Assembly operated as a repeal of the order of 1904, and the judge could not, after September, enter a nunc pro tunc order omitting the September term for that year. Va. Beach D. Co. v. Murray, 113 Va. 692, 75 S. E. 81.

Cited but not construed, Gring v. Land Co., 110 Va. 754, 67 S. E. 360.

Sec. 5894. Special terms; when, how and by whom appointed.—If any term of a circuit court is to end, or has ended, without the dispatch of all its business, or if there be a failure to hold any term, or it is expedient in the opinion of the judge of such court to hold a special term for the trial of any cause pending in such court, or of issues made up in any cause by consent of parties, or if the situation of a person confined in jail for trial in such circuit court makes it proper that his case should be disposed of before the next regular term thereof, or necessity, in his opinion requires it, the judge of such circuit court, or, if he is dead, or is unable from any cause to hold his court, the judge of any other circuit court, or judge of a corporation or hustings court of a city of the first class, who has been designated by the Governor to hold such terms, may, by order

Digitized by Google

ered in such court, or by a warrant directed to the clerk, ap-nt a special term thereof and prescribe in such order or warrant ether any venire is to be summoned to attend the said term.
clerk shall inform the attorney for the Commonwealth and sheriff or sergeant of such appointment, post a copy of the rant or order at the front door of the courthouse, and issue all per process to such special term, and the sheriff or sergeant l execute the process. (Code 1887, § 3060; 1902-3-4, p. 772.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "or necessity in his opinion requires it," earing in line eight of the text are new. Cases of emergency, other those enumerated in the section, may arise.

The word "term" in some instances may include both regular and ial terms. But as a general rule, when a statute speaks of terms ourt, the regular terms as fixed by law are meant, and not the ial terms appointed by the courts or judges. Stultz v. Pratt, 103 538, 49 S. E. 654.

When the judge's warrant is duly posted, the presumption is that f the provisions of this section have been complied with. Harman penhaver, 89 Va. 836, 17 S. E. 482.

Failure of clerk to notify attorney for the Commonwealth and the iff or sergeant does not affect the validity of the proceedings. Id. See Patton v. Hoge, 22 Grat. 443; notes to section 5896.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 112, section 5.

ec. 5895. Adjournment thereof to a future day.—Whenever any ge of a circuit court shall have appointed a special term of any uit court, by adjournment or warrant in the manner directed he preceding section, and he shall afterward ascertain that he not hold the said special term on the day appointed for it, he , by warrant under his hand, directed to the clerk of the court, urn it to such other day as he may deem proper. Such war- shall be transmitted by the judge to the clerk, who shall im- iately enter the said warrant in the order book of the court, as to the said special term thereafter to be held under the said inuance, proceed in all other respects in the manner directed by section aforesaid. (Code 1887, § 3061.)

ec. 5896. What tried at a special term; who may hold it.—At such special term any civil case may be tried which could law- have been but was not tried at the last preceding term that or should have been held; and any motion for a judgment, or r motion cognizable by such court, may be heard and deter- ed, whether it was pending at the preceding term or not, and criminal case may be tried at such special term as if it were gular term, although at the preceding regular term the same not have been pending in said court or may have been con- ed; and any cause or matter of controversy, at law or in chan- , then ready for hearing or which may be made ready by con- of parties, may, with the consent of the parties to such cause ontroversy, be heard and determined, although it could not fully have been heard at the preceding term that was or should have been held. Every such special term may be held by the judge of the circuit court, or if he be dead or absent, or be so situated in respect to any cause pending in said court as in his opinion to make it improper for him to try it, by such other circuit or city judge as may be selected or designated in the manner prescribed by law. It shall be the duty of the judge so selected or designated to hold such special term, and it may be held part of its session by one judge and part of it by another, and such special terms may be adjourned from time to time during intervals between the regular terms as to the judge may seem necessary for the dispatch of the business of the court. A judge selected or designated to hold a special term shall have all the powers and be authorized to discharge all the duties of the judge of said circuit court. (Code 1887, § 3062; 1897-8, p. 371; 1901-2, p. 631; 1902-3-4, p. 772.)

Digitized by Google

Court cannot, without consent, hear demurrer to bill or dissolve injunction which could not have been heard at preceding term. Fowler v. Mosher, 85 Va. 421, 7 S. E. 542.

No error to confirm report of sale filed before preceding regular term. Harman v. Copenhaver, 89 Va. 836, 17 S. E. 482.

Court may hear any cause that lawfully could have been tried at preceding regular term. Patton v. Hoge, 22 Grat. 443.

A notice of motion upon a forfeited forthcoming bond given to a regular term, which is not held, may be heard at special term Wooten v. Bragg, 1 Grat. 1.

As a general rule, when a statute speaks of terms of court, the regular terms fixed by law are meant, and not the special terms appointed by the courts or judges. Stultz v. Pratt, 103 Va. 539, 49 S. E. 654.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 112, section 8.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, p. 182.

Sec. 5897. Where judges to reside.—Each circuit judge, during his continuance in office, shall reside in the circuit of which he is judge. (Code 1887, § 3064; Const. § 96.)

Sec. 5898. Power of judges to hold courts other than their own and their pay.—The judge of any circuit court, or of any city court of a city of the first class, may hold any other circuit or city court, in any county or city, at the request of the judge of said circuit or city court, and any judge of a court of a city of the second class may hold a court of any other city of the second class at the request of the judge of said court, and in case of the disqualification or the inability of the judge thereof to serve, and upon the request of the Governor, shall do so.

For any service rendered by any such judge, for another judge, under this section, where the judge for whom the service is rendered is prevented from sitting by sickness, during a part or the whole of a term, or be so situated in respect to any cause pending in said court as, in his opinion, to make it improper for him to try it, he shall receive mileage and ten dollars per day, for the time he is actually engaged in holding court; such mileage and compensation to be paid out of the treasury of the county or city in which said

Digitized by Google

t is held. (Code 1887, § 3049; 1893-4, p. 814; 1902-3-4, pp. 40, 534, 666, 945; 1904, p. 334; 1916, p. 833.)

Revisors' Note.—See Acts 1918, p. 576.

There is no statute prohibiting a judge from sitting in a case in a he is or has been counsel. Common law forbids his so doing, but acts his acts are not void, but are binding until reversed or annulled proper proceeding. Louisville v. Taylor, 93 Va. 227, 24 S. E. 1013, Law Reg. 376.

The record must show that the regular judge was, in his opinion, cuated as to make it improper for him to preside, else the judgment id. Gresham v. Ewell, 85 Va. 1, 6 S. E. 700.

This section is constitutional. Smith v. Com., 75 Va. 904.

The entry of record of the inability of the judge to sit is not an or decree in the case, and the failure of the transcript of the record n appeal to disclose such an entry is no evidence that the entry was nade. Smith v. White, 107 Va. 616, 59 S. E. 480.

The objection that a judge of a Circuit Court of a circuit adjoining in which the suit was brought, or that a city judge presiding at the ng of a cause, without being designated by the Governor as re- d by law, cannot be made for the first time in the appellate court. n v. White, 107 Va. 616, 59 S. E. 480.

A judge designated by the Governor to hold the court of another e, who has been rendered permanently unable to act, is clothed with function that pertained to the judge of the court, and is competent ss upon every case then remaining upon the docket, including a on to set aside a verdict upon the ground that it is contrary to the nce. Southall v. Evans, 114 Va. 461, 76 S. E. 929.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 266; Nicholas' Case, 91 Va. 741, 21 S. E. 364. Discussed, 15 Va. Law J. 429; Id. 161.

c. 5899. Judges pro tempore.—Any cause pending in a circuit ty court, where the judge of said court is disqualified, or un- for any reason, to try the same, may be tried by a judge pro ore, who shall be a citizen of this State and shall have qualified ractice law in the Supreme Court of Appeals of this State.

Revisors' Note.—This and the two following sections are sub- ially new, and in consequence of their enactment, section 3131 of Code of 1887, as amended by Acts 1902-3-4, p. 608, on the same ct, has been omitted and thereby repealed.

The "Id." reference at the end of this section should be stricken out

c. 5900. Their appointment and powers.—When all the parties ny cause pending in a circuit or city court, or their attorneys ecord, shall enter into a written stipulation, appointing a judge tempore for the trial of the cause, and the person appointed take and subscribe an oath to faithfully try and determine the s joined between the parties, it shall be the duty of the clerk ne court in which such action or suit is pending to attach to- er said stipulation and oath, and to place them on file, and also ecord them at length upon the minutes of the court; whereupon, person appointed shall be vested with the same power and au- ity, and shall be charged with the same duties as to the cause, nd as to which he is appointed, as though he were the regularly ed and qualified judge of said court; but the parties may, by terms of their stipulation, limit the power of the judge pro tempore to the trial and determination of any specified issue or issues, either of law or fact, and in such cases, the oath of the person appointed shall correspond to the terms of the stipulation.

Digitized by Google

The provisions of this and the preceding section shall be in addition to the provisions of section fifty-eight hundred and ninety-eight. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to section 5899.

The "Id." reference at the end of this section should be stricken out.

Sec. 5901. Compensation.—Judges pro tempore shall serve without compensation from any public treasury, but it shall be lawful for the parties to agree upon and express in their written stipulation, any mode or amount of compensation, together with any further agreement as to the taxing of the same as costs. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to section 5899.

The "Id." reference at the end of this section should be stricken out.

Sec. 5902. When term of a court not to end on death of its judge.—The death of a judge of any court during a term thereof being held by another, shall not put an end to the term, but it shall continue, notwithstanding such death, until ended in due course. (Code 1887, § 3127.)

Sec. 5903. Authorizing the councils of cities of the first class having over forty thousand population and a separate clerk for the circuit court to make an annual allowance for such clerk, payable out of the treasury of said city.—It shall be lawful for the council of any city of the first class, having over forty thousand population and a separate clerk for the circuit court, to allow to the clerk of said court such sums, not exceeding the sum of twelve hundred dollars per annum, payable out of the treasury of the city as may be approved by said council. (1904, p. 23; 1906, p. 225.)

Revisors' Note.—The act from which this section is taken permitted the judge of the circuit court in the case mentioned to make the allowance, payable out of the city treasury on approval by the city council.

Sec. 5904. Territorial jurisdiction of the Circuit Court for the city of Lynchburg; validating any judgment, order, or decree heretofore made by said court within the jurisdiction.—The territorial jurisdiction of the Circuit Court for the city of Lynchburg shall hereafter be the same with that of the corporation court for the said city, and shall extend to the corporate limits of the said city and to a space of one mile without and around the city limits, except that the same shall not extend further into the county of Amherst than the corporate limits. Any judgment, order, or decree of the said Circuit Court for the city of Lynchburg heretofore made in any case in which the said court would have had jurisdiction had this section then been in operation shall have the same effect as if it had been at that time in force. (1897-8, p. 223.)

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 244.

Corporation Courts.

Sec.
5. Corporation courts; cities first and second class.
6. Terms of judges, Bristol, Radford, and Buena Vista.
7. Statutes creating corporation courts and defining their powers continued in force.
8. Terms of city and corporation courts.
9. Terms of said court; judges may change.
5910. Jurisdiction of corporation courts.
5911. Concurrent jurisdiction of circuit courts with corporation courts of cities, which have undergone a transition since the present Constitution went into effect, from cities of the second class to cities of the first class.

ec. 5905. Corporation courts; cities first and second class.— the purpose of a judicial system, the following cities, which as wn by the United States census of nineteen hundred and ten, ther census provided by law, contain ten thousand inhabitants nore, to-wit: Alexandria, Danville, Lynchburg, Newport News, folk, Petersburg, Portsmouth, Richmond, Roanoke, Staunton, ewell and Charlottesville, are declared to be cities of the class; and all other cities in the State are declared to be cities he second class.

he corporation or hustings courts established and existing the before this Code takes effect in each of the above named cities he first class, are continued with the same name under which had been previously known, and shall be taken and deemed to he corporation courts required by the Constitution to be estabed in said cities.

he corporation courts established and existing the day before Code takes effect, in each of the following named cities of the nd class, to-wit: Fredericksburg, Winchester, Bristol, Radl, and Buena Vista, are continued under the name of the coration court of such city, and shall be so known and held until same shall be abolished by a vote of the people of such city, as vided in the Constitution. Each of such courts shall be held by dge with like qualification and elected in the same manner as ges of the Supreme Court of Appeals. (Code 1887, § 3050; 2-3-4, p. 667.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is based on Acts 1902-2-4, p. 667, nding section 3050 of the Code of 1887. Since that act was passed rlottesville and Staunton have become cities of the first class; the of Hopewell has been created as a city of the first class (Acts 1916, 9); and the former city of Manchester has been consolidated with city of Richmond. The revised section simply conforms to the law existed on the date the Code was enacted. Staunton was proclaimed ty of the first class March 28, 1906 (Report of Secretary of Commonwealth, 1906, p. 267,) and Charlottesville was so proclaimed August 1, 1916 (Report of Secretary of Commonwealth, 1916, p. 363). The last paragraph of the act pertaining to certain city courts other than corporation or hustings courts has been omitted because covered by other sections of this Code.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5906. Terms of judges, Bristol, Radford, and Buena Vista.—The terms of the judges of the corporation courts for the cities of Bristol, Radford, and Buena Vista, to be elected in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, shall be eight years, beginning February first, nineteen hundred and twenty, unless the said courts shall be sooner abolished. (1902-3-4, p. 313.)

Sec. 5907. Statutes creating corporation courts and defining their powers continued in force.—All statutes in force on the day before this Code takes effect creating corporation courts of any cities of this Commonwealth and defining or regulating their jurisdiction, or in any manner relating to them, so far as such statutes may not be inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Code, shall continue and have the same force and effect, as if the said statutes were herein expressly enacted. (Code 1887, § 3052; 1902-3-4, p. 666.).

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 3052 of the Code of 1887, with language more comprehensive. It is inserted out of abundant caution.

Sec. 5908. Terms of city and corporation courts.—For every corporation in which is established by law a corporation court, or other city court, there shall be held monthly terms of the said courts, unless otherwise expressly provided by law; but a judge of any such court may, in his discretion, omit the holding of the term for the month of July or the month of August in each year, as he may deem best. (Code 1887, § 3053; 1887-8, p. 17; 1902-3-4, p. 667.)

The term ends only with the commencement of the succeeding term, unless sooner closed by order. Moses v. Cromwell, 78 Va. 671. See Hill's Case, 2 Grat. 612.

Sec. 5909. Terms of said court; judges may change.—The term of all corporation or city courts shall commence on the days now fixed for the same; but the judge of every such court may, from time to time, change the day for the commencement of the terms thereof, or any of them. The clerk of such court, within thirty days after such change, shall send a copy of the order making it to the Clerk of the House of Delegates, and, for the failure to do so, shall forfeit fifty dollars.

The judge of such court may designate four or more terms of such court for the trial of civil cases in which juries are required, and thereafter, until otherwise ordered, all cases cognizable in such court in which juries are required, except criminal cases, and cases of forcible entry and unlawful detainer, which may be tried at any term, shall be tried only at such terms as are so designated: provided, however, that the said court shall at any term hear and determine any action or motion ex contractu where the defendant s not appear and demand a trial by jury. (Code 1887, § 3054; 7-8, p. 571; 1902-3-4, p. 667.)

Digitized by Google

Corporation courts have authority to continue a term from day to into the next succeeding month, and to change accordingly the day the commencement of the succeeding term. Cluverius' Case, 81 Va.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 32; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 265.

ec. 5910. Jurisdiction of corporation courts.—The several cor- ation courts shall, within the territorial limits of the cities for ich they are established, have the same jurisdiction which the uit courts have in the counties, for which they are established, l for the appointment of electoral boards, as provided by sec- n thirty-one of the Constitution, and concurrently with the cir- t courts they shall also have jurisdiction to enforce police regula- ns and jurisdiction over all offenses committed in any county hin one mile of such city, and such other jurisdiction, as may conferred upon them by law.

But the provisions of this section shall not apply to the Hustings rt of the city of Richmond. (Code 1887, § 3055; 1902-3-4, p. ; 1904, p. 12.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from Acts 1904, p. 12. ch of the act has been omitted as having served its purpose. The sdiction of the Hustings Court of the city of Richmond is fully defined hapter 245, as is also the jurisdiction of the various other courts of t city. The jurisdiction of the Court of Law and Chancery of the of Norfolk is defined in chapter 246, and that of the Court of Law Chancery for the city of Roanoke, in chapter 247. As to the mean- of the words "corporation court" see section 5, sub-division seven- nth. For jurisdiction of circuit courts, see section 5890.

This section was not intended to restrict, but to enlarge, the jurisdic- of corporation courts, and to elevate them to the grade and dignity ircuit courts. It was therefore competent for the Legislature to give n jurisdiction to try cases of felony. Chahoon's Case, 21 Grat. 822. See, also, Tremaine v. Com., 25 Grat. 987; Crafts' Case, 24 Grat. , 613.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 264, 384; 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1214; rks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 46, 47.

ec. 5911. Concurrent jurisdiction of circuit courts with corpora- n courts of cities, which have undergone a transition since the sent Constitution went into effect from cities of the second class ities of the first class.—The circuit court of any county, within ich is situated any city which has undergone transition from a of the second class to a city of the first class since the present nstitution went into effect, shall have concurrent jurisdiction h the corporation court of such city in all actions at law and ts in equity until a separate circuit court for such city shall be ablished. (1912, p. 19.)

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 245.

Courts of the City of Richmond.*

Sec.
5912. Courts of the city of Richmond; their judges; how elected.
5913. Jurisdiction of the Hustings Court of the city of Richmond.
5914. Jurisdiction of the Hustings Court of the city of Richmond, Part II.
5915. Terms of Hustings Court and Hustings Court, Part II.
5916. Custody of public property; records, etc.
5917. Who to execute process of Hustings Court and Hustings Court, Part II.
5918. Who to summon its jurors and witnesses.
5919. Its grand and petit jurors.
5920. The Chancery Court; its jurisdiction.
5921. Its terms.
5922. The Law and Equity Court; its jurisdiction.
5923. Terms of said court.
5924. Officer of said court; clerk; rules; salary of judge.
5925. Chancery Court, Law and Equity Court, and the Hustings Court, Part II, to keep in clerks' offices a register of the securities under the control of the courts.
5926. Circuit Court; its jurisdiction.
5927. Power of removal to equalize work given to Chancery Court, Circuit Court, Law and Equity Court, and Hustings Court, Part II, of the city of Richmond.
5928. Jurisdiction of Chancery Court, Hustings Court, Hustings Court, Part II, and Law and Equity Court, and judges thereof, of injunction, habeas corpus, mandamus, etc.
5929. Appeals, etc., from Chancery Court, Hustings Court, Hustings Court, Part II, and Law and Equity Court.
5930. Clerks of said courts; how elected, etc.; their fees; special compensation of clerk of Hustings Court.
5931. Compensation of certain officers of former city of Manchester.
5932. Defining effect as constructive notice of the records of the Chancery Court and Hustings Court, Part II, of the city of Richmond.
5933. Statutes applicable to corporation courts generally to embrace Hustings Court, Part II, of the city of Richmond.

Sec. 5912. Courts of the city of Richmond; their judges; how elected.—The consolidation of the cities of Richmond and Manchester having been lawfully effected under the name of the city of Richmond, there shall be for said city the following courts:

1. The Hustings Court of the city of Richmond, the Hustings Court of the city of Richmond, Part II.

*Revisors' Note.—Some changes have been made in this chapter by the present revision, but as the chapter is mainly of local interest, it is not considered necessary to point out these changes in detail. Suffice it to say that the cities of Richmond and Manchester having been consolidated, the prime object of the revision was to make the jurisdiction of the various courts conform to the annexation proceedings, consolidation ordinance, and consolidation acts of the General Assembly.

Digitized by Google

The Chancery Court of the city of Richmond.
The Law and Equity Court of the city of Richmond.
The Circuit Court of the city of Richmond. (Code 1887, 8; 1902-3-4, p. 665.)

The words "their judges; how elected" should have been stricken the headline of this section.

§ 5913. Jurisdiction of the Hustings Court of the city of Rich-.—The Hustings Court of the city of Richmond shall have jur-ion of all presentments, indictments, and informations for of-s committed within the corporate limits of the city of Rich- (except prosecutions against convicts in the penitentiary); rrent jurisdiction with the other courts having jurisdiction of of all presentments, indictments, and informations for of-s committed within the space of one mile of the limits of said concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Court of the city of nond of actions of forcible or unlawful entry and detainer; liction of all appeals allowed by any State law or ordinance of city from the judgments of the police justice's court; juris-n of all proceedings for the condemnation, for public use, y land or property within the corporate limits of the said city; urisdiction of all motions to correct erroneous assessments on state within the said limits. (Code 1887, § 3072.)

Hustings Court has the right to close street if the administration tice requires it. Belvin v. City of Richmond, 85 Va. 574, 8 S. E.

§ 5914. Jurisdiction of the Hustings Court of the city of Rich-, Part II.—The Hustings Court of the city of Richmond, Part all have the jurisdiction conferred on the Hustings Court by receding section and in addition thereto, shall have, within the rate limits of the city of Richmond, concurrent jurisdiction the Chancery Court of said city of all suits and proceedings in cery cognizable by law in the circuit courts of the Common-h, except such as are specially cognizable in the Circuit Court e city of Richmond, and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction the Law and Equity Court and the Circuit Court of all com-law cases of which these courts have concurrent jurisdiction; within that part of the city of Richmond south of James river, not including the islands in said river, it shall have such juris-on, as a court of probate and registry, as is exercised by the cery Court of the city of Richmond. This section shall not be rued as conferring appellate jurisdiction on the Hustings t of the city of Richmond, Part II, except from judgments of Police Court of the city of Richmond, Part II. (1912, p. 656; p. 298.)

§ 5915. Terms of Hustings Court and Hustings Court, Part II. ere shall be a term of the Hustings Court and of the Hustings t, Part II, held for each month in the year, except the months of August and September. The terms for the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, October, November and December, shall begin on the first Monday in each of said months. Each term shall continue as long as the business of the court may require. Any cause or matter cognizable by the court may be heard and disposed of at any term thereof. (1899-00, p. 118; 1908, p. 265.)

Digitized by Google

The Hustings Court of the City of Richmond has authority to continue a term from day to day into the next succeeding month, and to change accordingly the day for the commencement of the next term. Cluverius' Case, 81 Va. 787.

Sec. 5916. Custody of public property, records, etc.—The clerk of the Hustings Court shall have the custody of all public property, records, books and papers formerly appertaining and belonging to the Hustings Court or magistrates of the said city, and the Hustings Court formerly held by the judge thereof, except such property, records, books, and papers as have been by law, transferred to the circuit and chancery courts of the said city; and the said clerks shall have all the powers and perform all the duties, which heretofore devolved on the clerks of the said Hustings Court, formerly held in the said city, except such powers and duties, as have been by law, transferred to the clerks of other courts of said city. (Code 1887, § 3074.)

Sec. 5917. Who to execute process of Hustings Court and Hustings Court, Part II.—The sergeant of the city of Richmond shall be the officer to attend on the Hustings Court and execute its process and orders, and his assistant on the south side of James river shall attend on the Hustings Court, Part II, and execute its process and orders. (Code 1887, § 3076.)

Sec. 5918. Who to summon its jurors and witnesses.—The officers designated by the preceding section shall summon grand juries, selected in the mode prescribed by law, to attend the first day of each term of the said courts, and also on any other day that the said courts or the judges thereof shall direct, and the said grand juries shall be charged by the judge. They shall also summon all other jurors and witnesses required in the said court. (Code 1887, § 3077.)

Sec. 5919. Its grand and petit jurors.—The provisions of law concerning grand and petit jurors applicable to other courts, shall, so far as they are not inconsistent with this chapter, apply to the grand and petit juries in the said Hustings Court and Hustings Court, Part II. (Code 1887, § 3078.)

Sec. 5920. The Chancery Court, its jurisdiction.—The Chancery Court, within the territorial limits of the city of Richmond, lying north of James river and including the islands in said river, shall have exclusive jurisdiction concerning the probate and recordation of wills, the appointment, qualification, and removal of fiduciaries,

Digitized by Google

the settlement of their accounts; the docketing of judgments; the recordation in the mode prescribed by law of deeds and r papers, authorized, or required by law to be recorded.

shall also, within the corporate limits of the city of Richmond, jurisdiction of all suits and proceedings in chancery cognizby law in the circuit courts of the Commonwealth, except such re specially cognizable in the Circuit Court of the city of Richd; and any duty devolved, or power or jurisdiction conferred, hich may hereafter be devolved or conferred by law, on the uit courts of the Commonwealth, or the judges thereof, retively, shall, unless otherwise expressly provided, be deemed to lso devolved or conferred on said Chancery Court of the city ichmond, or the judge thereof, respectively, except as to matof common law and criminal jurisdiction. (Code 1887, § 3070.)

Under the law as it then stood, where cause pending in Chancery t was by consent submitted to the judge thereof for decree in vacaand a decree was entered in vacation by the judge of the Hustings t, sitting as the judge of the Chancery Court, the decree was valid. iss v. Virginia Ins. Co., 85 Va. 588, 8 S. E. 383.

c. 5921. Its terms.—The said Chancery Court shall hold four s in each year, commencing on the first Monday in January, l, June, and October, and the terms shall continue as long as business in the court shall require; but the court shall be als open as a court of probate, and the clerk thereof shall at all s exercise such powers and perform such duties as to docketjudgments and recording deeds and other papers as are con-ed and imposed by law upon clerks of other courts in similar ers. (Code 1887, § 3071.)

c. 5922. The Law and Equity Court; its jurisdiction.—The Law Equity Court shall within the corporate limits of the city of mond have original jurisdiction concurrent with the Chancery t of the city of Richmond to hear and determine all suits and eedings which are cognizable by law in the Chancery Court of City of Richmond, except the probate and recordation of wills, appointment and qualification of fiduciaries, (save when it may me necessary to appoint a fiduciary in the progress of a suit ing in said court, and the ex parte settlement of their accounts,) locketing of judgments, the recordation in the mode prescribed aw of deeds and other papers authorized or required by law to ecorded; and shall within the same limits have original jurisdicconcurrent with the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond of uch causes, motions, matters and things as are cognizable by in the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond, except all such s, motions, prosecutions, matters and things as are specially izable by the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond, or the ge thereof, under chapters one hundred and one, one hundred two, one hundred and three, two hundred and fifty-two, and hundred and two, and section sixty-three hundred and fourteen of this Code; and all statutes now in force or which may be hereafter enacted devolving any duty or conferring any power or jurisdiction upon the circuit courts of this Commonwealth or the judges thereof, respectively, shall be construed as embracing the Law and Equity Court of the city of Richmond, and the judge thereof, respectively, except as to matters of criminal jurisdiction.

Digitized by Google

The said Law and Equity Court of the city of Richmond and the judge thereof, respectively, shall have the same power as a circuit court or a circuit judge to admit to bail and award injunctions, and the same jurisdiction of proceedings by writ of habeas corpus, writ of quo warranto, or information in the nature of a writ of quo warranto, writ of mandamus, and writ of prohibition; and appeals and writs of error and of supersedeas, from and to orders, decrees, and judgments of the said Law and Equity Court, shall be taken and allowed as if they were from and to those of a circuit court or of a circuit judge. (1893-4, p. 223.)

Sec. 5923. Terms of said court.—The said Law and Equity Court shall hold four terms a year, beginning on the second Monday in February, May, September and December, and continuing so long as the business before the court may require. (Id.)

Sec. 5924. Officer of said court; clerk; rules; salary of judge.—The sheriff of the city of Richmond shall be the officer of said Law and Equity Court; he shall attend the same, and do and perform the duties, have and exercise the powers, receive the compensation, and be liable to the penalties of a sheriff in relation to a circuit court.

There shall be a clerk of said Law and Equity Court who shall perform similar duties, be liable to the same penalties and be governed by the same general laws, as a clerk of a circuit court, and receive the like fees and emoluments, and the same compensation as the clerk of the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond. A commissioner in chancery of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond may be appointed a commissioner in chancery of the said Law and Equity Court.

The rules in the clerk's office of said Law and Equity Court shall be held in the same manner and governed by the same general laws as rules in a circuit court are or may hereafter be held or governed, and the clerk of said court shall put upon the docket thereof, as soon as matured at rules, and in the order in which they are matured, all cases and motions matured during the terms of said court.

The salary of the judge of said Law and Equity Court shall be paid in the manner prescribed by law. (Id.; 1902-3-4, p. 586.)

Sec. 5925. Chancery Court, Law and Equity Court, and the Hustings Court, Part II, to keep in clerks' offices a register of the securities under the control of the courts.—There shall be kept in the clerk's office of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond and

Digitized by Google

e clerk's office of the Law and Equity Court of said city, and e clerk's office of the Hustings Court, Part II, of said city, a in which shall be kept complete and accurate accounts of all ities of whatever nature and money deposited in any bank, or ie hands of any officer or depository, of the said courts, or rwise under the control or subject to the order of the said ts, and also of all notes or bonds given for the deferred pays of the purchase money for real estate sold under orders of the courts.

shall be the duty of each of the clerks of the said courts to in said books, under appropriate accounts, all the money, s or bonds, which shall be deposited to the credit of the court, any such bank, officer, or depository, and also all the money, s, or bonds, which shall be thereafter paid out or withdrawn r orders of the court, so that the said book shall at all times, the true amount of money, notes or bonds so under the conor subject to the order of the court. And the said books shall en for inspection to the public.

r their services under this section, each of said clerks shall be led to a fee of one dollar per year for each account so kept on books for each year to which any entry is made in said account, h fee shall be taxed in the costs of the suit to which said money, s or bonds belong, but only one account of the money, notes, or s, belonging to any one suit, shall be kept in said book, unless rwise ordered by the court, and no fee shall be charged for any nt for any year in which no entry is made therein.

Source: 1897-8, pp. 443, 444; 1902-3-4, p. 357.

c. 5926, Circuit court; its jurisdiction.—The Circuit Court of ity of Richmond shall, within the corporate limits of the said have original jurisdiction of all such causes, motions, matters, things, whether now pending or hereafter brought therein, as ognizable by law in other circuit courts of the Commonwealth, the jurisdiction whereof is not vested exclusively in the said cery Court or the said Hustings Court. The said Circuit Court, judge thereof, respectively, shall also have jurisdiction of all suits, motions, prosecutions, and matters and things as are specognizable by the said court or judge under chapters one red and one, one hundred and two, one hundred and three, hundred and two, and two hundred and fifty-two, and section
-three hundred and fourteen, or any other section of this Code.
e 1887, § 3069.)

Had jurisdiction to appoint a trustee in place of trustees in a deed ded in the clerk's office in Richmond who have died, removed from , or refused to act. Hunter's Ex'x v. Vaughan, 24 Grat. 400.
This court alone has jurisdiction to enjoin or affect any judgment in f of the Commonwealth, under Code 1873, chapter 165, section 1 section 6049, sub-section 6). Com. v. Latham, 85 Va. 632, 8 488.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5927. Power of removal to equalize work given to Chancery Court, Circuit Court, Law and Equity Court, and Hustings Court, Part II, of the city of Richmond.—The said Chancery Court, Circuit Court, Law and Equity Court, and Hustings Court, Part II, of the city of Richmond, or either of them, may for good cause shown, or to equalize the work of said courts with one another, remove to either or any of said courts having jurisdiction thereof, any case or cases pending in the court or courts making such removal.

The original papers in every case removed under the provisions of this section, together with a certified copy of the order of removal shall be forthwith transferred by the clerk of the court to which the cause is removed, and thereupon the said cause shall, without any further formality, be placed upon the docket of the court as if it had been brought and the previous proceedings had therein. (1893-4, p. 223.)

Sec. 5928. Jurisdiction of Chancery Court, Hustings Court, Hustings Court, Part II, and Law and Equity Court and judges thereof of injunction, habeas corpus, mandamus, etc.—The said Chancery Court, Hustings Court, Hustings Court, Part II, and Law and Equity Court, and the judges thereof, respectively, shall have the same power as a circuit court or circuit judge to admit to bail and award injunctions, and the same jurisdiction of proceedings by writ of habeas corpus, writ of quo warranto or information in the nature of a writ of quo warranto, writ of mandamus and writ of prohibition. (Code 1887, § 3080.)

Sec. 5929. Appeals, etc., from Chancery Court, Hustings Court, Hustings Court, Part II, and Law and Equity Court.—Appeals, writs of error and supersedeas, from and to judgments, decrees and orders of the said Chancery Court, Hustings Court, Hustings Court, Part II, and Law and Equity Court, and the judges thereof, respectively, shall be taken and allowed, as from and to judgments, decrees and orders of a circuit court or judge. (Code 1887, § 3081.)

Sec. 5930. Clerks of said courts; how elected, etc.; their fees; special compensation of clerk of Hustings Court.—There shall be a clerk of the said Hustings Court, of said Hustings Court, Part II, of said Chancery Court, and of said Law and Equity Court, each of whom shall be elected by the qualified voters of said city on Tuesday after the first Monday in November for terms of eight years. The terms of the clerks so elected shall begin on the first day of February of the second year following the year of their election. They shall each receive the same fees and emoluments that are allowed by law to clerks of circuit courts. The clerk of said Hustings Court shall also receive out of the treasury of the city of Richmond, for his services to the public of said city, such sum as the judge may allow, not exceeding the sum of eighteen hundred dollars in one year, and he shall be allowed the sum of one thousand ars a year for public services rendered the Commonwealth, pay- in monthly instalments, from the public treasury out of any ney not otherwise appropriated. (Code 1887, § 3082; 1902-3-4, 65.)

Digitized by Google

ec. 5931. Compensation of certain officers of former city of Man-ster.—The compensation provided for officers by the consolida- ordinance recited in the decree of the corporation court of the ner city of Manchester, dated April fifteenth, nineteen hundred ten, shall be as provided in said ordinance.

ec. 5932. Defining effect as constructive notice of the records of Chancery Court, and Hustings Court, Part II, of the city of Rich-nd.—The records of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond ll not be effective as constructive notice to purchasers for value hout notice of any land in said city lying south of the south k of James river; nor shall the records of the Hustings Court, t II, of the city of Richmond, be effective as constructive notice urchasers for value without notice of any land in said city lying th of the south bank of James river. (1914, p. 382.)

ec. 5933. Statutes applicable to corporation courts generally to race Hustings Court, Part II, of the city of Richmond.—When- r jurisdiction or a right or power is conferred, or a duty is osed by any statute upon corporation courts generally, the same sdiction, right and power shall be exercised and the same duty performed by the Hustings Court, Part II, of the city of Rich-nd, within the territorial jurisdiction of said last mentioned rt, unless otherwise expressly provided.

CHAPTER 246.

Court of Law and Chancery of the City of Norfolk.

Sec.

4. Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Norfolk.
5. Jurisdiction of such court.
6. Matters excluded from jurisdiction of such court.
7. Terms of such court.
8. Appeals from, and writs of error to, decrees and judgments of such court.
9. Continuing in force § 6 of the act establishing court.
5940. Commissioners in chancery of such court.
5941. Sergeant of the city of Norfolk to attend such court.
5942. Juries in such court; provisions of law as to circuit courts applicable.
5943. Absence of judge or inability to sit.
5944. Clerk of such court.
5945. Salary of judge of such court.

ec. 5934. Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Norfolk.— re shall be in the city of Norfolk a court of probate and record, arate and apart from the corporation court of said city, to be called and known as the "Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Norfolk," and there shall be an additional judge, with like qualifications and to be elected in the same manner and for the same term as the judge of the corporation court of the said city, to hold the said court and perform such other duties as shall be prescribed by law. (1893-4, p. 244; 1895-6, p. 272.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5935. Jurisdiction of such court.—The said Court of Law and Chancery shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court and the corporation court of the said city of Norfolk in all matters concerning the probate and recordation of wills, the appointment, qualifications and removal of fiduciaries and the settlement of their accounts, and in granting and hearing writs of mandamus, prohibition and quo warranto, or information in the nature of quo warranto, and original and general jurisdiction, concurrent with the circuit court and exclusive of the corporation court in said city, of all suits and proceedings in chancery and of all such civil cases at law, within said city, as are cognizable by the circuit court of the city of Norfolk, including motions to recover money, and excepting actions of forcible or unlawful entry and detainer, and appeals from justices.

And the said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall have the same power to award injunctions and writs of habeas corpus, and to admit to bail, as are now or may hereafter be conferred upon the circuit courts in this Commonwealth, or the judges thereof respectively.

And any duty devolved or power or jurisdiction conferred, or which may hereafter be devolved or conferred by law on the circuit courts of this Commonwealth, or the judges thereof respectively, shall, unless otherwise expressly provided, be deemed to be also devolved or conferred on the said Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Norfolk, or the judge thereof respectively, except as to matters of which the corporation court of the said city shall have exclusive jurisdiction. (Id.)

Sec. 5936. Matters excluded from jurisdiction of such court.—The said Court of Law and Chancery shall have no jurisdiction of the following matters, which shall remain as heretofore in the Corporation Court of the said city:

Presentments, indictments and informations for offenses, actions and proceedings to enforce the payment of fines and penalties, except those conferred by law exclusively upon the police justice of said city or justices of the peace; appeals allowed by any State law or ordinance of said city from the courts of justices of the peace and police justice, both in civil and criminal matters; causes removable from said justices, including distress warrants and attachments for rent; proceedings for the condemnation of land or other property; questions, powers and duties arising out of the laws for e assessment and collection of taxes; questions, powers, duties d proceedings arising out of the election laws and contested elec- ons; the docketing of judgments and the recordation, in the mode escribed by law, of deeds and other papers authorized or required law to be recorded; actions of forcible or unlawful entry and de- iner.

Digitized by Google

And the said Corporation Court, and the judge thereof in vaca- on, shall retain all the powers and jurisdiction possessed by the orporation Court of the city of Norfolk, and discharge all the duties evolving upon the said Corporation Court of the city of Norfolk the day before the first day of January, in the year eighteen hun- ed and ninety-five, except such as are herein expressly conferred on the Court of Law and Chancery. (Id.)

Sec. 5937. Terms of such court.—There shall be a term of the id Court of Law and Chancery held for each month in the year, cept that the judge may omit the term to be held for the months August and September or either of them. The said term shall gin on the third Monday in each month, except the October term hich shall begin on the first day of October.

The said terms shall continue so long as the business of the court ay require, and shall be for the trial of all causes, both at law and chancery, but the chancery docket shall be called before the law cket at the terms to be held in February, April, June, October and ecember.

The rules for the said court shall be the same as are now or may reafter be prescribed for the circuit courts of this Commonwealth d.)

Sec. 5938. Appeals from, and writs of error to, decrees and judg- ents of such court.—Appeals, writs of error and supersedeas from id to judgments, decrees and orders of the said Court of Law and hancery of the city of Norfolk and the judge thereof shall be ken and allowed as from and to judgments, decrees and orders of circuit court or circuit judge. (Id.)

Sec. 5939. Continuing in force section six of the act establishing urt.—Section six of the act approved February twelfth, eighteen undred and ninety-four, establishing the Court of Law and Chan- ry of the city of Norfolk is continued in force until all the objects said section shall have been fully accomplished.

Sec. 5940. Commissioners in chancery of such court.—The Court Law and Chancery shall have five commissioners in chancery, to appointed by the judge of said court, one of whom shall be desig- ated as the commissioner of accounts for said court. (Id.)

Sec. 5941. Sergeant of the city of Norfolk to attend such court.— he sergeant of the city of Norfolk shall be the officer to attend n the said Court of Law and Chancery and to execute its process id orders. (Id.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5942. Juries in such court; provisions of law as to circuit courts applicable.—All the provisions of law now in force, or hereafter to be enacted, relating to juries in civil cases, applicable to the circuit courts in this Commonwealth, shall apply to the said Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Norfolk; and all provisions of law now in force, or hereinafter enacted, relating to courts, judges or other officers of courts, shall apply to the said Court of Law and Chancery whenever applicable as if the said court were specially named therein; and any provisions which apply in terms to the corporation or circuit courts shall also apply to the said court as if it were specially named therein, whenever necessary or proper to enable it to exercise the powers and jurisdiction herein conferred, or when relating to matters whereof the said court is given jurisdiction. (Id.)

Sec. 5943. Absence of judge or inability to sit.—During the absence of the judge of the said Court of Law and Chancery or of the said Corporation Court of the said city of Norfolk, or the inability of either from any cause to hold a term of his court, or to sit during the whole term, or to sit in any particular case or to discharge any official duty required by law, the said term or any part thereof may be held, or the said case be heard or tried and decided, or the said duty may be discharged, if it be the judge of the said Court of Law and Chancery of the said city of Norfolk, by any circuit or corporation judge, and if it be the judge of the Corporation Court of said city of Norfolk, by any circuit or corporation judge or the judge of the said Court of Law and Chancery: provided, however, that no extra compensation shall be allowed therefor when either of the judges of the said Court of Law and Chancery and Corporation Court of the said city of Norfolk shall sit or discharge duties for the other. (Id.)

Sec. 5944. Clerk of such court.—The clerk of the Corporation Court of the said city shall also be the clerk of the Court of Law and Chancery. He shall qualify as now provided by law and give bond for the faithful discharge of his duties in both courts; and if he qualify before a judge in vacation, the bond shall be certified to the Corporation Court and the Court of Law and Chancery, to be recorded in both courts. It shall be his duty as the clerk of the Corporation Court to forthwith docket, in the manner provided by law, all judgments, decrees or orders for the payment of money rendered in the said Court of Law and Chancery, or the clerk's office thereof, or by the judge thereof in vacation.

Source: 1893-4, p. 244.

Sec. 5945. Salary of judge of such court.—The salary of the judge of the Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Norfolk shall be as prescribed by section thirty-four hundred and sixty-eight. (Id.)

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 247.

Court of Law and Chancery of the City of Roanoke.

Sec.
5946. Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Roanoke.
5947. Jurisdiction of such court.
5948. Matters excluded from jurisdiction of such court.
5949. Terms of such court.
5950. Appeals from, and writs of error to, decrees and judgments of such court.
5951. Removal of causes from Corporation Court to Court of Law and Chancery.
5952. Commissioners in chancery of such court.
5953. Sergeant of the city of Roanoke to attend such court.
5954. Juries in such court; provisions of law as to circuit courts applicable.
5955. Absence of judge or inability to act.
5956. Clerk of this court.
5957. Salary of judge of such court.

c. 5946. Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Roanoke.—
e shall be in the city of Roanoke a court of probate and rd, separate and apart from the corporation court of said to be called and known as the "Court of Law and Chancery he city of Roanoke," and there shall be an additional judge like qualification and to be elected in the same manner as judge of the corporation court. The term of the judge of said t in office when this Code takes effect shall end January thirty-nineteen hundred and nineteen, and his successor shall be ed for a term of eight years, beginning February first, nine-hundred and nineteen. (1910, p. 161.)

c. 5947. Jurisdiction of such court.—The said Court of Law Chancery shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit t and corporation court of Roanoke in all matters concerning probate and recordation of wills, the appointment, qualification removal of fiduciaries and the settlement of their accounts, in granting and hearing writs of mandamus, prohibition and warranto, or information in the nature of quo warranto, and inal and general jurisdiction with the circuit and corporation ts of said city of all suits and proceedings in chancery, of all civil cases at law within said city as are cognizable by the uit court or corporation court of Roanoke, including motions recover money, actions of forcible or unlawful entry and deer, distress warrants and attachments for rent.

nd the said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall have same power to award injunctions and writs of habeas corpus, admit to bail, as are now or may hereafter be conferred upon circuit or corporation courts of this Commonwealth, or the ges thereof in vacation, and shall have the same jurisdiction uch matters and of all other matters cognizable in said court

Digitized by Google

which are now or may hereafter be granted to the judges of the circuit or corporation courts in vacation in like matters.

Any duty devolved, or power of jurisdiction conferred, or which may hereafter be devolved or conferred by law on the circuit courts of this Commonwealth, or the judges thereof, respectively, shall, unless otherwise provided, be deemed to be also devolved or conferred on the said Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Roanoke, or the judge thereof, respectively, except as to matters of which the corporation court of the said city shall have exclusive jurisdiction. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—See, as affecting this section, Acts 1918, p. 754.

Sec. 5948. Matters excluded from jurisdiction of such court.—But the said Court of Law and Chancery shall have no jurisdiction of the following matters, which shall remain as heretofore in the corporation court of said city:

Presentments, indictments and informations for offenses, actions and proceedings to enforce the payment of fines and penalties, except those conferred by law exclusively upon the police justice of said city or justices of the peace; questions, powers and duties arising out of the laws for the assessment and collection of taxes; questions, powers, duties and proceedings arising out of the election laws and contested elections; appeals and removals from the trial justice of said city; the appointment and removal of officers conferred by law upon the corporation court; the docketing of judgments and recordation in the mode prescribed by law of deeds and other writings authorized or required by law to be recorded. And the said corporation court, and the judge thereof in vacation, shall retain all the powers and jurisdiction possessed by the corporation court of the city of Roanoke, and discharge all the duties devolving upon said corporation court of said city as of March tenth, nineteen hundred and ten, except such as are herein conferred upon the Court of Law and Chancery. (Id., 1914, p. 475.)

Sec. 5949. Terms of such court.—There shall be a term of said Court of Law and Chancery for each month in the year, except that the judge may omit the term to be held in the month of August by order entered of record. The terms of said court shall begin on the first Monday in each month, and shall continue so long as the business of the court may require. The rules for the said court shall be the same as are now or may hereafter be prescribed for the circuit courts of this Commonwealth. (1910, p. 161.)

Sec. 5950. Appeals from and writs of error to decrees and judgments of such court.—Appeals, writs of error and supersedeas from and to judgments, decrees and orders of the said Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Roanoke, and the judge thereof, shall be taken and allowed, as from and to judgments, decrees and orders of a circuit court or a circuit judge. (Id.)

Digitized by Google

ec. 5951. Removal of causes from corporation court to Court of and Chancery.—In all cases removed to the Court of Law and ncery from the said corporation court under this chapter the Court of Law and Chancery shall execute and enforce by prop- rocess and in the manner provided by law every judgment, de- or order entered therein prior to the first day of April, nine- hundred and ten, and shall supervise, correct and enforce in manner any rules taken or order, entry or endorsement made he clerk or any return made by the sergeant of the said cor- tion court before the said first day of April, nineteen hundred ten. (Id.)

ec. 5952. Commissioners in chancery of such court.—The Court aw and Chancery shall have six commissioners in chancery, to ppointed by the judge of said court, one of whom shall be gnated as the commissioner of accounts for said court, except it shall be permissible for the judge of the said Court of Law Chancery, in his discretion, to appoint as such commissioner ccounts the same person who is commissioner of accounts for said corporation court. (Id.)

ec. 5953. Sergeant of the city of Roanoke to attend such court. ne sergeant of the city of Roanoke shall be the officer to attend he said Court of Law and Chancery, and to execute its process orders. (Id.)

ec. 5954. Juries in such court; provisions of law as to circuit ts applicable.—All provisions of law now in force or hereafter e enacted relating to juries in civil cases, applicable to the cir- courts of this Commonwealth, shall apply to the said Court of and Chancery in the city of Roanoke, and all provisions of now in force or hereafter enacted relating to courts, judges fficers of courts, shall apply to the said Court of Law and ncery whenever applicable, as if the said Court of Law and ncery was specifically named therein, and any provisions which y in terms to the corporation or circuit courts shall also apply ne said Court of Law and Chancery as if it were specifically ed therein, whenever necessary or proper, to enable it to exer- the powers and jurisdiction herein conferred or when relating atters where the said court is given jurisdiction. (Id.)

ec. 5955. Absence of judge or inability to sit.—During the ab- e of the judge of the said Court of Law and Chancery, or of said corporation court of the city of Roanoke, or the inability ither, from any cause, to hold a term of his court or to sit ng the whole term, or to sit in any particular case or to dis- rge any official duty required by law, the said term, or any part eof, may be held, or the said case be heard or tried and decided, he said duty may be discharged, if it be the judge of the said rt of Law and Chancery, by any circuit or corporation judge, and if it be the judge of the corporation court of said city, by any circuit or corporation judge, or the judge of said Court of Law and Chancery: provided, however, that no extra compensation shall be allowed therefor when either of the judges of said Court of Law and Chancery and corporation court of said city of Roanoke shall sit or discharge duties for the other. (Id.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5956. Clerk of this court.—The clerk of the corporation court of said city shall also be the clerk of the Court of Law and Chancery, and shall receive for his compensation such reasonable salary as may be allowed him by the council of the city of Roanoke, to be paid out of its treasury; and in the event the council fail or neglect to allow a reasonable salary to said clerk for the services rendered by him under this chapter, the judge of this court shall by order of record, fix the salary to be paid said clerk, and the same shall be paid to him out of the treasury of the city of Roanoke.

He shall qualify as now provided by law and give bond for the faithful discharge of his duties in both courts, and if he qualify before the judge in vacation, the bond shall be certified both to the corporation court and the Court of Law and Chancery, to be recorded in both courts. It shall be his duty as the clerk of the corporation court to forthwith docket, in the manner provided by law, all judgments, decrees or orders for the payment of money rendered in the said Court of Law and Chancery, or the clerk's office thereof, or by the judge thereof in vacation. (Id.)

Sec. 5957. Salary of judge of such court.—The salary of the judge of the Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Roanoke shall be as prescribed by section thirty-four hundred and sixty-eight. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—Section 12 of the act gave the council of the city of Roanoke power to increase the salary of the judge. This subject is fully covered by a general section. (See section 3469.)

CHAPTER 248.

General Provisions Relating to Courts.*

Sec.		Sec.
5958.	Jurisdiction of courts of counties and cities over water courses.	5960.	Court of Appeals may prescribe forms of writs and regulate practice of courts.
5959.	Courts of record may adjourn from day to day or take a recess for a period not exceeding thirty days.	5961.	In election by court, votes to be viva voce and recorded.

*For monographic note on Courts, see Cropper v. Com., 2 Rob. 842, Va. Rep. Anno.

Digitized by Google

Sec.
How proceedings of court are drawn up, read and signed.
Who attends a court as its officer.
Places of holding courts.
When and how changed.
How order or warrant making change posted.
When and how place of session of Court of Appeals changed, or time of holding the court postponed.
Court must be held in its county or corporation.
Acts of courts heretofore held at improper places confirmed.
Provision for opening a court, or for its sitting, where it fails to meet on day appointed or to which it is adjourned.
Provision to prevent cases from being discontinued, when place or day changed, or court fails to sit.
Matters not determined to stand continued.
If term of court is to end during trial of case, etc., trial may go on until concluded; if case be in corporation court, judge may postpone commencement of next term.
5974. Execution of judgments and decrees of courts no longer existing.
5975. Judges not permitted to practice law.
5976. Judges may not hold any other office.
5977. Removal of judge from circuit, etc., vacates his office; exception for cities of less than 5,000 inhabitants.
5978. Time within which a judge may qualify; failure to do so vacates office.
5979. Circuit and corporation courts to have land books bound.
5980. Books, etc., in clerks' offices, and offices of county surveyors, may be rebound or transcribed; the credit to be given to transcripts.
5981. Books may be taken from clerk's office to be rebound.
5982. How costs thereof certified and paid.
5983. How name of person may be changed.

c. 5958. Jurisdiction of courts of counties and cities over water ses.—Where any river, water course, or bay lies between any ties or any cities, or any county and city in this State, the it courts for the counties and the circuit or corporation courts e cities, on each side, respectively, shall have concurrent juris- on over so much thereof as shall be opposite to said counties cities. And the circuit courts for counties and the circuit or oration courts of the cities lying on the waters bounding the e shall have jurisdiction respectively over such waters op- e said counties and cities, as far as the jurisdiction of this e extends, provided that this section shall not apply to the s of Richmond and Norfolk. (Code 1887, § 3110; 1908, p. 661.)

c. 5959. Courts of record may adjourn from day to day or take cess for a period not exceeding thirty days.—Any court of re- may at any term, whether regular or special, adjourn from to time for a period not exceeding thirty days until the busi- before it is dispatched, or until the end of its term; the judge aid court shall, during the period of such adjournment, have er and authority to hold regular or special terms at any other place as if there had been a final adjournment of such term. (Code 1887, § 3111; 1902-3-4, p. 943.)

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 114, section 2.

Sec. 5960. Court of appeals may prescribe forms of writs and regulate practice of courts.—The Supreme Court of Appeals may, from time to time, prescribe the forms of writs and make general regulations for the practice of all the courts of record, civil and criminal; and may prepare a system of rules of practice and a system of pleading and the forms of process to be used in all the courts of record of this State, and put the same into effect. (Code 1887, § 3112; 1916, p. 939.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from the act of 1916 cited at the end of the section, without change, except that the word "may" appearing in lines one and four of the text is used in lieu of "shall" in both instances.

Discussed in 19 Va. L. Reg. 329.

Sec. 5961. In election by court, votes to be viva voce and recorded.—In every appointment or election by a court to fill any office or post, the votes shall be given viva voce in open court, and the vote of each judge voting thereon shall be recorded in the order or minute book. (Code 1887, § 3113.)

Sec. 5962. How proceedings of court are drawn up, read and signed.—The proceedings of every court shall be entered in a book kept for the purpose to be known as the order book. The proceedings of each day shall be drawn up at large, and read in open court, by the clerk thereof, at the next session of the said court, except those of the last day of a term, which shall be drawn up and read the same day. After being corrected where it is necessary, the record shall be signed by the presiding judge. (Code 1887, § 3114.)

Revisors' Note.—Under this section as it now stands, the proceedings of each day are required to be read in open court by the clerk at the next session of the court, which in most instances would be the day following.

Not necessary to read the court orders in court each day; it is sufficient if they are drawn up and read at the conclusion of the trial during the term. Snodgrass' Case, 89 Va. 679, 17 S. E. 238. But see present section.

Though only the orders of the last day of the term are signed, this is sufficient authentication of all the orders of the term which precedes the signature of the judge upon the record, but each day's proceedings should be separately signed. Weatherman's Case, 91 Va. 796, 22 S. E. 349. See present section.

Accused need not be present when orders are signed. Id.

During the term of a court at which a judicial act is done the record remains in the breast of the court, and may be altered or amended; but after the adjournment amendments can only be made in cases in which there is something in the record by which they can be safely made. Barnes' Case, 92 Va. 795, 23 S. E. 784.

The court has an undoubted right to correct any error made by the clerk in the proceedings of the preceding day. Levi Gibson v. Com., 2 Va. Cas. 111.

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, pter 114, section 4.

Sec. 5963. Who attends a court as its officer.—The Supreme Court Appeals shall not be attended by any sheriff; and a circuit or er court, held only for a city, shall, except where otherwise spe-lly provided, be attended by the sergeant of such city, who ll act as its officer. In all other cases, the sheriff of the county which any court is held, shall attend it, and act as its officer. ode 1887, § 3115.)

Sec. 5964. Places of holding courts.—Every circuit or corpora-n court, for any county or city, shall be held at the court-use of such county or city, except where some other place is scribed by law, or lawfully appointed. (Code 1887, § 3116; 2-3-4, p. 607.)

As no place of session of a court (section 5968) can be held out-e of county or corporation it follows that the courthouse must be in county or corporation. Court for a county may be held in a city ated in that county. Supervisors v. Cox, 98 Va. 273, 36 S. E. 380.

Sec. 5965. When and how changed.—Whenever, in the opinion a circuit or corporation court, or the judge thereof, the court-use or other place wherein it is required to hold its session, can , or should not, from any cause, be occupied by it, or if the ne shall be destroyed, the court may hold its session at such ces as may be appointed by its order, or by the warrant of the dge thereof in vacation, directed to its clerk, until the court-use or its lawful place of session can or should be thereafter oc-pied, or until another shall be built and fitted for its occupation, until some other place be appointed by the court. (Code 1887, 3117; 1902-3-4, p. 607.)

Sec. 5966. How order or warrant making change posted.—A copy every order of court, or warrant of a judge under the preceding tion, shall, if practicable, be posted by the clerk of the court at door of his office, and at the courthouse door, and also at the ce so appointed. (Code 1887, § 3118.)

Sec. 5967. When and how place of session of Court of Appeals nged, or time of holding the court postponed.—Whenever, by son of the destruction of any building in which the Supreme urt of Appeals or a Special Court of Appeals is appointed to be d, or by reason of the place of session being in possession of a pub-enemy, or infected with contagious disease, it shall seem to the vernor necessary, he shall, by proclamation, appoint a place at ich such court shall be held, so long as such reason may continue, l when the circumstances require it, may postpone the time for ding the court. A copy of such proclamation shall be sent to clerk and to each of the judges of such court, and published in ne newspaper at the seat of government, and near the regular ce of session of such court. (Code 1887, § 3119.)

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 114, section 7.

Sec. 5968. Court must be held in its county or corporation.—No such place of session, for a circuit or corporation court, shall be without the limits of the county or corporation of which it is the court. And when such place is appointed because of the destruction of the building in which the Supreme Court of Appeals or Special Court of Appeals was held, the new place of session shall be within the same city or town with the old. (Code 1887, § 3120; 1902-3-4, p. 608.)

Courthouse may be situated and court may be held in city which is in county. Supervisors v. Cox, 98 Va. 273, 36 S. E. 380.

Sec. 5969. Acts of courts heretofore held at improper places confirmed.—Where any court has at any time heretofore been held at a place not authorized by law, in consequence of the destruction of the courthouse, or other unavoidable cause, the acts and proceedings of such court shall be as valid as if the court had been held at the proper place. (Code 1887, § 3121.)

Sec. 5970. Provision for opening a court, or for its sitting, where it fails to meet on day appointed or to which it is adjourned.—Though a court be not held on the first day of a term, it may nevertheless be opened on any subsequent day, if, in the case of a circuit or corporation court, the same is done before four o'clock in the afternoon of the third day. After a court is opened it shall, during the term, adjourn from day to day, unless the court shall order otherwise, and if it fail to sit on any day to which it is adjourned, it may nevertheless sit on any subsequent day of the term; provided, in the case of a circuit or corporation court, there be not more than three consecutive days of such failure. (Code 1887, § 3122; 1891-2, p. 806; 1893-4, p. 236; 1902-3-4, p. 608; 1904, p. 98.)

Court adjourned from 20th to 23d of December, on which day cause was set for trial, but did not sit on 23d; it had a right (under this section as it formerly stood) to sit and try and determine the cause before 4 o'clock on the 26th. Langhorne v. Waller's Ex'r, 76 Va. 213.

Cited in Nicholas' Case, 91 Va. 744, 21 S. E. 364. See, also, Hill's Case, 2 Grat. 612.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 169; 8 Va. Law J. 1.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 114, section 10.

Sec. 5971. Provision to prevent cases from being discontinued, when place or day changed, or court fails to sit.—When the place for holding any court or the day for commencing any term is changed, or when a court fails to sit on any day appointed for it or to which it may have adjourned, there shall be no discontinuance, but every notice, recognizance, or process given, taken, or returnable to the day on which the failure occurred, or to any day between that day and the next that the court may sit, or to the day and place as it was before such change, and all matters ready for the court to act upon if it had been held on any such day, shall be in the same condition and have the same effect as if given,

Digitized by Google

n, or returnable, or continued to the substituted term or place, the next day of the same term that the court may sit, or to next court in course, as the case may be. (Code 1887, § 3123.)

When a court fails to sit on any day to which it may have adjourned, atters ready for the court to act upon had it been held on that day be in the same condition and have the same effect as if continued e next day of the same term that the court may sit. Langhorne v. er's Ex'r, 76 Va. 213. See Nicholas' Case, 91 Va. 741, 21 S. E. Wootten v. Bragg, 1 Grat. 1.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 114, section 11.

c. 5972. Matters not determined to stand continued.—All es upon the docket of any court, and all other matters ready ts decision, which shall not have been determined before the of a term, whether regular or special, shall, without any order ntinuance, stand continued to the next term. (Code 1887, 24.)

A motion continued, without defendant's consent, from June term ugust term, passing by July term, is discontinued, and judgment quently rendered for the plaintiff on same motion is erroneous. v. Koger, 7 Leigh 221; but see Harrison v. Com., 81 Va. 493. Where there is a verdict against a prisoner, but no judgment is ed at that term nor is the case continued, judgment on the verdict be rendered at next term. Cleek v. Com., 21 Grat. 777. County , in action of unlawful detainer, may enter judgment nunc pro tunc July term upon verdict rendered at April term. Van Gunden v. , 88 Va. 591, 14 S. E. 334.

Failure to enter order of continuance does not work discontinuance. ison v. Com., 81 Va. 492.

See Wilkinson v. Hendrick, 5 Call 12; Moss v. Barham, 94 Va. 14, E. 388.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 114, section 12.

c. 5973. If term of court is to end during trial of case, etc., may go on until concluded; if case be in corporation court, e may postpone commencement of next term.—If the term of urt is to end pending the trial therein of any case, civil or inal, it shall nevertheless be lawful for such court to continue rial until the same is concluded and the case disposed of; and ch case be in a corporation or hustings court, the judge there- all have the power, by an order entered in court, to postpone commencement of the next term of the said court to some day nated by him. (Code 1887, § 3126.)

See Cluverius' Case, 81 Va. 787; Hill's Case, 2 Grat. 612.

c. 5974. Execution of judgments and decrees of courts no long- isting.—Every judgment, decree, or order entered in a court h shall have ceased to exist, shall be executed by the court in ody of whose clerk the record of such judgment, decree, or or- may be. And to such court shall be certified every judgment, ee, or order of the court of appeals touching any judgment, de- or order so entered, and the case shall be proceeded in as if court had rendered the same. (Code 1887, § 3128.)

c. 5975. Judges not permitted to practice law.—No one holding the office of judge in this State shall practice law therein during his continuance in office. (Code 1887, § 3129; 1902-3-4, p. 608; 1904, p. 228.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The latter part of the act from which this section is taken has been omitted as having served its purpose. See Const., section 105; schedule, section 7.

See Louisville & N. R. Co. v. Taylor, 93 Va. 226, 24 S. E. 1013, note 2 Va. Law Reg. 376.

Sec. 5976. Judges may not hold any other office.—No person holding the office of judge shall hold any other office or public trust during his continuance in office; except that the judge of a corporation court in a city of the second class may hold the office of commissioner in chancery of the circuit court for the county in which the city is located. (Code 1887, § 3130; 1902-3-4, p. 608.)

Sec. 5977. Removal of judge from circuit, etc., vacates his office, exception for cities of less than five thousand inhabitants.—Each judge of a circuit, corporation, or city court shall, during his continuance in office, reside within the jurisdiction of the court over which he presides, and his removal therefrom shall vacate his office, except in the case of the judge of a corporation court of any corporation having a city charter and less than five thousand inhabitants, who may reside outside the corporate limits of such city. (Code 1887, § 3132; 1902-3-4, p. 609.)

Revisors' Note.—Under the act from which this section is taken no provision was made for allowing the judges of small cities to reside outside of the corporate limits. This is allowed by section 99 of the Constitution, and in order to provide for this case and come within the constitutional limitation, the section has been changed to read as above.

Sec. 5978. Time within which a judge may qualify; failure to do so vacates office.—Any judge of this Commonwealth may qualify at any time after receiving his commission, and before the expiration of thirty days after the commencement of his term of office; but if he fail to receive his commission until after the commencement of his term of office, he may qualify within thirty days from the date of receiving the same. A failure on the part of any judge to qualify as above provided shall vacate his office. (Code 1887, § 3133.)

Sec. 5979. Circuit and corporation courts to have land books bound.—It shall be the duty of the several circuit and corporation courts to cause to be bound, in volumes of convenient size, all books in their respective clerks' offices, not now bound, showing the assessments of lands since the year eighteen hundred and fifty, and to cause to be bound in like volumes such books to be hereafter filed in their said clerks' offices at intervals of not more than five years. (Code 1887, § 3134; 1902-3-4, p. 609.)

Sec. 5980. Books, etc., in clerks' offices, and offices of county surveyors, may be rebound or transcribed; the credit to be given to transcripts.—Any court of record may cause any of the books or

Digitized by Google

ls in its clerk's office, which may be in need thereof, to be rel or transcribed; and the circuit court of any county may also any of the books or records in the office of the surveyor of county to be rebound or transcribed. The same faith and shall be given to such transcript as the book or record ribed would have been entitled to. (Code 1887, § 3135;
-4, p. 609.)

. 5981. Books may be taken from clerk's office to be rebound.
court directing any book or books to be bound or rebound resaid, may allow the same to be taken from the clerk's office ich such book or books may be on file, but shall take all sary and proper precautions, by requiring bonds or otherwise, ure the preservation and return and to prevent the mutilahereof. (Code 1887, § 3136.)

. 5982. How costs thereof certified and paid.—The cost in-l shall be certified by such court to the board of supervisors county or to the council of the city in whose clerk's office ooks or records so bound, rebound, or transcribed are on file, paid as a charge on such county or corporation. (Code § 3137.)

. 5983. How name of person may be changed.—Any person ng to change his own name, or that of his child or ward, may therefor to the circuit court of the county, or the circuit or ration court of the corporation in which he resides; or if a citizen of this State, without a fixed residence in any one y or corporation, his application may be to the Circuit Court city of Richmond; or, if the parent or guardian reside in an-State, then to the circuit court of the county or the circuit or ration court of the corporation in which the child or ward re-In case of a minor who has no parent or guardian, the ap-ion may be made by his next friend. On any such application ourt, in its discretion, may order a change of his name, and eforth the new name shall be in place of the former, and the of the court, when the name of such person has been changed oresaid, shall enter the order upon the current deed book in ffice and shall index the same therein, in both the old and names of such persons. But if any person residing in this shall change his name, or assume another name, unlawfully, all be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundollars, and upon a repetition thereof, shall be confined in ot exceeding sixty days. (Code 1887, § 3138; 1908, p. 587.)

Form of a Petition for Change of Name.

To the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond, Virginia: Your peti-
, John Blackburn Smith, respectfully represents that he is a resiof the City of Richmond, Virginia; that he is a son of the late as I. Smith and Nannie Branch Smith, whose maiden name was e Branch Taylor; that your petitioner was born on the 4th day of

Digitized by Google

August, 1871; that from his early childhood he has been known as John Blackburn, having been thus called in order to prevent confusion with the names of other members of his father's family; that he is now known among his friends and in his business relations as John Blackburn, and that in order to prevent confusion and difficulty in the transaction of his lawful affairs he desires to change his name from John Blackburn Smith to John Blackburn, and to this end hereby makes application to this honorable court in accordance with the statute in such cases made and provided, to-wit: Section 5983 of the Code of Virginia.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

.....

Form of Order Changing Name.

In the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond, Virginia, (date).

In the matter of the change of the name of John Blackburn Smith.

This day came John Blackburn Smith and by leave of court filed his petition setting forth that he is a resident of the City of Richmond, and that he is a son of Thomas I. Smith and Nannie Branch Smith, whose maiden name was Nannie Branch Taylor; that he was born August 4, 1871; and that he desires to change his name to John Blackburn.

And the court having considered said petition, and being of the opinion that the application made therein should be granted, proceeding under the statute in such cases made and provided, to-wit: Section 5983 of the Code of Virginia, doth hereby change the name of John Blackburn Smith to John Blackburn.

And the Clerk of this court is hereby directed to deliver a certified copy of this order to the Clerk of the Chancery Court of the City of Richmond, who shall, in accordance with said statute, enter this order upon the current deed book in his office and shall index the same both in the name of John Blackburn Smith and John Blackburn.

Note.—The granting of such a petition is in the discretion of the court. This discretion was probably given to prevent a fraudulent change of name to evade creditors, etc. Hence the reasons for change of name should be given in the petition. The names of the parents of the petitioner and the date of his birth are given for the purpose of identification.

CHAPTER 249.

Juries* in Civil Cases.

Sec.
5984. Who liable to serve as jurors.
5985. Who are exempt from jury service.
5986. Appointment of jury commissioners.
5987. Notification of jury commissioners; their oath.
5988. List of jurors to be prepared by the jury commissioners.
5989. Lists to be delivered to clerks, and by them safely kept.
5990. Names of jurors to be written on separate ballots; ballots to be folded and deposited with list in a box.
5991. Jurors to be selected by drawing ballots from box.
5992. When and how ballots drawn, and what number;

*For monographic note on Juries, see Chahoon v. Com 20 Grat. 733, Va. Rep. Anno.

Digitized by Google

when venire facias issued and persons drawn summoned; return by officer; when ballot drawn to be destroyed and another juror drawn.
93. When and how court or judge may order greater number of jurors; duty of clerk in such case; issue of venire facias.
94. What endorsed on ballot, when drawn; what entered on list.
95. No person liable to serve as juror more than once during same year.
96. How juries selected from the jurors.
97. Fine of juror for non-attendance.
98. The court may discharge jurors or dispense with their attendance. No person eligible for whom request is made.
99. When not enough jurors, how deficiency supplied.
00. Examination of juror as to interest, prejudice, etc.; if not indifferent another to be supplied.
01. When exception to juror not allowed.
02. Irregularity cured by verdict.

Sec.
6003. Trial judge not to direct verdicts.
6004. Fine of officers, etc., for neglect of duty.
6005. How special juries formed.
6006. Whence jurors obtained for trial of case to which a city, town, or county is a party; how the venire facias directed and executed; how jury formed.
6007. Pay and mileage of jurors.
6008. Juror departing without leave, etc., not entitled to pay.
6009. Clerks to enter amount due each juror and how same to be paid.
6010. Clerk to transmit to Auditor list of allowances to jurors against the State, and to deliver to jurors copies of allowances made them; treasurers to pay jurors; how reimbursed; when payment of such allowances barred.
6011. When a person not to serve as juror.
6012. Waiver of trial by jury; number of jurors for trial of civil cases.
6013. Views by juries.
6014. Disclosure by juror.

Sec. 5984. Who liable to serve as jurors.—All male citizens over enty-one years of age who shall have been residents of this State o years, and of the county, city, or town in which they reside e year next preceding their being summoned to serve as such, d competent in other respects, except as hereinafter provided, all remain and be liable to serve as jurors; but no officer, soldier, aman, or marine of the United States army or navy shall be conlered a resident of this State by reason of being stationed here, nor shall an inmate of any charitable institution be qualified to rve as juror. The following persons shall be disqualified from rving as jurors:

First, Idiots and lunatics;

Second, Persons convicted of bribery, perjury, embezzlement of blic funds, treason, felony, or petit larceny;

But no male citizen over sixty years of age shall be compelled to serve as a juror. (Code 1887, § 3139; 1891-2, p. 209; 1895-6, p. 49; 1902-3-4, pp. 10, 288, 602.)

Digitized by Google

Persons over sixty years of age not disqualified though not compellable to serve. Booth's Case, 16 Grat. 519.

Sec. 5985. Who are exempt from jury service.—The Governor and Lieutenant-Governor of the State, the members of the General Assembly while actually in session, practicing attorneys, licensed practicing physicians, registered practicing pharmacists, officers of any court, telegraph operators actually employed as such, all pilots licensed under the laws of the United States or of this State, active members of the fire department of a city or town, and the active officers and active members of any fire company therein, not exceeding one hundred members in any one company; the President and Vice-President of the United States, the members of both houses of Congress and their respective officers, but only while such houses of Congress are actually in session; all custom-house officers, with their clerks; all postmasters, postofficers, postriders and stage-drivers, and all other persons employed in the care and conveyance of the mails of the United States; all mariners actually employed in the service of any citizen or merchant within the United States, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Attorney-General, the Treasurer, the two auditors, Register of the Land Office, members, officers and clerks of the State Corporation Commission, the Commissioner of Agriculture and Superintendent of Public Instruction, and their respective clerks, the doorkeeper of the executive, the clerk of both houses of the General Assembly, the judge of any court, all professors, tutors, and pupils of public seminaries, while such public seminaries are actually in session; all ministers of the gospel licensed to preach according to the rules of their sect, undertakers who pay license tax as such, sheriffs, constables, all persons while actually engaged in harvesting or securing grain or hay or in cutting or securing tobacco, keepers of the county and corporation jails, superintendents and servants of the public hospitals and lunatic asylums, Superintendent of the Penitentiary, his assistants and the persons composing the guard; one cashier and two tellers of the several banks established by law, the police in cities and towns, the tipstaff and crier of the Court of Appeals during its sittings, all millers actually employed in the mechanical operation of any grist mill, all ferrymen necessary and personally employed in or at any ferry established by law, the six lock keepers of the Dismal Swamp Canal Company, and the active non-commissioned officers and the active members of the Virginia volunteers, together with the contributing members of said volunteer companies, who have contributed not less than twenty-five dollars per annum, shall be exempt from serving on juries in civil and criminal cases; and the citizens of Tangier, Syxas and Chincoteague islands, in the county of Accomac, and Hogg's and Cobb's islands,

Digitized by Google

county of Northampton, shall be exempt from jury service, t service on grand juries. But to entitle the active officers ctive members of the Virginia volunteers, as well as such buting members of said volunteer companies, or the active s and members of a fire department, not exceeding one hun- members for one company, to this exemption, the captain or officer of any company of the Virginia volunteers, or of such tment, shall, annually, on the first day of May, furnish to the of the circuit court of the county or corporation court of the ration wherein such company or department is, a list con- g the name of each active officer and active member of his ny or department and, where there are contributing members company, the name of each contributing member who has for receding year contributed not less than twenty-five dollars be likewise furnished. (Code 1887, § 3140, 3141; 1887-8, p. 891-2, p. 1084; 1893-4, p. 380; 1902-3-4, pp. 602, 944; 1906, p. 08, p. 677; 1910, p. 68.)

evisors' Note.—The words, "the members of the General Assembly actually in session," appearing in lines two and three of the text, w. The provision exempting licensed undertakers is taken from 1902-3-4, p. 944, amending Acts 1887-8, p. 124. The provision ting persons while actually engaged in harvesting or securing grain or in cutting or securing tobacco is taken from section 3141 of ode of 1887. The provision exempting sheriffs as such and con- s is new.

the list of the military company is filed as required, the members f are exempt from summons for jury duty, and, if summoned, ot attend to make their excuses. Miller's Case, 80 Va. 33.

or further provisions as to the exemption of contributing members unteer companies, see Acts 1912, p. 622; also, this Code, section

5986. Appointment of jury commissioners.—The judge of rcuit court of each county and city, and the judge of every ourt where juries are empaneled, shall, prior to the first day nuary in each year, appoint for the next calendar year two ns as jury commissioners, who shall be competent to serve as s under the provisions of this chapter, and shall be men of gence, morality, and integrity. Such appointment shall be ed by the judge to the clerk of the court for which the ap- ment is made, who shall enter the same on the common law book of such court. Every jury commissioner shall have a five dollars a day for the time actually engaged in making he list of jurors mentioned in section fifty-nine hundred and y-eight, to be paid out of the treasury of the city or county hich he is appointed on the certificate of the judge making ppointment, or in case of his death, removal, or inability to n a certificate of his successor in office or of the judge desig- to hold his courts. No jury commissioner shall be eligible to pointment for at least two years after the expiration of the year for which he was appointed. For the purpose of this section, the two parts of the Hustings Court of the city of Richmond shall be deemed to be separate courts. (Code 1887, § 3142.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—Under section 3142 of the Code of 1887 (amended 1899-00, p. 997; 1902-3-4, p. 603), the judges of the circuit and corporation courts were required to prepare annual lists of jurors. The discharge of the duties placed upon the judges by this section was very burdensome. It was ofttimes most difficult for them to get the proper information and to make out the jury lists. After due deliberation the revisors agreed upon a plan to relieve the judges of this task by providing for the appointment of jury commissioners and prescribing their duties and compensation in the manner stated in sections 5986, 5987 and 5988. It will be observed that the jury commissioners must be men of intelligence, morality and integrity; and by restricting their terms of service to one year and providing that they shall be ineligible to reappointment for at least two years after the expiration of the year for which they were previously appointed, it was thought that they would be kept free from any undesirable influence that could possibly affect the lists. The General Assembly, however, at its session of 1918 (Acts 1918, p. 505), passed an act amending and re-enacting section 3142 of the former Code. Apparently the only end in view was to add the last seventeen words of the act concerning the city of Newport News; but the effect of the re-enactment of that section of the Code of 1887 was to repeal sections 5986, 5987, 5988 and probably 5989 and 5990 of this Code (see section 6568). The revisors, being of opinion that the General Assembly did not intend to repeal these sections, are constrained to recommend, if the sections meet with its approval, that it re-enact them at its session of 1920, with such amendment of section 5988 to provide for particular cities as may appear proper.

See section 4895 and notes; Thurman's Case, 107 Va. 912, 60 S. E. 99.

Sec. 5987. Notification of jury commissioners; their oath.—Such commissioners shall be immediately notified of their appointment by the clerk, and before entering upon a discharge of their duties shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation before the clerk of said court in the following form: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will honestly, without favor or prejudice, perform the duties of jury commissioner during the year .....; that in selecting persons to be drawn as jurors, I will select none but persons whom I believe to be of good repute for intelligence and honesty; that I will select none whom I have been requested to select, and that in all my selections I will endeavor to promote only the impartial administration of justice."

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to the preceding section.

Sec. 5988. List of jurors to be prepared by the jury commissioners.—Such commissioners shall, as soon as may be, not later than the fifteenth day of January after their appointment, prepare a list of such of the inhabitants of that county or city as are well qualified to serve as jurors and are not excluded or exempt by sections fifty-nine hundred and eighty-four and fifty-nine hundred and eighty-five of this Code. The whole number of persons se-

Digitized by Google

in the county or city shall not be less than one hundred nor than three hunderd, except that for the city of Richmond umber shall not exceed one thousand, and for the city of Nor- he number shall not exceed six hundred. The same percent- f population shall be taken from each magisterial district or The inhabitants of a city, however, which is situated in or in part within the bounds of a county shall not be placed e lists for such county.

evisors' Note.—See revisors' note to section 5986.

. 5989. Lists to be delivered to clerks, and by them safely —The list so prepared shall be delivered to the clerk of the to be safely kept by him. To such list the commissioners may, time to time, add the names of any persons liable to serve, and therefrom the names of any who have become disqualified or ot from such service, but the number on the list shall not at any exceed the number prescribed by the preceding section. (Code § 3143; 1902-3-4, p. 603.)

evisors' Note.—This section now conforms to the preceding sections s chapter.

. 5990. Names of jurors to be written on separate ballots; bal- o be folded and deposited with list in a box.—When such list de out, the commissioners shall cause all the names thereon to irly written, each on a separate paper or ballot, and shall so or roll up the ballots that they will resemble each other as y as may be, and the names written thereon not be visible on utside, and shall deposit the ballots with the said list in a e box prepared for that purpose, and the said box shall be d and safely kept by the clerk of such court and opened only e direction of the judge thereof, as hereinafter provided. (Code § 3144; 1899-00, p. 1012; 1902-3-4, p. 603.)

Revisors' Note.—This section now conforms to the preceding sections s chapter.

lee Thurman's Case, 107 Va. 912, 60 S. E. 99.

Cited but not construed in Looney's Case, 115 Va. 921, 78 S. E. 625.

. 5991. Jurors to be selected by drawing ballots from box.— urors required for the trial of civil cases in any circuit or city shall be selected by drawing ballots from the said box in the ner prescribed in this chapter; and the persons whose names vritten on the ballots so drawn shall be returned to serve as s; the said jurors for the county to be paid out of the county and those for the city to be paid by the council out of the nues of the city. (Code 1887, § 3145; 1902-3-4, p. 603.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence of this section as it appears in ct from which it is taken has been omitted.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 116, section 3.

. 5992. When and how ballots drawn, and what number; when re facias issued and persons drawn summoned; return by offi-

Digitized by Google

cer; when ballot drawn to be destroyed and another juror drawn.—The clerk of each circuit, corporation, and city court shall, at least ten days before any term of such court at which a jury may be necessary, to be designated by the judge of such court, proceed to draw the jury by lot from the ballots deposited in the said box in the following manner, in the presence of the judge of such court, if present; if not, then in the presence of the Commonwealth's attorney, or a commissioner in chancery of his own court, if there be one, and if none, of some other court of his city, which commissioner shall have been previously designated by the court in which the jury is to sit, upon an order entered of record. In the event of the absence, for good cause, of the Commonwealth's attorney, or the said commissioner in chancery, or both of them, the clerk shall call upon one or two citizens, as the case may be, to witness the drawing of the ballots from the jury box. The clerk of each court shall give reasonable notice, in writing, to the Commonwealth's attorney and said commissioner in chancery of the time and place of drawing the jury, and shall openly draw from said jury box in the clerk's office. After shaking and mixing together the ballots in said box, nine ballots (without inspecting the names written on any until the proper number is drawn) shall be drawn and listed by the clerk, and he shall forthwith issue and deliver a writ of venire facias to the proper officer of the county or city requiring him to summon the persons thus drawn, whose names shall be stated in the writ, together with the day of the term and the court at which their attendance is required; and it shall be the duty of the officer, at least three days before the time of such attendance, to summon each person who is drawn to attend the court at the time and place mentioned in the writ, and to make due return thereof at the opening of such court. If any person whose name is so drawn is known to be unable by reason of sickness, absence from home or other cause to attend as a juror, his name shall be returned to the box, or if he is exempt by law or his name has been stricken from the jury list, the ballot shall be destroyed, and another juror shall be drawn in his stead. (Code 1887, § 3146; 1887-8, p. 124; 1889-90, p. 143; 1899-00, p. 1252; 1902-3-4, p. 604; 1904, p. 123.)

Revisors' Note.—The phraseology of this section has been somewhat changed, the chief object being to provide by general language for the various city courts in the larger cities of the Commonwealth.

See note of Ashlock's case, cited under section 4895.

Cited but not construed in Patrick's Case, 115 Va. 933, 78 S. E. 628; Looney's Case, 115 Va. 921; 78 S. E. 625.

Sec. 5993. When and how court or judge may order greater number of jurors; duty of clerk in such case; issue of venire facias.—Whenever, in the opinion of any such court, or the judge thereof in vacation, a greater number of jurors than nine is necessary for the

Digitized by Google

ch of the business of such court, such opinion shall be entered ord. together with the number of jurors deemed necessary. pon such order it shall be the duty of the clerk of said court ify the Commonwealth's attorney and the said commissioner ncery, as provided by law, and draw from the jury box of urt the number of names designated by the court or judge, case may be, and the clerk of said court shall issue a venire accordingly. (Code 1887, § 3147; 1889-90, p. 144; 1899-00, p. 1902-3-4, p. 604; 1904, p. 122.)

5994. What endorsed on ballot, when drawn; what entered.—When any person is drawn and returned to serve as a juror resaid, the judge, if present, if not, the Commonwealth's at- or commissioner in chancery, shall cause to be endorsed on llot containing his name, the word "drawn," and shall return he box; and the date of the draft shall be entered on the list ors opposite his name. (Code 1887, § 3148.)

5995. No person liable to serve as juror more than once dur- me year.—No person, who, in pursuance of such draft, has ly attended any court and served as a juror, shall be liable drawn again during the same year, unless all the persons names are in the jury box have been drawn to serve during ear. (Code 1887, § 3149.)

5996. How juries selected from the jurors.—On the day the jurors are summoned to attend at any court, the clerk write the name of each one who shall be in attendance and xcused, on a separate paper or ballot, and place the same in to be kept for that purpose; and juries for the trial of cases be selected therefrom by lot. (Code 1887, § 3150.)

5997. Fine of juror for non-attendance.—If any person, duly oned to attend as a juror in any court, shall neglect to at- without sufficient excuse, he shall pay a fine not exceeding y dollars, to be imposed by the court. (Code 1887, § 3151.)

5998. The court may discharge jurors or dispense with their dance; no person eligible for whom request is made.—Any shall have power to discharge persons summoned as jurors n, or to dispense with their attendance on any day of its sit- No person shall be eligible to service on any jury where he, y person for him, solicits or requests a jury commissioner to his name in a jury box, or in any way designates such person juror. (Code 1887, § 3152; 1899-00, p. 1126.)

Revisors' Note.—Formerly, this section provided that no person l be required to serve more than ten days as a juror at any term urt. This provision sometimes subjected courts to inconvenience. s frequently last more than ten days, and it was not deemed un- nable to deprive a juror of the right to be discharged solely because d already served ten days, hence this provision has been omitted. ast sentence of the revised section conforms to section 5986. The residue of the section as it stood before the revision has been o view of the following section.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 5999. When not enough jurors, how deficiency su When, by reason of challenge or otherwise, a sufficient nu jurors summoned, cannot be obtained for the trial of any court may cause a sufficient number to be returned from standers, or issue a writ of venire facias for jurors from th or corporation at large; and whenever the court deems i for the convenient dispatch of business, it may cause a venire facias to be issued for so many jurors as may be n All of said jurors shall be summoned from a list of persons serve as jurors to be furnished the officer by the court. venire facias issued under this section shall be executed turned as the court shall direct. (Code 1887, § 3153.)

See sections 4895-6 and notes.

Sec. 6000. Examination of juror as to interest, prejudice not indifferent another to be supplied.—The court shall, o of either party in any suit, or may of its own accord, exa oath any person who is called as a juror therein to ascertai er he is related to either party, or has any interest in th or has expressed or formed any opinion, or is sensible of an prejudice therein; and the party objecting to any juror troduce any competent evidence in support of the objecti if it shall appear to the court that the juror does not sta ferent in the cause, another shall be drawn or called and p his stead for the trial of that cause. And in every case the and defendant may each challenge one juror peremptorily the jury consists of seven. (Code 1887, § 3154; 1902-3-4, 1904, p. 73.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "or may of its own accord," line two of the text, are new.

A juror cannot be asked on his voir dire whether he is p against corporations. Atlantic & D. Ry. Co. v. Reiger, 95 28 S. E. 590.

Where a question is asked a juror on his voir dire which permitted to answer, the action of the trial court will not be in the appellate court, unless the bill of exceptions shows wha was expected on what the parties proposed to prove by the juro

The mere fact that a juror is indebted to one of the par not render him incompetent. Richardson v. Planters' Bank, 94 26 S. E. 413.

The fact that a juror had been deputy sheriff when the kil place, and had pursued the prisoner, did not disqualify the furnish ground for a new trial; certainly not when the objec not brought to the attention of the court until after the verdict. Case, 92 Va. 772, 22 S. E. 858.

The fact that a juror who was a carpenter was at the tim summoned engaged on a temporary job for the defendant, v thought was terminated by the summons, is not sufficient aside the verdict, the plaintiff having known the facts, but not o and it appearing that he has suffered no injury by the service a juror. Reynolds v. Richmond & M. Ry. Co., 92 Va. 400, 23 S

The fact that one of the jurors in a civil case is a friend of t

Digitized by Google

nd that he is his family physician, does not per se disqualify him. peake & O. R. Co. v. Smith, 103 Va. 326, 49 S. E. 487.
Where party had opportunity to question jurors before sworn, and l no objection, he cannot be heard after the verdict. Simmons v. nnell, 86 Va. 494, 10 S. E. 838.
t is not assignable error that a proper juror was improperly ex- d, where it is shown that the prisoner has had a fair and impartial by jury free from exception. Fishburne's Case, 103 Va. 1023, E. 443.
Cited in Hodges v. Com., 89 Va. 267, 15 S. E. 513. See notes to n 6001.
See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 820; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 597; Burks' Pl. , pp. 471, 472, 473.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 116, section 17.

c. 6001. When exception to juror not allowed.—No exception y juror on account of his age or other legal disability, shall lowed after he is sworn, unless by leave of the court. (Code § 3155.)

The principle of this section is applicable alike to civil and criminal Poindexter's Case, 33 Grat. 766, 791; Hite's Case, 96 Va. 489, 496, 31 S. E. 895.
Too late to object to juror after verdict (Poindexter's Csae, 33 Grat. 791), even though disability created by the Constitution (Puryear m., 83 Va. 51, 1 S. E. 512); but it has been decided that after t any objection is addressed to the sound discretion of the Court ges v. Com., 89 Va. 267, 268, 15 S. E. 513).
Where trial court overrules motion to exclude jurors, and exception e ruling is not made till after verdict, it comes too late. Town of k v. Parker, 79 Va. 660, 52 Am. Rep. 640.
See next section and notes.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 116, section 18.

c. 6002. Irregularity cured by verdict.—No irregularity in writ of venire facias or in the drawing, summoning, returning, mpanelling of jurors shall be sufficient to set aside a verdict ss the party making the objection was injured by the irregu- y or unless the objection specifically pointing out such irregu- ies was made before the swearing of the jury; and no judg- shall be arrested or reversed for the failure of the record to that there was a venire facias unless made a ground of ex- on in the trial court before the jury is sworn. (Code 1887, 56; 1893-4, p. 494.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "specifically pointing out such irregu- es" are new. The last sentence of the act (cited at the end of ection) provided that, "This act shall apply to jurors and juries in ases, criminal as well as civil." This sentence has been omitted. section 4895.

Objection must be made before swearing of the jury, unless party own to be injured by the irregularity. Parsons v. Harper, 16 64.
After verdict it is too late to take advantage of an error in the ge of the clerk to the jury. Rogers' Case, 1 Va. Dec. 798, 19 162.
This section cured the irregularity where county judge failed to e the annual jury list, but gave the clerk a list of twenty-eight names rsons who were summoned as jurors, and from whom the jury was regularly chosen without exception. Town of Suffolk v. Pa Va. 660, 52 Am. Rep. 640.

Digitized by Google

An exception to the regularity of summoning and consti jury comes too late after verdict where it does not appear that was injured thereby. Charlottesville v. Failes, 103 Va. 53, 57, 511; Reynolds v. Richmond & M. Ry. Co., 92 Va. 400, 23 S. E

The question of irregularity in the manner of summoning stituting a special jury is not reviewable on error, where the was not taken until after the verdict. Charlottesville v. Failes, 53, 48 S. E. 511, 10 Va. Law Reg. 536.

See last paragraph of section 4895, which is applicable to cases, and notes thereon.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 116, section 19.

Sec. 6003. Trial judge not to direct verdicts.—In no acti before a jury shall the trial judge give to the jury a per instruction directing what verdict the jury shall render. p. 52.)

See articles on the subject of directing verdicts, 16 Va. L 241, 384, 401.

Sec. 6004. Fine of officers, etc., for neglect of duty.—W neglect of any of the duties required in this chapter to be pe by any of the officers or persons mentioned therein, the juro returned shall not be duly drawn and summoned to att court, any person guilty of such neglect, shall pay a fine ceeding twenty dollars, to be imposed by the court. (Co § 3157.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 823.

Sec. 6005. How special juries formed.—Any court, in a cas a jury is required, may allow a special jury, which s formed in the following manner: The court shall order su sons to be summoned, as it shall designate for the purpo from those summoned, a panel of twenty qualified jurors, fr just cause of exception, shall be made, from which sixteen chosen by lot. Thereupon, the parties or their counsel, be with the plaintiff, shall alternately strike off one from the so chosen, until the number is reduced to twelve, who sha pose the jury for the trial of the cause. If the parties or the sel decline or fail to strike off any from the sixteen, or i one or more has been stricken off and the number remai greater than twelve, the party or his counsel, entitled next i to strike off, decline or fail to do so, then a jury of twelve trial of the cause shall be chosen by lot from the sixteen number remaining as aforesaid, as the case may be. (Co § 3158.)

Revisors' Note.—See, as affecting this section, Acts 1918, 146, p. 265.

The allowance or refusal of a special jury is a matter restin sound judicial discretion of the court. Atlantic & D. R. Co. v. 87 Va. 130, 12 S. E. 348. That discretion will not be interfer where there was no showing that the facts alleged were true, a nade to appear on appeal that any injury resulted from refusal. ern Ry. Co. v. Oliver, 102 Va. 710, 47 S. E. 862.

Digitized by Google

See note of Charlottesville v. Failes, 103 Va. 53, 48 S. E. 511, section 6002.
In selecting a special jury by lot it is immaterial whether four are n by lot from the panel of twenty, leaving sixteen, or sixteen are n by lot, leaving four who are to be discharged; either method lies with the letter and the spirit of the law. Duke v. Norfolk & ern R. R. Co., 106 Va. 152, 55 S. E. 548.
Cited but not construed in Ches. & O. R. Co. v. Carnahan, 118 Va. 5 S. E. 863.
See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 597; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 822; Burks' Pl. , p. 473.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 116, section 21.

c. 6006. Whence jurors obtained for trial of case to which a town, or county, is a party; how the venire facias directed and ited; how jury formed.—If, in any case which is to be tried by y, a county, city, or town be a party, and the trial is to be n a court of said county or city, the said court, or the judge of in vacation, shall, upon the application of either party, or- uch number of persons (not less than twenty), qualified to on juries, as the court or judge may prescribe, to be sum- d from an adjacent county, city, or town. A writ of venire shall be issued for the purpose, directed to the sheriff or ser- , to summon the number of persons specified, from a list to rnished either by the trial judge or by the judge of the cir- r corporation court of the county or city from which the jurors be summoned, and from those summoned, a panel of twenty fied jurors, free from just cause of exception, shall be made, which a jury of twelve for the trial of the case shall be chosen manner prescribed by the preceding section. A writ of venire awarded under this section may be directed to and executed e sheriff or sergeant of the county or corporation in which ial is to be had, or from which the jurors are to come. (Code § 3159.)

Revisors' Note.—The provision that the jurors shall be summoned a list furnished either by the trial judge or by the judge of the or corporation court of the county or city from which the jurors be summoned is new, and seems desirable in order to have the properly selected. For a similar provision applicable to criminal see section 4901.
See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 597.

. 6007. Pay and mileage of jurors.—Every person summoned juror shall be entitled to one dollar and fifty cents for each f attendance upon the court, and at the rate of five cents per for each mile of travel by most direct route in going to and ning from court; such mileage, however, in no case to exceed ollar per day, except when summoned for the trial of cases ded for in the preceding section, in which cases the court may them their actual expenses in addition to their per diem,

Digitized by Google

such pay and mileage to be paid out of the county or corp levy.

And when during the same day a person has served as for which he is entitled to be paid out of the public treasu has also served as a juror, for which he is entitled to be p of the county or corporation levy, the court shall divide and mileage for such day between the State and the county poration; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff or sergeant term of the court during which an allowance is made or h made under this section, to furnish the clerk of such court statement, showing the number and names of the jurors in ance upon the court, and the number of miles respectively o as aforesaid. In every case the claim of the juror, for att and for mileage, as aforesaid, shall be verified by his affid cities, where the jurors are summoned to attend courts held cities such jurors shall only receive one dollar for each da tendance upon said court without serving upon a jury. (Co § 3160; 1895-6, p. 827; 1908, p. 27.)

Revisors' Note.—See, as affecting this section, Acts 1918,

Sec. 6008. Juror departing without leave, etc., not entitled —No person shall be entitled to receive any compensation vice as a juror, if he shall depart without the leave of th or, being summoned as a witness for the Commonwealt charge for his attendance as such. (Code 1887, § 3161.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 823.

Sec. 6009. Clerks to enter amount due each juror and ho to be paid.—The clerk of any court in which juries are im shall, before its final adjournment at each term, and under rection of the court, make an entry upon its minutes, stat amount to which each juror is entitled for his services or ance during the term, and specifying how much is payable Commonwealth, and how much by the county or corporation 1887, § 3163.)

Sec. 6010. Clerk to transmit to Auditor list of allowa jurors against the State, and to deliver to jurors copies of ances made them; treasurers to pay jurors; how reimbursed payment of such allowances barred.—It shall be the duty clerk immediately after the adjournment of the court to t to the Auditor of Public Accounts a list of all orders under ceding section, making allowances against the Commonweal to the treasurer of the county or city a list of all such orde ing allowances against the city or county, with a certificat correctness of the list and the aggregate amount thereof si the judge of the court and himself annexed thereto, and deliver to each juror certified copies of any orders making lowance to him, whether the same be payable by the Commo

Digitized by Google

y the county or corporation; and the treasurer of such county orporation shall upon demand pay to such juror the amount ved him, which shall be repaid to the said treasurer out of public treasury or out of the county or corporation levy, as ase may be, upon the production of satisfactory proof that the has been actually paid by him, but the said treasurer shall not epaid any allowance made against the Commonwealth unless ppears on the list herein directed to be sent to the Auditor of ic Accounts; no such allowance shall be paid unless presented in two years from the time of rendering the service. (Code , § 3164; 1895-6, p. 484.)

c. 6011. When a person not to serve as juror.—No person shall dmitted to serve as a juror at a term of a court during which as any matter of controversy, which has been or is expected to ied by a jury during the same term. (Code 1887, § 3165.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 823; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 598.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 116, section 28.

c. 6012. Waiver of trial by jury; number of jurors for trial of cases.—In any case, unless one of the parties demand that the be tried by a jury, the whole matter of law and of fact may eard and determined, and judgment given by the court. In cases the jury shall consist of five persons in cases now cog- ble by justices of the peace, and of seven in cases not so cog- ble. And in any case in which the consent of the plaintiff and ndant shall be entered of record it shall be lawful for the plaint- o select one person, who is eligible as a juror, and for the de- ant to select another, and for the two so selected to select a l of like qualifications, and the three so selected shall consti- a jury in the case. They shall take the oath required of jurors, hear and determine the issue, and any two concurring shall er a verdict in like manner and with like effect as a jury of n: provided, this section shall not be so construed as to affect ny way the empanelling of special juries as provided in section thousand and five. (Code 1887, § 3166; 1902-3-4, p. 605.)

Where a jury is waived, and whole matter of law and evidence is itted to and determined by the court, and, its judgment being ex- ed to, the evidence is certified, the bill of exceptions will be treated his court as on a demurrer to the evidence. Randolph v. Longdale Co., 84 Va. 457, 5 S. E. 30. In this connection, see section 6363 revisors' note.

If record shows that parties agreed to a jury of eleven, the verdict at number is valid. Roach v. Blakey. 89 Va. 767, 17 S. E. 228.

In enforcing a liability arising under the Federal Employers' Liability of which the State courts are expressly given jurisdiction, the de- ant has no right to demand a jury of twelve, or one composed of other manner than that prescribed by the laws of this State. Chesa- e & Ohio Ry. Co. v. Carhahan, 118 Va. 46, 86 S. E. 863.

Under the Constitution of 1869, this section did not apply to criminal s. Mays' Case, 82 Va. 550; Ford's Case, Id. 553.

Digitized by Google

Cited in note to article on the enforcement of rights un Federal Law in State Court, 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 734.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 823, 926; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 59 714, 1250.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Anno chapter 116, section 29.

Sec. 6013. Views by juries.—The jury may, in any case, criminal, at the request of either party, be taken to view the ises or place in question, or any property, matter or thing, r to the controversy between the parties, when it shall app the court that such view is necessary to a just decision: pr that in a civil case the party making the motion shall adv sum sufficient to defray the expenses of the jury, and the who attend them in taking the view, which expenses shall b wards taxed like other legal costs. (Code 1887, § 3167; 190 605.)

The general rule is that motions for views by juries are ad to the sound discretion of the trial court, and the ruling of the tri thereon will not be reversed by the appellate court, unless it appea the record that a view was necessary to a just decision. B & O v. Polly, Woods & Co., 14 Grat. 447, 470; Stonegap Co. v. H 119 Va. 271, 89 S. E. 305.

This section was made to apply expressly to criminal cases. fo the opinion in Litton's Case, 101 Va. 833, 44 S. E. 923, where the of the statute will be found.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1322; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 731; Pl. & Pr., p. 588.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Anno chapter 116, section 30.

Sec. 6014. Disclosure by juror.—A juror, knowing anythi tive to a fact in issue, shall disclose the same in open court 1887, § 3168.)

A new trial ought not to be granted on the affidavits of tw jurors that they were influenced in their verdict by one of th body in the jury room. Price's Ex'r v. Warren, 1 Hen. & M. 3

For a juror to say upon hearing a fact testified by a witnes sir; I know all about it; that's so"—is only in obedience to this Atlantic & D. R. Co. v. Peake, 87 Va. 130, 12 S. E. 348.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 116, section 31.

CHAPTER 250.

Justices of the Peace and Their Jurisdiction, and Warrants fo Claims.

Sec.
6015.	Of what a justice to have jurisdiction.
6016.	Procedure when plaintiff swears to his claim.
6017.	Removal to court.
6018.	Trial in court; defective or irregular warrants.
6019.	In what cases justic peace shall not ha diction in a suit or
6020.	How warrant issued ed, and returnable executed; how se corporation.

Digitized by Google

1. How witnesses summoned and compelled to attend.
2. How and when warrant tried and judgment given; when justice shall associate with himself other justices.
3. Judgment to be endorsed on papers.
4. Justice's record book; what to be entered therein; when delivered to clerk.
5. Justice to deliver abstract of judgment.
6. When and by whom new trial awarded.
7. How appeal allowed or execution stayed.
8. When and by whom writ tax to be paid in cases appealed from justices of the peace or civil justices.
9. When and how execution issued.
10. How directed and returnable; how renewed.
11. Clerk to docket and index executions; his fee; how further executions issued and directed.
12. In proceedings against officer for failure to pay over money, etc.; what to be evidence; duty of justice.

Sec.
6033. Officer fined for failure to return execution; motion before, and judgment by justice against officer and sureties for amount of execution.
6034. Officer and sureties liable for money collected after, as well as before, return day of execution; also for moneys received for claims; when receipt therefor evidence of collection.
6035. Proceedings before a justice to try the title of property levied on under distress warrant or execution from justice; when and how appeal allowed.
6036. Duty of justice and clerk; when appeal allowed.
6037. Where appeal cognizable.
6038. How tried; judgment.
6039. Notice to try appeal; preference over other cases.
6040. To give circuit courts jurisdiction of scire facias or action to revive judgments of justices of the peace.

ec. 6015. Of what a justice to have jurisdiction.—Any claim to ific personal property, or to any debt, fine, or other money, or damages for breach of any contract, or for any injury done to perty, real and personal, which would be recoverable by action aw or suit in equity, shall, when the claim is to a fine, if the unt of such claim does not exceed twenty dollars, and in all er cases, if the claim do not exceed three hundred dollars (exive of interest), be cognizable by a justice, even though the m be for or against the city, town, or county in which such jus- resides. Justices shall also have jurisdiction of actions of awful entry or detainer in cases provided by section fifty-four dred and forty-five. (Code 1887, § 2939; 1891-2, p. 975; 1902- p. 670; 1916, p. 758.)

Revisors' Note.—This and the three following sections are based he same act (Acts 1916, p. 758). The last sentence of section 6015 ew. Section 6016 takes the place of the second and third sentences he act. Section 6017 makes material changes in the law. Formerly, he amount or thing in controversy exceeded the sum or value of ENTY dollars, upon application of the defendant, and upon affidavit he had a substantial defense thereto, the justice was required to ove the case to the court. It will be observed that under section 6017 the sum or value of the subject of the controversy must FIFTY dollars before a removal may be had, but that no affida substantial defense is required. The affidavit is dispensed with reason that under the former law such affidavits were ofte promiscuously, and when the cases were called in court, no whatever were set up. Under the revised section 6017, the j not required to remove the case until the accrued costs and the have been paid, and on removal the justice is to transmit to t the writ tax received by him. As to the writ tax in cases of ap section 6028. Formerly, also, it was provided that the remo should not be tried at any term except by consent of the parties it shall have been docketed ten days previous thereto. This p is omitted, and now the trial may be had when the case is rea the docket, unless a postponement or continuance be granted as cases.

Digitized by Google

A writ of prohibition will be awarded to prevent a justi taking jurisdiction of a debt in excess of one hundred dolla three hundred) which has been split up into notes, each less t hundred dollars, all of which are due, and for which separate are being prosecuted. But if these proceed to judgment with sent or acquiescence of the defendant, such judgments cannot b after collaterally assailed by third persons. Consent cannot gi diction, but in this case the justice had jurisdiction over the a each judgment. Adams v. Jennings, 103 Va. 579, 49 S. E. 98

A claim due under a contract exceeding the jurisdiction of of the peace cannot be split up into several amounts to bring the his jurisdiction. Adams v. Jennings, 103 Va. 579, 10 Va. L 1079, 1084, and note, 49 S. E. 982.

When the cause of action is not within the jurisdiction gr law to the tribunal, the court will dismiss the suit at any time w fact is brought to its notice. W. U. Tel Co. v. Pettyjohn, 88 13 S. E. 431.

The penalty imposed by section 1292 of the Code of 1887 fine, justice has no jurisdiction of a claim to recover the same, ceeds twenty dollars. Id. See section 4042.

For note of case in which justice's jurisdiction was denied of personal injury, see 10 Va. Law Reg. 828.

For notes as to jurisdiction of justice of the peace to recov see 10 Va. Law Reg. 239, 941.

See note to N. & W. Ry. Co. v. Overton, 3 Va. Law Reg.

Sufficiency of the evidence whereon judgment is founded ca inquired into on habeas corpus where the justice had jurisdiction conduct of the case has been in strict conformity with the procedure in such cases. Ex parte Marx, 86 Va. 40, 9 S. E. 47

A judgment against an infant defendant seems to be unless the infant's interests were represented by a guardian a duly appointed (22 Cyc. p. 641), and it seems that a justice peace has inherent power to appoint a guardian ad litem. Id. 6

See section 4987 and following, relating to what criminal police justices and justices of the peace may try.

Concerning justices of the peace for cities and police justi chapter 123; civil and police justices and civil justices, chap trial justices in counties having a population in excess of three persons per square mile, section 4988.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 38, note; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1 973; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 10, 40, 44, 785; Gregory's Forms N 462, 620, 621.

Sec. 6016. Procedure when plaintiff swears to his claim.— warrant be upon an account or contract express or implied

Digitized by Google

nent of money, affidavits may be made and like proceedings as is provided by section sixty-one hundred and thirty-three, n action of assumpsit. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to the preceding section.

c. 6017. Removal to court.—In every case cognizable by a jus- where the amount or thing in controversy exceeds the sum or e of fifty dollars, the justice shall, at any time before trial, upon application of the defendant, and upon the payment by him of costs accrued and writ tax, remove the case, and all the papers eof, to the circuit court of the county or to the corporation t of the city wherein the warrant has been brought and transmit he clerk the writ tax received by him, and the clerk of the court shall forthwith docket the case. On the trial of the case proceedings shall conform to proceedings under section six thou- and forty-six. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to section 6015.

See 14 Va. L. R. 810, where the opinion is expressed that unlawful and detainer cases are not removable.

c. 6018. Trial in court; defective or irregular warrants.—Ap- s under section six thousand and twenty-seven from justices warrants removed under the preceding section shall be tried ac- ing to the principles of law and equity, and where the same lict the principles of equity shall prevail. No warrant shall be issed by reason of the mere defects, irregularities, or omissions e proceedings before the justice, or in respect to the form of the rant, where the same may be corrected by a proper order of the t; but the court to which the appeal is taken, or the warrant oved shall retain the same, with full power to direct all neces- amendments, to enter such orders and direct such proceed- as will tend to correct the defects, irregularities, and omissions esaid, to promote substantial justice to all parties, and to bring t a trial of the merits of the controversy. This statute shall be rally construed, to the end that justice be not delayed or de- by reason of errors in the warrant or in the form of the pro- lings; and the court may make such provision as to costs and inuances as may be just. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to section 6015.

c. 6019. In what cases justices of the peace shall not have juris- ion in a suit or warrant.—If a justice of the peace be a party to it or warrant, or be interested in the result thereof, otherwise as a resident or taxpayer of the district or county, or be re- d to either of the parties as grandfather, father, father-in-law, son-in-law, brother, brother-in-law, nephew, uncle, first cousin, rdian, or ward, or be a material witness for either party, or has such claim in his hands for collection for compensation, he l not take cognizance thereof, unless all parties to the suit con- thereto in writing. To any judgment entered by a justice in such case, without such consent, an appeal may be taken reg of amount in controversy as other appeals are taken, and suc ment shall be annulled and set aside; but unless an appeal taken the judgment shall be valid and binding. But when a is under such disabilities, any other justice in the same distr exercise jurisdiction in the case, or if there be no other disint justice in the same district, then any other justice in the same may exercise jurisdiction, if there be no other objection. I in this section shall be construed as permitting or authorizi tices of the peace to receive claims or evidences of debt for tion. (1912, p. 574.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6020. How warrant issued, directed, and returnable executed; how served on corporation.—A justice, when app by any person, shall issue a warrant directed to a constable sheriff or sergeant of the county or corporation wherein fendant resides, together with a copy thereof, requiring summon the person against whom the claim is to appear bef or some other justice on a certain day, not exceeding thirt from the date thereof, to answer such claim. It shall be m turnable to some place within the magisterial district in wh defendant, or, if there be more than one, either defendant unless the justice, for good cause, direct it to be returned t other place within his county or corporation. If a public corporation be defendant, the warrant may be issued and t the county or corporation in which the cause of action or a thereof arose. The warrant may be executed in any part county or corporation. The warrant shall be served as provi in sections six thousand and forty-one, six thousand and sixt and six thousand and sixty-four. (Code 1887, § 2940; 188 57; 1893-4, p. 579; 1897-8, p. 942; 1899-00, p. 445.)

Revisors' Note.—The change in the language of lines two an of the text to "a constable or the sheriff or sergeant of the co corporation" was made in order to conform to the language sections 6030 and 6031. The words, "or in which the cause o arose" appear in section 2940 of the Code of 1887, but this sect afterwards amended so as to restrict the venue of the warrant county or corporation in which the defendant or one of the def resides. In making this change, the draftsman failed to strike the section the words "or in which the cause of section arose," creating confusion. They no longer appear in this part of the
The words, "But in no case shall a warrant be made returnab county or corporation other than that in which the defendant or them resides," formerly appear in this section, are unnecessary is provided above that the warrant should be returnable to som in the magisterial district of the defendant, unless the justice fo cause shown direct it to be returned to some other place wit county or corporation. It should be observed that under the section the good cause need not be shown ON OATH, as was t before the revision. The words in the section as it formerly rea ing a corporation reside in any county or corporation through wh

Digitized by Google

f transportation runs, or in which it does business, were likely to rouble in the matter of service of process. The object, no doubt, o give jurisdiction where the cause of action arose, and the third nce of the revised section provides that, "if a PUBLIC SERVICE ration be defendant, the warrant may be issued and tried in the y or corporation in which the cause of action or any part thereof ."

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 157, 247, 575, 648, 9 Va. L. Reg. 241; Greg- Forms No. 430; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 40.

There is a special act making Henrico County Courthouse, in the f Richmond, a part of each of the four magisterial districts of the y. Acts 1912, p. 489. It would seem therefore, that all warrants st residents of said county may be made returnable to the court-.

c. 6021. How witnesses summoned and compelled to attend.— oenas for witnesses may be issued by a justice directed to a able, sheriff, or sergeant of any county or corporation. Any on summoned to attend as a witness before a justice who shall so to attend shall, unless he show a reasonable excuse therefor in ten days after being summoned to state such excuse, be fined e justice before whom the failure occurred a sum not exceeding dollars for the use of the party on whose behalf he was sum- ed. (Code 1887, § 2941; 1889-90, p. 57.)

Revisors' Note.—The word "sergeant" in line two of the text is See first sentence of revisors' note to the preceding section.

Discussion of this section as applied to oral summoning of witnesses, a. Law Reg. 624.

c. 6022. How and when warrant tried and judgment given; when ce shall associate with himself other justices.—The justice shall uch warrant according to the principles of law and equity, and judgment for the sum due to either party, with interest, or he property to which the plaintiff is entitled (or its value), with ages. Costs shall be awarded or refused to either party on like ciples. In the trial of all warrants, both civil and criminal, upon ication of the defendant, at any time before trial, to the jus- of the peace, who issued said warrant and before whom it is rnable, such justice shall associate with himself two other jus- of the peace of the county, who shall try said warrant, and in of disagreement in opinion, the opinion of the majority shall ail; but no such trial of any civil warrant shall be had within days after the service of the warrant, except with the consent of parties. (Code 1887, § 2942; 1904, p. 98; 1914, p. 44.)

If tried in less than five days without consent, error is jurisdictional. nton Perpetual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. Haden, 92 Va. 201, 23 S. E.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 248, 249.

c. 6023. Judgment to be endorsed on papers.—The justice ren- ng any such judgment shall endorse on the face of the writing, unt, or other paper, on which the warrant issued, or on any ing, account, or other paper, allowed as a set off, the date and

Digitized by Google

amount of the judgment and costs, and affix his name there
(Code 1887, § 2943.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 249.

Sec. 6024. Justice's record book; what to be entered therein; wh delivered to clerk.—He shall also, in a book kept for the purpose, e ter the date of the judgment, the name of the person for, and the person against, whom it is, and its amount; also the date any execution issued thereon, and to whom delivered. If he f to do so, he shall forfeit twenty dollars. The cost of said bo shall be chargeable on the county or corporation. When the sa book is completed, or in case of a vacancy in his office by deat resignation, removal, or otherwise, it shall be delivered to the cle of the circuit court of his county or the corporation court of l city by the justice, if alive, and by his personal representative, he be dead, to be kept by said clerk among the records of his offi if it be completed, but otherwise to be delivered to his success in office. (Code 1887, § 2944.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence of this section is substitut for the last sentence of the section as contained in the Code of 18 There would seem to be no necessity for multiplying these books, a for having a new book every time there is a new justice. If the book h been completed, it ought to be kept in the clerk's office; if it has n been completed, it should be turned over to the succeeding justice, a be a continuing record of the office.

Sec. 6025. Justice to deliver abstract of judgment.—The just rendering any such judgment shall certify and deliver an abstra thereof at any time during his continuance in office to any p son interested therein who may desire to have the same dockete but if the justice rendering said judgment be absent from his cou ty or corporation or his office be vacant such abstract of judgme may be made and certified by his successor in office or any oth justice of the county or corporation. (Code 1887, § 2945.)

Sec. 6026. When and by whom new trial awarded.—After thi days from any such judgment, no new trial shall be granted the case, nor shall it be granted within the thirty days, unless opposite party be present at the time of the application, or unl after five days' notice to him (if in the county or corporation) the time and place of the application for such new trial. The j tice, who rendered the judgment, shall alone have power to gra such new trial, while he is in office; if he die, resign, be abse from the county, or be removed, it may be granted by anot justice. If the warrant be tried by three justices under sect six thousand and twenty-two, a new trial may be granted by a two of them while in office. (Code 1887, § 2946.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence is new.

A writ of prohibition will be granted to restrain a justice from lowing a new trial after more than thirty days after judgment, and estrain defendant from proceeding after such new trial is allowed. Burroughs v. Taylor, 90 Va. 55, 17 S. E. 745.

Digitized by Google

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 249.

Sec. 6027. How appeal allowed or execution stayed.—If the judgment be for a sum exceeding ten dollars the justice may stay execution on it sixty days from its date on such security being given for its payment as he may deem sufficient. From any such judgment the justice rendering it may, within ten days, on such security being given as he approves for the payment of such judgment as may be rendered on appeal by the appellate court against the defendant and all costs and damages, allow an appeal where the case involves the constitutionality or validity of a statute of this State or of an ordinance or by-law of a corporation, or where the matter in controversy exclusive of interest is of greater amount or value than ten dollars. Where the appeal is by a party against whom there is no recovery except for costs the security shall be for such costs and damages as may be awarded against him on the appeal if the judgment of the justice be affirmed. The verbal acknowledgment of any surety taken under this section shall be sufficient, and the endorsement by the justice of the name of the surety upon the warrant on which the judgment is rendered shall be conclusive evidence of such acknowledgment. The court in which the appeal is cognizable may on motion for good cause shown require the appellant to give new or additional security, reasonable notice of such motion having been given to said appellant, and if he fail to give such security the appeal shall be dismissed with costs, and the court shall award execution on the judgment rendered by the justice, with costs, against the appellant and his surety. (Code 1887, § 2947; 1893-4, p. 558.)

Revisors' Note.—Formerly, if the judgment was for more than ten and not over twenty dollars, the justice was permitted to stay execution forty days; if for more than twenty and not over thirty dollars, he was allowed to stay execution sixty days; and if for more than thirty dollars, ninety days. No good reason being seen for these variations, the revised section makes the law uniform, and under it if the judgment be for a sum exceeding ten dollars, the justice may stay execution on it sixty days from its date.

The words, "of a statute of this State or," appearing in the second sentence, are new, and would seem to be necessary in order to meet the objection raised in Southern Ry. Co. v. Hill, 106 Va. 501, 56 S. E. 278.

No appeal lies to the county court from a judgment of a justice for ten dollars and costs. Costs are no part of the matter in controversy. N. & W. R. Co. v. Clark, 92 Va. 118, 22 S. E. 867; Shafer v. C. & O. R. Co., 2 Va. Dec. 252, 23 S. E. 221.

Although the fine imposed was less than $10 an appeal lay from a judgment of a justice to the Circuit Court for a penalty imposed under sections 2071 and 2073 of the Code of 1887. Jernigan v. Com., 104 Va. 850, 52 S. E. 361.

As to appeals from justices in cattle-guard cases, see section 3954; unlawful entry and detainer, section 5449.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 250; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1176.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6028. When and by whom writ tax to be paid in ca pealed from justices of the peace or civil justices.—When peal is taken from the judgment of a justice of the peac civil justice, the party taking such appeal shall, within thirt from the date of such appeal, pay to the clerk of the co which such appeal has been taken the amount of the writ fixed by law, and in the event of his failure to do so, the shall stand dismissed, and the judgment of the justice of the or civil justice affirmed, and the original papers shall be re to the said justice or civil justice, who shall enter judgment any surety given at the time of appeal as a matter of (1910, p. 510.)

Revisors' Note.—The act of 1910 cited at the end of this applied to cases removed as well as cases appealed. The revised above is restricted to appealed cases. As to the writ tax in c removal, see section 6017 and revisors' note to section 6015.

Sec. 6029. When and how execution issued.—The justi dering any judgment may issue a writ of fieri facias there mediately, if there be not a new trial granted, nor an app lowed, nor a stay of execution; and where there is such s execution, if the judgment be not paid within the sixty d writ of fieri facias shall thereupon be issued by a justice the party and his surety jointly, on which no security sh taken. When the judgment is for personal property, the p may, at his option, have a writ of possession for the recov the specific property and a writ of fieri facias for the da and costs; and, if the writ of possession prove ineffectual, of fieri facias for the alternative value; said writ of posses be directed to, executed, and returned by the same office would execute the writ of fieri facias. (Code 1887, § 294

Revisors' Note.—This section now conforms to section 602

This section is qualified by section 2549 as to fines imposed tices. See Ex parte Marx, 86 Va. 40, 9 S. E. 475.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 251.

Sec. 6030. How directed and returnable; how renewed.— of fieri facias issued by a justice may be directed to any con and be executed by him in any part of his county or corpo or may be directed to the sheriff or sergeant of any county poration, but in any case shall be returnable in sixty days. wholly satisfied, it may, within one year from the date of the ment, be returned to and renewed by a justice, notwithst the provisions of chapter one hundred and twelve. But eve ecution issued by a justice which is not so returned and re shall be returned by the officer to the clerk's office of the court of the county or corporation court of the city in whi execution issued. The said justice shall also return to th office an abstract of the judgment in each case tried by h gether with all of the papers in the case. For docketing and executions, and for filing such abstracts of judgment with the mpanying papers, the clerk's fees, to be paid by the plaintiff embraced in the judgment for costs in each case, shall be col- d by such constable, sheriff, or sergeant when collecting his fees, and paid over to the clerk at the time of returning such rs to the clerk's office as hereinbefore provided. (Code 1887, 49; 1897-8, p. 637; 1901-2, p. 371.)

Digitized by Google

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 251; 12 Va. Law Reg. 332.

c. 6031. Clerk to docket and index executions; his fee; how her executions issued and directed.—The clerk shall docket all utions returned by the officer and index the same in the name oth plaintiff and defendant, and file them alphabetically, in a rate bundle for each year, for which services the clerk shall be tled to a fee, to be paid by the plaintiff in each case, of twenty s. Such further executions may be issued for the recovery of amount due on any execution so returned, as if the judgment vhich it issued had been rendered in court. The same may, at option of the plaintiff, be directed to and executed either by a table, or by a sheriff or sergeant; and the same proceedings l be had upon executions issued under this section as upon utions issued upon judgments of courts. (Code 1887, § 2950.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 252; 12 Va. Law Reg. 332.

c. 6032. In proceedings against officer for failure to pay over ey, etc.; what to be evidence; duty of justice.—A copy from entry in the justice's book of the date of any execution issued im, and to whom delivered, shall be evidence in any proceed- against the officer to whom it is entered as delivered, for fail- to make due return thereof, or for failing to pay over money ived thereon. If a justice, upon being applied to for a copy ny entry, refuse it, and afterwards, upon being summoned to luce the book in which such entry is or ought to have been e, fail to produce such entry, he shall forfeit twenty dollars to person on whose behalf he is summoned. (Code 1887, § 2951.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 249.

c. 6033. Officer fined for failure to return execution; motion re, and judgment by justice against officer and sureties for unt of execution.—If an officer fail to make due return of any ution issued by a justice, he may, after ten days' notice, be l from time to time by a justice, on the motion of the plaintiff ch execution, in like manner as a court may fine an officer who to make due return of an execution issued from such court. l if an officer make such return upon an execution issued by a ice as would, on a motion against the officer, authorize judg- t to be entered against him for the amount of such execution, ny part thereof, if the execution had issued from a court, the litor on whose behalf such execution issued, or his personal esentative, may, on a motion before a justice, after like notice,

Digitized by Google

obtain such judgment against the officer, his sureties, and o could be given by a court, if the execution had issued from This section shall not prevent a motion in court under one hundred and twelve, or under section six thousand an five. (Code 1887, § 2952.)

A justice has jurisdiction to hear a motion and to give j against a constable and his sureties for failure of the constabl money collected on an execution. Hendricks v. Shoemaker, 3 G

One joint notice to the constable and his sureties upon de the constable in several cases is sufficient, and the justice shoul separate and distinct judgment in each case. Id.

The jurisdiction of the justice in such case is not dependent amount of the execution or of the judgment on which the exec sued, nor is it affected by the fact that the party prosecuting th is at the same time prosecuting other motions of the same kind, the same parties, before the same or any other justice, whatever the number or aggregate pecuniary amount of the several de the constable. Id.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 252.

See, also, section 2835.

Sec. 6034. Officer and sureties liable for money collecte as well as before, return day of execution; also for moneys r for claims; when receipt therefor, evidence of collection.—I ficer, after the return day, collect money mentioned in an tion issued by a justice, he and his sureties shall be liable money so collected in like manner as if the collection had b fore the return day. And if a constable receive money on of any claim entrusted to him to warrant for, and recover warrant, he and his sureties shall be liable for the money ceived, as for money collected under execution; and a months from the date of any receipt for such claim, signe official character, such receipt shall be prima facie evidence receipt of the money. (Code 1887, § 2953.)

Oral testimony is not admissible to show that receipt wa by the constable in his official character; it must appear from th the paper. Smith v. Governor, 2 Rob. 229; McNeale v. Governor, 299.

If properly signed, the receipt is prima facie evidence of re money as well against the surety as against the constable. S Governor, 2 Rob. 229.

The receipt is evidence against the constable and his surety debt has come to his hands, though such receipt does not purpo given in his official character. McNeale v. Governor, 3 Grat. 299.

The debt, claim, or execution must be placed in the constable to be warranted for and must be such as may be recovered u warrant. This will be presumed unless the contrary appears w receipt is in the constable's official character, and is for a debt other than an execution. Id.

If it does not appear from the receipt who is the creditor en maintain the warrant, it will be presumed prima facie that th to whom the receipt was given was such creditor. Id.

A receipt signed by the constable with initials appended to h which stand for constable of his county, sufficiently indicates cial character of the receipt. Id.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 252.

Digitized by Google

ec. 6035. Proceedings before a justice to try the title to property ed on under distress warrant or execution from justice; when how appeal allowed.—When an execution on a judgment of a ice, or warrant of distress, is levied upon property which is med by any person other than the party against whom it is- l, and affidavit is made either by the claimant, the officer hav- such process, or the party issuing the same, that to the best of affiant's belief the said property is not of greater value than nty dollars, the party making said affidavit may apply to a ice of the county or corporation in which the levy is for a war- t to a constable requiring him to summon both the creditor and tor to show cause why such property should not be discharged n the levy, a copy of which warrant shall be served upon the mant of said property, unless said warrant is sued out at his ance. The justice shall issue such warrant returnable in not than five days, and if an earlier day shall have been fixed for sale of the property, he shall make an order on the warrant uiring the postponement of the sale until after the return day. on hearing the parties, or such of them as may attend after be- summoned, and such witnesses as may be introduced by either ty, he shall order the officer to deliver the property to the mant, if he be of opinion that the same belongs to said claim- ; but if he be of opinion that the property belongs to the per- against whom the execution or warrant of distress issued, he ll order the officer who levied on the same to sell said property atisfy said execution, or warrant of distress, and may give such gment for costs as he may deem just. If the property be of the ue of ten dollars or more, the justice shall, within five days, w an appeal (if applied for) from such order and judgment on urity being given as in the appeals before mentioned in this pter. (Code 1887, § 2954; 1895-6, p. 308.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 252, 432, 433, 1013.

ec. 6036. Duty of justice and clerk when appeal allowed.—The tice from whose judgment an appeal is allowed shall immedi- ly deliver to the clerk of the court which has the cognizance the appeal the original warrants with the judgment and the ne of the surety endorsed thereon, together with all the exhibits ore him shown at the trial, and the clerk shall forthwith docket same, and the justice granting the appeal shall not nor shall appellant without the leave of court after due notice to the pellee withdraw said papers from the clerk's office. (Code 1887, 955; 1893-4, p. 486.)

This and the following section are both remedial, and hence should construed liberally so as to effectuate the purposes of their enactment. thern Ry. Co. v. Hill, 106 Va. 501, 56 S. E. 278.

The papers to be delivered by the justice to the clerk constitute case and are the essential ground work for intelligent proceeding

Digitized by Google

in the appellate court. Wygal v. Wilder and Coleman, 117 V
86 S. E. 97.

Sec. 6037. Where appeal cognizable.—When an appeal
lowed from any order or judgment of a justice, it shall b nizable by the circuit court of the county or the corporation of the city in which the order was made or judgment ren except when the order is made or judgment rendered in a c a case involving the constitutionality or validity of an ord or by-law of said city, in which case it shall be cognizable circuit court having jurisdiction over said city. (Code 1887, § 1902-3-4, p. 671.)

The language of this section is broad enough to cover the of appeal to the Circuit and Corporation Courts from a justice peace involving the constitutionality of a statute. Southern Ry.
Hill, 106 Va. 501, 56 S. E. 278. See section 6027 and revisors' n

Where neither the constitutionality nor the validity of an ord is drawn in question the appeal is to the corporation court, thou constitutionality of the charter provision under which the ord was passed is in question. Ragsdale v. Danville, 116 Va. 484, 8 77.

Where a circuit court had jurisdiction of an appeal under th tion, such appeal was direct and original, and could not come by removal from the county court. Valley Turnpike Co. v. Moore, 1
702, 42 S. E. 675.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 250; 2 Va. L. Reg. 244.

Sec. 6038. How tried; judgment.—Every such appeal sh tried by the court in a summary way, without pleadings in ing, or, if the amount in controversy exceed twenty dollars, jury, if either party requires it. All legal evidence produc either party shall be heard, whether the same was produc not before the justice from whose decision the appeal is take the case shall be determined according to the principles o and equity. If judgment be recovered by the appellee, exe shall issue against the principal and his surety, jointly o arately, for the amount of such judgment, including interes costs, with damages on the aggregate at the rate of ten per ce per annum, from the date of that judgment until payment, a the costs of the appeal; and the execution shall be endorsed security is to be taken." If the decision be reversed, the substantially prevailing shall recover his costs; and such ord judgment shall be made or given as ought to have been ma given by the justice. Where the appeal is from an order or ment, under section six thousand and thirty-five, the court give such judgment respecting the property, the expense of ing it, and any injury done to it, as may be equitable amon parties. (Code 1887, § 2957; 1893-4, p. 558; 1902-3-4, p. 672.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 250, 251.

Sec. 6039. Notice to try appeal; preference over other ca Either party to an appeal may give ten days' notice to the party that a motion will be made to try the appeal, and the

Digitized by Google

l, on the day named in the notice, if the business of the court permit, try the appeal, without regard to its place on the ket, unless good cause be shown by the adverse party for a inuance, and, if so continued, shall try it as soon as may be eafter. (Code 1887, § 2958.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 251.

ec. 6040. To give circuit courts jurisdiction of scire facias or on to revive judgments of justices of the peace.—Upon a judgt rendered by a justice, a scire facias or action may be brought, in the time prescribed by sections sixty-four hundred and sev--seven and sixty-four hundred and seventy-eight, in the circourt of the county in which the judgment was rendered, when- there is an abstract of such judgment entered on the lien ket in the clerk's office of said court, or in the clerk's office he former county court of said county, or where a fieri facias ed upon such judgment has been returned to either of such k's offices, and entered on the execution book. (1899-00, p.

Revisors' Note.—It was necessary to redraft the act from which section is taken to fit the present system of courts, and to make er than is done by section 6030 how judgments of justices, ren- l since the abolition of county courts, are to be revived.

See section 5891.

Digitized by Google

TITLE 60.

Proceedings in Civil Cases.

Ch. 251. Notices and motions.
252. The county or corporation, and court, in which p ings are commenced.
253. Process, and the order of publication.
254. Rules, pleadings generally, and judgments in th
255. Payment and set-off.
256. Interpleader.
257. Awards.
258. Death or change of parties, and the discontinu causes not prosecuted.
259. Removal of causes pending in one court to ano
260. Appointment of commissioners in chancery, refe accounts to them, and proceedings thereon.
261. Evidence.
262. Loss of a record or paper in a cause; actions on dences of debt.
263. Court docket; inquiry of damages; trial by ju judgments and decrees of the court for mo 264. Decrees of sale, and receivers; orders for ex deeds, appointing trustees and requiring them security; reservation for infants; decrees and in vacation; disposition of money in custody unclaimed; copies of decrees and orders to b and filed by clerks.
265. Injunctions and bills of review.
266. Errors insufficient in an appellate court.
267. Appeals, writs of error, and supersedeas.
268. General provisions as to civil cases.

CHAPTER 251.

Notices and Motions.

Sec.
6041. Mode of serving notice; evidence of service.
6042. Notice in divorce cases; how served.
6043. Service as to non-residents.
6044. Ten days' notice generally required of motion for judgment.
6045. Remedy by motion on certain bonds taken or given by officers.
6046. Remedy by motion teen days' notice, i action at law; whe to be returned to office; rules applica 6047. Against whom of t ble, judgment may on motion.
6048. When, on a motio may be trial by jur

Digitized by Google

c. 6041. Mode of serving notice; evidence of service.—A no- no particular mode of serving which is prescribed, may be ed by delivering a copy thereof in writing to the party in on; or, if he or she be not found at his or her usual place of le, by delivering such copy and giving information of its port to any person found there, who is a member of his or her ily, (not a temporary sojourner, or guest) and above the age ixteen years; or if neither he nor she, nor any such person be d there, by leaving such copy posted at the front door of said e of abode. Any sheriff, sergeant, or constable thereto re- ed, shall serve a notice in his county or city, and make return he manner and time of service; for a failure so to do he shall eit twenty dollars. Such return, or a similar return by any r person, not a party to or otherwise interested in the subject ter in controversy, who verifies it by affidavit, shall be evi- e of the manner and time of service. A notice in writing, ever, which has reached its destination within the time pre- ed by law, if any, shall be sufficient, although not served in manner above mentioned. (Code 1887, § 3207; 1902-3-4. p.)

Revisors' Note.—It was doubtful, under the former language of section, whether substituted service on a married woman was valid. Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 301; 1 Va. Law Reg. (N. S.) 787; Union Bank Ferguson, 2 Va. Law Reg. (N. S.) 338; 2 Va. Law Reg. (N. S.) art. The revised section is intended to apply alike to married en and married men, placing them on the same footing as to sub- ted service. If husband and wife are living apart, and, it may be, vorce suit pending, service on one for the other should not be and is allowed.

The clause in parentheses settles a question which has been raised than once in Virginia and elsewhere. See Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 300; uine v. Auditor, 4 Munf., 398; Fowler v. Mosher, 85 Va. 421, 7 S. E. 10 Va. L. Reg. 362.

The words, "not a party to or otherwise interested in the subject er in controversy," appearing in the next to the last sentence of section, are new, and conform to section 6071, which is on the sub- of non-residents.

The last sentence of the revised section is new and is intended to ge the law as announced in Park L. & I. Co. v. Lane, 106 Va. 304, . E. 690, holding that service on a wife was not sufficient where the rn did not show that the purport of it had been explained to her, ough the husband received the summons in ample time to have nded the action; and also to change the holding in King & Co. v. cock, 114 Va. 596, 77 S. E. 510, holding that notice by mail to take ositions was not sufficient although received by the party in ample to have attended the taking. As to depositions, see, also, section 8.

Strict compliance necessary.—This statute must be strictly complied . Crockett v. Etter, 105 Va. 679, 54 S. E. 864.

Service of summons or scire facias.—Any summons or scire facias be served in the same manner and by the same person as is pre- ed in this section, except that when such process is against a corporation the mode of service shall be as prescribed in sectio and 6064. See section 6062.

Digitized by Google

Personal service.—A return "executed in person" shows summons was actually served on the defendants. Barksdale v. Grat. 314.

Acceptance of service.—"Legal service" of summons aga fendant was accepted by his son without his knowledge or a Held insufficient. Finney v. Clark, 86 Va. 354, 10 S. E. 569.

Substituted service— Boarders.—It was held in Segouine v. of Public Accounts, 4 Munf. 368, that a notice was sufficient if d to a free white person above sixteen years of age, in whose h party for whom it was intended was a boarder though not a pe resident. Segouine v. Auditor of Public Accounts, 4 Munf. 398.

Subsequently, however, it was decided that a delivery for d to a mere boarder at his house, "a stranger to his blood," was ficient. Fowler v. Mosher, 85 Va. 421, 7 S. E. 542. See the section and revisors' note on the words in parentheses—"not porary sojourner or guest." See note 10 Va. L. Reg. 362.

Usual place of abode.—A return stating that person to be noti "not at home" is sufficient to warrant service upon a membe family. Fowler v. Mosher, 85 Va. 421, 7 S. E. 542.

Where process is returned executed by leaving copy at the place of abode" of the defendant, it cannot be assailed by show in fact the defendant never lived there, except in the case of collusion. Sutherland v. Bank, 111 Va. 515, 69 S. E. 341, a thereon, 16 Va. Law Reg. 751 and 949.

Return held sufficient.—Upon a return, "S. not being found at place of abode, a true copy of the within rule was left with hi ter at his residence, who is over the age of sixteen years, and explained to her, this 28th day of August, 1871," it will be presu word "residence" was used as synonymous with "his usual abode," and that the daughter was a member of defendant's fa the notice is sufficient. Smithson v. Briggs, 33 Grat. 180. But v. Davis, 137 Fed. 198, 11 Va. L. Reg. 179, 180, it was held return showing service by leaving a copy with defendant's w not stating that she was a member of defendant's family, wa ficient. This was a case in the Circuit Court of United States Western District of Virginia.

A return "executed August 28, 1884, by delivering a cop within summons at the usual place of abode of S. to his daughter, person over the age of sixteen years, a member of the family S., and explaining to her the purport of said summons, he n found at his usual place of abode," was held sufficient. Stotz v. C Va. 423, 2 S. E. 737.

Insufficient return.—A return showing service by posting up ing "on the door" of defendant's usual dwelling house does not valid service. King v. Davis, 137 Fed. 198, 11 Va. L. Reg. 17

Service by person other than an officer.—A plea alleging person making the service was the paid agent of the plaintiff, e to compromise with diverse claimants of the land sued for an plaintiff in recovering the land, etc., is insufficient. This section izes service by any person if the return be verified by affidavit. Davis, 137 Fed. 198, 11 Va. Law Reg. 179, 180, and note. present section provides that the "other person" must not be a or otherwise interested in the subject matter in controversy.

What service by private persons must show by affidavit. Otterback, 89 Va. 645, 16 S. E. 933.

As to service of process by private person, when the par whom the process or notice is served refuses to receive the sa note, 10 Va. Law Reg. 271.

Difference between return on summons and notice.—There is fest difference between a return on a summons and a return on

Digitized by Google

mmons is directed to an officer, and contains a mandate, to which eturn of executed is a response that the thing commanded has been . A notice is not directed to an officer, but to the party on whom it rved. It contains no mandate, and therefore a return of executed ly is no response, but unmeaning. The manner of service, whether n officer or another person, must be stated, the only difference being the simple statement of an officer is sufficient, while the statement nother person must be upon affidavit. Barksdale v. Neal, 16 Grat.

Generally.—It the return of the sheriff does not bring the defendant r the jurisdiction of the court, its judgment is void. Staunton etual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. Haden, 92 Va. 206, 23 S. E. 285.
For the effect of judgment rendered upon faulty service, see Goolsby t. John, 25 Grat. 146; Staunton Perpetual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. n, 92 Va. 206, 23 S. E. 285.
Does not apply to a notice of dishonor of negotiable paper. Mc- n v. Bank, 26 Grat. 785.
Cited but not construed in Carr v. Bates, 108 Va. 371, 61 S. E. 754; v. Gwatkin, 108 Va. 6, 60 S. E. 749; Price v. Cole, 83 Va. 343, 2 200; Clay v. Walter, 79 Va. 92.
For note upon legality of service by trickery, see 19 Va. L. Reg. 475.
As to amendment of sheriff's return, see Stotz v. Collins, 83 Va. 2 S. E. 737; Shenandoah Val. R. Co. v. Ashby's Trustees, 86 Va. 9 S. E. 1003, 19 Am. St. Rep. 898.
As to notice to constable and his surety under section 6033, see to that section.
See sections 2825, 6062, and notes; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1319; Barton, . (2d Ed.) 264, 270, 1043; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 162, 295, 296, 298,

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 121, section 1.
See Gregory's Forms Nos. 337, 485, 486, 487.

c. 6042. Notice in divorce cases, how served.—In a suit for rce the summons to commence the suit and notices for the ng of depositions, or for any other purpose, shall be served by the sheriff of the county, or the sheriff or sergeant of the or the deputies of either, in which the service is sought to be except that, where, for any reason it is improper for the ff or sergeant, or the deputies of either, to act, the service be made by the coroner. In a suit for divorce against one has been sentenced to the penitentiary of this State, the sum- and notice shall be served on the Superintendent of the Pen- iary at least ten days before the return day of the summons ne time at which any action is to be taken under the notice, it shall be the duty of such superintendent to forthwith de- such summons or notice to the convict. If alimony is sought e recovered a copy of such summons or notice shall also be ed on the committee of the convict. If no alimony be sought, there be no committee of such convict, in either event a guar- ad litem shall be appointed by the court, judge, or clerk of court in which the suit is pending, who shall defend the suit ehalf of such convict. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is based in part on the proviso added ction 3207 of the Code of 1887 by Acts 1902-3-4, p. 632. That so simply read that "in divorce proceedings notices for the taking of depositions, or for any other purpose, shall be served only sheriff of the county or the sergeant or sheriff of the city in w service is sought to be had." It will be noted that this part of tion has been made more comprehensive. The second, third an sentences of the revised section are new. Section 4999 prov suits by or against convicts upon all claims in favor of or again but no provision is there made for suits for divorce. Under 3230 of the Code of 1887, an order of publication could be obt suits for a divorce from the bond of matrimony where the d was under sentence to confinement in the penitentiary, but t vision has been omitted from the present Code, and the above of service substituted as preferable.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6043. Service as to non-residents.—Any such noti mentioned in the two preceding sections to a person not res Virginia may be served by the publication thereof once a w four successive weeks, in a newspaper published in the county where the proceedings, about which the notice is gi to be held, or if no newspaper is published in such city or then in a newspaper published in some convenient city or Code 1887, § 3208; 1902-3-4, p. 632.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1319.

Discussed, 9 Va. Law J. 385, 513; 4 Va. Law J. 325.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 121, section 2.

Sec. 6044. Ten days' notice generally required of mot judgment.—In any case wherein there may be judgment o for money on motion, such motion shall be after ten days unless some other time be specified in the section or statut such motion. (Code 1887, § 3209.)

Cited, but not construed, in Hall v. Ratliff, 93 Va. 327, 24 S. note 2 Va. Law Reg. 437. See 2 Va. Law Reg. 651; sections 9 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1321; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 975, 1040, 1307 (2d Ed.) 360, 429; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 184.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 121, section 4.

Sec. 6045. Remedy by motion on certain bonds taken or officers.—The court to which, or in, or to whose clerk or of bond taken by an officer, or given by any sheriff, sergeant, stable, is required to be returned, filed or recorded, may, on of any person, give judgment for so much money as he is by virtue of such bond, to recover by action. (Code 1887,

Remedy by motion on bonds of sheriffs, etc., under this sect not taken away from the county court by section 9, chapter 3 1872-3, and was in force in 1879. Carr v. Meade's Ex'x, 77 Va. 1 Cahoon v. McCulloch, 92 Va. 177, 23 S. E. 225.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 975; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1324; 2 Reg. 526; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 9, 47, 78, 183, 292.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 121, section 5.

Sec. 6046. Remedy by motion after fifteen days' notice, of action at law; when notice to be returned to cler fice; rules applicable to.—Any person entitled to maintain tion at law may, in lieu of such action at law, proceed by e any court which would have jurisdiction of such action, not less than fifteen days' notice, which notice shall be in ng, signed by the plaintiff or his attorney, and shall be re- d to the clerk's office of such court within five days after e of the same, and when so returned shall be forthwith dock- But the notice shall not be sent out of the county or city in the judgment is to be asked except in those cases in which ss can be so sent out under the provisions of sections six thou- and fifty-five and six thousand and fifty-six.

Digitized by Google

e defendant may make the same defenses to the notice as to a ration in an action at law, and in the same manner, or he may his grounds of defense informally in writing, and in the lat- vent the parties shall be deemed to be at issue on the grounds d without replication or other pleading on the part of the tiff.

the motion be upon an account, the plaintiff shall file with otice an account, stating distinctly the several items of his , unless they be plainly described in the notice, and if the tiff file with such account an affidavit such as is prescribed by n sixty-one hundred and thirty-three, on the part of the tiff in an action of assumpsit, no plea in bar or defense to the s shall be received on the part of the defendant unless accom- d by such affidavit as is prescribed by the last mentioned sec- on the part of the defendant in an action of assumpsit. If plea or defense and affidavit be filed by the defendant, and the vit admits that the plaintiff is entitled to recover from the dant a sum less than that stated in the affidavit for the tiff, judgment may be taken by the plaintiff for the sum so tted to be due, and the case be tried as to the residue.

on any motion under this section the same rule shall apply reference to bills of particulars and grounds of defense, as ow provided by law in other actions or motions. (Code 1887, 1; 1895-6, p. 140; 1912, p. 651; 1914, p. 28; 1916, p. 760.)

Revisors' Note.—This section extends the right to proceed by mo- o all cases where an action at law OF ANY KIND would lie. See ce, ante, p. xii. This section omits the twenty-five day provision rning corporations because no necessity or propriety was seen for he notice is required to be docketed as soon as it is returned exe- differing from the former law in this respect. Attention is called tion 276 on the subject of affidavits by corporations and agents. Proceedings by way of motion, formerly and now.—Under the cor- ding section of the Code of 1849 (Code 1849, p. 640, chapter 167, n 5) the right to proceed by motion was restricted to "any per- ntitled to recover money by action on any contract." The same were used in the Code of 1887 (Code 1887, section 3211). By 1912, p. 651, the right to proceed by motion was extended, and person entitled to recover money by action on any contract, or over damages founded upon any contract, or for the breach thereof, recover any statutory penalty," could proceed by motion. At the session (Acts 1912, p. 15) an act was passed providing for remedy by motion after thirty days' notice for any tort. In 1914 (Act p. 28), section 3211 of the Code of 1887 was again amended, right to proceed by motion was given to "any person entitled to money, damages or a penalty in an action at law." This langua sufficiently broad to permit motions for torts, and the act of 191 referred to, allowing motion after thirty days' notice for any to repealed (Acts 1914, chapter 123, p. 203). In 1916 (Acts 1916, section 3211 of the Code of 1887 was again the subject of amen and the language used in that act was the following: "Any per titled to recover money by action on any contract, or to recover d founded upon any contract, or for the breach thereof, or to damages for any tort, or to recover specific personal property recover damages in lieu thereof, or to recover any statutory pen to recover damages in an action at law, may," etc. The section a pears in this Code uses general language to include all actions and under it, in all cases, a plaintiff has the right to proceed by instead of bringing a regular action.

Digitized by Google

Under the language of the Code of 1887 above quoted it w that motion would not lie to recover damages for a breach of or the profits which the plaintiff would have made if he had be mitted to fill his contract, as such damages were not consid money due upon contract. Wilson v. Dawson, 96 Va. 690, 32 S. note 4 Va. Law Reg. 752. Nor would motion lie to recover the specified in section 1292 of that Code (see section 4042 of this Western U. Tel. Co. v. Bright, 90 Va. 778, 20 S. E. 146. But a could be maintained against a fire insurance company in the co which the property insured, and which was destroyed by fire, was s Morotock Ins. Co. v. Pankey, 91 Va. 259, 21 S. E. 487. See Gr National Life Maturity Ins. Co., 94 Va. 589, 27 S. E. 464, 3 Va. La 279; Union Central Life Ins. Co. v. Pollard, 94 Va. 151, 26 S. 36 L. R. A. 271, 64 Am. St. Rep. 715.

A motion may be made under this section to recover the work done and materials furnished in excavating for a sewer. Ri v. Burton, 115 Va. 206, 78 S. E. 560.

An unconditional and unqualified promise to pay for sto corporation as and when called for by the board of directors, may forced by motion under this section. Eichelberger v. Mann, 115 V 80 S. E. 595.

If a contract be one by which, upon the happening of certa tingencies, the defendants bound themselves to pay, it is, after t pening of the contingency, a contract to pay money within the m of this section (as it formerly read). Mundy v. Garland, 112 V 72 S. E. 713.

An agreement by which a defendant authorizes the plaintiff t land, theretofore purchased by him of the plaintiff at a stated pri binds himself to pay any deficiency arising under said sale, togeth interest and cost of resale, is a contract for the payment of mone since the amount is readily ascertainable after resale, may ceeded on under this section. Mundy v. Garland, 112 Va. 743, 7 713. (Decided under former language.)

It was not error for the trial court to refuse to instruct th that the terms of notice for a judgment were not such as to the plaintiff to recover on a note given by the defendants as co security for another's debt. Saunders v. Bank, 112 Va. 443, 71 S.

An assignee may proceed by motion against a remote as Long v. Pence's Committee, 93 Va. 584, 25 S. E. 593, note 2 V Reg. 612.

Nature of remedy.—This section is intended to furnish a s more expeditious and less expensive remedy for collection of debt by action and the court allows more leniency and greater laxity forms of procedure. Whitley v. Booker Brick Co., 113 Va. 4 S. E. 160.

Digitized by Google

Construction of notice.—The rule governing notices is that they are umed to be the acts of parties and not of lawyers. They are viewed great indulgence by the court, and if the terms of the notice be eral the court will construe it favorably, and will apply it according he truth of the case as far as the notice will admit of such application. be such that the defendant cannot mistake the object of the motion, ill be sufficient. Supervisors v. Dunn, 27 Grat. 608; Carr v. Meade's , 77 Va. 142, 158; Carr v. Clagett's Ex'rs, Id. 142, 143, 158; Union ral Life Ins. Co. v. Pollard, 94 Va. 151, 26 S. E. 421, 36 L. R. A. 271, m. St. Rep. 715; Graves v. Webb, 1 Call 443 (2d Ed.) 385.

But if the notice descend to particulars, it must be correct as to n. Drew v. Anderson, 1 Call 51 (2d Ed.) 44.

If the notice on a forthcoming bond be signed by the plaintiff it is cient, although it omit to state to whom the bond is made payable. oigne v. Montgomery, 5 Call 528.

Where the obligee in a forfeited forthcoming bond is also a co- gor in said bond, notice given by him to the principal obligor and the r sureties of a motion for award of execution upon the bond against is not defective for failing to mention the obligor as a co-obligor. h v. Kinsey, 8 Grat. 560.

In proceedings under this section, foreign statutes need not be ded, if it is necessary in any case. Union Central Life Ins. Co. v. ard, 94 Va. 151, 26 S. E. 421, 36 L. R. A. 271. 64 Am. St. Rep. 715.

A notice of motion under this section described paper sued on as a issory note when in fact it was a negotiable promissory note. While true that a promissory note does not necessarily possess the quality egotiability, yet the description in the notice was good as far as it , and as its incompleteness in no way affected the defendant to his udice, the notice is held sufficient. Colley v. Summers Parrott Co., Va. 439, 89 S. E. 906.

The notice for a judgment against an endorser of a negotiable note aining a waiver of notice of presentment and dishonor on its face ld allege that fact, but the fact being undisputed, an amendment e bar would have been proper, and the error of omitting it is harm- Colley v. Summers Parrott Co., 119 Va. 439, 89 S. E. 906.

Notice must set out good cause of action—Demurrer.—In notice and on under this section, the notice takes the place of the writ and aration in a regular action. The notice, while viewed with great lgence, must set out matter sufficient to maintain action. The tion as to whether this is done is raised by demurrer. Security and Trust Co. v. Fields, 110 Va. 827, 67 S. E. 342.

The notice takes the place of both the writ and the declaration, and murrer to the notice only raises the question whether there is matter e notice sufficient to maintain the action. Morotock Ins. Co. v. ey, 91 Va. 259, 21 S. E. 487. Tench v. Gray, 102 Va. 215, 46 S. E.

The notice of a motion for judgment against the endorser of a tiable note must contain such allegations of presentment for payment notice of dishonor to the endorser as will fix a liability upon him he payment of the note, else the notice will be bad upon demurrer. rity Loan Co. v. Fields, 110 Va. 827, 67 S. E. 342.

When notice returnable—Computation of time.—Execution of e.—Notice may be given to any day of the term provided it is served ast fifteen days before the day on which judgment is to be asked. is filed in the clerk's office ten days before the term begins. Hanks ons, 92 Va. 30, 22 S. E. 813, note 1 Va. Law Reg. 439 (decided r old statute). For discussion as to time when notice now must turned, see 2 Va. Law Reg. 647, 913.

Where action is brought under this section the question whether n was made in statutory time is one of fact, which may be deter- d by evidence, although date of return is not indorsed on notice; where it is shown that return was in fact made, and the cause duly docketed, presumption is that sheriff complied with the law a return within the prescribed time. New River Mineral Co. v. Coal & Coke Co., 110 Fed. 343, 49 C. C. A. 78.

Digitized by Google

Notice served on October 13th, informing defendant tha would be made on first day of term, which was fixed by law on 27th, is insufficient, though court did not open until Octob Tench v. Gray, 102 Va. 215, 46 S. E. 287.

In computing the time in which notice must be returne clerk's office, the day of service is to be counted, as prescribed b 5—sub-section 8 of the Code, but not the date on which the returned, hence a notice served on February 21st and returned 26th, is not within the time prescribed, and judgment thereupo fault is invalid. Swift & Co. v. Wood, 103 Va. 495, 49 S. E. 64

The day of service of the notice is to be counted in comp fifteen days. Hence a judgment is valid, where the notice was June 9th and judgment taken June 24th. Anderson v. Unio 117 Va. 1, 83 S. E. 1080.

When notice may be sent out of county or city of venue the wording of the amendment of 1914 of section 3211 of th Code (Acts 1914, p. 28), it was held that the notice might b and served in any county or city in the State, although the onl of jurisdiction of the court in which the motion was to be m that a part of the cause of action arose there. The restrictive of section 3220 of that Code was held to apply only to pr technical actions at law and not to notices. Kain v. Ashwo Va. 605, 89 S. E. 857. But the amendment of 1916 (Acts 1916 changed the reading of the section in this respect and it will observed that the section as it now reads provides that the not not be sent out of the county or city in which the judgment is to except in those cases in which process can be so sent out under 6055 and 6056 (which sections correspond to section 3220 of of 1887).

Bills of particulars and grounds of defense.—A plaintiff to under this section may demand a statement of the grounds of d provided by section 6091. Whitley v. Booker Brick Co., 113 74 S. E. 160. See last paragraph of section which provides t same rules shall apply with reference to bills of particulars and of defense as are now provided by law in other actions or mo

Set-offs.—Under the plea of non-assumpsit to a motion, on account under this section, the defendant may prove set-offs, th list is filed. Whitley v. Booker Brick Co., 113 Va. 434, 74 S.

Strict rules of pleading do not apply to proceedings by mo to the defense of set-offs. Stimmel v. Benthall, 108 Va. 141, 765.

A special plea of set-off to a motion under this section formal and comply with the rules of pleading. Whitley v. Book Co., 113 Va. 434, 74 S. E. 160.

Pleadings on notice and motion hereunder are very informa where the statute requires otherwise, as for instance sectio Saunders v. Bank, 112 Va. 443, 71 S. E. 714.

See Briggs v. Cook, 99 Va. 273, 38 S. E. 148, 6 Va. L. R

Issue—Trial by jury.—In a proceeding by motion under this in order to entitle the defendants to a trial by jury, an issue made up. This issue may be tendered by a plea, or by an inform ment in writing of the grounds of defense. A mere oral stateme sufficient. Whitley v. Booker Brick Co., 113 Va. 434, 74 S. Preston v. Salem Imp. Co., 91 Va. 583, 22 S. E. 486, note 1 Va. 447.

See section 6048 and notes.

Plea in abatement.—A notice of motion for judgment on a served before liability of defendant has matured, is subject to a abatement, the same as a declaration prematurely filed would be field v. Palmer, 134 Fed. 752, 11 Va. Law Reg. 31.

Digitized by Google

Motion to dismiss.—If the defendant has appeared and pleaded to action, he cannot move to dismiss. Morotock Ins. Co. v. Pankey, a. 259, 21 S. E. 487.

Variance.—A notice of motion on a forthcoming bond describes bond ecuted by "John" when it was, in fact, by "George" M. Cook. Held, nce material and notice insufficient. Cookes v. Bank, 1 Leigh 433.

Attachment in motions.—A proceeding under this section cannot be rded as the institution of an action so as to warrant an attachment the notice has been served and filed in the clerk's office. Furst v. s, 101 Va. 208, 8 Va. Law Reg. 821, 43 S. E. 360.

Continuances.—When duly docketed according to the statute motion t discontinued by the failure of the term on account of the illness e judge. Dillard v. New York Life Ins. Co. (Circuit Court of Lynch-), 5 Va. Law Reg. 43.

Motion cannot be continued except by consent from June term to ist term, passing by the intermediate July term; such a continuance work a discontinuance. Amis v. Koger, 7 Leigh 221.

Federal courts.—Under the conformity act (Rev. St. section 914 3. Comp. St. 1901] an action may be instituted by notice under this on in a federal court in Virginia in accordance with the State prac- Leas & McVitty v. Merriman, 132 Fed. 510. See note, 10 Va. Reg. 739.

There seems no sufficient reason why procedure under this section ot be followed in Federal courts in Va., 14 Va. Law Reg. 339.

Generally.—See resume of cases affecting this section in 16 Va. Reg. 950.

For article upon a motion against a felon, which was instituted, but ried, before conviction, see 10 Va. Law Reg. 849.

When the demand is such that the homestead exemption cannot be ied against the same, it is well for the notice to so state. See section .

For motion against a sheriff and his surety for failure to pay the due the Commonwealth or levies due the county, see Monteith v. , 15 Grat. 172; Board of Supervisors v. Dunn, 27 Grat 608; section and notes.

Section 6333 applies to judgments by default under this section. s v. Com., 16 Grat. 134.

As to service of notice, see sections 6041, 6062, and notes.

Discussed, 20 Va. L. Reg. 68; 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 462.

Cited in Preston v. Salem Imp. Co., 91 Va. 583, 22 S. E. 486, note . Law Reg. 449; Clark v. Sleet's Adm'r, 99 Va. 382, 38 S. E 183; . Law Reg. 409; 2 Va. Law Reg. 437, 526; Citizens Bank v. Norfolk . R. Co., 115 Va. 45, 78 S. E. 568; Salem Loan Co. v. Kelsey, 115 382, 79 S. E. 329; McKee v. Bunting-McNeal Co., 114 Va. 639, . E. 515; Mundy v. Garland, 116 Va. 922, 83 S. E. 491; Scott's Ex'or nesterman, 117 Va. 584, 85 S. E. 502.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 121, section 6 and chapter 125, section 52.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 349, 605, 606.

ec. 6047. Against whom of those liable, judgment may be given motion.—A person entitled to obtain judgment for money on ion, may, as to any, or the personal representatives of any per- liable for such money, move severally against each, or jointly nst all, or jointly against any intermediate number; and when ce of his motion is not served on all of those to whom it is di- ed, judgment may nevertheless be given against so many of e liable as shall appear to have been served with the notice, the judgment against such personal representative shall, in ases, be several. Such motions may be made from time to time until there is judgment against every person liable, or his per representative. (Code 1887, § 3212.)

Digitized by Google

This statute appears to be simply affirmatory of the pre-existin in relation to motions, except that before the statute it was not allo (it would seem) to join a natural person with a personal represent nor the representatives of several deceased persons in the same pr ings. 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1320.

On a joint notice to all the obligors in a forthcoming bon plaintiff may take judgment against one of the defendants. Glas Delima, 2 Call 368 (2d Ed. 309).

A deputy sheriff gave bond with eight sureties, one of whom Held, a motion lies on the bond against the deputy and the sur sureties. Jacobs v. Hill, 2 Leigh 393.

Where the obligee in a forthcoming bond is one of the obligo may maintain a motion on the bond against the other obligors. Bo Kinsey, 8 Grat. 560, 565.

On a motion against a principal and his sureties a confessi judgment by the principal does not merge the cause of action a the surety, and judgment may be rendered against the latter at a su ing term of the court; nor are plaintiff's rights affected by suffering suit, but he may at a subsequent term renew his action or motion o same cause of action against any or all of the parties against wh has not already obtained judgment. Cahoon v. McCulloch, 92 Va. 23 S. E. 225.

As to separate motions against obligor and his sureties in a coming bond, see Winston v. Whitlocke, 5 Call 435.

As to joining representatives of two deceased persons in same a see Grymes v. Pendleton, 4 Call 130; Watkins' Ex'rs v. Tate, 3 521 (2d Ed. 451).

See section 6265 and revisors' note; also Report of Revisors pp. 237, 833.

Cited but not construed in Rocky Mount Trust Co. v. Price, 10 299, 49 S. E. 73.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1320, 1324; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1068, 3 Va. Law Reg. 807; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 52, 53, 54, 180, 181

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annota chapter 121, section 7.

Sec. 6048. When, on a motion, there may be trial by jury. a motion, when an issue of fact is joined, and either party desi or, when in the opinion of the court, it is proper, a jury sha impaneled, unless the case be one in which the recovery is li to an amount not greater than twenty dollars, exclusive of i est. (Code 1887, § 3213.)

The issue—How made up.—On motion, under section 6046, in to entitle the defendant to trial by jury, an issue must be mad This issue may be tendered by a plea or by an informal stateme writing of the grounds of the defense. Mere oral statement i sufficient, and in cases where the statute requires the plea to be ve by affidavit that requirement must be complied with. Preston v. Imp. Co., 91 Va. 583, 22 S. E. 486, note 1 Va. Law Reg. 447; W v. Booker Brick Co., 113 Va. 434, 74 S. E. 160.

No formal issue need be joined on a motion on a forthcoming as the pleading may be ore tenus, and the court may pronounce judg on the evidence. McKinster v. Garrett, 3 Rand. 554.

On a notice of a motion against a sheriff and his sureties o official bond, the plea of non-damnificatus and nil debit are not the p pleas. Supervisors v. Dunn, 27 Grat. 608.

On a motion by a treasurer against his deputy and the sureti deputy's bond formal pleadings are not required. Any proper de ɛy be made, as well without as with pleas. Hall v. Ratliff, 93 Va. 327, S. E. 1011, note 2 Va. Law Reg. 434.

Digitized by Google

Proceedings upon a plea of non est factum.—Upon a motion against deputy sheriff and his sureties upon a joint bond, if the principal plead n est factum this must be first tried and decided against the plea before dgment can be rendered against the sureties. Asberry v. Calloway, Wash. 72.

Where non est factum is pleaded to a motion on a forthcoming bond, e court may render judgment without the intervention of a jury, or may empanel jury to try the issue. Burke v. Levy's Ex'rs, 1 Rand. 1.

Trial by the court.—The court should hear and decide motion to ate an attachment where plaintiff declines to express any wish for a ry, and defendant expresses a wish that the jury might be dispensed th. Claflin v. Steenbock, 18 Grat. 842, 846.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 983, 987, 1048; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1320; ırks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 9, 181, 475; Dunlap v. Dillard, 77 Va. 847, 855.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 121, section 8.

CHAPTER 252.

ıe County or Corporation, and Court, in Which Proceedings Are Commenced.

ɔc.

049. The county or corporation in which actions at law or suits in equity may be brought.

050. Same.

051. In what courts actions or suits may be brought; when to be brought in, or transferred to, Circuit Court of Richmond; to what extent judgment or decree void, if action or suit not so transferred.

Sec.

6052. Jurisdiction of writ of quo warranto, or information in nature of writ of quo warranto.

6053. Of mandamus, prohibition, and certiorari.

Sec. 6049. The county or corporation in which actions at law or uits in equity may be brought.—Any action at law or suit in equity, xcept where it is otherwise especially provided, may be brought ı any county or corporation—

First. Wherein any of the defendants may reside.

Second. If a corporation be a defendant, wherein its principal ffice is, or wherein its mayor, rector, president, or other chief officer resides.

Third. If it be to recover a loss under a policy of insurance, ther upon property or life, wherein the property insured was situated at the date of the policy, or the person whose life was insured resided at the date of his death or at the date of the policy.

Fourth. If it be to recover land, or subject it to a debt, where ı such land or any part thereof may be; or if it be against a foreign corporation, wherein its statutory agent resides, or it has any tate or debts owing to it within this State; or if it be against a defendant who resides without this State, wherein he may and served with process, or may have estate or debts due Fifth. If it be on behalf of the Commonwealth, wheth name of the Attorney-General or otherwise, it may be in of Richmond.

Digitized by Google

Sixth. If it be an action or a suit in which it is nece proper to make any of the following public officers a party ant—to-wit, the Governor, Attorney-General, Treasurer, of the Land Office, either auditor, Superintendent of P struction, or Commissioner of Agriculture; or in which it necessary or proper to make any of the following public tions a party defendant—to-wit, the Board of Education public corporation composed of officers of government, of t and property of which the Commonwealth is sole owne which it shall be attempted to enjoin or otherwise suspen fect any judgment or decree on behalf of the Commonw any execution issued on such judgment or decree, it shall in the city of Richmond.

Seventh. If a judge of a circuit court be interested i which, but for such interest, would be proper for the ju of his court, the action or suit may be brought in any c corporation in an adjoining circuit. (Code 1887, § 3214; 189 355, 769; 1902-3-4, p. 635; 1904, p. 320.)

Revisors' Note.—The Fourth sub-division has been chang what. The provision relating to the statutory agent of a for poration is new. Under this provision ALL foreign corporati be sued in Richmond, as the Secretary of the Commonwealth made the statutory agent. See section 3845.

Subsection 1.—The residence of a citizen of this State is no
by reason of his conviction and confinement in the penitentia other State. Guarantee Co. v. First Nat. Bank, 95 Va. 480, 909. See Neale v. Utz, 75 Va. 480.

As to what is residence (within the meaning of the act tion), see Griffin v. Woolford, 100 Va. 473, 41 S. E. 949.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1172, 1342.

Subsection 2.—See 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 570, 638; 4 Min.
1172, 1342.

In an action of tort against a railroad company, a plea to diction is good which avers that the cause of action did no any part thereof arise in the county in which the action is bro that, at the time of the issuing of the writ in the cause, the did not have its principal office in said county, and that it had dent or other chief officer residing in said county, and whic states in what county the cause of action, if any, did arise, and city its principal office was at the time of issuing the writ an
The venue of all actions in this State, whether local or tran fixed by statute, and the statute declares where actions aga porations as well as individuals may be brought. Va. & S. W.
Hollingsworth, 107 Va. 359, 58 S. E. 572.

The declaration in the certificate of incorporation as to the of the principal office is conclusive on that point. Loyd v. Ly
113 Va. 627, 75 S. E. 233.

Subsection 3.—Where corporation does business both as a an insurance company, it may be sued as an insurance compa

Digitized by Google

section. Wytheville Ins. Co. v. Stultz, 87 Va. 629, 13 S. E. 77. See ion 6046 and notes; section 4345.

See 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 638; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1172.

Subsection 4.—Under contract made in S. county H. executed deed veying real estate therein situated to F. and T. Later H. brought in that county against F. and T. to rescind the contract and vacate deed. The court had jurisdiction, though the defendants resided another county, and summons was served in the county of their dence. Hull v. Fields, 76 Va. 594. As to where suit for specific formance of contract for sale of land may be brought, see 10 Va. Reg. 283.

See 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 638; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 636. See, also, revisors' e above.

A non-resident may be sued upon a cause of action arising out of State wherever he may be found in this State. Beirne v. Rosser, Grat. 537.

For discussions of the locality of personal actions against a single -resident defendant, see 4 Va. Law Reg. 361; 5 Va. Law Reg. 46, 346.

Subsection 5.—A judgment in favor of the Commonwealth having n recovered in C. county, suit thereon may be brought in that county. ept in case where it is otherwise specially provided, Commonwealth y prosecute her suits in any of the courts in which other parties may secute suits of like character. And this case is not embraced in the ute, Code 1873, chapter 166. Com. v. Ford, 29 Grat. 683.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1172, 1342.

Circuit court of the city of Richmond alone has jurisdiction to en- or affect any judgment in behalf of the Commonwealth. Com. v. ham, 85 Va. 632, 8 S. E. 488. It only has jurisdiction of suits against te officers. See section 6051. Taylor v. Williams, 78 Va. 422.

Clauses five and six of this section do not confer jurisdiction on the cuit Court of the City of Richmond to entertain a suit in equity by public corporation created and existing for purely governmental poses and as an agency of the State, against another such corpora-, nor is this jurisdiction given by section 6051. Western State Hos- l v. General Board, 112 Va. 230, 70 S. E. 505.

Subsection 6.—Circuit court of the city of Richmond has chancery isdiction only in cases where it may be necessary or proper to make ain enumerated officers or corporations defendants. The Commis- ner of Agriculture was not one of these. Blanton v. Southern Fer- zing Co., 77 Va. 335. See Ragland v. Broadnax, 29 Grat. 401.

A policy holder in a foreign insurance company which has deposited ds with the State treasurer may sue the company in the city of Rich- nd, and make the treasurer a party defendant. Universal Life Ins. v. Cogbill, 30 Grat. 72. See section 4214.

Suit to enjoin judgment in favor of the Commonwealth must be ught in the Circuit Court of Richmond Com. v. Lathan, 85 Va. 632, . E. 488.

While the general board of directors of State hospitals for the insane y very properly be regarded as a quasi corporation, existing for ely governmental purposes, it cannot be brought within the category "public corporations, composed of officers of government, of the ds and property" of which the Commonwealth is sole owner, referred in this clause. Western State Hospital v. General Board, 112 Va. , 70 S. E. 505.

Subsection 7.—The word "may" in this clause is permissive only. e judge may also sue in the circuit court of any county or corporation his own circuit in which any of the defendants reside or in which the se of action arose. Harrison v. Wissler, 98 Va. 598, 36 S. E. 982, e 6 Va. Law Reg. 471.

Generally.—Does "may" mean "must"? See 4 Va. Law Reg. 361; a. Law Reg. 46; Harrison v. Wissler, 98 Va. 598, 36 S. E. 982.

As to taking advantage of the lack of jurisdiction of the court by plea in abatement, see Warren v. Saunders, 27 Grat. 259; Rosser, 26 Grat. 537; section 6105 and notes.

Digitized by Google

Cited in Com. v. Ashlin's Adm'r, 95 Va. 147, 28 S. E. 177 Ry. Co. v. Rison, 99 Va. 18, 37 S. E. 320, note 6 Va. Law R Ward Lumber Co. v. Henderson-White Mfg. Co., 107 Va. 626, 476; Carr v. Bates, 108 Va. 371, 61 S. E. 754.

See 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 638; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1342; Barto (2d Ed.) 15, 18, 20, 243, 1112; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 163, 282, 293, 317, 318, 917; 13 Va. Law J. 741, 756.

For monographic note on Jurisdiction, see Phippen v. D Grat. 457, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 123, section 1.

Sec. 6050. Same.—An action or suit may be brought county or city wherein the cause of action, or any part arose, although none of the defendants reside therein. (Co § 3215.)

Revisors' Note.—Under the former language of this sectio doubtful if it applied to suits in equity. (4 Min. [3d Ed.] 134 L. Reg. 46.) Now it expressly applies to both actions at law in equity.

For article as to county or corporation wherein actions brought, see 9 Va. Law Reg. 681.

See full discussion 4 Va. Law Reg. 361; 5 Va. Law Reg. 3 also, notes to section 6049; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 16, 1297 (4th Ed.) 570, 638; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 163, 272, 282, 284, 311, 317, 322, 327, 917.

Cited in Raub v. Otterback, 89 Va. 645, 16 S. E. 933; Morc Co. v. Pankey, 91 Va. 259, 21 S. E. 487; Guarantee Co. v. Nat. Va. 487, 28 S. E. 909; 5 Va. Law Reg. 46; Harrison v. Wissle 598, 36 S. E. 982, note 6 Va. Law Reg. 471; Ward Lumbe Henderson-White Mfg. Co., 107 Va. 626, 59 S. E. 476; Carr 108 Va. 371, 61 S. E. 754; N. & W. Ry. v. Sutherland, 105 54 S. E. 465; Mundy v. Garland, 112 Va. 743, 72 S. E. 713; Reg. 472.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 123, section 2.

Sec. 6051. In what courts, actions or suits may be brougl to be brought in, or transferred to, Circuit Court of Richm what extent judgment or decree void, if action or suit not ferred.—Any action or suit mentioned in the two preceding may be in a circuit court of any county, or circuit or cor court of any city, wherein it is allowed or required therel brought; except that any such action or suit as is allowe fifth subdivision of section six thousand and forty-nine, or by the sixth subdivision of the said section, to be brough city of Richmond, shall be in the Circuit Court of the s And if any such action or suit as is mentioned in the said si division is now pending or be hereafter brought in any oth than the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond, it shall, of such other court, be transferred, together with all the and proceedings therein, to the Circuit Court of the city mond, to be proceeded in to a final decision in the said Court. And if such action or suit be not so transferred,

Digitized by Google

ed in to judgment or decree in the court wherein it is so
; or shall have been so brought, such judgment or decree, s it may be against any of the public officers or public corns mentioned in the said sixth subdivision or against the nwealth, shall be void. (Code 1887, § 3216.)

eems that when the Commonwealth by petition is made a party to a pending suit, it has no right to remove the case to the Cirrt of the city of Richmond. Com. v. Ashlin's Adm'r, 95 Va. S. E. 177.

ed in Harrison v. Wissler, 98 Va. 603, 36 S. E. 982; 4 Va. Law l.

note to section 6049(5).

3052. Jurisdiction of writ of quo warranto, or information in of writ of quo warranto.—Jurisdiction of a proceeding by quo warranto, or information in the nature of a writ of rranto, shall be in the circuit court of the county, or circorporation court of the city, or such city court as is inwith that jurisdiction in the city, wherein the defendant or he defendants resides; or, if the defendant be a corporation, its principal office is, or wherein its mayor, rector, presi- other chief officer resides; and, if there be no such office r, or none of the defendants reside in this State, the Circuit f the city of Richmond shall have jurisdiction. (Code 1887, isors' Note.—The words, "or such city court as is invested with isdiction in the city," are new.

3053. Of mandamus, prohibition, and certiorari.—Jurisdicwrits of mandamus, prohibition, and certiorari (except such be issued from the Supreme Court of Appeals) shall be in the court of the county, or in the circuit or corporation court of or such city court as is invested with that jurisdiction in the erein the record or proceeding is, to which the writ relates. 887, § 3218; 1902-3-4, p. 635.)

isors' Note.—The words, "or such city court as is invested with isdiction in the city," are new.

s section has no application to a mandamus to compel a railway to issue a transfer to passenger within the limits of the city nond, although the obligation to perform that duty appears from of the county court of Henrico. Richmond Ry. & Electric Co. n, 97 Va. 26, 32 S. E. 775.

article upon "Certiorari as a Remedial Writ," see 13 Va. L. .

Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 22, 1208, 1236; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 384. W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 123, section 3.

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 253.

Process, and the Order of Publica tion.

Sec.
6054. Forms of writs.
6055. To whom process directed; when to issue; when returnable.
6056. When process not to be executed without the county or city of venue.
6057. Sheriff of county may execute process in city.
6058. Suits by and against unincorporated associations or orders.
6059. When new process may issue; if former process executed but not returned, what to be done.
6060. Officer's duty, after every rules, to get from clerk's office process, orders, and decrees.
6061. Process to commence a suit, a summons; how issued; not altered afterwards.
6062. How summons in scire facias served; copy to be made out for defendant.
6063. How process served on domestic corporation.
6064. How process served on a foreign corporation.
6065. On whom served when corporation operated by trustee, lessee, or receiver.
6066. How served; what return of officer to show; how long to

Sec. be served in before return term "agent" 6067. On whom proce notice to, a co not a corpora served.
6068. No judgment
nihil.
6069. On what affids publication ma when and by w 6070. What order of state and requ lished and p publication i dispensed with 6071. Within what ti lication case t
no other pu quired unless court; when what to be g sel; provision service of pro
non-residents;
of; the return
in such case.
6072. Within what heard, and corrected.
6073. When clerk of peals to issue lication; how posted; when

Sec. 6054. Forms of writs.—Until the Supreme Cour shall alter the forms of writs, the same may be as heretof cept so far as is otherwise provided. (Code 1887, § 321

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 3, 4, 473, 485.

Sec. 6055. To whom process directed; when to issu turnable.—Process from any court, whether original final, may be directed to the sheriff or sergeant of an city. It shall, if returnable to rules, be issued before to which it is returnable, and may, except where ot vided, be executed on or before that day. If it appea served and good in other respects, it shall be deem though not directed to any officer, or if directed to an of

Digitized by Google

ed by some other person. It shall, unless otherwise specially ed, be returnable within ninety days after its date to some the term of a court, or in the clerk's office to the first day of les, except that a summons for a witness shall be returnable tever day his attendance is desired, and process awarded in nay be returnable as the court shall direct, and the return a summons in garnishment may be according to the provi- f section sixty-five hundred and nine. (Code 1887, § 3220.)

visors' Note.—Section 3220 of the Code of 1887 was somewhat ated. It involved exception within exception, and it was deemed divide it into two sections. This having been done, section 6055 tes the first and section 6056 the second. As to section 6055 th ng may be observed: Section 3220 of the Code of 1887 enacted l process should be returnable to the court on the first day of a r in the clerk's office to the first day of any rules. No good being seen for requiring process to be returnable to the first day rm, the revised section provides that it may be returnable to DAY of the term of a court, or in the clerk's office to the first any rules.

te of issuance—When returnable.—The summons to commence which is made returnable on the day of issue is a void summons, proceedings had thereon are likewise void. The provision that cess shall be issued before the rule day to which it is returnable latory. Noell v. Noell, 93 Va. 433, 25 S. E. 242.

ocess made returnable to a day which is not a legal return day is Kyles v. Ford, 2 Rand. 1.

writ returnable at rules "on the first day of the next term, June 889," that day being the second Monday in June, whereas there rules until the third Monday, was invalid. Raub v. Otterback, 645, 16 S. E. 933.

motion to quash a writ of capias ad respondendum which is made able to the next term generally, instead of the first day of the as the statute required, should be overruled where the writ is d before the term and returned to the first day, and an official nt entered at the rules. Hare v. Niblo, 4 Leigh 359. Process ger has to be returnable to the first day of a term.

here a recognizance was adjudged forfeited, and the court ordered e principal and sureties be summoned to appear on a certain d subsequently the clerk issued a scire facias returnable on that hich was more than ninety days from the date of the writ, it was the exception of the statute. Lewis v. Com., 106 Va. 20, 54 99.

scire facias by which it was sought to revive a judgment was ut on April 16th, 1902, returnable October 10th, 1902. This is a iolation of this section and a writ of fieri facias sued out on the nt will be quashed. Lowenbach v. Kelly, 111 Va. 439, 69 S. E.

writ issued on November 25, 1908, and made returnable to rules holden "on the third Monday in January" is sufficient, though it have been better to have said "third Monday in January next." ius Chem. Co. v. White, 112 Va. 250, 71 S. E. 637.

enerally.—A writ which purports to be a pluries capias, but which out date, and is not attested by the clerk, is void, and all proceed- ased thereon are illegal. Hickam v. Larkey, 6 Grat. 210.

s to execution by officer other than the one to whom directed, see v. Miller, 2 Leigh 545 (decided before present statute).

ted, but not construed, in Guarantee Co. v. Nat. Bank, 95 Va. 8 S. E. 909; Harrison v. Wissler, 98 Va. 599, 36 S. E. 982;

Digitized by Google

Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Sutherland, 105 Va. 548, 54 S. E.
Bowling Alley v. Richmond, 116 Va. 429, 82 S. E. 97.

See, also, 5 Va. Law Reg. 46, 490; 6 Va. Law Reg. 7
C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 250; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 262, 269, 79
1112, 1298; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 644, 662, 756, 825, 990; Burk
pp. 260, 272, 282, 297, 312, 317, 322, 627, 637, 917; not
Reg. 624.

See sections 6063, 6064, 6071 and notes.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 124, section 2.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 3, 4, 408, 409, 410, 411, 41
436, 455, 456, 457, 464, 466, 468, 470, 485.

Sec. 6056. When process not to be executed without th city of venue.—Process against the defendant to answe tion, suit, or motion brought under section six thousa shall not be executed in any other county or city than t the action, suit or motion is brought, unless it be:

An action against a corporation; or

An action upon a bond taken by an officer under a some statute; or

An action to recover damages for a wrong; or

An action against two or more defendants on one of process has been executed in the county or city in wh tion is brought; or

Unless it be otherwise specially provided.

Revisors' Note.—This section is based on a part of sec the Code of 1887. See revisors' note to the preceding sect 6050 having been enlarged to include suits as well as actions has been made equally comprehensive. A motion under se an action at law. Gordon v. Funkhouser, 100 Va. 675, 4 Reed & McCormack v. Gold, 102 Va. 37, 45 S. E. 868; N etc., Ry. Co. v. Bickford, 105 Va. 182, 52 S. E. 1011. Th not so much one TO WHOM process may be directed as it may execute the process, or WHERE it may be executed, is expressed in the revised section.

The language of the second paragraph of the revised se all corporations, and is not restricted to "a railroad, e navigation, turnpike, telegraph or telephone company," as formerly. This extension is in consequence of the chan sections 6063 and 6064.

Under the law as it stood before the revision, if the p answer in an action brought under section 6050, and was the defendant without the county or city in which the action it was required to be executed at least ten days before th of such process. This provision no longer appears.

Where a suit is brought under section 6050, but proc in another county, and plea in abatement stating these facts when the cause is called for trial a motion to dismiss th the docket should be sustained. Warren v. Saunders, 27

Where defendants are non-residents, and the process is on them in the county where the suit is brought, and the executed at least ten days before the return day, the servic Raub v. Otterback, 89 Va. 645, 16 S. E. 933. The ten-day longer appears. See revisors' note above.

If summons directed to sheriff of county other than

Digitized by Google

ion is brought, and judgment goes by default, remedy is not by in-nction, but by motion under section 6333. Brown v. Chapman, 90 . 174, 17 S. E. 855.

A judgment by default against a corporation rendered on return summons, which shows that it was executed on an officer of the mpany in a county other than that wherein the suit was brought, and s not served ten days before the return day thereof, is void, and may assailed collaterally by third parties. All acts performed under it d all claims flowing out of it are void. Staunton Perpetual Bldg. & an Co. v. Haden, 92 Va. 201, 23 S. E. 285, note 1 Va. Law Reg. 661. e ten-day provision no longer appears.

Sec. 6057. Sheriff of county may execute process in city.—The eriff of any county in which is situated a city, or any part there-, may execute in such city or part, any process which he might ecute in any other portion of his county.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new.

Sec. 6058. Suits by and against unincorporated associations or ders.—All unincorporated associations or orders may sue and be ed under the name by which they are commonly known and called, under which they do business, and judgments and executions ainst any such association or order shall bind its real and per-nal property in like manner as if it were incorporated. Process ainst such association or order may be served on any officer or ustee of such association or order.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new.

Sec. 6059. When new process may issue; if former process exe-ted but not returned, what to be done.—If, at the return day of y process, it be not returned executed, it shall be the ex-officio ty of the clerk, unless otherwise directed by the plaintiff or his torney, to issue an alias, or other proper process, without waiting here the first process is returnable to a term) for the subsequent ocess to be awarded at rules; and where, for want of a return the first process against a defendant, any subsequent process is ued, if the former was executed, the officer shall not execute the tter, but shall return the former, if it be in his possession, and if has it not, shall return the latter with an endorsement of the ecution of the former, and the proceedings thereupon shall be as the first had been duly returned. (Code 1887, § 3221.)

Revisors' Note.—This section makes it the ex-officio duty of the erk, unless otherwise directed by the plaintiff or his attorney, to issue alias or other proper process if at the return day of any process it be t returned executed. Formerly, the statute simply provided that "an ias or other proper process, MAY BE ISSUED."

Where previous writs of summons have failed for ineffectual service other irregularities, plaintiff is entitled to an alias writ. Danville & . R. Co. v. Brown, 90 Va. 340, 18 S. E. 278.

Where for want of service of process judgment is void, collection of ecution should be enjoined, the judgment vacated, and the cause re-anded to be proceeded in at law by an alias summons properly served. nney v. Clark, 86 Va. 354, 10 S. E. 569.

See notes to section 2825; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 269; Barton, Pr. (2d Ed.) 252; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 663.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6060. Officer's duty, after every rules, to get from cl fice process, orders, and decrees.—Every officer who attends shall, within five days after the end of any rules, go to the office and receive all process, orders, and decrees to be exec him, and give receipts therefor. For any failure so to do, forfeit fifty dollars. (Code 1887, § 3222.)

Cited 6 Va. Law Reg. 700.
See Gregory's Forms Nos. 3, 4.

Sec. 6061. Process to commence a suit, a summons; how not altered afterwards.—The process to commence a suit sh writ commanding the officer to whom it is directed to sum defendant to answer the bill or action. It shall be issued order of the plaintiff, his attorney or agent, and shall not, is issued, be altered, nor any blank therein filled up, excep clerk. It shall not be deemed to have been issued until d or placed in course of delivery to some officer or other p be executed. (Code 1887, § 3223.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence is new, and is intended the disputed question as to what is meant by "issued." See d and cases cited in Burks' Pl. & Pr., at p. 400.

A common-law action is commenced when the summons for the purpose of having it executed. Furst v. Banks, 101 8 Va. Law Reg. 821, 43 S. E. 360. See, also, 5 Va. Law R 6 Va. Law Reg. 700; 8 Va. Law Reg. 633. As to motions, s to section 6046. See revisors' note above.

Service of summons on defendant's agent having been mad ten days of the return day, and the suit having been remanded to be properly matured, an alias summons was issued and dul Held, the commencement of the suit was the issuance of the summons. Virginia Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. Vaughan, 88 14 S. E. 754.

For note as to effect of process to stop the running of th of limitations, see 9 Va. Law Reg. 356.

Quaere: Can a deposition be taken after the issuance of a and before the filing of the bill? See note, 10 Va. Law Reg. 6

For article upon "When is Action Begun so as to Stop the of the Statute of Limitations," see 12 Va. Law Reg. 675.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 242; 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 639 (3d Ed.) 631, 638, 1342.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 124, section 5.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Sec. 6062. How summons in scire facias served; copy to out for defendant.—Any summons or scire facias may be s the same manner and by the same person as is prescribed service of a notice under section six thousand and forty- cept that when such process is against a corporation the service shall be as prescribed by the two following secti clerk issuing such process unless otherwise directed shall or transmit therewith as many copies thereof as there are named therein on whom it is to be served. (Code 1887, 1891-2, p. 1083.)

The word "in" in the headline to this section should be "o

Digitized by Google

As the statute now stands, it seems process to commence a suit may erved by other than an officer. Price v. Cole's Ex'x, 83 Va. 343, 2 . 200.

Where process is returned executed by leaving copy at the "usual e of abode" of the defendant, it can not be assailed by showing that act the defendant never lived there, except in the case of fraud or sion. Sutherland v. Bank, 111 Va. 515, 69 S. E. 341.

Under this section before amended as above it was decided that onstable could not lawfully serve a process directed to the sheriff ss the office of coroner is vacant or the incumbent under disability. rews v. Fitzpatrick, 89 Va. 438, 16 S. E. 278.

Where service of process was accepted by an attorney, defendant ompetent witness to show that the attorney was not authorized to for him. Raub v. Otterback, 89 Va. 645, 16 S. E. 933.

As to service on wrong person, see 5 Va. Law Reg. 570.

As to acceptance of service, see Finney v. Clark, 86 Va. 354, 10 . 569.

See notes to section 2825; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 265, 1034; ks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 162, 283, 295, 296, 298, 312; Barksdale v. Neal, Grat. 314; notes to section 6041.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 169.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 124, section 6.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 485, 493.

ec. 6063. How process served on domestic corporation.—Pro- against, or notice to, a domestic corporation may, unless other- e provided, be served as follows: If the case be against a city own, on its mayor, recorder, or any alderman, councilman, or tee of such city or town; if it be against any other corporation ated by the laws of this State, on its president or other chief er, or on its cashier, treasurer, secretary, general superintend- or any one of its directors, or on any agent of such corpora- , or any person declared by the laws of this State to be such nt, if any such officer or agent be found in the city or county in ch the suit, action or proceeding is commenced, and whether so nd or not, it may be sent to the county or city in which is lo- ed the principal office of such company and be there served on officer or agent of such company found at such office. If, how- r, the case be against an insurance, guaranty, trust, indemnity, lity, or security company, created by the laws of this State, the cess or notice shall be directed to the sheriff or sergeant of the nty or city wherein the chief office of such company is located. de 1887, § 3225; 1893-4, p. 614; 1895-6, p. 445.)

Revisors' Note.—Section 3225 of the Code of 1887 was last amended Acts 1895-6, p. 445, and applied to both domestic and foreign cor- ations. This and the following section are taken from that act, sec- 6063 being applicable to domestic corporations and section 6064 to ign corporations. No special reason was perceived for making a inction in the service of process on a domestic corporation as between officer or any one of its agents. The preference of an officer to an nt, and of an agent to publication led to difficulty. Trouble also arose o whether process could be sent out of the county when an agent or cer resided in the county. It would seem immaterial whether the vice should be on an officer or agent, and certainly process served on an officer or agent at the principal office of the company ought to effective and as beneficial to the company as if served on som ordinate agent in the county or city in which the suit is brought change made is to give to the plaintiff an option to serve either officer or an agent found in the county or city in which the suit or is brought, or upon an officer or agent found at the principal o the company. The defendant could not be prejudiced by this pr to the plaintiff, and it might be beneficial to the latter. No reas seen why banks should be put on a different footing from other do corporations. They are, therefore, included in the general class porations created by the laws of this State. The exception at t of the section with reference to insurance, etc., companies seems t met with approval and that provision is retained.

Digitized by Google

The present section omits all reference to publication. The r of service is regulated by section 6066, and no publication is per against domestic corporations except in those cases where a publ could be had against a natural resident. See section 6069, and 5, clause 13.

Under this section process against a city can be served o persons named herein, and process served on other officers, as a does not give court jurisdiction. Alexandria v. Fairfax, 95 U. S 24 L. Ed. 583.

Where the proceeding is to confiscate debts due from a mu corporation, notice to the debtor must be upon the mayor or other named in the statute; notice given to the auditor of the corporatio no effect, and a judgment based thereupon is void. Fairfax v. Alex 28 Grat. 16.

Service of process on the president of a corporation in the cou city wherein the action is brought and in which he resides may be at any time before or on the return day of such process. Jones & Hancock & Sons, 117 Va. 511, 85 S. E. 460.

Process against a corporation cannot be executed by a serv the wife of an agent. Water Front C. Co. v. Smithfield Co., 1 482, 76 S. E. 937, 18 Va. L. Reg. 939 and note.

The declaration in the certificate of incorporation as to the l of the principal office of a corporation is conclusive on that point. v. Lynchburg, 113 Va. 627, 75 S. E. 233.

The fact that this section provides for service of process up president, treasurer or other chief officer of the corporation can relied on as legislative recognition of the authority of the treasu a legal representative of the corporation in all court proceedings. v. Sutherlin-Meade Tobacco Co., 107 Va. 787, 60 S. E. 132.

Where one is notified of his appointment as director witho clining it, and afterwards receives a summons for the company out remonstrating, his acceptance may be presumed, and it is no d for the company that he, in the absence of collusion, failed to the summons. Danville & W. R. Co. v. Brown, 90 Va. 340, 18 S. E

A return showing proper service upon a director or cashie corporation is sufficient, though they disclaim in their answer the to answer officially. Lewis' Adm'r v. Glenn, 84 Va. 948, 6 S. E

As to insurance companies, see last sentence of section. case under the old law, see Wytheville Ins. Co. v. Stultz, 87 Va 13 S. E. 77.

In Ward Lumber Co. v. Henderson-White Mfg. Co., 107 Va 59 S. E. 476, it was held that the provision of section 3225 former Code authorizing the service of process on a domestic co tion by publication, where there was no officer or agent of the corpo in the county on whom process might be served, afforded due p and was constitutional. The situation that arose in that case arise under the present section 6063. See revisors' note above.

Digitized by Google

When domestic corporation to appoint attorney-at-law its attorney agent upon whom all legal process against the corporation may be ved, see section 3854.

ec. 6064. How process served on a foreign corporation.—Pros against, or notice to, a foreign corporation shall be served on statutory agent, if any, of such corporation. If there be no tutory agent, the process or notice may be served on any other nt of such corporation in the county or city in which he rees or in which his place of business is. Service upon either, en duly made, shall constitute sufficient foundation for a personal gment against such corporation when the other requisites thereexist. If there be no such statutory or other agent found in State upon whom service may be had as aforesaid, then on davit of that fact an order of publication may be awarded as vided by sections six thousand and sixty-nine and six thousand seventy of this Code. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to the preceding section. This ion applies to foreign corporations only and provides a very simple hod of service where there is a statutory agent, as will be the case most instances. For appointment of statutory agent, see section 5. If there be no statutory agent, service may be had on any other nt of the foreign corporation in the county or city in which he resides, in which his place of business is. Service is not permitted on any er agent, if there be a statutory agent. An order of publication is mitted only when there is neither a statutory agent nor any other nt in the State upon whom process may be served. Sections 6069 6070 provide for a uniform order of publication in all cases in ch such an order is desired.

In action in Virginia against West Virginia corporation and other -residents, where defendants were laying pipes and constructing erworks on ground most of which plaintiff conceded, and all of ch defendant claimed to be in West Virginia, and process was ved on defendants on a few feet only of ground, which plaintiff claims e in this State, the court will hesitate to violate a citizen's privilege being sued in the jurisdiction of his residence, and will earnestly tinize service of process in such case. Bluefield Waterworks & Imp.
v. Sanders, 63 Fed. 333, 11 C. C. A. 232.

This section so materially changes the pre-existing law relating to service of process on foreign corporations that it is not probable decisions under the former statutes will aid in its construction to any reciable extent; but references are given to the following cases:
stern U. Tel. Co. v. Williams, 86 Va. 696, 11 S. E. 106; Carr v.
es, 108 Va. 371, 61 S. E. 754; Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Cottrell, 83
512, 3 S. E. 123; B. & O. R. Co. v. Gallahue's Adm'rs, 12 Grat. 655, Am. Dec. 254; Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Crull, 112 Va. 151, 70 S. E.
. See revisors' note above.

ec. 6065. On whom served when corporation operated by trustee, ee, or receiver.—Where any corporation is operated by a trustee, rustees, or by a lessee or lessees, or by a receiver or receivers apnted by any court it shall be sufficient in any suit or proceeding inst such corporation, its trustee or trustees, lessee or lessees, rever or receivers to serve the process or notice on such trustee or stees, lessee or lessees, receiver or receivers, or on any one of them

Digitized by Google

or any of their respective agents if none of said trustees or le receivers reside in the county or corporation wherein the commenced. If there be no such agent or other person in th ty or corporation in which the suit or other proceeding menced upon whom there can be service as aforesaid, then davit of that fact, an order of publication may be awarded vided by sections six thousand and sixty-nine and six th and seventy of this Code, and such publication shall be equ to personal service on such trustee or trustees, lessee or less ceiver or receivers. (Code 1887, § 3226; 1893-4, p. 515.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "for its own benefit or for the of its creditors" formerly appearing near the beginning of this have been stricken out as immaterial. The latter part of the has been changed to conform to the provision for a uniform publication. See sections 6069 and 6070.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 647, 648; 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 640; Barton (2d Ed.) 266; Gregory's Forms No. 493.

Sec. 6066. How served; what return of officer to show; h to be served in certain cases before return day; what term " includes.—Service on any person other than a statutory ag der either of the three preceding sections shall be by delive him a copy of the process or notice in the county or city he resides or his place of business is, or the principal office corporation is located; and the return shall show this, an on whom and when the service was; otherwise, it shall not b The term "agent" other than the statutory agent menti section six thousand and sixty-four) as employed in either three preceding sections shall be construed to include a d station agent of a railroad company, a telegraph or teleph erator of a telegraph, telephone or railroad company, and gatherer of a canal or turnpike company. (Code 1887, § 32

Revisors' Note.—The words "other than a statutory agent, in line one of the text, are new. For service on statutory ag sections 3845 and 3846. Formerly, it was provided that "If the or notice be served on an agent, or be served in any other co corporation than that wherein the suit or other proceeding is br had, it shall be served at least ten days before the return day process or notice." This sentence has been omitted in view changes made in sections 6063 and 6064, and of present day for communication, and of section 3845 (applicable to foreign tions), the last sentence of which enacts that "No judgment entered against a foreign corporation under this section until process has been served, as aforesaid, at least ten days."

The return made by the sheriff showing proper service director or cashier of such a corporation is sufficient, though t claim in their answer the right to answer officially. Lewis' A Glenn, 84 Va. 947, 6 S. E. 866.

If the return of the sheriff does not bring the defendant u jurisdiction of the court, its judgment by default is void. Staun petual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. Haden, 92 Va. 201, 23 S. E. 285, no Law Reg. 661; Dillard v. Central Va. Iron Co., 82 Va. 734, 1 S. (2684) nandoah Val. R. Co. v. Ashby's Trustees, 86 Va. 232, 9 S. E. 1003, Am. St. Rep. 898; Blanton v. Carroll, 86 Va. 539, 10 S. E. 329.

Digitized by Google

A judgment by default against a corporation rendered on return ummons which shows that it was executed on an officer of the com- in a county other than that wherein the suit was brought, and was served ten days before the return day thereof, is void, and may be iled collaterally by third parties. All acts performed under it, and laims flowing out of it, are void. Staunton Perpetual Bldg. & Loan v. Haden, 92 Va. 201, 23 S. E. 285, note 1 Va. Law Reg. 661. The day provision no longer appears.

For other cases relating to the ten-day provisions, see N. & W. R. v. Carter, 91 Va. 587, 22 S. E. 517; Jones & Co. v. Hancock, 117 511, 85 S. E. 460; Raub v. Otterback, 89 Va. 645, 16 S. E. 933; inia Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. Vaughan, 88 Va. 832, 14 S. E. 754.

An objection to a defective return of the service of process made he appellate court for the first time is too late. Shenandoah Val. R. v. Griffith, 76 Va. 913.

As to amending or controverting return, see Shenandoah Val. R. v. Ashby's Trustees, 86 Va. 232, 9 S. E. 1003, 19 Am. St. Rep. 898; a. Law Reg. 152; Lee v. Chilton, 5 Munf. 407.

Is the return "Executed" upon a summons sufficient? See 19 Va. Reg. 701.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 272; 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 640: 4 Min. Ed.) 647, 648; 7 Va. Law Reg. 451; Gregory's Forms Nos. 493, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 284, 311, 312, 316, 322, 323, 324, 326.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 744.

ec. 6067. On whom process against, or notice to, a common car- not a corporation, may be served.—In a case against any com- n carrier (other than a corporation) for a liability as such, any cess against or notice to the carrier, may be served on such rier, or on any agent, or on the driver, captain, or conductor any vehicle of such carrier in the county or corporation where- he case is commenced; and if the carrier be not in said county corporation and there be no such agent, driver, captain, or con- tor therein an order of publication may be awarded as pre- ibed by sections six thousand sixty-nine and six thousand and enty. (Code 1887, § 3228.)

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 250-252: Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 266; lin. (3d Ed.) 649; Gregory's Forms No. 492.

Sec. 6068. No judgment on returns of nihil.—No judgment shall rendered on a scire facias, or in any other case, on returns of il. (Code 1887, § 3229.)

On a writ of scire facias against a bail, a return by the sheriff that defendant is no inhabitant of his bailiwick, and is not found within same, is not a sufficient return of nihil; but it should be stated also t he has nothing in the bailiwick by which he could be summoned. v. Chilton, 5 Munf. 407.

Cited but not construed in Wayt v. Glasgow, 106 Va. 110, 55 S. E. .

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 124, section 11.

Sec. 6069. On what affidavit order of publication may be entered; en and by whom entered.—On affidavit that a defendant is a for- n corporation or not a resident of this State, or that diligence s been used by or on behalf of the plaintiff to ascertain in what county or corporation he is, without effect, or that process, di to the officer of the county or corporation in which he resid is, has been twice delivered to such officer more than ten da fore the return day, and been returned without being execut order of publication may be entered against such defendant. A any suit in equity, where the bill states that there are or m persons interested in the subject to be divided or disposed of, names are unknown, and makes such persons defendants b general description of parties unknown, on affidavit of th that the said parties are unknown, an order of publication m entered against such unknown parties. And where in a s equity the number of the defendants upon whom process ha served, exceeds thirty, and it appears by the bill, or other ple or exhibits filed, that such defendants represent like interest parties who have not been served with process, the court or thereof in vacation may direct that such parties be proc against by order of publication. Every other order of publi under this section, except the last mentioned, may be entered in court or by the clerk thereof. In a proceeding by petition, may be an order of publication in like manner as in a suit in e Every affidavit for an order of publication shall state the last k post-office address of the defendant against whom publicat asked, or if such address is unknown, the affidavit shall stat fact. (Code 1887, § 3230.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The former law prescribed different for orders of publication in cases against individuals and corporations. and the following section provide for a uniform order of publicat all cases in which an order of publication is desired. The wor foreign corporation or," appearing in lines one and two of the te new, and their insertion is made necessary to conform to section The provision formerly appearing in this section allowing an or publication against convict defendants in suits for divorce ha omitted. This subject is fully covered by section 6042.

The next to the last sentence of this section formerly read: " other order of publication under this section may be entered in co by the clerk thereof IN VACATION." Suits are frequently b during the session of the court, and it was thought wise to stri the words "in vacation" in order to avoid error. Under the form orders of publication were sometimes awarded by the clerk, al the court was in session. This is now expressly permitted. Th sentence of the revised section is new, as to which see revisors' n the following section.

Where the word "person" is used in a statute, corporations a as natural persons are included for civil purposes. B. & O. R. Gallahue's Adm'rs, 12 Grat. 655, 65 Am. Dec. 254, and section 5 And a word importing the masculine gender only may extend a applied to females and to corporations. Section 5 (13).

The terms of a statute allowing the constructive service of p in lieu of personal service must be strictly followed or the servic be invalid and the judgment rendered thereon by default void. St Perpetual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. Haden, 92 Va. 201, 23 S. E. 285 1 Va. Law Reg. 661.

Digitized by Google

affidavit of the local attorney of a corporation that the names in persons to be made defendants to a bill by such corporation he affiant unknown is sufficient to authorize a proceeding by on against such persons as "parties unknown." Fayette Land ouisville & N. R Co., 93 Va. 274, 24 S. E. 1016, note 2 Va.
g. 356.

nts named as defendants to bill for sale of ancestor's lands to s, against whom order of publication is made upon affidavit of n-residence, must show falsity of affidavit, either then or after ome of full age, in direct proceedings to avoid the decree entered suit, and cannot attack it collaterally. Lawson v. Moorman, 80, 9 S. E. 150.

use, as the basis of an order for publication of an affidavit the non-residence of the defendant upon information and bet be assumed to be in accord with the local State practice, where of that State has adjudged such an affidavit to be sufficient, there local law, excluding its use for such purpose. Thompson v.
n, 226 U. S. 551. See section 6129.

editorial upon this case, 18 Va. L. Reg. 780.

ile the language of this section and sections 6070 and 6071 is it has been held that it comprehends quasi proceedings in rem, ct of which is to reach and dispose of property within the State.
Given's Exr., 106 Va. 145, 55 S. E. 567.

d but not construed in Ward Lumber Co. v. Henderson-White
, 107 Va. 626, 59 S. E. 476.

discussion of time within which case can be heard on an order cation where the court dispenses with publication in a news-ee 16 Va. Law Reg. 715. See following section.

to proof of publication, see section 6224.

Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 243, 246, 252, 253; Barton, L. Pr. (2d 9, 1112; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 649-651; 8 Va. Law Reg. 691; notes n 6071.

W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations,
124, section 11.

Gregory's Forms Nos. 337, 432, 599.

6070. What order of publication to state and require; how ed and posted; when publication in newspaper dispensed Every order of publication shall give the abbreviated style suit, state briefly its object, and require the defendants whom it is entered, or the unknown parties, to appear en days after due publication thereof and do what is neces- protect their interests. It shall be published once a week for ccessive weeks in such newspaper as the court may pre- r, if none be so prescribed, as the clerk may direct, and shall ed by the clerk, at the front door of the courthouse of the or corporation wherein the court is held, on or before the cceeding rule day after it is entered; and shall also mail a ereof to each of the defendants to the post-office address n the affidavit required by the preceding section; and the all file a certificate of the fact in the papers of the case; but rt, or the judge thereof in vacation, may, in any case. if proper, dispense with such publication in a newspaper. 887, § 3231; 1902-3-4, p. 623.)

isors' Note.—Affidavits for orders of publication are now required the last known post-office address of the defendant, or if not the affidavit must state that fact (section 6069); and the above section (6070) requires the clerk in addition to the public a copy to each of the defendants to the post-office address affidavit. The revised section reduces the time for appeara teen days to ten days after due publication.

Digitized by Google

It seems the jurisdiction of the court must appear affirm the proceedings, though the defendants summoned by public appear. Hunter's Ex'rs v. Spotswood, 1 Wash. 145. See S petual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. Haden, 92 Va. 201, 23 S. E. 28 Law Reg. 661.

An order of publication to commence a suit against previously served with process must state the names of the tra as to publication by a commissioner of the time and pla accounts. Martin v. South Salem, 94 Va. 28, 26 S. E. 591.

Under section 6180, where notice of taking an account be given by publication in a newspaper, there must be at eight days between the first insertion and the day of taking Dillard v. Krise, 86 Va. 410, 10 S. E. 430. It would th under this section there must elapse twenty-eight and ten thirty-eight days. See section 5.

A decree reciting that the cause came on to be hea absent defendant upon the bill, etc., an order of publication is conclusive that the order was duly made, published, Hunter's Ex'rs v. Spotswood, 1 Wash. 145, note; Craig v. Se 131. Same where the decree states that the order was du Moore v. Holt, 10 Grat. 284, 291.

Though the lower court orders that publication be mad tion of that order is not to be presumed unless there be evid the record. Hunter's Ex'rs v. Spotswood. 1 Wash. 145.

Proof that the order of publication was inserted in a not sufficient. It must also appear that a copy was pro Myrick v. Adams, 4 Munf. 366.

It would seem that the objection for want of due pub be made for the first time in the appellate court. Hunt Spotswood, 1 Wash. 145; cited in Craig v. Sebrell, 9 Grat

See note to 6069, taken from Clem v. Given's Exr., 55 S. E. 567.

As to what proof is required see section 6224.

For act validating certain orders made without com this section as amended, see 1904, p. 269.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 250; Barton, L. Pr. (2 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 647, 649, 653. See section 6224; note Reg. 715.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' chapter 124, section 12.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 327, 432, 574.

Sec. 6071. Within what time after publication case tri no other publication required unless ordered by court; and of what to be given to counsel; provision for person process, etc., on non-residents; effect thereof; the return in such case.—When such order shall have been so execu a copy of any process, or of a notice beginning any have been published as provided by any section of this the defendants against whom it is entered, or publis unknown parties, shall not appear within ten days aft pletion of the execution of such order, or the expira four weeks required for the completion of such publ case may be tried or heard as to them, and no other pu notice, shall be thereafter required in any proceeding

Digitized by Google

e a commissioner, or for the purpose of taking depositions, specially ordered by the court as to such defendants or un- n parties, but if they shall be represented by counsel residing s State, of record or known to the plaintiff, reasonable notice y proceeding before a commissioner, or of the taking of depo- s, shall be given to such counsel, or any of them, if there be than one. Personal service of the summons, scire facias, or e, may be made by any person not a party to or otherwise in- ed in the subject matter in controversy, on a non-resident de- nt out of this State, which service shall have the same effect, o other, as an order of publication duly executed, or the pub- on of a copy of process or of notice under this chapter, as the nay be. In such case the return shall be made under oath, and show the time and place of such service, and that the defend- o served is a non-resident of this State. Upon any trial or ng under this section such judgment, decree or order shall be ed as may appear just. (Code 1887, § 3232; 1906, p. 47.)

Revisors' Note.—This section conforms to the preceding, and the "fifteen days" have been changed to "ten days."

f the defendants summoned by order of publication appear, they ntitled to notice in all the subsequent proceedings in the suit. ell v. Burwell's Guardian, 78 Va. 574.

Where defendant appears in person and by attorney, an objection ade in the lower cannot be made in the appellate court. Anderson nson, 32 Grat. 558.

Where parties have been properly proceeded against as parties un- n, a plea in abatement by a defendant who has been served wtih ss, setting forth the names and residences of all the parties in- ed in the suit, is immaterial, and should be rejected. Fayette Co. v. Louisville & N. R. Co., 93 Va. 274, 24 S. E. 1016.

Where, in a suit in equity, the number of defendants exceed thirty, sonal decree may be entered against a defendant summoned by ation if he be a resident of this State, though he make no appear- Cardwell v. Talbott (Corporation Court of Danville), 5 Va. Law 182, and note.

uch a decree is res adjudicata, and no defence which might have made in the original suit can be pleaded in defence of a motion , brought for judgment on the decree. Id

A decree in personam against an absent debtor is entitled to all espect to which any other decree is entitled in all collateral con- rsies. Rootes' Ex'x v. Tompkins' Trustees, 3 Grat. 98.

Where service is made on non-resident by an individual, the affidavit rvice must show that the affiant is not interested in the matter in oversy. Raub v. Otterback, 17 Va. L. J 278, 281, 89 Va. 645, E. 933.

Where a non-resident defendant is served with process by an in- ual, such service must occur at least fifteen days (now ten days) e the return day of the writ. Raub v. Otterback, Id.

The provision herein allowing personal service on non-resident de- nts applies only to natural persons, and not to corporations or agents. Dillard v. Central Va. Iron Co., 82 Va. 734, 1 S. E. 124.

Personal service on a non-resident will be equivalent to an order blication upon an application to purchase delinquent lands. Thomas nes, 94 Va. 758, 27 S. E. 813, note 3 Va. Law Reg. 523.

The officer of another State can only act as a private individual. as v. Jones, 94 Va. 758, 27 S. E. 813, note 3 Va. Law Reg. 523.

Digitized by Google

An acknowledgment by S. & W. of legal service within the of Columbia must be treated as an order of publication duly pos no more. Smith v. Chilton, 77 Va. 535.

See note to section 6069, taken from Clem v. Given's Exr., 145, 55 S. E. 567.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 149, 250, 254; 4 Min. (3d E 653; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 281.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 124, section 13.

See Gregory's Forms No. 488.

Sec. 6072. Within what time case reheard, and any injust rected.—Any unknown party, or other defendant, who served with process, and did not appear in the case before t of such judgment, decree, or order, or the representative such, may, within two years from that date, if he be not serv a copy of such judgment, decree, or order, more than a yea the end of the said two years, and if he be so served, then one year from the time of such service, petition to have t reheard, and may plead or answer, and have any injustice proceedings corrected. (Code 1887, § 3233.)

Revisors' Note.—The limitation was formerly three years; is two years.

It seems that leave to file a petition will not stop the ru the statute. Woodson's Ex'r v. Leyburn, 83 Va. 843, 849, 3 S. This section applied in this case; also in Willard v. Willard, 98 468, 36 S. E. 518; Cralle v. Cralle, 79 Va. 182.

This section only applies to so much of the decree as opera the estate or effects of the absent debtor subject to the jurisd the court of this Commonwealth. Rootes' Ex'x v. Tompkins' 3 Grat. 98.

The limitation prescribed has no application to so much decree as acts in personam, and establishes a personal demand part may be shown to be erroneous either upon its face or by aliunde, notwithstanding the limitation has elapsed since it nounced. Id.

In a suit in which there is an absent defendant there is against the home defendant from which he appeals. Pending peal, the absent defendant may file his petition in the court bel permitted to appear and file his answer in the cause, and may decree reheard. James River & Kanawha Co. v. Littlejohn, 18 G

If upon such rehearing the decree or so much of it as is the of appeal is wholly set aside the appeal will generally be dismis if an appeal is taken from the decree on the rehearing before the d of the first appeal the appellate court may refuse to dismiss it.

A defendant is not bound by a decree against him found a petition filed in the cause, of which he had no notice, and ma the provisions of this section, file a petition in the cause, to h case made by the petition reheard. Keys Planing Mill Co. v. Kir 114 Va. 58, 75 S. E. 778.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 649, 653; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 281; C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 132, 168, 254.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 124, section 14.

Sec. 6073. When clerk of Court of Appeals to issue order lication; how published and posted; when case heard.—W the return of an officer, of process issued to answer an appe of error or supersedeas pending in the Supreme Court of

Digitized by Google

or when from affidavit filed with the clerk of said court, it shall appear that any appellee or defendant in error is a foreign corporation or is not a resident of the State, or the name, or the place of residence, of such party, is unknown, so that process cannot be served upon him, it shall be the duty of such clerk, on application, to issue an order of publication against such absent or unknown party, requiring him to appear on a day to be designated in said order, to answer the said appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas.

A copy of such order of publication shall be inserted once a week for four successive weeks, in some newspaper to be named therein and posted at the door of the place of sitting of said court; and when it shall appear, that said order of publication has been duly published and posted as aforesaid, the said court may proceed to hear and decide such case in the same manner as if the said parties had been personally served with process: Provided, however, that the order of publication shall have been executed as aforesaid at least ten days before the day on which any such case may be called for trial. (Code 1887, § 3234, 3235.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "is a foreign corporation or" found in lines five and six of the text are new, and the words "in vacation" formerly appearing after "clerk" in line eight of the text have been stricken out. The time in the proviso has been reduced from fifteen days to ten days.

CHAPTER 254.

Rules, Pleadings Generally, and Judgments in the Office.

Sec.
6074. When rules held, and how long continued.
6075. Docket in which rules are entered.
6076. When there is no clerk to take a rule.
6077. Nature of rules; how given.
6078. When defendant may give rule to file declaration or bill; when plaintiff non-suited; damages.
6079. When clerk to dismiss suit.
6080. When fact of defendant's non-residence to be returned, and suit abated.
6081. When place of contract, etc., need not be set forth in declaration, etc.; if set forth, how.
6082. Unnecessary to aver jurisdiction, or make profert.
6083. Allegations not traversable, omitted.
6084. Transfer of cases from one side of the court to the other.
6085. When action not to abate for want of form.
6086. Trespass on the case.
6087. Effect of judgment in trover.
6088. In any case where an action of covenant will lie an action of assumpsit may be brought.
6089. In trespass, what general averments omitted.
6090. When account to be filed with declaration.
6091. Court may require particulars of claim or defense to be filed; if not done, evidence of, etc., excluded.

Digitized by Google

Sec.
6092. Contributory negligence as a defense to actions of tort.
6093. When proof of signature to evidence of a release, payment, etc., not required unless denied by affidavit.
6094. Declaration on policy of insurance.
6095. When plaintiff may amend declaration or bill, or file amended bill, etc.; proceedings thereon.
6096. To authorize the filing of a petition in a pending chancery cause in the clerk's office and to mature the same at rules.
6097. Proceedings when cross bill is filed.
6098. Appointment of guardian ad litem for infant or insane defendant; his duty, etc.
6099. Joinder of tenants in common.
6100. Suing in the names of persons who are dead.
6101. Plea in abatement for misnomer not allowed.
6102. Effect of non-joinder or misjoinder.
6103. What defects can be availed of only by plea in abatement; amendment of writ, declaration, or return.
6104. Amendment of pleadings.
6105. How and when exception to jurisdiction to be taken; when pleas in abatement filed.
6106. If only part of defendants liable, how judgment entered.
6107. Defendant may plead several matters; how pleas filed; which tried first.
6108. When plea of infancy not allowed; the liability of infants for debts under certain circumstances.
6109. What allegations unnecessary in pleas, etc.
6110. Omission of protestation.
6111. How traverses to conclude.
6112. How plaintiff may proceed without joinder in demurrer or similiter; duty of clerk to put certain cases on docket.
6113. How plea shall comme 6114. After one plea, how a may commence.
6115. Form of demurrer or der in demurrer.
6116. Amendment of pleadi ter demurrer thereto tained; amendment protest.
6117. Demurrer to evi grounds to be stated.
6118. What defects not to garded on demurrer.
6119. For what defects in ings verdict shall not aside.
6120. Argument of demurr plea in equity; if over how defendant pro against.
6121. Trial by jury of pl equity.
6122. When defendant in may answer; penalty lay.
6123. Exceptions to answers ceedings when exce are sustained.
6124. Plea in abatement a non est factum to be fied.
6125. When proof of writin required, unless deni affidavit filed with pl 6126. When proof of own etc., unnecessary uni fidavit is filed.
6127. When, of partnership corporation, unless nied.
6128. Effect of an answer dence, when oath t waived.
6129. Pleadings may be sw before clerk; affidavit lief sufficient.
6130. Judgment or decree b fession in vacation; h tered; its validity.
6131. Same in office by de order for inquiry of ages.
6132. In what cases inqui damages unnecessary.

Digitized by Google

c.
33. When, in action of assumpsit, no plea in bar to be received, or inquiry of damages made, unless defendant file with plea affidavit denying plaintiff's claim, but judgment given therefor.
34. When judgment entered in office to become final; how entered; its effect as a lien.
35. When and how a judgment entered in the office set aside; when issue to be tried.
36. Although bill taken for confessed, plaintiff may still proceed against defendant by attachment, etc.
6137. Enforcement of process of contempt.
6138. When suit in equity set for hearing.
6139. When suit in equity heard as to part of defendants; how plaintiff compelled to mature his cause or have it dismissed; how court may make new parties to suit.
6140. Control by court over proceedings in office.

Sec. 6074. When rules held, and how long continued.—In the erk's office of every circuit and corporation court, and of every ty court having jurisdiction of civil cases at law or in equity, rules all be held on the first and third Mondays of every month, wheth- the court be in session or not, except that when the term of a rcuit court or of such corporation or city court designated for the ial of civil cases in which juries are required, happens to com- ence on the first or third Monday in a month, or on either of the vo following days, the rules which would otherwise have been eld on the first or third Monday, as the case may be, shall be held n the Monday of the preceding week. The rules shall continue ree days. (Code 1887, § 3236.)

Revisors' Note.—General language is used to cover all courts in the erk's offices of which rules may be held. The words, "whether the ourt be in session or not" are new, but they are not believed to change e law. See Abney v. Ohio R. Co., 45 W. Va. 446.

Before the revision of 1887, there was only one rule day a month. his was changed in order that suit might be matured earlier. See urks' Address, 2 Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1389.

Defendant may appear at any time before the last hour of the st rule day in convenient time to have the entry made. Botts v. ollard, 11 Leigh 433 (2d Ed. 452).

Writ returnable at rules "on first day of the next term—June term, 889," that being the second Monday and not a rule day, is invalid and ust be quashed. Raub v. Otterback, 89 Va. 645, 16 S. E. 933.

Orders made at rules are orders of court, though made in the clerk's ffice. Wohlford v. Trinkle, 90 Va. 227, 231, 17 S. E. 873.

Cited, but not construed, in Raub v. Otterback, 89 Va. 645, 16 . E.. 933; House v. Universal Crusher Corp., 115 Va. 558, 79 S. E. 1049; ee comment on this case, 19 Va. L. Reg. 701.

See 5 Va. Law Reg. 490; Graves on Pleading, 30; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 63-665, 730, 1421; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 254 et seq.; Barton, L. Pr. 2d Ed.) 283 et seq.; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 256, 258, 259.

For form of rulebook and mode of entering rules, see 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 730.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 125, section 1.

Sec. 6075. Docket in which rules are entered.—There shall be a locket of the cases at rules, wherein the rules shall be entered; and the books in which rules and orders are entered, in chancery shall be separate from those in which rules and orders are ente other cases. (Code 1887, § 3237.)

Digitized by Google

Where no rule docket is kept in the office, and no rules were and the cause had not been dismissed at rules, if the case be pu the docket it should be remanded to rules for regular proceedings to be had therein. Alvis v. Johnson, 1 Va. Dec. 381.

In debt on bond, if common order, and common order confirme been regularly entered at rules the cause is properly on the office ment docket at the next term of the court, though no indorsement proceedings has been made on the papers in the cause. Wall v. 21 Grat. 401.

The testimony of a clerk that rules in an action at law we entered on the days shown by his official record is not admiss impeach the record made by him. Trent v. Clinchfield Coal Cor Va. 805, 89 S. E. 921.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annot chapter 125, section 3.

Sec. 6076. When there is no clerk to take a rule.—When t no clerk to take a rule in a case, it shall stand continued un next rule day after there is a clerk. (Code 1887, § 3238.)

Sec. 6077. Nature of rules; how given.—The rules may be clare, plead, reply, rejoin, or for other proceedings; they sh given from one rules to the next rules. (Code 1887, § 3239.)

A consent submission of a case for hearing is a waiver of irr ties at rules. Ronald, &c., v. Bank, 90 Va. 813, 20 S. E. 780.

For note upon proper procedure under this section see 12 V Reg. 565.

Cited but not construed in Norfolk & Western Ry. Co. v. land, 105 Va. 549, 54 S. E. 465.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 285; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 664, 731; Pleading, 30; 8 Va. Law Reg. 414; 6 Va. Law Reg. 484.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Anno chapter 125, section 5.

Sec. 6078. When defendant may give rule to file declara bill; when plaintiff non-suited; damages.—A defendant m pear at the rule day at which the process against him is retu or, if it be returnable in term, at the first rule day after the day, and, if the declaration or bill be not then filed, may rule for the plaintiff to file the same. If the plaintiff fail this at the succeeding rule day, or shall, at any time after fendant's appearance, fail to prosecute his suit, he shall b suited, and pay to the defendant, besides his costs, five dollars 1887, § 3240.)

The court may recommend a non-suit for insufficiency of e but cannot direct it to be entered against the will of the plaintiff v. Gill, 1 Wash. 87, 89.

A non-suit in a writ of right having been suffered under apprehension on the part of the demandants and their counsel as legal effect of an instruction given at the trial, held, the court, exercise of a sound discretion, should, on the motion of the dema have set aside the non-suit, and, this not having been done, th ment overruling such motion was reversed. Walker v. Boaz, 2 Ro

If the suit is not dismissed within the time prescribed, and wards the declaration is filed, and the cause is put on the docket clerk, the court should remand the case to rules, to be regularly n there for the docket. Alvis v. Johnson, 1 Va. Dec. 331.

Digitized by Google

Non-suit is the end of present suit without prejudice to bringing nd suit. It is not a final judgment. Mallory v. Taylor, 90 Va. 18 S. E. 438.

For a case in which an appearance was entered and a rule given plaintiff to file his declaration under this section, see Trent v. chfield Coal Corp., 119 Va. 805, 89 S. E. 921.

Where a court, acting under section 6140, corrects a mistake of clerk and dismisses a case because of the failure of the plaintiff to his declaration under this section, it will not be reinstated in the nce of sufficient legal reasons therefor. Mere negligence of counsel n insufficient reason. Furthermore, in the instant case it is con- d that a reinstatement would deprive the defendant of his defense ne statute of limitations. Trent v. Clinchfield Coal Corp., 119 Va. 89 S. E. 921.

It would seem that the word "damages" as used in section 3519 ld be construed to mean the five dollars damages under this section, not whatever damage defendant may suffer by reason of suit being tuted without cause. See note 11 Va. Law Reg. 936.

For note upon proper procedure under this section, see 12 Va. Law 565.

Cited but not construed in Norfolk & Western Ry. Co. v. Suther- , 105 Va. 549, 54 S. E. 465.

See section 6134 and notes; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 257; Barton, r. (2d Ed.) 284, 334, 690; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 684, 685, 1348.

As to effect of dismissing a suit agreed, see Hoover v. Mitchell, Grat. 387; Siron v. Ruleman's Ex'r, 32 Grat. 215, 223; Wohlford v. pton, 79 Va. 333.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 125, section 6.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 237, 238.

ec. 6079. When clerk to dismiss suit.—If one month elapse after process is returned executed as to any one or more of the de- lants, without the declaration or bill being filed, the clerk shall r the suit dismissed, although none of the defendants have ap- red. (Code 1887, § 3241.)

Under this section, the day on which the process is returned executed t be counted, and if one calendar month, including that day, elapses, out the declaration being filed, it is the mandatory duty of the clerk ismiss the action. Jennings v. Pocahontas Collieries Co., 114 Va. 76 S. E. 298.

It is the duty of the clerk to dismiss the suit when the process is ed and the bill is not filed in the time prescribed by the statute, but ne bill is filed before an order of dismissal is entered, and the de- lant answers without insisting upon the dismissal of the suit, and ents to a hearing of the cause, he thereby waives the objection. hanan v. King's Heirs, 22 Grat. 414.

Clerk should dismiss suit if bill not filed, but if party files his answer consents to the hearing, he waives the right to have suit dismissed. hanan v. King, 22 Grat. 414.

The reinstatement of a case at the following rules which has been nissed at rules for want of a declaration, may be regarded as a ter of course, if there be good cause for such reinstatement. Wick- v. Green, 111 Va. 199, 68 S. E. 259; note 16 Va. Law Reg. 365, editorials Id. 385, 467.

The failure of the clerk to dismiss a suit as required by this section s not materially affect the rights of the defendant, since the court, er section 6140, may order its dismissal at the succeeding term. kham v. Green, 111 Va. 199, 68 S. E. 259; see 16 Va. Law Reg. 365, , 467.

Process having been returned on first November rules (November) a dismissal for want of a declaration on first December rules (thrown back to November 25th under section 6074) was premature. Universal Crusher Corp., 115 Va. 588, 79 S. E. 1049. See co this case, 19 Va. L. Reg. 701.

Digitized by Google

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 685; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 285, 33 C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 258.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' An chapter 125, section 7.

Sec. 6080. When fact of defendant's non-residence to be and suit abated.—When a summons to answer an action against a defendant whom the officer (receiving it) kno reside in his county or corporation, he shall, unless he therein before the return day, return him a non-residen upon, if the court from which such process issued have tion of the case only on the ground of such defendant's in such county or corporation, the suit shall abate as to hi 1887, § 3242.)

Though action be against two partners to recover a p debt, the suit may abate as to one and be heard as to the othe v. Belches, 1 Wash. 9. See section 5762 and notes.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 663; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 269

Sec. 6081. When place of contract, etc., need not be se declaration, etc.; if set forth, how.—It shall not be nec any declaration or other pleading to set forth the place any contract was made, or act done, unless when, from t of the case, the place is material or traversable, and th legation may be as to a deed, note, or other writing bea at any place, that it was made at such place, or as to any according to the fact, without averring or suggesting th at or in the county or corporation in which the action is unless it was in fact therein. (Code 1887, § 3243.)

Actions for personal injuries are transitory, and it is u to set forth in the declaration the place at which the act which caused the injury. Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Ampey, 9 25 S. E. 226. See, also, Shaver v. White, 6 Munf. 110, 8 Am. Payne v. Britton's Ex'r, 6 Rand. 101.

The section applied in Young v. Hart, 101 Va. 480, 44 S.

See Graves Pleading, 71; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 694, 712. 1 1290; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 313; Burks' Pleading and P 287, 340, 916.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A chapter 125, section 32.

Sec. 6082. Unnecessary to aver jurisdiction, or make It shall not be necessary, in any action, to aver that th action arose, or that the matter is, within the jurisdict court, or to make profert of any deed, letters testam commission of administration; but a defendant may hav like manner as if profert were made. (Code 1887, § 3

Reverses the rule laid down in Thornton v. Smith, 1 Hill v. Pride, 4 Call 107.

A notice of motion for judgment by corporation again holder need not aver that defendants reside in the county. F Cormick v. Gold, 102 Va. 37, 45 S. E. 868.

If an administrator brings detinue he is not bound at t produce the certificate for his obtaining letters of administrat receives notice that it will be required. Hughes v. Clayton, 3 Call (2d Ed. 478).

Digitized by Google

As to taking advantage, by demurrer, of a variance between the aration and the bond declared on, see Sterrett v. Teaford, 4 Grat. Duval v. Malone, 14 Grat. 24. See Bennett's Ex'r v. Giles, 6 Leigh

As to papers of which defendant has right to crave oyer, see Lang- ie v. Richmond Ry. Co., 91 Va. 369, 22 S. E. 159; Eib v. Pindall's . 5 Leigh 109; Grubbs v. National Life Maturity Ins. Co., 94 Va. 27 S. E. 464; Smith v. Wolsiefer, 119 Va. 247, 89 S. E. 115.

As to effect of craving oyer, see Jarrett's Adm'rs v. Jarrett, 7 Leigh Meredith's Adm'x v. Duval, 1 Munf. 76.

For sufficient excuse for not producing bond sued on when oyer is ed by the defendant, see Smith's Adm'r v. Lloyd's Ex'v, 16 Grat. 295. Cited, but not construed, in Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Ampey, 93 Va. 123, 25 S. E. 226.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 313; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 694, 712, 1171,); 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 156, 157; Graves Pleading, 31, 72; Burks' Pl. r., pp. 287, 340, 581, 1005

Form of profert by administrator with the will annexed, coming in declaration after the "production of suite," 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1638.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 125, section 33.

See Gregory's Forms No. 21.

ec. 6083. Allegations not traversable, omitted.—All allega- s which are not traversable, and which the party could not be uired to prove, may be omitted, unless when they are required the right understanding of allegations that are material. (Code , § 3245.)

See Graves Pleading, 72; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 712, 713, 1175, 1177, , 1271, 1300, 1305; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 287, 340, 976, 977, 1012, 1018.

ec. 6084. Transfer of cases from one side of the court to the r.—No case shall be dismissed simply because it was brought he wrong side of the court, but whenever it shall appear that a ntiff has proceeded at law when he should have proceeded in ty, or in equity when he should have proceeded at law, the t shall direct a transfer to the proper forum, and shall order change in, or amendment of, the pleadings as may be neces- to conform them to the proper practice; and, without such ction, any party to the suit shall have the right, at any stage he cause, to amend his pleadings so as to obviate the objection his suit or action was not brought on the right side of the t. After such amendment has been made, the case shall be ed by the clerk on the proper docket of the court and proceed be determined upon such amended pleadings. The defendant l be allowed a reasonable time after such transfer in which repare the case for trial.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new. Cases will no longer have to ismissed because brought in the wrong forum. See Preface, ante, ii.

ec. 6085. When action not to abate for want of form.—No ac- shall abate for want of form, where the declaration sets forth sufficient matter of substance for the court to proceed merits of the cause. (Code 1887, § 3246.)

Digitized by Google

If the consideration for the defendant's contract consi agreement on the part of the plaintiff, it must appear from t tion that such agreement was binding on the plaintiff at th defendant's promise was made, else the defendant's promise consideration, and the declaration consequently bad. This sec application to a case like this. So. Ry. Co. v. Willcox, 98 V S. E. 355, and note 6 Va. Law Reg. 46.

Where there has been a demurrer to pleading, and the been overruled, this section cures no defect, imperfection, o therein, except such as could not have been regarded on dem

If declaration is sufficient to inform defendant of the na demand made upon him, and states sufficient facts to enable to say that if the facts stated are proved, the plaintiff is ent cover, it is good on demurrer. Virginia Portland Cement C 103 Va. 427, 49 S. E. 577.

An allegation of duty is only a conclusion of law; and whe alleged show the duty, and are stated with sufficient clearness surprise and enable the court to proceed upon the merits of the declaration will be sustained. Virginia, &c., Wheel Co. 103 Va. 713, 49 S. E. 991; Richmond v. McCormack, 12 91 S. E. 767.

Where declaration in an action for the amount of a de certificate alleges death, consideration for defendant's under failure to pay, held, that declaration was sufficient as against a Cosmopolitan Life Ins. Ass'n v. Koegel, 104 Va. 619, 11 Va 824, 52 S. E. 166.

If the matter pleaded be in itself insufficient without r the manner of pleading it, the defect is substantial; but if the is in the form of alleging it, the defect is formal. Norfolk & Sturgis, 117 Va. 532, 85 S. E. 572.

A declaration designating an action as trespass which sufficient matter of substance for the court to proceed upon of the cause is good under sections 6085 and 6118, although alleged it is apparent that the declaration is one in trespass o Stonegap Co. v. Hamilton, 119 Va. 271, 89 S. E. 305.

Cited, but not construed, in Russell Creek Coal Co. v Va. 420, 31 S. E. 614.

See discussion of the statute of jeofails, 6 Va. Law Reg. (3d Ed.) 941.

See Graves Pleading 72; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 712, 1293, 1305; Pr. (2d Ed.) 296; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 141, 340 976, 977, 1012, 1018.

See sections 6118, 6331 and notes.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A chapter 125, section 9.

Sec. 6086. Trespass on the case.—In any case, in which of trespass will lie, there may be maintained an action o on the case. (Code 1887, § 2901.)

For the distinction between trespass vi et armis and t the case, see Taylor v. Rainbow, 2 Hen. & M. 423; Muse Munf. 27; Cleek v. Haines, 2 Rand. 440; Jordan v. Wyatt, 4 47 Am. Dec. 720.

In an action of trespass on the case counts in case and trespass may be joined in the declaration. Parsons v. Harpe 64; Womack v. Circle, 29 Grat. 192.

Two separate causes of action, one of trespass and th case, may be joined in the same action. Fechheimer v. Nat Grat. 651.

Digitized by Google

This section abolishes distinction between these two actions. Writ be in one action; declaration in the other. Daingerfield v. Thomp- 33 Grat. 136, 36 Am. Rep. 783; New York, etc., R. Co. v. Kellam's r, 83 Va. 851, 3 S. E. 703.

Declaration setting out defendants as carriers and their contract, alleging a failure of the performance of the duty as carriers, is a aration in case and not in assumpsit. Southern Express Co. v. Mc- h, 20 Grat. 264.

Under our liberal system of pleading in this State a plain and clear ement of the facts constituting the wrong is sufficient, and it is but e matter, in actions of trespass on the case, what the action is named alled. Ailstock v. Moore Lime Co., 104 Va. 565, 11 Va. Law Reg. 52 S. E. 213.

For a discussion of the question whether the title to land is put in e, in an action of trespass quaere clausum fregit, by the introduc- of evidence as to the title, under a plea of not guilty, see Douglas d Co. v. Thayer, 113 Va. 239, 74 S. E. 215.

See note of Stonegap Co. v. Hamilton, under preceding section.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 137, 436, 447, 456, 459, 548; 1 Barton, L. Pr. Ed.) 178, 303.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ter 103, section 8.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 113, 129.

ec. 6087. Effect of judgment in trover.—A judgment for the ntiff in an action of trover shall not operate to transfer the to the property converted unless and until such judgment has satisfied.

Revisors' Note.—Independently of statute conflicting views are en- ained on the subject of when title passes in trover. This section is and makes statutory in Virginia what is said to be the great weight uthority. See Burks' Pl. & Pr., section 171.

ec. 6088. In any case where an action of covenant will lie an on of assumpsit may be brought.—In any case in which an ac- of covenant will lie there may be maintained an action of as- psit; but the general issue in assumpsit on a sealed instrument l be non est factum. (1897-8, p. 103.)

Revisors' Note.—The latter part of this section enacting that the eral issue in assumpsit on a sealed instrument shall be non est factum ew, and settles a question which had been left in doubt and un- ainty. Furthermore, it assimulates the pleading in assumpsit to the ding in debt, and preserves one of the distinguishing features of a ed instrument.

Under this section a special count on a sealed instrument may be ed with the common counts in an action of assumpsit. Grubb v, ford, 98 Va. 553, 37 S. E. 4.

Section 6086 provides that where trespass lies, trespass on the case be maintained.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 83, 115, 119. 120, 157.

ec. 6089. In trespass, what general averments omitted.—In ac- s of trespass, general averments that the defendant committed r wrongs, and that the acts charged were done with force and s, and against the peace, may be omitted; and the plaintiff may ve all that he could have done if such averments had been in- ed in the declaration. (Code 1887, § 3247.)

See Graves Pleading, 72; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 709, 899, 1290.

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A
chapter 125, section 10.

See Gregory's Forms No. 71.

Sec. 6090. When account to be filed with declaration.
action of assumpsit upon an account, the plaintiff shal his declaration an account stating distinctly the severa his claim, unless it be plainly described in the declaratio 1887, § 3248.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "upon an account" in line text, are new. Their insertion is for the purpose of making that no such account need be filed when the declaration is o promise to pay.

The sufficiency of the account.—An account filed which of the character of the claim is sufficient, although it may b of various items, of which no notice is given. Moore v. Mau 488.

An account filed with declaration in assumpsit for goods ing goods sold "per account rendered." with proof that the a rendered, is sufficient. Robinson v. Burks, 12 Leigh 378; Fitc 11 Leigh 471 (2d Ed. 492).

Where declaration does not plainly describe the items, count filed therewith merely mentions the sums paid without information about them, the account is insufficient. Johnson Va. 695, 12 S. E. 973, 14 S. E. 183.

Where declaration in assumpsit states the date of account with, and it was presented as a debt due at institution o verdict was rendered accordingly, held no error that the acco dated. Kenefick v. Caulfield, 88 Va. 122, 13 S. E. 348.

The count in an action of assumpsit by an administr money had and received, and the bill of particulars merely s count in which the defendant is debtor to the administrator received, stating a sum certain. The account and bill of par not sufficient to admit proof of an admission by the defend had received from a third person a certain sum belonging t of the plaintiff's intestate. Minor v. Minor's Adm'r, 8 Grat.

Taking advantage of defects in the account.—Ordinari particulars is no part of the declaration, and objection to i raised by demurrer; but the rule is otherwise where the part writing that the case made by the declaration may be suppl the bill of particulars. King v. Norfolk & W. R. Co., 99
S. E. 701; George Campbell Co. v. Angus, 91 Va. 438, 22
overruling Wright v. Smith, 81 Va. 777; Norfolk v. Norf
120 Va. 356, 91 S. E. 820.

The proper course to pursue where a sufficient bill of is not filed is to apply to the court to require the plaintif amended and sufficient account of his claim, and if he fails move the court to exclude evidence of any matter not des ciently to give the defendant notice of its nature and charact Campbell Co. v. Angus, 91 Va. 438, 22 S. E. 167.

Cited in City of Richmond v. Leaker, 99 Va. 7, 37 S. E.
v. Wolsiefer, 119 Va. 247, 89 S. E. 115.

Commented upon, 17 Va. Law Reg. 628.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 336; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 700, 1301; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 148, 149; notes to next section.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A
chapter 125, section 11.

Sec. 6091. Court may require particulars of claim or be filed; if not done, evidence of, etc., excluded.—In an motion, the court may order a statement to be filed o

Digitized by Google

lars of the claim, or of the ground of defense; and, if a party to comply with such order, may, when the case is tried or d, exclude evidence of any matter not described in the notice, aration, or other pleading of such party, so plainly as to give adverse party notice of its character. (Code 1887, § 3249.)

Object and effect of section.—The object of this section is to give the sing parties more definite information of the character of such claim efence than is generally disclosed by the declaration, notice, or plea, to prevent surprise. Columbia Ac. Asso. v. Rockey, 93 Va. 679, . E. 1009; City of Richmond v. Leaker, 99 Va. 6, 37 S. E. 348, and 6 Va. Law Reg. 680.

Its whole object and effect is to limit the scope and operation of general issue, and to confine the introduction of evidence to the par-ar defence which the defendant has disclosed. Oeters v. Knights lonor, 98 Va. 201, 35 S. E. 356.

Therefore the objection that an action was prematurely brought can-be relied on where the defendant has stated his grounds of defense, that objection is not specified. Farmers' Benev. Fire Ins. Ass'n v. sey, 101 Va. 236, 43 S. E. 338.

A defendant who has filed his grounds of defense hereunder will be ted to his specifications. Carolina C. & O. R. Co. v. Clinch V. L. Co., Va. 540, 72 S. E. 116.

While the defendant, after he has filed a statement of the grounds is defense, may not offer evidence of other defenses, otherwise ap-riate under the general issue, yet if the plaintiff offers such evidence, it is received without objection from the defendant, it is proper for consideration of the jury, although it sets up an additional defense. ropolitan Ins. Co. v. Hayslet, 111 Va. 107, 68 S. E. 256.

The object of bill of particulars is to advise a defendant of the ise nature and extent of the demand asserted against him. The al and better practice is that it should be demanded before pleading he merits, but if not demanded until a later period, and then a bill led which, standing alone, would be insufficient, it will be deemed cient if, taken in connection with the other documentary evidence in cause, it supplies all needful information to the defendant. Amer-Hide & Leather Co. v. Chalkley, 101 Va. 458, 9 Va. Law Reg. 199, note, 44 S. E. 705.

The object of the statement of particulars authorized by this section o facilitate an intelligent preparation of actions at law for trial and revent surprise at the trial. Tidewater Quarry Co. v. Scott, 105 Va. , 52 S. E. 835.

The object of this section is to simplify and shorten pleadings by viding that, if the declaration or other pleading do not present dis-tly the grounds or subject of action, the plaintiff, if required to do should file such a statement of particulars as will put the defendant possession of the character thereof. City of Richmond v. Wood, 109 75, 63 S. E. 449.

In what cases statement may be required.—No further bill of par-lars is contemplated or required when the declaration gives the de-dant complete notice of the nature and character of the plaintiff's m. City of Richmond v. Leaker, 99 Va. 6, 37 S. E. 348, note 6 Va. Reg. 680; Richmond & D. R. Co. v. Payne, 86 Va. 481, 10 S. E. , 6 L. R. A. 849.

In an action to recover damages for personal injury, where the de-ration avers that it was the duty of the defendant to furnish "suitable reasonable tools," etc., with which to do the work, it is unnecessary aver what the tools were or to furnish any bill of particulars thereof. hmond Locomotive Works v. Ford, 94 Va. 627, 27 S. E. 509.

In suits for damages, if a more specific statement of the element of nages be desired, it may be demanded under the provision of this tion. Wood v. American Nat. Bank, 100 Va. 306, 40 S. E. 931.

Digitized by Google

If a declaration in tort does not plainly describe "the disorder" alleged to result from a physical injury charged, the may require the needed particularity by calling for a bill of under this section. Norfolk & W. R. R. Co. v. Spears, 11 65 S. E. 482.

When the declaration does not state distinctly the sev of the plaintiff's claim, but omits many particulars as to wh fendant should be informed, it is error for the trial court to defendant's request for a bill of particulars. Clinchfield Coa tion v. Brooks, 118 Va. 72, 86 S. E. 829.

The object of this section was to provide that the plain action or motion should have notice of the defense relied upo the pleas filed by the defendant gave with detailed particul ground of defense relied upon, and no matter of defense w forward at the trial that was not fully described in the ple required a statement to be filed in addition would have been a mony. Newport News & O. P. Ry. & Electric Co. v. Bickfor 182, 52 S. E. 1011.

There is no inflexible rule as to the classes of cases i statement of particulars of the plaintiff's claim, or of the grounds of defense, are required but it rests in the sound di the trial court, subject to review if plainly erroneous. Driver R. Co., 103 Va. 650, 48 S. E. 1000.

It is not error to refuse to require a defendant to file a st the particulars of his defense under this section when the sp filed give with detailed particularity every ground of defense Newport News, etc., Ry. Co. v. Bickford, 105 Va. 182, 52 S. E

It is no error to refuse to require defendant to file st grounds of defense where the defenses relied on were develop the greatest latitude allowed the parties and when the pla not have suffered any injury by such refusal of the court. Wallen, 107 Va. 131, 57 S. E. 596.

Where the declaration states a good cause of action, a fendant desires a more particular statement of the grounds o he should demand a bill of particulars under this section. R. Co. v. Schwartz, 115 Va. 723, 80 S. E. 568.

If the declaration states a good cause of action, but the desires a more particular statement of the grounds of con remedy is not by demurrer but by a motion for a bill of partic this section. Clinchfield Coal Corp. v. Osborne, 114 Va. 13, 75 Interstate R. Co. v. Tyree, 110 Va. 38, 65 S. E. 500; Norfolk S Crocker, 117 Va. 327, 84 S. E. 681.

Sufficiency of bill of particulars.—It is not intended th ticulars should be set out with the formality or precision of a or plea, but only in such manner as would fairly and plainly to the adverse party of its character when the same was not s in the pleading. Tidewater Quarry Co. v. Scott, 105 Va. 16 835.

The statement is not the subject of demurrer. Columbia v. Rockey, 93 Va. 679, 25 S. E. 1009. See notes to section 6

The statement does not constitute the issue to be tried not be as formal or precise as a declaration or plea. Id.

Time of making objections to statement.—An objection particulars should be made before the trial begins. Norfolk & v. Carter, 91 Va. 587, 22 S. E. 517.

A motion for a bill of particulars was denied at the ter it was made, but at the next term, and before the trial, t appeared and filed the bill; the defendant, not having asked ponement in the lower court, cannot make the objection in th court. Central Lunatic Asylum v. Flanagan, 80 Va. 110.

Effect if insufficient or no statement is filed.—The obj section is not to punish the defendant for failure to compl order, but to protect the plaintiff from prejudice by surprise a

Digitized by Google

He is not debarred from all evidence in his defense, but is confined to evidence upon the point covered by his plea. City Gas Co. v. Poudre, 113 Va. 224, 74 S. E. 158.

Where statement of grounds of defense are insufficient, upon objection by plaintiff the court should require a sufficient statement to be filed, and if not furnished, the court should exclude evidence of any matter not described in the grounds of defense so plainly as to give the plaintiff notice of its character. Chestnut v. Chestnut, 104 Va. 539, 52 S. E. 348, 350; Columbia Ac. Asso. v. Rockey, 93 Va. 679, 25 S. E. 1009.

Where, under the general issue of non-assumpsit, the plaintiff has called for a statement of the grounds of defense, and the defendant either files none at all or merely denies facts which the plaintiff is obliged to prove to maintain his action, the defendant is not debarred from offering any evidence at all in his defense, but is limited to evidence in denial of the plaintiff's claim. Williamson v. Simpson, 113 Va. 439, 74 S. E. 162.

If a defendant in an action of trespass on the case who has pleaded the general issue of "not guilty" fails to comply with an order requiring him to specify his grounds of defense, he should not be allowed to introduce any evidence controverting the plaintiff's claim, as his plea gives no notice thereof. Colby v. Reams, 109 Va. 308, 63 S. E. 1009.

Where on plaintiff's motion, defendant who had filed no plea was ordered to file a statement of his defense on or before ten days prior to the next succeeding term which order was not obeyed, the court erred in permitting defendant to introduce his evidence over plaintiff's objection that issue had not been joined. Idem.

If the defendant pleads not guilty to an action of trespass, and fails to state his grounds of defense, when required by the court, he may, nevertheless, introduce any evidence tending to show that he did not commit the trespass. City Gas Co. v. Poudre, 113 Va. 224, 74 S. E. 158.

As to effect of party's failure to file statement of particulars, see note, 10 Va. Law Reg. 741.

Generally.—If bill of particulars is not asked for until case is called for trial, defendant cannot have continuance on the ground of surprise at its contents. Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Spears, 110 Va. 110, 65 S. E. 482.

If defendant does not demand particulars, he cannot complain at the recovery of general damages not specifically claimed in the declaration. City of Richmond v. Wood, 109 Va 75, 63 S. E. 449.

Where in an action at law, the orders of court show that the plaintiff moved the court to require defendant to file a statement of grounds of defense, which the court overruled, and the plaintiff excepted. This is sufficient, without any bill of exceptions. Driver v. Southern R. Co., 103 Va. 650, 49 S. E. 1000.

In an action against a carrier for loss of goods, refusal to require plaintiff to show where the goods were delivered to defendant is not error when the defendant is not embarrassed in making its defense thereby. C. & O. Ry. Co. v. Stock, 104 Va. 97, 51 S. E. 161.

A defendant to a motion under section 6046, may demand a statement of the grounds of defense. Whitley v. Booker Brick Co., 113 Va. 434, 74 S. E. 160. See that section and notes.

Under a plea of non-assumpsit, the specification of defences does not convert the general issue into a special plea, or a negative defence into an affirmative one, and the burden of proof is still on the plaintiff. Oeters v. Knights of Honor, 98 Va. 201, 35 S. E. 356.

Cited, but not construed, in Morotock Ins. Co. v. Pankey, 91 Va. 259, 264, 21 S. E. 487; Union Central Life Ins. Co. v. Pollard, 94 Va. 154, 26 S. E. 421, 36 L. R. A. 271, 64 Am. St. Rep. 715; Pocahontas Collieries Co. v. Rukas, 104 Va. 278, 51 S. E. 449; Bettman v. Skinner, 113 Va. 24 at 27, 73 S. E. 436; Knight v. Grim, 110 Va. 400, 66 S. E. 42.

For discussion of this section see 12 Va. Law Reg. 275, 361.

Digitized by Google

For monographic note on bill of particulars, see 4 Ran Va. Rep. Anno.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 338, 500, 647, 648; 4 Min. (3 763, 772, 775, 1160, 1299, 1301; Graves Pleading, 22; Burks' P and Practice, pp. 9, 100, 148, 157, 178, 179, 445, 456, 599, 60 924, 1016, 1018.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Anno chapter 130, and chapter 125, section 46.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 221, 239.

Sec. 6092. Contributory negligence as a defense to acti tort.—If the defendant in any action of tort intends to rel the contributory negligence of the plaintiff as a defense to tion, he shall so state in writing before the trial begins, givi particulars thereof as fully as the plaintiff is required t the negligence of the defendant in his declaration or bill ticulars; but the defendant shall not be precluded from upon the contributory negligence disclosed to the defend the plaintiff's testimony. (1916, p. 506.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is based on the act cited, but comprehensive. The act was applicable to tort actions for pers juries only; the present section is applicable to all tort actions, the injury be to person or property or occasioning the death of a The act required the particulars of the contributory negligence t forth upon motion of the plaintiff; the present section provides the defendant intends to rely upon the contributory negligence plaintiff, he shall so state in writing before the trial begins, h motion is necessary. The provision of the act relating to amen has been omitted, as such amendments as ought to be allowed a ciently covered by section 6250.

Sec. 6093. When proof of signature to evidence of a payment, etc., not required unless denied by affidavit.—In tion, suit, or other proceeding wherein a party desires to release, payment, or set-off described in his account of set-o relies on a writing signed by any person, as evidence the he file the same among the papers in the cause, fifteen days the commencement of a term at which there may be a or trial, and give notice for a like period to the adverse or his attorney, of his intention to rely on such writing dence as aforesaid, no proof of such signature shall be re unless the party objecting shall make affidavit before th commences, that he has good cause to believe, and does that said signature is not the genuine signature of the whose signature it purports to be. If such affidavit be ma ing the term at which there may be a hearing or trial of said the party offering such writing as evidence shall be entitl continuance at that term. (Code 1887, § 3250.)

Revisors' Note.—The revised section reduces the time from days to fifteen days.

The Commonwealth may question the signature to the bond which coupons were cut without pleading non est factum. C Tunstall, 36 Va. 372, 10 S. E. 414.

Digitized by Google

As to when proof of writing not required unless denied by affidavit see section 6125.

Cited in the dissenting opinion of Buchanan, J., in Clement v. Adams Bros.-Paynes Co., 113 Va. 547, 75 S. E. 294, 18 Va. L. Reg. 437, and note.

Sec. 6094. Declaration on policy of insurance.—In an action on a policy of insurance no particular form of action or declaration shall be necessary, but it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to file a complaint in writing at common law, setting forth the grounds of his action, and the relief prayed for, and filing therewith the original policy, or a sworn copy thereof, upon which his action is brought, and the loss or death relied upon as the ground of his recovery, and that he has performed all the conditions of said policy, and violated none of its prohibitions, and in such complaint it shall not be necessary to set forth every condition or proviso of said policy nor to aver observance of or compliance therewith seriatum, but a general averment to that effect shall suffice. Such complaint shall be filed in the same court and at the same time at which a declaration in such cases is now required by law, and such action shall be matured in the same manner as at present. (Code 1887, § 3251; 1895-6, p. 707.)

This section was changed by the revisors of 1887 to simplify an action on an insurance policy. Burks' Address, 2 Barton L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1391.

Declaration drawn in substantial conformity with this section is sufficient (Valley Mut. Life Ass'n v. Teewalt, 79 Va. 421), though it largely follows form of an ordinary declaration in debt (Virginia Fire & Marine Ins., Co. v. Saunders, 84 Va. 210, 4 S. E. 584).

In action on policy it is sufficient that the declaration refer to policy, and allege, in general terms, the performance of all its conditions and the violation of none of its prohibitions. Tilley v. Connecticut Fire Ins. Co., 86 Va. 811, 11 S. E. 120.

Not necessary for declaration to allege that there had been an award, though policy avers that no suit be sustainable until after an award. Id.

This section does not confine proceedings upon policies to actions at law. A motion may be made under section 6046. Morotock Ins. Co. v. Pankey, 91 Va. 259, 21 S. E. 487.

There can be no recovery upon a policy of insurance, where the money is only payable on the performance of certain acts, and the existence of certain facts, upon a declaration containing only the common counts. Metropolitan Life Ins. Co. v. Rutherford, 95 Va. 773-779, 30 S. E. 383.

The statutory complaint on an insurance policy can only be filed where the loss or death occurred before the institution of the suit. It cannot be filed upon an averment that the company has wholly repudiated and abandoned the contract. Lee v. Mutual Reserve Fund Life Ass'n, 97 Va. 161, 33 S. E. 556.

The charter of the company is not made a part of the declaration by filing the policy or copy thereof; therefore its provisions are not to be considered on demurrer. Farmers' Benev. Fire Ins. Ass'n v. Kinsey, 101 Va. 236, 43 S. E. 338.

A certificate issued by a frateral mutual benefit society to a member, which provides that on the death of the member a specified sum will be paid to his wife out of the mortuary fund on condition of the payment by the member of fixed sums at fixed periods, is a life policy, within the meaning of this section, and not merely a certificate of membership in a beneficial society, within acts 1897-98, page 734 (now repealed), defining and regulating fraternal beneficiary associations. Cosm Life Ins. Ass'n v. Koegel, 104 Va. 619, 11 Va. Law Reg. 823, 166. For present law governing fraternal benefit associations and societies, see chapter 171.

Digitized by Google

A fraternal mutual benefit society issued its certificate to a for the payment on his death to his wife. After the death of the an insurance company for a certain consideration assumed all l of the society on such certificates on which death had been repor specifically assumed the payment of the certificate issued to the member, and contracted to carry out the provisions of the ce Held, that the insurance company's agreements were a reinsur rectly to the several holders of certificates, and especially a cor reinsurance to the beneficiary in the certificate of the deceased and the certificate became its contract and the measure of its and this section was applicable. Id.

Acts 1897-98, page 734 (repealed), defining and regulatin ciary associations, and providing that they shall be exempt from visions of the insurance laws, did not apply to associations doi insurance business by issuing certificates providing for the of a specified sum to the beneficiary on the death of the memb

Acts 1897-98, page 734 (repealed), did not impliedly rep section; this and the section following being no part of the i law and being enacted to meet cases where companies seek t liability on technicalities in pleading. Id.

Cited but not construed North British Ins. Co. v. Robinett, 754, 72 S. E. 668.

As to when answers or statements of applicant do not bar on policy, see section 4220. See, also, sections 4227, 4228; Ac p. 539, chapter 362; 1918, p. 539, chapter 361.

It would seem that where special pleas setting out misrep tions and warranties and alleged breaches, but not supported by were objected to, not when tendered, but when proof of them fered, on the ground that the policy or contract was under seal an or want of consideration, or fraud, or breach of warranty could availed of, such objection should be overruled, and matters all be proven in an action of assumpsit under the general issue. See 10 Va. Law Reg. 767.

For history of statute, see Grubbs v. National Life Maturity 94 Va. 593, 27 S. E. 464.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 249; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 710, 1 forms of declaration, see Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 406; 4 Min. (1684-1690.

Form of declaration in assumpsit upon a policy of insurance fire, under statute, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1684; of declaration in as upon a policy of life insurance, under statute, Id. 1686; of declar assumpsit upon a policy of life insurance by a stranger intereste life, under statute, Id. 1687.

See Va. F. & M. Ins. Co. v. Saunders, 86 Va. 969, 11 S. E. section 5143.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 63, 64, 65.

Sec. 6095. When plaintiff may amend declaration or bill amended bill, etc.; proceedings thereon.—The plaintiff right amend his declaration or bill before the defendant's ance, and notwithstanding such appearance, a plaintiff in may, at any time in the vacation of the court wherein the pending, file in the clerk's office an amended or supplemen or bill of revivor; whereupon, the same proceedings may as if leave to file it had been previously obtained in court, court, on the motion of a defendant, made at the term to ess to answer the same is returned executed on him, or, if it eturnable to rules, at the first term after it is so returned, dismiss such amended or supplemental bill, or bill of revivor. de 1887, § 3253.)

Digitized by Google

Supplemental though not amended bill may be offered after cause set n for hearing. Pleasants v. Logan, 4 Hen. & M. 489. See Boykin's sees v. Smith, 3 Munf. 102.

Amendment of bill may be made by common order, before answer demurrer, and afterwards by leave of court. Holland v. Trotter, Grat. 136.

Objection to improper revival of cause cannot be made for the first in appellate court. Buchanan v. King's Heirs, Id. 414.

An amended bill is not to be filed if it shows that the original bill roundless, or presents a new and distinct matter in controversy. The imate functions of an amended bill are to bring before the court r parties, and to explain and set forth more fully the matters of the inal bill, or matters connected with the original bill which should be ght into the litigation. Lambert v. Jones, 2 Pat. & H. 144.

Amendments to a bill which bring into the case a new and subtive cause of action different from that set out in original bill, will be allowed; but if, on the hearing on demurrer defects are pointed which can be remedied, and substantial justice requires it, amendts may be made which are not inconsistent with the original bill. ney v. Craig, 103 Va. 158, 48 S. E. 864.

Demurrer to declaration sustained, and by leave of court it is nded and trial proceeds—error, if any, in sustaining demurrer waived. ris' Adm'r v. N. & W. R. R. Co., 88 Va. 560, 14 S. E. 535.

In ejectment, where the original declaration contained a description he land, and an allegation that defendants were unlawfully withling the possession thereof from plaintiff, he was entitled to amend description before appearance, whether defendants were personally onstructively served. King v. Davis, 137 Fed. 198, 11 Va. Law Reg.

As to amendments for variance between allegations and proof, see ion 6250.

Cited, but not construed, in Baker v. Briggs, 99 Va. 360, 362, 38 . 277.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 263, Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 333, 463; in. (3d Ed.) 712.

As to amended and supplemental bills, see Baker v. Baker, 3 Munf. ; Anthony v. Leftwich's Representatives, 3 Rand. 238, 279; Smith v. th, 4 Rand. 95; Jameson's Adm'x v. Deshields, 3 Grat. 4, 13; Robn's Ex'rs v. Day, 5 Grat. 55; Parrill v. McKinley, 9 Grat. 1, 58 Am. 212; Sillings v. Bumgardner, 9 Grat. 273; Stephenson v. Taverners, 398; Belton v. Apperson, 26 Grat. 207, and note Va. Rep. Anno.; Comb v. Lobdell, 32 Grat. 185; Ewing's Adm'r v. Ferguson's Adm'r, Grat. 548; Hurt v. Jones, 75 Va. 341; S. V. R. Co. v. Griffith, 76 Va. ; Morrison's Ex'r v. Householder's Adm'r, 79 Va. 627; Mosby v. her's Ex'rs, 80 Va. 82; Spencer v. Jones, 85 Va. 172, 7 S. E. 180; aby's Adm'r v. Henritze's Adm'r, 85 Va. 177, 7 S. E. 204; Atwood v. V. R. Co., 85 Va. 966, 9 S. E. 748; Fudge v. Payne, 86 Va. 303, 10 E. 7; Throckmorton v. Throckmorton, 86 Va. 768, 11 S. E. 289; ser v. Renner, 87 Va. 249, 12 S. E. 406; Cosby v. Hite, 1 Wash. 365; ne v. Grim, 2 Munf. 297; Vaiden v. Bell, 3 Rand. 448; Power v. Ivie, eigh, 147; Couch v. Fretwell's Adm'r, 10 Leigh, 578; White's Adm'r Foncray, 5 Grat. 179.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, pter 125, section 12.

Sec. 6096. To authorize the filing of a petition in a pending chancery cause in the clerk's office and to mature the same at rules.—

Digitized by Google

Any person who would be entitled to be admitted a chancery cause pending in any court may, for the pur serting a right or seeking relief therein, by leave of or of the judge thereof in vacation, file a petition in office of such court in vacation, making all persons so the relief prayed for in such petition, whether parties t cause or not, parties defendant, and to have issued there mons to the said defendants, returnable to rules or t term, to answer the same. And said defendants may defense to such petition which they could have made had been awarded by a court, by demurrer, plea, answer wise, filing the same at rules or at term. And when suc shall have been matured, depositions may be taken i to issues raised thereby. But a defendant to such pet have at the next term of the court the same right to m miss the same that he would have to resist an applicatio for leave to file it. (1897-8, p. 316; 1901-2, p. 285.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "at the next term of the co in the last sentence are new.

A defendant is not bound by a decree against him found petition filed in the cause, of which he had no notice, and the provisions of section 6072, file a petition in the cause, t case made by the petition reheard. Keys Planing Mill v. 114 Va. 58, 75 S. E. 778.

Discussed, 8 Va. L. Reg. 100.

Sec. 6097. Proceedings when cross bill is filed.—Whe bill is filed, the defendants in the first bill shall answer the defendants in the cross bill are compelled to ans (Code 1887, § 3254.)

Where answer contains charges and makes demands ag plainant which by strict rules of pleading should only be set or cross- bill, the court of equity will consider and treat such a cross-bill so as to enable it to do complete justice in the case. Adm'r v. Hagan, 18 Grat. 231; Cralle v. Cralle, 79 Va. 182; Crank's Ex'r, 79 Va. 602; Adkins v. Edwards, 83 Va. 300, 2 Tate v. Vance, 27 Grat. 571; Scott v. Rowland, 82 Va. 484, 4 595.

A petition may be treated as a cross-bill. Sayers v. Wal 354, 21 Am. Rep. 303. But defendant therein must be sum answer it, else decrees based thereon are of no effect. Pracht 81 Va. 711.

Affected delay in preparing the cross-suit for a hearing just cause for proceeding to hear the original bill. McC Moseley, 4 Call 360.

See, generally, on the subject of cross-bills, Tarr v. Ra 12 Grat. 642; Ragland v. Broadnax, 29 Grat. 401; Higginbotha 90 Va. 233, 17 S. E. 941; Kyle's Ex'r v. Kyle, 1 Grat. 526; Pied Life Ins. Co. v. Maury, 75 Va. 508, 514; Hudson v. Hudson's Ex 117; Hopkins v. Baker's Adm'r, 2 Pat. & H. 110; Wilson Wythe, 296.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 320.

Sec. 6098. Appointment of guardian ad litem for infant defendant; his duty, etc.—The proceedings in a suit wh infant or insane person is a party, shall not be stayed b

Digitized by Google

infancy or insanity, but the court in which the suit is pend-or the judge thereof in vacation, shall appoint some discreet competent attorney-at-law as guardian ad litem to such infant nsane defendant, whether such defendant shall have been d with process or not; or, if no such attorney be found willing t, the court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall appoint other discreet and proper person as guardian ad litem, but person so appointed shall not be liable to costs. Any such dian ad litem may also be appointed by the clerk of the court.
y guardian ad litem shall faithfully represent the interest or e of the infant or insane person for whom he is appointed, it shall be the duty of the court to see that the estate of such ndant is so represented and protected. And the court or the e thereof in vacation, whenever of opinion that the interest n infant or insane person requires it, shall remove any guarad litem and appoint another in his stead. When, in any the court or judge is satisfied that the guardian ad litem has ered substantial service to the estate of an infant or insane ndant, it may allow him reasonable compensation therefor, his actual expenses, if any, to be paid out of the estate of such ndant. (Code 1887, § 3255.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "in the vacation thereof" formerly ring in the second sentence, have been omitted. See latter part of rs' note to section 6069.

Under Code 1873, chapter 157, section 17, it was only where there no committee or where there was a conflict of interest between the mittee and the lunatic that it was necessary to appoint a guardian em for the insane defendant. Hinton v. Bland's Adm'r, 81 Va. 588.

t is error to enter a decree against infant defendants without as-ng them a guardian ad litem, and, though the infancy did not ap-in the original proceeding, yet if it be alleged in a petition for a ring (the decree being interlocutory) a guardian ad litem ought appointed. Roberts v. Stanton, 2 Munf. 129, 5 Am. Dec. 463.

The heirs of E. being infants, though their guardian was a party answered, they were entitled to be defended by a guardian ad ; and although one was appointed for them, and there was a paper rting to be an answer found among the papers of the cause, yet did not appear that it had been filed it was error to decree the of the infant's land without an answer filed by guardian ad litem. g's Adm'r v. Ferguson's Adm'r, 33 Grat. 548. See Beverley v. r, 6 Munf. 99, as to effect of full defense by statutory guardian. Harman v. Davis, 30 Grat. 461; Morriss v. Ins. Co., 85 Va. 588, 8 383, as to effect of decree for infant's benefit.

A person appointed guardian ad litem is not obliged to act. A nable time ought, therefore, to be given him to consider whether ll accept and to prepare for trial. Wells' Heirs v. Winfree, 2 Munf.

f one guardian ad litem dies, another should be appointed notwith-ing all the testimony and accounts were taken before the death of rst. Beverley v. Miller, 6 Munf. 99.

The guardian ad litem may be appointed at rules. Talley v. Starke's x, 6 Grat. 339.

It seems that process need not be served on the infants in pro-ngs to sell their lands. Parker v. McCoy, 10 Grat. 594. As to necessity of service of process on infant to acquire jurisdict person, see 1 Va. Law Reg. 153.

Digitized by Google

An infant can only appear and defend by guardian ad proceedings against him are fatally defective unless the r that guardian ad litem was assigned him. Langston v. Va. 47, 51 S. E. 218; Weaver v. Glenn, 104 Va. 443, 51 S. E

Where infants are interested, notice of taking an account tion in newspapers in their names is insufficient. Such not served on guardian ad litem in person, or his name as such litem must appear in the publication. Strayer & Wife v. L 715, 3 S. E. 372.

In proceedings affecting the property rights of an ins it is the duty of the court, if he have no committee, to guardian ad litem. Howard v. Lansberg, 108 Va. 161, 60 S.

The effect of a creditor's bill is to stay during its pende ning of the statute as to those debts brought into the suit the suit is once ended it no longer repels the running of Prince v. McLemore, 108 Va. 269, 61 S. E. 802.

If infants are necessary parties to an interpleader sui have no estate which the court can reach, the fee to their litem is a proper charge in the first instance upon the fun ministered. Pettus v. Hendricks, 113 Va. 326, 74 S. E. 19

An amended bill in a partition suit charged that one fendants was insane, and prayed for the appointment of a litem; but the defendant who was alleged to be insane, h and another defendant (appellant) all strenuously denied h Before the issue was determined, the said party died, and ad litem was appointed. The cause was proceeded with in t her administrator. Held, not error, as sections 2618 and Code of 1887 had no application to suits of this character. tions 5337 and 5339 of this Code.) Had the said party would have been the proper practice, after her mental in was established, to appoint a guardian ad litem under this s other ordinary suits in equity. Cottrell v. Mathews, 120 S. E. 808. For change made by present revision in sectio revisors' note to that section.

As to consent or waiver by guardian ad litem, see Dai Smith, 83 Va. 81, 1 S. E. 599; Morriss v. Va. Ins. Co., 85 V 594, 8 S. E. 383; Kingsbury v. Buckner, 134 U. S. 678, 681, 638, 33 L. Ed. 1047; 1 Va. Law Reg. 472; Hite's Ex'r v. tees, 2 Rand. 409.

As to appointing of guardian ad litem by justice of th 7 Va. Law Reg. 280, 22 Cyc. 647, note 8.

For cases before the statute, see Fox v. Cosby, 2 Call McRea's Ex'rs, 4 Munf. 439.

See Graves Pleading, 27; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 735, 753, Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 221, 307; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 66, 67, 270, 307. See s and notes; Smith v. Henckel, 81 Va. 524; Strayer v. Long, 3 S. E. 372; Bank v. Patton, 1 Rob. 499, (2d Ed. 528).

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' chapter 125, section 13.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 175, 260.

Sec. 6099. Joinder of tenants in common.—Tenants may join or be joined as plaintiffs or defendants. (§ 3256.)

See 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 33.

Sec. 6100. Suing in the names of persons who are de any official bond, suit or action may be maintained (for fit of any person injured by the breach of the condition

Digitized by Google

e name of the person to whom such bond is payable, whether f the obligees be alive or not. (Code 1887, § 3257.)

Revisors' Note.—Parts no longer necessary have been omitted. The , "or action," are new.

c. 6101. Plea in abatement for misnomer not allowed.—No in abatement for a misnomer shall be allowed in any action, n a case wherein, but for this section, a misnomer would have pleadable in abatement, the declaration may, on the motion e plaintiff or defendant, and on affidavit of the right name. nended by inserting the right name. (Code 1887, § 3258.)

Revisors' Note.—Formerly, the motion was restricted to the de- nt; now, it may be made either by the plaintiff or the defendant.

An action against a corporation in its former name cannot be de- l by showing that it had changed its name without any change of embership. Welfley v. Shenandoah, I., L., M. & M. Co., 83 Va. 768, E. 376.

Court may permit declaration against "Arminius Chemical Company" amended by adding the word "incorporated" to its name. Arminius . Co. v. White, 112 Va. 250, 71 S. E. 637.

As to effect of judgment against corporation by wrong name, see v. Craig, 6 Leigh, 399; Mason v. Farmer's Bank, 12 Leigh 84. See Graves, Pleading, 28; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 288; 1 Min. (4th 561; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 692, 756, 1290, 1294, Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 270, 583, 926, 1013.

For monographic note on Pleas in Abatement, see Warren v. Saun- 27 Grat. 259, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 125, section 14.

c. 6102. Effect of non-joinder or misjoinder.—No action or shall abate or be defeated by the non-joinder or misjoinder of es, plaintiff or defendant, but whenever such non-joinder or inder shall be made to appear by affidavit or otherwise, new es may be added and parties misjoined may be dropped by r of the court at any stage of the cause as the ends of justice require; but such new party shall not be added unless it be made to appear that he is a resident of this State and the of such residence be stated with convenient certainty, nor he be added if it shall appear that by reason of chapter two red and thirty-two or chapter two hundred and thirty-eight action could not be maintained against him. (Code 1887, 61, 3262; 1893-4, p. 489; 1895-6, p. 453.)

Revisors' Note.—The remedy provided by Acts 1893-4, p. 489 nded 1895-6, p. 453) was confined to cases of misjoinder. It was dered in the interest of substantial justice to extend the remedy to oinder. Section 9 of the New Jersey Practice Act adopted in 1912 s non-joinder and misjoinder on the same footing, and the above on embodies substantially the New Jersey act. In consequence of nsertion of this section, sections 3261 and 3262 of the Code of 1887 ing to pleas in abatement for non-joinder have been omitted and by repealed.

Decisions under former statutes.—Though a husband was an im- r party to a suit involving separate estate of his wife, it was not to refuse to quash the summons for that reason. It was not a reversible error to fail to enter an order abating the actio husband if it appeared that the husband was not treated as the record. West v. Adams, 2 Va. Dec. 517, 27 S. E. 496.

Digitized by Google

A misjoinder of parties cannot be taken advantage of by Carlton v. Boudar, 118 Va. 521, 88 S. E. 174; Lee v. Mutual Re Life Asso., 97 Va. 160, 33 S. E. 556.

But the proper remedy was to move for the abatement as to the parties improperly joined. Riverside Cotton Mills 102 Va. 148, 45 S. E. 875.

In an action of ejectment the sheriff as administrato heirs at law of the decedent sued as plaintiffs. The court he legal title under the will devolved on the heirs at law su divested by the power of sale in the will. Held, the action sh as to the sheriff plaintiff and proceed as to the others as if had not been made. Coles v. Jamerson, 112 Va. 311, 71 editorial on this case, 17 Va. Law Reg. 315.

As to the plea in abatement allowed by sections 3261 of the Code of 1887 for non-joinder, see said sections and Mitchell, 76 Va. 169; Wilson v. McCormick, 86 Va. 995, 11 Shields v. Oney, 5 Munf. 550; Graves' Pleading 28; Barton, Ed.) 287, 292, 293; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 758, 1276; Burks' Pl. & 258, 271.

Sec. 6103. What defects can be availed of only by plea ment; amendment of writ, declaration, or return.—A on whom a valid process summoning him to answer a have been served, shall not take advantage of any def writ or return, or any variance in the writ from the d unless the same be pleaded in abatement. And in every the court may permit the writ or declaration to be amen to correct the variance, and permit the return to be amen such terms as to it shall seem just. If the process be n process, the suit or action shall be dismissed upon moti defendant, who may appear specially for that purpose, bu dismissed by reason of the failure of the clerk to issu process, the plaintiff may renew his suit or action wi payment of another writ tax. (Code 1887, § 3259.)

Revisors' Note.—The word "valid" in line two is new, the last sentence of the section. Under the former language tion it was held in Warren v. Saunders, 27 Grat. 259, that did not apply where the writ was a void writ. The prese makes it plain that if the writ is not valid, the proceeding t case dismissed may be by motion.

The second sentence in this section, providing that " permit the writ or declaration to be amended so as to c variance," etc., was added by the revisors of 1887. Burks' Barton Law Pr. (2d Ed.), 1391. This was taken from We Code, 1868, chapter 125, Section 15. Id. See Kuhn v. Bro W. Va. 252, 12 S. E. 519; Alexandria & F. R. R. Co. v. Hernd 193, 12 S. E. 289.

Original summons states damages at $15,000; copy at $1 variance could be taken advantage of only by plea in abatem mond & D. R. Co. v. Rudd, 88 Va. 648, 14 S. E. 361.

An application for leave to amend a return of service on intent to apply for leave to amend a declaration in ejectme denied, no such notice being required as a condition to plain to amend. King v. Davis, 137 Fed. 463, 11 Va. Law Reg. 46

Where, in ejectment, the return of service as to two

Digitized by Google

nts was defective, one for failure to show that the door of the dant's abode on which the process was posted, was the "front door," he other for failure to show that the defendant's wife, with whom rocess was left, was a member of his family, such returns, though by private persons, may be amended to show the fact, as against dants themselves, on scire facias to revive a default judgment. Id. ection 6041 and notes.

Whether a return of substituted service of process in Federal courts e amended is a question of the power of the court, with reference ich it is not bound by State decisions. Id.

nnocent purchasers from defendants in pending ejectment suits in ederal courts in Virginia being bound by the record without the of a lis pendens, a return of service, defective in that it did not that the wife of the person on whom process was served was a er of his family, was amendable as against an innocent purchaser the defendant so served. Id.

Where a defendant named "Francis" was personally served with ss in which he was named "France," and he was subsequently a notice that plaintiff would ask leave to amend, in which his was properly spelled, he is bound by a judgment, though he failed pear. Id.

f a variance is occasioned by an amendment of the declaration at ar, and, in the absence of plea or motion, the case is heard upon erits, it is conclusively presumed that the amendment was harm- Ches. & O. R. Co. v. Chapman, 115 Va. 32, 78 S. E. 631.

Variance between the writ and the declaration is a matter of abate- only, and the objection cannot be raised for the first time in the ap- e court. Ches. & O. R. Co. v. Chapman, 115 Va. 32, 78 S. E. 631.

By appearing and pleading to an action, or by taking or consent- o a continuance, defendant waives defects in the process and the e thereof. Harvey v. Skipwith, 16 Grat. 410.

Objection cannot be raised for variance between the allegations of laration and the proof for the first time in the appellate court. e Lime Co. v. Johnston, 103 Va. 84, 48 S. E. 557.

See Graves Pleading, 28; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 385, 639, 734, 755, 1268; n, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 288, 292, 1166; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 260; s' Pleading and Practice, pp. 180, 257, 270, 272, 291, 349, 583, 1013.

As to amendment of return, see 1 Va. Law Reg. 152.

For cases before the statute, see Bradley v. Welch, 1 Munf. 284; pe v. Redman, 2 Munf. 240; Payne v. Grim, Id. 297.

Discussed, 14 Va. Law J. 21.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, er 125, section 15.

See Gregory's Forms No. 232.

c. 6104. Amendment of pleadings.—In any suit, action, mo- or other proceeding hereafter instituted, the court may at any in furtherance of justice, and upon such terms as it may just, permit any pleading to be amended, or material sup- ental matter be set forth in amended or supplemental plead- The court shall, at every stage of the proceedings, disre- any error or defect which does not affect the substantial ts of the parties. If substantial amendment is made in pur- ce of this section, the court shall make such order as to inuance and costs as shall seem fair and just. (1914, p. 641.)

Revisors' Note.—This section applies to suits, actions, motions and proceedings. The last sentence is new.

Though the courts in this jurisdiction are extremely liberal in al- g amendments to pleadings, the amendment must not introduce a substantive cause of action different from that declared original declaration. New River Min. Co. v. Painter, 100 V S. E. 300; Bowman v. First Nat. Bk., 115 Va. 463, 80 S. E. 9 Barrett, 119 Va. 587, 89 S. E. 904.

Digitized by Google

This section must be liberally construed. Standard P Vietor, 120 Va. 595, 91 S. E. 752.

See notes under section 6250.

In Standard Paint Co. v. Vietor, 120 Va. 595, 91 S. E. 752 in speaking of the act from which the above section is taken language: "Since the act of March 27, 1914, supra, it is ap this court should extend the doctrine of harmless error to conclusion, namely, that error is harmless which does not affect the interests of the party complaining, and that such in presumed but must affirmatively appear from the record; fo in simple and unambiguous language directs the courts, at eve the proceeding, to disregard any error or defect in the proce does not affect the substantial rights of the parties. In thi doctrine of harmless error has been frequently announced an in many cases where there has been a misdirection of the jur to grant proper instructions, where evidence has been illegall and where there have been mistakes and errors in pleadin

Sec. 6105. How and when exception to jurisdiction to when pleas in abatement filed.—Where the declaration or on its face proper matter for the jurisdiction of the co ception for want of such jurisdiction shall be allowed u taken by plea in abatement. No such plea or any oth abatement shall be received after the defendant has pleaded in bar or answered to the declaration or bill, no second rules subsequent to service of process on such (Code 1887, § 3260; 1897-8, p. 198.)

Revisors' Note.—Under section 3260 of the Code of 1887, the above section is based, no plea in abatement could be re the defendant had demurred, pleaded in bar, or answered to t tion or bill, "nor after a rule to plead, or a conditional judgmen nisi." That section of the Code of 1887 was amended by A p. 198, by substituting for the words quoted the following: a decree nisi or conditional judgment at rules." In other amendment permitted a plea in abatement to be filed after plead, which was not the case under the section as it stood i of 1887. Under that amendment, therefore, a defendant by and not pleading was given a rule to plead, which enabled tain until the next rules in which to file his dilatory pleas, being allowed after a rule to plead but not after a decree n ditional judgment at rules. 6 Va. L. Reg. 484; 8 Va. L. Reg. appearance at the rules without pleading merely to get this time was thought by the revisors to be a useless formality changed the language of the amendment of 1897-8, above me read "nor after the second rules subsequent to service of such defendant." The intention of the revisors in making t was to give the defendant the same time without the ente appearance, that he could have obtained under the ame 1897-8 by entering an appearance. That is to say, tion was to cut off all dilatory pleas after the rules next the rules at which the declaration or bill is filed, but not be language used by the revisors, however, was not broad enou out fully their intention, and they are of opinion that the last the section should be so amended as to provide that "No such

Digitized by Google

r plea in abatement shall be received after the defendant has de-ed, pleaded in bar, or answered to the declaration or bill, nor after rules next succeeding the rules at which the declaration or bill is " The revisors will, therefore, recommend to the General Assembly s session of 1920 that this change be made.

To what cases applicable.—Applies only where the objection to the diction of the court is for mere matter of abatement, as where the is a proper one for a court of equity, but not the particular court in h it is brought, or where the suit ought to be abated by reason of circumstances attending the situation of the plaintiff or defendant e like. Jones v. Bradshaw, 16 Grat. 355.

When the cause of action is not within the jurisdiction granted by to the tribunal, the court will dismiss the suit at any time when act is brought to its notice. W. U. Tel. Co. v. Pettyjohn, 88 Va. 296, E. 431. See, also, as to want of jurisdiction, Green v. Massie, 21 356; Salamone v. Keiley, 80 Va. 86; Hudson v. Kline, 9 Grat. 379; rd v. Patterson's Adm'r, 3 Hen. & M. 67.

Where bill does not state proper matter for relief in equity, de-nt is not precluded by this section from taking exception to juris-on after answer (Hickman v. Stout, 2 Leigh 6); or by answer (Col-. Jones, 6 Leigh 530, 29 Am. Dec. 216); or at the hearing (Beckley lmer, 11 Grat. 625).

A non-resident of the State must take exception to the jurisdiction e court by plea in abatement; he cannot take exception on motion rest of judgment. Washington & N. O. Tel. Co. v. Hobson, 15 Grat.

On a motion for judgment under section 6046, after defendant has ared and pleaded to the action, he cannot move to dismiss. Moro-Ins. Co. v. Pankey, 91 Va. 259, 21 S. E. 487.

A plea in abatement is admissible in an action of ejectment. Sec-5463 refers only to pleas in bar of the action. James River & wha Co. v. Robinson, 16 Grat. 434.

Sufficiency of the plea.—As a general rule, a plea in abatement must a more proper and sufficient jurisdiction in some other court of State or country in which the action was brought. Guarantee Co. t. Bank, 95 Va. 480, 28 S. E. 909; Beirne v. Rosser, 26 Grat. 537. this is by no means a rule of universal extent and application. en v. Saunders, 27 Grat. 259, 267. And this requirement is not able where the plea shows a condition of facts under which no court e State has jurisdiction. Deatrick v. State Life Ins. Co., 107 Va. 59 S. E. 489.

Where it appears from declaration that plaintiff knew where the of action arose, a plea in abatement stating the defendant's resi-e is good, though it omit to state where the cause of action arose. Id.

A plea to the jurisdiction of the court in a transitory action which to state that the cause of action did not arise within the jurisdiction e court, or where it did arise, and which fails to give the plaintiff ter writ by showing what court of the State has jurisdiction of the , and which omits the prayer of judgment, is bad. Guarantee Co. v. Bank, 95 Va. 480, 28 S. E. 909, 3 Va. Law Reg. 873.

A plea in abatement to the jurisdiction of the court on the ground the defendant did not reside in the county in which the suit was ght, nor did the cause of action arise there, must state where the dant does reside and where the cause of action did arise. Middle-. Pinnell, 2 Grat. 202.

A plea to the jurisdiction by a corporation must be by attorney, as nnot appear in person. Culpeper Nat. Bank v. Tidewater Improve-Co., 119 Va. 73, 89 S. E. 118.

Duplicity.—A plea in abatement which sets up two or more distinct and ent defenses, either of which if true would necessitate a finding in of the defendant tendering the plea, is bad for duplicity. Guaran-o. v. Nat. Bank, 95 Va. 480, 28 S. E. 909.

Digitized by Google

Generally.—A petition for removal to federal court before lapse of period allowed for the filing of pleas in State court. Martin v. B. & O. R. Co., 151 U. S. 673, 14 Su
L. Ed. 311; Goldey v. Morning News, 156 U. S. 518, 15
39 L. Ed. 517; Wabash W. Ry. v. Brow, 164 U. S. 271, 17
41 L. Ed. 431; Powers v. Railway Co., 169 U. S. 92, 18
42 L. Ed. 673; Fidelity & Casualty Co. v. Hubbard, 8 Va. L
117 Fed. 949, and note 8 Va. Law Reg. 414.

Where, in a suit in equity, plea is presented of another pending in same court, between same parties, concerning matter, it is not error to reject the plea, consolidate the cau ceed in them as one cause. Mosby v. Wither's Ex'rs, 80 Va

Declaration showing matter of jurisdiction and no plea i the judgment must stand. Wells v. Hughes Ex'r, 89 Va. 543, Cited but not construed in Southern Express Co. v. Jac

27, 63 S. E. 17.

As to when one suit is a bar to a second, see McAlliste 97 Va. 543, 34 S. E. 474, 5 Va. Law Reg. 529; N. & W. R. Co.
Adm'r, 88 Va. 546, 14 S. E. 367; 6 Va. Law Reg. 191.

Statute applied in Wells v. Hughes' Ex'r, 89 Va. 543, Cox v. Cox, 95 Va. 173, 27 S. E. 834, 3 Va. Law Reg. 738, N. & W. R. Co., 4 Va. Law Reg. 735, 91 Fed. 845, 34 C. C. folk & W. R. Co. v. Ampey, 93 Va. 108, 25 S. E. 226; Reed &
v. Gold, 102 Va. 37, 45 S. E. 868.

See, also, Graves Pleading, 30, 74; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed ton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 259, 385, 389; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 750, 1274, 1343. Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 180, 258, 273
murrer to plea in abatement, see section 6118.

See notes to section 6103.

For an article on pleas in equity practice, see 17 Va. L

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 125, section 16.

See Gregory's Forms No. 157.

Sec. 6106. If only part of defendants liable, how ju tered.—If it shall appear at the trial that all the origi unts are liable, but that one or more of the other per under the provisions of section sixty-one hundred an not liable, the plaintiff shall be entitled to judgment, o and judgment, as the case may be, against the defe appear liable, and such as are not liable shall have jud recover costs as against the plaintiff, who shall be allowe as costs against the defendants who caused them to be ties. (Code 1887, § 3263.)

Revisors' Note.—This section has been made to conform 6102.

Declaration amended at bar in an immaterial particul tinuance refused. No error. D. & W. R. R. Co. v. Brown,
18 S. E. 278.

As to right to amend declaration or bill before appearan in vacation, see section 6095. As to right to amend at trial of variance between allegation and proof, see section 6250.

For monographic note on amendment, see Snead v. Cole 300, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 125, sections 19, 20.

See Gregory's Forms No. 233.

Sec. 6107. Defendant may plead several matters; filed; which tried first.—The defendant in any action

Digitized by Google

many several matters, whether of law or fact, as he shall think essary, and he may file pleas in bar at the same time with pleas abatement, or within a reasonable time thereafter, but the is- s on the pleas in abatement shall be first tried, and if such issues found against the defendant, he may, nevertheless, make any er defenses he may have to the action. Special pleas constituting good defense shall not be rejected because provable under the neral issue. (Code 1887, § 3264.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "and if such issues be found against defendant, he may, nevertheless, make any other defense he may have he action" appear in this section for the first time and are taken from ion 4775 of the Code of West Virginia (Hogg, 1913). See Burks' Pl. r., pp. 278, 279. The last sentence of the revised section is also new. Ches. & O. R. Co. v. Rison, 99 Va. at pp. 32, 33, 37 S. E. 320; Burks' & Pr., pp. 329, 331.

Revision of 1887.—The provision "and he may file pleas in bar at same time with pleas in abatement, or within a reasonable time reafter," etc., was added by the revisors of 1887. Burks' Address, 2 rton Law Pr. (2d Ed.), 1391. See, also, West Virginia Code, 1868, pter 125, section 21; Delaplaine & Co. v. Armstrong, 21 W. Va. 211; Barton Law Pr. (2d Ed.) 286.

Pleading and demurring to declaration.—The defendant may at the ne time plead and demur to the whole declaration. Stone v. Patterson, Call 71; Syme v. Griffin, 4 Hen. & M. 277.

If a defendant plead and demur to the whole declaration, and the murrer be overruled, judgment ought not to be entered without first ing the issues joined on the other pleas. Waller's Ex'rs v. Ellis, 2 nf. 88.

It is immaterial that the matters pleaded are inconsistent with each er. Id.

A defendant in chancery may, at the same time, answer and demur the same matter in the bill. Bassett's Adm'r v. Cunningham's Adm'r, Leigh 402.

Plaintiff cannot demur and reply to defendant's pleas.—A plaintiff y demur or reply to the defendant's pleas, but he cannot do both. is section applies to pleas by the defendant, but not to subsequent ges of the pleading. Chesapeake & O. Ry. Co. v. Bank, 92 Va. 495, S. E. 935, 44 L. R. A. 449, note 1 Va. Law Reg. 825; Lang v. Lewis' m'r, 1 Rand. 277.

Duplicity in pleading by defendant should still be avoided. O'Bannon Saunders, 24 Grat. 138, 147. See full discussion, 1 Va. Law Reg. 334.

Each matter of law or fact must be pleaded separately, unless they constitutent parts of one and the same defence. O'Bannon v. unders, 24 Grat. 138, 147.

If a defendant pleads several distinct matters of defence in one a, the plaintiff may reply generally to it, the defendant being guilty the first fault. Id.

Pleading general issue and special pleas together.—A defendant is t inhibited from pleading specially what he might have given in evi- nce under the general issue unless the matter pleaded amounts to the neral issue; that is to say, denies the allegation which the plaintiff is und to prove. Where the cause of action is avoided by matter ex st facto, such matter may always be specially pleaded, whether it could given in evidence under the general issue or not. Maggort v. Hans- rger, 8 Leigh 532. See notes below.

Where the general issue has been pleaded, special pleas which set up atter of defence which can be proved under the general issue should be jected. Blankenship v. Ely, 98 Va. 359, 36 S. E. 484. But see last sentence of present section, and Ches. & O. R. Co. v. Rison, pp. 32, 33, 37 S. E. 320.

Digitized by Google

In a recent case it was held that the admission of a plea a to the general issue is a matter within the discretion of the t the exercise of which generally will not be subject to review b pellate court. Sutherland v. Wampler, 119 Va. 800, 89 S. E. 8

For difference between pleading specially matters which a the general issue, and pleading specially matters which, though be shown under the general issue, do not amount to the gene see 4 Va. Law Reg. 770.

The rejection of special pleas is not ground of error whe fendant has been allowed to give in evidence the same mat the general issue. Southern R. Co. v. Wilcox, 99 Va. 394, 39

Same matter in several pleas.—This section does not give the absolute right to his special pleas setting up defences a under pleas already received, and the court may strike out su pleas, although already admitted and issue joined. Virgini Marine Ins. Co. v. Buck, 88 Va. 517, 13 S. E. 973; Guarant Nat. Bank, 95 Va. 480, 28 S. E. 909; Smith's Case, 85 Va. 92 148.

It is not error to exclude a plea which presents a defe may be made under a plea already in. Norfolk & W. R. Co. 118 Va. 428, 87 S. E. 553.

Motion to strike out.—Special demurrer having been aboli motion to strike out or reject can be used to obviate objection ings, such as duplicity and the like, which cannot now be demurrer. Chesapeake & O. R. Co. v. Rison, 99 Va. 18, 37 S

Where the objection to the second plea is that the matte plea is already put in issue, the practise is to try that ques motion to reject the plea, or to strike it out if it has been e record. Reed v. Hanna's Ex'r, 3 Rand. 56. See Virginia Fire Ins. Co. v. Buck, 88 Va. 517, 13 S. E. 973.

As to difference between demurrer to and motion to re see 1 Va. Law Reg. 306; Virginia Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. Buc 517, 13 S. E. 973.

Generally.—Under this section, authorizing a defendan action to plead as many several matters as he shall think necess to scire facias to revive a default judgment in ejectment, denyi of process, declaration, and notices in the manner and at the places stated in the returns, and alleging service by an una person, are not objectionable, though repugnant. King v. D Fed. 198, 11 Va. Law Reg. 179.

In ejectment a defendant may waive his plea in abatement in bar of the action. James River & Kanawha Co. v. Rob Grat. 434.

Defendant, under plea of non-assumpsit, may prove anythi statute of limitations, tender, and bankruptcy. Va. F. & M. Co and Newson, 15 Va. Law Journal (1891) 779.

For the discussion of the pleas of covenants performed a ants not broken, see 5 Va. Law Reg. 586.

As to pleading by administrators, see 5 Va. Law Reg. 27

As to pleading the statute of frauds, see section 5561 a

As to pleading in the former action of replevin, see Allen 18 Grat. 722-729. Generally, as to matters of pleading, Vaide 3 Rand. 448; Delaplaine v. Armstrong, 21 W. Va. 211.

See Graves Pleading, 75, 81, 104, 126; Barton, L. Pr. 286, 455, 487, 488, 764; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 739, 1105, 1164; Burk ing and Practice, pp. 279, 332, 339, 342, 343, 909, 1000, 101 Law Reg. 824.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' An chapter 125, section 21.

See Gregory's Forms No. 179.

Digitized by Google

ec. 6108. When plea of infancy not allowed; the liability of in-ts for debts under certain circumstances.—If any minor now nsacting business or who may hereafter transact business as a der fail to disclose by a sign in letters easy to be read, kept spicuously posted at the house wherein such business is trans-ed and also by a notice published for two weeks in a newspaper any) printed in the city, town, or county wherein the same is nsacted the fact that he is a minor, all property, stock, and ses in action acquired or used in such business shall as to the ditors of any such person be liable for the debts of such per-, and no plea of infancy shall be allowed. (1893-4, p. 373.)

ec. 6109. What allegations unnecessary in pleas, etc.—In a plea, ication, or subsequent pleading, intended to be pleaded in bar, n maintenance of the action, it shall not be necessary to use allegation of "actionem non," or "precludi non," or to the effect, or any prayer of judgment. (Code 1887, § 3265.)

See Graves Pleading, 100; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 473; 4 Min. Ed.) 766-769.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, pter 125, section 22.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 169, 171, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184. 185, 186, 188, 189, 194, 195, 196, 198, 200.

ec. 6110. Omission of protestation.—No party shall be preju-d by omitting a protestation in any pleading. (Code 1887, 266.)

As to nature of protestation, see Philips' Case, 19 Grat. 485. See, Graves Pleading 101; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 742.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, pter 125, section 23.

ec. 6111. How traverses to conclude.—All special traverses, or erses with an inducement of affirmative matter, shall conclude he country. But this regulation shall not preclude the opposite y from pleading over to the inducement when the traverse nmaterial. (Code 1887, § 3267.)

Does not affect rule of pleading that where new matter is introduced pleading shall conclude with a verification. Virginia Fire & Marine Co. v. Saunders, 84 Va. 210, 4 S. E. 584. See section 6119 and sors' note.

See Graves Pleading 101; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 742, 1116; Burks' Plead-and Practice, p. 865.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, pter 125, section 24.

See Gregory's Forms No. 164.

ec. 6112. How plaintiff may proceed without joinder in de-rrer or similiter; duty of clerk to put certain cases on court ket.—When the plaintiff takes issue on the defendant's plead-or traverses the same, or demurs, so that the defendant is not in to allege any new matter, the plaintiff may, without giving ule to rejoin, proceed as if there were a similiter or joinder in murrer. And in any action where, for want of a plea, an office

Digitized by Google

judgment would have been entered, it shall be the du clerk, if a plea has been filed, to place such action upon docket; and in any such action so placed upon the cou the pleadings may be matured in court, subject to such to continuance as the court in its discretion may imp either party. (Code 1887, § 3268.)

The court will not reverse a judgment because the co refused to allow defendant to withdraw his joinder in issue a to the replication where the latter is sufficient in law. Va. F. Co. v. Saunders, 86 Va. 969, 11 S. E. 794.

It seems that objection to the want of joinder of issue taken for the first time in the appellate court. Southside Daniel, 20 Grat. 344.

For case before the statute, see Nadenbousch v. McRae, Gi See Miller v. McLuer, Id. 338.

See Graves Pleading, 29, 102; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 47 C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 386; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 722, 1139, 1283; Burks and Practice, p. 356.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' An chapter 125, section 25.

Sec. 6113. How plea shall commence.—No formal defe be required in a plea. It shall commence as follows: fendant says that." (Code 1887, § 3269.)

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 470; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 740, 124 Pleading 100.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' An chapter 125, section 26.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 157, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165. 169, 170, 171, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 179, 180, 181, 182, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189.

Sec. 6114. After one plea, how another may commence. not be necessary to state in a second or other plea that it ed by leave of the court, or according to the form of th or to that effect. (Code 1887, § 3270.)

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 470; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 74 Pleading 104; Burks' Pleading and Practice, p. 909.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' An chapter 125, section 27.

Sec. 6115. Form of demurrer or joinder in demurrer.— of demurrer or joinder in demurrer, may be as follows: fendant (or plaintiff) says that the declaration (or oth ing) is not (or is) sufficient in law"; provided, that all d shall be in writing, except in criminal cases, and in civil court on motion of any party thereto, shall, or of its ow may, require the grounds of demurrer relied on to be state cally in the demurrer; and no grounds shall be consider than those so stated, but either party may amend his dem stating additional grounds, or otherwise, at any time b trial. (Code 1887, § 3271; 1899-00, p. 111.)

A demurrer to a bill in equity in the form given in the sufficient. Jones' Ex'rs v. Clark, 25 Grat. 642, 675.

The demurrer may be contained in the answer. Dunn v Grat. 291, 296, 297; Matthews v. Jenkins, 80 Va. 463.

Digitized by Google

It is not necessary to state grounds of demurrer in criminal cases. Jones' Case, 100 Va. 842, 41 S. E. 951.

Since the amendment (1899-00, p. 111), providing among other things that the court may, on motion of any party, or of its own motion, require grounds of demurrer to be stated specifically, etc., if taken advantage of, it will do away with the practice of assigning one ground of demurrer in trial court, and relying upon a wholly different ground in the appellate court. Lane Bros. & Co. v. Bauserman, 103 Va. 150, 48 S. E. 857.

Causes of demurrer not assigned in the statement of causes of demurrer in the trial court cannot be assigned in appellate court. Virginia, &c., Wheel Co. v. Harris, 103 Va. 708, 49 S. E. 991.

Where grounds of demurrer are not copied in the record the appellate court will treat the case as if there had been no demurrer. Lane Bros. & Co. v. Bauserman, 103 Va. 147, 150, 49 S. E. 991.

A demurrer not noticed by the decree of the trial court will be considered as having been overruled. Savings Bank v. Powhatan Clay Mfg. Co., 102 Va. 274, 9 Va. Law Reg. 898, and note, 46 S. E. 294.

Where plaintiff states in writing the grounds of his demurrer to plea in abatement, no other grounds can be considered than those stated. Va. & S. W. R. Co. v. Hollingsworth, 107 Va. 359, 58 S. E. 572.

Under this section the grounds of demurrer must be stated with reasonable certainty and no other grounds than those so stated should be considered. McMenamin v. Southern R. Co., 115 Va. 822, 80 S. E. 696, 19 Va. L. Reg. 901 and note.

A ground of demurrer reading: "That by reason of the vagueness of the statements made in said count and the omission of statements which should be made, said count does not fulfill the requirements of the law of pleadings," may be disregarded, as it is no more than an assertion that the declaration is not sufficient in law. Newton v White, 115 Va. 849, 80 S. E. 561.

Cited but not construed in Norfolk & Western Ry. Co. v. Stegall, 105 Va. 539, 54 S. E. 19 and in Strother's Admx. v. Strother, 106 Va. 730, 56 S. E. 170. C. & O. R. Co. v. Rowsey, 108 Va. 632, 62 S. E. 363; Nes. & O. R. Co. v. Tinsley, 116 Va. 600, 82 S. E. 732.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 301, 457; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 813; Graves Pleading 72, 124; 12 Va. L. Reg. 275, 361.

For monographic note on demurrers see Com. v. Jackson, 2 Va. Cas. 501, Va. Rep. Anno.

Form of joinder to demurrer to any pleading, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1736; demurrer to declaration, Id.; of demurrer to any pleading, Id.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, Chapter 125, section 28.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 207, 208, 209, 210.

Sec. 6116. Amendment of pleading after demurrer thereto sustained; amendment under protest.—Wherever a demurrer to any pleading has been sustained, and as the result thereof the demurree has amended his pleading, he shall not be deemed to have waived his right to stand upon his pleading before the amendment, provided the order of the court shows that he objected to the ruling of the court sustaining the demurrer and in any writ of error in such a case the demurree may insist upon his original pleading, and if the same be held to be good, he shall not be prejudiced by having made the amendment. (1914, p. 493.)

Revisors' Note.—The act of 1914 upon which this section is based, provided that the demurree might except to the ruling of the court sustaining the demurrer. A bill of exception to a ruling on a demurrer being incongruous, under the present section no bill of exception is necessary, but the demurree may obtain the benefit of his original pleading by having the order of the court show that he objected to th sustaining the demurrer.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6117. Demurrer to evidence; grounds to be state party tendering a demurrer to the evidence shall state in specifically the grounds of demurrer relied on, and the d shall not be compelled to join in said demurrer until such have been so stated, nor shall any ground of demurrer n specifically stated be considered; but the court shall al demurree to withdraw his joinder in such demurrer an duce new evidence, or suffer a non-suit, at any time before retire from the bar. The demurrant shall also be perm withdraw his demurrer within the same time. (1912, p. 7

Revisors' Note.—This section is based on the act cited a Acts 1906, p. 301. The change in language is intended to mak the legislative intention, except that in one particular the revise differs in meaning from the act. Under the act the court w discretion in allowing withdrawals, but the revised section g demurree the absolute right to withdraw his joinder in the d and to introduce new evidence or suffer a non-suit at any tim the jury retire from the bar. The demurrant is also given the right to withdraw his demurrer within the same time.

The refusal to permit a demurrant to the evidence to an grounds of demurrer after a verbal joinder in the demurrer announced by the demurree is not prejudicial to the demurran under the grounds already assigned, he has the right to rely u does in fact argue the same point proposed to be made and reli by the amendment. Virginia Iron Co. v. Munsey, 110 Va. S. E. 478.

The object of this statute was at least two-fold: First, to the demurrant to give notice in writing of the grounds or c demurrer which he intended to rely on, and second, to prevent h assigning grounds of demurrer in the appellate court wholly from those relied on in the lower court. McMenamin v. Southern 115 Va. 822, 80 S. E. 596, 19 Va. L. Reg. 901 and note.

Where the language used is broad enough to embrace a prehend any one of several causes of demurrer, but fails to spe one of them as the particular ground or cause relied on with re certainty, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, a sufficient compliance with this statute. McMenamin v. Sout Co., 115 Va. 822, 80 S. E. 596, 19 Va. L. Reg. 901 and note. the circumstances of this case it was held that the grounds sufficiently stated.

The failure of a demurree to evidence to object to the gr demurrer because not as specific as he desires is not a waive requirement of the statute. McMenamin v. Southern R. Co., 822, 80 S. E. 596, 19 Va. L. Reg. 901 and note.

The degree of particularity within which the grounds of d should be stated in order to meet the requirements of the statu depend to some extent upon the character of the case. McMen Southern R. Co., 115 Va. 822, 80 S. E. 596, 19 Va. L. Reg. 901 a It is sufficient if the demurree is fully advised of the contentio demurrant. Bonos v. Ferries Co., 113 Va. 495, 75 S. E. 126.

The provisions of this statute are mandatory and preclude of jurisdiction to consider a demurrer unless the grounds of s murrer are specifically stated in writing. Saunders v. Southern 117 Va. 396, 84 S. E. 650.

Where there is only one controverted question in the case, other could arise on the demurrer to the evidence, the failure

Digitized by Google

ne grounds in the demurrer is not ground for reversal. Newberry v. Watts, 116 Va. 730, 82 S. E. 703.

A failure to comply with the plain mandate of the statute cannot be excused upon the ground that there were but two grounds of demurrer relied on which were well known to and understood by the plaintiff. Saunders v. Southern R. Co., 117 Va. 396, 84 S. E. 650.

For a case in which the grounds of a demurrer were held to be sufficiently stated, see Va. I. C. & C. Co. v. Asbury's Admr., 117 Va. 683, 85 S. E. 148.

For statement of the light in which the evidence is viewed upon demurrer to the evidence, see Newberry v. Watts, 116 Va. 730, 82 S. E. 703.

In Virginia R. & P. Co. v. Gorsuch, 120 Va. 655, 91 S. E. 632 (March 15, 1917), after the evidence had been concluded the defendant company demurred to the evidence because it had not beeen proved that the street car causing the injury complained of was the property of the defendant company. The plaintiff had rested and concluded her case, but after the grounds of demurrer had been stated the court allowed her to reopen the evidence and prove the ownership of the car. It was held that at that stage of the proceedings, they were within the control of the court, and that it was the duty of the court to permit the plaintiff to prove a fact which had been inadvertently omitted; furthermore, that had the court refused to do so, it would have been reversible error.

For present law concerning proof of ownership, etc., see section 6126.

See 11 Va. Law Reg., 959 and 12 Id. 195.

Sec. 6118. What defects not to be regarded on demurrer.—On demurrer (unless it be to a plea in abatement), the court shall not regard any defect or imperfection in the declaration or other pleading, whether it has been heretofore deemed mispleading or insufficient pleading or not, unless there be omitted something so essential to the action or defense, that judgment, according to law and the very right of the cause, cannot be given. No demurrer shall be sustained, because of the omission in any pleading of the words, "this he is ready to verify," or "this he is ready to verify by the record," or, "as appears by the record;" but the opposite party may be excused from replying, demurring or otherwise answering to any pleading, which ought to have, but has not, such words therein, until they be inserted; nor shall a demurrer be sustained to a declaration alleging negligence of defendant because the particulars of the negligence are not stated, but such particulars may be demanded by the defendant under section six thousand and ninety-one. (Code 1887, § 3272.)

Revisors' Note.—The latter part of this section relating to the failure of the plaintiff to aver, in his declaration, the particulars of the negligence of the defendant, is new, and intended to change the former law as announced in Hortenstein v. Va.-Car. Ry. Co., 102 Va. 914, 47 S. E. 996, and Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Gee, 104 Va. 806, 52 S. E. 572.

When declaration is sufficient.—A demurrer to an entire declaration raises the question whether there be or be not matter in the declaration sufficient to maintain the action. If there be several counts, and one good, that is sufficient. If there be a single count containing sufficient breaches, any one of which is well assigned, that is sufficient. If there be a single count containing a demand of several matters which in their nature are divisible, any one of which is well claimed, that is sufficient. Henderson v. Stringer, 6 Grat. 130.

Digitized by Google

If there are several counts in the declaration, and any one is good, the demurrer should be overruled; and the fact that th ment of causes of demurrer applies to the bad counts as well good will not affect the result as it does not enlarge the sco demurrer. Virginia, etc., Wheel Co. v. Harris, 103 Va. 708, 49

A declaration in an action for personal injury is sufficien averments are made as to the circumstances under which the i inflicted as will show the extent of the duty which it is averred neglected by the defendant to the injury of the plaintiff. Norf R. Co. v. Wood, 99 Va. 158, 37 S. E. 846.

While it is not sufficient merely to allege negligence i terms as a conclusion of law in a declaration, the declaration i demurrer if such facts are alleged as to show that the acciden one which would have occurred if the defendant had exercise able care. Houston v. Lynchburg T. & L. Co., 119 Va. 136, 89

A declaration is sufficient if it informs the defendant of t of the demand made against him, and states such facts as will e court to say that if the facts are proved, as alleged, they e good cause of action. Va., etc., Wheel Co. v. Harris, 103 Va S. E. 991; Stonegap Co. v. Hamilton, 119 Va. 271, 89 S. E. 3

Where the declaration in an action for the amount of a ben ficate sets forth the undertaking of defendant to pay the certific by a beneficiary association on the life of a member, alleged and the consideration for the defendant's undertaking and th to pay the amount of the certificate. Held, declaration suffici sumpsit as against a demurrer. Cosmopolitan Life Ins. Ass'n 104 Va. 619, 11 Va. Law Reg. 824, 52 S. E. 166.

An allegation of duty is only a conclusion of law; and facts alleged show the duty, and are stated with sufficient cle prevent surprise, and enable the court to proceed upon the the cause, the declaration should be sustained. Virginia, & Co. v. Harris, 103 Va. 713, 49 S. E. 991.

Defects not regarded on demurrer.—Though declaration detinet only when it should declare in the debet and detinet, it held bad for this cause. Bailey v. Beckwith, 7 Leigh 604.

On general demurrer the irregularity in a replication w cludes to the country, instead of with a verification, as it sho cured by this section. Carthrae v. Clarke, 5 Leigh 268. S 6119.

Where declaration, though inartificially commencing sta cause of action with a "quod cum," yet states the essential ave direct and positive terms, it is sufficient. Roanoke Nat. Banl brick, 82 Va. 135.

Whether a paper declared on as a simple contract is a s tract or not cannot be raised by demurrer. Grubbs v. Nat. Lif 94 Va. 593, 27 S. E. 464.

A demurrer to a plea required by statute to be verified b does not bring to the attention of the court the lack of the Lewis' Adm'r v. Hicks, 96 Va. 91, 30 S. E. 466.

A declaration designating an action as trespass which sufficient matter of substance for the court to proceed upon of the cause is good under sections 6085 and 6118, althou facts alleged it is apparent that the declaration is one in t the case. Stonegap Co. v. Hamilton, 119 Va. 271, 89 S. E. 3

Where the assignment of grounds of demurrer points out not cured by this section, the demurrer is properly overruled. Paint Co. v. Vietor, 120 Va. 595, 91 S. E. 752.

If the matter pleaded be in itself insufficient without re the manner of pleading it, the defect is substantial, but if the is in the form of alleging it, the defect is formal. Norfolk & v. Sturgis, 117 Va. 532, 85 S. E. 572.

Defects regarded on demurrer.—In debt on a decree which does not give running interest thereon, the declaration erest from the date of the decree as part of the debt. Held bad on ieral demurrer. Shelton's Ex'rs v. Welsh's Adm'rs, 7 Leigh 175.

Digitized by Google

Where one of the counts in a declaration is in case for tort and ther in assumpsit, a general demurrer to the declaration for such sjoinder ought to be sustained. Creel v. Brown, 1 Rob. 265 (2d Ed.) 1; Henderson v. Stringer, 6 Grat. 130.

Faulty assignments in a single count, containing separable mat-s, some of which are good and others bad, may be reached by de-rrer. Ches. & O. R. Co. v. Tinsley, 116 Va. 600, 82 S. E. 732.

Special demurrer.—This section abolished special demurrers. See aves Pleading 70, 71.

Assigning special causes for demurrer does not make a demurrer cial which is in its nature general. Miller v. McLuer, Gilmer 338.

Special demurrer having been abolished in Virginia, mere duplicity a count of a declaration is no longer a ground of demurrer. Norfolk W. R. Co. v. Ampey, 93 Va. 108, 25 S. E. 226, note 2 Va. Law Reg. 284; nningham v. Smith, 10 Grat. 255, 60 Am. Dec. 333.

As to how to take advantage of duplicity in pleading, see 1 Va. w Reg. 306, 384, 836; Chesapeake & O. R. Co. v. Rison, 99 Va. 18, S. E. 320, note 6 Va. Law Reg. 678.

Demurrers to pleas in abatement.—The utmost strictness is re-ired in plea in abatement, and a general demurrer to such plea has the effect of a special one (Hortons v. Townes, 6 Leigh 47); and ght to be sustained, though the plea be defective in point of form only lantz v. Hendley, 2 Hen. & M. 308). See Guarantee Co v. Bank, 95 . 480, 28 S. E. 909, 3 Va. L. Reg. 873.

Generally.—Where pleadings terminate in a demurrer on either e, any error in the previous pleadings on either side may be taken vantage of. Roane's Adm'r v. Drummond's Adm'rs, 6 Rand. 182.

Upon demurrer taken by plaintiff, court goes back to the first fault, d if plaintiff's declaration is defective gives judgment for the de-ndant on demurrer. Bennett's Ex'r v. Giles, 6 Leigh 316.

In debt on sheriff's official bond in name of G., successor of T., Gov-nor of Virginia, to whom the bond was given, plea that G. was not d M. was the successor of T., and demurrer to the plea, held, though e plea was obviously designed to entrap, the demurrer must be over-led. Bennett's Ex'r v. Giles, 6 Leigh 316.

On general demurrer to declaration, the court looks always to the bstantial meaning of its allegations to ascertain whether it states good use of action. Mowry v. Miller, 3 Leigh 561, 24 Am. Dec. 680.

Under this section, a common count of indebitatus for services ren-red in a declaration in assumpsit is not demurrable because of omis-on of promise to pay. City of Newport News v. Potter, 122 Fed. 321, C. C. A. 483.

Where a demurrer to a bill has been sustained, and the bill amend-, the plaintiff waives his right to appeal on that ground. Fudge v. yne, 86 Va. 303, 10 S. E. 7.

A demurrer admits all facts well pleaded, but not the pleader's con-usions of law based thereon which he has introduced into his pleading. umbo v. Fulk, 103 Va. 73, 48 S. E. 525.

Cited but not construed, Newman v. McComb, 112 Va. 408, 71 S. E. 4.

As to demurrer to a plea, see 1 Va. Law Reg. 306.

As to demurrer to plea or answer in chancery, see 6 Va. Law Reg. 4; Kelly v. Hamblen, 98 Va. 383, 36 S. E. 491.

See Graves Pleading 71, 105; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 296; Barton, Pr. (2d Ed.) 370; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 745, 812, 1103, 1120, 1147, 1153, 36, 1271, 1293, 1305; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 141, 269, 4, 340, 359, 975, 976, 977, 1012, 1018; 1 Va. Law Reg. 836; Roach Gardner, 9 Grat. 89.

Discussed, 14 Va. Law J. 21.

See sections 6331, 6085.

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 125, section 29.

Sec. 6119. For what defects in pleadings verdict shall set aside.—After a trial upon the merits, no verdict shal aside by reason of the failure of any plea to conclude to th try or with a verification, unless it be shown that the par ing to set aside has been prejudiced by such failure.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and is intended to decision in Virginia Fire & Marine Insurance Co. v. Saunders, 210, 4 S. E. 584.

Sec. 6120. Argument of demurrer or plea in equity; if ov how defendant proceeded against.—A plaintiff in equity m any plea or demurrer set down to be argued. If the same ruled, no other plea or demurrer shall afterwards be receiv the defendant may, in the discretion of the court, be req answer the bill forthwith, and, in default thereof, the bill taken for confessed, and the matter thereof decreed; or the iff may proceed against such defendant in the manner pr by section sixty-one hundred and thirty-six. (Code 1887, §

Defendant's demurrer to a bill being overruled, he is at li file any sufficient answer. Sutton v. Gatewood, 6 Munf. 398; western Bank v. Nelson, 1 Grat. 108. If demurrer be susta may amend. Tidball v. Bank, 98 Va. 768, 37 S. E. 318.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 380; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1421; preceding sections.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 125, section 30.

Sec. 6121. Trial by jury of plea in equity.—A plaintiff i may take issue upon a plea; and either party may have su tried by a jury. (Code 1887, § 3274.)

The court of chancery should judge on the proofs before it a clear case decree thereon without directing an issue. Pryor v. 1 Call 382 (2d Ed.) 332, 1 Am. Dec. 533. See notes to this issue out of chancery in Va. Rep. Anno.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1421; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 386, 8

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 125, section 32.

Sec. 6122. When defendant in equity may answer; pena delay.—A defendant in equity upon whom process has b ecuted shall file his answer or other defense in the court o clerk's office of the court in which the suit or proceeding i ing within six months from the date of such service, unle notice to the adverse party, and for good cause shown, the lessened by the court or additional time be given by the c the judge thereof in vacation, within which to file the same. the lapse of such six months, or additional time, if any granted, no answer or other defense shall be received exc good cause shown and upon payment to the complainant costs up to that time, or such part thereof as the court o shall deem reasonable, and unless the defendant will under file his answer within such time as the court or judge shall

Digitized by Google

d submit to such other terms as the court or judge shall direct, the purpose of speeding the cause. (Code 1887, § 3275.)

Revisors' Note.—Section 3275 of the Code of 1887, which was taken m the Code of 1849 (Code 1849, p. 650, chapter 171, section 34), owed the defendant to file his answer at any time before final decree. ch an indulgence necessarily operated to delay the disposition of causes, many instances to an unreasonable degree, and is altogether out of ord with present day views. See Federal Equity Rules 16 and 17. e present section is taken in part from the rules cited, but is far more eral to defendants.

Formerly a defendant had the right to file his answer at any time ore final decree. Bean v. Simmons, 9 Grat. 389. But the trial of cause was not to be consequently delayed, unless for good cause wn. Bowles v. Woodson, 6 Grat. 78.

Answer was allowed to be filed after a decree annulling conveyance fraud and directing commissioner to ascertain the location and value the lands and liens thereon (Welsh v. Solenberger, 85 Va. 441, 8 E. 91); or after decree of sale to satisfy lien for purchase money gden v. Brown, 83 Va. 670, 3 S. E. 236).

Defendant whose counsel in his absence may have filed an incomte, irregular, and unsworn answer (which was in fact no answer at was permitted to file a full and complete answer at any time before l decree. Radford v. Fowlkes, 85 Va. 820, 8 S. E. 817.

A final decree is such a decree as leaves nothing further for the court do in the cause; measures that are necessary for the execution of a ree that has been pronounced, are to be regarded, not as in, but ond the cause. Collier v. Seward, 113 Va. 228, 74 S. E. 155.

If defendant did not ask leave to file his answer, a decree correct n the merits would not be reversed by appellate court. Reynolds v. nk, 6 Grat. 174; Brent v. Washington's Adm'r, 18 Grat. 526.

A defendant in equity who was in default filed a demurrer to the , which was overruled. He was not entitled to two months in which file an answer. Reynolds v. Bank, 6 Grat. 174.

See, also, Buford v. North Roanoke Land & Imp. Co., 90 Va. 418, S. E. 914; Taylor v. Forbes' Admx., 101 Va. 658, 44 S. E. 888; lers' Exrs. v. Harris, 76 Va. 187, 191.

For Federal practice, see Federal Equity Rules.

For monographic note on answers, see Tate v. Vance, 27 Grat. 571, Rep. Anno.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 404; 4 Min. (3d Ed.)) 1348.

Sec. 6123. Exceptions to answers; proceedings when exceptions sustained.—Exceptions to answers for insufficiency are abolished. The test of sufficiency shall be made by a motion to strike ; if found insufficient, but amendable, the court may allow endment on terms. If a second answer is adjudged insufficient, defendant may be examined upon interrogatories and committed until he answer them, or on motion of the plaintiff the court y strike out the answer and take the bill for confessed. (Code 87, § 3276.)

Revisors' Note.—The first two sentences of this section follow substantially Federal Equity Rule No. 33. The last sentence is taken from tion 3277 of the Code of 1887. It will be observed that this section kes material and important changes in equity practice.

As to exceptions to answers, abolished by the above section, see eman v. Lyne, 4 Rand. 454; Kelly v. Hamblen, 98 Va. 383, 36 S. E. ; Clarke v. Tinsley's Admr., 4 Rand. 250; Craig v. Sebrell, 9 Grat. ; Johnson v. Wilson, 29 Grat. 379, 390.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6124. Plea in abatement and of non est factum, to filed.—No plea in abatement or plea of non est factum sh ceived, unless it be verified by oath. (Code 1887, § 3278.)

Plea in abatement offered in prosecution for misdemeanor be verified by oath or affirmation. Com. v. Sayers, 8 Leigh 7

Affidavit to the plea of non est factum is not rendered de inserting the words, "to the best of the defendant's knowledg lief." Jackson v. Webster, 6 Munf. 462.

Affidavit filed with the plea need not allege that the defe not deliver the paper in question as his deed after the blank with the sum without his presence or knowledge. Franklin Rand. 448.

If plaintiff does not object to want of affidavit to the plea court, he cannot make the objection in an appellate court. Goode, 12 Leigh 479, 37 Am. Dec. 677.

If a plea of non est factum be offered which is not v affidavit, the proper method of taking advantage of the defect is to the reception of the plea, and it is impossible to take advant of by demurrer, for by demurrer the facts stated in the plea are and, therefore, the defect will be considered as waived. Wilso of Mt. Pleasant, 6 Leigh 570, 571, 574.

And upon a demurrer to a plea of non est factum, when the Court overrules the demurrer it will give judgment for the and refuse to allow the demurrant to withdraw his demurrer over. Id. See Burks' Pl. & Fr., pp. 366, 367.

A defendant who has made affidavit to a plea of non e under this section is not required to make any further affida section 6125. Wilson v. Wooldridge, 118 Va. 209, 86 S. E. 87

Fraud in the procurement of a contract cannot be set u plea of non est factum—what can be shown. Hayes and W Mut. Protection Asso., 76 Va. 225.

Evidence under non est factum, see Swecker v. Swecker, 8 12 S. E. 1056.

As to plea of non est factum generally, see Cleaton v. C 6 Rand. 86; Ward v. Churn, 18 Grat. 801, 98 Am. Dec. 749 Hamlet, 27 Grat. 337; Miller v. Fletcher, 27 Grat. 403, 21 Am. Nash v. Fugate, 32 Grat. 595, 34 Am. Rep. 780; Wendlinger 75 Va. 309, 40 Am. Rep. 727; Keen's Ex'r v. Monroe, 75 Priest v. Whitacre, 78 Va. 151; Batchelder v. White, 80 Va. 1 nett's Adm'x v. Pace's Adm'r, 84 Va. 873, 6 S. E. 217; Com. v. Va. 918, 9 S. E. 148; Com. v. Tunstall, 86 Va. 372, 10 S. E. 41 v. Moore, 86 Va. 26-30, 9 S. E. 419; Bunch's Ex'r v. Fluvann Va. 452, 10 S. E. 532; Elgin v. Hall, 82 Va. 680; Newell v. 3 Leigh 250, 23 Am. Dec. 261; Preston v. Hull, 23 Grat. 600 Rep. 153.

See Graves Pleading 99; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 289; Pr. (2d Ed.) 384; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 751, 1284; Burks' Pl. & 99, 101, 176, 269.

For. W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis An chapter 125, section 39.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 157, 162, 211.

Sec. 6125. When proof of writing not required, unless d affidavit filed with plea.—Where a bill, declaration, or oth ing alleges that any person made, endorsed, assigned, or any writing, not under seal, no proof of the handwriting required, unless it be denied by an affidavit accompanying putting it in issue. (Code 1887, § 3279.)

Revisors' Note.—In addition to changes in phraseology, t "not under seal" appearing in line three of the text are new, thu statutory Phaup v. Stratton, 9 Grat. 619, and Clason v. Parrish, 93 Va. 24, 24 S. E. 471. Instruments under seal are fully covered by the preceding section. See Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 99.

Digitized by Google

Purpose and application of statute.—It was not the purpose of the statute to narrow the defence under the general issue, but in regard to a particular matter to require notice of the defence, and some security against its being vexatious or frivolous. Shepherd v. Fry, 3 Grat. 442 (2d Ed. 422).

It seems that the effect of the statute is to dispense with the proof of handwriting in actions on writings not under seal—nothing more. Phaup v. Stratton, 9 Grat. 615-619; Clason v. Parrish, 93 Va. 24, 27, 24 S. E. 471, note 2 Va. Law Reg. 188. See present section and revisors' note above.

A defendant who has made affidavit to a plea of non est factum under section 6124 is not required to make any further affidavit under this section. Wilson v. Wooldridge, 118 Va. 209, 86 S. E. 872. See preceding paragraph and revisors' note above.

This section only applies where the declaration alleges that the defendant or the person stated to have made the writing subscribed his name thereto. Kelly v. Paul, 3 Grat. 191 (2d Ed.) 182; Shepherd v. Fry, 3 Grat. 442 (2d Ed. 422).

This section has no application to a transfer of paper by a mere delivery. Clason v. Parrish, 93 Va. 24-27, 24 S. E. 471, note 2 Va. Law Reg. 188.

Applies to an order filed with the bill as a ground of the plaintiff's claim. James River & Kanawha Co. v. Littlejohn, 18 Grat. 53.

The defenses contemplated by this section involve a denial of the making (the factum) of the writing, indorsement, assignment, acceptance, or other writing by the person charged therewith. In other words, a plea under this section is equivalent to a plea of non est factum. Holdsworth v. Anderson Drug Co., 118 Va. 361, 87 S. E. 565.

The fact that the defendant swears to a plea denying that the plaintiff is the holder in due course of the negotiable note sued on does not throw upon the plaintiff the burden of showing that he is such a holder. Holdsworth v. Anderson Drug Co., 118 Va. 359, 87 S. E. 565.

An allegation in a bill of certain indebtedness "evidenced by" a certain note, describing it, is sufficient to dispense with proof of execution of the note under this section. Taylor v. Carter, 117 Va. 845, 86 S. E. 120.

In the absence of the affidavit provided by this section, the defendant will not be permitted to prove that he did not make the note declared on. Chestnut v. Chestnut, 104 Va. 539, 52 S. E. 348, 350.

Does this section apply to a motion which does not allege that any person "made, endorsed, assigned or accepted" the writing sued upon? See Wilson v. Wooldridge, 118 Va. 209, 86 S. E. 872.

Partnership writings.—The section applies to instruments signed with the name of a partnership. Shepherd v. Fry, 3 Grat. 442 (2d Ed. 422).

Where declaration charges that defendants by their partnership name signed the note sued on, and there was no affidavit by the defendants or any of them putting the execution of the note in issue, held, that they were precluded from showing that the partnership had been dissolved before the note was made, and that the person making it had no authority of executing it for the other parties. Phaup v. Stratton, 9 Grat. 615.

The affidavit in chancery cases.—An answer sworn to putting in issue genuineness of the writing sued on is a sufficient compliance with this section. Harnsberger v. Cockran, 82 Va. 727, 1 S. E. 120; Piedmont Bank v. Hatcher, 94 Va. 230, 26 S. E. 505, 3 Va. Law Reg. 369.

To take exception to a bond filed by defendant with his answer, the plaintiff should file a general replication to the answer, accompanied by an affidavit putting in issue the execution of the bond. Simmons v.

Digitized by Google

Simmons' Adm'r, 33 Grat. 451, 458. Same rule applies to an ag of release set up by the answer. Stewart v. Conrad's Adm'r, 132, 40 S. E. 624, note 7 Va. Law Reg. 767.

When too late to make objection.—Where defendant does n the execution of an order sued on in the lower court, it is too make the objection in the appellate court. James River & K Co. v. Littlejohn, 18 Grat. 53.

Generally.—See Graves Pleading 100; Barton, L. Pr. (2d E 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 389; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 751, 895, 900, 1421; Burks ing and Practice, pp. 99, 114, 162, 176, 269, 332.

As to proof of signature evidencing release, payment or se section 6093.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 125, section 40.

Sec. 6126. When proof of ownership, etc., unnecessary unl davit is filed.—Where a bill, declaration, or other pleading that any person or corporation, at a stated time, owned, op or controlled any property or instrumentality, no proof fact alleged shall be required unless an affidavit be file the pleading putting it in issue, denying specifically and w ticularity that such property or instrumentality was, at t alleged, so owned, operated, or controlled.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new.

Sec. 6127. When, of partnership or incorporation, unless nied.—Where plaintiffs or defendants sue or are sued as p and their names are set forth in the declaration or bill, or plaintiffs or defendants sue or are sued as a corporation, not be necessary to prove the fact of the partnership or inc tion, unless with the pleading which puts the matter in issu be an affidavit denying such partnership or incorporation. 1887, § 3280.)

In an action against a railroad company it is not necessary in the declaration nor is it necessary to prove on the trial that corporation unless defendant files the affidavit required. B. & O v. Sherman's Adm'x, 30 Grat. 602.

In an action of assumpsit the writ and declaration is in th of a plaintiff, which indicates that said plaintiff is a corporation is not stated to be a corporation. It is not necessary that the prove it is a corporation unless defendant files the affidavit r Gillett v. American Stove & Hollow Ware Co., 29 Grat. 565.

A suit by persons styling themselves the directors of the school board (the school board being a corporation) cannot b tained, though no affidavit be filed. Stewart v. Thornton. 75 V

An affidavit denying that at the time of the institution of there was any such corporation as the defendant, but not deny existence of such corporation at the time of the contract sued on sufficient. Richmond Union Pass. Ry. Co. v. New York & S. B. 95 Va. 386, 28 S. E. 573, 4 Va. Law Reg. 42.

For case before the present statute, see Shepherd v. Fry, 442 (2d Ed. 422).

See Graves Pleading 100: Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 243, Min. (4th Ed.) 621, 636; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 751, 900, 1284, 1421; Pleading and Practice, pp. 99, 176, 269; 4 Va. Law Reg. 547.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Anno chapter 125, section 41.

Sec. 6128. Effect of an answer as evidence, when oath

Digitized by Google

vaived.—If the complainant in a suit in equity shall, in his bill, vaive an answer under oath, or shall only require an answer un-ler oath, with regard to certain specified interrogatories, the ans-ver of the defendant, though under oath, except such part thereof s shall be directly responsive to such interrogatories, shall not be vidence in his favor, unless the cause be heard upon bill and nswer only; but may, nevertheless, be used as an affidavit with he same effect, as heretofore upon a motion to grant or dissolve ny injunction, or upon any other incidental motion in the cause; ut this shall not prevent a defendant from testifying in his own ehalf, where he would otherwise be a competent witness. (Code 887, § 3281.)

This section was taken from an amendment to the then 41st rule of ractice for Federal courts of equity, which rule was construed in Conley v. Nailor, 118 U. S. 127, 6 Sup. Ct. 1001, 30 L. Ed. 112.

When an answer to a bill for an injunction negatives all its equities, nd is sworn to, it is entitled to the weight of an affidavit. Thomas v. owe, 2 Va. Dec. 113, 22 S. E. 157.

On motion to dissolve where answer under oath is waived, the nswer has the effect of being a denial of the plaintiff's whole case and uts him to proof. Ingles v. Straus, 91 Va. 223, 21 S. E. 490.

Notwithstanding the statute, it is encumbent upon the plaintiff, hough answer under oath be waived, to uphold the case made in his ill by competent and sufficient evidence, the answer in such case being quivalent to a traverse. Jones v. Christian, 86 Va. 1017, 1032, 11 S. E. 84; Millhiser v. McKinley, 98 Va. 207, 35 S. E. 446.

Where original bill does not waive an answer under oath, and an nswer under oath is filed, plaintiff cannot deprive respondent of the enefit of his sworn answer by filing an amended bill waiving such oath. hrockmorton v. Throckmorton, 86 Va. 768, 11 S. E. 289.

For the rule before the statute, see Thornton v. Gordon, 2 Rob. 719; ones v. Abraham, 75 Va. 466; Moore v. Ullman, 80 Va. 307.

As to effect as evidence of answer to bill of discovery, see 7 Va. aw Reg. 107; Thompson v. Clark, 81 Va. 422.

As to effect as evidence of answer of corporation sworn to by officer ho is not a party, see 7 Va. Law Reg. 145; 1 Va. Law Reg. 152.

As to effect of defendant's failure to answer allegation in the bill, ee Clinch River Mineral Co. v. Harrison, 91 Va. 122, 21 S. E. 660, 1 Va. aw Reg. 45.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 418; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1438-1441; regory's Forms No. 138.

Sec. 6129. Pleadings may be sworn to before clerk; affidavit of elief sufficient.—Any bill, answer, or other pleading to be filed n any court, may be sworn to before the clerk thereof; and where n affidavit is required in support of any pleading or as a pre-equisite to the issuance thereof, it shall be sufficient, if the affiant wear that he believes it to be true. (Code 1887, § 3282.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "or as a prerequisite to the issuance hereof," appearing in lines three and four of the text, are new.

Applied in Southern Ry. Co. v. Washington, A. & Mt. V. Ry. Co., 02 Va. 483, 46 S. E. 784.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 564; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 412.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 139, 144, 146, 149, 203, 204, 205.

Sec. 6130. Judgment or decree by confession in vacation; how ntered; its validity.—In any suit a defendant may in vacation of the court and whether the suit be on the court docket or n fess a judgment in the clerk's office for so much principal terest as the plaintiff may be willing to accept a judgmen cree for. The same shall be entered of record by the clerk order or minute book and be as final and as valid as if en court on the day of such confession, except merely that th shall have such control over it as is given by section sixty-o dred and forty. And the said clerk shall enter upon the ma such book opposite where the said judgment or decree is the date and time of the day at which the same was confes the lien of the said judgment or decree shall run only from of day of the confession. (Code 1887, § 3283; 1897-8, p. 50

Digitized by Google

Revision of 1887.—It was believed that this section, as it s fore the revision of 1887, was intended to allow such confessio clerk's office during the vacation of the court only, and not du term, and that such confession might be made in a suit whethe pending at the rules or was upon the court docket. To prev fusion the phraseology of the former law was made to expre definitely this supposed intention. Burks' Address, 2 Barton (2d Ed.) 1402.

Section is mainly declaratory of the common law.—The s mainly declaratory of the common law, and only substantial co is required to validate such a judgment. Saunders v. Lipscomb 647, 19 S. E. 450; Manson v. Rawlings, 112 Va. 384, 71 S. E.

Confession by attorney in fact.—A judgment may be conf an attorney in fact, though the attorney is not a lawyer, and th of attorney may be executed before the action is brought (In Barley's Adm'r, 16 Grat. 363); and need not be under seal (A
v. Alexander, 85 Va. 353, 7 S. E. 335, 1 L. R. A. 125).

A power of attorney executed by a firm and the judgment thereunder are valid. Alexander v. Alexander, 85 Va. 363, 365 335, 1 L. R. A. 125.

Entry of the confession upon the order book.—A judgment in a clerk's office, though no process appears to have been i served, and though the clerk failed to enter it upon the order o book, or any other book in his office, and the only evidence of unsigned memorandum indorsed on a declaration which seems been filed, and the bond enclosed in the declaration, is a valid j and entitled to rank as such against other creditors of the Shadrack's Adm'r v. Woolfolk, 32 Grat. 707; Saunders v. L
90 Va. 647, 19 S. E. 450.

If the entry of a judgment confessed in the office upon the minute book has not been made at the time of its confession, may make the entry at any time, and if he fails to do it the c at any time direct him to make the entry. Shadrack's Adm'r folk, 32 Grat. 707.

The provision for entry of the judgment on the order or min is directory only, and, if in fact confessed, the judgment will b though not entered on that or any other book in his office, but e merely by authenticated memoranda of the clerk taking the co Manson v. Rawlings, 112 Va. 384, 71 S. E. 564.

Generally.—A judgment confessed in the clerk's office is no because there was no suit pending and no previous process issue enbrough's Ex'x v. Brockenbrough's Adm'r, 31 Grat. 580, 59 rack's Adm'r v. Woolfolk, 32 Grat. 707; Saunders v. Lipscomb
647, 19 S. E. 450.

It seems that one of several joint defendants may confess j
Mills v. Central Sav. Bank, 16 Grat. 94.

Though bill is confessed as to all sureties except one and (2732)

Digitized by Google

tute of limitations, which prevails, no decree can be entered against y of them, as the defense of one inures to the benefit of all. Ashley Bell's Adm'r, 80 Va. 811.

The last clause of statute overturns rule laid down in Hockman v. ckman, 93 Va. 455, 25 S. E. 534, 57 Am. St. Rep. 816, 3 Va. Law g. 462. See section 6470.

Clerk may enter his own confession of judgment in favor of his editor, and it will be valid; he acts purely as a ministerial officer. ith v. Mayo, 83 Va. 910, 5 S. E. 276.

This section only authorizes a confession of judgment in the clerk's ice in vacation. Brown v. Hume, 16 Grat. 456.

A judgment confessed in the clerk's office on the morning of the st day of the term of the court before the hour for the opening of the urt is a judgment confessed in vacation and is valid. Id.

For discussion of powers of corporate agents to confess judgment, note to Irvine v. Randolph Lumber Corp., 16 Va. Law Reg. 759.

See Graves Pleading 44; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 424, 564; Barton, Pr. (2d Ed.) 258, 919; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 395; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 727, 8, 960, 1439; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 261, 262, 292, 608, 610.

For. W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis Annotations, apter 125, section 43.

Sec. 6131. Same in office by default; order for inquiry of damages.—If a defendant, who appears, fail to plead, answer, or demur to the declaration or bill, a rule may be given him to plead. he fail to appear at the rule day at which the process against n is returned executed, or, when it is returnable to a term, at e first rule day after it is so returned, the plaintiff, if he has ed his declaration or bill, may have a conditional judgment or cree nisi as to such defendant. No service of such decree nisi conditional judgment shall be necessary. But at the next rule y after the same is entered, if the defendant continue in default, or at the expiration of any rule upon him with which he ls to comply, if the case be in equity, the bill shall be entered taken for confessed as to him, and, if it be at law, judgment all be entered against him, with an order for the damages to be inired into, when such inquiry is proper. (Code 1887, § 3284.)

Common order cannot be entered until plaintiff has filed his deration (Waugh v. Carter, 2 Munf. 333); nor until writ has been rned (Winchester v. Bank, Id. 339; Crews v. Garland, Id. 491).

The conditional judgment or decree nisi is proper only when the fendant fails to appear at the return day of the process. If he appears, t fails to plead, answer, or demur, then, and only then, a rule is ven him to plead at the next rules. 6 Va. Law Reg. 484. See, also, Va. Law Reg. 414.

A judgment by default on an instrument of writing for the payent of money, on which an endorsement of a credit is made by the aintiff himself, ought to be entered subject to such credit, or, if the aintiff refuses to take the judgment in that way, a writ of inquiry ould be awarded. Rees v. Bank, 5 Rand. 326, 16 Am. Dec. 755.

An office judgment entered upon a declaration which is blank as the sums sued for is erroneous, and should be reversed, though the rrect amount be named in the writ. Blane v. Sansum, 2 Call 495 d Ed. 415). But see Terry v. Dickinson, 75 Va. 475.

Where defendant has appeared and pleaded, no inquiry of damages necessary. George Campbell Co. v. Angus, 91 Va. 438, 22 S. E. 167, Va. Law Reg. 224.

An order of inquiry of damages, where it is necessary, is confined to cases where the defendant has not appeared and pleaded. V issue is made by the pleadings, and it is tried by a jury, then at the same time that they try the issue, assess the damages; in such case no writ of inquiry is necessary. This is the usual memorial practice. George Campbell Co. v. Angus, 91 Va. 443, 167, and cases there cited.

Digitized by Google

This and section 5462 having dispensed with the necess rule to plead before entry of a default judgment in ejectme there has been no appearance the fact that no such rule wa as directed by a court order, was not ground for vacation of judgment long after the term at which it was rendered. King 137 Fed. 198, 11 Va. Law Reg. 178, and note.

There should be an order for inquiry of damages in e James River & Kanawha Co. v. Lee, 16 Grat. 424.

The statute of jeofails has no effect upon a judgment by de want of appearance. Hatcher v. Lewis, 4 Rand. 152.

As to effect of bill taken for confessed, see 1 Va. Law R Price v. Thrash, 30 Grat. 515, 522; Welsh v. Solenberger, 85 443, 8 S. E. 91; Thomson v. Wooster, 114 U. S. 104, 5 Sup. 29 L. Ed. 105; Hefner v. Northwestern Mut. Life Ins. Co., 123 U 8 Sup. Ct. 337, 31 L. Ed. 309.

See Graves Pleading 45, 46; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 3 Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 814; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 684, 720, 1348

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Ann chapter 125, section 44.

Sec. 6132. In what cases, inquiry of damages unnece

There need be no such inquiry in any action upon a bond writing for the payment of money, or against the drawe dorser of a bill of exchange or negotiable note, or in an a scire facias upon a judgment or recognizance, or in an upon an account, wherein the plaintiff shall serve the de at the same time and in the same manner that the process mons to commence the suit or action is served, with a co tified by the clerk of the court in which the suit or a brought) of the account on which the suit or action is stating distinctly the several items of his claim, and the a amount thereof, and the time from which he claims interest and the credits, if any, to which the defendant may be But this section shall not apply to any action on an acc which the process is served by publication. (Code 1887,

Where the defendant has appeared and pleaded, no inquiry ages is necessary. George Campbell Co. v. Angus, 91 Va. 438, 167.

When the issue made by the pleadings is tried by a jury, jury assess damages at the same time as they try the issue such case no writ of inquiry is necessary. George Campbel Angus, 91 Va. 438, 22 S. E. 167.

An order for an inquiry of damages should be entered case of ejectment. James River & Kanawha Co. v. Lee, 16 G

In action of debt on a decree for money, an inquiry of da proper. Shelton's Ex'rs v. Welsh's Adm'rs, 7 Leigh 175.

A judgment at rules in a clerk's office cannot lawfully be m on a declaration for money lent, and not alleged to be founde specialty, bill, or note in writing until a writ of inquiry has been and executed. Hunt v. McRea, 6 Munf. 454.

A judgment cannot be entered without a writ of inquiry in action on insurance policy providing that, if there be other i

Digitized by Google

the property, the loss, if any, shall be adjusted among the separate surers, as such policy is not such a "writing for the payment of money" is contemplated by this section. Commercial Union Assur. Co. v. erhart's Adm'r, 88 Va. 952, 14 S. E. 836.

Appearance bail is not required in actions of debt on bonds with llateral conditions, and in such cases it is error to enter a judgment by fault against the sheriff for not returning appearance bail. Ruffin v. ll, 2 Wash. 181 (2d Ed. 233).

An action upon a scire facias takes the same course as an ordinary tion at law in which a writ of inquiry is dispensed with. King v. vis, 137 Fed. 198, 11 Va. Law Reg. 185.

For cases upon negotiable notes before the statute, see Metcalfe v. ttaile, Gilmer 191; Hatcher v. Lewis, 4 Rand. 152.

See Graves Pleading 43, 117; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 334, 564, 5, 1034; 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 639; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 724; Burks' Pleading d Practice, pp. 150, 263, 264.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 125, section 45.

Sec. 6133. When, in action of assumpsit, no plea in bar to be ceived, or inquiry of damages made, unless defendant file with ea affidavit denying plaintiff's claim, but judgment given there-r.—In an action of assumpsit on a contract, express or implied, r the payment of money (except where the process to answer e action has been served by publication), if the plaintiff file with s declaration an affidavit made by himself or his agent, stating erein to the best of the affiant's belief the amount of the plain-f's claim, that such amount is justly due, and the time from ich the plaintiff claims interest, and shall serve the defendant, the same time and in the same manner that the process or sum-ons to commence the suit or action is served, with a copy of such idavit certified by the clerk of the court in which the suit or tion is brought, together with a copy of the account (when an count is filed with the declaration), no plea in bar shall be re-ived from a defendant sued in his own right, either at rules or court, unless the defendant files with his plea the affidavit of mself or his agent, that the plaintiff is not entitled, as the af-nt verily believes, to recover anything from the defendant on ch claim, or stating a sum certain less than that set forth in the idavit filed by the plaintiff, which, as the affiant verily believes, all that the plaintiff is entitled to recover from the defendant on ch claim. If such plea and affidavit be not filed by the defend-t, there shall be no inquiry of damages, but judgment shall be r the plaintiff for the amount claimed in the affidavit filed with s declaration. If such plea and affidavit be filed, and the affidavit mits that the plaintiff is entitled to recover from the defendant sum certain less than that stated in the affidavit filed by the aintiff, judgment may be taken by the plaintiff for the sum so mitted to be due, and the case be tried as to the residue. (Code 87, § 3286; 1916, p. 16.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "from a defendant sued in his own ht," appearing in line thirteen of the text, are new. This amendment (2735)

Digitized by Google

enables representatives of parties under disability to make de out affidavit.

Origin of section—Its object—Substantial compliance.—T originated with the revision of 1887, and was intended mainly delay. Burks' Address, 2 Barton Law Pr. (2d Ed.) 1390.

This section was enacted to prevent the filing of sham purposes of delay, and a substantial compliance is all that i Carpenter v. Gray, 113 Va. 518, 75 S. E. 300.

An affidavit accompanying a plea of non-assumpsit "th stated in the annexed plea are true" is a substantial complianc provisions of this section. Jackson v. Dotson, 110 Va. 46, 65

Sufficiency of affidavit.—The affidavit need not state, terms, that the affiant is the plaintiff in the action, if it use which plainly shows that he is the plaintiff. Carpenter v. Gra
518, 75 S. E. 300.

The affidavit of the president of a corporation, in the abse averment therein of his agency, or any other evidence on the not a sufficient compliance with this section. Jones & Co. v.
Sons, 117 Va. 511, 85 S. E. 460. But see section 276 and rev

An affidavit made by plaintiff's bookkeeper is insufficient t judgment in favor of plaintiff, since a bookkeepr, in the absen showing his authority, is a servant, rather than an agent, of the whom he is employed. Merriman Co. v. Thomas & Co., 103
Va. Law Reg. 520, 523, and note; 48 S. E. 490. See section

Affidavit filed with declaration in assumpsit under this sect state the time from which plaintiff claims interest. Merrin Thomas, 103 Va. 24, 48 S. E. 490.

Compliance and non-compliance with section by defend section is complied with where the defendant orally directe file for him a plea of non-assumpsit and lodged with the cle affidavit. Moreland v. Moreland, 108 Va. 93, 60 S. E. 730.

If plea without affidavit be filed at rules, a motion m third subsequent term to strike out plea was rightfully gr the case stood before the motion was granted as though nc been tendered at rules. Grigg v. Dalsheimer, 88 Va. 508, 13

Although pleas have been filed unaccompanied by affidavi without objection on the part of the plaintiff, yet if they are and new pleas are tendered by the defendant, the plaintiff on the lack of an affidavit as a valid objection to such Spencer's Adm'r v. Field, 97 Va. 38, 33 S. E. 380, note 5
Reg. 158.

Where plaintiff has filed affidavit with declaration and accompanied by affidavit be filed, the case should be placed o judgment docket for next term after the case is matured to be along with other office judgments. If, through error, the cas on the writ of inquiry docket, and unsworn pleas be filed, an continued to another term, and the plaintiff moves to strike out because not sworn to, and court overrules motion and co on the pleas, which results in a verdict for defendant, this cou a writ of error awarded to the plaintiff, set aside the verdict, the pleas, and enter final judgment for the plaintiff. Price v. M
Va. 18, 48 S. E. 499.

Section is for benefit of plaintiff—Waiver and estoppel.—T is for the benefit of the plaintiff but he will be deemed to have where he makes no objection when the plea is tendered withou affidavit and where he accepts without objection a continuan case until the next term of court "with leave to the defend within fifteen days his grounds of defense." Jackson v. Do
Va. 46, 65 S. E. 484.

The provision that defendant's plea shall be verified by a in the interest of the plaintiff, who may waive it, or by his c estopped from asserting it. He cannot insist on it after hav e on such plea without objection. Lewis' Adm'r v. Hicks, 96 Va. 91, 3. E. 466.

Digitized by Google

Asking for a continuance after the court had erroneously set aside office judgment based upon an affidavit filed with the declaration er this section, does not amount to a waiver of a plaintiff's rights er this section. Carpenter v. Gray, 113 Va. 518, 75 S. E. 300.

The provision that the defendant's plea shall be verified by affidavit o prevent delay where no real defense exists. It is in the interest he plaintiff, who may waive it or by his conduct be estopped to take antage of it. He cannot insist on it after the defendant, at the ntiff's request, consents to the postponement of a case until a later of the term, and the court adjourns before that day arrives. Mum- l Banking Co. v. Farmers Bank, 116 Va. 449, 82 S. E. 112.

The plaintiff may waive, or be estopped from asserting, his right ave judgment entered in his favor for the amount claimed by him in affidavit filed with the declaration, although the defendant has failed comply with the provisions of this section. Carpenter v. Gray, 113 518, 75 S. E. 300.

Generally.—If there be a variance, as to the time from which in- st is claimed, between the declaration and the affidavit, the latter will trol, when it is in favor of the defendant, no defense being made. penter v. Gray, 113 Va. 518, 75 S. E. 300.

Under similar West Virginia statute requiring affidavit to be made t the claim is "due and unpaid," an affidavit that the claim is "due" ot sufficient. Marstiller v. Ward, 52 W. Va. 74, 43 S. E. 178.

The West Virginia statute also requires the affidavit to state that sum is due and unpaid "after deducting all payments, credits and offs." An affidavit omitting the words in quotation was held insuf- ent. Vinson v. Norfolk, 37 W. Va. 598, 16 S. E. 802.

Declaration of four counts charge that defendants are common car- s, that they received goods which they agreed for compensation to ry, and that they failed to perform their duty in carrying the same— counts are in case and not in assumpsit. Southern Express Co. v. Veigh, 20 Grat. 264.

Assumpsit lies to recover for use and occupation of houses and ds, but it must be founded on a contract express or implied, and will lie where possession is under adverse title. Lloyd v. Hough, 1 How. . 11 L. Ed. 83.

Cited but not construed in Diebold v. Tatterson, 115 Va. 766, 80 E. 585; Clement v. Adams Bros.-Paynes Co., 113 Va. 547, 75 S. E. , 18 Va. L. Reg. 437 and note; Gring v. Land Co., 110 Va. 754, 67 E. 360; Geo. Campbell Co. v. Angus, 91 Va. 438, 443, 22 S. E. 167.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 723; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 564; Graves ading, 44, 99, 117; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 100, 150, 263, , 269, 741.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 607, 608; section 376 and revisors' note.

Sec. 6134. When judgment entered in office to become final; w entered; its effect as a lien.—Every judgment entered in the ice in a case wherein there is no order for an inquiry of dam- es, and every non-suit or dismission entered therein, shall, if t previously set aside, become a final judgment, if the case be in circuit court, on the adjournment of the next term or at the se of the fifteenth day thereof (whichever shall happen first), if the case be in the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond, or the Law and Equity Court of the said city, or in the Court of w and Chancery of the city of Norfolk, or in the Court of Law d Chancery of the city of Roanoke, and be matured at the rules, d docketed during the term of the court, on the adjournment of

Digitized by Google

As to whether the proviso in this section applies to dec taken for confessed, see Robinson v. Mays, 76 Va. 708.

See Graves Pleading 46; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 267, 3 555, 560, 561, 1037; 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 639; 3 Min. (2d Min. (3d Ed.) 638, 645, 720, 722-724, 783, 960, 1349; Bur and Practice, pp. 95, 263, 275, 277, 619. See notes to sectio

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' chapter 125, section 46.

Sec. 6135. When and how a judgment entered in t aside; when issue to be tried.—If a defendant again judgment is entered in the office, whether an order for of damages has been made therein or not, shall, before final, appear and plead to issue, and shall, in the cases in section sixty-one hundred and thirty-three, in which is required, file such affidavit with his plea, the judgm set aside, unless an order for inquiry of damages has bee in which case it shall not be set aside without good cause issue may be tried at the same term, unless the defendant cause for a continuance. (Code 1887, § 3288.)

What pleas should be received.—After office judgment, t discretionary power to admit any plea which appears neces defendant's defence, though not issuable, and should refuse i delay seems to be intended. Downman v. Downman's Ex'rs,

Where pleas are offered on setting aside an office ju court may exercise sound discretion about receiving them, receive none (if objected to) that do not go to the merits o Wyche v. Macklin, 2 Rand. 426.

A general demurrer is an issuable plea which ought to for the purpose of setting aside an office judgment. Sym 4 Hen. & M. 277. So is the plea of non est factum. Fra 4 Rand. 448. Also the plea of the statute of limitation Adm'r v. How's Adm'r, Gilmer 1.

A defective plea ought not to be received by the court an office judgment. Gray v. Campbell, 3 Munf. 251.

A plea puis darrien continuance may be pleaded after ment and before the end of the last quarterly term. Hunt v 2 Call 49 (2d Ed. 41), 1 Am. Dec. 534.

A plea in abatement ought not to be received to set as judgment unless it be of matter which arose puis darrien Bradley v. Welch, 1 Munf. 284; Wall v. Atwell, 21 Grat. 4

Generally.—The defendant might be ruled to trial in court at the first term after the office judgment. Mandevill ville, 3 Call 225.

In an action on the case, if there be an office judgment defendant, with a writ of inquiry, and afterwards without the cause, the jury be sworn as if there were an issue, a be found for the defendant, the verdict will be set aside and directed. McMillion v. Dobbins, 9 Leigh 422. But see Bri 99 Va. 275, 38 S. E. 148, note 6 Va. Law Reg. 853; section

If a circuit court, after the fifteenth day, sets aside an ment and the execution which had issued upon it and per fendant to plead, the plaintiff may have supersedeas from and, though that part of the order setting aside the judgm locutory, the appellate court will set aside the whole ord Ex'rs v. Burch, 15 Grat. 64.

The defendant in ejectment may, upon notice to the pear at the next term of the court, and move the court to judgment, and allow him to plead therein. Smithson v. Bri 180.

Digitized by Google

t seems that the defendant in an action of ejectment may have the judgment set aside and plead to issue at any time before the writ quiry is executed. James River & Kanawha Co. v. Lee, 16 Grat.

Where, in ejectment, the defendants were in default, and the case ripe for final judgment without a writ of inquiry at the time an was entered reciting that, defendants' time to plead having expired, s ordered that the case be set for inquiry at the next term, and that erk notify defendants thereof by mail, the entry of such order was re irregularity, and did not affect the validity of a final judgment quently entered. King v. Davis, 137 Fed. 198, 11 Va. Law Reg. 179. f an office judgment is set aside by a plea to the merits at one term e court, and, at a subsequent term, the plea is stricken out because e insufficiency of the affidavit supporting it, the office judgment is by reinstated and having become final at the term at which the plea nterposed, the trial court was thereafter powerless to amend the ings. Jones & Co. v. Hancock & Sons, 117 Va. 511, 85 S. E. 460. Cited in George Campbell Co. v. Angus, 91 Va. 438, 22 S. E. 167. See Graves Pleading 46; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 485, 560; 4 Min. Ed.) 685, 752, 1277; Burks' Pleading and practice, pp. 263, 276,

See Gregory's Forms No. 231.

. 6136. Although bill taken for confessed, plaintiff may still ed against defendant by attachment, etc.—Although a bill be for confessed as to any defendant, the plaintiff may have an hment against him, or an order for him to be brought in to er interrogatories. No plea or demurrer shall be received such attachment, unless by order of court, upon motion e 1887, § 3289.)

ee 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 639; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1429.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, r 125, section 48.

. 6137. Enforcement of process of contempt.—If a defendant, process of contempt, put in an answer which is adjudged insuf-t, the plaintiff may go on with the process of contempt as if swer had been filed. (Code 1887, § 3290.)

Upon the question of contempts generally, see Postal Tel. Cable Co. & W. R. Co., 88 Va. 929, 14 S. E. 691; Com. v. Dandridge, 2 Va. 41; Wells v. Com., 21 Grat. 509, and note Va. Rep. Anno.; Hook ss, 1 Hen. & M. 310; 1 Min. (4th Ed.) 639; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) section 4521 and notes.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, r 125, section 49.

. 6138. When suit in equity set for hearing.—Whenever an r in equity is filed at rules, it shall be the ex officio duty of erk to enter a general replication thereto for the plaintiff at me rules at which the answer is filed, which replication, how-may be withdrawn at the hearing by the plaintiff; and when-a suit in equity is matured at rules as to all of the defendants, ll be the ex officio duty of the clerk, as soon as the same is red, to set the case for hearing as to them, and place it on ourt docket. If the suit be matured as to only a part of the dants, the plaintiff may have it set for hearing as to such and if one of the defendants has answered and one month

Digitized by Google

elapse after the filing of his answer without the case be the defendant may have the case set for hearing at the himself, but the trial court shall have discretion to po hearing until the cause has been further matured as to of the other defendants. (Code 1887, § 3291.)

Revisors' Note.—This section differs materially from sect the Code of 1887. The purpose of the changes is to speed

If a cause is set for hearing on bill and answer, the be considered as true in all its parts. Kennedy v. Baylor, 1
Jones v. Mason, 5 Rand. 577, 16 Am. Dec. 761.

The only effect of the omission of replication to an ans all the facts stated in such answer are admitted. Kennedy Wash. 162; Pickett v. Chilton, 5 Munf. 467. See above se ex-officio duty of the clerk.

As to filing a replication nunc pro tunc and effect thereo former law, see Dabney v. Preston's Adm'rs, 25 Grat. 838.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 256; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1348,

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A
chapter 125, section 50.

Sec. 6139. When suit in equity heard as to part of d how plaintiff compelled to mature his cause or have it how court may make new parties to suit.—If a suit in set for hearing as to any defendant, it shall be heard unless his interests be so connected with those of other in the suit that it would be improper to decide upon the separately; and though there be such connection, a def to whom the case has been set for hearing, may have upon the plaintiff to use due diligence to mature the hearing as to the other defendants, and unless it be s within such time as the court may deem reasonable, sh titled to a hearing or dismission of it as to him; and i where full justice cannot be done, or the whole controv without the presence of new parties to the suit, the court may direct the clerk to issue the proper process against parties, and upon the maturing of the case as to them, make such orders or decrees as would have been proper parties had been made parties at the commencement o
(Code 1887, § 3292.)

Upon a bill in chancery by a distributee against an ad and his surety, alleging that the administrator has not dul and praying an account, the bill is taken pro confesso as to t trator; but the surety answers, and proves that the plaintif and final settlement, has released the administrator, and so tled to an account, upon which the chancellor dismisses th costs. Held, the bill was properly dismissed as to both Cartigne v. Raymond, 4 Leigh 579.

On the hearing of the suit in chancery, if it be discover cause is not matured for the hearing as to some of the defend whom the plaintiff appears to have a claim in equity, the bil to be dismissed upon the merits, but only as to those defend whom there is no equity. As to the other defendants, it sho back to the rules for further proceedings, notwithstanding t may have been negligent and the cause was prematurely set upon his motion. Key v. Hord, 4 Munf. 485.

Digitized by Google

As to consolidation of causes, see Claiborne v. Gross, 7 Leigh 331. Cited but not construed in James' Ex'r v. Life, 92 Va. 702, 24 S. E.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 209, 257.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, pter 125, section 51.

ec. 6140. Control by court over proceedings in office.—The rt shall have control over all proceedings in the office during preceding vacation. It may reinstate any cause discontinued ing such vacation, set aside any of the said proceedings, or rect any mistake therein, and make such order concerning the ie as may be just. (Code 1887, § 3293.)

Generally.—Though the proceedings at rules be irregular, they can- afterwards be cured by proceedings at rules, but must be corrected the court. Southall's Adm'r v. Exchange Bank, 12 Grat. 312.

Where an office judgment is improperly entered in debt on a decree money, this is a clerical error, which the court may properly correct subsequent term. Shelton's Ex'rs v. Welsh's Adm'rs, 7 Leigh 175.

An irregularity committed at rules may be corrected at the next n of the court, and the plaintiff may be allowed to withdraw a de- ive replication and reply. Southall's Adm'r v. Exchange Bank, 12 t. 312.

When an office judgment becomes final, and is so entered by the k, any clerical error in such judgment may be corrected by the rt at a subsequent term. Eubank v. Ralls' Ex'r, 4 Leigh 308-317.

If the proceedings in the office judgment are so irregular that the se is not properly on the office judgment docket, the court should and it to the rules for proper proceedings. Wall v. Atwell, 21 t. 401.

The jurisdiction of the court is in no wise dependent on the regu- ty of the proceedings in the office. Wohlford v. Trinkle, 90 Va. 227, S. E. 873.

The power conferred by this section must be exercised by the court term, not by the judge in vacation. Chase v. Miller, 88 Va. 791, , 14 S. E. 545.

On a motion to remand a case to rules because the clerk had not en the rules maturing the case for hearing, it is not error for the trial rt to overrule the motion, retain the case and require the clerk to er the proper rules on the rule book maturing the case for hearing; ppearing that the defendant was in no wise prejudiced by the failure he clerk to take the rules at the proper time. Southern Express Co. acobs, 109 Va. 27, 63 S. E. 17.

Where actions at law were cognizable only at quarterly terms, the ion to set aside any of the proceedings in the office in such actions e cognizable only at a quarterly term. Therefore the proceedings vacation referred to above means, in its application to such cases, the rval between the quarterly terms of the court. Ins. Co. v. Barley's n'r, 16 Grat. 363.

Under this section, a court has the right to dismiss an action be- se the declaration was not filed within the time prescribed by section 9, if the clerk does not dismiss it; but, even though the clerk did not niss, the court cannot relieve the plaintiff from the consequences of his lect, without excuse, when the effect of leave to file the declaration uld be to deprive the defendant of an accrued right to plead the ute of limitations. Wickham v. Green, 111 Va. 199, 68 S. E. 259; 16 Va. Law Reg. 365, 385 and 467.

A case dismissed by the clerk, under section 6079, for failure to the declaration within the time prescribed by the statute, cannot be nstated in the absence of sufficient legal reasons therefor. Jennings Pocahontas Collieries Co., 114 Va. 213, 76 S. E. 298.

Digitized by Google

Where a court, acting under this section, corrects a the clerk and dismisses a case because of the failure of the file his declaration under section 6078. it will not be reinst absence of sufficient legal reasons therefor. Mere negligence is an insufficient reason. Furthermore, in the instant case it that a reinstatement would deprive the defendant of his defe statute of limitations. Trent v. Clinchfield Coal Corp., 11
89 S. E. 921.

Cited but not construed in N. & W. R. Co. v. Coffey, 104
S. E. 367; Carpenter v. Gray, 113 Va. 518, 75 S. E. 300;
Stove Co., 111 Va. 147, 68 S. E. 266.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 424; Barton, C. Pr. (2d 258; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 664, 685, 784, 1349; Graves Pleading Pleading and Practice, pp. 274, 598, 608; notes under sect 6079.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A
chapter 125, section 60.

CHAPTER 255.

Payment and Set-Off.

Sec.		Sec.
6141.	Payment before action brought may be pleaded.	6145.	Special plea of se
6142.	Defendant may pay into court a sum on account of matter of suit, and plead that plaintiff is not entitled to more.	6146.	Proceedings ther fect of plea on equity.
6143.	Proceedings thereupon.	6147.	Effect of chapter tary bonds.
6144.	Payment or set-off may be allowed, if described in plea or account; when allowed, though claim against several, and debt only to part of them.	6148.	If plea or set-off g only of demand, proceeded in.
		6149.	Defendant, claimi put on footing of
		6150.	Other proceedings

Sec. 6141. Payment before action brought may be pl any action for the recovery of a debt, the defendant payment of the debt (or of so much as is due by the before action brought. (Code 1887, § 3295.)

Revisors' Note.—This section formerly applied to "any debt." Now it applies to "any action for the recovery of a was thought that the right to plead payment should not be re the action of debt, especially in view of the wide scope now g action of assumpsit and proceedings by motion under section

As to the application of payments, see Hill v. Gregory, Lightfoot v. Price, 4 Hen. & M. 431; Donally v. Wilson, 5
Smith v. Loyd, 11 Leigh 512 (2d Ed. 535), 37 Am. Dec. 6
v. Trevilian, 2 Rob. 1; Vance v. Monroe, 4 Grat. 52; Ross' Lauchlan's Adm'r, 7 Grat. 86; Schofield v. Cox, 8 Grat. 533;
McCall, 21 Grat. 205; McClintic v. Wise's Adm'rs, 25 Grat. 4
Rep. 694; Chapman v. Com., 25 Grat. 721; Fultz v. Davis, 26
Gordon v. Fitzhugh, 27 Grat. 835; Grubbs v. Wysors, 32

Digitized by Google

gle v. Cook's Adm'rs, 32 Grat. 262; Coles v. Withers, 33 Grat. 186; garity v. Shipman, 82 Va. 784, 1 S. E. 109; Munford v. McVeigh's m'r, 92 Va. 446, 23 S. E. 857.

For case before the statute, see Faulkner's Adm'x v. Brockenbrough, Rand. 245.

See, also, Graves Pleading 83; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 354, 392; 4 Min. d Ed.) 783; 4 Va. Law Reg. 770.

Form of plea of payment. 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1740.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 126, section 1.

Sec. 6142. Defendant may pay into court a sum on account of tter of suit, and plead that plaintiff is not entitled to more.—In any personal action, the defendant may pay into court, to the rk, a sum of money on account of what is claimed, or by way compensation or amends, and plead that he is not indebted to e plaintiff (or that the plaintiff has not sustained damages) to a eater amount than the said sum. (Code 1887, § 3296.)

See Graves Pleading 91; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 737.

Form of plea upon payment of money into court, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 41.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 126, section 2.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 169, 217.

Sec. 6143. Proceedings thereupon.—The plaintiff may accept the d sum either in full satisfaction, and then have judgment for his sts, or in part satisfaction, and reply to the plea generally, and, issue thereon be found for the defendant, judgment shall be given r the defendant, and he shall recover his costs. (Code 1887, 3297.)

See Graves Pleading 91; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 737.

Sec. 6144. Payment or set-off may be allowed if described in ea or account; when allowed, though claim against several, and bt only to part of them.—In an action for any debt, the defendt may at the trial prove, and have allowed against such debt, y payment or set-off which is so described in his plea, or in an count filed with the papers in the cause, as to give the plaintiff tice of its nature, but not otherwise. Although the claim of the aintiff be jointly against several persons, and the set-off is of a bt not to all but only to a part of them, this section shall extend such set-off, if it appear that the persons, against whom such aim is, stand in the relation of principal and surety, and the per- n entitled to the set-off is the principal. And when the defendt is allowed to file and prove an account of set-off to the plainff's demand, the plaintiff shall be allowed to file and prove an count of counter set-off, and make such other defense as he ight have made had an original action been brought upon such t-off, and in the issue, the judge (if the case be tried without a ry), or the jury shall ascertain the true state of indebtedness etween the parties and judgment shall be rendered accordingly. Code 1887, § 3298.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "or in an account filed with the papers

Digitized by Google

in the cause," found in lines three and four of the text, are u of, "or in an account FILED THEREWITH." Under the fo guage it appeared necessary for the defendant to file a plea of with the account, but the practice was generally otherwise. S sion in Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 444. In order to put the questi the change above pointed out was made, so as expressly to account to be filed with the papers in the cause, instead of w thus conforming to the practice.

The last sentence of the present section is new. Whetl counter set-offs were allowable prior to the revision had not cided, so far as the revisors were informed, but apparently the recognized in Sexton v. Aultman, 92 Va. 20, 22 S. E. 838. It w best, however, to settle the question, and the last sentence r is taken from the Code of West Virginia (Hogg, 1913) section Liberal construction.—This statute should be liberally with a view to the furtherance of its obvious policy, which is multiplicity of suits, and as far as conveniently can be done to in one action complete justice between the parties. Allen v Grat. 722, 729; Richardson Co. v. Whiting L. Co., 116 Va. 49

87; Tidewater Quarry Co. v. Scott, 105 Va. 162, 52 S. E. 835.

Demands which may be set off.—Defendant in an action sit may set-off a claim for the conversion of his property b Tidewater Quarry Co. v. Scott, 104 Va. 269, 52 S. E. 835.

Though unliquidated damages to be ascertained by the
of a jury cannot be set off, unliquidated damages to be asse pecuniary demands, in all cases where indebitatus assumpsit may be set off. Richardson Co. v. Whiting L. Co., 116 Va.
E. 87.

S. as principal and H. as his surety executed their bond owes S. and N., partners, an account, and N. assigns it to S. bankrupt. The assignee in bankruptcy of E. sues H. on the may plead the account as set-off. Edmunds' Assignee v. H
Grat. 637.

F. is indebted to D. by bond, which after it is due is assi to C., but before notice of assignment F. becomes surety for D.
to B. D. becomes insolvent. Held, F. is entitled in equity the amount of the bond in which he is D.'s surety, though n (unless he is indemnified against his surety), against his ow
D. in the hands of C., the assignee. Feazle v. Dillard, 5 Leigh 3

H. and N. are merchants and partners. H. sells out to M. firm undertakes to pay the debts of the old. H. becomes indeb new firm, for which he executes his bond with two sureties bond is assigned to A. The new firm afterwards fails, and H. of old firm. Held, H. is entitled in equity to set off against h
the hand of the assignee the debts of the old concern N., which M. and N. were bound to pay, and which H. had pa
v. Hupp, 6 Grat. 310.

A judgment debtor may set up in equity against the credi ment the beneficial interest of such debtor in a decree in receiver of another court against such creditor. Stuart's Ex'r
97 Va. 796, 34 S. E. 696.

In an action upon a bond by Y. against W. and two being the principal in the bond, the defendants may set off a by P. against Y. which had been assigned to W. Wartman v Grat. 595. See Gordon v. Rixey's Adm'r, 86 Va. 853, 11 S. E.

As to setting off judgments against each other, see 6 Va.
122.

A clerk of court may set off fees due him against an act bond by the party from whom they are due. Craigon's Ex'x v Leigh 627.

Purchaser from a vendee, who was entitled to an abatemen

Digitized by Google

ount of the purchase money for the failure of the vendor to put him possession of a part of the land, may set off the amount to which the idee is so entitled against bonds for the purchase money given by the idee, though in the hands of an assignee. Taylor's Adm'r v. Spindle, Grat. 44. See Dobyns v. Rawley, 76 Va. 537.

Illegal interest paid may within a year be set off against suit by der for the principal. Munford v. McVeigh's Adm'r, 92 Va. 446, 23 E. 857.

One of three sureties who has paid the debt may offset the amount e him by his co-surety against an action on his own bond made pay- e to such co-surety, though in the hands of an assignee. Wayland v. cker, 4 Grat. 267, 50 Am. Dec. 76.

A. is indebted to D., E. & Co. by bond. A. dies, and, at the sale his estate by his executor, F., the acting partner of D., F. & Co., buys slave, which he carries to his own plantation, and there continues him. e amount of the purchase for the slave is a good discount against the nd. Rose v. Murchie, 2 Call 409 (2d Ed. 344).

Where a foreign corporation, having a first lien on stock registered in names of each member for liabilities to the corporation, reduces a im against a domestic corporation and its managing officer holding ck for damages for breach of contract, the judgment can, under this tion, be set off against the officers' suit at law for dividends. United garette Mach. Co. v. Winston C. Mach. Co., 194 Fed. 947.

Surety may set off the claim due his principal notwithstanding the ter's bankruptcy. Edmunds' Assignee v. Harper, 31 Grat. 637.

A surety of both A. and B. on distinct undertakings by them when ed with B. by A., may set off a debt due by A. to B., though arising of a different transaction, and though B. be bankrupt. U. S. v. hardson, 223 Fed. 1010; note on this case, 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 633.

Where defendant has dealt with agent, supposing him to be the sole ncipal, if an action be brought in the name of the principal, the de- ndant has the right to set off claims against such agent. Dixon Livery v. Bond, 117 Va. 656, 86 S. E. 106.

Though defendant has only equitable title, he may set off the claim action at law. Edmund's Assignee v. Harper, 31 Grat. 637; Wart- n v. Yost, 22 Grat. 595.

Demands which may not be set off.—Partnership demands and de- nd due to or by individual partners cannot be set off against each other. rter v. Nekervis, 4 Rand. 359; Ritchie v. Moore, 5 Munf. 388, 7 Am. c. 688; Scott v. Trent, 1 Wash. 77; Armistead v. Butler's Adm'r, 1 n. & M. 176. See Liberty Bank v. Campbell, 75 Va. 534.

In the absence of an agreement between the parties, or some special cumstances, such as insolvency or non-residence, unliquidated dam- s cannot be pleaded by way of set-off (Bunting v. Cochran, 99 Va. 3, 39 S. E. 229; Kinzie v. Riely's Ex'r, 100 Va. 713, 42 S. E. 872, note Va. Law Reg. 647; Webster v. Couch, 6 Rand. 519); even in equity angerfield v. Rootes, 1 Munf. 529).

Joint and separate demands cannot be set off against each other orter v. Nekervis, 4 Rand. 359; Glazebrook's Adm'r v. Ragland's m'r, 8 Grat. 332); except by agreement (Perkins' Adm'r v. Hawkins' m'x, 9 Grat. 649; Huffmans v. Walker, 26 Grat. 314); either at law in equity (Gilliat v. Lynch, 2 Leigh 493).

In an action by executor or administrator for money due decedent's ate, defendant cannot set off debts due by him to decedent (White v. nnister's Ex'rs, 1 Wash. 166; Brown's Adm'x v. Garland, Id. 221); his claim as one of the intestate's distributees. (Pullman v. nston, 5 Leigh 324; James v. Johnston, 22 Grat. 461); nor a debt e him for moneys paid as surety of intestate since his death (Minor v. nor's Adm'r, 8 Grat. 1); nor debts due him from the administrator ividually, either at law or in equity (Pulliam v. Winston, supra).

In an action by the assignee against the maker of a promissory e, the defendant cannot set off against it a bill of exchange for which the assignor is responsible unless it appear that such bill wa erty before he received notice of the assignment. Ritchie v Munf. 388, 7 Am. Dec. 688. See, also, Clopton's Adm'r v.

Digitized by Google

Leigh 278.

A set-off, as between the maker and the payee, acquire transfer of an overdue note, though acquired without notice o fer of the note, cannot be set off against the holder. Davi
14 Grat. 1.

A debtor of a bank cannot set off notes of the bank bo him after the executing and recording of a deed of assignm bank. Exchange Bank v. Knox, 19 Grat. 739; Saunders v.
Grat. 327; Farmers' Bank v. Anderson, 19 Grat. 739; Finney
27 Grat. 365.

The endorser of notes made by a firm of which he is a m held by the receivers of an insolvent bank, is not entitled against such notes the amount of an individual deposit due bank, when the makers of the note are solvent; but he can set-off when the makers are insolvent. Edmondson v. Thomas 326, 71 S. E. 536.

A surety who is a co-defendant with his principal can again the plaintiff a set-off he has against the plaintiff. Th in such case can set-off a demand due him by the plaintiff but can not. Stimmel v. Benthall, 108 Va. 141, 60 S. E. 765.

A defendant cannot set off a claim against the plaintiff i if the plaintiff's claim were in fact a partnership claim, thou his own name, and the defendant knew or ought to have kn existence of the partnership. Dixon Livery Co. v. Bond, 11
86 S. E. 106.

Statute treats payment and set-off together.—This sta payment and set-off together, and places them upon the same prescribing the mode of relying on them as matters of defe horne v. McGehee, 103 Va. 286, 49 S. E. 44.

Where the items of an account are so described as to gi notice of their character, the defendant may show either p set-offs. If the nature of the item be distinctly stated, the stat plied with, though the item be wrongly denominated. La McGehee, 103 Va. 281, 49 S. E. 44.

Payment made after suit brought.—In action of assumpsit non-assumpsit, not proper to prove payment made after bri Johnson v. Fry, 88 Va. 605, 12 S. E. 973, 14 S. E. 183.

Pleading and evidence.—A defendant may make the set-off other than the equitable set-off under section 6145, formal plea, or by notice of the set-off accompanied by an set-offs. If the defense be by plea the plaintiff must repl but if the defense be by notice there can be no replication, of limitation may be relied on without further pleading. S Aultman & Co., 92 Va. 20, 22 S. E. 838; Trimyer v. Polla 460.

In action on bond with collateral conditions when the is "conditions performed" the defendant is not entitled set-off. Botetourt County v. Burger, 86 Va. 530, 10 S. E. 26

Under plea of nil debit defendant cannot introduce payment or set-off, unless such payment or set-off be so particularly described in an account filed therewith as to gi notice of its nature. Richmond City & Seven Pines Ry. Co.
90 Va. 775, 20 S. E. 148. See 5 Va. Law Reg. 410. As to see Bell v. Crawford, 8 Grat. 110. See, also, Rice's Ex'r Adm'r, Id. 557; Peery's Adm'r v. Peery, 26 Grat. 320. Con word "therewith" formerly appearing in the statute, see rev above.

Additional set-offs.—Defendant may have leave to file an account of set-offs when it will not produce delay to the plain

Digitized by Google

necessary to attain the justice of the case. Perkins' Adm'r v. Hawkins' m'x, 9 Grat. 649.

Objections in appellate court.—Where a plea is not sworn to, such ect is not one for which judgment will be reversed where the judgnt appears to be substantially right. Grayson v. Buchanan, 88 Va. , 13 S. E. 457.

Though a set-off be not actually marked filed, yet if both parties, oughout the trial, treated it as a part of the record to be considered the jury and the court, the plaintiff will not be allowed to make obtion for the first time in the appellate court that the set-off was not perly filed. Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Potter, 110 Va. 427. 66 S. E. 34.

Generally.—The filing of a plea of set-off in excess of the plaintiff's nand does not confer the right to open and close the argument. ight v. Collins, 111 Va. 806, 69 S. E. 942.

A set-off is equivalent to an action, and where the amount disowed by the trial court exceeds $300, the amount in controversy is hin the jurisdiction of this court. Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Potter,) Va. 427, 66 S. E. 34.

The uniform practice is to allow discounts up to the time of the al. The English rule is contra. Trimyer v. Pollard, 5 Grat. 460-462. 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 789.

The defense of set-off was admissible in a motion in county court on a forthcoming bond taken on a warrant of distress (Allen v. Hart, Grat. 722); and regardless of the amount of the set-off (Hancock v. itehall Tobacco Warehouse Co., 100 Va. 447, 41 S. E. 860).

In whatever court defendant may be impleaded the right of set-off sts to the extent to which it is necessary to make complete defense to demand of the plaintiff. Hancock v. Whitehall Tobacco Warehouse , 100 Va. 447, 41 S. E. 860.

Where defendant fails to plead proper set-offs at law, equity will relieve him against a judgment (Cabell's Ex'rs v. Roberts' Adm'rs, Rand. 580); though he is prevented by unavoidable accident (Hudson Kline, 9 Grat. 379). If bill of discovery be necessary, it should be d in aid of his defense at law. George v. Strange's Ex'r, 10 Grat. .

Where there is a set-off which applies to several bonds which have n assigned, the bonds are liable to the set-off in the inverse order of ir assignment. Armentrout's Ex'rs v. Gibbons, 30 Grat. 632.

May the plea of set-off be set up against a contractor under governnt contracts, when there are sub-contractor's claims to be paid? U. v. Richardson, 223 Fed. 1010.

As to counter set-off, or set-off to a set-off, see 6 Va. Law Reg. 204, revisors' note above.

For difference between set-off and recoupment, see 7 Va. Law Reg. .

As to right of bank to set off against a check by an insolvent deitor his debt to the bank which has not yet matured, see 1 Va. Law g. 780.

See Graves Pleading, 92, 93; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 493, 497, 506; Min. (3d Ed.) 785 et seq.; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 97, 432. 5, 437, 440, 443, 444, 459; Smith v. Bradford, 76 Va. 758; Nolting v. . Bank, 99 Va. 54, 37 S. E. 804; Vaught v. Meador, 99 Va. 569, 39 E. 225, 86 Am. St. Rep. 908; McClellan v. Kinnaird, 6 Grat. 352; gsdale v. Hagy, 9 Grat. 409; notes to next section.

As to appeal from set-off allowed defendant, see note to section 50.

Form of plea of set-off of open account to debt on bond, 4 Min. (3d) 1744.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, pter 126, section 4.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 172, 173, 216.

Sec. 6145. Special plea of set-off.—In any action on a contract,

Digitized by Google

the defendant may file a plea, alleging any such failure i sideration of the contract, or fraud in its procurement, o breach of any warranty to him of the title or the sou personal property, for the price or value whereof he en the contract, or any other matter as would entitle him recover damages at law from the plaintiff, or the per whom the plaintiff claims, or to relief in equity, in wh part, against the obligation of the contract; or, if the c by deed, alleging any such matter arising under the cont
ing before its execution, or any such mistake therein, execution thereof, or any such other matter as would e to such relief in equity; and in either case alleging the which he is entitled by reason of the matters contained i Every such plea shall be verified by affidavit. (Code 188

This section enlarges the right of defense existing at com
The provisions of this section were intended to enlarge the r fense heretofore existing at common law, and not to impair a right or to take away any defense previously allowed by law.
mon-law right of recoupment was not impaired, but in addit the statutes permitted the defendant to recover any damage prove in excess of the damages claimed by the plaintiff. Col Ass'n v. Rockey; 93 Va. 678, 25 S. E. 1009, and note 2 Va.
669, disapproving suggestion in Keckley v. Bank, 79 Va. 458.
v. Baxter, 2 Pat. & H. 133.

This section contemplates the settlement of all differenc connected with the subject-matter of the plaintiff's claim News, etc., Ry. Co. v. Bickford, 105 Va. 182, 52 S. E. 1011.

A defendant cannot set-off or recoup against the plaintif purely legal demand growing out of an entirely different from the claim asserted by the plaintiff. The provisions of were not intended to alter or modify that provision of se which excludes the right of a surety to set-off against the pl mand a claim due to such surety as principal by the plaintiff
v. Benthall, 108 Va. 141, 60 S. E. 765.

Unliquidated damages.—The claim set up by special plea may be for unliquidated damages. Leterman v. Charlottesv
110 Va. 769, 67 S. E. 281.

Rescission of contract and re-investment of title to real plea, under this section, cannot be relied on which sets up ground of defense, which requires rescission of the contract i a reinvestment of the vendor with the interest alleged to sold. This defense can only be made in a court of equity.
McClelland, 93 Va. 786, 22 S. E. 364; Tyson v. Williamson, 9
32 S. E. 42; Shiflett v. Orange Humane Soc., 7 Grat. 297.

It seems that a plea under this section is available as a d bond for the purchase price of real estate, where the vende quired title to the property and where the defenses do not rescission of the contract sued on, or a re-investment of the vendees. Mundy v. Garland, 116 Va. 922, 83 S. E. 491.

Relief in equity.—If the equitable defenses which are pr der this section are not made at law, they may be made in equity brought to enforce a judgment at law provided nothin in the law action which the statute declares precludes the from relief in equity. Selden v. Williams, 108 Va. 542, 62 S

This section does not prevent a party to a contract from ing a suit in equity for its rescission, though he might have defense hereunder to an action on such contract. Dotson v

Digitized by Google

Circuit Court of Appeals, 4th Circuit), 180 Fed. 14, 16 Va. Law Reg.

See note of Rohrer v. Strickland under following section.

Failure of consideration.—A plea under this section which sets up worthlessness of the property which formed the consideration of contract in suit must aver worthlessness at the time of the contract, not at the date of the plea. South Roanoke Land Co. v. Roberts, Va. 489, 39 S. E. 133, note 7 Va. Law Reg. 247. See 8 Va. Law . 53; Tyson v. Williamson, 96 Va. 636, 32 S. E. 42.

A lessor covenants to put certain repairs upon the demised prem-, which he fails to do. In an action of replevin upon a distress for t, the tenant may set off the damages accrued by the failure of the or to make the repairs. Murray v. Pennington, 3 Grat. 91 (2d Ed.

Upon an action on a bond given for the hire of two slaves, one of m was never delivered to the hirer, the obligor is entitled, under ial plea under this statute, to a credit to the amount of the hire of slave not delivered. Isbell's Adm'r v. Norvell's Ex'r, 4 Grat. 176.

In an action at law for the price of land, under a plea alleging a ure in the quantity of land purchased, parol evidence is admissible how the true contract. Grayson v. Buchanan, 88 Va. 251, 13 S. E.

Fraud in the procurement.—Fraud in the procurement of a bond vailable as a defense under this section, and under it the defendant claim compensation or damages for the injury which he has suf-d by reason thereof. Tyson v. Williamson, 96 Va. 636, 32 S. E.

Same rule applies to fraud or misrepresentation in the procure-t of the contract for the sale or purchase of real estate. Watkins Vest Wytheville Land & Imp. Co., 92 Va. 1, 22 S. E. 554; Strick-l v. Graybill, 97 Va. 604, 34 S. E. 475.

Damages for fraud in the procurement of a contract for the sale of must be ascertained and fixed as of the date of the contract, and as of the date of a plea to an action on the contract; a plea which s that the land was worthless at the time the plea was filed is bad. on v. Williamson, 96 Va. 636, 32 S. E. 42. See South Roanoke Land v. Roberts, 99 Va. 489, 39 S. E. 133, note 7 Va. Law Reg. 247; 8 Va. Reg. 53.

Where a deed is procured by fraudulent misrepresentations, the nse can only be made, at law, in the mode provided by the statute. tners v. Keran, 24 Grat. 42.

A plea under this section is sufficient which avers that the state-ts of facts were falsely and fraudulently made for the purpose of uring the contract, that they were material, that they were untrue, that the defendant to whom they were made relied upon them, and by them induced to enter into the contract; it is not necessary to scienter. Strickland v. Graybill, 97 Va. 604, 34 S. E. 475; Guar-e Co. v. Nat. Bank, 95 Va. 490, 28 S. E. 909, 3 Va. Law Reg. 873.

Breach of warranty.—A defendant who files a plea of the breach ne warranty in the sale of an animal and claiming to be relieved to extent of the price paid for the animal, in which he succeeds, can-maintain another action for other damages and expenses he has in-ed on account of the breach of said warranty, as he might have re-red under said plea all the damages which he could recover in an on for a breach of the warranty. Huff v. Broyles, 26 Grat. 283.

A plea in an action of debt on a bond that the bond was given for price of goods which defendant bought of plaintiff, who made cer-representations in respect thereto, but not averring a warranty of quality of the goods, or that the plaintiff knew that the said repre-ations made by him were untrue, or that he used any fraud or art isguise their true condition or quality, is defective. Cunningham v. th, 10 Grat. 255, 60 Am. Dec. 333.

A grantee of real estate, when sued at law by his grantor for the purchase price, may under this section file a special plea clai ages for a breach of warranty or covenant for title by his gr less the defense is one which requires the contract to be resc the grantor to be reinvested with the title conveyed. Kinzie Ex'r, 100 Va. 709, 42 S. E. 872, 8 Va. Law Reg. 647. See Huston's Ex'rs, 6 Grat. 304.

Digitized by Google

"Any other matter."—The meaning of the words, "or matter," used in this section is restricted by the enumerate which precede them, and hence no set-off can be pleaded fendant which does not grow out of the contract in the suit.
Manganese Co. v. Virginia Manganese Co., 91 Va. 272, 21
note 1 Va. Law Reg. 119; Gates & Son Co. v. Richmond, 10
49 S. E. 965.

Sufficiency of plea.—Plea must allege the amount to fendant is entitled by reason of the matters contained therei
v. Williamson, 96 Va. 636, 32 S. E. 42; Richmond Ice Co.
Ice Co., 99 Va. 239, 37 S. E. 851, note 6 Va. Law Reg. 824.

A plea must show that the offset is such as may be set up statute. Watkins v. Hopkins' Ex'r, 13 Grat. 743.

The facts should be set forth with sufficient precision and to apprise the plaintiff of the character of the defence inten made, and to enable the court to decide whether the matter constitutes a valid claim to an equitable relief. Burtners
24 Grat. 42.

Federal courts.—Because of the doctrine that no State st be permitted to obliterate the ancient distinction between law causes, there has been much trouble in the Federal courts of with this section. While matter of counter claim of legal n be pleaded in a law cause in the Federal courts, purely equitab can not be set up in such causes. And this rule applies w cause originated in the State or Federal court. In this co has been held that matter of estoppel in pais is a legal defens Law Reg. 340.

See note of Dotson v. Kirk, under section 6150.

Res judicata.—If a party filing such a plea only claims a a part of the damages he has sustained, and then brings a recover for other damages, a plea of the former judgment is a in bar to the action. Huff v. Broyles, 26 Grat. 283.

Damages, though nominal, recovered by a defendant plaintiff on a covenant in a deed would bar any subsequent ac covenant, although the grantees were subsequently evicted.
Riely's Ex'r, 100 Va. 709, 42 S. E. 872, note 8 Va. Law Reg.

Generally.—If, in an action by a grantor against the g his surety on a bond given for the purchase price of real est plea be filed by principal and surety under this section clai ages for a breach of warranty of the title, the surety cannot a cute a writ of error; the defence is personal to the princip
v. Reily's Ex'r, 100 Va. 709, 42 S. E. 872, note 8 Va. Law Reg

Though in suit to collect assessment to stock from su may set up defence allowed by this section, those defences a to him, and do not pass to the transferee of the stock. Lewi ville Land & Imp. Co., 90 Va. 693, 19 S. E. 781.

The general rule that the statute of limitations must pleaded has no application to a plea under this section.
replication which is allowed to such plea under section 6146 replication, and under that replication the plea of the statut tion may be relied on. Sexton v. C. Aultman & Co., 92 Va
E. 838. See 1 Va. L. Reg. 610.

Upon an appeal, under section 2761, a county has the a plea of set-off under this section. Luck Const. Co. v. Russ Va. 335, 79 S. E. 393; White v. Am. Nat. Life Ins. Co., 1
78 S. E. 582.

A motion by lessor for judgment for rent is an action at meaning of this section, in which the defendant in an action on a ract may file a plea of set-off. Newport News & O. P. Ry. & Electric v. Bickford, 105 Va. 182, 52 S. E. 1011.

Digitized by Google

An agent of an undisclosed principal when sued on the contract he other party thereto may set up as a defense by plea under this on any matter which would entitle him to recover damages or relief nst the obligation of the contract against the plaintiff. The mere that the beneficial interest of the plea is in another constitutes no nd of objection thereto. Leterman v. Charlottesville L. Co., 110 769, 67 S. E. 281.

Although there is a marked conflict in the authorities as to whether non-residence of the party against whom set-off is sought to be rted is good ground for equitable interference to allow the set-off, ust be said that the majority of cases in which non-residence was ed have held it sufficient to warrant the application of the doctrine. t is held in Ewing-Merkle Electric Co. v. Lewisville Light & W. Co., Ark. 594, 124 S. W. 509, annotated in 30 L. R. A. (N. S.) 21, that ty will enforce against a claim of a non-resident for goods sold delivered, a set-off of a claim of the purchaser against the seller for ch of warranty in another transaction between them, where satis- on of such claim cannot be secured by action without compelling ndant to seek the courts of the State where the seller resides. See, 6 Va. L. Reg. 858; Vaught v. Meador, 99 Va. 569, 39 S. E. 225, Am. St. Rep. 908.

As to what verdict should be upon demurrer to the defendant's ence in support of his plea, see South Roanoke Land Co. v. Roberts, Va. 489, 39 S. E. 133, note 7 Va. Law Reg. 247.

How is this section affected by section 6088, providing that as- psit may be maintained where covenant will lie? See 4 Va. Law 200, 201.

Followed in Scott v. Boyd, 101 Va. 28, 42 S. E. 918.

For full discussion for difference between common-law recoupment recoupment under this section, see note to Bunting v. Cochran, 7 Law Reg. 332. See, also, 1 Va. Law Reg. 540; Graves Pleading 4, 96-99, 124, 125; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 491, 506, 514; 3 Min. (2d 152; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 769, 793, 947, 1284; Burks' Pleading and tice, pp. 101, 102, 117, 171, 175, 177, 178, 269, 338, 357, 406, 408, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 854.

Cited but not construed in 4 Va. Law Reg. 770; Liskey v. Paul, Va. 769, 42 S. E. 875; Saunders v. Bank, 112 Va. 443, 71 S. E. 714; erson v. Union Bank, 117 Va. 1, 83 S. E. 1080; Sutherland v. Wam- , 119 Va. 800, 89 S. E. 875; Hoge v. Fidelity, &c., Co., 103 Va. 15, S. E. 494; Ney v. Wrenn, 117 Va. 85, 84 S. E. 1; Stewart v. Rogers, Va. 836, 86 S. E. 161; Briggs v. Cook, 99 Va. 273, 38 S. E. 148, 6 Va. Law Reg. 847. In this case no exception was taken to the g of a plea under this section to a motion.

For cases before the statute, see Chew v. Moffett, 6 Munf. 120; lor v. King, 6 Munf. 358, 8 Am. Dec. 746; Wyche v. Macklin, 2 d. 426; Tomlinson's Adm'rs v. Mason, 6 Rand. 169; Christian v. er, 3 Leigh 78, 23 Am. Dec. 251.

See notes to next section.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, pter 126, section 5.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 174, 215.

ec. 6146. Proceedings thereupon; effect of plea on relief in ity.—If a defendant, entitled to such plea as is mentioned in preceding section, shall not tender it, or though he tender it, t be rejected, he shall not be precluded from such relief in- ity as he would have been entitled to if the preceding section not been enacted. If, when an issue in fact is joined thereon,

Digitized by Google

such issue be found against the defendant, he shall b relief in equity upon the matters alleged in the plea, such ground as would entitle a party to relief against in other cases. Every such issue in fact shall be upo replication that the plea is not true; and the plaintiff evidence on such issue any matter which could be g dence under a special replication if such replication w
(Code 1887, § 3300.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "for not being offered i formerly appearing after "rejected" in line three of the te omitted. No reason was seen for this restriction, and it was the defendant should be allowed the relief in equity if t tendered and rejected for any cause.

The only replication, under this section, which is allow under section 6145 is a general replication that the plea is under that replication the plea of the statute of limitations on. Sexton v. C. Aultman & Co., 92 Va. 20, 22 S. E. 838.

The statute of jeofails did not apply to the omission to such replication, and the failure to reply entitled the nominal damages, but the defendant waived the irregularity trial without it. Briggs v. Cook, 99 Va. 275, 38 S. E. 148 Law Reg. 853. See McMillion v. Dobbins, 9 Leigh 422.

After verdict motion will not be entertained to set it a no issue had been joined on the special plea. Id.

If a defendant who is entitled to the defenses contemplat 6145 fails to avail himself thereof by special plea of set-off, relief by cross bill in a suit to enforce the judgment. Rohr land, 116 Va. 755, 82 S. E. 711.

Cited but not construed in Kinzie v. Riely's Ex's, 100
S. E. 872; Selden v. Williams, 108 Va. 542, 62 S. E. 380;
Union Bank, 117 Va. 1, 83 S. E. 1080.

See Graves Pleading 97, 98; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.)
(3d Ed.) 795; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 357, 408, 4
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 126, section 6.

Sec. 6147. Effect of chapter on voluntary bonds.— this chapter shall impair or affect the obligation of a other deed deemed voluntary in law upon any party his representatives. (Code 1887, § 3301.)

See 1 Va. Law Reg. 540; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 153; 4 Min. (
Graves Pleading 97, 99.

Sec. 6148. If plea or set-off goes to part only of deman proceeded in.—If the defendant file a plea or account which covers or applies to part of the plaintiff's dem ment may be forthwith rendered for the part not co and the costs accrued until the filing of the plea or a the case shall be proceeded with for the residue, as if t which judgment was rendered had not been included th if, in addition to such plea or account, the defendant other plea, going to the whole or residue of the deman shall not be continued as to the part not controverted or account of set-offs, unless good cause be shown fo tinuance. A failure to take such judgment, however,

Digitized by Google

the plea or account is filed, shall not operate a discontinuance of the cause. (Code 1887, § 3302.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence is new.

See Graves Pleading 101; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 794; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 507; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 433, 435, 448, 874.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 126, section 8.

Sec. 6149. Defendant claiming set-off, put on footing of a plaintiff.—A defendant who files a plea or account under this chapter, shall be deemed to have brought an action, at the time of filing such plea or account, against the plaintiff, and, if he be assignee or transferee, also against the person with whom the contract sued on was originally made and under whom the plaintiff claims, according to their respective interests, for the matters mentioned in such plea or account, and the plaintiff shall not, after the plea or account is filed, dismiss his case, without the defendant's consent, but the defendant's claim shall be open to the same ground of defense to which it would have been open in any action brought by him thereon. (Code 1887, § 3303.)

Does not make party bringing the action a defendant, or the party filing the plea a plaintiff, within the meaning of section 6168, or deprive the personal representatives of the party bringing the action of the right to have it revived in their names by motion. Kinzie v. Riely's Ex'r, 100 Va. 711, 42 S. E. 872, note 8 Va. Law Reg. 655.

Statute of limitations may be set up by plaintiff as defence to defendant's off-sets. Trimyer v. Pollard, 5 Grat. 460, 462.

Although defendant be "deemed to have brought an action," if trial be had without replication to defendant's plea, it is not ground for reversal. Briggs v. Cook, 99 Va. 273, 38 S. E. 148, 6 Va. Law Reg. 847.

For rule in court of equity, see Fitzgerald v. Jones, 1 Munf. 150.

Cited but not construed in Botetourt County v. Burger, 86 Va. 530, 10 S. E. 264; Leterman v. Charlottesville L. Co., 110 Va. 769, 67 S. E. 281.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 116, 508, 525, 686; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 787 et seq., 934, 1448; Graves Pleading 94, 97; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 436, 440, 441, 443, 597.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 126, section 9.

See Gregory's Forms No. 172.

Sec. 6150. Other proceedings.—Other proceedings shall be as follows:

First. If plaintiff is the person, or, etc., with whom the contract was made, how set-off applied and judgment given.—If the plaintiff be a person with whom the contract sued on was originally made, or the personal representative of such person, on the trial of the case, the jury shall ascertain the amount to which the defendant is entitled, and apply it as a set-off against the plaintiff's demand, and, if the said amount be more than the plaintiff is entitled to, shall ascertain the excess, and fix the time from which interest is to be computed on the same, or any part thereof. Judgment, in such case, shall be for the defendant against the plaintiff for said excess, with such interest from the said time till payment.

Digitized by Google

Second. If he is assignee of such person, and defendant exceeds plaintiff's demand, defendant may waive for the ex If the plaintiff claims as assignee or transferee under a pers whom the contract sued on was originally made, and the ant's claim exceeds the plaintiff's demand, the defendant plea or in a writing filed with his account, may waive the of his claim as to any excess beyond the plaintiff's claim, upon, the further proceedings shall be upon the plaintiff and the defendant's counter claim as a defense thereto; or, of such waiver.

Third. He may have person under whom plaintiff claims party, and obtain judgment against him for such excess defendant may, by rule issued by the court, or, on his app issued by the clerk of the court in vacation, or by reason tice in writing, such rule or notice substantially stating the ant's claim, make the person, under whom the plaintiff cl aforesaid, a party to the suit; and, on the trial of the case, shall ascertain and apply, as provided in the first sub-div this section, the amount and interest to which the defenda titled; and, for any excess beyond the plaintiff's demand fo such person under whom the plaintiff claims as aforesaid i with such interest as the jury allows, judgment shall be r for the defendant against such person. (Code 1887, § 330

If defendant does not obtain judgment for excess of his over plaintiff's claim, he cannot afterwards sue for such excess. Broyles, 26 Grat. 283. See Kinzie v. Riely's Ex'r, 100 Va. S. E. 872.

Where the full amount of a set-off allowed to a defendant $500 (now $300), an appeal lies to this court on behalf of plainant, although the amount decreed against him is less t sum. Bunting v. Cochran, 99 Va. 558, 39 S. E. 229.

In an action in a Federal court by a vendor against a p of standing timber for breach of the contract, if defendant c that the vendor has failed to perform the contract, he can do by way of defense or counter-claim; set-offs and counter cla legal character being available to defendant in an action at la Federal courts, if allowed by State practice, even to the extent of defendant to recover judgment against the plaintiff. Dotson (Circuit Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit), 180 Fed. 14.

See Graves Pleading 94, 97; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 791, 792 Pleading and Practice, pp. 436, 441, 442, 443, 448, 449; Gregory No. 172; notes to five preceding sections.

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 256.

Interpleader.

ec.
151. The proceeding, when defendant disclaims interest in the subject; how right of third party tried.
152. How claim of third party tried to property distrained or levied on.
153. Sale of property where no forthcoming bond is given; power of court to make orders; costs.
154. Indemnifying bond to officer; its penalty and condition. Course of officer, when it is given, and when not; where returned, when given.
Sec.
6155. Effect of such bond.
6156. Claimant may give suspending bond; its effect; when claimant of property required to have title settled; presumption; suits on such bonds.
6157. How forthcoming bond taken of claimant of property the sale whereof has been suspended; sale of property if expensive to keep or perishable.
6158. When property sells for more than claim, how surplus paid.

Sec. 6151. The proceeding, when defendant disclaims interest in ie subject; how right of third party tried.—Upon affidavit of a efendant in any action that he claims no interest in the subject atter of the action, but that some third party has a claim thereto, nd that he does not collude with such third party, but is ready to ay or dispose of the subject matter of the action as the court may irect, the court may make an order requiring such third party to ppear and state the nature of his claim, and maintain or relinquish , and in the meantime stay the proceedings in such action. If ich third party, on being served with such order, shall not appear, ie court may, on proof of the plaintiff's right, render judgment or him, and declare such third party to be forever barred of any laim in respect of the subject matter, either against the plainiff or the original defendant, or his personal representative. If uch third party, on being so served, shall appear, the court shall llow him to make himself defendant in the action, and, either in aid action or otherwise, cause such issue or issues to be tried as it ay prescribe, and may direct which party shall be considered the laintiff in the issues, and shall give judgment upon the verdict endered on such trial, or, if a jury be waived by the parties interested, shall determine their claims in a summary way. (Code 1887. 2998.)

This section was taken from English statute 1 & 2 Wm. IV., c. 58. ts object is to give relief without compelling the party seeking it to ave recourse to a bill of interpleader. It does not take away the right f a party to file bill of interpleader. The remedy is concurrent; yet a sheriff or stakeholder have filed such a bill, then having made his lection the common-law courts will not interfere. Report of Revisors, 849, p. 764.

This statute does not enlarge the rules governing bills of interpleader and does not limit or affect the equitable jurisdictio subject. They merely furnish an additional and cumulative Runkle v. Runkle, 112 Va. 788, 72 S. E. 695.

Digitized by Google

See this case for the requirements necessary to a bill of in not under the statute.

A sheriff may file a bill of interpleader to settle the right o taken under an execution, and to which there are conflicting cl an injunction will not be granted to stay a suit against him i should sell the goods, as the statutes provide an adequate re him, and he is not bound to act unless indemnified. Storrs 4 Hen. & M. 506.

Unsuccessful claimant who makes it necessary for holder erty to file bill of interpleader should pay costs. Beers v. S Leigh 153.

Where auctioneers are stakeholders and trustees of pr sales made by them, and bound to pay the proceeds to one of t claimant, upon condition agreed upon, equity has jurisdiction on a bill filed by one of the claimants against the auctioneer other claimant. Townes v. Birchett, 12 Leigh 173.

The plaintiff in a suit of interpleader continues to be a s and necessary party until he has fully rendered the debt, duty, thing required of him. George v. Pilcher, 28 Grat. 299, 26 350.

Where shares of stock in a corporation have been atta proceeding instituted against a stockholder, and said corpor been summoned as a garnishee; where along with the answer o poration an affidavit is filed, as provided by this section—the cou require such third person to appear and state the nature of and maintain or relinquish the same. C. & O. R. Co. v. Grat. 502.

A party having an agreement with judgment debtor to him, for valuable consideration received, certain after-acquired property, may interplead against creditor levying on such First Nat. Bank v. Turnbull, 32 Grat. 695, 34 Am. Rep. 791.

Followed in Leftwich v. Wells, 101 Va. 255, 43 S. E. 36

Cited in dissenting opinion of Buchanan, J., in Clement Bros.-Paynes Co., 113 Va. 547, 75 S. E. 294, 18 Va. L. Reg. 437

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' An chapter 107, section 1.

See Gregory's Forms No. 257.

Sec. 6152. How claim of third party tried to property d or levied on.—When property, of the value of more tha dollars, is taken under a warrant of distress, or under a fieri facias issued by a justice, or when property of any taken under a writ of fieri facias issued by the clerk of a c any person, other than the party against whom the proces claims such property, or the proceeds or value thereof, th court of the county, or the circuit or corporation court of poration, in which the property is taken, or the judge of su in vacation, upon the application of the officer, where no fying bond has been given, or, if one has been given, on t cation of the person who claims such property and has gi suspending bond as is hereinafter mentioned, or of the pa ing said process, may cause to appear before such court the party issuing such process as the party making such cl such court may exercise, for the decision of their rights, a

Digitized by Google

the powers and authority prescribed in the preceding section. Code 1887, § 2999; 1902-3-4, p. 597.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "or of the party issuing said process," pearing in lines twelve and thirteen of the text are new, but are taken substance from the first sentence of section 3000 of the former Code mended 1902-3-4, p. 597).

It is intended by this section to afford the remedy where no indemnifying bond is given, either at the instance of the officer or one the parties interested. * * * With the exception of a temporary privation of the use of the specific property, it (this section) will attain in a more simple way everything that can now be attained by a rit of replevin or a bill in equity to restrain the sale. Report of evisors, 1849, p. 765. Replevin abolished, section 5784.

For discussion of replevin and this its statutory substitute, see len v. Hart, 18 Grat. 722.

Where property taken in execution is forbidden to be sold under idea of a prior lien, the sheriff must nevertheless proceed to make s return. Upon the refusal of the party to give an indemnity, he ight, on application to the court, have had further time given him make his return, and in the meantime have put it upon the parties ncerned to litigate their rights to the property in question by filing a ll for that purpose. Baird v. Rice, 1 Call 18, 1 Am. Dec. 497.

Equity will entertain a bill to protect equitable separate estate of arried women, although under this section there is complete and adeiate provision at law furnishing the remedy desired. Filler v. Tyler, Va. 458, 22 S. E. 235; 1 Va. Law Reg. 350, and note.

On appeal from a judgment rendered on a trial of claim by third erson to property levied on under execution, an order of a court issued a chancery cause, the record of which was admitted in evidence, cant be reviewed. Partlow v. Lickliter, 100 Va. 631, 42 S. E. 671.

Form of order for process of interpleader by court in term. 4 Min. d Ed.) 1632; of order for interpleader by circuit judge in vacation, . 1632; of application for process of interpleader by claimant of effects vied on, Id. 1631.

For a form under this section, see statement of facts in Edmunds v. obbie Piano Co., 97 Va. 588, 34 S. E. 472.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 12, 47, 217, 218, 654.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 107, section 2, 5.

Sec. 6153. Sale of property where no forthcoming bond is given: ower of court to make orders; costs.—In such case as is menoned in the preceding section, the court, where no bond is given for ie forthcoming of the property, or, the judge thereof in vacation ay, before a decision of the rights of the parties, make an order or the sale of the property, or any part thereof, on such terms as ie court or judge may deem advisable, and for the proper applicaion of the proceeds. In any case before mentioned in this chaper, the court or judge may make all such rules and orders, and nter such judgment as to costs and all other matters as may be ust and proper. (Code 1887, § 3000; 1902-3-4, p. 597.)

Revisors' Note.—The substance of the first sentence of this section s it stood before the revision has been transferred to the preceding ection. See revisors' note to that section.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 12, 217, 218, 219, 654.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 107, section 6.

Sec. 6154. Indemnifying bond to officer; its penalty and condition. Course of officer, when it is given, and when not; v turned, when given.—If any officer levies or is required t fieri facias, an attachment, or a warrant of distress on p and a doubt shall arise whether the said property is liable levy, he may give the plaintiff, his agent or attorney at tice that an indemnifying bond is required in the case; b thereupon be given by any person, with good security, pa the officer in a penalty equal to double the value of the p with condition to indemnify him against all damage which sustain in consequence of the seizure or sale of said prop to pay to any claimant of such property all damage which sustain in consequence of such seizure or sale, and also to and defend to any purchaser of the property such estate or therein as is sold. If such indemnifying bond be not give a reasonable time after such notice, the officer may refuse on such property, or may restore it to the person from wh session it was taken, as the case may be. If it be given, th shall proceed to levy if he has not already done so, or if has been released. Any indemnifying bond taken by an offic this section shall be returned by him within twenty day clerk's office from which the fieri facias or attachment is if the fieri facias or attachment was not issued by a cler office of the court to which the attachment is returnable, be a fieri facias or distress warrant, to the office of the which the officer who levied the fieri facias or distress war appointed, or in which he qualified. (Code 1887, § 3001; 1 505.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The first part of this section is taken from part of section 3001 of the former Code (amended 1897-8, The latter part of the section is taken from section 3002 of the 1887.

It will be observed that the last few lines of the revised sect "Or if it be a fieri facias or distress warrant, to the office of the which the officer WHO LEVIED THE FIERI FACIAS OR D WARRANT was appointed, or in which he qualified." Form language was: "Or if it be an execution, to the office of the which SUCH OFFICER was appointed or in which he qualified."

Equity jurisdiction.—Although a party whose property is execution to satisfy the debt of another may proceed to rec property, or damages for the taking and detention thereof, in at law, and although it is competent for a sheriff having doubts title of property taken in execution to demand from the credi demnifying bond, yet neither of these remedies is in exclu proceeding in equity having for its object the detention of the in specie. Wilson v. Butler, 3 Munf. 564.

Effect of omission or of insertion of condition not required a court or officer taking a bond has the authority or capacit it, and by mistake some of the conditions prescribed are omi condition not authorized is inserted, the bond is not vitiated statute, by express terms or necessary implication, makes it wh the bad does not vitiate the good; and the bond may be sued as the conditions are good as a statutory bond. Aylett v. Roan

Digitized by Google

2; Pratt v. Wright, 13 Grat. 176, 67 Am. Dec. 767; Gibson v. Beckham, Grat. 321; Jackson v. Hopkins, 92 Va. 604, 24 S. E. 234.

A constable, sheriff, or other officer, who sells property taken under ecution, is not protected from an action of trespass by the claimant, less the indemnifying bond taken by him under the statute conform all respects to that act, and particularly contains the clause inserted the benefit of the person claiming title to the property. McClunn v. eel, 2 Va. Cas. 256.

In the abstract of the case of Dabney v. Catlett, 12 Leigh 383, it pears that the court decided that an indemnifying bond which omitted e covenant for the protection of a purchaser of the property seized, a sale by the sheriff, was not a good statutory bond, and would not otect the sheriff against an action by the claimant of the property. the case of Aylett v. Roane, 1 Grat. 282, the court, referring to the ove case, states that it did not decide that the bond was not a good atutory bond for any purpose, and that a bond similarly executed was od in other respects, though omitting the covenant for the protection the purchaser, and was a good statutory bond, as far as the claimant the property was concerned, and in an action by the claimant against e sheriff could be offered by the sheriff in bar of the action. See Id., . Rep. Anno.

In an action against a constable for taking the property of the aintiff upon three executions against a third person, the constable filed separate plea, in which he set up an indemnifying bond executed by e plaintiffs in the execution. The plaintiff craved oyer of the bond, d demurred to the plea. Held, that it is not necessary to set out the dgments in the plea; that the executions appear on their face to be ued by a justice of Hardy county, yet, in fact having been issued by justice of Hampshire, where they were levied, and this being averred the plea, they are valid, and give authority to the officer to execute em; that it is not necessary to set out the executions in the indemnify- g bond; that an indemnifying bond may be taken on several executions; at a firm being the plaintiffs in the execution, the bond executed by e of the firm, in the partnership name, is a good bond of the person so ecuting it; that the reciting in the bond of the names of the plaintiffs the execution by their partnership name is sufficient. Davis v. Davis, Grat. 363.

Pleading and practice.—An action in an indemnifying bond given a sheriff for sale of property taken in execution, under statute 1 Rev. de, chapter 134, sections 25, 26, 27, must be brought in the name of e sheriff, but it can only be maintained at the relation of the party in- red. Though the party injured is not named as relator in the declara- on or other pleading, yet if the breach assigned is that the obligor did t pay the damages sustained by B. by reason of the sale, and if a ecial verdict in the cause shows that B. is the relator, or supposing the eading defective in this particular, the defect is cured after verdict by atute of jeofails. Lewis v. Adams, 6 Leigh 320.

In an action on an indemnifying bond the relator claims title to e property sold under a sale made by one partner, without the knowl- ge or consent of the other, of partnership property. The relator may cover for the undivided interest of the partner who made the sale, under general allegation in the declaration of his ownership of the property. rkner v. Stuart, 6 Grat. 197.

An indemnifying bond given to a sheriff, under statute 1 Rev. Code, apter 134, sections 25, 26, can only be put in suit at the relation of e person having the legal title to the property taken in execution and ld by the sheriff, not at the relation of any person having an equitable ght therein. Garlands v. Jacobs, 2 Leigh 651.

In an action on a bond of indemnity given to the officer for the sale property under execution, at the relation of the claimant of the roperty, the declaration states the obligation to be that the obligors ound themselves to pay, among other things, to any person claiming tle to the property levied on, all damages which such claimant might sustain by the seizure and sale, etc. On the trial the plaint in evidence an indemnifying bond, in a penalty, and with a Held no variance, and the evidence admissible. Kevan v. Grat. 274. This case approves the declaration given in Car Anderson, 5 Munf. 32.

Digitized by Google

A declaration on an indemnifying bond in the name of t istrator de bonis non of the high sheriff sets out the bond a himself. Without craving oyer of the bond, the defendants d there is enough in the declaration to enable the court to judgment according to law and the very right of the cause, the should be overruled. Duval v. Malone, 14 Grat. 24.

Any person claiming the property sold under an exec prosecute an action of debt on the indemnifying bond, in the n sheriff or other officer to whom it was taken, without proving damage has been sustained by such officer. Carrington v. 5 Munf. 32.

In a declaration on a bond with collateral condition, i two assignments of breaches, and either assignment be good whole declaration is demurred to, the demurrer ought to be Martin v. Sturm, 5 Rand. 693.

While the bond cannot be recovered on as a statutory in this case it is not opposed to, McClunn v. Steel, 2 Va. Cas. as the declaration contains two counts, and one bond being go mon law, the general demurrer must be overruled, and th allowed to prove his damages under the second count. Martin 5 Rand. 693.

Form of declaration by a claimant of property on an ind bond, see Carrington v. Anderson, 5 Munf. 32.

Evidence.—In an action on an indemnifying bond, bro person claiming the property sold, the deputy sheriff who sold erty under the execution, and took the bonds, is not a compete for the defendants to prove that the property belonged to against whom the execution issued. Wilson v. Alexander, 9 Carrington v. Anderson, 5 Munf. 32.

In an action on an indemnifying bond, at the relation of claiming under a deed of trust from the debtor in the execu the levy of which the bond was taken, the grantor in the deed debtor in the execution, is a competent witness for the plainti son v. Ford, 2 Grat. 16, and note thereto Va. Rep. Anno.

In debt on an indemnifying bond given to a sheriff for s sale of a slave under execution, it is competent for the def prove that the relator of the plaintiff had only a life estate in though it appears that he had bona fide purchased of the tena an absolute estate. Stevens v. Bransford, 6 Leigh 246.

In an action on an indemnifying bond, the declaration a the obligors bound themselves to indemnify, etc. In the bond themselves, their heirs, executors, and administrators, jo severally. Held, that this was substantially the same as de the declaration, and should have been permitted to go to t evidence in support of the declaration. Dickinson v. Smith, 5

Liability of officer.—Where a debtor against whose goods attempts to levy an execution informs the officer that he was and claimed the benefits of his homestead exemption, and at the homestead law had only recently gone into effect, and informed the execution creditor of the claim, and demand demnifying bond, and the creditor refused to give one, it was the circumstances were sufficient to justify the officer in refus unless the creditor gave the indemnifying bond, and that the his sureties were not liable where the debt was lost through levy. Huffman v. Leffell's Ex'r, 32 Grat. 41.

Execution issued upon a contract made before the C allowing a debtor to set apart his homestead took effect. levied on the property of the debtor, who gave a forthcoming

Digitized by Google

ich the debtor claims his homestead in the property. The officer thereon releases it, without first notifying or requiring the creditor to give indemnifying bond. The property is afterwards lost to the creditor. ld, the sheriff and his sureties are liable to the creditor for the balance e upon his claim. Sage v. Dickinson, 33 Grat. 361, distinguished m Huffman v. Leffell's Ex'r, 32 Grat. 41.

See note on Statutory Bonds to Goolsby v. Strother, 21 Grat. 108, Rep. Anno.

Generally.—Form of indemnifying bond, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1582; of claration in debt on indemnifying bond, Id. 1651.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 28, 397, 398, 503, 504.

Sec. 6155. Effect of such bond.—The claimant or purchaser of ch property shall, after such bond is so returned, be barred of y action against the officer levying thereon, provided the security rein be good at the time of taking it. (Code 1887, § 3003.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from the first part of section 03 of the former Code.

If the claimant should bring his action against the sergeant, it will be sufficient for him to show that he has established his claim to the perty in the action on the indemnifying bond; he must go further, l show that the sergeant failed in his official duty in not taking a vent bond, or in taking one in which the obligors have since become olvent. Stevens v. Bransford, 6 Leigh 250.

Sec. 6156. Claimant may give suspending bond; its effect; when imant of property required to have title settled; presumption; its on such bonds.—The sale of any property levied on under a ri facias or distress warrant shall be suspended at the instance any claimant thereof who will deliver to the officer bond, with od security, in a penalty equal to double the value thereof, payle to said officer, with condition to pay to all persons who may injured by suspending the sale thereof, until the claim thereto n be adjusted, such damage as they may sustain by such suspen-n. If the property claimed to be liable by virtue of the process oresaid is in the possession of any of the parties against whom ch process was issued, but is claimed by any other person or per-ns, or is claimed to belong to any other person or persons, the icer having such process in his hands to be executed shall, whether indemnifying bond has been given or not, after notice to the imant, or his agent, proceed to execute the same notwithstand-g such claim, unless the claimant of said property or some one him shall give the suspending bond aforesaid, and shall within irty days after such bond is given proceed to have the title to d property settled in accordance with the provisions of this chap-r. And in case such claimant or some one for him fails to give ch bond, or having given such bond fails to have such proceed-gs instituted as aforesaid to settle the title thereto, said property all be conclusively presumed to be the property of the party in ssession. For the purposes of this section, a person making a im of ownership of property on behalf of another shall be deemed be the latter's agent, and the notice required by this section may verbal or in writing. Upon any such bond as is mentioned in this or the preceding section, an action may be prosecut name of the officer for the benefit of the claimant, cred chaser, or other person injured, and such damages rec said suit as a jury may assess. The same may be prose a writ of fieri facias had in the name of such officer when in like manner as if he were alive.

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from the latter part 3001 of the Code of 1887 (amended 1897-8, p. 505), and the of section 3003 of that Code. It will be noted that the clain quired to have the title settled, and the presumption of owners party in possession arises whether the plaintiff has given an inc bond or not. See Fields-Watkins Co. v. Hensley, 117 Va., a 666, 86 S. E. 113, construing the former language.

The revised section provides that the officer shall, "After the claimant, or his agent, proceed to sell." Notice was deer able, if not necessary. See Windsor v. McVeigh, 93 U. S. provision is made for a publication of the notice in the event cannot be personal or substituted service. It is hardly pro such publication would be necessary, as it is provided that may be given to the claimant or his agent. If the claimant claim in person, of course, the notice may be served on him made for him by another, the latter is, for the purposes of t made the agent of the claimant (see fourth sentence). Such is believed to be valid. If a person is authorized to make a another, or to make the statement that the property belongs t he may properly be treated as the agent of the party in a pro this nature.

The last few words of section 3001 of the former Code before the revision, exempting the officer from liability, omitted from this section because covered by section 6155. I attachments has been omitted, also, because provided for in ch

The claimant must not only execute the suspending bon but must within thirty days from the execution of such bon the proceedings provided to settle the title to the property so and upon his failure to have such proceedings instituted, the to be conclusively presumed to be the property of the party in Fields-Watkins Co. v. Hensley, 117 Va. 661, 86 S. E. 113.

See revisors' note above.

Form of suspending bond in case of interpleader, 4 Min 1630.

See Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 215-219.

Sec. 6157. How forthcoming bond taken of claimant o the sale whereof has been suspended; sale of property if to keep or perishable.—The sheriff or other officer levyi of fieri facias or distress warrant on property, the sale o suspended under this chapter, at the instance of a claima may, if such claimant desire the property to remain in session as it was immediately before the levy, and if th one in which a bond for the forthcoming of the prope prohibited from being taken from the debtor by section hundred and twenty-four, take from the claimant a bond ficient surety, in a penalty equal to double the value of erty, payable to the creditor, with such recital as is r a forthcoming bond taken from the debtor, and with

Digitized by Google

at the property shall be forthcoming at such day and place of le as may be thereafter lawfully appointed; whereupon such operty may be permitted to remain, at the risk of such claimant, such possession as it was immediately before the levy; and sec- ns sixty-five hundred and twenty, sixty-five hundred and twenty- e, sixty-five hundred and twenty-three, sixty-five hundred and enty-four, and sixty-five hundred and twenty-five, shall apply to ch forthcoming bond in like manner as to a forthcoming bond ken from the debtor. But notwithstanding such forthcoming bond given, if such property be expensive to keep or perishable, the urt in which proceedings in the case under section sixty-one hun- ed and fifty-two are pending or may be had, or, the judge thereof vacation, may, before a decision of the rights of the parties under ch proceedings, on the application of such claimant or of the sure- in such suspending or forthcoming bond, after reasonable notice the intended application has been given by such claimant or the rety to the other parties in the case, order a sale of the property, any part thereof, on such terms as the court or judge may deem visable; and the court shall apply the proceeds according to the d rights when determined. (Code 1887, § 3004; 1902-3-4, p. 597.)

Title acquired at sheriff's sale.—A fair purchase under a sheriff's e, without knowledge of any improper conduct on the part of the icer, acquires a valid title to the property purchased, and the remedy the party injured is by action at law for damages against the sheriff. e same remedy applies where a sheriff has improperly refused a forth- ming bond when he ought to have received it. Hamilton v. Shrews- ry, 4 Rand. 427, 15 Am. Dec. 779.

Compare Saunders v. Pate, 4 Rand. 8, where it was decided that a eriff selling under an execution, with good faith, incurs no responsi- ity as to title, there being no implied warranty raised by the law der such a sale. The rule of caveat emptor applies to such a case. e distinction seems to be that where proceedings under execution are olly void, as where A.'s property is levied on for B.'s debt, no title sses; but otherwise where the execution is valid so far as to bind operty, but the proceedings of the sheriff thereunder are simply irre- lar or improper.

Under the act of assembly concerning sheriffs (Rev. Code, Vol. 2, p. 0), the sheriff, having received the bond of indemnity, is bound to l the property taken in execution, whether it belongs to the debtor not. In such a case there is no implied warranty by the sheriff of e title to the property sold, nor implied promise to refund the purchase oney if the buyer be evicted. Stone v. Pointer, 5 Munf. 287.

For discussion of proceedings on motion on forthcoming bond, see rter v. Grant's Adm'x, 32 Grat. 769.

Cited in Hancock v. Whitehall Tobacco Warehouse Co., 100 Va. 443. S. E. 860.

Form of delivery or forthcoming bond by claimant, in order to regain ssession of the effects pending suit, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) p. 1632.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 107, section 7.

Sec. 6158. When property sells for more than claim, how surplus aid.—When property, the sale of which is indemnified, sells for ore than enough to satisfy the execution, attachment, or distress arrant under which it is taken, the surplus shall be paid by the

Digitized by Google

officer into the court to the office whereof the indemnifyi is required to be returned, or as such court may direct.
court may make such order for the disposition thereof, eit porarily, until the question as to the title of the propert determined, or absolutely, as in respect to the rights of th ested may seem to it proper. (Code 1887, § 3005.)

CHAPTER 257.

Awards.

Sec.		Sec.
6159.	Submission of controversy to arbitration; may be entered of record; rule of court thereon.	6161.	How award entere judgment of court
6160.	Submission irrevocable; power of court over it.	6162.	For what award se
		6163.	Fiduciary may subr bitration.

Sec. 6159. Submission of controversy to arbitration; ma tered of record; rule of court thereon.—Persons desiring to controversy, whether there be a suit pending therefor or submit the same to arbitration, and agree that such submis be entered of record in any court. Upon proof of such ag out of court, or by consent of the parties given in court, i or by counsel, it shall be entered in the proceedings of suc and thereupon a rule shall be made, that the parties shall s the award which shall be made in pursuance of such ag (Code 1887, § 3006.)

Under a former statute (1 Rev. Code, chapter 114), a subm arbitration by a rule of court of a controversy in a suit pending within the statute concerning awards, and so the court migh to judgment on the award at the same term to which it was Wheatley v. Martin's Adm'r, 6 Leigh 62. See, also, Halcomb v. 2 Call 433; Mitchell v. Kelly, 1 Call 379.

Parol award—Boundaries.—Parties may agree to settle by tion the division line between their lots of land, and an award pursuance of a submission for that purpose will bind the pa though the arbitrators make a parol award, where the submis not require it to be in writing. Miller v. Miller, 99 Va. 125, 37 S

Death of plaintiff.—After submission to arbitration by rule the suit is revived by his administrator. The administrator of and the defendant proceed in the arbitration without any new sion. Held, the death of the plaintiff did not avoid the submis the award under it is good. Wheatley v. Martin's Adm'r, 6 L

Insurance losses.—See sections 4308, 4309.

Statute cumulative.—As to statutes prescribing a method for tion being merely cumulative, see 8 Va. Law Reg. 139.

Generally.—For a case which was submitted to arbitrati this chapter, see Drewry-Hughes Co. v. Throckmorton, 120 Va. S. E. 818.

Cited but not construed, McKennie v. Charlottesville R. Va. 70, 65 S. E. 503.

Digitized by Google

For monographic note on Arbitration and Award, see Bassett's Adm'r v. Cunningham's Adm'r, 9 Grat. 684, Va. Rep. Anno.

For editorial comment on this section, see 15 Va. L. R. 644.

On the subject of award under statute and otherwise, see Barton, L. Pr. 580, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 170 et seq. and note; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 23, 24; Bassett's Adm'r v. Cunningham's Adm'r, 9 Grat. 684, Va. Rep. Anno.; Coupland v. Anderson, 2 Call 106; Britton v. Williams' Devisees, 6 Munf. 453; Sutton v. Dickinson, 9 Leigh 142; Corbin v. Adams, 76 Va. 58; Doyle v. Patterson, 84 Va. 800, 6 S. E. 138; Canada v. Barksdale, 84 Va. 742, 6 S. E. 10.

Form of arbitration bond, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1579.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, Chapter 108, section 1.

Sec. 6160. Submission irrevocable; power of court over it.—No such submission, entered or agreed to be entered of record in any court, shall be revocable by any party to such submission, without the leave of such court; and such court may, from time to time, enlarge the term within which an award is required to be made. (Code 1887, § 3007.)

Either party may withdraw from an agreement to arbitrate made after a cause of action has arisen and before the award has been rendered, such an agreement being no bar to suit at law or in equity, and no foundation for a decree of specific performance, the only remedy being an action for damages growing out of the breach of submission. Long v. Long, 5 Call 431; Corbin v. Adams, 76 Va. 58; Rison v. Moon, 91 Va. 84, 22 S. E. 165. Otherwise where the submission is under the statute, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 174.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, Chapter 108, section 2.

Sec. 6161. How award entered as the judgment of court.—Upon the return of any such award, made under such an agreement (whether any previous record of the submission, or a rule thereupon, has been made or not), it shall be entered up as the judgment or decree of the court, unless good cause be shown against it at the first term after the parties have been summoned to show cause against it. (Code 1887, § 3008.)

Cited but not construed. The question of the constitutionality of the section was sought to be presented but was not decided on account of procedure. Pizzini v. Grinnan, 112 Va. 241, 70 S. E. 850.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, Chapter 108, section 3.

Sec. 6162. For what award set aside.—No such award shall be set aside, except for errors apparent on its face, unless it appear to have been procured by corruption or other undue means, or that there was partiality or misbehavior in the arbitrators or umpires, or any of them. But this section shall not be construed to take away the power of courts of equity over awards. (Code 1887, § 3009.)

Plain mistake of law.—Where an order has been entered in a pending cause submitting the matters in dispute to arbitration, and the arbitrators have before them the pleadings and exhibits, duly consider them, and return them to court with their award; if it appears from an inspection of the whole that the arbitrators have made a plain and palpable mistake of law there can be no valid ground for refusing relief in such cases. Moore v. Luckess' Next of Kin, 23 Grat. 160.

If the arbitrators intended to conform to the law in making their award, but failed to do so, and such mistake plainly appears, the court will grant relief in favor of infant distributee, however much t tor may have contributed to the mistake. Moore v. Luckess' Kin, 23 Grat. 168.

Digitized by Google

Misbehavior of arbitrators—Appointment of third arb Notice to parties.—Where two arbitrators, who have power to third in case of their disagreement, disagree, and make the appo it is necessary to inform the parties in interest of the appointm give them reasonable opportunity to produce evidence touching ters in controversy. In the absence of an agreement to that ef not sufficient for the third arbitrator to derive his knowledg evidence from the other arbitrators. The case should be re him. Coons v. Coons, 95 Va. 434, 28 S. E. 885, 64 Am. St. Re

Submission to arbitration of three or any two; two join in th giving notice of the award concluded, and being about to be to the third, who does not join in it. Held, this is no objectio validity of the award. Wheatley v. Martin's Adm'r, 6 Leigh 6

Although the submission of a case to arbitration where depending in a court of law does not come within the provisio statute of awards (as it then existed), yet the court (in which mission is made a rule of court) has a general superintendence award made by virtue of such submission, and may annul it behavior of the arbitrators, apparent mistakes on its face, et unnecessary in such case to resort to a court of equity to Graham's Adm'rs v. Pence, 6 Rand. 529.

Two arbitrators meet on the day appointed to decide the ca red to them, and continue the case for good cause shown by the d On the same day they determine that they will no longer act as tors, and give notice of their declination to the parties. But pressed by the plaintiff they are prevailed on by him to act ag authorize the plaintiff to give notice to the defendant of the place for arbitrating it. The defendant on the day and at t protests against their power to act, and refuses to submit his ca evidence to them. The arbitrators, however, proceeded to award on the plaintiff's ex parte evidence. Such misbehavior a award. Graham's Adm'rs v. Pence, 6 Rand. 529.

Award set aside in part.—In this case, where the arbitrato a certain item of the account of the appellant, with interest ther the respective periods when they arose or were contracted, such items as were barred by the statute of limitations, and which it the intention of the arbitrators to strike out, but which they h to do, were stricken out by the court, and the award held valid residue. Moore v. Luckess' Next of Kin, 23 Grat. 160.

Equitable relief.—While, under our statute, courts of law ca aside awards, except for errors apparent on the face of the aw less the award was obtained by corruption or other undue m for misbehavior of the arbitrators, a court of equity is not stricted, and may grant relief in cases in which in equity and g science relief should be granted. Moore v. Luckess' Next of Grat. 168.

Where every party in interest is before the court upon a b aside the award upon grounds which unquestionably gives a equity jurisdiction, this jurisdiction having once attached for the of injunction, the court may decide the whole controversy an a final decree, though all the issues are legal in their nature and of being tried by a court of law, and the legal remedies there quate. Coons v. Coons, 95 Va. 434, 28 S. E. 885, 64 Am. St. R
3 Va. Law Reg. 716.

A court of equity will not set aside an award for objection if available at all were available at law, but of which the party avail himself at law, there being no surprise proved, though and no fraud proved or alleged. Wheatley v. Martin's Adm'r 62.

It is equally the rule of equity as of law that the reason fo

Digitized by Google

side an award must appear on the face, or there must be misbehavior in ne arbitrators, or some palpable mistake. Id.

Generally.—Cited but not construed, McKennie v. Charlottesville R. o., 110 Va. 70, 65 S. E. 503; Pizzini v. Grinnan, 112 Va. 241, 70 S. E 50.

See Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 29.

Cases bearing on subject of arbitration and award, but which do ot construe this section: Shermer v. Beale, 1 Wash. 11; Pleasants v. oss, 1 Wash. 156, 1 Am. Dec. 449; Smallwood v. Mercer, 1 Wash. 290; eftwich v. Stovall, Id. 303; Mitchell v. Kelly, 1 Call 379; Holcomb v. lournoy, 2 Call 433; Ross v. Overton, 3 Call 309, 2 Am. Dec. 552; aylor's Adm'r v. Nicolson, 1 Hen. & M. 67; Morris v. Ross, 2 Hen. & M. 08; Fletcher v. Pollard, Id. 544; Brickhouse v. Hunter, 4 Hen. & M. 63, 4 Am. Dec. 528; Hollingsworth v. Lupton, 4 Munf. 114; Ligon v. ord, 5 Munf. 10; Manlove v. Thrift, Id. 493; Richards v. Brockenrough's Adm'r, 1 Rand. 449; Miller v. Kennedy, 3 Rand. 2; Head v. luir, 3 Rand. 122; Smith v. Smith, 4 Rand. 95; Rison v. Berry, Id. 275; lay v. Yancey, 4 Leigh 362; Lee v. Patillo, Id. 436; Martin v. Martin, 2 Leigh 495; Byars v. Thompson, 12 Leigh 550, 37 Am. Dec. 680; ollard v. Lumpkin, 6 Grat. 398, 52 Am. Dec. 128; Bassett's Adm'r v. unningham's Adm'r, 9 Grat. 684, and note thereto Va. Rep. Anno; unsford v. Smith, 12 Grat. 554; Crane's Guardian v. Crane, 21 Grat. 79; Forrer v. Coffman, 23 Grat. 871; Willoughby v. Thomas, 24 Grat. 21; Pollock's Adm'r v. Sutherlin, 25 Grat. 78; Adams v. Hubbard, Id. 29; Lynchburg Female Orphan Asylum v. Ford, Id. 570; City of Portsouth v. Norfolk Co., 31 Grat. 728; Shipman v. Fletcher, 83 Va. 601, S. E. 198.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 108, section 4.

Sec. 6163. Fiduciary may submit to arbitration.—Any personal epresentative of a decedent, guardian of an infant, committee of n insane person, or trustee, may submit to arbitration any suit or natter of controversy touching the estate or property of such deedent, infant, or insane person, or in respect to which he is trusee. And any submission so made in good faith, and the award nade thereupon, shall be binding and entered as the judgment of a ourt, if so required by the agreement, in the same manner as other ubmissions and awards. No such fiduciary shall be responsible for ny loss sustained by an award adverse to the interests of his ward, nsane person, or beneficiary, under any such trust, unless it was aused by his fault or neglect. (Code 1887, § 3010.)

Next of kin may contest award.—Where the executor declines to ppose the confirmation of the award, the next of kin may maintain a uit for that purpose. A court of equity alone has jurisdiction in such case. Moore v. Luckess' Next of Kin, 23 Grat. 160.

For decisions upon cases arising before the statute, see Wheatley . Martin's Adm'r, 6 Leigh 62; Nelson's Adm'r v. Cornwell, 11 Grat. 24; Thompson's Adm'r v. Thompson's Ex'r, 6 Munf. 514.

As to compromise by fiduciaries.—See sections 5440, 5789.

Generally.—The following additional cases touch on the general ubject of arbitration and award, but do not construe these statutes: McAlister v. McAlister, 1 Wash. 193; Turner v. Moffett, 2 Wash. 70; Macon v. Crump, 1 Call 575; Turberville v. Self, 4 Call 580; Beverley v. Reynolds, Wythe 121; Dawson v. Winslow, Id. 114; Harrison v. Brock, 1 Munf. 22; Kincaid v. Cunningham, 2 Munf. 1; Green v. Bailey, 5 Munf. 246; Dust v. Conrod, 5 Munf. 411; Horrel v. McAlexander. 3 Rand. 94; Armstrong v. Armstrong, 1 Leigh 491; Bierly v. Williams, 5 Leigh 700; Merrit v. Smith, 6 Leigh 486; Chapline v. Overseers of Poor, 7 Leigh 231,

Digitized by Google

30 Am. Dec. 504; Harrison v. Wortham, 8 Leigh 296; Dool Malcom, 8 Leigh 608, 31 Am. Dec. 671; Scates v. Wilson, 9 Leig Boyd's Heirs v. Magruder's Heirs, 2 Rob. 761; McCormick v. Bla 4 Grat. 133; Cauthorn v. Courtney, 6 Grat. 382; Price v. Via's 8 Grat. 79; Morris v. Morris, 9 Grat. 673; Kidwell v. B. & O. R. Grat. 676; Jenkins v. Liston, 13 Grat. 535; Condon v. South Side 14 Grat. 302, and note thereto, Va. Rep. Anno.; Iaege v. Bossi Grat. 83, 76 Am. Dec. 189; Carroll Co. v. Collier, 22 Grat. 310; v. Hubbard, 25 Grat. 129, and note thereto, Va. Rep. Anno.; Vance, 27 Grat. 571; Wood v. Shepherd, 2 Pat. & H. 442; Tilley v Fire Ins. Co., 86 Va. 811, 11 S. E. 120; Mills v. Norfolk & W. 90 Va. 523, 19 S. E. 171; Rison v. Moon, 91 Va. 384, 22 S. E Miller v. Miller, 99 Va. 125, 37 S. E. 792.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Anno chapter 108, section 5.

CHAPTER 258.

Death or Change of Parties, and the Discontinuance of Caus Prosecuted.

Sec.

6164. When death, or, etc., occurs after verdict and before judgment, how judgment entered.

6165. Where it occurs as to any of several plaintiffs or defendants in a suit, the cause of which survives, how suit to proceed; how, on death of a joint defendant.

6166. Effect of marriage of female plaintiff or defendant.

6167. Where it occurs after appeal, etc., how judgment or decree entered.

6168. For and against whom scire facias may be sued out; when suit revived on motion; when new party may have continuance or pleadings.

6169. Scire facias may be is vacation, and order vival entered at rule 6170. Where party, whose cease, is defendant, h proceeded in.

6171. When discontinued, revived.

6172. When for five years ceeding in a case but tinue it, court may s from the docket.

6173. Decree in a suit, wher ber of parties exceeds and one of them dies

6174. Right of absent party hearing.

Sec. 6164. When death, or, etc., occurs after verdict and judgment, how judgment entered.—Where a party dies, or b convict of felony, or insane, or the powers of a party who is sonal representative or committee cease, if such fact occu verdict, judgment may be entered as if it had not occurred. 1887, § 3305.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "or a female party marries," fo appearing in this section, have been omitted. See new section

In personal injury case if trial court erroneously sets aside a for plaintiff and on second trial defendant gets judgment and p then dies, his personal representative may have writ of error to the action of the trial court on the first trial. Jackson v. Wi 112 Va. 128, 70 S. E. 539.

Cited but not construed in Booth v. Dotson, 93 Va. 233, 2 935. See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 175; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 975-9

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, ɔter 127, section 1.

ec. 6165. Where it occurs as to any of several plaintiffs or de-lants in a suit, the cause of which survives, how suit to proceed; , on death of a joint defendant.—Where such fact occurs in any ge of a cause, whether it be in a court of original or appellate sdiction, if it occur as to any of several plaintiffs or defendants, suit or action may proceed for or against the others, if the cause uit or action survive to or against them; and no suit (unless it personal action which dies with the person) shall abate as to a y sued jointly with another, who shall die during the pendency uch suit or action, but in all cases where such suit or action ld have abated, the same may be revived against the personal esentative of the decedent, and if it be an action at law shall eed thenceforward as a separate action against such personal esentative, as though such decedent had been a sole defendant. le 1887, § 3306.)

Revisors' Note.—The language of this section as it stood before the ion indicated that the Legislature intended it to apply to actions w. This was more manifest from the last three lines of the sec- as found in the Code of 1887. The word "suit" was apparently in the sense of "action." Equity, independently of any statute, jurisdiction to revive a suit by a bill of revivor, or by supplemen- bill in the nature of a bill of revivor, but it seems had no power to e a suit by scire facias until that power was conferred upon it in and by Act of Parliament 15 and 16 Vict., chap. 86, sec. 2. (See el's Chancery Pl. & Prac., 4th Ed., pp. 1506-1509). It would seem able that the right to revive by scire facias should be conferred, fore, on a court of equity in Virginia as was done in England, al- gh the scire facias is not often resorted to in equity practice. The on now expressly applies to suits as well as actions.

An appeal from, or supersedeas to, an order quashing an execution ist two defendants, need not, if one of them die, be revived against epresentative, but should be proceeded in as to the other only. Bul- Ex'rs v. Winston, 1 Munf. 269.

Where there are two plaintiffs in a supersedeas, if one of them dies ause will abate as to him, and proceed in the name of the surviving tiff. Hairston v. Woods, 9 Leigh 308.

Pending an action of detinue at the suit of four plaintiffs, one of dies, and a scire facias is awarded to revive the action in the name is executor. Held, the scire facias was improvidently awarded 's Adm'x v. Burgess, 10 Leigh 186 (2d Ed. 193).

In a suit in equity against two persons who have been partners, of whom dies pending the suit, it is not necessary to revive the suit ist the representative of the decedent. The plaintiff may proceed ist the survivor alone. Townes v. Birchett, 12 Leigh 173. See ingham v. Smithson, Id. 33.

In an action of debt against two, one dies, and the suit is revived ist the administratrix, and then she and the other defendant give ate confession of judgment, and a separate judgment is rendered st each. Held, no error. Richardson's Ex'x v. Jones, 12 Grat. 53.

Sale of land ordered. Before it is executed debtor dies and scire s ordered that suit be revived in the names of heirs, but with the nt of the parties before the court, the commissioner was directed ecute previous decree of sale before heirs were served with scire facias. Error to take any further decree until heirs are court. Sexton v. Crockett, 23 Grat. 857.

Digitized by Google

Cited, but not construed in Hansbrough v. Neal, 94 Va. E. 593; McMurray v. Dixon, 105 Va. 608, 54 S. E. 481.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 976-978; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 785; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 175, 176; 2 Va. L. Reg. N. S.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Anno 127, sec. 2.

Sec. 6166. Effect of marriage of female plaintiff or de The marriage of a female plaintiff or defendant shall n suit or action to abate, but upon affidavit or other proof the suit or action shall proceed in the new name, but i riage be not suggested before judgment, the judgment valid, and may be enforced in like manner, as if no such had taken place.

Revisors' Note.—This section is largely new, in cons which the omission referred to in revisors' note to section made.

Sec. 6167. Where it occurs after appeal, etc., how ju decree entered.—If, during the pendency of an appeal, wr or supersedeas, the death of a party, or any other fact, had occurred after verdict in an action, would not have judgment being entered, be suggested or relied on in ab the appellate court, the said court may, in its discretion, ment or decree in the case, as if such death or other fa occurred. (Code 1887, § 3307.)

Process of revival is not necessary in the Court of Ap appellee died between verdict and judgment. Buckner v. Bla 336.

Where a party to a cause pending in the Supreme Court dies pending the appeal, it is not necessary to revive the c name of his representative, but the case may be revived w back to the court below. Reid's Adm'r v. Strider's Adm'r,

This section does not confer upon the appellate court enter judgment in a case in which the alleged plaintiff in err before the appellate proceedings were begun. Booth v. Dot 233, 236, 24 S. E. 935.

The right to bring a writ of error in case of the death after judgment is in the personal representative, without a re judgment. Id.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 165, 420; Barton, C. Pr. (2

Sec. 6168. For and against whom scire facias may be when suit revived on motion; when new party may hav ance or amend pleadings.—In any stage of any case, a may be sued out for or against the committee of any pa insane or convict, or for or against a person before powers of whose committee have ceased, or for or again sonal representative of the decedent who or whose pers sentative was a party, or for or against the heirs or de decedent who was a party, to show cause why the suit proceed in the name of him or them; or where the party whose powers cease, or such insane person or convict is appellant, the person or persons for whom such scire fa

Digitized by Google

sued out may, without notice or scire facias, move that the suit ceed in his or their name. The person or persons against whom cire facias might be sued out by the plaintiff may also, without ice or scire facias, move that the suit proceed in his or their ne. In the former case, after service of the scire facias, or, in latter case, on such motion, if no sufficient cause be shown inst it, an order or decree shall be entered that the suit proceed ording to such scire facias or motion. Any such new party (ex- t in an appellate court) may in the discretion of the court have ntinuance of the case at the term at which such order or decree ntered; and the court may allow him to plead anew or amend pleadings so far as it deems reasonable, but in other respects case shall proceed to final judgment or decree for or against , in like manner as if the case had been pending for or against before such scire facias or motion. (Code 1887, § 3308.)

Revisors' Note.—The provisions formerly appearing in this section aining to the marriage of a female party have been stricken out. riage no longer abates a suit. See section 6166 for express statu- enactment on this subject.

The second sentence of this section is new, and the words "or de-" have been inserted in the third and fourth sentences. The object hese changes is to allow the proper representative of a DEFENDANT ave an action or suit revived in his name and on his motion. The ner language seemed to limit that right to the proper representative plaintiff or an appellant. No reason was perceived for this limita-. On the other hand, there may be causes in which such revivals ld be desired by the representatives of defendants, and this exten- of the statute will tend to facilitate the hearing of causes.

The words, "in the discretion of the court," appearing in the last ence of the text, are new.

In lower court.—The personal representative of the party bringing ction may revive it in their names by motion, notwithstanding de- lant may have filed a plea of set-off under chapter 255. Kinzie v. y's Ex'r, 100 Va. 709, 42 S. E. 872.

The provision in this section that any new party may have a con- ance of the case at the term at which such order is entered only ap- s to case in which the order is entered in term. Stearns' Ex'r v. mond Paper Mfg. Co., 86 Va. 1034, 11 S. E. 1057. See next sec-

Any irregularity in the revival of the suit can only be taken advan- of in that suit, and such objection cannot be made in an independent Wilson v. Smith, 22 Grat. 493.

It seems that upon revival a personal representative can plead de o such plea only as his testator or intestate if living might have ded in the actual stage of the cause. Clopton's Adm'r v. Clarke's , 7 Leigh 325.

If in detinue the defendant dies pending the action, it may be re- d by scire facias against his executors if the goods demanded have e to the executor's possession; otherwise not. Allen's Ex'r v. Har- s Adm'r, 6 Leigh 42; Catlett's Ex'r v. Russell, 6 Leigh 344.

Where a writ of right was brought against a life tenant who died, demandant could revive the action against the heirs of the first ten- Davis v. Teays, 3 Grat. 283. See Carter v. Carr, Gilmer 145; go v. Stead, 2 Rand. 454; Lovell v. Arnold, 2 Leigh 16.

In trespass quaere clausum fregit, if defendant dies after judgment, plaintiff has a right to a scire facias against a personal representative of the defendant, though not against his heirs or dev

Digitized by Google

v. Crenshaw, 3 Rand. 14.

Judgment.—Neither declaration nor rule is necessary facias to revive a judgment. If scire facias is returnable defendant makes default, there should then be an award which if not set aside at the next term becomes a final ju the last day of the term. No order of the court is nece case, but could prejudice no one. McVeigh v. Bank, 76 to variance between the judgment and the scire facias, see Adm'r v. Prince George Justices, 11 Grat. 190.

As to scire facias to revive a recognizance, see Com.
Va. Cas. 134.

In equity.—After a decree ascertaining the rights of in respect to the lands, and after partition made and a c rected to L. of the moiety sued for, he died. Held, as then proceeded in for the lands and profits only to which of L. were entitled, it was proper to revive it in their nam the names of the heirs of L. Ruffners v. Lewis' Ex'rs, 7
Am. Dec. 513.

A suit in chancery for a conveyance of land, in case dies before a final decree, ought to be revived against his visees and all other persons interested in the land in que Lambert, 1 Hen. & M. 330.

In a suit by W. v. L. for a partition of land, W. dies le and infant child; the suit may be revived in their name u tion, without notice. Wilson v. Smith, 22 Grat. 493. See for method of revival.

In appellate court.— As to appellee or defendant in ejectment judgment be given for the defendant, and the peals, pending which the appellee dies, the appellant can scire facias against his heirs. Tomkies v. Walters, 6 Cal

The defendant, in a proceeding of unlawful detainer, an appeal by the plaintiff below. The cause cannot be re man v. Dunlap, 4 Grat. 86.

Where the appellee dies the court will not take up the name of his executor without giving the appellant notice of especially where a great length of time has elapsed sinc Scott v. Adams, 3 Hen. & M. 501.

The appellee having died, an appearance was entered tors, and on motion of their counsel the cause was tried ing for a scire facias. Daniel v. Robinson's Ex'rs, 1 Was

If, after a supersedeas obtained, the defendant in err facias must be awarded against his executor or administr a new writ of supersedeas, because the latter could not as a continuing process, and consequently the executor upon the supersedeas bond first given. Keel v. Herbert's

As to appellant or plaintiff in error.—Both the plain having died after writ of error, it seems that a scire facia in the names of the executors of both of the plaintiffs. Bos
Id. 322.

An appeal having abated at one term by the death of at the next term a scire facias was awarded, on the moti ministrators, who had qualified since the abatement, for t show cause why the appeal should not be revived. Gibbs
2 Hen. & M. 211; Buster v. Wallace, 3 Hen. & M. 217.

Generally.—See Barton, L. Pr (2d Ed.) 421, 424, 46
Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 177, 212; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 97
Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 73, 463.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis'
ch. 127, sec. 4.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 244, 246, 442, 443, 444,

Sec. 6169. Scire facias may be issued in vacation, a

Digitized by Google

evival entered at rules.—The clerk of the court, in which the case s, may issue such scire facias at any time, and an order may be en- ered at rules for a case to proceed in the name of the proper party, lthough the case be on the court docket. (Code 1887, § 3309.)

Where case is revived at rules under this section its revival consti- utes no grounds for a continuance. Stearns' Ex'r v. Richmond Paper lfg. Co., 86 Va. 1034, 11 S. E. 1057.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 420, 1032; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 77, 317; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 980, 1385.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, h. 127, sec. 5.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 442, 443, 444, 445.

Sec. 6170. Where party, whose powers cease, is defendant, how uit proceeded in.—Where the party whose powers cease is defend- nt, the plaintiff may continue his suit against him to final judg- ient or decree; but he shall not, at law, proceed in the same action gainst such defendant and his successor; nor shall he, in equity, roceed against both upon his previous bill, unless an order, that he suit proceed against the former party, be entered at the first erm after service of a scire facias for or against such successor. Code 1887, § 3310.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 983, 1385; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 568; Barton, C. r. (2d Ed.) 316; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 421.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, h. 127, sec. 6.

Sec. 6171. When discontinued, unless revived.—If the committee, ersonal representative, heirs, or devisees of the plaintiff or appel- nt who was a party, or of the decedent whose personal represen- ative was plaintiff or appellant, shall not make such motion, or pply for such scire facias, at or before the second term of the ourt next after that at which there may have been a suggestion on he record of the fact making such scire facias or motion proper, he suit of such plaintiff or appellant shall be discontinued, unless ood cause be shown to the contrary. (Code 1887, § 3311.)

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1018; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 316; 3 in. (2d Ed.) 568; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 983, 1386.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, h. 127, sec. 7.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 442, 443, 444, 445.

Sec. 6172. When for five years no proceeding in a case but to con- nue it, court may strike it from the docket.—Any court in which is ending a case wherein for more than five years there has been no rder or proceeding except to continue it, may, in its discretion, or- er it to be struck from its docket; and it shall thereby be discon- nued. A court making such order may direct it to be published in uch newspaper as it may designate. Any such case may be rein- tated, on motion, within one year from the date of such order, but ot after. (Code 1887, § 3312.)

The provision in this section that the court may direct the order of ismissal to be published in a newspaper is not mandatory. Echols' x'r v. Brennan, 99 Va. 151, 37 S. E. 786.

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' A
ch. 127, sec. 8.

Sec. 6173. Decree in a suit, where number of parti thirty, and one of them dies.—When, in any suit the number of parties exceeds thirty, and any one of sa jointly interested with others in any question arising the die, the court may, notwithstanding, if in its opinion all interests are represented and no one will be prejudice proceed to render a decree in such suit as if such party v decreeing to the heirs, devisees, legatees, distributees, o representatives, as the case may be, such interest as the person, if alive, would be entitled to. (Code 1887, § 33

Revisors' Note.—The provisions formerly appearing in pertaining to the marriage of a female party have been st
See revisors' note to section 6168.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 978, 1397; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' A
ch. 127, sec. 9.

Sec. 6174. Right of absent party to rehearing.—The of section six thousand and seventy-two shall apply to d tered under the preceding section. (Code 1887, § 3314.)

CHAPTER 259.

Removal of Causes Pending in One Court to Anoth

Sec.
6175. Removal by circuit or corporation courts, or their judges, on motion, after notice, of suits, etc., pending in said courts.
6176. Removal by courts, or their judges, without motion or notice, of suits, etc., which

Sec.
it is improper f
try.
6177. Clerk's duty, wh dered to be rem ceedings in cour it is removed; c ing removal.

Sec. 6175. Removal by circuit or corporation courts judges, on motion, after notice, of suits, etc., p said courts.—A circuit, corporation or city court where motion, or other civil proceeding is pending, or the jud in vacation, may, on motion by any party, after twenty tice to the adverse party or his attorney, and for good ca order any such suit, motion, or other civil proceedin therein, to be removed to any other court having jurisdict subject matter. (Code 1887, § 3316; 1889-90, p. 24; 1 625.)

Revisors' Note.—The language of this section has been changed in order properly to cover the various city courts in s larger cities.

Digitized by Google

Guardian ad litem may consent to the removal of a case to another ırt. Lemmon v. Herbert, 92 Va. 653, 24 S. E. 249.

Court may make an order to remove a cause to another court whilst e cause is at rules. Muller v. Bayly, 21 Grat. 521.

An injunction may be heard by the judge of the court to which the ıse is removed before the next term after the removal. Id.

If the court, for the removal, assign a reason which is unfounded in ct, it would not invalidate the order which the court has power to ke, and to which there is no exception. Id.

An application for a change of venue on the ground of prejudice ould be supported by affidavits of disinterested individuals. Boswell Flockheart, 8 Leigh 364.

Existence of prejudice against defendant company in the city in ich action is pending is not sufficient to justify a change of venue, es-ially when the witnesses by whom the feeling is shown express the nion that a perfectly fair and impartial jury to try the case can be ten in the city. Atlantic & D. Ry. Co. v. Reiger, 95 Va. 418, 28 S. E.).

Affidavits in support of a motion for a change of venue under this tion must state the facts and circumstances from which the conclu-n is deduced that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had where the e is pending, and the court must be satisfied from the facts sworn that a fair trial cannot be had where the case is pending. The venue l not be changed for the mere belief of the party or his witnesses t he cannot have a fair trial in the jurisdiction where his case is ıding. Ramsay v. Harrison, 119 Va. 682, 89 S. E. 977.

It seems that defendant should not be ruled to trial at the first m after the case is transferred. McAlexander v. Hairston's Ex'r, 10 gh 486 (2d Ed. 507).

For case under former statute, see Spengler v. Davy, 15 Grat. 381; gshead v. Baylor, 16 Grat. 99. See, also, Town of Danville v. Black-l, 80 Va. 38.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 811; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 29.

For monographic note on Removal of Causes, see Brown v. Crippin, Hen. & M. 173, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, 128, sec. 1.

See Gregory's Forms No. 259.

Sec. 6176. Removal by courts, or their judges, without motion notice, of suits, etc., which it is improper for them to try.—If judge of any circuit, city, or corporation court in which a suit, tion, or other civil proceeding is pending, is so situated as to ıder it improper in his opinion for him to decide such case or eside at the trial thereof, such court or the judge thereof in va-ion, may, without motion or notice, order the case to be removed any court to which it might be removed, on motion and notice, der the preceding section. (Code 1887, § 3317.)

Decision of judge under this section is not subject to review by ap-late court. Boswell v. Flockheart, 8 Leigh 364.

The acts of a judge who sits in a case in which he is interested are void. They are binding on all the parties until reversed or annulled a proper proceeding had for that purpose. Louisville & N. R. Co. v. ylor, 93 Va. 226, 24 S. E. 1013.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 811; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 29.

See Gregory's Forms No. 234.

Sec. 6177. Clerk's duty, when suit ordered to be removed; pro-dings in court to which it is removed; costs attending removal.—hen any case is ordered to be removed, under this chapter, the

Digitized by Google

clerk of the court from which, shall transmit to the cl court to which, it is removed, the original papers therei copies of all rules and orders made, and a statement o incurred by each party therein; whereupon, the case sh ceeded in, heard, and determined by the court to whic moved, as if it had been brought, and the previous proce in said court. The costs attending such removal shall as may be thought just by the court from which, or if order on the subject, by the court to which the case i (Code 1887, § 3318.)

A party who obtains a continuance after removal cannot say that he was not regularly brought into court. Carnah worth, 2 Va. Dec. 608, 31 S. E. 65.

When a case has been removed from one court to anothe the clerk of the first court has not made the copies of rules required by this section, yet where it appears that the whole before the circuit court when it decided the case the app will not presume that the case was heard in the lower court sence of any of the papers of the case. Bell v. Farmville & 91 Va. 99, 20 S. E. 942.

The clerk of the court to which the cause is removed person who can certify the record and take the bond requir to perfect an appeal to supreme court, even though the errors of were committed before removal. An appeal allowed up certified by the clerk of the court making the removal order missed, but without prejudice to the rights of the appellan not affected by act of limitations. Smith v. Pyrites Mining Co., 100 Va. 292, 43 S. E. 564.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 812.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' A ch. 128, sec. 2.

See Gregory's Forms No. 235.

CHAPTER 260.

Appointment of Commissioners in Chancery, Reference of A Them, and Proceedings Thereon.

Sec.
6178. Appointment and removal of commissioners by circuit, corporation and city courts; their number.
6179. How accounts referred; commissioner's duty.
6180. When publication of notice equivalent to personal service.
6181. Commissioners in chancery may compel the attendance of witnesses before them.
6182. Commissioner may ask instructions of court or its judge.

Sec.
6183. His power to a proceedings.
6184. Adjournment of to another cou and continuing p etc., there.
6185. How his report t out; what to b with it; when costs.
6186. When cause heard
6187. Delivery of origi of suit by clerk sioner.
6188. Appointment of a missioner for co

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6178. Appointment and removal of commissioners by circuit, corporation and city courts; their number.—Each circuit, corporation and city court having chancery jurisdiction, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall, from time to time, appoint such commissioners in chancery as may be deemed necessary for the convenient dispatch of the business of such court. Such commissioners shall be removable at pleasure. (Code 1887, § 3319; 1901, p. 247; 1904, p. 305; 1908, p. 123; 1910, p. 27.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is substantially new, and its purpose to obviate the necessity of frequent acts of the General Assembly allowing the various courts to appoint additional commissioners in chancery. It was deemed altogether safe and proper to confer general authority on the courts and judges to appoint as many of such officers as they consider necessary for the convenient dispatch of business.

Three acts were passed at the session of 1918 authorizing the appointment of additional commissioners in chancery: One for the Circuit Court of the city of Norfolk, Acts 1918, c. 36, p. 94; two for the Circuit Court of Montgomery County, Acts 1918, c. 36, p. 259; and one for the Circuit Court of Pittsylvania County, Acts 1918, c. 198, p. 238.

Sec. 3319 of the Code of 1887 has been amended by the following acts: 1889-90, pp. 6, 32, 81; 1891-2, p. 1092; 1893-4, pp. 92, 484; 1895-6, p. 107; 1897-8, p. 362; 1899-00, p. 424; 1901, p. 247; 1904, p. 305; 1908, p. 123; 1910, p. 27; 1912, p. 639.

For monographic note on Commissioners in Chancery, see Whitehead's Adm'r v. Whitehead, 23 Grat. 376, Va. Rep. Anno.

Sec. 6179. How accounts referred; commissioner's duty.—Accounts to be taken in any case, shall be referred to a commissioner or appointed, unless the parties interested agree, or the court shall deem it proper, that they be referred to some other person. Every commissioner shall examine, and report upon, such accounts and matters as may be referred to him by any court. But the report shall not have the weight given to the verdict of a jury on conflicting evidence, but the court shall confirm or reject such report in whole or in part, according to the view which it entertains of the law and the evidence. (Code 1887, § 3320.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence as to the weight of the report new.

When account should not be ordered, etc.—No account should be ordered where the answer denies all the material allegations of the bill and there is no proof to sustain them. Sadler, etc., v. Whitehurst, 83 Va. 46, 1 S. E. 410.

An account will not be ordered where by reason of laches no recovery can be had. Harrison v. Gibson, 23 Grat. 212.

As to what cases court may refer to commissioner, see Kraker v. Fields, 20 Grat. 377, 390; court acting too soon upon report, Winston v. Johnson's Ex'rs, 2 Munf. 305; who may serve as commissioner, Dillard v. Krise, 86 Va. 410, 10 S. E. 430; Bowers' Adm'r v. Bowers, 29 Grat. 697; failure of trial court to pass on exception, Bristol Iron & Steel Co. v. Thomas, 93 Va. 396, 25 S. E. 110; as to recommittal, Dillard v. Krise, 86 Va. 410, 10 S. E. 430; that exceptions must be specific, Perkins v. Saunders, 2 Hen. & M. 420; Simmons v. Simmons' Adm'r, 33 Grat. 451.

Notice.—A failure to set forth in report that notice was given to parties is not an error sufficient to reverse decree, if no exception to report appear in record. White's Ex'rs v. Johnson, 2 Munf. 285.

Digitized by Google

A special notice is not necessary to take depositions b missioner. McCandlish v. Edloe, 3 Grat. 330 (2d Ed. 315

As to notice generally, see Coffman v. Sangston, 21 Campbell v. Winston, 2 Hen. & M. 10. As to effect of wan see Winston v. Johnson's Ex'rs, 2 Munf. 305. As to time o for want of notice, see Miller v. Holcombe's Ex'r, 9 Grat. 66 v. Johnson's Ex'rs, 2 Munf. 305.

Commissioner's report—Weight.—The principle is well that when a question of fact is referred to a commissioner upon the testimony of witnesses conflicting in their statemen fering in their recollection, the court must, of necessity, ad port, unless in case of palpable error or mistake. Stuart v. 80 Va. 601; Magarity v. Shipman, 82 Va. 784, 1 S. E. 109; Shields, 20 Grat. 377; Bowers' Adm'r v. Bowers, 29 Grat. But see Shipman v. Fletcher, 91 Va. 473, 22 S. E. 458. F sion, 1 Va. Law. Reg. 485. In Diebold v. Tatterson, 115 V S. E. 585, Judge Keith, in delivering the opinion of the cou to the case of Shipman v. Fletcher, supra, with approval. "In Shipman v. Fletcher, 91 Va. 473, 22 S. E. 458, in wh Riely reviewed the decisions bearing upon the weight to be reports of commissioners in chancery, it was held that they facie correct, and that objection must be made to them by that when this is done it is the duty of the court to exami dence returned by the commissioner, and upon which his are based, and review his conclusion. If the evidence consis sitions, and has been taken by the commissioner or in his pr is conflicting, and his conclusions are clearly supported by and unimpeached witnesses, his report will not be disturbed is clear that the weight of the testimony is contrary to his c But, even in such case, the court will review and weigh th and, if not satisfied with the findings of the commissioner, rule them. The report will only be accepted as conclusive testimony, though conflicting, is evenly balanced, and the rep ported by the testimony of competent and unimpeached witn this connection, attention is called to the last sentence of t section.

Generally.—As to report on accounts of long standing confusion, see Stimpson v. Bishop, 82 Va. 190.

A report erroneous on its face may be objected to at the in appellate court, though no exceptions have been previ White's Ex'rs v. Johnson, 2 Munf. 285; Cookus v. Peyton's Ex 431. See, also, as to error apparent upon the face of the repo v. Walker, 2 Wash. 195 (2d Ed. 251); Garrett v. Carr, 3 413; Wills' Adm'r v. Dunn's Adm'r, 5 Grat. 384, 411, 412; Townes, 10 Grat. 514, 526.

Without exception previously filed, a report cannot be on grounds and in relation to subjects which may be affecte neous testimony. White's Ex'rs v. Johnson, 2 Munf. 285. Se to necessity of exception in such case, French v. Townes, 10 526; Beckwith v. Butler, 1 Wash. 224; Jones v. Watson, 3 Ca Ed. 222); Simmons v. Simmons' Adm'r, 33 Grat. 451; S Fletcher, 91 Va. 473, 490, 22 S. E. 458; Wilson's Adm'r v. Va. 546, 25 S. E. 596.

Either party to a suit may take testimony after a commis made up and returned his report. Atwood v. Shenandoah V. 85 Va. 966, 9 S. E. 748. But see note of Lyle v. Sarvey, 10 51 S. E. 228, under section 6228.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 684.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' A ch. 129, sec. 3.

Sec. 6180. When publication of notice equivalent to service.—The court, or the judge thereof in vacation, or

Digitized by Google

ccount to be taken, may direct that notice of the time and place f taking it be published once a week for four successive weeks in ome convenient newspaper, and that such publication shall be quivalent to personal service of such notice on the parties, or any f them. (Code 1887, § 3321.)

Does not limit the class of cases in which the court may direct that otice may be given by publication. Hill v. Bowyer, 18 Grat. 364.

The published notice will be sufficient if it gives the style of the uit, and contains all that is necessary to inform the parties of the time nd place of taking the account, although the names of the parties are ot inserted in it. Martin v. South Salem Land Co., 94 Va. 28, 26 S. . 591.

It is no valid objection by a party upon whom process in the suit as been served that he did not see or hear the notice by publication of he taking an account by a commissioner under the order of the court. ill v. Bowyer, 18 Grat. 364.

When publication is ordered there must be at least twenty-eight ays before the first insertion and the day of taking the account. Dilard v. Krise, 86 Va. 410, 10 S. E. 430. Under section 5 the day on hich the account is taken must be excluded from computation.

Notice of taking an account must be given the guardian ad litem; t is not sufficient to name the infants in the order of publication. trayer, etc., v. Long, etc., 83 Va. 715, 3 S. E. 372.

Three days' notice is not sufficient for taking an account, but a case ill not be set aside on that ground alone unless the party be injured hereby. Nor because the account is returned to court within ten days efore the commencement of term, unless it is shown to have been acted n within ten days. Moore v. Bruce, 85 Va. 139, 7 S. E. 195.

As to effect of publication in newspaper without court's order, see IcCandlish v. Edloe, 3 Grat. 330 (2d Ed. 315).

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 686; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1473.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, h. 129, sec. 4.

Sec. 6181. Commissioners in chancery may compel the attendance of witnesses before them.—A commissioner in chancery to whom has been referred any account or other matter may compel the attendance of all needed witnesses by summons, rule, and attachments in like manner as a circuit court, save that he shall not have the power of imprisonment. But any witness who has been fined by a commissioner acting under the authority of this section shall within ten days from the order of fine, have an appeal of right, without giving bond, to the court by whom the commissioner was appointed. (1893-4, p. 235.)

Sec. 6182. Commissioner may ask instructions of court or its judge.—A commissioner, who, in taking an account to be returned to a court, doubts as to any point which arises before him, may, in writing, submit the point to such court, or the judge thereof in vacation, who may instruct him thereon. (Code 1887, § 3322.)

It is well established practice for the court to instruct the master as to the principles upon which accounts should be restated. Cogbill v. Boyd, 79 Va. 1. See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 693; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1474.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, ch. 129, sec. 6.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6183. His power to adjourn his proceedings.—A sioner may adjourn his proceedings from time to time, day to which notice was given, without any new notice report is completed; and, when it is completed, it may the clerk's office at any time thereafter. (Code 1887, § 3

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 689; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 147

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' A ch. 129, sec. 7.

Sec. 6184. Adjournment of proceedings to another cou and continuing proceedings, etc., there.—A commissione cery of any court in this Commonwealth to whom has bee any account or other matter may, if it shall appear to h sary, adjourn such proceedings from his own county or c to any other county or corporation, and there continue ceedings and take depositions and other evidence in lik and with like force and effect as if the same were done i county or corporation. And such commissioner shall have to compel the attendance of witnesses before him in th prescribed by section sixty-one hundred and eighty-one. p. 21.)

Sec. 6185. How his report to be made out; what to be with it; when liable for costs.—With his report, the com shall return the decrees, orders, and notices under which and all the testimony upon which his report is based. He copy in his account or report any paper; and, if there h previous account, he shall not copy it into his; but, tak the basis of his, correct the errors and supply the defec by an additional statement. Everything improperly copi commissioner's account shall be expunged at his costs, o plication of either party; and, if on account of his negl misconduct, a report be recommitted, he shall bear the c sioned thereby. (Code 1887, § 3324.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "and all the testimony upon report is based," found in line three of the text, are new. v. Parrish, 86 Va. 69, 9 S. E. 616; Saunders v. Prunty, 89 Va. E. 231, and Maddock's Admx. v. Skinker, 93 Va. 479, 25 S. was held that the commissioner need not return with his evidence on which it was based, unless so directed. Now i done in all cases, and special direction is no longer requi change will obviate the statement formerly so often necessary pellate court that the court did not know upon what evidence missioner acted.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 688; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1474,

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' An ch. 129, sec. 8; ch. 130, sec. 5.

Sec. 6186. When cause heard on report.—A cause may upon a commissioner's report, after it shall have been ret days; and, if the report be under an order recommitting report, the cause may be heard without waiting the said (Code 1887, § 3325.)

Digitized by Google

If a final decree be pronounced at a hearing upon a commissioner's ort, had before the expiration of the ten days, it will be reversed n appeal, though the bill was taken for confessed. Gray v. Dicken- 's Adm'rs, 4 Grat. 87. But if there be error in an interlocutory de- e made at a hearing upon a report of a commissioner which had not n returned for the legal period it is not ground for an appeal unless, n application, the court below refuses to correct it. Armstrong's n'r v. Pitts, 13 Grat. 235.

Where cause is heard on commissioner's report prematurely, but hout exception appearing of record, no exception presented in the ap- late court can be considered unless for errors appearing on the face of report, and the hearing will be treated as having been by consent. ange's Adm'r v. Strange, 76 Va. 240.

The report of a commissioner to whom a case is referred merely to e evidence and report upon the propriety of a sale of infant's lands ot embraced within this section. Lancaster v. Barton, 92 Va. 615, S. E. 251.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 696; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1475; Gregory's rms No. 338.

For form of exceptions to report of commissioner, see Mathews de (2d Ed.), p. 157.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' Annotations, 129, sec. 7.

Sec. 6187. Delivery of original papers of suit by clerk to commissioner.—The clerk of a court in which a suit in equity is pend- , shall, upon the request of any commissioner in chancery, who s before him for execution an order or decree made in such suit, liver to him the original papers thereof; and it shall not be neces- ry for the clerk to copy the said papers, nor shall he charge any e for copies of any of them, unless the same be specially ordered. e commissioner to whom such papers may be delivered, shall give s receipt therefor, and return the papers as speedily as possible the office of the clerk of the court. (Code 1887, § 3326.)

Sec. 6188. Appointment of a bail commissioner for counties.— e circuit court of each county, or the judge thereof in vacation, all appoint one of the commissioners in chancery of said court il commissioner for said county. (1902-3-4, p. 292.)

CHAPTER 261.

Evidence.*

c.	Sec.
89. Hening's Statutes, this Code, the several editions of previous Codes, etc., and printed copies of acts and resolutions of General Assembly, to be evidence.	6190. Also, acts and resolutions of the General Assembly, though local or private; judicial notice by appellate court.
	6191. Also, journal of either house.

*For monographic note on Evidence, see Lee v. Tapscott, 2 Wash. 6, Va. Rep. Anno.; on Witnesses, see Claiborne v. Parrish, 2 Wash. 46, Va. Rep. Anno.

Digitized by Google

Sec.
6192. Also, statutes of United States, or of any State or Territory.
6193. Also, ordinances of municipal corporations.
6194. Notice by courts and officers of signatures of judges and Governor.
6195. Copies of certain deeds to be evidence.
6196. Effect as evidence of deeds conveying property heretofore or hereafter sold under a deed, deed of trust, mortgage, or any judicial proceedings.
6197. Also, copies of records or papers in clerk's office of any court of the State, or in the public offices thereof, or certificate of Auditor in certain cases.
6198. Also, copies of records or papers in clerk's office of any court of West Virginia, or in the public offices thereof, or certificate of its Auditor in certain cases.
6199. When copy filed in one suit may be filed in another.
6200. When court may deliver out original paper, retaining a copy.
6201. When a book, containing judgments, decrees, etc., of a court, is lost or illegible, how matters therein re-entered.
6202. When a book or paper in a clerk's office is lost or illegible, how new record made.
6203. How contents of any such record, book, or paper which has been lost, destroyed, or become illegible, may be proved.
6204. How evidence of the witnesses taken; commissioner to keep a journal and return it and evidence to court or to the clerk's office; order to be made by the court or by the judge thereof in vacation.

Sec.
6205. Records and proc
a court of anothe of the United S authenticated.
6206. Records and exem of office books i office of United S a State, not perta court.
6207. Foreign deeds, po torney, policies
ance, etc.
6208. No person incon testify by reason or because a par 6209. If one party incap tifying, testimony party to be cor when memoranda an incapable part ceived in evidence 6210. Competency of hu wife to testify.
6211. Testimony of hus wife in criminal 6212. Communications b husband and wife 6213. If a party refuse when required, missed, or plea, e out.
6214. How adverse part examined.
6215. Witness proving contradiction; pr
sistent statement.
6216. Contradiction by p sistent writing.
6217. How summons for sued, and to whom 6218. When trial court process for a wi cuted by its own another county or 6219. How subpoena du issued.
6220. How person failing and give evidence, duce a writing or proceeded against ment of mileage a ance.
6221. Commitment to ja son refusing to to produce writing
ment.

Digitized by Google

2. Who may administer oath to witness.
3. Interpreters.
4. What is sufficient evidence of non-residence of witness or party; how publication in a newspaper is proved.
5. Deposition of witness, by whom taken in this State; how certified.
6. Of witness, who resides out of the State, by whom taken; how certified.
7. No commission necessary.
8. Notice to be given of taking a deposition; in what stage of suit in equity a deposition may be returned and read.
9. Notice to non-resident may be served on counsel; court to decide on its validity.
0. When deposition may be retaken and read.

Sec.
6231. Under what circumstances a deposition may be read in case at law.
6232. How depositions certified, returned, and filed; time when received to be endorsed.
6233. May be read by either party.
6234. How taken after decision of cause from which appeal, etc., lies.
6235. How testimony perpetuated.
6236. Interrogatories to adverse party or claimant; when and how filed; how answers thereto enforced; how used as evidence.
6237. When and how production of book accounts or other writing compelled.
6238. Effect of the two preceding sections on bill in equity.
6239. Presumption of death from absence.
6240. Evidence in mitigation of damages.

Sec. 6189. Hening's statutes, this Code, the several editions of evious Codes, etc., and printed copies of acts and resolutions of neral Assembly, to be evidence.—The thirteen volumes of the tutes of Virginia from sixteen hundred and nineteen to seventeen ndred and ninety-two, heretofore published by William Waller ning, and to which reference is made in certain acts of the Gen- l Assembly, passed on the fifth day of February, eighteen hundred d eight, twelfth of February, eighteen hundred and thirteen, and th of March, eighteen hundred and nineteen; this Code and the eral editions of the Code of laws and of supplements to or con- uations of, the Code, authorized by or referred to in the acts of sembly passed the twenty-eighth of December, seventeen hun- ed and ninety-two, twenty-sixth of January, eighteen hundred d two, seventh of January, eighteen hundred and seven, tenth February, eighteen hundred and twelve, twelfth of March, hteen hundred and nineteen, twenty-first of February, eighteen ndred and thirty-five, and sixteenth of August, eighteen hun- ed and forty-nine; and the act of Assembly approved May teenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven; printed copies the acts and resolutions of the General Assembly since venteen hundred and ninety-two, heretofore published, or which ay hereafter be published for the Commonwealth; and any her copies of the said acts and resolutions since seventeen hun- ed and ninety-two, which have been or may be published by the public printer for the time being, shall be recei dence in the courts of this State, for any purpose for original acts or resolutions could be received, and wit effect. (Code 1887, § 3327.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The words, "and the act of Assembly ap sixteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven," are new. Th Code of 1887.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 617; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 890.

For lists of the Codes and acts, see 11 Va. Law Reg. 10

Sec. 6190. Also, acts and resolutions of General Assembl local or private; judicial notice by appellate court.—Act lutions of the General Assembly, though local or priva given in evidence without being specially pleaded; and late court shall take judicial notice of such as appear to relied on in the court below. (Code 1887, § 3328.)

If court is of opinion that the act is a public act, and off it to be read to the jury without introducing it in evidence, allow it to be introduced can work no harm. Blankenship
Ry. Co., 94 Va. 449, 27 S. E. 20.

Latter clause of this section overrules Legrand v. Ham College, 5 Munf. 324.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 617; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1211.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute see Justis' A
ch. 130, sec. 1.

Sec. 6191. Also, journal of either house.—Copies of t of each house of the Assembly, printed as prescribed twenty-five, shall be received as evidence for any purpose the original journal could be received. (Code 1887, § 332

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 891.

Sec. 6192. Also, statutes of United States, or of any St ritory.—Copies of the statutes of the United States prin thority of the United States, and copies of the statutes of or territory of the United States, printed by authority of or territory, may be received as prima facie evidence of utes in any suit or proceeding in this State. (Code 188

Revisors' Note.—For "an act to authorize courts and c nals to take judicial notice of the laws of other States and fo tries, and of the United States," see Acts 1918, c. 182, p. 31

The laws of a sister State printed by public authority a ble evidence without other authentication. Taylor's Adm'r Leigh 471. See Dickinson v. Hoomes' Adm'r, 8 Grat. 353.

If the statutes are private, it seems that they must be ple lor's Adm'r v. Bank, 5 Leigh 471, 476.

As to necessity of proof of foreign law, see Union Centra
Co. v. Pollard, 94 Va. 146, 26 S. E. 421, 36 L. R. A. 271, 64 A 715.

As to authentication of foreign law by affixing thereto the State, see Hunter v. Fulcher, 5 Rand. 126, 16 Am. Dec.
ner v. Com., 2 Va. Cas. 95.

A transcript of a statute of another State authenticated tificate of the Secretary of the Commonwealth under his hand accompanied by a declaration of the Governor under the Gre the Commonwealth, that he is Secretary and that full faith ought to be given to his official acts, is sufficient evidence to

Digitized by Google

ed to the jury that such copy of the act is the law. Warner v. Com., Va. Cas. 95.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 890, 891; Burks' Address, 2 Barton Law Pr. 2d Ed.), 1396.

Sec. 6193. Also, ordinances of municipal corporations.—A copy f any ordinance or joint resolution of a municipal corporation in his State, certified by the clerk or secretary of the corporation, or printed copy thereof which purports to have been printed by the uthority of the corporation, shall be received as prima facie evience for any purpose for which the original ordinance or joint esolution could be received. (Code 1887, § 3331.)

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 619.

Sec. 6194. Notice by courts and officers of signatures of judges nd Governor.—All courts and officers shall take notice of the signature of any of the judges, or of the Governor of this State, to ny judicial or official document. (Code 1887, § 3332.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 890.

Sec. 6195. Copies of certain deeds to be evidence.—Copies of eeds, acknowledged or proved and certified according to the act the thirteenth December, seventeen hundred and ninety-two, and aced upon record after the expiration of two years, the period escribed by the act of the twenty-fifth December, seventeen hunred and ninety-four, but before the passage of the act of seventh ebruary, eighteen hundred and fourteen, shall be received in evience, and have all the force and effect of copies of deeds recorded ithin two years, the period prescribed as aforesaid: Provided, at nothing in this section shall be construed so as to affect the ghts of creditors and subsequent purchasers without notice. (Code 87, § 3333.)

Sec. 6196. Effect as evidence of deeds conveying property heretofore or hereafter sold under a deed, deed of trust, mortgage or y judicial proceedings.—Whenever the title to any property, aimed under a conveyance or deed, heretofore or hereafter made, rporting to be in execution of a sale under a deed, deed of trust, ortgage, or any judicial proceeding, according to the terms of id deed, deed of trust, mortgage, or judicial proceedings, is atcked or called into question in any manner, if it shall appear om the face of such conveyance or deed that such sale has been gularly made in accordance with the terms of such deed, deed of ust, or mortgage, or judicial proceedings, such deed or conveyce shall be prima facie evidence that such sale was regularly ade and that the other recitals in such deed or conveyance are ue. (1897-8, p. 322; 1899-00, p. 1247.)

Where it appears from the face of the conveyance under a deed of ust by the trustee that the sale was regularly made in accordance with e terms of the deed of trust, the same shall be prima facie evidence of t fact. Preston v. Johnson, 105 Va. 238, 53 S. E. 1.

The recital in a deed from a trustee to a purchaser under a deed of ust that due and legal notice was given of the time, place and terms of sale is to be taken as prima facie correct under this sectio kins v. Givens, 119 Va. 578, 89 S. E. 871.

Digitized by Google

In this case the deed of a court commissioner was held t the essential recitals to bring it directly within the purview of tion. Saunders v. Terry, 116 Va. 495, 82 S. E. 68.

This section changes the rule laid down in Sulphur Min Thompson, 93 Va. 293, 25 S. E. 232, requiring proof of the rec deed more than sixty years before. See 11 Va. Law Reg. 5.

See 3 Va. Law Reg. 81 for article which probably led to t ment of the statute.

Cited but not construed in Wasserman v. Williams, 105 54 S. E. 893, and in Preston v. Johnson, 105 Va. 239, 53 S. E.
ard v. Landsberg, 108 Va. 161, 60 S. E. 769.

Sec. 6197. Also, copies of records or papers in clerk's any court of the State, or in the public offices thereof, or c of Auditor in certain cases.—A copy of any record or pap clerk's office of any court, or in the office of the Secretar Commonwealth, State Corporation Commission, Board of of Virginia or its successors, Treasurer, Register, either Railroad Commissioner, Commissioner of Agriculture, or t assayer and chemist, attested by the officer in whose office is; and a copy of any record or paper in the office of the Public Works, or the Board of Education, or the board visors of any county, attested by the secretary or clerk board; and a copy of any record or paper in the office of of lands of any county, attested by the surveyor in wh the same is, may be admitted as evidence in lieu of the but, for good cause shown, the original records in the offi surveyor of lands of any county may be required to be p And the certificate of the Auditor of Public Accounts of and time of the return of any real estate as delinquent, sale thereof for taxes, shall be prima facie evidence of stated in such certificate. Any such copy or certificate, pu to be sealed, or sealed and signed, or signed alone, by officer, secretary or clerk, may be admitted as evidence, any proof of the seal or signature; or of the official cha the person whose name is signed to it. The certificate of ditor of Public Accounts of the payment or non-paymen time, of taxes on forfeited or delinquent lands or lots, or not having been entered on the books of the commissione revenue for the county or city shall, in any suit or proce relation to such lands or lots, be prima facie evidence of stated in such certificate, provided it be filed with the p said suit at least twenty days before the first day of the which it is to be offered in evidence. When the certific ports to be signed by the said Auditor, it may be admitte dence without proof of his signature. (Code 1887, § 33 p. 598.)

The copy is primary evidence, equivalent to the original.

Digitized by Google

reston, Gilmer 235; Kelly v. Lehigh Min. & Mfg. Co., 98 Va. 405, 408, S. E. 511, 81 Am. St. Rep. 736.

The original order book of a county court is competent evidence herever a certified copy would be evidence. Ballard v. Thomas, 19 rat. 14.

Copies of decrees in a cause are competent evidence without pro- ıcing the whole record. White v. Clay's Ex'rs, 7 Leigh 68.

A copy of a patent from the record of a county court is as good idence of title as the original would be. Lee v. Tapscott, 2 Wash. 6, 281.

A copy of a copy of a will recorded under section 6202 is prima facie true copy of the will. Effinger v. Hall, 81 Va. 94.

A certificate of probate of a will was certified properly, in this form: A. B. B., Deputy Clerk for S. M. G., Clerk of the Circuit Court of I. ounty, Virginia," and the will itself was attested by "A. B. B., D. Clerk." eld, the record should be read together and the will admitted in evi- ence. Hurley v. Charles, 112 Va. 706, 72 S. E. 609.

A certificate purporting to be made by the auditor of the State, ing in the usual form in which he certifies papers from his office, is idence of the execution of such certificate and of the official character the papers, and also of the facts therein contained. Usher's Heirs Pride, 15 Grat. 190.

Cited in Van Gunden v. Virginia Coal & Iron Co., 52 Fed. 850, C. C. A. 294.

For cases before the statute, see Burk's Ex'rs v. Tregg's Ex'rs, 2 ash. 215; Hord v. Dishman, 5 Call 279; Anderson v. Dudley, Id. 529; owlett v. Daniel, 4 Munf. 473; Ben v. Peete, 2 Rand. 539; Gibson v. m., 2 Va. Cas. 111; Pollard's Heirs v. Lively, 4 Grat. 73.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 619; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 881, 884, 892.

Sec. 6198. Also, copies of records or papers in clerk's office of ıy court of West Virginia, or in the public offices thereof, or cer- ificate of its Auditor in certain cases.—A copy of any record or ıper in the clerk's office of any court in the State of West Vir- nia, or in the office of the Secretary of State, Treasurer, Auditor, surveyor of lands in any county in that State, attested by the ficer in whose office the same is, may be admitted as evidence in eu of the original. The certificate of the Auditor of that State as the return of any real estate as delinquent, or the sale thereof r taxes, or payment or non-payment of taxes on forfeited or de- ıquent lands, or non-entry of lands on the books of the assessors, all, in any suit in relation to such lands, be prima facie evidence what is stated in such certificate, provided it be filed with the ıpers in such suit and notice thereof be given to the opposite party his attorney, at least forty days before the first day of the term which it is to be offered as evidence. Any such copy or certifi- te purporting to be sealed, or signed and sealed, or signed alone, any such officer, may be admitted as evidence without any roof of the seal or signature, or of the official character of the rson whose name is signed to it. (Code 1887, § 3335.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 881, 884.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 130, section 6.

Sec. 6199. When copy filed in one suit may be filed in another.— ıch a copy of any writing, filed in a suit, may be filed in another

Digitized by Google

suit on the same writing, and the defendant shall plead th
if the original was filed. (Code 1887, § 3336.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 892; Corbett v. Nutt, 18 Grat. 624.

Sec. 6200. When court may deliver out original paper, r a copy.—The court in the clerk's office whereof there is an paper filed in a cause (although decided) may, for good c der it to be delivered to any person, retaining in its stea thereof, and may make any order to prevent the improp the original. (Code 1887, § 3337.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 892.

Sec. 6201. When a book, containing judgments, decrees a court, is lost or illegible, how matters therein re-entered.
any book, containing judgments, decrees, or proceedings of is lost, destroyed, or illegible, and there can be again ent rectly, by means of any writing, any matters which were book, such court may cause its clerk to have such matte tered, and such re-entries shall have the same effect as the entries. For any services of the clerk under this section dered necessary by his own neglect, the court shall allo reasonable compensation, which shall be chargeable on th or corporation. (Code 1887, § 3338).

Revisors' Note.—The word "destroyed" in line three of
is new.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 620; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 148
(3d Ed.) 885.

Sec. 6202. When a book or paper in a clerk's office i illegible, how new record made.—Where any such book book containing the record of wills, deeds, or other pa where any paper filed in a clerk's office, is lost, destroy illegible, the clerk in whose office such book or paper w the production to him of any original paper which was in such book. or of an attested copy of the record there anything else in such book, or of any paper so filed, shal plication, record the same anew. The record shall show it is made from an original or a copy, and how the pa which it was made was authenticated or attested. Suc shall have, as far as may be, the same effect that the r paper for which it is substituted would have had. (Co § 3339.)

Revisors' Note.—The word "destroyed" in line three of
is new.

The act of the clerk under this section admitting the record is conclusive upon the question whether the paper is purports to be, and evidence to prove that the copy was not ce the clerk whose name is affixed to the certificate, but by anothe who was not authorized to make the certificate, is inadmissible lateral action. Taliaferro v. Pryor, 12 Grat. 277.

A copy of a copy recorded under this section is prima fa copy of the original. Effinger v. Hall, 81 Va. 94.

Cited in Warren v. Warren, 93 Va. 73, 76, 24 S. E. 9
Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 620; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 148; 4 Min. (3d (2790)

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, pter 130, section 13.

Sec. 6203. How contents of any such record, book, or paper ich has been lost, destroyed, or become illegible, may be proved. Any person desirous of proving the contents of any such book, ord, or paper as is mentioned in the two preceding sections, y file before the circuit court of the county or the circuit or poration court of the city in which such record, book, or paper s, or before the judge thereof in vacation, a petition in writing, ting the nature of the record, book, or paper, the contents of ich he desires to prove, and what persons may be affected by h proof. Thereupon the court shall direct one of its commis- ners to appoint a time and place for proceeding on the said ition whereof reasonable notice shall be given by him to all par- named in such petition, or interested in the proceeding, and any others who shall be known to the court, judge, or commis- ner, or who shall claim to be so interested. If any party inter- ed other than the petitioner, or who may be affected by the of, be an infant or insane person, the said court or judge shall point a guardian ad litem to represent his interest in the cause. ode 1887, § 3340; 1904, p. 99.)

Revisors' Note.—The phraseology of this section has been con- erably changed, and the following important change in meaning also y be observed: As the section stood before the revision, it apparently uired a commissioner to be appointed for the special purpose in each nty and city, seeming to regard the position as a permanent one, to existing at all times, with which commissioner all petitions arising er the section should be filed. It was considered preferable to pro- e that the petition shall be addressed to the court, or the judge thereof vacation, and in each case to allow the court to designate some com- sioner to perform the duties required.

This section is cumulative, and does not deprive the party of his edy at common law, and it seems that where a will has been legally ved in a court of probate, and afterwards destroyed, with the book in ch it is recorded, its contents may be proved by parol evidence. Smith Carter, 3 Rand. 167.

Cited in Warren v. Warren, 93 Va. 73, 76, 24 S. E. 913; Slocum v. npton, 93 Va. 374, 377, 25 S. E. 3. See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) ; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 148; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 885.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, pter 130, section 17.

Sec. 6204. How evidence of the witnesses taken; commissioner keep a journal and return it and evidence to court or to the rk's office; order to be made by the court or by the judge thereof vacation.—The said commissioner shall, at the instance of any son interested, take, in writing, the evidence of all witnesses o may be produced before him, or whom he may think it neces- y to examine. He shall keep a journal of his proceedings in h case, which he shall return, with the evidence taken by him, filed before him, with such explanations and comments as he y deem necessary, to the circuit court of the county or the circuit or corporation court of the city, in which the reco paper mentioned in the petition was, at its next term clerk's office of such circuit or corporation court, in va the court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall make in respect to the said record, book, or paper, or anythi as may be necessary to secure the benefits thereof to interested, or such other order as may be proper in the provisions of sections sixty-one hundred and eighty-thre one hundred and eighty-six shall be applicable to such r

Digitized by Google

Before the judge of such court shall make such ord tion, the petitioner shall cause to be served on the pe ested a notice in writing that he will apply for such o manner provided by section six thousand and forty-one, days before such order is to be made in vacation; but if s or any of them, do not reside in this State, or after d cannot be found therein, an order of publication may provided by sections six thousand and sixty-nine and s and seventy. The commissioner, for his services under last preceding section, shall be allowed the same fees lowed to commissioners in chancery. (Code 1887, § 3341

Revisors' Note.—The latter part of this section as it the revision allowed an order of publication against persons in the county or corporation. Under the present section, publication is not allowed unless the person be a non-res State, or after due diligence cannot be found therein. T publication is the uniform order provided by sections 606 The sentence formerly appearing in this section providing th in vacation should not have jurisdiction to hear and deter under the section, unless he had previously during the ter order consenting that such matters might be submitted dur has been stricken out.

Cited in Warren v. Warren, 93 Va. 73, 76, 24 S. E. 91 Compton, 93 Va. 374, 377, 25 S. E. 3. See Barton, L. Pr. (3 Min. (2d Ed.) 148; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 885.

Sec. 6205. Records and proceedings of a court of an or of the United States, how authenticated.—The recor cial proceedings of any court of the United States, or o or of any country subject to the jurisdiction of the U attested by the clerk thereof, with the seal of the cou if there be a seal, and certified by the judge, chief jus siding magistrate of such court, to be attested in due have such faith and credit given to them in every court State, as they have in the courts of the State, Territor whence the said records come. (Code 1887, § 3342.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "or of any country su jurisdiction of the United States," constituting the third lin are new. This insertion is made in order to make the sec to the Act of Congress. (Rev. Stat. U. S., section 905.)

A record legally authenticated of the proceedings of a petent authority in any other of the United States is conclu

Digitized by Google

the courts of this State to show that a judgment was rendered, and at the party was compellable to pay the amount recovered against him, t it may be opposed by proof of fraud or collusion or of subsequent yments or discounts. Buford v. Buford, 4 Munf. 241. 6 Am. Dec. 1.

A law of another State is sufficiently authenticated under the act Congress (U. S. Comp. St. 1901, section 905), if it has the seal of e State affixed thereto, and the particular officer entitled to affix the l depends upon the regulations of the several States, respectively. nter v. Fulcher, 5 Rand. 126, 16 Am. Dec. 738.

An office copy of a deed registered in North Carolina is not admisle as primary evidence in this State, unless there be some statute of rth Carolina making it primary evidence in that State. Petermans v. ws, 6 Leigh 523.

Office copies of deeds registered in another State are not admissible evidence in this, unless duly authenticated according to the laws of e United States. Id.

A copy of a will and of the probate thereof in a foreign State is thenticated by a certificate of the clerk of the court under his seal of ce, and by a certificate of the presiding justice that the clerk's certiate (not his attestation) is in due form. Held, the authentication is per. Gornto v. Bonney, 7 Leigh 234.

Cited but not construed, Bryan v. Nash, 110 Va. 329, 66 S. E. 69.

Under section 345 the Secretary of the Commonwealth is authorized certify records for use in other States.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 130, section 19.

Sec. 6206. Records and exemplification of office books in a public office of United States or of a State, not pertaining to a court.—records and exemplifications of office books kept in any public ice of the United States, or of a State, not appertaining to a urt, shall be evidence in any court or office in this State, if atted by the keeper of the said records or books, and the seal of office annexed, if there be a seal, and certified by any judge of court of record in the county, city, town, or district in which h office is, or of the Governor, the Secretary of State, the chanlor, or the keeper of the great seal of the State, to be attested due form, and by the proper officer. Such certificate, if given the judge of a court, shall be authenticated by the clerk or thonotary of the said court, who shall certify under his hand d the seal of his office, that the said judge is duly commissioned d qualified; or if said certificate be given by the Governor, the cretary of State, the chancellor, or keeper of the great seal, it all be under the great seal of the State in which the said certcate is made. (Code 1887, § 3343.)

One of the usual methods of proving records is by examined copies. e method prescribed by this section of the Code is merely cumulative, d does not deprive party of the right to resort to any other method owable by common law. Southern R. Co. v. Wilcox, 99 Va. 394, 39 E. 144, note 7 Va. Law Reg. 381.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 130, section 20.

Sec. 6207. Foreign deeds, powers of attorney, policies of insurce, etc.—Every deed or power of attorney executed out of this ate, the acknowledgment or proof of which is certified so that it might be admitted to record under chapter two hundred and every policy of insurance, charter party, copy from any foreign court, or from a register of births and marri place out of the United States, if it be attested by a no his seal of office, that such policy, charter party, record, was made, entered, or kept in due form according to the place in which it was made, entered, or kept, and that is true, and the official character of such notary be cer any court of record, or the mayor or other chief ma any county, city, town, or borough, or under the great State, kingdom, province, island, or colony, in which s may reside, shall be evidence in any court in this Sta 1887, § 3344.)

Digitized by Google

This statute applies to the original deeds, not copies. P Laws, 6 Leigh 523.

For case before the statute, see Kidd's Adm'r v. Alexand
1 Rand. 456. See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 621.

As to foreign affidavits, see section 275.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A
chapter 130, section 21.

Sec. 6208. No person incompetent to testify by reaso est, or because a party.—No person shall be incompeten because of interest; or because of his being a party to suit, or proceeding of a civil nature; but he shall, if competent to testify, and subject to the rules of evi practice applicable to other witnesses, be competent t dence in his own behalf and be competent and compell tend and give evidence on behalf of any other party tion, suit, or proceeding; but, in any case at law, the good cause shown, may require any such person to atte tify ore tenus and, upon his failure to so attend and t exclude his deposition. (Code 1887, § 3345.)

Under this statute it is very clear that the rule in respe tion for incompetency on the ground of interest is equally a parties examined as a witness as to those who are not part Adm'r v. Colbert, 28 Grat. 49, 56.

Cited in Wager v. Barbour, 84 Va. 419, 4 S. E. 842;
Fowlkes, 85 Va. 820, 8 S. E. 817; Hoge v. Turner, 96 Va. 6
291; Gordon v. Funkhouser, 100 Va. 679, 42 S. E. 677; Wri son, 108 Va. 16, 62 S. E. 948.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 605, 610; Barton, C. Pr. (2d
1 Min. (4th Ed.) 642; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 542; 4 Min. (3d Ed
850, 858, 1332.

Discussed, 1 Va. Law J. 255 et seq.

Sec. 6209. If one party incapable of testifying, te other party to be corroborated; when memoranda, etc.
capable party to be received in evidence.—In an action or against a person who, from any cause, is incapable of or by or against the committee, trustee, executor, adm heir, or other representative of the person so incapable ing, no judgment or decree shall be rendered in favor

Digitized by Google

rse or interested party founded on his uncorroborated testimony; id in any such action or suit, if such adverse party testifies, all tries, memoranda, and declarations by the party so incapable of stifying made while he was capable, relevant to the matter in sue, may be received as evidence. (Code 1887, § 3346.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is new; and sections 3346, 3347, 3348 d 3349 of the Code of 1887 have been omitted and thereby repealed. he present Code makes material changes in the law governing the com- tency of witnesses to testify. The following excerpt is taken from the eport of the Revisors made to the General Assembly at its session of 918:

"The subject of the competency of witnesses to testify was one that ceived very careful consideration by the revisors. Nearly all of the fficulties that have arisen in practice have grown out of the exceptions the rule that interest should not disqualify a witness. In the draft bmitted the revisors have removed practically all disqualifications ex- pt to protect confidential communications, especially between husband d wife. In order to meet the difficulties that may arise in consequence a removal of disqualifications, the revisors have added a new section eclaring:" (See section 6209 above.) "It was believed that this sec- on, together with the great safeguard of cross-examination, would be ople protection for the estates of persons laboring under disability or ho are incapable of testifying. In the business affairs of life all evi- nce bearing upon the question at issue is received and considered by e business world, and it seemed proper that the same rule should obtain courts of justice which are enforcing rights arising out of such busi- ss transactions."

Section 3345 of the Code of 1887 (section 6208 of this Code un- anged) removed common law disqualifications on account of interest because a party. The exceptions referred to in the above excerpt were posed by section 3346 of the Code of 1887, for the most part, which ceptions were in turn qualified by sections 3347, 3348 and 3349 of at Code. The principal exception and one which was most fruitful of igation was that pertaining to the survivor of a transaction. Most of e States still retain this exception, but in at least two States other than rginia it has been abolished. (New Mexico and Connecticut.) The jections to the PRINCIPLE of the survivor of a transaction rule can- t be set forth in a note of this character, but they will be found well d ably discussed by Mr. Wigmore, a distinguished authority, in his ork on Evidence (1 Wig. Ev., section 578). The objections to the le IN ACTUAL OPERATION are best illustrated by the numerous ses which arose under the former law, some of which were of such a aracter as to call for amendment of the sections by which they were verned.

Section 2529 of the Code of 1887 on the subject of the competency devisees and legatees, their wives or husbands, as attesting witnesses wills, has been omitted and thereby repealed. This section was con- rued in Bruce v. Shuler, 108 Va. 670, 62 S. E. 973. The competency attesting witnesses to wills is now governed by section 6208. For ecific provisions applying to creditors and executors, see sections 5214 d 5245. For proof of handwriting in holographic wills, see section 229. Section 3346 of the Code of 1887 having been omitted altogether, e part providing that "the competency of attesting witnesses to wills, deeds, and other instruments, shall be determined by the la the day before this Code takes effect," as a matter of course pealed along with the residue of that section.

Digitized by Google

For cases arising under, and pertaining to, sections 3 3348 and 3349 of the Code of 1887 (now repealed), see ann these sections in Pollard's Code (1904), and Supplements (191

Sec. 6210. Competency of husband and wife to test band and wife shall be competent witnesses to testify for each other in all cases, civil and criminal, except as othe vided. (1893-4, p. 722; 1897-8, p. 753; 1901-2, p. 798.)

Revisors' Note.—This and the two following sections ar Acts 1901-2, p. 798. Section 1 of the act provided, among o that "Neither husband nor wife shall be competent to testify fo each other in any proceeding by a creditor to avoid or impea veyance, gift, or sale from the one to the other on the grou or want of consideration but as to said transaction the existi evidence shall remain unchanged." This provision of the a stricken out. It was thought proper to indulge a prima facie that the transaction is fraudulent, but it was considered a ste to declare that neither shall testify in such cases, as was true law. See Hoge v. Turner, 96 Va. 624, 32 S. E. 291.

Section 1 of the act hereinbefore referred to also pr "Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed t existing rules of evidence as to proceedings for divorce, exc where the suit for divorce is brought on the ground of cruel tion, in which cases the husband or wife may testify." Th no longer appears. Under the former law in practically eve matter what the real ground of divorce was, one or the oth grounds was alleged in the bill so as to make the complai petent witness. This being so, the revisors were of opinion t ing above quoted might well be omitted. In order to safegu proceedings, however, and to prevent fraud and collusion, s has been so amended as to enact that no divorce shall be gra uncorroborated testimony of the parties or either of them. note to that section.

Cases relating to the provision of section 1 of the act q first paragraph of the revisors' note above.—Bank v. Holland, 39 S. E. 126, 55 L. R. A. 155, 86 Am. St. Rep. 898; Hoge 96 Va. 624, 32 S. E. 291; Crowder v. Garber, 97 Va. 565, 34 Atkinson v. Solenberger, 112 Va. 667, 72 S. E. 727; Eason v. Va. 390, 76 S. E. 957. See 1 Va. Law Reg. 673; 2 Va. La 3 Va. Law Reg. 410; 4 Va. Law Reg. 469.

Cases on the general subject of the competency of husba as witnesses for or against each other, decided before the (Acts 1893-4, p. 722).—William & Mary College v. Powell, 1 Fink v. Denny, 75 Va. 663; Ratliff v. Vandikes, 89 Va. 307, 1 Dugger v. Dugger, 84 Va. 130, 4 S. E. 171; Witz v. Osborn, 2 S. E. 33; De Farges v. Ryland, 87 Va. 404, 12 S. E. 805, Rep. 659; Scott v. Rowland, 82 Va. 484, 4 S. E. 595; Smith 76 Va. 758; Marks v. Spencer, 81 Va. 751; Crabtree v. Dunn, 11 S. E. 1053; Bowman v. Reinhart, 89 Va. 435, 16 S. E. 27 Housman, 90 Va. 816, 20 S. E. 830; Statham v. Ferguson's Grat. 28; McDevitt v. Frantz, 85 Va. 740, 8 S. E. 642; Mur v. Carter, 23 Grat. 477; Johnston v. Slater, 11 Grat. 321 Mill, 78 Va. 468; Perry v. Ruby, 81 Va. 317; Lindsay v. 82 Va. 479, 5 S. E. 534; Warwick v. Warwick, 31 Grat. 7 R. Co. v. Prindle, 82 Va. 122; Radford v. Fowlkes, 85 Va.

Digitized by Google

7; Jones v. Degge, 84 Va. 685, 5 S. E. 799; Johnson v. Fry, 88 Va. 5, 12 S. E. 973, 14 S. E. 183.

See, also, as to competency of husband and wife as witnesses for or ainst each other at common law, Norfolk, etc., Co. v. Read, 87 Va. 185, S. E. 395; Grayson v. George, 85 Va. 908, 9 S. E. 13; Hayes v. Mutual, c., Asso., 76 Va. 225; Farley v. Tillar, 81 Va. 275; Nicholas v. Austin, Va. 817, 1 S. E. 132; Frank v. Lilienfeld, 33 Grat. 377; Thomas v. llman, 87 Va. 683, 13 S. E. 146.

Sec. 6211. Testimony of husband and wife in criminal cases.— criminal cases husband and wife shall be allowed, and subject the rules of evidence governing other witnesses, may be com- lled to testify in behalf of each other, but neither shall be com- lled, nor without the consent of the other, allowed to be called a witness against the other except in the case of a prosecution r an offense committed by one against the other, but if either called and examined in any case as a witness in behalf of the her, the one so examined shall be deemed competent, and sub- ct to the exception stated in the next section, may be compelled testify against the other under the same rules of evidence gov- ning other witnesses. The failure of either husband or wife to stify, however, shall create no presumption against the accused, r be the subject of any comment before the court or jury by the osecuting attorney. In the prosecution for a criminal offense mmitted by one against the other, each shall be a competent tness except as to privileged communications. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to section 6209 as to confidential mmunications.

The act of 1897-8 (Acts 1897-8, p. 753), referred to at the end of e preceding section, did not change the common law rule that a wife a competent witness to testify against her husband relative to offenses leged to have been committed by him on her. Davis' Case, 99 Va. 838, S. E. 191. Under the present section (6211) "each shall be a com- tent witness except as to privileged communications." (Last sentence.)

Sec. 6212. Communications between husband and wife.—Neither sband nor wife shall, without the consent of the other, be ex- mined in any case as to any communication privately made by e to the other while married, nor shall either be permitted, with- t such consent, to reveal in testimony after the marriage relation ases any such communication made while the marriage subsisted. d.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to section 6209 as to con- dential communications. The word "privately" in this section is new. e Pilcher v. Pilcher, 117 Va. 356, 84 S. E. 667. See, also, Wilkes v. ilkes, 115 Va. 886, 80 S. E. 745.

The rule that neither husband nor wife can, without the consent of e other, testify as to any communication made by one to the other, etc., es not apply to communications between husband and wife with regard a business matter in which he is acting as her agent. Lurty v. Lurty, 7 Va. 466, 59 S. E. 405.

In Wilkes v. Wilkes, 115 Va. 886, 80 S. E. 745, it was held that sub- vision 3 of section 3346a of Pollard's Code (1904) (upon which the ove section is based), applied to any communication between husband d wife, and that the statute did not limit the exception to confidential mmunications. In Pilcher v. Pilcher, 117 Va. 356, 84 S. E. 667

Digitized by Google

(annotated, 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 34), it was held that commu tween husband and wife made in the presence of third perso just sense either confidential or privileged. The revised sec the word "privately." See revisors' note above.

Sec. 6213. If a party refuse to testify when requir missed, or plea, etc., struck out.—If any party, requ other to testify on his behalf, refuse to testify, it shal for the court, officer, or person before whom the proceed ing, to dismiss the action, suit, or other proceeding o so refusing, as to the whole or any part thereof, or t and disregard the plea, answer, or other defense of su any part thereof, as justice may require. (Code 1887, §

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 826, 851; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed

Sec. 6214. How adverse party may be examined.—A to testify for another, having an adverse interest, may b by such other party according to the rules applicable amination. (Code 1887, § 3351; 1899-00, p. 124.)

Revisors' Note.—This and two following sections are Acts 1899-00, p. 124, amending section 3351 of the Code of tion 2 of the act has been omitted because it was considered dependently of statute.

Sec. 6215. Witness proving adverse; contradiction; sistent statement.—A party producing a witness shal lowed to impeach his credit by general evidence of ba but he may, in case the witness shall in the opinion prove adverse, by leave of the court, prove that he h other times a statement inconsistent with his presen but before said last-mentioned proof can be given the ci of the supposed statement, sufficient to designate th occasion, must be mentioned to the witness, and he mu whether or not he has made such statement. In ever the court, if requested by either party, shall instruct t to consider the evidence of such inconsistent statements the purpose of contradicting the witness. (Id.)

A party may contradict his own witness, who appears t by other testimony, provided foundation is laid for such evidence by first calling to the attention of the witness the of the supposed contradictory statements sufficiently to desig ticular occasion. This should usually embrace the time, pl son to whom the statement was made; but the omission of be material, where it is evident the witness fully understood referred to. This statute (Acts 1899-00, p. 124, amending of the Code of 1887) is simply declaratory of a well-establ practice. Gordon v. Funkhouser, 100 Va. 675, 42 S. E. 67 son v. Daughtrey, 94 Va. 308, 26 S. E. 822.

This section (3351 of the Code of 1887, as amended criminal cases as well as civil cases. Its language is broad and there is no suggestion on its face to limit its operation
The fact that it is found under the title "Proceedings in and the mere collocation of that section thereunder cannot to override every other consideration, and require the cou it to civil cases, when it is a remedy for an evil as great in as in civil, and the consequences of which may be even McCue's Case, 103 Va. 871, 49 S. E. 623.

Digitized by Google

In proving the prior inconsistent statements of a witness who has unexpectedly proven adverse to the party calling, the party is not restricted to the provisions of this section to proof of the fact that such statements were made, but may give in evidence the details of such statements. McCue's Case, 103 Va. 871, 49 S. E. 623.

Where a witness for the Commonwealth proves adverse and takes the prosecution by surprise, he may be impeached according to this section and appropriate instructions may be given the jury. This procedure has the approval of the McCue Case, 103 Va. 870, 49 S. E. 623, and is established practice in this State. Hardy's Case, 110 Va. 910, 67 S. E. 522.

A party is not bound by all the statements of a witness called by him, if adverse, even though no other witnesses are called against him. He may, on a material point, be contradicted by the physical facts proved in the case. Washington & O. D. Ry. v. Jackson's Admr., 117 Va. 636, 85 S. E. 496.

The annotation to Norfolk & W. R. R. Co. v. Thomas, 16 Va. Law Reg. 48, while not directly on this subject, states the Virginia rule as to the extent of cross-examination.

Discused in a review of the case of McCue v. Commonwealth, 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 664.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 608; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 692; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 825, 851.

Sec. 6216. Contradiction by prior inconsistent writing.—A witness may be cross-examined as to previous statements made by him in writing or reduced into writing, relative to the subject matter of the proceeding, without such writing being shown to him; but if it is intended to contradict such witness by the writing his attention must, before such contradictory proof can be given, be called to the particular occasion on which the writing is supposed to have been made, and he may be asked if he did not make a writing of the purport of the one to be offered to contradict him, and if he denies making it, or does not admit its execution, it shall then be shown to him, and if he admits its genuineness, he shall be allowed to make his own explanation of it; but it shall be competent for the court at any time during the trial to require the production of the writing for its inspection, and the court may thereupon make such use of it for the purpose of the trial as it may think best. The provisions of this section shall apply as well to criminal as civil cases. But this section is subject to this qualification, that in an action to recover for a personal injury or death by wrongful act or neglect, no ex parte affidavit or statement in writing other than a deposition, after due notice, of a witness as to the facts or circumstances attending the wrongful act or neglect complained of, shall be used to contradict him as a witness in the case. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—The words in the present section beginning in line seven of the text "called to the particular occasion," etc., and ending in line twelve with "his own explanation of it" are used in lieu of "called to those parts of the writing which are to be used for the purpose of so contradicting him, and the said writing shall be shown to him." This change is believed to conform to the practice.

The last sentence of the section is new.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6217. How summons for witness issued, and to rected.—A summons may be issued, directed as prescribe tion six thousand and fifty-five, commanding the officer to any person to attend on the day and at the place that suc ance is desired, to give evidence before a court, grand ju trators, umpire, justice, coroner, surveyor, notary, or any sioner appointed by a court. The summons may be issued, tendance be desired at a court, by the clerk thereof; if grand jury, by the attorney for the Commonwealth, or the the court, at the instance of the attorney for the Commo and, in other cases, by the clerk of the circuit court of th or the clerk of the corporation court of the city in whic tendance is desired, or, if it be desired before a justice, by any other justice. It shall express on whose behalf, and case or about what matter, the witness is to attend. Thi shall be deemed to authorize a summons to compel at before commissioners or other persons appointed by aut another State, but only in case they be citizens of this S the summons requires the attendance of a witness at a out of his county or city. (Code 1887, § 3352.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "and, in other cases, by the cl circuit court of the county or the clerk of the corporation cou city in which the attendance is desired," etc., found in the rev beginning in line ten, are used in lieu of, "and, in other cases, PERSON BEFORE WHOM, or a clerk of the court of a coun poration in which, the attendance is desired," etc. The capitali have been omitted, and a few verbal changes made.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 438, 451; Barton, C. Pr. (2d 792; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 825, 1474.

The fact that this section is under the title of "Proceedin Cases" does not preclude its application to criminal cases. collocation under this title does not confine it to civil cases. Case, 103 Va. 1001, 49 S. E. 623.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' An chapter 130, section 25.

See Gregory's Forms No. 436.

Sec. 6218. When trial court may have process for a wit cuted by its own officer in another county or city.—Whenev calling of or during the trial of a civil or criminal case in of record it appears to the court that it is necessary to ha ness from a county or city other than that of trial, the rule, or attachment issued for such witness from the trial c when the court so orders, be executed by its officers in an or city of the State, for which services the officer shall be a reasonable compensation by the court. (1893-4, p. 292

Revisors' Note.—This section now expressly applies to civ as criminal cases. The act from which it is taken was res criminal cases.

Sec. 6219. How subpoena duces tecum issued.—When it by affidavit that any book, writing or document in the p of a person not a party to the matter in controversy, is

Digitized by Google

nd proper to be produced before a court, or any person appointed y it or acting under its process or authority, such court, or a udge thereof in vacation, may order the clerk of said court to ssue a subpoena duces tecum to compel such production at a ime and place to be specified in the order. (Code 1887, § 3353.)

Revisors' Note.—The word "book" appearing in line two of the text s new.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 452; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 325; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 825, 893.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 130, section 26.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 262, 437.

Sec. 6220. How person failing to attend and give evidence, or to roduce a writing or document, proceeded against; prepayment of ileage and attendance.—If any person, after being served with uch summons, fail to attend to give evidence, or to produce such ook, writing, or document, according to the summons, the court or ribunal whose clerk issued the summons, or before whose officer he attendance is desired, or the judge thereof in vacation, or if it vas not issued by the clerk of the court, and the attendance was ot desired before an officer of some city court other than a corporation court, the circuit court of the county, or the circuit or orporation court of the city in which the attendance was desired, r the judge of any such court in vacation, on a special report thereof by the person or persons before whom there was the failure to ttend, and on proof that there was paid to him (if it was required y endorsement on the process) a reasonable time before he was equired to attend, the allowance for one day's attendance and is mileage and tolls, shall, after service of a notice to or rule to how cause against it, if none be shown, fine him not exceeding wenty dollars, to the use of the party for whom he was summoned, nd said court or judge may proceed, by attachment, to compel im to attend and give his evidence, or produce such book, writing r document at such time and place as said court or judge may deem fit. The witness shall, moreover, be liable to any party aggrieved for damages. (Code 1887, § 3354; 1902-3-4, p. 637.)

Revisors' Note.—The word "book," twice appearing in this section s new. In this respect it now conforms to the preceding section. The words "or tribunal" found in lines three and four of the text are also new.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 439; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 690, 691, 792; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 827, 1474.

Discussed, 14 Va. Law J. 135.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 263, 264, 475.

Sec. 6221. Commitment to jail of person refusing to testify, or to roduce writing or document.—If a person, after being served with uch summons, attend, and yet refuse to be sworn, or to give evidence, or to produce any book, writing or document required, he nay, by order of the court whose clerk issued said summons, or the judge thereof in vacation, or if it was not issued by a clerk, by rder of the court or judge having authority to enforce the attendance of the witness under the preceding section, on a spe of the fact by the person before whom such refusal occu mitted to jail, there to remain for a period not exceedi months, or until he shall, in custody of the jailor, give dence or produce such writing or document. (Code 188

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The word "book" in line three of the t as are also the words, "or the judge thereof in vacation," fou four and five. The provision in the latter part of the section maximum confinement in jail at twelve months appears in for the first time.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 439; Barton, C. Pr. (2d E
Min. (3d Ed.) 248, 827.

See Gregory's Forms No. 265.

Sec. 6222. Who may administer oath to witness.—A before whom a witness is to be examined, may administe to such witness. (Code 1887, § 3356.)

Sec. 6223. Interpreters.—Interpreters shall be sworn t terpret, when necessary. (Code 1887, § 3357.)

Revisors' Note.—"Shall" is used in lieu of "may."

Sec. 6224. What is sufficient evidence of non-residence or party; how publication in a newspaper is proved.—In a affidavit that a witness or party resides out of this State of it, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact, although davit be made by a party, and without previous notice anything is authorized or required by this Code or by a to be published in a newspaper, the certificate of the ed lisher, business manager or assistant business manager, o davit of any other person, shall be admitted as evidence stated therein as to the publication. (Code 1887, § 3358 382.)

A decree reciting that the cause came on to be heard as sent defendant upon the bill and order of publication, duly e conclusive proof of such execution. Craig v. Sebrell, 9 Grat. 1
v. Holt, 10 Grat. 284, 291.

For cases before the statute, see Moore v. Gilliam, 5 M
Cunningham v. Smithson, 12 Leigh, 32. See, also, Barton, Ed.) 281.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A
chapter 130, section 32.

See Gregory's Forms, 574, 599.

Sec. 6225. Deposition of witness, by whom taken in t how certified.—In any pending case the deposition of whether a party to the suit or not, may be taken in this S the declaration or bill has been filed by a justice, or notar commissioner in chancery; and, if certified under his han received without proof of the signature to such certificat 1887, § 3359.)

Revisors's Note.—The words, "after the declaration or bil filed," are new. See 10 Va. L. Reg. 663.

A person taking a deposition certifies that the deposition before him, and signs his name to the certificate with the addi

Digitized by Google

ers "J. P." Held it sufficiently appears that he is a justice of the ce. Pollard's Heirs v. Lively, 2 Grat. 216.

The appellate court will presume that the deposition has been regu- ly taken where no objection has been taken in the court below. Id.

As to when exception may be taken to the competency of witnesses, Baxter v. Moore, 5 Leigh 219; Stewart v. Conrad's Adm'r, 100 Va. 3, 40 S. E. 624; Simmons v. Simmons' Adm'r, 33 Grat. 451, 460.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 431; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 786; Min. (3d Ed.) 830, 831, 1374, 1398.

For monographic note on Depositions, see Field v. Brown, 24 Grat. Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 130, section 33.

See Gregory's Forms No. 610.

Sec. 6226. Of witness, who resides out of the State, by whom ken; how certified.—The deposition of a witness, whether a party the suit or not, who resides out of this State, or is out of it in e service thereof, or of the United States, may be taken before y commissioner appointed by the Governor of this State, or any stice, notary, or other officer authorized to take depositions in the ate wherein the witness may be, or if the deposition is to be taken a foreign country, before any person that the parties may agree on in writing, or any American minister plenipotentiary, charge affaires, consul-general, vice-consul, commercial agent appointed the government of the United States, or any other representa- ve of the United States in a foreign country, or the mayor, or her magistrate of any city, town, or corporation in such country, any notary therein. Any person, before whom a deposition may so taken, may administer an oath to the witness, and take and rtify the deposition with his official seal annexed; and if he have ne, then the genuineness of his signature shall be authenticated some officer of the same State or country, under his official seal, less the deposition is taken by a justice out of this State, but in e United States, or before some person agreed upon in writing by e parties, in which case his certificate shall be received without y seal annexed, or other authentication of his signature. When deposition is taken before some person agreed upon in writing the parties other than the officer authorized to take the deposi- on, the said writing shall be returned with the deposition, and e deposition shall not be read unless said writing is so returned. Code 1887, § 3360.)

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 431; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 787; 4 in. (3d Ed.) 830-832, 1374, 1398.

As to depositions in federal courts, see 1 Va. Law Reg. 152.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 130, section 34.

Sec. 6227. No commission necessary.—No commission shall here- fter be necessary to take a deposition, whether within or without he State. (Code 1887, § 3361.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is as it appears in the Code of 1887, ith the omission of the words, "except as provided in section twenty-five hundred and thirty-seven." For reasons for this on section 5252 and revisors' note.

Digitized by Google

Section 3361 of the Code of 1887 was amended in 1908 p. 116); but that amendment has been omitted and therel because it was not believed that any other State can regulate of evidence to be used in the courts of this State.

Sec. 6228. Notice to be given of taking a deposition stage of suit in equity, a deposition may be returned a Reasonable notice in writing shall be given to the adv of the time and place of taking every deposition. It ne in any particular form, nor served in any particular ma it shall be deemed sufficient in any form or served in an if it conveys the needed information, and is actually r reasonable time before the time fixed for the taking. A there are pending in the same court several actions or suit the same parties, depending upon the same facts, or inv same matter of controversy, in whole or in part, a deposi in one of said actions or suits, upon a joint notice to the s or parties, may be read in all, so far as it is applicable vant to the issue. In a suit in equity, a deposition may if returned before the hearing of the cause, or, though af terlocutory decree, if it be as to a matter not thereby adju be returned before a final decree. (Code 1887, § 3362.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "in writing" appearing in t the text are new. The second sentence is new, and changes sion in King & Co. v. Hancock, 114 Va. 596, 77 S. E. 510. the last sentence of section 6041 and revisors' note thereon.

Necessity for notice.—A deposition cannot be read to interests of any party to whom no notice of the time and pla ing it had been given. Stubbs v. Burwell, 2 Hen. & M. 53 may be admissible as to the party receiving due notice. Colv stead, 5 Leigh 101. And the objection to it may be taken offered to be read as evidence to the jury. Unis v. Charlto 12 Grat. 484.

It seems that a deposition cannot be read, though it s counsel professing to represent the adverse parties appeared examined the witness, unless notice be produced or proved Charlton's Adm'r, 12 Grat. 484.

When a deposition is read at common law, whether it de bene esse or in chief, it should appear in the record, upon that notice of the time and place of taking it had been giv adverse parties. Collins v. Lowry, 2 Wash. 75 (2d Ed. 97).

When guardian ad litem had no notice of depositions they read against infant defendants. Walker v. Grayson, 86 Va S. E. 51.

If depositions are read on a trial without objection, or if is made without an exception taken to their admission, upo trial of the cause they will not be excluded for the failure notice to take them unless the party objecting has given not other party of his intention to object to them in time to enable offering them to take them again, and the witnesses are al time of such notice. Peshine v. Shepperson, 17 Grat. 472, 94 468.

How notice served.—In King & Co. v. Hancock, 114 Va S. E. 510, 19 Va. L. Reg. 57 (and note), it was held that the no of the taking of depositions under this section as it stood b resent revision had to be served in the manner prescribed by section 207 of the Code of 1887, as amended (corresponding to section 6041 of his Code); and that a service on the party or his counsel by sending he notice by registered mail was not sufficient. The present section hanges this rule. See revisors' note above.

Digitized by Google

A notice to take a deposition given to the overseer of the party ho resided part of his time in the State and part out was not sufficient. hapman v. Chapman, 4 Hen. & M. 426.

In taking an acconunt a commissioner may take the deposition of witesses under the general notice. McCandlish v. Edloe, 3 Grat. 330 3d Ed. 315).

If a commissioner gives notice by publication in a newspaper, an xception by a party for want of personal notice, where that was practicale, ought not to be entertained unless he shows by his own affidavit or therwise that he had no such information of the contemplated proceedng of the commissioner as would have enabled him to attend. McandlIsh v. Edloe, 3 Grat. 330 (2d Ed. 315).

Reasonable notice.—What is reasonable notice is dependent upon he peculiar circumstances of each case, the principal of which are the istance, traveling conveniences, condition of roads, and other such matrs as affect the ability of the party to attend personally or by counsel, nd to return in time for trial. Trevelyan's Adm'r v. Lofft, 83 Va. 141, 46, 1 S. E. 901. See Coleman v. Moody, 4 Hen. & M. 1; Fant v. Miller, 7 Grat. 187.

Where a notice was left with the wife of a party at his dwelling ouse when it was known by the adverse party that he was absent on a ourney to another State, and where it appeared that the notice might reviously have been given to the party himself, and that the taking of he deposition might have been postponed until his return, it was held hat the notice was insufficient, and the deposition taken under it was uppressed. Coleman v. Moody, 4 Hen. & M. 1.

A notice is given by plaintiff to defendant, for taking depositions f several witnesses at a specified place in Missouri, on six successive ays, between certain hours of each day. Held, considering the disance of the place appointed for taking the depositions, and the uncerainty of the precise time at which the party would be enabled to have hings in readiness for taking them, the notice is sufficiently definite. Kincheloe v. Kincheloe, 11 Leigh 393 (2d Ed. 409).

A notice, given June 7th, that depositions would be taken in London on July 4th following, is sufficient. Trevelyan's Adm'r v. Lofft, 83 a. 141, 1 S. E. 901.

For note upon reasonable notice to take depositions, see 11 Va. aw Reg. 930.

Notice to two places at same time.—If a party gives notice of the aking of several depositions at different places on the same day, so that he opposing party cannot be present to cross-examine all the witnesses, e may select which examination he will attend, and the other deposiion will be suppressed. Fant v. Miller, 17 Grat. 187. But if he attends y counsel at both places he cannot object to the deposition taken at ither or both places. Latham v. Latham, 30 Grat. 307.

A defendant in two suits in which the plaintiffs are different, though epresented by same counsel, cannot complain of the taking of depositions in the two suits, one in Georgia and the other in New York, on he same day. Wytheville Ins. & Banking Co. v. Teiger, 90 Va. 277, 18 . E. 195.

Place.—A notice to take depositions is insufficient if it omits the lace where the depositions are to be taken. Hunter v. Fulcher, 5 Rand. 26, 16 Am. Dec. 738.

Depositions after decrees.—After an interlocutory decree upon a earing, deciding the questions of fact in issue, neither party has an abolute right to introduce new evidence touching the question so decided. The introduction of such evidence depends on the sound discretion of the court and its judgment on the sufficiency of the excuse offe failure to have it before the court when the cause was hea interlocutory decree pronounced and such excuse may be off on motion upon notice or upon a petition for a rehearing of Moore v. Hilton, 12 Leigh 1; Richardson v. Duble, 33 Grat. 7

Digitized by Google

Even after interlocutory decree, a deposition taken an before a final hearing may be read as to any matter not a Richardson v. Duble, 33 Grat. 730.

It seems that this section permits a commissioner to ret tions of parties who have once deposed. Atwood v. Shenando Co., 85 Va. 967, 9 S. E. 748.

The last sentence of this section does not give an abs
The statute does not say the deposition "shall be," but "it ma
It could hardly have been intended that after the cause had be to a commissioner, and ample opportunity afforded both parti duce their witnesses, and after the commissioner had made and the cause was ready for a hearing, that one of them s the absolute right at any time thereafter to bring forward his and demand the reading of it upon a controverted matter Sarvey, 104 Va. 229, 51 S. E. 228.

New evidence may be introduced before a commissione any matter of account directed by the interlocutory decree the court touching any matter of the account which the cour the decree to have referred to a commissioner. Moore v.
Leigh 1.

A deposition having been taken after the cause was set in the superior court of chancery, and no objection appeari been made in that court, the appellate court will presume cause was shown for admitting it. Stubbs v. Burwell 2 Hen.

When a cause has been submitted for hearing, in vacatio not later than a specified day, to be fixed by further agreeme tions taken and returned after such submission, and before th for the hearing, may be read. Radford v. Fowlkes, 85 Va. 8 817.

If depositions be taken without objection during the ter a final decree is rendered, objection cannot be made at the the first time. Fisher v. Dickenson, 84 Va. 318, 4 S. E. 737.

Quære, what would be such a final decree as would party from filing new evidence touching a question thereb Dunbar's Ex'rs v. Woodcock's Ex'r, 10 Leigh 629 (2d Ed. 660)

Generally.—Where depositions were regularly taken and cause upon proper notice to the parties, but the decree whi dently based upon them omits to mention the depositions, considered a clerical mistake, and the cause will be acted upo depositions had been only referred to in the decree. Day v.
22 Grat. 146.

An officer taking depositions cannot resume the taki future day without an adjournment to such day. Hunter 5 Rand. 126, 16 Am. Dec. 738.

A notice to take a deposition to be read in case in whic Bartley is plaintiff may be read in an action carried on by Bartley, the person being obviously the same. Bartley v. Mc
Grat. 750.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 433, 448, 1307; Barton, C. P
784, 788, 789; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 834, 1374, 1398.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A
chapter 130, section 35.

See Gregory's Forms No. 365.

Sec. 6229. Notice to non-resident may be served on cou to decide on its validity.—Whenever any party, on whom to take a deposition should be served, is not a resident of

Digitized by Google

e service of such notice on the counsel of such party or on any e of such counsel, if there be more than one, shall have like ef- ct as if it were served upon the party, provided the time between e service of notice and taking the deposition be sufficient for con- ying by ordinary course of mail a letter from the place of ser- ce to the place of residence of the party, and a reply from that ace back to the place of service, and then for the counsel to at- nd at the place of taking the deposition. In all cases when no- e is served on counsel as aforesaid, the court, upon exception ing taken, may determine whether, under all the circumstances e notice has been served in reasonable time, and admit or reject e deposition accordingly. (Code 1887, § 3363.)

Notice served on defendant's counsel in Richmond, 3:45 P. M. y 24th, to take depositions at Hampton, May 26th, between 9 A. M. d 6 P. M., the defendants residing in Baltimore, is insufficient. Payne Zell, 98 Va. 294, 36 S. E. 379.

Cited but not construed in King & Co. v. Hancock, 114 Va. 596, S. E. 510, 19 Va. L. Reg. 57 and note.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 433, 436; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 789, 1; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1374. For case before the statute, see Cahill v. ntony, 4 Munf. 371.

For W. Va. decisions on simliar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 121, section 33.

Sec. 6230. When deposition may be retaken and read.—The dep- ition of a witness may be retaken in any case without the con- nt of the court first obtained, and may be read, if the court, upon plication, in the exercise of a sound discretion, would have made order for such re-examination. (Code 1887, § 3364.)

It seems that it is proper for defendants to retake a deposition when ch retaking is to prove facts rendered necessary to their defense by e action of the plaintiff since their first depositions. Fant v. Miller, Grat. 187, 219-222.

It seems that leave to read a deposition will always be granted ienever justice seems to require it. Carter v. Edmonds, 80 Va. 58. e Booth v. McJilton, 82 Va. 827, 1 S. E. 137.

The lower court, when acting under this section, will not be reversed less palpably wrong. Leonard v. St. John, 101 Va. 752, 45 S. E. 474. See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 449.

Sec. 6231. Under what circumstances a deposition may be read case at law.—A deposition in a civil case at law, taken on such otice, under sections sixty-two hundred and twenty-five, sixty- vo hundred and twenty-six and sixty-two hundred and twenty- ght, may be read in such case if, when, it is offered, the witness e dead, or out of this State, or one of its judges, or a superintend- t of a hospital for the insane distant more than thirty miles from e place of trial, or in any public office or service, the duties of hich prevent his attending the court, or be unable to attend it om sickness or other infirmity, or be more than a hundred miles om the place of trial. But where the only ground of reading a eposition is, that the witness is more than a hundred miles from e place of trial, on motion to the court, before the commencement of the trial, it may, for good cause shown, require such to attend in person. (Code 1887, § 3365.)

Digitized by Google

Deposition ought not to be admitted in a suit at law un pears by the record in what suit and by what authority they w and that the witness could not attend the trial. Butts v. Rand. 255.

As to what proof of the inability of a witness to attend t necessary when his deposition taken de bene esse is offered t see Collins v. Lowry, 2 Wash. 75 (2d Ed.) 97.

The affidavit of a witness taken before a justice of the p from his age and infirmities he was unable to attend the cou endangering his life, not having been objcted to in the lower want of notice, that objection cannot be made in the appell Tayloe v. Smith, 10 Grat. 557.

Plaintiff, having taken deposition of an aged and infirm be read de bene esse, fails to take out a subpoena, and have on the witness to attend at the trial; yet held that, upon s proof of the witness' inability to attend the trial by reason of the deposition shall be read. Lynch v. Thomas, 3 Leigh 682.

An affidavit as to inability to attend the trial of the cause taken eight days before the cause was called for trial, is su authorize the deposition of the witness, which had been take esse, to be read in evidence. Tayloe v. Smith, 10 Grat. 557.

A witness giving his deposition de bene esse states in it unable from his age and health to attend the court; this is su authorize his deposition to be read upon the trial of the cause i is taken. Pollard's Heirs v. Lively, 2 Grat. 216; Nuckols' Adm' 8 Grat. 267.

It is improper to read a witness' deposition in a court account of his absence unless the party offering the deposit that he has used due diligence to find the witness, or that within the jurisdiction of the court and the reach of it Tompkins v. Wiley, 6 Rand. 242.

The circumstance that a witness has been summoned an attend is not sufficient to authorize the reading of his deposition esse, but it must be proved that he is dead, or, if living, unable Minnis v. Echols, 2 Hen. & M. 31.

Hearsay evidenec that the deponent has left the country not returned, is not sufficient to authorize the reading of his Collins v. Lowry, 2 Wash. 75 (2d Ed. 97); Wise Terminal Cormick, 107 Va. 376, 58 S. E. 584.

Quaere, whether upon a question of the witness' inabi tend on account of his health hearsay evidence as to the st health may properly be heard by the court. Lynch v. Thoma 682.

Depositions which have been read may be taken to the if what is objectionable in them is erased. Hansborough v 25 Grat. 495.

Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 430, 450; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 84 Pleading and Practice, p. 465.

See section 4415, as to depositions of female witnesses in

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' An chapter 130, section 36.

See Gregory's Forms No. 610.

Sec. 6232. How depositions certified, returned, and f when received to be endorsed.—A deposition, when compl be certified and returned by the officer taking it, or sealed through the post-office, or by some public carrier, to the the court wherein the suit or other proceeding, in which sition is taken, is pending, or to the commissioner or pers

Digitized by Google

whom it is to be read; and when received, the clerk, commissioner, or other person to whom sent, after endorsing thereon the time it was so received, shall file it among the papers of the suit or other proceeding. (Code 1887, § 3366.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "or sealed and sent through the post-office, or by some public carrier," are new.

It seems that a deposition upon due notice may be read, though it was returned to the clerk's office open and unsealed, but without being shown to be erased or altered. Givens v. Manns, 6 Munf. 191. See revisors' note above as to depositions sent through the post-office or by public carriers.

A commission (under former law) directed to five persons ("any three of whom may act") cannot be executed by one only, and the return by one that three others were present when the deposition was taken is not sufficient. It should be certified by three at least who were present. Marshall v. Frisbie, 1 Munf. 247-252.

It is no objection to a deposition which is duly certified that it is not signed by the witness. Barnett v. Watson, 1 Wash. 372.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 834, 842.

See Gregory's Forms No. 610.

Sec. 6233. May be read by either party.—A deposition, if not read on the trial by the party taking it, may be read by the other party. (Code 1887, § 3367.)

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 448; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 842.

Sec. 6234. How taken after decision of cause from which appeal, etc., lies.—In any case wherein there has been a judgment, decree, or order, from or to which an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas, has been or might be allowed, a deposition may be taken for any party to such case, or for or against his wife or her husband, personal representative, heirs, or devisees, in like manner, and by such persons, as is before prescribed for pending cases; and it may be read in any future trial that may be directed, if the same could properly be read had there been no such judgment, decree, or order. (Code 1887, § 3368.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 842.

Sec. 6235. How testimony perpetuated.—A person desirous of perpetuating the testimony of witnesses as to a matter in respect to which there is no suit, may file with a commissioner in chancery of a court wherein, if there were a bill to perpetuate the testimony, such bill might be filed, a petition addressed to such commissioner stating such matter, and what persons may be affected by the testimony. Whereupon, the commissioner shall appoint, for proceeding on the petition, a time and place, whereof reasonable notice shall be given to the persons who may be so affected. If any of them be an infant or insane person, the commissioner shall appoint a guardian ad litem to attend on his behalf. At such time and place the commissioner shall take in writing the evidence of any witnesses adduced in respect to the said matter by the petitioner, or by the person so affected. He may adjourn from time to time, and shall return a report of his proceedings, with the testimony taken by him, to the clerk's office of the court by which he was appointed,

Digitized by Google

and such testimony shall have the same effect as if it taken on a bill to perpetuate testimony. Such court n such order as to the costs as may seem to it right. (C § 3369.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "addressed to such commiss pearing in line five of the text, are new.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 217, 303, 807; 4 Min. (3d 1374.

For editorial comment on this section, 14 Va. Law Reg.

Sec. 6236. Interrogatories to adverse party or claima and how filed; how answers thereto enforced; how used as

—In a case at law a party may file in the clerk's office, case or matter before a commissioner of a court, any terested may file with such commissioner interrogatori adverse party or claimant. The clerk or commissioner sh summons, directed as prescribed in section six thousand five, requiring the officer to summon the proper party said interrogatories, and make return thereof within such exceeding sixty days, as may be prescribed in the summo the summons there shall be a copy of the interrogatori shall be delivered to the person served with the summo time of such service; if the summons be against the pla is not a resident of this State, or a defendant who is not of this State, but who has appeared in the case or been se process in this State, the service may be on his attorn
When the court in which the case is, or whose commissio the summons, is satisfied that the interrogatories are rel such as the person to whom they are propounded would to answer upon a bill for discovery, and sees also that rogatories have not been unreasonably delayed, it may, i person do not in a reasonable time file answer thereto, u or, if he file answers which are evasive, attach him and c to answer in open court, or to answer more explicitly. It if it see fit, set aside a plea of his, and give judgment ag by default, or if he be plaintiff, order his suit to be dism costs, or, if he be claiming a debt before a commissioner such claim. Answers to such interrogatories may be us dence at the trial of the cause, in the same manner and same effect as if obtained upon a bill of discovery. A c may be required to answer proper interrogatories under tion, and shall answer by its president, vice-president, secretary, cashier, business manager, or by any officer having the information sought in said interrogatories, such person may be summoned to answer said interroga such corporation. (Code 1887, § 3370; 1910, p. 376.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence is new.

A party to a cause is not bound to answer interrogato

Digitized by Google

may subject him to a penalty or a forfeiture. Poindexter v. Davis, 6 Grat. 481.

This rule is not confined to cases where the purpose of the action is to enforce the penalty or forefeiture, but extends to those where the discovery itself would expose the party to some action or suit or any criminal or penal prosecution tending to a like result. Id.

If the court permits improper interrogatories to be filed, and directs them to be answered, the party to whom they are directed may answer them, and then on the trial of the cause may object to their admission as evidence. Id.

Though interrogatories be filed in an action at law, they can only be given in evidence by the party who has filed them, and will not be admitted as evidence unless offered by such party. If introduced by him as evidence, the whole of the answers will go together to the jury, before whom they will not be conclusive, but have such weight only as the jury think them properly entitled to, and be subject to be disproved by any other evidence which the other party may introduce. McFarland v. Hunter, 8 Leigh 489; Vaughn v. Garland, 11 Leigh 251 (2d Ed. 250).

As to what interrogatories the person to whom they are propounded would be bound to answer upon a bill for discovery, see Baker v. Morris' Adm'r, 10 Leigh 284 (2d Ed. 294). See, also, Fant v. Miller, 17 Grat. 187; N. & W. R. Co. v. Postal Tel. Cable Co., 88 Va. 932, 14 S. E. 689.

Cited but not construed, Wash.-Va. Ry. Co. v. Bouknight, 113 Va. 596, 75 S. E. 1032.

For case before the statute, see Templeton v. Fauntleroy, 3 Rand. 434.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 453, 896; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 849, 1045, 1375; Gregory's Forms Nos. 435, 657.

Sec. 6237. When and how production of book accounts or other writing compelled.—In any case at law a party may file in the clerk's office, and in any case or matter before a commissioner of a court any person interested may file with such commissioner, an affidavit, setting forth that there is, he verily believes, a book of accounts or other writing in possession of an adverse party or claimant containing material evidence for him, specifying with reasonable certainty such writing or the part of such book. The clerk or commissioner shall issue a summons, directed as under the preceding section, requiring him to summon the proper party to produce such writing, or an exact copy of such part of the said book, and make return thereof as under that section. With the summons there shall be a copy of the affidavit, which shall be delivered to the person served with the summons at the time of such service; if the summons be against a plaintiff, who is not a resident of this State, or a defendant who is not a resident of this State, but who has appeared in the case or been served with process in this State, the service may be on his attorney-at-law. When the court in which the case is, or whose commissioner issued the summons, is satisfied that the person filing such affidavit has no means of proving the contents of such writing, or of such part of the book, but by the person summoned producing what is required by the summons, and that the same is relevant and material, and sees also that the call therefor has not been unreasonably delayed, it may, unless the person summoned shall, in a reasonable time, either produce what

Digitized by Google

it so required, or answer in writing, upon oath, that he ha der his control such book or writing, or any of the like attach him and compel him to do the one or the other. It if it see fit, set aside a plea of such person, and give j against him by default, or if he be plaintiff, order his s dismissed with costs, or if he be claiming a debt before a sioner, disallow such claim. This section shall apply to tions and the court or commissioner, as the case may be, s jurisdiction to enforce its provisions as to a corporatio taching the proper custodian of any such book or other w the possession of such corporation. (Code 1887, § 3371; 376.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence is new.

Cited in the dissenting opinion of Buchanan, J., in C
Adams Bros.-Paynes Co., 113 Va. 547, 75 S. E. 294, 18 Va. L. and note; Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Steele, 117 Va. 788, 86 S. E.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 453; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 826, 1375.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' An
chapter 130, section 44.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 434, 609.

Sec. 6238. Effect of the two preceding sections on bill in The two preceding sections shall not preclude a person, not file such interrogatories or affidavit, from exhibiting chancery for a discovery, as he might have done if the said had not been enacted. But a person filing such interrog affidavit, shall not afterwards exhibit a bill in equity ag same party for the discovery or production of the same (Code 1887, § 3372.)

If discovery is necessary in order for plaintiff to make law, bill must be filed before judgment is rendered; he canno lief in equity after the rendition of the judgment. Green, &c., 21 Grat. 356.

See generally as to a bill of discovery, Fant v. Miller, 17
Smith v. Smith's Adm'r, 92 Va. 696, 24 S. E. 280. See 4 Min.
849, 1375; Gregory's Forms No. 137.

Sec. 6239. Presumption of death from absence.—If an who shall have resided in this State, go from, and do not the State for seven years successively, he shall be presun dead in any case wherein his death shall come in questio proof be made that he was alive within that time. (C § 3373.)

Revisors' Note.—For sections applying to the grant of let ministration on estates of persons presumed to be dead, se 5361 to 5368, inclusive.

This section is simply declaratory of the common law.
Stewart, 81 Va. 724.

A person for seven years not heard of by those who, if h would naturally have heard of him, is presumed to be dead, b raises no presumption as to the precise time of his death. T of proof that the death took place at any particular time seven years lies upon a person claiming a right to the establi which that fact is essential. Id.

Digitized by Google

The presumption only arises at the end of the seven years. The arty asserting that absentee was dead at any period within the seven ears must prove his assertion affirmatively. Security Bank v. Equit. ife Soc., 112 Va. 462, 71 S. E. 647.

It is incumbent on parties asserting that a person is dead in action n insurance policy to prove death within the life of policy, and this ection gives no aid to the proof until the end of the seven years. ecurity Bank v. Life Ins. Co., 112 Va. 462, 71 S. E. 647.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 254, 1018; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 1032; 3 lin. (2d Ed.) 554. See Carr v. Brown, 20 R. I. 215, 38 Atl. 9, 38 L. R. . 294, 78 Am. St. Rep. 855. Sections 5361 to 5368, inclusive; 19 Va. . Reg. 616.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 130, section 43.

Sec. 6240. Evidence in mitigation of damages.—In any action for efamation, the defendant may justify by alleging and proving that ne words spoken or written were true, and (after notice in writing f his intention to do so, given to the plaintiff at the time of, or or pleading to such action), may give in evidence, in mitigation f damages, that he made or offered an apology to the plaintiff for uch defamation before the commencement of the action, or as oon afterwards as he had an opportunity of doing so, in case the ction shall have been commenced before there was an opportunity f making or offering such apology. (Code 1887, § 3375.)

The truth of defamatory words, written or spoken, if relied upon y the defendant, either as a bar or in mitigation of damages, must be pecially pleaded, and cannot be shown under a plea of not guilty. Williams Printing Company v. Saunders, 113 Va. 156, 73 S. E. 472.

For cases before the statute, see Com. v. Morris, 1 Va. Cas. 176, Am. Dec. 515; Brooks v. Calloway, 12 Leigh 466; Moseley v. Moss, Grat. 534.

See, as to actions for defamation generally, Bourland v. Eidson, 8 Grat. 27; Hogan v. Wilmoth, 16 Grat. 80; Dillard v. Collins, 25 Grat. 343; Hansbrough v. Stinnett, Id. 495; Chaffin v. Lynch, 83 Va. 106, 1 S. E. 303; Id., 84 Va. 884, 6 S. E. 474; Harman v. Cundiff, 82 Va. 239; Holland v. Batchelder, 84 Va. 664, 5 S. E. 695. See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 190, 503, 645; section 5781 and notes.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 130, section 47.

CHAPTER 262.

Loss of a Record or a Paper in a Cause; Actions on Lost Evidences of Debt.

Sec.
6241. How court may proceed, when original papers lost or destroyed; plaintiff may commence new suit in such case; when certified copy of a paper, required to be recorded, may be used as evidence.
6242. Actions at law on lost evidences of debt; plaintiff to give indemnifying bond.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6241. How court may proceed, when original pape destroyed; plaintiff may commence new suit in such case; tified copy of a paper, required to be recorded, may be us dence.—If in any case the original papers therein, or any or the record for or in an appellate court, or any pape connected with such record, be lost or destroyed, any part case may present to the court wherein the case is, or in would or ought to be, but for such loss or destruction, verified by affidavit stating such loss or destruction, and that such case be heard and determined or tried on the r tion of such record or papers, or satisfactory proof of t tents. Upon such petition and an authenticated copy o lost or destroyed, the court may hear and determine the proceed to a trial thereof, if before a jury. The court hear and determine the case, or proceed to the trial there fore a jury, upon proof, after reasonable notice to the part ested of the contents of such record or papers, or so mu of, as may be necessary for a decision by the court, or t jury, if the case be before a jury, and may make such ord cree as if the papers or any of them had not been lo stroyed.

The court may in its discretion, require new pleadings to up in whole or in part.

A plaintiff instead of proceeding under this section m mence and prosecute a new suit for the same matter; and fied copy of any deed, will, account, or other original quired by law to be recorded shall be used by any part dence for him, in any case where the original deed, will, or other original paper or the record thereof has been d until such copy has been properly admitted to record, acc law. This section shall not apply to criminal cases. (C § 3376; 1902-3-4, p. 568.)

Revisors' Note.—This section as it now reads prescribes cedure with more particularity than was formerly the case.

For cases before the statute, see Lyons v. Gregory, 3 Hen. Smith v. Carter, 3 Rand. 167.

This section applies only to civil cases, and does not records or papers in criminal proceedings. Bradshaw v. Com. 507, 86 Am. Dec. 722. The section now expressly provides th not apply to criminal cases.

A party is under no obligation to avail himself of the pro this section, which are only cumulative. Newcomb v. Dru Leigh 57, 60; Corbett v. Nutt, 18 Grat. 624, 639.

It is a sufficient compliance with this section where a alleges and answer admits the destruction of the original pa cause wherein was a decree for sale of certain lands, and the a certified copy of the papers from the Supreme Court where was on appeal, and an injunction will not lie to such sale on t that no affidavit of the destruction was filed. Hudson v. Yo 347, 13 S. E. 436.

As to reinstatement of cause, which it does not appear w

Digitized by Google

emoved, see the Dismal Swamp Land Co. v. McCauley's Adm'r, 85 Va. 6, 6 S. E. 697.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 130, section 14.

Sec. 6242. Actions at law on lost evidences of debt; plaintiff to ive indemnifying bond.—An action at law or motion may be maintained on any past due lost bond, note, or other written evidence of debt, and if judgment be rendered for the plaintiff, there shall be ntered as a part of the judgment that the plaintiff is not to have he benefit thereof, nor be allowed to enforce it by execution or otherwise, unless and until he shall have first entered into bond efore the court or the clerk thereof in such penalty as is prescribed in the order awarding the judgment, and with condition to ndemnify and save harmless the defendant or defendants from ll loss or damage he or they may sustain or incur by reason of aving to pay in whole or in part said past due lost bond, note, or ther written evidence of debt to some other person than the plainiff. The indemnifying bond hereinbefore required shall be payable o the defendant or defendants, and shall be filed in the clerk's ffice of the court in which the judgment is rendered. (1899-00, p. 09.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is based on the act cited. The object f the change in phraseology is to cover the ground more fully.

This section does not deprive courts of equity of their jurisdiction o enforce payment of a lost bond. Kabler v. Spencer, 114 Va. 589, 77 . E. 504.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 95, 593.

CHAPTER 263.

Court Docket; Inquiry of Damages; Trial by Jury; and Judgments and Decrees of the Court for Money.

Sec.

6243. When and how clerks to make out docket of civil cases at law; how docket called and cases disposed of.
6244. Clerks shall make out criminal docket.
6245. When and how docket of chancery cases; how cases called and disposed of.
6246. Trial of issue out of chancery.
6247. Trial of issues, or inquiry of damages, by jury in other cases; province of court at trial.
6248. Removal of cloud on title; nature of plaintiff's title.
6249. When case, in which there is to be inquiry of damages, may be disposed of; when court to make the inquiry.
6250. Remedy, when at trial variance appears between evidence and allegations or recitals.
6251. When final judgment to be entered after verdict set aside; no extension of power over verdicts; after-discovered evidence.
6252. Bills of exceptions.
6253. Certificate in lieu of bill of exception.

Digitized by Google

Sec.
6254. To dispense with the necessity for a motion for a new trial in certain cases.
6255. Argument before jury.
6256. When non-suit not allowed.
6257. What papers jury may carry out.
6258. When faulty count disregarded; when verdict good.
6259. Verdict to fix period at which interest begins, if no period fixed, to be from date of verdict, judgment for interest where no jury; judgment to be for interest until payment.
6260. Power to grant new trial; how often.
6261. How judgment entered on bond for payment of money.

Sec.
6262. In action on annu etc., or for pen breaches assigned jury to do; how entered; when sc sued out, and for cution awarded.
6263. In joint actions, though barred as may have judgme others.
6264. Joint wrongdoers; judgment against 6265. Procedure on j tracts; when pla proceed to judgme part of defendants dismissal or disc as to some.

Sec. 6243. When and how clerks to make out docket of c at law; how docket called and cases disposed of.—Befo term of any court designated for the trial of civil cases juries are required, the clerk of said court shall make out of the following cases at law pending, to-wit:

First. Actions or motions in which the Commonwealth ested.

Second. Actions of forcible or unlawful entry and de

Third. Other motions and actions in the order in whic tices of the motions were filed, or in which the proceeding in the actions were terminated, docketing together as n those not on the docket at the previous term: and the cle Circuit Court of the city of Richmond and of each city co than corporation courts having general common law juris civil cases, shall also put on the docket with said new case as matured, and in the order in which they are matured, matured during the term of the said court. The clerk sh the control of the court, set the cases to certain days, and et shall be called and the cases on it tried or disposed o term in that order, except that the court may, for good ca up any case out of term. (Code 1887, § 3378.)

Revisors' Note.—General language is used in this section all proper courts, and the section relates to civil cases at Criminal cases are provided for by the following section, whi is new and requires a separate docket to be kept of those ca preference given to actions of forcible or unlawful entry and d in conformity with section 5446.

In debt on bond, if common order and common order have been regularly entered at rules, cause is properly on office docket at next term of court, though no indorsement of the p has been made on the papers in the suit. Wall v. Atwell, 21

Digitized by Google

Where common order is confirmed on first day of term, it is improper to place cause on docket for that term. White v. Archer, 2 Va. Cas. 201.

Cited in Hanks v. Lyons, 92 Va. 30, 22 S. E. 813; Furst v. Banks, 101 Va. 208, 43 S. E. 360.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 166, 167, 258, 577.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 131, section 1.

Sec. 6244. Clerks shall make out criminal docket.—Before every term of any court in which criminal cases are to be tried, the clerk of said court shall make out a separate docket of criminal cases then pending, in the following order, numbering the same:

First. Felony cases.

Second. Misdemeanor cases.

He shall docket all felony cases in the order in which the indictments are found, and all misdemeanor cases in the order in which the presentments or indictments are found or informations are filed, or appeals are allowed by magistrates, and as soon as any presentments or indictments are made at a term of court, he shall forthwith docket the same in the order required above.

All criminal cases shall be disposed of before civil cases, unless the court, by an order entered of record, shall direct otherwise.

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to the preceding section.

Sec. 6245. When and how docket of chancery cases; how cases called and disposed of.—Before every term of a circuit or corporation court, and of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, the clerk of each of said courts shall make out a separate docket of chancery causes in which there are motions, and of other chancery causes which have been set for hearing as to any party, or which the court is to hear upon a plea or demurrer; and the clerk of the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond, the clerk of the Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Norfolk, the clerk of the Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Roanoke, the clerk of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, the clerk of the Law and Equity Court of the city of Richmond, the clerk of the Circuit Court of Henrico county, and the clerk of the Circuit Court of the City of Norfolk, shall also put upon their respective chancery dockets, as soon as matured at rules, and in the order in which they are matured, all chancery causes and motions matured during the respective terms of said courts.

Every cause on the docket shall be called and disposed of during the term. (Code 1887, § 3379; 1893-4, p. 785; 1908, p. 541.)

Revisors' Note.—The provisions applying to the clerks of the courts of law and chancery of the cities of Norfolk and Roanoke are new.

Sec. 6246. Trial of issue out of chancery.—Any court in which a chancery case is pending may direct an issue to be tried in such court or in any circuit or corporation court, and the court shall have the discretion to direct such an issue to be tried before any

Digitized by Google

proof has been taken by either the plaintiff or defendan be shown by affidavit or affidavits after reasonable noti case will be rendered doubtful by the conflicting evide opposing party. (Code 1887, § 3381; 1897-8, p. 942.)

Pre-existing rule—Section largely declaratory.—This s to be merely declaratory of the previously existing rule, exc proof required for the submission of an issue out of chancer permitted to be made by affidavit. Stevens v. Duckett, 107
S. E. 601.

When issue should be ordered.—Where the evidence in suit involves not only the credibility of witnesses, but th forgery and perjury on the part of some of them, it is pecul for a jury, and the chancellor should, of his own motion, or out of chancery. Failure to do so is reversible error. Sh Shoemaker, 112 Va. 798, 72 S. E. 684.

May be awarded to ascertain damages.—Where court decrees specific performance of a contract it may, as ancil main relief, direct an issue "quantum damnificatus," to be bar, to ascertain damages to which plaintiff is entitled. Nagl
22 Grat. 814.

When issue should not be ordered.—The mere affidavit and counsel that the case will be rendered doubtful by con dence is not sufficient to warrant a chancellor in orderin Stevens v. Ducket, 107 Va. 17, 57 S. E. 601.

Proceedings on trial of issue.—On trial of issue out the rule of evidence is the same as on hearing in cha Powell v. Manson, 22 Grat. 177.

When an issue in chancery is tried, it is under superin
the court, who will prevent the introduction of improper tes if the verdict be against the evidence the court will so chancellor may set verdict aside. Plesants v. Ross, 1 Wash.
Dec. 449; Southall v. McKeand, Id. 336.

Where an issue in chancery is directed, any papers n upon such issue which were read upon the hearing of the former trial. McCall v. Graham, 1 Hen. & M. 13.

Finality of verdict.—In a case proper for an issue. ver clusive where evidence is conflicting. Carter v. Campbell,

Where an issue is directed in chancery cause, and verd to which no exception is taken, and a decree is rendered facts found in verdict must be regarded in the appellate c established facts in the case. Lee's Ex'r v. Boak, 11 Grat.

Generally.—The following cases while bearing genera subject of the statute, do not construe it. Hartman v. Stric 228; Snouffer's Adm'r v. Hansbrough, 79 Va. 166; Steptoe Adm'r, 31 Grat. 323; McRae's Ex'rs v. Woods' Ex'r, 1 Hen.
Watkins v. Carlton, 10 Leigh 560; Grisby v. Weaver, 5
Wilson v. Rucker, 1 Call 500; Lavell v. Gold's Adm'r, 25 Gra

The following cases illustrate the law as it stood (prev statute as above amended) with reference to the propriety or of directing issues. Loftus v. Maloney, 89 Va. 576, 16 S. E. son v. Allen, 85 Va. 721, 8 S. E. 835; Carter v. Carter, 8
Keagy v. Trout, 85 Va. 390, 7 S. E. 329; Beverley v. Walde 147; Smith's Adm'r v. Betty, 11 Grat. 752; Crebs v. Jones, Hord's Adm'r v. Colbert, 28 Grat. 49; Reed v. Cline's Heirs, Samuel v. Marshall, 3 Leigh 567; Rowton v. Rowton, 1 Hen Stannard v. Graves, 2 Call 369; Isler v. Grove, 8 Grat. 25
Adm'r v. Armstrong, 5 Grat. 354; Pryor v. Adams, 1 Call Dec. 533; Cocke v. Upshaw, 6 Munf. 464; Galt v. Carter, Id.
v. Marquess, 4 Call 416, 2 Am. Dec. 570.

See note on "Issue Out of Chancery," Va. Rep. Anno.
Gold's Adm'r, 25 Grat. 473.

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 131, section 4.

See Gregory's Forms No. 340.

Sec. 6247. Trial of issues, or inquiry of damages, by jury in other ases; province of court at trial.—The circuit court of any county nd the circuit, corporation or other court of any corporation may, n any other case before it, have an issue tried or an inquiry of amages made, by a jury, and determine all questions concerning he legality of evidence and other matters of law which may arise. Code 1887, § 3382; 1902-3-4, p. 642.)

An issue of devisavit vel non is not made a common-law proceed-ng because allowed by statute, any more than any other issue, under ections 4, 5, chapter 173, Code 1873 (corresponding to sections 6246 nd 6247). Hartman v. Strickler, 82 Va. 225.

See notes under section 6246.

Discussed, 5 Va. Law J. 279.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 131, section 5.

See Gregory's Forms No. 340.

Sec. 6248. Removal of cloud on title; nature of plaintiff's title.—Where a bill in equity is filed to remove a cloud on the title to eal estate, relief shall not be denied the complainant because he as only an equitable title thereto, and is out of possession, but the ourt shall grant to the complainant such relief as he would be ntitled to if he held the legal title and was in posesssion. If an ssue of fact be raised which but for this section would entitle ither party to a trial by jury, the court shall, upon the request f the party so entitled, order such issue to be tried by a jury at ts bar, and the verdict of the jury shall have the like effect as if t had been rendered in an action at law. (1912, p. 76.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is based on the third and fourth aragraphs of the act cited amending section 3058 of the Code of 1887 s theretofore amended. For the residue of that act, see section 5890.

For a case in which the court retained jurisdiction of a suit, in form o quiet title by a plaintiff claiming to be in possession of the land in ispute, but in fact a suit to try title and recover possession from an dverse claimant in possession, see Roller v. Armentrout, 118 Va. 173, 6 S. E. 906.

Under the act from which this section is taken it was held that a erson who has neither the complete legal and equitable title to land or the actual possession thereof may implead the unknown heirs and laimants under former owners who are also out of possession, and who ave long ago abandoned the land, to quiet his title, and remove a cloud herefrom. Buchanan Co. v. Smith, 115 Va. 704, 80 S. E. 794.

Bona fide claimants in adverse possession of a portion of land are ecessary parties to a suit under this section. Buchanan Co. v. Smith, 15 Va. 704, 86 S. E. 906.

Cited (as Acts 1912, p. 76) but not construed in Ely v. Johnson, 14 Va. 31, 75 S. E. 748.

Sec. 6249. When case, in which there is to be inquiry of damages, nay be disposed of; when court to make the inquiry.—At the next erm after an order at the rules for an inquiry of damages, or if the ase be one in which the order is made and the case matured and docketed under the provisions of section sixty-two hundred and

Digitized by Google

forty-three during term of the said court, then at the such order may be executed and final judgment be rend upon, unless good cause be shown for a continuance. Th neither party require a jury, shall ascertain the damag what sum and from what time interest shall be computed judgment for such damages and interest. (Code 1887, §

In an action on the case, if there be an office judgm defendant, with a writ of inquiry, and afterwards, without a jury be sworn as though there were an issue, and verdict b defendant, verdict will be set aside and new trial awarded.
v. Dobbins, 9 Leigh 422. See section 6331.

Under this section court cannot render judgment by def writ of inquiry has been awarded at rules. Commercial U
Co. v. Everhart's Adm'r, 88 Va. 952, 14 S. E. 836.

Continuances.—The following cases discuss the questi tinuances, and under what circumstances the court will or wi them. The decisions in all of them are based upon questions do not construe the statute, for which reason they are not di
These general principles, deduced from them, are given for c
(1) The motion for a continuance is always addressed to the cretion of the court, and while the exercise of that discretion is on appeal it will not be affected except for plain error; (2 asking continuance must be without default, and have exhaust means of preparing for trial; and (3) matters on account of tinuance is sought must be of sufficient importance as to fluence result of trial. Keesee v. Border Grange Bank, 7
Hewitt v. Com., 17 Grat. 627; Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Shott, 22 S. E. 811; Harman v. Howe, 27 Grat. 676; Clinch River
v. Harrison, 91 Va. 122, 21 S. E. 660; Goodell's Ex'rs v
Va. 608, 22 S. E. 504; Carter v. Wharton, 82 Va. 264; Bla
Case, 33 Grat. 443; Mister's Case, 79 Va. 5; Shelton's Case, 16 S. E. 355; Walton's Case, 32 Grat. 855; Roussell's Case, 2

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 131, sections 6, 7.

Sec. 6250. Remedy, when at trial variance appears b dence and allegations or recitals.—If, at the trial of an motion, there appears to be a variance between the ev allegations or recitals, the court, if it consider that subs tice will be promoted and that the opposite party canno diced thereby, may allow the pleadings to be amended, on as to the payment of costs or postponement of the trial, it may deem reasonable. Or, instead of the pleadings be ed, the court may direct the jury to find the facts, and, finding, if it consider the variance such as could not have the opposite party, shall give judgment according to t
the case. (Code 1887, § 3384.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "or motion" found in lines of the text are new. This insertion simply makes statutory in McKee v. Bunting, McNeal Co., 114 Va. 639, 77 S. E. 515

Section remedial.—This section is remedial, and sho strued liberally. Langhorne v. Richmond City Ry. Co., 22 S. E. 357; McKee v. Bunting, McNeal Co., 114 Va. 639, 7
Standard Paint Co. v. Vietor, 120 Va. 595, 91 S. E. 752.
motions as well as jury trials. Carter v. Grant's Adm'x, 3 McKee v. Bunting, McNeal Co., 114 Va. 639, 77 S. E. 515.
note above.

Digitized by Google

How question of variance raised.—In case of variance the proper ctice is to object to the evidence when offered, or move to exclude it, attention of the court being thereby called to the variance, and an portunity afforded to meet the emergency under this section. Portsuth St. R. Co. v. Peed's Adm'r, 102 Va. 662, 47 S. E. 850.

Raising question in appellate court.—A variance between evidence l allegation, which might have been cured under this section, cannot taken advantage of for first time in appellate court. Bertha Zinc Co. Martin's Adm'r, 93 Va. 791, 22 S. E. 869; Va. S. W. R. Co. v. Bailey, 3 Va. 205, 227, 49 S. E. 33.

Where no objection was made to the admissibility of evidence and motion was made to exclude on account of a supposed variance, the lection must be considered on appeal as waived. Newport News & P. Ry. & Electric Co. v. McCormick, 106 Va. 517, 56 S. E. 281.

If a defendant in the trial court fails to avail himself of the remedy ovided by this section, or to give the plaintiff or the court the opporiity to invoke it, he cannot, in the appellate court, take advantage of irregularity which the statute would have cured. Conrad v. Ellisonrvey Co., 120 Va. 458, 91 S. E. 763.

If a plaintiff declares on the common counts in assumpsit only when should have declared specially upon the contract sued on and its each, this section furnishes the defendant a remedy, and it is too late raise the question for the first time in the appellate court. Conrad v lison-Harvey Co., 120 Va. 458, 91 S. E. 763.

Amendments.—Under this section court may at trial, in case of riance between declaration and evidence, allow former to be amended thout remanding case to rules. Alexandria & F. R. Co. v. Herndon, Va. 193, 12 S. E. 289. But, if defendant requests it, jury should be charged, defendant allowed to amend plea, or plead anew, and cause continued. Tabb v. Gregory, 4 Call 225.

After mistrial, and before retrial, court may permit declaration to amended. Jude v. Syme, 3 Call 522.

Defendant may have leave to file additional set-offs when it will not lay plaintiffs, and is essential to substantial justice, and if the plaintiff tains leave to amend his declaration, as defendant is entitled to conuance, there can be no objection to filing account on ground of delay. rkins' Adm'r v. Hawkins' Adm'x, 9 Grat. 649-653.

Under Code 1873, chapter 173, section 7 (same as this), where deration charges that slanderous words were uttered in the presence of ree persons named, and proof showed only two, the variance is imaterial, and declaration may be amended at trial. Harman v. Cundiff, Va. 239.

Upon an issue of nul tiel record the court may allow amendment of claration. Anderson v. Dudley, 5 Call 529.

Where, in action on insurance policy, declaration omits one conion indorsed upon it, and on the trial, when policy is offered in evince, it is objected to for variance, the court may permit declaration be amended by inserting the omitted condition, and proceed with trial. w York Life Ins. Co. v. Hendren, 24 Grat. 536. But see section 6094.

If a corporation is sued for a personal injury, and evidence of dndant tends to show that the injury was committed by another corration, the plaintiff upon request, under this section, should be allowed amend his declaration so as to charge that the two corporations were e same, and known by both names. Langhorne v. Richmond City Ry. ., 91 Va. 364, 22 S. E. 357.

An answer will be allowed to be amended in order to allow the dendant to plead the statute of frauds, or the statute of limitations. epperson v. Shepperson, 2 Grat. 502.

Declaration recited that contract sued on was under seal but copy ven in declaration did not show seal. When contract was introduced evidence it appeared that seal was affixed. Held, the plaintiff may end his declaration. Mathieson Alkali Wks. v. Mathieson, 150 Fed. 1.

Digitized by Google

The court, under this section, may permit the plaintiff, the evidence is all in, to amend his declaration, and its action is not reversible error in the absence of a demand by the de the imposition of terms or a continuance; an exception to th the court is not sufficient. Long Pole Lumber Co. v. Gro Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit), 180 Fed. 5, 16 Va. Law R

The reason for amending is to admit new evidence w have been theretofore inadmissible. This statute is remedial be liberally construed. Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Perdue, 1 83 S. E. 1058.

Where there is a variance between the evidence and the it is in conformity with this section to allow the pleadings to and to continue the case, and the practice is to be commende tive of substantial justice. Ches. & O. R. Co. v. Swartz, 1 80 S. E. 568.

If a court is unable to give judgment in a case because o between the plaintiff's pleadings and his evidence, it ought plaintiff leave to amend his pleadings in accordance with th of this section. McKee v. Bunting, McNeal Co., 114 Va. 639, 7

In an action by a vendee against a vendor for fraud an warranty in the sale of personal property, the dates of the s were each alleged in the declaration under a videlicet. Th knew the precise dates of each sale, and after one of its wi supplied those dates, the trial court permitted each count in tion to be amended by the insertion of the precise dates whi been proved by the vendor's witnesses. While of opinio amendments were not material, the court said that even if they were fully authorizd by this section and by what is 6104 of the Code. Standard Paint Co. v. Vietor, 120 Va. E. 752.

Such amendments as are mentioned in the preceding pa not add new, separate and distinct causes of action to each o in the original declaration, and are within the rule laid do River Mineral Co. v. Painter, 100 Va. 507, 42 S. E. 300, he objectionable on this ground. Standard Paint Co. v. Viet 595, 91 S. E. 752.

What variance not material.—Where notice of motion to R., late sheriff, and his surviving sureties, by name, survivo selves and James Sims, and on trial the bond is introduced R. and surviving sureties, but is objected to on ground that pe in notice, James Sims, signs as Jos. Sin, this is not a materi and is one that ought to have been cured by amendment und tion. Beasley v. Robinson, 24 Grat. 325.

Where record of one case is used as basis for another variance between such records and the declaration, which wo vent the record in the present case from being a bar to and for the same cause, are not sufficient to exclude it. Forbes 75 Va. 168.

Generally.—Cited but not construed, Norfolk & P. Tra Daily, 111 Va. 665, 69 S. E. 963; Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. W Va. 801, 86 S. E. 103.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 170, 467, 493, 587, 1014; Gregory's Forms No. 294; note to 2 Va. Law R

See notes to section 6104.

Discussed, 14 Va. Law J. 21; 8 Va. Law J. 65.

As to amendment before appearance and of bill in va section 6095.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A chapter 131, section 8.

Sec. 6251. When final judgment to be entered after aside; no extension of power over verdicts; after-disco nce.—When the verdict of a jury in a civil action is set aside by trial court upon the ground that it is contrary to the evidence, or ithout evidence to support it, a new trial shall not be granted if ere is sufficient evidence before the court to enable it to decide e case upon its merits, but such final judgment shall be entered to the court shall seem right and proper. If necessary to assess mages, which have not been assessed, the court may empanel a ry at its bar to make such assessment, and then enter such final dgment. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to ve to trial courts any greater power over verdicts than they w have under existing rules of procedure, nor to impair the right move for a new trial on the ground of after-discovered evidence.

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and is intended to apply to all il actions and, of course, to motions under section 6046, as these have en held to be actions. The object is to end the action at once and put e losing party to his writ of error, thus avoiding the temptation to per- ry and in many cases the unnecessary expense of a second trial.

The further effect of the section is that it will probably be used as substitute for a demurrer to the evidence. Instead of demurring to e evidence, the trial will proceed to verdict, and the losing party will ve to set aside the verdict because contrary to the evidence or without idence to support it; and if the court sustains the motion, it will enter dgment accordingly, and the party in whose favor the verdict was ndered will then apply for a writ of error. The verdict is not robbed any of the weight heretofore given to the verdict of a jury, but the dgment of the appellate court, instead of remanding the case for a new al, will be a final judgment, just as it was under the former law on demurrer to the evidence. The advantage of getting rid of the addi- nal trial seems to be manifest.

This section should be read in connection with section 6363.

Sec. 6252. Bills of exceptions.—In the trial of a case at law, in hich an appeal, writ of error or supersedeas lies to or from a higher urt, a party may except to any opinion of the court, and tender bill of exception, which, if the truth of the case be fairly stated erein, the judge shall sign, and it shall be a part of the record of e case. Any bill of exception may be tendered to the judge and gned by him, at any time before final judgment is entered, or ithin sixty days from the time at which such judgment is en- red, whether another term of the said court has intervened or ot; and any bill of exception so tendered to and signed by the dge, as aforesaid, either in term time or in vacation, shall be a art of the record of the case. The same rule shall apply when ses are heard or opinions are rendered in vacation, in which se the party excepting shall have sixty days from the day that ch opinion is rendered. This section shall apply to criminal ses as well as to civil cases. (Code 1887, § 3385; 1901, p. 186; 02-3-4, p. 864; 1914, p. 419; 1916, p. 722.)

Revisors' Note.—Section 3385 of the Code of 1887 was last amended an act approved March 21, 1916 (Acts 1916, p. 722). The General Assembly at the same session also passed an act abolishing ceptions and prescribing certificates of exceptions in lieu the 1916, p. 708.) These acts were approved on the same da named act contained an emergency clause; the other contai clause. In Ellis v. Town of Covington, 94 S. E. 154, 15 Va. was held that "The emergency act was operative at once, an in force during the interval between its passage and the ti the act abolishing bills of exceptions took effect, when it was repealed." But the court further held that "The act abolis exception, now in force, was intended, however, to simplify th and is very liberal in its provisions as to what shall constitut certificate. * * * The mere form of the exception, the a formal bill of exception under the former practice will no consideration if the provisions of the act are substantially com This Code re-instates the formal bill of exception (section contains also in the main the substance of the act of 1916 on of the certificate (section 6253). The former is re-insta benefit of those practitioners who prefer not to depart from to which they are accustomed; the latter is preserved for t those who prefer that method. Objections to bills of excep the former practice, were based, not upon their form (such one of the most informal documents connected with the trial but generally upon their contents or time of filing. Section fixes a definite time within which the bill must be signed. observed that sixty days are given instead of thirty, as w formerly, but that the time may not be increased by consen record. It was thought that this period would be sufficient poses, and that by making it a fixed, definite, unchangeable ficulties formerly encountered would be obviated. It sho observed that the time for signing is made the same for bot bill of exception and for the certificate, thus preventing c tween the two as to the time of signing, and that the prov act prescribing certificates permitting, by consent, a longer that stated in the act, has been stricken out altogether. It that, by giving the practitioner his election between the two preserving exceptions, and by making the time for signing f and definite, and the same in both methods, the saving of in the trial courts has been made as simple and as safe fro ability of fatal defects as could be reasonably desired.

Digitized by Google

Office of bill.—It is the office of a bill of exceptions to specific and definite allegation of error, and as much of the is necessary to show error of ruling made by court, and if i so it avails nothing. Holleran v. Meisel, 91 Va. 143, 21 S. E

Nothing not made part of the record by bill of exceptio of court can be regarded as such by appellate court, and c clerk that judgment was based on certain papers is no par Roanoke Land & Improvement Co. v. Karn, 80 Va. 589.

An entry in the order book that defendant excepted t ruling of the court will not supply place of bill of exceptio Case, 90 Va. 360, 18 S. E. 440; Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. A Va. 10, 17 S. E. 757, 44 Am. St. Rep. 884; Fry v. Leslie, 12 S. E. 671; Ferguson's Adm'r v. Willis, 88 Va. 140, 13 S.

Form and contents.—A general bill of exceptions certif evidence, and noting at intervals that objection was made propounded, and objection overruled and exception taken, is n exception to ruling of court on such questions. In order to of exception on motion to admit or reject evidence, there n

Digitized by Google

xceptions clearly and distinctly pointing out each erroneous ruling plained of, and, while several exceptions may be saved by same yet each must set forth clearly and distinctly the ground of objection d on, so that there may be no confusion among them. Norfolk & t. Co. v. Shott, 92 Va. 34-46, 22 S. E. 811; Holleran v. Meisel, 91 43, 21 S. E. 658; Brown v. Hall, 85 Va. 146, 7 S. E. 182

Any evidence contained in any bill of exception may be considered certified in each. Section 6364.

Exception must state enough of evidence to show propriety or impriety of question asked to which objection is made and the answer itness thereto. Johnson's Ex'x v. Jennings' Adm'r, 10 Grat. 1, 60 Dec. 323; De Jarnette's Case, 75 Va. 867; Langhorne's Case, 76 1012; Stoneman's Case, 25 Grat. 887.

Where exception is to refusal of court to give instruction bill must ut enough of evidence to show its relevancy; but if court, instead erely refusing such instruction, gives another in lieu thereof, it is a onable inference that there was evidence as to matter of such in-ctions. Chapman v. Wilson, 1 Rob. 267; Fitzhugh's Ex'r v. Fitz-, 11 Grat. 300, 62 Am. Dec. 653; Carpenter v. Utz, 4 Grat. 270; ey Mut. Life Ass'n v. Teewalt, 79 Va. 421.

The evidence is not a part of the record unless made so by a proper of exceptions. It is not a bill of exception and fails of its purpose ss it is authenticated by the signature of the judge presiding at the . Colby v. Reams, 109 Va. 308, 63 S. E. 1009.

Where a bill of exception does not contain any evidence in support n objection to evidence made in the trial court, the objection will be considered in the appellate court. Ramsay v. Harrison, 119 Va. 89 S. E. 977.

A bill of exception to a ruling on the admissibility of evidence is sufficient, although it gives the question and the answer, unless it contains sufficient of the evidence which has preceded to give the t a clear apprehension of the propriety or impropriety of the trial t's ruling. Jacobs v. Warthen, 115 Va. 571, 80 S. E. 113; Wash. & . Ry. Co. v. Ward, 119 Va. 334, 89 S. E. 140.

A bill of exception to the action of the court in refusing to allow a ess to answer a question is not sufficient when it does not show at t stage of the examination the question was asked, nor contain enough he evidence to enable the court to obtain a clear understanding of propriety or impropriety of the ruling of the court. Powers v. ilton, 117 Va. 810, 86 S. E. 98.

A bill of exception to the ruling of the court, refusing to permit a ess to answer a question, must show what answer was expected of witness. The same rule applies to questions on cross-examination o questions in chief. Holladay v. Moore, 115 Va. 66, 78 S. E. 551.

If the bill of exception to the action of the court in excluding an-rs to questions does not disclose what the answers would have been, ils to disclose any prejudice to the exceptor. Bowman v. First Nat. k, 115 Va. 463, 80 S. E. 95.

Time of signing.—See revisors' note above. Formerly, the time n by the statute then in force could be extended by consent entered ecord. See in this connection Moore v. Harrison, 114 Va. 424, 76 E. 920; Wright's Case, 111 Va. 873, 69 S. E. 956; Battershall v. erts, 107 Va. 269, 58 S. E. 588.

Under this section, as it formerly read, a bill of exceptions could be signed more than thirty days after the adjournment of the court, ept by consent of the parties entered of record, and an error in the er stating that the defendant, instead of the plaintiff, excepted, could be cured by a nunc pro tunc order made after the expiration of the ty days. Ratliff v. Meadows, 116 Va. 975, 83 S. E. 395.

Under the former law it was held that after the expiration of more n thirty days from the adjournment of the term of a court at which inal judgment was entered, the judge was without jurisdiction to enter a consent order extending the time for signing a bill Lancaster v. Stokes, 119 Va. 149, 89 S. E. 85.

Digitized by Google

The former section gave the court power to retain t the purpose of signing bill of exception, during the vacation following the term at which the opinion excepted to was ann for thirty days after the adjournment of such term, if the va last so long; but the beginning of the new term, although days, put an end to the court's jurisdiction for that purpose not afterwards be resumed. Hoover v. Saunders, 104 Va. 7 657, 11 Va. Law Reg. 1001, and note.

Formerly bills of exception were parts of the record in vacation within thirty days after the end of the term a judgment was rendered, though they were to opinions of t nounced neither at the term during which the bills were within thirty days after the end of such term. Manchester & Loan Assn. v. Porter, 106 Va. 528, 56 S. E. 337.

Under the law as it existed formerly, bills of exceptio at the term or in vacation within thirty days thereafter, or at which the parties by consent entered of record at same that they should be signed but signed at a subsequent term, considered. Midget's Case, 107 Va. 846, 59 S. E. 606.

Under the law as it formerly stood, correct practi that a bill of exception, not signed during the term at whi complained of was announced, should show that it was s thirty days after the end of the term or at such other time by consent entered of record may have agreed upon, but whe certificate was dated within thirty days of a day on whic showed the court was in session, it was held sufficient. Bu
v. Hickman, 108 Va. 665, 62 S. E. 804.

Where the judge left the bench without any order for ment, and without again holding the court for that term, or do so, until a day after the beginning of the next term, the which he so left the bench was, under the former law, t end of that term for the purpose of signing bills of ex Beach D. Co. v. Murray, 113 Va. 692, 75 S. E. 81.

Where judgment was rendered on July 6, 1909, and exceptions were signed on July 31, 1909, they were signed time. Williams' Case, 111 Va. 870, 69 S. E. 1031.

Duty of court—Bills tendered in time.—When a bill is tendered which does not fairly state the truth of the c duty of the judge, with aid of counsel, to alter the bill. Pa
30 Grat. 415-427.

Mandamus lies to compel judge to sign bill of except truth of the case is fairly stated therein. Page v. Clopton, But refusal to sign a bill of exceptions when record does appellant excepted at trial cannot be maintained as erro
v. Karn, 87 Va. 242, 12 S. E. 404.

If tendered in time but not signed, the signature may by mandamus after the expiration of the time prescribe tendering such bills. Conaway v. Commonwealth, 118 Va.
75; Lancaster v. Stokes, 119 Va. 149, 89 S. E. 85.

Proper bills of exception tendered to the judge wit prescribed by law are valid though not signed by him unt tion of such time, or if he die, though signed by his succ after the expiration of such time. Conaway v. Commonwe 792, 88 S. E. 75; Anderson v. Com., 105 Va. 533, 54 S. E. 3

If a trial judge dies or becomes permanently incapacit reason of sickness pending a motion to set aside a verdict that it is contrary to the evidence, his successor or the ju to hold his court, has jurisdiction to hear and determine and to sign a proper bill of exception to his ruling thereon Evans, 114 Va. 461, 76 S. E. 929. See Coke v. Gordon Va. L. Reg. 166.

Digitized by Google

Where a proper bill of exception was tendered to the judge for his nature within the time prescribed by law, but was not signed until e expiration of such time, it will be held to be a part of the record, the exceptor has done everything required of him by law to perfect bill. Lancaster v. Stokes, 119 Va. 149, 89 S. E. 85.

The duty of the judge with respect to signing bills of exception is risdictional, and the time within which it should be exercised is easured by the statute. Lancaster v. Stokes, 119 Va. 149, 89 S. E. 85.

A judge has no right to defer signing bills of exception which have en tendered in due time until after the statutory limitation has ex-ed, and thereby to deprive a litigant of the privilege of having his ls of exception made parts of the record. The judge should settle estions of dispute between counsel with regard to the evidence; and "cannot require counsel to agree upon a statement of the evidence a condition precedent, nor plead lack of time or memory as justifica-n * * * of refusal to certify the same." Lancaster v. Stokes, 9 Va. 149, 89 S. E. 85.

After discovered evidence.—Bill of exceptions to refusal of new trial after-discovered evidence must show not only newly discovered evi-nce, but must set forth evidence given or facts proved on former trial. llaghan v. Kippers, 7 Leigh 608.

Rules in appellate court.—Where bill of exceptions to action of urt overruling a motion for a new trial, on ground that verdict is con-ry to law and evidence, states neither evidence nor facts, nor refers another bill of exceptions in which the facts or evidence is shown, pellate court cannot review the judgment. Washington & N. O. Tel. . v. Hobson, 15 Grat. 122.

Bill of exceptions, not properly signed, will not be considered. rdon v. Brown's Ex'r, 3 Hen. & M. 219.

Allegations contained in bill of exceptions as to what passed at al, if no proof thereof appears in record, are not presumed to be ad-tted to be true by courts signing and sealing it. Ford v. Gardner, 1 n. & M. 72.

Where bill of exceptions to refusal of new trial does not show that ception was to damages given by jury as excessive, the objection can-t be made in appellate court. Law v. Law, 2 Grat. 366.

Appellate court will not consider matters arising on bills of excep-n not presented to court below. Newsum v. Newsum, 1 Leigh 86, Am. Dec. 739.

Exceptions of every kind must be taken in the trial court. They nnot be taken for the first time in the appellate court. Norfolk & Co. v. Norfolk, 115 Va. 169, 78 S. E. 545.

A plea that is stricken out by the trial court is not a subject of view by the appellate court unless it is made a part of the record a bill of exception. It is not sufficient to except to the order striking t the plea. Leary v. Briggs, 114 Va. 411, 76 S. E. 907.

Bills of exception in a completed form are required to be authen-ated by the signature of the presiding judge and the record should show ch authentication. The signature of the judge to a skeleton bill—a ll not containing the evidence, but referring to unidentified papers as ntaining it—leaves the bill incomplete, and is not such authentication the law requires. The stenographer's report of the evidence and other pers intended to be made part of a bill of exception by reference must so articulated as to form but one paper, or in some way earmarked identified by the judge who signs the bill, and the record must show Thornton's Case, 113 Va. 736, 73 S. E. 481.

The provisions of this section in reference to filing bills of exception e mandatory and unless the record shows affirmatively that the bills exception are signed in compliance therewith, they are not part of e record. Standard Peanut Co. v. Wilson, 110 Va. 650, 66 S. E. 772.

While the statute declares that as soon as the bill of exceptions is gned by the judge it "shall be a part of the record of the case," still it must appear from the record itself when the bill of exceptio and thereby made a part of the record. That fact cann to appear by parol evidence. Neither parol evidence, nor long practice in a particular court, nor any statement by t avail to add to or take from the record as made under the s the trial judge. Standard Peanut Co. v. Wilson, 110 Va. E. 772.

Digitized by Google

In case of conflict between a stenographer's notes t trial and the statements in a bill of exception, the latter upon the appellate court. Va. Ry. & P. Co. v. Davidson, 89 S. E. 229.

The rule that facts in one bill of exceptions cannot be r appellate court in considering another bill unless the one other cannot apply to a case where the bill of exceptions c the evidence to which reference is made is taken after all is introduced and the trial is over. Moore v. City of Richm 538, 8 S. E. 387.

If no bill of exceptions to ruling of court refusing to set because excessive, objection cannot be raised in appellate D. R. R. Co. v. George, 88 Va. 223, 13 S. E. 429.

In an appealable case a party has a right to a bill which fairly states the truth of the case, and if necessary, same by mandamus. But if he elects to accept bill as sign its correctness cannot be questioned in appellate court. George, 102 Va. 509, 10 Va. Law Reg. 27, 34 and note, 4

Time at which exceptions must be taken.—Unless it a record that points excepted to were saved before the jury will not be considered on appeal, but bill of exceptions signed at that time. Powell v. Tarry's Adm'r, 77 Va. 2 Bank v. Waddill's Adm'r, 31 Grat. 469.

Where record shows that exceptions were taken during trial, but no formal bills are filed to any ruling, it will that all points saved during progress of trial have been aban v. Leslie, 87 Va. 269, 12 S. E. 671; Trumbo's Adm'r v. Ci Co., 89 Va. 780, 17 S. E. 124; Peery's Adm'r v. Peery, 2 Whalen's Case, 90 Va. 544, 19 S. E. 182.

Evidence set out in one bill of exception may be looke sidering another. Spencer v. Pilcher, 10 Leigh 490; Perki Hawkins' Adm'x, 9 Grat. 649-659.

Exception to particular evidence is not waived by dem dence. Dishazer v. Maitland, 12 Leigh 524. Nor can a bill be treated as demurrer to evidence. Wroe v. Washington, 362.

Vague and uncertain bills.—It was formerly decided th of exception does not state all evidence given on issue, an is given to jury that if they believe certain facts they n plaintiff, judgment will be reversed on ground that facts perfectly stated for court to decide whether or not the i correct. McVeigh v. Allen, 29 Grat. 588. And where bill is so vague and imperfect that the court cannot ascertain e case, nor the import and effect of instructions, appellate cour judgment. Bowyer v. Chestnut, 4 Leigh 1. And where a tions states case imperfectly, the cause ought to be rem new trial. Brooke v. Young, 3 Rand. 106. But these rule changed by Harman v. City of Lynchburg, 33 Grat. 37; Wri 81 Va. 777, and Joslyn v. State Bank of Hartford, 86 Va. 287.

When bill of exceptions unnecessary.—It is not neces bill of exceptions to action of court overruling motion f (Central Land Co. v. Obenchain, 92 Va. 130, 22 S. E. 876) must show that motion was made and overruled and excep berry v. Williams, 89 Va. 298, 15 S. E. 865).

Generally.—The amendment of 1916 to this section w in its operation. Canter v. Com., 118 Va., 800, 88 S. E.

Digitized by Google

Cited but not construed in Yellow P. Co. v. Thompson, 108 Va. 612, 2 S. E. 358; 14 Va. Law Reg. 493.

For discussion of the effect of death of judge in a Federal court, ending a motion for new trial, see 19 Va. L. Reg. 75.

As to failure of judge to sign bill of exceptions within required time ue to his absence from the State, see Lengelson v. McGregor (Ind.), 10 a. Law Reg. 19, 23, and note.

See generally on this section notes to Page v. Clopton, 30 Grat. 416, a. Rep. Anno.; note to Johnson's Ex'x v. Jennings' Adm'r, 10 Grat. 1, a. Rep. Anno.; Stoneman v. Com., 25 Grat. 887, Va. Rep. Anno., for onographic note. See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 519, 523; note Anderson's Case, 8 Va. Law Reg. 660.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 131, section 9.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 294, 295.

See notes to section 4929.

Sec. 6253. Certificate in lieu of bill of exception.—

(a) What may be certified, and how.—In lieu of the bill of exception provided by the preceding section, it shall be sufficient hat, by a note thereto appended or thereon endorsed, in case of he denial by the trial court of any instruction to the jury, the rial judge shall certify that such instruction was requested by ny party and denied by the court, and that the party requesting he same excepted; in case of any instruction granted by the court, hat any party excepted thereto; in case of any question propounded to a witness, that said question was allowed or disallowed, according to the fact, and that any party excepted; and shall further certify briefly, where such question is disallowed, the nswer which such question would have elicited, if at the time that bjection was made to the question by a party excepting there-, the tenor of the answer was ascertained by the court, the name the witness to whom the question was propounded, the party whom such witness was introduced, and at what stage of the xamination, whether upon direct, cross, re-direct examination, cetera, as the case may be, the question was propounded; in case the granting or over-ruling of a motion for a new trial, that ny party excepted; in case of an exception by any party to any her action, ruling, order or judgment, of any trial court, or of ny other matter arising in the course of the trial or hearing of cause, it shall be sufficient, instead of a bill of exception, that he trial judge shall certify that any party excepted to such acon, ruling, order, judgment or matter.

(b) Certificate of evidence or facts.—It shall be sufficient for all he purposes of a review by any appellate court of any action, ruling, order, judgment, or matter, arising in the course of the trial hearing of a cause, that the trial judge shall certify the evidence introduced at the trial or hearing of such cause when a consideration of the evidence may be necessary, in order to a decision pon an appeal of any question involved in such review; but nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the trial judge

Digitized by Google

from certifying, in lieu of the evidence, the facts pro trial or hearing of the cause.

(c) Forms of the respective certificates.—The forms spective certificates hereinabove provided for shall be ly as follows:

"The foregoing instruction was granted at the req plaintiff (or defendant) and the defendant (or plainti
ed. Teste: this ..... day of .....
....., Judge."

"The foregoing instruction requested by the plaint fendant) was denied, and the plaintiff (or defendant Teste: this ..... day of ..... 19....,
Judge."

"To the foregoing question propounded to .....
witness for the plaintiff (or defendant) upon direct,
direct examination, et cetera, by the plaintiff (or defe notwithstanding the defendant's (or plaintiff's) obj lowed by the court, the defendant (or plaintiff) except this ..... day of ..... 19.....
....., Judge."

"The foregoing question propounded to .....
witness for the plaintiff (or defendant), upon direct,
direct examination, et cetera, by the plaintiff (or defe on objection by the defendant (or plaintiff), was dis
the court, and the plaintiff (or defendant) excepted; to the question excepted by the plaintiff (or defe
..... Teste: this ..... day of ...
19....., ..., Judge."

"The following evidence on behalf of the plaintiff defendant, respectively, as hereinafter denoted, is all th that was introduced on the trial of this cause (here dence). Teste: this ..... day of .....
....., Judge."

"The following instructions granted at the request of iff and of the defendant, respectively, as hereinafter de all the instructions that were granted on the trial of this insert instructions). Teste: this ..... day of ..
19....., ..., Judge."

(d) Effect if exceptions are certified in accordance wi tion.—In all cases to preserve of record to all the intent poses any exception to any action, ruling, order or ju the trial court, or any matter arising in the course of t hearing of a cause, it shall be sufficient that the trial the application of any party, shall certify the same s substantially in accordance with the provisions of this s

(e) What matters appellate court to consider; what

Digitized by Google

to embody; transcript of record not to contain repetition.— e appellate court in reviewing, upon a writ of error or super- leas to a final judgment, or upon an appeal from a final decree, an inferior court in a cause, any question arising upon the re- rd in such cause, shall in every instance, wherever necessary to decision of such question, consider any exception, the evidence roduced on the trial or hearing of the cause, or any other mat- , preserved of record in such cause by the certificate of the trial dge as provided by this section; nor in the determination of any h question shall it be necessary to enable the appellate court to nsider any other exception, or the evidence introduced at the al or hearing of the cause, or any other matter preserved of ord in the cause, by the certificate of the trial judge as pro- ded by this section that there shall be any express reference in e certificate of the exception under which such question may se to the certificate of any other exception, of the evidence in- duced at the trial or hearing, or of any other matter, preserved record in the cause, as herein provided. No certificate by the al judge under the provisions of this section shall embody the me of the court or style of the cause, or be otherwise than as rein substantially provided; nor shall the clerk of any trial court making up a transcript of the record in the cause for any party r the purpose of praying a writ of error, supersedeas or an ap- al, after having once identified the cause by its proper style in e trial court, in the caption of such transcript, thereafter in such anscript, reproduce or repeat the style of such cause, except ere the style of such cause appears as a part of the matter pre- rved by a certificate of the trial judge, made under the pro- sions of this section.

(f) When certificate may be signed.—Any certificate to the in- nts and purposes of this section may be signed by the trial judge any time before final judgment is entered, or within sixty days m the time at which such judgment is entered, whether another rm of the said court has intervened or not. The same rule shall ply when cases are heard or opinions are rendered in vacation, which case the party excepting shall have sixty days from the y that such opinion is rendered. This section shall apply to iminal cases as well as to civil cases. (1916, p. 708.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to the preceding section.

Sec. 6254. To dispense with the necessity for a motion for a new ial in certain cases.—The failure to make a motion for a new ial in any case in which an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas s to or from a higher court shall not be deemed a waiver of any jection made during the trial if such objection be properly made part of the record. (1897-8, p. 754.)

This act changes the rule laid down in Newberry v. Williams, 89 a. 298, 15 S. E. 865; Central Land Co. v. Obenchain, 92 Va. 130, 22

Digitized by Google

S. E. 876; Town of Bridgewater v. Allemong, 93 Va. 5
595; City of Norfolk v. Pollard, 94 Va. 279, 26 S. E. 832.
Va. Law Reg. 200.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 518, 559, 764.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 131, section 9.

Sec. 6255. Argument before jury.—Not more than shall argue in a civil case, on the same side, unless by court. (Code 1887, § 3386.)

Discussed, 6 Va. Law J. 75.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 131, section 10.

Sec. 6256. When non-suit not allowed.—A party allowed to suffer a non-suit, unless he do so before th from the bar. (Code 1887, § 3387.)

A non-suit is not a final judgment, but the opposite.
the ending of the present suit without prejudice to the r another. Mallory v. Taylor, 90 Va. 348, 18 S. E. 438; Palmer, 134 Fed. 755.

A plaintiff where no counterclaim has been filed by d take a non-suit at any stage of the case except after the submitted to the jury and they have retired from the court son v. Clemens, 112 Va. 371, 71 S. E. 538.

See section 6117.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 131, section 11.

Sec. 6257. What papers jury may carry out.—Pa evidence, though not under seal, may be carried from the jury. (Code 1887, § 3388.)

A deposition which has been read to the jury may b them in their retirement, if what is objectionable in it has Hansbrough v. Stinnett, 25 Grat. 495.

The plaintiff has no right under this section to deman shown to a witness for the purpose of identifying the si defendant thereto, but which were never introduced in e be allowed to go to the jury for their inspection after the the evidence and arguments. Wilson v. Wooldridge, 118
S. E. 872.

Applied in Johnson's Case, 102 Va. 927, 46 S. E. 78

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 131, section 12.

Sec. 6258. When faulty count disregarded; when v
—When there are several counts in a declaration, one which are faulty, the defendant may demur to the fau counts, or move the court to instruct the jury to dis
If he does neither, and entire damages be found, jud be entered against the defendant for the damages f count be good, although others be faulty, unless th plainly see that the verdict could not have been found count. If he demurs to the faulty count, or moves instruct the jury to disregard it, and his demurrer overruled, and entire damages be found, and it canno which count the verdict was founded, if the jury h charged the verdict shall be set aside, but if it is n

Digitized by Google

ne verdict could not have been found on the bad count, the verict shall be allowed to stand. If the jury have not been disharged, the court shall send them back with instructions to desigate on which count of the declaration their verdict is found. Code 1887, § 3389.)

Revisors' Note.—The revised section contains some changes, the easons for which are too lengthy to be set out in full, but they may be ound discussed in Burks' Pl. & Pr., section 301, pp. 550-554. The orresponding section in criminal procedure is 4923.

See note bearing on this section, appended to C. & O. Ry. Co. v. Ielton, 110 Va. 728, 67 S. E. 346, 16 Va. Law Reg. 205.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 548, 555, 766.

Sec. 6259. Verdict to fix period at which interest begins; if no eriod fixed, to be from date of verdict; judgment for interest where o jury; judgment to be for interest until payment.—In any action whether on contract or for tort, the jury may allow interest on the um found by the verdict, or any part thereof, and fix the period at which the interest shall commence. If a verdict be rendered which oes not allow interest, the sum thereby found shall bear interest rom its date, and judgment shall be entered accordingly. In any uit in equity, or in an action or motion founded on contract, where o jury is impaneled, decree or judgment may be rendered for interest on the principal sum recovered, until such decree or judgment be paid; and where there is a jury, which allows interest, the udgment shall, in like manner, be for such interest until payment. Code 1887, § 3390, 3391.)

Province of jury.—A declaration contained the common counts in ssumpsit and also a special count upon the contract, and the evidence vas such as to have made it possible for the jury to find for the plaintiff ither upon the special contract or upon the general assumpsit. In view f this fact, and of all the circumstances of the particular case, a peremptory instruction of the court to the jury that if they found for the laintiff they should allow interest from the time the plaintiff's demand ccrued under the terms of the contract, was held to be in conflict with his section and such an invasion of the province of the jury as to constitute reversible error, as the jury had the right, in their discretion to ix the date from which the interest should begin to run. Wash. & O. D. ty. v. Westinghouse Co., 120 Va. 620, 89 S. E. 131, 91 S. E. 646.

By an equally divided court it was held that an instruction which irected the jury that liability of defendant was amount of plaintiff's amages, "with interest from September 28, 1898," did not deprive jury f their right, under this section, to fix time at which interest begins, and vas not therefore reversible error. Kimball v. Borden, 97 Va. 486, 34 . E. 45.

Discretion under statute—Word "may."—This statute gives no discretion, in cases where interest is allowed, as to the rate or the time to which interest runs, where there is a lawful contract rate. Boswell v. Big Vein Pocahontas Coal Co., 217 Fed. 822. See an extended review of the Virginia authorities in this case.

Where there is by an express contract, a right on the part of the lebtor that the interest shall be at the rate of 5 per cent. until payment he word "may" in this section is equivalent to "shall" quoad the rate f interest and the time to which interest shall run. Boswell v. Big Vein Pocahontas Coal Co., 217 Fed. 822.

Method of computing.—Where payments are made from time to time

Digitized by Google

on debt bearing interest, the interest is to be computed on date of payment, and the payment is to be deducted from principal and interest. It is error to compute interest on a future day when the debt is to be paid or settlement ma credit the payment and interest upon the debt, principal Fultz v. Davis, 26 Grat. 903. But this may be changed b to credit payment on principal. Pindall's Ex'x v. Bank, 1

Upon a judgment in an action for tort pending when went into effect, it is proper, where jury do not fix date w shall begin, to charge it from the date of verdict. Lewi
13 Grat. 454.

Where verdict does not give interest, it is to be compute of verdict. Fry v. Leslie, 87 Va. 269, 12 S. E. 671.

Judgment on contract held usurious as to part bears i date of judgment for amount found to be due. King v. Bu 828.

Where bond for payment of money bears interest, unde law, at rate higher than is allowed by present law, judgm will bear interest at rate stipulated in bond. Cecil v. Hicks, 26 Am. Rep. 391; Strayer v. Long, 83 Va. 715, 3 S. E. 372.

Abatement of interest—War.—Where, during state of tor resided within the territory of one of the belligerent pow debtor within that of other of said powers, such debtor w the rules of public law, be entitled to abatement of interest the war lasted. Roberts' Adm'r v. Cocke, 28 Grat. 207.

Fiduciaries.—If upon first settlement by guardian of a balance remain in his hands on which he is to account such interest must in his second annual account be cited to h other profits of his estate; and if the interest and profits cre second account exceed the disbursements, the surplus, whet from the interest aforesaid or from other profits, will constitu against the guardian on which, if it remains in his hands, count for interest, which interest must in the third annual credited toward and so on toties quoties. Garrett v. Carr,

When executor unnecessarily sells slave and buys him account for hire or slave, with interest from end of each ye
v. Depriest, 5 Grat. 6, 50 Am. Dec. 94.

A fiduciary whose duty it is to hire out slaves for bene que trust will be held to account for interest on their estim Cross' Curatrix v. Cross' Legatees, 4 Grat. 257. But interest hire of slaves should be allowed only from date of decree, an to allow interest from date of report ascertaining the amo hire. Shields v. Anderson, 3 Leigh 729.

On unliquidated amounts.—Interest on unliquidated acc not to be allowed. Kerr v. Love, 1 Wash. 172; Waggone Adm'rs, 2 Hen. & M. 603; McConnico v. Curzen, 2 Call
Dec. 540.

It is proper to charge interest on hire of slaves actually r not on amounts conjectured to be what such hire ought to b Bland, 5 Munf. 492. But see note under title "Fiduciaries,"

As against Commonwealth.—A claim against Commonwe sented to auditor, which claim is doubtful, and therefore the allows it; and an appeal is taken from auditor to a court which adjudges claim against Commonwealth. Held, interes to be allowed. Quaere, ought interest ever to be allowe against Commonwealth? Auditor of Public Accounts v.
Leigh 241.

Generally.—A commissioner's report shows a balance co tirely of interest found due on an account never before settled that such balance is to bear interest from a remote day; the ception to the report, and the court decrees the balance, with cordingly. Held, the decree was erroneous in giving interes

Digitized by Google

terest except from date of decree. Dunbar's Ex'rs v. Woodcock's x'r, 10 Leigh 629.

In debt on bond with collateral condition jury trying issue find e same for plaintiff, and assess his damages, and allow interest thereon, d then judgment is entered for damages so assessed, with interest, and sts, instead of being for penalty of bond and costs, to be discharged by e damages, interest and costs. Held, though judgment is not entered proper form, yet, the error in the form producing no injury to de- ndant, judgment will not be reversed. Wilson v. Spencer, 11 Leigh 1.

Where deed of marriage settlement settled rents and profits of cer- in property upon wife, but husband collected and used them, but made equent promises to pay them to wife, who after his death brings suit ainst husband's representatives, held, that she is entitled to decree for ch rents and profits, but not to interest thereon. Roper v. Wren, 6 igh 38.

Where one partner leases property for five years without knowledge co-partners, who, after his death, remove therefrom, they will be ble for rent for the term, but not for interest thereon. Kyle v. berts' Ex'r, 6 Leigh 495. See Fred v. Dixon, 27 Grat. 541, Va. p. Anno.

In an action of debt on decree for an amount of interest found due e plaintiff from defendant, interest on amount of decree may be re- vered in shape of damages for its detention, though the decree makes provision for the payment of interest thereon. Stuart v. Hurt, 88 . 343, 13 S. E. 438.

Quaere, if in action on bond surplus interest beyond penalty may given as damages. Baker v. Morris' Adm'r, 10 Leigh 285.

Courts of equity will decree interest upon bond or judgment beyond e penalty against the principal debtor. Tazewell's Ex'r v. Saunders' r, 13 Grat. 354.

This section reverses rule in Hepburn v. Dundas, 13 Grat. 219.

Cited but not construed, Atlantic Coast Line v. Grubbs, 113 Va. 214, S. E. 144.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 298, 300, 303, 318, 320, 321.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 131, section 18.

See notes to sections 5323, 5324.

Sec. 6260. Power to grant new trial; how often.—In any civil se or proceeding, the court before which a trial by jury is had, ay grant a new trial, unless it be otherwise specially provided. new trial may be granted as well where the damages awarded e too small as where they are excessive. Not more than two new ials shall be granted to the same party in the same cause on the ound that the verdict is contrary to the evidence, either by the ial court or the appellate court, or both. (Code 1887, § 3392.)

Revisors' Note.—The latter part of the last sentence is new, to-wit: n the ground that the verdict is contrary to the evidence, either by e trial court or the appellate court, or both." This addition is in- ded to remedy the uncertain meaning of the section as it stood before e revision, as to which see Spriggs v. Jamerson, 115 Va. 250, 78 E. 571.

Under former decisions (Brockenbrough's Ex'rs v. Spindle's Adm'rs, Grat. 21; Lavell v. Gold's Adm'r, 25 Grat. 473; Lamberts v. Cooper's r, 29 Grat. 61, 65; Reed v. Receivers, 84 Va. 231, 4 S. E. 587) new als of issues out of chancery could be granted only by the chancery urts ordering them. The rule is changed by this section.

Applications for new trials are addressed to sound discretion of

Digitized by Google

court, and where it is based on ground of after-discovere must have been discovered after trial, must be material ar cumulative, and such as ought to produce a different res trial, and such as that it could not have been discovered b use of reasonable diligence. Nicholas' Case, 91 Va. 741,

New trial for after-discovered evidence will not be g it is shown that the party wishing to produce it was ignor istence; that by use of reasonable diligence he could not it at the former trial, and that the new evidence is not c with any of that offered at the last trial. He must produce of witnesses stating the facts they will testify, or if this is the affidavits of persons who have conversed with them, facts that they will state. Brown v. Speyers, 20 Grat. 308

The Supreme Court of Appeals has no jurisdiction to gr circuit court to hear and determine a motion for a new trial case after the end of the term at which final judgment Allens' Case, 114 Va. 826, 77 S. E. 66.

Court of chancery cannot award new trial at law. chancery has no power to set aside a judgment rendered grant plaintiff new trial. Wynne v. Newman's Adm'r, 75

When new trial awarded.—Where plaintiff was unavoid from trial, and at same term at which his suit is dismisse fact, he is entitled to new trial. Smith v. Rawlings' Adm'r 3 S. E. 238.

A verdict for $5 and costs will be set aside as inadeq of slander of girl of unblemished reputation by false imp her chastity, for the purpose of injuring an opposing candi Blackwell v. Landreth, 90 Va. 748, 19 S. E. 791.

Where, in case not warranting them, jury gives exemp verdict will be set aside. Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Neely 22 S. E. 367.

When new trial will not be awarded.—Verdict for dam be disturbed unless it is so excessive as to show that jury by passion, prejudice, or other undue influence (Bertha Black's Adm'r, 88 Va. 303, 13 S. E. 452); or manifest ab White, 86 Va. 212, 9 S. E. 1021, 19 Am. St. Rep. 883; Vir R. Co. v. White, 84 Va. 498, 5 S. E. 573, 10 Am. St. Rep. v. Barrett, 76 Va. 128, 44 Am. Rep. 152; Norfolk & W. R 92 Va. 34, 22 S. E. 811); or corruption (Norfolk & W. R. son, 90 Va. 1, 17 S. E. 757, 44 Am. St. Rep. 884); or gross (Richmond Ry. & Electric Co. v. Garthright, 92 Va. 627, 32 L. R. A. 220, 53 Am. St. Rep. 839).

Court should not set aside verdict as contrary to law where it appears that verdict was not plainly against evide evidence to support it. Michie v. Cochran, 93 Va. 641, Noell v. Noell, 93 Va. 433, 25 S. E. 242.

New trial for misconduct of jury will not be grante conduct consisted of jury hearing statement of witness o presence of accused, who did not object, and which was aft to attention of court, in presence of accused and counsel, a afforded them to examine witness, which they did not a objection with regard thereto was made until on motion Williams' Case, 93 Va. 769, 25 S. E. 659.

A verdict of $2,500 in favor of employe for injury capacity to work is very much impaired will not be set asid Iron Co. v. Elkins, 90 Va. 249-260, 17 S. E. 890.

Verdict for $1,000 damages caused by fire will not b excessive, where witnesses estimated it at twice that amo & W. R. Co. v. Draper, 90 Va. 245, 17 S. E. 883.

On what verdict judgment entered.—Where two ver dered in succession, giving plaintiff damages for injury re through negligence, and each is set aside on defendant's a third verdict is rendered giving plaintiff a larger amoun

Digitized by Google

bject, however, to a demurrer to the evidence, which is erroneously cided by court below against plaintiff, he is entitled to judgment on t verdict. Jones v. Old Dominion Cotton Mills, 82 Va. 140, 3 Am. Rep. 92.

Generally.—For discussion of this section, as it stood before the esent revision, see opinion of Buchanan, J., in Spriggs v. Jamerson, 5 Va. 250, 78 S. E. 571. See editorial on this case, 19 Va. L. Reg. 302.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 545, 558, 569, 763; Gregory's rms No. 356.

For monographic note on New Trials, see Boswell v. Jones, 1 Wash. 2, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 131, section 15.

Sec. 6261. How judgment entered on bond for payment of money. hen there is a recovery on a bond with condition for the pay- ent of money the judgment shall be for the penalty of the bond be discharged by the payment of the principal and the interest ie thereon, but when the judgment is against a surety of limited ability in such bond the sum to be paid by such surety in dis- arge thereof shall not exceed the amount to which he has limited s liability on said bond. (Code 1887, § 3393; 1895-6, p. 240.)

On bond conditioned for payment of money, judgment should be for nalty of bond to be discharged by principal sum found by jury, with terest and costs; but where judgment is for sum found by jury, with sts, such error is formal and not fatal. Collier v. Southern Exp. Co., Grat. 718; Moore v. Fenwick, Gilmer 214; Atwell's Adm'rs v. Towles, Munf. 175.

The clause in act of assembly, Rev. Code 1819, chapter 128, section , p. 509 (similar to this section), which prescribes the sum for which dgment is to be entered on bond, meant that in cases of penalty by ay of security the final justice of the case should be attained in courts law, in effectuating which objects those courts are to be governed by me principles which influence courts of equity. Waller v. Long, 6 unf. 71.

Where principal and interest on bond amount to more than penalty, d damages are found, judgment ought not to be entered for penalty, be discharged by principal and interest, with damages so assessed, d costs, but for penalty and damages, not exceeding those in writ. ennant's Ex'r v. Gray, 5 Munf. 494.

Where penalty and condition of bond for payment of money is same, is not error to treat it as a single bill, and to give judgment for amount bond, with interest. Fleming v. Toler, 7 Grat. 310.

Interest beyond penalty of bond or judgment may be decreed against incipal debtor. Tazewell's Ex'r v. Saunders' Ex'r, 13 Grat. 354.

Quaere, if in action on bond the surplus interest beyond penalty ay be given as damages. Baker v. Morris' Adm'r, 10 Leigh 285.

As to how jurisdiction in actions on penal bonds is determined, e section 6374.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 131, section 16.

See Gregory's Forms No. 304.

Sec. 6262. In action on annuity bonds, etc., or for penalty, how reaches assigned; what jury to do; how judgment entered; when ire facias sued out, and for what execution awarded.—In an ac- on on an annuity bond, or a bond for money payable by instal- ents, where there are further payments of the annuity, or fur- er instalments to become due after the commencement of the

Digitized by Google

action, or in any other action for a penalty for the n ance of any condition, covenant, or agreement, the pl assign as many breaches as he may think fit, and shall claration or scire facias assign the specific breaches fo action is brought, or the scire facias is sued out. Th paneled in any such action shall ascertain the damage or the sum due, by reason of the breaches assigned, an shall be entered for the penalty, to be discharged by t of what is so ascertained, and such further sums as ma wards assessed, or be found due upon a scire facias further breach. Such scire facias may be sued out, fr time, by any person injured, against the defendant or representative, and for what may be assessed or foun
the new breach or breaches assigned, execution may b
(Code 1887, § 3394.)

An action of debt will not lie on bond of sheriff for failu execution, but motion must be resorted to. An averment o of condition of bond, though it may not entitle plaintiff t mands, will entitle him to recover what he is legally entitle sequence of such breach. McDowell v. Burwell's Adm'rs, 4

In action on sheriff's bond in name of Commonwealth f person aggrieved by misconduct of sheriff, the judgment sh tered for penalty, to be discharged by payment of dama and costs, and such other damages as may be hereafter a suing out a scire facias and assigning new breaches by pla other person injured. Bibb v. Cauthorne, 1 Wash. 91.

Where aggregate of judgments against guardian and ceeds penalty of bond, judgment will be given for whole amount apportioned between wards. Call v. Ruffin, 1 Call 3

In attachment in equity against A. and B., property of as property of B., and, being sold, the court decrees payment to A. The sheriff failing to pay, A. moves against him and judgment is entered for penalty of bond, to be discha Previous to decision in favor of A. he brought an action on of sheriff, against him and sureties, for trespass in taking hi former judgment was set up as defense. Held, that action is barred, but A. may recover the difference between value of g taken and amount of proceeds paid to A., and it is not proceed by scire facias on former judgment, but action o be sustained. Sangster v. Com., 17 Grat. 124.

Other actions may be maintained on an official bond, previous action judgment has been rendered for the penalt charged by payment of the sum assessed in that action, and sums as might be afterwards assessed or be found to be du facias assigning a further breach. Sangster v. Com., 17 Grat

In action on constable's official bond the assignment o not set out specially the claims put into the constable's hand that relator had placed divers claims in his hands for colle were specifically set out in a receipt given by him and ther and then proceeded to aver the collection of the monies stable, and his failure and refusal to pay over to relator.
the breach was well assigned. In such action the assignme sets out specifically the claims for which constable has given and receipt is referred to in and annexed to the declaratio is committed in stating amount of one of the claims. This for excluding receipt as evidence of other claims correctl Governor v. Roach, 9 Grat. 13.

Digitized by Google

Form of scire facias upon a judgment on a bond with collateral onditions, and assigning new breaches, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1778.

See notes to section 4926; 17 Va. L. Reg. 516.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 95, 265, 583, 956.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 131, section 17.

Sec. 6263. In joint actions, plaintiff, though barred as to some, ay have judgment against others.—In an action or motion, found- d on contract, against two or more defendants, although the plaint- f may be barred as to one or more of them, yet he may have udgment against any other or others of the defendants, against hom he is not so barred. (Code 1887, § 3395.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "or motion" appearing in line one of he text are new. The last five words of this section are used in lieu of he would have been entitled to recover if he had sued them only." his change is made to express what is believed to have been the legis- ative intent.

This section refers only to cases in which some of the defendants re discharged upon defences purely personal, and, where ground of efence goes to foundation of whole contract, the case remains as at ommon law, where judgment must be for or against all. Steptoe v. ead, 19 Grat. 1.

This section applied in Beazley's Adm'r v. Sims' Adm'r, 81 Va. 644.

As for rule regarding merger of action under this section, see orbin v. Bank, 87 Va. 661, 13 S. E. 98, 24 Am. St. Rep. 673.

In joint action against partners, judgment is confessed by one. and ter during the same term is rendered against the other. Held, cause f action was not merged by confession, and the judgment rendered is alid. Pitts v. Spotts, 86 Va. 71, 9 S. E. 501.

In a proceeding by motion against ex-treasurer and sureties to re- over a balance of county levies, a confession of judgment by principal oes not merge cause of action against sureties, and judgment may be endered against latter at succeeding term of court. Nor are rights of laintiff in any wise affected by suffering a non-suit, but he may at a sub- equent term renew his action or motion on same cause of action on any r all the parties against whom he has not already obtained judgment. ahoon v. McCulloch, 92 Va. 177, 23 S. E. 225.

Two defendants jointly sued on a contract, having agreed that a erdict might be rendered against both or either liable, and a verdict nd judgment having been rendered against one and in favor of other efendant, on writ of error to judgment against defendant held liable ie court cannot inquire which of said defendants is primarily liable, as ther defendant is not before court. New York, P. & N. R. Co. v. Crom- ell, 98 Va. 228, 35 S. E. 444, 49 L. R. A. 462, 81 Am. St. Rep. 722.

Action is brought against two persons as partners and two as in- orsers. At next term of court cause stands on office judgment docket, nd one sued as partner pleads nil debit, which is sworn to, and on otion of plaintiff's counsel cause is discontinued to him and judgment endered against others. Held, judgment is good. Muse v. Farmers' ank, 27 Grat. 252.

Where action is against maker of note and four indorsers, upon a lea of usury by indorsers jury find that note indorsed by first three ndorsers was sold by principal to fourth indorser at a usurious rate of nterest, who before it became due transferred it for value to plaintiff. pon this verdict judgment should be rendered in favor of maker and rst three indorsers and against fourth indorser. Moffett v. Bickle, 21 rat. 280.

Under this section there may be judgments in favor of some of de- endants at one time and against other defendants at another, and it pplies to actions on contract against two or more defendants, where

Digitized by Google

defence of some is personal to themselves, though the defe they never were parties to the contract sued on, as non est fac
v. Campbell, 26 Grat. 403.

Where action is against firm, which declaration allege of five members, but at trial evidence is that at time firm debt three of said parties were not members of firm, no ju be entered against said individuals as such firm. Adams 82 Va. 612.

The common law rule is that in an action against several upon a contract, judgment must be either for or against a rule is the same whether the contract is joint or several. W action against two who file a joint plea of non-assumpsit, a has action dismissed as to one, and asks leave to amend de to other, and there is nothing to show that the defense re personal to the former; held, no error to refuse such leave, a section has no application. Gibson v. Burrage, 90 Va. 696, 1

Where one of two joint defendants alone pleads matter merely personal to such defendant, but which goes to the r judgment cannot be rendered against the other defendant, well taken. This section does not apply in such case.
Palmer, 134 Fed. 753, 11 Va. Law Reg. 31.

Under this section's provisions relating to actions on cont two or more defendants there may be a judgment in favor of defendants at one time and against others at another and to actions on contracts against two or more defendants wh fense of some is personal to themselves, though the defense never were parties to the contract sued on as non est factum.
v. Smith, 108 Va. 736, 62 S. E. 930.

Where there is a judgment against A., principal, and jointly, and A. dies, even though the judgment may be barre 6477 as to him, it is not thereby barred against B. or is e liability rests directly on the time elapsed as to him, and th to be barred against the surety must be barred by time agains himself. Manson v. Rawlings, 112 Va. 384, 71 S. E. 564.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 54, 75, 181.

Cited but not construed in Southern Ry. Co. v. Forge
604, 54 S. E. 477.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A
chapter 131, section 19.

Sec. 6264. Joint wrongdoers; effect of judgment aga

A judgment against one of several joint wrongdoers sh the prosecution of an action against any or all the othe injured party may bring separate actions against the and proceed to judgment in each, or, if sued jointly, h ceed to judgment against them successively until jud been rendered against, or the cause has been otherwis of as to, all of the defendants, and no bar shall arise as them by reason of a judgment against another, or others judgment has been satisfied. If there be separate against different defendants for a joint wrong, the pla elect which of them he will prosecute, but the paymen faction of any one of such judgments shall be a discha except as to the costs.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and overturns P
City of Richmond, 95 Va. 456, 28 S. E. 566, which follows rule, and which is in accord with a much earlier Virginia dec said, however, that the great weight of authority in the Unit

Digitized by Google

otherwise (Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 19), and the new section makes this view tatutory in Virginia; the revisors being of opinion that the bar should ot fall until there has been a satisfaction for the wrong done.

Sec. 6265. Procedure on joint contracts; when plaintiff may proceed to judgment against part of defendants; effect of dismissal or discontinuance as to some.—Upon all contracts hereafter made by more than one person, whether joint only or joint and several, an action or motion may be maintained and judgment rendered against all liable thereon, or any one or any intermediate number, and if, in an action on any contract heretofore or hereafter made, more than one person be sued and process be served on only a part of them, the plaintiff may dismiss or proceed to judgment as to any so served, and either discontinue as to the others, or from time to time as the process is served, proceed to judgment against them until judgment be obtained against all. Such dismissal or discontinuance of the action as to any defendant shall not operate as a bar to any subsequent action which may be brought against him for the same cause. (Code 1887, § 3396.)

Revisors' Note.—Before the revision this anomaly existed in Virginia: Under section 3212 of the Code of 1887 (6047 of this Code), the plaintiff could proceed by motion against any one or any intermediate number of joint contractors, and even the personal representative of one bound on a joint contract. This could not have been done in an ordinary action. Again, under section 2853 (5760 of this Code), the plaintiff could proceed against all, any one, or any intermediate number of persons jointly bound on negotiable instruments, which could not have been done except by the statute allowing it. Section 3396 of the Code of 1887 (upon which the revised section above is based) was limited to actions against two or more defendants where the process had been served on part of them, in which case the plaintiff might proceed to judgment as to any so served, and either discontinue as to the others, or from time to time as the process was served on the others, proceed to judgment as to them until judgments were obtained against all. No good reason being seen for allowing a different method of procedure on negotiable paper from that allowed on common law paper, nor for allowing a different procedure by motion from that allowed by action, the revised section above provides that, "Upon all contracts hereafter made by more than one person, whether joint only or joint and several, an action or motion may be maintained and judgment rendered against all liable thereon, or any one or any intermediate number," etc. It will be observed that the new language is restricted to future contracts. This was done because it was thought that otherwise constitutional difficulties might be encountered.

The last sentence of section 3396 of the Code of 1887 changed rule in Beazley's Adm'r v. Sims' Adm'r, 81 Va. 644, and discontinuance there provided for was a discontinuance against one or more defendants upon whom process had not been served. Corbin v. Planters' Bank, 87 Va. 61, 13 S. E. 98, 24 Am. St. Rep. 673.

Upon a scire facias against heirs and devisees to revive a judgment in ejectment, if one of the defendants confess the plaintiff's right to revive the judgment in the scire facias mentioned, and thereupon judgment be entered against him, that the plaintiff have execution for the whole tract of land in question, there is no error in such which he can complain. Jones v. Doe, 6 Munf. 105.

Digitized by Google

Where only one of several joint defendants has been process judgment may be rendered against him. Norfolk & Shippers' Compress Co., 83 Va. 272, 2 S. E. 139.

Where, in action against seven defendants, summons executed as to four, "no inhabitants" as to two, and as understand he is dead." At rules the six pleaded in abatem joinders of surviving with dead obligor, and clerk abated those returned "No inhabitants" and "Dead," and court, re gave judgment against those summoned. Held, judgment is this section. Dillard v. Turner's Adm'r, 87 Va. 669, 14 S

Under this section judgment may be had against surety coming bond, though principal has not been served with noti Newberry v. Sheffey, 89 Va. 286, 15 S. E. 545. See note Campbell, Muse v. Farmers' Bank, and Cahoon v. McCulloch preceding section.

See Burks' Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1393; P ing and Practice, pp. 53, 54, 181.

CHAPTER 264.

Decrees of Sale, and Receivers; Orders for Executing Deeds Trustees and Requiring Them to Give Security; Reserva fants; Decrees and Orders in Vacation; Disposition of M tody of Court Unclaimed; Copies of Decrees and Orders and Filed by Clerks.

Sec.

6266. Decree or order for sale; how sale made; bond required of commissioner.
6267. In taking accounts of debts or liens, commissioner to report delinquent taxes and sales, if any, therefor.
6268. Certain sales of land to be confirmed; apportionment of purchase price of land between taxes, levies, and assessments.
6269. Sale or renting of property not to be advertised until bond given by commissioner; its penalty; what certificate to be appended to advertisement; duty of clerk; his fee.
6270. When purchaser relieved of liability from purchase money or rent.
6271. Penalty on clerk for false certificate.
6272. Commissioner making sale, etc., to receive purchase money, etc.; duty of clerk

Sec.

when another pointed collecto payment by pu to commissio sale, etc., befo appointment of lector; penalty failure to give 6273. When collection commissioner, 6274. Proceeding by commissioners, and purchasers sales, and their 6275. How cause hear and judgment 6276. Trial by jury of upon rule.
6277. When sureties o commissioner, may be procee by rule.
6278. When sheriff or execute decree sale.
6279. Commissions for collecting.

Digitized by Google

Sec.
6280. Appointment of general receivers; their duties.
6281. How securities taken and kept; power of receivers over same.
6282. How dividends and interest collected and invested.
6283. How accounts kept by receivers; when and how reports made to their courts.
6284. Their liability.
6285. Their bonds.
6286. Their compensation.
6287. Penalty for failure of duty.
6288. When interest payable; when compounded.
6289. Settlement of accounts of receivers, and examination of their bonds and of the securities held by them.
6290. Reports of such settlements, etc., to be recorded; when new bond or additional security to be required; effect of new bond.
6291. Suits against receivers in certain cases.
6292. Effect of judgment against receiver.
6293. Warrants against receiver, when to be tried.
6294. "Receivers' Book;" what recorded therein; how indexed; open to inspection.
6295. Fees of clerks and commissioners.
6296. Court may appoint commissioner to execute a deed or writing; effect of such deed, etc.
6297. After final decree the cause may be re-instated to appoint a commissioner to make a deed, or to substitute a new one.
6298. How trustee appointed in place of one who is dead, resigned, removed, or declined the trust.
Sec.
6299. Notice of motion under preceding section.
6300. Who to execute the trust until new trustee appointed.
6301. How trustee required to give bond; when to be removed and another appointed.
6302. Courts of equity may exercise same powers.
6303. When new trustee appointed in suit in equity in place of one who has died.
6304. Substituted trustees, their powers, duties, etc.; how removed or proceeded against; their bonds.
6305. Right of infant to show cause against decree.
6306. When title of purchaser at judicial sale not to be affected.
6307. Vacation powers of chancery judges; when to be exercised; effect of vacation decrees.
6308. How actions and proceedings at law heard in vacation; consent; when unnecessary; effect of judgment, etc.
6309. Power of judge in vacation to enforce obedience to decrees and orders.
6310. How money under control of court deposited; record kept; list furnished Auditor and examiners of records; how taxes collected.
6311. Proceedings where money has remained under control of court for five years without known owner or claimant.
6312. When court shall order it to be paid into the treasury.
6313. How Auditor to keep account of it.
6314. How person entitled to the money may recover it.

Sec. 6266. Decree or order for sale; how sale made; bond required of commissioner.—A court, in a suit properly therein, may make a decree or order for the sale of property in any part of the State, and may direct the sale to be for cash, or on such credit and terms as it may deem best, and it may appoint one or more special

Digitized by Google

commissioners to make such sale. No special commissi pointed by a court, shall receive money under a decree, until he gives bond, with approved security, before the or its clerk in a penalty to be prescribed by the court;
dition for the faithful discharge of his duties as suc sioner, and to account for and pay over as the court may money that may come into his hands as such commission 1887, § 3397; 1912, p. 434.)

Revisors' Note.—The act of 1912 upon which this sectio failed to provide that the bond of the commissioner should approved security," neither did it prescribe the condition of Both of these subjects are now covered. The provision in 1912 making non-residents ineligible to appointment as speci sioners to make sales has been stricken out, the revisors being that such an exclusion would in some cases work an injustice residents. Usually counsel representing the interests in the c pointed commissioners, and it was thought that non-reside non-resident counsel should be allowed to be represented by th at the sale of the property.

Account of liens.—It is error to decree sale of land befo of liens is taken. Bristol Iron & Steel Co. v. Caldwell, 95
S. E. 838; Sims v. Tyrer, 96 Va. 14, 30 S. E. 443. Quaere, doe it is premature and erroneous to sell lands before account of thereon apply to sale under vendor's lien? Effinger v. Kenn 551.

Terms of sale.—Terms of sale are within court's discreti action will not be reversed unless palpably erroneous. Yost 80 Va. 855. But in judicial sales under instruments where sale are agreed on the contract governs, and the court hath no as to terms. Stimpson v. Bishop, 82 Va. 190.

A decree for sale of land under a deed of trust must be so required by the deed and the terms cannot be changed, an sold on credit, except by the consent of creditors secured by Fultz v. Davis, 26 Grat. 903.

When sale will not be confirmed.—Where sale under decr on day so inclement as to deter intending purchasers from and only one bidder is present, court will set aside sale quiring into adequacy of bid. Roberts v. Roberts, 13 Grat. 6 Dec. 435. But the fact that only a few bidders were present cause for vacating a judicial sale. Hudgins v. Lanier, 23 Gr

A purchaser at judicial sale cannot before confirmatio bargain to another at an advance, and court knowing that i done will not confirm sale, as such contract tends to prever bringing best price, and is therefore contrary to public policy Camp v. Bruce, 96 Va. 521, 36 S. E. 901, 43 L. R. A. 146, Rep. 873.

Bond of commissioner.—This section requires a bond sioners of sale, and it must be given before they receive under the decree, whether decree requires it or not. Mc Bodkin, 76 Va. 809. But it is not error to appoint commi make sale without requiring them to give bond. Southwest Smith's Adm'r, 85 Va. 306, 7 S. E. 365, 17 Am. St. Rep. 59.

Bond required of commissioner is for benefit of those fund, and if he collects without bond, and they ratify his a can complain. Lee v. Swepson, 76 Va. 173, and Lloyd v. Erwi 29 Grat. 598, distinguished.

A commissioner has no right to resell land, without

Digitized by Google

ond, unless first bond is broad enough to cover resale. Tompkins v. yerle, 102 Va. 219, 46 S. E. 300.

Liability of purchaser where bond is not given.—Where purchaser t judicial sale pays money to commissioner, who has not given bond, r bond given is not approved by clerk, he will be liable for default of ommissioner (Lloyd v. Erwin's Adm'r, 29 Grat. 598; Hess v. Rader, 26 rat. 746); unless certificate of clerk that bond has been given is pub- shed with advertisement of sale (Whitehead v. Bradley, 87 Va. 676, 3 S. E. 195). Nor is he exonerated by fact that commissioner was ttorney for judgment debtor. Shumate v. Williams, 2 Va. Dec. 180, 2 S. E. 808.

Where commissioner is appointed to sell land publicly after giving ond, and he sells it privately without giving bond, it is a judicial sale hen confirmed by the court, but purchaser at such sale is liable to arty entitled to money if commissioner fails to account therefor. Hess . Rader, 26 Grat. 746.

Where two commissioners are appointed to sell land after executing ond, and execute separate bond, each going other's security, the bond s not sufficient, though given in court, and purchaser is liable, although he purchase price was paid commissioner, who deposited it in bank to heir credit as commissioners, it being lost by failure of bank. Tyler . Toms, 75 Va. 116.

Remedy of parties entitled to money.—Parties entitled to money nproperly paid to commissioner may proceed directly against the land, vithout pursuing commissioner and his sureties. Lloyd v. Erwin's dm'r, 29 Grat. 598.

Remedy of purchaser.—In such case, commissioner, having received he money without authority, is liable to purchaser. Tyler v. Toms, 75 'a. 116.

Purchaser who has to pay second time money improperly paid to ommissioner is entitled to be subrogated to rights of creditors under decree requiring commissioner to pay them. Lee v. Swepson, 76 'a. 173.

Confirmation of sale.—The court, in acting upon a report of sale, nust exercise a sound judicial discretion in the interest of fairness and rudence. Berlin v. Melhorn, 75 Va. 639; Terry v. Cole's Ex'r, 80 Va. 95; Hazlewood v. Forrer, 94 Va. 703, 27 S. E. 507; Todd v. Gallego Mills Mfg. Co., 84 Va. 586, 5 S. E. 676; Brock v. Rice, 27 Grat. 812.

In a judicial sale, if it should be made to appear, either before or fter it is ratified, that there has been any injurious mistake, fraud, or nisrepresentation, the reported sale will be rejected, or the ratification escinded, and the property resold. Merchants' Bank v. Campbell, 75 'a. 455.

Upon the question of confirmation of judicial sale it is customary o allow either party to read ex parte affidavits. But trial court may, n its discretion, require depositions to be taken either in whole or in art, or refer matter to commissioners. Robertson v. Smith, 94 Va. 250, 6 S. E. 579, 64 Am. St. Rep. 723.

Mere objection to price obtained at judicial sale, without an upset id, is not ground for refusal to confirm sale. Effinger v. Ralston, 21 Grat. 430.

No fixed rule can be laid down as to amount of upset bid to set aside judicial sale, but confirmation will depend on facts of each case. Hansucker v. Walker, 76 Va. 753.

Purchaser of land under decree of court of equity, after sale is confirmed, is the equitable owner of land, subject to be compelled to comply with his contract by payment of the purchase price. Hurt v Jones, 75 Va. 341. But bidder at judicial sale acquires no right until bid is accepted and sale confirmed by court. Terry v. Cole's Ex'r, 80 Va. 695.

Subsequent confirmation is equivalent to previous authority, cures departures from terms prescribed, and supplies all defects in execution of decree, except those founded in lack of jurisdiction. It makes the sale the court's, and renders it no longer executory, but ex chasers should not be refused confirmation merely because bargain. Langyher v. Patterson, 77 Va. 470; Robertson

Digitized by Google

Va. 250, 26 S. E. 579, 64 Am. St. Rep. 723.

How sale set aside after confirmation.—This can be don motion or petition after notice to all parties interested a cause shown. Langyher v. Patterson, 77 Va. 470; Effinge 24 Grat. 116; Yost v. Porter, 80 Va. 855.

Caveat emptor applies strictly to judicial sales. Ob defect in title must be made before confirmation of report fraud, mistake, or surprise, or other cause for which equity relief, if sale had been made by parties in interest, sales ma firmation, be set aside, but for no other cause. Long v. W 29 Grat. 347; Boyce v. Strother, 76 Va. 862; Berlin v. Mell 639; Hickson v. Rucker, 77 Va. 135; Sexton's Ex'x v. Patt
Dec. 551.

And if mistake is relied on, it must be the mist parties. Long v. Weller's Ex'r, 29 Grat. 347. But it is othe confirmation. See Brock v. Rice, 27 Grat. 812; Berlin v.
Va. 639.

Proceedings against delinquent purchaser.—Upon fail chaser to comply with terms of sale, he may be proceede rule to show cause why land shall not be sold to pay purc and upon that proceeding a decree may be made for a res Thornton v. Fairfax, 29 Grat. 669; Clarkson v. Read, 15 G

A purchase by commissioner declared valid.—Where la under decree to M., who, without paying therefor, assign assignee in bankruptcy, and such assignee and M. conveyed H., who had been appointed as special commissioner to res consideration of H. paying to parties entitled thereto amo chase money, held, fact that H. was commissioner to res not avoid transaction, as the equitable title was in M., su contract to pay purchase price. Hurt v. Jones, 75 Va. 341.

Generally.—Where judgment debtor bought his own under decree in creditors' suit, and failed to pay therefo decree for resale on terms of one-fourth cash, and balance and three years, is not inequitable under this section.
Clement, 87 Va. 41, 12 S. E. 105.

Where purchaser at judicial sale fails to pay his bo rule against him and surety a personal decree is rendered ag such decree is void. Anthony v. Kasey, 83 Va. 338, 5 S. E.
St. Rep. 277.

After decree to sell real estate to satisfy liens, and that decree, the court below many appoint receiver to rent
v. Edwards, 83 Va. 316, 2 S. E. 439.

Commissioner to sell is one of the parties to the suit and in his own right, and is also next friend of the infants in appointing him commissioner. Teel, &c., v. Yancey, &c., 2

It is proper to allow fees to an auctioneer for sellin
Hogan v. Duke, 20 Grat. 244.

For monographic note on Judicial Sales, see Walker's E
21 Grat. 636.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 132, section 1.

Sec. 6267. In taking accounts of debts or liens, commi report delinquent taxes and sales, if any, therefor.—In hereafter brought in this State for the sale of lands fo ment of debts or to subject lands to the payment of lie thereon, and in every such suit now pending in which t of debts or liens has not been taken it shall be the d

Digitized by Google

court in ordering the account of debts or liens to be taken to specially direct that an account be taken of all delinquent taxes upon said land. The commissioner to whom such decree is referred shall ascertain and report the amount of such delinquent taxes, together with the interest thereon, from the fifteenth day of December of each year for which said lands were so returned delinquent. And where said lands have been sold for said taxes said commissioner shall further report to whom sold and when and the amount that will be required to redeem the same. (1897-8, p. 514.)

Sec. 6268. Certain sales of land to be confirmed; apportionment of purchase price of land between taxes, levies and assessments; validating certain former sales.—Whenever, in any proceedings held in any chancery court for the purpose of subjecting real estate to the payment of debts, or for the sale of real estate for any other purpose, it appears that the real estate cannot be sold for enough to pay off the lien of taxes, levies, and assessments returned delinquent against it, and it appears that the purchase price offered is, in the opinion of the court, adequate and reasonable, the said sale shall be confirmed, and the court shall further order and decree the payment and distribution of the proceeds of said sale pro rata to the taxes, levies, and assessments due the said State, county, and corporation, after having first deducted the cost of said proceedings in court, which order shall be certified to the Auditor of Public Accounts and to the clerks of the counties and corporations, and the said clerks shall cause the lien of the said taxes, levies, and assessments to be marked satisfied upon the list of delinquent lands. Whenever it appears in any chancery proceedings heretofore had that the proceeds of any sale of land have been applied to the payment of taxes, levies, and assessments, and the same was not sufficient to fully satisfy the said taxes, levies, and assessments, it shall be the duty of the clerks of the said counties and cities to cause the said liens to be marked satisfied, and a certificate from the clerk of said chancery court of the facts shall be sufficient authority for the same. (1899-00, p. 397; 1901-2, p. 731.)

Sec. 6269. Sale or renting of property not to be advertised until bond given by commissioner; its penalty; what certificate to be appended to advertisement; duty of clerk; his fee.—No special commissioner appointed by a decree or order of court, or of a judge in vacation, to sell or rent any property, shall advertise the property for sale or renting, or sell or rent the same, until he shall have given bond before the court or judge, or the clerk of the court in his office, in a penalty, to be prescribed by the court or judge, sufficient to cover at least the probable amount of the whole purchase money or rent, and shall have obtained from the said

Digitized by Google

clerk a certificate that the bond required by law or b or order has been given, which certificate or a copy be appended to the advertisement. The clerk shall m tificate whenever the bond has been given and note the proceedings in the cause, and shall receive there twenty-five cents, to be taxed in the costs of the suit.
cate or a copy thereof shall be returned with the repor or renting. (Code 1887, § 3398.)

The bond required by statute to be given by commiss lands can only be given before the court which requires th given, or before the judge thereof, or clerk of court in h it is error to direct clerk of other court to take it. South Mineral Co. v. Chase, 95 Va. 55, 27 S. E. 826.

Where advertisement to rent is not referred to in the commissioner, or in the decree of sale, it will not, t in the record, be considered a part thereof on appeal.
Pannill's Ex'or, 86 Va. 33, 9 S. E. 419.

Payment to commissioner who has not executed bon Whitehead v. Bradley, 87 Va. 676, 13 S. E. 195.

Where receiver or commissioner collects money at a before giving bond and fails to account for same, although gives the bond, the purchaser of land can be made to pay it Woods v. Ellis, 85 Va. 471, 7 S. E. 852.

See notes to section 6266. See, also, section 6270.

Sec. 6270. When purchaser relieved of liability fro money or rent.—When such certificate shall have bee with an advertisement of the sale or renting of proper such bond shall have been given prior to a sale or publicly advertised, any person purchasing or renting erty in pursuance of such advertisement, or in pursu decree or order of sale or renting, shall be relieved of for the purchase money or rent, or any part thereof, w pay to any special commissioner, as to whom the prope shall have been appended to such advertisement, or wh given the bond aforesaid. (Code 1887, § 3399.)

Applied in Tompkins v. Dyerle, 102 Va. 219, 46 S.
notes to section 6266.

Sec. 6271. Penalty on clerk for false certificate.—I make a certificate as to the bond, which is untrue, he a ties in his official bond shall be liable to any person in by; and, if he issue such certificate, knowing it to be fa in addition to such liability, be fined not less than fif than five hundred dollars, and, upon conviction, be re his office, and any commissioner who shall advertise p sale or rent, and sell or rent the same before he shall bond as is required by section sixty-two hundred an shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. (Code 1887, § 3400.

Revisors' Note.—The latter part of this section fixing the commissioner is new. The headline does not indicate

Sec. 6272. Commissioner making sale, etc., to recei money, etc.; duty of clerk when another person appointe

Digitized by Google

ect of payment by purchaser, etc., to commissioner making sale, ., before notice of appointment of another collector; penalty on rk for failure to give such notice.—The commissioner, appointed the purpose, who makes the sale or renting, shall receive and llect all the purchase money or rent, unless by decree or order, ne other person be appointed to collect the same; in which case, e court shall require of such person bond with surety in such nalty as to it may seem fit. When such appointment is made, it all be the duty of the clerk to give notice thereof, in writing, to e purchaser or lessee, to be served as other notices are required law to be served; but no payment shall be made to the person appointed, until he shall have given the bond required by the dee or order: Provided, however, that if, before the purchaser or see has received notice of such appointment, he shall have made y payment, on account of the purchase money or rent, to the ecial commissioner, or any person appointed for the purpose, o made the sale or renting, such special commissioner, or other rson, who made the sale or renting, and the sureties in his bond, all be responsible for the money so paid, and the purchaser or see, who made the payment, shall not be responsible therefor. any clerk fail to give the notice hereinbefore required to be ven by him, he and the sureties in his official bond shall be liable any person injured by such failure; and he shall, moreover, be ed not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. (Code 87, § 3401.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "with surety" appearing in line five of e text are new.

Sec. 6273. When collection of money by commissioner, etc., larny.—If any special commissioner or receiver, appointed by any urt or judge to collect money, and required by law, or decree or der of the court or judge, to give bond before collecting the me, shall collect said money, or any part thereof, without giving ch bond, and fail properly to account for the same, he shall be eemed guilty of larceny of the money so collected and not so accunted for. (Code 1887, § 3402.)

Sec. 6274. Proceeding by rule against commissioners, receivers, d purchasers at judicial sales, and their sureties.—Any court of is Commonwealth, or the clerk thereof in vacation, may, at the stance of any party in interest, award a rule or rules against any mmissioner or receiver appointed by or acting under the authory of such court, and against the surety of such commissioner or ceiver, or against a purchaser at a judicial sale under a decree order of such court, and against the surety or sureties of such rchaser, returnable to such a day of the term of said court as e court or clerk may fix, to show cause why judgment shall not e entered against them for any amount which the court may asrtain to be due from such commissioner, receiver, or purchaser.

Digitized by Google

A rule issued under this section shall be executed at days before the return day thereof. (1887-8, p. 261.)

Revisors' Note.—This and the three following sectio from the same act. The present sections are not limited t and corporation courts as was true under the act, but gene is used to cover all proper courts. The act required a not days before proceeding on the rule. Section 6274 above notice to fifteen days, which corresponds to the time give 6046, and which is believed to be sufficient. The act prov entry of an order having the force and effect of a judgme 6274 simply provides that the court shall enter judgment, ment, of course, will stand like any other judgment, and in of this change, section 5 of the act has been eliminated.

Sec. 6275. How cause heard upon rule and judgment Upon the return of a rule executed under the preced upon any of the parties thereto, the court may, at a neither party demand a jury, proceed to hear and de questions raised by such rule, and shall enter a judgm such receiver, commissioner, or purchaser, as the case n his surety or sureties, for the amount appearing to be d receiver, commissioner, or purchaser, or may enter against such of them as may appear to have been su answer such rule. The judgment shall be in favor of th titled to the money, or of the general or special rece court, but subject to the control of the court, in suc cause. If it shall appear in such proceeding that suc commissioner, purchaser, or any of them, or their sureti insane, or has been convicted of felony, then such ru awarded against the personal representative of those the committee of those who are insane or convict, and may be rendered jointly and severally against such pe resentative, committee, and those laboring under no d
the same proceeding. (Id.)

Sec. 6276. Trial by jury of issues made upon rule.—I return of such rule, any party thereto demand a trial b court shall enter an order in such chancery cause direct by jury to ascertain what liability, if any, exists agains commissioner, receiver, or purchaser, as the case may be sureties; and the court shall enter judgment on the verd ed by the jury, but new trials may be granted as in o and notwithstanding such rules be awarded and judgme dered against part only of the persons liable thereto, the award new rules and proceed to judgment against all who are liable thereto at the same or any subsequent t said court. The provisions of this and the two precedi shall apply to sheriffs, sergeants, and other officers, and ties, acting under any decree or order of any such chan
(Id.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6277. When sureties of purchaser, commissioner, or receiver may be proceeded against by rule.—Whenever in any case a purchaser at a judicial sale, commissioner, general or special receiver, or his personal representative, can be proceeded against by rule for the recovery of money under the three preceding sections, in such case the surety of such purchaser, commissioner, or receiver, and the personal representatives of said sureties, may also be proceeded against under said sections in the same manner for the like purpose. (Id.)

Sec. 6278. When sheriff or sergeant to execute decree or order of sale.—Where no special commissioner is appointed for the purpose, a decree or order of any court for the sale of property shall be executed by the sheriff or sergeant who attends such court, unless the place of sale be out of his county or corporation, in which case the sale shall be by the sheriff of the county wherein the place of sale is, or, if the place be in a corporation, by the sergeant thereof, or the sheriff of the county including such corporation, as the court may direct. Any sheriff, sergeant, or other officer, receiving money under any order or decree, shall pay the same as the court may order; and if he fail so to do, he and the sureties in his official bond shall be liable therefor. (Code 1887, § 3403.)

If sergeant of city where property is located is appointed receiver, it is not necessary to require him to give bond for the faithful performance of his duties, as it is covered by his official bond. Moran v. Johnston, 26 Grat. 108.

Sec. 6279. Commissions for selling and collecting.—For the services of commissioners or officers under any decree or order for a sale, including the collection and paying over the proceeds, there shall not be allowed any greater commission than five per cent. on the first three hundred dollars received by them, and two per cent. on all above that. And if a sale be made by one commissioner or officer, and the proceeds be collected by another, the court under whose decree or order they acted, shall apportion the commission between them as may be just. (Code 1887, § 3404.)

Where on judicial sale but part of purchase price is collected, commissions should be allowed only on part collected, and no extra compensation is allowable for extraordinary efforts to sell the land. Womack v. Paxton's Ex'rs, 84 Va. 9, 5 S. E. 550.

Cited but not construed, Young v. Young, 109 Va. 222, 63 S. E. 748.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 132, section 3.

Sec. 6280. Appointment of general receivers; their duties.—Each circuit, corporation and city court may appoint a general receiver of the court, who shall hold his office at its pleasure, and whose duty it shall be, unless it be otherwise specially ordered, to receive, take charge of, and invest in such securities as the court may order, and in the manner required by such order, all moneys paid into court, or into bank or other place of deposit, and standing subject to the order of such court, and all moneys thereafter so paid under any judgment, order, or decree of the court to pay out or dispose of the same as the court may or cree; and, to this end, the general receiver shall have au check for, receive, and give acquittances for all such mon 1887, § 3405.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The words "and city" found in line two are new.

Where there are conflicting claimants of a trust fund prosecuting separate suits in same court, to subject it, the a of a receiver in one of the suits on motion of plaintiff therein to benefit of plaintiff in other suit upon establishing his sup to the fund. Beverley v. Brooke, 4 Grat. 187.

One aggrieved by decree of court which appointed a rece against whom decree is rendered may appeal in proper case, ceiver cannot question decree of court appointing him. Barbour, 78 Va. 544.

An order appointing a receiver is in nature of sequestr venting any alienation of or interference with the property w sent of court, and lessee of land from receiver on lease not by court acquires no rights thereunder. Thornton v. Washi Bank, 76 Va. 432.

Receiver of railway company may be held responsible fo actually sustained by a person through the negligence of agents and employees in any case in which the company sh held. Melendy v. Barbour, 78 Va. 544.

The order appointing receiver gives no advantage to par for it over other claimants. Beverley v. Brooke, 4 Grat. 18

For monographic note on Receivers, see Gibson v. R Munf. 310, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A chapter 133, section 15.

Sec. 6281. How securities taken and kept; power of over same.—The securities, in which under the orders of such investments may be made, shall be taken in the n general receiver, and be kept by him, unless otherwis ordered; and he shall have power to sell, transfer, or same, when ordered by the court to do so, but not othe in case of his death, resignation, or removal, his success person specially appointed by the court for that pur have like power. (Code 1887, § 3406.)

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A chapter 133, section 16.

Sec. 6282. How dividends and interest collected and The general receiver shall collect the dividends and inte the securities in which investments have been or may be der the orders or decrees of his court, or under the pr sections sixty-two hundred and eighty, when and as of same may become due and payable thereon, and shall same in like securities, unless the court has ordered some other investment, or disposition to be made thereof case he shall invest or dispose of the same as the court ordered or decreed. (Code 1887, § 3407.)

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A chapter 133, section 17.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6283. How accounts kept by receivers; when and how reports made to their courts.—He shall keep an accurate and particular account of all moneys received, invested, and paid out by him, showing the respective amounts to the credit of each case in the court, and designating in the items the judgments, orders, or decrees of court under which the respective sums have been received, invested, or paid out; and on the first day of each regular term of the circuit court, and each term of the corporation and city courts designated for the trial of civil cases in which juries are required, he shall report to his court a general statement, showing the balance to the credit of each case in the court in which money has been received by him, the manner in which it is invested, the amounts received, invested, or paid out since his last report, and the whole amount then invested and subject to the future order of the court; and he shall, at any time when required by the court so to do, furnish a statement of the amount subject to the order of the court in any case pending therein. (Code 1887, § 3408.)

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, Chapter 133, section 18.

Sec. 6284. Their liability.—He shall be liable for all moneys which may come into his hands as general receiver; and if at any time he fail to invest any sum of money, as required by the four preceding sections, for the space of sixty days after the same shall be, or ought to have been, received by him, or fail to pay out any sum of money, when required by the court to pay the same, for the space of sixty days after it shall come into his hands for the purpose of such payment, he shall be charged with interest thereon, from the day when such money was, or ought to have been, received by him, until such investment or payment is made, unless, for good cause shown to the court, it shall order otherwise. (Code 1887, § 3409.)

Where receiver is appointed to hold office during pleasure of court, and executes several annual bonds with different sureties, conditioned for faithful performance of his office, and dies without accounting, the several bonds are cumulative securities, taking effect from their respective dates, and liability of different sureties is in proportion to penalties of various bonds. Walton v. Williams, 1 Va. Dec. 579.

Where receiver is directed to lend fund on notes payable to himself secured by real estate, at six per cent., with power to sell same on default in interest, and he lends the money on notes secured on real estate payable to another, at eight per cent., and neglects to enforce sale on default, so that money is lost, he is liable therefor, though bad faith is not shown. Carr's Adm'r v. Morris, 85 Va. 21, 6 S. E. 613; Barton v. Barbour, 104 U. S. 126, 26 L. Ed. 672.

Where a receiver failed to invest funds, as required by the court appointing him, but held same in his hands until time of application for settlement of his accounts, it was held that the receiver was chargeable only with simple interest on the funds notwithstanding section 3413 of the Code of 1887. Roller v. Paul, 106 Va. 214, 55 S. E. 558.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, Chapter 133, section 19.

Sec. 6285. Their bonds.—He shall annually give, before the

Digitized by Google

court, a bond, to be approved by it, in such penalty a may direct, sufficient at least to cover the probable am may come into his hands in any one year, and each succ shall be deemed a cumulative security from the time o tion for the faithful discharge by him thereafter of h receiver. (Code 1887, § 3410.)

The provision that "each successive bond shall be deem lative security," etc., was incorporated by the revisors of formity with the decision of Walton v. Williams, 1 Va. D only three judges sat in this case, one of whom dissented, it best that the ruling of the majority (which the revisor should be made by the Code the rule of decision in future ca Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1396.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 133, section 20.

Sec. 6286. Their compensation.—He shall receive as sation for his services such per cent. of the amount re invested or paid out by him in such case, as the court for receiving, investing, or paying out the same. ( § 3411.)

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 133, section 21.

Sec. 6287. Penalty for failure of duty.—If he fail t account, or to make out and return the statements r section sixty-two hundred and eighty-three, he shall be a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than on dollars, to be imposed by the court at its discretion; and tion of his official bond shall be taken to embrace the himself and his sureties for any such fine. (Code 1887,

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis'
chapter 133, section 22.

Sec. 6288. When interest payable; when compounde terest on all loans made to individuals under an order of become due and payable on the first day of January nex loan was made, and semi-annually on the first days of J
July of each succeeding year, until the principal is pa 1887, § 3413.)

Revisors' Note.—Under this section as it stood prior to the interest was made due and payable on the first day of J after the loan was made and ANNUALLY on the first day of each succeeding year, further enacting that "unless the inte at the time it becomes due and payable, compound inter charged thereon to the borrower from such time until payn is made." The present section enacts that the interest shall SEMI-ANNUALLY on the first days of January and July, an sion concerning compound interest has been omitted and pealed.

The words "when compounded" should have been strie
the headline of this section.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' A
chapter 133, section 23.

See note to 6284, taken from Roller v. Paul, 106 Va.
E. 558.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6289. Settlement of accounts of receivers, and examination of their bonds and of the securities held by them.—Each circuit, city and corporation court, at its first regular term after the first day of January in each year, by an order entered of record, shall require one of its commissioners in chancery, other than a commissioner who may have been appointed general receiver thereof, to state and settle the accounts of all the receivers of such court, both general and special, and of all persons to whom any money has been loaned under the order of the court, or who have money subject to the future order of the court, and which then remains undisbursed. The clerk of the court shall furnish to such commissioner a copy of the order so made, with a list appended thereto, exhibiting the names of all such receivers and persons. The said commissioner shall summon such receivers and persons, or the personal representatives of such of them as are dead, before him, and audit, state, and settle their accounts, and report the same to the court at its next term after such order has been made. He shall also cause the bonds of the receivers of the court, and the bonds or other securities given for any money loaned under the order of the court, to be produced before him, and shall ascertain if the obligors in such bonds, or if such other securities are sufficient, and report thereon to the court at the times before mentioned. (Code 1887, § 3414.)

Revisors' Note.—The word "city" in line two of the text is new.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 133, section 24.

Sec. 6290. Reports of such settlements, etc., to be recorded; when new bond or additional security to be required; effect of new bond.—The court shall examine the reports required by the preceding section, when the same are made to it; and, if satisfied of the correctness thereof, shall order them to be recorded. If it appears from the report of the commissioner that any bond of a receiver, or any bond or other security given by any person to whom money has been loaned under its order, is insufficient, the court shall order additional security to be given, or a new bond to be executed before it, in such penalty as may seem right, and with sufficient sureties. But the execution of such new bond shall not discharge the sureties in any prior bond from their liability for acts of the principal obligor done previous to the execution of such new bond. (Code 1887, § 3415.)

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 133, section 25.

Sec. 6291. Suits against receivers in certain cases.—Any receiver of any property appointed by the courts of this Commonwealth may be sued in respect of any act or transaction of his in carrying on the business connected with such property, without the previous leave of the court in which such receiver was appointed; but

Digitized by Google

the institution or pendency of such suit shall not inter delay a decree of sale for foreclosure of any mortga said property. (1887, p. 231.)

Revisors' Note.—This and the two following sectio from the same act. Parts of the act no longer necessa omitted. Attention is called to the fact that the language o limited to receivers of corporations, whereas the revised s to all receivers, the word "property" being used in lieu of " thus making the sections conform to the Federal statute on t ject. (1 Sup. Rev. St. U. S., p. 614, section 3.)

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 61, 633.

Sec. 6292. Effect of judgment against receiver.— against a receiver under the preceding section shall n on the property or funds under the control of the cou any execution issue thereon, but upon filing a certified judgment in the cause in which the receiver was ap court shall direct payment of such judgment in the s as if the claim upon which the judgment is based had and allowed in said cause. (Id.)

Sec. 6293. Warrants against receiver, when to be tri rant before a justice of the peace under the two prece shall be tried only after ten days' notice. (Id.)

Sec. 6294. "Receivers' Book;" what recorded ther dexed; open to inspection.—Each clerk of the said c tively shall procure, at the expense of his county or c book, to be called the "Receivers' Book," wherein he the said reports, when approved by the court; and h an index thereto, showing the style of the suit or othe in which money has been paid as aforesaid, and the any report respecting the same is recorded; and the sa be open to the examination of any person interested, sel, without the payment of any fee therefor. (Code 1

Sec. 6295. Fees of clerks and commissioners.—For r reports required by section sixty-two hundred and eigh clerks may charge, in each case mentioned in such rep eighteen cents to any party in the case seeking to recov therein and mentioned in the report; and said commi charge, for the reports made under the said section, t allowed by law to commissioners in chancery for othe be paid out of the fund in court, and charged to th cases therein, in such proportions as the court shall (Code 1887, § 3417.)

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis
chapter 133, section 27.

Sec. 6296. Court may appoint commissioner to exec writing; effect of such deed, etc.—A court of equity, in in it is proper to decree or order the execution of any ing, may appoint a commissioner to execute the same

Digitized by Google

ution thereof shall be as valid to pass, release, or extinguish the ght, title, and interest of the party on whose behalf it is executed, if such party had been at the time capable in law of executing e same, and had executed it. (Code 1887, § 3418.)

Revisors' Note.—See, as affecting this section, Acts 1918, chapter 2, p. 444.

Courts of this State are without jurisdiction to sell and convey lands t of this State (Wimer v. Wimer, 82 Va. 890, 5 S. E. 536, 3 Am. St. ep. 126; Gibson v. Burgess, 82 Va. 650); but they can act upon the rson if he be within its jurisdiction, and compel him to convey it, or herwise comply with its decree (Poindexter v. Burwell, 82 Va. 507); d compel him to cancel a deed for such lands obtained by fraud (Guernt v. Fowler, 1 Hen. & M. 5).

A deed made by a special commissioner appointed and empowered convey land under the statute passes the legal title of all parties to e suit. Hurt v. Jones, 75 Va. 341.

Cited but not construed in Clem v. Given's Ex'r, 106 Va. 145, 55 E. 567.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 132, section 4.

Sec. 6297. After final decree the cause may be re-instated to appoint a commissioner to make a deed, or to substitute a new one.—ny cause, notwithstanding there has been a final decree therein, ay be re-instated for the purpose of entering an order directing deed to be made to any party which the record clearly shows is titled thereto, or for the purpose of substituting a new commisoner to make a deed in the place of one previously appointed for at purpose, but who has died or become incapacitated to act bere making such deed. (1899-00, p. 582; 1901-2, p. 384.)

For comment on this section, see 11 Va. Law Reg. 699.

Sec. 6298. How trustee appointed in place of one who is dead, resigned, removed, or declined the trust.—When a trustee in a will, ed, or other writing dies or removes beyond the limits of the ate, or declines to accept the trust, or when, having accepted, he signs the same, as he may be allowed to do, the circuit court of e county, or the circuit, corporation or other court of the city which such will was admitted to probate, or such deed or other riting is or might have been recorded, or the judge thereof in cation may, on motion of any party interested, and upon satisctory evidence of such death, removal, declination, or resignaon, appoint a trustee or trustees in place of the trustee named in ch deed. (Code 1887, § 3419; 1889-90, p. 41; 1897-8, p. 687; 1902-4, p. 633; 1910, p. 578.)

Revisors' Note.—This and the two following sections are taken from cts 1910, p. 578. This act conferred on the clerks of circuit courts in cation the right to substitute trustees, but the revised section above kes away this jurisdiction from the clerks and confers it upon judges all the courts named in the section in vacation. It will be observed, so, that the latter part of the above section requires "satisfactory evience" to be furnished as a pre-requisite to the substitution. See 11 a. Law Reg. 1035. The last word in the section, "deed," should be nstrument." The error was inadvertent.

Digitized by Google

A proceeding by motion under statute to substitute a for one who has resigned determines no question under the c v. Atlantic Savings & Loan Ass'n, 94 Va. 477, 26 S. E. 834.

This section does not apply to trustees who exercise a power, or one of personal confidence, and court of equity ha interfere with such trustee so long as he acts in good faith Dillard, 97 Va. 442, 34 S. E. 60, 5 Va. Law Reg. 562.

When a trust is discretionary or one of personal con section does not apply; otherwise, it does apply, although th invested with the legal title. Roller v. Catlett, 118 Va. 185,

Where order substituting trustee does not show on whc was, or that it was on motion of any one, it is null, and s such substituted trustee is void. Pitzer v. Logan, 85 Va. 374

See cases collected in note on Deeds of Trust Va. Wythe, p. 189.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' chapter 132, section 5.

Sec. 6299. Notice of motion under preceding section. under the preceding section shall be after reasonable n persons interested in the execution of the trust othe plaintiff in such motion, and if any of the parties on notice is required to be served be under twenty-one y the court or clerk shall appoint some discreet and co torney at law as guardian ad litem to such infant de whom notice may be served. If any such party shoul or a convict, the notice shall be served on his committee if none, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed for him ner hereinbefore provided for appointment of a guardi for an infant. No notice need be given to a trustee moved from the State, declined to accept the trust, signed, nor to the personal representative of one wh (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to the preceding s act provided that the court or clerk should appoint a guardian an insane party. The present section provides that, in ca person or a convict be interested, notice shall be served on hi if he have any, but if none, then a guardian ad litem shall b The last sentence of this section is new and settles two of th tions raised in 11 Va. Law Reg. 1035, the other being settle 6298.

Sec. 6300. Who to execute the trust until new trustee —Until such appointment is made under section sixty-t and ninety-eight: The personal representative of a so trustee, or if there be more than one trustee, and one them have died, resigned, or removed from the State, or accept the trust, the remaining trustee or trustees, sh the trust, or so much thereof as remained unexecuted a removal, declination, or resignation aforesaid (whethe subject be real or personal property) unless the instru ing the trust directs otherwise, or some other trustee b for the purpose by a court of chancery having jurisdi case. This section and the two preceding sections shall not apply to any case provided for by section five hundred and ninety. (Id.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' notes to the two preceding sections.

When a court should appoint a new trustee in place of one deceased, though there is a personal representative of the dead one, see Strayer v. Long, 83 Va. 715, 718, 3 S. E. 372.

Personal representatives of trustees are vested only with naked powers. Sulphur Mines Co. v. Thompson, 93 Va. 293, 25 S. E. 232.

Property was held by a testator at the time of his death upon a trust which vested in him no discretion as to the time or manner of its disposition. Under this section the executor of the deceased trustee was charged with the duty of "executing the trust or so much thereof as remained unexecuted." Williams v. Bond, 120 Va. 678, 91 S. E. 627.

Under section 9, chapter 174, Code 1873 (similar to this), personal representative of sole trustee may execute trust, yet under section 6303 the court may appoint a trustee to execute the trust, and the appointment, when made conformably with statute, is valid. Fisher v. Dickenson, 84 Va. 318, 4 S. E. 737, 3 Va. Law Reg. 667.

Sec. 6301. How trustee required to give bond; when to be removed and another appointed.—After reasonable notice to a trustee, whether appointed by will, deed, or other writing, the circuit court of the county, or any court which would have jurisdiction in equity to administer the trust, or a judge thereof in vacation, may, on motion of any person interested, if it deem the same proper for the security of the trust estate, order such trustee to give bond with surety before such court, or before the clerk thereof, within a reasonable time and in a penalty to be prescribed by such court or judge, for the faithful execution of the trust, and may, if such order be not complied with, or whenever for any cause it appears proper, remove such trustee and appoint another in his place. (Code 1887, § 3420.)

See Burks' Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1397.

Sec. 6302. Courts of equity may exercise same powers.—A court of equity, in a suit pending to enforce or administer the trust, may exercise all the powers conferred by the four preceding sections on the courts therein mentioned. (Code 1887, § 3421.)

Where debtor conveys property to trustees, who refuse to act, a court of equity may appoint others in their stead, but should have the trust administered under its own direction and control. Reynolds v. Bank, 6 Grat. 174.

On bill to enjoin sale of land under trust deed, where injunction is dissolved, it appearing that trustee is bankrupt, it is proper for court to retain control of cause and administer trust under its direction, and to require trustee to give security. Hogan v. Duke, 20 Grat. 244.

Where injunction for sale of land is dissolved, court may retain cause, and have sale made by trustee under its direction. Michie v. Jeffries, 21 Grat. 334, 346.

Whether on dissolving an injunction to sale under trust deed a court should dismiss bill or retain it with view of supervising the trust lies within discretion of court. Robinson v. Mays, 76 Va. 708.

Chancery court has power independently of this statute, to remove trustees in deeds to secure creditors, and appoint others. Lewis v. Glenn, 84 Va. 947, 6 S. E. 866.

Sec. 6303. When new trustee appointed in suit in equity in place of one who has died.—And when in a suit in equity it appears that

Digitized by Google

a trustee has died, although the heirs of such trustee ties, yet, if his personal representative and the other terested be parties, the court may appoint another trus of him who has died, to act alone, or in conjunction w viving trustee, as the case may require. (Code 1887, §

Under this section the person substituted as trustee powers and privileges, and is subject to all the restrictions instrument creating trust. Lewis' Adm'r v. Glenn, 84
S. E. 866.

Under section 8, chapter 174, Code 1873 (same as thi annul deed of settlement by debtor to trustee for wife and court's duty, upon trustee's death, to appoint a substitute, tion 9 provides that his personal representative shall exec Strayer v. Long, 83 Va. 715, 3 S. E. 372.

See case of Fisher v. Dickenson, 84 Va. 318, 4 S. E. 73
section 6300.

A substituted trustee is the proper plaintiff to recover due to company of which he is assignee. Glenn v. Spring Fed. 494.

Sec. 6304. Substituted trustees, their powers, dutie removed or proceeded against; their bonds.—Any pers trustee by virtue of this chapter shall be substitute rights, powers, duties, and responsibilities of the trust such will, deed, or other writing: and such substituted in like manner, be removed or required to give bond v or give a new bond where one has already been given ceeded against in every respect as an original trustee.
§ 3423.)

Sec. 6305. Right of infant to show cause against dec not be necessary to insert in any decree or order a pro ing an infant to show cause against it within a certai he attains the age of twenty-one years. But in any ca but for this section, such provision would have been infant may, within six months after attaining the ag one years, show such cause in like manner as if the de contained such provision. This right of an infant affected by section sixty-two hundred and ninety-six.
§ 3424.)

This section, though allowing infant to show cause a within six months after becoming of age, does not preve asserting his rights by next friend as soon as he sees Harrison v. Wallton's Ex'r, 95 Va. 721, 30 S. E. 372, 41
64 Am. St. Rep. 830.

It is well settled in Virginia that an infant, as a gene much bound by a decree as an adult. He is not permitte decree except on grounds for which adult could, such as fra or error. Zirkle v. McCue, 26 Grat. 517; Harrison v. Wall
Va. 721, 30 S. E. 372, 41 L. R. A. 703, 64 Am. St. Rep. 8

The right of infant to show cause against a decree wh interest after he arrives at age must be limited to extent existing at rendition of decree, and not such as arose afterw Ex'r v. Page, 21 Grat. 636; Morris v. Virginia Ins. Co.,
S. E. 383; Lancaster v. Barton, 92 Va. 615, 24 S. E. 251

After sale of infant's land has been confirmed, thou

Digitized by Google

has been irregular, yet if purchaser's title can be made good, and it is for infant's interest to confirm same, purchase will not be released, but if interest of infant will be injured by sale it will be set aside. Daniel v. Leitch, 13 Grat. 210.

Upon a bill by surviving partner against infant heirs of deceased partner for sale of partnership land, a decree for sale being made, after infants become of age, they show that surviving partner was largely indebted to firm. Held, this did not invalidate sale. Pierce's Adm'r v. Trigg's Heirs, 10 Leigh 406, 429.

Although answer of infant defendant over fourteen years of age to a bill of sale of lands was neither signed nor sworn to, yet where record shows answer, both signed and sworn to, she having full knowledge of all proceedings, consents to decree for sale, is regularly proceeded against as an infant on the record, and sale is not made until after she becomes of age, of which she has full knowledge, such infant will thereafter be estopped from setting up against a bona fide purchase, the fact that she had not signed and sworn to her answer. Lancaster v. Barton, 92 Va. 616, 24 S. E. 251.

A guardian ad litem may appeal in the names of the infants by himself as such guardian, but if he fails to do so the infants may by some one as their next friend. Givens v. Clem, 107 Va. 435, 59 S. E. 413.

See notes to section 6316.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 132, section 7.

Sec. 6306. When title of purchaser at judicial sale not to be affected.—If a sale of property be made under a decree or order of a court, and such sale be confirmed, the title of the purchaser at such sale shall not be disturbed unless within twelve months from such confirmation, the sale be set aside by the trial court or an appeal be allowed by the Supreme Court of Appeals, and an order or decree be therein afterwards entered requiring such sale to be set aside, but there may be restitution of the proceeds of sale to those entitled. (Code 1887, § 3425.)

Revisors' Note.—Section 3425 of the Code of 1887 was taken without change from the Code of 1849 (Code 1849, p. 676, chapter 178, section 8). The section furnished protection to purchasers only in cases where the sales had been made under decrees or orders after six months from the date thereof, and as the vast majority of sales are made under decrees less than six months old, it followed that formerly a vast majority of the purchasers at judicial sales were not protected. The evil spoken of by the Revisors of 1849 (Report of Revisors, p. 878, note) applies as much to sales made before the expiration of six months as to those made after the expiration of that period or any other less or greater period. It being of great importance that the title of purchasers at judicial sales should be as stable as the circumstances will permit, and also of equal importance that no man shall be deprived of his lands without a sufficient opportunity to have the decree set aside or reversed if erroneous, the present revisors were of opinion that purchasers at judicial sales should be protected by providing that their titles should not be disturbed unless within some reasonable period (named in the above section as twelve months from the confirmation), the sale be set aside by the trial court, or an appeal be allowed by the Supreme Court of Appeals, on which appeal an order or decree is entered requiring the sale to be set aside. Of course, there may be restitution of the proceeds to those entitled, as formerly.

Section 3425 of the Code of 1887 was held not to apply to a proceeding to compel purchasers to comply with their contra head v. Bradley, 87 Va. 676, 13 S. E. 195.

Digitized by Google

That section applied to sales of lands of infants made i erly brought for that purpose. Lancaster v. Barton, 92
S. E. 251.

When sale under decree was confirmed, confirmation re and purchaser was entitled to everything he would have to had confirmation and conveyance been contemporaneou Taylor v. Cooper, 10 Leigh 317, 34 Am. Dec. 737.

Where a sale of infant's land was made six months and confirmed without objection, it was too late for the pu teen months afterward to object to irregularities. Cooper
15 Grat. 551.

Where sale was made more than six months after dec and had been confirmed, it could not be set aside as to Dixon v. McCue's Admx., 21 Grat. 373. This was true, decree was erroneous. Quesenberry v. Barbour, 31 Grat. 4

If the sale was made under decree, and after six mon date of the decree, and such sale was confirmed the rights were fixed by the statute. Garland v. Pamplin, 32 Grat.

Under this section as it stood before the revision, it w it gave no protection to a purchaser who had bought land decree, although the sale was made more than six months f of the decree. Brenham v. Smith, 120 Va. 30, 90 S. E. 657

In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, th held void because the statutes relating to the sale of infant not been substantially complied with.

Sec. 6307. Vacation powers of chancery judges; when cised; effect of vacation decrees.—Judges of courts exer cery jurisdiction shall have the same jurisdictional p chancery causes in vacation as is conferred upon suc term, but such jurisdiction shall not be exercised exce days' notice to all parties to be affected thereby, or th Chancery causes, however, submitted in term may be vacation without such notice; nor shall any notice be ne defendant proceeded against by an order of publication the cause has been matured and who has not entered ance. Decrees in vacation shall have the same force a if made in term, but the lien of such decree shall take from the time of day at which it is received by the cle tered of record. (Code 1887, § 3426; 1893-4, p. 233; 189 1897-8, p. 744; 1902-3-4, p. 633.)

Revisors' Note.—This section as it stood before the ferred only limited vacation powers on chancery judges. of the Code of 1887, as variously amended, was more liberal of the parties was generally required. It was thought that powers should be enlarged to such an extent as to obviate of from time to time amending the statute so as to confe powers. The revised section above is intended to do this, same time amply protect all parties in interest. It is inte to confer jurisdiction, however, and not to compel its exer

A vacation decree becomes effective only from time it i order book of the court in which it is pending. Such an on Sunday is void, and decree signed by judge remains as i been entered on order book. Lee v. Willis, 99 Va. 17, 37 S

Judge, having before him bill and exhibits making a case, may, in vacation, order an account. Three days' notice is inadequate, but decree will not be reversed unless the party be injured thereby. Moore v. Bruce, 85 Va. 139, 7 S. E. 195.

Digitized by Google

A decree entered without authority in vacation may be so approved at a subsequent term as to become binding and will not be disturbed if no prejudical error is discovered therein. Mountain Lake Co. v. Blair, 109 Va. 147, 63 S. E. 751.

Where plaintiff applied for injunction to enjoin collection of judgment on ground that process had not been served on him, but raised no issue as to merits, and defendant by answer raised such issue, and the court of its own motion in vacation made order for an account, whereupon commissioner reported judgment to be valid, and court decreed against plaintiff. Held, the only question before court was validity of judgment, and it had no right, under the law as it then stood, to take jurisdiction of merits of judgment. Finney v. Clark, 86 Va. 354, 10 S. E. 569.

Under the law as it then stood. it was held that defendants in injunction suit might after notice move judge in vacation to dissolve the injunction, and in such case the judge might dissolve the injunction in vacation, but he could not then dismiss the bill. Muller v. Bayly, 21 Grat. 521; Mount v. Radford Trust Co., 93 Va. 427, 25 S. E. 244.

Where a cause has been submitted for hearing in vacation at day not later than a specified day to be fixed by further agreement, depositions, taken and returned after such submission and before day fixed for hearing, may be read. Radford v. Fowlkes, 85 Va. 820, 8 S. E. 817.

Where suit was brought to enforce vendor's lien, and an account was ordered, and the purchaser at sale under decree was owner of lien and unsecured debt reported by commissioner, and this suit was consolidated with another suit to sell other property of debtor, which was sold and sale thereof confirmed without notice to creditor, held he was a party to suits, and entitled to notice of vacation proceedings; but confirmation will not be set aside unless he was prejudiced thereby. Patterson v. Eakin, 87 Va. 49, 12 S. E. 144.

Court has power in vacation to remove person named as commissioner, and to name another in his stead. Fayette Land Co. v. Louisville & N. R. Co., 93 Va. 274, 24 S. E. 1016.

After a case had been fully argued and submitted, the court might, under section 3427 of the Code of 1887, as amended, either in term or vacation, without the consent of the parties, direct the cause to be submitted for decision and decree in vacation. Wingfield v. McGehee, 108 Va. 120, 60 S. E. 755.

A decree confirming a report of liens disposed of a cause on its merits, and formerly could not be entered in vacation except by consent of parties. Harris v. Jones, 96 Va. 659, 32 S. E. 455.

Section 53, chapter 167, Code 1873, provided that decree in vacation in chancery suit may be rendered by consent of parties. Acts 1869-70, p. 427, authorized, in certain cases, judge of hustings court of city of Richmond to perform any duty of judge of chancery court. Where a chancery cause pending in said court was by consent submitted to judge thereof in vacation, decree entered in vacation by judge of hustings court, acting as judge of chancery court, was held valid. Morriss v. Virginia Ins. Co., 85 Va. 588, 8 S. E. 383.

Sec. 6308. How actions and proceedings at law heard in vacation; consent; when unnecessary; effect of judgment, etc.—Any action or proceeding at law pending in any court may, by consent of the parties, either in person or by counsel, next friend, or guardian ad litem, in term time entered of record, or by like consent in vacation, be submitted to the judge of said court for such decision and judgment in vacation as might be made in term. Actions and proceedings, however, submitted in term may be decided in vacation without such consent, nor shall such consent be r to a defendant against whom the cause has been matur of publication and who has not appeared. If the conse in vacation it shall be so certified in any judgment vacation. Whatever orders or proceedings are necess pare the case for a writ of error may be made in va orders made and judgments rendered in vacation shall to the clerk of the court and be entered by him on th book. All such orders and judgments entered in va have the same force and effect as if made and entered i a judgment for money shall be effective only from the at which it is received in the clerk's office to be entere (Code 1887, § 3427; 1895-6, p. 177; 1897-8, p. 754; 190

Digitized by Google

1902-3-4, p. 77; 1904, p. 312.)

Revisors' Note.—In view of the preceding section, that tion 3427 of the Code of 1887, as amended, upon which th based, pertaining to chancery causes, has been omitted.
this the revised section makes no material alteration of the

Sec. 6309. Powers of judge in vacation to enforce o decrees and orders.—The judge of every court havi law jurisdiction in civil cases shall have the same power that he has in term by process of contempt to punish of and enforce obedience to any decree or order made in his court. The orders and proceedings in such case s tified and entered of record as provided in the preced and shall be as valid as if made or had and entered in t 1887, § 3428; 1895-6, p. 177.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "every court having comm diction in civil cases," appearing in lines one and two of used in lieu of "every circuit or corporation court." Th made so as to cover by general language all proper courts cases are provided for by section 6307.

See Burks' Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1389.
Misconduct toward judge see note, 12 Va. Law Reg. 6

Sec. 6310. How money under control of court deposi kept; list furnished Auditor and examiner of record; collected.—Whenever any court shall order any mone control or in its custody to be deposited in any bank institution the officer or person making such deposit s certificate of deposit therefor and deliver the same to the court in which such order was entered. Such cle such certificate in the papers of the suit or proceedin such order was made, and shall in a book kept for that p a record of such money, showing the style of such su proceedings, the date of the order of such deposit, the such deposit, the place of such deposit, and the court in order was entered; and he shall from time to time as drawn on said fund charge the same against said de

Digitized by Google

shall also furnish the Auditor of Public Accounts on February first of each year with a copy of such record thus made by him showing the balance on hand February first; and the said Auditor shall keep a record of same in a book kept by him for that purpose. The said clerk shall also furnish a like list of such balances to the examiner of records who shall examine the same, and if found correct he shall report same to the commissioner of revenue of his county or city, who, if they be not otherwise taxed, shall enter the same upon his property book and assess the proper tax thereon, which shall be paid by such bank or banking institution to the treasurer of such county or city upon the presentation of the proper tax bill therefor, and the amount so paid shall be credited against such deposit, and the date and amount of such credit shall be endorsed on the certificate by the clerk. (Code 1887, § 3429; 1897-8, p. 758.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from the first part of the act cited. The last two lines are new.

Sec. 6311. Proceedings where money has remained under control of court for five years without known owner or claimant.—Whenever any money shall have remained for five years in the custody or under the control of any court of this Commonwealth without any owner or claimant thereof known to the court claiming such funds, such court shall, where the amount is one hundred dollars or upwards, cause a publication to be made once a week for four successive weeks in some newspaper printed in the city of Richmond, and unless the court be a court held in the said city, also in some other convenient newspaper printed in the State, setting forth the amount of such money, the source from which it was derived, in what court and in what suit or proceeding it is held, and in whose hands it is, and requiring all persons having any claim to the said money to appear before the court within such time after the completion of the publication as the court may prescribe and establish their claim. If the sum be less than one hundred dollars, the court shall direct the same to be paid into the treasury of the State, and a proper voucher for the payment taken and filed among the records of the court. (1897-8, p. 758.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from the latter part of the act cited. It should be noted that now the publication applies only to sums of one hundred dollars or more, and that the section directs sums of less than one hundred dollars to be paid into the treasury without publication. Small sums of money will not bear the expense of the publication.

Sec. 6312. When court shall order it to be paid into the treasury.—If no person appear and show title in himself the court shall order the money, after deducting therefrom the costs of such publication if such publication is made, and any other proper charges, to be paid into the treasury of the State and a proper voucher for the payment to be taken and filed among the records of the court. (Code 1887, § 3430; 1897-8, p. 667.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6313. How Auditor to keep account of it.—The Public Accounts shall, in a book provided for the purpo account of all money thus paid into the treasury, sh amount thereof, when, by whom, and under what order and the name of the court, and, as far as practicable, a of the suit or proceeding in which the order was made, as known, the names of the parties thereto. (Code 1887,

Sec. 6314. How person entitled to the money may re Money thus paid into the treasury shall be paid thereout son entitled thereto, who has not asserted a claim to the suit or proceeding in which it was held as aforesaid, factory proof that he is so entitled. If the claim do not hundred dollars, it may be presented to and allowed by of Public Accounts upon the proof aforesaid. If the cl sented be rejected by the Auditor, or if the claim exce dred dollars, the claimant may proceed for its recovery cuit Court of the city of Richmond in the manner provi ter one hundred and three. If, in such proceeding, th established, the net amount thereof (after deducting cost proper charges) shall be paid to the claimant out of the the warrant of the said Auditor. The limitation prescri tions twenty-one hundred and seventy-nine and twen dred and eighty-three, shall apply to any claim presente ed under this section. (Code 1887, § 3432.)

CHAPTER 265.

Injunctions and Bills of Review.

Sec.
6315. Injunction to protect plaintiff in suit for specific property.
6316. Bill of review, within what time allowed, injunction may be awarded on it.
6317. Injunctions in certain cases.
6318. Jurisdiction of injunctions.
6319. General jurisdiction of judges to award them.
6320. When court or judge refuses injunction, judge of Court of Appeals may award it.
6321. To what clerk, judge's order for injunction directed.
6322. Equity of injunction bill to be shown by affidavit or otherwise. Notice to adverse party of application may be required.

Sec.
6323. Court or judge, junction to rest of property o may require bond.
6324. Injunction bon quired, and b given; its pena dition; endorse poena; when i no effect.
6325. How surety in bond may obta security.
6326. Dissolution of i vacation.
6327. Damages on dis 6328. Dismission of in

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6315. Injunction to protect plaintiff in suit for specific property.—An injunction may be awarded to protect any plaintiff in a suit for specific property, pending either at law or in equity, against injury from the sale, removal, or concealment of such property. (Code 1887, § 3434.)

For monographic note on Injunctions, see Claytor v. Anthony, 15 Gratt. 518, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, Chapter 133, section 1.

Sec. 6316. Bill of review, within what time allowed, injunction may be awarded on it.—A court or judge allowing a bill of review may award an injunction to the decree to be reviewed. But no bill of review shall be allowed to a final decree, unless it be exhibited within one year next after such decree, except that an infant or insane person may exhibit the same within one year after the removal of his or her disability. And in no case shall such a bill be filed, without the leave of the court first obtained, unless it be for error of law apparent upon the face of the record. (Code 1887, § 3435; 1899-00, p. 770.)

Infants.—Under statute infant may file bill of review on becoming of full age, and is entitled to show and have corrected any error to his prejudice, but error must be such as existed at time of decree, and not such as may arise afterwards. If decree is for his benefit, there is no cause which they can show to their prejudice. Morris v. Virginia Ins. Co., 85 Va. 588, 8 S. E. 383.

On bill of review by infants they have right to show any cause in the record against the original decree, and court will not only correct errors of law apparent on the decrees, but will look into all the pleadings and proceedings, and correct whatever error of law there may be on the record. Pracht v. Lange, 81 Va. 711.

Assignees.—Neither bills of review nor petitions for rehearing lie for assignees. Armstead v. Bailey, 83 Va. 242, 2 S. E. 238. Gibson v. Green's Adm'r, 89 Va. 524, 16 S. E. 661.

After-discovered evidence.—A bill of review for after-discovered evidence should be refused where the finding sought to be reviewed had been made more than one year prior to the filing of the bill, or where, if filed in time, the allegations would not have been sufficient to warrant a reversal, or where the allegations related to matters with which complainants were no longer concerned. Goode v. Bryant, 118 Va. 314, 87 S. E. 588.

Bill of review must be supported by affidavit that the evidence is not only new, but could not have been obtained by due diligence before the hearing, and there must be also an affidavit of the witness to the newly-discovered evidence. Kern, &c. v. Wyatt, &c., 89 Va. 885, 17 S. E. 549.

Limitations.—It is not necessary to plead the act of limitation to a bill of review, for it ought to appear in the bill itself that it is exhibited within the time prescribed by law, or that the complainant is protected by some of the savings in the act; otherwise it ought not to be received. Shepherd v. Larue, 6 Munf. 529.

Whilst a bill of review (under Code 1873, chapter 175, section 5) to a final decree cannot be brought after three (now one) years (Hancock v. Hutcherson, 76 Va. 609), a petition to rehear interlocutory decree is not limited by any statutory bar. Kendrick v. Whitney, 28 Grat. 546.

Where bill in nature of a bill of review is filed to correct a mistake against which court might have relieved as a matter of original equity jurisdiction, and such bill is filed within a year of the discovery of s mistake, the limitation prescribed by law as to bills of review will apply. Fore v. Foster, 86 Va. 104, 9 S. E. 497, 6 Va. Law Reg. 52.

Digitized by Google

The limitation of one year prescribed by this section within wh a bill of review must be filed is subject to no exceptions which are contained in this section. No inherent equity can create an except when the statute does not make one. Matthews Co. v. Progress Co., Va. 777, 62 S. E. 924.

Generally.—For decisions bearing upon the subject of this statu though not expressly construing it, see Diamond State Iron Co. v. Al K. Rarig Co., 93 Va. 595, 25 S. E. 894, as to bill of review for aft ward discovered evidence; Craufurd's Adm'r v. Smith's Ex'r, 93 Va. 6 23 S. E. 235, 25 S. E. 657; Heermans v. Montague, 2 Va. Dec. 6, 20 S. 899; Sanders v. Burk, 2 Va. Dec. 175, 22 S. E. 516; Shepherd's Ad v. Chapman's Adm'r, 2 Va. Dec. 88, 21 S. E. 468: Beatty v. Barley, Va. 11, 32 S. E. 794; Dellinger v. Foltz, 93 Va. 729, 25 S. E. 998; Mas v. King, 1 Va. Dec. 63; Trevelyan's Adm'r v. Lofft, 83 Va. 141, 1 S. 901; Thomson v. Brooke, 76 Va. 160; Davis v. Morris' Ex'rs, Id. Rawlings' Ex'r v. Rawlings, 75 Va. 76; Armistead v. Bailey, 11 Va. L J. 620, 2 S. E. 38; Connolly v. Connolly, 32 Grat. 657; Sands v. Lynha 27 Grat. 291, 21 Am. Rep. 348; Wayland v. Crank's Ex'r, 79 Va. 6 Ambrouse's Heirs v. Keller, 22 Grat. 769; Campbell's Ex'rs v. Cam bell's Ex'r, Id. 649; Carter v. Allan, 21 Grat. 241; Laidley v. Merrifie 7 Leigh 346; Thornton v. Stewart, Id. 128; Royall's Adm'rs v. Johns 1 Rand. 421; Hodges v. Davis, 4 Hen. & M. 400; Braxton v. Lee's Hei Id. 376; Quarrier v. Carter's Representatives, Id. 242; Banks v. And son, 2 Hen. & M. 20; Triplett v. Wilson, 6 Call 47; Roberts' Widow Stanton, 2 Munf. 129, 5 Am. Dec. 463; Winston v. Johnson's Ex' Id. 305.

See monographic note on Bills of Review to Campbell's Ex'rs Campbell's Ex'r, 22 Grat. 649, Va. Rep. Anno., and note to Metter Adm'r v. Hagan, 18 Grat. 231, Va. Rep. Anno.

See notes to section 6305, Gregory's Forms No. 138.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 45.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotation chapter 133, section 5.

Sec. 6317. Injunctions in certain cases.—Every court or judge a thorized to award injunctions shall, where such injunction is gran ed without notice to the adverse party, prescribe in the injunctio order the time during which the injunction shall be effective, an after the expiration of such time the said injunction, unless prev ously enlarged as hereinafter provided, shall stand dissolved. T party to whom such injunction is awarded may within such tim give notice to the adverse party or to his attorney at law or fact of the time and place at which he will move the court or judg to whom the bill is addressed to enlarge such injunction, or to gra a further injunction, and such adverse party may within such tim and after like notice move the said court or judge to dissolve suc injunction, and on such motion by either of said parties the sai court or judge may dissolve or enlarge said injunction or grant further injunction. From any order dissolving such injunction refusing to grant a further injunction there shall be no appeal; bu this section shall not prevent either party from applying to a judg of the Supreme Court of Appeals for an injunction as provided i section sixty-three hundred and twenty, who may award an in

Digitized by Google

nction in accordance with that section. (1895-6, p. 728; 1908, p. .)

A decree that not only dissolved an injunction but dismissed the aintiff's bill, awarded costs, and directed the sheriff to proceed with rtain executions as if no injunction had been granted, is a final ecree and may be appealed from, notwithstanding this section. Neblett Shackleton, 111 Va. 707, 69 S. E. 946; see editorial on this case, 16 a. Law Reg. 853.

Sec. 6318. Jurisdiction of injunctions.—Jurisdiction of a bill for n injunction to any judgment or judicial proceeding shall be in ne court in which the judgment was rendered or such proceeding pending; except that jurisdiction of an injunction to a judgment f a justice, or to any proceeding before a justice, shall be in the rcuit court of the county, or the circuit, corporation, or other court f the city, having chancery jurisdiction of the county or city in hich the judgment was rendered or such proceeding is pending; nd jurisdiction of an injunction to any other act or proceeding hall be in the circuit court of the county or the circuit, corpora- on, or other court of the city, having chancery jurisdiction, in hich the act or proceeding is to be done, or is doing, or appre- ended. (Code 1887, § 3436; 1899-00, p. 996; 1902-3-4, p. 572.)

Jurisdiction in vacation.—The judge of the circuit court has no juris- ction to perform any judicial functions in vacation, except where the ower is expressly conferred, as to grant injunctions and appeals. and ich other functions as are expressly authorized by law. Chase v. iller, 88 Va. 791, 14 S. E. 545; and note, 6 Va. Law Reg. 720. See ctions 6307, 6308.

What court must hear and determine injunction.—An injunction nnot be entertained in any county or corporation other than that in hich the act or proceeding is to be done, or is doing, or apprehended. orfolk & W. R. Co. v. Postal Tel. Cable Co. (two cases) 88 Va. 932, 36, 14 S. E. 689, 690.

Bill by defendant in execution to enjoin a levy thereunder must be ed in court of county in which the judgment was rendered. Beckley v. almer, 11 Grat. 625.

The forty-first section of the circuit superior law (Supp. to Rev. ode 1819, chapter 109), conferring on judges of superior courts gen- al jurisdiction to award injunctions either within or without their rcuits, but requiring such injunctions to be directed to the clerk of the ourt of the county or corporation in which the judgment is rendered or roceeding apprehended, does not give them jurisdiction to hear and etermine the cause, but the injunction only. Randolph's Ex'r v. Tucker,) Leigh 655.

Where injunction is ancillary.—Section 4, chapter 179, Code 1860, milar to this section, applies only to a pure bill of injunction; and, here injunction is merely ancillary to principal relief prayed for, the ourt having jurisdiction of the parties may properly award injunction, ough property embraced in injunction order be located elsewhere. Win- on v. Midlothian Coal Min. Co., 20 Grat. 686; Muller v. Bayly, 21 rat. 521. But see Muller v. Bayley, 21 Grat. 521.

Generally.—As to whether judge of court not having jurisdiction to ear and determine may award injunction, see 6 Va. Law Reg. 720.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 133, section 4.

Sec. 6319. General jurisdiction of judges to award them.—Every dge of a circuit or corporation court or of a city court having

Digitized by Google

chancery jurisdiction shall have a general jurisdiction in awardi injunctions, whether the judgment or proceeding enjoined be in out of his circuit or city, or the party against whose proceedin the injunction be asked resides in or out of the same. (Code 18 § 3437.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "or of a city court having chanc jurisdiction" found in lines two and three of the text are new.

See note from Randolph's Ex'r v. Tucker, 10 Leigh 655, und section 6318.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotatio chapter 133, section 6.

Sec. 6320. When court or judge refuses injunction, judge Court of Appeals may award it.—When a circuit or corporati court, or city court having chancery jurisdiction, or a judge the of, shall refuse to award an injunction or having awarded a te porary injunction, dissolves or refuses to enlarge the same, a co of the proceedings in court, and the original papers presented the judge in vacation with any orders entered in the proceedin may be presented to a judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals, w may thereupon either award an injunction, or reinstate the injun tion dissolved, or enlarge the injunction. (Code 1887, § 3438; 19 p 37.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "or city court having chancery jur diction" appearing in line two of the text are new.

Where a circuit court refuses to award an injunction, the reme is by application, accompanied by original papers, and order of refu to a judge of Court of Appeals, who may review action of lower co and award the injunction. Wilder v. Kelley, 88 Va. 274, 13 S. E. 4

Judge of Court of Appeals has original jurisdiction to grant junction refused by inferior court; but where inferior court awards junction, and then dissolves it on merits, he cannot grant a new junction or reinstate old one on case made by bill. Fredenheim v. Ro 87 Va. 764, 13 S. E. 193, 266. This case was decided before the amen ment of 1908.

An injunction refused by judge of circuit court and by a judge Supreme Court may be awarded by another judge of Supreme Cou Jaynes v. Brock, 10 Grat. 211.

This section does not restrict the right of appeal under secti 6336, in a case for equitable relief by injunction. French v. Chapin Co., 118 Va. 117, 86 S. E. 842.

Quaere. Whether judge of Court of Appeals has authority as anc lary to his power to grant an injunction under this section, to appo a receiver? Va.-Tenn. & Car. S. & I. Co. v. Wilder, 88 Va. 942, S. E. 809. It seems to have been held in Fredenheim v. Rohr, 87 764, 13 S. E. 193, that a judge of the Court of Appeals has such pow Cited but not construed, Neblett v. Shackleton, 111 Va. 707. S. E. 946.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotatio chapter 133, section 7.

Sec. 6321. To what clerk, judge's order for injunction directed. Every order, awarding an injunction, made under the two prece ing sections, shall be directed to the clerk of such court as h jurisdiction under section sixty-three hundred and eighteen a the proceedings thereupon shall be as if the order had been ma by such court, or the judge thereof. (Code 1887, § 3439.)

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 133, section 9.

Sec. 6322. Equity of injunction bill to be shown by affidavit or otherwise; notice to adverse party of application may be required.—No injunction shall be awarded in vacation, or in court, in a case not ready for hearing, unless the court or judge be satisfied, by affidavit or otherwise, of the plaintiff's equity; and any court or judge may require that reasonable notice shall be given to the adverse party, or his attorney at law or in fact, of the time and place of moving for it before the injunction is awarded, if, in the opinion of the court or judge it be proper that such notice should be given. (Code 1887, § 3440.)

Affidavit by president of complainant corporation that facts alleged are true so far as the same are within his knowledge, and that as to other matters he believes them to be true, is sufficient. Southern Ry. Co. v. Washington, A. & Mt. V. Ry. Co., 102 Va. 483, 46 S. E. 784.

It is error for the issues in an injunction suit to be heard and determined upon affidavits only and a perpetual injunction granted thereon. Virginian R. Co. v. Echols, 117 Va. 182, 83 S. E. 1082.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 133, section 3.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 149, 357.

Sec. 6323. Court or judge, awarding injunction to restrain removal of property out of State, may require forthcoming bond.—A court or judge, awarding an injunction to restrain the removal of property out of the State, may require bond with security to be given before such officer, and in such penalty as the court or judge may direct, with condition to have the property forthcoming to abide the future order or decree of the court, and, unless such bond be given, may order the officer serving its process to take possession of the property, and keep it until the bond be given, or until the further order of the court. (Code 1887, § 3441.)

The requiring of the bond is in the discretion of the court, Holliday v. Coleman, 2 Munf. 162.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 133, section 8

Sec. 6324. Injunction bond; when required, and before whom given; its penalty and condition; endorsement on subpoena; when injunction of no effect.—An injunction (except in the case of a personal representative or other person from whom, in the opinion of the court or judge awarding the same, it may be improper to require bond), shall not take effect until bond be given in such penalty as the court or judge awarding it may direct, with condition, as to the court shall seem just and proper in the case, either to pay the judgment or decree (proceedings on which are enjoined) or to pay the value of the property levied on by the officer, where there has been a levy, or to have the property forthcoming to abide the future order or decree of court, and, in either case, to pay all such costs as may be awarded against the party obtaining the injunction, and all such damages as may be incurred, in case the injunction shall be dissolved, and with a further condition, if a bond has been given under said judgment or decree, and save harmless the sureties in said forthcoming b representatives against all loss or damage in conseq suretyship, or, if the injunction be not to proceedings o or decree, with such condition as the said court or ju scribe. The bond shall be given before the clerk of which judgment or decree is, and, in other cases, be of the court in which the suit is wherein the injunctio If the bond be not given before the summons is issu shall endorse thereon that the injunction is not to tal the bond be given, and the clerk, who afterwards ta shall endorse on the summons that it is given. But i quired by this section be not given within sixty days at which the injunction was awarded, then the order a injunction shall be of no effect. (Code 1887, § 3442.)

Digitized by Google

Where statute does not prescribe the form of an in one substantially following the directions of the statut White v. Clay's Ex'rs, 7 Leigh 68.

Where injunction bond is executed in accordance wi cannot set up as defense to action thereon that by express a principal, made in presence of clerk at time of taking bond named should sign it, such agreement being unknown to man v. Howe, 27 Grat. 676.

The surety in an injunction bond being held insuff other bond being executed with other sureties, upon dis junction sureties in both bonds are equally liable. Ben Adm'r, 2 Grat. 357.

It is error in chancellor to award injunction withou curity, except in case of fiduciaries. Lomax v. Picot, 2 R see note to preceding section.

Principal debtor in judgment obtains injunction tho cutes bond with third person as surety, the surety in the being a party to injunction. Upon a dissolution thereof is liable for debt enjoined before surety in judgment. Be Adm'r, 2 Grat. 357.

Security on bond for prosecution of injunction is not and damages which may accrue on appeal to superior co v. Johns, 3 Munf. 230.

An injunction order requiring an injunction bond to condition "according to law" is sufficient authority to the the condition "to answer all costs and damages that may reason of the suing out the injunction in case the same sha and is a substantial compliance with the provisions of the Code directing the court to prescribe the condition o is the usual, if not almost the universal, practice of the ginal jurisdiction to prescribe the conditions of such manner when the circumstances are not such as to render tions necessary. Columbia Amusement Co. et als. v. Pine ment Corporation, 109 Va. 325, 63 S. E. 1002.

The liability of the obligors in an injunction bond is the bond alone. The damages must be such as are th proximate result of the issuance of the writ. Va. Beach D 115 Va. 280, 78 S. E. 617.

Discussed, 9 Va. Law J. 1.

Form of injunction bond, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1583; Forms No. 29.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6325. How surety in forthcoming bond may obtain additional curity.—Any surety in such forthcoming bond, or his personal representative, may move for and obtain an order for other or additional security, in like manner as a defendant in the injunction may. Code 1887, § 3443.)

Discussed, 9 Va. Law J. 1.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations. apter 133, sections 10, 11.

Sec. 6326. Dissolution of injunction in vacation.—The judge of a rcuit or corporation court, or of a city court having chancery jurisction, in which a case is pending, wherein an injunction is awarded, may in vacation dissolve such injunction, after reasonable notice the adverse party. His order for the dissolution shall be directed the clerk of said court, who shall record the same in the order ook. (Code 1887, § 3444.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "or of a city court having chancery risdiction" appearing in lines two and three of the text are new.

Injunction may be dissolved in vacation, but, without consent, cause nnot then be decided on its merits; it must stand over until next term. ount v. Radford Trust Co., &c., 93 Va. 427, 25 S. E. 244. But see ction 6307.

Where an injunction has been obtained in vacation, the defendant ay file his answer and move the court to dissolve the injunction, without filing the answer at rules or in term Goddin v. Vaughan's Ex'x. c., 14 Grat. 102.

Refusal to dissolve injunction appealable. Bristow v. Home Building Co., 91 Va. 18, 20 S. E. 946.

When injunction to be dissolved. Spence v. Jones, 85 Va. 172, S. E. 180.

Sec. 6327. Damages on dissolution.—Where an injunction to stay roceedings on a judgment or decree for money is dissolved wholly r in part, there shall be paid to the party having such judgment r decree, damages at the rate of ten per centum per annum from he time the injunction took effect until the dissolution, on such um as appears to be due, including the costs; but the court, where- the injunction is, may direct that no such damages be paid, or uch portion thereof as it may deem just. In a case wherein a forthoming bond was forfeited, and no execution thereon, before the njunction took effect, a court awarding such execution shall include in its judgment or decree damages as aforesaid; in other ases they shall be included in the execution on the judgment or decree to which the injunction was awarded. The damages shall be n satisfaction of so much of the interest for the time they are given s may not exceed said damages. (Code 1887, § 3445.)

When condition of bond broken.—The condition of an injunction ond is broken as well by a partial as a total dissolution, so that action es on bond. White v. Clay's Ex'rs, 7 Leigh 68.

How damages computed.—Where upon bill of review an injunction s granted to a judgment, and afterwards dissolved, the damages are to be omputed on the amount of judgment at time injunction was granted on ill of review. Claytor v. Anthony, 15 Grat. 518.

Where injunction is dissolved, and on appeal order of dissolution is ffirmed, the ten per cent. damages is to be computed from the time when the injunction was granted to the date of dissolution thereof i the court below, but not for the time it was pending in the appellat court. Jeter v. Langhorne, 5 Grat. 193.

Digitized by Google

Upon dissolution of injunction on judgment, the damages for re tarding judgment by injunction should be computed on the aggregat principal, interest and costs, appearing due on judgment at the date o the execution, and the damages should be ascertained and precept t levy them inserted in the body of the execution. Washington's Ex'r v Parks, 6 Leigh 581.

Damages not dependent on condition of bond.—Although injunctio bond provided only for judgment and costs of injunction, in action there on after dissolution of injunction interest and damages may be recovered Fox v. Edwards' Ex'r, 6 Munf. 36.

Damages in excess of penalty of bond.—If the judgment, principa interest, costs and damages on the injunction amount to more than th penalty of the injunction bond, yet plaintiff having sued out executio on the judgment, and made principal, interest and costs, may sue fo damages on bond. Claytor v. Anthony, 15 Grat. 518.

Damages are incident of dissolution.—Where injunction bond pro vides for payment of such damages as may be awarded by court, an court simply dissolves injunction and dismisses bill, such order of di solution necessarily imports that damages are to be paid unless they b expressly remitted by terms of order. Claytor v. Anthony, 15 Grat. 51

Damages on dissolution become part of judgment.—Where injun tion is obtained to judgment which is lien upon an equity of redemptio in land, the damages on dissolution thereof become, as to the party ob taining it, a part of the judgment, and are embraced in the lien of th judgment upon the equity of redemption. Michaux's Adm'r v. Brow 10 Grat. 612.

Generally.—If person not party to a judgment enjoins it, and i junction is dissolved, he is liable to pay ten per cent. damages prescribe by statute. Claytor v. Anthony, 15 Grat. 518.

Where execution is awarded on forthcoming bond against princip and surety, the principal obtains injunction thereto, which is afterward dissolved. The surety is not liable for the damages awarded in injunctio proceedings, and if execution issue against surety as well as principal o surety's motion it will be quashed. The execution should be so frame as to exempt surety from the damages, and make principal alone liabl therefor. Garnett v. Jones, 4 Leigh 633.

Where, pending an injunction to judgment for money, creditor die and injunction, but not suit at law, is revived against administrato court cannot make decree in suit in equity for money which will b payable to creditor on dissolution. Medley v. Tunis' Ex'rs, 1 Rob. 6

Common law damages may be recovered independent of and in add tion to damages provided for in this section. 15 Va. Law Journal (1891 572.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotation chapter 133, section 12.

Sec. 6328. Dismission of injunction bill.—Where an injunctio is wholly dissolved, the bill shall stand dismissed of course wit costs, unless sufficient cause be shown against such dismission a the next term of the court after the dissolution. The clerk of th court shall enter such dismission on the last day of said term. (Cod 1887. § 3446.)

Code 1873, chapter 175, section 14 (same as this section), applie only to pure bills of injunction, and not to a case where the bill pray for other relief besides the injunction; and pending the litigation for th subjection of the land to sale for the purchase money it is not error t appoint a receiver to rent the land, and, if necessary, to collect bond given by vendee for rent. Adkins v. Edwards, 83 Va. 300, 2 S. E. 43

After an injunction has been wholly dissolved, if the cause be s

Digitized by Google

for hearing on motion of defendant he cannot take advantage of fact that bill should have been dismissed. Franklin v. Wilkinson, 3 Munf. 112.

The third section of act January 20, 1804, same as this section (3 St. at Large [N. S.] p. 98), does not apply to bill which is not merely bill of injunction, but has the farther object in view of obtaining a conveyance. Pulliam v. Winston, 5 Leigh 324; Hough v. Shreeve, 4 Munf. 490; Singleton v. Lewis 6 Munf. 397.

The word "term" should be construed to mean the next regular term fixed by law, and not a special term fixed by court, unless otherwise provided. Stulty v. Pratt, 103 Va. 536, 49 S. E. 654..

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 133, section 13.

CHAPTER 266.

Errors Insufficient in an Appellate Court.

Sec.
6329. Errors, which might be corrected on writ of error coram vobis, may be corrected on motion, after notice.
6330. Judgment on confession a release of errors.
6331. For what a judgment not to be reversed.
6332. Same as to decrees only.
6333. Error in judgment or decree; when by default may on motion be corrected in same court and in other cases by same court or judge when there is something in the record by which to amend, or excess may be released; within what time motion to be made.
6334. What appellate court to do in a case in which there might be redress under the preceding section.
6335. Allowing appeal when verdict reduced and accepted under protest.

Sec. 6329. Errors, which might be corrected on writ of error coram vobis, may be corrected on motion, after notice.—For any clerical error, or error in fact for which a judgment or decree may be reversed or corrected on writ of error coram vobis, the same may be reversed or corrected, on motion after reasonable notice, by the court, or by the judge thereof in vacation. (Code 1887, § 3447.)

The Court of Appeals has no power to award writs of error to its own judgment, or to allow bills of review to or appeals from its own decrees, for any error of law or fact appearing upon the face of its records. Nor can it, for errors of fact not apparent upon its records, grant writs of error coram vobis or entertain bills of review. Reid's Adm'r v. Strider's Adm'r, 7 Grat. 76, 54 Am. Dec. 120.

A judgment by confession entered by mistake of clerk instead of judgment nil dicit cannot be corrected at the next term of court under either the first or fifth sections of chapter 181, Code 1849, similar to sections 6329, 6333. Richardson's Ex'x v. Jones, 12 Grat. 53.

Cited but not construed in Allens' Case, 114 Va. 826, 77 S. E. 66. See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1054-1057.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 134, section 1.

Sec. 6330. Judgment on confession, a release of errors.—A judgment on confession shall be equal to a release of errors. (Code 1887, § 3448.)

Digitized by Google

Confession of judgment.—An entry that the defendant his plea of payment, saith he cannot gainsay the plaint the sum of, etc., is a judgment by confession, and releas errors in the proceedings. Richardson's Ex'x v. Jones, 1

Confession of judgment is valid, though no suit be pe the parties. Brockenbrough's Ex'x v. Brockenbrough's A 580-589.

Confession of judgment on a forthcoming bond is a errors in the previous proceedings. Stanard v. Timber 681.

Valid, confessed by power of attorney executed by ment confessed on power of attorney to confess judgment, firm, is valid, and may be in favor of a woman, under A 353. Alexander v. Alexander, 85 Va. 353, 7 S. E. 335, 1

How advantage taken of release of errors.—A defen wishing to avail himself of a release of errors, or of an not being properly a part of the record, ought not to mo quash the supersedeas, but should plead in bar such re matter. Hite's Heirs v. Wilson, 2 Hen. & M. 268.

When equity will not relieve.—After a confession o an executor, in an action brought on his official bond for recovering against him and his securities for a devasta resort to a court of equity for relief on ground that he ha istered the assets of his testator. Worsham v. McKenzie 343.

Where it appears that in a suit on an executorial fendants confessed an unconditional judgment, as to court of equity relieves, see Freelands v. Royall, 2 Hen.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis chapter 134, section 2.

Sec. 6331. For what, a judgment not to be reversed. ment or decree shall be arrested or reversed for the either party, being under the age of twenty-one years if the verdict (where there is one), or the judgment for him and not to his prejudice; or for want of war ney; or for the want of a similiter, or any misjoinin for any informality in the entry of the judgment or clerk; or for the omission of the name of any juror; may not appear that the verdict was rendered by t jurors required by law; or for any defect, imperfec sion in the pleadings, which could not be regarded on for any other defect, imperfection, or omission in the any error committed on the trial where it plainly the record and the evidence given at the trial that th had a fair trial on the merits and substantial jus reached. For the purposes of this section, the tria upon the request of either party, give a certificate proved, or, if this be not practicable, of the eviden the trial, which certificate when signed by the jud part of the record. Such certificate, however, shall except during the term at which the evidence was within sixty days thereafter; if given in vacation sha by the judge to the clerk of his court, and the latt with the papers in the cause. The certificate shall be rendered by the party requesting it, or his counsel. (Code 1887, § 3449.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is, and is intended to be, a very substantial change in the statute of jeofails. It is intended to render it practically impossible for a case to be reversed on any mere technicality, and to allow all judgments to stand when fairly rendered on the merits, if substantial justice has been reached.

Statute of jeofails (this section and the next) is intended to cure defective statement of cause of action, but not a statement which makes no case. O. A. & M. R. Co. v. Miles, 76 Va. 773.

A motion in arrest of judgment should be overruled where the declaration contains a defective statement of a good cause of action. This is a class of error which the statute of jeofails is designed to cure. Richmond v. McCormack, 120 Va. 552, 91 S. E. 767.

The omission to appoint a guardian ad litem is reversible error in all cases unless it appear that the judgment is for the infant, and not to his prejudice. Weaver v. Glenn, 104 Va. 443, 51 S. E. 835.

When statute does not apply.—If, at the hearing of a cause, the case made upon the pleading and proof is one of which a court of equity has no jurisdiction, the bill should be dismissed, though defendant has made no objection to jurisdiction, by plea, demurrer, or answer, but has defended the case upon merits, and on appeal it will be dismissed, though no objection was taken in court below. Green v. Massie, 21 Grat. 356.

Where bill fails to state a proper case for relief in equity it will be dismissed at hearing, though no objection has been made in the pleadings. But a defective bill may be aided by answer and evidence. Salamone v. Keiley, 80 Va. 86.

Where first and second counts of declaration allege that animals were killed by defendant's negligence, and in third and fourth counts there is no allegation, the third and fourth counts are fatally defective, and are not cured by verdict, under statute of jeofails. O. A. & M. R. Co. v. Miles, 76 Va. 773.

Where defendant appears not to have been included in the original process and the returns thereon, the judgment entered in the suit is void, the presumption of jurisdiction being overcome by the record. Ward v. Funsten, 86 Va. 359, 10 S. E. 415.

When demurrer necessary.—Counts ex delicto cannot be joined with counts ex contractu. Such misjoinder makes the declaration bad on demurrer. But under section 3, chapter 177, Code 1873 (corresponding to this section), unless demurrer has been filed and overruled such misjoinder will not be ground for motion in arrest of judgment or writ of error. Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Wysor, 82 Va. 250.

Judgment will not be reversed for defect, imperfection, or omission in the pleading unless in court below there was a demurrer. But a failure to state any cause at all is not cured by section 3, chapter 177, Code 1873 (corresponding to this section), Roanoke Land & Improvement Co. v. Karn, 80 Va. 589.

A plea, though defective, and not demurred to, is cured. Davis' Adm'r v. McMullen's Adm'r, 86 Va. 256, 9 S. E. 1095.

Informality of judgment.—Where informality of judgment is harmless, and can work no injury, it will not be reversed therefor. Long v. Pence's Committee, 93 Va. 584, 25 S. E. 593.

Declaration showing plaintiff's intention to proceed under statute to simplify declarations in actions against insurance companies is a good statutory declaration, even though largely following the form of a declaration in debt. Virginia Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. Saunders, 84 Va. 216, 4 S. E. 584.

Generally.—For statute of jeofails generally, see 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 939, 940, 946, 1056, 1073; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 355, 356, 363, 571, 737; Southside R. Co. v Daniel, 20 Grat. 344.

Discussed, 14 Va. Law J. 21.

Digitized by Google

Cited in Mandeville v. Suckley, 1 Pet. 136, 7 L. Ed.
See sections 6085 and 6118 and notes.
For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' chapter 134, section 3.

Sec. 6332. Same as to decrees only.—No decree shal for want of replication to the answer, where the d taken depositions as if there had been a replication; appears that there was a full and fair hearing on th that substantial justice has been done, a decree sha versed for want of a replication, although the defend have taken depositions; nor shall it be reversed, for an in the proceedings, at the instance of a party who has sitions. (Code 1887, § 3450.)

Where defendant has taken depositions it is imma section 4, chapter 177, Code 1873 (same as this section) plication to answer is filed or not. Harris v. Harris, 31 G this is true where plea, instead of replication, is put in Simmons v. Simmons' Adm'r, 33 Grat. 451.

Where decree was entered in cause when there was to the answer of D., and after an appeal was perfected by on motion of the plaintiffs, made an order permitting pla replication nunc pro tunc, if it was proper case for such should have allowed D. time to take testimony to meet case presented by replication. Dabney v. Preston's Adm'rs,

Where record discloses that decree was entered in a cessary parties, appellate court will reverse it, though no taken in court below. Dabney v. Preston's Adm'rs, 25 Gr

Followed in Jones v. Degge, 84 Va. 685, 5 S. E. 799

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' chapter 134, section 4.

Sec. 6333. Error in judgment or decree; when by on motion be corrected in same court and in other ca court or judge when there is something in the record amend, or excess may be released; within what time made.—The court in which there is a judgment by decree on a bill taken for confessed, or the judge of vacation thereof, may, on motion reverse such judgme for any error for which an appellate court might rev following section was not enacted, and give such judg cree as ought to be given. And the court in which i judgment or decree in a cause wherein there is in a d pleading or in the record of the judgment or decree miscalculation, or misrecital of any name, sum, quan when the same is right in any part of the record or or when there is any verdict, report of a commission other writing whereby such judgment or decree ma amended, or in which a judgment is rendered on a bond for a sum larger than by the execution or warra appears to be proper, or on a verdict in an action fo ages than are mentioned in the declaration, or in the the court in which any such judgment or decree is judge thereof may, on the motion of any party, amen

Digitized by Google

ment or decree according to the truth and justice of the case, or in any such case the party obtaining such judgment or decree, may, in the same court, at any future term, by an entry of record, or in the vacation by a writing signed by him, attested by the clerk and filed among the papers of the cause, release a part of the amount of his judgment or decree, and such release shall have the effect of an amendment and make the judgment or decree operate only for what is not released. Every motion under this chapter shall be after reasonable written notice to the opposite party, his agent or attorney in fact or at law, and shall be within three years from the date of the judgment or decree. (Code 1887, § 3451; 1893, p. 376.)

Remedy is cumulative.—Section 5, chapter 177, Code 1873 (similar to this section), is a cumulative remedy, and does not supersede or abolish petitions for rehearing which may still be had according to the course of equity, in the same manner as before this statute. Kendrick v. Whitney, 28 Grat. 646. It applies only to judgments by default and decrees on bills taken for confessed, and to cases of mistake or misrecital or miscalculation, for which no appeal lies to this court. Thompson v. Carpenter, 88 Va. 702, 14 S. E. 181.

Judgment by default.—All judgments where there has been no appearance by the defendant are judgments by default, within the meaning of the statute, under section 5, chapter 181, Code 1849 (similar to this section). Davis v. Com., 16 Grat. 134.

Where judgment is erroneous by reason of misprision of clerk in entering it up, such case comes within section 5, chapter 177, Code 1873 (similar to this section), and is not ground for equitable interference. Judgment by default in this statute means judgment against person who does not appear, whether legally summoned or not. Goolsby v. St. John, 25 Grat. 146.

An injunction will not be awarded to a judgment by default upon summons directed to sheriff of county other than where action is brought, although the summons was issued contrary to law, as the judgment, though erroneous, is not void, and the defendant has a complete remedy at law under this section. Brown v. Chapman, 90 Va. 174, 17 S. E. 855.

Notice under this section to reverse a judgment by default and to quash an execution thereon on the ground that judgment was obtained by default, and after service of process by publication only and not by personal service thereof, sufficiently raises the constitutionality of section 3225, of the Code of 1887, under which the service was made. Ward Lumber Co. v. Henderson-White Mfg. Co., 107 Va. 626, 59 S. E. 476.

Notice need not specify errors.—The notice, under Code 1873, section 5, chapter 177 (similar to this section), need not specify the errors for which the court is asked to correct or reverse its judgment by default. Saunders v. Griggs' Adm'r, 81 Va. 506.

When statute applies.—An original bill which seeks to correct errors in decree by default apparent on its face, and also set it aside on the ground of mistake and surprise, having been filed without leave, cannot be treated as a bill of review. But a copy of original record being filed with bill, the court may consider and correct any errors apparent on face of decree, which may be corrected under section 5, chapter 181, Code 1849 (similar to this section). Hill v. Bowyer, 18 Grat. 364.

Under Code 1873, section 5, chapter 177 (similar to this section), an amendment of a judgment for plaintiffs in ejectment "for their terms yet to come in lands," so as to conform with plaintiff's claim and the requirements of Code 1849, where ejectment was adopted to try titles as well as to get possession of lands, was not error. Alvey v. Cahoon, 86 Va. 173, 9 S. E. 994.

Digitized by Google

Upon notice to adverse party, the court wherein decree is rendere may correct any clerical error therein, where there is enough in ti record to enable court safely to amend same. Dillard's Adm'r v. Dillar 77 Va. 820.

A judgment and award of execution on forthcoming bond havin been entered by default upon a day prior to that on which notice wa given, the court in which the judgment and award of execution wa rendered has jurisdiction, under section 5, chapter 181, Code 184 (similar to this section), on motion of plaintiff to set aside judgment an quash execution upon reasonable notice to defendants. Ballard Whitlock, 18 Grat. 235.

When statute does not apply.—Where defendant, in decree by d fault, does not, within statutory period, proceed to correct errors theret under this section, he cannot, after lapse of such time, make such com plaint on reinstatement of the cause by other parties. Groseclose Harman, 1 Va. Dec. 564.

In absence of objection in court below that commissioner had no regularly adjourned from time to time the taking of accounts, an ap pellate court would presume that they were regular, and objection not available under this section. Hill v. Bowyer, 18 Grat. 364.

A judgment by confession entered by mistake of clerk instead a judgment upon nil dicit cannot be corrected at next term of the cour under either the first or the fifth sections of chapter 181, Code 184 (corresponding to sections 6329, 6333). Richardson's Ex'x v. Jone 12 Grat. 53.

This section confers no power to give validity and force to vac tion judgment and decrees which are void by want of power in the judg to render them. Wingfield v. McGehee, 108 Va. 120, 60 S. E. 755.

Remedy under this section held not to apply under the circum stances appearing in the case of Battaile v. Maryland, etc., 76 Va. 63.

Section does not apply to errors in reasoning.—Where a final decre has been entered in a cause confirming report of commissioner witho exception or objection, appellate court will not reverse such decree f errors alleged in said report, and not appearing on face of it. And in litigated case such errors cannot be corrected by trial court on motio under this section. This section applies to errors generally, on judg ment by default or bill taken for confessed, and for misprisions of cler or clerical misprisions of the judge, where judgment may be safely co rected in the manneer prescribed by that section, but has no applicatio to errors in reasoning and conclusions of court about contested matter Shipman v. Fletcher, 91 Va. 473, 22 S. E. 458.

This section in its present form overrules Dillard v. Thornton, Grat. 393.

Judgment nunc pro tunc.—When on application to a trial court correct judgment by default under provisions of this section it appea that no order was entered by court on day to which notice of motion f judgment was returnable, but that judgment by default was entered a subsequent term, it is within discretion and power of court to ent an order nunc pro tunc docketing the motion and continuing it to th next term, and validating the judgment as between the original partie and annexing a condition thereto that such judgment shall not affect th rights of innocent third parties whose rights have accrued since th original judgment, and before the nunc pro tunc order. Such orde when made, is an entirety, and is not valid as to the judgment and voi as to condition. Powers v. Carter Coal & Iron Co., 100 Va. 455, 4 S. E. 867, 8 Va. Law Reg. 351.

During the term of court at which a judicial act is done the recor remains in the breast of the court, and may be altered or amended: bu after adjournment of term amendments can only be made in case ther is something in record by which they can be safely amended. Amend ments cannot be made after the term upon individual recollection judge or upon proof aliunde. Barnes' Case, 92 Va. 794, 23 S. E. 78

Digitized by Google

In proper cases to further the ends of justice, courts may make entries of judgments nunc pro tunc in either civil or criminal cases, and the time within which this may be done is not limited. Weatherman's Case, 91 Va. 796, 22 S. E. 349.

Under section 5972, providing that all cases on docket, not determined before term, shall stand continued without order of continuance, held it was in the power of court at its July term to enter judgment nunc pro tunc, which it had omitted on verdict rendered at April term. Van Gunden v. Kane, 88 Va. 591, 14 S. E. 334.

See note to section 5972.

In Carpenter v. Gray, 113 Va. 518, 75 S. E. 300, the court at the instance of the defendant, set aside the office judgment and allowed the defendant to plead. At a subsequent term, upon the motion of the plaintiff, the court reconsidered its former action, and a nunc pro tunc judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff.

Court cannot set aside order vacating former judgment.—In 1889 circuit court reversed judgment of county court, and remanded the case, with costs. Afterwards circuit court set aside previous order, and later made an order reversing county court, and ordering road to be opened. Held, the last order of circuit court was erroneous, it being without jurisdiction after final order of 1889. Thompson v. Carpenter, 88 Va. 702, 14 S. E. 181.

Where a court on motion of defendant vacates a judgment previously rendered, it cannot, on motion of plaintiff, subsequently vacate the order vacating the judgment. In such case remedy is by appeal. Dillard v. Thornton, 29 Grat. 392.

When injunction does not lie.—Injunction is not proper remedy where relief against decree erroneously entered can be obtained under this section. Preston v. Kindrick, 94 Va. 765, 27 S. E. 588, 64 Am. St. Rep. 777, and note 3 Va. Law Reg. 431.

When appeal does not lie.—Court of Appeals has no jurisdiction of an appeal from a decree by default until relief has been sought under this section. When the time allowed by it has expired decree becomes final and irreversible. Davis v. Com., 16 Grat. 134; Smith's Ex'r v. Powell, 98 Va. 437, 36 S. E. 522.

Where error in amount of judgment is released according to this section, appellate court will not reverse it on that account. Dickinson v. Clement, 87 Va. 41, 12 S. E. 105.

When defective return may be amended.—Where defendant under this section moves the judge to reverse the judgment by default upon a defective return of the summons instituting the case, the judge may allow the sheriff to amend his return, and if a proper service is shown the motion of the defendant will be dismissed. Stolz v. Collins, 83 Va. 423, 2 S. E. 737.

When improper to dismiss motion.—Where, on bill in equity not stating a proper case on its face, a decree on said bill taken for confessed is rendered, and defendant gives notice of motion to reverse and annul it under this section, it is error for such court to dismiss the motion, as bill should have been dismissed at hearing. Graveley v. Graveley, 84 Va. 145, 4 S. E. 218.

Section does not apply to Court of Appeals.—The Court of Appeals is without power to correct a clerical error in its own decree when the application for relief is made after the expiration of the term at which the decree was rendered, or after the period within which a petition for a rehearing may be heard. Southern Ry. Co. v. Glenn's Adm'r, 7 Va. Law Reg. 533. See, also, editorial, Id. 576.

Where motion is made to dismiss appeal on ground that appellant's remedy, if any, was by motion under this section, and nothing is involved in such appeal of practical importance, such motion will not be considered. Flynn v. Jackson, 93 Va. 341, 25 S. E. 1.

Generally.—Applied in Goode v. Bryant, 118 Va. 327, 87 S. E. 588.

Digitized by Google

Cited but not construed in Park Land & Imp. Co. v. Lane, 10 Va. 304, 55 S. E. 690; Allens' Case, 114 Va. 826, 77 S. E. 66.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 535, 541, 738; Gregory' Forms No. 358.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations chapter 134, section 5.

Sec. 6334. What appellate court to do in a case in which there might be redress under the preceding section.—No appeal, writ o error, or supersedeas shall be allowed by an appellate court or judg for any matter for which a judgment or decree is liable to be re versed or amended, on motion as aforesaid, by the court which rendered it, or the judge thereof, until such motion be made and overruled in whole or in part. And when an appellate court hear a case wherein an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas has been allowed, if it appears that, either before or since the same was al lowed, the judgment or decree has been so amended, the appellate court shall affirm the judgment or decree, unless there be other er ror; and if it appear that the amendment ought to be, and has no been made, the appellate court may make such amendment, and affirm in like manner the judgment or decree, unless there be other error. (Code 1887, § 3452.)

A mistake of the trial court in rendering judgment for damages under section 2776, after the verdict may be corrected by this court under the provisions of this section. Powers v. Hamilton, 117 Va. 810, 8 S. E. 98.

Applied in Brown v. Chapman, 90 Va. 174, 17 S. E. 855.

See Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 738, 773.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations chapter 134, section 6.

Sec. 6335. Allowing appeal when verdict reduced and accepted under protest.—In any action at law in which the trial court shall require a plaintiff to remit a part of his recovery, as ascertained by the verdict of a jury, or else submit to a new trial, such plaintiff may remit and accept judgment of the court thereon for the re duced sum under protest, but, notwithstanding such remittitur and acceptance, if under protest, the judgment of the court in requiring him to remit may be reviewed by the Supreme Court of Appeals upon a writ of error awarded the plaintiff as in other actions at law; and in any such case in which a writ of error is awarded the defendant, the judgment of the court in requiring such remittitur may be the subject of review by the Supreme Court of Appeals regardless of the amount. (1906, p. 251.)

If the court has no right to set aside a verdict as excessive—there being no measure of damages—it has no right to put a party upon terms to accept a less amount. Boyd v. Boyd, 116 Va. 328, 82 S. E. 110.

A defendant in ejectment obtained a writ of error to a judgment of the trial court which awarded the entire premises to the plaintiff. The latter asked the appellate court to affirm the judgment in part, although the defendant's defenses went to the entire action. This prayer was re fused. The granting of it would be putting, not the successful, but the unsuccessful party on terms. Grizzle v. Davis, 119 Va. 567, 89 S. E. 870.

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 267.

Appeals, Writs of Error, and Supersedeas.

Sec.
6336. In what cases petitions for appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas may be awarded.
6337. When prohibited.
6338. How person desiring to present such petition may procure suspension of execution.
6339. Transcript of record to be exhibited with such petition; person applying for transcript to notify opposite party or his counsel; certificate of clerk to transcript.
6340. How the record made up.
6341. Where parties differ, the judge to decide.
6342. Parties may agree upon what shall be copied, or may agree the facts to be copied in lieu of complete record.
6343. Court of Appeals may change rules for making out and printing records.
6344. If part of record unnecessarily copied, who to pay for it.
6345. Appellate court, or, etc., may inspect former record before it; power to award writ of certiorari.
6346. Petition for appeal, etc., how prepared and certified.
6347. To whom presented; endorsement of judge thereon.
6348. When to be rejected; when rejection final.
6349. When appeal, etc., allowed; when supersedeas awarded.
6350. In what court appeal, etc., to be docketed; what process to issue.
6351. Bond of appellants or petitioners; penalty and condition.
6352. When and by whom taken; endorsement on process from Court of Appeals.
6353. How surety in such bond may obtain indemnity.
6354. When appeal is of right from State Corporation Commission record to be delivered to clerk of Supreme Court of Appeals; when that court to dismiss appeal.
6355. Limitation of appeals, writ of error, or supersedeas.
6356. When their dismission final; when they may be re-instated.
6357. In case to be heard by Court of Appeals, how clerk thereof to prepare record; what to be printed and how; how printed copies distributed, and cost of printing paid.
6358. Clerks to advertise for bids for the printing.
6359. What the bids to state.
6360. How the contracts awarded; the bond required; how cost of printing certified and paid.
6361. How docket of causes ready for hearing made out; in what order cases heard.
6362. What cases heard out of turn.
6363. Rule of decision where the evidence (and not the facts) is certified.
6364. What evidence may be considered in the appellate courts.
6365. Decision of appellate court.
6366. What damages awarded appellee.
6367. When clerk of Court of Appeals to transmit its decisions.
6368. Postage to be paid by him and repaid out of treasury.
6369. How decision of Court of Appeals entered in court or State Corporation Commission from which cause came; issue of execution thereon, etc.

Digitized by Google

Sec.
6370. Order books, dockets, etc., of district courts, to remain in custody of clerks of Court of Appeals; their duties in respect thereto; how printed and manuscript orders disposed of, etc.
6371. Court of Appeals to direct the clerk of the court to destroy manuscript records in cases where the printed; binding with briefs of 6372. When Court of A rehear and revi cided by it; wh tion therefor to where rehearin take place; whe entered.

Sec. 6336. In what cases petitions for appeal, writ of e persedeas may be awarded.—Any person who thinks h grieved by any judgment, decree, or order in a contro cerning the title to or boundaries of land, the conde property, the probate of a will, the appointment or qual a personal representative, guardian, committee, or curat cerning a mill, roadway, ferry, wharf, or landing, or the State, county, or municipal corporation to levy tolls o involving the construction of any statute, ordinance, proceeding imposing taxes, or by any final order, ju finding of the State Corporation Commission, irrespec amount involved, except the action of the said commis certaining the value of any property or franchise of a canal company, for the purpose of taxation and asse thereon, or any person who is a party to any case i wherein there is a decree or order dissolving an injunc quiring money to be paid, or the possession or title of be changed, or adjudicating the principles of a cause, son thinking himself aggrieved by the order of a judg refusing a writ of quo warranto, or by the final judgm writ, or by a final judgment, decree, or order in any civi present a petition, if the case be in chancery, for an a the decree or order; and if not in chancery, for a writ supersedeas to the judgment or order, except as prov following section: provided, however, that the Common take an appeal from the action of the State Corporati sion in all cases, irrespective of the amount involved. § 3454; 1902-3-4, p. 779.)

A writ of error cannot be awarded to an order set judgment and granting a rehearing, as it is not a final ju writ of error does not lie in any case at law until there has judgment or order in the cause. Smiley v. Provident Tru Va. 787, 56 S. E. 728.

A commissioner appointed in a decree directing a resal a suit to subject the assets of the deceased owner to the debts cannot in his official capacity alone appeal from a de aside the decree for a resale, rendered on a petition aga alone. Brown v. Howard & Whitehead, 106 Va. 262, 55 S.

A party is given, by this section, the right to appeal

Digitized by Google

interlocutory decrees. He is not bound to appeal at the time they are rendered but may do so at any time within a year after the final decree has been rendered in the cause. All other requisites for an appeal must exist. Southern Ry. Co. v. Glenn, 98 Va. 309, 36 S. E. 395; Quoted in Hess v. Hess, 108 Va. 483, 62 S. E. 273.

A judgment is final when it is a determination of the particular action or suit, although it is not a final determination of the rights of the parties. Brown v. Carolina, C. & O. R. Co., 116 Va. 597, 83 S. E. 981.

This section, read with section 5, clause 13, permits an appeal by counties and cities both at law and in equity. Com. v. Schmelz, 116 Va. 62, 81 S. E. 45.

The right of appeal given by this section is the same in a case for equitable relief by injunction as in other equity cases, and this right is not taken away by section 6320. French v. Chapin-S. Co., 118 Va. 117, 86 S. E. 842.

See Va. Pass. & P. Co. v. Fisher, 104 Va. 121, 51 S. E. 198; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 48, 740, 742, 744.

See note to section 2392, taken from Board of Sup. of Elizabeth City v. Newport News, 106 Va. 764, 56 S. E. 801.

Cited but not construed in Hobson v. Hobson, 105 Va. 400, 53 S. E. 964 and 14 Va. Law Reg. 470.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 135, section 1.

See notes to the next section.

Sec. 6337. When prohibited.—No petition shall be presented for an appeal from, or writ of error or supersedeas to, any final judgment, decree, or order, whether the Commonwealth be a party or not, which shall have been rendered more than one year before the petition is presented, or if it be an appeal from a final order, judgment, or finding of the State Corporation Commission which shall have been rendered more than six months before the petition is presented; nor to any judgment of a circuit or corporation court, which is rendered on an appeal from a judgment of a justice, except in cases where it is otherwise expressly provided; nor to a judgment, decree, or order of any court when the controversy is for a matter less in value or amount than three hundred dollars, exclusive of costs, unless there be drawn in question a freehold or franchise or the title or bounds of land, or the action of the State Corporation Commission or some matter not merely pecuniary: provided, however, that if the final decree from which an appeal is asked is a decree refusing a bill of review to a decree rendered more than six months prior thereto, no appeal from or supersedeas to such decree so refusing a bill of review shall be allowed unless the petition be presented within six months from the date of such decree. (Code 1887, § 3455; 1887-8, p. 17; 1902-3-4, p. 590.)

Revisors' Note.—As to appeals from State Corporation Commission, see, also, section 6355 and revisors' note.

Sections 6336 and 6337 largely annotated together.—As section 6337 limits and defines right of appeal conferred by section 6336, the sections are largely annotated together.

The Constitution of 1902, in so far as it relates to the Court of Appeals, conforms in the main to that of 1869. The changes are as follows: (1) It provides that no law shall be declared unconstitutional save with the assent of three judges, and if, in a case involving the constitutionality of any such law, not more than two of the judges sitting ag on the constitutional question involved and the case cannot without passing on such question, no decision shall be ren but the case shall be reheard by a full court. The forme required the assent of a majority of the judges elected to number of judges in each instance being five. (2) It exp appellate jurisdiction in cases involving the life or liberty Upon this point the Constitution of 1869 is silent. (3) minimum jurisdictional amount in matters merely pecuniary dred dollars, reserving to the Legislature the right after 1 the jurisdiction of the court in such matters. (4) It provi case where the jurisdiction of the court depends solely that the constitutionality of a law is involved shall the co case upon the merits, unless the contention of the appel constitutional question be sustained, thus abrogating the r in W. U. Tel. Co. v. Powell, 94 Va. 268, 26 S. E. 828; W. Bright, 90 Va. 778, 20 S. E. 146. (5) It also provides th the requisite majority of judges sitting are unable to agr cision, the case shall be reheard by a full bench, and any v by any one or more of the judges being unable, unwilling to sit, shall be temporarily filled in a manner to be presc This is a new provision in toto. As to it, see section 636 and Funkhouser v. Spahr, 102 Va. 306, 46 S. E. 378. (6) of appeal are prescribed for, the only change being that courts of record may sit thereon in addition to judges Court of Appeals and judges of circuit courts. (7) It also the jurisdiction of the court shall be subject to such reaso may be prescribed by law as to the course of appeals, the to time, the security to be required, if any, the granting appeals, and the procedure therein. This provision is also Appeals generally—Jurisdiction of court—How exer sions of article 6, section 2, Const. 1869, did not proprio jurisdiction upon Court of Appeals, but it exercises juris constitutional limitations by virtue of statutes, under that exception by which it has original jurisdiction in habeas damus, and prohibition simply vests court with capacity ginal jurisdiction in that class of cases in event General fers it. Prison Asso. v. Ashby, 93 Va. 667, 25 S. E. 893.

Digitized by Google

If its jurisdiction is invoked on the ground that a fre chise, title or bounds of land, or some matter not merely involved, these jurisdictional matters must be directly t controversy, and not merely incidentally involved. Cook 99 Va. 591, 39 S. E. 223; note to Price v. Smith, 2 Va. L Hutchinson v. Kellam, 3 Munf. 202; Clark v. Brown, Umbarger v. Watts, 25 Grat. 167; Skipwith v. Young, Hancock v. Railroad, 3 Grat. 328.

Court of Appeals had jurisdiction under article 6, sec 1869, and laws in pursuance thereof, of writs of error in p mandamus, although amount involved is less than $500 Mandamus, in proper case, always involves matters not mer The Constitution did not proprio vigore confer jurisdiction under what are now sections 6336 and 6337 of the Co Smith, 93 Va. 14, 24 S. E. 474.

Court of Appeals has original jurisdiction in cases of n prohibition by virtue of statute (Page v. Clopton, 30 Grat [3d Ed.] 277); and has power by mandamus to compel jud court to sign bill of exceptions (Collins v. Christian, 92 S. E. 472).

Court of Appeals has no jurisdiction of appeals from decrees except as it is given by statute. Elder's Ex'rs v. H 68; Lancaster v. Lancaster, 86 Va. 201, 9 S. E. 988.

Jurisdiction of Court of Appeals must affirmatively record, and does so appear when court can see that judgr

Digitized by Google

court involved constitutionality of some statute or ordinance, or some right under state or Federal Constitution. Any proceeding which necessarily puts their validity in issue, whether it be by demurrer, plea, instruction, or otherwise, gives jurisdiction. Adkins v. Richmond, 98 Va. 91, 34 S. E. 967, 47 L. R. A. 583, 81 Am. St. Rep. 705.

Burden of showing existence of jurisdiction to hear appeal is on plaintiff in error, and such jurisdiction must affirmatively appear from record. Com. v. Chaffin, 87 Va. 545, 12 S. E. 972; Southern Fertilizing Co. v. Nelson, 6 Va. Law J. 192; Ritter L. Co. v. Coal Moun. Co., 115 Va. 370, 79 S. E. 322.

Where right of county to levy taxes is involved, appeal lies under article 6, section 2, Const. 1869, although less than $500 be in controversy. Prince George v. Railroad, 87 Va. 283, 12 S. E. 667.

A husband may appeal from a decree denying him a divorce though he has failed to pay an attorney's fee decreed against him. Hairston v. Hairston, 117 Va. 207, 84 S. E. 15.

An appeal lies in a proceeding to determine the regularity and validity of an election to determine whether or not county bonds shall be issued for permanent road improvements in the magisterial districts of a county. Supervisors v. Spilman, 113 Va. 391, 74 S. E. 151.

No appeal lies from a consent decree as the consent cures all errors. Hounshell v. Hounshell, 116 Va. 675, 82 S. E. 689.

Where no exception is taken to the action of the trial court in abating an attachment at law, the correctness of its ruling cannot be inquired into in this court. Hilton & Allen v. Consumers' Ice Co., 103 Va. 255, 48 S. E. 899.

Mandamus—Prohibition—Quo warranto.—Appeal lies to judgment of circuit court refusing to entertain petition for writ of quo warranto tendered by bona fide claimant of office to test title thereto. Watkins v. Venable, 99 Va. 440, 39 S. E. 147.

Court of Appeals has no original jurisdiction in cases of quo warranto, nor has any judge thereof jurisdiction to issue the writ and send case to circuit court to be proceeded in as in cases of injunction. Watkins v. Venable, 99 Va. 440, 39 S. E. 147.

Decree which declines to grant relief prayed until the General Assembly enacts further law on subject is not final, nor does it adjudicate principles. Appeal which is to correct errors does not lie. Mandamus to compel court to hear and determine case is proper remedy. Supervisors v. Alexandria, 95 Va. 470, 28 S. E. 882.

Where appeal lies from decision of court refusing to allow persons to become parties to a suit, mandamus will not lie to compel court to admit them. Moon's Adm'r v. Wellford, 84 Va. 34, 4 S. E. 572.

Where, pending appeal, trial court in divorce suit awarded plaintiff alimony of $25 per month, and $150 for expenses of suit, amount being less than jurisdictional amount, remedy is by prohibition, and not by appeal. Cralle v. Cralle, 81 Va. 773.

Parties to appeals.—To entitle any person to appeal, he must be party to cause, and aggrieved by judgment or decree. Little v. Bowen, 76 Va. 724; Edmunds' Adm'r v. Scott, 78 Va. 720; Osborne v. Kammer, 96 Va. 228, 31 S. E. 19; also Board v. Gorrell, 20 Grat. 484.

Only a person who is a party to the suit below and presents a petition for appeal can be an appellant. Southern Ry. Co. v. Glenn's Adm'r, 102 Va. 529, 46 S. E. 776.

Bankrupt may appeal from decree distributing fund in creditors' suit in which he has claimed homestead in fund. Barger v. Buckland, 28 Grat. 850.

Vendor of land conveyed by deed declared to be fraudulent cannot alone appeal. Price v. Thrash, 30 Grat. 515.

Party, though defendant in form, may appeal from decree dismissing bill as insufficient in law. Atkinson v. McCormick, 76 Va. 791.

Trustee in assignment, as representative of whole fund, may appeal, though none of the claims secured separately amount to jurisdi tional sum. Saunders v. Waggoner, 82 Va. 316.

Digitized by Google

Person aggrieved by judgment for or against receiver by cou which appointed him may appeal, even though receiver cannot. Melend v. Barbour, 78 Va. 544.

In action by grantor against grantee and surety on bond given fo purchase price of land, if joint plea of set-off be filed by them, claimin damages for breach of warranty, and plea be found against them, suret cannot alone appeal. Kinzie v. Riely's Ex'rs, 8 Va. Law Reg. 64 and note.

Decree as to one of several defendants whose interests are not co nected with each other, with decree for payment of costs as to him, final as to him, although cause is pending in court as to rest. Royall Adm'rs v. Johnson, 1 Rand. 421.

Vendee of lands decreed to be sold may move court to annul orde of sale, and, if such motion be overruled, prosecute appeal in name vendor. Hendricks v. Fields, 26 Grat. 447.

Three several judgments, rendered in three different proceeding commenced at different times, in which different defenses were mad and never consolidated before the judgments were rendered, though b tween the same parties, cannot be brought to this court by a single wr of error. Com. v. Round Mountain Co., 117 Va. 30, 83 S. E. 1061.

Practice—What appeal brings up.—An appeal brings before cou for review entire record, and, under rule 8 of court (see 120 Va. p. vii.) errors to prejudice of appellee may be corrected without requiring hi to take formal cross-appeal. Appellant cannot appeal from so much decree as is prejudicial to him, and leave residue in force. Gaines Merryman, 95 Va. 660, 29 S. E. 738.

Where complainant and defendant whose rights are involved in sam question both appeal from same decree, but complainant permits h appeal to be dismissed for failure to give appeal bond, he may, unde rule 9 (now 8), have his rights determined in defendant's appeal. Nichol son v. Gloucester Charity School, 93 Va. 101, 24 S. E. 899.

Where parties to cause stand upon distinct and unconnected ground and their rights are separate, and not affected by same decree, appea from one will not bring up for adjudication rights of others; but wher parties appealing and parties not appealing stand on same ground, an their rights are involved in same question, and equally affected by decre appealed from, appellate court will consider whole case and settle right of all parties. Alexander v. Alexander, 85 Va. 353, 7 S. E. 335, 1 L. R A. 125; Anderson v. DeSoer, 6 Grat. 363; Rorer's Heirs v. Roanoke Na Bank, 83 Va. 608, 4 S. E. 820; Walker's Ex'r v. Page, 21 Grat. 636 Lewis v. Thornton, 6 Munf. 87; Burkholder v. Ludlam, 30 Grat. 25 32 Am. Rep. 668; Simmons v. Lyles, 27 Grat. 931; Burton v. Brown' Ex'rs, 22 Grat. 1; Tate v. Liggat, 2 Leigh 84; Lenow v. Lenow, 8 Grat 349; Purcell v. McCleary, 10 Grat. 246.

An appellant under section 6336, can only be one who is a party t the suit in the court below, and presents a petition for an appeal fro such decree, and where parties stand on distinct and unconnected ground the appeal of one on behalf of the others will not bring up for adjudica tion the rights of any but the one appellant. Southern Ry. v. Glenn' Adm'r, 102 Va. 529, 10 Va. Law Reg. 131, 46 S. E. 776.

Where interests are separate and distinct on part of appellants decree may be reversed as to one and dismissed as to another as having been improperly awarded, because, subject of controversy as to him less than $500 (now $300); but where amount in controversy is above jurisdictional amount as to one of appellants the question is properly before the court as to that one, and when questions as to all others are identical, and claims have been consolidated and heard together, the validity or invalidity of decree affects them all, and involves the validity of decree as to all and in all respects. The interests in such case are such that they cannot be severed in any court where they are considered, and decision here as to right of one will conclude rights of all in like condition. Craig v. Williams, 90 Va. 500, 18 S. E. 899, 44 Am. St. Rep. 934; Witz v. Osburn, 83 Va. 227, 2 S. E. 33.

Digitized by Google

Court of Appeals does not determine mooted questions upon which no right depends and wherein no relief can be afforded. If controversy is one that has been determined by time, and there is now no wrong to right and no relief to be afforded, the appeal will be dismissed. Shumate v. Spilman, 1 Va. Dec. 604.

The act of February 27, 1867, by which it was enacted that appeals to Supreme Court of Appeals of State from district courts should not be allowed when judgment of district court affirmed judgment of county court, unless the matter in controversy exceeded $1,000, is not inconsistent with provision of Constitution which excluded appeals from said district courts to Supreme Court unless matter in controversy amounted to $500. Downham v. Alexandria, 9 Wall. 659, 19 L. Ed. 929.

No appeal lies from order of circuit court refusing injunction, the remedy being application to Court of Appeals to grant the injunction refused (Hudson v. Barham, 8 Va. Law Reg. 736, 43 S. E. 189); nor where judgment is entered upon agreement that judgment be entered in accordance with result in another case (Bransford v. Karn, 87 Va. 242, 12 S. E. 404).

When it appears that court has no jurisdiction of appeal, it will be dismissed, though not objected to on hearing. Hobson v. Hobson, 100 Va. 216, 40 S. E. 899.

Petition.—A petition for appeal is in the nature of a pleading, and should state clearly and distinctly all the errors relied on for a reversal. Otherwise the appeal, if granted, should be dismissed. But motion to dismiss for this cause will not be granted after right of appeal is barred by limitation. Orr v. Pennington, 93 Va. 268, 24 S. E. 928. See section 6346 and notes.

Finality of decision.—The General Assembly cannot grant new trials nor direct rehearings in cases which have been judicially settled upon the merits. Martin v. South Salem Land Co., 94 Va. 28, 26 S. E. 591. Questions necessarily involved in decision on writ of error are finally determined by such decision, and are not thereafter open to debate in trial court, nor generally subject to re-examination in this court on second appeal in same case. Decision on first appeal becomes law of case. Rosenbaum's Ex'rs v. Seddon, 94 Va. 575, 27 S. E. 425; Sims v. Tyrer, 96 Va. 14, 30 S. E. 443. Nor can party to first appeal object because other persons whose rights are affected, but who make no complaint on first appeal, were not before court. McClanahan v. Hockman, 96 Va. 392, 31 S. E. 516.

The decree of the Court of Appeals upon a question decided by the court below is final and irreversible; and upon a second appeal in the cause, a question decided on the first appeal is res adjudicata. The fact that other evidence was taken in the cause after it was remanded does not affect the conclusiveness of the decree whereby the principles of the cause were settled. Turner's Adm'r v. Staples, &c., 86 Va. 300, 9 S. E. 1123; Campbell's Ex'ors v. Campbell's Ex'ors, 22 Grat. 649.

Errors for want of necessary parties cannot be corrected in lower court by an amended and supplemented bill and bill in nature of bill of review, after appeal is allowed, and while it is pending in appellate court. Almond v. Rothgeb, 1 Va. Dec. 138.

In action at law appeal lies only to final judgment. Lockridge v. Lockridge, 1 Va. Dec. 61.

An order setting aside a verdict as to two of three notes sued on, and awarding a new trial as to them, but refusing to set aside as to the other note, and directing that the plaintiff take nothing by his action as to that note is not a final judgment to which a writ of error will lie. Salem Loan Co. v. Kelsey, 115 Va. 382, 79 S. E. 329.

Final order—What is.—Ludlow v. City of Norfolk, 87 Va. 319, 12 S. E. 612; Serles v. Cromer, 88 Va. 426, 13 S. E. 859; 15 Va. Law Journal (1891) 724; Postal, &c., Co. v. N. & W. R. R. Co., 87 Va. 349,

Digitized by Google

12 S. E. 613; Bonsack Machine Co. v. Woodrom, 88 Va. 512, 13 S. E. 904.

A final order is one which disposes of the whole subject, gives all the relief contemplated, provides with reasonable completeness for giving effect to the sentence, and leaves nothing to be done in the cause save to superintend ministerially the execution of the order. Salem Loan Co. v. Kelsey, 115 Va. 382, 79 S. E. 329.

Decrees from which appeals lie—Final decrees.—Decree is final not only as to matters actually determined, but as to every matter which parties might have litigated within scope of pleadings, and which might have been decided. Beale's Adm'r v. Gordon, 2 Va. Dec. 35, 21 S. E. 667.

Decree disposing of and deciding entire matter in controversy, and awarding costs, leaving nothing to be done in cause, is final. Sexton's Ex'x v. Patterson, 1 Va. Dec. 551; Sims v. Sims, 94 Va. 580, 27 S. E. 436, 64 Am. St. Rep. 772; Yates' Adm'r v. Wilson, 86 Va. 625, 10 S. E. 976; Parker v. Logan, 82 Va. 376, 4 S. E. 613; Vanmeter's Ex'rs v. Vanmeter, 3 Grat. 148; Norfolk Trust Co. v. Foster, 78 Va. 413; Battaile v. Maryland Hospital for Insane, 76 Va. 63; Norfolk Trust Co. v. Foster, 78 Va. 413. And so in case of prohibition, if order is final in form, disposing of whole case, though it should have been interlocutory. Burch v. Hardwicke, 23 Grat. 51. And so is decree confirming sale of land, and ordering conveyance after payment of costs, leaving nothing to be done but to order purchase money to be applied to notes. Johnson v. Anderson, 76 Va. 766. And so is decree in suit for administration of estate, which settles principles of cause, distributes whole property to parties interested, leaving nothing to be done, though measures may be necessary to enforce it (Rawlings' Ex'r v. Rawlings, 75 Va. 76); or though it appoints commissioners to sell part of land and account for proceeds to parties, with liberty to them to apply to court to add new or substitute other commissioners, or for partition in kind of part of subject directed to be sold (Harvey v. Branson, 1 Leigh 108). And so is decree reciting, "The plaintiff failing to prosecute his suit, it is ordered that the same be dismissed." Jones v. Turner, 81 Va. 709. And so is decree upon bill by daughter of testator against purchaser of his real estate, and two sons of surety upon executor's bond, that each of said sons shall pay one-half of arrears of annuity arising under the will, and reserving liberty to plaintiff, if decree should prove unavailing as to either, to resort to the court for further proceedings against the other, and ordering cause to be retained in court for purpose of taking further accounts of annuities to accrue in future, is a final decree, notwithstanding this reservation. Thornton v. Fitzhugh, 4 Leigh 209. And so is decree on settlement of executorial account by commissioners under order of court of probate overruling legatee's exceptions to said report, ordering account to be recorded, and awarding costs. Farneyhough's Ex'rs v. Dickerson, 2 Rob. 582.

When judgment of superior court, reversing judgment of county court, and directing other pleadings in lower court, is interlocutory in character, though final there, judgment of county court, being final as regards jurisdiction of this court, imparts that character to judgment of superior court, and is appealable. Cowling v. Justices of Nansemond County, 6 Rand. 349. And so is order of circuit on appeal from county court, reversing judgment with costs, but failing to give such judgment as county court should have given and retaining cause. Janey v. Blake's Adm'r, 8 Leigh 88. And so where it reverses judgment of county court, and retains cause for trial. Brumbaugh v. Wissler's Ex'r, 25 Grat. 463; Crawford v. Railroad, Id. 467.

Decree which settles principles of a cause, determines rights of creditors, validity of stock subscriptions, and liability of stockholders to pay same, and leaves nothing to be done except to execute and give effect to it, is a final decree. Martin v. South Salem Land Co., 97 Va. 349, 33 S. E. 600.

Decree passing upon whole subject-matter, so as to be final in its nature, is not made interlocutory by addition of order suspending decree as to amount of an item in an account involved in cause until decision of another suit brought by another party against both plaintiff and defendant in first suit, claiming amount of that item. Fleming v. Bolling, 8 Grat. 292.

Digitized by Google

Decree which dismisses bill, and directs payment of costs, is final decree, and its finality is not affected by the fact that it is heard with another cause which was continued on the docket, where parties were not and could not have been originally joined in one controversy. Home Building & Conveyance Co. v. London, 98 Va. 152, 35 S. E. 362.

Measures necessary to enforce a decree which gives completely the relief contemplated by the court do not alter or affect such decree as to its character of finality, nor is decree less final in character because measures may be necessary to compel parties to obey it. Rawlings' Ex'r v. Rawlings, 75 Va. 76.

A decree which finally disposes of all issues arising, or which could properly arise upon an original bill and the answer thereto, as well as upon the answer to the cross-bill is a final decree. Goode v. Bryant, 118 Va. 314, 87 S. E. 588.

A final decree is not deprived of its quality of finality by the fact that it is based in part upon a former decree which was never signed by the judge, nor entered on the order book, but was acted on by both the parties and the court, without objection from any source. Goode v. Bryant, 118 Va. 314, 87 S. E. 588.

Interlocutory decrees appealable—Decrees adjudicating principles of cause.—By adjudicating the principles of a cause is meant that the rules or methods by which the rights of parties are to be worked out have been so far determined that it is only necessary to apply these rules or methods to the facts of the case in order to ascertain relative rights of parties with regard to subject-matter of suit. Lancaster v. Lancaster, 86 Va. 201, 9 S. E. 988.

Every decree that leaves anything to be done in the cause between the parties is interlocutory, even though it disposes of the costs. Noell's Adm'r v. Noell's Adm'r, 86 Va. 109, 9 S. E. 584.

Appeal lies from an interlocutory decree adjudicating the principles of the cause, but the final decree may be awaited and the appeal is in time. Harper v. Vaughan, 87 Va. 426, 12 S. E. 785.

Decree which leaves anything to be done by court is interlocutory as between parties remaining in court. Sims v. Sims, 94 Va. 580, 27 S. E. 436, 64 Am. St. Rep. 772.

Where a particular relief is sought, if anything remains to be done by the court decree is interlocutory, but if no further action of court is necessary decree is final. If interlocutory decree settles principles of cause, it is appealable. Ryan's Adm'r v. McLeod, 32 Grat. 376.

Decree overruling exceptions to commissioner's report, and confirming same as to questions involved therein, although report is recommitted as to other matters, adjudicates principles as to such exceptions, and is appealable. Garrett's Adm'x v. Bradford, 28 Grat. 609; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 828; Farneyhough's Ex'rs v. Dickerson, 2 Rob. 582.

Order overruling motion to dissolve injunction may be appealed from if the principles of the cause are thereby adjudicated (Baltimore & O. R. Co. v. City of Wheeling, 13 Grat. 40; Kahn v. Kerngood, 80 Va. 342; Bristow v. Home Bldg. Co., 91 Va. 23, 20 S. E. 946, 947; Talley v. Tyree, 2 Rob. 500; Richmond & Y. R. R. Co. v. Wicker, 13 Grat. 375); but if court overrules such motion without adjudicating principles of cause no appeal lies (Baltimore & O. R. Co. v. City of Wheeling, supra; Norfolk & W. Ry. Co. v. Old Dominion Baggage Co., 97 Va. 89, 33 S. E. 385).

Decree directing an issue out of chancery, if it impliedly involves settlement of principles of cause, is appealable. Reed v. Cline's Heirs, 9 Grat. 136; Wise v. Lamb, Id. 309.

Appeal lies from order of chancellor overruling motion to dissolve an injunction, where motion has been overruled on ground that plaintiff is entitled to relief on merits, and fixing principles on depends. This is based upon Act 1818, chapter 66, sect ferent from present law, in that it provides for appeals locutory orders in order that principles of cause may be de appeal. Lomax v. Picot, 2 Rand. 247.

Digitized by Google

On bill to settle testator's estate, construe will, and ment of legacy, there is decree adjudging complainant enti sum of such legacy, and directing cause to be proceeded w ably to these views in order to collect funds to pay legac interlocutory, but appealable. Jameson v. Jameson's Adm'x 9 S. E. 480, 3 L. R. A. 773.

Order which refuses to dissolve injunction and discha decides, in effect, that property held by receiver is for th proper hands, and to this extent adjudicates principles of c such an order appeal may be taken. Bristow v. Home B Va. 23, 20 S. E. 946, 947. And so with decree which decid attacked as fraudulent per se is not so. Norris v. Lake, 16 S. E. 663. And so with decree not final, nor dissolvin nor in terms requiring money to be paid, nor possession or erty to be changed, if it adjudicates principles of cause. Byrd, 85 Va. 690, 8 S. E. 577.

Interlocutory decrees not appealable.—"Where the fu of the court in the cause is necessary to give completely th templated by the court, there the decree upon which the ques to be regarded not as final, but interlocutory. I say the fu of the court in the cause to distinguish it from that action which is common to both final and interlocutory decrees, measures which are necessary to execution of decree that h nounced, and are to be regarded as adopted not in but beyo and as founded on the decree itself or mandate of the co respect to the relief to which the party was previously e merits of the case." Cocke's Adm'r v. Gilpin, 1 Rob. 22.

It will be easily conceived that it is not every order a cause, however incidental such order may be, that will, i and wise policy, warrant an appellate proceeding, in order apprehended error therein, and that such proceeding must confined to those orders which have about them a certain finality and conclusiveness, either in respect to the gener the cause, or in respect to some branch thereof, or of som lateral thereto, and yet of great interest to the parties or 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 859.

Decree sustaining demurrer to bill, and allowing plaint in specified time, does not settle principles of cause, nor order until expiration of specified time. London-Virginia Moore, 98 Va. 256, 35 S. E. 722; Commercial Bank v. R Dec. 350, 24 S. E. 388.

Decree in suit to execute testator's will, sell land, a proceeds, wherein some land is unsold, and some sold, but n for. The objects of suits are unaccomplished, and decree Yates' Adm'r v. Wilson, 86 Va. 625, 10 S. E. 976.

Although decree is marked "Final Decree," those word termine its character or effect, for that must be determine contained in decree, and if there is nothing therein whic the court intended to end cause the unauthorized act of cle it off docket does not prevent court from reinstating it. sten, 86 Va. 359, 10 S. E. 415.

Sustaining or overruling demurrer is not final judgme judgment sustaining demurrer final there must be dismissal. Coleman, 98 Va. 276, 36 S. E. 377, and cases cited; Comme Rucker, 2 Va. Dec. 350, 24 S. E. 388. Nor is decree o murrer, giving defendant leave to answer and continuing force until further order of court, where there was no m solve, and cause was heard solely on demurrer to bill. N

Digitized by Google

Ry. Co. v. Old Dominion Baggage Co., 97 Va. 89, 33 S. E. 385. Nor is decree by default until relief has been sought under section 6333. When time allowed by that section expires, decree becoms final and irreversible. Smith's Ex'r v. Powell, 98 Va. 431, 36 S. E. 522. Nor is decree overruling demurrer to bill for an accounting. Lancaster v. Lancaster, 86 Va. 201, 9 S. E. 988. Nor decree sustaining claim of homestead, but directing commissioner to make certain inquiries. Barker v. Jenkins, 84 Va. 895, 6 S. E. 459. Nor is a non-suit. Mallory v. Taylor, 90 Va. 349, 18 S. E. 438. Nor is order appointing commissioners to fix just compensation for land to be taken in condemnation proceedings. Postal Tel. Cable Co. v. Norfolk & W. R. Co., 87 Va. 349, 12 S. E. 613; Ludlow v. City of Norfolk, 87 Va. 319, 12 S. E. 612. Nor is a decree which settles the principles of a case. and refers it to a commissioner to state accounts, which are necessary to enable the court to pass finally upon the rights of the parties. Trammell v Ashworth, 99 Va. 646, 39 S. E. 593; Richmond, F. & P. R. Co. v. Johnson, 99 Va. 284, 38 S. E. 195; Jeter v. Board, 27 Grat. 910, distinguished and explained. Nor is order of circuit court remanding cause to county court from which it has been improperly removed to circuit court. Valley Turnpike Co. v. Moore, 100 Va. 702, 42 S. E. 675. Nor is decree directing sale of land to satisfy charges. Spoor v. Tilson, 97 Va. 279, 33 S. E. 609. Nor is decree in creditors' suit which decides rights of one lien creditor and remands cause to commissioner for further report. Repass v. Moore, 96 Va. 147, 30 S. E. 458. Nor is order declaring summons void as alias summons, but good as original summons. Roger's Adm'r v Bertha Zinc Co., 1 Va. Dec. 827, 19 S. E. 782. Nor is judgment in favor of all defendants except one, in joint action of trespass, until suit has been abated, dismissed or decided as to that one. Wells v. Jackson, 3 Munf. 458. Nor is decree on bill to enjoin judgment in an action at law, directing issue to be tried to ascertain amount due by judgment debtor. Moore v. Lipscombe, 82 Va. 546. Nor is order setting aside verdict of jury trying issue as to whether paper is a true will, and awarding a new trial. Section 2, chapter 178, Code 1873 (same as section 6336), allowing appeal to any person aggrieved by an order in controversy concerning will, must be considered along with section 32, chapter 118 (same as section 5257), which provides that the court shall make a sentence or final order as to will. Tucker v. Sandridge, 82 Va. 532. Nor is decree confirming and approving account of representative of trustee ascertaining balance due from decedent's estate to trust fund without giving judgment for it or making any disposition of it or without dismissing case as to him. Southern Ry. Co. v. Glenn's Adm'r, 98 Va. 309, 36 S. E. 395. Nor is rule in action at law requiring plaintiff to elect by next term whether he will proceed at law or in chancery. Priddy v. Hartsook, 81 Va. 67. Nor is a decree which does not adjudicate the principles of cause. nor give costs, but sends it back to commissioner to settle further distribution accounts and account of fund to credit of cause, and providing for further receipts to be disbursed under orders thereafter to be entered. Miller's Adm'r v. Cook's Adm'rs. 77 Va. 806. Nor is decree which leaves anything to be done to afford complete relief contemplated. Wright v. Strother, 76 Va. 857. Nor is decree which denies plaintiff specific execution of contract, but gives leave to amend bill, and continues case for that purpose. Ambrouse's Heirs v. Keller, 22 Grat. 769.

No appeal lies from interlocutory order in controversy concerning roads. Trevilian v. Railroad, 3 Grat. 326; Hancock v. Railroad, Id. 328; Ludlow v. City of Norfolk, 87 Va. 322, 12 S. E. 612; Postal Tel. Cable Co. v. N. & W. R. R. Co., 87 Va. 351, 12 S. E. 613; Jeter v. Board, 27 Grat. 910, overruled. Nor to an interlocutory order granting or refusing amendments to pleadings until there has been a final decree, except as otherwise provided by statute. Hobson v. Hobson, 100 Va. 216, 40 S. E. 899; Smith v. Pyrites Mining & Chemical Co., 101 Va. 301, 43 S. E. 564.

Digitized by Google

Decree directed commissioner to take an account of p erty and rents of lands. Report is returned and exceptio court, without passing on report, directs jury to try issu to value of personal property. Held, decree decides no princ Elder's Ex'rs v. Harris, 75 Va. 68.

No appeal lies from order dissolving an injunction w ject involved is pecuniary and less than $500 (now $300) of appeal given by section 6336 is limited by section 6337. v. Bowman, 98 Va. 688, 37 S. E. 278. Nor to review de settling accounts of receiver, who has died and has no pe sentative. Overholt v. Old Dominion Mfg. Co., 98 Va. 654,

When the ultimate liability of the defendant is wholl and cannot be ascertained until certain land, the primary the payment of the debt, has been sold, such a case is n provisions of section 6336 as to appeal from an interloc Ritter L. Co. v. Coal Moun. Co., 115 Va. 370, 79 S. E. 322

Decrees affecting title to property and its possession. sale of land in partition suit, though interlocutory, is app requires change of title and possession, especially where it ciples of cause. Stevens v. McCormick, 90 Va. 736, 19 S. E

Appeal lies to decree appointing receiver, whereby made in possession or control of property, though made Shannon v. Hanks, 88 Va. 338, 13 S. E. 437; Deckert v. Western Co., 101 Va. 804, 45 S. E. 799.

Jurisdiction of appeals in cases concerning title to la jurisdiction of appeals in cases of unlawful entry and detai v. Coles, 81 Va. 380.

Subsequent to married woman's act, E., wife of C., estate in fee. Issue has been born alive of that marriage. action against C., a non-resident, and attached his suppose said land for less than $500 (then the jurisdictional minimu E. sell, and convey land to B., and obtain injunction again D.'s attachment. Held, controversy concerned E.'s title appeal lies. Breeding v. Davis, 77 Va. 639, 46 Am. Rep. 74

Trust deed to secure debt less than $500 having been an interest in land, and question having arisen whether such vested or contingent, it was decided that appeal lay, as con cerns title to land. Sellers' Ex'r v. Reed, 88 Va. 377, 1 And so where decree appealed from allowed widow homes band's lands. Barker v. Jenkins, 84 Va. 895, 6 S. E. 459

For a discussion of the question whether the title to l issue, in an action of trespass quaere clausum fregit, by the of evidence as to the title, under a plea of not guilty, see L Co. v. Thayer, 113 Va. 239, 74 S. E. 215.

It is well settled that an appeal lies from a decree app ceiver, whereby a change in the possession or control of th required. This case was an appeal from a State court app ceiver of property of a corporation, a receiver of which had appointed in the Federal court in a suit instituted subseque stitution of the suit in the State court, authorizing the re tervene in the other suit, and requesting a vacation of the F and a turning over of the property to the State court. senger & Power Co. v. Fisher, 104 Va. 121, 51 S. E. 198.

Decrees which do not affect title to property or its In suit to subject land to judgment, where defendant appe asserted against him fixes jurisdiction, the title or bounda not involved, although the appeal be taken by one who is debtor, and the controversy is over liability of land. Cash v. 98 Va. 477, 36 S. E. 517.

Where decree is for less than $500 (then the jurisdi mum), including interest, no appeal lies, though it provides land be sold in default of payment. Cook v. Bondurant, S. E. 618.

Digitized by Google

Suit to subject land to lien for taxes is not a controversy concerning title thereto, and if decree for taxes amounts to less than $500 (now $300) no appeal lies. Florance v. Morien, 98 Va. 26, 34 S. E. 890. Nor is suit to set aside deed as fraudulent, and to sell property thereby conveyed for debts, a suit concerning title or boundaries of lands, within the meaning of Const. 1869, article 6, section 2. Fink v. Denny, 75 Va. 663; Hawkins v. Gresham, 85 Va. 34, 6 S. E. 472.

In suit by creditor to subject land sold by judgment debtor subsequent to date of judgment against him, the matter in controversy is the value of the land, and not the title thereof. Buckner v. Metz, 77 Va. 107.

Amount involved in appeal from decree subjecting land to payment of debt is amount of debt, irrespective of value of land. Showalter v. Rupe, 2 Va. Dec. 553, 27 S. E. 840. Nor is the case altered by the fact that defendant claims homestead in lower court (Cook v. Daugherty, 99 Va. 590, 39 S. E. 223), nor by the fact that homestead was claimed in land sought to be sold for debt (Smith v. Rosenheim, 79 Va. 540); nor by the fact that it has been conveyed by deed alleged to be fraudulent (Thompson v. Adams, 82 Va. 672).

It is the amount of judgment sought to be satisfied out of real estate, and not value of latter, which determines jurisdiction of appellate court. Pitts v. Spotts, 86 Va. 71, 9 S. E. 501.

Where right of county to levy taxes is called in question, Supreme Court had jurisdiction of appeal in action to recover tax of less than $500 (now $300) illegally collected. Prince George County v. Atlantic, M. & O. R. Co., 87 Va. 283, 12 S. E. 667.

Franchises.—Although amount involved in controversy is less than $500 (now $300), yet if franchise is involved appeal will lie. 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 857; Supervisors v. Catlett's Ex'rs, 86 Va. 158, 9 S. E. 999; City of Staunton v. Stout's Ex'rs, 86 Va. 321, 10 S. E. 5.

Constitutionality.—Where constitutionality of law is attacked appeal lies, though less than $500 (now $300) involved. N. & W. R. R. v. Pendleton, 86 Va. 1004, 11 S. E. 1062.

Where jurisdiction of appellate court has been invoked in good faith to determine constitutionality of law, writ of error will not be improvidently awarded merely because, after awarding, but before hearing, law has been held to be constitutional in another case. Having jurisdiction for one purpose, it has it for all, although amount is less than $500. W. U. Tel. Co. v. Powell, 94 Va. 268, 26 S. E. 828. But see section 88, Const. 1902.

Where the only ground of jurisdiction is the constitutionality of a statute, the validity of which has been established by former decisions, the writ of error will be dismissed for want of jurisdiction. Western Union Tel. Co. v. White, 113 Va. 421, 74 S. E. 174.

When constitutionality of act has been determined by court it ceases to be debatable, and does not furnish ground for jurisdiction in cases thereafter arising. W. U. Tel. Co. v. Reynolds, 100 Va. 459, 41 S. E. 856, 93 Am. St. Rep. 971.

Act of March 12, 1884, was declared unconstitutional in so far as it conferred upon Supreme Court jurisdiction in all coupon cases, without regard to amount in controversy, being in conflict with article 6, section 2, Const. 1869. McIntosh v. Braden, 80 Va. 217.

Where the constitutionality of no statute is called into question, the decision of the corporation court on appeal from magistrate is final. Bransford v. Karn, 87 Va. 242, 12 S. E. 404.

Corporation and hustings courts are of co-ordinate jurisdiction with circuit courts. Article 6, section 14, Const. 1869. And no right of appeal from former to latter can be conferred by General Assembly. Section 5 of 1889-90, p. 197, as amended by 1899-00, p. 1204, is unconstitutional, and such courts cannot entertain such appeals. Watson v. Blackstone, 98 Va. 618, 38 S. E. 939.

Whether or not an act of assembly authorizing establishment of public roads, and which allows appeals to this court on matters is constitutional, does not arise on appeal from decree di junction to proceedings under the act, as it is not an appe judgment pronounced in condemnation proceedings unde Painter v. St. Clair, 98 Va. 85, 34 S. E. 989.

Digitized by Google

Amount in controversy—When appeal lies—How jurisd mined, etc.—Appeal lies in suit to recover costs awarded in if amount exceeds $500 (now $300). Shipman v. Fletcher'
Va. 585, 29 S. E. 325.

Jurisdiction as to appeals in matters merely pecuniary b to $500 (now $300), jurisdiction is determined by amount claim, or by amount to be paid by defendant, as one or other In calculating amount involved in decree appealed from a excluded, and interest is not estimated beyond date of decree controversy must not only be of value of $500 (now $300 troversy in relation to matter of that value must be continue although action was for more than jurisdictional amount; w is for less appeal does not lie for defendant. The matter in is that for which suit is brought or judgment rendered, a which may or may not come in question. Hawkins v. Gresh 34, 6 S. E. 472; Hartsook's Adm'r v. Crawford's Adm'r,
7 S. E. 538; Gage v. Crockett, 27 Grat. 735; Eacho v. Cosby, 2
Harman v. City of Lynchburg, 33 Grat. 37; Fink v. Denny, McCrowell v. Burson, 79 Va. 290; Tebbs v. Lee, 76 Va. 744;
79 Va. 28; Duffy v. Figgat, 80 Va. 664; Barton, C. Pr. (2
Campbell v. Smith, 32 Grat. 288; Railroad v. Colfelt, 27
Southern Fertilizing Co. v. Nelson, 6 Va. Law J. 162.

The amount in controversy as to appellee, under rule 9
(now 8, 120 Va. vii.), is the difference between the sum clai as of date of decree appealed from and amount decreed in such decree. Ware v. Bankers' Loan & Investment Co., 29 S. E. 744, 64 Am. St. Rep. 826.

Amounts decreed against appellant is amount in contro him, and not several amounts decreed to appellees. If a sums decreed against appellant exceeds $500 (now $300) although amount decreed to no one of appellees amounts to $300). Hicks v. Roanoke, etc., Co., 94 Va. 741, 27 S. E. 596.

As between grantee and creditor assailing deed as fraudul in controversy is value of property conveyed, and not amo claimed. Kahn v. Kerngood, 8 Va. 342.

Where shareholder is sued for call on subscription to st than jurisdictional amount, and denies validity of subscri amounts to more, the amount in controversy is the amount o scribed for, such denial going to validity of whole subscript
v. Valley R. R. Co., 32 Grat. 146.

Where full amount of set-off allowed defendant excee tional amount, an appeal lies on behalf of complainant, altho decreed against him is less. Bunting v. Cochran, 99 Va. 5 229. Where injunction is awarded to restrain sale of proper notes amounting to $500 (then the jurisdictional minimum) that usurious interest was charged, and defendant admits sets up claim to $448 as money actually lent, the amount of n is amount in controversy. Schmelz v. Rix, 95 Va. 509, 2 Where amount adjudged as due to complainant from dec surety may be shown by commissioner's report to be less th tional limit by reason of his co-surety having paid more tha and being entitled by way of contribution to part of the de does not void an appeal. Alexander v. Byrd, 85 Va. 690, Where whole amount of judgment against appellant's is more than $500 (then the jurisdictional minimum), appea dock's Adm'x v. Skinker, 93 Va. 479, 25 S. E. 535.

Where judgment of $500 (now $300) or more is assi parties to be divided between them, the amount in contro

Digitized by Google

to enforce judgment is amount of judgment, though interest of one party is less than jurisdictional amount. Neither assignee has claim founded on independent contract which he can enforce without regard to other. In such case appeal lies from decree affecting the judgment. Cheatham's Adm'r v. Aistrop's Adm'r, 97 Va. 457, 34 S. E. 57.

Where for debt against decedent there is no decree in solido against his representative, but severally against each distributee for portion of debt exceeding $500 (then the jurisdictional minimum), substantially it is decree against decedent's estate, and appeal lies. Updike's Adm'r v. Lane, 78 Va. 132. And conversely, see Peters v. McWilliams. 78 Va. 567; Martin's Adm'r v. Fielder, 82 Va. 455, 4 S. E. 602. And so in case of trustee in assignment, where no debt is $500 (now $300), but the aggregate more. Saunders v. Waggoner, 82 Va. 316; Cabell v. Southern Mut. Ins. Co., 10 Va. Law J. 729. And so in case of administrator. Williams' Adm'r v. Clark's Representatives, 93 Va. 690, 25 S. E. 1013.

Where appellant is owner of two judgments sought to be enforced which aggregate more than jurisdictional amount, but each less than that sum, an appeal will lie, though one of such judgments was acquired after suit brought, if such acquisition was in good faith and not merely colorable, in order to procure appeal. Filler v. Tyler, 91 Va. 458, 22 S. E. 235.

Where trial court decides that the holder of a certified check on a suspended bank had failed to present it in time, and must bear any loss occasioned thereby, the amount in controversy is such loss, the same being the amount of the check less any dividends which may be declared out of the assets of the bank. Lamb v. Thompson, 112 Va. 134, 70 S. E. 507.

The amount in controversy must, as a general rule, be made to appear affirmatively, and if it cannot be ascertained the appeal will be dismissed. But if the record is silent on the subject, affidavits may be filed in the appellate court to show the real amount in controversy. Lamb v. Thompson, 112 Va. 134, 70 S. E. 507.

If jurisdictional amount be changed (when not prescribed by the Constitution) the amount when appeal is allowed prevails and not amount when decree was rendered. McGruder v. Lyons, 7 Grat. 233.

In calculating the amount involved in the decree appealed from, costs are to be excluded, and interest is not estimated beyond date of decree. See note to Wheby v. Moir, 102 Va. 875, 10 Va. Law Reg. 338, 47 S. E. 1005.

The Court of Appeals has jurisdiction involving liability on a stock subscription amounting to $1,000, though the judgment appealed from was for $140. Elliott v. Ashby, 104 Va. 716, 52 S. E. 383.

Where the original demand is pecuniary and in excess of the jurisdictional amount, but it is alleged by the appellee to have been reduced below that amount by payment, the burden is upon him to make that fact appear. Williamson v. Payne, 103 Va. 551, 49 S. E. 660.

The value or amount in controversy, on appeal, must. as a general rule, be made to appear affirmatively, and, if it cannot be sustained. the appeal will be dismissed. Williamson v. Payne, 103 Va. 551, 49 S. E. 660.

Where a debt is secured by a deed of trust on personal property, which also secured the expenses of executing the trust and of drawing and recording the deed, and the validity of the deed is assailed, such expenses are proper to be considered in arriving at the amount in controversy on appeal. Williamson v. Payne, 103 Va. 551, 49 S. E. 660.

On a writ of error to a judgment sustaining a demurrer to a declaration in an action sounding in damages, the amount in controversy in appellate court is the amount asserted in the declaration. Sanger v. C. & O. Ry. Co., 102 Va. 86, 9 Va. Law Reg. 881, and note, 45 S. E. 750.

For article upon jurisdictional amount in matters merely pecuniary, see 9 Va. Law Reg. 577.

Digitized by Google

When appeal does not lie.—Where several judgment of whose claims amount to jurisdictional amount, and a on separate contracts, bring suit to subject debtor's land joint interest or community of interests which make the such judgments the amount in controversy. Umbarger Grat. 167; Thompson v. Adams, 82 Va. 672; Hartsook's A ford's Adm'r, 85 Va. 413, 7 S. E. 538; White v. Valley Bl
96 Va. 270, 31 S. E. 20.

Where jurisdiction on appeal is fixed by amount i and claim of each complainant is less than such amount, Gilman v. Ryan, 95 Va. 494, 28 S. E. 875.

If assignment of error affects only one person, whos than $500 (now $300), no appeal lies as to him. Crockett
Va. 391, 34 S. E. 96.

Where difference between debt asserted by plaintiff i and amount paid thereon by sale of debtor's land is less th $300), no appeal lies. Marchant v. Healy, 94 Va. 614,

An appellee whose claim is less than jurisdictional a assign error under rule 9 of the court (now 8, 120 Va. vii was not intended to enlarge or extend jurisdiction of court, court to correct errors against appellees in cases where the right of appeal. Wilson's Adm'r v. Wilson, 93 Va. 546,

Where suit is to enforce judgment for more than amount and defendant pleads set-offs, which, being allowe cree to less, no appeal lies. Kendrick v. Spotts, 90 Va. 148,

No appeal lies from decree dissolving injunction whe volved is pecuniary, and less than $500 (now $300). Se limited by section 6337. Shoemaker v. Bowman, 98 Va.
278. Nor where matter in controversy is judgment soug forced, and not title or boundaries or rents and profits of la ment is less than $500 (now $300). Patteson v. McKinney 14 S. E. 379. Nor where amount involved is less than $500 and no constitutional question is raised. Shacklett v. As 313, 12 S. E. 678.

When sum required to discharge judgment is less th
the case comes not within any exception, no appeal lie Appeals has no jurisdiction of a writ of error by a railroa condemnation proceedings from award of second set of c where difference between said award and that of first set, t pany did not object, and which was set aside on landowne less than jurisdictional minimum. Atlantic & D. R. Co v.
119, 12 S. E. 222; Atlantic & D. R. Co. v. Smith, 87 Va. 123, Where compensation for land condemned is less than amount no appeal lies. R. F. & P. R. R. v. Knopffs, 86

S. E. 881.

Where several judgments are given against defendant, amount to $500 (now $300), they cannot be united to give peals jurisdiction. Lawson v. Bransford, 87 Va. 75, 12 S.
also, Litchford v. Day, 87 Va. 71, 12 S. E. 107; Gregory 87 Va. 77, 12 S. E. 109; Bransford v. Karn, 87 Va. 242, 12 S

Appeal does not lie to judgment against plaintiff in sumpsit brought to recover from the tax collector less tha $300), paid for taxes, when neither right to levy tax nor co of any law is involved. Callan v. Bransford, 86 Va. 535,

Where, on defendant's motion to quash execution, co motion, but allowed defendant credit of less than jurisdict thereon, plaintiff in judgment cannot appeal, as amount i as to him is amount of credit. Campbell v. Smith, 32 Gra

Decree required S. to pay $975 to other heirs as owelty Later it was found that S.'s wife was entitled to one-fifth decreed accordingly. Amount in controversy held to be decreed to wife of S. Whitmer's Heirs v. Spitzer, 81 Va.

Where, on money demand, the difference between am

Digitized by Google

laintiff and the amount claimed is less than $500 (now $300), no appeal es. Batchelder v. Richardson, 75 Va. 835.

Where debt of one party in creditor's suit is less than jurisdictional nount, the fact that another party, whose claim is more, unites in ap- eal, does not give right to appellate court to review decree as to former. ebbs v. Lee, 76 Va. 744.

Creditor whose claim was less than jurisdictional amount filed bill annul trust deed. Other creditors, whose separate claims exceeded iat sum, filed petition in clerk's office without leave of court and notice grantor, asking to be made parties. Decree dismissed bill without ticing petitions. Held, petitioners were not parties, and cannot ap- eal. Walter v. Chichester, 84 Va. 723, 6 S. E. 1.

Where parties to cause stand upon distinct and unconnected ground, id their rights are separate, and not equally affected by same decree, peal for one does not bring up for adjudication rights of others. Alex- nder v. Alexander, 85 Va. 353, 7 S. E. 335, 1 L. R. A. 125; Rorer's eirs v. Roanoke Nat. Bank, 83 Va. 539, 4 S. E. 820; Walker's Ex'r v. age, 21 Grat. 636; Tate v. Liggat, 2 Leigh 84; Burkholder v. Ludlam, Grat. 255, 32 Am. Rep. 668; Simmons v. Lyles, 27 Grat. 922.

Where plaintiff, at institution of suit, had judgment for less than risdictional amount, but purchased another judgment, the aggregate eing more, and such purchase was bona fide, and reported to and con- rmed by trial court, the amount in controversy as to him is aggregate such judgments. Fink v. Denny, 75 Va. 663. But where plaintiff's ebt was less than jurisdictional amount, as claimed in bill, allowed by aster and confirmed by court, it cannot be supplemented by taking as- gnment of another debt, unless assignment was recognized by master id by court. McCarty v. Hamaker, 82 Va. 471, 5 S. E. 538.

When the ultimate liability of the appellant is wholly conjectural, id cannot be ascertained until certain land, the primary subject for e payment of the debt, has been sold, the appeal will be dismissed. itter L. Co. v. Coal Moun. Co., 115 Va. 370, 79 S. E. 322.

Change in law.—Writs of error must be disposed of in accordance ith law as it existed at date of rendition of judgment appealed from. nderson v. Hygeia Hotel Co., 92 Va. 687, 24 S. E. 269; Kennaird v. nes, 9 Grat. 183; Currin v. Spraull, 10 Grat. 145; N. & W. R. R. Co. v. ougherty, 92 Va. 372, 23 S. E. 777; Wilson v. Hundley, 96 Va. 96, S. E. 492, 70 Am. St. Rep. 837.

The latest amendment of this section reduced the jurisdictional sum r appeal from $500 to $300. Where a judgment was rendered for ore than $300 but less than $500 prior to the amendment, but the dgment did not become final by adjournment of the term of court ntil after this amendment became a law, the appellate court has juris- ction. Allison's Ex'r v. Wood, 104 Va. 765, 52 S. E. 559.

The amendment of 1902-4 was remedial in its nature and its lan- uage is sufficiently comprehensive to apply as well to judgments ren- ered before, as those rendered since its passage. Allison's Ex'r v. Vood, 104 Va. 765, 52 S. E. 559.

Fraud.—Defendant sued for less than $500 (now $300) will not be llowed to set up fraudulent or specious off-set in order to maintain peal. Manchester Paper-Mills Co. v. Heth, 1 Va. Dec. 776, 18 S. E. 39.

On action for slander jury award plaintiff $500 (then the jurisdic- onal minimum). Plaintiff releases $5 of said judgment, and court enders judgment for $495. This was done to avoid jurisdiction of ourt of Appeals, and is void. Appeal lies in such case. Hansbrough Stinnett, 22 Grat. 593.

Cited in Pattie v. Guggenheimer & Co., 86 Va. 993, 12 S. E. 950.

Limitation of appeals.—Limitation applies only to final, and not to nterlocutory, decrees. There is no limitation of time wherein appeal es from interlocutory decree settling principles of case, such running nly as against final decree. Jameson v. Jameson's Adm'x, 86 Va. 51,

Digitized by Google

9 S. E. 480, 3 L. R. A. 773; Sexton's Ex'x v. Patterson, 1
Harper v. Vaughan, 87 Va. 426, 12 S. E. 785; South
Glenn's Adm'r, 98 Va. 309, 36 S. E. 395; Barker v. Jenki
6 S. E. 459; Cocke's Adm'r v. Gilpin, 1 Rob. 22.

Decree directed cause to be recommitted to commi an account, and subsequently bill was dismissed. Hel decree was not a final judgment, such as starts statute to running. Penn v. Railroad, 2 Va. Dec. 224, 23 S. E.

Petition for an appeal from decree refusing bill of r rendered more than six months prior thereto must be p six months from the actual date of decree appealed from beginning or end of term at which rendered. Mason v.
108, 33 S. E. 1015; Buford v. North Roanoke Land C
27 S. E. 509.

It matters not whether decree of refusal is to fili prayer of bill of review to final decree rendered more than before, petitions from such decree of refusal must be p six months from date of refusal. Jordan v. Cunningha
7 S. E. 540.

If decree appealed from was rendered within statu appeal, this court has jurisdiction, though decree was reverse a former decree pronounced anterior to said period
v. Ford, 86 Va. 917, 12 S. E. 1.

The time between reception of petition and record of appeal is to be excluded in computing year in which su must be executed. Acker v. Railroad, 84 Va. 648, 5 S. E Va. Law J. 361.

The statute of limitations with regard to appeals
Commonwealth. Com. v. Moore's Adm'r, 1 Grat. 294.

No appeal lies from final decree dismissing bill of r rendered more than six months prior to such final decree, for such appeal be presented within six months from da decree. Mason v. Mason, 97 Va. 108, 33 S. E. 1015.

Where two causes are heard together, and one of th and the other continued, the decree is final as to the one unless the appeal is taken within one year, the right of and the same applies to so-called amended or supplemen make an entirely new case, and which are dismissed. S Mining & Chemical Co., 101 Va. 301, 43 S. E. 564.

Generally.—Cited but not construed in Adams v. E
796, 77 S. E. 611.

For monographic note on Appeal and Error, see H
Pepper's Ferry Turnpike Co., 1 Rob. 263, Va. Rep. Ann

Discussed, 1 Va. Law J. 519, as to conclusiveness of Law J. 577.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 48, 740, 742

See notes to section 6352; section 88 of Constitutio

Under section 2709 there is an appeal as of right f circuit court in passing on title to real estate bought for

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justi
chapter 135, section 3.

Sec. 6338. How person desiring to present such pet cure suspension of execution.—At the instance of an desires to present such petition, the court in which decree, or order is, may, during the term at which it made, or the judge rendering such judgment, order o within thirty days after such term is ended, make pending the execution of such judgment, decree, o reasonable time, to be specified in such order, whe shall give bond, with surety, before the clerk of said

Digitized by Google

enalty as the court or judge may require, with a condition recit-g such judgment, decree, or order, and the intention of said per-n to present such petition, and providing for the payment of all ich damages as may accrue to any person by reason of the said spension, in case a supersedeas to such judgment, decree, or or-er, should not be allowed, and be effectual within the time so ecified. But where the judgment, decree or order appealed from ssolves an injunction the judge may in his discretion decline to ant a suspension of such judgment, decree or order. (Code 1887, 3456; 1908, p. 36.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "with surety" appearing in line eight the text are new.

Judgment was rendered on September 28, 1886, and supersedeas nd executed September 28, 1887; but record and petition was in hand appellate court three days before that time. Held, bond was executed thin year from judgment, as the three days must be excluded. Acker Railroad, 84 Va. 648, 5 S. E. 688.

Discussed, 1 Va. Law J. 519, as to conclusiveness of decree.

Cited but not construed in Va. & S. W. R. Co. v. Nickels, 116 Va. 2, 82 S. E. 693.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 135, section 4.

Sec. 6339. Transcript of record to be exhibited with such peti-on; person applying for transcript to notify opposite party or his ounsel; certificate of clerk to transcript.—With such petition there all be a transcript of the record of so much of the case wherein e judgment, decree, or order is as will enable the court, or judge ereof in vacation, to whom the petition is to be presented, prop-ly to decide on such petition, and enable the court, if the petition e granted, properly to decide the questions that may arise before . The person intending to apply for such transcript shall notify e opposite party, or his counsel, if either reside in this State, of s intention, and no clerk of any court, nor the clerk of the State orporation Commission, shall make out and deliver such transcript nless it is made to appear that such notice was given. A certifi-te of the clerk stating the fact shall in every case accompany e transcript when presented to the appellate court or judge. It all be sufficient to give such notice to the attorney who appeared s counsel for the adverse party in the court or tribunal which endered the judgment, decree, or order, unless such party has re-ined other counsel to represent him in the appellate court and at fact is known to the petitioner, in which case the notice shall e given to such counsel. (Code 1887, § 3457; 1902-3-4, p. 779.)

What constitutes record.—Record in cases at common law comprises rit, when necessary for purposes of amendment, papers of which profert as made or oyer demanded, or such as have been specially submitted the court by bill of exceptions, demurrer to evidence, special verdict inseparably connected with some paper or evidence referred to, the veral proceedings at rules or in court until rendition of judgment, the hole pleadings between the parties, and these and no others are to be oticed by the court. Mandeville v. Perry, 6 Call 78.

The record proper is nothing but formal allegations or pleadings on either side, the issue, impaneling of jury, the verdict, and judgme Rulings of court and action of court as to evidence and proceedings m be made part of record by bill of exceptions. Id.; Magarity v. Shipm

Digitized by Google

82 Va. 806, 1 S. E. 381.

If opinion of trial judge is referred to in decree deciding cause setting forth the reasons for his decision, it becomes part of reco Todd v. Sykes, 97 Va. 143, 33 S. E. 517.

What not part of record unless made so by bill of exception.—Pap inserted in record by clerk cannot be considered part of record, unl they have regularly been made so by bill of exception or otherwise party wishing to avail himself of them. The certificate of the cl that papers copied by him were evidence upon which judgment w founded is no part of record. Cunningham v. Mitchell, 4 Rand. 18 Bowyer v. Chestnut, 4 Leigh 1; Roanoke Land & Improvement Co.
Karn, 80 Va. 589; Magarity v. Shipman, 82 Va. 806, 1 S. E. 381; Johns
v. Norton Land & Improvement Co., 90 Va. 267, 18 S. E. 36. Nor deposition part of record without bill of exceptions, though copied transcript and certified by trial court and clerk. Id.

A writ of error will not lie where record does not show judgme of court, but merely says that judgment was entered. Read's Case,
Va. 168, 17 S. E. 855.

Instructions.—Instructions given jury are no part of record unl made so by bill of exception. Mitchell's Case, 93 Va. 775, 20 S. E. 89

Rejected pleas.—Pleas tendered by defendant in action at law a rejected by court are not part of record, unless made so by bill exception to rejection, or by order of court that they shall be made s and mere memorandum that when pleas were rejected the court declar that matter thereof might be given in evidence without pleas being fil and that this was done at trial, does not make them part of recor White v. Toncray, 9 Leigh 347.

Nothing that transpired during trial in the lower court will be co sidered part of record on appeal, unless made so by bill of exception order of court, and mere statement on record that certain pleas we rejected, and that parties excepted to various rulings of court, is n sufficient. Lawrence's Case, 86 Va. 573, 10 S. E. 840.

Court of Appeals can only consider case on writ of error, on reco as made in trial court. If this fails to disclose errors complained they cannot be considered. Barnes v. Com., 92 Va. 794, 23 S. E. 78

Papers upon which a case was not heard in lower court constitu no part of record of cause, and cannot be considered on appeal. Floran
v. Morien, 98 Va. 26, 34 S. E. 890.

Appellate court will not consider certificate or other papers us in argument, but not made part of record. Taylor v. Mallory, 96 V
18, 30 S. E. 472.

What is sufficient record.—Writ of venire facias need not be set ou in record of criminal trial. Combs' Case, 90 Va. 88, 17 S. E. 88
Taylor v. Com., 90 Va. 109, 17 S. E. 812.

Where, on appeal to Supreme Court from circuit court, affirmin order on appeal from county court, clerk of circuit court certifies record in circuit court the original transcript certified from the count court, with transcript of judgment in circuit court, it is sufficient com pliance with statute. Effinger v. Kenney, 24 Grat. 116.

Division of record.—The practice adopted in this case, whereby th record of the trial court was divided and one part of it brought up b an appeal by one party, and the other part by an appeal by another party is disapproved. Wheeler v. Thomas, 116 Va. 259, 81 S. E. 51.

When bill of exceptions unnecesary.—On appeal from judgment o circuit court on writ of error to county court, bill of exception to judg ment of circuit court is not necessary, as error therein, if any, appear by record of that court without such bill. Morris v. Deane, 94 Va. 572 27 S. E. 432. Nor is it necessary to action of court on demurrer Russell Creek Coal Co. v. Wells, 96 Va. 416, 31 S. E. 614. But other wise as to instructions. Mitchell's Case, 93 Va. 775, 20 S. E. 892. No

Digitized by Google

it necessary to take bill of exceptions to action of trial court overruling otion for new trial. It is sufficient if it appears otherwise from record at motion was overruled and exception taken. Central Land Co. v. benchain, 92 Va. 130, 22 S. E. 876; Newberry v. Williams, 89 Va. 298, S. E. 865, explained; Town of Bridgewater v. Allemong, 93 Va. 542, S. E. 595; City of Norfolk v. Pollard, 94 Va. 279, 26 S. E. 832.

Insufficient record.—Where record on appeal is unsatisfactory, and idence not clearly stated, report of commissioner who had the witnesses fore him, and knew the particular items to which evidence was directed, d which appears to do substantial justice, will be affirmed, though the nclusions reached are not absolutely accurate. Browning's Ex'r v. rowning, 2 Va. Dec. 714, 36 S. E. 525; Rhea v. Preston, 75 Va. 757. e note to section 6341.

In proceedings involving deprivation of life or liberty, whatever is sential must affirmatively appear from the record, and where waiver defendant of record leaves record destitute of essential part he may terwards take advantage of defect notwithstanding waiver. Spurgeon's se, 86 Va. 652, 10 S. E. 979. But see section 4895; Barnes v. Com., Va. 794, 23 S. E. 784.

Omission to direct new venire facias, or omission of any statutory sential apparent on record, is error, and may be taken advantage of ter verdict by motion in arrest of judgment, failure of accused to make jection before jury sworn being no waiver. Hall's Case, 80 Va. 555.

Where defendant appears not to have been included in original ocess and return thereon, the judgment entered is void, presumption jurisdiction being overcome by record. Blanton v. Carroll, 86 Va. 9, 10 S. E. 329.

Provision as to notice directory.—Providing that notice of intention apply for transcript of record with view of applying for writ of error directory, and not a limitation of jurisdiction of court. Mears v. exter, 86 Va. 828, 11 S. E. 538. But it is plain violation of duty by erk to make out and deliver such transcript until the notice has been ven. Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Dunnaway's Adm'r, 93 Va. 29, 24 S. E. 8.

Where record contradicts plea.—Where record shows that defendant eaded "not guilty," appellate court will disregard exception that isoner was tried without plea. Cash v. Com., 2 Va. Dec. 1, 20 S. E. 893.

Generally.—See Burks' Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1403; urks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 758, 759; Gregory's Forms No. 361.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, apter 135, section 5.

Sec. 6340. How the record made up.—In no case shall the clerk, nless specially directed in writing so to do, copy into the record ny process, any order at rules, order of continuance, return, evi- ence of service of process, any affidavit of parties or witnesses, any commission or notice to take depositions, captions thereto r certificate of their having been sworn to, but the name of each itness and the time of taking his deposition, and for whom taken, hall be stated at the head thereof. Nor shall he copy, unless so irected, any injunction, appeal, or supersedeas bond, any certifi- ate of the acknowledgment or proof of a deed or other writing, r any report or account made by a commissioner to which there is o exception, or any voucher in support thereof, or any opinion f the court or judge rendering the judgment, decree, or order, or ny printed document, of which either party will furnish to the lerk a copy, but such duplicate shall be attached to what is so opied. When a deed, patent, will, or other writing, is once copied into the record, or into a bill of exceptions, it shall copied by the clerk, but may be identified by prop And when a case has before been in the appellate shall only be copied the proceedings subsequent to t peal, writ of error, or supersedeas. (Code 1887, § 345

Digitized by Google

Where, in a chancery cause, there is a decree in a a report not excepted to by either party, and on appeal omitted in accordance with statute of 1825, chapter 51, se the latter part of which is same as latter part of this party may call for report, and have it brought up; but, i does so, no objection can be considered which the re necessary to explain or support. Poindexter's Ex'rs v. G Leigh 504.

Sec. 6341. Where parties differ, the judge to decid pellee, or defendant in error, or his counsel, desire a record to be copied, and the appellant or his counsel same, the question may be referred to the judge of t the tribunal in which the case was decided, who sh same, and the clerk in making out the transcript sha instructions given him by such judge or tribunal. § 3459; 1902-3-4, p. 780.)

Parties unable to agree on what part of record sh referred the matter to judge of court, who directed cle "In respect to copying the records for appeals in cases me make one complete record in one case, which record record in all the cases which are identical, omitting onl may mutually agree to omit." In one case complete re up, but others are not copied, the names only being ment not such record as will enable court to consider them. Day, 87 Va. 71, 12 S. E. 107.

This section authorizes selections from the record a pleted, and is not intended to authorize additions ther decision. A deed placed among papers, without being fi to in the proceedings, is not made part of record on a copied into the transcript by order of judge. Barksda Adm'rs, 87 Va. 141, 12 S. E. 344.

Sec. 6342. Parties may agree upon what shall be c agree the facts to be copied in lieu of complete reco ties, or their counsel, may agree upon such part of be copied by the clerk as they think will enable the a properly to decide the case, or they may agree the part of them, to be copied by the clerk in lieu of th cord. The clerk, on the application of the appellant shall make and deliver him a typewritten copy, paged of the record agreed on, or if no record be agreed on, required by section sixty-three hundred and forty. copy is made and delivered, counsel for either side an abridgement thereof, or any part thereof, which when agreed on by counsel for both sides, together v tions, if any, of the record not abridged, and the pe appeal or writ of error, shall constitute the record Such agreement, however, shall not affect the right o

Digitized by Google

o correct any mistake or supply any omission from the typewrit-en copy. (Code 1887, § 3460; 1902-3-4, p. 780.)

Revisors' Note.—The first sentence of this section is taken from ection 3460 of the Code of 1887. The residue is substantially new. he transcript of the record must be typewritten, paged and indexed, nd a provision is made for an abridgment of the transcript by counsel or either side, which abridgment must, of course, be agreed on by coun-el for both sides. The reduction of the size of records in the appellate ourt is "a consummation devoutly to be wished," and the revisors gave he subject much consideration in an effort to solve the problems con-ected with it. The conclusion reached, however, was that further legis-ation of a satisfactory character at this time could do no more than ncourage, and in a sense, REQUEST, the gentlemen of the bar to take teps to reduce the size of the records. This and other sections furnish he means by which the size of the records may be reduced, and this was s far as the revisors felt justified in going in recommending legislation o remedy the existing evils.

See note to section 6341.

Sec. 6343. Court of Appeals may change rules for making out nd printing records.—The Supreme Court of Appeals may from me to time change or modify either of the four preceding sections, nd in lieu thereof adopt such other rules for making out and rinting the records, as it may deem proper. (Code 1887, § 3461.)

Sec. 6344. If part of record unnecessarily copied, who to pay for .—If any paper, document, or writing be improperly or unneces-arily copied into the record, the appellate court may, in its discre-ion, direct the cost of said copying and printing the same to be aid by the party at whose instance such copying was so made or one. (Code 1887, § 3462.)

Sec. 6345. Appellate court, or, etc., may inspect former record efore it; power to award writ of certiorari.—The appellate court, r a judge thereof, may, when a case has before been in such court, nspect the record upon the former appeal, writ of error, or super-edeas; and such court, or any judge thereof in vacation, may, in ny case, after reasonable notice to counsel in the appellate court, ward a writ of certiorari to the clerk of the court below, and ave brought before it, when part of a record is omitted, the whole r any part of such record. (Code 1887, § 3463.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "counsel in the appellate court" appear-ng in line five of the text are used in lieu of "the adverse party."

See note to section 6340.

Cited but not construed in McMenamin v. Southern R. Co., 115 Va. 22, 80 S. E. 596.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, hapter 135, section 7.

Sec. 6346. Petition for appeal, etc., how prepared and certified. —A petition for an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas shall as-ign errors; and it shall not be presented until some counsel or ttorney of the appellate court shall certify that, in his opinion, it s proper that the decision should be reviewed by such court. (Code 887, § 3464.)

Petition must state clearly and distinctly all errors relied on for reversal.—A petition for appeal is in the nature of a pleading, and should state clearly and distinctly all the errors relied on for a reversal of the decree; otherwise appeal should be dismissed. But a motion to dismiss for this cause will not be granted after lapse of more than three years when right of appeal has become barred by limitation. Orr v. Pennington, 93 Va. 268, 24 S. E. 928; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1310, 1311.

Digitized by Google

A petition for a writ of error is in the nature of a pleading, and should state clearly and distinctly all the errors relied on for reversal, and errors not assigned in the petition will not, as a rule, be considered. Sutherland v. Wampler, 119 Va. 800, 89 S E. 875; Worley v. Mathiesen Alkali Works, 119 Va. 862, 89 S. E. 880; Ewell v. Brock, 120 Va. 475, 91 S. E. 761.

Compliance and non-compliance with rule.—The petition for a writ of error in this case points out specifically the errors claimed to have been committed by the court below, and in such manner as to enable the court and opposing counsel to see on what points counsel for the petitioner intends to seek a reversal and hence is sufficient. Belmont v. McAllister, 116 Va. 285, 81 S. E. 81.

The discussion in a petition for a writ of error may be treated as a substantial compliance with this section when the motion to dismiss for failure to comply with the statute is not made until after the right of appeal is barred by limitation. New York Life Ins. Co. v. Franklin, 118 Va. 418, 87 S. E. 584.

Petition for an appeal is in the nature of a pleading, and should state the case which appellant wishes to make. It must assign all errors relied on for reversal. Errors assigned for first time in reply brief will not be considered. Hawpe v. Bumgardner, 103 Va. 91, 98, 48 S. E. 554.

Assignments of error made for the first time in a reply brief will not be considered. A statement in a petition that there are other errors to be assigned does not reserve to the petitioner the right to assign such errors in a reply brief. Va. Ry. & P. Co. v. Sam'l Meyer, 117 Va. 409, 84 S. E. 742; American L. Co. v. Hoffman, 105 Va. 346, 54 S. E. 25.

An assignment of error relating to fourteen alleged errors contained in fourteen bills of exceptions was held to be insufficient where all that was said in support of the assignment was "that defendant is advised that errors were committed to his prejudice by said rulings of the court." Such a statement is not a compliance with the rule that a petition for a writ of error, being in the nature of a pleading, must state clearly and distinctly the errors relied on to reverse the judgment. Honaker L. Co. v. Call, 119 Va. 374, 89 S. E. 506.

When all the assignments of error are based upon matters not in the record, and there are no proper bills of exceptions, there are no errors assigned within the meaning of this section. Moore v. Harrison, 114 Va. 424, 76 S. E. 920.

Jurisdiction of court.—The general rule is that a question not raised in the trial cannot be raised in the appellate court. This rule, however, is subject to exceptions, one of which is that a question which goes to the jurisdiction of the court may not only be raised for the first time in the appellate court, but, where it appears that the trial court did not have jurisdiction, the appellate court may of its own motion take notice of that fact.

As was said by President Tucker in Jones & Ford v. Anderson, 7 Leigh 309, 314: "It must always be ex-officio the duty of a court to disclaim a jurisdiction which it is not entitled to exercise. To do otherwise would be to usurp a power not conferred by law."

To hold that the question of the jurisdiction of the trial court could not be made in the appellate court for the first time would be in effect to hold that consent could give jurisdiction, and might result in the affirmance of a judgment which the trial court had no authority to enter. South & W. Ry. Co. v. Com., 104 Va. 314, 51 S. E. 824; Philips v. Com., 19 Grat. 485; Ryan v. Com., 80 Va. 385; Saunders v. Griggs, 81 Va. 506;

Digitized by Google

McAllister v. Guggenheimer, 91 Va. 317, 320, 21 S. E. 475; Boston Blower Co. v. Carman Lumber Co., 94 Va. 94, 100, 26 S. E. 390.

Generally.—Cited but not construed in Laskey v. Burrill, 105 Va. 83, 54 S. E. 23; Wash. So. Ry. v. Cheshire, 109 Va. 741, 65 S. E. 27.

Sec. 6347. To whom presented; endorsement of judge thereon.—The petition may be presented to the Supreme Court of Appeals, or to a judge thereof, and if it be presented to a judge, he shall endorse thereon the day and year he receives it. (Code 1887, § 3465; 1902-3-4, p. 780.)

Sec. 6348. When to be rejected; when rejection final.—The petition shall be rejected when it is from an interlocutory decree or order, if the court or judge to whom it is presented deems it proper that the case should be proceeded in further in the court below before an appeal is allowed therein. If the court shall deem the judgment, decree, or order complained of plainly right, and reject the petition on that ground, the order of rejection shall so state, and no other petition therein shall afterwards be entertained. But the rejection of such petition by a judge in vacation shall not prevent the presentation of such petition to the court at its next term. (Code 1887, § 3466; 1902-3-4, p. 780.)

We have no such practice as an absolute right of appeal in civil or criminal cases. But the law requires a petition, accompanied by a transcript of record, to be presented to the court, or one of its judges, whose duty it is to examine the errors assigned and to grant or refuse writ, as may seem proper. It is as much the duty of the court, or judge, to deny the petition when of opinion that the decision complained of is plainly right, as it is to grant it when any doubt exists as to the propriety of the decision. McCue's Case, 103 Va. 1008, 49 S. E 623.

As to what is interlocutory decree, see notes to section 6337.

In a suit for separate maintenance, an interlocutory decree awarding the plaintiff a pendente lite allowance for her support until the further order of the court, requiring the defendant to pay the costs of suit incurred by the complainant to date of decree and referring the cause to a commissioner in chancery to inquire and report on the value of the property of the defendant, the amount of his income and what would be a reasonable allowance to be paid for the support of the complainant and her child, was not appealable. Beatty v. Beatty, 105 Va. 113, 53 S. E. 2.

Where a petition for a writ of error has been rejected on the ground that the judgment complained of is plainly right, and the order of rejection so states, the court is without jurisdiction to entertain any other petition with respect to it. Morgan's Case, 115 Va. 943, 79 S. E. 388.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 135, section 11.

Sec. 6349. When appeal, etc., allowed; when supersedeas awarded.—The court or judge, to whom a petition is duly presented, if of opinion that the decision complained of ought to be reviewed, may allow an appeal or writ of error, and in either case may award a supersedeas to stay proceedings in whole or in part. (Code 1887, § 3467; 1902-3-4, p. 780.)

A supersedeas is only intended to stay further proceedings and to leave matters in the condition it finds them until appellate court can hear case and determine questions involved in appeal. If a receiver is in possession of property at the time the supersedeas is awarded, he is not thereby removed. Either party may move in lower court for appointment of receiver pending appeal, or if there be a receiver he may apply to the court appointing him for its guidance. Bristow v. Home Bldg. Co., 91 Va. 18, 20 S. E. 946, 947; 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1315, 1316.

Digitized by Google

Under rule 8 (120 Va. vii.), an appeal brings before court for review the whole record. Section 6349, permitting a restriction to be placed upon a supersedeas so that it may be framed to stay proceedings in part, does not impose or authorize any limitation upon the appeal. Appellant cannot appeal from so much of decree as is prejudicial to him and leave residue in force. Gaines v. Merryman, 95 Va. 663, 29 S. E. 738.

Pending appeal from decree to which a supersedeas has been issued and perfected by bond, the only orders the court below can make in suit are such as are needed to preserve the rem in litigation. Cralle v. Cralle, 81 Va. 773; Littlejohn v. Ferguson, 18 Grat. 53; Moran v. Johnston, 26 Grat. 108; Edmund's Adm'r v. Scott, 78 Va. 720.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 135, section 12.

See Gregory's Forms No. 361.

Sec. 6350. In what court appeal, etc., to be docketed; what process to issue.—Every appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas shall be docketed in the Supreme Court of Appeals, at the place of session, where it may be heard and determined according to sections five thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven to five thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, inclusive. The clerk of the said court shall issue a summons against the parties interested, other than the petitioners, that they may be heard, and also issue any supersedeas which may be awarded. (Code 1887, § 3469; 1902-3-4, p. 780.)

Under this section appellee cannot, under rule 8 (120 Va. vii.), have determined a question not raised by appellants, where the party interested in such question adversely to such appellee has not been summoned as provided by this section, and is not a party to proceedings on appeal. Rhea v. Preston, 75 Va. 757.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 135, section 13.

Cited but not construed in Roanoke v. Blair, 107 Va. 639, 60 S. E. 75.

Sec. 6351. Bond of appellants or petitioners; penalty and condition.—Except where an appeal, writ of error or supersedeas is proper to protect the estate of a decedent, infant, convict or insane person, or to protect the interest of any county, city or town of this Commonwealth, the same shall not take effect until bond be given by the appellants or petitioners, or one or more of them, or some other person, in a penalty to be fixed by the court or judge, by, or in which, the appeal, writ of error or supersedeas is allowed or entered (which penalty, in a case where the judgment, decree or order, proceedings on which, in whole or in part, are stayed by supersedeas, is for the payment of money, shall in no case be less than the amount of money, the payment of which is stayed, with interests and costs), with condition, if a supersedeas be awarded, to perform and satisfy the judgment, decree or order, or the part thereof, proceedings on which are stayed, in case the said judgment, decree, or such part be affirmed, or the appeal, writ of error or supersedeas be dismissed, and also to pay all damages, costs and fees which may be awarded against or incurred by the appellants or petitioners, in the appellate court, and all actual damages incurred in consequence of the supersedeas, and if it be an appeal from a decree or order dissolving an injunction, or dismissing a bill of injunction, with a further condition to indemnify and save harmless the surety in the injunction bond against all loss or damage in consequence of his suretyship, and with condition, when no supersedeas is awarded, to pay such specific damages, and such costs and fees, as may be awarded or incurred; provided, however, that the judge or court granting the appeal, writ of error or supersedeas may subsequently, on motion of any party in interest, require such bond of any county, city or town, and provide in the order requiring the same that the appeal, writ of error or supersedeas shall stand dismissed unless such bond is executed within a time to be specified in such order, not, however, to exceed thirty days from the entry of said order. (Code 1887, § 3470; 1914, p. 713.)

Digitized by Google

Provisions as to bonds.—If bond is not given within time prescribed by statute, appeal will be dismissed. Pace v. Ficklin's Ex'x, 76 Va. 292.

Who may give.—Statute allows any person to execute bond. Section 6375.

Condition precedent.—Giving of bond is condition precedent, and supersedeas does not operate until it is given. Williamson v. Gayle, 4 Grat. 180; 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1315.

Construction of statute.—That portion of section 13, chapter 178, Code 1873 (same as this section), prescribing penalty of appeal bond, refers only to the damages mentioned in section 24 of same chapter (same as section 6366), and was not intended to cover rents and profits of real estate in possession of appellant, who had given deed of trust thereon to secure a debt fully its value, he having obtained an injunction to prevent sale of such real estate, which injunction was dissolved, and the bill dismissed, and penalty of appeal and supersedeas bond will not be fixed with reference to such rents and profits. Cardwell v. Allen, 28 Grat. 184. It would seem otherwise under the present statute, 13 Va. Law J. 170.

The word "awarded" in that section refers to "damages and costs," and word "incurred" to the word "fees," so as to make meaning same as if it were written: "And also to pay all damages and costs which may be awarded against and all fees which may be incurred by appellant or petitioners." Cardwell v. Allen, supra.

The language of this section declaring what the condition of every supersedeas bond shall be, is to be read into every statutory supersedeas bond taken since its enactment, whether inserted in the bond or not. Bemiss v. Com., 113 Va. 489, 75 S. E. 115.

Penalty.—The penalty of appeal and supersedeas bond should be sufficient to indemnify and save harmless the surety in the injunction bond. Cardwell v. Allen, supra.

Where condition of appeal bond prescribed by judge awarding supersedeas was "to pay all costs and damages according to law, and also any deficiency in the funds arising from land sales decreed in meeting and discharging the sums decreed against the parties, respectively, in case the decree complained of be affirmed or appeal or supersedeas be dismissed," and the condition inserted in bond by clerk was to "pay the judgment" in addition to that prescribed by judge, the stipulations in bond to "pay the judgment," and "also the deficiency," on resale of lands, are alternative provisions, intended to accomplish same object.

Digitized by Google

namely, the satisfaction of the decree and the payment of costs and damages according to law. Harnsberger v. Yancey, 33 Grat. 527.

What defects do not vitiate bond.—Appeal bond made payable to Commonwealth is sufficient. Acker v. Railroad, 84 Va. 648, 5 S. E. 688.

Bond reciting judgment as that of "circuit court of Alexandria," omitting words "the city of," is not vitiated by such omission. Id.

A bond not containing waiver of homestead may be insufficient, and may be made sufficient any time on motion of defendant in error, but is not a void bond. Id. Nor is bond omitting to provide, as part of condition, for payment of "all actual damages incurred in consequence of the supersedeas." Virginia Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. New York Carousal Mfg. Co., 95 Va. 515, 28 S. E. 888, 40 L. R. A. 237.

When insufficient bond does not avoid the appeal.—Where an appeal and supersedeas has been awarded and defendant moves to dismiss appeal for want of proper or sufficient bond, court may modify order so as to grant appeal only. Reid v. Norfolk City R. Co., 94 Va. 120, 26 S. E. 428, 36 L. A. 274, 64 Am. St. Rep. 708.

Where condition of appeal bond recites judgment as $3,900 when it was for $3,957 and costs, for which appeal was taken, certifies in record that appellant did execute such bond as was required, appellate court will not dismiss appeal on ground of such defect, as appellee ought to have had it promptly corrected or be held to waive it. Jackson's Adm'x v. Henderson, 3 Leigh 196; Pugh's Ex'r v. Jones, 6 Leigh 299.

Where supersedeas was allowed by court without bond when one ought to have been required, and the cause is docketed without, appeal will not be dismissed for such failure after time for allowance of another supersedeas. Pugh's Ex'r v. Jones, 6 Leigh 299.

A writ of error will not be dismissed for "informality in appeal bond," where defendant has had ample opportunity in which to object to bond, but has delayed doing so until it is too late to give a new bond or to award a new writ of error. Virginia Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. New York Carousal Mfg. Co., 95 Va. 515, 28 S. E. 888, 40 L. R. A. 237; Acker v. Railroad, 84 Va. 648, 5 S. E. 688.

An appeal is taken from county court sitting in chancery, and bond is given which is in fact a certiorari bond, and not an appeal bond. No objection is made to its regularity in chancery court. On appeal to Supreme Court from chancery court it is too late to object to bond. Brown v. Matthews, 1 Rand. 462.

Objection that surety on appeal bond was also surety on injunction bond is not good. Johnston v. Syme, 3 Call 522, see note to section 6352.

Effect of bond.—Where, on a decree in favor of attaching creditor, the defendant appeals, and gives an appeal bond, the giving of appeal bond does not release the lien of the attachment. Magvill v. Sauer, 20 Grat. 540. See, also, note to section 6365.

Condition of bond.—Party appealing from order dissolving an injunction can only be secured to give bond to perform judgment of inferior court and to pay costs and damages in appellate court. McKay v. Hite's Ex'rs, 4 Rand. 564.

Where plaintiff obtained injunction against judgment at law, which was afterwards dissolved, and he appeals to Court of Appeals, he cannot be required to give security for amount of judgment, but only for such costs as may be awarded against him in Court of Appeals. Eppes v. Thurman, 4 Rand. 384; Harnsberger v. Yancey, 33 Grat. 527.

Action on bond—Damages.—In an action on a supersedeas bond, under this section, to recover damages by reason of the suspension of a decree for the delivery of certain bonds in kind, the plaintiff is entitled to recover the depreciation in the market value of the bonds, together with the interest (less taxes) he could have made on the money and that actually received on the bonds. Bemiss v. Com., 113 Va. 489, 75 S. E. 115, 18 Va. L. Reg. 362.

Digitized by Google

For form of declaration of debt on an appeal bond, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1659.

Executors and administrators.—When an executor or administrator on sufficient qualification has given bond and security according to law, he is allowed to prosecute an appeal without giving an appeal bond in all cases where his object is to assert the rights or protect the interests of decedent's estate. McCauley's Adm'r v. Griffin's Ex'r. 4 Grat. 9; Linney's Ex'r v. Holliday, 3 Rand. 1; Sadler's Ex'rs v. Green, 1 Hen. & M. 26; Wilson v. Wilson's Adm'rs, Id. 15. And where executor or administrator c. t. a. has been allowed, by direction of testator and order of probate court, to qualify without security, he ought not to be required to give bond on appeal in representative capacity. Id. But where decree against appellant is in part against him as an executor and part in his own right, he must, on appeal, give bond and security as to such part as is in his own right. Dunton v. Robins, 2 Munf. 341; Shearman v. Christian, 1 Rand. 393. And so on appeal by executor from decree in favor of legatees for their proportions of estate, bond must be given by executors. Porter's Ex'rs v. Arnold, 3 Rand. 479. And where, in suit against person as executor and as legatee, there is personal decree against him, he cannot appeal without giving bond with surety. Where interlocutory decree required defendant to deliver slaves to be divided among plaintiffs, and there was a final decree for profits, and he complied with interlocutory decree, and he appeals from both, no appeal bond is required, but otherwise if he has not so complied. Erskine v. Henry, 6 Leigh 378. And in an action against executor, where judgment is rendered against him personally instead of de bonis testatoris, though the judgment be plainly erroneous, yet if the executor pray an appeal or supersedeas it can only be allowed him upon giving bond with security. Pugh's Ex'r v. Jones, 6 Leigh 299. And assignee in bankruptcy must give bond on appeal, as he is not one of persons excepted by statute. Pace v. Ficklin's Ex'x, 76 Va. 292.

And so must legatees in possession of property. Sadler's Ex'rs v. Green, 1 Hen. & M. 26; Wilson v. Wilson's Adm'rs, Id. 15.

Death of appellant.—Where party procures an appeal and dies, and appeal is not revived, security on appeal bond is exonerated. Nelson v. Anderson, 2 Call 286.

Generally.—As to changes made in this section by revision of 1887, see Burks' Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1403.

Cited but not construed in Louisa v. Yancey, 109 Va. 229; 63 S. E. 452.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 758, 760; Gregory's Forms No. 30.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 135, section 14.

Sec. 6352. When and by whom taken; endorsement on process from Court of Appeals.—When an appeal of right is entered from the State Corporation Commission to the Supreme Court of Appeals, such bond shall be taken by the clerk of said commission before the appeal is entered. When an appeal or writ of error, with or without a supersedeas, is allowed on a petition by the Supreme Court of Appeals, the clerk of that court shall endorse on the summons or supersedeas that it is not to be effectual until such bond be given before the clerk or court below, who shall take said bond and endorse on the process that it has been given, and the names of the sureties therein. (Code 1887, § 3471; 1902-3-4, p. 780.)

Digitized by Google

Where in accordance with this section (before amendment) clerk of court from whose judgment appeal was taken prepared appeal bond, but omitted to provide, as part of condition, for payment of "all actual damages incurred in consequence of the supersedeas," bond being in all other respects correct, and objection is not made until it is too late to give new bond or allow another appeal, such defect will not be ground for dismissing appeal. Virginia Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. New York Carousal Mfg. Co., 95 Va. 515, 28 S. E. 888, 40 L. R. A. 237.

Where appeal and supersedeas are awarded, and insufficient bond given, court may dismiss supersedeas, but continue the appeal. Reid v. Norfolk City R. Co., 94 Va. 117, 26 S. E. 428, 36 L. R. A. 274, 64 Am. St. Rep. 708.

Party injured by insufficiency of appeal bond has remedy by action on the official bond of the clerk of the court. Chase v. Miller, 88 Va. 791, 14 S. E. 545.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 135, section 15.

Sec. 6353. How surety in such bond may obtain indemnity.—On the motion of any surety in such bond, after reasonable notice to or a rule against his principal, the appellate court may order bond to be given, in such time as it may prescribe, with sufficient surety to indemnify and save harmless such surety against all loss or damage in consequence of his suretyship; and if such order be not complied with, may order the appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas to be dismissed. (Code 1887, § 3472.)

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 135, section 16.

Sec. 6354. When appeal is of right from State Corporation Commission record to be delivered to clerk of Supreme Court of Appeals; when that court to dismiss appeal.—In the cases where there is an appeal of right from the State Corporation Commission to the Supreme Court of Appeals, the clerk of the State Corporation Commission shall deliver a copy of the record to the clerk of the Supreme Court of Appeals as soon as practicable, with a certificate that the bond required by section six thousand three hundred and fifty-two has been given, unless the appellant direct him not to deliver it. If such direction be given, the clerk of the State Corporation Commission shall deliver to the clerk of the Supreme Court of Appeals a copy of the entry of the appeal and a certificate of such direction. On the production of such copy and certificate, the Supreme Court of Appeals shall enter a dismissal of the appeal. (Code 1887, § 3473.)

Revisors' Note.—Section 3473 of the Code of 1887 was repealed by Acts 1902-3-4, p. 778, but it has been reinstated with such changes as were necessary to make it cover the cases of appeals of right from the State Corporation Commission.

Sec. 6355. Limitations of appeals, writs of error, or supersedeas.—No process shall issue on an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas, allowed to or from a final judgment, decree, or order, if when the record, with the petition required by section six thousand three hundred and thirty-nine, is delivered to the clerk of the appellate court there shall have elapsed one year since the date of such final judgment, decree, or order, or six months if the decree appealed from was a decree refusing a bill of review to a final decree rendered more than six months prior thereto.

Digitized by Google

No such process shall issue upon an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas allowed to a final judgment, order, or finding of the State Corporation Commission if, when the record, with the petition required by law, is delivered to the clerk of the appellate court, there shall have elapsed six months since the date of such final judgment, order, or finding.

The appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas shall be dismissed whenever it appears that one year or six months, as the case may be, has elapsed since the said date before the record, with the said petition, is delivered to such clerk, or before such bond is given as is required to be given before an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas takes effect: provided, that the time which shall elapse from the presentation of the petition for an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas, and the delivery of the record, with the petition required by law, to the clerk of the appellate court as aforesaid, shall be excluded from the computation of the said period of one year or six months, as the case may be. (Code 1887, § 3474; 1902-3-4, p. 781.)

Revisors' Note.—As to appeals from the State Corporation Commission the following may be observed: Section 3734 of this Code fixes the limitation at six months with a proviso that the section shall not be construed to interfere in any way with the provisions of sub-sections (d), (e), (f) and (g) of section 156 of the Constitution as to appeals in the class of cases referred to in those sub-sections of the Constitution. Section 3474 of the Code of 1887, as amended, upon which section 6355 of this Code is based, prescribed a limitation of ONE YEAR, "or six months in those cases in which by law the period of six months is prescribed as the period within which such appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas may be allowed." It appeared, therefore, that the one-year limitation applied only to those cases in which appeals may be allowed under section 156 (d), etc., of the Constitution. No sufficient reason being seen for a limitation of one year in some cases and six months in others, the revised section above prescribes a uniform limitation of six months. See, also, section 6337, where the same uniform limitation is now prescribed.

The statute of limitations prescribing time within which a writ of error or appeal may be awarded ceases to run when the petition for writ of error is presented, and does not begin to run again until the petition and record are delivered to clerk. But this delivery is the actual receipt of petition and record by him. The omission of clerk to examine a box containing the papers, or, if he examine it, his mistake as to its contents or failure to discover the papers does not affect the statute, which begins to run from actual receipt of petition and record by clerk. Bull v. Evans, 96 Va. 2, 30 S. E. 468.

Where judgment was obtained May 13, 1872, and one of the parties on 9th November, 1872, obtains supersedeas thereto, but does not execute bond until April 15, 1875, and counsel had marked his name on docket as counsel for appellee, the bond not having been given within statutory period, appeal must be dismissed. Counsel marking his name on docket, although it may be a waiver of process is not waiver of bond (this was under chapter 178, section 17, Code 1873, which is same as section 6355, except that limitation is two years); and so where appeal from final decree, June 2, 1877, was allowed May 8, 1879, but bond was not given until June 9, 1879. Otterback v. Railroad, 26 Grat. 940; Pace v. Ficklin's Ex'x, 76 Va. 292.

Digitized by Google

Where final decree was rendered November 30, 1880, and record was presented for appeal November 28, 1881, and indorsed by judge, who on April 24, 1882, indorsed thereon that he declined to act because no petition accompanied record. His official term expired December 31, 1882, and record went into hands of his successors. On January 8, 1883, one of these successors indorsed thereon, "Appeal allowed." The time during which the first judge held record must be excluded from computation of two-year limitation for appeals under chapter 178, section 17, Code 1873, as amended by 1876-7, p. 30, chapter 42 (similar to this section), as statute ceased to run from indorsement by first judge of receipt of record. Frazier v. Frazier, 77 Va. 775.

Under the provisions of this section, if the decree appealed from is a decree refusing a bill of review to a final decree rendered more than six months prior thereto, the party aggrieved has six months from the date of the decree refusing such bill of review within which to perfect his appeal, but if the bill of review is refused within six months after the final decree, the time for perfecting an appeal from the final decree is the same as if no bill of review had been refused. Adams v. Booker, 114 Va. 796, 77 S. E. 611.

Under section 17, chapter 182, Code 1849 (same as section 6355, except that limitation is five years instead of one), if appeal bond is not executed within statutory period from date of decree the appeal will be dismissed. Yarborough v. Deshazo, 7 Grat. 374; Williamson v. Gayle, 4 Grat. 180, noticed and distinguished

If bond be given, though faulty, appeal will not be dismissed when objection thereto was not made until it was too late to execute new bond or award another appeal. Virginia Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. New York Carousal Mfg. Co., 95 Va. 515, 28 S. E. 888, 40 L. R. A. 237.

And where supersedeas is awarded, but bond on appeal is conditioned to pay only costs and damages, the supersedeas will be dismissed, but appeal retained. Reid v. Norfolk City R. Co., 2 Va. Dec. 86, 21 S. E. 27.

Where appeal from decree is not taken until more than one year has expired since its rendition, appeal is barred by section 6355. Diehl v. Marchant, 87 Va. 447, 12 S. E. 803.

When petition for appeal is not presented until the statutory limitation has expired, appeal, if granted, will be dismissed as improvidently awarded. Callaway v. Harding, 23 Grat. 542. See notes to sections 6336-7.

See, also, "Limitations to Appeals," sections 6336-7.

Cited but not construed in Louisa v. Yancey, 109 Va. 229, 63 S. E. 452.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, p. 756.

Sec. 6356. When their dismission final; when they may be re-instated.—After the dismission of an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas, no other appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas shall be allowed to or from the same judgment, decree, or order. When an appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas is dismissed by reason of the non-payment of the writ tax within the time required by law, the court, at its first place of session after such dismission, may, on motion of any party, for good cause shown, and upon payment of such tax, set aside the dismission; and thereupon the appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas may be perfected as though no such dismission had taken place. A motion under this section shall be

Digitized by Google

after reasonable notice to the adverse party or his counsel. (Code 1887, § 3475.)

Revisors' Note.—The second sentence of this section as it stood prior to the revision provided for a reinstatement of the case where it had been dismissed for failure to pay the costs of printing. This sentence has been omitted. Under section 3507 of the former Code, as last amended by Acts 1906, p. 239, the case was required to be dismissed if the costs of printing were not paid within ninety days from the date of the notice giving the amount of costs due. Section 3486 of this Code, however, which is taken from the Act of 1906 just cited amending section 3507 of the former Code, as aforesaid, increases the period from ninety days to six months. The effect of these changes is to allow six months after notice for the payment of the costs of printing the record, and if the case be dismissed for failure to pay the costs within that time, no power is given the Supreme Court of Appeals to reinstate it.

Rule 9 of court provides that no appeal which shall have been dismissed or abated by the court shall be reinstated or revived after the lapse of sixty days from such abatement or dismission, except for good cause shown the court, verified by affidavits and upon reasonable notice to the adverse party of the time of making the motion; nor then, except in very special cases, unless such motion be made within one hundred and twenty days from the time of such dismission or abatement, provided that if the court shall not be in session on the day to which such notice shall be given a further time of ten days shall be allowed the party to exhibit his motion after the next meeting of the court. 120 Va. viii.

Dismissal of appeal for failure to give appeal bond operates as an affirmance of decree of lower court. Hicks v. Roanoke Brick Co., 94 Va. 744, 27 S. E. 596; Cobbs v. Gilchrist's Adm'r, 80 Va. 503. And so for failure to print record. Woodson's Ex'r v. Leyburn, 83 Va. 843, 3 S. E. 873.

The case made for the Court of Appeals by an appeal from decree of lower court, whether final or interlocutory, is to Court of Appeals a complete case in itself, and the decree in that court is final and conclusive between parties, as well upon the court itself as the court below, and Court of Appeals can do nothing more in course of same litigation until a new and different appeal is brought up to it from some decree of court below rendered in the cause upon subsequent proceedings, and then the court can only review and reverse that decree without disturbing its own former decree. Campbell's Ex'rs v. Campbell's Ex'r, 22 Grat. 649; Hicks v. Roanoke Brick Co., 94 Va. 744, 27 S. E. 596; Barksdale v Fitzgerald, 76 Va. 892.

Where Court of Appeals affirms an interlocutory decree of circuit court, and afterwards a petition to rehear said decree is filed in circuit court and dismissed, such a decree cannot be reheard on appeal. Woodson's Ex'r v. Leyburn, 83 Va. 843, 3 S. E. 873.

Sec. 6357. In case to be heard by Court of Appeals, how clerk thereof to prepare record; what to be printed and how; how printed copies distributed and cost of printing paid.—In every case docketed in the Supreme Court of Appeals, the clerk of the court, where the case is docketed, shall make a table of contents to the whole record. Of the petition, so much of the record as the counsel for any party interested or the court may direct, and the table of contents, the clerk shall cause twenty-five copies to be printed, unless a larger number be ordered by the court, preserving in the margin of the printed record the paging of the record from the court below, which shall be used in printing and returned to the clerk's office. The clerk shall take care that the printing be properly done. Of the copies printed, he shall deliver one to each judge, two to each of counsel on each side, retain one in his office, transmit one to the clerk of the court below (in which the case was originally decided), and deliver one copy to the reporter. The cost of the printing, after being allowed by the court, shall be paid out of the treasury. (Code 1887, § 3476.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—Formerly, the clerk was required to print only twelve copies of the record, and counsel on each side were entitled to but two copies. The present section provides that twenty-five copies shall be printed, and that EACH OF counsel on each side shall be entitled to two copies. This change was made because the additional cost is insignificant, and apart from the fact that in many instances there are more than two of counsel on each side, it is often convenient for each of counsel to have two copies.

Sec. 6358. Clerks to advertise for bids for the printing.—The clerks of the Supreme Court of Appeals at Richmond, Staunton and Wytheville, respectively, shall, annually, in the month of June, solicit proposals by advertising in some newspaper published in their respective localities, for the printing, for one year, required by the preceding section to be done. (Code 1887 § 3477.)

Sec. 6359. What the bids to state.—The proposals shall state the amount per page of fifteen hundred ems, small pica type, and include the paper, printing, binding, and a neat cover, with the style of the case, and the court from which the record comes, neatly printed thereon. (Code 1887, § 3478.)

Sec. 6360. How the contracts awarded; the bond required; how cost of printing certified and paid.—The several clerks shall award the contracts for such printing to the lowest responsible bidders in their respective localities, and take from them bond, with ample surety, in a penalty equal to double the cost of the work to be executed, to be ascertained by the cost of the work of the preceding year, and with condition for the faithful performance of such contracts. The accounts for such printing shall be certified by the clerks respectively and paid out of the public treasury. (Code 1887, § 3479.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "and with condition for the faithful performance of such contracts" appearing in lines six and seven of the text are new.

Sec. 6361. How docket of causes ready for hearing made out; in what order cases heard.—Annually, before the Supreme Court of Appeals commences its session at Richmond, Wytheville, and Staunton, respectively, the clerk at each place shall make out a docket of the causes then ready for hearing. Those at each place shall be numbered by figures, and shall be docketed in the order in which the causes were matured, and be heard in the same order; except, that upon the docket at Wytheville and Staunton, the clerk shall docket

Digitized by Google

the cases from each circuit separately, in the order in which they may be matured. (Code 1887, § 3480.)

Sec. 6362. What cases heard out of turn.—The court may hear out of turn cases concerning the probate of a will, or the appointment or qualification of a personal representative, guardian, curator or committee, or concerning a mill, roadway, ferry, wharf, or landing, and any others which it may see good cause for so hearing. (Code 1887, § 3481.)

Sec. 6363. Rule of decision where the evidence (and not the facts) is certified.—When a case at law, civil or criminal, is tried by a jury and a party excepts to the judgment or action of the court in granting or refusing to grant a new trial on a motion to set aside the verdict of a jury on the ground that it is contrary to the evidence, or when a case at law is decided by a court or judge without the intervention of a jury and a party excepts to the decision on the ground that it is contrary to the evidence and the evidence (not the facts) is certified, the judgment of the trial court shall not be set aside unless it appears from the evidence that such judgment is plainly wrong or without evidence to support it. (Code 1887, § 3484; 1889-90, p. 36; 1891-2, p. 962.)

Revisors' Note.—As this section stood before the revision the latter part of it provided that "the rule of decision in the appellate court in considering the evidence in the case shall be as on a demurrer to the evidence by the appellant, except that when there have been two trials in the lower court, in which case the rule of decision shall be for the appellate court to look first to the evidence and proceedings on the first trial, and if it discovers that the court erred in setting aside the verdict on that trial it shall set aside and annul all proceedings subsequent to said verdict and enter judgment thereon." Under the present section "the judgment of the trial court shall not be set aside unless it appears from the evidence that such judgment is plainly wrong or without evidence to support it." The effect of this change is to abolish the rule of decision as on a demurrer to the evidence in such a case, and to substitute therefor a much simpler rule.

Under section 6251 if a verdict is set aside because contrary to the evidence or without evidence to support it, no new trial is ordered, but final judgment is entered by the trial court. There is no necessity, therefore, for retaining the provision about two trials in the lower court where the verdict has been set aside, for the reason stated, and it has been omitted.

Section 6251 is applicable to civil cases only. The above section (6363) expressly applies to civil and criminal cases. So far as the above section changes the law in criminal cases it is very limited in its operation. In the ordinary criminal case the trial court would have no power to grant a new trial at the instance of the Commonwealth, except in the case of a law relating to the State revenue. Section 8 of the Constitution provides that no man shall "be put twice in jeopardy for the same offense, but an appeal may be allowed to the Commonwealth in all prosecutions for the violation of a law relating to the State revenue." In matters affecting the State revenue, there may be more than one trial in the trial court. In such cases, as a writ of error would lie only to the final judgment of the trial court, the appellate court could consider only the evidence introduced on that trial, and would not set aside the verdict or judgment on that trial unless it was "plainly wrong or without evidence to support it." Attention is called to this so that counsel in the few cases of this nature will observe that they must not fail on the second trial to introduce the evidence of their defense just as had been done on the first trial. There will be so few cases of this kind that it was not deemed necessary to make special provision for them.

Digitized by Google

History of section.—Section 3484 of the Code of 1887 (corresponding to this section) was original with that Code, and was framed by the revisors to avoid the uncertainty and conflict of previous decisions on the subject.

In an address to the Bar Association (4 Va. Bar Asso. Rep. 1891, p. 146, 2 Barton, L. Pr. 1403, 1404), Judge E. C. Burks said: "Under the law as it stood at the time of revision, the question was constantly arising as to what should be the rule of decision in the appellate court in a case at law wherein the evidence, not the facts, was put into the record by a bill of exceptions in the court below. There seemed to be several rules as applied to different classes of cases. The precise state of the law, it is believed, is given in an article published in 9 Va. Law J. 257. It seemed to the revisors very desirable that there should be one uniform rule of decision in all the classes of cases, and it was determined that in considering the evidence the rule should be as on a demurrer to the evidence by the party excepting. It was supposed that this rule operated harshly on the excepting party where there had been two trials, and it was amended by the General Assembly in this particular."

The provisions of section 3484 of the Code of 1887 (corresponding to this section) were held to apply as well to appeals before Code went into effect as those arising since. Eastern Ice Co. v. King, 86 Va. 97, 9 S. E. 506; South West Imp. Co. v. Smith's Adm'r, 85 Va. 306, 7 S. E. 365, 17 Am. St. Rep. 59.

Present revision—Material changes.—The present revision makes material changes in the section, as will be seen from the section and revisors' note above.

Certificate of evidence or facts.—Since Code of 1887 went into effect, a case at law, heard by court or tried by jury, may be heard in appellate court either upon certificate of facts or of evidence. In either case court should certify facts when it can do so, but if it be unable to do so because evidence is conflicting it should certify evidence. W. U. Tel. Co. v. Powell, 94 Va. 276, 26 S. E. 828.

Where evidence and not facts is certified.—Where evidence is certified, and not facts proved, the case stands as on demurrer to appellee's evidence (but see revisors' note above), and verdict will not be disturbed where there is conflict of evidence. Cash's Case, 2 Va. Dec. 1, 20 S. E. 893; Robertson's Case, 1 Va. Dec. 851, 20 S. E. 362; Driver v. Hartman, 96 Va. 518, 31 S. E. 899; McDonald's Adm'r v. Norfolk & W. R. Co., 95 Va. 106, 27 S. E. 821; C. & O. R. R. v. Chambers, 95 Va. 507, 28 S. E. 872; Va., etc., Ins. Co. v. Goode, 95 Va. 768, 30 S. E. 370; note, 2 Va. Law Reg. 877; Gray's Case, 92 Va. 772, 22 S. E. 858; Nicholas' Case, 91 Va. 741, 21 S. E. 364; Blakey v. Morris, 89 Va. 717, 17 S. E. 126; Norwich Lock Mfg. Co. v. Hockaday, 89 Va. 557, 16 S. E. 877; Gaines' Case, 88 Va. 682, 14 S. E. 375; Muscoe's Case, 87 Va. 460, 12 S. E. 790; Eastern Ice Co. v. King, 86 Va. 97, 9 S. E. 506; Adams v. Hays, 86 Va. 153, 9 S. E. 1019; South West Imp. Co. v. Andrew, 86 Va. 270, 9 S. E. 1015; Wood's Case, 86 Va. 929, 11 S. E. 798; South West Imp. Co. v. Smith's Adm'r, 85 Va. 306, 7 S. E. 365, 17 Am. St. Rep. 59; Bernard v. Railroad, 85 Va. 792, 8 S. E. 785, 17 Am. St. Rep. 103; Riverside Cotton Mills v. Lanier, 102 Va. 148, 45 S. E. 875. And this was so in criminal cases. Gordon's Case, 100 Va. 825, 41 S. E. 746, 57 L. R. A. 744; Andrews v. Com., 100 Va. 801, 40 S. E. 935; Mills' Case,

Digitized by Google

93 Va. 815, 22 S. E. 863; Gravely's Case, 86 Va. 396, 10 S. E. 431; Gaines' Case, 88 Va. 682, 14 S. E. 375.

When the evidence (and not the facts) is certified, a plaintiff in error stands in this court as on demurrer to the evidence (but see revisors' note above), and if there was any evidence to support a verdict against him in the trial court, it will not be set aside. Johnston v. Geo. D. Witt Shoe Co., 103 Va. 613, 50 S. E. 153; Johnson v. Com., 104 Va. 881, 52 S. E. 625.

Where both fact and law are submitted to the court the rule in the appellate court is to give the judgment of the trial court upon the evidence the same effect as if it were the verdict of a jury. Hamman v. Miller, 116 Va. 873, 83 S. E. 382.

When a case at law is decided by the court, without a jury, and the judgment is excepted to, because contrary to the evidence, and the evidence and not the facts is certified, the rule of decision in the appellate court is to give the judgment of the trial court the same effect as the verdict of a jury. The judgment will not be disturbed, unless it is contrary to the evidence, or the evidence is plainly insufficient to support it. If the evidence is conflicting on material points, the judgment will be affirmed. Martin's Adm'r v. R. F. & P. R. Co., 101 Va. 406, 44 S. E. 695.

The mere fact that appellate court doubts correctness of verdict, or if on jury would have rendered different verdict, is not sufficient to warrant it in setting verdict aside. Kimball v. Friend's Adm'r, 95 Va 143, 27 S. E. 901. It must be plainly insufficient. Southern Ry. Co. v. Bryant's Adm'r, 95 Va. 215, 28 S. E. 183; Richardson v. Bank, 94 Va. 139, 26 S. E. 413.

Additional cases before present revision.—Tucker v. Com., 88 Va. 20, 13 S. E. 298; Bell's Case, 88 Va. 365, 13 S. E. 742; Lyles' Case, 88 Va. 396, 13 S. E. 802; N. & W. R. R. Co. v. Groseclose's Adm'r, 88 Va. 267, 13 S. E. 454, 29 Am. St. Rep. 713; Va., etc., Co. v. Buck, 88 Va. 517, 13 S. E. 973; Richmond & D. R. Co. v. Burnett, 88 Va. 538, 14 S. E. 372; Boulware v. Jewett, 87 Va. 253, 12 S. E. 403.

Distinction between granting and refusing new trial.—Verdict of a jury which has been approved by trial judge ought not to be set aside save for strongest reasons. But if he is dissatisfied with verdict, and grants new trial, some latitude must be allowed for his discretion, especially where verdict on new trial is for party on whose motion first verdict was set aside. In setting aside verdict trial court must to some extent pass on evidence, and a stronger case must be made to justify appellate court in disturbing order granting a new trial than one refusing it, because refusal operates as final adjudication, while new trial simply invites further investigation. Chapman v. Virginia Real Estate Inv. Co., 96 Va. 177, 31 S. E. 74; Patteson v. Ford, 2 Grat. 19; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 723.

Where part of facts and part of evidence certified.—Where on appeal proof consists of certificate of facts as to part and certificate of evidence as to residue, the rule is to consider the facts as certified and the evidence as on demurrer New York, etc., R. R. v. Thomas, 92 Va. 606, 24 S. E. 264. But see revisors' note above.

When all evidence is not certified.—Where all the evidence is not certified, appellate court will presume that there was some testimony not set out which justified verdict, especially where it is approved by trial judge. Adams v. Hays, 86 Va. 153, 9 S. E. 1019; McArter v. Grigsby, 84 Va. 159, 4 S. E. 369.

Where there have been two trials—Cases relating to this provision of the section as it stood before the present revision.—Barnes v. Morrison, 97 Va. 373, 34 S. E. 93; Patteson v. Railroad, 94 Va. 17, 26 S. E. 393; Hudgins v. Simon, 94 Va. 661, 27 S. E. 606; Stearns v. City of Richmond, 88 Va. 992, 14 S. E. 847, 29 Am. St. Rep. 758; Humphreys' Adm'x v. Valley R. Co., 100 Va. 749, 42 S. E. 882; Cohen v. Bellenot, 2 Va. Dec. 639, 32 S. E. 455; Eastern Ice Co. v. King, 86 Va. 97, 9 S. E. 506;

Digitized by Google

Mears v. Dexter, 86 Va. 828, 11 S. E. 538; Northington v. Norfolk Ry. & Light Co., 102 Va. 446, 46 S. E. 475; Humphreys' Adm'x v. Valley R. Co., 100 Va. 749, 42 S. E. 882; Cohen v. Bellenot, 2 Va. Dec. 639, 32 S. E. 455; Tucker v. Sandidge, 85 Va. 546, 8 S. E. 650; Eastern Ice Co. v. King, 86 Va. 97, 9 S. E. 506; Chapman v. Virginia Real Estate Inv. Co., 96 Va. 177, 31 S. E. 74; Reichenstein v. Va. Ry. & P. Co., 115 Va. 862, 80 S. E. 564; Chesapeake & O. Ry. Co. v. Parker, 116 Va. 368, 82 S. E. 183; Cardwell v. Norfolk & W. R. Co., 114 Va. 500, 77 S. E. 612; Stevinson v. Levinson, 103 Va. 591, 49 S. E. 974.

List of cases upon subject of this section prior to Code of 1887.—Dillard v. Dunlop, 83 Va. 755, 3 S. E. 383; Magarity v. Shipman, 82 Va. 806, 7 S. E. 381; Virginia Min. & Imp. Co. v. Hoover, 82 Va. 449, 4 S. E. 689; Hartman v. Strickler, 82 Va. 225; Pruner's Case, 82 Va. 115; Weaver v. Bliven, 82 Va. 53; Muse v. Stern, 82 Va. 33. 3 Am. St. Rep. 77; Moses v. Nail Works, 82 Va. 19; Hollingsworth v. Sherman, 81 Va. 668; Payne v. Grant, Id. 164; Benn v. Hatcher, 81 Va. 25, 59 Am. Rep. 645; Baltimore & O. R. Co. v. McKenzie, 81 Va. 72; Farley v. Tillar, Id. 275; Valley Mut. Life Ass'n v. Teewalt, 79 Va. 428; Snouffer's Adm'r v. Hansbrough, Id. 166; Proctor v. Spratley, 78 Va. 254; Taylor's Case, 77 Va. 692; Powell v. Tarry's Adm'r, Id. 250; Brighthope Ry. Co. v. Rogers, 76 Va. 443; Brown v. Rice's Adm'r. Id. 629; Creekmur v. Creekmur, 75 Va. 430; Harman v. City of Lynchburg, 33 Grat. 43; Baccigalupo's Case, 33 Grat. 807, 36 Am. Rep. 795; Terry v. Ragsdale, 33 Grat. 342; Dean's Case, 32 Grat. 912; Danville Bank v Waddill's Adm'r, 31 Grat. 469; Backhouse's Ex'x v. Selden, 29 Grat. 581; Pryor's Case, 27 Grat. 1009; Stoneman's Case, 25 Grat. 887; Read's Case, 22 Grat. 924; Hodge's Ex'r v. Bank, Id. 51; Caldwell v. Craig, 21 Grat. 132; Blosser v. Harshbarger, Id. 215; Tyler v. Taylor, Id. 700; Mitchell v. Baratta, 17 Grat. 445; Wickham v. Martin, 13 Grat. 427; Pryor v. Kuhn, 12 Grat. 615; Grayson's Case, 6 Grat. 712; Taliaferro v. Franklin, 1 Grat. 332; Brooks v. Calloway, 12 Leigh 466; Dudleys v. Dudleys, 3 Leigh 436.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 171; 9 Va. Law J. 257.

Sec. 6364. What evidence may be considered in the appellate courts.—Any evidence in the record may be considered by the appellate courts, if certified in any bill of exception, as though certified in each. (1901, p. 286.)

Sec. 6365. Decision of appellate court.—The appellate court shall affirm the judgment, decree, or order if there be no error therein, and reverse the same, in whole or in part, if erroneous, and enter such judgment, decree, or order as to the court shall seem right and proper and shall render final judgment upon the merits whenever, in the opinion of the court, the facts before it are such as to enable the court to attain the ends of justice. A civil case shall not be remanded for a trial de novo except where the ends of justice require it, but the appellate court shall, in the order remanding the case, if it be remanded, designate upon what questions or points a new trial is to be had.

The assent of at least three of the judges shall be required for the court to determine that any law is or is not repugnant to the Constitution of this State or of the United States; and if, in a case involving the constitutionality of any such law, not more than two of the judges sitting agree in opinion on the constitutional question involved, and the case cannot be determined without passing on such question, no decision shall be rendered therein, but the case shall be reheard by a full court; and in no case where the jurisdiction of the court depends solely upon the fact that the constitutionality of a law is involved shall the court decide the case upon its merits, unless the contention of the appellant upon the constitutional question be sustained. Whenever the requisite majority of the judges sitting are unable to agree upon a decision, the case shall be reheard by a full bench, and any vacancy caused by any one or more of the judges being unable, unwilling, or disqualified to sit shall be temporarily filled in the manner prescribed by law. (Code 1887, § 3485; 1902-3-4, p. 781.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section as it stood before the revision provided that the appellate court should enter such judgment, decree, or order "as the court whose error is sought to be corrected ought to have entered." The revised section makes a material change, and in lieu of the quoted language enacts that the appellate court shall enter such judgment, decree, or order "as to the court shall seem right and proper and shall render final judgment upon the merits wherever, in the opinion of the court, the facts before it are such as to enable the court to attain the ends of justice." The provision (applicable to civil cases only) relating to the designation of questions or points upon which a new trial is to be had instead of remanding the case for a trial de novo is also new. The object of these changes is apparent, namely, to extend the power of the appellate court over the cases before it, and to enable the court to end the litigation as far as practicable consistent with the demands of justice. See Preface, ante, p. xii.

Number of judges necessary for decision—Constitutional questions.—In Funkhouser v. Spahr, 102 Va. 306, 46 S. E. 376, 9 Va. L. Reg. 954, it was held that the assent of at least three of the judges was required by section 88 of the Constitution only when it was necessary to determine whether a law was unconstitutional, and that in cases not involving a constitutional question, section 3485 of the Code of 1887 applied, which required the court to affirm "where the voices on both sides are equal." This case was decided before the amendment of said section 3485 by Acts 1902-3-4, p. 781, went into effect, by which amendment the words "affirming in those cases where the voices on both sides are equal" were stricken out, and changes made to make the section conform to section 88 of the Constitution. The words quoted do not appear in the section as it now reads. The law was not changed, however, by the striking out of these words by the amendment of 1902-3-4, because they were merely declaratory of the law independently of statute, and under the law as it now stands, the assent of at least three of the judges is required only in cases involving the constitutionality of a law. In other cases, if the voices on both sides be equal, the judgment of the lower court will be affirmed. Charlottesville R. Co. v. Rubin, 107 Va. 751, 60 S. E. 101. See, also, 9 Va. L. Reg. 826; 13 Va. L. Reg. 810.

Judgment of appellate court.—Formerly, if the judgment of the lower court was plainly erroneous the appellate court would reverse the same and enter such judgment as the lower court should have entered. Harman v. Stearns, 95 Va. 72, 27 S. E. 601; Knifong v. Hendricks, 2 Gratt. 212, 44 Am. Dec. 385. See, also, Flemings v. Riddick's Ex., 5 Grat. 272, 50 Am. Dec. 119; Metropolitan Life Ins. Co. v. Rutherford, 2 Va. Dec. 707, 35 S. E. 719; N. & W. R. Co. v. Dunnaway's Adm'r, 93 Va. 29, 24 S. E. 698; Baker v. Butterworth, 119 Va. 402, 89 S. E. 849. The changes made by the present section are pointed out in the revisors' note above.

Where decree otherwise proper erroneously charges executor with compound interest, it will be reversed to that extent. Chapman's Adm'rs v. Shepherd's Adm'r, 24 Grat. 377.

Digitized by Google

Where a case is heard by the trial court, without the intervention of a jury, the Supreme Court of Appeals on reversing the judgment of the trial court, will enter up judgment for the adverse party. Danville v. Danville Ry. Co., 114 Va. 382, 76 S. E. 913.

For the rule of decision in Supreme Court of Appeals where the defendant objects to evidence which is improperly admitted and afterwards demurs to the evidence, which demurrer should have been sustained, see Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Warden, 117 Va. 801, 86 S. E. 103.

In reversing a judgment for the plaintiff because there was no evidence to support the verdict upon which the judgment was entered, where the appellate court can see that no new trial could avail the plaintiff anything, it will enter judgment dismissing the plaintiff's action. Conn. Fire Ins. Co. v. Roberts, 119 Va. 479, 89 S. E. 945.

Where the appellate court finds reversible error in a case consisting of a peremptory instruction relating to interest which took away the discretion given the jury by section 6259, under which instruction the jury found interest for the plaintiff from the time his demand accrued to the date of the verdict, the appellate court may direct that the judgment shall stand affirmed if the interest be relinquished by the plaintiff. Wash. & O. D. Ry. v. Westinghouse Co., 120 Va. 620, 89 S. E. 131, 91 S. E. 646. See Buena Vista Co. v. McCandlish, 92 Va. 306, 23 S. E. 781; Moreland v. Moreland, 108 Va. 107, 60 S. E. 730; revisors' note above. The present section greatly increases the power of the appellate court.

Record certified from wrong court.—Where record on appeal is certified by clerk of court from which cause has been removed instead of clerk of court to which it has been removed, the court must dismiss appeal, because, although decree appealed from was entered by court from which removed, judgment of this court would have to be certified under this section to clerk of court in which it is to be entered, and as the cause is no longer in court from which it has been removed there would be nothing upon which such judgment could operate. Smith v. Pyrites Mining & Chemical Co., 100 Va. 294, 43 S. E. 564.

Rule as to liens.—Where decree is reversed in part and affirmed as to residue, such reversal does not destroy lien of so much as is affirmed. Shepherd's Adm'r v. Chapman's Adm'r, 83 Va. 215, 2 S. E. 273; Magill v. Sauer, 20 Grat. 540; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 295, and note; Id. Section 315.

Where there is decree against administrator and sureties, and on appeal by plaintiffs decree is reversed, and administrator is held liable for larger amount than was decreed against him, and it is also reversed in favor of purchaser of land from administrator, whilst appellate court reverses decree so far as erroneous, it will affirm it so as to continue the lien of the decree for the security pro tanto of the amounts which may be found due by parties respectively against whom decree was rendered. Moss v. Moorman's Adm'r, 24 Grat. 97.

Generally.—Where money awarded by decree is collected by plaintiff's attorneys from a party who did not appeal therefrom, and subsequently it was, on appeal of another defendant thereto, reversed as to all parties affected thereby, action will not lie against attorneys to recover money disbursed by them under orders from client before reversal, as there is no privity between defendant and attorneys. Green v. Brengle, 84 Va. 913, 6 S. E. 603.

Cited in Bristol Belt Line Ry. Co. v. Bullock Electric Mfg. Co., 101 Va. 652, 44 S. E. 892; Roanoke v. Blair, 107 Va. 639, 60 S. E. 75.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 735, 768.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 135, section 22.

Sec. 6366. What damages awarded appellee.—When any judgment, decree, or order is affirmed, damages shall be awarded to the appellee; such damages, when the judgment, decree, or order, is for the payment of money, shall be the interest to which the parties are legally entitled in the cause, (to be computed upon the whole amount of the recovery, including interest and costs), from the time the appeal, writ of error, or supersedeas took effect, until the affirmance, or if the affirmance be by the Supreme Court of Appeals, until a copy of its decision is entered in the order book of the court below, which damages shall be in satisfaction of all interest during that time. When the judgment, decree, or order is not for the payment of any money, except costs, the damages shall be such specific sum as the appellate court may deem reasonable, not being more than one hundred dollars, nor, in the Supreme Court of Appeals, less than thirty dollars. (Code 1887 § 3486.)

Digitized by Google

Where statute provided that where injunction was obtained to stay proceedings on judgment for money, and such injunction was dissolved, damages shall be awarded at rate of 10 per centum from time injunction was awarded until dissolved, the damages are to be computed from time of awarding injunction until its ultimate dissolution by order of Court of Appeals affirming dissolution of lower court. Jeter v. Langhorne, 5 Grat. 193.

On appeal from judgment for money which was a lien on land, if judgment is affirmed damages and costs on appeal become a part of lien on land. McClung v. Beirne, 10 Leigh, 400, 34 Am. Dec. 739.

See, also, Hudson v. Ross, 1 Wash. 74.

Cited but not construed in Seaboard R. Co. v. Vaughan, 104 Va. 113, 51 S. E. 452.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 135, section 27.

Sec. 6367. When clerk of Court of Appeals to transmit its decisions.—When any term of the Supreme Court of Appeals is ended, or sooner, if the court so direct, the clerk thereof shall certify, and by mail or otherwise transmit its decision to the clerk of the court below or State Corporation Commission, as the case may be, except that it shall not be his duty to certify or transmit a copy of a decree or judgment of affirmance unless the appellee or defendant in error shall have paid all fees due from him in the case, or shall endorse on such copy so much of the decree or judgment, for the benefit of the clerk, as the unpaid fees shall amount to. If any clerk fail to comply with this section for twenty days, except as aforesaid, he shall forfeit fifty dollars to any person aggrieved thereby. (Code 1887, § 3488; 1902-3-4, p. 781.)

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 135, section 28.

Sec. 6368. Postage to be paid by him, and repaid out of treasury.—On all decisions so transmitted by mail, the clerk shall pay the postage. His accounts for such postage, verified by oath, may, from time to time, at intervals not exceeding eighteen months, be certified by the Supreme Court of Appeals to the Auditor of Public Accounts for payment out of the treasury. (Code 1887, § 3489.)

Sec. 6369. How decision of Court of Appeals entered in court or State Corporation Commission from which cause came; issue of execution thereon, etc.—The court and the State Corporation Commission from which any case may have come to the Supreme Court of Appeals shall enter the decision of the appellate court as its own, and execution or other appropriate process may issue thereon accordingly. When that decision is received by the clerk of the court or tribunal below, he shall enter it of record in his order book, and thereupon such execution may issue and such proceedings be had in the case as would have been proper if the decision had been entered in court. (Code 1887, § 3490; 1902-3-4, p. 782.)

Digitized by Google

Finality of judgment.—A question that has once been decided on first appeal in any cause cannot be reviewed or reversed upon any subsequent appeal in the same case. Cobbs v. Gilchrist's Adm'r, 80 Va. 503; Stuart v. Preston, Id. 625; McCormick's Ex'rs v. Wright's Ex'rs. 79 Va. 524; N. Y. L. Ins. Co. v. Clemmitt, 77 Va. 366; Frazier v. Frazier, Id. 775; Bank v. McVeigh, 29 Grat. 546; Holleran v. Meisel, 91 Va. 143, 21 S. E. 658; Norfolk & W. R. Co. v. Mills, 91 Va. 613, 22 S. E. 556; Turner's Adm'r v. Staples, 86 Va. 300, 9 S. E. 1123; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1091; Campbell's Ex'rs v. Campbell's Ex'r, 22 Grat. 649; Alexandria Sav. Inst. v. McVeigh, 84 Va. 48, 3 S. E. 885; Beecher v. Lewis, 84 Va. 630, 6 S. E. 367; 2 Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1262, and note; Carter v. Hough, 89 Va. 503, 16 S. E. 665.

Rule that decision on first appeal is irreversible holds even in case where judges are equally divided. Chahoon's Case, 21 Grat. 822.

The court of chancery cannot correct on motion or by bill of review any error apparent on face of proceedings in a decree which has been confirmed by Court of Appeals. Price v. Campbell, 5 Call 115.

Where decree has been confirmed by this court on appeal it becomes res adjudicata, and no error in it can be corrected on rehearing in court below. Lore v. Hash, 89 Va. 277, 15 S. E. 549; Woodson's Ex'r v. Leyburn, 83 Va. 847, 3 S. E. 873.

Where an instruction given or verdict rendered at trial below is on appeal pronounced erroneous, it is improper at subsequent trial, evidence being same, to give same instruction or to enter up judgment on same verdict. Smith v. Sydner, 82 Va. 614.

The court of chancery cannot upon the same facts alter decree of Court of Appeals. Price v. Campbell, 5 Call 115; White v. Atkinson, 2 Call 376.

After the Court of Appeals has passed upon a case, and remanded it for new trial upon general issue, a demurrer to declaration or plea in abatement, upon the ground that the Christian names of the respective parties are not mentioned therein, ought not to be received. Lanier v. Cocke, 6 Munf. 580; Murdock v. Herndon's Ex'rs, 4 Hen. & M. 200.

When Court of Appeals decides a cause and sends it back for further proceedings, there cannot be a bill of review to correct decree of Court of Appeals for errors apparent on face of record, but there may be such bill to correct decree on ground of after-discovered evidence. In such a case the greatest caution should be observed, and new matter to be sufficient ground for rehearing, ought to be very material, newly discovered, unknown to party seeking relief at time the decree was rendered, and such as could not have been discovered by reasonable diligence. Campbell's Ex'rs v. Campbell's Ex'r, 22 Grat. 649; Connolly v. Connolly, 32 Grat. 661; Reynolds v. Reynolds' Ex'r, 88 Va. 152, 13 S. E. 395, 598.

Although upon second appeal question decided by first opinion cannot be raised, and such decision is final not only as to decree appealed from but also as to all prior orders in cause between appellants and appellees, yet the rule does not apply where a different question arises or same question arises between different parties Frazier v. Frazier, 77 Va. 775.

Matters once determined on appeal to this court cannot be reopened, and this is true whether those matters were actually adjudicated or not.

Digitized by Google

If they could have been adjudicated therein, they are equally settled. Carter v. Hough, 89 Va. 503, 16 S. E. 665; Diehl v. Marchant, 87 Va. 447, 12 S. E. 803; Effinger v. Kenney, 79 Va. 551; Findlay v. Trigg's Adm'r, 83 Va. 539, 3 S. E. 142; Burton v. Brown's Ex'rs, 22 Grat. 1; Hawthorne v. Beckwith, 89 Va. 786, 17 S. E. 241; McCullough v. Dashiell, 85 Va. 37, 6 S. E. 610; Krise v. Ryan, 90 Va. 711, 19 S. E. 783; Rosenbaum's Ex'rs v. Seddon, 94 Va. 575, 27 S. E. 425.

If proceeding on a judgment at law be enjoined by a court of chancery, and the injunction be afterwards dissolved, and on appeal the order of dissolution is affirmed in omnibus, an execution may be sued out on the judgment at law before decree of affirmance is entered up in chancery court. Epes' Adm'rs v. Dudley, 4 Leigh 145.

See, also, notes to section 6365.

Sec. 6370. Order books, dockets, etc., of district courts, to remain in custody of clerks of Court of Appeals; their duties in respect thereto; how printed and manuscript orders disposed of, etc.—The order books, dockets, and other office books belonging to the several district courts, shall remain in the custody of the clerks of the Supreme Court of Appeals at the places of session, respectively, having jurisdiction over the counties, or a majority of them, over which the said district courts respectively had jurisdiction. The said clerks shall furnish transcripts of the records and proceedings of the said district courts when required, and perform all other duties in respect to records and proceedings of the said district courts as might have been performed by the clerks of the said district courts if the said courts had continued to exist. All printed and manuscript orders, and other papers pertaining to cases decided in the said district courts, shall remain in the custody of the clerks of the circuit courts at the several places where the said district courts held their sessions, who shall be charged with the same duties in respect to said records and papers as might have been performed by the clerks of the said district courts respectively, if said courts had continued to exist, and who shall receive for any such service fees similar to those charged by the clerks of district courts for such services. (Code 1887, § 3491.)

Sec. 6371. Court of Appeals to direct the clerk of the court to destroy manuscript records in cases where the records are printed; binding of records with briefs of counsel.—The Supreme Court of Appeals may, whenever in its opinion it shall be necessary to relieve the clerk's office, direct its clerk to destroy the manuscript of records in cases where the records have been printed, and which have been decided for two years. The clerk of the said court shall, as soon as the case is decided, cause the record in the case to be bound, along with the briefs of counsel, in the same manner that Acts of Assembly are bound; and the clerk of the said court shall, when he collects the writ tax in each case, collect of the appellant, or plaintiff in error, as the case may be, a fee of fifty cents to pay the cost of such binding. (1902-3-4, p. 84.)

Sec. 6372. When Court of Appeals may rehear and review case decided by it; when application therefor to be made; where rehearing, etc., to take place; where decision entered.—The Supreme Court of Appeals on the application of a party shall rehear and review any case decided by the said court if one of the judges who decides the case adversely to the applicant certifies that in his opinion there is good cause for such rehearing. If the case was decided within the last fifteen days of the term the application shall be made before the end of the said term or within fifteen days after the commencement of the next term, wherever held. In all other cases the application shall be made during the term at which the decision was made and within fifteen days after the entry of the judgment. Such rehearing and review may be at any place of session, and the judgment, decree, or order made thereon shall be entered on the order book where it is made, and if not made at the place of session where the case was pending at the time it was originally determined, it shall be certified to the clerk of the court at the place of session where the case was originally pending as aforesaid, who shall forthwith enter the same on his order book and transmit a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the court below to be by him entered as provided by section sixty-three hundred and sixty-nine. (Code 1887, § 3492; 1887-8, p. 17.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—Formerly, the third sentence of this section read as follows: "In all other cases the application shall be made within such time during the term at which the decision was made and under such rules and regulations as the court may prescribe." Under the revised section the application in such cases must be made "during the term at which the decision was made and within fifteen days after the entry of the judgment."

Neither bills of review nor petitions for rehearing lie for assignees. Armstead v. Bailey, 83 Va. 242, 2 S. E. 38.

A case decided at one term of court, at which no motion is made to rehear it, cannot be reheard at subsequent term. Griffin's Ex'r v. Cunningham, 20 Grat. 31. But see terms of above statute.

Where leave was reserved to file additional briefs until a certain date, and such briefs were not so filed, where case has been decided after that date a petition to rehear will not be granted. Nicholas v. Nicholas, 100 Va. 665, 42 S. E. 669, 866.

See Burks' Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1404.

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 268.

General Provisions as to Civil Cases.

Sec.
6373. Provisions under this title, rules for all courts.
6374. How jurisdiction determined, where proceeding is on a penal bond.
6375. Who may execute bond for obtaining a writ or order.
6376. How proceedings may be in cases pending when Code takes effect.
6377. Where judgment for specific personal property affirmed, or injunction to such judgment dissolved, damages may be given for detention of property; how party entitled to damages to proceed.

Sec. 6373. Provisions under this title, rules for all courts.—All things contained in any chapter under this title, not restricted by their nature, or by express provision, to a particular court, shall be the rules of decision and proceeding in all courts within this State. (Code 1887, § 3493.)

A demurrer to a bill in equity in the form prescribed by section 30, chapter 171, Code 1860 (same as section 6115), is good under section 1, chapter 183 (same as this section). Jones' Ex'rs v. Clark, 25 Grat. 642.

Sec. 6374. How jurisdiction determined, where proceeding is on a penal bond.—Where the proceeding before a court or justice is on a penal bond, with condition for the payment of money, the jurisdiction shall be determined as if the undertaking to pay such money had been without a penalty. And where jurisdiction depends on the amount of a judgment, if it be on such bond, the jurisdiction shall be determined by the sum, payment whereof will discharge the judgment. (Code 1887, § 3494.)

This section changes the rule in Heath v. Blaker, 2 Va. Cas. 215, and Newell v. Wood, 1 Munf. 555.

The claim that a bond sued on does not constitute a contract, but simply provides for a penalty, is unavailing to oust a court of equity of jurisdiction in view of the provisions of this section. Kabler v. Spencer, 114 Va. 589, 77 S. E. 504.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 137, section 1.

Sec. 6375. Who may execute bond for obtaining a writ or order.—A bond for obtaining any writ or order, in term or vacation, may be executed by any person with sufficient surety, though neither be a party to the case. (Code 1887, § 3495.)

See notes to section 6414.

Sec. 6376. How proceedings may be in cases pending when Code takes effect.—In any case pending at the time this Code takes effect, for a cause which arose theretofore, the proceedings, so far as it may not be practicable for them to conform to the other sections of this Code, may be according to the laws in force on the day before it takes effect. (Code 1887, § 3496.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6377. Where judgment for specific personal property affirmed, or injunction to such judgment dissolved, damages may be given for detention of property; how party entitled to damages to proceed.—When a judgment for specific personal property is affirmed by an appellate court, or an injunction to such judgment is dissolved, the person who is entitled to execution of such judgment, or who would be entitled if execution had not been had, may, on motion to the court from which such execution has issued, or might issue, after fifteen days' notice to the defendant or his personal representative, have a jury impaneled to ascertain the damages sustained by reason of the detention of such property, subsequent to such judgment, or if it was on a verdict, subsequent to such verdict; and judgment shall be rendered for the damages, if any, so ascertained. (Code 1887, § 3497.)

Revisors' Note.—The notice has been reduced from four weeks to fifteen days. This change conforms to the time in which a judgment may be had under section 6046, and more nearly approaches the time within which an action may be matured at rules.

Digitized by Google

TITLE 61.

Attachments; Mechanics' and Other Liens; Judgments and Executions.

Ch. 269. Attachments, and bail in civil cases.
270. Mechanics' and other liens.
271. Enforcing decrees and orders; docketing judgments and other liens of the like nature; the effect of such liens; and the limitation of proceedings on judgments.
272. Executions, and the means of enforcing recoveries of money otherwise than by such writ.
273. Forthcoming bonds.

CHAPTER 269.

Attachments,* and Bail in Civil Cases.

Sec.
6378. Who may sue out an attachment.
6379. Grounds of attachment.
6380. Courts having jurisdiction of attachment; practice and procedure therein.
6381. Venue of attachments.
6382. Pleadings in attachment.
6383. Petition for attachment; what to state; must be sworn to; who may be made defendants.
6384. When plaintiff gives the required bond, officer to take possession of the property.
6385. Bond required of plaintiff when defendant makes affidavit of substantial defense; effect of failure to give bond.
6386. Issuance of attachment; against what attachment to issue.

*Revisors' Note.—In the revision of this chapter it was thought best to retain in the main the body of the law as we then had it, but as far as possible to simplify the procedure. The former method was entirely too complicated. In some instances the attachment was an original proceeding. In most cases it was purely ancillary. Sometimes the proceeding was at law only; at others in equity only. In most cases the jurisdiction at law and in equity was concurrent. Sometimes the proceeding was inaugurated before a justice or clerk; sometimes before a justice only. It was this complication of procedure that gave rise to trouble and criticism in Virginia, and it seemed wise to adopt a single simpler method of procedure, except in the case of rent, which, for obvious reasons, ought not necessarily be confined to the procedure given in attachments in other cases.

After careful consideration of the subject, it was believed that the procedure should be original and not merely ancillary either to a proceeding at law or in equity, and that provision should be made in case service could be had upon the principal defendant for a personal judgment against him, even if the attachment failed. The procedure now adopted

Digitized by Google

Sec.
6387. To whom attachments may be directed; where returned.
6388. Issue of other attachments on the original petition.
6389. What attachment to be levied on and by whom; defendants to be summoned to answer.
6390. How attachment levied.
6391. Return by officer.
6392. Issue and execution of attachment on a Sunday.
6393. Lien of attachment.
6394. How any property seized under attachment restored; how the whole released; what bond to be given.
6395. Where bond returned and filed; exceptions to bond.
6396. How interest and profits of property applied in certain cases.
6397. How property to be kept; how sold, when expensive to keep or perishable.
6398. Proceedings against defendant for debts, etc., admitted to be due; when debtor may claim exemption out of amount due.
6399. If a defendant indebted to, or having effects of the principal defendant fail to appear, what court may do.
6400. When plaintiff suggests that a defendant has not fully disclosed the debts owing by him, etc., how court to ascertain same.
6401. When attachment not served other attachments to issue; when order of publication to be made.
6402. Who may make defense to attachments.
6403. What defense may be made to attachments.
6404. When attachment to be dismissed; when cause to be retained and proceeded to judgment.

---

is in the nature of code practice. There is neither formal action at law nor bill in equity, but the whole procedure is made statutory. It is in the nature of a proceeding at law, but with equity powers wherever necessary to attain the ends of justice. The procedure is made uniform in all cases except in case of rent. It is to be inaugurated by a simple petition to be filed before a justice or the clerk. As it is purely statutory, of course it is necessary to fix the jurisdiction of the courts with reference to attachments, and also the venue of attachments. As the procedure described is more legal than equitable, it is provided (section 6380) that the practice and procedure shall be, as near as may be, the same as in actions at law, so that the profession will understand, in preparing a case for the appellate court, as well as in the trial court, that they will proceed as at law. The pleadings are of the simplest kind—simply a petition by the plaintiff, and a demurrer by the defendant, or statement of his grounds of defense. Garnishees and persons having possession of the property which is sought to be attached are to be made defendants. Their grounds of defense having been stated in writing, no replication is required. As the remedy is a harsh one, defendants are protected by requiring a bond of the plaintiff within a very short time, whenever the defendant makes affidavit that he has a defense to the merits. (Section 6385.)

One of the important changes made in the revision is the abolition of a formal affidavit, which has been probably the source of more litigation than anything else in connection with attachments. The present statute simply provides that the plaintiff shall set out his claim in a petition, and that the petition shall be sworn to. This had been approved by our Court of Appeals as a substitute for an affidavit in Sims v. Tyrer, 96 Va. 5, 26 S. E. 508, and the change seemed to be a desirable

Digitized by Google

Sec.
6405. Judgment, etc., of court when claim of plaintiff established; real estate to be sold last; sale thereof under attachment at law.
6406. When plaintiff not to have benefit of the preceding section until he gives bond.
6407. How and when claims of other persons to the property tried.
6408. Levy of attachment on effects, etc., of defendant in hands of officer under process; lien thereof.
6409. Amendments.
6410. Attachments in connection with pending suits or actions.
6411. When and how debtor may have case reheard; protection of purchaser.
6412. Order of court on rehearing or new trial; restitution to defendant.
6413. When appeal-bond given, property to be delivered to owner.
6414. Bonds may be given by any person.
6415. How attachment for claim not exceeding twenty dollars obtained from and proceeded in before a justice; the proceeding when levied on real estate.
6416. Against tenant removing his effects from leased premises.
6417. Where an attachment for rent for twenty dollars or more returnable.
6418. Where attachments for rent for less than twenty dollars returnable, and how proceeded in.
6419. When and how bail required of defendant leaving the State; form of writ.
6420. Plaintiff to give bond before suing out capias.
6421. His arrest and commitment unless bond given; its condition.
6422. Who may take it; where filed.
6423. When and how capias quashed, and defendant discharged.
6424. When plaintiff may file interrogatories; if not filed court may discharge defendant.
6425. To whom conveyance to be made; what to be returned to court; disposition of the property.

one. We eliminate mere words about which there has been litigation, as, for instance, "that there is present cause of action therefor"; "that the plaintiff's claim is justly due," etc., all these matters being covered by the petition, showing whether or not the claim is due, and, if not due, when it will become due.

Section 2961 of the former Code gave an attachment at law where the claim was not due against a defendant removing his effects out of the State. The ground of attachment was substantially the same—indeed, almost word for word, with the third ground of attachment stated in the present section 6379. Under the new statute, as the right to sue out the attachment is given whether the claim is payable or not, section 2961 of the former Code was rendered useless and unnecessary, and hence has been omitted.

Under the former law there could be no attachment at law except under 2961 (Code 1887) unless the claim was due, and there could be no attachment in equity under section 2964 (Code 1887) where the claim was for a tort. These distinctions have been eliminated, and the first section of the new law provides that attachments may be sued out whether the claim is legal or equitable, and whether the debt be payable or not, and is given for damages for a wrong as well as for breach of contract.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6378. Who may sue out an attachment.—If any persor have a claim, legal or equitable, to any specific personal property or a like claim to any debt, whether such debt be due and payable or not, or to damages for breach of any contract, express or implied, or to damages for a wrong, and such claim exceed twenty dollars, exclusive of interest, he may sue out an attachment therefor on any one or more of the grounds stated in the following section, except that if the claim be for a debt not due and payable, no attachment shall be sued out, where the only ground for the attachment is that the defendant or one of the defendants against whom the claim is, is a foreign corporation, or is not a resident of this State and has estate or debts owing to the said defendant within this State. (Code 1887, §§ 2959, 2964; 1891-2, p. 520.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from sections 2959 and 2964 of the Code of 1887 without material change. See revisors' note at the beginning of this chapter.

A guarantor of a debt may maintain a foreign attachment against his principal before he has paid the debt. Moore v. Holt, 10 Grat. 284.

In a suit by foreign attachment to subject property of a non-resident, it must be shown that the debt on which the proceeding is based is such a one as comes within the meaning of the statute authorizing attachments, and not merely such a one as might be established by a suit for the specific performance of a contract out of which, if enforced, the debt would arise. Barksdale v. Hendree, 2 Pat. & H. 43.

A creditor residing in Maryland was allowed to sue out an attachment in chancery in Virginia against his debtor residing also in Maryland and others residing in Virginia indebted to or having in their hands effects of such debtor. Williamson v. Bowie, 6 Munf. 176.

Foreign attachment in equity lay against corporation of another

---

All of these cases were provided for by various sections in the old law, but the method of procedure was different. Sometimes, as for instance where it was for a tort, the proceeding was at law; if the claim was not due and any ground except the third paragraph of section 2959 of the Code of 1887 was the ground of attachment, the proceeding was in equity. If the claim was not due, and the ground of attachment was that mentioned in clause 3 of said section 2959, the proceeding was before a justice, and the profession was kept in a perfect turmoil where to go for these various cases, and no man dared attempt to sue out an attachment without the statute and some approved forms before him. The suing out of an attachment was rendered hazardous in the extreme. All of these cases are now provided for in section 6378 of the new law, and a very simple procedure is given.

Amendments.—Under the former Code, no provision was made for any amendments whatever, and where an affidavit was made by the secretary-treasurer of a corporation the court refused to remand the case to give the plaintiff an opportunity to show that the secretary-treasurer was an agent of the corporation, having held that he was not so ex-officio. Taylor v. Sutherlin-Meade Co., 107 Va. 787, 60 S. E.. 132. It seemed that the plaintiff in an attachment is entitled to a fair hearing on the substantial merits of his case as well as any other litigant, and hence that reasonable amendments should be allowed; that an attachment should never be dismissed for mere formal defects, and even for substantial defects it ought not to be dismissed as against the principal de-

Digitized by Google

State in favor of the corporation of another State. Bank of U. S. v. Merchants' Bank, 1 Rob. 573 (2d Ed.) 605.

A creditor at large could maintain a suit in equity in the nature of a foreign attachment to set aside a fraudulent deed conveying real estate made by his debtor, both debtor and his grantee living and being out of the Commonwealth. Peay v. Morrison's Ex'rs, 10 Grat. 149.

Under the present chapter, the proceeding is an original proceeding, and distinctions formerly made between attachments at law and in equity have been eliminated. The proceeding is in the nature of a proceeding at law, with equity powers wherever necessary to attain the ends of justice.

Attachments cannot be maintained on undue debts on the ground that the debtors are non-residents unless they have disposed or are about to dispose fraudulently of their effects. Wingo v. Purdy, 87 Va. 472, 12 S. E. 970.

For monographic note on Attachments, see Lancaster v. Wilson, 27 Grat. 624, Va. Rep. Anno.

Sec. 6379. Grounds of attachment.—The following shall be sufficient grounds for an attachment. That the principal defendant or one of the principal defendants:

First. Is a foreign corporation, or is not a resident of this State, and has estate or debts owing to said defendant within the county or city in which the attachment is, or that said defendant being a non-resident of this State, is entitled to the benefit of any lien, legal or equitable, on property, real or personal, within the county or city in which the attachment is. The word "estate," as herein used, shall include all rights or interests of a pecuniary nature which can be protected, enforced, or proceeded against in courts of law or equity; or,

Second. Is removing or is about to remove out of this State with intent to change his domicile; or,

Third. That the said debtor intends to remove, or is removing, fendant, or merely for the purpose of enabling some other creditor to get advantage over a creditor who had been more diligent, but has been inaccurate in some of the procedure in his case. As against the principal defendant himself and debts or liabilities existing when the attachment was sued out, the plaintiff ought to be allowed to amend his attachment to take effect as of the date of its levy, and not be thrown out of court as against the principal defendant, or as a favor to some other creditor. To meet this situation section 6409 was inserted.

---

When the statute on the subject of civil bail was enacted, it was customary to file interrogatories to debtors in executions in order to disclose property liable to the execution, and hence the civil bail law followed the same procedure. Now the procedure to make an execution debtor disclose effects liable to the execution has been changed by compelling him to undergo an examination before the commissioner without first providing him with the questions which he will be asked, which is a great improvement. (Section 6503.) The phraseology of the bail statutes (sections 6419-6425) has been changed to conform to this practice. The bond required of the plaintiff in civil bail is provided for in the present statute by section 6420. It seemed that this section ought to follow immediately after the section allowing the party to sue out the capias, and or has removed the specific property sued for, or his own estate, or the proceeds of the sale of his property, or a material part of such estate or proceeds, out of this State, so that there will probably not be therein effects of such debtor sufficient to satisfy the claim when judgment is obtained therefor, should only the ordinary process of law be used to obtain the judgment.

Digitized by Google

Fourth. Is converting, or is about to convert, or has converted his property of whatever kind, or some part thereof, into money, securities, or evidences of debt, with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors; or,

Fifth. Has assigned or disposed of, or is about to assign or dispose of his estate, or some part thereof, with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors; or,

Sixth. Has absconded, or is about to abscond from the State, or has concealed himself therein to the injury of his creditors, or is a fugitive from justice.

The intent mentioned in clauses four and five above may be stated either in the alternative or conjunctive. (Code 1887 § 2959, 2961; 1889-90, p. 26; 1891-2, p. 520; 1895-6, p. 602; 1902-3-4, p. 592).

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from sections 2959 and 2961 of the Code of 1887 without material change, except to add the sixth ground of attachment.

Foreign corporation.—A foreign corporation is one created by the law of another State or country. 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 407. The fact that it complies with the statutory provision in relation to foreign insurance companies doing business in Virginia does not make it a resident of this State, and the property of such company is liable to attachment as a foreign corporation. Cowardin v. Universal Life Ins. Co., 32 Grat. 445.

A Maryland corporation, by taking from Virginia corporation, with the assent of Virginia, the lease of a railroad in Virginia, did not make it a corporation of this State. B. & O. R. Co. v. Koontz, 104 U. S. 5, 26 L. Ed. 643; contra, B. & O. R. Co. v. Noell's Adm'r, 32 Grat. 394.

A corporation chartered and organized under the laws of another State and holding no charter from this State is a foreign corporation, even though it has a statutory agent upon whom process may be served. Cook Mining Co. v. Thompson, 110 Va. 369, 66 S. E. 79.

---

its position has been changed, though no change is made in its phraseology.

Section 6416 relates to attachments for rent. There has been added at the foot of this section a provision that the attachment shall also summon the defendant to answer the attachment, in order to conform to that extent to attachments in other cases, and to make a provision which seemed to be entirely proper.

A section has been added on procedure where the rent is for twenty dollars or more, adapted mainly from 2965 of the former Code (see section 6416), and an additional section has been added for procedure for rent for less than twenty dollars, which is an adaptation from section 2988 of that Code. (See section 6418.) As these sections relate wholly to rent it was thought best not to inject them as in the Code of 1887 among the sections relating to attachments for other purposes. So these sections have been put after the subject of attachments generally, and just before the subject of civil bail.

Digitized by Google

Non-resident.—There is a wide distinction between domicile and a residence. To constitute a domicile two things must concur: First, residence; second, intention to remain there for an unlimited time. Residence is therefore a permanent abode for the time being, as contradistinguished from a mere temporary locality of existence. Long v. Ryan, 30 Grat. 718; Pilson v. Bushong, 29 Grat. 229.

Residence, once established, is presumed to continue until proved to have been changed, and the burden of proving the change is on him who asserts it. Starke v. Scott, 78 Va. 180.

Applies to all non-residents, whether they had formerly been residents or not. Peter v. Butler, 1 Leigh 285; U. S. Bank v. Merchants' Bank, 1 Rob. 573 (2d Ed.) 605; Clark v. Ward, 12 Grat. 440.

Deals wholly with persons residing without the jurisdiction of the Commonweath, and does not apply to one who absconds or conceals himself. Kelso v. Blackburn, 3 Leigh 299, 308; Starke v. Scott, 78 Va. 180. But see present section, sixth ground of attachment.

A party who determines to remove to another State is a non-resident directly he commences his removal and before he gets beyond the limits of the State. Clark v. Ward, 12 Grat. 440.

Where a surety to a bond has removed from the country, leaving the principal within it, the obligee may proceed against the surety as an absent defendant, and attach any effects or debts he may have in the State. Loop v. Summers, 3 Rand. 512.

See Moore v. Holt, 10 Grat. 284, as to what circumstances are sufficient to show the debtor had gone beyond the limits of the State without an intention to return.

It is not essential that a party should come into the State with the intention to remain here permanently to constitute him a resident. Long v. Ryan, 30 Grat. 718.

R., domiciled in Washington, obtains work in Virginia. He rents out his house in Washington, removes his family to a place in Virginia, and keeps house. Held, he was a resident. Id.

One who has dwelt in the State for a year or more, and is still dwelling there, with no intention of leaving; who is engaged in constructing public improvements in a city of this State, under a contract that will occupy him for an indefinite period; who is a registered voter in said city, and has done other acts evincing his residence in said city—cannot be said to be a non-resident, although his family lives out of the State for the convenient education of his children at special schools. Didier v. Patterson, 93 Va. 534, 25 S. E. 661.

The residence of the committee and not that of the lunatic governs, in an attachment against the lunatic on the ground of non-residence. Sheltman v. Taylor, 116 Va. 762, 82 S. E. 698.

A person born and domiciled in another State who is an enlisted U. S. soldier stationed at Fortress Monroe, is not a resident of Virginia; nor is this conclusion affected by paragraph 2 of section 15a of Pollard's Code (1904), which provides that civil and criminal process of the courts of this State may be served within the limits of land ceded to the U. S. Bank v. Byrum, 110 Va. 708, 67 S. E. 349. See sections 17 and 19 of this Code.

Statement in the alternative or conjunctive.—When separate and distinct grounds for the attachment were stated in the affidavit formerly required, and all were relied on for the attachment, they had to be conjunctively stated. They could not be stated in the alternative. An affidavit which stated that either one or the other of three separate and distinct grounds existed did not allege the existence of any one of them, and is insufficient. Northern Neck Bank v. Gilbert P. Co., 114 Va. 658, 77 S. E. 451. Under the last paragraph of section 6379 "the intent mentioned in clauses four and five above may be stated either in the alternative or conjunctive."

Generally.—Shipment of goods out of the State in due course of trade, where the proceeds are brought back within the State, is not sufficient ground for attachment. Clinch River Mineral Co. v. Harrison, 91 Va. 122, 21 S. E. 660, note 1 Va. Law Reg. 37, 45.

Digitized by Google

A landowner was indebted on a partnership account to his late partner. He promised to give him a deed of trust on his property, but failed to do so, and thereafter sold it, having made no secret of his trying to sell. He devoted the proceeds of sale to payment of other creditors. Held, that the facts did not authorize the issuance of an attachment. Breeden v. Peale, 106 Va. 39, 55 S. E. 2.

Declaration of defendant after suing out the attachment of his intention to leave State not admissible as evidence unless so closely connected with, or so soon thereafter made as to render it admissible. Wright v. Rambo, 21 Grat. 158.

The words "estate or debts" were held not to embrace a contingent remainder. Young v. Young, 89 Va. 675, 17 S. E. 470. But under section 6389 a contingent remainder may now be levied on if the principal defendant is a non-resident or an absconding debtor. It cannot be sold, however, until it becomes vested.

For note upon grounds of attachment, see 11 Va. Law Reg. 431.

Sec. 6380. Courts having jurisdiction of attachment; practice and procedure therein.—The jurisdiction of attachments under this chapter shall be in the circuit courts of the counties and in the circuit and such city courts of the cities as have civil jurisdiction in common law cases, and the practice and procedure, except as otherwise provided, shall be the same, as near as may be, as in personal actions.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and is intended to designate the courts which are to have jurisdiction of attachment cases, and at the same time make it plain that the proceeding is one at law and not in equity.

Sec. 6381. Venue of attachments.—The venue of attachments shall be determined with reference to the principal defendant and those jointly liable with him, as though they were the sole defendant, and as to them it shall be the same as in actions at law where the right of action has accrued, or the attachment may be issued in the county or city in which the principal defendant has estate or debts owing to him.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new. It leaves the jurisdiction as to parties jointly liable as is fixed by sections 6049 and 6050, but provides further for venue in the county or city where the principal defendant has estate or debts owing to him, in this respect following the provisions of section 2961 of the Code of 1887.

For cases under the former law, see Porter v. Young, 85 Va. 49, 6 S. E. 803; Williamson v. Bowie, 6 Munf. 176.

Sec. 6382. Pleadings in attachment.—No pleading on behalf of the plaintiff shall be necessary except the petition mentioned in the following section. The principal defendant, and any other defendant who seeks to defeat the petitioner's attachment, may demur to the petition, issue on which demurrer shall be deemed to be joined, but if the demurrer be overruled, he shall answer the same or state his grounds of defense in writing, to neither of which shall any replication be necessary, but the cause shall be deemed to be at issue on the answer or the grounds stated. The answer or grounds of defense shall be sworn to by such defendant, or his agent. Any other defendant may answer or state the grounds of his defense to the petition, under oath, and the cause shall be deemed at issue as to him, if he denies any of the allegations of the petition, without any replication. Answers under this section shall not have the effect of evidence for the defendant.

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and defines the pleadings. These are made as simple as possible. Defense is allowed to be made by the principal defendant or any other defendant who seeks to defeat the attachment. Mere garnishees who have no interest in the subject are allowed to answer or state their grounds of defense if they deny any of the allegations of the petition. Whether the defense be made by answer or statement of grounds it is intended that it should be in writing. The purpose is to make the pleadings as simple as possible. The term "principal defendant" is defined in section 6388.

Sec. 6383. Petition for attachment; what to state; must be sworn to; who may be made defendants.—Every attachment, except an attachment for rent, shall be commenced by a petition filed in the clerk's office, whether the court be in session or not, or before a justice of the county or city in which venue is given by section sixty-three hundred and eighty-one. If it is sought to recover specific personal property the petition shall state the nature and estimated value thereof, the character of estate therein claimed by the plaintiff, and what sum, if any, the plaintiff claims he is entitled to recover for its detention. If it is sought to recover a debt or damages for a breach of contract express or implied, or damages for a wrong, the petition shall set forth the plaintiff's claim with such certainty as will give the adverse party reasonable notice of the particulars thereof, and shall state a sum certain which, at the least, the plaintiff is entitled to, or ought to recover, and if the claim be for a debt not then due and payable, at what time or times the same will become due and payable. The certainty required of the notice under section six thousand and forty-six of this Code shall be sufficient for a petition under this section. The petition shall also set forth the existence of one or more of the grounds of attachment mentioned in section sixty-three hundred and seventy-nine, and shall ask for an attachment against the specific personal property mentioned in the petition, or against the estate, real and personal, of one or more of the principal defendants, or against both the specific personal property and the estate of such defendants, real or personal.

The person or persons against whom the plaintiff is asserting the claim shall be made defendant or defendants to said petition, and shall be known as the principal defendant. There shall also be made defendants any person indebted to or having in his possession property, real or personal, belonging to a principal defendant, which is sought to be attached. There may also be made defendants any person claiming title to, an interest in, or a lien upon the property sought to be attached. The petition shall be sworn to by the plaintiff or his agent, or some person cognizant of the facts therein stated. The defendants, other than the principal defendant or defendants, shall be known as co-defendants. (Code 1887, § 2959.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is new. It provides that every attachment, except an attachment for rent, shall be begun by petition to be filed in the clerk's office, or before a justice. The section provides what shall be stated in the petition, and follows in large measure the language of the former law. The section also provides who shall be defendants, and who may be made defendants. It is based in part on section 2959 of the Code of 1887. It is further provided that the petition may be sworn to, not only by the plaintiff or his agent, but by any person cognizant of the facts therein stated, thus obviating the trouble that has heretofore arisen on the construction of the word "agent." Attention is also called to section 276. As to attachments for rent, see sections 6416, 6417, 6418.

The following cases relate to the formal affidavit required before the present revision: Taylor v. Sutherlin-Meade Tobacco Co., 107 Va. 787, 60 S. E. 132; Clinch River Mineral Co. v. Harrison, 91 Va. 122, 21 S. E. 660, note 1 Va. L. Reg. 37, 45; Benn v. Hatcher, 81 Va. 25, 59 Am. Rep. 645; Clowser v. Hall, 80 Va. 864; Anderson v. Johnson, 32 Grat. 558; Kyle v. Connelly, 3 Leigh 719; Darmon v. Citizens' Nat. Bank, 112 Va. 544, 72 S. E. 153; Bernard v. McClanahan, 115 Va. 453, 79 S. E. 1059; Northern Neck Bank v. Gilbert P. Co., 114 Va. 658, 77 S. E. 451; Water Front C. Co. v. Smithfield Co., 114 Va. 482, 76 S. E. 937, 18 Va. L. Reg. 939 and note; Sims v. Tyrer, 96 Va. 5, 26 S. E. 508.

Maliciously suing out an attachment, Ailstock v. Moore Lime Co., 104 Va. 565, 52 S. E. 213.

Sec. 6384. When plaintiff gives the required bond, officer to take possession of the property.—If the plaintiff shall, at the time of suing out an attachment, or afterwards, give bond with surety, approved by the clerk or justice issuing the attachment, in a penalty of at least double the amount of the claim sworn to or sued for, with condition to pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against him, or sustained by any person, by reason of his suing out the attachment, the said officer shall take possession of the property specified in the attachment, or, where no such property is specified, of any estate or effects of the defendant, or so much thereof as is sufficient to pay the plaintiff's claim. When such bond is given, the fact shall be endorsed on the attachment, or certified by the clerk or justice to the officer, who shall return the said certificate with the attachment; and the bond, when taken by a justice, shall be returned by him to, and filed in, the clerk's office of the court to which the attachment is returnable. (Code 1887, § 2968.)

Bond on behalf of firm.—Where partnership sued out an attachment, the bond of one partner, conditioned that the partner shall pay all costs in case he shall be cast in the suit, and all damages that shall be adjudged against him for suing out the attachment, is void. Jones v. Anderson, 7 Leigh 308. But if enough appears to show that the attachment was a partnership demand, it may be sufficient. Kyle v. Connelly, 3 Leigh 719. The bond should bind the obligor to be answerable for the failure of the firm to prosecute their attachment with success. McCluny v. Jackson, 6 Grat. 96.

Digitized by Google

Action on bond—Who may sue.—The words "any person" include the defendant in the attachment. Offterdinger v. Ford, 92 Va. 636, 24 S. E. 246.

When the attachment is issued against specific property, only the defendant or owner of such specific property can sue upon the bond. Davis v. Com., 13 Grat. 139.

When the attachment is issued against the effects of the defendant generally, and is levied upon the property of a third person, such third person has no remedy upon the attachment bond. Davis v. Com., 13 Grat. 139.

Damages.—The defendant may maintain an action not only to recover damages against the plaintiff in the attachment, but also other damages sustained by him by reason of the attachment having been sued out without sufficient cause. Offterdinger v. Ford, 92 Va. 636, 24 S. E. 246.

The costs and damages which might accrue to the obligee in consequence of suing out the attachment need not be previously assessed in some other action to justify an action on the bond. Dickinson v. McCraw, 4 Rand. 158.

Pleadings.—In an action on bond it is not sufficient to allege that the defendant did not pay "all costs and damages as have accrued," etc., but it must be expressly averred that costs and damages had actually been sustained. Dickinson v. McCraw, 4 Rand. 158.

Defence to—Probable cause.—When defendant in an attachment sues for damages then probable cause is good defence. 1 Va. Law Reg. 232.

Justifiable probable cause for suing out an attachment is a belief by the attaching creditor in the existence of the facts essential to the prosecution of the attachment founded upon such circumstances as, supposing him to be a man of ordinary caution, prudence and judgment, were sufficient to produce such belief. Spengler v. Davy. 15 Grat. 381.

Plaintiff not liable on bond where the attachment was sued out with good cause, and afterwards quashed or abated for the failure of the officer to perform his duty. Offterdinger v. Ford, 92 Va. 636, 650, 24 S. E. 246.

When officer a trespasser.—The sureties of a sheriff who takes the property of A. under attachment against B. are liable upon his official bond. Sangster v. Com., 17 Grat. 124.

If officer takes goods of A. under attachment against B. he is a trespasser. Davis v. Com., 13 Grat. 142. So is plaintiff, if he directed it. Sangster v. Com., 17 Grat. 124. Sheriff is liable for acts of his deputy. Mosby's Adm'r v. Mosby's Adm'r, 9 Grat. 589.

Generally.—No bond necessary when no goods taken. Kenefick v. Caulfield, 88 Va. 122, 13 S. E. 348.

Goods should not be seized unless bond has been given. Dorrier v. Masters, 83 Va. 459, 2 S. E. 927.

Where interest was claimed in the affidavit formerly required, but was not mentioned in the bond, the variance was not material. Smith v. Pearce, 6 Munf. 585.

As to who may give bond, see sections 6414, 6375; to whom payable, see section 287.

Form of bond by plaintiff in attachment against a debtor who intends to remove, is removing, or has removed his effects, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1629; of declaration in debt on attachment bond, Id. 1657.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 172, 944, 950; Sams, Attachment, 184; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 156, 575, 659; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 633; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 708, 709, 728.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, sections 2, 6.

Sec. 6385. Bond required of plaintiff when defendant makes affidavit of substantial defense; effect of failure to give bond.—If a principal defendant shall file in the clerk's office of the court to which the attachment is returnable an affidavit of himself, his agent or attorney, that he has a substantial defense to the merits of the plaintiff's claim, it shall be the duty of the clerk forthwith to notify the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, of that fact, and the attachment shall stand dismissed ipso facto unless within ten days from the service of such notice the plaintiff, or someone for him, shall enter into bond with security approved by such clerk, in a penalty of at least double the amount of the claim sworn to or sued for, with condition that the plaintiff will prosecute his attachment with diligence, and that the obligors will pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against the plaintiff, or sustained by the said defendant, or any other person, by reason of suing out the attachment.

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and is intended to cover the case where no bond was given under the preceding section, but the property of the defendant was levied on, though not taken possession of, and he has a substantial defense to the merits. In such case, it was thought that the plaintiff ought not to be allowed to tie up the property of the defendant without giving bond to cover the resulting damages.

Sec. 6386. Issuance of attachment; against what attachment to issue.—Upon the filing of the petition mentioned in section sixty-three hundred and eighty-three, the clerk or the justice before whom the petition is filed shall issue an attachment in accordance with the prayer of the petition. If the petitioner seeks the recovery of specific personal property, the attachment may be against such property and against the principal defendant's estate for so much as is sufficient to satisfy the probable damages for its detention; or, at the option of the plaintiff, against the principal defendant's estate for the value of such specific property and the damages for its detention. If the petitioner seeks to recover a debt or damages for the breach of a contract, express or implied, or damages for a wrong, the attachment shall be against the principal defendant's estate for the amount specified in the petition as that which the plaintiff at the least is entitled to or ought to recover.

If the attachment be sued out before a justice, it shall be returnable as prescribed by the following section. The justice shall promptly return to the clerk's office of the court to which the attachment is returnable the petition and the bond, if any, filed before him. The proceedings thereafter shall be the same as if the attachment had been issued by the clerk. (Code 1887, § 2960.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is new. Much of it, however, is taken from section 2960 of the Code of 1887. The justice is given no jurisdiction to try the case, but whether the attachment be issued by the clerk or the justice, it is required to be returned to the clerk's office and all the proceedings thereafter are to be in court.

Sec. 6387. To whom attachments may be directed; where returned.—Any attachment issued under this chapter may be directed to the sheriff, sergeant, or constable of any county or city. Except where otherwise provided, it shall be returnable to some day of a current term or of the next succeeding term of the court not less than ten days from the date of service. When an attachment is so returned the plaintiff therein shall, within thirty days from the date on which said return is actually made, or if a trial be sooner had, then before such trial, pay to the clerk of the court to which the return is made the proper writ tax as fixed by law, if not already paid, and, in the event of his failure to do so, the attachment shall stand dismissed ipso facto at the cost of the plaintiff, and no further proceedings shall be had thereon. (Code 1887, § 2965; 1893-4, p. 97, 495; 1902-3-4, p. 593.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken mainly from section 2965 of the Code of 1887 as amended by Acts 1912, p. 498. It is intended that the attachment may be returnable to any day of a pending term of the court or of the next succeeding term, provided it be returnable not less than ten days from the date of service, the object being to assimilate it to other proceedings and to give the defendant at least ten days' notice. As the next term of court might by possibility be more than ninety days from the date of service, no maximum limit is put upon the return day, except that it must be returnable either to some current term or to the next succeeding term after service.

Sec. 6388. Issue of other attachments on the original petition.—Upon the written application of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, other attachments founded on the original petition may be issued from time to time by the clerk of the court in which the original attachment is pending, and the same may be directed, executed, and returned in like manner as an original attachment. The court shall adjudge the costs of such attachments as to it may seem right and just.

The following, or its equivalent, shall be a sufficient form of application for an additional attachment:

To A. B., clerk of the ..... court of ..... county (or city): In the case of ..... v. ....., on an attachment, you are requested to issue an attachment and summons against .....

X. Y. (or X. Y. by H., attorney or agent, as the case may be).

If new or additional grounds of attachment are relied on, the petitioner may amend his petition according to the facts and swear to the same, and thereupon an attachment may issue, and the cause shall proceed, under the provisions of this chapter, upon the petition as amended. (Code 1887, § 2966.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2966 of the Code of 1887. It is changed so as to require the application to be written. The form of the application is also given, and a method of procedure prescribed where new or additional grounds of attachment are relied on.

Under section 2966 of the Code of 1887 it was held that the object and purpose of that section was to negative the idea that the right to sue out attachments had been exhausted when a single attachment had been sued out under an affidavit, and so the section provided for additional attachments founded on the original affidavit. Kaylor v. Davy Pocahontas Co., 118 Va. 369, 87 S. E. 551. The same is true under the present section, except that now the petition is the foundation for the issuance of attachments, not the formal affidavit. See section 6383.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6389. What attachment to be levied on and by whom; defendants to be summoned to answer.—Every attachment sued out against specific personal property shall command the sheriff or other officer to whom it may be directed to attach the specific property claimed in the petition, and so much more of the real and personal property of the principal defendant as shall be necessary to cover the damages for the detention of the specific property sued for and the costs of the attachment. Every other attachment shall command the sheriff or other officer to whom it may be directed to attach the property mentioned and sought to be attached in the petition, if any, and so much of the lands, tenements, goods, chattels, moneys and effects of the principal defendant not exempt from execution as will be sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, and, in case of tangible personal property, taken possession of under section sixty-three hundred and eighty-four, to safely keep the same in his possession to satisfy any judgment that may be recovered by the plaintiff in such attachment.

Every attachment sued out under this section shall also command the sheriff or other officer to summon the defendant or defendants, if he or they be found within his county or city, or any county or city wherein he may have seized property under and by virtue of such writ, to appear and answer said petition, or state his grounds of defense thereto.

If the attachment be against a principal defendant who is a non-resident or an absconding debtor, the attachment may also direct the sheriff or other officer to levy the same on any remainder, vested or contingent, of the principal defendant, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to pay the amount for which it issues, but said remainder shall not be sold until it becomes vested. A judgment, however, ascertaining the amount due the plaintiff may be docketed as other liens are docketed, but unless it be a personal judgment, it shall be a lien only on the property levied on.

An attachment may be levied upon any estate of the defendant, whether the same be in the county or city in which the attachment issued, or in any other, either by the officer of the county or city wherein the attachment issued, or by the officer of the county or city where the estate is.

The court, or the judge thereof in vacation, may interpose by a restraining order, or the appointment of a receiver, or otherwise, to secure the forthcoming of the specific property sued for, and so much other estate as will probably be required to satisfy any further order that may be made in the cause. (Code 1887, § 2964, 2967; 1904, p. 62; 1908, p. 334.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is largely an adaptation from sections 2967 and 2964 of the Code of 1887. The provision with reference to summoning the defendant to appear and answer is new, and the effect of the judgment where the attachment is levied on a remainder is defined so as to negative the idea that the judgment when not personal would bind anything except the property levied on.

Property subject to attachment.—Attachment may be levied on any visible and tangible effects of non-resident debtor in his actual or constructive possession in the common-law mode, as in the case of an execution. If those effects, whether visible or tangible or not, are in a third person's possession, they may be sufficiently levied on by delivering a copy of the attachment to such person. Dorrier v. Masters, 83 Va. 459, 2 S. E. 927. See following section and revisors' note.

Money is left with one member of a firm on a special deposit, and in his absence it is entered on the books of the firm to the credit of the depositor; an attachment against the depositor is served on the other member of the firm; the attachment binds the money. Pulliam v. Aler, 15 Grat. 54.

Cars owned by a foreign railroad company which have come temporarily in the State in the course of interstate commerce, are subject to attachments under State laws. Davis v. Cleveland & R. R. Co., 30 Sup. Ct. Rep. 463.

It is unquestionably true that under this statute a private creditor of one member of a firm may ordinarily attach the interest of the debtor partner in the partnership. Griffith v. Wyatt, 89 Va. 891, 17 S. E. 549.

A contingent remainder, which is a mere possibility, was not formerly subject to attachment. Young v. Young, 89 Va. 675, 17 S. E. 470, 23 L. R. A. 642. See third paragraph of section 6389.

Open account.—Debts due non-resident debtor by open account may be attached in the hands of resident garnishee. Porter v. Young, 85 Va. 49, 6 S. E. 803.

Shares of stock.—The shares of a stockholder in a joint-stock company, incorporated by and conducting its operations, in whole or in part, in the State, may be attached. C. & O. R. Co. v. Paine, 29 Grat. 502; Shenandoah Val. R. Co. v. Griffith, 76 Va. 913. See note to section 6398, "Possession by Garnishee."

Legal title.—A vendee of a house and lot paid all the purchase money, and was put into possession. Vendor had no interest in the property which could be subjected by attachment. Hicks v. Riddick, 28 Grat. 418. See Floyd v. Harding, Id. 401.

Public officers.—A public officer of the State cannot be made liable by attachment in the suit of an individual for funds in his hands clothed with the trust under the authority of the public law. Rollo v. Andes Ins. Co., 23 Grat. 509, 14 Am. Rep. 147; Foley v. Shriver, 81 Va. 568; Buck v. Guarantors' Liability Indemnity Co., 97 Va. 719, 34 S. E. 950. As to salaries of public employees, see sections 6559, 6560, 6561.

Property of deceased debtor.—Creditors of a deceased debtor may proceed by foreign attachment against the heirs residing abroad to subject land or its proceeds in the State descended to them from the debtor. Carrington v. Didier, 8 Grat. 260.

Bailment.—A claim arising on contract for bailment made out of Virginia against a non-resident is a claim for debt for which attachment lies. Peter v. Butler, 1 Leigh 285.

Legacies and distributive shares.—Legatees' interest in the hands of an executor could be attached in equity (Vance v. McLaughlin's Adm'r, 8 Grat. 289; Anderson v. De Soer, 6 Grat. 363); but not at law (Whitehead's Adm'r v. Coleman's Ex'rs, 31 Grat. 784). So might the distributive shares in a decedent's estate. Moores v. White, 3 Grat. 139. Process may be served before executor's qualification. Sandidge's Ex'r v.

Digitized by Google

Graves' Ex'r, 1 Pat. & H. 101; Bickle v. Chrisman's Adm'x, 76 Va. 678. Under the present chapter, no distinction is made between law and equity, but the proceeding is an original proceeding in the nature of a proceeding at law, with equity powers given wherever necessary to attain the ends of justice.

Trust funds.—A attachment is served upon trustee in a deed of trust for the payment of debts, among which are the debts due the plaintiff. There could, therefore, be no surplus in the hands of the trustee until the plaintiff's debts were paid, and consequently there can be no surplus in his hands liable to the attachment. Clark v. Ward, 12 Grat. 440.

As to the situs of debt for the purpose of attachment, see 4 Va. Law Reg. 401.

Sec. 6390. How attachment levied.—An attachment may be levied as follows:

On tangible personal property in possession of a principal defendant, whether such possession be active or constructive, it may be levied as at common law or by delivering a copy of the attachment to him if the bond required by section sixty-three hundred and eighty-five has not been given, but if such bond has been given by taking possession thereof.

On choses in action or on tangible personal property in possession of any defendant other than the principal defendant, it may be levied by delivering a copy of the attachment to the person indebted to the principal defendant or having possession of the property belonging to him.

On real estate, it may be levied by such estate being mentioned and described in an endorsement on the attachment by the officer to whom it is delivered for service to the following effect:

"Levied on the following real estate of the defendant A. (or defendants A. and B.), to-wit: (here describe the real estate) this the ..... day of ..... at ..... o'clock. E. F., sheriff, (or other officer)," and by service of the attachment on the person, if any, in possession of such real estate.

Wherever a copy of an attachment is required or allowed to be served on any person, natural or artificial, it may be served as a notice is served under sections six thousand and forty-one, six thousand and sixty-three, or six thousand and sixty-four, as the case may be. (Id.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken substantially from section 2967 of the Code of 1887. The provision for a common law levy is new, but follows the holding in Dorrier v. Masters, 83 Va. 459, 2 S. E. 927.

Levy and return.—The levy of the attachment is the foundation of the suit. If the property attached be not the defendant's property, the court is without jurisdiction. Culbertson's Representative v. Stevens, 82 Va. 406, 4 S. E. 607; Craig v. Williams, 90 Va. 500, 18 S. E. 899, 44 Am. St. Rep. 934.

Return of officer must show sufficient levy of the attachment; otherwise the court has no jurisdiction. Robertson v. Hoge, 83 Va. 124, 1 S. E. 667.

Officer's return that he "served the summons on ..... by delivering a copy to him," and that "he resided on the premises within described," does not show a valid levy, as it does not show that the property was levied upon as the property of the defendant. Id.

Digitized by Google

The levy on real estate must contain such general description of the real estate and describe it with such substantial accuracy that it may be easily identified when conveyed by looking alone to the levy without the aid of extrinsic evidence. Raub v. Otterback, 92 Va. 517, 23 S. E. 883.

A return "executed upon the tract of land within mentioned" is insufficient. Raub v. Otterback, 92 Va. 517, 23 S. E. 883.

A return that the attachment was levied on a tract of land of the defendant company containing about 360 acres and located in P. magisterial district of M. county, "being the same land conveyed to said company by L. C. Garnett * * * by deed recorded in deed book 15, pp. 58, 59," is good. Richardson v. Hoskins Lumber Co., 111 Va. 755, 69 S. E. 935.

Garnishment of corporations.—A corporation may be summoned and proceeded against as a garnishee upon proceedings under the Code. B. & O. R. Co. v. Gallahue's Adm'rs, 12 Grat. 655, 65 Am. Dec. 254. As to possession of shares of stock, see section 6398, note "Possession by Garnishee."

Municipal.—A municipal corporation may be garnisheed on attachment for a debt due one of its creditors, just as a natural person may be. Portsmouth Gas Co. v. Sanford, 97 Va. 125, 33 S. E. 516, 45 L. R. A. 246, 75 Am. St. Rep. 778, note 5 Va. Law Reg. 172, 176.

As to garnishment of a non-resident garnishee, see 4 Va. Law Reg. 727.

As to situs of debt for purpose of attachment or garnishment, 4 Va. Law Reg. 399, 471.

Sec. 6391. Return by officer.—The officer levying the attachment shall show in his return the time, date and manner of the service, or execution thereof, on each person and parcel of property, and also give a list and description of the property, if any, taken under the attachment. (Code 1887, § 2969.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2969 of the Code of 1887. No change is made in this section except to insert the word "time" before the word "date." This addition is deemed important to conform to section 6393.

The officer's return may be amended if defective. Pulliam v. Aler, 15 Grat. 62.

The return must show that the attachment was levied on the property of the defendant in order to make it valid. Robertson v. Hoge, 83 Va. 124, 1 S. E. 667; Offtendinger v. Ford, 86 Va. 917, 12 S. E. 1.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 575; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 173, 960, 965; Sams, Attachment, 152; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 631, 632, notes to preceding section; section 2825 and notes.

Sec. 6392. Issue and execution of attachment on a Sunday.—Such attachment may be issued or executed on a Sunday, if oath be made that the defendant is actually removing his effects on that day, or is, on that day, removing or about to remove out of this State with intent to change his domicile. (Code 1887, § 2970.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2970 of the Code of 1887. The latter part of the section relating to change of domicile is new.

Sec. 6393. Lien of attachment.—The plaintiff shall have a lien from the time of the levying of such attachment, or serving a copy thereof as aforesaid, upon the personal property of the principal defendant, when the same is in his possession, actual or constructive, and upon the personal property, choses in action, and other securities of such defendant in the hands of, or owing by a co-defendant on whom it is so served; and on any real estate mentioned in such an endorsement by the officer on the attachment or summons as is prescribed by section sixty-three hundred and ninety, from the suing out of the same, but a holder in due course of negotiable paper shall have priority over an attachment levied thereon. (Code 1887, § 2971.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2971 of the Code of 1887 with no substantial change except the express provision as to negotiable paper. See in connection with this section, section 6469.

Protection of subsequent bona fide purchasers of real and personal estate.—Section 6469 applies to every attachment and the memorandum required by that section must be recorded and indexed, otherwise subsequent bona fide purchasers of real and personal estate for valuable consideration and without actual notice of the attachment will be protected; but the express provision as to negotiable paper found in the above section (6393) qualifies section 6469 to this extent, and although the memorandum may be recorded in the case of negotiable paper, yet a holder in due course has priority over an attachment levied thereon. The recordation of the memorandum in this particular case does not operate as constructive notice.

Lien— Nature.—The plaintiff does not acquire a clear and full lien upon the property in the garnishee's possession, but only such a lien as gives him a right to hold the garnishee personally liable for it or its value. Bickle v. Chrisman's Adm'x, 76 Va. 678.

The levy creates an inchoate lien upon the property attached, and when final judgment is rendered for the plaintiff, relates back to the levy, but it cannot by relation render a transaction unlawful which was not unlawful at the time it took place. Trimble v. Covington Co., 112 Va. 826, 72 S. E. 724.

The service of attachment on a garnishee creates a lien upon the debt owed by him to the defendant, and nothing more. It does not set up the relationship of creditor and debtor within sections 5186 and 5187, nor give the creditor the right to avoid a sale as not conforming to section 5187. Trimble v. Covington Co., 112 Va. 826, 72 S. E. 724.

The lien of attachment is perfected by the levy thereof, and the subsequent judgment or decree is simply the enforcement of a valid pre-existing lien. It is the creation of the lien and not its enforcement which is denounced by the bankrupt act. Jackson v. Valley Tie Co., 108 Va. 714, 62 S. E. 964.

The service of the attachment inhibits a transfer of debtor's effects from any of the defendants to other persons. Williamson v. Bowie, 6 Munf. 176; McKim v. Fulton, 6 Call 106; Smith v. Jenny, 4 Hen. & M. 440.

Extent.—The attachment only operates as a lien upon the debts and effects of the absent debtor in the hands of the home defendants against whom and upon whom it is served. Farmers' Bank v. Day, 6 Grat. 360.

On legacy.—Service of process of foreign attachment, on an executor before qualification, creates a lien on a legacy to an absent debtor in favor of the attaching creditor. Sandidge's Ex'r v. Graves' Ex'r, 1 Pat. & H. 101.

On real estate.—The indorsement on the process not mentioning or describing real estate, the attachment does not operate upon any such estate. Clark v. Ward, 12 Grat. 440. But where a bill positively avers that the debtor is a non-resident of the State, and has real estate within it, and in the jurisdiction of the court, fully sets out the demand, particularly describes the estate sought to be subjected to the payment of the debt, and contains all other necessary and proper allegations, there is no necessity and no occasion for any indorsement on the subpoena, or any process of attachment in the case to give to the plaintiff any lien upon the estate for the payment of the debt. Cirode v. Buchanan, 22 Grat. 205, 217. Under section 6390 the endorsement should be on the attachment.

Digitized by Google

On rents.—Service of the attachment upon the home defendant (a lessee) only binds the rents due to the absent defendant (the lessor) at the time the attachment was served. Haffey v. Miller, 6 Grat. 454. See notes to section 6416.

When defeated.—Although the service of the process upon the executor created a lien upon the wife's legacy in favor of the attaching creditor of the husband, when the husband died pending the proceedings leaving his wife surviving him, the lien of the creditor was defeated, and the property belonged to the wife. Vance v. McLaughlin's Adm'r, 8 Grat. 289.

Public trust funds.—No lien can be obtained upon funds charged with a trust in the hands of a public officer of the State. Rollo v. Andes Ins. Co., 23 Grat. 509, 14 Am. Rep. 147; Foley v. Shriver, 81 Va. 568; Buck v. Guarantors' Liability Indemnity Co., 97 Va. 719, 34 S. E. 950.

On funds subject to forfeiture.—Where the amount earned by a contractor may be forfeited on or before a certain date, the service of an attachment before that date will create no lien on the amount, though no forfeiture afterwards occurs. B. & O. R. Co. v. Gallahue's Adm'rs, 14 Grat. 563.

Priorities—Between partnership creditors.—One partnership creditor cannot attach the partnership effects so as to obtain preference over the other partnership creditors where the partnership is dissolved, and the individual partners have been declared bankrupts. Lindsey v. Corkery, 29 Grat. 650.

Between attachment and wife's claim.—An attachment against the effects of the husband as an absconding debtor, levied before the institution of the suit by the wife for divorce, entitles the attaching creditor to be satisfied out of the attached effects in preference to the claim of the wife. Jennings v. Montague, 2 Grat. 350.

Between attachments.—Attachments first served have priority over attachments or other process at law subsequently levied. Erskine v. Staley, 12 Leigh 406; Farmers' Bank v. Day, 6 Grat. 360.

If proceeds of sale of attached property are paid to second attaching creditor, pending an appeal by the first, an action for money had and received will lie in his favor against second attaching creditor if his attachment is sustained. Caperton v. McCorkle, 5 Grat. 177.

Between attachment and execution.—The lien of fieri facias of prior date has priority over an attachment of subsequent date. Puryear v. Taylor, 12 Grat. 401.

Between attachment and deeds for lands.—Where the date of the service is not stated in return, the attachment is to be postponed to a deed made after the issuing of the process, but before the return day, though the attachment is for unpaid purchase money. Richeson v. Richeson, 2 Grat. 497.

A purchaser of land, without notice of an attachment which had been previously levied upon it, but which had not been docketed, holds the land free from the lien of the attachment. Cammack v. Soran, 30 Grat. 292.

Between attachment and deed to chattels.—An attachment sued out in Virginia, and levied on goods of a foreign debtor, has preference over a deed executed by the debtor, and not recorded at the time of the attachment. Smith v. Smith, 19 Grat. 545.

Between attachment and assignment of chose.—An assignment of a chose in action, though not recorded, will be good against a subsequent attachment upon such chose. Kirkland v. Brune, 31 Grat. 126; Tazewell's Ex'r v. Barrett, 4 Hen. & M. 259; Wilson v. Davisson, 5 Munf. 178; Schofield v. Cox, 8 Grat. 533.

Digitized by Google

Debtors in North Carolina granted all their property, including choses in action, due from their debtors in Virginia, and secured on land here. Before recordation of the deed in Virginia, the creditors of the grantors living in Virginia attached the choses and the land securing them. Held, the deed prevails over the attachment. Gregg v. Sloan, 76 Va. 497.

A creditor, at whose suit process of foreign attachment against an absent debtor is served on one of two executors, is entitled to priority of satisfaction out of a legacy, to the absent debtor, over an assignee of the legacy who claims under an assignment dated the day after the service of the attachment on the executor. Sandidge's Ex'r v. Graves' Ex'r, 1 Pat. & H. 101. But not so as to creditor who attached subsequent to assignment, though it is not shown that the assignment had been delivered to the assignee prior to the service of the process of foreign attachment. Id.

An attaching creditor of shares of stock acquires a claim superior to that of a subsequent bona fide purchaser for value without notice of the attachment. C. & O. R. Co. v. Paine, 29 Grat. 502; Shenandoah Va. R. Co. v. Griffith, 76 Va. 913. See first paragraph of these notes.

Between attachment and rent.—Distress for rent could not be made off the demised premises, and therefore an attachment served upon property found off the premises was preferred to it. Mosby v. Leeds, 3 Call 445. For present law on subject of distress for rent, see chapter 227, especially section 5523. "Distress may be levied on any goods of the lessee, or his assignee, or under-tenant, found on the premises, or which may have been removed therefrom not more than thirty days." See, also, section 6416.

Generally.—See Sams, Attachment, 156 et seq.; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 977, 979; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 158, 577, 658; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 637, 667; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 318; 7 Va. Law Reg. 451; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 712.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 9.

Sec. 6394. How any property seized under attachment restored; how the whole released; what bond to be given.—Any property levied on or seized as aforesaid, under any attachment, may be retained by or returned to the defendant or other person in whose possession it was, on his giving bond, with condition to have the same forthcoming at such time and place as the court may require; or the principal defendant may, by giving bond with condition to perform the judgment of the court, release from any attachment the whole of the estate attached. The bond in either case shall be taken by the officer serving the attachment, with surety, payable to the plaintiff, and in a penalty, in the latter case, at least double the amount or value for which the attachment issued, and in the former, either double the same or double the value of the property retained or returned, at the option of the person giving it. (Code 1887, § 2972.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2972 of the Code of 1887 without substantial change.

It seems that when bond is given by defendant, the lien of the attachment on the property is released. Magill v. Sauer, 20 Grat. 540.

The giving of a bond under this section does not debar the plaintiff from suing out other attachments for the same debt and having the same levied on other property of the defendant. Kaylor v. Davy Pocahontas Co., 118 Va. 369, 87 S. E. 551.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 578, 659; Sams, Attachment, 195; Barton, L.

Digitized by Google

Pr. (2d Ed.) 948, 1050; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 643, 645; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 710.

Form of forthcoming or delivery bond by garnishee on attachment for rent upon making the levy, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1624;* of delivery or forthcoming bond by claimant or defendant, Id. 1627; of replevy bond by claimant or defendant, Id.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 10.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 400, 404, 483.

Sec. 6395. Where bond returned and filed; exceptions to bond.—Every such bond shall be returned by the officer to and filed by the clerk of the court in which the attachment is pending, or to which the attachment is returnable, and the plaintiff may, within thirty days after the return thereof, file exceptions to the same, or to the sufficiency of the surety therein. If such exception be sustained, the court shall rule the said officer to file a good bond, with sufficient surety, to be approved by it, on or before a certain day to be fixed by the court. If he fail to do so, he and his sureties in his official bond shall be liable to the plaintiff as for a breach of such bond; but the officer shall have the same rights and remedies against the parties to any bonds so adjudged bad as if he were a surety for them. (Code 1887, § 2973.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2973 of the Code of 1887 without substantial change.

Cited but not construed in Kaylor v. Davy Pocahontas Co., 118 Va. 369, 87 S. E. 551.

See Sams, Attachment, 199; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 578, 659; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 643.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 11.

See Gregory's Forms No. 483.

Sec. 6396. How interest and profits of property applied in certain cases.—When any attachment is sued out, although the property or estate attached be not replevied as aforesaid, the interest and profits thereof pending the attachment and before judgment, may be paid to the defendant, if the court deem it proper. (Code 1887, § 2974.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2974 of the Code of 1887, though the latter part of that section is omitted because sufficiently covered by section 6394.

Sec. 6397. How property to be kept; how sold, when expensive to keep or perishable.—Any property seized under any attachment and not replevied or sold before judgment shall be kept in the same manner as similar property taken under execution; but such as is expensive to keep or perishable, may be sold by order of the court, or of the judge thereof in vacation; such sale to be made in the same manner as if it were a sale under execution, except that when the claim for which the attachment was sued out is not yet due and payable, or the court or judge sees other reason for directing a credit, the sale under this or any other section of this chapter shall be on a credit until the time it is due and payable, or such other time as the court or judge may direct; and for the proceeds of sale,

Digitized by Google

bond with sufficient surety shall be taken, payable to the officer, for the benefit of the party entitled, and shall be returned by the officer to the court. (Code 1887, § 2975.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from the Code of 1887, section 2975, without substantial change.

See Sams, Attachment, 201; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 968, 970; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 157, 578; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 644, 677.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 13.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 274, 275, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 484.

Sec. 6398. Proceedings against defendant for debts, etc., admitted to be due; when debtor may claim exemption out of amount due.—A defendant, who, at the time of service of the attachment, was alleged to be indebted to a principal defendant, or had in his possession personal property belonging to such principal defendant, shall appear in person and submit to an examination on oath touching such debt or personal property, or he may, with the consent of the court, file an answer in writing under oath, stating whether or not he was so indebted, and if so, the amount thereof and the time of maturity, or whether he had in his possession any personal property belonging to said principal defendant and, if so, the nature and value thereof. If it appear on such examination or by his answer that at the time of the service of the attachment, he was indebted to the principal defendant, or had in his possession or control any goods, chattels, money, securities or other effects belonging to the said defendant, the court may order him to pay the amount so owing by him, or to deliver such effects to the sheriff, sergeant, or other person designated by the court to receive the same, or such defendant may, with the leave of the court, give bond with sufficient security, payable to such person and in such penalty as the court shall prescribe, with condition to pay the amount owing by him, and have such effects forthcoming, at such time and place as the court may thereafter require, but the principal defendant, if a householder or head of a family, may claim that the amount so found owing from his co-defendant, or the personal property in his possession, shall be exempt from liability for the plaintiff's claim; and if it shall appear that the principal defendant is entitled to such exemption, then the court shall render a judgment against the defendant answering only for the excess, if any, beyond the exemption to which the principal defendant is entitled. An answer under oath under this section shall be deemed prima facie to be true. (Code 1887, § 2976.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken substantially from section 2976 of the Code of 1887 with some modifications.

Nature of proceeding.—Garnishment is purely a statutory proceeding, and cannot be enforced beyond the statutory authority under which it is resorted to. It can have no aid from the volunteer acts of the garnishee. Bickle v. Chrisman's Adm'x, 76 Va. 678, 691.

Garnishee cannot, by his silence or direct confession, authorize a judgment against property in his hands as trustee or held by him in a fiduciary character. Id.

Digitized by Google

This section contemplates only a personal judgment against garnishee based upon proof or the confession of the garnishee that he has effects in his hands belonging to the debtor. Id.

An attaching creditor can have no judgment against a garnishee until he has first established his claim against his debtor. Withers v. Fuller, 30 Grat. 547; Gibson v. White, 3 Munf. 94.

Court may decree between the debtor and the garnishee what may be due from the latter to the former, after satisfying the claim of the plaintiff, but the evidence must arise from the pleadings and the proof between plaintiff and defendant. Templeton v. Fauntleroy, 3 Rand. 434.

See Kyle v. Connelly, 3 Leigh 719, as to how judgment shall be rendered for the plaintiff upon an attachment for debt contracted, but not due, when the attachment has been laid on goods of the debtor, and on money due him in the hands of garnishee, where the value of the effects attached is uncertain, and may exceed the plaintiff's claim.

Garnishee may interplead third person. C. & O. R. Co. v. Paine, 29 Grat. 502.

The service of process under this section creates a lien on the debt due by the garnishee to the defendant, but does not create the relation of creditor and debtor under sections 5186 and 5187 nor confer upon the creditor the right to attack a sale by the garnishee which did not conform to section 5187. Trimble v. Covington Co., 112 Va. 826, 72 S. E. 724.

Corporation as garnishee.—A corporation may be summoned and proceeded against as a garnishee; its answer is to be received in the only mode in which a corporation can answer, under its corporate seal. B. & O. R. Co. v. Gallahue's Adm'rs, 12 Grat. 655, 65 Am. Dec. 254.

Possession by garnishee.—Shares of stock may be properly considered, for the purpose of attachment, as in the possession of the corporation in which the shares are held, and such corporation may be properly summoned as garnishee in the case. C. & O. R. Co. v. Paine, 29 Grat. 502.

The home defendant denies that he has any effects of the absent debtor in his hands. He says that a tract of land which had belonged to the absent debtor had been purchased by himself and paid for. As, however, he had not paid the amount in money, and the accounts which he had endeavored to establish were not proved to the satisfaction of the commissioners and the court, the land was held liable. Kelly v. Linkenhoger, 8 Grat. 104.

When garnishee is indebted.—It seems that this section refers to the debts due from the garnishee to the defendant at the time of the service of the process upon the garnishee. B. & O. R. Co. v. Gallahue's Adm'rs, 12 Grat. 655, 65 Am. Dec. 254.

Quaere, whether the statute operates upon debts which, though owing at the time of service of the attachment upon the garnishee, are not then payable. Id. This question seems now to be settled in the affirmative by the above statute. 13 Va. Law J. 155. See, also, 10 Va. Law J. 1.

Money is left with one member of a firm on a special deposit, and in his absence it is entered on the books of the firm to the credit of the depositor. An attachment against the depositor is served on the other member of the firm. The attachment binds the money. Pulliam v. Aler, 15 Grat. 54.

Contract provides that contractor cannot recover the amount of the final estimate of work done until he has executed a release under seal. His attaching creditor at law has no greater right against the company than he, and therefore cannot recover the amount unless the contractor has executed the release. B. & O. R. Co. v. McCullough, 12 Grat. 595.

Where the amount earned by the contractor may be forfeited on or before a certain date, the service of an attachment before that date will create no lien on the amount, though no forfeiture afterwards occurs. B. & O. R. Co. v. Gallahue's Adm'rs, 14 Grat. 563.

Digitized by Google

To what extent garnishee is liable.—The attachment is a lien upon the debts and effects of the absent debtor in the hands of the home defendant at the time the attachment was served, but does not extend to debts and effects which thereafter come into the hands of such defendant. Farmers' Bank v. Day, 6 Gratt. 360; Haffey v. Miller, 6 Grat. 454.

Where garnishee holds effects belonging to the defendant, he should be considered personally responsible only for so much as he may have consumed or appropriated to his own use or for the profits he may have received. Gibson v. White, 3 Munf. 94.

Attaching creditor should be decreed only so much of the debt garnisheed as is equal to his demand. Watts' Ex'rs v. Robertson, 4 Hen. & M. 442.

In equity the garnishee may set up any equitable defence which shows that in equity he owes no debt to the absent defendant. Glassell v. Thomas, 3 Leigh 113. Under the present chapter, the proceeding is an original proceeding, in the nature of a proceeding at law, with equity powers given wherever necessary to attain the ends of justice.

Garnishee is entitled to have his claim for keeping the attached property first satisfied out of the proceeds as against the attaching creditor. Williamson v. Gayle, 7 Grat. 152.

Garnishee will be compelled to pay interest unless he makes a legal tender or brings the money into court. Ross v. Austin, 4 Hen. & M. 502; Templeton v. Fauntleroy, 3 Rand. 434.

Payment to receiver.—A payment by the garnishee to receiver appointed by the court is a valid payment, and a discharge of his indebtedness as to the attaching creditor. Withers v. Fuller, 30 Grat. 547.

In appellate court.—Though the service of an attachment upon the garnishees and the return thereon be irregular, yet, if they appear and defend without objecting to the irregularity, they cannot make the objection in the appellate court. Pulliam v. Aler, 15 Grat. 54.

Generally.—As to situs of debt for purpose of garnishment, see 4 Va. Law Reg. 399, 471.

As to garnishment of a non-resident garnishee, see 4 Va. Law Reg. 727.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 581; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 836, 953, 969, 992, 993; Sams, Attachment, 203, et seq.; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 621, 624, 637, 645, 649; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 705.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 155.

Form of forthcoming or delivery bond by garnishee on attachment, when levy is made, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1625, 1627; of forthcoming or delivery bond by garnishee on attachment, after his liability is ascertained, Id. 1625, 1627.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 14.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 271, 327, 328, 329, 402.

Sec. 6399. If a defendant indebted to, or having effects of the principal defendant fail to appear what court may do.—If the attachment be served on a defendant who the petition alleges is indebted to, or has in his possession effects of, the principal defendant, and he fail to appear, the court may either compel him to appear, or hear proof of any debt owing by him, or of effects in his hands belonging to said defendant in such attachment, and make such orders in relation thereto as if what is so proved had appeared on his examination. (Code 1887, § 2977.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2977 of the Code of 1887 with slight modifications.

Digitized by Google

Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 993; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 582; Sams, Attachment, 211; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 661, 662, 705.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 15.

See Gregory's Forms No. 270.

Sec. 6400. When plaintiff suggests that a defendant has not fully disclosed the debts owing by him, etc., how court to ascertain same.—When it is suggested by the plaintiff in any attachment that a co-defendant has not fully disclosed the debts owing by him, or effects in his hands belonging to the principal defendant in such attachment, the court, without any formal pleading, shall inquire as to such debts and effects, or, if either party demand it, shall cause a jury to be impaneled for that purpose, and proceed in respect to any such found by the court or the jury, in the same manner as if they had been confessed by such co-defendant. If the judgment of the court or verdict of the jury be in favor of such co-defendant, he shall have judgment for his costs against the plaintiff. (Code 1887, § 2978.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2978 of the Code of 1887 with slight modifications.

See Sams, Attachment, 210; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 581; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 837.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 16.

See Gregory's Forms No. 328.

Sec. 6401. When attachment not served other attachments to issue; when order of publication to be made.—When an attachment is returned not served on a principal defendant (whether levied on property or not) further attachments and summons may be issued until service is obtained on him, if he be a resident of this State. If for any cause service cannot be had in this State, upon affidavit of that fact, an order of publication shall be made against him. (Code 1887, § 2979.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2979 of the Code of 1887, but is materially changed. The object is to have service on the defendant in all cases if it can be had, whether the property has been levied on or not.

Jurisdiction cannot be acquired of the fund attached by service of process on the garnishee only, no legal service being had on the non-resident. Dorr's Adm'r v. Rohr, 82 Va. 359, 3 Am. St. Rep. 106.

For other cases under the former section, see Petty v. Frick Co., 86 Va. 501, 10 S. E. 886; Water Front C. Co. v. Smithfield Co., 114 Va. 482, 76 S. E. 937, 18 Va. L. Reg. 939 and note.

Sec. 6402. Who may make defense to attachment.—Any of the defendants in any such attachment, or any party to any forthcoming bond given as aforesaid, or the officer who may be liable to the plaintiff by reason of such bond being adjudged bad, or any person authorized by section sixty-four hundred and seven to file a petition, may make defense to such attachment, but the attachment shall not thereby be discharged, or the property levied on released. (Code 1887, § 2980.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2980 of the Code of 1887 with no substantial change.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 157, 579, 659; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 983; Sams, Attachment, 224 et seq.; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 655, 656.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 18.

See Gregory's Forms No. 330; following section and notes.

Sec. 6403. What defense may be made to attachments.—Any defendant may show that the court is without jurisdiction to hear and determine the controversy.

The principal defendant, if not served with process, may appear specially and show that the attachment was issued on false suggestion or without sufficient cause, in which event the attachment shall be quashed.

Any person claiming title to, an interest in, or a lien upon the property attached, or any part thereof, after being admitted as a party defendant, if not already a defendant, and the principal defendant, may contest the liability of the principal defendant for the petitioner's claim, in whole or in part, by proof of any matter which would constitute a good defense by the principal defendant to an action at law on such claim, and may also show that the attachment was issued on false suggestion, or without sufficient cause. The principal defendant may also file set-offs as in an action at law.

Other defendants shall be limited to defenses personal to themselves, or which may prevent a liability upon them or their property.

The court in which an attachment is pending, or the judge of such court in vacation may, either before, or at any time after, an attachment has been returned, on motion of the principal defendant, or any defendant claiming title to, an interest in, or a lien upon the property attached, or any part thereof, after reasonable notice to the attaching creditor, hear testimony and quash the attachment, if of opinion that the attachment is invalid on its face, or was issued on false suggestion, or without sufficient cause. When the attachment is properly sued out, and the case is heard upon its merits, if the court be of opinion that the claim of the plaintiff is not established, final judgment shall be given for the defendant. In either case, he shall recover his costs, and there shall be an order for the restoration of the attached effects. (Code 1887, § 2981.)

Revisors' Note.—This is taken from section 2981 of the Code of 1887, but there are some material changes. The principal defendant is allowed to file set-offs as in an action at law. Some doubt was formerly expressed on this subject. Defendants who are mere garnishees and have no interest in the subject-matter ought not to be allowed to defend the attachment. This right is limited to the principal defendant, and to parties who claim title to, an interest in, or lien upon, the property attached. Garnishees should not be allowed to dispute either the plaintiff's claim or the right to sue out the attachment, and especially they should not be allowed to show that the attachment was issued on false suggestion or without sufficient cause. They have no interest in these matters. They are allowed to make any defense which is personal to themselves, or which will prevent a liability upon them or their property. This right is accorded them, but other defenses are denied to such defendants.

Digitized by Google

Jurisdiction.—The levy of the attachment is the foundation of the suit. If the property attached be not the defendant's property, the court is without jurisdiction. Culbertson's Representative v. Stevens, 82 Va. 406, 4 S. E. 607; Craig v. Williams, 90 Va. 500, 18 S. E. 899, 44 Am. St. Rep. 934. Officer's return must show sufficient levy. Robertson v. Hoge, 83 Va. 124, 1 S. E. 667.

Though the defendant has given a forthcoming bond, the court has jurisdiction to abate the attachment. Claflin v. Steenbock, 18 Grat. 845.

Appearance to move to quash an attachment on account of irregular service of process is not such appearance to the action as waives alleged defects. Petty v. The Frick Co., 86 Va. 501, 10 S. E. 886.

Sufficient cause.—As to sufficiency of attachment itself, the issue is not what the plaintiff may have believed or had probable cause to believe, but the actual existence of the facts in the affidavit (now petition. See section 6383). Sublett v. Wood, 76 Va. 318; 1 Va. Law Reg. 232.

The question is whether, upon all the evidence, there is reasonable ground or probable cause to believe the defendant was doing the act which authorized the attachment, and not whether the facts as they appear to the affiant, though only a small part of the facts of the case, afforded him reasonable ground for such belief. Claflin v. Steenbock, 18 Grat. 845.

For the difference between sufficient and probable cause, see 1 Va. Law Reg. 232.

Proceedings invalid upon their face.—The remedy by attachment against the estate of a non-resident is wholly statutory, harsh in its operation, and the proceeding must show upon its face that the requirements of the statute have been wholly complied with. McAllister v. Guggenheimer, 91 Va. 317, 21 S. E. 475.

The court should, of its own motion, dismiss an irregular attachment when there has been no appearance by the non-resident debtor; and no personal service upon him. McAllister v. Guggenheimer, 91 Va. 317, 21 S. E. 475; Mantz v. Hendley, 2 Hen. & M. 308.

The return must show that the attachment was levied on the property of the defendant in order to make it valid. Robertson v. Hoge, 83 Va. 124, 1 S. E. 667; Offtendinger v. Ford, 86 Va. 917, 12 S. E. 1.

If the affidavit was defective, the remedy was by motion to quash the attachment. Anderson v. Johnson, 32 Grat. 558. See section 6382, which provides that "The principal defendant and any other defendant who seeks to defeat the petitioner's attachment, may demur to the petition," etc. In Northern Neck Bank v. Gilbert P. Co., 114 Va. 658, 77 S. E. 451, it was held under the former law that the court was not precluded from abating the attachment because at a former stage of the proceeding a motion to abate was overruled, if upon further consideration it was satisfied that the writ had been issued upon an insufficient affidavit.

Subsequent attaching creditor.—The subsequent attaching creditor may contest the right of the first attaching creditor to recover. McCluny v. Jackson, 6 Grat. 96.

Vacation orders.—A judgment in vacation was not final, and did not supersede the defendant's right to make defence at the trial in term. Dunlap v. Dillard, 77 Va. 847.

The power given to the circuit judge in vacation to quash the attachment did not conflict with any other provision of this chapter. Dunlap v. Dillard, 77 Va. 847.

Burden of proof.—On motion to abate, the onus is on the plaintiff to show that the attachment was issued on sufficient cause, and he may therefore be required to introduce his evidence first. Wright v. Rambo,

Digitized by Google

21 Grat. 158; Sublett v. Wood, 76 Va. 318; Burruss v. Trant, 88 Va. 980, 14 S. E. 845.

Fraudulent intent.—Fraudulent intention must be proved. It is not sufficient that creditors believe and allege its existence. Wingo v. Purdy, 87 Va. 472, 12 S. E. 970; Burruss v. Trant, 88 Va. 980, 14 S. E. 845.

Mere failure to record a deed of trust is not evidence of such intent. Burruss v. Trant, 88 Va. 980, 14 S. E. 845.

Plea in abatement.—A plea in abatement to an attachment under the former law ought not to have concluded with praying judgment if the plaintiff ought to have and maintain his attachment and action, but only that the attachment be quashed. Mantz v. Hendley, 2 Hen. & M. 308. For pleadings in attachments under this chapter see section 6382. Motion to quash, see section 6403.

Final judgment.—The authority given the court to enter judgment abating the attachment may be exercised at any time before a final judgment has been entered disposing of the property attached. Northern Neck Bank v. Gilbert P. Co., 114 Va. 658, 77 S. E. 451.

Under the former law a final judgment in an action without making any disposition of the ancillary proceeding by attachment necessarily operated as a release of the attached effects. Kaylor v. Pocahontas Co., 118 Va. 369, 87 S. E. 551.

The case cited in the preceding paragraph could not arise under the present law, as the proceeding is not ancillary in any case. For attachments in connection with pending suits or actions see sections 6410 and revisors' note.

Appellate court.—If affidavit (now petition) be not objected to in lower court, it cannot be objected to in the appellate court. Anderson v. Johnson, 32 Grat. 558.

If the garnishees appear to the action and defend it without objecting to the irregularity in the service or return, they cannot afterwards make the objection in the appellate court. Pulliam v. Aler, 15 Grat. 54.

As it appears from the record that the trial court had no jurisdiction to issue an attachment, the objection may be raised in the appellate court for the first time. Furst v. Banks, 101 Va. 208, 8 Va. Law Reg. 821, 43 S. E. 360.

Objections to the irregularity of attachment proceedings may be taken advantage of in appellate court, although not raised in the trial court. McAllister v. Guggenheimer, 91 Va. 317, 21 S. E. 475.

Upon a foreign attachment in chancery, the home defendant could not in the appellate court contest the justice of a decree as against the absent debtor, but only so much of it as affected himself. Heffernan's Adm'r v. Grymes' Adm'r, 2 Leigh 512.

Generally.—As to tenant removing his effects from leased premises, see section 6416 and notes.

See Sams, Attachment, 224 et seq.; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 983; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 156, 579, 660; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 657; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 718, 721, 724; Littell v. Julius Lansburg Furniture & Carpet Co., 96 Va. 542, 32 S. E. 63.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 19.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 272, 273, 363.

Sec. 6404. When attachment to be dismissed; when cause to be retained and proceeded to judgment.—If the principal defendant has not appeared generally, nor been served with process, and the sole ground of jurisdiction of the court is the right to sue out the attachment, and this right be decided against the petitioner, the petition shall be dismissed at the costs of the petitioner; but if the plaintiff's claim be due at the hearing, and the court would otherwise have jurisdiction of an action against such defendant for the cause set forth in the petition, and said defendant has appeared generally, or been served with process, it shall retain the cause and proceed to final judgment in like manner as if it had been a motion matured for hearing under section six thousand and forty-six.

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and allows the court to proceed to judgment against the defendant if he has appeared generally or been served with process, although the attachment may be quashed.

The attaching creditor proving his debt was entitled to a personal decree against his absent debtor, though the property attached might be adjudged to other persons. Schofield v. Cox, 8 Grat. 533.

If absent debtor appeared there could be both a personal decree and a decree subjecting the attached effects. O'Brien v. Stephens, 11 Grat. 610.

Sec. 6405. Judgment, etc., of court when claim of plaintiff established; real estate to be sold last; sale thereof under attachment at law.—If the claim of the plaintiff be established, judgment shall be rendered for him, and the court shall dispose of the specific property levied on, as may be right, and order the sale of any other effects or real estate which shall not have been previously released or sold under this chapter, and direct the proceeds of sale, and whatever else is subject to the attachment, including what is embraced by such forthcoming bond, to be applied in satisfaction of the judgment. But no real estate shall be sold until all other property and money subject to the attachment have been exhausted, and then only so much thereof as is necessary to pay the judgment. Upon a sale of real estate, under an attachment the court shall have the same powers and jurisdiction, and the like proceedings thereon may be had, as if it were a sale of real estate by a court of equity exercising general equity powers. (Code 1887, § 2982.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2982 of the Code of 1887 without substantial change.

Establishment of plaintiff's claim.—An attaching creditor can have no judgment against a garnishee until he has first established his claim against his debtor. Withers v. Fuller, 30 Grat. 547.

Judgment should be first entered against the debtor, and then the garnishee should be ordered to pay it. George v. Blue, 3 Call 455 (2d Ed.) 394; Gibson v. White, 3 Munf. 94.

Personal decree.—The attaching creditor, having established his debt, was entitled to a personal decree against the absent debtor, though the whole property attached was exhausted in paying the debt of the home defendant. Williamson v. Gayle, 7 Grat. 152; Schofield v. Cox, 8 Grat. 533. See Hairston v. Medley, 1 Grat. 96. See section 6404, as to when cause shall be retained and proceeded to judgment.

Priorities.—The fund arising from the sale should be applied according to the priorities of the liens upon the thing sold. Schofield v. Cox, 8 Grat. 533.

Security.—Decree (now judgment) should provide for the plaintiff's giving security as required by section 6406. Watts' Ex'rs v. Robertson, 4 Hen. & M. 442.

Interest.—If the attachment demands only principal sum and costs, the court cannot give judgment for interest. George v. Blue, 3 Call 455 (2d Ed.) 394.

Sale to satisfy instalments.—Where the debt of the attaching creditor is payable in instalments, some of which have and others have not fallen due at the time of the decree (now judgment), the court should direct the sale of only so much of the subject as is necessary to satisfy the instalments already due. Watts v. Kinney, 3 Leigh 272, 23 Am. Dec. 266.

Digitized by Google

Delivery of property.—The court's order for the defendant's delivery of the attached and replevied property to the sheriff should be reasonable as to the time and place of delivery. Dunlap v. Dillard, 77 Va. 847.

Generally.—It was error to decree for plaintiff without affidavit of defendant's non-residence. Brien v. Pittman, 12 Leigh 379.

See Sams, Attachment, 247 et seq.; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 580, 660; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 975, 976; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 646, 677.

The question noted by the reporter in Lancaster v. Wilson, 27 Grat. 624, as to the jurisdiction of the court in a common-law cause to make sale and conveyance of real property under an attachment, as an "important practical question," has been set at rest by the last clause of this section. 13 Va. Law J. 169.

Discussed, 1 Va. Law J. 587.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 20.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 274, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327. 328, 329.

Sec. 6406. When plaintiff not to have benefit of the preceding section until he gives bond.—If the principal defendant has not appeared or been served with a copy of the attachment ten days before such judgment, the plaintiff shall not have the benefit of the preceding section unless and until he shall have given bond with sufficient surety in such penalty as the court shall approve, with condition to perform such future order as may be made upon the appearance of said defendant and his making defense. If the plaintiff fail to give such bond in a reasonable time, the court shall dispose of the estate attached, or the proceeds thereof, as to it shall seem just. (Code 1887, § 2983.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2983 of the Code of 1887. The only change made in this section is to cut down the time for the service of the attachment from sixty days to ten days.

Bond required by this section need not be given after time mentioned in section 6411 has expired. Ross v. Austin, 4 Hen. & M. 502.

If a copy of the attachment was served on the defendant sixty (now ten) days before a decree (now judgment) for the sale of the land attached, sale may be made without requiring the bond required by the statute. Anderson v. Johnson, 32 Grat. 558.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 580, 660; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 976; Sams, Attachment, 254; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 647, 678; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 712, 726, 727.

Sec. 6407. How and when claims of other persons to the property tried.—Any person may file his petition, at any time before the property attached as the estate of a defendant is sold, or the proceeds of sale paid to the plaintiff under the judgment, disputing the validity of the plaintiff's attachment thereon, or stating a claim thereto, or an interest in or lien on the same, under any other attachment or otherwise, and its nature, and upon giving security for costs, the court, without any other pleading, shall inquire into such claim, or, if either party demand it, impanel a jury for that purpose, and if it be found that the petitioner has title to, or a lien on, or any interest in, such property, or its proceeds, the court shall make such order

Digitized by Google

as may be necessary to protect his rights, the costs of which inquiry shall be paid by either party, at the discretion of the court. (Code 1887, § 2984.)

Revisors' Note.—This is taken from section 2984 of the Code of 1887 without substantial change.

Object of section.—This section was intended for the protection of the rights of the third person, and not of the plaintiff in the attachment; therefore a plaintiff in attachment who has a deed of trust on the property attached cannot unite with the trustees in the deed, and come into the attachment suit by petition, and ask to have the trust property delivered to the trustee. Littell v. Julius Lansburg Furniture & Carpet Co., 96 Va. 542, 32 S. E. 63.

Who may appear.—A subsequent attaching creditor may appear to the first attachment, and either in his own name or in the name of the debtor contest the right of the first attaching creditor to recover. McCluny v. Jackson, 6 Grat. 96.

Plaintiff in one attachment may enjoin the sale of the attached effects under order in a subsequent attachment. Moore v. Holt, 10 Grat. 284.

Proper issue.—The proper issue to be tried is "whether or not petitioner has any title to, lien on, or interest in the attached property or its proceeds." Starke v. Scott, 78 Va. 180.

Garnishee may interplead third person.—Where garnishee files an affidavit with its answer alleging that some third person claims the property, the court should require such third person to appear and state the nature of his claim, and maintain or relinquish the same. If in such procedings the stock attached should appear to be liable to the lien of the attachment, it ought to be sold for the satisfaction of the same, under an order of the court made for that purpose, but there should be no judgment against the company unless the lien of the attaching creditor was lost by its action. C. & O. R. Co. v. Paine, 29 Grat. 502.

Hearing by consent.—Where, in attachment against property of nonresident debtors, who have not been served with process personally or by publication, complainants consent to the hearing of the motion, by claimant of the property, to abate the attachment, decree abating the attachment, and declaring the estate not to belong to the said debtors, was not premature or erroneous. Kern v. Wyatt, 89 Va. 885, 17 S. E. 549.

Jurisdiction.—When the attachment is quashed court has no jurisdiction to pass upon a petition. Littell v. Julius Lansburg Furniture & Carpet Co., 96 Va. 542, 32 S. E. 63.

Generally.—Error in deciding the ownership of attached property is one of fact, and could be corrected only by appeal, and not by bill of review. Kern v. Wyatt, 89 Va. 885, 17 S. E. 549.

See Sams, Attachment, 229; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 983, 987; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 158, 578, 661; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 652; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 710, 717, 718, 725.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 23.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 224, 330.

Sec. 6408. Levy of attachment on effects, etc., of defendant in hands of officer under process; lien thereof.—Where an officer has in his possession or custody money or effects of the defendant held under an attachment executed, or other legal process, a delivery to such officer of an attachment under this chapter shall be deemed a levy thereof as to such money or effects, and constitute a lien thereon from the time of such delivery. (Code 1887, § 2985.)

Digitized by Google

See Sams, Attachment, 139; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 830, 957, 965, 993.

Discussed, 9 Va. Law J. 1.

Sec. 6409. Amendments.—Such amendments shall be allowed of the petition, answer, grounds of defense, and of any of the other proceedings in the attachment as shall be conducive to the attainment of the ends of substantial justice, and upon such terms as to continuance and costs as may seem proper. The amendment when made, shall, as against the principal defendant, and as to claims against him existing at the time the attachment was issued, relate back to the time of the levy of the attachment, unless otherwise directed. No attachment shall be quashed or dismissed for mere formal defects.

Revisors' Note.—This is a new section. There seems to be no good reason why a creditor who is proceeding by way of attachment should not be allowed to amend his pleadings as against his debtor and other creditors as well as any other litigant. If he has substantially complied with the law he should not be put out of court for merely formal defects. Nor is any good reason perceived why one creditor should not, as against another creditor, or against his debtor, be allowed to amend his pleadings, and when he does not make a new case, why the amendment should not, as against those parties, relate back to the levy of the attachment. The object of this section is to secure these rights to the attaching creditor.

Sec. 6410. Attachments in connection with pending suits or actions.—If an attachment be desired in connection with a pending suit or action, a petition for an attachment may be filed in the same court in which such suit or action is pending, and the procedure thereon shall be the same as if no suit or action were pending; but the attachment may be heard along with any suit in equity relating to the same subject so far as may be necessary for the convenient administration of justice. The suing out of an attachment in connection with a pending suit or action shall not be deemed the prosecution of a second action for the same cause.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and provides for proceedings on attachments sued out in connection with pending suits or actions. While the attachment is a separate and independent statutory proceeding, provision is made for it to be heard along with the pending suit, and it is declared that it shall not be deemed the prosecution of a second action for the same cause. It simply provides the means of issuing an attachment in a pending suit or action.

Sec. 6411. When and how debtor may have case reheard; protection of purchaser.—If a defendant, against whom, on publication, judgment is rendered under any such attachment, or his personal representative, shall return to or appear openly in this State, he may, within one year after a copy of such judgment shall be served on him at the instance of the plaintiff, or within five years from the date of the judgment, if he be not so served, petition to have the proceedings reheard. On giving security for costs, he shall be admitted to make defense against such judgment, as if he had appeared in the case before the same was rendered, except that the title of any bona fide purchaser to any property, real or personal, sold under such attachment, shall not be brought in question or impeached. But this section shall not apply to any case in which the petitioner, or his decedent, was served with a copy of the attachment more than ten days before the date of the judgment, or to any case in which he appeared and made defense. (Code 1887, § 2986.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2986 of the Code of 1887, with no substantial change, except to change sixty days to ten days in the last sentence.

Absent defendant cannot appeal.—An absent defendant against whom a decree (now judgment) has been made cannot appeal from the decree; his only remedy is that provided by the statute. Barbee v. Pannill, 6 Grat. 442; Platt v. Howland, 10 Leigh 507 (2d Ed.) 531. But if the decree (now judgment) is a joint decree against two, and is erroneous, the appellate court will upon the appeal of the absent defendant, who did appear and answer, reverse the decree as to both. Lenow v. Lenow, 8 Grat. 349.

When defendant may appear—Procedure upon appearance.—A defendant in a foreign attachment suit may appear at any time pending the suit, and have the cause reheard, tendering security for the costs. Anderson v. Johnson, 32 Grat. 558. But the court will not set aside the decree (now judgment) so soon as the answer is filed, but will proceed to a hearing. Platt v. Howland, 10 Leigh 507 (2d Ed.) 531.

Failure to give security.—If plaintiff, a non-resident, fail to give security within the time limited, his bill should be dismissed, and it is error to proceed with the case. Anderson v. Johnson, 32 Grat. 558.

On reversing the decree (now judgment) and remanding the cause, the appellate court will direct that the plaintiff be allowed a reasonable time to comply with the order requiring security. Anderson v. Johnson, 32 Grat. 558.

Service of process on attachment.—The last clause of this section refers to such service in the proceedings in the suit, and not to a service out of the suit and out of the State, and a service out of the suit and out of the State can have no greater effect than an order of publication. Anderson v. Johnson, 32 Grat. 558; Smith v. Chilton, 77 Va. 535.

Generally.—This section only applies to so much of the decree (now judgment) as operates upon the estate or effects of the absent debtor subject to the jurisdiction of the court, and has no application to so much of the decree as acts in personam. Rootes' Ex'r v. Tompkins' Trustees, 3 Grat. 98.

A decree in personam against an absent debtor cannot be collaterally assailed. Rootes' Ex'r v. Tompkins' Trustees, 3 Grat. 98.

Non-resident defendant may, under proper circumstanes, reopen the case, and remove the same to the United States court. Smith v. Life Asso., 76 Va. 380.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1000; Sams, Attachment, 261 et seq.; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 661; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 654; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 727, 731.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 25.

Sec. 6412. Order of court on rehearing or new trial; restitution to defendant.—On any rehearing or new trial had under the preceding section, the court may order the plaintiff in the original attachment to restore any money paid to him under such judgment to the said defendant, if living, or if dead, to the heir or personal representative of such defendant, as the same may be, the proceeds of real or personal estate, and enter a judgment therefor against him,

Digitized by Google

or it may confirm the former judgment; and in either case adjudge the costs to the prevailing party. (Code 1887, § 2987.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2987 of the Code of 1887 without substantial change.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 661; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1001; Sams, Attachment, 265; Bartón, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 654.

Sec. 6413. When appeal-bond given, property to be delivered to owner.—Where judgment in favor of the plaintiff is rendered in any case in which an attachment is sued out, and on appeal therefrom an appeal-bond is given, with condition to prosecute the appeal with effect or pay the debt, interest, costs, and damages, as well as the costs of the appeal, the officer, in whose custody any attached property is, shall deliver the same to the owner thereof. (Code 1887, § 2989.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2989 of the Code of 1887 without substantial change.

The attachment lien is in no manner affected or impaired by the execution of the bond. It can only be released by giving the bond required by section 6394. Magill v. Sauer, 20 Grat. 540.

See Sams, Attachment, 266; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 174, 969; Barton, C. Pr. 644.

Sec. 6414. Bonds may be given by any person.—Any bond authorized or required by any section of this chapter may be given either by the party himself or by any other person. (Code 1887, § 2990.)

See notes to section 6384; Sams, Attachment, 185; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 576; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 635, 642; Offterdinger v. Ford, 92 Va. 646, 24 S. E. 246.

Sec. 6415. How attachment for claim not exceeding twenty dollars obtained from and proceeded in before a justice; the proceeding when levied on real estate.—Any person having a claim not exceeding twenty dollars (exclusive of interest) which is cognizable by a justice under section six thousand and fifteen, may, if such claim is due and payable, and there exists any one or more of the first three grounds of attachment specified in section sixty-three hundred and seventy-nine, obtain an attachment therefor. Such attachment shall be issued by a justice upon the petition on oath by such person, his agent or attorney, conforming as near as may be to the petition prescribed by section sixty-three hundred and eighty-three, stating the nature of his claim and the ground of attachment relied on. The attachment shall be against the specific property, if any, claimed, and against the estate of the principal defendant, if the claim be not for specific property, directed to the sheriff, sergeant, or constable of any county or city, and shall be made returnable before the justice issuing the attachment, or some other justice of the same county or city, and thereupon such proceedings may be had before the justice as would, if the claim exceeded twenty dollars (exclusive of interest) be had before a court, except that the proceedings shall in all cases be without formal pleadings, and no order of publication shall be published in any newspaper, but if the defendant cannot be served with process, the attachment shall be posted at two or more public places in the county or city in which the attachment is sued out at least ten days before a judgment is entered or order of sale made of the attached effects. The justice shall try and decide the case without a jury. The attachment may be served on a corporation as process and notice may be served under sections six thousand and sixty-three and six thousand and sixty-four. All bonds taken under such attachment shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county or corporation court of the city in which the justice qualified. If such attachment be levied on real estate, the justice shall take no further cognizance of it, but it shall be removed by him, together with all papers and proceedings in the case, into any court to which an attachment issued by a justice for a claim exceeding twenty dollars (exclusive of interest) might have been returnable, to be further proceeded with in said court as if it had been originally cognizable therein. (Code 1887, § 2988.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2988 of the Code of 1887 without substantial change.

The petition for an attachment under this section should conform as near as may be to the petition prescribed by section 6383.

Sec. 6416. Against tenant removing his effects from leased premises.—On complaint by any lessor, his agent or attorney, to a justice of the county or city, or the clerk of the circuit court of the county or the clerk of the circuit or of any city court of the city, in which the leased premises or a part thereof may be, that any person liable to him for rent intends to remove, or is removing, or has, within thirty days, removed his effects from such premises otherwise than in the usual course of trade, if such lessor, his agent or attorney, make oath to the truth of such complaint to the best of his belief and to the rent which is reserved (whether in money or other thing), and will be payable within one year, and the time or times when it will be so payable, and also make oath either that there is not, or he believes, unless an attachment issues, that there will not be left on such premises property liable to distress sufficient to satisfy the rent so to become payable, such justice or clerk, as the case may be, shall issue an attachment for the said rent against such goods as might be distrained for the same if it had become payable, and against any other estate of the person so liable therefor. The attachment shall also summon the defendant to answer the attachment. (Code 1887, § 2962.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2962 of the Code of 1887. The last sentence is new.

Under-tenant.—The goods of an under-tenant are liable to a writ of attachment under this section. (See section 5523 and revisors' note.) Bernard v. McClanahan, 115 Va. 453, 79 S. E. 1059.

Term must have commenced.—Lessor is not entitled to attachment under this section before the commencement of the term for which the rent is to be paid. Johnson v. Garland, 9 Leigh 149.

In such case, notwithstanding the lessee has entered into a recognizance to pay the rent, the court should, on his motion, quash the attachment and the recognizance also. Johnson v. Garland, 9 Leigh 149.

Digitized by Google

Removals.—This section formerly applied as well to removals in the regular course of business as to other removals. Offterdinger v. Ford, 92 Va. 636, 24 S. E. 246; Clinch River Mineral Co. v. Harrison, 91 Va. 122, 21 S. E. 660, note 1 Va. Law Reg. 37, 45; 7 Va. Law Reg. 77. Now the removal must be "otherwise than in the usual course of trade."

Intention to remove.—The intention of a trustee in a deed of trust given by the lessee to remove property on the leased premises without securing a year's rent, or without leaving sufficient property liable to levy for a year's rent, is of itself sufficient cause for suing out an attachment. Offterdinger v. Ford, 92 Va. 636, 24 S. E. 246.

Goods removed more than thirty days.—There is no authority for levying either a distress warrant or an attachment for rent upon property which has been removed from the leased premises more than thirty days. Dime Deposit Bank v. Wescott, 113 Va. 567, 75 S. E. 179.

Action at law—Effect on attachment.—The fact that the action at law referred to in a clerk's certificate in an attachment under this section was never matured for hearing does not render the attachment void, for the attachment was good as a remedy for the collection of rent to become due under a contract, whether there was an action at law to recover it or not. Bernard v. McClanahan, 115 Va. 453, 79 S. E. 1059.

Defenses.—See note, 10 Va. L. Reg. 664.

Generally.—Cited but not construed in Pickens v. Daniel, 52 S. E. 213; Ailstock v. Moore, 104 Va. 565, 52 S. E. 213.

See Sams, Attachment, 21 et seq.; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 925, 933, 950, 968; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 155, 573, et seq.; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 39, 43, 678, 685, 689, 695.

Form of affidavit for attachment for rent, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1621; of attachment for rent, Id.

Distress for rent, see chapter 227.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 274, 420, 421, 422, 423, 468, 469, 470, 471, 627, 628, 629, 630.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 3.

Sec. 6417. Where an attachment for rent for twenty dollars or more returnable.—If an attachment issued under the preceding section be for the sum of twenty dollars or more, it shall be returnable to the first day of the next term of the circuit court of the county, or of the circuit or any city court having jurisdiction of the subject matter, of the city, in which such justice or clerk resides, and the proceedings thereafter shall conform to the provisions of this chapter applicable to attachments in court. (Code 1887, § 2965.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2965 of the Code of 1887, though the provision as to proceedings after the return of the attachment is new.

For case under former statute, see Kyle v. Connelly, 3 Leigh 719.

Sec. 6418. Where attachments for rent for less than twenty dollars returnable, and how proceeded in.—If an attachment issued under section sixty-four hundred and sixteen be for a sum less than twenty dollars, it shall be returnable before some justice of the county or city in which it was issued on a day to be specified in the attachment, not more than ninety days from the date of the issue thereof, and such proceedings may be had before the justice as would, if the claim exceeded twenty dollars, be had before a court,

Digitized by Google

except that the proceedings shall in all cases be without formal pleadings, and the justice shall try and decide the case without a jury. If such attachment be levied on real estate, the justice shall take no further cognizance of it, but shall remove the same, together with all the papers and proceedings in the case, into such court as would have had jurisdiction of the same if the amount had exceeded twenty dollars, and be there further proceeded with as if it had been originally cognizable therein. No order of publication shall be published in any newspaper in an attachment heard by a justice, but if the defendant cannot be served with process the attachment shall be posted at two or more public places in the neighborhood of the leased premises, at least ten days before judgment is entered, or an order of sale made of the attached effects. (Code 1887, § 2988.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2988 of the Code of 1887 with some changes and omissions to adapt it to the new procedure herein. The last sentence with reference to the order of publication is new.

Sec. 6419. When and how bail required of defendant leaving the State; form of writ.—If, in any action or suit, the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall make affidavit before the court in which it is pending, or the judge thereof in vacation, or the clerk thereof, stating that the plaintiff has cause of action or suit against a defendant, the amount and justice of his claim, and that there is probable cause for believing that the defendant is about to quit this State, unless he be forthwith apprehended, and shall file in the office of said clerk the bond required by the following section, it shall be the duty of said clerk to issue a writ of capias ad respondendum against the defendant, the form of which shall, in a suit in equity as well as in an action at law, be, as nearly as may be, assimilated to the form of such writ as it was used at law before July 1, 1850. (Code 1887, § 2991.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken in the main from section 2991 of the Code of 1887, but very material changes are made in it. The form of procedure is simplified by making it the duty of the clerk, when the affidavit is filed, at once to issue the capias. The provision with reference to the bond is put in this section instead of the following section, and the amount for which the defendant is to be held to bail is fixed by section 6421.

For history of this statute, see Claflin v. Steenbock, 18 Grat. 849.

To justify the holding of parties to bail, plaintiff must believe when he makes the affidavit that the facts sworn to therein are true, and he must have been justified in so believing from the circumstances then known to him. Forbes v. Hagman, 75 Va. 168; Spengler v. Davy, 15 Grat. 381; see Scott v. Shelor, 28 Grat. 891.

When defendant has been held to bail, the relation of principal and bail between the defendant and his surety is established, and the surety may surrender his principal. Levy v. Arnsthall, 10 Grat. 641.

See Sams, Attachment, 275 et seq.; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 632; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1007; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 43, 730; 7 Va. Law Reg. 529, 530.

Form of capias ad respondendum, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1634. See 11 Va. L. Reg. 1050; Gregory's Forms Nos. 267, 473, 632.

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 30.

Sec. 6420. Plaintiff to give bond before suing out capias.—Before a capias is sued out of the clerk's office in any action or suit, the plaintiff in such action or suit, or some other person, shall file in the clerk's office bond, with surety approved by the clerk, in a penalty equal to the sum in which the defendant is directed to be held to bail, payable to said defendant, with condition to pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against the plaintiff or sustained by the defendant by reason of the arrest of the defendant under said capias. (Code 1887, § 2997.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 633; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1009; Gregory's Forms No. 425.

Sec. 6421. His arrest and commitment unless bond given; its condition.—Under such capias, the defendant against whom it issues shall be arrested and committed to jail, unless bond be given in a sum equal to the amount of the plaintiff's claim sworn to, as aforesaid, with sufficient surety with condition that in case there shall in the action or suit be any judgment, decree, or order on which a writ of fieri facias may issue, and within four months after such judgment, decree, or order, a summons shall be issued under section sixty-five hundred and three by a commissioner of the court wherein such judgment, decree, or order is, the said defendant will appear before such commissioner at the time and place designated in said summons and answer under oath such interrogatories as shall be propounded to him by counsel for plaintiff, or by the said commissioner, and make such conveyance and delivery as is required by chapter two hundred and seventy-two, or in case of failure to appear and answer such interrogatories and make such conveyance and delivery, that the defendant will perform and satisfy the said judgment, decree, or order. The commissioner shall give twenty days' notice of the time and place fixed by him for answering such interrogatories, to the resident counsel for the defendant, if any such be known to him, and, if none such be known to him, he shall mail such notice to the defendant at such address, if any, as may be furnished by the defendant, and prepay the postage thereon, at least twenty days before the date fixed for his examination. (Code 1887, § 2992; 1916, p. 362.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2992 of the Code of 1887, as amended by Acts 1916, p. 362, with a material change. It is provided that the commissioner shall give twenty days' notice of the time and place fixed by him for answering the interrogatories, and that this notice shall be given to resident counsel if any be known to him, and if none, shall be mailed to the defendant at such address, if any, as may be furnished by the defendant, at least twenty days before the date fixed for the examination. It seems only right and proper that the defendant should have this notice. The defendant is required to appear at the time and place designated in the summons, and to answer under oath such interrogatories as shall be propounded to him by the plaintiff or the commissioner, etc. These interrogatories are not required to be furnished to the defendant before the time specified, in this respect conforming to section 6503.

Digitized by Google

Former section critcized, 11 Va. L. Reg. 1050.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 43, 669, 730; Gregory's Forms No. 426.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 106, section 33.

Sec. 6422. Who may take it; where filed.—The bond authorized by the preceding section may be taken by the officer making the arrest, by the court from which the capias issued, the judge thereof in vacation, or by the clerk of such court. The bond shall be returned to and filed in the clerk's office of such court. (Code 1887, § 2993.)

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1008; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 656.

Sec. 6423. When and how capias quashed, and defendant discharged.—If the defendant give such bond, or be committed to jail for the want of it, the court in which the case is pending, or the judge thereof in vacation, may, after reasonable notice to the plaintiff, or his attorney, quash the capias and the bond, and discharge the defendant from custody, on being satisfied that there was not probable cause for believing that the defendant was about to quit the State, and whether there was such cause or not, may discharge him from custody when the plaintiff is cast in the action or suit. (Code 1887, § 2994.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2994 of the Code of 1887 without material change.

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 656; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1008; Sams, Attachment, 286.

Sec. 6424. When plaintiff may file interrogatories; if not filed court may discharge defendant.—While a defendant is in custody, whether under an arrest made heretofore or hereafter, the plaintiff, without having a judgment against the defendant, may cause him to be examined before a commissioner in chancery in like manner as might be done under section sixty-five hundred and three, if such judgment had been obtained and a fieri facias thereon delivered to an officer. And the court wherein the case is pending, or the judge thereof in vacation, may, after reasonable notice to the plaintiff, or his attorney, discharge a defendant from custody, unless the plaintiff cause him to be so examined within such time as the said court or judge may deem reasonable; or, though so examined, may discharge him when proper answers have been given and proper conveyance and delivery made. (Code 1887, § 2995.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from section 2995 of the Code of 1887, and the only changes made in it are to conform to the present method by which a debtor is examined under section 6503.

This section applies to a defendant in custody of his bail as well as a defendant in jail. Levy v. Arnsthall, 10 Grat. 641.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1009; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 656; Sams, Attachment, 288; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 731.

Sec. 6425. To whom conveyance to be made; what to be returned to court; disposition of the property.—The conveyance required by

Digitized by Google

the preceding section shall be made to the officer making the arrest, or if for any reason it cannot be made to him, then to such other officer as the court or judge may direct. The interrogatories, answers, and report of the commissioner shall be returned to the court in which the case is pending, and filed with the papers of such case. And the said court may make such order as it may deem right as to the sale and proper application of the estate conveyed and delivered under the preceding section. (Code 1887, § 2996.)

See Sams, Attachment, 291; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1007.

CHAPTER 270.

Mechanics' and Other Liens.

Sec.
6426. Lien for work done and materials furnished by artisans, mechanics, lumber dealers, and others.
6427. Perfection of lien by general contractor; Miscellaneous Lien Book; notice of lien.
6428. Perfection of lien by sub-contractor; extent of lien.
6429. Perfection of lien by any person performing labor or furnishing materials for a sub-contractor; extent of lien.
6430. Sheriffs, sergeants, and constables to serve process.
6431. What inaccuracies not to affect lien.
6432. What owner may do when contractor fails or refuses to complete building, etc.
6433. Limitation of lien.
6434. Lien of general contractor to inure to benefit of sub-contractor.
6435. Validity and priority of lien not affected by assignments.
6436. Extent of lien where owner has less than a fee in the land; in enforcement of liens, what preference is given to the mechanic's lien.
6437. How liens are enforced; no priority except, etc.

Sec.
6438. Lien of employees, etc., of transportation companies, etc., on franchises and property of company.
6439. How perfected; how enforced.
6440. Assignee's rights.
6441. Satisfaction of lien.
6442. In case of bankruptcy, death or absconding, how notices to be served, acts done, etc.
6443. Lien of mechanics for repairs.
6444. Lien of inn-keepers, etc.
6445. Lien of keeper of livery stable, etc.
6446. Lien of stock breeders and owners of licensed stallions.
6447. Special license tax on bulls; lien on the offspring thereof.
6448. Payment of debts due by commission merchants; remedies.
6449. Enforcement of liens acquired under sections sixty-four hundred and forty-three, sixty-four hundred and forty-four, and sixty-four hundred and forty-five, and of the lien of bailees.
6450. How and when validity of the lien, or claim of other person to the property, is tried.

Digitized by Google

Sec.
6451. Appeals, how taken and tried.
6452. Lien on crops for advances to farmers; nature of agreement thereof; where recorded.
6453. Protection of lien by injunction; who may grant it; where tried.
6454. Lien of landlords and farmers for advances to tenants and laborers; how enforced; priority of lien.
6455. Lien of landlords and other recorded liens not affected by lien given under section sixty-four hundred and fifty-two; nor exemption to poor debtors.
6456. Satisfaction of lien to be entered by creditor; how signed; how owner, etc., of the real estate may have lien released; former releases validated; releases to person dead enure to successors.
6457. Protection of assignees, transferees, or indorsees of debts secured on real estate by mortgage, deed of trust, vendor's or mechanic's lien.
6458. Purchaser for valuable consideration without notice not affected by liens of the Mutual Assurance Society against fire on buildings until such liens are filed in the clerk's office.

Sec. 6426. Lien for work done and materials furnished by artisans, mechanics, lumber dealers, and others.—All persons performing labor, or furnishing materials, of the value of ten dollars or more, for the construction, removal, repair, or improvement of any building or structure permanently annexed to the freehold, and all persons performing any labor or furnishing materials of like value for the construction of any railroad, shall have a lien, if perfected as hereinafter provided, upon such building or structure, and so much land therewith as shall be necessary for the convenient use and enjoyment thereof, and upon such railroad and franchise for the work done and materials furnished. But when the claim is for repairs or improvements only, no lien shall attach to the property repaired or improved unless such repairs or improvements were ordered by the owner, or his agent. As used in this chapter, the term "general contractor" shall include contractors, laborers, mechanics, and persons furnishing materials, who contract directly with the owner, and the term "sub-contractor" shall include all such contractors, laborers, mechanics, and persons furnishing materials, who do not contract with the owner but with the general contractor. (Code 1887, § 2475; 1895-6, p. 71.)

Revisors' Note.—By this section the lien is given to all persons performing labor or furnishing materials, whether they be contractors, sub-contractors, or parties dealing with sub-contractors. The provision concerning IMPROVEMENTS is new, but is no doubt simply declaratory of pre-existing law. The last sentence is new, and defines the terms "general contractor" and "sub-contractor."

Historical.—Mechanics' liens in Virginia were first created by Acts 1842-43, p. 52.

Formerly (Code 1860, chapter 119, section 2) no lien was given upon property unless situated within a city or town. The change giving lien upon property situated in the country (Acts 1866-67, p. 805) was declared to operate prospectively only. Hendricks v. Fields, 26 Grat. 447.

Digitized by Google

Principles of construction.—The remedy being unknown to the common law, in order to entitle one to its benefits he must follow the statutes strictly. Shackleford v. Beck, 80 Va. 573; Boston v. C. & O. R. R. Co., 76 Va. 180; Trustees v. Davis, 85 Va. 193, 7 S. E. 245.

The remedial portions of the mechanics' lien law, which provides for enforcing the lien after it is perfected, should be liberally construed, but the other portions, upon which the existence of the lien depends, should be strictly construed. Clement v. Adams Bros.-Paynes Co., 113 Va. 547, 75 S. E. 294.

Actual notice of a claim of mechanics' lien will not affect a purchaser if the statute has not been complied with. Shackleford v. Beck, 80 Va. 573.

Property subject to lien.—In Virginia a mechanics' lien cannot be asserted against public property. Phillips v. Univ. of Va., 97 Va. 472, 34 S. E. 66, 47 L. R. A. 284, 5 Va. Law Reg. 466, and note; Hicks v. Roanoke Brick Co., 94 Va. 741, 27 S. E. 596; Manly Mfg. Co. v. Broaddus, 94 Va. 547, 27 S. E. 438. See, also, 5 Va. Law Reg. 408; 3 Va. Law Reg. 151.

Furnishing materials to be used by a contractor in the erection of a public improvement for a city, which materials are so used, does not give any lien on the funds due by the city to the contractor. Hicks v. Roanoke Brick Co., 94 Va. 741, 27 S. E. 596.

Unless there is proof to the contrary, a small lot in a town in which a building has been erected will be presumed to be "necessary for the convenient use and enjoyment" thereof. Pairo v. Bethell, 75 Va. 832.

Where machinery is so fixed to realty as to constitute a part of the building, the manufacturer who furnished it can perfect a mechanics' lien against same. Haskin Co. v. Cleveland Co., 94 Va. 439, 26 S. E. 878.

Leased premises.—A lessor's interest in land is not subject to a mechanics' lien for repairs ordered by the tenant unless the tenant was the agent of the lessor or the lessor caused the repairs to be made or unless he ratified what the tenant had done. This rule is not changed by any relationship of the parties. Carter v. Keeton, 112 Va. 307, 71 S. E. 554.

A lease requiring certain buildings to be erected on the leased premises by the lessee, does not constitute the lessee an agent of the lessor, nor give him the implied authority to create a lien upon the land for improvements made thereon. Atlas Cement Co. v. Main Line Co., 112 Va. 7, 70 S. E. 536; note in 17 Va. Law Reg. 217.

Waiver of lien.—Taking a note which extends the credit beyond the six (now twelve) months prescribed by section 6433 for bringing suit to enforce the lien operates as a virtual waiver of the lien, but otherwise as to a note falling due within the six (now twelve) months. 2 Va. Law Reg. 510, and cases cited. For conflicting authorities, see Kilpatrick v. Kansas City & B. R. Co., 38 Neb. 620, 57 N. W. 664, 41 Am. St. Rep. 761.

Assignment of lien.—A contract and lien may be assigned and the assignee may enforce his rights in the manner the mechanic could do. Laege v. Bossieux, 15 Grat. 83, 76 Am. Dec. 189, and note Va. Rep. Ann.

Where an inchoate right to a mechanic's lien exists in favor of a contractor, the same passes with an assignment of the contract made for the benefit of his creditors, and the assignee upon completion of the contract may perfect and enforce the lien. Bristol Co. v. Thomas, 93 Va. 396, 25 S. E. 110.

"General contractor" and "sub-contractor."—The last sentence of the present section defines these terms. For cases prior to the insertion of these definitions, see M. & M. Bank v. Dashiell, 25 Grat. 616; Boston v. C. & O. R. Co., 76 Va. 180; Sands, etc. v. Stagg, 105 Va. 445, 54 S. E. 21, 52 S. E. 633.

Generally.—Sections 2475 to 2484, both inclusive (of the Code of 1887—sections 6426 to 6437 of this Code), relate to the execution and enforcement of liens for work done and materials furnished in the construction, repair, or improvement of any building or structure permanently annexed to the freehold, whether performed by general contractors or sub-contractors. Boston, &c., Co. v. Carman Lumber Co., 94 Va. 98, 26 S. E. 390.

Digitized by Google

Claim of lien under this section defeats lien under section 6438. Newgass v. Atlantic (C. C.) 56 Fed. 676.

Cited but not construed in American Woodworking Machinery Co. v. Agelesto, 136 Fed. 401.

Can the lien be claimed for the building or repair of a bridge on private property? 6 Va. Law Reg. 120.

For monograph on Mechanics' Liens in Virginia, see 2 Va. Law Reg. 489; see, also, 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 322; 2 Barton, Ch. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1077; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 813, 816, 817, 824.

See 2 Va. L. Reg. 493; notes to sections 6427 to 6437.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 75, section 2.

Sec. 6427. Perfection of lien by general contractor; miscellaneous lien book; notice of lien.—A general contractor, in order to perfect the lien given by the preceding section, shall at any time after the work is done and the materials furnished by him and before the expiration of sixty days from the time such building, structure, or railroad is completed, or the work thereon otherwise terminated, file in the clerk's office in the county or city in which the building, structure, or railroad, or any part thereof is, or in the clerk's office of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, if the said building, structure, or railroad, or any part thereof, is within the corporate limits of said city, a memorandum showing the names of the owner of the property sought to be charged, and of the claimant of the lien, the amount and consideration of his claim, and the time or times when the same is or will be due and payable, verified by the oath of the claimant, or his agent, including a statement declaring his intention to claim the benefit of the lien, and giving a brief description of the property on which he claims a lien. It shall be the duty of the clerk in whose office such memorandum shall be filed as hereinbefore provided to record the same in the Miscellaneous Lien Book, and to index the same not only in the Miscellaneous Lien Book, but also in the general index of deeds, in the name as well of the claimant of the lien as of the owner of the property, and from the time of such recording and indexing all persons shall be deemed to have notice thereof. The cost of recording such memorandum shall be taxed against the person found liable in any judgment or decree enforcing such lien.

The memorandum and affidavit required by this section shall be sufficient if substantially in form and effect as follows:

MEMORANDUM FOR MECHANIC'S LIEN CLAIMED BY GENERAL CONTRACTOR.

..... (contractor) claims that ..... (owner) is

Digitized by Google

indebted to him in the sum of ..... dollars ($.....) for work done (or materials furnished, or both, as the case may be,) in and about the construction (or removal, repair, or improvement, as the case may be,) of a ..... (describe nature of structure, whether dwelling, store, or, etc.,) in the county (or city) of ..... with interest thereon from the ..... day of ..... until payment, which sum is now due and payable (or will be due and payable, as follows, to-wit: .....), and for which sum of ..... dollars the said ..... (contractor) claims a lien on the following described property of the said .... (owner) to-wit: ..... (insert description of property).

.....(Date).

..... (Name of contractor).

AFFIDAVIT.

State of Virginia,

County (or City) of ....., to-wit:

I, ... (notary or other officer) for the county (or city) aforesaid, do certify that ..... (contractor, or ..... agent for ....., as the case may be,) this day made oath before me in my county (or city) aforesaid that .....: (the owner) is justly indebted to him (or to ..... contractor, as the case may be) in the sum of ..... dollars, for the consideration stated in the foregoing memorandum, and that the same is payable as therein stated.

Given under my hand this the ..... day of ....., 19.....

..... (N. P. or J. P., etc.)

(Code 1887, § 2476; 1895-6, pp. 71, 903; 1897-8, p. 487.)

Revisors' Note.—This section substitutes the memorandum for the account required by the former law. It is no longer necessary for the itemized account to be recorded, but the plaintiff, when he files his bill to enforce the lien, is required to file an itemized statement of his account. (See section 6437.) Under the former law the itemized account had to be recorded. In many instances the account consisted of a large number of items, such as a bill of hardware used in the erection of a building. The cost of recording the itemized account was large, and it served no useful purpose in this connection. Now what is to be recorded is to this extent similar to what is required in the case of a supply lien. The memorandum is to be recorded in the book of Miscellaneous Liens instead of the Mechanics' Lien Record, the latter book being discontinued. (See section 3393.) The memorandum is to be indexed not only in the Miscellaneous Lien book, but in the general index of deeds as well. All persons are deemed to have notice from the time of such recording and indexing. The former law read "such filing," and the meaning was not altogether clear.

The section provides that the cost of recording the memorandum shall be taxed against the person found liable in any judgment or decree enforcing the lien. It prescribes what should be recited in the memorandum and affidavit, the forms being given. The memorandum is required to state the time or times when the claim will become payable, so that any person examining the record will be able to tell when the time limit for suing expires.

Digitized by Google

Attention is called to section 276 on the subject of affidavits.

Account required by section 2476 of the Code of 1887, as amended.—Under the present law the account is not recorded under the above section, but simply the memorandum described therein. When the plaintiff files his bill under section 6437 to enforce his lien, however, he is required to file with it "an itemized statement of his account," etc. See revisors' notes to above section and section 6437. The following cases relate to the sufficiency of the account required by section 2476 of the Code of 1887: Gilman v. Ryan, 95 Va. 494, 28 S. E. 875; Shackleford v. Beck, 80 Va. 573; Taylor v. Netherwood, 91 Va. 88, 20 S. E. 888; Withrow Lumber Co. v. Glasgow Inv. Co., 101 Fed. 863, 42 C. C. A. 61; Furst-Kerber Co. v. Wells, 116 Va. 95, 81 S. E. 22; Brown v. Cornwell, 108 Va. 129, 60 S. E. 623; Rison v. Moon, 91 Va. 384, 22 S. E. 165; 11 Va. L. Reg. 61.

Verification of account formerly required.—The following cases relate to sufficiency of the affidavit under the former section: Taylor v. Netherwood, 91 Va. 88, 20 S. E. 888; Clement v. Adams Bros.-Paynes Co., 113 Va. 547, 75 S. E. 294, 18 Va. L. Reg. 437, and note; Diebold v. Tatterson, 115 Va. 766, 80 S. E. 585. The present section gives the form of the affidavit. On the subject of affidavits by corporations and agents, see section 276.

Time of filing memorandum.—Where the completion of the work was prevented by the owner, a contractor was relieved of the necessity of filing his account (now memorandum). M. & M. Bank v. Dashiell, 25 Grat. 616. But it would seem otherwise now that the statute has been so amended as to require the filing of the memorandum within sixty days after completion of structure, or "the work thereon otherwise terminated."

Where the parties to a contract for the erection of a building agree that it shall be considered as complete before the finishing touches are actually put on, the time within which a mechanic's lien must be filed commences to run from that time, and not from the time of the actual completion of the building. Trustees v. Davis, 85 Va. 193, 7 S. E. 245.

Where a bill distinctly averred that the mechanic's lien was filed as provided in sections 2475 and 2476 of the Code of 1887, and it appeared from the copy of the record of the lien filed with the bill as an exhibit that the last charge in the account was for work done within sixty days of recordation of lien, it was held that the lien was properly perfected, and that the demurrer to the bill should be overruled. Richlands Flint-Glass Co. v. Hiltebeitel, 92 Va. 91, 22 S. E. 806. As the law now stands, the account is not recorded under section 6427 (corresponding to section 2476 of the Code of 1887)), but simply a memorandum. See revisors' notes to section 6427 and 6437.

A running account, where nothing to the contrary appears, is to be considered as falling due at the date of the last item. Richlands Flint-Glass Co. v. Hiltebeitel, 92 Va. 91, 22 S. E. 806; Osborne v. Big Stone Co., 96 Va. 58, 30 S. E. 446.

The filing of the claim within the time prescribed by the statute is one of the essential requisites in perfecting the lien. If not so filed no lien is acquired. Furst-Kerber Co. v. Wells, 116 Va. 95, 81 S. E. 22.

Where filed.—In order to perfect a lien against a railroad in its entirety, the proper account (now memorandum) must have formerly been filed in the clerk's office of each county through which it passes. Otherwise now by above amendment. A lien filed in the Chancery Court of Richmond does not attach to wharves lying within one mile of the corporate limits of said city. While they are within its jurisdiction, they are not within the limits of the city. Boston v. C. & O. R. Co., 76 Va. 180.

Digitized by Google

Description of property.—All that the law requires in describing the property on which the lien is asserted is to set forth a sufficient description to enable the owners to tell upon which piece of his property the lien is claimed, and to give notice to purchasers and creditors so that they may identify the property and protect themselves against the lien. Taylor v. Netherwood, 91 Va. 88, 20 S. E. 888. See section 6431.

Disconnected pieces of property.—Where a contract has been made which estimates or fixes the price of materials furnished and work done, upon each of two or more buildings on disconnected lots, an account which claims the aggregate price as a lien upon all lots is not a substantial compliance with the statute. Gilman v. Ryan, 95 Va. 494, 28 S. E. 875. But in Sergeant v. Denby, 87 Va. 206, 12 S. E. 402, it was decided that a sub-contractor who furnished materials for the construction of two houses on opposite sides of the street, but under a single contract for the entire work, and for a sum in gross, had a joint lien on both houses and lots for the entire amount of materials furnished for both houses.

Generally.—If a material man fails to acquire a mechanic's lien on the building into which his materials are placed, and the sub-contractor to whom they were furnished by him is adjudged a bankrupt, the amount due the sub-contractor by the general contractor passes to the sub-contractor's trustee as assets of the bankrupt. Furst-Kerber Co. v. Wells, 116 Va. 95, 81 S. E. 22. See section 6434.

See 10 Va. L. Reg. 431, and note. Former section commented upon in note to Com. v. Wampler, 11 Va. Law Reg. 668.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 816, 817, 826.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 75, section 4.

Sec. 6428. Perfection of lien by sub-contractor; extent of lien.—Any sub-contractor, in order to perfect the lien given him by section sixty-four hundred and twenty-six shall comply with the preceding section, and in addition give notice in writing to the owner of the property or his agent of the amount and character of his claim. But the amount for which a sub-contractor may perfect a lien under this section shall not exceed the amount in which the owner is indebted to the general contractor at the time the notice is given, or shall thereafetr become indebted to said general contractor upon his contract with said general contractor for said structure or building or railroad.

The memorandum, affidavit and notice required by this section shall be sufficient if substantially in form and effect as follows:

MEMORANDUM OF MECHANIC'S LIEN CLAIMED BY SUB-CONTRACTOR.

..... (sub-contractor) claims that ..... (general contractor) is indebted to him in the sum of ..... dollars ($.....) for work done (or materials furnished, or both, as the case may be) for him, in and about the construction (or removal, repair or improvement, as the case may be,) of a ..... (describe nature of structure, whether dwelling, store, or, etc.,) which he has contracted to construct (or remove, etc.,) for .....

Digitized by Google

(owner), which sum bears interest from the .....day of ....., 19....., and is now due and payable (or will be due and payable as follows, to-wit: .....). For the foregoing sum due to the said ..... (sub-contractor) as aforesaid, he claims a lien on the following described property of the said ..... (owner), to-wit: ..... (insert description of property).

.....(Date).

.....(Sub-contractor).

AFFIDAVIT.

State of Virginia,

County (or city) of ....., to-wit:

I, ... (notary or other officer) for the county (or city) aforesaid do certify that ..... (sub-contractor, or his agent, as the case may be,) this day made oath before me in my county (or city) aforesaid that ..... (general contractor) is justly indebted to him (or to ....., sub-contractor, as the case may be,) in the sum of ..... dollars for the consideration stated in the foregoing memorandum, and that the same is payable as therein stated.

Given under my hand this the ..... day of ....., 19....

.....(N. P. or J. P., etc.)

NOTICE.

To ..... (owner).

You are hereby notified that ..... (general contractor) is indebted to me in the sum of ..... dollars ($.....) with interest thereon from the ..... day of ....., 19....., for work done (or materials furnished, as the case may be,) in and about the construction (or removal, etc.,) of a ..... (describe structure, whether dwelling, store, or, etc.,) which he has contracted to construct (or remove, etc.,) for you, in the county (or city) of ....., and that I have duly recorded a mechanic's lien for the same.

Given under my hand this the ..... day of ....., 19....

..... (Sub-contractor).

(Code 1887, § 2477; 1893-4, p. 523; 1895-6, p. 903; 1897-8, p. 488.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from the first part of section 2477 of the Code of 1887, as amended. The forms of the memorandum, affidavit, and notice are new. No other material change.

Notice.—Where it was shown that on the day the lien was perfected an exact copy of the account as filed in the clerk's office, and statement of the lien attached to the account was served on the owner, it was held sufficient notice to the owner. Taylor v. Netherwood, 91 Va. 88, 20 S. E. 888. The present law substitutes a memorandum for the account formerly required, as to which see section 6427. The form of the memorandum is therein given.

Premature filing.—A sub-contractor who prematurely files a mechanic's lien is liable in an action on the case for libel for the injury occasioned thereby to the contractor. Moore v. Rolin, 89 Va. 107, 15 S. E. 520, 16 L. R. A. 625.

Digitized by Google

Owner retaining percentage.—A provision in a building contract by which the owner retains a percentage of the cost until the completion of the building, and stipulates that he may supply any deficiency and deduct the cost from any money due or to become due under the contract, is intended for the benefit of the owner alone, and not for sub-contractors who may be thereafter employed. Schrieber v. Citizens' Bank, 99 Va. 257, 38 S. E. 134.

Extra work not covered or contemplated by the original contract, and paid for by the owner as soon as completed, constitutes a transaction separate from the original contract, and cannot be considered in a contest between owner and sub-contractor. Id.

Generally.—As to who are sub-contractors, see section 6426.

Former section discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 133.

See Burks' Pl. & Pr., 822, 824; notes to preceding sections.

Sec. 6429. Perfection of lien by any person performing labor or furnishing materials for a sub-contractor; extent of lien.—Any person performing labor or furnishing materials for a sub-contractor, in order to perfect the lien given him by section sixty-four hundred and twenty-six, shall comply with the provisions of section sixty-four hundred and twenty-seven, and in addition thereto give notice in writing to the owner of the property, or his agent, and to the general contractor, or his agent, of the amount and character of his claim. But the amount for which a lien may be perfected by such person shall not exceed the amount for which said sub-contractor could himself claim a lien under the preceding section.

The memorandum, affidavit and notice required by this section shall be sufficient if substantially in form and effect as follows:

MEMORANDUM OF MECHANIC'S LIEN CLAIMED BY SUB-CONTRACTOR.

..... (sub-subcontractor) claims that ..... (sub-contractor) is indebted to him in the sum of ..... dollars ($.....) for work done (or materials, etc.,) for him as sub-contractor under ..... contractor to construct (or remove, etc.,) a ..... (describe structure, whether dwelling, store, or etc.,) for ..... (owner) which sum bears interest from the ..... day of ....., 19...., and is now due and payable (or will be due and payable as follows, to-wit: .....). For the foregoing sum of $....., due to the said ..... (sub-subcontractor) he claims a lien on the following described property of the said ..... (owner), to-wit: ..... (insert description of property).

.....(Date).

.....(Sub-subcontractor).

AFFIDAVIT.

State of Virginia,

County (or city) of ....., to-wit:

I, ... (notary or other officer) for the county

Digitized by Google

(or city) aforesaid do certify that ..... (sub-subcontractor, or his agent, as the case may be,) this day made oath before me in my county (or city) aforesaid that ..... (sub-contractor) is justly indebted to him (or to ....., sub-contractor, as the case may be,) in the sum of ..... dollars for the consideration stated in the foregoing memorandum, and that the same is payable as therein stated.

Given under my hand this the ..... day of ....., 19....

..... (N. P., or J. P., etc.)

NOTICE.

To ..... (owner) and ..... (general contractor):

You are hereby notified that ....., a sub-contractor under you, said ..... (general contractor) for the construction (or removal, etc.,) of a ..... (describe structure) for you, said ..... (owner) is indebted to me in the sum of ..... dollars ($.....) with interest thereon from the ..... day of ....., 19...., for work done (or materials furnished) in and about the construction (or removal, et.,) of said ..... (naming structure), situate in the county (or city) of ....., Virginia, and that I have duly recorded a mechanic's lien for the same.

Given under my hand, this the ..... day of ....., 19....

.....(Sub-subcontractor).

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from the latter part of section 2477 of the Code of 1887, as amended. The provision that the notice shall also be given to the general contractor or his agent is new. The forms are new.

See notes to preceding section.

Sec. 6430. Sheriffs, sergeants, and constables to serve notices.—Any sheriff, sergeant, or constable thereto required shall serve any notice authorized or required by this chapter, in his county or corporation, and make return of the time and manner of service, and for a failure so to do he shall forfeit twenty dollars.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and makes it the duty of the officers named to serve the notices authorized or required by the chapter, in this respect supplying an omission in the former law.

Sec. 6431. What inaccuracies not to affect lien.—No inaccuracy in the memorandum filed, or in the description of the property to be covered by the lien, shall invalidate the lien, if the property can be reasonably identified by the description given and the memorandum conform substantially to the requirements of sections sixty-four hundred and twenty-seven, sixty-four hundred and twenty-eight and sixty-four hundred and twenty-nine, respectively, and is not wilfully false. (Code 1887, § 2478.)

Revisors' Note.—"Memorandum" is substituted for "account" to make the section conform to section 6427. No other material change. Section 2479 of the Code of 1887, as amended, dealing with personal liability of owner, has been omitted, thereby taking out of the statute the whole subject of personal liability of the owner. So long as the personal liability of the owner is retained in the chapter, it is practically impossible to administer the mechanics' lien law in such a way as will give information to everybody of the state of the liens, and not do injustice to someone. In practice this section caused much confusion, and, in some cases, injustice. If any person desires to secure the personal liability of the owner, it should be a matter of contract, and there is no necessity for injecting it into the mechanics' lien law.

Digitized by Google

The personal liability feature is chiefly desired by material-men who are unwilling to trust contractors or sub-contractors, and are at the same time unwilling to refuse them credit for fear it may affect their business. This should properly be a matter of contract, and the owner ought not to have to bear the onus of responsibility of contractors or sub-contractors whom material-men are unwilling to credit.

Section 2480 of the Code of 1887, being dependent upon the provisions of section 2479 of that Code, is also omitted.

The Legislature having designated but two defects that could be disregarded, it would seem that, under the doctrine of inclusio unius exclusio alterius, it intended that defects not mentioned were to be regarded. Clement v. Adams Bros.-Paynes Co., 113 Va. 547, 75 S. E. 294. As to affidavits, see section 6427 and notes.

In order to obtain the benefit of this section, the provisions of sections 6427, 6428 and 6429 must be substantially complied with. Gilman v. Ryan, 95 Va. 494, 28 S. E. 875. Compare Sergeant v. Denby, 87 Va. 206, 12 S. E. 402.

The rule of construction, that those portions of the mechanic's lien law, upon which the right to the existence of the lien depends, should be strictly construed, is not abrogated by this section. Clement v. Adams Bros.-Paynes Co., 113 Va. 547, 75 S. E. 294, 18 Va. L. Reg. 437 and note.

The omission of the "prices charged" (see section 2476 of the Code of 1887) was held to be not a mere "inaccuracy in the account," but an entire failure to state what the statute required. Brown v. Cornwell, 108 Va. 129, 60 S. E. 623. Under section 6427 of this Code (corresponding to section 2476 of the Code of 1887) the account is not recorded, but simply the memorandum therein described. See that section and notes.

This section somewhat modifies the rule in Shackleford v. Beck, 80 Va. 573, and Shenandoah Val. R. Co. v. Miller, Id. 821.

Cited in Taylor v. Netherwood, 91 Va. 88, 20 S. E. 888.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, p. 819.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 75, section 3.

Sec. 6432. What owner may do when contractor fails or refuses to complete building, etc.—If the owner is compelled to complete his building, structure, or railroad, or any part thereof undertaken by a general contractor in consequence of the failure or refusal of the general contractor to do so, the amount expended by the owner for such completion shall have priority over all mechanics' liens which have been or may be placed on such building, structure, or railroad by such general contractor, a sub-contractor under him, or any person furnishing labor or materials to either of them.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new. It is intended that if the owner is compelled to complete his building or structure, the amount necessary to be expended for that purpose shall be preferred over all mechanics' liens. See Schrieber v. Bank, 99 Va. 257, 38 S. E. 134. "Compelled" is used in the sense of "obliged" and is not limited to legal compulsion.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6433. Limitation of lien.—No suit to enforce any lien perfected under sections sixty-four hundred and twenty-seven, sixty-four hundred and twenty-eight and sixty-four hundred and twenty-nine shall be brought after twelve months from the time when the whole amount covered by such lien has become payable: provided, however, that the filing of a petition to enforce any such lien in any suit wherein such petition may be properly filed shall be regarded as the institution of a suit under this section. (Code 1887, § 2481; 1889-90, p. 36; 1893-4, p. 576.)

Revisors' Note.—A material change is made in this section in that the limitation is increased from six months to twelve months. No other material change.

This limitation is suspended as to the lien of all parties to, and those who are directly interested in, the suit from the institution of the same. Spiller v. Wells, 96 Va. 598, 32 S. E. 46, 70 Am. St. Rep. 878.

If a suit to enforce a mechanic's lien is brought within due time against the debtor upon whose property the lien rests, the failure to implead subsequent lienors within six (now twelve) months does not defeat the lien as to such encumbrances. They are proper parties, but not necessary parties, and may be brought in at a subsequent time. Monk v. Exposition Corp., 111 Va. 121, 68 S. E. 280.

Creditor may plead statute.—Where a court of equity has taken possession of a debtor's estate for the purpose of distribution, and proceeds to ascertain the debts and encumbrances so as to enable it to properly administer and distribute the assets, an exception to the general rule that the defense of a statute of limitations is personal to the debtor, and may be asserted or waived by him as he may elect, is allowed, and a creditor may interpose the defense of the statute as against the claim of another creditor. McCartney v. Tyrer, 94 Va. 198, 26 S. E. 419. But the creditor must show that the co-creditor's debt is barred as between himself and his debtor. Monk v. Exposition Corp., 111 Va. 121, 68 S. E. 280.

Instalment contract.—Where the contract is payable in instalments, a mechanic has a right to assert his lien for all the instalments whenever due, provided he commence his suit before the expiration of six (now twelve) months after the last instalment became due. But it is not necessary for him to wait until all the instalments become payable. Iaege v. Bossieux, 15 Grat. 83, 76 Am. Dec. 189, and note Va. Rep. Ann. Compare Trustees v. Davis, 85 Va. 197, 7 S. E. 245, where it was held that suit was prematurely brought before any of the instalments had become due.

Pleading.—Where bills do not allege when the suits were instituted, but allege when the amounts asserted as liens upon the property became due and payable, and the date of the process shows that the suits were brought within the time required by the statute, and the record showed at the time the bill was demurred to that the suit was instituted within the period fixed by statute, there is no good reason for requiring the bill to allege that fact, since the court will take judicial notice of when the suit was instituted, as well as all other proceedings in the cause. Sands v. Stagg, 105 Va. 444, 52 S. E. 633, 54 S. E. 21.

A bill to enforce a mechanic's lien which does not show on its face that the suit was brought within the time prescribed by statute is bad on demurrer. Savings Bank v. Powhatan Clay Mfg. Co., 102 Va. 274,

Digitized by Google

9 Va. Law Reg. 898, 901 and note, 46 S. E. 294. See, also, 2 Va. L. Reg. 509; 3 Va. L. Reg. 64.

Nature of suit.—A suit to enforce a mechanic's lien is in no sense a suit against other lien creditors, even when convened as parties defendant. The suit is analagous to a lien creditors' suit, and is controlled by the same considerations, and is subject to similar rules of equitable practice. Monk v. Exposition Corp., 111 Va. 121, 68 S. E. 280.

Generally.—See Burks' Pleading and Practice, p. 831.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 75, section 11.

Sec. 6434. Lien of general contractor to inure to benefit of sub-contractor.—The perfected lien of a general contractor on any building or structure shall inure to the benefit of any sub-contractor, and of any person performing labor or furnishing materials to a sub-contractor who has not perfected a lien on such building or structure, provided such sub-contractor, or person performing labor or furnishing materials shall give written notice of his claim against the general contractor, or sub-contractor, as the case may be, to the owner or his agent before the amount of such lien is actually paid off or discharged. (Code 1887, § 2482.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is enlarged so as expressly to allow persons dealing with sub-contractors the benefit of the lien taken out by the general contractor.

The object and effect of this section is to give the benefit of the lien of the general contractor to a sub-contractor, provided he gives notice to the owner before the general contractor's lien has been discharged. Shenandoah V. R. Co. v. Miller, 80 Va. 821.

Where the lien of a general contractor is protected in a suit brought by a sub-contractor, all sub-contractors are protected, as the lien of the general contractor inures to the benefit of all the sub-contractors. Spiller v. Wells, 96 Va. 598, 32 S. E. 46, 70 Am. St. Rep. 878.

See notes to section 6433; Burks Pleading and Practice, p. 824.

Sec. 6435. Validity and priority of lien not affected by assignments.—Every assignment or transfer by a general contractor, in whole or in part, of his contract with the owner or of any money or consideration coming to him under such contract, or by a sub-contractor of his contract with the general contractor, in whole or in part, or of any money or consideration coming to him under his contract with the general contractor, and every writ of fieri facias, attachment or other process against the general contractor or sub-contractor to subject or encumber his interest arising under such contract, shall be subject to the liens given by this chapter to laborers, mechanics, and material-men. No such assignment or transfer shall in any way affect the validity or the priority of satisfaction of liens given by this chapter.

Revisors' Note.—This is a new section dealing with the effect of assignments. It is taken in part from section 3844 of the West Virginia Code (Hogg 1913). Assignments are not prohibited, but are made subordinate to the mechanics' lien. It is intended that no assignment made by a general or sub-contractor shall in any way affect the rights of other parties arising under the mechanics' lien law.

Acts 1895-6, p. 379, is omitted, because the subject is dealt with in this section.

Digitized by Google

As against sub-contractors, it was not error to allow the owner credit for notes discounted by him, which were given by the contractor to other sub-contractors for work done or materials furnished, nor for similar notes held by banks and taken by the owner, nor for orders drawn on the owner by the general contractor in favor of the sub-contractors. Each of such credits represented money paid by the owner for work done or materials furnished for the erection of the building. They were not such assignments or transfers as were prohibited by section 2482a of Pollard's Code (1904) (Acts 1895-6, p. 379). Schrieber v. Bank, 99 Va. 257, 38 S. E. 134.

For criticism of Acts 1895-6, p. 379, just cited, see 2 Va. L. Reg. 502; 3 Va. L. Reg. 401.

Sec. 6436. Extent of lien where owner has less than a fee in the land; in enforcement of liens, what preference is given to the mechanic's lien.—If the person who shall cause such building or structure to be erected or repaired owns less than a fee simple estate in such land, then only his interest therein shall be subject to said liens. No lien or encumbrance upon the land created before the work was commenced or materials furnished shall operate upon the building or structure erected thereon, or materials furnished for and used in the same, until the lien in favor of the person doing the work or furnishing the materials shall have been satisfied; nor shall any lien or encumbrance upon the land created after the work was commenced or materials furnished operate on the land, or such building or structure, until the lien in favor of the person doing the work or furnishing the materials shall have been satisfied. And in the enforcement of the liens acquired under the previous sections of this chapter, any lien or encumbrance created on the land before the work was commenced or materials furnished shall be preferred in the distribution of the proceeds of sale only to the extent of the value of the land estimated, exclusive of the buildings or structures, at the time of sale, and the residue of the proceeds of sale shall be applied to the satisfaction of the liens provided for in the previous sections of this chapter. (Code 1887, § 2483.)

Leased premises.—A lessor's interest in land is not subject to a mechanic's lien for repairs ordered by the tenant unless the tenant was the agent of the lessor by section 6426 or the lessor caused the repairs to be made or unless he ratified what the tenant had done. This rule is not changed by any relationship of the parties. Carter v. Keeton, 112 Va. 307, 71 S. E. 554; Atlas Cement Co. v. Main Line Co., 112 Va. 7, 70 S. E. 536, and note 17 Va. Law Reg. 217.

A lease required certain outbuildings to be erected on the leased premises. The lessor did not, by the execution of the lease, cause said buildings to be erected within the meaning of this section. Atlas Cement Co. v. Main Line Co., 112 Va. 7, 70 S. E. 536; note 17 Va. Law Reg. 217.

Priorities.—Where an owner borrowed money on land and house to be erected thereon, and gave a deed of trust to secure advances of said money made and to be made, and a contract is then entered into by the owner with a third party to erect the house on the said land, said person having notice of the deed of trust and receiving part of the money obtained thereunder, and afterwards, in order to raise money faster, the contract is assigned and recorded so as to create a mechanic's lien (under the statute then existing), and the party holding the deed of trust then pays the balance of the money to the assignee, who had notice that the beneficiary under the deed of trust claimed priority over the mechanic's lien, it was held that the deed of trust had priority both as to money advanced before and after the mechanic's lien was recorded. Iaege v. Bossieux, 15 Grat. 83, 76 Am. Dec. 189, and note Va. Rep. Ann.

Digitized by Google

In Wroten's Assignee v. Armat, 31 Grat. 228, it was decided that a contractor who knowingly received money raised under deed of trust on the property is equitably estopped from claiming against such deed of trust. See, also, Wright v. Vaughan, 2 Va. Dec. 662, 33 S. E. 595.

Certain mortgages were given for purpose of raising money to construct Chamberlin Hotel at Old Point, and were duly recorded in clerk's office of Elizabeth City county court. Certain liens of mechanics and material-men for work and labor performed on such hotel were also filed according to law. Under this section mechanics' liens have priority. Crook v. Old Point (C. C.) 54 Fed. 604.

The owner of a prior incumbrance on land on which a mechanic asserts his lien, is entitled to the value of the land exclusive of the improvements as estimated at the time the liens are enforced, and the value must be estimated by the court before the property is sold. As to the estimated value of the land, the prior encumbrance is to be preferred to the exclusion of the mechanics' lien, and as to the buildings, the mechanics' lien is to be preferred to the exclusion of the prior encumbrance. Fidelity Co. v. Dennis, 93 Va. 504, 25 S. E. 546; Hudson v. Barham, 8 Va. Law Reg. 736, 43 S. E. 189.

Where the owner of land under an unrecorded deed causes buildings to be erected thereon for the cost of which a mechanic records a lien, such lien has priority over a judgment afterwards docketed against the owner's grantor. The effect of this section is to modify the registry law as contained in section 5194 so far as to give priority to a mechanic's lien on the lands of the grantee who has failed to record his deed over judgments subsequently obtained against his grantor. Pace v. Moorman, 99 Va. 246, 37 S. E. 911, 6 Va. Law Reg. 829, and note.

Where lienor had prior claims to a portion of debtor's property and a lien with other creditors on the balance, it is proper to sell the property in two parcels. Haskin Wood Vulcanizing Co. v. Cleveland Ship-Building Co., 94 Va. 439, 26 S. E. 878.

Generally.—Cited but not construed. Monk v. Exposition Corp., 111 Va. 121, 68 S. E. 280.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 817, 826; see, also, notes to section 6437.

Sec. 6437. How liens are enforced; no priority except, etc.—The liens created and perfected under the preceding sections of this chapter may be enforced in a court of equity by a bill filed in the county or city wherein the building, structure, or railroad, or some part thereof is situated, or wherein the owner, or if there be more than one, any of them, resides. The plaintiff shall file with his bill an itemized statement of his account, showing the amount and character of the work done, or materials furnished, the prices charged therefor, the payments made, if any, the balance due, and the time from which interest is claimed thereon; the correctness of which account shall be verified by the affidavit of himself, or his agent. When a suit is brought for the enforcement of any such lien against the property bound thereby, all parties entitled to such liens upon the said property or any portion thereof may file petitions in such suit asking for the enforcement of their respective liens to have the same effect as if an independent suit were brought by each claimant. There shall be no priority among them, except that the lien of a sub-contractor shall be preferred to that of his general contractor; and the lien of persons performing labor or furnishing materials for a sub-contractor, shall be preferred to that of such sub-contractor. (Code 1887, § 2484; 1893-4, p. 576.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is changed so as to make plain the venue of the suit to enforce the lien.

The plaintiff is required, when he files his bill, to file an itemized statement of his account. The account itself not being recorded by section 6427, but only a memorandum, the defendant is entitled at some stage of the proceedings to know the items and correctness of the account in every respect.

The words, "and the lien of persons performing labor or furnishing material for a sub-contractor shall be preferred to that of such sub-contractor," are new.

Demurrer.—A bill to enforce a mechanic's lien which does not show on its face that the suit was brought within the time prescribed by statute is bad on demurrer. Savings Bank v. Powhatan Clay Mfg. Co., 102 Va. 274, 9 Va. Law Reg. 898, 901 and note, 46 S. E. 294. See, also, 2 Va. L. Reg. 509; 3 Va. L. Reg. 64. See section 6433 and notes.

Bill alleged that lien was filed as provided for in sections 6426 and 6427 (as they then stood), and the copy of the record of the lien exhibited therewith showed that part of the work was done within thirty days (now sixty) of the recordation of lien. Held, this was sufficient, and demurrer would not lie. Richlands v. Hiltebeitel, 92 Va. 91, 22 S. E. 806.

Sufficient description of property in bill.—Where an exhibit with the bill particularly describes the property on which the lien is claimed, the quantity of land "necessary to the convenient use" of the buildings is sufficiently described. Richlands Flint-Glass Co. v. Hiltebeitel, 92 Va. 91, 22 S. E. 806. See, also, note of Pairo v. Bethell, 75 Va. 832, under section 6426, "Property subject to lien."

Architect's certificate.—Bill will not lie to enforce mechanic's lien where contract required architect's certificate, until such certificate is produced or good reason given why it is not. Belmont v. Hotel, 109 Va. 269, 63 S. E. 1068.

Equity will give complete relief.—Where a court of equity has taken jurisdiction of a suit to enforce a mechanic's lien, it should proceed to determine all the questions between the parties. Rison v. Moon, 91 Va. 384, 22 S. E. 165; Bailey Const. Co. v. Purcell, 88 Va. 300, 13 S. E. 456.

Terms of sale.—A sale in a suit to enforce the lien should be on reasonable credit, unless under the peculiar circumstances, which must be shown by the record, a sale upon other terms is desirable. Pairo v. Bethell, 75 Va. 825.

Where the debt secured by the mechanic's lien is only a small proportion of the value of the property, it is not error to decree a sale for cash sufficient to satisfy the lien. Lester v. Pedigo, 84 Va. 309, 4 S. E. 703.

The purchaser in a suit to enforce a mechanic's lien stands in the place of the lienor, and is invested with all the rights that he had under the law by virtue of his lien. Pace v. Moorman, 99 Va. 246, 37 S. E. 911, 6 Va. Law Reg. 829, and note.

Personal decree.—Even when mechanic's lien is not established, personal decree may be given against defendants. Johnson & G. Bros. v. Bunn & Co., 108 Va. 490, 62 S. E. 341, 19 L. R. A. (N. S.) 1064.

Parties.—In a suit to enforce a mechanic's lien, other lien creditors are proper, but not necessary parties, and a failure to make them parties to the suit does not disturb the priorities of the respective liens. Monk v. Exposition Corp., 111 Va. 121, 68 S. E. 280.

Digitized by Google

Supplies furnished manufacturing company.—Where supplies necessary for the conduct of the business of a manufacturing company have been furnished to such company, it was not necessary to show that they were so used by the company. It is immaterial that such company, as a mere incident of its business, buys and sells such supplies. In re West Norfolk Lumber Co. (D. C.), 112 Fed. 760, 7 Va. Law Reg. 836.

Generally.—Priorities among sub-contractors, see above section and note, 12 Va. Law Reg. 501.

Cited in Bailey Const. Co. v. Purcell, 88 Va. 300, 13 S. E. 456.

For decisions under former procedure (Code 1873, chapter 115) to enforce mechanics' liens, see Lester v. Pedigo, 84 Va. 309, 4 S. E. 703, and Pairo v. Bethell, 75 Va. 829.

See notes to preceding sections; Burks' Pleading and Practice 836.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 75, section 10.

Sec. 6438. Lien of employees, etc., of transportation companies, etc., on franchises and property of company.—All conductors, brakemen, engine drivers, firemen, captains, stewards, pilots, clerks, depot or office agents, storekeepers, mechanics, traveling representatives or laborers, and all persons furnishing railroad iron, engines, cars, fuel, and all other supplies necessary to the operation of any railway, canal, or other transportation company, and all clerks, mechanics, traveling representatives, and other persons who furnish their services, labor or supplies to any mining or manufacturing company, whether such railway, canal, or other transportation or mining or manufacturing company be chartered under or by the laws of this State, or be chartered elsewhere, and be doing business within the limits of this State, shall have a prior lien on the franchises, gross earnings, and on all the real and personal property of said company which is used in operating the same to the extent of the moneys due them by said company for such wages or supplies, and no mortgage, deed of trust, sale, hypothecation, or conveyance executed since the first day of May, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, shall defeat or take precedence over said lien. There shall be no priority among liens created by this section except that the lien secured by this section to parties furnishing supplies shall be subsequent to that due to clerks, mechanics, laborers, or other persons, for services furnished as aforesaid: and provided, that if any person entitled to a lien as well under section sixty-four hundred and twenty-six, as under this section, shall perfect his lien given by either section, he shall not be entitled to the benefit of the other; and provided, also, that no right to or remedy upon a lien which has already accrued to any person shall be extended, abridged, or otherwise affected hereby. (Code 1887, § 2485; 1891-2, p. 362; 1902-3-4, p. 624.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is changed so as to give the lien to persons who furnish their services, labor OR SUPPLIES. Under the Code of 1887 a lien was given for supplies furnished to mining and manufacturing companies. By the Acts of 1891-2, pp. 362-363, material alteration was made in the matter of supplies furnished mining and manufacturing companies, and they were given a prior lien only upon

Digitized by Google

"personal property of such company other than that forming part of its plant," etc., and a general lien on all its real and personal property to a limited extent. By the Acts of 1902-3-4, p. 624, the lien for supplies was entirely taken away as to mining and manufacturing companies. It is now restored.

The date in the provision concerning mortgages, deeds of trust, etc., is changed from March 21, 1877, to May 1, 1888, the latter being the date the Code of 1887 went into effect.

No other material change.

Constitutionality.—This section is not in conflict with the Fourteenth amendment to United States Constitution, as being unequal or class legislation. Virginia Development Co. v. Crozer Iron Co., 90 Va. 126, 17 S. E. 806, 44 Am. St. Rep. 893.

That portion of section 2485 of the Code of 1887 which provided that "no mortgage, deed of trust, sale, hypothecation, or conveyance executed since the twenty-first day of March, 1877, shall defeat or take precedence over said lien," was retroactive in its effect, and impaired the obligation of contracts, and was declared void as to bonds issued and secured by mortgage in 1881. Crowther v. Fidelity Ins., Trust & Safe-Deposit Co., 85 Fed. 41, 29 C. C. A. 1, 3 Va. Law Reg. 867. It was true that the act (1876-7, p. 188, amended 1878-9, p. 352), upon which this section was founded, was passed before the mortgage referred to was given; but the title of the act was defective, and therefore repugnant to section 15, article 5, Const. 1869. Fidelity Ins., Trust & Safe-Deposit Co. v. Shenandoah Val. R. Co., 86 Va. 1, 9 S. E. 759, 19 Am. St. Rep. 858; Id. (C. C.) 42 Fed. 372. But where the charter of a corporation, organized before that Code went into effect, was taken subject to the general law of the State in force at the time, and such changes as might afterwards be made in that law, and where one of the rights granted in the charter was to issue bonds and to secure the same by deed of trust or mortgage, bondholders who took the bonds of the company after the Code went into effect were presumed to be cognizant of the law then in force, giving a prior lien as set forth, and to have taken the security subject to the rights of other parties thereunder. Virginia Development Co. v. Crozer Iron Co., 90 Va. 126, 17 S. E. 806, 44 Am. St. Rep. 893.

This section not contrary to Fourteenth Amendment to Constitution of the United States and makes no discrimination against any company brought under its influence. First Nat. Bank v. Trigg Co., 106 Va. 327, 56 S. E. 158.

Supplies—Mining and manufacturing companies.—The following cases were decided under a different reading of this section: American Woodworking Machinery Co. v. Agelasto, 136 Fed. 399; note 11 Va. L. Reg. 236; Virginia Development Co. v. Crozer Iron Co., 90 Va. 126, 17 S. E. 806, 44 Am. St. Rep. 893; Boston Blower Co. v. Carman Lumber Co., 94 Va. 94, 26 S. E. 390; Seventh Nat. Bank v. Shenandoah Iron Co. (C. C.), 35 Fed. 436.

Railway companies.—Engines for the purpose of generating electricity for propelling cars are "engines necessary to the operation of an electric road," within the meaning of this section. Frick Co. v. Norfolk & O. V. R. Co., 86 Fed. 726, 32 C. C. A. 31.

Materials and labor furnished in erection of car barns, trainsheds, power and boiler houses, depots, workshops and rebuilding hotel belonging to railroad are not supplies necessary to operation of road. Frick Co. v. Norfolk & O. V. R. Co., 86 Fed. 726, 32 C. C. A. 31.

Medical supplies rendered and board furnished by hospital to railroad employe injured in service are not supplies under this section. Newgass v. Atlantic & D. R. Co. (C. C.), 56 Fed. 676.

Conditional sales.—The contract under which cars were furnished to a railroad styled itself a lease, and provided for the payment of purchase money in monthly instalments, with right in vendor, on default, to take possession of cars and sell, returning any surplus to vendee. The vendor put his name on cars as owner, and recorded contract as required in case of conditional sales. The cars were furnished to "vendee," within meaning of this statute, and such action of vendor did not waive his lien. Newgass v. Atlantic & D. R. Co. (C. C.), 56 Fed. 676.

Digitized by Google

Labor and services.—Persons contracting to log, mill out and rack certain lumber at a certain price per thousand are not "laborers" within the meaning of this section. Tucker v. Bryan, 217 Fed. 576.

One who lays track and strings wire for an electric railroad at ar agreed price per mile is not a laborer, within meaning of this sectior Frick Co. v. Norfolk, &c., Co., 86 Fed. 726, 32 C. C. A. 31.

Claim of telegraph company for services rendered a railroad is a labor claim, within the meaning of this statute. Newgass v. Atlantic & D. R. Co. (C. C.), 72 Fed. 712.

The president, manager, secretary and treasurer of manufacturing companies are not entitled to a lien for their salaries. Seventh Nat. Bank v. Shenandoah Iron Co. (C. C.), 35 Fed. 436; Fidelity Ins. Trust & Safe-Deposit Co. v. Roanoke Iron Co. (C. C.), 81 Fed. 440, 3 Va. Law Reg. 375.

When lien attaches.—The lien provided for by this section attaches at the time the supplies are furnished, and not at the time the claim is filed under section 6439, and in an adjudication in bankruptcy against the debtor between the date of maturity of the last item of the account for supplies and the filing and recording of the claim does not destroy the claimant's right to priority in the distribution of the bankrupt's estate. Mott v. Wissler Min. Co., 135 Fed. 697.

Priorities.—One furnishing supplies to a manufacturing company was entitled to a lien superior to the right of a pledge of the products of said company. Fidelity Ins., Trust & Safe-Deposit Co. v. Roanoke Iron Co. (C. C.), 81 Fed. 439.

Where iron company made a contract with brokers for sale of iron produced at its mills, under which iron was shipped to brokers on bills of lading in their name, was stored by them, and sold at their discretion, they advancing a certain proportion of market price to company, who exercised no control over sales, and accounted to it for proceeds of iron when sold, such iron delivered to brokers is not liable to supply lien hereunder. Id.

A lien on the real and personal property of a manufacturing company for supplies furnished was prior to any deed of trust, etc., recorded after such supplies are furnished. In re West Norfolk Lumber Co. (D. C.), 112 Fed. 760, 7 Va. L. Reg. 836.

Supply liens take precedence among themselves in the order of their recordation in the proper clerk's office. Id.

Liens for supplies furnished to a manufacturing company which were perfected under this section as amended February 15, 1892, although within four months prior to adjudication of debtor as bankrupt, are not dissolved by such adjudication, but will be given priority in accordance with decisions of Supreme Court of Virginia. Id.

The prior lien given by this section attaches only to the interest in its property acquired by the company which employed claimants, and takes precedence only of mortgages made by it; and where such company purchases property already subject to encumbrance made by former owner, or has given purchase-money mortgage, such encumbrances are not displaced by employer's liens. Furbush & Son Mach. Co. v. Liberty Woolen Mills (C. C.), 81 Fed. 425.

A mortgagor who has assigned policies of insurance taken on his property to a mortgagee for the protection of the debt has only a right to the surplus after the payment of the debt, and if there is no surplus there is no estate to which a supply lien could attach. In re West Norfolk Lumber Co. (D. C.), 112 Fed. 760, 7 Va. L. Reg. 836.

Bona fide holders of warehouse receipts issued by a manufacturing company had priority over one furnishing supplies after transfer and delivery of such receipts. Millhiser Mfg. Co. v. Gallego Mills Co., 101 Va. 581, 44 S. E. 760.

Digitized by Google

A lien under this section for labor and supplies furnished is inferior to a valid assignment of a chose in action by a manufacturing company, made more than two years prior to the said lien. Hawes v. Trigg, 110 Va. 165, 65 S. E. 538.

Liens by supply creditors under this section upon an uncompleted vessel are superior to the claims of the U. S. government under a contract for the construction of the vessel providing for inspection by the government, payment by instalments, as the work progressed and that all parts paid for under the system of partial payments should become the sole property of the U. S. Hawes v. Trigg, 110 Va. 165, 65 S. E. 538. Sed quaere, May not such vessel be a public work and not subject to lien?

It seems that a deed of trust given to secure the purchase price of property bought by a manufacturing and mining company takes priority over the labor liens asserted by the employees of the company. See article in 19 Va. L. Reg. 721, commenting upon a ruling of the Supreme Court upon a request for an injunction.

As to the rights of material-men as against mortgage creditors of a railroad, see 6 Va. Law Reg. 124. See, also, 8 Va. Law Reg. 205; 2 Va. Law Reg. 871, and notes to section 6439.

Generally.—Where supplies necessary for the conduct of the business of a manufacturing company have been furnished to such company, it is not necessary to show that they were so used by the company. It is immaterial that such company, as a mere incident of its business, buys and sells such supplies. In re West Norfolk Lumber Co. (D. C.), 112 Fed. 760, 7 Va. Law Reg. 836.

A carrier is not entitled to a lien for charges for freight on supplies. Seventh Nat. Bank v. Shenandoah Iron Co. (C. C.), 35 Fed. 436; Fidelity, &c., Co. v. Roanoke Iron Co. (C. C.), 81 Fed. 440, 3 Va. L. Reg. 375.

A general shipbuilding company is a manufacturing company within the meaning of this section. First Nat. Bank v. Trigg Co., 106 Va. 327, 56 S. E. 158.

For comments on this section, see 15 Va. Law Reg. 355, 392, 492, 559.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 342, 343, 344.

Cited but not construed, Loyd v. Lynchburg, 113 Va. 627, 75 S. E. 233.

As to sections 6438 and 6439, before Code 1887, see Crowther v. Fidelity Ins., Trust & Safe-Deposit Co., 85 Fed. 41, 29 C. C. A. 1.

See notes to next section.

Sec. 6439. How perfected; how enforced.—No person shall be entitled to the lien given by the preceding section unless he shall, within ninety days after the last item of his bill becomes due and payable for which such supplies are furnished or service rendered, file in the clerk's office of the circuit court of the county or corporation court of the city in which is located the chief office in this State of the company against which the claim is, or in the clerk's office of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond when such office is in said city, a memorandum of the amount and consideration of his claim, and the time or times when the same is, or will become due and payable, verified by affidavit, which memorandum the said clerk shall forthwith record in the Miscellaneous Lien Book and index the same in the name of the said claimant and also in the name of the company against which the claim is, as required by section sixty-four hundred and twenty-seven. Any such lien

Digitized by Google

may be enforced in a court of equity. (Code 1887, § 2486; 1891-2, p. 363; 1895-6, p. 340.)

Revisors' Note.—The memorandum is required to state the time or times when the claim is or will become due and payable in addition to the matters required by the former law. Under the former law the memorandum was required to be recorded in the deed book. Now it is to be recorded in the Miscellaneous Lien book. No other change.

Memorandum must show upon its face: (1) The amount of the claim; (2) the consideration of it (i. e., whether for supplies or for labor); (3) verified by affidavit. All else, however essential to the existence of the lien, can be supplied aliunde. Memorandum need not show on its face that the claim was filed within the ninety days, but this may be proved aliunde. Overholt v. O. D. Mfg. Co., 98 Va. 654, 37 S. E. 307; but see contra, Liberty Perpetual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. M. A. Furbush & Son Mach. Co., 3 Va. Law Reg. 86, 80 Fed. 631, 26 C. C. A. 38. The memorandum must now show also what part of the account is due and what part is to become due. See the statute as amended. This was formerly held unnecessary. See In re West Norfolk Lumber Co. (D. C.), 7 Va. Law Reg. 836, 112 Fed. 760.

A lien claimed under this section is not insufficient because it does not show on its face that it was filed within ninety days after the last item of supplies was furnished, where such fact is stated in affidavit of verification required by statute, which forms part of claim. In re West Norfolk Lumber Co., supra.

To acquire a laborer's lien, under section 2485 of the Code of 1887, as amended (1891-2) (corresponding to the above section), requirement that claim must be filed in clerk's office within prescribed time must be strictly complied with and record must show such compliance. The mere recording of labor tickets within ninety days from their date, with nothing to show that wages were due on the day tickets were given, gives no lien, nor can record be supplemented by parol evidence on this point after suit brought to enforce lien. Liberty Perpetual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. M. A. Furbush & Son Mach. Co., 80 Fed. 631, 26 C. C. A. 38.

Better practice, however, required that the memorandum should show (1) that the lien was claimed against transportation, mining, or manufacturing company; (2) that the laborers were employed as laborers (or that supplies were necessary to operation); and (3) should give a description of the property on which the lien was claimed (Liberty Perpetual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. M. A. Furbush & Son Mach. Co., 3 Va. Law Reg. 86, 80 Fed. 631, 26 C. C. A. 38); and also (4) that last item of bill became due and payable within ninety days; and (5) also what part of the account was due and what part to become due. In re West Norfolk Lumber Co., supra. See revisors' note above and revisors' note to preceding section for changes made in these sections by the present revision.

Description of property.—In Liberty Perpetual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. M. A. Furbush & Son Mach. Co., supra, there is obiter to the effect that the property on which the lien is claimed should be described, but this in many cases would be impracticable and unsafe. It would often be impossible to describe the "franchises, gross earnings, real and personal property" of a railroad, etc., or to be able to designate what property is used "in operating the same," and should any such property be left out of the description it would seem that the claimant would not be entitled to a lien thereon.

When memorandum must be filed—Single contract.—Lien dates from the time the supplies are furnished, and may be claimed any time thereafter, provided the claim be filed not later than ninety days after the last item of the account becomes due and payable. If the claim be filed within that time, it relates back to the time the supplies were furnished, subject to be defeated by prior or intervening supply liens. In re West Norfolk Lumber Co. (D. C.), 7 Va. Law Reg. 836, 112 Fed. 760.

If materials are furnished a manufacturing company under a single

Digitized by Google

contract, the items of the account are continuous, and the ninety days given the material man in which to file his account under this section is counted from the last item of the account, but if furnished under separate contracts the account must be filed within ninety days from the last item under each independent contract. First Nat. Bank v. Trigg Co., 106 Va. 327, 56 S. E. 158.

Notice of claim of lien for labor under contract to be performed for so much per day may be filed within statutory period after contract, and such claim will not be severed, and only so much allowed as falls within said statutory period. Fidelity Ins., Trust & Safe-Deposit Co. v. Roanoke Iron Co. (C. C.), 81 Fed. 439.

Running account.—The time within which notice must be filed under this section for supplies furnished to manufacturing or mining company begins to run in case of supplies furnished under contract from date of last delivery, and lien applies to whole series of connected items forming a running account, and not only to deliveries within statutory period. Fidelity Ins., Trust & Safe-Deposit Co. v. Roanoke Iron Co. (C. C.), 81 Fed. 439.

A running account, where nothing to the contrary appears, is to be construed as falling due at the date of its last item. Osborne v. Big Stone Co., 96 Va. 58, 30 S. E. 446; Richlands Flint-Glass Co. v. Hiltebeitel, 92 Va. 91, 22 S. E. 806.

Separate orders.—Where contract for furnishing engines provides for placing them in position and a thirty-days' test the limitation within which a lien therefor may be perfected does not begin to run until they are placed in position, adjusted, and put in operation; but where material and labor are furnished to railroad as they are from time to time ordered, and not in fulfillment of a single contract, the limitation begins to run against each item from the date it is furnished. Frick Co. v. Norfolk & O. V. R. Co., 86 Fed. 726, 32 C. C. A. 31.

Instalments.—Under this section, the time within which supplies are furnished is immaterial so far as concerns the claim, and where they are to be paid for in instalments the claim must be filed and recorded within statutory period after last instalment is due. Newgass v. Atlantic & D. R. Co. (C. C.), 56 Fed. 676.

Terms of credit.—The provision that no person shall be entitled to the lien given by the preceding section unless he shall, within ninety days after last item of his bill becomes payable, file his claim for record, merely fixes limit of time after which a lien claim cannot be filed, and does not preclude lien claimant who has given a term of credit for supplies furnished from filing his claim before such term of credit has expired. In re West Norfolk Lumber Co. (D. C.), 112 Fed. 760, 7 Va. L. R. 836.

The affidavit.—Affidavit made and filed for purpose of securing lien under this section which is verified in another State, but lacks authentication of magistrate's signature, required by section 275, is not a nullity; but claimant of lien may show that oath was properly administered, and omission of authentication may be supplied. Fidelity Ins., Trust & Safe-Deposit Co. v. Roanoke Iron Co. (C. C.), 81 Fed. 439.

On the subject of affidavits by corporations and agents, see section 276.

Suspension of running of limitation.—The filing of a creditors' bill suspends the running of limitation for recording labor claims, and that account due before filing of bill, but not recorded until after period of limitation, is a valid lien. Newgass v. Atlantic & D. R. Co. (C. C.), 56 Fed. 676, 72 Fed. 712.

The limitation herein is not suspended by pendency of suit in which receivers have been appointed, but is suspended by a decree of reference to master to take an account of company's debts and their priorities. Seventh Nat. Bank v. Shenandoah Iron Co. (C. C.), 35 Fed. 436; Fidelity, Ins., Trust & Safe-Deposit Co. v. Roanoke Iron Co. (C. C.), 81 Fed. 439.

Bankruptcy.—Such liens are recognized in courts of bankruptcy.

Digitized by Google

In re West Norfolk Lumber Co. (D. C.), 7 Va. Law Reg. 836, 112 Fed. 759.

In appellate court.—While for errors apparent on the face of commissioner's report allowing an account, which is the basis of a lien for supplies, objections may be taken for the first time in this court, yet the objection cannot avail, if it could have been made and the objection cured by the introduction of evidence in the court below. It is too late after the lien has been presented to the lower court, accepted by the commissioner duly reported, and the report confirmed without objection. Osborne v. Big Stone Co., 96 Va. 58, 30 S. E. 446.

Generally.—For articles upon statutory supply and labor liens, see 9 Va. Law Reg. 177 and 685.

Cited but not construed, Loyd v. Lynchburg, 113 Va. 627, 75 S. E. 233.

For comment on this section, see 15 Va. Law Reg. 355, 392, 492, 559.

See note of Mott v. Wissler, 135 Fed. 697, under section 6438.

See notes to section 6438; see Gregory's Forms Nos. 342, 343, 344.

Sec. 6440. Assignee's rights.—Any assignee of such a claim as is mentioned in the preceding sections may file the memorandum and make the oath required by said sections, and shall have the same rights as his assignor. (Code 1887, § 2487.)

Without reference to Code 1887, section 2487, it was decided that an assignee can ordinarily file the lien. Liberty Perpetual Bldg. & Loan Co. v. M. A. Furbush & Son Mach. Co., 3 Va. Law Reg. 86, 80 Fed. 631, 26 C. C. A. 38; In re West Norfolk Lumber Co. (D. C.), 7 Va. Law Reg. 836, 112 Fed. 760.

Cited in dissenting opinion of Buchanan, J., in Clement v. Adams Bros.-Paynes Co., 113 Va. 547, 75 S. E. 294, 18 Va. L. Reg. 437 and note.

For articles upon statutory supply and labor liens, see 9 Va. Law Reg. 177 and 685.

Sec. 6441. Satisfaction of lien.—When a debt secured by a mechanic's lien has been fully paid, the creditor filing the lien shall enter satisfaction thereof on the margin of the book in which it is recorded within thirty days after same has been satisfied. Such entry of satisfaction shall be attested by the clerk, who shall receive therefor a fee of twenty-five cents, to be paid by the creditor. Any creditor who shall fail for a period of ten days after written request of the owner to enter such satisfaction shall forfeit to the owner the sum of twenty dollars.

Revisors' Note.—This is a new section, the purpose of which is manifest; but since the enactment of the Code it has been discovered that the new section is covered by and in conflict with section 6456. The revisors will therefore recommend the repeal of section 6441.

Sec. 6442. In case of bankruptcy, death or absconding, how notices to be served, acts done, etc.—Whenever any act is required to be done by, or notice is to be given to, a person mentioned in any of the preceding sections of this chapter, if such person become bankrupt, the act may be done by, or the notice given to, either the bankrupt or his trustee; or if such person die, the act may be done by, or the notice given to, his personal representative; or if he abscond, the notice may be given to any person over the age of sixteen years found at his last known place of business or residence, or if no such person be found there, by posting the same at the front door of such place of business or residence, or at some other conspicuous part of the building, or he may be proceeded against by order of publication as a non-resident of the State.

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and fills a gap in the former law. See section 6069 and following as to order of publication. Provision is there made for a uniform order of publication in all cases in which an order of publication is desired.

Sec. 6443. Lien of mechanics for repairs.—Every mechanic, who shall alter or repair any article of personal property at the request of the owner of such property, shall have a lien thereon for his just and reasonable charges therefor, and may retain possession of such property until such charges are paid. (Code 1887, § 2488.)

The lien here given does not seem to be co-extensive with the common-law doctrine which gives one whose labor or skill has enhanced the value of a chattel a lien on the same.

For conflicting authorities as to whether lien is waived by accepting negotiable note or other security, see Kilpatrick v. Kansas City & B. R. Co., 38 Neb. 620, 57 N. W. 664, 41 Am. St. Rep. 761.

See, also, 3 Min. 336.

Sec. 6444. Lien of inn-keepers, etc.—Every inn-keeper, keeper of a boarding house, or house of private entertainment, shall have a lien upon and may retain possession of, the baggage and other property of his guest or boarder brought upon his premises, and also upon the property of the employer of such guest or boarder, controlled and brought upon said premises by such guest or boarder in the course of his employment, for the proper charges due from such guest for his board and lodging. (1906, p. 250.)

See 6 Va. Law J. 316; 11 Va. Law J. 123; 4 Va. L. Reg. 121.

Sec. 6445. Lien of keeper of livery stable, etc.—Every keeper of a livery stable or garage, and every person pasturing or keeping any horses or other animals, vehicles, or harness, shall have a lien upon such horses and other animals, vehicles, and harness, for the amount which may be due him for the keeping, supporting and care thereof, until such amount is paid. (Code 1887, § 2490.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "or garage" appearing in line two of the text are new.

Sec. 6446. Lien of stock breeders and owners of licensed stallions.—Any person who owns a mare or jennet and breeds the same to any stallion or jackass that is duly licensed under the license laws of the State of Virginia, and where such mare shall be bred to and become in foal by any such stallion or jackass, and the same is delivered of a live colt, the owner of any such stallion or jackass shall have a lien upon said colt for a period of twelve months, or until the price agreed upon for the season or service by the owner of the stallion or jackass and the owner of the mare or jennet be paid. Said lien shall not extend for a longer period than twelve months, and after judgment has been taken for the amount of said fee, then unless the same is paid, the officer in whose hands the fieri facias is placed for collection may proceed to levy on and sell said colt for the aforesaid fieri facias and costs, and he shall be entitled to the same fees for his services as is provided for by the existing law, and this lien if reduced to writing shall be recorded in the Miscellaneous Lien Book and shall be operative from the recordation thereof, and if not reduced to writing, shall, upon application of the owner of the stallion or jackass, be recorded by the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the foal is foaled in the said book in the following form:

Digitized by Google

..... (giving the name of the owner of the stallion or jackass) versus ..... (giving the name of the owner of the colt). The owner of the stallion or jackass claims a lien on a colt less than twelve months old for $....., for the get thereof.

The clerk shall be entitled to a fee of thirty cents for the recordation of each of such last-described liens. (1891-2, p. 920; 1910, p. 323.)

Revisors' Note.—Some slight changes have been made in this section. The lien is to be recorded in the Miscellaneous Lien Book, as to which see section 3393.

Sec. 6447. Special license tax on bulls; lien on the offspring thereof.—Persons owning a bull or bulls in this State may apply to the commissioner of the revenue of the district of the county, city or town in which he resides, and receive from the treasurer of said county a special license tax for the privilege of letting such bull or bulls to cows other than his own, which tax shall be for the sum of two and one-half dollars on each bull so licensed. Any person so obtaining said license shall have a lien on the get of such bull so licensed for the period of six months from the date of the birth of such get, for price agreed upon between him and the owner of any such cow or cows served by such bull: provided, however, that this lien shall not hold good as against an innocent purchaser for value and without notice, except where said lien has been admitted to record, which may be done in the following form:

..... (giving the name of the owner of the bull) versus ..... (giving the name of the owner of the calf). The owner of the bull claims a lien on a calf less than six months old for $..... for the get thereof.

On receipt of a fee of twenty-five cents it shall be the duty of the clerk of the county in which the calf is calved to place the same on record in the Miscellaneous Lien Book. (1901, p. 284.)

Revisors' Note.—The lien is to be recorded in the Miscellaneous Lien Book, as to which see section 3393.

Sec. 6448. Payment of debts due by commission merchants; remedies.—Whenever any farm product shall have been consigned by any commission merchant for sale, and he shall have made sale thereof and become insolvent or die before paying over the proceeds of the sale thereof to, or on account of, the consignor or owner of said farm product, the claim of such consignor or owner, when legally proved, shall be a lien on the estate of said commission merchant subject only to such liens as were created on said estate and recorded prior to said insolvency or death: provided, however, that the benefit of this section shall not accrue to any consignor or owner who, without requesting payment, shall allow such proceeds to remain with such commission merchant at interest, nor to any consignor or owner who, without requesting payment, shall allow such proceeds to remain in the hands of such commission merchant more than thirty days after becoming informed of such sale. Jurisdiction is hereby given to courts exercising circuit court powers in chancery to enforce the provisions of this section. (1893-4, p. 491; 1895-6, p. 676.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The act from which this section is taken provided that the lien referred to therein should be "subject only to such liens as were created on said estate and recorded prior to said SALE." The revised section reads "insolvency or death" in lieu of "sale." Liens may have been acquired in good faith by creditors after the sale of which they had no notice, and it was thought that the consignor's lien should be subject to all liens created prior to the insolvency or death of the commission merchant.

Sec. 6449. Enforcement of liens acquired under sections sixty-four hundred and forty-three, sixty-four hundred and forty-four and sixty-four hundred and forty-five and of the lien of bailees.—Any person having a lien under sections sixty-four hundred and forty-three, sixty-four hundred and forty-four and sixty-four hundred and forty-five of this Code and any bailee, except where otherwise provided, having a lien as such at common law on personal property in his possession which he has no power to sell for the satisfaction of the lien, if the debt for which the lien exists be not paid within ten days after it is due and the value of the property affected by the lien does not exceed twenty dollars, may sell such property or so much thereof as may be necessary, by public auction, for cash, and apply the proceeds to the satisfaction of the debt and expenses of sale, and the surplus, if any, he shall pay to the owner of the property. Before making such sale, he shall advertise the time, place and terms thereof, in such manner as to give publicity thereto, and also give to the owner, if he be in the county or corporation, ten days' written notice of the same and of the amount claimed to be due. If the owner cannot be found in such county or corporation, posting the notice at three public places therein shall be sufficient service thereof. If the value of the property be more than twenty dollars but does not exceed three hundred dollars, the party having such lien, after giving notice as hereinbefore provided, may apply by petition to any justice of the county or corporation wherein the property is, or, if the value of the property exceed three hundred dollars, to the circuit or corporation court of such county or corporation, for the sale of the property; and if, on the hearing of the case on the petition, the defense, if any made thereto, and such evidence as may be adduced by the parties respectively, the court or justice shall be satisfied that the debt and lien are established and the property should be sold to pay the debt, such court or justice shall order the sale to be made by the sheriff or sergeant of the said county or corporation or any constable thereof, who shall make the same and apply and dispose of the proceeds in the same manner as if the sale were made under a writ of fieri facias. If the owner of the property be a resident of this State, the notice required by this section may be served in the mode prescribed by section six thousand and forty-one. If he be a non-resident, it may be served by posting a copy thereof in three public places in the county or corporation wherein the property is. (Code 1887, § 2491.)

Digitized by Google

As to common-law right of pledgees, Alexandria, L. & H. R. Co. v. Burke, 22 Grat. 254.

Sec. 6450. How and when validity of the lien, or claim of other person to the property, is tried.—Any person may file his petition, at any time before the property is sold or the proceeds of sale are paid to the plaintiff under the judgment of the justice or court, disputing the validity of the plaintiff's lien thereon, or stating a claim thereto, or an interest in or lien on the same, and its nature; and the justice or the court, as the case may be, shall inquire into such claim, and if it be found that the petitioner has title to, or a lien on, or any interest in, such property or proceeds of sale, the justice or court shall make such order as is necessary to protect his rights. (Code 1887, § 2492.)

Sec. 6451. Appeals, how taken and tried.—Any party may appeal from the judgment of the justice, as in case of warrants for small claims under chapter two hundred and fifty, and such appeal shall be heard and determined in like manner, as appeals under said chapter. (Code 1887, § 2493.)

Sec. 6452. Lien on crops for advances to farmers; nature of agreement thereof; where recorded.—If any person, other than a landlord, make advances, either in money or supplies, or other thing of value, to anyone who is engaged in, or is about to engage in, the cultivation of the soil, the person so making such advances shall have a lien on the crops which may be made or seeded during the year upon the lands in or about the cultivation of which the advances so made have been, or were intended to be, expended to the extent of such advances: but the person making such advances shall not have the benefit of the lien given by this section unless there is an agreement in writing, signed by both parties, in which there is specified the amount advanced or a limit be fixed beyond which any advances made from time to time during the year shall not go, and the said agreement be docketed or recorded in the office of the clerk of the county in which the land lies, in the miscellaneous lien book; such agreement shall be docketed by said clerk in the same manner that judgments are now required by law to be docketed, and from the time they are so docketed shall have the same force and effect as if they were recorded in the deed book, and for such service said clerk shall receive a fee of twenty-five cents, which lien shall be valid as to purchasers without notice from and creditors of the party or parties obtaining such advance or advances only from the time when the said agreement shall have been delivered to the said clerk to be docketed as hereinbefore provided. (Code 1887, § 2494; 1891-92, p. 782; 1906, p. 35; 1910, p. 562.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The lien is to be recorded in the Miscellaneous Lien Book, as to which see section 3393.

Fraudulent failure to deliver crop is punished criminally by section 4454.

Are bulbs crops? See 20 Va. L. Reg. 387.

Sec. 6453. Protection of lien by injunction; who may grant it; where tried.—If any person to whom advances have been made, for which a lien on his crops has been obtained, under the preceding section, shall be about to sell, or otherwise dispose of his crops, without having paid for the advances or secured the payment thereof, or in any way attempt to defeat the said lien, he may be restrained from so doing by injunction awarded on bill, and thereupon such decrees and orders may be made as shall be necessary to secure payment and satisfaction for said advances. Such injunction may be awarded by any judge having general jurisdiction, under section sixty-three hundred and nineteen, to award injunctions; but when awarded by any other court or judge than the circuit court having jurisdiction of the bill, under section sixty-three hundred and eighteen, or the judge thereof, it shall be directed to the clerk of the said circuit court, and the proceedings thereupon shall be as if the order had been made by the said circuit court, or the judge thereof. (Code 1887, § 2495.)

Sec. 6454. Lien of landlords and farmers for advances to tenants and laborers; how enforced; priority of lien.—If any owner or occupier of land contract with any person to cultivate such land as his tenant for rent either in money or a share of the crop; or if any person engaged in the cultivation of land contract with any laborer thereon for a share of the crop as his wages; and such owner or occupier of the land, or such person engaged in the cultivation of land, shall make any advances in money, supplies, or other thing to such tenant or laborer, he shall have a lien to the extent of such advances on all the crops, or the share of such laborer in the crops, that are made or seeded on the said land during the year in which the advances are made, which shall be prior to all other liens on such crops or such portion thereof, or share therein; and he shall have the same remedy for the enforcement of such lien by distress when the claim is due, or by attachment when the claim is not yet payable, as is given a landlord for the recovery of rent under sections fifty-five hundred and twenty-two and sixty-four hundred and sixteen: Provided, that he or his agent, shall, before suing out the distress warrant, make affidavit before the justice issuing the same to the amount of his claim, that it is then due and is for advances made under contract to a tenant cultivating his land, or a laborer working the same; and before suing out the attachment, make the like affidavit, and also at what time the claim will become payable, and that the debtor intends to remove, or is removing from such land the said crops, or his portion thereof, or share therein, so that there will not be left enough to satisfy the claim. The person, whose crops are so distrained or attached, shall have all the rights and be entitled to all the remedies allowed a tenant against a distress or attachment for rent. (Code 1887, § 2496.)

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6455. Lien of landlords and other recorded liens not affected by lien given under section sixty-four hundred and fifty-two; nor exemption to poor debtors.—The lien provided for in section sixty-four hundred and fifty-two, shall not affect in any manner the rights of the landlord to his proper share of rents, or his lien for rent or advances, or his right of distress or attachment for the same, nor any lien existing at the time of making the agreement mentioned in said section, which is required by law to be recorded and shall have been admitted to record. Nor shall it affect the right of the party to whom the advances have been made, to claim such part of his crops as is exempt from levy or distress for rent. (Code 1887, § 2497.)

Sec. 6456. Satisfaction of lien to be entered by creditor; how signed; how owner, etc., of the real estate may have lien released; former releases validated; releases to person dead enure to successors.—When payment or satisfaction is made of a debt secured by mortgage, deed of trust, vendor's or mechanic's lien, it shall be the duty of such lien creditor, unless he shall have delivered a proper release deed, to cause such payment or satisfaction to be entered on the margin of the page of the book where such incumbrance is recorded; and for any failure to do so, after five days' notice, if the note, bond, or other evidence of debt secured by said lien shall be left with the lien creditor, or with the clerk, in whose office such incumbrance is recorded, until the lien is released as provided by this section, shall forfeit twenty dollars. Such entry of payment or satisfaction shall be signed by the creditor or his duly authorized agent, attorney or attorney in fact, and the note, bond or other evidence of debt secured by such lien duly cancelled, shall be produced before the clerk in whose office such incumbrance is recorded, or an affidavit shall be filed by the said creditor, or his duly authorized agent or attorney, or attorney in fact, with such clerk, to the effect that the debt therein secured and intended to be released or discharged has been paid to such creditor, his agent, attorney, or attorney in fact, who was, when the said debt was so satisfied, entitled and authorized to receive the same, and that such note, bond or other evidence of debt has been cancelled and delivered to the person by whom it was paid, or has been lost or destroyed and cannot be produced as herein required; and when so signed and the signature thereto attested by such clerk, with a certificate that said note, bond or other evidence of debt duly cancelled was produced before such clerk, or that the affidavit hereinbefore required has been duly filed with such clerk, the same shall operate as a release of the incumbrance as to which such payment or satisfaction is entered, and if the incumbrance be by deed of trust or mortgage, as a reconveyance of the legal title, as fully and effectually as if the said marginal entry were a formal deed of release duly executed and recorded.

Digitized by Google

Any person who owns or has any interest in real estate or personal property on which such incumbrance exists may, after twenty days' notice thereof to the person entitled to such incumbrance, apply to the circuit or corporation court of the county or corporation in whose clerk's office such incumbrance is recorded, or to the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, if it be in the clerk's office of the said court, to have the same released or discharged, and upon proof that it has been paid or discharged, or upon its appearing to the court that more than twenty years have elapsed since the maturity of the lien or incumbrance, raising a presumption of payment, and which is not rebutted at the hearing, such court shall order the same to be entered by the clerk on the margin of the page in the book wherein the incumbrance is recorded, which entry, when so made, shall operate as a release of such incumbrance, and the clerk's fee for so releasing on the margin of the page of the book wherein the incumbrance or lien is recorded shall be fifty cents, which shall be paid by the person or persons applying for the release, unless otherwise provided in the said mortgage, deed of trust, vendor's or mechanic's lien.

All releases heretofore made by any court under this section upon such presumption of payment so arising and not rebutted, shall be validated. A release of a deed of trust or a reconveyance of the property embraced therein, may in all cases be made to the original grantor, whether living or dead, and any release or reconveyance heretofore or hereafter so made shall enure both in law and in equity to the successors in title of such grantor. (Code 1887, § 2498; 1893-4, p. 483; 1895-6, p. 574; 1897-8, pp. 595, 935; 1899-00, pp. 80, 839; 1901, p. 348; 1916, p. 703.)

Revisors' Note.—The words "and if the encumbrance be by deed of trust or mortgage, as a reconveyance of the legal title," appearing near the end of the first paragraph are new.

The object of this section, before amendment of 1897-8 (page 935), was declared to be to give a summary remedy for having the liens therein marked "Satisfied," upon proof that the debt secured had been actually paid or discharged, and not to enable persons to have such liens marked "Satisfied" because liable to be defeated by presumption of payment or statute of limitation. Turnbull v. Mann, 94 Va. 182, 26 S. E. 510.

Digitized by Google

After the decision in this case the legislature so amended section 2498 of the Code of 1887 as to provide that the county and corporation courts could, on motion of one who owns, or has an interest in, real estate, direct the release or discharge of a lien or encumbrance thereon, "upon proof that it has been paid or discharged, or upon its appearing to the court that more than twenty years have elapsed since the maturity of the lien or encumbrance, raising a presumption of payment, and which is not rebutted at the hearing." Phlegar, J., in Turnbull v. Mann, 99 Va. 41, 37 S. E. 288.

The right to enforce a trust deed is barred by the presumption of payment which arises from the lapse of twenty years from the time the debt became due, unless that presumption is rebutted (Booker v. Booker's Adm'r, 29 Grat. 605; Bowie v. Poor School Soc., 75 Va. 300), and the bar of this presumption is not affected by the fact that the legislature, by act of February 24, 1898 (Acts 1897-8, p. 516) (see section 5827 of this Code), provided a statute of limitations for trust deeds. Brewis v. Lawson, 76 Va. 36; Turnbull v. Mann, 99 Va. 41, 37 S. E. 288.

Fraudulent marking.—The beneficiary under a second deed of trust has priority over the bona fide holder of negotiable notes secured in the first deed, where it appears that the original beneficiary under the first deed, after transferring notes, had fraudulently marked lien satisfied on the margin before the execution of the second deed, and that the beneficiary in the second deed had no notice that the notes secured by the first deed had been transferred or were still unpaid, or of any fraud in the transaction. Evans v. Roanoke Bank, 95 Va. 294, 28 S. E. 323, 3 Va. Law Reg. 705, and note. This case brought forth the amendment of February 28, 1898 (Acts 1897-8, p. 594), the purpose of which was to provide against fraudulent marking.

Brokers.—A broker, who negotiated a loan secured by deed of trust and who received payment in full of the note evidencing the same, but paid only part to his principal, and who was not in possession of the note secured, is not such an agent as can bind his principal by a marginal release under this section, and such a release cannot affect the lien of the creditor whose money he loaned. Brooking v. Nolde (Chancery Court of the City of Richmond), 11 Va. Law Reg. 217. A petition for writ of error was refused in this case.

For comment upon the question of marginal release raised in Brooking v. Nolde, see 11 Va. Law Reg. 226.

Generally.—As to penalty for failure to release, 8 Va. Law Reg. 216.

Cited in Land v. Shipp, 100 Va. 337, 41 S. E. 742; Osburn v. Thockmorton, 90 Va. 317, 18 S. E. 285; Watkins v. West, &c., 92 Va. 1, 8, 22 S. E. 554.

As to marking judgments satisfied, see sections 6465, 6466, 6467.

Sec. 6457. Protection of assignees, transferees, or indorsees of debts secured on real estate by mortgage, deed of trust, vendor's or mechanic's lien.—Whenever any debt secured on real estate by mortgage, deed of trust, vendor's or mechanic's lien has been assigned, transferred, or endorsed to another, in whole or in part, by the original payee thereof, such payee, assignee, transferee or endorsee, may cause a memorandum or statement of the assignment to such assignee, transferee, or endorsee to be entered on the margin of the page in the book where such encumbrance securing the same is recorded, which memornadum or statement shall be signed by the assignor, transferrer, or endorser, his duly authorized agent or attorney, and when so signed and the signature thereto attested by the clerk in whose office such encumbrance is recorded the same shall operate as a notice of such assignment and transfer. And where such transfer by the payee is so entered on the margin of the deed book subsequent transfers thereof may likewise be entered in the same manner and with like effect. (1897-8, p. 258.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note. The act from which this section is taken provided (near the beginning) that "such PAYEE may cause a memorandum or statement of the assignment BY HIM to such assignee, transferee or endorsee to be entered," etc. The present section provides that "such PAYEE, ASSIGNEE, TRANSFEREE OR ENDORSEE may cause a memorandum or statement of the assignment to such assignee, transferee or endorsee to be entered," etc.

Sec. 6458. Purchaser for valuable consideration without notice not affected by liens of the Mutual Assurance Society against fire on buildings until such liens are filed in the clerk's office.—The lien of the Mutual Assurance Society against fire on buildings in the State of Virginia upon property insured therein for quotas assessed against the policies of such property owners shall not be valid against purchasers of such property for valuable consideration without notice of the existence of such insurance, except from the time the said society shall have complied with the provisions of this section. The said society shall have prepared and kept in the clerk's office of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, and of the circuit court of each county and the corporation court of each city in which said society insures property, a book to be called the "Mutual Assurance Society's Lien Book;" said book when left with the clerk shall become a public record and shall be kept open to the inspection of the public. The said society shall have entered in said book a brief description of the property insured by it upon which it claims a lien, the date and amount of the policy and the name of the parties to whom the policy was issued, and the date of the entry shall be made in said book. (1899-00, p. 446.)

Digitized by Google

CHAPTER 271.

Enforcing Decrees and Orders; Docketing Judgments and Other Liens of the Like Nature; the Effect of Such Liens; and the Limitation of Proceedings on Judgments.

Sec.
6459. Decrees and orders for property or money have effect of judgment; are embraced by word "judgment," where used under this title.
6460. Who deemed judgment creditors; how execution issues on decrees for money to be paid into court, or a bank, etc.
6461. Clerks of circuit, corporation, or hustings courts and clerk of Chancery Court of Richmond to keep judgment dockets; what judgments to docket therein; clerks of circuit courts in cities to deliver abstracts of judgments rendered in their courts or offices; abstracts of judgments against fiduciaries, receivers, etc., not to be docketed unless required.
6462. Judgments and decrees of the Circuit Court of Appeals and district courts of the United States may be docketed and indexed in the clerks' offices of the courts of Virginia.
6463. How judgments are docketed; executions issued thereon.
6464. How indexed.
6465. When and how payment thereof entered on judgment docket; when clerks to certify satisfaction of judgments.
6466. Judgment, when paid, to be so noted by creditor; where and how noted, signed and attested.
6467. When and how court, on motion of defendant, etc., may have payment of judgment entered.
6468. Attorney-General, etc., to have judgments in favor of State docketed, and where.
6469. Lis pendens and attachment, when and how to be docketed and indexed.
6470. Judgment to be a lien on all real estate of defendant; from what time; judgments in vacation; extracts to be granted.
6471. Judgment not a lien against purchaser for valuable consideration without notice, unless docketed.
6472. Jurisdiction of equity to enforce lien of judgment; when it may decree a sale.
6473. Enforcement of lien, where judgment does not exceed twenty dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.
6474. When suit to enforce lien of judgment barred in equity.
6475. When right of subrogation enforced; lien of judgment not impaired by another judgment thereon, or by forthcoming bond.
6476. Order of liability between alienees of different parts of estate.
6477. Limitation of proceedings to enforce judgment. The return by officer on an execution.
6478. Provision construing and qualifying the preceding section.
6479. Chapter embraces recognizances and bonds having force of a judgment.

Sec. 6459. Decrees and orders for property or money have effect of judgment; are embraced by word "judgment," where used under this title.—A decree for land or specific personal property, and a decree or order requiring the payment of money, shall have the effect of a judgment for such land, property, or money, and be embraced by the word "judgment," where used in any chapter under this title; but a party may proceed to carry into execution a decree or order in chancery other than for the payment of money, as he might have done if this and the following section had not been enacted. (Code 1887, § 3557.)

Digitized by Google

Independently of statute.—The courts of equity, independently of statute, have only the process of contempt (summons, attachment, sequestration, etc.) to compel parties to submit to their decrees. And they use that process still, and can use none other for the classes of decrees for which the statute has created no new remedy, e. g., decrees not to pay money nor to deliver property, but to do some collateral thing. 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 984.

The statute.—This section substitutes a more simple and direct means of enforcing decrees than the original remedy by sequestration. Tate v. Liggat, 2 Leigh 84, 101.

Statute fixing lien of a judgment applies equally to decrees for payment of money. Hockman v. Hockman, 93 Va. 455, 25 S. E. 534.

A decree is placed by the statutes of this State on the same plane with a judgment, and a scire facias to revive a decree, if regular in other respects, is not invalidated because sued out on the law instead of the chancery side of the court. White v. Palmer, 110 Va. 490, 66 S. E. 44.

Executions.—This section gives the courts of chancery the power to superintend the execution of its own process, and to correct abuses therein. Windrum v. Parker, 2 Leigh 361; Snavely v. Harkrader, 30 Grat. 487, 492; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 885.

Courts of chancery are bound, in deciding upon all questions in respect to executions, to abide by the common law and statutes respecting executions at law. Windrum v. Parker, 2 Leigh 369.

Any execution which may be taken upon a judgment may be taken on a decree. Tate v. Liggat, 2 Leigh 84, 101; Tyler v. Toms, 75 Va. 116, 127.

Notice to purchasers.—A decree for the payment of money, if docketed in the manner prescribed by law, will constitute a valid notice to purchasers and all persons dealing with the property in question. Lee v. Swepson, 76 Va. 173, 176; Hutcheson v. Grubbs, 80 Va. 251, 253; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1060, 1061.

Decree collaterally assailed.—A decree, like a judgment, cannot be collaterally assailed, but is conclusive of the rights and liabilities of the parties until reversed by the appellate court, or impeached for fraud in obtaining it, or set aside on bill of review. Allan v. Hoffman, 83 Va. 129, 2 S. E. 602; Seamster v. Blackstock, 83 Va. 232, 2 S. E. 36, 5 Am. St. Rep. 262. Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 844.

Generally.—This section is followed in Cheatham v. Cheatham's Ex'r, 81 Va. 395.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 884; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 80, 984; note on decrees, Evans v. Spurgin, 11 Grat. 615, Va. Rep. Anno.; note on judgments, Smith's Adm'r v. Charlton's Adm'r, 7 Grat. 425, Va. Rep. Anno.

Sec. 6460. Who deemed judgment creditors; how execution issues on decrees, for money to be paid into court, or a bank, etc.—The persons, entitled to the benefit of any decree or order requiring the payment of money, shall be deemed judgment creditors, although the money be required to be paid into a court, or a bank,

Digitized by Google

or other place of deposit. In such case, an execution on the decree or order shall make such recital thereof, and of the parties to it, as may be necessary to designate the case; and if a time be specified in the decree or order within which the payment is to be made, the execution shall not issue until the expiration of that time. (Code 1887, § 3558.)

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 884; note on judgments, Smith's Adm'r v. Charlton's Adm'r, 7 Grat. 425, Va. Rep. Anno.; note on decrees, Evans v. Spurgin, 11 Grat. 615, Va. Rep. Anno.; note on exceptions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

Sec. 6461. Clerks of circuit, corporation, or hustings courts and clerk of Chancery Court of Richmond to keep judgment dockets; what judgments to docket therein; clerks of circuit courts in cities to deliver abstracts of judgments rendered in their courts or offices; abstracts of judgments against fiduciaries, receivers, etc., not to be docketed unless required.—The clerk of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, and of every circuit and corporation court except the Hustings Court of the city of Richmond, and circuit courts of cities, shall keep in his office, in a well-bound book, a judgment docket, in which he shall docket, without delay, any judgment for money rendered in this State by any State or Federal court, when he shall be required so to do by any person interested, on such person delivering to him an authenticated abstract of it; and shall also docket every judgment for money rendered in his court or office, and every such judgment, the abstract of which is delivered to him by the clerk of the circuit or other court of his city, and also upon the request of any person interested therein, any such judgment rendered by a justice whose book has been filed in his office under the provisions of section six thousand and twenty-four, or of which an abstract is delivered to him certified by the justice who rendered it. The clerk of the circuit or other court of each city, except the clerk of the Circuit or of a city court of the city of Richmond, shall, without delay, deliver to the clerk of the corporation court of his city, and the clerk of the Circuit or of a city court of the city of Richmond shall deliver to the clerk of the Chancery Court of said city, an authenticated abstract of every judgment for money rendered in his court or office, except that judgments, decrees, or orders against fiduciaries for which they are not personally liable, and against commissioners and receivers of any court, and against any bank or incorporated company doing a banking business for money deposited under or subject to the order of any court, or by a commissioner or receiver thereof, shall not be docketed, nor abstracts thereof delivered by the clerks of the circuit courts to the clerks of the corporation court, or by the clerks of the Circuit or city courts of Richmond to the clerk of the Chancery Court of the said city, unless required by the plaintiff in such judgment, decree, or order, or some person interested therein,

Digitized by Google

to be so certified and docketed, and then only at the cost of such plaintiff or person so interested. (Code 1887, § 3559; 1902-3-4, p. 777.)

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1060; note on judgments, Smith's Adm'r v. Charlton's Adm'r, 7 Grat. 425, Va. Rep. Anno.; Burks' Pleading and Practice, p. 618.

Sec. 6462. Judgments and decrees of the Circuit Court of Appeals and district courts of the United States may be docketed and indexed in the clerks' offices of the courts of Virginia.—Judgments and decrees rendered in the Circuit Court of Appeals or a district court of the United States within this State may be docketed and indexed in the clerks' offices of courts of this State in the same manner and under the same rules and requirements of law as judgments and decrees of courts of this State. (1899-90, p. 22.)

Revisors' Note.—This section now covers judgments of the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States as well as judgments of the district courts. Circuit courts of the United States no longer exist.

A federal court judgment in favor of plaintiff in ejectment having been rendered in June, 1900, one of the defendants conveyed the surface of a part of the land sued for in October, 1901, after which the grantee conveyed the land to a lumber company which was not in existence at the time of the judgment, and the lumber company thereupon filed a petition to set aside the judgment, and for leave to defend; alleging that its grantor had no knowledge or notice of the judgment "until long after it was rendered." Held, that though such judgment not docketed in the county where the land lay, may not be notice to an innocent purchaser, as provided by U. S. Comp. St. 1901, p. 701, and this section, the petition is insufficient, for failure to show that the corporation's vendor was a bona fide purchaser without notice, and when he became a complete purchaser. King v. Davis, 137 Fed. 467, 11 Va. Law Reg. 463.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 139, section 4.

As to federal judgment liens see 14 Va. Law Reg. 332.

Sec. 6463. How judgments are docketed; executions issued thereon.—In such docket there shall be stated in separate columns the date and amount of the judgment, the time from which it bears interest, the costs, the name of all the parties thereto, the alternative value of any specific property recovered by it, the date and the time of docketing it, the amount and date of any credits thereon, the court in which or the justice by whom it was rendered, and when paid off or discharged in whole or in part, the time thereof, and by whom such payment or discharge was made, where there is more than one defendant, and in case of a judgment or decree by confession or in vacation, the clerk shall also enter in such docket the time of day at which the same was confessed, or at which the same was received in his office to be entered of record. There shall also be shown on said book the name of plaintiff's attorney, if any, the date of each execution in the order made, the nature thereof, when returnable, and the officer's return thereon, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of any circuit or city court of a city in which a judgment is confessed or entered in vacation, to certify to the clerk of the corporation court thereof the time of

Digitized by Google

day of such confession, or the time at which the vacation decree was received in his office to be entered, except that in the city of Richmond he shall certify the same to the clerk of the Chancery Court of said city. (Code 1887, § 3560; 1897-8, p. 507; 1902-3-4, p. 777; 1916, p. 122.)

Revisors' Note.—Section 3182 of the Code of 1887 relating to the execution book was last amended by Acts 1916, p. 765. Section 3560 of the Code of 1887 was last amended by Acts 1916, p. 122. This latter act required what was formerly put in the execution book to be entered in the judgment lien book. The act, however, did not become effective until January 1, 1917, and it provided that after that date no other record of executions should be kept, consequently the Act of 1916, p. 765, amending section 3182 of the Code of 1887 as theretofore amended, was repealed when the Act of 1916, p. 122, amending section 3560 of the Code of 1887, became effective. The present Code omits section 3182 of the Code of 1887, as amended, and retains section 3560 of that Code, as amended, with several changes. Under the revised section above the docket is required to show the date AND THE TIME of docketing the judgment. This change was made because under section 6471 the judgment is a lien on real estate as against a subsequent purchaser for value without notice only from the TIME that it is duly docketed, and of course the docket should show the TIME as well as the date. The provision appearing in the revised section requiring the name of the plaintiff's attorney, if any, to be shown on the book, is new.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1060; note on judgments, Smith's Adm'r v. Charlton's Adm'r, 7 Grat. 425, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 139, section 4.

Sec. 6464. How indexed.—Every judgment shall, as soon as it is docketed, be indexed by the clerk in the name of each defendant, as required by section thirty-three hundred and ninety-four, and shall not be regarded as docketed as to any defendant in whose name it is not so indexed. (Code 1887, § 3561; 1916, p. 65.)

Revisors' Note.—Section 3561 of the Code of 1887 was amended by Acts 1916, p. 65. This amendment required the clerk to index the judgment in the name of the plaintiff as well as in the name of the defendant. The revised section omits this amendment and is the same as section 3561 of the Code of 1887, except that it provides that the indexing shall be "as required by section 3394."

Docketing and indexing judgment in name of "Mrs. T. Frank Simmons" is no notice of the judgment to a purchaser of real estate from "Mrs. May M. Simmons," though the two names represent the same person, Mrs. May M. Simmons being the wife of T. Frank Simmons. Bankers' Loan & Investment Co. v. Blair, 99 Va. 606, 611, 39 S. E. 231, 86 Am. St. Rep. 914.

The word "same," written immediately below the name of the judgment debtor on the index, constitutes a sufficient indexing of the judgment next listed against him. Fulkerson v. Taylor, 102 Va. 314, 46 S. E. 309.

Evidence.—Where a bill alleges that a judgment was "duly docketed," and the answer calls for full and complete proof of same, the calling for proof of docketing puts the averment of the bill in issue and it must be proved; and if in proving that the judgment was "duly docketed," by enumerating the particulars that go to make up such docketing, all mention of the indexing be omitted, the proof is not as broad as the allegation. Fulkerson v. Taylor, 100 Va. 426, 436, 437, 41 S. E. 863.

Digitized by Google

The latter clause of this section overrules Old Dominion Granite Co. v. Clarke, 28 Grat. 617, where it was held that the index was not a necessary part of the docketing. To same effect was Shadrack's Adm'r v. Woolfolk, 32 Grat. 712.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1050, 1051; 2 Va. Law Reg. 620; 7 Va. Law Reg. 258.

Discussed, 15 Va. Law J. 445.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 139, section 4.

Sec. 6465. When and how payment thereof entered on judgment docket; when clerks to certify satisfaction of judgments.—The fact of payment or discharge, either in whole or in part, of any judgment so docketed, and if there be more than one defendant, by which defendant it was paid or discharged, shall be entered by the clerk in whose office the same is so docketed whenever it shall appear from the return of an execution issued from his office, or from a certificate of the clerk from whose office such execution is issued, that the same has been satisfied, in whole or in part, or upon the direction of the judgment creditor or his attorney; and, where a judgment rendered by a court held in a city is docketed in the clerk's office of some other court of such city, it shall be the duty of the clerk of said court from which the execution issued, whenever it appears from the return thereof, that the same has been satisfied, in whole or in part, to certify the fact of such satisfaction without delay to the clerk of the court in whose office such judgment was docketed, and if there be more than one defendant, by which defendant it was so satisfied. (Code 1887, § 3562; 1902-3-4, p. 778.)

As to release of other incumbrances, see section 6456.

Sec. 6466. Judgment, when paid, to be so noted by creditor; where and how noted, signed and attested.—In all cases where payment or satisfaction of any judgment so docketed is made which does not appear by the return of an execution to the office of the clerk where the judgment is docketed or which is not required to be certified to him under the preceding section, it shall be the duty of the judgment creditor, himself, or by his agent or attorney, to cause such payment, or satisfaction, whether in whole or in part, and if there be more than one defendant, by which defendant it was paid or discharged, to be entered within ninety days after the same is made, on said judgment docket; or, if the judgment has not been docketed, then on the execution book in the office of the clerk from which the execution issued. And for any failure to do so, such judgment creditor shall be liable to a fine of twenty dollars. Such entry of payment or satisfaction shall be signed by the creditor, his duly authorized agent or attorney, and be attested by the clerk in whose office the judgment is docketed, or, when not docketed, by the clerk from whose office the execution issued. (Code 1887, § 3563; 1902-3-4, p. 778.)

Digitized by Google

As to when and how payment or satisfaction of a debt secured by mortgage, deed of trust, vendor's or mechanic's lien, must be entered by the lien creditor on the margin of the page of the book where such incumbrance is recorded, and effect of same, see section 6456 and notes.

Sec. 6467. When and how court, on motion of defendant, etc., may have payment of judgment entered.—A defendant in any judgment, his heirs or personal representatives, may, on motion, after ten days' notice thereof to the plaintiff in said judgment, or his assignee, or if he be dead, to his personal representative, or if he be a non-resident, to his attorney, if he have one, apply to the court in which the judgment was rendered, to have the same marked satisfied, and upon proof that the judgment has been paid off or discharged, such court shall order such satisfaction to be entered on the margin of the page in the book wherein the said judgment was entered, and a certificate of such order to be made to the clerk of the court in which such judgment is required by section sixty-four hundred and sixty-one to be docketed, and the clerk of such court shall immediately, upon the receipt of such certificate, enter the same in the proper column of the judgment docket opposite the place where the said judgment is docketed. If the plaintiff be a non-resident and have no attorney resident in this State, the notice may be published and posted as an order of publication is required to be published and posted under sections six thousand and sixty-nine and six thousand and seventy. Upon a like motion and similar proceeding, the court may order to be marked "discharged in bankruptcy," any judgment which may be shown to have been so discharged. (Code 1887, § 3564; 1910, p. 532.)

Revisors' Note.—The last two sentences of this section are new. The last sentence, however, was suggested by Acts 1910, p. 532.

As to marking "satisfied" mortgages, deeds of trust, vendors' and mechanics' liens, see section 6456.

Sec. 6468. Attorney-General, etc., to have judgments in favor of State docketed, and where.—Whenever a judgment is recovered in favor of the Commonwealth, it shall be the duty of the Attorney-General or other attorney representing the Commonwealth, to cause the said judgment to be docketed in all counties and corporations wherein there is any real estate owned by any person against whom the judgment is recovered. (Code 1887, § 3565.)

Sec. 6469. Lis pendens and attachment, when and how to be docketed and indexed.—No lis pendens, or attachment, shall bind or affect a subsequent bona fide purchaser of real or personal estate for valuable consideration and without actual notice of such lis pendens or attachment, until and except from the time a memorandum setting forth the title of the cause or attachment, the general object thereof, the court wherein it is pending, the amount of the claim asserted by the plaintiff, a description of the property, and the name of the person whose estate is intended to be affected thereby, shall be admitted to record in the clerk's office of the circuit court of the county or the corporation court of the city wherein the property is, or if it be in the city of Richmond, in the clerk's office of the Chancery Court of such city. The memorandum required by this section shall be authenticated by the clerk of the court in which such suit, action or attachment is pending. Such memorandum shall not be deemed to have been recorded unless and until indexed as required by law. (Code 1887, § 3566.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—Some of the language of this section is taken from section 2460 of the Code of 1887.

As the law stood before the revision, subsequent purchasers for value without notice of personal property took subject to a prior attachment, whether a lis pendens was recorded or not. This has been changed so as to make it a lien as to purchasers without actual notice only where a lis pendens has been recorded and indexed. No change in this respect has been made as to real estate. Until the decision in Vicars v. Sayler, 111 Va. 307, 68 S. E. 988 (annotated, 16 Va. Law Reg. 672), doubt was entertained as to whether or not it was necessary to record and index a lis pendens, but it was held in that case that the section was not complied with unless a lis pendens was both recorded and indexed. The language of the section has been changed simply to conform to that opinion. Under the former law there was doubt and uncertainty as to how the memorandum should be authenticated. The present section settles this question.

The substantial changes made by this section are: That it is made to apply to EVERY lis pendens and attachment; that it protects subsequent bona fide purchasers of real OR PERSONAL estate; that the memorandum must be admitted to record and indexed before it can operate as constructive notice, and that the book in which it is to be recorded is the miscellaneous lien book. The memorandum must also be authenticated by the clerk.

See revisors' note to section 5186.

What estate affected by.—Where a bill is filed to subject real estate, all rights acquired from or under the defendant to the subject in controversy, pending the suit, are subject to any decree which may be made in the suit, except a purchaser without actual notice is protected when the memorandum of lis pendens is not properly filed. Cirode v. Buchanan, 22 Grat. 205, 220.

Under chapter 186, section 5, Code 1860 (corresponding to the above section), lis pendens affects only the real estate that is embraced in "the general object" of the suit, i. e., real estate that is the corpus or subject of controversy. Briscoe v. Ashby, 24 Grat. 454, 470.

In the absence of statute, the settled law is that the doctrine of lis pendens applies to all who deal with a party to a suit touching the real estate that is the subject-matter of litigation. Hurn v. Keller. 79 Va. 415, 418, 419.

Bona fide purchaser.—A purchaser having purchased and received a conveyance of land without notice of an attachment, which had been previously levied upon it, but which had not been docketed, is entitled to hold the land free from the lien of the attachment. Cammack v. Soran, 30 Grat. 292, 297.

A creditors' bill is filed against the administrator and heirs of an intestate to subject the intestate's estate, which has been divided amongst his heirs, to the payment of intestate's debts. Pending the suit one of the heirs sells and conveys the land received from the estate to a bona fide purchaser for value having no actual notice of the pendency of the suit. Held, no memorandum of lis pendens having been filed, the land is not liable to satisfy the grantor's proportion of the intestate's debts. Easley v. Barksdale, 75 Va. 274, 280.

Digitized by Google

If a purchaser buy land knowing that there is a suit pending touching same, he will take subject to the rights of judgment creditors, though no lis pendens was docketed. Hurn v. Keller, 79 Va. 415, 420.

A purchaser of land is conclusively affected with notice of a judgment duly docketed against the grantor, and no lis pendens or other notice of a suit to subject the land to such judgment is needed to affect them. Sharitz v. Moyers, 99 Va. 519, 525, 39 S. E. 166.

If, pending an action to subject land by attachment, the defendant convey his land without consideration, the purchaser takes subject to the rights of the plaintiff in the action, though no memorandum was recorded as required by this section. Davis v. Anderson, 99 Va. 620, 624, 39 S. E. 588.

Where land was sold by verbal contract, and the vendee sold it and a deed was made from the original vendor to the purchaser from the vendee, but the same was not recorded until two days after there was left with the clerk a lis pendens in an attachment suit against the land as that of the original vendor, the one purchasing from his vendee had constructive notice. Breeden v. Peale, 106 Va. 39, 55 S. E. 2. As to indexing, see Vicars v. Sayler, 111 Va. 307, 68 S. E. 988; present section and revisors' note.

Section 5, chapter 182, and section 5, chapter 127, of the Code of 1873 (corresponding to sections 5397 and 6469) must be construed together. Easley v. Barksdale, 75 Va. 274, 279, 281.

Federal courts.—This section has no application to Federal courts sitting in Virginia; such courts having no power to enforce the registration of such memoranda. King v. Davis, 137 Fed. 222, 11 Va. Law Reg. 463.

See 14 Va. L. Reg. 332.

Generally.—For monographic note on lis pendens, see Stout v. Vause, 1 Rob. 169, Va. Rep. Ann.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 219, 667; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 978; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 997; 1 Va. Law Reg 295; 7 Va. Law Reg. 340; note on lis pendens, Stout v. Vause, 1 Rob. 169, Va. Rep. Anno.; note on attachments, Lancaster v. Wilson, 27 Grat. 624, Va. Rep. Anno.; notes to sections 5186, 6393.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations chapter 139, section 13.

See Gregory's Forms No. 348.

Sec. 6470. Judgment to be a lien on all real estate of defendant; from what time; judgments in vacation; extracts to be granted.—Every judgment for money rendered in this State, other than by confession in vacation, shall be a lien on all the real estate of or to which the defendant in such judgment is or becomes possessed or entitled, at or after the date of such judgment, or if it was rendered in court, at or after the commencement of the term at which it was so rendered, if the cause was in such condition that a judgment might have been rendered on the first day of the term, but if from the nature of the case judgment could not have been rendered at the commencement of the term, such judgment shall be a lien only on or after the date on which such judgment or decree is rendered and not from the commencement of the term; but this section shall not prevent the lien of a judgment or decree from relating back to the first day of the term merely because the case shall be set for trial or hearing on a later day of the term, if such case was matured and ready for hearing at the commencement of the term, nor merely because an office judgment in a case matured and docketed at the commencement of the term does not become final until a later day of the term. A judgment by confession in vacation shall also be a lien upon such real estate, but only from the time of day at which such judgment is confessed. If more than one judgment is confessed in vacation by the same defendant, such judgments shall have priority as among themselves in the order with respect to the time when they are respectively confessed, unless otherwise directed by the defendant, which time shall be the time that the first was confessed, and the clerk shall enter such time on the margin of his order book. Judgments against the same person shall, as among themselves, attach to his real estate, and be payable thereout in the order of the priority of such judgments, respectively. An extract from any judgment shall, upon motion, be granted to any person interested immediately upon its rendition, subject to the future action of the court rendering the same. This section is qualified by section sixty-five hundred and fifty of this Code. (Code 1887, § 3567, 3576; 1897-8, p. 507; 1901-2, p. 427.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—This section is based on sections 3567, 3568 and 3576 of the former Code. Section 3568 was repealed by Acts 1901-2, p. 427, but some of its provisions appear in the above section. Section 3567 was amended by Acts 1897-8, p. 507, and again by Acts 1901-2, p. 427. Section 3576 was amended by Acts 1901-2, p. 427.

Under the law as it stood before the revision, difficulties existed as to the priorities of judgment creditors as among themselves, which difficulties grew out of the fact that under that law, while all the judgments of the same term against the same defendant were placed on the same footing, yet no date was attached to those judgments, and when any one came to compare the priority of the judgments of one court with judgments rendered in another, it could not be done where the two courts overlapped part of the same time, due to the failure to fix a date for the judgments. In order to obviate these and other difficulties some of the provisions of the Code of 1887 are restored, and the principle of relation back to the first day of the term is reinstated. Purchasers for value without notice are protected by section 6471, and creditors by deeds of trust are also protected by the same section, it having been held repeatedly that a creditor secured by a deed of trust and the trustee are purchasers. Rhea v. Preston, 75 Va. 757; Hill v. Rixey, 26 Grat. 72; Ex. Bank v. Knox, 19 Grat. 739; Wickham v. Lewis, 18 Grat. 427.

Meaning of word "judgment."—The word "judgment," as used in this section, embraces decrees for land, or specific personal property, or for payment of money. See 6459; Hockman v Hockman, 93 Va. 455, 25 S. E. 534, 57 Am. St. Rep. 816.

Equitable interest.—A creditor, by judgment or decree, may, in equity, subject his debtor's equitable interest in land arising out of a deed of trust on the land sold for the balance of the purchase money due. Withers v. Carter, 4 Grat. 407, 417, 50 Am. Dec. 78.

Digitized by Google

Equity of redemption.—A judgment is a lien upon an equity of redemption, and if the trustee under the deed of trust sell the land the balance of the purchase money in the hands of the purchaser, after discharging the previous incumbrances, will represent and stand in the place of the equity of redemption. Michaux's Adm'r v. Brown, 10 Grat. 612, 619.

Equitable title.—A good equitable title acquired by a purchaser is paramount in equity to subsequent judgments of the vendor's creditors recovered before the vendee has obtained a conveyance of the legal title. Withers v. Carter, 4 Grat. 407, 412, 50 Am. Dec. 78; Floyd v. Harding, 28 Grat. 401. See, also, Hart v. Haynes, 1 Va. Dec. 201, and note.

Extent of lien—Resulting trusts—Decrees for alimony—Improvements.—Where a debtor against whom a decree for money has been entered buys lands, the decree creditor may subject it, not merely to the extent of money invested in the land, but to the full extent of the value of the land. The lien is on real estate, not money. Burbridge v. Higgins' Adm'r, 6 Grat. 119, 125.

Where statutory enactments do not interfere, the creditor can never get by his judgment more than his debtor really owns. Floyd v. Harding, 28 Grat. 401-407; Borst v. Nalle, Id. 423, 433, and cases cited; Sinclair v. Sinclair, 79 Va. 40, 41; Coldiron v. Asheville Shoe Co., 93 Va. 364, 373, 25 S. E. 238.

A judgment is not a lien on land held solely as resulting trustee by one for the benefit of another who has paid the purchase money. Straley v. Esser, 117 Va. 135, 83 S. E. 1075.

A decree for alimony and suit money constitutes, under this section a lien upon all of the real estate of the debtor, from the date of the decree though the alimony be payable in instalments during the wife's lifetime. Isaacs v. Isaacs, 117 Va. 728, 86 S. E. 105; editorial comment, 1 Va. L. R. N. S. 625.

A judgment is a lien upon improvements made by a subsequent grantee of land who has actual and constructive notice of the judgment. Nixdorf v. Blount, 111 Va. 127, 68 S. E. 258.

Contingent remainders.—Judgment rendered against a debtor at the time when he was a contingent remainderman binds his interest when it thereafter vests. Wilson v. Langhorne, 102 Va. 631, 47 S. E. 871.

Division of State into Virginia and West Virginia.—A judgment constitutes a lien on all the real estate in Virginia belonging to the judgment debtor; and the lien is neither lost nor impaired by reason of the division of the State of Virginia into two States, and the falling of the county where the judgment was obtained into the State of West Virginia. Gatewood's Adm'r v. Goode, 23 Grat. 880, 890, 891.

Bona fide purchaser.—A judgment is a lien upon land in the hands of a purchaser, though at the time of the conveyance execution upon the judgment was suspended by an injunction. Craig v. Sebrell, 9 Grat. 131; Michaux's Adm'r v. Brown, 10 Grat. 612.

The lien of a judgment may be enforced against land in the hands of bona fide purchasers for value. Taylor's Adm'r v. Spindle, 2 Grat. 44; Leake v. Ferguson, 2 Grat. 419, 431; Rodgers v. McCluer's Adm'rs, 4 Grat. 81, 82, 47 Am. Dec. 715. Docketing is necessary under section 6471.

A purchaser of land, who enters under a parol contract and pays the purchase money before a judgment is obtained against his vendor, takes free from the lien of the judgment, though the legal title is not conveyed to him until after the judgment. Floyd v. Harding, 28 Grat. 401; Long v. Hagerstown Agricultural Implement Mfg. Co., 30 Grat. 665; Young v. Devries, 31 Grat. 304.

In this connection consider sections 5194, 5195 and notes.

But a purchaser who pays the purchase money and enters upon the land under a deed or written contract which is not recorded until after a judgment is obtained against his vendor takes subject to the lien of the judgment. Eidson v. Huff, 29 Grat. 338; March v. Chambers, 30 Grat. 299; Young v. Devries, 31 Grat. 304; Hart v. Haynes, 1 Va. Dec. 201, 206.

Digitized by Google

Void process.—A judgment rendered on a void process is itself void, and does not constitute a lien on real estate. Lavell v. McCurdy's Ex'rs, 77 Va. 763, 771, 772.

Conveyance for purchase money.—If land be conveyed to a judgment debtor, and he instantly reconveys it to a trustee to secure the purchase money, he will not have acquired such an interest in the land as will subject it to the lien of the judgment against him. Straus v. Bodeker's Ex'x, 86 Va. 543, 548, 10 S. E. 570.

Where a purchaser, contemporaneously with the execution and delivery of the deed to the land sold, executes and delivers to the vendor a deed of trust thereon to secure the purchase money, he acquires temporary seisin only, and not such a beneficial interest in the land as may be subjected to the lien of a judgment until the deed of trust is satisfied. Moomaw v. Jordan, 118 Va. 414, 87 S. E. 569.

If land be conveyed to a purchaser and contemporaneously therewith, and as a part of the same transaction, the purchaser reconveys the land to a trustee to secure the purchase money, a judgment against the purchaser is subordinate to the lien of the deed of trust. Charlottesville Hdw. Co. v. Perkins, 118 Va. 34, 86 S. E. 869.

When lien attaches.—Prior to the amendments of 1897-8, p. 507, and 1901-2, p. 427, a judgment confessed in vacation operated as a lien from the first moment of the day on which the judgment was confessed regardless of the time of the day at which it was actually confessed (Hockman v. Hockman, 93 Va. 455, 457, 25 S. E. 534, 57 Am. St. Rep. 816); and the lien of the judgment related back to the first day of the term (Mutual Assur. Soc. v. Stanard, 4 Munf. 539; Coutts v. Walker, 2 Leigh 268; Skipwith's Ex'r v. Cunningham, 8 Leigh 271, 31 Am. Dec. 642; Jones v. Myrick's Ex'rs, 8 Grat. 179; Brockenbrough's Ex'x. v. Brockenbrough's Adm'r, 31 Grat. 580; Building & Loan Ass'n v. Reed, 96 Va. 345, 31 S. E. 514), if the judgment might have been rendered on that day (Coutts v. Walker, 2 Leigh 268, 277; Withers v. Carter, 4 Grat. 407, 418, 50 Am. Dec. 78; Brown v. Hume, 16 Grat. 456, 465; Yates v. Robertson, 80 Va. 475, 477).

Observe present reading of section and see revisors' note above.

Generally.—A judgment on which an execution has issued may be kept alive by other executions within the statutory period. Akiss' Ex'rs v. Satchel, 104 Va. 700, 52 S. E. 378, 11 Va. Law Reg. 886.

Where a judgment was not rendered until a homestead was set apart, and it was barred by limitations before the exemption ceased, a suit to enforce the lien after the householder's death, leaving neither widow nor minor child, instituted more than twenty years after the issue of execution, was barred. Id.

Mother held judgment against her son, which she assigned for certain purposes, reserving the power to revoke the trust for which assignment was made. She did revoke it, and then assigned the judgment to her son. The judgment being absolutely the son's cannot be interposed as against his creditors and mortgagees. Carter v. Hough, &c., 86 Va. 669, 10 S. E. 1063.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 913, 920, 928, 3 Va. Law Reg. 471, 744; 7 Va. Law Reg. 830; note on judgments, Smith's Adm'r v. Charlton's Adm'r, 7 Grat. 425, Va. Rep. Anno.; and the following cases: Coutts v. Walker, 2 Leigh 268; Skipwith's Ex'r v. Cunningham, 8 Leigh 271, 31 Am. Dec. 642; Taylor's Adm'r v. Spindle, 2 Grat. 44; Rodgers v. McCluer's Adm'rs, 4 Grat. 81, 47 Am. Dec. 715; Withers v. Carter, 4 Grat. 407; Michaux's Adm'r v. Brown, 10 Grat. 612.

Discussed, 14 Va. Law J. 401.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 606, 607, 608, 610, 615, 616.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 139, section 5

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6471. Judgment not a lien against purchaser for valuable consideration without notice, unless docketed.—No judgment shall be a lien on real estate as against a subsequent purchaser thereof for valuable consideration without notice until and except from the time that it is duly docketed in the proper clerk's office of the county or city wherein such real estate may be. (Code 1887, § 3570; 1901-2, p. 427.)

Where docketed.—A judgment creditor cannot, by filing his petition and proving his judgment in a partition suit in one county preserve his lien on land in another county as against a purchaser thereof for value and without notice. This section tells a prospective purchaser that judgments, not docketed in the county or corporation wherein the real estate is situated, shall not affect his rights. Murphy's Hotel Co. v. Benet, 119 Va. 157, 89 S. E. 104.

If judgment is docketed in the county where the real estate of the debtor is situated more than twenty days after its rendition, and such real estate is included within the limits of a subsequently incorporated city, the judgment must be docketed in the city fifteen days before conveyance, in order to be a lien against purchaser for value. Wicks v. Scull, 102 Va. 290, 46 S. E. 297. This case arose before the amendment of 1901-2.

Between the parties.—A judgment need not be docketed as between the parties thereto. Gatewood's Adm'r v. Goode, 23 Grat. 880, 890; Rhea v. Preston, 75 Va. 757, 767, 768

Purchasers with notice.—A judgment need not be docketed as to purchasers with notice, though they be purchasers for value. Craig v. Sebrell, 9 Grat. 131, 135; Rhea v. Preston, 75 Va. 757, 768.

Future judgments.—A judgment need not be docketed as to future judgments. Gurnee v. Johnson's Ex'r, 77 Va. 712, 725; Hart v. Haynes 1 Va. Dec. 201, and note.

Purchaser for value.—A trustee in a deed of trust given to secure a debt and the creditor secured are purchasers for value. Rhea v. Preston, 75 Va. 757, 768; Hill v. Rixey, 26 Grat. 72, 80; Exchange Bank v. Knox, 19 Grat. 739; Wickham v. Lewis, Martin & Co., 13 Grat. 427.

If a grantor who has reserved a lien for purchase money assigns the purchase-money bonds, though for value and without notice of judgment, his assignee will not be a purchaser for value. Gordon v. Rixey, 76 Va. 694, 698-701.

Where an innocent purchaser for value gets good title he can pass equally good title, ordinarily, to a non-innocent vendee. King v. Davis, 137 Fed. 222, 11 Va. Law Reg. 498.

Pleading.—The purchaser must aver and prove that he gave a valuable consideration. Gordon v. Rixey, 76 Va. 694, 697.

Generally.—See note to Floyd v. Harding, 28 Grat. 401. Va. Rep. Anno.; 5 Va. Law Reg. 864; 7 Va. Law Reg. 817, 830; note on judgments. Smith's Adm'r v. Charlton's Adm'r, 7 Grat. 425, Va. Rep. Anno.

Discussed, 3 Va. Law J. 581.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 139, section 6.

Sec. 6472. Jurisdiction of equity to enforce lien of judgment; when it may decree a sale.—Jurisdiction to enforce the lien of a judgment shall be in equity. If it appear to the court that the rents and profits of the real estate subject to the lien will not satisfy the judgment in five years, the court may decree the said estate, or any part thereof, to be sold, and the proceeds applied to the discharge of the judgment. (Code 1887, § 3571.)

Rents and profits.—It must be made to appear, even against fraudulent alienees, that the rents and profits will not discharge the judgment. Horton v. Bond, 28 Grat. 815, 820; Cronie v. Hart, 18 Grat. 739, 744, 745.

Digitized by Google

"The statute prescribes no particular mode by which it shall be made to appear that the rents and profits will not pay the judgment in five years. When there is a doubt about the fact, or an inquiry is demanded by either of the parties, the court will generally direct one of its commissioners to ascertain and report the annual rents and profits of the land. If none of the parties ask such an inquiry, there may, in a proper case, be a decree for the sale of the property without it." Ewart v. Saunders, 25 Grat. 203, 207, 208; Muse v. Friedenwald, 77 Va. 57, 61; Brengle v. Richardson's Adm'r, 78 Va. 406, 411; Dillard v. Krise, 86 Va. 410, 414, 10 S. E. 430.

"The insufficiency of the rents and profits to satisfy the judgment within the statutory period may be shown by the pleadings, by the admission of the parties, by evidence taken, or by the report of a commissioner on inquiry ordered." Horton v. Bond, 28 Grat. 815, 821; Neff v. Wooding, 83 Va. 432, 435, 2 S. E. 731.

In order to ascertain whether the rents of the land will pay the debts in five years, the court should direct the commissioner to offer it first for one year, and if that will not pay the debt then for two, and so on up to five years if necessary, closing the contract whenever the rents will pay the debt. Compton v. Tabor, 32 Grat. 121, 123, 124; Daingerfield v. Smith, 83 Va. 81, 90, 1 S. E. 599.

The value of rents and profits of land is not material in suits to enforce liens which arise out of contracts, but only in suits to enforce the lien of a judgment. As to vendor's lien, Neff v. Wooding, 83 Va. 432, 435, 2 S. E. 731; Kane v. Mann, 93 Va. 239, 24 S. E. 938, 2 Va. Law Reg. 426, and notes. As to deed of trust, Kyger v. Sipe, 89 Va. 507, 511, 16 S. E. 627.

Upon a bill to subject lands of a debtor to the payment of a judgment lien, the debtor cannot by an agreement with his wife, who is not bound by the judgment nor a party to the suit, have the rents and profits of her lands considered in estimating whether the rents and profits of his lands will satisfy the judgment in five years. Kane v. Mann, 93 Va. 239, 246, 247, 24 S. E. 938.

Equity jurisdiction.—A judgment creditor may resort to a court of equity to enforce the lien of his judgment against the real estate of his debtor, without first proceeding by execution at law to subject the personal estate, or assigning any reason for not doing so (Price v. Thrash, 30 Grat. 515, 526; Moore v. Bruce, 85 Va. 139, 142, 7 S. E. 195), or "alleging or proving want of personal assets" (Moore v. Bruce, 85 Va. 139, 142, 7 S. E. 195).

A bill in equity may be maintained against the personal representative of a decedent, and his devisees or heirs at law, to subject the real estate of the decedent to the payment of a judgment recovered against him in his lifetime, without first reviving such judgment at law. James' Ex'r v. Life, 92 Va. 702, 705, 24 S. E. 275.

Judgment debtor should have day to redeem, at least this is the better practice. Crawford, &c., v. Weller, &c., 23 Grat. 836.

The doctrine of laches has no application to a suit to subject land to the lien of a judgment. The right to resort to a court of equity to enforce it is a legal right, without terms and conditions, and continues during the life of the judgment. McClanahan v. Norfolk & W. R. Co., 118 Va. 388, 87 S. E. 731.

A judgment which is a lien on lands in the hands of an alienee of the judgment debtor, may be enforced against the lands in the hands of such alienee, although he has in no way obstructed the prosecution of the plaintiff's rights. McClanahan v. Norfolk & W. R. Co., 118 Va. 388, 87 S. E. 731.

Liens and incumbrances.—It is error to decree a sale of land before the incumbrances and liens thereon and their priorities are ascertained. Cole's Adm'r v. McRae, 6 Rand. 644; Smith v. Flint, 6 Grat. 40, 42;

Digitized by Google

Buchanan v. Clark, 10 Grat. 164, 179; Iaege v. Bossieux, 15 Grat. 83, 103, 76 Am. Dec. 189; Washington, A. & G. R. Co. v. Alexandria & W. R. Co., 19 Grat. 592, 617, 100 Am. Dec. 710; Lipscombe v. Rogers, 20 Grat. 658, 660; White v. Association, 22 Grat. 233, 250; Moran v. Brent, 25 Grat. 104, 106; Simmons v. Lyles, 27 Grat. 922, 932, 933; Horton v. Bond, 28 Grat. 815, 822; Kendrick v. Whitney, Id. 646, 655; Alexander v. Howe, 85 Va. 198, 200, 7 S. E. 248; Daingerfield v. Smith, 83 Va. 81, 89, 90, 1 S. E. 599; Dillard v. Krise, 86 Va. 410, 413, 10 S. E. 430.

Where the judgment debtor owns land which is and land which is not covered by a deed of trust, the land not covered by the deed of trust should be sold first. Buchanan v. Clark, 10 Grat. 164, 179.

Decree interlocutory.—A decree directing the sale of land is interlocutory, and may be amended upon proper showing so as to secure an inquiry before sale. Manns v. Flinn's Adm'r, 10 Leigh 93, 109, 110; Ewart v. Saunders, 25 Grat. 203, 209, 210; Muse v. Friedenwald, 77 Va. 57, 61; Brengle v. Richardson's Adm'r, 78 Va. 406, 412.

Generally.—This section is followed in Seamster v. Blackstock, 83 Va. 232, 2 S. E. 36, 5 Am. St. Rep. 262.

See Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 289, 913; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 316; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 622; note on judgments, Smith's Adm'r v. Charlton's Adm'r, 7 Grat. 425, Va. Rep. Anno.; note on decrees, Evans v. Spurgin, 11 Grat. 615, Va. Rep. Anno.

Cited in Hay v. Alexandria & W. R. Co. (C. C.), 20 Fed. 15; Va. Iron Co. v. Roberts, 103 Va. 685, 49 S. E. 984.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 139, section 7.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 141, 142.

Sec. 6473. Enforcement of lien, where judgment does not exceed twenty dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.—If the amount of the judgment does not exceed twenty dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, no bill to enforce the lien thereof shall be entertained, unless it appear that thirty days before the institution of the suit, the judgment debtor or his personal representative, and the owner of the real estate on which the judgment is a lien, or, in case of a non-resident, his agent or attorney (if he have one in this State), had notice that the suit would be instituted, if the judgment was not paid within that time. (Code 1887, § 3572.)

Revisors' Note.—The present section reduces the notice from sixty days to thirty days.

See section 5399 as to suits in equity to enforce claims of less than twenty dollars.

Where a suit by a surety to be subrogated to the rights of a judgment creditor whose demand against the defendant he had paid is consolidated with a general creditors' suit against the same defendant, the fact that the amount of the judgment on which the surety's suit was based was less than $20, and the bill did not allege that sixty days' notice (now thirty days) was given defendant, as required by this section, is immaterial on appeal, because the general creditors' suit being still pending, was sufficient to sustain all proceedings in the case subsequent to consolidation. Hawpe v. Bumgardner, 103 Va. 95, 10 Va. Law Reg. 638, 48 S. E. 554.

Sec. 6474. When suit to enforce lien of judgment barred in equity.—No suit shall be brought to enforce the lien of a judgment upon which the right to issue an exeeution, or bring a scire facias, or an action, is barred by sections sixty-four hundred and seventy-seven and sixty-four hundred and seventy-eight, nor shall any suit be brought to enforce the lien of a judgment against lands which have been conveyed by the judgment debtor to a grantee for value, unless the same be brought within ten years from the due recordation of the deed from such judgment debtor to such grantee. This section so far as it affects such grantees for value or those claiming under them, shall apply as well to judgments in favor of the Commonwealth as to other judgments. (Code 1887, § 3573.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The latter part of the first sentence prescribing a limitation of ten years, where the lands of the judgment debtor have been conveyed to a grantee for value, is new. The last sentence is also new. Where land has been aliened by a judgment debtor it was thought that the judgment creditor should not have an unlimited time within which to enforce his judgment, but that he should be required to proceed to enforce his judgment within a reasonable time.

Section 3573 of the Code of 1887 was held not to affect the validity of a decree of sale of lands by a court of equity in a proceeding brought within the time for the issuance of execution or bringing a scire facias or action. Flanary v. Kane, 102 Va. 547, 46 S. E. 312, 681.

Where a judgment was not rendered until a homestead was set apart, and it was barred by limitation before the exemption ceased, a suit to enforce the lien after the householder's death, leaving neither widow nor minor child, instituted more than twenty years after the issue of execution, was barred. Akiss' Ex'rs v. Satchell, 104 Va. 700, 52 S. E. 378, 11 Va. Law Reg. 886.

A judgment on which an execution has issued may be kept alive by other executions within the statutory period. Id.

Judgment upon note may be barred, but if note is secured by deed of trust the debt can be enforced until the common law presumption of payment arises. Paxton v. Rich, 885 Va. 381, 7 S. E. 531.

Quaere: In view of this section, does the pendency of a general creditors' suit suspend the act of limitations as to a judgment sought to be enforced in another suit? Gunnell's Adm'rs v. Dixon's Adm'r, 101 Va. 174, 43 S. E. 340.

Section followed in the following cases: Rowe v. Bentley, 29 Grat. 756, 759; Cole's Adm'r v. Ballard, 78 Va. 139, 149; Hutcheson v. Grubbs, 80 Va. 251, 256-258; McCarty v. Ball, 82 Va. 872, 874, 1 S. E. 189; Sutton v. McKenney, 82 Va. 46, 47; Brown v. Butler, 87 Va. 621, 623, 13 S. E. 71; James' Ex'r v. Life, 92 Va. 702, 706, 707, 24 S. E. 275; Callaway's Adm'r v. Saunders, 99 Va. 350, 351, 38 S. E. 182.

See note on limitation of actions, Herrington v. Harkins' Adm'rs, 1 Rob. 591, Va. Rep. Anno.

See sections 6470, 6550, 6477, 6478, and notes.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 171.

Sec. 6475. When right of subrogation enforced; lien of judgment not impaired by another judgment thereon, or by forthcoming bond.—The preceding section shall not be construed to impair the right of subrogation to which any person may become entitled while the lien is in force, provided he institute proceedings to enforce such right within five years after the same accrued; nor shall the lien of a judgment be impaired by the recovery of another judgment thereon, or by a forthcoming bond taken on an execution thereon, such bond having the force of a judgment. (Code 1887, § 3574.)

In several cases in the Court of Appeals before the revision of 1887, a question had been raised, but not decided, whether the lien of a judgment is merged in a subsequent judgment thereon or in a forthcoming bond having the force of a judgment. This section was intended to settle that question. Burks' Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1397.

Digitized by Google

Failure to ask for subrogation is not ground for demurrer to a bill by a surety against principal to subject his lands to the lien of a judgment which he has paid as surety, where bill alleges a state of facts which shows that the complainant is entitled to subrogation, and contains a prayer for general relief. Hawpe v. Bumgardner, 103 Va. 91, 48 S. E. 554.

A forthcoming bond, after its forfeiture, operates as a discharge of the original judgment; but if it prove abortive the court will, on motion of the creditor, quash it, and remit the creditor to the benefit of his original judgment. Jones v. Myrick's Ex'rs, 8 Grat. 179, 211, 212; Rhea v. Preston, 75 Va. 757, 774.

This section settles the questions raised, but not decided, in Barksdale v. Fitzgerald, 76 Va. 892, 895, 896. See, also, cases there cited.

This section is followed in Callaway's Adm'rs v. Saunders, 99 Va. 350, 351, 38 S. E. 182.

See note on subrogation, Janney's Ex'r v. Stephen's Adm'r, 2 Pat. & H. 11, Va. Rep. Anno.; note on statutory bonds, Goolsby v. Strother, 21 Grat. 107, Va. Rep. Anno.; Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 616, 620.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 172.

Sec. 6476. Order of liability between alienees of different parts of estate.—Where the real estate liable to the lien of a judgment is more than sufficient to satisfy the same, and it, or any part of it, has been aliened, as among the alienees for value, that which was aliened last, shall, in equity, be first liable, and so on with other successive alienations, until the whole judgment is satisfied. And as among alienees who are volunteers under such judgment debtor, the same rule as to the order of liability shall prevail; but as among alienees for value and volunteers, the lands aliened to the latter shall be subjected before the lands aliened to the former are resorted to; and, in either case, any part of such real estate retained by the debtor shall be first liable to the satisfaction of the judgment. An alienee for value, however, from a volunteer shall occupy the same position that he would have occupied had he purchased from the debtor at the time he purchased from the voluntary donee. (Code 1887, § 3575.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence is new. As the law was when Whitten v. Saunders, 75 Va. 568, was decided, voluntary alienees stood on the same footing as alienees for value, but the revisors of 1887 inserted in this section the language, "but as among alienees for value and volunteers, the lands aliened to the latter shall be subjected before the lands aliened to the former are resorted to." This language seemed to indicate that an alienee for value of a volunteer would stand in the shoes of the volunteer and his land be subjected before that of the alienee for value from the judgment debtor. The present revisors were of opinion that this should not be true, and that alienees for value ought to cover alienees from the volunteer as well as alienees from the judgment debtor.

Sold at same time.—Where several lots are sold at the same time, or on the same day, the several holders stand on an equality, and the lots held by them should bear the burden of incumbrance ratably. The fact that the lots were conveyed at different times makes no difference. Alley v. Rogers, 19 Grat. 366, 388, 389.

Date of delivery.—Without evidence of any preceding executory agreement between the parties, or any evidence of the delivery of the deeds, the dates of the deeds will be presumed to be the dates of their delivery, and the last dated will be the first liable to satisfy the judgment. Harman v. Oberdorfer, 33 Grat. 497, 501, 502.

Digitized by Google

Pleading.—One wishing to have land subjected in the inverse order of alienation must allege by answer, or establish by proof, that the real estate liable to the lien of the judgment is more than sufficient to satisfy the same. Preston v. Bank, 97 Va. 222, 226, 33 S. E. 546.

Generally.—Quaere, does this section apply to a case where the several alienations are to the same person? Preston v. Bank, 97 Va. 222, 226, 33 S. E. 546.

The following cases follow, but do not construe, this section: Alley v. Rogers, 19 Grat. 366; Harman v. Oberdorfer, 33 Grat. 497; Whitten v. Saunders, 75 Va. 563; Brengle v. Richardson's Adm'r, 78 Va. 406; Dickinson v. Clement, 87 Va. 41, 12 S. E. 105.

See 3 Va. Law Reg. 826; Barton, C. Pr. (2d Ed.) 974; 2 Min. (4th Ed.) 307; note on marshalling assets, Carrington v. Didier, 8 Grat. 260, Va. Rep. Anno.; Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 620.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 172.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 139, section 8.

Sec. 6477. Limitation of proceedings to enforce judgment; the return by officer on an execution.—On a judgment, execution may be issued within a year, and a scire facias or an action may be brought within ten years after the date of the judgment, and where execution issues within the year, other executions may be issued, or a scire facias or an action may be brought within ten years from the return day of an execution on which there is no return by an officer, or within twenty years from the return day of an execution on which there is such return; except that where the scire facias or action is against the personal representative of a decedent, it shall be brought within five years from the qualification of such representative; and in computing time under this section, there shall, as to writs of fieri facias, be omitted from such computation the time elapsed between the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, and the twenty-ninth day of March, eighteen hundred and seventy-one. If, however, a return be made on an execution more than ten years after the return day thereof, it shall not extend the lien of the judgment beyond ten years from such return day as against a purchaser for value of real estate from the judgment debtor who acquired title prior to the time such return was actually made. Any return by an officer on an execution showing that the same has not been satisfied, shall be a sufficient return within the meaning of this section. (Code 1887, § 3577.)

Revisors' Note.—The next to the last sentence of this section is new, and the last four words of section 6491 ("giving the date thereof") are also new. Without these changes there might appear on the docket judgments rendered more than ten years upon which executions had issued, but no return made, but if a return was subsequently made it would extend the lien of the judgment for a period of twenty years from the return day of the execution. This might seriously affect innocent purchasers of land the title to which appeared clear when it was examined, but which subsequently was found to be encumbered. The changes mentioned above were made to meet this situation.

Digitized by Google

Forthcoming bonds.—The statute of limitations respecting a judgment "does not apply to a forthcoming bond before the award of the execution." Lipscomb's Adm'r v. Davis' Adm'r, 4 Leigh 303, 306, 307.

When statute begins to run.—Where administration is granted to A. upon the supposition of intestacy of decedent, and afterwards, upon the finding of a will, the same is revoked, and administration is granted to B., the five-years limitation begins to run, not from the void grant of administration to A., but from the qualification of B., the rightful administrator. Manns v. Flinn's Adm'r, 10 Leigh 93, 112.

Where a grant of administration on the estate of a decedent who left a will has been subsequently annulled and set aside, and the executor declining to qualify, administration with the will annexed is granted to another, and a scire facias is then sued out against the latter to revive a judgment recovered against the decedent in his lifetime, the statute of limitations, under this section, begins to run from the time of the qualification of the administrator with the will annexed. Cox v. Caskie, 116 Va. 388, 82 S. E. 118.

Suspension of the running of statute.—The removal of a judgment debtor from the State is of itself an obstruction to a suit to enforce the judgment, and the statute of limitations does not run against the judgment while the debtor remains out of the State. McClanahan v. Norfolk & W. R. Co., 118 Va. 388, 87 S. E. 731.

See section 5825 and note as to suspension of the running of the statute when the prosecution of a suit is prevented by the judgment debtor.

When judgments barred.—Under this section and section 5810, a suit to enforce a judgment against a decedent, brought eleven years after the qualification of his representative, was barred. Spencer v. Flanary, 104 Va. 395, 51 S. E. 849.

Where a judgment was not rendered until a homestead was set apart, and it was barred by the limitations before the exemption ceased, a suit to enforce the lien after the householder's death, leaving neither widow nor minor child, instituted more than twenty years after the issue of execution, was barred. Akiss v. Satchel, 104 Va. 700, 52 S. E. 378, 11 Va. Law Reg. 886.

A judgment on which an execution has issued may be kept alive by other executions within the statutory period. Id

Where there is a judgment against A., principal, and B., surety, jointly, and A. dies, even though the judgment may be barred against his estate, it is not thereby barred against B. or his estate. The liability of B. or his estate rests directly on the time elapsed as to him. Section 6263 is considered in reaching this result. Manson v. Rawlings, 112 Va. 384, 71 S. E. 564.

A judgment quando acciderint does not come within the operation of the statute of limitations in relation to judgments. Smith's Adm'r v. Charlton's Adm'r, 7 Grat. 425, 444, 456, overruling Braxton v. Wood's Adm'r, 4 Grat. 25, on this point.

An execution, though irregularly and unlawfully issued after the expiration of the time prescribed, is not void, but voidable, and cannot be avoided by plea or proof in a collateral suit. Beale's Adm'r v. Botetourt Justices, 10 Grat. 278, 281-283.

An execution regular in all respects, duly attested by the clerk, and marked "to lie," though never delivered to an officer, was issued within the statute. Davis v. Roller, 106 Va. 46, 55 S. E. 4.

Revival of judgment.—An enjoined judgment may be revived, upon the death of the defendant, against his personal representative. Richardson's Adm'r v. Prince George Justices, 11 Grat. 190, 198.

Though a judgment debtor has no right under this section to revive a judgment in the name of the personal representative of the judgment creditor for the purpose of obtaining an appeal, such a course is harmless error. City of Charlottesville v. Stratton's Adm'r, 102 Va. 95, 45 S. E. 737.

Digitized by Google

Where a judgment in favor of plaintiff in ejectment was not enforced by a writ of possession within a year and a day after it was entered, it is insufficient to support a writ subsequently issued without being revived, both as provided by this section and at common law. King v. Davis, 11 Va. Law Reg. 177, and note, 137 Fed. 198.

Fieri facias and scire facias.—The time omitted in this section from computation applies to a fieri facias, but not to a scire facias. Fadeley's Adm'r v. Williams' Adm'r, 96 Va. 397, 400-402, 31 S. E. 515.

The extent of the jurisdiction of the court upon a proper writ of scire facias to revive a judgment is to render judgment that the plaintiffs in the writ may have execution of the judgment set forth in the writ. If the judgment goes further and awards the payment of money the latter is void for want of jurisdiction and may be assailed collaterally. A judgment of revival merely is not a lien on land, though the judgment revived will constitute such lien. White v. Palmer, 110 Va. 490, 66 S. E. 44.

The statute gives the same effect to a decree as to a judgment and while the decree is the result of a suit in chancery, the scire facias to revive a judgment or decree is a strictly legal process, and if regular in other respects is not invalidated by reason of its having been brought on the law side of the court in order to have an award of execution upon a decree in chancery. White v. Palmer, 110 Va. 490, 66 S. E. 44.

The proceeding by scire facias is not a new suit but a continuation of the old suit. It is essential that the writ shall state all the facts necessary to authorize the relief sought. It should follow the judgment to be revived as to the amount, date and parties. White v. Palmer, 110 Va. 490, 66 S. E. 44.

A scire facias upon a scire facias which neither recites nor makes any reference to the judgment to be revived is not sufficient to revive the judgment. It fails to aver facts essential to the jurisdiction of the court, and the judgment of revival is a mere nullity which may be treated as if it never existed. White v. Palmer, 110 Va. 490, 66 S. E. 44.

The return.—Whether a return is true or false, sufficient or insufficient, is not a question which can arise under this section. The statute does not prescribe concerning a true or sufficient return, but concerning a "return of an officer." Hamilton v. McConkey's Adm'r, 83 Va. 533, 537, 538, 2 S. E. 724.

A return is sufficient under this section though it bears no date, and the execution on which the return was made was not filed in the clerk's office until after the return day. Rowe's Adm'r v. Hardy's Adm'r, 97 Va. 674, 678, 679, 34 S. E. 625, 75 Am. St. Rep. 811. See revisors' note above.

Signature is not a part of the officer's return. He may be allowed to amend by signing it. Slingluff v. Collins, 109 Va. 717, 64 S. E. 1055.

A return which shows that levy has been prevented by an injunction or supersedeas, or by the order of the plaintiff or his attorney, is a sufficient return, under this section. Rowe's Adm'r v. Hardy's Adm'r, 97 Va. 674, 676, 34 S. E. 625, 75 Am. St. Rep. 811. So is a return of "no property." Kennerly v. Swartz, 83 Va. 704, 3 S. E. 348.

Generally.—Exceptions to the operation of the statute must be found in the statute itself. Clark v. Nave, 116 Va. 838, 83 S. E. 547.

As to changes in this section made by the revision of 1887, see Burks' Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1399.

The following cases apply, but do not construe this statute: Dickenson v. Gray, 100 Va. 526-528, 42 S. E. 298; Callaway's Adm'r v. Saunders, 99 Va. 350, 351, 38 S. E. 182; Rush's Ex'r v. Steele, 93 Va. 526, 529, 25 S. E. 604; James' Ex'r v. Life, 92 Va. 702-707, 24 S. E. 275; Houck's Adm'r v. Dunham, 92 Va. 211, 214, 23 S. E. 238; Serles v. Cromer, 88 Va. 426-428, 13 S. E. 859; Brown v. Butler, 87 Va. 621, 623, 13 S. E. 71; Straus v. Bodeker's Ex'x, 86 Va. 543, 547, 10 S. E. 570; McCarty v.

Digitized by Google

Ball, 82 Va. 872, 874, 1 S. E. 189; Sutton v. McKenney, 82 Va. 46; Dabney v. Shelton, 82 Va. 349, 350, 4 S. E. 605; Hutcheson v. Grubbs, 80 Va. 251, 256; Brown v. Campbell, 33 Grat. 402, 409; Tunstall v. Pollard's Adm'r, 11 Leigh 1; Peyton's Adm'r v. Carr's Ex'r, 1 Rand. 436.

For an interesting historical review of this subject, see Fleming's Ex'r v. Dunlop, 4 Leigh 338.

See 4 Va. Law Reg. 512, 631; Cardwell v. Talbott, 5 Va. Law Reg. 182; 5 Va. Law Reg. 672; 7 Va. Law Reg. 529; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 789, 1018; note on limitation of actions, Herrington v. Harkins' Adm'rs, 1 Rob. 591, Va. Rep. Anno.; note on executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440; Va. Rep. Anno.

Under this section, on judgments obtained in 1860, on which executions had been issued and returned within the year, actions were brought in 1875, and new judgments obtained, and it was contended that the old judgments were merged in the new; that the liens of the old were lost, and that the liens of the new dated only from the date of new judgments, and took priority only as of the latter dates. Held, that whatever may be the law of merger in other jurisdictions, yet if method prescribed by statute law of a state for preserving judgments and their liens are pursued the doctrines of merger must not be applied in that state in such manner as to defeat the purpose of the law and to destroy priorities expressly intended to be preserved. Hay v. Alexandria & W. R. Co. (C. C.), 20 Fed. 15.

For provision for other executions after first has issued, see sections 6497.

Cited in Gunnell's Adm'rs v. Dixon's Adm'r, 101 Va. 174, 43 S. E. 340; Lowenbach v. Kelly, 111 Va. 439, 69 S. E. 352.

Discussed, 5 Va. Law J. 210; 8 Va. Law J. 193, 321, 456, 577; 9 Va. Law J. 191, 577; 10 Va. Law J. 572, 641; 15 Va. Law J. 273, 445.

Quaere: Can judgments be perpetually kept alive, see 10 Va. Law Reg. 468.

See sections 6474, 6478.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 139, section 10.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 442, 443, 444, 445; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 405, 612, 627, 648, 659.

Sec. 6478. Provision construing and qualifying the preceding section.—No execution shall issue, nor any scire facias or action be brought, on a judgment in this State, other than for the Commonwealth, after the time prescribed by the preceding section, except that, in computing the time, any time during which the right to sue out execution on the judgment is suspended by the terms thereof, or by legal process, shall be omitted; and sections fifty-eight hundred and twenty-three to fifty-eight hundred and twenty-six, inclusive, and section fifty-eight hundred and thirty shall apply to the right to bring such action or scire facias in like manner as to any right, action, or scire facias mentioned in those sections; and except that when the judgment is for the penalty of a bond, but to be discharged by the payment of what is then ascertained, and such sums as may be afterwards assessed or found due upon a scire facias on the judgment, assigning a further breach of the bond, such scire facias may be brought within ten years after such breach. (Code 1887, § 3578.)

Suspension—By legal process.—The time for which execution is stayed by injunction is to be excluded from the computation of time under section 6477. Hutsonpiller's Adm'r v. Stover's Adm'r, 12 Grat. 579, 583.

Digitized by Google

The filing of a petition in a creditors' suit, upon which no other order of court is ever made except an order of dismissal, is not "legal process," which will suspend the right to sue out execution on a judgment. Dabney v. Shelton, 82 Va. 349-351, 4 S. E. 605. Nor is a suit to enforce a contract for the sale of the judgment debtor's land, where no order is made to suspend the issuing of execution. Straus v. Bodeker's Ex'x, 86 Va. 543, 547, 548, 10 S. E. 570.

By act of defendant.—The prevention of action by defendant, unless a right is obstructed under section 5825, does not bring the case within the exception contained in this section. Brown v. Butler, 87 Va. 621, 13 S. E. 71.

By agreement.—An agreement that no execution on a judgment shall be placed in the hands of the sheriff for a stated period, not made a part of the judgment, does not prevent the running of the statute. Clark v. Nave, 116 Va. 838, 83 S. E. 547.

By terms of decree.—A decree in favor of a receiver, who is not authorized to collect any money under the decree until he executes a bond as such in a prescribed penalty, is not suspended by its terms. Serles v. Cromer, 88 Va. 426, 428. 429, 13 S. E. 859.

Generally.—Cited in Gunnell's Adm'rs v. Dixon's Adm'r, 101 Va. 174, 43 S. E. 340; McClanahan v. N. & W. R. Co., 118 Va. 388, 87 S. E. 731.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 792, 793; note on limitation of actions, Herrington v. Harkins' Adm'rs, 1 Rob. 591, Va. Rep. Anno.

See note of Akiss' Ex'rs v. Satchel, to section 6477.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 139, section 11.

See Gregory's Forms Nos. 442, 443, 444, 445.

Sec. 6479. Chapter embraces recognizances and bonds having force of a judgment.—The foregoing sections of this chapter, so far as they relate to the docketing of judgments, the entering of satisfaction thereof, and the liens of judgments and enforcement of such liens, shall be construed as embracing recognizances, and bonds having the force of a judgment. (Code 1887, § 3580.)

CHAPTER 272.

Executions, and the Means of Enforcing Recoveries of Money Otherwise Than by Such Writ.

Sec.
6480. Clerks to issue fieri facias on judgment for money; what writs may not issue.
6481. Executions against corporations; how issued on joint judgments.
6482. How, where judgment for benefit of other person than plaintiff; remedies of such person.
6483. When writ of possession may issue; how executed; fieri facias for damages or profits and costs; how writ in unlawful detainer executed, and when returnable.
6484. What writs may issue on judgment for personal property.
6485. What a writ of fieri facias may be levied on; from what time it binds; when lien thereof ceases.
6486. Personal property subject to prior lien, or in which the owner has only an equitable interest, liable to levy; how sold.

Digitized by Google

Sec.
6487. If levy be on coin or bank notes, how accounted for.
6488. Officer's duty to endorse on fieri facias time of receiving it; remedy against him for failure.
6489. Where several writs of fieri facias, how satisfied.
6490. Right of officer to break open dwelling-house and also to levy on property in the personal possession of debtor.
6491. What return officer to make on fieri facias; what statement file therewith; clerk to enter return on execution book.
6492. Re-sale of property, if purchaser at officer's sale fails to comply; remedy against such purchaser.
6493. When venditioni exponas may issue; proceedings thereon.
6494. Where officer taking property under execution dies before sale, and there are no deputies, venditioni exponas may issue to new officer; proceedings in such case.
6495. When money received by officer under execution to be repaid to debtor.
6496. Officer not required to go out of his county or corporation to pay money received by him.
6497. After an execution has issued, provision for others.
6498. When property sold under execution, or its value, is recovered from obligor in indemnifying bond, or, etc., how new execution obtained.
6499. When and by whom executions may be quashed; how proceedings thereon stayed until motion to quash is heard.
6500. Issue of executions on judgments and decrees during term of court at which they are rendered.
6501. Lien of fieri facias on estate of debtor not capable of being levied on.
6502. When lien acquired under the preceding section ceases.
6503. Proceedings by interrogatories to ascertain estate of debtor on which fieri facias is a lien, and any real estate to which he is entitled.
6504. Real estate out of this State of debtor to be conveyed and his personal estate delivered to officer.
6505. Interrogatories, answers, etc., to be returned to court.
6506. How debtor may be arrested and held to answer.
6507. Court, in which judgment is, or, etc., may make order for sale and application of debtor's estate.
6508. Officer's duty as to sale, collection, and disposition of debtor's estate; when to return evidences of debt to clerk's office.
6509. When by lien of fieri facias there is a claim on any person other than judgment debtor, summons may be sued out against him; how issued, served, and returned.
6510. How he is examined; court's order on such examination; execution thereon.
6511. The proceedings, if he fail to appear, or to disclose his liability.
6512. Payment, etc., by garnishee to officer before return of summons.
6513. Judgment as to costs.
6514. By whom and how suit brought to recover estate on which fieri facias, or judgment on which it issues, is a lien, or to enforce any liability in respect thereto.

Digitized by Google

Sec.
6515. How and when officer receiving money under this chapter to make return thereof and pay net proceeds; how liable for failure.
6516. Creditor may issue other executions without impairing lien.
6517. Territorial extent of the lien of an execution.

Sec. 6480. Clerk to issue fieri facias on judgment for money; what writs may not issue.—On a judgment for money it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in which such judgment was rendered to issue a writ of fieri facias as soon as practicable after the adjournment for the term of the court at which such judgment was rendered and place the same in the hands of the proper officer of such court to be executed and take his receipt therefor unless he be otherwise directed by writing by the beneficiary of such judgment, his agent or attorney. No writ of levari facias, writ of elegit, writ of capias ad satisfaciendum, or writ of distringas shall be issued hereafter. (Code 1887, § 3581; 1897-8, p. 586.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "except that a writ of distringas may be issued on a judgment for specific property," formerly appearing at the end of this section, have been omitted, and the words, "or he may have a writ of distringas," formerly appearing at the end of section 6484 have also been omitted, together with section 3586 of the Code of 1887. The effect of these omissions and repeals is to abolish altogether the writ of distringas. Under a writ of distringas the officer could not distrain the very property for which the execution issued, nor could he seize and sell it to pay damages. Jordon v. Williams, 3 Rand. 501. At a time when no writ of possession was provided for, the writ of distringas was no doubt a valuable writ; but now under a writ of possession the officer may take the specific property itself, and under a fieri facias he may sell any other personal property, so that the usefulness of the writ of distringas has passed away. It has not been in use for many years.

See 2 Va. Law Reg. 704; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 779; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 993, 1010, 1782; Gregory's Forms No. 441.

Executions on judgments or decrees rendered on instruments waiving homestead or on claims against which homestead cannot be claimed should recite the fact, see section 6551.

Sec. 6481. Executions against corporations; how issued on joint judgments.—Such executions as may issue against a natural person may issue against a corporation; and where a judgment is against several persons jointly, executions thereon shall be joint against them all. (Code 1887, § 3582.)

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 784, 794; note on Corporations, Slaughter v. Com., 13 Grat. 767, Va. Rep. Anno.; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 1.

Sec. 6482. How, where judgment for benefit of other person than plaintiff; remedies of such person.—Where an execution issues on a judgment, for the benefit, in whole or in part, of any person other than the plaintiff, if the fact appear by the record, the clerk shall, in the execution, or by an endorsement thereon, state the extent of the interest therein of such person; and he (either in his own name or that of the plaintiff) may, as a party injured, prosecute a suit or motion against the officer. (Code 1887, § 3583.)

Digitized by Google

The debtor, though the party injured, cannot maintain a motion in the name of the creditor against the sheriff for a fine for failing to return the execution. Fletcher v. Chapman, 2 Leigh 560, 565-567.

This section overrules the principle laid down in the following cases: Tolson v. Elwes, 1 Leigh 436; Meze v. Howver, Id. 442; Burnett v. Harwell, 3 Leigh 89; Governor ex rel. Leighton v. Hinchman, 1 Grat. 156.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 155, 782, 794; note on Assignments, Ragsdale v. Hagy, 9 Grat. 409, Va. Rep. Anno.; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 3.

Sec. 6483. When writ of possession may issue; how executed; fieri facias for damages or profits and costs; how writ in unlawful detainer executed, and when returnable.—On a judgment for the recovery of specific property, real or personal, a writ of possession may issue for the specific property, which shall conform to the judgment as to the description of the property and the estate, title and interest recovered, and there may also be issued a writ of fieri facias for the damages or profits and costs. In cases of unlawful entry and detainer and of ejectment, whenever the officer to whom a writ of possession has been delivered to be executed finds the premises locked, he may, after declaring at the door the cause of his coming and demanding to have the door opened, employ reasonable and necessary force to break and enter the door and put the plaintiff in possession. And an officer having a writ of possession for specific personal property, if he find locked or fastened the building or place wherein he has reasonable cause to believe the property specified in the writ is located, may in the day time, after notice to the defendant, his agent or bailee, break and enter such building or place for the purpose of executing such writ.

Writs of possession, in case of unlawful entry and detainer, where the premises are located in cities or towns or in suburban or other lands which are subdivided into building lots for residential purposes, shall be made returnable within thirty days from the date of issuing the writ. (Code 1887, § 3584; 1902-3-4, p. 837; 1910, p. 340; 1916, p. 717.)

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 780, 895; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 993, 994; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.; Gregory's Forms No. 440.

Sec. 6484. What writs may issue on judgment for personal property.—When the judgment is for personal property, the plaintiff may, at his option, have a fieri facias for the alternative value (instead of a writ of possession), and the damages and costs. (Code 1887, § 3585.)

Revisors' Note.—See revisors' note to section 6480.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 780, 895; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 993-997, 1010; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.; Gregory's Forms No. 440.

Digitized by Google

Sec. 6485. What a writ of fieri facias may be levied on; from what time it binds; when lien thereof ceases.—By a writ of fieri facias, the officer shall be commanded to make the money therein mentioned out of the goods and chattels of the person against whom the judgment is. The writ may be levied as well on the current money and bank notes, as on the goods and chattels of such person, except such as are exempt from levy under chapter two hundred and seventy-four, and shall bind what is capable of being levied on only from the time it is delivered to the officer to be executed. The lien of a writ of fieri facias under this section, on what is capable of being levied on but is not levied on under the writ on or before the return day thereof, shall cease on that day: provided, however, that property levied on, on or before the return day may be advertised and sold within a reasonable time thereafter, and the lien given by this section may also be enforced after the return day of the writ by proceedings under section sixty-five hundred and three and following of this chapter, if such proceedings be commenced before that day. (Code 1887, § 3587.)

Revisors' Note.—Formerly, this section provided, as to the lien of the execution, that "AS AGAINST PURCHASERS FOR VALUABLE CONSIDERATION WITHOUT NOTICE AND CREDITORS," it should bind what is capable of being levied on only from the time it was delivered to the officer to be executed. The capitalized words have been omitted, the effect of which omission is to make the language general so that in all cases, not only as against purchasers for valuable consideration without notice and creditors, but as against all others, the execution will bind what is capable of being levied on only from the time that it is delivered to the officer to be executed.

The proviso of the present section makes provision for the sale of property within a reasonable time after the return day, which was levied on, on or before the return day. Formerly, no provision of this sort was made except by writ of venditioni exponas, and yet it was the uniform practice, if the officer had levied a fieri facias on or before the return day, to hold on to the property, and advertise and sell it after the return day. This is now expressly provided for. The writ of venditioni exponas is retained (section 6493), but it will be unnecessary to resort to it except in those cases to which this section would not be applicable, namely, where more than a reasonable time had elapsed.

Lien— On what.—This section gives a lien on chattels corporeal as distinguished from incorporeal personalty or choses in action. Graves' Notes on Pleading, 49, 50; 2 Va. Law Reg. 705.

On what it depends.—The lien "depends on a levy being made before the return day of the writ is past; but when this levy is made, then, by relation, the lien takes effect as of the time when the writ was delivered to the sheriff." Graves' Notes on Pleading, 50; 2 Va. Law Reg. 706.

To what it extends.—The lien extends to the property of the execution debtor acquired after the delivery of the writ to the sheriff, but before the return day is past. Graves' Notes on Pleading, 50; 2 Va. Law Reg. 706.

From what time.—The fieri facias is a lien "from the time it is delivered to the officer to be executed," though the officer is instructed not to levy until the happening of a certain event. Pegram v. May, 9 Leigh 176. But see dissenting opinion of Brooke, J., p. 180.

Digitized by Google

When it expires.—A lien acquired by levy of execution will expire, if not enforced by a sale, with the authority to sell under an execution. Carr's Adm'rs v. Glasscock's Adm'r, 3 Grat. 343, 354.

Until the revision of 1887 it was a debated question whether the lien of a writ of fieri facias on property, capable of being levied on but which is not levied on before the return day of the writ, expires on that day. It was thought by the revisors that a fair inference from the decisions of the Court of Appeals is that they considered the lien, in such case, as ceasing on the return day of the writ, and this section was made to explicitly so declare, subject, however, to a proviso. Burks' Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1399.

Levy—How made.—Fieri facias may be levied without touching the property, provided it be in the immediate power of the sheriff. Bullitt's Ex'rs v. Winston, 1 Munf. 269, 278, 279. Parol evidence is admissible to prove that a fieri facias was levied, though no return was made upon it. Bullitt's Ex'rs v. Winston, 1 Munf. 269, 272.

In executing the writ the sheriff is the agent of the beneficiary and plaintiff, and he and his attorney have the right to say whether the sheriff shall levy it or return it without doing so. Rowe's Adm'r v. Hardy's Adm'r, 97 Va. 674, 34 S. E. 625, 75 Am. St. Rep. 811.

Property left with third person.—Though a sheriff acts at his peril in leaving property in the hands of third persons on their promise to produce it on the day of sale, it does not prevent the fieri facias from having been levied in contemplation of law. Bullitt's Ex'rs v. Winston, 1 Munf. 269, 279-281.

Title after levy.—Levy does not divest the defendant of the property and transfer the title to the plaintiff, or even to the sheriff. The property still remains in the defendant notwithstanding the levy, and only a special interest is vested in the sheriff, as a mere bailee, to enable him to keep the property safely and defend it against wrongdoers. While subject to the levy it is in the custody of the law, and the sheriff has a naked power to sell it, and pass the title from the owner to the purchaser." Walker v. Com., 18 Grat. 13, 43-45, 98 Am. Dec. 631.

New execution after abandoning levy.—A plaintiff "may always, with the consent of the defendants, abandon a levy upon the property of all or any of them, and sue out a new execution. If the defendants be a principal and his sureties, and the property levied on be that of the sureties, the plaintiff may, with the consent of the sureties only, abandon the levy, and sue out a new execution against all the defendants. * * * * If the levy be abandoned by the sheriff with the consent of the defendant, without the concurrence or authority of the plaintiff, or if the property be by the defendant eloigned or removed out of the reach of the sheriff, without the consent either of him or the plaintiff, the latter may sue out a new execution. But if the property levied on be lost to the defendant by the misconduct or neglect of the sheriff, the execution is thereby satisfied to the extent of the value of the property, and the plaintiff can then look only to the sheriff for indemnity." Walker v. Com., 18 Grat. 13, 43-45, 98 Am. Dec. 631.

Real estate.—This section does not authorize a levy on real estate. Clark v. Allen (D. C.), 117 Fed. 699.

Satisfaction.—"A mere levy upon sufficient personal property, without anything more, never amounts to a satisfaction of the judgment. But until the debt is paid, or the debtor has lost his property in consequence of his levy, the judgment remains in force." Walker v. Com., 18 Grat. 13, 43, 47, 98 Am. Dec. 631, and cases cited; Rhea v. Preston, 75 Va. 758, 772.

Sale—Irregularity in.—A sale under an execution will be valid, though irregular, if made by the sheriff bona fide, and is acquiesced in by both plaintiff and defendant. Carr's Adm'rs v. Glasscock's Adm'r, 3 Grat. 343, 354.

Postponing sale.—Direction to postpone the sale of goods held under a fieri facias does not authorize the sheriff to return the goods to the debtor, and the return of them will render the sheriff liable on his official bond (Governor v. Vanmeter, 9 Leigh 18, 27-29, 33 Am. Dec. 221; Walker v. Com., 18 Grat. 13, 98 Am. Dec. 631); nor does direction to postpone discharge the lien of the execution (Governor v. Vanmeter, 9 Leigh 18, 27-29, 33 Am. Dec. 221); but if the sheriff puts off the sale until after the return day, at the instance of the plaintiff, but without the consent or privity of the sureties, to indulge the principal debtor, the sureties will be released (Bullitt's Ex'rs v. Winston, 1 Munf. 269, 280-284; Baird v. Rice, 1 Call. 18, 1 Am. Dec. 497).

Digitized by Google

Authority of officer.—The authority of an officer to collect money in discharge of the execution does not result from the lien, but as a consequence of the right to sell the debtor's property under the execution. So long as the right to sell continues, the right to receive payment remains, but no longer. If the officer levies before the return day of the writ, he may, notwithstanding the return day has passed, sell (Grandstaff v. Ridgely, 30 Grat. 1, 15, 16); receive payment (O'Bannon v. Saunders, 24 Grat. 138, 142; Grandstaff v. Ridgely, 30 Grat. 1, 15, 16; Ballard v. Thomas, 19 Grat. 14; Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440); or receive a forthcoming bond (Dix v. Evans, 3 Munf. 308). And he may receive payment at any time before the return day without a levy. Grandstaff v. Ridgely, 30 Grat. 1, 16.

Duty of officer.—"The presumption, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, is that the sheriff did his duty in levying the execution before the return day." O'Bannon v. Saunders, 24 Grat. 138, 142; Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440.

Levy after death.—A sheriff may levy, after the plaintiff's death, an execution which had issued before. Turnbull v. Claibornes, 3 Leigh 392, 393.

Property of wrong person.—A sheriff who takes the property of the wrong person under an attachment commits a trespass, and violates the duty of his office, thereby rendering himself liable on his official bond. Sangster v. Com., 17 Grat. 124, 129, 130.

Homestead exemption.—If the debtor claims the benefit of homestead exemption in property levied on, the sheriff cannot surrender the property, but must inform the creditor of the fact, and require him to give an indemnifying bond. Sage v. Dickinson, 33 Grat. 361, 364, 365.

Burden of proof.—An officer who surrenders property held under execution does so at his peril, and the burden is on him to show that the goods were not justly liable to levy. Sage v. Dickinson, 33 Grat. 361, 365.

Pleading.—In an action against a sheriff for failure to pay over money, the declaration should aver that the execution was levied, or that the money was paid, before the return day of the writ. Grandstaff v. Ridgely, 30 Grat. 1, 16.

Money in sheriff's hands.—A court may direct money which is made under a fieri facias, and is in the hands of the sheriff, or in court, to be paid over in satisfaction of another fieri facias in the hands of the same sheriff against the plaintiff in the first execution. Steele v. Brown, 2 Va. Cas. 246, 250-254.

Return.—A failure to mention in a return one of the items levied on is no ground for reversing a judgment on a forfeited forthcoming bond in which that item is mentioned as one of those on which such execution was levied. Dix v. Evans, 3 Munf. 308.

Generally.—Cited but not construed in Shields v. Mahoney, 94 Va. 488, 27 S. E. 23, and Hicks v. Roanoke Brick Co., 94 Va. 749, 27 S. E. 596.

This section is followed in Spence v. Repass, 94 Va. 716, 720-722, 27 S. E. 583.

See 2 Va. Law Reg. 704-706; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 794. 800. 825, 839; 3 Min. (2d Ed.) 128, 251; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1018, 1025, 1026; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 626, 627, 655, 656; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno; Gregory's Forms No. 441.

Digitized by Google

For definition of "goods and chattels" and of "choses in action," see note to section 5188.

For a special provision for taking and selling real estate under a writ of fieri facias "upon a judgment or decree against any person indebted or liable to the Commonwealth, or against any security of his," see section 2517; also sections 6503-4.

Discussed, 5 Va. Law J. 471.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 5.

Sec. 6486. Personal property subject to prior lien, or in which the owner has only an equitable interest, liable to levy; how sold.—Tangible personal property subject to a prior lien, or in which the execution debtor has only an equitable interest, may nevertheless be levied on for the satisfaction of a fieri facias. If such prior lien be due and payable, the officer levying the fieri facias shall sell the property free of such lien, and apply the proceeds first to the payment of such lien, and the residue, so far as necessary, to the satisfaction of the fieri facias. If such prior lien be not due and payable at the time of sale, such officer shall sell the property levied on subject to such lien.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new, and its purpose is to settle the law of Virginia on this subject. See Claytor v. Anthony, 6 Rand. 285; Coutts v. Walker, 2 Leigh 268; Spence v. Repass, 94 Va. 716, 27 S. E. 583, and discussion in Burks' Pl. & Pr., pp. 642-644, where other authorities are cited.

Sec. 6487. If levy be on coin or bank notes, how accounted for.—If the levy be upon gold or silver coin, or on notes made a legal tender for the payment of debts, the same shall be accounted for at its par value as so much money made under the execution. If it be upon bank notes or gold or silver certificates or other currency not a legal tender for the payment of debts, and the creditor will not take them at their nominal value, they shall be sold and accounted for as any other property taken under execution. (Code 1887, § 3588.)

Revisors' Note.—The words, "or on notes made a legal tender for the payment of debts," found in lines one and two of the text, and the words, "or gold or silver certificates or other currency not a legal tender for the payment of debts," appearing in lines four and five of the text, are new.

See Barton. L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 829; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1018; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.; see Burks' Pleading and Practice, p. 641.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 6.

Sec. 6488. Officer's duty to endorse on fieri facias time of receiving it; remedy against him for failure.—Every officer shall endorse on each writ of fieri facias the year, month, day, and time of day, he receives the same. If he fail to do so, the judgment creditor may, by motion, recover against him and his sureties, jointly and severally, in the court in which the judgment was rendered, a sum not exceeding fifteen per cent. upon the amount of the execution. (Code 1887, § 3589.)

Digitized by Google

This section is followed in Hockman v. Hockman, 93 Va. 455, 458, 25 S. E. 534, 57 Am. St. Rep. 816.

See 2 Va. Law Reg. 706; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.; note on Official Bonds, Sangster v. Com., 17 Grat. 124, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 7.

See Gregory's Forms No. 476.

Sec. 6489. Where several writs of fieri facias, how satisfied.—Of writs of fieri facias, that which was first delivered to the officer, though two or more be delivered on the same day, shall be first levied and satisfied, and where several such executions are delivered to the officer at the same time, they shall be satisfied ratably. But if an indemnifying bond be required by the officer as a prerequisite to a sale, and the same be given by some of the creditors and not by others, and the officer sells under the protection of such bond, the proceeds of the sale shall be paid to the creditors giving the bond in the order in which their liens attached. (Code 1887, § 3590.)

Revisors' Note.—The last sentence of this section is new, but is believed to be simply declaratory of the law as it existed before the revision. (See Burks' Pl. & Pr., p. 645.)

Where two executions are levied on a stock of goods, fluctuating from sales and purchases, the senior execution has preference on all of the goods in the stock before its return day, and the burden of proof is on the junior execution creditor to show that any special articles came into the stock after the return day. Carr v. Meade's Ex'x, 77 Va. 142.

This section is followed in Hockman v. Hockman, 93 Va. 455, 458, 25 S. E. 534, 57 Am. St. Rep. 816.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 828; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 8.

Sec. 6490. Right of officer to break open dwelling-house and also to levy on property in the personal possession of debtor.—An officer into whose hands an execution is placed to be levied, may, if need be, break open the outer doors of a dwelling-house in the day-time, after having first demanded admittance of the occupant, in order to make a levy, and may also levy on property in the personal possession of the debtor if the same be open to observation.

Revisors' Note.—This section is new. Under the law as it stood before the revision, an officer having an execution in his hands could not break open the outer doors of a dwelling in order to make the levy, but he was allowed to break open the inner doors of the dwelling or the outer doors of a building other than a dwelling for that purpose, and AFTER LEVY it was probable that the outer doors of a dwelling might be broken open in order to obtain the property for the purpose of removal and sale. 4 Min. Inst. 1024; 11 Am. & Eng. Ency. Law (2d Ed.) 655. It will be observed that the new section limits the right of the officer in breaking the outer doors of a dwelling to the day time, after having first demanded admittance of the occupant.

Digitized by Google

Formerly, it was somewhat doubtful whether or not an officer had the right to levy on property in the personal possession of the debtor. The new section settles this doubt, but the property must be open to observation. The officer is not permitted to search the debtor to see if he has money or other valuables on his person.

Sec. 6491. What return officer to make on fieri facias; what statement file therewith; clerk to enter return on execution book.—Upon a writ of fieri facias, the officer shall return whether the money therein mentioned is or cannot be made; or if there be only part thereof which is or cannot be made, he shall return the amount of such part. With every execution under which money is recovered, he shall return a statement of the amount received, including his fees and other charges, and such amount, except said fees and charges, he shall pay to the person entitled. In his return upon every execution, the officer shall also state whether or not he made a levy of the same, the date of such levy, and the date when he received such payment or obtained such satisfaction upon the said execution; and if there be more than one defendant, from which defendant he received the same. Upon the return of said writ of fieri facias by the officer to the clerk's office or to the court to which it is returnable, it shall be the duty of the clerk thereof to enter the return of said officer on the execution book or judgment docket wherein said execution is entered, as the case may be, giving the date thereof. (Code 1887, § 3591; 1916, p. 765.)

Revisors' Note.—The last four words of this section are new. See revisors' note to section 6477. The date referred to is the date the officer brings his return to the office and not the date that he annexes to his return.

Sufficiency of return.—A return of "not levied by reason of the stay law" is a return substantially that the money "cannot be made." Hamilton v. McConkey's Adm'r, 83 Va. 533, 537, 2 S. E. 724.

Amending return.—A sheriff cannot amend his return upon an execution after it has been filed, except by motion to the court, upon notice to the creditor (Hammen v. Minnick, 32 Grat. 249, 251, 252; Carr v. Meade's Ex'x, 77 Va. 142, 159); but he will be permitted to amend after an action has been commenced founded on the original return (Smith v. Triplett, 4 Leigh 590; Wardsworth v. Miller, 4 Grat. 99; Stone v. Wilson, 10 Grat. 529, 533; Bullitt's Ex'rs v. Winston, 1 Munf. 269, 283; Baird v. Rice, 1 Call 18, 1 Am. Dec. 497; Rucker v. Harrison, 6 Munf. 181); and this even though the proposed amendment be inconsistent with the original return, and takes away the foundation of the suit or motion (Stone v. Wilson, 10 Grat. 529, 533). But see Carr v. Meade's Ex'x, 77 Va. 142, 159, where it is said that an amendment will not be permitted in a collateral proceeding after a decree has been entered, founded upon such return.

Evidence.—A return of "levied," etc., properly dated and signed, is a complete return, and by it the sheriff becomes bound for the full amount of the execution. And a subsequent return (indorsement) on the execution that it was held up, and the property not sold, by order of the creditor, being unauthorized by law, cannot be used as evidence in the sheriff's favor. Shannon v. McMullin, 25 Grat. 211, 216-219. But the sheriff may prove that at the time the execution came into his hands

Digitized by Google

he had other and older executions in his hands, and that he had taxes due the county and state, which were levied upon the same property named in the return, and that the proceeds from the sale of said property were applied to the payment of said older executions and taxes. Hammen v. Minnick, 32 Grat. 249, 252.

Liability of sheriff.—A sheriff, though liable to a fine for failing to make due return, is also liable to an action on his official bond. Grandstaff v. Ridgely, 30 Grat. 1, 16.

Generally.—See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1040; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 636, 637, 648; Gregory's Forms Nos. 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506.

See section 2825, for how, where, and within what time an order, warrant, or process may be returned, and penalty for failure.

See section 2829, as to what the officer's receipt to the person who pays him must show.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 9.

Sec. 6492. Re-sale of property, if purchaser at officer's sale fails to comply; remedy against such purchaser.—If, at any sale by an officer, the purchaser does not comply with the terms of sale, the officer may sell the property, either forthwith or under a new advertisement, or return that the property was not sold for want of bidders. If, on a resale, the property be sold for less than it sold for before, the first purchaser shall be liable for the difference to the creditor, so far as is required to satisfy him, and to the debtor for the balance. This section shall not prevent the creditor from proceeding as he might have done if it had not been enacted. (Code 1887, § 3592.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1038; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 10.

Sec. 6493. When venditioni exponas may issue; proceedings thereon.—When it appears, by the return on an execution, that property taken to satisfy it remains unsold, a writ of venditioni exponas may issue, whereupon the like proceedings shall be had as might have been had on the first execution; except, that if it issue upon a return of no sale for want of bidders, or of a sufficient bid, the advertisement shall state the fact, and that the sale will be made peremptorily. (Code 1887, § 3593.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1039; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.; Burks' Pleading and Practice. p. 672.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 11.

Sec. 6494. Where officer taking property under execution dies before sale, and there are no deputies, venditioni exponas may issue to new officer; proceedings in such case.—If an officer taking property under execution die before the sale thereof, and there be no deputies (of such officer) acting in the case, upon a suggestion of the fact, a writ of venditioni exponas may be directed to such sheriff or other officer of the county or corporation wherein the property was taken, as may be in office at the time the writ issues.

Digitized by Google

Whereupon the officer to whom the writ is directed shall take possession of the property previously levied upon, whether the same be in possession of the representatives of the deceased officer or the execution debtor, and proceed to advertise and sell it and account for the proceeds thereof in like manner as if the levy had been made by himself. (Code 1887, § 3594.)

Revisors' Note.—The latter part of this section differs from the latter part of section 3594 of the Code of 1887, from which it is taken. Under the present section the procedure is simpler, and the section conforms to what are usually the facts in such cases. If the property has in fact been levied on, it is in legal custody, and it is immaterial whether the possession be in the representative of the deceased officer or the execution debtor. Under the revised section, the new officer simply takes possession of the property, advertises and sells it.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 892; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1039; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 12.

Sec. 6495. When money received by officer under execution to be repaid to debtor.—When an officer has received money under execution, if any surplus remain in his hands after satisfying the execution, such surplus shall be repaid to the debtor; and if the debtor, or his personal representative, obtain an injunction or supersedeas to an execution, in whole or in part, before money received under it, or any part of it, is paid over to the creditor, the officer shall repay such debtor the money so received and not so paid over, or so much thereof as the injunction or supersedeas may extend to, unless the said process otherwise direct. (Code 1887, § 3595.)

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 846; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1043; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

Form of notice of motion against officer and sureties for surplus arising from sale under execution, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1773.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 13.

Sec. 6496. Officer not required to go out of his county or corporation to pay money received by him.—No officer receiving money under execution, when the person to whom it is payable resides in a different county or corporation from that in which the officer resides, shall be liable to have any judgment rendered against him or his sureties for the non-payment thereof, until a demand of payment be made of such officer in his county or corporation, by such creditor or his attorney-at-law, or some person having a written order from the creditor. (Code 1887, § 3596.)

A declaration which does not aver that the plaintiff and sheriff reside in different counties need not aver a demand of payment. But if the non-residency appear on the trial it will devolve on the plaintiff to prove demand in accordance with this section. Grandstaff v. Ridgely, 30 Grat. 1, 14.

This section is declaratory of the law as laid down in Wilson v. Stokes, 4 Munf. 455, 456, and Chapman v. Chevis, 9 Leigh 297, 306, 307, and is followed in O'Bannon v. Saunders, 24 Grat. 138, 144, 145.

This section "is confined to the case of money made under execution." Ballard v. Thomas, 19 Grat. 14, 25.

Digitized by Google

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 857, 1090; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1043; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

Form of notice of motion against officer where the execution was delivered to the officer of a county, etc., wherein creditor does not reside, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1773.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 14.

Sec. 6497. After an execution has issued, provision for others.—Subject to the limitations prescribed by chapter two hundred and seventy-one, a party obtaining an execution may sue out other executions at his own costs, though the return day of a former execution has not arrived; and may sue out other executions at the defendant's costs, where on a former execution there is a return by which it appears that the writ has not been executed, or that it or any part of the amount thereof is not levied, or that property levied on has been discharged by legal process which does not prevent a new execution on the judgment. In no case shall there be more than one satisfaction for the same money or thing. (Code 1887, § 3597.)

Issuing numerous executions for the purpose of unnecessarily oppressing or injuring the debtor will not be permitted, "and in such case a motion to quash will prevail, or a court of equity will interfere by injunction. So, also, will a second execution be quashed when issued after a former one which had been satisfied, or levied on property sufficient to satisfy it." Sutton v. Marye, 81 Va. 329, 334.

The cases of Eckhols v. Graham, 1 Call 492, 494, 495, and Garland v. Bugg, 5 Munf. 166, 172, holding that the suing out of a second execution, before the property taken under the first is disposed of, waives the lien given under the first seem to be overruled by this section.

See note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

See notes to section 6499.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 15.

Sec. 6498. When property sold under execution, or its value, is recovered from obligor in indemnifying bond, or, etc., how new execution obtained.—When property sold under an execution, or its value, is recovered from an obligor in an indemnifying bond given before such sale, or from a purchaser having a right of action on such bond, the person having such execution, or his personal representative, may, by motion, after reasonable notice to the person, or the personal representative of the person, against whom the execution was, obtain a new execution against him, without credit for the amount for which the property was sold under the former execution. Such motion shall be made within five years after the right to make the same has accrued. (Code 1887, § 3598.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1033; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

For form of scire facias to have a new execution, where the sale of property is indemnified, and the value is recovered from the execution creditor, 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1780.

Sec. 6499. When and by whom executions may be quashed; how proceedings thereon stayed until motion to quash is heard.—The motion to quash an execution may, after reasonable notice to the adverse party, be heard and decided by the justice who issued the execution, or the circuit court of the county or the corporation court of the city in which such justice resides, and in other cases by the court whose clerk issued the execution, or by the judge thereof in vacation; and such court or judge, on the application of the plaintiff in the motion, may make an order staying the proceedings on the execution until the motion be heard and determined, the order not to be effectual until bond be given in such penalty and with such condition, and either with or without surety, as the court or judge may prescribe. The clerk from whose office the execution is sued, or the justice rendering the judgment, as the case may be, shall take the bond and make as many copies of the order as may be necessary and endorse thereon that the bond required has been given; and a copy shall be served on the plaintiff in the execution and on the officer in whose hands the execution is. (Code 1887, § 3599; 1902-3-4, p. 837.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—The words, "if it was from a circuit or corporation court," formerly appearing after "or" in line six of the text, have been omitted. It is intended by the change to allow the judge of ANY court to hear the motion in vacation wherever it might be heard by the court in term.

Jurisdiction of equity.—Courts of equity have jurisdiction to give relief by injunction to inhibit further proceedings on executions in cases involving equitable rights, and when courts of law cannot give full and adequate relief (Crawford v. Thurmond, 3 Leigh 85, 88; Snavely v. Harkrader, 30 Grat. 487, 492-494, last case decided before the amendment allowing stay of proceedings on executions); but not in cases where courts of law can give full and adequate relief (Morrison v. Speer, 10 Grat. 228, 230; Beckley v. Palmer, 11 Grat. 625, 634; Coleman's Adm'x v. Anderson, 29 Grat. 425, 427-430; Shumaker v. Nichols, 6 Grat. 592).

A tender of money in payment of a judgment will not authorize the quashing of an execution issued thereon, unless the tender is followed by the payment of the money into court, and a motion to enter satisfaction on the record. Shumaker v. Nichols, 6 Grat. 592.

A second execution will be quashed if issued after a former one has been satisfied or levied on property sufficient to satisfy it. Sutton v. Marye, 81 Va. 329, 334.

Irregular executions.—Every court has the power to watch over the execution of its process, and where it has been irregularly or fraudulently executed to quash it. Hendricks v. Dundass, 2 Wash. 50, 53; Burwell v. Anderson, Id. 194, 195; Moss v. Moss' Adm'r, 4 Hen. & M. 293; Hamilton v. Shrewsbury, 4 Rand. 427, 431, 15 Am. Dec. 779; Enders' Ex'rs v. Burch, 15 Grat. 64, 72; Snavely v. Harkrader, 30 Grat. 487.

Matters of fact.—If, on a motion to quash an execution, the relief of the party depends on matters of fact, the court has a discretion to direct a jury to try the facts. Smock v. Dade, 5 Rand. 639, 16 Am. Dec. 780.

Limitation.—There is no limitation on the time within which a motion must be made to quash a fieri facias; and such motion may be made though the fieri facias be not alive. Lowenbach v. Kelly, 111 Va. 439, 69 S. E. 352.

Generally.—This section overrules Com. v. Hewitt, 2 Hen. & M. 181, 185, 186; Hendricks v. Dundass, 2 Wash. 50, on the point that no notice to quash is necessary.

Digitized by Google

This section embraces executions on decrees as well as judgments. Shackelford v. Apperson, 6 Grat. 451, 453. See, also, section 6459.

See Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 794, 845; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.; 18 Va. L. Reg. 352; Burks' Address, 2 Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 1400.

Discussed, 13 Va. Law J. 172.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 140, section 17.

Sec. 6500. Issue of executions on judgments and decrees during term of court at which they are rendered.—Any court after the fifteenth day of its term, may make a general order allowing executions to issue on judgments and decrees after ten days from their date, although the term at which they are rendered be not ended. For special cause, it may, in any particular case, except the same from such order, or allow an execution thereon at an earlier period. (Code 1887, § 3600.)

"We are of the opinion that section 3600 of the Code (of 1887) was designed by the Legislature for the purpose, and has the effect, of conferring upon courts authority to direct executions to issue upon judgments under the condition therein set forth, but that it was not intended and does not impart to such judgments the quality of finality so as to deprive the court during the term of the power to correct, or, if need be, annul, an erroneous judgment." Keith, P., in Baker v. Swineford, 97 Va. 112, 117, 33 S. E. 542. This case overrules the dictum in Enders' Ex'rs v. Burch, 15 Grat. 64, 71, the correctness of which had been doubted in James River Co. v. Lee, 16 Grat. 424, 433.

While this section confers on courts authority to direct executions to issue on judgments under the conditions therein set forth during the term but such judgments do not thereby become final so as to deprive the court during the term of the power to correct or if need be, annul them if erroneous. Allison's Ex'r v. Wood, 104 Va. 765, 52 S. E. 559.

See 5 Va. Law Reg. 181; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.

See section 6134, as to when office judgments become final.

Sec. 6501. Lien of fieri facias on estate of debtor not capable of being levied on.—Every writ of fieri facias shall, in addition to the lien it has under section sixty-four hundred and eighty-five, on what is capable of being levied on under that section, be a lien, from the time it is delivered to a sheriff or other officer to be executed, on all the personal estate of or to which the judgment debtor is, or may afterwards and on or before the return day of the said writ become, possessed or entitled, and which, from its nature, is not capable of being levied on under the said section, except such as is exempt under the provisions of chapter two hundred and seventy-four, and except that as against an assignee of any such estate for valuable consideration, or a person making a payment to the judgment debtor, the lien by virtue of this section shall not affect him, unless he had notice thereof at the time of the assignment, or payment, as the case may be. (Code 1887, § 3601.)

Revisors' Note.—Under section 3587 of the Code of 1887 (section 6485 of this Code), an execution may be levied on tangible personal property ON OR BEFORE the return day and the lien is not lost unless the levy is not made within that time, but under section 3601 of the former Code, from which the above section is taken, relating to intangible personal property, the lien did not attach to property acquired ON THE RETURN DAY, but was limited to property acquired BEFORE THE RETURN DAY. It was thought the lien as to the two classes of property should be made uniform, and with this object in view, the words "on or" appearing in line six of the text of the above section have been inserted.

Digitized by Google

In Davis v. Bonney, 89 Va. 755, 17 S. E. 229, it was held that tangible personal property in the hands of a receiver could not be levied on, but that a writ of fieri facias created a lien thereon under section 3601 of the former Code, from which this section is taken. The opinion of the court in that case, while unanimous, yet seems not to have met with the approval of the profession, the general view being that the section referred to INTANGIBLE property and not to INACCESSIBLE property. In order to make statutory this general view, which the revisors approved, the words "from its nature" appearing in line seven of the text have been inserted.

Substitute for imprisonment.—This section gives a remedy in lieu of imprisonment for debt, which was abolished at the time this section was originally enacted. (Code 1849.) Charron v. Boswell, 18 Grat. 216, 230.

On what a lien.—This section gives a lien on debts due to the judgment debtor (Puryear v. Taylor, 12 Grat. 401; Charron v. Boswell, 18 Grat. 216, 227); property to which a beneficiary is entitled under a will (Baer v. Ingram, 99 Va. 200, 203, 204, 37 S. E. 905); the amount due a debtor for work done between the date the writ was placed in the hands of the officer and the return day, although such amount be only a per cent. of the contract price of the work, and is not payable until the work is completed (Hicks v. Roanoke Brick Co., 94 Va. 741, 749, 750, 27 S. E. 596); but not a policy of life insurance, for here the debt rests upon a contingency that may or may not happen, and over which the court has no control; and it is immaterial that the policy had a surrender value for which a paid-up policy would be given, for the debtor could not be compelled to change his contract (Boisseau v. Bass' Am'r, 100 Va. 207, 209, 214, 215, 40 S. E. 647, 57 L. R. A. 380, 93 Am. St. Rep. 956).

Continuance of lien.—The lien, though not enforced in the debtor's lifetime, continues after his death. Trevillian's Ex'rs v. Guerrant's Ex'rs, 31 Grat. 525, 527, 531, 532.

The lien continues after the return day of the execution (Puryear v. Taylor, 12 Grat. 401, 408; Evans v. Greenhow, 15 Grat. 153; Charron v. Boswell, 18 Grat. 216; Trevillian's Ex'rs v. Guerrant's Ex'rs, 31 Grat. 525, 527; Hicks v. Roanoke Brick Co., 94 Va. 741, 27 S. E. 596); and "it has priority over a subsequent execution lien under the same law, even though there has been a proceeding by a suggestion under the junior sooner than under the senior execution" (Charron v. Boswell, 18 Grat. 216, 229).

A lien cannot be enforced by suit against the personal representative brought eleven years after his qualification; sections 5810 and 6477, barring the right of scire facias or action for a longer period than five years from qualification of the representative. Spencer v. Flanary, 104 Va. 395, 51 S. E. 849.

Assignees for value.—The trustee and beneficiaries in a deed to secure creditors are assignees for value. Evans v. Greenhow, 15 Grat. 153, 156, 157, and cases cited.

To an assignee for value it is immaterial whether the debtor was insolvent, or intended to commit a fraud in making an assignment to him, if he had no notice of such intent, or of the existence of a fi. fa. against such debtor. Shields v. Mahoney, 94 Va. 487, 491, 492, 27 S. E. 23.

Generally.—This section is followed in Frayser's Adm'r v. Railroad, 81 Va. 388, 392.

See 2 Va. Law Reg. 704; 3 Va. Law Reg. 23, 379; Barton, L. Pr. (2d Ed.) 843; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1027; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 428, 638, 656, 660, 699; Gregory's Forms Nos. 367, 441; note to Trevillian's Ex'rs v. Guerrant's Ex'rs, 3 Va. Law J. 90; 10 Va. Law J. 1.

Digitized by Google

See section 2433 for lien of judgment and execution against a treasurer and his sureties.

Cited in Mack Mfg. Co. v. Smoot, 102 Va. 724, 47 S. E. 859.

Discussed, 1 Va. Law J. 705; 2 Va. Law J. 1.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 141, section 2.

Sec. 6502. When lien acquired under the preceding section ceases.—The lien acquired under the preceding section shall cease whenever the right of the judgment creditor to enforce the judgment by execution, scire facias, or action ceases, or is suspended by a forthcoming bond being given and forfeited, by supersedeas, or by other legal process. (Code 1887, § 3602.)

An order quashing an execution on a judgment, because issued in violation of a contract between plaintiff and defendant not to issue execution for a given time, is not such "legal process" as will suspend the right to enforce a prior execution issued on the same judgment, though issued in contravention of the same agreement. Baer v. Ingram, 99 Va. 200, 206, 37 S. E. 905.

This section is applied, but not construed in the following cases: Puryear v. Taylor, 12 Grat. 401; Evans v. Greenhow, 15 Grat. 153; Charron v. Boswell, 18 Grat. 216; Trevillian's Ex'rs v. Guerrant's Ex'rs, 31 Grat. 525; Frayser's Adm'r v. Ry. Co., 81 Va. 388; Hicks v. Roanoke Brick Co., 94 Va. 741, 27 S. E. 596; Boisseau v. Bass' Adm'r, 100 Va. 207, 40 S. E. 647, 57 L. R. A. 380, 93 Am. St. Rep. 956.

Cited but not construed in Spencer v. Flanary, 104 Va. 395, 51 S. E. 849.

See Burks' Pleading and Practice, p. 659.

Discussed, 1 Va. Law J. 705; 2 Va. Law J. 1.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 141, section 3.

Sec. 6503. Proceedings by interrogatories to ascertain estate of debtor on which fieri facias is a lien, and any real estate to which he is entitled.—To ascertain the estate on which a writ of fieri facias is a lien, and to ascertain any real estate, in or out of this State, to which a debtor named in such fieri facias is entitled, upon the application of the execution creditor, the clerk of the court from which the execution issued, or if it was issued by a justice other than a civil justice or a civil and police justice, the clerk of the circuit court of the county or the corporation court of the city in which such justice resides, shall issue a summons against the execution debtor, or any officer of a corporation debtor having an office in this State, or any debtor or bailee of his or its, requiring him or them to appear before such commissioner in chancery to be named in the summons, at a time and place to be designated in said summons, to answer such interrogatories as shall be propounded to him or them by counsel of the execution creditor or the commissioner, but such summons shall not be served out of the county or city in which such commissioner resides. The debtor or other person served with such summons shall appear at the time and place mentioned and make answer to such interrogatories. The commissioner shall enter in his proceedings and report to the court mentioned in section sixty-five hundred and five, any and all objections taken by such debtor against answering such intetrrogatories, or any or either of them, and if the court afterwards sustain any one or more of said objections, the answers given to such interrogatories as to which objections are sustained, shall be held for naught in that or any other cause. (Code 1887, § 3603; 1897-8, p. 503; 1916, p. 705.)

Digitized by Google

Revisors' Note.—Before the amendment of 1916 (Acts 1916, p. 705) the summons could only be issued by the judge of the court from which the execution issued, in term time or vacation. This being particularly inconvenient in country districts, the amendment of 1916 extended this authority to a commissioner in chancery. The revised section above simply provides that the summons may be issued by the clerk of the court from which the execution issued, or if it was issued by a justice, by the clerk of the circuit court of the county or corporation court of the city in which the justice resides. As to that part of the act relating to a person in default, see section 6506 and revisors' note. As to proceedings upon interrogatories before civil justices, see section 3116.

See note of Spencer v. Flanary, under section 6501.

This section is applied in Shields v. Mahoney, 94 Va. 487, 488, 27 S. E. 23.

See 2 Va. Law Reg. 704; 6 Va. Law Reg. 804; 7 Va. Law Reg. 529; 8 Va. Law Reg. 52; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 1044, 1046; Gregory's Forms No. 439.

For note on "Proceeding by Interrogatories against Execution Debtor," see 12 Va. Law Reg. 332.

As to when and how interrogatories to adverse party or claimant are filed, how answers thereto enforced, and how used as evidence, see section 6236.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 141, section 4.

Sec. 6504. Real estate out of this State of debtor to be conveyed and his personal estate delivered to officer.—Any real estate out of this State to which it may appear by such answers that the debtor is entitled shall be forthwith conveyed by him to the officer to whom was delivered such fieri facias, and any money, bank-notes, securities, evidences of debt, or other personal estate, tangible or intangible, which it may appear by such answers are in possession of or under the control of the debtor or his debtor or bailee, shall be delivered by him or them, as far as practicable, to the said officer, or to some other, or in such manner as may be ordered by the said commissioner. (Code 1887, § 3604; 1897-8, p. 503.)

Revisors' Note.—This section is taken from the first part of section 3604 of the Code of 1887, as amended.

See 2 Va. Law Reg. 704; 7 Va. Law Reg. 529; 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 992, 1046, 1049; note on Executions, Paine v. Tutwiler, 27 Grat. 440, Va. Rep. Anno.; Burks' Pleading and Practice, pp. 662, 667.

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 141, section 5.

Sec. 6505. Interrogatories, answers, etc., to be returned to court.—The commissioner shall return the interrogatories and answers

Digitized by Google

filed with him, and a report of the proceedings under the two preceding sections, to the court in which the judgment is, or if the judgment be of a justice, to the circuit court of the county or corporation court of the city in which such justice resides. (Code 1887, § 3605; 1902-3-4, p. 836.)

See 4 Min. (3d Ed.) 992.

Sec. 6506. How debtor may be arrested and held to answer.—If any person summoned under section sixty-five hundred and three shall fail to appear and answer, or shall make any answers which are deemed by the commissioner to be evasive, or if having answered shall fail to make such conveyance and delivery as is required by section sixty-five hundred and four, the said commissioner shall issue a writ directed to the sheriff of any county or the sergeant of any city, requiring such sheriff or sergeant to take the person so in default and keep him safely until he shall make proper answers, or such conveyance or delivery, as the case may be, and upon making such answers, or such conveyance and delivery, he shall be discharged by said commissioner. He may also be discharged by the court from whose clerk's office the fieri facias issued, or by the judge thereof in vacation, in any case if the court or judge shall be of opinion that he was improperly committed, or is improperly or unlawfully detained in custody. (Code 1887, § 3606.)

Revisors' Note.—This section takes the place of a part of Acts 1916, p. 705, last amending section 3603 of the Code of 1887, and also the latter part of section 3604 of that Code as amended by Acts 1897-8, p. 503, and section 3606 of that Code. It will be observed that no rule is now necessary in any case before the commissioner is required to issue an attachment directing the officer to take the person in default in custody. The writ issued at once. Formerly, a rule was necessary where there was a failure to answer the interrogatories, but not where the interrogatories were answered, and there was a failure to convey the property.

See 7 Va. Law Reg. 529.

Sec. 6507. Court, in which judgment is, or, etc., may make order for sale and application of debtor's estate.—The court to which the commissioner returns his report, as required by section sixty-five hundred and five, may make any order it may deem right, as to the sale and proper application of the estate conveyed and delivered under sections sixty-five hundred and three and sixty-five hundred and four. (Code 1887, § 3607.)

Sec. 6508. Officer's duty as to sale, collection, and disposition of debtor's estate; when to return evidences of debt to clerk's office.—Real estate, conveyed to an officer under this chapter, shall, unless the court or judge in vacation otherwise direct, be sold as mules, work-oxen, and horses levied on are required to be sold under sections twenty-eight hundred and thirty-two and twenty-eight hundred and thirty-three, and be conveyed to the purchaser by the officer or his deputy. An officer to whom there is delivery under this chapter, when the delivery is of money, bank notes, or any goods or chattels, shall dispose of the same as if levied on by him under a fieri facias; and when the delivery is of evidences of debts (other than such bank notes), may receive payment of such debts within sixty days after such delivery. Any evidence of debt or other security, remaining in his hands at the end of said sixty days, shall be returned by him to the clerk's office of such court, and collection thereof may be enforced as prescribed by section sixty-five hundred and fourteen. For a failure to make such return, he may be proceeded against as if an express order of said court for such return had been disobeyed. (Code 1887, § 3608.)

Digitized by Google

For W. Va. decisions on similar statute, see Justis' Annotations, chapter 141, section 9.

